North Renfrew Election Cost $40,000
Liberal Candidate Hale Swears He Paid $10,000
Stratton and Vance Promised $30,000

On Oath Captain J. Lorne Hale, in a Law Suit Over a Livery Bill at Pembroke Tuesday, Discloses Secrets Relating to His Candidacy Against Ned Dunlop, and Implicating Liberal Organization in Toronto and the Provincial Secretary.

ROSS GOVERNMENT WAS TO PAY "SHOT" THRU THE HONORABLE JAMES STRATTON

Livery Bill of $1032, Incurred by Agents of Vance and the Ontario Government and Hale Looks to Stratton to Settle It, Claiming He Has Witness to Undertaking Made Between Him and the Provincial Minister.

CAPT. J. LORNE HALE, Pembroke.

EVERYBODY MAKES DENIAL STATEMENT MADE ON OATH

Mr. Stratton Declares He Did Not Promise Lorne Hale Money and Had Not Conversation With Vance Regarding Cost of Election—Mr. Vance Can't Understand Hale.

The statement on oath in Pembroke of Lorne Hale, Liberal candidate in North Renfrew, at the by-election in December, 1903, that his election expenses were $40,000, that he paid $10,000, and that Hon. Mr. Stratton and James Vance promised to pay the other $30,000, caused a sensation in Toronto yesterday. The statement was first printed in The News, in a despatch from Pembroke. Later in the day it was verified in its essential features as correct that the riding was debauched by the Liberal machine, no one who knew the situation doubted. To have the oath of Lorne Hale, and the Liberal organization in Toronto was responsible makes the matter concrete. The persons named by Mr. Hale denied the recitations.

Mr. Stratton Denied. Upon being interviewed by a representative of The World, the Hon. Mr. Stratton gave out the following statement:

I gave no moneys to Mr. Hale in connection with his election, nor to anyone for him, nor did I make any promise to him, other than that I had no doubt that should he accept the nomination, the party would assist him with his expenses, meaning, of course, his legitimate expenses. He was speaking of the cost of an election. I do not know what assistance, if any, he received from the party, nor do I know what the cost of his campaign was. I had no conversation with Mr. Vance regarding any expenses in connection with the campaign, nor had Mr. Hale any conversation with me in the presence of Mr. Vance. The cost of the election as given by Mr. Hale, if the statement as reported is correct, would appear on the face of it to be most absurd. I addressed four meetings in North Renfrew at the request of the committee and do not know anything about the costs or conduct of the campaign.

Mr. Vance Denies It. James Vance, Liberal organizer, was seen by The World with reference to Mr. Hale's statement. He said: All I've got to say is this: Of course I can only speak for myself, but I never discussed with Mr. Hale what his election expenses would be, or who should pay them. I never discussed the matter with him in any shape or form, and do not know anybody who did. I never promised him anything, either directly or indirectly, with regard to his election, and I cannot understand why Mr. Hale should make such a statement.

Evans Hale Denies. The World wired Lorne Hale, Pembroke, yesterday afternoon as follows: "The News prints a story that you, on oath, to-day declared your election expenses were $40,000, that you paid $10,000, and that Stratton and Vance promised to pay $30,000. Is it correct?"

He replied: "The story as reported is absolutely false." "Lorne Hale." "But he is denied." This statement of Mr. Hale can hardly be reconciled with the facts in the case, but the World, in the interest of fairness to all parties, gives it for what it is worth.

Peter White, Jr., barrister of Pembroke, on the long-distance telephone, corroborated every detail of The World's report, and when told what Mr. Hale had wired, says that he could not understand it as the facts as related were on public record. He further stated that all that Mr. Hale had said had been long expected and did not surprise anyone in the riding, especially in Pembroke town. Mr. White declared that he has seen Lawyer Delahay, who examined Lorne Hale, and he verified the statements as published.

Gibson Knows Not. Hon. J. M. Gibson did not appear very anxious to discuss Lorne Hale's charge that the Ontario government had promised to pay his election expenses in North Renfrew. When seen last night in town he said: "I don't know anything about the matter myself. I know of no promise of the kind being made to Mr. Hale, and I believe Mr. Stratton has issued a statement denying it."

DURHAM IS WILLING. Liberals Agree to Give Mr. Aylesworth the Nomination. Bowmanville, Oct. 6.—(Special.)—Hon. A. B. Aylesworth, K.C., is acceptable to the Durham County Liberals as a candidate for the nomination of a full meeting of the county executive members, barring one absentee, is concerned.

Robert Bell, also very much indispensed with a severe cold, addressed the members explaining fully his reasons for personally wishing to withdraw from the contest, and why he desired to retire in favor of Hon. Mr. Aylesworth. A resolution was adopted after some discussion approving of what Mr. Bell had done.

The county convention is called to meet at Newcastle on Monday afternoon next, at 1:30 o'clock, when it is expected that Mr. Aylesworth will receive the nomination. A special request has been forwarded to Hon. Mr. Aylesworth to attend the convention and make his political debut in the county which he may represent.

He Has No Intention of Running in Any Other Constituency. It has been hinted from time to time that A. E. Kemp would be the Conservative candidate in North Toronto.

