THEY FALL TO AGREE ON A REFEREE

Selection of Third Man in the Jeffries-Johnson Ring is Deferred Until May 16—Coffroth Secures a License For Bout

San Francisco, May 5.—Local enthusiasts expressed much disappointment today over the failure of the fight promoters and principals to agree on the referee race and as to which date further formal consideration of the veering problem was postponed, remains to be seen.

"I'll name you twenty," declared Jeffries' manager. "Yes," countered Jack Johnson, "and I'll name fifty but you won't have one of them."

"Why not," queried Berger. "Because they're all smokers," said the negro, flashing his "golden smile."

It looks now as if California were out of the running in the referee race and as if there is a good chance for a customer to be selected, Eddie Smith and Charles Elyton, who was preferred by the Jeffries contingent are persons not grata to the Johnson faction and the latter's choice, Jack Welch and Eddie Granger, are in equal disfavour in the opposing camp.

Nothing more to worry now" was the greeting Jeffries gave the newspaper men who were waiting at the station on his return from Oakland. "I won't stop any more for anything unless I feel that I'm getting into condition too fast."

Jeffries evidently is not fretting over the referee question and seems willing to shift all the burden of that matter to San Berger's ample shoulders.

Cut Bouts to Ten Rounds Oakland, Cal., May 5.—Boxing contests in this city hereafter will be limited to ten rounds instead of fifteen according to an order issued by the police commission. The change resulted from the death of Tommy McCarthy in San Francisco after his bout with Oren Moran. The new order does not affect Emeryville, a suburb, which is an independent township, and where the Jeffries-Johnson fight is to take place.

San Francisco, May 5.—James W. Coffroth, the fight promoter has been granted a permit by the board of supervisors to hold the Billy Papke-Joe Thomas contest in his Colma arena, on May 14. From this action it is evident the promoters of the Jeffries-Johnson fight say that the authorities are not moved by the protests of the ministers against prize fights.

Other Sporting Notes of Today Chicago, May 5.—Zybzsko, the Polish wrestler, who is to meet Frank Gotch in this city on May 30 for the world's championship at catch-as-catch-can has been matched with Dr. H. F. Heller, of Seattle for a finish match in Buffalo. The date set is May 16, which gives Zybzsko just time to return to this city and fulfil the requirements of the articles of agreement with Gotch which calls for his presence here by that time.

Times' Special Cable. London, May 5.—Donald Armour, the eminent Canadian jurist, and distinguished surgeon's son, sitting presided at the Canada Club dinner last night. He said as a nation within the empire, realized that nationhood's privileges and burdens were inseparable. They had received power to arrange their own affairs yet were determined to give preference to the motherland. If they claimed control of their own naval and militia forces these were ever available for the empire's defence.

Canadiana more than ever believed that the dominion's prosperity depended upon permanent connection with the motherland. The Australian commissioner, Mr. Reid, said Providence formerly relieved us of the necessity of caring for the empire but the time has come to give providence a rest. Our strength consists of re-inforcing your Regulations that local government was to decide whether local forces should participate in an imperial war, if tempted, owing to a scarcity of female labor in this district.

ASBESTOS CASE IS RESUMED

Evidence of Prosecution in Coombs Matter is Completed—Counsel Address Court and Case Goes Over Till Tomorrow

Hearing in the case of H. Leslie Coombs was continued this morning in the police court before Judge Ritchie. The examination of Alexander Warrell was concluded and other witnesses were called. E. P. Raymond conducted the prosecution and R. E. Madden, the sum involved being $4,000. Another read referred to the same parties, was dated in November and the amount was $1,200. The handwriting in each case was said by Mr. Warrell to be that of the defendant.

The cash book was referred to and Mr. Warrell read transactions involving $4,000 and $1,200 paid to H. R. Madden for equipment.

Mr. Mullin informed the court that he was to buy two asbestos lots, but from whom he did not say, hearing out his statement. Mr. Mullin said he offered this explanation in view of the fact that the prosecution had brought out evidence that some erasing had been done on one of the company's books, relative to the deal between Madden and Coombs, a change in the wrong being from "Asbestos lots," to "equipment."

