To find out how closely and painstakingly his paper is read, an editor has to commit an occasional error. A paper might boost for 999 years and never hear a word of commendation, but when a slight error is made, a howl is at once raised. The people who say they do not read the paper are just plain liars.—Jackson Ga., Progress.

There were many smiling little faces at the Public School on Friday last, when members of the Women's Institute were present and distributed the prizes amounting to $101.80 won at the School and Community Fair. It was easy to pick the popular winners by the applause which greeted them as they marched up for their prizes. Several of the ladies gave short addresses. J. McKencher, chairman of the Board of Education, who was present also spoke to the pupils congratulating them upon their excellent work as shown at the Fair. Special praise should be given to the boys and girls who won prizes on their flower and vegetable gardens for their perseverance and energy. After all expenses are paid the Institute will have a surplus of about $26. Not a large sum of money but the work is well worth while.

Our readers may have noticed in the daily papers the other day about a surgical operation performed in New York when a monkey's gland was transplanted into a man's body.

New York papers are to hand giving an account of the operation with illustrations. As soon as the monkey was chloroformed Dr. T. A. Edgar, at the moment he was ready to begin operating to get the monkey's gland, signalled to his colleague Dr. J. A. McLeay in the next room. Working at top speed Dr. Edgar removed the gland from the animal while Dr. McLeay removed the patient from his bed to the operating table and made the incision for the reception of the gland. During the operation the patient (Mr. Bacon) smiled and spoke to the doctors. A local anesthetic only was used. Dr. J. A. McLeay is an old Watford boy, being a son of Mr. Murdo McLeay. His old friends and acquaintances will be glad to hear of his researches in surgical science.

DEATH OF J HARRY FOWLER

After a brief illness, one of the most popular and best known newspapermen of Ontario, J. Harry Fowler, 42 years old, passed away at St. Joseph's Hospital, London, at 11 a.m. Wednesday.

Returning to London at the time of the Irish picnic in August last, the late Mr. Fowler first became ill, but did not consider the attack serious at the time. Two weeks ago, however, he was ordered to bed by his physician. Heart failure is attributed as the primary cause of death.

Son of the late Henry Fowler of Watford, Mr. Fowler received his elementary education in the public school here. He learned the rudiments of printing at the Watford Guide-Advocate later taking a course at the Watford Collegiate Institute.

In 1902 he graduated with the degree of B.A. from the University of Toronto. He is survived by his wife and one brother, Norman, of Hamilton.

NOTE AND COMMENT

Detroit has a population of 942,371.

Thursday, Sept. 29th, was the hottest September day in New York for 37 years. The thermometer registered 81 degrees.

A dog took out a bather's trousers to him at Sunnyside last Sunday. It is, however, more usual for a dog to swim with short pants.

What is needed in Ontario is modern jails to fit modern criminals. The old houses of correction were good enough for the brand of criminals of twenty years ago.

Fifteen blind pigs and road houses were raided in 48 hours down in Essex. At this rate the river front should soon be cleaned up of these objectionable places.

"One collapsible baby, good condition, seven dollars." Advert in the Vancouver Daily Province. Very cheap, too, for baby capable of being so easily "shut up."

The population of Prince Edward Island decreased 5,192 during the past decade according to the figures of the new census, and that of Nova Scotia only increased 32,241.

A donation of three bushels of grain preferably wheat, will be asked from each farmer of Canada by the Armenian Relief Association of Canada to help avert the death by starvation of hundreds of thousands of people in the famine-stricken Russian Caucasus and Armenian lands.

There were 26 convictions for murder, 19 for attempted murder and 43 for manslaughter in Canada during 1920, and rape 298, and for shooting, stabbing and wounding 183. These are startling figures for a population of approximately eight million.

The proposed international bridge at Windsor is expected to be opened to highway traffic in 1924, and the railway deck in 1925 or 1926. The work will be begun next spring. When completed this will be the longest and heaviest bridge in the world.

Hamilton Herald:—Here's a rather odd thing: The Dominion Railway Board decides against a reduction in freight rates until the question of the railway men's wages is finally decided; and a representative of the railway men argues that it will not be necessary now to reduce wages, because the Railway Board has decided not to reduce freight rates.

