THE Directors of the Elora Mechanics' Institute are arranging for the delivery of a series of lectures.

ST. ANDREW'S SOCIETY - Remember the annual meeting of the St. Andrew's Society this evening in the Town Hall.

On Monday last, a boy named William Dalton, jumped from the drill shed window in Elora, breaking his leg above the ankle, and putting the ankle out of joint.

Mr. Heywood has done a very sensible thing in taking down his verandah. He has now much more light in his store, and the public have a much better opportunity of seeing what is inside of it.

The Harrison Tribune says that on Tuesday Dr. Cowan's little girl, about twenty-months old, fell from the second story window on the platform board, a distance of about fourteen feet, and, strange to say, appears not to be severely hurt.

Mr. Wontley, on Friday night, inaugurated the completion of his fine building recently erected in Drayton by a social in aid of the Wesleyan Parsonage there. It was largely attended and very successful, and the proceeds amounted to $50.

THE END OF THE WORLD - Mr. John Anderson has sent us a copy of this book, by the author of the "Hosier School-master." It is very interesting and amusing, and will well repay a perusal. In many respects it is as cleverly written as the Hosier Schoolmaster. For sale at Anderson's.

TRACK-LAYING and ballasting on the extension of the T. G. & B. R. R., from Orangeville to Owen Sound is being vigorously prosecuted. At the Owen Sound and Messrs. McKenzie & Co. the contractors are active. The iron horses will be at Chatham early next week, and the contractors anticipate that Owen Sound and Toronto will be connected by rail within a month, if the weather permits of the present rate of progress being continued.

PRESENTATION - The Fergus Express says that on Monday evening last, the Bible class and Sunday School of Chalmers' Church, Elora, met to present the Rev. Jas Middlemiss with a water-proof overcoat and a very handsome set of furs (value $30). Mr Middlemiss replied to the address which accompanied the present, and referred to the fact that the presentation was made on the 17th anniversary of the day on which he had first preached in Elora, when the congregation worshipped in the Temperance Hall, and to various interesting circumstances connected with the Bible Class and the Sabbath School.

ARTHUR FOR A COUNTY SEAT - A meeting of the inhabitants of Arthur and vicinity was held in that village on Saturday night last, for the purpose of taking steps to get Arthur appointed as a County seat when the re-arrangement of Counties take place. The Rev. Mr. Anthony Baschen, in the chair. A resolution was carried to insert a notice in the official Gazette to the effect that application will be made at the next session of the Ontario Legislature to have the following townships set apart as a County: Arthur, Luther, West Garafraxa, Peel, Maryboro', Minto, Mont Forest and Arthur village, with Arthur as the county seat.

JURORS - We are glad to see that more consideration is being paid to the comfort and convenience of jurors engaged in sitting on cases that occupy so lengthened a period as does the murder case at present before the Court. Yesterday (Thursday) His Lordship directed refreshments should be provided for the Jury, and adjourned the Court for half an hour for this purpose - a break in the proceedings of the day which must have proved agreeable to Judge, Jury, counsel, witnesses, and all others requiring to be in attendance at the Court, the atmosphere of which on these crowded occasions is far from being pleasant or agreeable. Last night when the case for the prosecution ended, the Jury were handed over to the tender mercies of the goiter, to find a night's quarters, and when they re-entered the witness box this morning they seemed none the worse for their prison fare.

A fellow who slandered the reputation of a respectable woman who refused the offer of his hand was on Thursday punished at Toronto by a verdict against him of $500 and costs. Served the soundest right!

The Fall Wheat around Galt at the present time looks exceedingly well.

SOME parties who got up a chorival in Ayer last week for a newly married couple were fined the next day, in sums from $4 50 to $12.

Wellington Fall Assizes.

THE ARTHUR MURDER CASE.

Cross-examined - The man who attacked me and the man who passed the tender, were not the same person; Geo. Ludlow was the man; he had a black beard; that man who attacked me was taller than he; the night was pretty dark; cannot tell where the train was when the shots were fired; the train was stopped about a quarter of a mile past the cattle guard; I saw no person on the car; the only one I saw on the left side of the car that night; my impression is that prisoner is the man, although I will not swear positively to him.

