CAPTAIN RECOUNTS THRILLING ESCAPE

WEDGED IN HOLE OF BRIDGE TORN BY HUGE WAVE

Laval County Arrives Here After 30-Day Trip

SERIES OF STORMS Skipper Pedersen Declares Voyage Worst He Has Ever Experienced

SAVED from being washed overboard from the bridge of his ship, 50 feet above the waterline, only by the narrowness of the hole through which a huge wave thrust him, feet foremost, Captain Pedersen, of the steamship Laval County, finally extricated himself as the water, which had literally filled the deck, receded.

When interviewed this morning Captain Pedersen said the voyage was one of the worst he had ever experienced, although the vessel came through without any serious damage.

MESSAGE FROM DYBWAD. A message was received from the steamship Johannes Dybwad, which is owned by the same people who are interested in vessels operating under the international transports Ltd., that she was in difficulties but he did not receive her S. O. S. call.

HIT BY HUGE WAVE. Referring to his own narrow escape the captain remarked that he was on the bridge with three men endeavoring to secure his bearings by the sun when suddenly a tremendous wave towered high above the bridge and broke down upon the ship.

PRaises RED HEAD. Referring to his trip up the bay which took place in the recent blinding snow storm Captain Pedersen took occasion to pay a striking tribute to the excellence and efficiency of the direction finding station at Red Head.

British Official Denies Canadian Maladministration of Pensions

OTTAWA REPORT IS NAILED BY BRITISH SECY. Sir Geo. Chrystal Discusses Pension Ministry's Action HAS NO COMPLAINT Praises Canadian Government For Services And Tells of Staff Changes

LONDON, Feb. 12.—In connection with a reference in the Canadian House of Commons to the report that the British Ministry of Pensions was taking over the administration of all the imperial pensions payable in Canada, Sir George Wm. Chrystal, permanent secretary of the Ministry of Pensions, in an interview here, says it was not true, as had been suggested in the House of Commons at Ottawa, that the change was the result of maladministration by the Canadian government.

There is no truth whatever in the statement that the British ministry of pensions has made complaint about Canadian administration of the pensions in question," Sir George declared. On the contrary the minister of pensions (Major G. C. Tryon) feels greatly obliged to the Canadian government for their services in the past.

TAKE OVER STAFF. "With the exception of one or two officials, who will be sent out from England, all the staff at present employed by the Canadian government in administering imperial pensions, will be taken over by the British Ministry of Pensions, including the doctors."

Continuing Sir George Chrystal emphasizes the cordial relations which have existed between the British Ministry of Pensions and the Canadian government. He declares that the manner in which the Dominion always has met the ministry with regard to claims and counter claims, has not afforded the least subject for recrimination and so far as the ministry is concerned, there is no occasion for such a suggestion as Canadian maladministration being at the bottom of the British pension ministry's action.

MEMBERS OF CABLE BOARD DECLINE TO TAKE POSTMASTER-GENERAL'S THREAT SERIOUSLY

Believe Murphy's Pamphlet Will Lead to Debate in Parliament, and Declare That Canada's Withdrawal Can Only Be Made by Legislative Action.

By British United Press. LONDON, Feb. 12.—While there is no Canadian representative attending meetings of the Pacific Cable Board, it is generally believed that a settlement of the differences will soon be made.

They believe that Postmaster-General Murphy's pamphlet will lead to a full dress debate in Parliament which will aid conciliation. It is expected that Sir Campbell Stuart, who is now in the West Indies will go to Ottawa before returning home to use his influence towards securing a settlement by members of the board, who think that the Dominion cannot long persist in such an attitude.

SAINT JOHN, N. B., FEBRUARY 12, 1926.

THE BEST YET.

The Maritime Provinces are looking forward to far and away the best tourist summer they ever had, and Saint John, as the natural gateway to a great tourist country, bids fair to benefit greatly from the traffic.

Yesterday's meeting at the Admiralty, attended by so many representatives of the transportation and tourist interests, was one of most hopeful augury. It was made known that at the beginning of the summer a special tourist train, to be known as "The Acadia," will leave New York every Friday morning at nine o'clock, reaching Boston at four in afternoon and arriving at Saint John at six the next morning, in plenty of time to permit of connections for all points in New Brunswick, Nova Scotia and Prince Edward Island.

It is proposed to continue that special service if the government warrants it, and the combined resources of the three provinces and of the transportation companies interested should suffice to make the patronage so great that the success of the enterprise will never be doubted.

It is chiefly a matter of making our attractions known to hundreds of thousands of people who are seeking a summer playground like ours, easy of access, and offering delightful climatic conditions and a freshness, novelty and charm of surroundings highly welcome to those who have become weary of excursions into familiar places which have lost their lure.

We have to consider, also, that there are actually hundreds of thousands of Maritime Province folk and other Canadians who have been long exiled and who would welcome any opportunity to visit their native provinces under improved conditions of transportation and of hotel accommodation.

We know that several of the New England states—to go no farther afield—have done for themselves through sustained campaigns to attract tourists.

They have brought millions upon millions of new money into their treasury in this way, the result being an immense impetus to local business of every character, the benefits being distributed through urban and rural districts alike.

The states and provinces which have been so successful in these matters are in many cases less rich in real attractions than are the Maritimes. Once the tourist stream is turned this way, in large volume, we shall be encouraged to extend our hotel accommodations, and construct new ones.

WHAT IS THE ANSWER? "How could the King of England be at war and the King of the British Empire be neutral?" This question is asked by Mr. Molson, President of the Oxford Union, a member of the Imperial debating team which is touring Canada. It recalls Sir Wilfrid Laurier's statement that "when Britain is at war, Canada is at war."

There is no danger that Canadians, or Australians, or New Zealanders, will be dragged into foreign service against their will—against the judgment of their Parliament—yet beyond the parliamentary self-government the Empire cannot safely go. Its various parts which share the benefits of Empire must share the dangers of Empire likewise. That is the broad principle, at all events. It is inescapable.

Canada is a member of the League of Nations. Whether or not it elects to become a party to the Locarno compact, it is already committed to its stability as a member of the League.

If the King of England should be again at war the King of the British Empire could not be neutral. The prospects for lasting peace have never been so good as they are at present, yet Canada's assistance in keeping the peace is necessary, and the League and the Locarno treaties are forms of insurance against war.