But he is denied. This statement of Mr. Hale can hardly be reconciled with the facts in the case, but the World, in the interest of fairness to all parties, gives it for what it is worth.

FOSTER THE CHOICE IN NORTH WELL PLEASED AND CONFIDENT

Nomination Was Unanimous—Candidate Makes a Characteristic Address of Acceptance. "We are going to start the fight right now," said Dr. Beattie Nesbitt as chairman of the North Toronto Conservative nominating convention last night in presenting Hon. George E. Foster to the delegates as their candidate.

"This is without doubt the noisiest crowd I ever heard of. If they commence with such a volume as this what will it be on the closing night?" were Mr. Foster's first words to the convention.

St. Paul's Hall was comfortably filled. John A. Paterson, K.C., welcomed in a night 400 early for the Liberal convention, and finding himself not among the old familiar faces, sat himself out into the cool shades of Yorkville again.

Dr. Nesbitt called to the platform: Dr. Pym, M.L.A.; H. P. Turner, candidate in East Aylmer; E. Bristol, William Laidlaw, K.C.; Dr. Ryerson, ex-Mayor; R. Boswell, Dr. Noble, S. W. Burns, E. B. Ryckman, Ald. R. A. Jones, Controller John Shaw, A. W. Smith, Frank Somers, Controller J. London, E. P. Pearson, W. D. Macpherson, John Laxton, Dr. R. J. Alderson, Hon. Oliver Howland, C.B.; Ald. McChie, A. E. Kemp, E. B. Osler, and J. J. Foy, M.L.A.

Dr. Nesbitt stated the object of the meeting and thanked the delegation, practically the same which nominated him for the local house, for the honor done him.

Seven Nominations. There were nominated after a unanimous decision to accept the choice of the convention: Controller John Shaw, William Laidlaw, K.C.; R. Boswell, Hon. G. E. Foster, C. C. Robinson, Hon. O. A. Howland, C.B., and E. F. Clarke, Hon. D. A. Howland, C.B. He was only disappointed about one thing so far. He had the pleasure of meeting Mr. Foster that day and had intended to nominate him, but was just too late. The country seemed one so commandingly skilled in finance, of such unusual eloquence. It was important they should hold every seat that they had and win many more. He anticipated the election of Mr. Foster if they did not let the grass grow under their feet. The Liberals were well organized, and the Conservatives could not afford to omit the most exciting and there organization.

A Good Combination. C. C. Robinson had nominated Dr. Nesbitt and J. J. Foy, K.C., and in Hon. George Foster they had the combination of fighter and critic represented by those gentlemen.

Controller Shaw said the great question before the country was the trans-continental railway. He doubted if its construction was not premature at present. But if it was carried out under the principle of public ownership, a principle gaining ground, not only in Canada, but everywhere, through the civilized world, no able exponent of the principle could be found than Mr. Foster.

E. B. Ooster was greeted with cheers when he arose to speak for E. E. Foster, who was wearing from a severe cold. Mr. Clarke he would say would support the party nominee. Then Mr. Foster there was not a man in Canada with a purer ideal or more unselfish in going into politics for the benefit of his country.

A. R. Boswell understood that this was the first election in North Toronto for the Dominion house. They should take care to send a good Conservative.

Respects a Victory. William Laidlaw, K.C., knew Mr. Foster well, and was in entire sympathy with his candidature. They would prove to the committee that they expected to elect the Liberal-Conservative in North Toronto that they would stand together and elect their candidate. All through the great fight which Sir John

JEWISH HANDS ACTIVE.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 6.—Reports received at the ministry of the interior indicate that the Jewish revolutionary bands are displaying renewed activity in the dissemination of pamphlets, urging their co-religionists not to rely on the promises of the government and asserting that the remedy is a revolution. Within the past fortnight many of these pamphlets have been seized at Odessa, Kishinef, Suvalsky, Gomel, Odessa, Vilna, and arrests have been made in each of these places. The pamphlets circulated at Odessa urged making an anti-war demonstration on the occasion of the emperor's recent visit to that city, but, according to the reports received, no disturbance occurred.

SENTENCED TO SEVEN YEARS.

London, Oct. 6.—Robert Powell was sentenced to seven years in the penitentiary at the assize court here today. Powell, who is a widower and a laborer, was found guilty of having criminally assaulted his 14-year-old step-daughter. The jury strongly recommended mercy.

HISTORY OF THE BILL.

In the London Times of the date Jan. 15, 1877, there is an account of the man who first tried the experiment of wearing a silk hat, "John Hetherington, Kuberdasher of the Strand," says the report "was arraigned before the lord mayor yesterday on a charge of breach of the peace and inciting a riot, and was required to give bonds for the sum of £500. It was in evidence that Mr. Hetherington, who is well connected, appeared on the public highway wearing upon his head what he called a silk hat, which was offered in evidence, a tall structure having a shiny lustre and calculated to frighten timid people. As a matter of fact, the officer of the crown stated that several women fainting at the sight, children screamed and a son of Lordwater Thomas was thrown down by the crowd which had collected and had his right arm broken." Things have altered since 1877. Now the silk hat is worn exclusively by the ultra-stylish. Dineen Co. are sole Canadian agents for Henry Heaton of London, Eng., and Dunlop of New York, the greatest of world hatiers.