EDWARD WHITE, sworn - Was baggage-man on the train on the night in question, and he corroborated the evidence of the previous witnesses about the origin and nature of the alteration alleged to. After it was over the man went up towards the switch near the Luther Road; after the train was made up and started a horse jumped on to the flat car from the tavern side of the train going to Forest; the man was dressed in dark clothes, had a long coat on and wore a rosette; did not observe the man's face; he collared Campbell, the brakeman, and was backing him up towards the corner of the car, where there was a stake, and after the conductor spoke to him the man jumped off and several sticks of wood were thrown on the car; shortly after I heard two pistol shots fired; the Company's grounds; the distance from the cattle guard would be about 2 short bars.

Cross-examined - Could not recognize either the man with whom we had the altercation or the man who jumped on the flat car; I saw persons standing beside the cars when the sticks were thrown on the car; am quite sure the train was inside the Company's grounds when the pistol shot was fired, because we had not passed the cattle guard; recollect saying anything when I threw the sticks off; think Campbell must be mistaken on this point.

JOHN S. LESLIE, sworn - Was post-office clerk on the train on the night in question; the engine and tender had unaccountably stopped at the cattle guard; I heard George Ludlow using abusive language to the men so employed; afterwards I saw him following the brakeman to the switch, and sometime after the engine had been coupled to the train I saw the conductor running past, and I followed him; a man, I think, called Campbell, the brakeman; I then looked out of the other door of the post-office car, and saw a man in a stooping position, as though he had just jumped off a car, and immediately thereafter he raised his arm and a pistol was fired, the man exclaiming at the same time, "Take that you b---"; the man was dressed in a long black coat and black hat; the train had just started; am quite sure the train was on the Company's grounds when the shot was fired.

Cross-examined - I recognized George Ludlow by the lamp-light of the engine at the time of the shot; saw two shots fired; I never heard that the bullet hit one of the cars; I saw some sticks thrown on the car, and saw one thrown back again; have never been able to identify the person who fired the pistol.

JOHN LUTHER, sworn - Was in the post-office car on the night in question, and corroborated the position of the car, and the alteration previously spoken of, was standing at the left hand door of the car when the train started; just as the engine gave the first jerk on starting, I observed a man jump on the platform car, and also get off the same; I did not notice him fire a pistol aimed at the platform car, saying, "Take that you b---"; and then he fired another shot, and added, "and that"; the train was inside the Company's grounds at the time; the man was dressed in black clothes, and wore a black rowly hat; would be about 5 feet 6 inches in height; when the second shot was fired the post-office car was past the man; heard no other pistol reports.

Cross-examined - Was lying down in the car at the time of the row, which occurred on the right side; I looked out on the left hand side and saw no person but the one; he was ahead of me; he was in the act of getting on the platform car at the time; can't tell how long time elapsed from the time to the time he jumped off; saw no other man; the man who fired the pistol faced towards the platform car; Leslie was standing at my right hand when the first shot was fired; the second shot was fired in the same direction; I saw no sticks thrown on to the platform car; the train was very slow of motion that evening, as the wheels of the engine were hitting the grass, which at that time was growing on the track; know from my experience as an engine-driver that the train could not have reached the cattle guard.

Re-examined - Observed next morning the mark of a pistol bullet about the middle of the post office car as if it had been shot in a slanting direction; observed no other bullet marks.

JAMES CLAYTON, switchman at Arthur, sworn, and deposed to the position of the train on the night in question as testified by the previous witnesses, and also as to the altercation between George Ludlow and the employees of the Company; Ludlow was both loud and angry in his tone; the train would be about 100 feet from the switch gate when the train was coupled; saw George Ludlow at the switch on the left hand side, and when some back, he was going off towards the south; I did not want him to go that way; did not observe whether the wheels of the engine were slipping when they passed me; did not observe any person standing on the flat car, observed no person standing between me and the cattle guard; heard two shots fired before the rear of the passenger car passed the switch gate; I knew no danger could come to me because the car was between me and where the shots came from; saw a bullet mark on the post-office car as if fired from a person on the left hand side of the car and as if in a slanting direction; heard no other shots but the two fired; thinks he would have heard other shots fired if they had been so; the shots were fired while the train was in the Company's grounds; the sound of the shots receded quite near to him.