Poultney Biglow, American author and lecturer, is off for London, where he proposes to see H. G. Wells, the British author, for $50,000 for his memoirs, and in one chapter he made some unpleasant allusions to Mr. Wells.

It is a matter of making our attractions known to hundreds of thousands of people who are seeking a summer playground like ours, easy of access, and offering delightful climatic conditions and a freshness, novelty and charm of surroundings highly welcome to those who have become weary of excursions into familiar places which have lost their lure.

The Dreadful Example of Durkin (Toronto Star). The bride of a Chicago bandit (a vulgar class, but his one was named Durkin) advances a new theory to explain why men go astray. Durkin, she asserts, was once a peacemaker and hard-working switchman. "But when he began matching his neckties with his shirts, I could see his finish. That started him on the wrong path."

Old Dame Nature. Nature is terrible in her doings. If you sit down on a rock in the sun near your summer cottage you are almost sure to see ants proceeding hurriedly on the endless business of their insupportable lives, and ere long you are pretty sure to see two of them, of different tribes or political parties, engaged in deadly conflict. It may take ten minutes, or half an hour, or two hours, but eventually one of them will be slain and the other will lug the body home.

Something Seriously Wrong. (Owen Sound Sun-Times). Something serious is wrong with our Canadian economic system when coal miners are starving in Nova Scotia and Alberta while there is a serious fuel shortage and profligate prices in the short provinces.

THE EXODUS. (Quebec Evénement). If for the last ten years tens of thousands of young Canadians have decided to go to the United States to look for a livelihood, it is because they judge that their immediate chances of success are greater there than in the land of their forefathers. We believe to warn them they are wrong from the point of view of their future and the future of their children. But we cannot deny that our country has been so wretchedly governed in these latter days that there is cause to excuse many failures, many despondencies and men we see the King government sacrificing the interests of the population of the east in an unworthy effort to maintain themselves in power in the spite of their repudiation by the people.

I DO NOT see that the prospect for peace is any better this year than it was a year ago.

To speak of peace when the bloody struggle in Morocco is still unsettled and when the events in China take the aspect of a lasting civil war, means that we shut our eyes to all expressions of belligerent struggle that do not bear the accused features of a war between "civilized nations."

Concerning the future, we have only to turn our eyes to the old continent of Europe to find evidence that the terms of war possibilities are still a tragic reality.

All the written and spoken manifestations of the growing spirit for peace have, up to this time, scarcely influenced the real living conditions that still drive the Old World to inevitable bloody conflicts. One could only speak of a better prospect for peace if efficient measures had been taken to annihilate all those germs of conflicts between the nations which postwar treaties have brought into life or have left unsolved. But as it looks now, the world is still in danger of being dragged down to the abyss of struggle.

Is there really no practical force which can work against future wars? Yes, such a real, practical, living force exists. The very fact that a nation of a population of 130,000,000, the Socialist Soviet Republics Union, stands

PRICE SUGGESTS WHITE STAR LINERS CALL AT SAINT JOHN

Westmorland M. P. Also Wants Canadian Grain Shipments Via U. S. Ports Stopped and Opposes High Haulage Costs

RAIL RATES HIT N. B. LUMBER TRADE

Col. Cantley Hints Maritime Blockade of Government, Unless Protests Are Heeded; Threatens in Commons Speech to Use All His Side's Resources in Fight

OTTAWA, Feb. 11.—Dr. O. B. Price, of Westmorland, urged in today's debate in the House of Commons, that shipments of Canadian grain via U. S. ports should cease. Freight rates in the Maritimes, he added, worked against the farmer and lumbermen. Even local lumber shipments, he said, could not be covered on account of the high cost of transportation. He said every possible means should be urged to persuade the White Star line to make Saint John and Halifax its ports of call. Thereby a return traffic should be built up for the railways and would solve to a certain extent the problem of return cargo for the cars which carried grain eastbound.

Col. Cantley (Conservative, Pictou, N. S.) said to the government: "Unless you are prepared to come down and give us (the Maritimes) fair treatment, all the resources open to members on this side will be maintained until satisfaction in this matter is obtained."

J. E. Armstrong, of East Lambton, quoted figures to show that the trade treaties with France, Australia and New Zealand had not been in favor of Canada. He argued that the trade treaties had even worked against Canadian trade. The Liberals took no part in today's House debate. With one exception, all speeches were by Conservatives.

B. C. INDEPENDENT SPEAKS.

The only non-Conservative speech of the day was one by A. W. Neill, Independent of Comox-Alberni. Mr. Neill declared that as a protest against delay, he intended to vote not only against the Sutherland amendment, but against any other amendment which might be presented. The opposition, Neill went on, has been given the opportunity to overthrow the government and had failed. The important thing now was to get down to business.

AMERICAN EGGS SOLD.

W. K. Esling, a Conservative of Kootenay West, B.C., said that when the British Columbia farmer now drove to the stores in the nearest town he found them stocked with American eggs, fruit and produce. Chinese eggs were coming in, and the Canadian farmer suffered. Mr. Esling charged the government with erecting a post office and using steel manufactured in the United States, while thousands of tons of the same material of Canadian manufacture was lying unused six miles away.

ADVANTAGE LACKED.

O. B. Price (Conservative, Westmorland) said the farmers of his constituency did not have the same advantage as other Canadian farmers in getting to their markets. Freight rates in Central Canada and the West were designed to facilitate marketing. But this was not so in the Maritimes where freight rates worked against the farmer. They also worked against the lumber industry to such an extent that even the local shipments could not be moved on account of the high cost of transportation. Under the King-Thornton administration of the National Railways, a great injustice had been done to the City of Moncton. The administration of the railway division with headquarters at Moncton had 1,828 miles cut off from its section of the line and a large number of the staff formerly in Moncton had been moved to the head office of the National Railways in Montreal.

WHITE STAR SUGGESTION.

Dr. Price stressed the importance of diverting export grain to Canadian ports. He thought that every possible means should be used to persuade the White Star Line to make Saint John and Halifax its ports of call in the winter. Thereby a return traffic would be built up for the railways and would solve to a certain extent the problem of return cargo for the cars which carried grain eastbound. Dr. Price declared that the shipment of Canadian grain by United States ports should cease. Canada had constructed the National Transcontinental Railway at great expense for the express purpose of directing Canadian goods and commodities through Canadian ports. At present Canadian grain was shipped by New York, Boston, which was a much longer haul than from Saint John or Halifax. Dr. Price complained that the Maritime Provinces received but a very small share of the total amount paid by the Canadian National Railway system in provincial and municipal taxation. Out of total taxes paid municipalities, provinces and states through which the system operated.