FAIR AND COOL.

Meteorological Office, Toronto, Oct. 6.—The weather continued unusually cool in nearly all parts of the Dominion. Severe frosts occurred last night in Manitoba and the prairie provinces. A heavy rain fell in Ontario and Quebec. Showers have occurred today in the Maritime provinces, elsewhere the weather has been fair.

MR. BORDEN'S AWFUL CRIME

The Globe is painfully anxious about Mr. Borden's behaviour. Its last disquisition is that people will not take his promises of para administration seriously, because they are made under the auspices of Dr. Beattie Nesbitt. He cannot accept and approve such agents to-day, and refuse them when they demand their pound of flesh to-morrow.

I have learned upon substantial grounds and upon substantial grounds I now state to you that the Liberal candidate for the purpose of carrying from this town and from the American city opposite about 300 persons collected by those working in the Reform cause, who they do not reside, and where they have no right of franchise at this election, to vote by personation, or otherwise, the votes of persons, and to legal vote in the stead of persons on the list in those sub-divisions who have long ago left, and who have no right to vote, also on the list. The steat boat that has been chartered is the Minnie M. of the Algoma Steamship Line, now in this port, and to sail tonight or to-morrow with its ball-boxes of that district.

The attorney-general's reply was that he was not a policeman. The Minnie M. sailed as Mr. Miscampbell said it would, as the result, according to the trial judges, was a "cluster of offences" against the election law. Now if the Globe could show that Mr. Borden had received and neglected such a warning, it would have a strong case. But it has been as silent as the grave about the attorney-general's gross and proved neglect of duty, while it censures Mr. Borden for not firing Dr. Beattie Nesbitt out of the chair at Massey Hall, though there is nothing against Dr. Nesbitt but the Globe's insinuation; nothing proved, no charge even definitely made. The other day the Globe attacked Mr. Borden for allowing Mr. A. W. Wright to be Conservative organizer in Ontario. Its charge against Mr. Wright was absolutely unfounded, and its statement that the trial judges had rebuked him was absolutely false.

Representation of the West: The published correspondence between Mr. Haultain, premier of the Northwest Territories, and Sir Wilfrid Laurier, relates to provincial autonomy, and also to the representation of the Territories in parliament. Sir Wilfrid says that after he does not receive increased federal representation as the Territories have, as a matter of fact, enjoyed larger representation from the delay in forming a new province or provinces. The number of members granted in the last redistribution act was based upon a somewhat liberal computation of the population as presumed to exist at the time when the act was introduced.

Mr. Haultain says that the present population of the Territories is estimated at 40,000, and on this basis they would now be entitled to 18 members instead of 10. The representation of 10 is already very inadequate, and will become more so every year with the rapid increase of population. This difficulty could be met only by a more frequent readjustment or by making a still more liberal allowance for probable increase.

NEWS FROM THE POLITICAL FIELD.

MR. BORDEN VISITS WINGHAM EAST HURON WELCOMING HIM

Discusses the Main Topics Before the Electors—Dr. Sproule Addresses the Voters, Who Assembled at 1 o'Clock and Stayed All Afternoon Yesterday. Wingham, Oct. 6.—(Special.)—The Conservative rally here to-day was a success. Mr. Borden arrived by the P.R. train which was unfortunately an hour late. East Huron Conservatives met at the station by the band, and a large reception committee. On arrival upon the platform he was received with applause and presented with a basket of flowers by Miss Irma Kennedy and Miss Mabel Swaine. An address was then read by T. Hall, editor of The Advance, and the Conservative chief plunged at once into the subjects of paramount interest to the electors.

There was an immense crowd, which listened with interest to Mr. Borden's address. He referred to the broken pledges and the unenviable record of the past eight years. The auditor-general's unheeded request for larger powers and the government's refusal to grant them was the resolution moved by Mr. Borden in the house was read and attention drawn to the fact that the Liberals voted down his reasonable solution.

The Conservative leader then took up the question of the G.T.P. and showed the enormity of the bargain and its tremendous cost to the people. He spent his time until the time for the departure of his train had arrived. The Conservative party won many friends and made a most favorable impression upon the hundreds of electors in East Huron. He was followed by T. Chisholm, the prospective Conservative candidate, who was received with continued applause. The local gerrymander and unfulfilled promises of the Liberals, the doctor's attitude, and the fact that the present member has, notwithstanding the gerrymander, the right of his seat, were also discussed. Dr. Sproule followed in an able address, in which he traced the broken platform of the present administration. Although the meeting lasted all the afternoon, and many "dunkers" remained to the end, it was one of the most successful meetings ever held in East Huron. The hour of assembling was 1 o'clock, the presence of so many farmers, and the fact that the meeting lasted for four hours is an indication that East Huron, even with the gerrymander, will be a Conservative county on Nov. 3.