Cross-examined - The length of a "coach" would be about 30 feet; told those on the platform of the "coach" to go in, did so because I had heard sticks thrown at the car; am not sure whether the platform car had passed me when the sticks were thrown; saw no pistols about that night; am quite sure the "coach" had not passed me when the first shot was fired; the other cars had passed; the front part of the "coach" had passed when the first shot was fired; I saw no person on the track after the train had passed.

GEORGE NEWMAN, sworn - Was a fireman on the B. & R. Railway on the night in question; saw a man get on the locomotive just as it started, on the left hand side between the engine and tender, and looked at me and the engine driver and said something as he got off; he was dressed in dark clothes, dark round hat and dark pants, wore a round badge on his coat; afterwards saw him get on the flat car and seize Campbell, and afterwards saw him get down and immediately thereafter saw a shot come from the direction of the man; he (witness) then stepped back a little and saw another shot fired; then saw the other passenger car; when the first shot was fired the engine had crossed the first cattle guard, but the passenger car had not; just as we were going over the second cattle guard the bell rope, which I was in the act of fastening to the bell, was snatched out of my hands, and shortly after the train was stopped, and we went back and found Hunter lying dead.

Cross-examined - Saw sticks thrown after the shot got off, and it was after that the shots were fired; am positive there were other persons standing round where the man got to; I advised him not to go, but he persuaded me to go, and we went, and just as we got there a shot was fired, when deceased exclaimed, "what the devil are you shooting at?" immediately thereafter a second shot was fired, when Hunter exclaimed, "oh, Ed, I'm shot"; I then saw the man who shot, I pulled the rope, but found, after pulling a great deal of slack rope, that it was unattached; I then gave the alarm to the engine driver and others, and the train was stopped; I saw distinctly the second shot fired, and the flash illuminated the ground sufficiently to allow me to see a man standing near a stump, which was situated inside the company's grounds; I pointed out the spot where the stump (now removed) stood to Mr. Molloy, the surveyor; I am quite sure we had not passed the second cattle guard when I found the rope would not work; the person who fired the shot appeared to be a middling sized man of dark visage and dressed in dark clothes; deceased said he did not know the man who shot him; saw Clayton at the switch as the train passed and recollect him telling us to go in out of harm's way; heard no other shots but the two.

Cross-examined - Heard Hunter say that there was some fuss between some persons and the brakeman or conductor; have been asked by Mr. Peterson and others as to the position of the train guard at the time of the shot; have said it was twenty yards eastwards of the cattle guard; Hunter was on the lowest step of the platform looking eastward, and I was standing out above him with my hand on his shoulder; the first shot would come from the east, about ten feet from the track; don't remember seeing anybody when I jumped off to tell the engine driver to stop the engine; don't recollect if I went through the post-office car to tell the engine driver; told Leslie that Hunter, Harry, an express boy, was on the platform all the time Hunter and I were there.

Re-examined - Hunter was an Orangeman, and so am I; I showed the spot to other persons the next morning, and I fixed the spot particularly because I was informed of its importance; can't recollect the names of the parties to whom I told the spot, they were all strangers to me.

BRANDON, sworn - Saw prisoner on the platform car struggling with Campbell the brakeman; soon after prisoner immediately thereafter heard the report of a pistol, and in rapid succession a second shot was fired; the prisoner fired that shot; I observed that the passenger car passed after the second shot was fired; after the train passed I came up to the cattle guard and found Campbell and Farmer putting orange bags on out of the cattle guard; then went down to the hotel and got into the wagon that was waiting there; as we were crossing the road going to Balston's, I remarked to Isaac Hewitt that as the train had come to a standstill there must be something having resulted; the shot that had been fired; he replied "It can't be," as the report of the shots were like as if it was fired with blank cartridge; the prisoner remarked to me about the shots that if he didn't shoot him it was not his fault; (the prisoner here remarked to witness, "You are swearing lies, Brandon?") instead of going to Balston's as intended, we went to Lundy's Hotel; whilst there I saw prisoner and George Church, blacksmith, go out of the room, and after the lapse of about 20 minutes they returned, Church holding up a pistol by the butt end; prisoner told me he owned a pistol and have often seen one in possession of another man; the shot, Ogden was not standing in front of him; if he was there at all he must have been standing to the east of me.