Mr. Raymond read from the minute book the records of a meeting at which Madden had acted as secretary, and had been appointed a director as well as the following for the year 1909 to 1910: X. Leblanche, Roche Gagne, H. W. Adam, Hon. A. T. Dunn and L. A. Coombs. This was allowed in evidence.

Mr. Warrell recognized a book, produced by Mr. Raymond as the ledger of the company, which had been sent here yesterday from Sherbrooke where the office of the company is now located. From the ledger Mr. Raymond read in Coombs' handwriting an item dated October 27, 1909, $4,000 was received, and another dated November 20 when the sum was $1,200. Over the top of the account the name R. E. Madden, Boston, (Mass.) was written. On the opposite side of the page the auditor had charged $50 to Coombs, as the entire cash for that amount above the voucher.

Mr. Raymond called the witness if he could not recall respecting the transaction relative to the defense, and this was objected to by the defense, and the question was dropped.

Cross-examined by Mr. Mullin, Mr. Warrell said that the item relating to the $4,000 transaction in October had been posted to the ledger from another book, dated November 20 when the sum was $1,200. Over the top of the account the name R. E. Madden, Boston, (Mass.) was written. On the opposite side of the page the auditor had charged $50 to Coombs, as the entire cash for that amount above the voucher.

Prinze Helie's Creditor GET KNOCKOUT B. Bankruptcy Declared Void and Estates Are Returned to His Control—He Owes $3,750,000

Berlin, May 5.—Prinze Helie de Sagan has administered a knockout blow to his German creditors, to whom he owes $3,750,000. As already reported in dispatches, the prince's German estate in Silesia, including the Duchy of Sagan, were placed in bankruptcy for the creditors' benefit.

As a result of stubborn litigation on his part, the prince's lawyers this week succeeded in inducing the courts to declare the bankruptcy proceedings null and void, and the principality, with its estimated annual income of $175,000, now returns to the prince's unimpeachable personal administration.

His German creditors were reduced to the necessity of waiting for Prinze Helie to reply to their plaintive requests to "please clear a debt."

Since his marriage to Countess Anna Gould Castellani the creditors declare that the prince has not made a single move in the direction of his pocket.

"He is what you call a bundle of contradictions, eh?—a rough fellow with the heart of a bull. But he saved my life, and that naturally counts for a god deal with me. And how is your niece after last night's terrible experience?"

"My niece? Dye mean Lisa?" demanded Bulmer, obviously somewhat annoyed.

"Yes."

"She's not my niece, she's—"

"No, sir. That young lady 'as done me the honor of promising to be my wife."

"You mean that Lisa, that girl with the brilliant eyes on Bulmer's neck?"

"There's no 'Oh' about it," cried Dickey. "It was all over 'er neck weeks ago, an' she ain't riled of 'er bargain yet, as far as I can make out."

"What about the marriage was arranged before the Andromeda sailed?"

"Why, of course. It couldn't've been fixed after, could it?"

"No—not as between you and her. I can vouch for that. Forgive me, Mr. Bulmer—I have a daughter of marriagable age."

"You don't mean to say you're going to do you think that it is a wise thing for a man of your years to marry a girl of twenty?"

"If I didn't, I wouldn't do it."

"But may it not be selfish?"

"What! selfish! Landscaper took hold of the argument."

"Look here, we are you drive 'at' demanded Dickey now in a white heat of anger. He had yet to learn that the President preferred a straight-forward way of talking."

"I want you to forego this marriage," he said.

"Because that charming girl loves another man, but feels that she is bound to you. I understand the position at last. Mr. Bulmer, you cannot wish to break her heart and drive her mad."

"Philip Hoyer, to depart. Come now! Let you and me reason this thing together. Possibly, when she agrees to marry me, she will not know what love is."

"She is high-minded, an idealist, the sort of woman who would never be separated from her friends on Fernando Noronha merely because it is inconvenient to do so."

"How few women, loving a man like Philip Hoyer, who is assured of splendid reward for his services to this State, would readily deny the claims of her own heart in order to keep her word?"