Colds Are Not Necessary Evils

Observance of One Fundamental Rule of Health Protects Against Them

Whether one catches cold easily is largely a question of physical condition. If the general vitality is low, resistance to disease is weak and at such a time a cold is easy to contract and difficult to check. Constipation is frequently the cause of such a state of health, with its attendant listlessness, biliousness, headaches and a general lack of vitality. Poisons from the waste matter that remains behind after improper, irregular bowel elimination are picked up by the lymphatic system and carried to every part of the body. They weaken your resistance to disease. Thousands of people who have suffered from self-poisoning in this way have found that Nujol, the internal lubricant makes bowel elimination sure and easy. Nujol softens the waste matter and permits thorough and regular elimination without overtaxing the intestinal muscles. Nujol can be taken for any length of time with no ill effects. If you take cold easily, ask your druggist for Nujol to-day—and remember, look for the name "Nujol" in red on both bottle and package.

On Friday of last week the mail did not get through and yesterday the residents of Lovellville were without mail service. The villagers have had some strenuous work in digging out the road but, with the exception of the two days referred to, have always been able to have a regular mail service. It was in the year 1919 that the highway and to get the mail through.

He has been in the west since 1913. He has been visiting his father, Thomas McGuire, Chipman Hill.

ACIDS IN STOMACH CAUSE INDIGESTION

Create Gas, Sourness and Pain How To Treat. Medical authorities state that nearly nine-tenths of the cases of stomach trouble, indigestion, sourness, gas, bloating, nausea, etc., are due to an excess of hydrochloric acid in the stomach and not as some believe to a lack of digestive juices. The digestive stomach lining is irritated, digestion is delayed and food remains in the stomach. The result is a condition known as acid indigestion. Artificial digestants are not needed in such cases. The best remedy is to take Magnesia, which neutralizes the excess of acid and relieves the irritation. Magnesia is harmless to the stomach, inexpensive to take and is the most efficient form of magnesia for stomach purposes. Dorothy Dix

"A Beefsteak is Just as Sincere a Token of Love as a Bunch of Violets," Says Dorothy Dix, Explaining Why Husbands Discontinue Courting Their Wives After Marriage.

WE HEAR a great deal about the disillusion of matrimony. Wives complain that their husbands no longer keep up after marriage the delicate attentions they showed them before marriage.

"Before we were married," sighs a disgruntled lady, "my husband never came to see me without bringing me flowers or a box of candy. If he should bring me home a single rose now or a nickel's worth of gum drops, I should fall dead with surprise."

"Before we were married," says another peevish wife, "if there had been earthquakes and cyclones and revolutions and scandals in high-life, with headlines a foot high in the newspapers telling about them, my husband would have glanced at them."

"Now he sits up with a paper glued in his hand every minute he is in the house, and when I try to talk to him he just snatches it away from me."

"Before we were married," laments another wife, "my husband was always paying me compliments and telling me I was a beauty, and when I was not so beautiful as I used to be, he would tell me I was a pig."

And these ladies, and others of the same ilk, demand to know why this is thus, and why a man is so changed by matrimony that his wife scarcely knows him, and feels as a strange bridegroom had somehow been rung in on her at the altar. For assuredly she never picked out this unsentimental, unappreciative dumb creature with whom to spend the balance of her life.

The explanation is simple enough. Matrimony is not courtship. It is the plain bread and meat and mashed potatoes of life, not the luscious whipped-cream dessert. When a man rolls up his sleeve and goes to work to support a woman he is metamorphosed into no longer a fairy prince, but a cash register.

THE woman who waits that her husband is not always bringing her flowers and showering theatre tickets on her and taking her to places didn't at that halcyon period have to stand for her board bill and shopping ticket.

In all good truth a beefsteak is just as sincere a token of affection as a bunch of violets.

THE woman who knows that her husband is bringing home every dollar he earns and straining every nerve to keep his family comfortable is an ingrate to contrast the boiled turnips of matrimony with the chocolate cream of courtship or to complain that her husband no longer lays poetic offerings at her shrine as he used to do.

The wife who considers the daily paper a barometer of her husband's waning affection and who fancies herself neglected because her John reads equally unreasonably the paper in the presence of her wife, who reads it to her, is equally unreasonably to expect that John has no other place in which to read his paper now except when he is with her.

When he saw her only two or three times a week, or perhaps for a little while every day, he would be sure elsewhere in which to read. He reads at home now because that is where he lives and where he has the right to expect to do so he wishes.

As for the woman who feels herself a poor, unappreciated creature because her husband no longer deluges her with flattery after marriage, let her console herself with the thought that her husband is not unmindful of her charms. He has only come to accept them as a matter of course, as we do any other blessing. We are not forever exclaiming over the sun rising every morning or our good health or our prosperity.

It is only when it rains or we are sick or we lose our money that we become vocal and rend the heavens with our complaints.

The man who complains that his wife has lost her beauty and that she no longer looks like the lady-love he married forgets that she turned over her complexion standing over the cook stove for unbroken sleep put wrinkles around her eyes, and that the reason why her hands are not soft and white and kissable is because she has made coars on them toiling for him.

AND the very man whose esthetic sense is shocked by his wife's appearing at breakfast in a soiled wrapper is the last man who would want to pay the price of pink silk and lace negligees. Before marriage, when a wife has nothing to do but to cultivate her looks and plenty of money-plasing appearance to the man who is courting her. But it is a different story when she has to squeeze the pennies and nurse sick children and do a man's housework.

Because husbands and wives are different before and after marriage is no sign that they are failures as husbands and wives. The really and truly mated couple can take a lot of things for granted and do without many outward observances. Such a man doesn't have to bring his wife home flowers to prove that he remembers her. Nor does such a wife fear to lose her husband's love by letting him see her when she hasn't on all of her warpaint.

HEAVEN help those husbands and wives who have to be always polite to each other and who cannot sink into a blessed restfulness in which neither has to take especial account of the other because they are just one!