Cross-examined - I got out the wagon to see what was the fuss, from Caswell's Hotel where the wagon was; I went up the Lundy line and crossed the cattle guard to get into the Company's grounds; at this time the engine was about the switch; I was standing some 15 feet from the cattle guard; the train was in motion when Ludlow came up to me; I did not notice any sticks thrown on to the car; I would be about 10 feet south of the track when the shots were fired; I saw the prisoner Ludlow slipping into the cattle guard, but don't know how he got from east to west of me to manage this; I heard Caswell ask who fired the shots, but I did not answer that it was Moore who did so; Hewitt must have heard that Ludlow said about the shot as Ludlow leant over towards me and Hewitt when he made use of the expression alluded to; did not see Moore with a revolver on the day in question.

ALEXANDER OGDEN, sworn - Live in Arthur; remember the night in question; jumped with the others in the wagon at Caswell's hotel; Hewitt alone remained in the wagon to hold the horses; heard a noise, recognized George Ludlow's voice; prisoner must have heard the engine, too, for he went down to where the engine was, and shortly after, the train got into motion; he then jumped on the platform car and seized a man that was thereon; I saw Ludlow jump off; I stood for a while, and then I walked on after the train; as quick as he jumped off I saw two shots, apparently pistol ones, fired by prisoner; prisoner's back was to me at the time, and he fired in a northerly direction; the passenger car was behind him when Ludlow fired the first shot; I don't remember if the passenger car had passed before the second shot was fired; Ludlow walked on towards the cattle guard into which I saw him slip; prisoner and Church helped him out; heard no other shots; they were fired in the Company's grounds; did not see Brandon at that time; he might have been there; prisoner and I belong to the same Order and Lodge of Orangemen; think Brandon sat next to prisoner who was driving the wagon; I was in the back seat; did not hear anything said in the wagon about who fired the shots with the exception of Moore.

Cross-examined - Nearly all the party were Orangemen; Brandon is my brother-in-law; when prisoner jumped off I would be about 20 or 25 feet from him; he neither spoke to me nor I to him; I saw George Church and James Moore sitting in the front of the train; I saw anyone; before we got to Caswell's I saw Moore fire off one shot; I was about 50 feet from the cattle guard when Ludlow jumped off; prisoner was on the flat car when I saw a stick come flying over the car; I threw no stick nor saw one thrown, I don't remember telling George Church that if one of these prisoners was not convicted all the party would get into a scrape; did not think we could get into any difficulty, as we had nothing to do with the shooting; told Church so when he spoke about his being suspected.

DR. EDEN, of Mount Forest, the Coroner at the inquest, produced two bullets, one found in the body of the deceased and also one that had been cut out of the post office car, and which evidently had been shot from a slanting direction, that is from the south side of the train; know from the evidence that the pistol produced was the property of James Moore and George Church; the latter told me that one of the pistols formerly belonged to prisoner.

CHARLES BRANDON, sworn - Saw prisoner on Dominion day; I was coming from a lodge meeting; saw prisoner on that occasion; the prisoner was talking to a man named Moore (who is also charged with this murder) was brought from jail as a witness and on being duly sworn testified - On a 12th of July last went in prisoner's wagon to the Arthur station along with Hewitt, Brandon, Ogden, Farmer and George Ludlow; the latter got out to meet a consist of the train; shortly after he left I heard some swearing up at the engine; William Ludlow and I got out and we reached the Company's grounds by the cattle guard; he met his brother George who was still sweating at the railway men, the prisoner then went down the left hand side of the train; I followed; shortly after we went down the train got in motion and prisoner got on the flat car and seized a man that was on it, asking him if "it was he that said or done it," he was then ordered off and went to the left hand side and jumped off; I then saw him fire two shots in quick succession and exclaimed, "you b--- take that, and that"; he was standing close to the train at the time; he then walked on beside passenger car and walked on to the cattle guard, but I did not see him fall in though informed he had; both he and I then walked on to the Luther line; afterwards I met Church, and we remarked on the stoppage of the train; he said that if they came back again he would shoot every man on it; saw Brandon that night on the track; when we re-entered the wagon heard Brandon ask prisoner if he thought he had killed a man on the train, and think prisoner replied that if he didn't, he intended to do so or something to that effect; state on my oath that I never fired a shot that night after we left Caswell's; fired 6 shots that day, the revolver having 9 chambers, and when the pistol was delivered up to me to the Coroner there were 3 chambers discharged; we afterwards heard on leaving Lundy's Hotel that a man had been killed, and Hewitt advised me to hide it away and I did so; afterwards I mentioned it publicly that I had left my pistol at the back of a stump, and Farmer went with me and got it; prisoner wore that night a long black coat, black hat and orange badge; Ludlow had his orange badge on when he was on the flat car; I told Charles Brandon next day what I saw, also Wm. Clark and James Fraser.