"Then, don't you see, she is bound to you by the crystal directness of Dom Corria. Each word she says is some part of the force which he had deliberately evoked around his own intelligence. Certain facts had found revivals in the latter already. Dom Corria broke down her will, and she was a hard man, and she had not been of yielding habit, and his heart was set on her."

"You are mighty sure that she is wrapped up in this young man?" he growled.

"Were I not, I would not have interested. Take my advice. First, ask yourself an honest question. Then ask the girl. She will answer. I promise you that."

"I am a rich man," persisted Dickey.

"Nobody forced 'er, one way or the other."

"Who's David?"

"Her uncle. I take it, if a man wishes to marry a girl he does not love, he must be a devil."

"Here, in Brazil?"

"Then Bulmer said something about Brazil that was not to be expected from one of his class. In fact, he regarded Brazil as the cause of the whole trouble, and his opinion concerning that marvellous land coincided with Hoyer's. He turned and walked away, looking a trifle odd, a trifle more bent, perhaps, than when he came out of the house."

An hour later, Dom Corria and Lisa were in a car. They were discussing arrangements for a speedy move to the capital when Lisa ran into them. Her face was flushed, and she had been crying. Much to Carmela's amazement, the Eng-

The Tenderfoot Farmer

It was one of these experimental farmers, who put green spectacles on his cow and fed her shavings. His theory was that it didn't matter what the cow ate so long as she was fed. The questions of digestion and nourishment had not entered into his calculations.

It's only a tenderfoot farmer that would try such an experiment with a cow. But many a farmer feeds his pigs for all the good he gets out of his food. The result is that the stomach grows "weak" the action of the organs of digestion and nutrition are impaired and the man suffers the various symptoms of dyspepsia and the agonies of nervousness.

To strengthen the stomach, restore the activity of the organs of digestion and nutrition and brace up the nerves, use Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It is an unerring remedy, based on the confidence of physicians as well as the praise of thousands healed by its use.

In the strictest sense "Golden Medical Discovery" is a temperance medicine. It contains neither intoxicants nor narcotics, and is as free from alcohol as from opium, cocaine and other dangerous drugs. All ingredients printed on its outside wrapper.

Don't let a dealer delude you for his own profit. There is no medicine for stomach, liver and blood "just as good" as "Golden Medical Discovery."

The Chicago Stock Company has been selected to present a medal to the president, Mrs. Smith was eighty years old on March 10, or, as she expresses it, eighty years young.

The members of the Metropolitan Grand Opera Company, their four weeks' season in Chicago finished, left on Sunday for Atlanta, where they will be heard in five operas. The advance sale there, it is reported, has reached $30,000, and a prospectus engagement there is assured.

From Atlanta the company will go to New York, ready to take ship for Paris, where a month's engagement has been arranged.

The Evening Chit-Chat

By RUTH CAMERON

THE ERR is human; to admit one's errors to one's self, not divine, but at least one rung up the ladder between man and divinity.

Which is by way of introducing a few words on the weakness of self-justification.

Suppose you have done an unkind or thoughtless or selfish thing, and you are faced with it, you defend yourself of your accusers, of course. That's as much a natural instinct as it is to put up your arm to ward off a blow.

There ARE men who have the courage and control and high-mindedness to remonstrate with themselves, and to review a recollection of themselves as calmly and pass upon it as fairly, as they would upon another man's sin or mistake.

But these are rare men.

We can't all do that.

But there is one thing we can all do, and that is not to be kind of cowardly who will never admit their own faults and mistakes even to themselves.

The other day you lost your temper and said a lot of harsh and undesired things to your very good friend. He stood it for a while and then he lost his, and told you what an ill-tempered brute you were, and you asserted that you were nothing of the sort, and told him all the reasons you had for losing your temper, and what a wonder it was you were able to keep it all, with anyone as exasperating as he was, around.

And now you are alone and are thinking over that explosion of yours, you can do one of two things.

You can wallow in the mire of self-justification and say, "He shouldn't have said what he did about my work." "He is too quick to go off the handle." "He has said much worse things to me and I have just told him to go as far as he liked." "He hasn't been treating me square lately, anyway."