In Bowmanville rumor is busy with this story: A prominent lawyer, who has in the past been exceedingly averse to Liberalism, after the last election, a reward for his services. He was informed that he valued his party services higher and insisted upon a high court judgeship. He is now said to be in the hands of the Conservative cause. In Bowmanville, the lawyer was incensed and vowed that never again would he support a Liberal. Now, since the taking of Mr. Aylesworth in the cabinet, the Liberal nomination, the lawyer is again becoming active, and his friends are promising that he will be a positive promise that as soon as Mr. Aylesworth becomes minister of justice the high court judgeship will be given to him. A despatch from Chatham says the point at issue in West Kent, at the present time is the question of the tariff. The Liberal party is working hard and saying very little. The Liberal party is working hard and saying very little. The Liberal party is working hard and saying very little.

The important point for Canadians is how Canada is to be treated in the matter of this great issue. It is just now within their power to speak with an uncertain sound upon the question. Ostensibly both of the Canadian parties make the same profession of imperial faith. The Liberals claim credit for the voluntary preference which their tariff gives to British imports, and declare that they are ready to move step by step with Great Britain in advancing the policy. There are some who say that Sir Wilfrid Laurier will give his approval to the idea of the recognition was mutual and his course will be watched with great interest.

BROTHERS PARTED 54 YEARS

Dayton, (O.) News: Sol Raub and family are home from a delightful tour in Europe. Mr. Raub, on the trip over the breast of the ocean, looked forward with some anticipation to the meeting with his brother, Joseph Raub, whom he had not seen for 54 years. When the party reached England, the boyhood home of Mr. Raub, he could scarcely wait until he reached the home of the brother. It was a beautiful meeting. A friend says that nothing ever impressed him so deeply as to see those brothers meeting when they were merry lads, meet again in the sunset of their lives, when the hair of each was fringed with the snow of time. Neither would have known the other had they met in the street, but, inasmuch as the brother in Germany was anxiously awaiting the arrival of the brother from the "new country," the recognition was mutual and many happy hours of good fellowship followed.

Reassuring

Dayton, (O.) News: But the suspicious attitude of the Canadian government toward this military preparation in this country is inspired by a desire "to do something" to Canada is ridiculous. True, we claim to be doing things in this country, but we have not yet any intention of disturbing our backdoor neighbor.

Longest Ears of Corn

The longest ears of corn on exhibition in the palace of agriculture at the world's fair were raised within the corporate limits of St. Louis, and are displayed in the Missouri exhibit. James Adams of Wellston last week sent to superintendent Matt W. Hall three ears of yellow field corn, two of which were seventeen inches long, while the other lacked but a fraction of an inch of that length.

NEWS FROM THE POLITICAL FIELD. MR. BORDEN VISITS WINGHAM EAST HURON WELCOMING HIM

Discusses the Main Topics Before the Electors—Dr. Sproule Addresses the Voters, Who Assembled at 1 o'Clock and Stayed All Afternoon Yesterday. Wingham, Oct. 6.—(Special.)—The Conservative rally here to-day was a success. Mr. Borden arrived by the P.R. train which was unfortunately an hour late. East Huron Conservatives met at the station by the band, and a large reception committee. On arrival upon the platform he was received with applause and presented with a basket of flowers by Miss Irma Kennedy and Miss Mabel Swaine. An address was then read by T. Hall, editor of The Advance, and the Conservative chief plunged at once into the subjects of paramount interest to the electors.

There was an immense crowd, which listened with interest to Mr. Borden's address. He referred to the broken pledges and the unenviable record of the past eight years. The auditor-general's unheeded request for larger powers and the government's refusal to grant them was the resolution moved by Mr. Borden in the house was read and attention drawn to the fact that the Liberals voted down his reasonable solution.

The Conservative leader then took up the question of the G.T.P. and showed the enormity of the bargain and its tremendous cost to the people. He spent his time until the time for the departure of his train had arrived. The Conservative party won many friends and made a most favorable impression upon the hundreds of electors in East Huron. He was followed by T. Chisholm, the prospective Conservative candidate, who was received with continued applause. The local gerrymander and unfulfilled promises of the Liberals, the doctor's attitude, and the fact that the present member has, notwithstanding the gerrymander, the right of his seat, were also discussed. Dr. Sproule followed in an able address, in which he traced the broken platform of the present administration. Although the meeting lasted all the afternoon, and many "dunkers" remained to the end, it was one of the most successful meetings ever held in East Huron. The hour of assembling was 1 o'clock, the presence of so many farmers, and the fact that the meeting lasted for four hours is an indication that East Huron, even with the gerrymander, will be a Conservative county on Nov. 3.

In Bowmanville rumor is busy with this story: A prominent lawyer, who has in the past been exceedingly averse to Liberalism, after the last election, a reward for his services. He was informed that he valued his party services higher and insisted upon a high court judgeship. He is now said to be in the hands of the Conservative cause. In Bowmanville, the lawyer was incensed and vowed that never again would he support a Liberal. Now, since the taking of Mr. Aylesworth in the cabinet, the Liberal nomination, the lawyer is again becoming active, and his friends are promising that he will be a positive promise that as soon as Mr. Aylesworth becomes minister of justice the high court judgeship will be given to him. A despatch from Chatham says the point at issue in West Kent, at the present time is the question of the tariff. The Liberal party is working hard and saying very little. The Liberal party is working hard and saying very little. The Liberal party is working hard and saying very little.