Cross-examined - The first pistol for Ballantyne that I got at Hollinger's I returned because it would not work; I then went back and got another from the boy at Hollinger's, this was on the 11th of July; never had any revolver of my own; it was not then loaded; got the ammunition at Ballantyne's; he is my brother-in-law; George Ludlow had left the wagon long enough to go to the station and back; I think Brandon and Ogden went from the wagon together, but am not sure; prisoner might be about six or eight yards ahead of me; it was pretty dark; when I got to the cattle guard prisoner was asking his brother what was the matter; his brother was on the other side of the engine; afterwards prisoner moved to the front of the train and then he ran down Caswell's side of the train, and I walked on, fearing he might get into a row; I met him returning as if from the other end of the train, and then I saw him jump on the flat car and jump off; I saw no other person there but prisoner; the platform car was passing along when the shots were fired; prisoner got out on the Luther line first; I thought I saw Thomas Sirr walking along to the cattle guard and also Brandon; recollect telling persons that George Ludlow kicked up the row, and William Ludlow did the shooting; swear I never told Edon nor Quirt that George Ludlow was the man who shot; Charles Brandon told me that Hazzard said I was the man who fired the shot and I wondered that he could say so; I did not know at that time what was the nature of the evidence given at the inquest; did not see Farmer in the station ground that night; Farmer and I said it was a pity that the man was shot; I was not to get a pardon if I gave testimony against prisoner; I was told to tell only "God's truth"; am not giving testimony merely to shield myself from the crime of this murder with which I am charged; I am ready for my trial, for I am entirely innocent of the matter, (Mr. Cameron; that is what the prisoner will say also;) Alex. Ogden said to me in the wagon that he was afraid William Ludlow shot that man, and I replied, "I am afraid he did"; Ogden spoke to me first about it, not I to him; there was a light on the front of the car next the platform car, which receded on the face of the prisoner.

This concluded the examination of the witnesses for the prosecution. The Court rose at a late hour.

Friday, Nov. 8. The trial of William Ludlow was resumed this morning at 9 o'clock by Mr. M. C. Cameron calling for the defence.

WILLIAM EDEN, sworn - Live in Arthur; am brother-in-law of prisoner; know James Moore, who told me several times on Saturday evening, the 13th July, that it was George Ludlow who fired the fatal shot; at that time Moore did not know that he and prisoner were accused of the murder.

At this stage the prisoner James Moore was brought into Court, in order to be present. Mr. Cameron raised an objection to the prisoner being present, which was not allowed.

Cross-examined by Mr. Wood - Moore called me into Fair's shop as he wished to speak to me privately; whilst there Fair came in; Fair must have heard at least part of what Moore said; Fair said at one time Moore said it was George Ludlow who fired the shot; afterwards, on the Tuesday after the inquest, Moore said he would not like to say whether it was George or William Ludlow; have felt very anxious about the case and have helped to get up the evidence; Fair is also an Orangeman.

GEORGE QUINN, sworn - Moore told me more than once that it was George Ludlow who fired the shot.

Cross-examined - (At this stage it was announced to the Court by Constable Nichols, that the last witness was communicating to the other witness for the defence through the room window from the outside); was at the inquest Saturday, but if I was to stand in the witness box all day could not tell whether I was at the inquest on Monday or not; told no one during Saturday, Sunday, Monday or Tuesday what Moore said; but after the inquest I told Eden, and Eden replied that Moore told him the same story; Eden and I are related by marriage.