Or you can face your fault fairly and squarely and say: "I don't wonder he called me an ill-tempered brute. I was. I've got the worst temper this side of the Mississippi."

Tell me which of these two you do and I will tell you whether you are the kind of man who grows in character with the years or not.

The basis of all development is the admission of faults and mistakes. The man who continually wears a screen of cowardly self-justification between himself and his faults can't develop any more than a plant can develop screened from the sun.

Next time you have committed a fault or made a mistake and you are reviewing it in your mind, why don't you try, instead of following your natural instinct to justify yourself, to take a new tack and try to judge yourself as justly as if you were thinking of the case of a third person.

CHEERY NOTE IN FAREWELL OF EARL GREY

Replying to Address, Governor General Declares Canada the "Rudder of the Empire" "Sees Wonderful Future for Us"

Ottawa, May 6.—Replying to the address of parliament to Lord and Lady Grey, the retiring governor-general said:

"It is with feelings of no ordinary emotion that I acknowledge the great honor conferred upon me today by the parliament of the dominion. That address, the kind and friendly speeches of its members and its hearty and unanimous acceptance by the members of the senate and the house of commons, have caused me to realize afresh how great has been the interest and enjoyment of my life in Canada and how sincere and heartfelt is the regret with which I and all the members of my family view the approaching termination of my term."

"Thanks to increased transportation facilities, thanks more to the great kindness which I have received in every part of the dominion, I have had abundant opportunity, probably more abundant than has ever been vouchsafed to man, to make myself closely acquainted with the high hopes and confident beliefs of the Canadian people, to watch with unintermitted and ever increasing delight the rapid and unobscured unfolding of your amazing development and to form a more or less adequate estimate of your tremendous potentialities."

"Gentlemen, when I reflect on the vastness of your area, on the fertility of your soil, on the unlimited wealth of your natural resources, which I rejoice you are determined scientifically to conserve, as well as vigorously to develop, when I reflect upon the invigorating nature of your climate and on the strenuous character of your people, when I reflect on all these great advantages which you possess in such abundant and exceptional degree, then, gentlemen, I feel as convinced, as I am tomorrow's sun will rise, that if you keep

THE REASON WHY

You don't taste sauce? Perhaps not. K.—The Reason Why—No 5

but if you look for the reason why, you will find it in the fact that the word 'sauce' suggests to your mind a thin, dark, hot-tasting fluid, which, if taken in excess, runs all over the throat, saturates the vegetables, and eventually leaves a disagreeable burning sensation in the mouth. The wonder then, under those circumstances, you do not taste sauce—but change the circumstances and the taste will probably change.

A new sauce has been introduced by the Midland Canning Company of England, which is not a hot sauce, and is quite different from the old-fashioned sauce referred to above.

H. P. Sauce is served an immediate success and is now used regularly by those who never previously took sauce. It is prepared by blending together the choicest Oriental fruits and spices with pure malt vinegar. The manufacturers' secret process produces a thick, fruity sauce, which, if poured on the top of the plate, can be eaten with the meat, like mustard.

H. P. Sauce is also used extensively in the kitchen, for housewives have discovered its aid in family dishes in which everyone has grown tired, become tempting and delicious when enriched and softened with H. P.

All family grocers are selling H. P. Sauce. But course its success has brought many imitations, but if you ask for H. P., and see that those letters appear on each label, you will preclude the possibility of disappointment.

It is the highest ideals of duty and disinterested service, nothing can prevent you from becoming, and perhaps before the close of the present century, not only the granary but the heart and soul and rudder of the empire.

"I shall be my happy privilege on my return to England to submit to the king an expression of your devotion to his throne and person, also to impress upon his majesty, and on the people of the British Isles, that you, the people of Canada, are united in your high resolve to accomplish your part in the maintenance and building of the empire of which, if you are not afraid of the greatness of your destiny, you will one day become the controlling part."