Some people who are busy themselves figuring out when the world is likely to end are doubtless not doing very much to improve conditions in the world, which is really what counts. Be the end four years hence or four thousand year hence, it is certain to be less than a hundred years for most of us—and it may not be more than four minutes. Let us do, then the best we can to make moral and social conditions in this beautiful and good old world all the better for our having lived in it, and not worry ourselves with estimates as to what the Creator has planned to do. That is not our business.

The attention of the drivers of motor vehicles is called to an amendment of the statute law which affects their rights. At the last session of the Legislature the Municipal Act was amended to provide that no action should lie against a county or township municipality for damages resulting from non-repair of the highway, unless notice in writing of the claim and injury complained of is served or sent by registered post to the head clerk of the municipality within ten days after the happening of the injury. Where the accident happens within a city, town or village, a similar notice must be given within seven days. In this respect there has been no change in the law.

A report received from Apsley states that wolves are plentiful in the north country. A few days ago a large pack came to the outskirts of the village and woke the villagers with their howling. Nine men of the village armed with rifles made an unsuccessful effort to qualify for the Government bounty. Many sheep have been killed by the animals. Apsley is situated about forty miles north of Peterboro.

Discarded by the Ontario Government prohibition forces as a piece of "useless equipment," the Leopard II, the Provincial Government speed boat, made famous by the work of Rev. J. O. L. Spracklin, Sandwich pastor, during the six months he served as Special License Officer, is offered for sale. M. N. Mousseau, Chief License Inspector for North Essex, has been instructed by the Attorney-General's Department to place the boat on the market. The launch survived two attempts by incendiaries to destroy it by fire.

Pushing the war against smugglers of merchandise purchased in Detroit, customs officers at the Windsor ferry dock Saturday afternoon held up and searched all automobiles bearing Ontario license tags. Socks, clothing, carpets and other dutiable goods were seized. In some cases owners of the autos were warned that a repetition of the offense against the Dominion laws would result in the confiscation of the car and police court proceedings. It is estimated that $2,500,000 worth of American-made goods are smuggled across the Detroit river annually by residents of Essex county.

Vancouver Sun:—The world is divided pretty sharply into two classes—workers and drones. Because the drones are sometimes able to give a fair imitation of work, they do not appear so vicious as they actually are. It is bad enough that they should waste their own time. That they should waste the time of real workers is unpardonable. Practically all the trouble in the world is caused by the people who will not work, or others who think they have solved the riddle of a workless world. It will be many hundreds of years from now when the human race will attain sufficient moral balance to get along without work.

A Toronto magistrate has given a decision that it is against the law to make love when on the highway in an auto, and that a young man must keep both hands on the steering wheel driving, and not one on the wheel and the other in possession of his sweetheart. This is somewhat different from the old days when one could throw the lines over the buggy dashboard and give his undivided attention to the young lady at his side. Old Dobbin could be depended upon to turn out when another rig was approaching. Love making is a different proposition these days.

WEAR A POPPY ARMISTICE DAY

Since the conclusion of the Great War there has been a growing sentiment among the peoples of the victorious nations allied in the conflict, to recognize by some outwards expression their great reverence for the Heroic Dead who made victory and peace possible, and their respect for the men who fought and lived to return to their homes.

On the anniversary of Armistice Day in 1919 the children of the devastated areas of Flanders and France gave expression to this sentiment by decorating the soldiers' graves near their homes with garlands of the red poppies which grow in profusion in their land. They also wore the poppy as a memorial flower. The idea, first conceived in childish minds, has gained favor all over France, and other countries of the Allied nations. On Memorial Day this year, May 30th, the custom was universal in the United States, Great Britain, Australia, New Zealand, and other countries have adopted the poppy as a memorial flower for Armistice Day.

It has been thought appropriate that Canada should also adopt this beautiful custom. To this end, the Great War Veterans' Association of Canada has arranged with the French Children's League to distribute just prior to Armistice Day, replicas of the Flanders poppy, which the orphan children of France are making.