CHARLES FROUDE, sworn - Live in Arthur; Moore ought to know me by face if not by name; heard Moore after the inquest say that it was George Ludlow who shot the man; Farmer was along with us at the time; and he said further that they could not hang him (Moore) for it; I am teamster for Farmer.

Cross-examined - Farmer asked me several times about the conversation, also Eden; I have been asked since I came to town about it by Mr. Munroe and Mr. Eden; about two or three weeks ago Farmer told me that Moore said on Sunday morning it was William Ludlow who fired the shot.

WILLIAM CHURCH, sworn - Am an Orangeman; live in Arthur; know Moore well; he told me on the Sunday morning after the murder that it was George Ludlow who shot the man; a man named Lundy was in the wagon at the time; never asked or never heard Lundy say that he heard the conversation alluded to; Lundy is not present as a witness; I never told any person about the conversation; I may have done so but don't remember.

JOHN CHURCH, sworn - Saw Moore on the Monday after the inquest in his own yard, and I asked him if he was going to swear against George Ludlow, and I told him that if he did so that he would do harm, as I would bring forward a witness to prove that he (Moore) fired a shot, when Moore replied that there were plenty of persons tattling about what they knew nothing.

Cross-examined - Never told coroner or other officials that I could bring a witness to prove that Moore fired a shot; it was altogether likely that I wished to screen Moore, and prevent any charge being made against any one.

GEORGE MOORE, sworn - Am a constable and was present at the inquest; recollect Brandon asking me to have Hazzard examined first after the railway officials because he stood by the side of Moore when he shot Hunter, because not one of us would like to be the first to discover who fired the shot.

Cross-examined - Am not an Orangeman; Brandon told me Hazzard told him about Moore firing the shot.

ISAAC HEWITT, sworn - recollect the night in question and the noise; don't recollect prisoner saying in the wagon after the others' return from the train, that it was not his fault if the man was not shot; first I heard of this was from Brandon next day; recollect seeing two shots fired that night, and am quite positive that the second shot was fired from the Luther road; don't recollect any person asking at Caswell's Hotel who fired the shots.

Serious Accident Near Rockwood.

We regret to learn that a serious accident befell Mr. John Moore, of Bramos, last (Thursday) night as he was going home. He had been in Guelph during the day, and took the afternoon express for Rockwood. Immediately on the arrival of the train he started to walk home on the track. While on the way, and when near the bridge at Ostrander's farm, through which Dr. Parker fell four years ago, and received such injuries as caused his death, Mr. Moore met Mr. Thomas Waters, and conversed with him a short time. He then proceeded on his way, and had not long left Mr. Waters when crossing the bridge he fell through, a distance of about 12 or 14 feet. Mr. Waters observed him fall, ran up to the place, and did all he could to assist him. He procured a buggy and had Mr. Moore conveyed home. Dr. McOullough, of Rockwood, was sent for, who found that he had received serious injuries about the hip joint, but owing to the shock the unfortunate man had received, he was unable to make a thorough examination. To-day (Friday) Dr. Clarke has been sent for, who along with Dr. McOullough will make a more minute examination. We fear, from what we heard, that his injuries are of a very serious character.

The people of Strathroy are trying their hand at County making.

Guelph Evening Mercury

FRIDAY EVENING, NOV. 8, 1872

The Quebec Legislature.

The second session of the second Parliament of Quebec was opened in the ancient city on Thursday with the usual ceremonies. The Lieut.-Governor in his speech refers with pleasure to the labours of the representatives in the previous session, and to the judicious measures passed by them. In referring to the division of legislative powers between the Federal and Local Legislatures, he states that questions of difficulty have arisen as to the limit of jurisdiction in making laws, and for the purpose of having that question settled, his Government have submitted the case to the Privy Council in Britain. He promises two bills of importance--one respecting the election of members to the Legislative Assembly, and the other to facilitate the decision in controverted elections. He spoke with pleasure of the beneficial results of their labours in favour of building railways and constructing colonization roads. He also reminds them that great efforts have been made to induce immigrants to settle in the Province. In speaking of the public accounts, he says that owing to the failure in certain parts of the Province of last year's harvest, the Government aided many sufferers by loans of money. Notwithstanding this, and other heavy expenditures, the balance in the hands of the Provincial Treasurer is larger than it was last year. He asks the House to renew the grant made last year to defray the expenses of the Government in connection with the appeal from the Province to the Privy Council respecting the arbitration and award in the matter of the assets and debts of the old Province of Canada.