"Gentlemen, Lady Grey and my daughters are greatly touched by your friendly expressions toward them. There is no one who is more conscious than I am that the success which has attended my government is due in a large measure to the whole-hearted co-operation I have received from them, and to their individual spontaneous effort to help in good and disinterested manner having for their

JARVIS WILSON HONORED ON HIS 94TH BIRTHDAY

Yesterday was the ninety-fourth birthday of Jarvis Wilson, of west St. John, one of the most prominent men in Carleton. He is still enjoying good health. Last night at his residence, 238 Charlotte street, west, his birthday was fittingly commemorated. A delegation of fellow Masons visited his home and Worshipful Master John Emerson, of the Masonic order, presented Mr. Wilson with a magnificent bouquet containing ninety-four carnations. Mr. Wilson spoke feelingly in accepting the tokens. He was also the recipient of congratulations from a large number of citizens. Mr. Wilson has two sons, Samuel K. Wilson and George Wilson, both lawyers, the former with his father, under the firm name of Jarvis Wilson. The children of Samuel are Jarvis, of John R. Moore & Co., Ltd.; William C., druggist, of West End; Mrs. W. J. Watson, of West End, and Miss Margaret Wilson, of the city. George Wilson's children are Jarvis, of the Western Union; George, of Montreal, and Miss B. Wilson, of the high school teaching staff. Miss Una Wilson is a daughter of W. C. Wilson. Mr. Wilson was born in Ireland and came to St. John in 1834, originally settling in the North End, but later removed to the west side, where he has resided for about 61 years. For the past half century he has been engaged in the lumber business. Last year he was made an honorary member of the Grand Masonic Lodge of the province and since 1882 he has been attached to the Carleton Union Lodge of the Masonic order. He served on the aldermanic board of the city for many years and for the past forty years he has been an elder in the Carleton Presbyterian church. In New York yesterday all the sugar refiners advanced the price of refined sugar 10 cents per hundred pounds.

He was to have appeared in court this morning, but did not do so.

The body of Miss Mabel Spaulding was brought her on the Boston train today from Waterville (Me.), enroute to Summerside (P. E. I.), for interment. Accompanying it was Mrs. W. H. Sturman. The card on the shell enclosing the casket announces the cause of death "surgical fright."

In the probate court this morning in the matter of the estate of Catherine McCloskey, wife of John McCloskey, the petition of John McCloskey and Mary E. McCloskey for letters testamentary was presented. The estate is really consisting of a freehold lot in Carmarthen street valued at $1,500. T. P. Regan is the executor.

WAS THE AMHERST ROAD TRACK SHORT? Did Cameron, Corkery and Horsman make the fast time credited to them at last night's race at Amherst? It was said here this morning on what should be good authority, that the track is short and would be more like thirteen laps to the mile than twelve. In any event the statement is made that it easily will make a difference of one minute and a half.

It was pointed out that Cameron's best time at the Halifax Mail road race last year for ten miles was more than 26 minutes, and about the same at the road race here last fall. Corkery's best time in the Hamilton road race last year was said to be 25:20 and Horsman's best time for the first ten miles of the fifteen mile race at the recent Y. M. C. A. sports here was 28 minutes. It is not considered possible that Cameron could make better time indoors than on a good road or outdoor track.

It has been suggested to settle the matter, that a steel tape be put on the track by the Amherst people. As the result of last night's race and Horsman's showing, Stirling's friends here feel more confident than ever that he should be able to give both Cameron and Corkery the race of their lives with the best possible chance of winning from them.

COUPLE FROM ST. JOHN IN A DIVORCE CASE

W. E. Dykeman's Daughter Declares She Turned Detective and Secured Evidence to Warrant Action By Her Mother

Boston, May 3.—(Special)—In the East Cambridge court this morning W. E. Dykeman, of St. John, until recently in the lumber business, was declared by his own daughter to have left his home for an affinity who is barely out of her teens. The girl said she turned detective and investigated her father's statements when he said he was going out of town on business, with the ascertained result that she discovered facts to warrant a divorce action for her mother, Mrs. M. Dykeman.

Mrs. Dykeman testified that she was married in St. John in 1883 and that her married life was happy until last July when she became satisfied there were adequate grounds for her present action.

A number of families of the name are listed in St. John directory, but there is no W. E. in the number.