Simple Lines, Quiet Hues Make Distinctive Costumes

THE three costumes pictured here are all extremely simple and very quiet as to hue, but all are distinctive and would be noticed and admired beyond many more elaborate garments.

An afternoon frock all in shades of brown (centre) follows the same idea of little trimming. This frock uses only embroidery on the sleeves and collar only.

THE object of preaching is constantly to remind mankind what mankind are constantly forgetting; not to supply the defects of human intelligence, but to fortify the feebleness of human resolutions.—Sydney Smith.

Is this your BIRTHDAY? FEBRUARY 12—Speculation is dangerous for you, for although a very good reasoner, you are at critical times too rash. You are fond of art and music, and prefer to be in the company of the opposite sex, with whom you are quite popular. Be careful in your choice of friends, and learn to be thankful for your blessings.

Your birthstone is an amethyst, which means sincerity. Your lucky colors are light blue and yellow.

Fifty-four inch bordered prints which are sold by the yard at the stores are being fashioned by women of New York into jumper frocks. The border forms the bottom of the skirt with the remainder of the pattern forming the jumper. Long scarfs with ends of the border print may be worn with them.

Several recently seen were sleeveless, being made with a long shoulder. In certain dark colors, cultured with floral print they are adaptable for the formal afternoon occasion.

TODAY'S RECIPES Potato Soup—Cook three small potatoes, a good sized onion and a stalk or so of celery in a little water until tender. Put through strainer. Melt two tablespoons butter in a saucepan, add one tablespoon flour, and then gradually one pint of milk. Boil up, add potato mixture, boil up again, season and serve.

Roast Beef—Take a piece of beef, heel of the round, English cut or rump are the best, and make enough of the following liquid to cover it: Two parts vinegar, one part water, three-quarter cups brown sugar, one teaspoon salt, one-half teaspoon pepper, one teaspoon whole mixed spices, two bay leaves, one-half lemon sliced. Boil fifteen minutes, then pour boiling hot over the beef, cover and let stand two or three days. Put in double roaster with one-half cup of this liquid, a little water and a few sliced onions, and roast until done. Thicken gravy with a little flour and water.

Fashion Fancies

French children are noted for their smart frocks and coats. The model above is a copy of one made for a small French child, and also duplicated for her smaller sister, as the two always dress alike.

Beige tweed, which has a fairly rough surface, is the material used for this one. Soft brown suede faces the collar and the front cover. The narrow belt, which disappears through slits at the sides, is also of brown suede.

With this the little girl wears a soft beige frock hat with a rolling brim which turns up all the way around.

ADVENTURES of the TWINS

THE TREASURE ROOM "Well, well, well!" said Flucky Mister Havaloak. "So everything is settled at last! There isn't going to be a revolution and nobody is to be arrested, either. My nerves are going to have a good rest."

"Then we may go home and tell the Fairy Queen that everything is settled, may we?" said Nancy. "Yes, my dear, soon," said Mister Havaloak. "But I am so happy today that I feel like doing something for somebody."

"Hurrah!" cried all the dolls, and Tolly and Skiff Whiskers, and even the Gingerbread Man said "Hurrah!" out of his one-sided mouth. "I am going to let you all into a secret," said Mister Havaloak, looking around mysteriously. "I'm going to show you into my treasure room."

"What! Your treasure room! Do you have a treasure room?" cried the dolls in such excitement that the ladies almost, but not quite, fainted again. "Sh!" said Mister Havaloak. "Sh! Not so loud! My enemy, Old Snoopy, is here. And I wouldn't have Old Snoopy know for anything that I even have a treasure, much less a treasure room. Follow me on your tip-toes and be as quiet as you can."

Mister Havaloak put his spectacles into one pocket and took his ear-trumpet out of another, and beckoned to them to follow. He went to the wall of the dining room, and pushed on a little button. And what should happen then, my dear, do you suppose? The whole wall folded up like a jack-knife inside of itself, and behold, there was another room as dark as a cave.

Then Mister Havaloak pressed another button, and behold, about a thousand electric lights appeared. "Oh! light bulbs that people throw out," he explained proudly. "They all come to Hidy Go Land and I repair them and put them to use."

"Right you are," said Mister Havaloak. "Follow me, ladies and gentlemen. Stay within and I will tell you all about them."

He took the lid off the nearest barrel. "Pins," he said. "All pins. Millions and millions of pins come to Hidy Go Land every day. I gather them up, and now I have nine hundred and ninety pounds, ten ounces, and six hundredweight. All varieties—English hand-polished pins; American brass to be had for ten cents a paper; and the five-cent kind not so fine. Safeties also, and right here the brooches with sets.

BEHIND THE SCREEN

IT IS significant that in the list of qualifications for movie success named by executives in Hollywood, intelligence comes fourth, and education last?

The qualifications, ten in number, are supposed to apply particularly to actresses. But, of course, the same things are needed by men aspirants to stardom, too. The qualifications given by the movie-makers are, in the order of listing:

- 1. Character. 2. Personality. 3. Beauty. 4. Intelligence. 5. Imagination. 6. Grace, poise and carriage. 7. Knowledge of the drama. 8. Environment. 9. Age. 10. Education.

But, dear young reader, having satisfied yourself that you are the possessor of all the requirements, don't let the next California Limited for Hollywood. List to a little sermon Dimitri Buchowetski (he directs, you know) poured in my ear:

"My heart often aches when I see young women and young men passing into the studio door on the way to what they, poor things, believe to be the road to success. How easily they might avoid all these days of indecision and disappointment."

"The best way, next to an actual screen test to determine upon the most trusted impression of how a person will appear on the screen, is to look at the face through a simple little piece of dark blue glass. Blue glass eliminates all of the coloring and makes the face appear as it would on the screen. This is an easy test which any girl or boy expecting to make a journey to the studios may do before she or he draws out his or her savings for a railroad ticket."

At all, the biggest requisite of screen success is the ability to film well.

But wait. You could not approach within two country miles of Mr. Buchowetski, or any other director, on your opinion of yourself. Having passed all the tests listed above, you've still less than one chance in a hundred thousand of achieving that ambition to make love to Norma Talma, or to be loved by Ronald Colman—on the screen.