A WOMAN'S HEALTH NEEDS GREAT CARE

When the Blood Becomes Watery a Breakdown Follows

Every woman's health is dependent upon the condition of her blood. How many women suffer with headache, pain in the back, poor appetite, weak digestion, a constant feeling of weariness, palpitation of the heart, shortness of breath, pallor and nervousness? Of course all these symptoms may not be present—the more there are the worse the condition of the blood, and the more necessary that you should begin to enrich it without delay. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are a splendid blood-building tonic. Every dose helps to make better blood which goes to every part of the body and brings new health to weak, despondent people. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are valuable to all women but they are particularly useful to girls of school age, who become pale, languid and nervous. There can be neither health nor beauty without red blood which gives brightness to the eyes and color to the cheeks and lips. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills build up the blood as is shown by the experience of Mrs. Jos. E. Veniotte, West Northfield, N.S., who says: "For several years I was in a bad state of health. I was pale and nervous, my appetite was poor, and I suffered from weakness, headaches and a feeling of oppression. I got so nervous that I was afraid to stay in the house alone. All this time I was taking medicine but it only did not help me, but I was growing weaker. Finally I decided to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and after using six boxes I felt much better. I had a better appetite slept better, and felt stronger. However, I continued taking the pills for a couple of months longer and now I am feeling as well as ever I did. I give all the credit to Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and hope that my experience may be of benefit to some other weak women."

You can get Dr. Williams' Pink Pills through any dealer in medicine or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.00 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

LATE MRS. J. W. PATTERSON

The death occurred on Thursday, Oct. 6, at the family residence, Dunsdale Farm, of a highly esteemed resident of Metcalfe, in the person of Margaret Jane Foster, beloved wife of James W. Patterson, in her 71st year. The deceased had been in failing health for some years and her death was not unlooked for. Besides her husband she leaves to mourn her loss five sons and one daughter, viz., William, Foster and Isaac of Alvinston, Clarence on the old homestead, Thomas and Margaret at home, also her aged mother who is 103 years old, two brothers, Thomas and Isaac of Brooke, and one sister, Mrs. J. W. Smith of Alvinston. Mrs. Patterson was of a kind and loving disposition and a good neighbor and when in health always ready and willing to help any good cause, and her many deeds of kindness coupled with her genial disposition won for her a host of friends. Her long illness was borne with true christian fortitude.

The funeral was held on Saturday afternoon, and notwithstanding the inclement weather was very largely attended. The service, held in St. James' church, Brooke, was conducted by Rev. H. R. Dehl, assisted by Rev. S. P. Irwin. Interment was made in St. James' cemetery. The pallbearers were Foster, Gordon and Roy Smith, James Haight, Leander Foster and Ben Patterson. The flower bearers were Misses Lefae and Doris Smith, Vera Patterson, Ethel Newell, Maggie Foster and Mrs. Leander Foster.

JAS. McLEAN'S LETTER

In last week's Forest Free Press there appears a letter written by Mr. James McLean Sr., of Plympton Township under the heading of "Farmers and the Tariff" in which the writer flays protection. As Mr. McLean challenges contradiction we wish to point out that his statement that the Petrolia refinery has discharged nearly all its employees is untrue. The largest number of employees the refinery ever had on its pay roll was 120. To-day there are 111. Mr. McLean's statement that the present member for East Lambton is a share holder of the Petrolia Wagon Co. is likewise untrue. The Petrolia Wagon Co. is owned by the Adam's Wagon Co. of Brantford. Persons who indulge in writing letters to the press would do well to follow the principle "First, be sure you're right, then go ahead."—Petrolia Advertiser-Topic.

DEATH OF MRS. JOHN BUTLER

The death occurred in Ingersoll on Sept. 21st, of Margaret Dolan, beloved wife of John Butler of Ingersoll, after an illness covering a number of years. The late Mrs. Butler, who was in her 52nd year, was well and favorably known in Ingersoll and many friends will learn with sincere regret of her demise. Deceased had resided in Ingersoll for quite a number of years and was a member of the congregation of the Church of the Sacred Heart. Besides the sorrowing husband she is survived by two daughters, Mary and Anna. The funeral was held on Friday morning from the family residence, William st., to the Church of the Sacred Heart where requiem high mass was celebrated by the Rev. Father Chisholm of Goderich, and Rev. Father Gnam, the pastor. The pallbearers were: Messrs. James Tallant, James Parkinson, Lawrence Desmond, Wm. Wright, Ben McMullen and Alex. McGinnis.