The important point for Canadians is how Canada is to be treated in the matter of this great issue. It is just now within their power to speak with an uncertain sound upon the question. Ostensibly both of the Canadian parties make the same profession of imperial faith. The Liberals claim credit for the voluntary preference which their tariff gives to British imports, and declare that they are ready to move step by step with Great Britain in advancing the policy. DIFFERENCE OF $45,000 IN ESTIMATES AND TENDERS

Board of Education Face Problem in the Building of Three Schools.

The board of education last night decided to ask the city council for an additional appropriation of $45,000 in order to have necessary school accommodations provided.

Trustee Levee said they were now paying out $3000 for school accommodations in the east end, which represented interest on a larger investment.

Trustee Rawlinson said he would vote for the school vote for the reason that the people to pay the prices that were demanded. The report in favor of asking for the money was adopted, however, without a division.

Ex-Trustee Clark appeared to champion the eclectic system of short-hand, which the management committee recommended should be superseded by the present system and the recommendation was referred back for further consideration.

E. H. A. Watson was appointed trustee to be in charge of the school room to be opened in the Jameson-avenue Collegiate Institute, and J. L. Levee was appointed trustee of the temporary staff of the Jesse Ketchum school.

Roman Tower at Alexandria. It is strange that Alexandria, although situated in a land where the greatest works of man outlive long ages, should possess so few monuments testifying to its past.

The Origin of Hand-Shaking. Hand-shaking, as those in Britain particularly affect it, has its origin in the fact that the British are a people of a martial or warrior type.

A Bass Solo. The Basco Pro-fundo, in evening dress, he tucked up his trousers, and sang.

England First Used Guillotine. It is not generally known that the guillotine was used in Yorktown a century before the French Revolution.

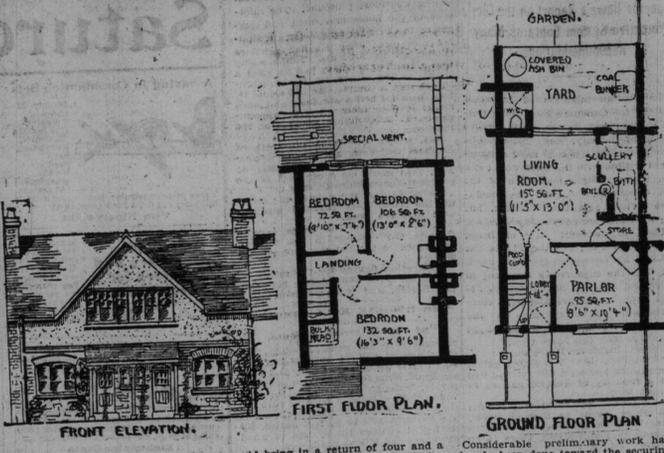

Bi-Centennial Babies. The baby-carriage greatly outranks the German crown prince, for while the latter is only a lieutenant, the former is already a colonel, and of a French regiment at that.

A Long Journey. Two thousand miles may seem a long journey for a customer to take in purchasing a Ryrie Diamond.

A Question of the Day. O, sing a song of servants and a kitchen in distress.

"How many in the family?" "Do you put the washing out?" "Are the children tired or stout?"

"Can I have two days off a week?" "D'cher you see it over your house or rent?"

"How many cats and dogs?" "Do you sit on the piano after half-past eight?"

"What kind of breakfast d'ye use?" "Do you belong to any clubs?" "Where is your laundry sent?"

"How often do you change the sheets?" "Have you a telephone?" "Will I have to eat alone?"

"Who is your doctor?" "Do you take a morning stroll?" "The bathroom up or down stairs?"

"Who sweeps the sidewalk and the steps?" "Have you an opera box?" "Do you have three people in to dine who'd give a tip on stocks?"

"How often do you give a Tea?" "And must I wear a cap?" "And I have three hours each day to take my beauty nap?"

O, sing a song of servants and a household all upset. He has made the air just blue with growl and epithet.

White Ms. she says that in "that land so sweet, so pure, so fair," She hopes and prays that there will be no servant question there!

R. L. B. Fraser Convicted by Sessions Jury for Non-Support of His Wife.

All yesterday afternoon and part of last night, Judge Winchester and a jury listened to the marital woes of R. L. B. Fraser and his wife. Then the jury, after 10 minutes deliberation, returned a verdict of guilty. They were both 23 years of age and were married three years ago next Christmas day by Rev. John Langry in St. Luke's Church. The acquaintance of the young couple began in a street car. In the first few days of their marriage her husband told her he was in receipt of a salary of $10 per week, which was to be increased to $15 at an early date. She learned afterwards that he was only receiving $5 a week. At the time they were married it was agreed that each should keep a secret and that each should live on their respective homes until there was more money coming into the family treasury. This was all right until Papa Fraser, thru an anonymous letter, was made aware of the marriage and ordered his son away. The young fellow went to the home of his mother-in-law, Mrs. Hickey, and was to pay $2.50 per week for his board, the mother refusing to take any pay for her daughter's board. He lived with her until two months after he had been born. He neglected to bring home some medicine for the child one evening. There was a quarrel. The wife says her young husband caught her by the throat and dragged her around the room by her hair. When her mother interfered she was subjected to the same treatment. Her husband had contributed anything of the support of herself or child since March, 1902, and not much previous to that time. Mrs. Hickey, Mrs. Fraser's mother, corroborated her daughter's story and said that she paid the expenses of the birth of both her daughter's children.