Hal Roach is preparing to kid the Body of Woman Encased in Ice Cake Identified

PAULSBORO, N. J., Feb. 11—The body of the young woman found encased in a cake of ice on the Delaware River shore, near Milling Port, N. J., was identified as that of Mrs. Mary Hinkley of Pottstown, Penn. Identification was made by George Church and Andrew Gofus, cousins of the woman.

According to Gofus, Mrs. Rutack had threatened to commit suicide several times during the last three years, never having fully regained her health after an attack of typhoid fever.

She disappeared from her home Nov. 19, leaving a trail of footprints that led into the Schuylkill River.

A COLLISION. Street car No. 132, driven by Harry Newton, collided with a milk sled owned by Sam Bersudsky, on Charlotte street, yesterday morning at 11:40 o'clock. The horse drawn vehicle came out second best in the mixup as the two shafts were broken.

A Thought

It pleased God by the foolishness of preaching to save them that believe. I Cor. 1:21.

"Billy Boy"

Run over to the corner store and get Mum a loaf of Bread

And be SURE to say DWYERS

Bonny BREAD

Then,—to a neighbor who had just dropped in,—Mum remarked:—"Bonny Bread is simply delicious! Have you ever tasted it? No? Such a treat as you've been missing. Wait a moment and I'll spread you a slice or two when Billy comes back with it. The delightfully delicate taste of Bonny Bread and its very softness tell you at once that fresh, creamy cows' milk is used in the making. Why,—we eat lots of Bonny Bread,—and ONLY Bonny Bread."

And Mum told only part of it, for, in addition to fresh, creamy cows' milk, a specially selected flour, milled from the very choicest wheat grown in the famous Manitoba hard winter wheat belt, is used in the making of Bonny Bread,—which makes folks strong and healthy and happy.

VALENTINE TEA IS SUCCESSFUL EVENT

King's Daughters Conduct Very Enjoyable Function in St. Andrew's Hall

The King's Daughters added lustre to their reputation for most successful and enjoyable entertainments when they held their annual Valentine tea and sale yesterday afternoon in St. Andrew's schoolroom, which had been gayly decorated in red and white colors with Valentine favors. A satisfactory sum was realized.

The serving table in cross-shape was very attractive with its silver service and silver vases with red tulips and paper white narcissi for decoration. They red cupids formed a ring about the central vase. The many small tea tables were centred with vases of red tulips and the sugar bowls, trimmed with red and ornamented with cupids, enhanced the general scheme of decoration.

Mrs. Edith Stevens, president, and Mrs. F. K. McArthur received the guests and Mrs. J. Herbert Crockett was general convener. The tea table was presided over by Mrs. C. H. Peters, Mrs. J. H. Bullock, Mrs. Frank Libley and Mrs. R. E. Plump-ton. The doorkeepers and Ministering Circles and the individual members had charge of the tea, with Miss Gertrude Campbell as convener, assisted by Mrs. W. A. Nicholas and Mrs. Max McCarthy. There was a very efficient committee of replenishers and servers. The apron table was under the supervision of the members of Good Cheer Circle with Mrs. Clinton Brown, Mrs.

URGES SUPPORT OF NATIONS LEAGUE

Mrs. D. V. White of Saint John Gives Address to Sackville Audience

SACKVILLE, Feb. 11.—A very interesting and instructive lecture on "The League of Nations" was given in Beethoven Hall Tuesday evening by Mrs. Douglas V. White, of Saint John, a graduate of Mount Allison University. The large number of students and townspeople present listened with keen interest as Mrs. White dealt with her subject in a very able manner. The lecturer gave a sketch of the formation of the League, its objects, and the events leading up to the Locarno pact. In concluding, she referred to the horrors and devastation that would ensue if another war were permitted, referring to the statement of Edison, the famous scientist, that London could be destroyed in six hours and New York in three hours by means of latest scientific methods. The lecturer earnestly pleaded for support of the work of the League of Nations in the interests of peace. On motion of Mrs. G. M. Campbell, seconded by Mrs. F. L. West and spoken to by Principal Wigle and Prof. Tweedie, a hearty vote of thanks was tendered the lecturer. Mrs. W. G. Watson presided at the meeting, which was held under the auspices of the Oneida-White Club.

When the barometer rises gradually it indicates settled weather.

Mrs. John MacKinnon gave a very enjoyable tea at her residence, 183 Duke street, yesterday afternoon. At supper time the table was centred with silver candelabra with red candles, and red hearts and cupid carried out an effective decoration. Mrs. George Teed and Mrs. Marie MacKinnon were convener of the refreshment committee. Bridge was enjoyed in the large room downstairs and was convenered by Dr. James Manning and Mr. J. H. Hamilton. Mr. Frederick Dunham was convener of the dance committee. A five-piece orchestra provided excellent music for the program of 18 dances. Upwards of 400 guests enjoyed the hospitality of the club. AMBASSADOR WILL HAVE 52-ROOM HOME

Mansion in London Given By J. P. Morgan to Be Opened on July 4

LONDON, Feb. 11.—The anniversary of the Declaration of Independence has been chosen for the opening and dedication of the "first little bit of the United States on British soil." On July 4, Ambassador Houghton will occupy and receive in the new home, the property of the American Government, of the American ambassador to the Court of St. James.

The residence, at 13 and 14 Prince's Gate, will then appear as a beautiful mansion in one of the most fashionable districts of London. When the property was given to the government for an ambassadorial home by J. Pierpont Morgan there were two buildings, but these have been joined together into one palatial whole, and renovations now in progress should be completed for the July opening.

The new mansion will have 52 rooms. Mrs. Houghton will have a delightful suite of bedroom, boudoir and sewing room, while the ambassador will have a special suite with a visitors' receiving room.

"Isn't that just like a man!"

"I wish Jack wouldn't think his Wanda was a wizard. I don't mind his bringing two strange men home to dinner but, gracious goodness! there's absolutely nothing in the house and no time to do any shopping. I simply can't conjure a dinner out of the air."

Wanda's first move was a survey of the pantry—her second was a careful conning of the Oxo Cook Book.

At 6:30 three hungry men were called to dinner. A clear consommé in cups (which Wanda prepared with four Oxo Cubes, boiling water and a dash of paprika) was followed by a rousing Meat Pie (crisp, crumbly crust and the remains of Sunday's roast beef, with all its fresh flavour cunningly restored by the addition of Oxo Cubes).