RICHARDSON—McPHAIL

A pretty September wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. J. McPhail on Sept. 28th, when their eldest daughter, Lavina, was united in marriage to Mr. Lysle L. Richardson, eldest son of Mr. J. J. Richardson of Petrolia. At four o'clock to the strains of Lohengrin's Wedding march, played by Miss Eva Richardson, sister of the groom, the bride, leaning on the arm of her father, entered the parlor, where the ceremony was performed under a very pretty arch of evergreen and flowers from which hung a white wedding bell.

The bride looked charming in a handsome gown of white crepe de chene with satin and georgette trimmings. Her bridal veil of tulle was arranged in coronet with orange blossoms and she carried a handsome bouquet of Opheka roses and ferns. She was attended by her sister Reta, gowned in pink organdie and carrying a shdwer bouquet of pale pink dahlias and asters. Miss Pearl Miller cousin of the bride, made a charming little flower girl in her white organdie frock, carrying a basket of beautiful flowers. The groom was supported by Mr. A. McMillan of Wyoming. Rev. J. J. Mond's of Petrolia performed the ceremony in the presence of about sixty relatives of bride and groom. During the signing of the register, Mr. D. D. Livingstone of Alvinston sweetly sang "O Promise Me".

After the ceremony and congratulations, the guests repaired to the diningroom where a dainty wedding dinner was served. The groom's gift to the bride was a pearl necklace and a gold wrist watch, to the bridesmaid a beautiful necklace, to the groomsmen gold cuff links, to the pianist a gold brooch and to the flower girl a gold pendant. The gifts received from the relatives were numerous and beautiful. A shower had been given previously to the bride by the friends of the community and many valuable and useful things had been received. Amid showers of confetti the bride and groom left for Detroit and southern points, the bride travelling in a navy blue suit with hat to match. On their return, they will reside in Petrolia.

London, Ont.—I take great pleasure in recommending Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription as I received great benefit from its use. I have always been in frail and delicate health. I still take Favorite Prescription when I feel the least bit weak or rundown and it always builds me up.—Mrs. J. G. Baldry, 237 Clarence St.

I SUFFERED FIVE YEARS

Finally Was Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Paris, Ont.—“For five years I suffered from pains caused by displacement of my organs and in my back. All of this time I was unfit for work and was taking different medicines that I thought were good. I saw the advertisement in the papers of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and took it faithfully. I am now in perfect health and do all my own work. I recommend it to others, and give you permission to publish this letter in your little books and in the newspapers as a testimonial.”

For forty years it has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has restored the health of thousands of women who have been troubled with such ailments as displacements, inflammation, ulceration, irregularities, etc.

EAST LAMBTON TEACHERS' INSTITUTE

The annual meeting of the East Lambton Teachers' Institute was held in the school room of the Methodist church, Petrolia, on Thursday and Friday, Oct. 6th and 7th. The following resident clergymen kindly conducted the devotional exercises at the opening of the sessions, Rev. Mr. Richardson, Rev. Mr. Raithby, and Rev. Mr. Monds.

Mr. Duncan Ewart, the president, occupied the chair.

Mr. N. McDougall, B.A., Inspector of schools in East Lambton, explained the Adolescent Act, and also the regulations regarding the teaching of Agriculture and Nature Study. He urged the rural teachers to teach the subject of Agriculture, while the urban schools should follow the course in Nature Study. Mr. McDougall gave an excellent address on "The 100% Teacher." The following qualifications are necessary: Teaching power, Self-control, Leadership, System, and Strong Personality on the part of the teacher. The 100% teacher would set a high standard in everything, take an interest in the play of the children, and should keep out of a rut by wide reading, Summer Courses, and by keeping in close touch with environment.

The President, Mr. Duncan Ewart, reviewed at some length, his experience in the schools of Ontario.

Miss Blanche Mitchell, of the Watford High School, gave a splendid address on the teaching of History. She referred to the value of the subject and gave the teachers many useful points regarding the method in which it should be taken up with the classes. She urged the teachers to endeavor to make the subject of History interesting. One great aid in doing this would be a well-stocked library in the school so that pupils have access to Supplementary reading matter on the subject, in addition to the text book.