Editorial Items.

We learn from a private letter received in Guelph, that Mr. Walter Ross, M. P. for Prince Edward, is suffering with cancer, and many of his friends fear he will not recover. According to latest accounts the health of Sir George E. Cartier continues to improve. Secretary Fish will retire from General Grant's Cabinet at the end of the present Presidential term. The precise day for the meeting of the Ontario Parliament is not yet fixed, but it will be about the 10th December. The London papers regard the election of Grant with a good deal of favor. They compliment the Americans on the orderly manner in which the election passed off. Mr. BLAKE in WEST DURHAM.--On Thursday Mr. Blake addressed a large meeting of his supporters in West Durham, in the Town Hall, Bowmanville. He spoke for nearly two hours, referring both to the policy of the Ontario Government, of which he had recently ceased to be a member, and to the course pursued by the Administration of Sir John A. Macdonald. On the conclusion of his address, short speeches were made by Mr. Ross, M. P., for East Durham, Mr. Farwell, M. P. for South Ontario, and Mr. Randall, of Port Hope. REPORTED CHANGE IN THE DOMINION GOVERNMENT.--The report is current in Ottawa that Mr. Archibald, who shook hands with Riel, will take the place of Mr. Howe. Mr. Howe will go to the Senate as Speaker. Tilley it is said will get Hincks' post, and Gibbs will succeed Tilley. Macdougall, it is said, may yet go to Manitoba, having by discreditable service again ingratiated himself into the affections of Sir John A. Macdonald. THE Rev. Mr. Sommers, of Dundas, was on Thursday, at Hamilton, ordained by the Rev. Dr. Fausch, as a Missionary of the Wesleyan Church to the vast northern territory on the borders of Manitoba. Mr. Jacob Y. Shantz, of Berlin, started for Manitoba on the 5th inst., with the representative of a number of Russian Mennonists who are desirous of settling in the British Dominions, and who have had advantageous offers from the Dominion Government to settle in the country. Sir T. Erskine May is engaged upon a History of Democracy in Europe, from the earliest time to the present, and the work is rapidly advancing towards completion.

Fatal Railway Accident.
Affairs in Spain.
The War in Cuba.
Evacuation of Rheims.

Scranton, Pa., Nov. 7.--The evening construction train on the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western R. R., ran over a large boulder about two miles from here, throwing the caboose car full of laborers down an embankment, a distance of 190 feet into a creek. Seven laborers were instantly killed, several others seriously injured, four of whom will probably die.

Madrid, Nov. 8th.--Espartero has been elected president, and Serrano and Olegario vice-presidents of the society of the Exhibition of 1876.

A decree has been issued granting concession to an English Company, for laying a cable telegraph direct from Bilbao to some point on the coast of England.

The Carlists who entered Spain near Figueras have cut the telegraph line between that town and Gerona, and made prisoner of a Government courier.

Paris, Nov. 8.--It is said that President Thiers' message to the Assembly leaves untouched all constitutional questions.

New York, Nov. 8.--A special correspondent writing from Yegmas, Cuba, says that on the 3rd inst. he visited the battle ground of Viamolnes, where he saw 41 dead insurgents. On the 4th, sixty men under Major O'Brian, pursued two hundred insurgents, but were unable to overtake them.

Paris, Nov. 7.--There is great enthusiasm at Rheims over the evacuation of that city by the German troops. The buildings were decorated yesterday with French colors and flowers, and at night there was a general illumination. The theatre was opened last night for the first time since the occupation of the city, and the Marseillaise was performed by the orchestra, in response to calls from the audience.

Buffalo, Nov. 7.--McCormick and Lynch's canal stable was burned last night. Between forty and fifty horses and mules were burned to death.

AMONG our Merchants in Guelph, there are none perhaps so noted for thorough business enterprise as the celebrated Hardware Merchant, Mr. Jno. Horsman. SEWING MACHINE!