Instead of the usual boiled vegetables, Wanda served Oxo Croquettes (Boiled rice, flavoured with a minced onion, a little sage, salt and pepper and strengthened by two Oxo Cubes; mixed well, shaped into croquettes, rolled in bread crumbs and fried to a golden brown).

Then came a green salad (with an Oxo Cube added to the French Dressing); deep apple pie with whipped cream, and coffee. As one of the men said "that's the first meal I've had for a long time that was composed entirely of food".

Free Recipe Book

Oxo Cubes, with their valuable nourishment and incomparable beef flavour, are the handiest things you can have in the kitchen. They are the natural flavouring for soups, sauces and gravies—for meat pies, croquettes, stews and hash—for salads and salad dressings—and many good cooks add Oxo Cubes to vegetables and to the cream dressing for vegetables.

There are many different ways in which to utilize the convenience and economy of Oxo Cubes. The new Oxo Cook Book gives practical recipes for all sorts of dishes from soups to salads. We have a free copy for you—write today for it.

DANCE INSTEAD OF DRIVE

The Booster Club of Willis No. 70, L. O. L., held a very enjoyable dance on Wednesday evening at the Orange Hall, Fairville. Arrangements have been made for a sleigh drive but owing to the inclemency of the weather the drive did not take place and those who assembled at the hall for the drive enjoyed the dance as a substitute. Music was provided by an orchestra and the ladies of Baxter Lodge assisted in serving refreshments.

Mercier's Red Hat to Hang in Cathedral

BRUSSELS, Feb. 11.—Cardinal Mercier's red hat is to hang permanently in the choir of the Cathedral of St. Rombaut, at Mille, reviving an ancient custom which lapsed at the time of the French Revolution.

Workmen now are chiseling a cross on the stone slabs in the choir to mark the exact spot in the subterranean crypt where the Cardinal's hat, and over which the hat will hang.

A public subscription has been opened in Mille to erect a statue of the prelate.

GAVE GOOD PROGRAMME

Under auspices of the Good Cheer Circle of the King's Daughters an enjoyable concert was given for the patients of the Provincial Hospital on Tuesday night. Vocal solos were given by Miss Vida Waterbury, Miss Bernice Moseley, John Sears and Harold Gillis, and a vocal duet by Miss Waterbury and Miss Alice G. Ring. Violin solos by Mrs. H. MacMichael, recitations by Nelson Lewis, old-time choruses in which all joined heartily, and singing served delicious refreshments for the performers. Mrs. Sears was the accompanist.

Widow of Milan Attorney Is Mussolini's Chief Lieutenant

By THOMAS B. MORGAN
United Press Staff Correspondent

ROME, Feb. 11.—Recognized as the generator of the spiritual motive force of fascism, Margherita Sarfatti, widow of a Milan attorney and mother of a war-fallen wearer of the coveted gold medal, can count herself as the chief lieutenant of Prime Minister Benito Mussolini.

"I am the minister without portfolio," she told the United Press correspondent.

It was Signora Sarfatti, who stood at the side of Mussolini, when the Fascist movement was born. Even before that she had been an active collaborator of the Dictator of Italy in the days before Mussolini had given much thought to his plans for seizing power. She had been a Socialist with him and from her profound culture he imbibed deeply of the philosophy of the great masters.

In those days, she provided a welcome complement to his tireless brain. He had a thorough grounding of economic and social science and had read extensively in the original German the works of the German thinkers of the nineteenth century. Signora Sarfatti speaks and writes in four languages—namely, Italian, French, English and German. Mussolini also is well grounded in languages, speaking French and Italian and reading with great ease, English, German and Russian, all of which have been self-taught.

Egonara Sarfatti is a Lombard blonde and displays a vivacity unusual in one whose passion is culture. She is profoundly devoted to all forms of art.

EXTRACTS FROM DIRECTORS' REPORT

Your Directors present the fifty-fifth annual report for your approval. The Company's statements have for years reflected its constantly increasing expansion and prosperity, but this year marks an epoch in the life of the organization. It has now passed the Billion Dollars mark in assurance in force, the amount after deducting re-assurances being $1,021,097,101.94.

... Applications for new assurances have been the largest in our history, aggregating $220,534,526.67. The new policies paid-for numbered 57,944, for the amount of $193,477,057.26, after deducting amounts re-assured. The new business for the year exceeds the total amount of business the Company had in force only thirteen years ago.

... The gratifying evidences of growth and expansion [exhibited in the accompanying statement] are paralleled in regard to strength and profitability. Notwithstanding the general decline in interest rates, the Company has been able not merely to continue, but to slightly increase its record in this connection, the rate earned during the year on the mean invested assets having been 6.41 per cent.

Several factors have contributed to produce this result, not the least important being an increase in the dividends paid by some of the corporations in which the Company has substantial stock holdings.

Even more important than interest yield has been the advance in the market value of our securities. For many years we have specialized in long term bonds and preferred and common stocks of outstanding corporations, both in Canada and in the United States. We are now reaping the rewards of this policy. On actual sales of municipal debentures and other securities which had risen to high premiums, we have realized a net profit of $2,215,772.41, while the increase in the value of securities still held has been much greater.

The profits earned by the Company during the year, based on the increase in the valuation of our securities as made by the government authorities, has been $21,666,284.00. We have not thought it wise, however, to take credit for this entire amount, and . . . have made a deduction of $3,000,000 from the official valuation placed on our assets. We have, moreover, added $2,500,000 to our Contingency Accounts, bringing these up to a total of $10,000,000.

Following the practice of recent years, we have written off $750,000 from the book value of our Head Office and Branch Buildings, and other real estate.

We have also, by setting aside an additional $350,000, further strengthened the special reserve to provide for possible greater longevity among annuitants, bringing the total amount under this heading up to $1,100,000 in excess of government requirements.

During the year we have paid or allotted $7,662,784.35 as profits to our policyholders. After deducting this sum, and the accretions to shareholders' account, and making the foregoing heavy allocations, we have yet been able to add $6,532,642.75 to our undivided profits bringing the total surplus over all liabilities, Contingency Accounts and Capital up to $28,640,000.69.

For the sixth consecutive year we are able to announce an increase in the scale of profits to be distributed to our policyholders in the ensuing year.