Mr. F. F. McPherson, B.A., Principal of Hamilton Normal School, gave three splendid and instructive addresses during the session of the Institute. He spoke to the teachers on the subjects: "How to get good reading," and "Oral Composition," also at the evening session in Victoria Hall he spoke on "The Next Generation." Mr. McPherson is a fluent and forceful speaker, and his addresses were listened to with interest. The teachers could not fail to carry home and put into practice the many points so strongly brought out by the speaker on the subjects of Reading and Composition. He also took part in the discussions on other subjects and aided in smoothing out the difficulties of the teachers.

On Thursday evening a banquet was tendered the teachers in Victoria Hall by the Petrolia Chamber of Commerce. A program of addresses was presided over by Inspector McDougall. Splendid music was provided by the Fisher Orchestra and a very pleasing feature of the evening was the community singing led by Mrs. Fisher. Mr. and Mrs. Fisher also very kindly attended the afternoon session on Friday when community singing was again indulged in.

Miss McInnis and Miss Pressey addressed the Institute on Junior Work. Interesting and instructive addresses were given by both speakers. They gave very concise outline of the methods used by them in teaching the Junior classes. In the discussion following these addresses Mr. McPherson took part and urged the use of Manual on the Primer.

Mr. Lyle Oliver, who could not be present, sent his report of the meeting of the O.E.A. at Toronto. This report was read by Mr. R. Henderson. It conveyed to the teachers an idea of the lectures given at that meeting.

Miss Ethel McKee, of the Educational Dept. of Columbia Gramophone Co., gave a demonstration of what might be done with the Phonograph in the schools.

The Women Teachers' Federation of East Lambton appointed officers for the ensuing year.

A vote of thanks was tendered to the Petrolia Chamber of Commerce, for the splendid banquet provided the teachers, and also to the Trustee Board and Pastor of the Methodist Church and also to Mrs. Fisher for her services during the sessions.

Officers for ensuing year are as follows:

- Hon. President—Mr. N. McDougall, B.A.
- Hon. Vice-Presidents—Mr. P. McKicken, B.A., Mr. M. Cameron, B.A.
- President—Miss M. Davis.
- Vice-Pres.—Mr. C. Routley.
- Sec.-Treas.—Mr. A. W. Kelly.
- Executive Com.—The officers, Miss Balls, Mr. Mahon, Mr. Henderson, Physical Training Com.—Mr. N. McDougall, Mr. Elliott, Miss Curran, Miss Edwards, Mr. Henderson.
- Auditors—Miss Stapleton and Miss Buchanan.
- Delegate to O.E.A.—Miss Leapha Annett.

BROWN—ENTWISTLE

in Erskine Presbyterian Church, Hamilton, on September 21st, at 12 o'clock noon, was solemnized the marriage of Lorna Catherine, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William C. Browne of Parkhill, to Mr. William James Entwistle, formerly of Belfast Ireland.

The ceremony was conducted by Rev. S. Burnside Russell, cousin of the groom.

The bride, who was given away by her father, wore a dainty dress of grey Canton crepe, heavily embroidered in silk, black picture hat, and an ermine fur, the gift of the groom. Master Freddy Lockhart, nephew of the groom acted as ring-bearer.

After the ceremony the happy couple left for New York and Atlantic City, the bride travelling in a smart suit of navy tricot, embroidered with black silk, and wearing a taupe beaver hat and veil.

On their return Mr. and Mrs. Entwistle will reside in Parkhill.