WIFE BEATING AND BAD LANGUAGE

Charges Against James Thompson of Cranston Avenue—Police Court Matters

James Thompson was arrested this morning a little after nine o'clock by Sergeant Kilpatrick and Policeman Belyea on a charge of beating and assaulting his wife, using abusive and insulting language to her and also using threatening and abusive language to Mrs. Watters, a neighbor. He had been drinking this morning.

Last night he went to his home in Cranston avenue and, it is said, made things unpleasant for his family by threatening to break in the door and to burn the house down at the same time using abusive and revolting language.

His wife was to have come to court this morning to lay information against him, but because of his condition his case could not well be dealt with. It will probably be taken up tomorrow morning.

Five men charged with drunkenness faced Judge Ritchie this morning in the police court. Three of them, Daniel Finch, Edward O'Brien and David Hennessey were fined $8 each, George Goss $4 and Cook is out of Dorchester on ticket-of-leave, and pending an investigation, he was remanded.

William Shelley was also remanded on a charge of assaulting and beating an Indian named James Christmas in the Salvation Army shelter last night. Shelley was arrested by Policemen Neaton and Gosline after he had severely beaten Christmas. The latter had been a friend in need to him on Saturday had paid for his bed. Shelley has been in court several times, charged with assault.

Nichols was also of assaulting Policeman Lucas.

Nichols was being taken to the lock-up about noon by Policeman Nelson, but as he was resisting quite stubbornly, Lucas, who was passing, attempted to give his brother officer aid. This was resisted by McKerney, who, it is said, struck or kicked Lucas, with the result that he is now in jail along with Nichols.

FIGHT WITH THE POLICE

Lively Scrap in Union Street—Nelson Nichols and Albert McKerney Prisoners

As the result of a fist fight in Union street, which Nelson Nichols, an old offender in police circles, put up this morning, when arrested for drunkenness, he will have to answer to a charge of resisting the police as well as drunkenness, and another man, Albert McKerney, who, it is said, turned to help him, will have to answer to a charge of interfering with the police, and also of assaulting Policeman Lucas.

Nichols was being taken to the lock-up about noon by Policeman Nelson, but as he was resisting quite stubbornly, Lucas, who was passing, attempted to give his brother officer aid. This was resisted by McKerney, who, it is said, struck or kicked Lucas, with the result that he is now in jail along with Nichols.

JUDGE RITCHIE SPEAKS ON CRITICISM OF HIM

"If the person who rushed into print with regard to some alleged statements I was reported to have made, had asked me by telephone or otherwise, what had transpired in court, he would not, if he had any idea of fair play or sense of justice, have written what appeared over his signature in this morning's Standard."

This was what Judge Ritchie said this morning with reference to a letter which appeared in the Standard. He continued: "I am not responsible for what persons may say I state, I am responsible for what I state. I did not say that it was a common occurrence for Englishmen in Canada to rob their employers, such a statement would not have been true. I did say to the boy before me for theft of $21 from his fellow employee in the hotel after being there only a few hours, that he should have conducted himself so as to earn the respect of his employer and of the citizens in his new home."

"And I remarked that sometimes people formed rash judgments because of the conduct of newcomers in Canada, and by way of illustration I referred to a newspaper published in a part of the English Empire reflecting on English people generally. It read that 'No English need apply,' and I stated that I was surprised that such an advertisement would appear in a Canadian newspaper, and that expressed my disapproval of such reflections by a gentleman friend at the Montreal Club."

"I do hope that thoughtful people will not hold me responsible for reports of proceedings in court, which reports I have no opportunity of seeing until they appear in print."

Suits For Youths and Suits For Men

are different, and the difference is more important when it is considered that there are several sizes that apply to both. The standard size in Youths' Suits are from 31 to 36 inches, in Men's from 32 to 46 inches—meaning for overlapping numbers. Youths are often seen innocently wearing suits that were made for small Men, and their friends wonder what makes them look so odd.

There is a distinct section for Youths' Clothing in the Oak Hall store. It is the section that clothes the Boy with his first long trousers and takes care of his good appearance until he is of voting age. This season's styles for Youths are refreshingly boyant.