Public Ownership.

Kingston News and Times: The critics who take unfavorable views of Mr. Borden's public ownership scheme in the railway seem not to be aware or forget that this scheme is neither new nor untried, and where the experiment has been made under fair conditions has been a success. In France and Germany the railways are mostly owned by the state, and pay a handsome return for the investment. In several of our sister colonies public ownership of railways has been in operation for some time, and there is operation to exchange it for private control. Australia and South Africa, the enjoying slow freight rates, reap the benefit of public ownership. We have the Intercolonial and this line is limited to the good will of two private companies. KILLED BY GAS.

Niagara Falls, Oct. 6.—James Ford, the Bridge-trust barber, was found dead in the bathroom of his house on Clifton-avenue about 7 o'clock this morning. His wife returned last evening, and, finding the house locked and in darkness and thinking her husband probably out of town, went to her own room. Early this morning she went to her own house, and, finding a strong odor of gas coming from the door, she broke in to the bathroom. She entered the house and found the body of her husband partially dressed on the floor of the bathroom. The house was filled with gas and the gas stove was burning. Why the flame had not ignited the escaping gas, an investigation will be made.

Miss Haggood tells how she was cured of Fallopian and Ovarian Inflammation— and escaped an awful operation by using Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I suffered for four years with what the doctors called Salpingitis (inflammation of the Fallopian tubes) and Ovaritis, which are most distressing and painful ailments, affecting all the neighboring parts, undermining the constitution, and sapping the life force. If you had seen me a year ago, before I began taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and had noticed the sunken eyes, sallow complexion, and general emaciated condition, and compared that person with me as I am today, robust, hearty and well, you would not wonder that I feel thankful to you and your wonderful medicine, which restored me to new life and health in five months, and saved me from an awful operation."—Miss IRENE HARGOOD, 1022 Sandwich St., Windsor, Ont.

Ovaritis or inflammation of the ovaries or fallopian tubes which adjoin the ovaries may result from sudden stopping of the monthly flow, from inflammation of the womb, and many other causes. The slightest indication of trouble with the ovaries, indicated by dull throbbing pain in the side, accompanied by heat and shooting pains, should claim your instant attention. It will not cure itself, and a hospital operation, with all its terrors, may easily result from neglect.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I can truly say that you have saved my life, and I cannot express my gratitude to you in words. Before I wrote to you telling how I felt, I had doctored for over two years steady and spent lots of money in medicine besides, but it all failed to do me any good. My menses did not appear that time, and I suffered spells, headache, backache and bearing down pain, and was so weak that it was hard for me to do my work. I used your medicine and treatment as directed, and after taking three bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, menses appeared, my womb enlarged, and I have been regular ever since. I used fourteen bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Blood Purifier together, and am now restored to perfect health. Had it not been for you, I would have been in my grave. I will always recommend your wonderful remedies, and hope that these few lines may lead others who suffer as I did to try your remedies."—Mrs. T. C. WILLIAMS, R. R. No. 1, Manning, Iowa.

Such unquestionable testimony proves the power of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound over diseases of women. Women should remember that they are privileged to consult Mrs. Pinkham at Lynn, Mass., about their illness, entirely free.

FOSTER IN NORTH TORONTO

Continued From Page 1. A. Macdonald waged Mr. Foster was his right hand man. Mr. Laidlaw aroused the convention to great enthusiasm with a speech for conservation and an assurance of victory. He anticipated after having gone over the list a majority of 90 to 100.

Steve W. Burns, who nominated Mr. Foster, spoke briefly and was followed by E. F. Pearson, who seconded the nomination. All the gentlemen nominated having retired except Mr. Dr. Nesbitt, who remained to cast the ballot, and amid cheers the chairman announced the nomination.

Not As Feared. Coming to Toronto only three weeks ago, making himself a resident here, and not yet acquainted with a very large number of people, Mr. Foster should have done him the honor and reposed in him the confidence they had, said Mr. Foster in accepting the nomination. They were responsible for his candidature. They had the honor and placed the flag in his hands. He would do nothing in the next thirty days in dishonour to the people who followed behind him would do so. He wished them to know that he was not recruited right from that red-hot spot, and that they would not pass him on the street if they met him. Some of the papers had represented him as a cold nature, something of an iceberg. On the contrary, he was so volent he had to put the strongest repression upon himself. It was so finally impelled to throw his arms round the neck of his friends, only he knew they objected to being pushed over, and he assured them that he had the warmest of hearts.

The next thing was to be united. Sometimes the standard-bearer was not united with himself, saying one thing in one place and another somewhere else. What he said in one place he said everywhere else. He took it that they were prepared to stand by him unflinchingly to hand. Not only that, but the five Toronto should stand up as one. It would be a peculiar, even a shameful thing if they did not all come out successfully together.

Then they must not under rate the enemy. They had taken him as their candidate. He would be in one respect the hardest man in Canada. He verily believed the government would rather defeat him than any other man. He was the most misanthropic man, whose tongue was so soft and words so smooth, that why they hated to have him in a moment they could not tell.