SPEAKS HIGHLY OF BABY'S OWN TABLETS

Once a mother has used Baby's Own Tablets for her little ones she is always pleased to speak highly of them to other mothers. She knows the good they have done her children and realizes that her experience should be of benefit to others. Concerning the Tablets Mrs. Fred Murphy, Charlottetown, P.E.I., writes: "I have used Baby's Own Tablets for the past eight months for my baby. I cannot speak too highly of them for they have been of great assistance to me in my first experience of motherhood." Baby's Own Tablets are a mild but thorough laxative which are absolutely harmless and may be given to even the newborn babe with perfect safety. They are sold by medicine dealers or direct at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

OCTOBER

The three great books before our face
 The richest, precious reading,
 Nature, and Providence, and grace,
 And how have we been heeding.
 The Spring, the Summer and the fall,
 October is digesting,
 There messages were clear to all
 No danger of congesting.
 The climate and success, combined,
 Should satisfy our nature
 And make us fit for human kind,
 A glorious living creature.
 A happy, healthy, wholesome sort,
 Heaven's choicest blessings breathing,
 Ready for work, ready for sport,
 Our likeness on it leaving.
 What we have been, what we have done,
 October well remembers;
 We have not shirked beneath the sun,
 Altho' there comes December.
 The auburn hair will turn to grey,
 The months will bring them always
 The supple limbs will not be gay
 When worn out on life's causeways.
 But not in vain these organs wear,
 We fill our niche resplendent,
 The youth is fair, the old is there
 And we are independent.
 As happy as a mild noonday,
 And just as rich as Croesus,
 We travel on our homeward way
 And are! where you will place us.

The worms that infest children from their birth are of two kinds, those that find lodgement in the stomach and those that are found in the intestines. The latter are the most destructive, as they cling to the walls of the intestines and if not interfered with work havoc there. Miller's Worm Powders dislodge both kinds and while expelling them from the system serve to repair the damage they have caused.

WHAT SHOULD BE PLANTED IN THE FALL

There is such a rush in the spring to get seed sowing and planting done in good time that anything that can be accomplished in the fall to lessen the work in the spring should be done and particularly where fall planting is preferable.

At the Experimental Farm, Ottawa, it has not been found satisfactory, taking one year with another, to plant trees of any kind in the fall. Exposure to the long, cold winter beginning shortly after transplanting is not favorable to the trees. Any which will be below the snowline, however, have a much better chance, although in soils where there is danger of heaving, late fall planting is unsafe.

When low-growing shrubs and herbaceous plants are planted in the fall, which is a good time, the sooner it is done the better after the soil becomes moist enough to ensure their not dying from lack of moisture as, when set out early, the plants have a chance to take root again before winter and in the case of herbaceous perennials to make some growth.

Raspberries, gooseberries, and currants may be planted successfully in September, and the advantage over spring planting is that if any die they may be replaced in the spring, whereas if planted in the spring it is too late to replace them if they die and a season's growth is lost. If Strawberries are planted in the fall they should be planted in September or before to ensure their rooting well and lessening danger from heaving.

As soon as bulbs can be purchased in the stores they should, if desired, be procured and planted at once as the longer time they have in the ground before winter the better the bloom is likely to be in the spring. The bulbs referred to include tulips, narcissus, hyacinths, crocus, squills, and other hardy kinds.

The fall is a good time to plant both rhubarb and asparagus. They may be planted with success any time between now and winter.

Usually there are good results from planting seeds of herbaceous perennials, trees, and shrubs in the fall. The action of the frost, especially on tree and shrub seeds, makes germination easier. When seeds of perennials are planted in the fall it is best to wait until just before winter as if seed germinates a short time before winter the seedlings are liable to be killed. Seeds of trees and shrubs, however, and especially of fruits, should be planted as soon as ripe so as to prevent their becoming dry. Usually fall planted seeds germinate very early in the spring.

Those who are in a "run down" condition will notice that Catarrh bothers them much more than when they are in good health. This fact proves that while Catarrh is a local disease, it is greatly influenced by constitutional conditions. HALL'S CATARRH MEDICINE is a tonic and Blood Purifier, and acts through the blood upon the mucous surfaces of the body, thus reducing the inflammation and restoring normal conditions.

favor of the Hampshire as against the Duroc-Jersey, the Berkshire and the Poland-China breeds. It is worth while noting that the most prominently recognized breeds for production of Wiltshire sides on a large scale in the Dominion, the Yorkshires and the Tamworth, were not even mentioned and the other recognized breed, the Berkshire, given scant attention.