... To provide for the expansion of our business, it has been necessary to make an extension of the Head Office building, which has now been completed, and will be formally opened on the day of our Annual Meeting. The building is devoted exclusively to the use of the Company, but it is already evident that we must at once provide for further enlargement.

DIE IN TRYING TO RESCUE SON

Parents and Boy All Perish as Home in Ontario Burns

Father and Mother Re-entered House When Lawrence McWatters Missed

ELMVALE, Ont., Feb. 12.—Searchers yesterday found the remains of Lawrence McWatters, who, with his father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph McWatters, was burned to death in a fire that destroyed their home here on Wednesday morning. Only the bones remained of the young man's body.

From the portion in which the bodies were found, it is thought that the parents would have escaped from their burning home had they not turned back at the door when they found that their son was not following them. The son is thought to have fallen or been overcome. Coroner Dr. Cuccoran decided that an inquest was unnecessary.

The funeral of the three victims will take place this afternoon.

Ambitions of League Members Opposed

BERLIN, Feb. 12.—The ambitions of Poland, Spain and Brazil to obtain permanent seats in the council of the League of Nations at the same time as the same position is given Germany were characterized in circles close to the government to be unwarranted. Such an expansion to the council, it was said, would represent an "act of disloyalty to Germany."

BOSTON, Feb. 12.—The rectory of St. Thomas Aquinas church, in the Jamaica Plain district, was destroyed by fire with a loss estimated at $20,000. An overheated furnace was given as the cause.

FIREMEN SAVE TWELVE LIVES

Stirring Rescue Tale Develops From New York Fire

Outbreak in Tenement Deprives Several Families of Their Homes

NEW YORK, Feb. 12.—Twelve persons were rescued by firemen in the early morning from a burning five-story tenement at 812 Amsterdam avenue. Many persons living in the building had descended the fire escapes unaided when the firemen arrived, but two families were awakened too late by the shouts of persons who turned in the alarm. They were standing in their windows shouting for help.

Firemen threw up ladders, for the hall was filled with smoke and flames, and helped down five members of the family of Owen Williams from the second floor and six members of the family of John Guy from the third floor. Five members of the family of Thomas Purcell, who lived on the fourth floor, got to the street unaided, but Nora Purcell, 10 years old, was left behind. She was discovered standing on the sill of a window on the fourth floor about to jump when she was stopped by the cries of firemen.

GALLANT RESCUE

Fireman John Blument of Hook and Ladder Company 28, who was on a ladder reaching to the third floor, spanned the gap between himself and the child with a 35-foot scaling ladder, mounted it and carried her down safely.

The firemen found a man staggering from the building almost overcome by smoke. He was treated by an inhalator squad of the Consolidated Gas Company and revived. He said he was Raymond Horn, 20 years old, of 115 West Twenty-ninth street and had entered the building to awaken the families when the smoke overpowered him. He was taken to Knickerbocker Hospital.

The building was almost entirely burned out. The fire spread to the top floor of 815 Amsterdam avenue, burning out the rooms there. All the living in the house at 815 were made homeless.

ADJUSTORS BEGIN WORK DETERMINING KING STREET FIRE LOSS

Water Pumped Out of Cellars in Buildings Adjoining the Daniel Structure—Plans for the Future Not Fully Determined.

The after-effects of Thursday morning's disastrous fire in the F. W. Daniel & Co. dry goods building and adjoining properties are to be seen today now that water has ceased to flow and gasoline pumps have been working for 36 hours draining the deluged cellars. Insurance adjusters are beginning their labors and every haste is being made to clear up the work in time to permit rebuilding and refurbishing for the spring trade.

In the F. W. Daniel & Company, Limited building, the main store is completely wrecked necessitating refurnishing with fixtures, counters, etc., almost throughout. There is a large hole in the floor at the bottom of which a water-heating stove belonging to McAfee's barber shop can be seen.

MR. DANIEL'S PLANS

F. W. Daniel, interviewed today, was still unable to give an approximate idea of his losses. The stock which remains unburned is in a hopeless jumble and his store fixings a wreck. The structural damage is a matter for expert examination and until there is a careful scrutiny and investigation nobody will be able to tell what damage the blaze has done. As to his future plans, Mr. Daniel was not definitely committal. He inferred, however, that the historic London House corner was his business home.

DRYING OUT DYKEMANS.

In the F. A. Dykeman Company establishment, the water, which was 8 feet deep in the sub-cellar, has been bled the building to awaken the families when the smoke overpowered him. He was taken to Knickerbocker Hospital.

The building was almost entirely burned out. The fire spread to the top floor of 815 Amsterdam avenue, burning out the rooms there. All the living in the house at 815 were made homeless.

SAYS WRONG TO CALL OUT DEPARTMENT

East Saint John Fire Chief Speaks of Getting Horses Out of Trouble

Two more horses were caught yesterday on the trestles of the street car track by the bridge which crosses the Dutchman's Creek in East Saint John. The first horse was extricated by men who happened to be near at the time but the second horse got into difficulties about 4:30 p.m. and held up the street car traffic for nearly an hour.

It was the mail team and the alarm was sent in for the fire department to assist in extricating the animal.

The department had been called out on two other occasions this month to rescue horses that had got caught in the trestles and in consequence of the frequency of these calls, S. L. Day, the fire chief for the district, has made the request that in any future similar circumstance aid be summoned by telephone and no call be sent in for the fire department.

GET ON TELEPHONE, HE SAYS.

Mr. Day stated last night that he thought aid for a horse in difficulties could be summoned as quickly by telephone and the expense and trouble would be very much less. Because of the drifted snow the fire apparatus must be taken out on a sled at the present time and a man and rig are hired for the job. The sounding of the fire alarm means that the fire apparatus and the hired team are all brought out unnecessarily, he claims.

Last year, Mr. Day said, the department had been called to assist in rescuing two automobiles which had got into difficulties on the bridge.

ENTERS PROTEST.

One resident of East Saint John voiced a protest against the decision of Mr. Day and declared that it would be the height of cruelty to permit horses to suffer and perhaps receive serious injuries through delay in rescue, if the department was not to be called out.

Finds Live Boa In Bunch of Bananas

BUFFALO, Feb. 12.—Professor William F. Alexander of the Elmwood Museum of the Buffalo Society of Natural Sciences has had a five-foot boa constrictor on display. It arrived in Buffalo from Guatemala with a bunch of bananas.