His audience did not need to be cultivated very much in the present circumstances of the campaign. Although he was candidate for North Toronto, he would ask them to spare him as much as possible. It was hard to refuse old friends, and constituents were, perhaps, life depending on the result, but if the North Toronto electors would do the work and not be too exacting he could do much to help the party outside.

The Prosperity of the West. Every year there came up a crop of young men who might not take in so fully as their fathers the lessons of history. He wished to see that they stood in the forefront of the campaign arguments. It was the tremendous prosperity of the country. That prosperity was sent like a stream of living water welling up out of the eternal rocks and sending a flood of life to the Northwest with its exhaustless resources. This year $5,000,000 bushels of wheat were being marketed in the West. A bushel of the land that twenty years ago had been trackless prairie, that is what makes prosperity in Canada. He would go back to 1870 and 1872, or to 1878, 1880, 1882 and 1883. Line up the Liberal party of the Northwest, there was one remark you could make of them. They had not the least faith in the possibilities of the Northwest. They cavilled at every dollar spent on it, while he was filled with the possibilities of the great prairie, and in his first speech advocated the loan of $20,000,000 rather than see its development retarded.

In Spite of Them. The other great source of wealth and prosperity of the country was its industries. The Liberals flaunted them now and too kingly in them. That they had them in Canada was in spite of the best and worst that the Liberals could do for 38 years. Mr. Foster had a boy in the Maritime Provinces when the confederation was discussed. A celebratory individual had declared they would not fight against geography. Geography could be banished with pluck and enterprise plus faith. But they needed faith to tunnel the mountains, and to plant steeping towers under their property and power and development.

The Difference. The farm and the factory were growing up together. The Conservative party had made no mistake in 1903 when, in these years of stress, they laid off some of the tariff duties. In those days the Northwest was just struggling up thru ten years of adversity. The government, they said, should lighten the burden by 19 million and help the farmers then they had changed. The face of things had changed. The farmers had since learned how to farm in the Northwest. Now they felt the pinch. The richest part of the country was going to be the Northwest. During Mr. Borden's trip a year and a half ago, he talked protection in the same terms there here, and the people thought it good doctrine, and a lesson to be learned.

Mr. Foster quoted to the effect that it was just as practical to hold the politician as any other man who obtained goods under false pretences as a cheat and a swindler. He had to be played with as you would play a card. This good doctrine was preached, said Mr. Foster, in 1898, by Hon. W. S. Fielding, the present minister of finance, and Sir Richard Cartwright, who, happy memory, agreed with him. Sir Wilfrid Laurier, the practical man, had repudiated after he got in all pledges he made before he got in. He was of higher importance than a freeman's conscience and a freeman's vote. Money, cotton, stocks, would fit and vanish, but a man's honor and confidence and pledge should be priceless and unending through the whole Liberal party that they pledged themselves in 1896 and deliberately violated every one of their pledges as soon as they got into power.

The country at heart liked a straightforward man and he wished them to contrast L. R. Borden with Sir Wilfrid Laurier. At the Manufacturers' Association, among other topics which Sir Wilfrid dabbled with was imperial preference. Mr. Foster had striven to point to make it appear that Sir Wilfrid had answered Lord Rosebery, for that was his name, but he would have been a man of acute mind had declared Sir Wilfrid was done as posed to it, and another had said he was in the light, favor of it. So it went the rounds, and they made a regular football of it.

MENT WAS IN EXTREMIS

There was no doubt about that. He believed, in his mind, he was in extremis. They were keeping quiet about it, but he saw them coming out of the building in the party, and he saw as if they had taken something they didn't want to give up. He saw them like, the only policy the Ontario government had was one that outside had spat out of their mouths. He saw help the stomach of the ministers. The ministers contained the means taken and could get, and then when the courts were ready to adjudicate upon the election methods they stepped out and called a session of parliament to talk the ends of justice.

"I think it is the most awful thing in British politics I ever read or heard of," said Mr. Foster. The session ended and the courts resumed their sway. The revelations were awful. Did you suppose they had looked into the depths? The blackness and the meanness and lowliness of the current of events which flowed from the government was indescribable. With all the talk of the Ontario people, the Ontario government should strengthen the Dominion Liberals. That was the only thing to think of, a double duty to perform, so that in striking one they should strike both.

A Fair Fighter. "Meet your opponents," he contended, "in a fair way. Fight it out like gentlemen in a straight level campaign. First get out your own side that you are superior and then go to those who need convincing." The brightest and straightest men they could get were none too good to deal with the important questions. The next day the Ontario people would never make a country great. The country out of which the strong men were coming was ready for the grave. "That is what happened Sir Richard," concluded the speaker.