Give "THE OSBORN" a trial before purchasing any other; you are certain to be pleased with its work. Beware of cheap, flashy machines claiming to have received first prizes. If no leading show this season have they been awarded any. Competent judges have declared them unworthy, both as regards principle of construction, material employed, and work performed. Machines given against easy terms of payment. AGENTS and others in want of employment during the winter will do well to give us a call. Chances to make money unprejudiced.

Garatana Correspondence.
After a couple of weeks of silence a small again endeavor through your wish by special columns to bring to the notice of the public some of the passing events of the surrounding vicinity.

The Credit Valley Railway station is again prevalent. The prospect of a strike in Douglas is good, if the road is pushed through.

The epidemic has attacked almost every horse in this vicinity. In a few instances it has proved fatal. Mr. John Mitchell lost a fine horse also. The same ailment has been seen in the West.

The roots are mostly all up, the fine spell of weather which we had has given the farmers a most excellent opportunity to work at them, which I need scarcely add they were not slow to embrace.

Mr. George Byrne has lately rented Wilson Nell's farm for a term of 5 years. Mr. Robert Blyth has purchased Mr. W. Blyth's (merchant) farm for $1800, and rented both his own and it to Mr. John Ellis for 5 years at $250 per annum.

A change in the occupants of three of the houses in the village took place week ago last Friday. Mr. A. Lightbody moving to the house formerly occupied by Mr. McFarlane; Mr. J. McFarlane to Mr. J. Hill's house and Mr. Hill to Mr. Lightbody's former residence. Mr. Hill has bought all Mr. Lightbody's stock at a low rate, and is now prepared to give good bargains to all who give him a call. Give him a trial and save your money.

Mr. T. Blyth will soon have his new store ready, where by his integrity and greatly improved accommodation he will, no doubt, do an extensive business.

The mill is again started, and is running day and night. Those who want good flour and as good returns as the wheat will find it should call with their grists.

The fair here to-day was well attended by cattle, but very poorly by buyers, in consequence of which very few changed hands.

Stragglers have for the past months been plentiful. The male and bachelors are considerably fewer now than two months ago, with good prospects of even yet very materially decreasing.

This morning old Mr. Garrie, after a week's illness, died. His death is much lamented. He was 80 years of age.

Mr. Douglas, Nov. 4.

Mr. Fellows is daily in receipt of letters of enquiry, from various parts, respecting his Syrup of Hypophosphites. One recently received, leads to the belief that respectable mistakes his meaning in reference to its effect in imparting superior energy to the mind. Where the intellect has been impaired by overwork or by kindred causes, the use of the Syrup, together with proper precaution in the use of food, clothing, exercise and rest, will restore full power to the brain and nerves. Superiority in genius consists in great capacity of brain for assimilating material from every quarter, and of developing in proportion, but as far the greater number are not well endowed by nature, consequently lacking this capacity, it would be quite impossible to find cranium space for material necessary to constitute the brilliant genius. Hence, although the Syrup will assist in restoring the mind which is lost, it cannot change a natural born idiot into an intelligent man.

Breakfast—Epps's Cocoa—Graham and Genesee. By thorough knowledge of the natural laws which govern the operations of digestion and nutrition and by a careful application of the fine properties of well-selected cocoa, Mr. Epps has provided our breakfast tables with a delicately flavored beverage which may save us many heavy doctors' bills. —Civil Service Gazette. Made simply with boiling water or milk. Each packet is labeled "James Epps & Co., Homeopathic Chemists, London." Also, makers of Epps's Milky Cocoa (Cocoa and Condensed Milk).

THE REASON WHY.

Dr. Wheeler's Compound Elixir of Phosphates and Cellulose is a Chemical Food and Nutritive Tonic, because its phosphates constitute more than half the material of the human body, and are absolutely essential to the growth of Bone, Muscle and Nerve, which cannot attain full development without them. They promote a good appetite, perfect digestion, create pure, healthy, circulating blood, and supply the waste constantly going on in the system as the result of mental and physical exertion. Being combined with Cellulose, the Phosphates form the only specific for Catarrh and Fever, and that condition of Nerves, Excitation and General Debility arising from low vitality and exhaustive diseases. It forms an elegant and agreeable, invigorating Tonic, purely physiological in its action, that may be taken safely under all circumstances, and all diseased constitutions in the same manner as our daily food.
Sold by all Druggists at 21.