The Duroc-Jersey and the Poland-China are strictly fat types, rightly popular for the American trade. But that trade caters to a demand quite different from the requirements of our export and domestic markets. There is a type, or subdivision, of the Berkshire breed which has been found to have an advantage over the light-haired breeds during the summer in exposed western districts but the farmer adopting that breed should be careful to avoid American standards and blood which have been produced especially for the heavy fat trade.

HALL'S CATARRH MEDICINE

THE SHEEP SITUATION

In these times of downward prices for farm products there is always a tendency to get out of the game. This applies especially to live stock; to-day you hear the cry "no money in sheep, going to sell out", regardless of price; quotations of 2cts a pound at Toronto do not deter these in and outers; in on the high spots and out on the low; take the average price for the last 30 years and sheep have compared very favorably with any class of live stock, returns twice a year, wool and lambs, they will eat any weed that grows and can utilize the waste on stubble land; you need no expensive building to house them and can care for 50 head easier than 5 head of cattle. Many people have the mistaken idea that sheep and cattle will not thrive together. I shall be pleased to give a practical demonstration of 100 head and 20 head of cattle besides horses on 100 acres, all in splendid condition. I will say that breeders of purebred flocks have suffered the last two years but my advice is to stay with the game, use the best ram you can get, cull closely your lamb crop each year and have your flock all active looking when a buyer comes along, have a high ideal in view and try and attain it and if your financial returns are not just what you expect you at least have the pleasure of showing your friends and visitors what you are doing and exhibiting some at your local fair.

CONNIE LIKES WORKING GIRL PART'S 'BEST' FOR SHE ONCE EXPECTED TO BE ONE HERSELF

Miss Talmadge Says She Would Have Taken Up Stenography If The Picture Bug Hadn't Bitten Her After Norma's Success

Constance Talmadge says that she would rather take the part of a poor working girl than portray any other character, because at one time she expected to become a stenographer herself.

"I would have studied stenography had it not been for Norma's entrance into motion pictures," she said. Then the picture bug hit me. I got into the habit of accompanying my big sister to the studio and one day a chance to earn five dollars as an extra girl. I was very glad as I believe in girls earning their own living. That is why I am so sympathetic towards the working girl, for I feel that I am one of them at heart."

Constance Talmadge is poorer from the standpoint of dollars and cents than ever before, as the heroine in "Good References," her latest First National starring vehicle, which will be shown at the Lyceum Theatre next Wednesday evening, October, 19th.

As Mary Wayne, Connie finds herself in Journey's End, a boarding house where the dear old landlady, with a sixty-four bust, makes a wild clutch for board in advance and succeeds in reducing her fair young boarder's net capital of five dollars to a lonesome pair of "iron-men".

Worse than that, she tries to get a job but all the boys behind the mahogany desks are stony-hearted about young ladies who want to be stenographers and who have no references.

How Mary Wayne breaks into a run of good luck that begins with her pal being taken sick, leaving a job open for someone to fill and giving Mary an opportunity to borrow a set of references, is cleverly portrayed by Miss Talmadge in her own whimsical and inimitable way.

Types for Canadian Market

Hog-breeding to meet market demands in the United States is entirely unlike what the export and domestic trade insists upon in Canada. They are really two distinct undertakings and the methods which succeed in the one will not necessarily succeed in the other. Existing conditions, under systems of feeding altogether different, are often overlooked and many farmers run a serious danger of being stampeded by reports of success in hog raising on American farms. They try to copy these efforts in the breeds of hogs they purchase. But they are only inviting trouble for themselves. By overlooking the market for which the product of the hog is intended, they are laying up disappointment and become, eventually, the worst enemy of the hog industry—the "in-and-out-er" in production.

Newspaper reports of what is taking place in one far Western farm centre in a region only recently opened up is perhaps a sample of others. After an address on the special merits of the Hampshire breed for the production, as the speaker claimed, of Wiltshire sides, a ballot was taken on breeds considered best for community purposes. It is true the meeting was a small one, but the vote resulted in 12 to one in Wigle estate for $150 for services as real estate agent in effecting a sale of the Wigle property in Kingsville to F. A. Miller. The defence contented among other things, that there was no contract in writing as required by a recent statute. The judge, however, said that the plaintiff was entitled to the value of his services, notwithstanding the statute and gave judgment in his favor for $90 and costs.