Young Endeavorers Had Successful First Day. Audience of 3,000 Listened to Instructive Addresses in Massey Hall Last Night. The largest and most enthusiastic course of Christian Endeavorers seen in Toronto for some years was that which gathered in Massey Hall last night. The meeting was the first of the three days' convention of the Provincial Endeavorers now in progress, and last night over 3000 of the members and adherents of the society assembled. The hall was occupied by Rev. Alexander Esler, the Ontario president, and Rev. Dr. Potts, Rev. Dr. Perry, Dr. Dixon, Rev. Dr. Crews, and Rev. Dr. Wilson of Hamilton. A magnificent hymn was drawn from the young people's songs of the city, and their music was so appreciated that the hymns sung and the gathering was leaving the hall only to serve to keep the meeting longer in the hall. The Lyric Male Quartet, from Parkdale were encored several times. The first of the two chief addresses of the evening was by Rev. Dr. Perry. Starting with the text, "Young Christians have one, not many masters," Dr. Perry went to show the things which made Christianity and Christian Endeavorers a power in the land. The qualities of those who do great things, he said, were youth, education and the upward look. They were young and they should seek for the things that could be done without the upward look. Faith in God and readiness in time of trouble to turn the eyes heavenward. They should have one central idea in their work and that should be their religion. Rev. Dr. Potts followed with a talk on the supreme things in life. He took as his prime example the three wise men of the east for the Christ, their faith and duty in the long journey following the star, and their consequent reward when they reached Bethlehem. This he saw was an example of the Christian Endeavorers, the supreme duty, and the supreme beauty.

McCaulley's Company Sold. $3,000,000 Mercantile Agency Brings Up $20,000. New York, Oct. 6.—The $3,000,000 Mercantile Agency was sold at public auction to-day for $20,000. The sale was conducted by Rev. A. G. Beach, Jr. and Receiver George B. Beach. It was Receiver Beach's purpose to auction the belongings of the company in separate lots, but he abandoned this plan in the first act. He started the auction by putting up the reports of the financial standing of tens of thousands of firms throughout the United States and Canada. There were supposed to have cost $2,000,000 to collect. The highest bid was $10. Receiver Beach refused to accept the bid, and the property was sold in two lots. In the first lot everything belonging to the company except the outstanding accounts, was included. The second lot consisted of the accounts due to the company, valued at $2,000,000, and the second lot to the same value. The property was sold to Charles H. Barritt of Philadelphia for $23,000, and the second lot to the same value. The property was sold to the sole owner of the franchise corporation, Thomas N. McCaulley, formerly president of the company.

Another Ball Club For Sale. Philadelphia, Oct. 6.—At a meeting of the stockholders of the Philadelphia National League Club to-day the question of the disposal of the franchise and players was formally discussed. Only a limited number of stockholders was present, and no definite action was taken. President Pulliam of the National League attended the meeting in order to report directly to the league any action of the stockholders. The report of President Potter of the club showed a financial loss, and it is said the sentiment of the stockholders favors disposing of the club. Mr. Potter said: "We shall finish the season, and all debts will be paid; but after that it will be for the stockholders to determine whether they wish to continue."

Mount Pelee in Eruption. Kingston, St. Vincent, Oct. 6.—The captain of the British steamer Sibuan, which arrived here to-day, reports that when the steamer passed the island of Martinique, on Sept. 30, Mount Pelee was in full eruption. The spectacle was witnessed by those on board the Sibuan at 2 o'clock in the morning of the day mentioned, the volcano emitting abundant black clouds and balls of fire. This accounts for the dust clouds reported to have been seen yesterday through the Windward Islands.

GREAT STIR ABOUT MUKDEN

Perhaps it Means Movement to Check the Japanese Flanking Operations. The significance of a Mukden despatch, which is the subject of much speculation at St. Petersburg, is not generally accepted. The despatch is the subject of much speculation at St. Petersburg. The theory that it indicates the purpose of Gen. Kurapatkin to evacuate the town is not generally accepted. Military officials are assuming that the communication noted in connection with a movement to check the Japanese flanking operation. Russian official circles seem to be under the impression that the Russian Admiral Wires has left Port Arthur with his ships, the command being given to the Russian army on Tuesday being regarded as having made such a dash possible. The Russian army is being ordered to remain in the vicinity of the town. There are indications that the Russian warships in the Baltic will soon be despatched to the east.

FLEET LEFT PORT ARTHUR BUT NEWS NOT CONFIRMED. Admiral Wires Has Tacit Orders Committee to Sound Locals on Subject—President Raynor Resigns. St. Petersburg, Oct. 7.—(2.30 a.m.)—While the admiralty claims to have no knowledge of the departure of the Port Arthur squadron, it is inferable from the way in which the report that such an event had transpired has been received that definite confirmation would not come as a surprise. The Associated Press is informed that no direct orders have been sent to Admiral Wires to break through the blockade, but he is tacitly admitted that the admiralty has discretionary powers to leave Port Arthur in the hands of the Russian fleet, and particularly the torpedo boats, which are being used as a makeshift shelter, thus leaving the way clear for a Vindicator. Some naval officers, however, are inclined to think the firing that was heard at Chefoo may only have been directed at blockade runners.

BARTLETT ACCUSES MCKELLAR. Winnipeg, Oct. 6.—Melvin Bartlett, accused of unlawfully appropriating funds belonging to the local government while he was employed as clerk in the agricultural department, struck a sensation in Magistrate McKenna's court when he came up for trial this morning. In the nature of a letter addressed to the premier of Manitoba, which contained accusations implicating McKellar in a scheme to defraud the government, Bartlett claimed that McKellar had had full knowledge of what was going on, and had shared equally in the proceeds.