Professor Alexander was warm in his praise of William J. Westfall, the storekeeper who found the boa constrictor. Westfall grabbed him behind the neck and succeeded in placing him unharmed in a large glass case.

The snake, according to Professor Alexander, was large and strong enough to strangle a man to death. Fortunately for Westfall, the boa wrapped himself around his wrist instead of his neck.

NEW YORK, Feb. 12.—Two men who held up a United Cigar store at Tenth street and Second avenue used unusual methods to keep outsiders from learning they were robbers. One entered a telephone booth, from which he "covered" the clerk with a pistol, while the second took off his hat and went behind the counter as if he were a clerk.

The robbery occurred about 10:30 o'clock, when many persons were passing. Philip Redbord, the clerk, was alone in the store. He said that a man entered and asked for a package of cigarettes. When the clerk turned to fill the order another man came in.

The second man drew a pistol and ordered the clerk to put up his hands. Redbord dropped the cigarettes and the man with the pistol stepped into a telephone booth, so that people in the street could not see his weapon.

"Go around to the safe and open it," he ordered, keeping his pistol trained on the clerk.

Redbord opened the safe and the other robber, who had taken off his hat, took $250 from the safe and $25 from the cash register.

"Stay behind the counter and lie down on the floor till we get out," the robbers ordered.

After waiting a few minutes, Redbord telephoned to the police. No trace of the criminals was found.

Boston Banker Buys British Film Concern

NEW YORK, Feb. 12.—Control of the R. C. Pictures Corporation and the Film Booking Offices, known to the film industry as "F. B. O.," passed this week from Lloyd's Bank and other English financial interests to Joseph P. Kennedy of Boston, a banker.

The negotiations for Lloyd's were conducted by Lord Inverchies, who arrived several days ago with Major H. C. S. Thomson, president and managing director of the pictures corporation and the booking offices.

Thomson and W. W. Lanctot, representing Lloyd's in the United States, will continue as directors. The policy of the two enterprises will remain the same. Major Thomson said the transfer of control had been made because it was the belief of the English bankers that the development of the companies could best be carried out under resident control. Mr. Kennedy formerly was president of the Columbia Trust Company of Boston.

TALKS ON CREDIT TO RETAILERS

J. F. Edgett of Moncton Advocates Mutual Information Bureau

MONCTON, Feb. 11.—At the annual meeting of the Retail Merchants' Association, held here tonight, the following officers were elected: President, A. Sversten; first vice-president, P. D. Ayer; executive, J. A. Fog, D. McBeth, Joseph White, F. W. S. Colpitts, N. S. Steves, A. L. Colpitts, J. W. Morris; audit committee, J. S. Ross, A. F. Doyle and Cecil Fyke. Mr. J. Fred Edgett addressed the meeting on the subject of credit.

WM. EDGETT'S ADDRESS

During the course of his address he said there was a Dominion movement to assist the retailer in the matter of over-extending credit. The retailer was suffering from the handicap of not having the same amount of information as was available to the wholesaler and the manufacturer relative to their customers.

One of the greatest troubles to the retailer trade was what he called the "Dead Beat," the man who tried every merchant in turn until his credit was exhausted in every place and finally reached the end of his tether.

To overcome many of the difficulties of the retailer here, Mr. Edgett advocated the organization of a bureau of mutual information, and said he saw no reason why such a system could not be worked in Moncton and St. John with the retailer as well as with the wholesaler as was now the case.

C. C. Hayward, president of the provincial association, gave an instructive talk on the subject of collections. D. A. McBeth, the retiring president, said the local association had received much assistance from the provincial and Dominion associations and affiliation money was enjoyed.

THUNBERG TO RACE JEWTRAW SERIES AT LAKE PLACID TODAY

CHICAGO STARS ARE INVITED TO SPECIAL MEET

Series Will Be Continued At Saranac Lake Monday

CHARLES JEWTRAW, the Lake Placid skater, will open a series of match skating races at Lake Placid today and Saturday.

The matches will be on a six lap to the mile, free of the sharp turns which have impeded Thunberg's style in the events in which he has taken part since his arrival in this country.

Other stars who will appear in the invitation meet are: Paul Fournier and Eddie Murphy, of New York; O'Neill Farrell and Eddie Murphy of Chicago and Herbert Densha of Montreal.

While in Detroit, Willie Logan was invited to compete at Saranac and Lake Placid but declined owing to the long wait necessary at these places.

Logan is undecided about competing at the Toronto meet for the Canadian national title events but has practically settled on going to Pittsburgh for the international indoor events there early in March.

Charlie Gorman, world's amateur speed-skating champion, has not decided yet about Toronto but is doubtful if he will compete there.

Gorman, however, probably will go to the Pittsburgh meet where Clas Thunberg also is booked for exhibitions against time probably.

The United States promoters realize that Thunberg cannot stand the man-to-man competition but as an exhibition skater against records, Thunberg has proven himself a remarkably good performer.

Fred Logan, former international champion, says that the Finn has picked up quite a few points at Detroit and Detroit surprised him at the way he knew all the circuit skaters and called them by their first names.

FITZGERALD AGAIN. Julian T. Fitzgerald, he says, caused another uproar at the Detroit meet when as chief judge in one of the heats, he picked young Logan as fourth man when actually Logan was fourth.

Logan, a Montreal skater, remarked at the time that it was one of the prettiest things he had ever seen. Logan was not until Logan got in the dressing room and someone announced that he had not got into the final that the matter was checked up and Fitzgerald was forced by other officials to change his decision.

POWELL INJURED. Although George Fowler did not get into the running at Detroit, the reason for this was that he was injured. In addition his skates were stolen. Despite this, on the next day, the Saint John skater went out and was leading in the home stretch of the mile when he and a Chicago skater got all tangled up. They managed to disentangle themselves and Logan was the winner.

Logan will be 17 years old on February 21 and will take him out of the 16-year class. As Murray and the Chicago boys probably will not compete at the Toronto meet, Fowler's chances for making a good showing are increased. The youngster will compete at the Toronto meet and Snodgrass, who got into the final at Detroit, has not decided yet about going to Toronto.

ST. STEPHEN WON. ST. STEPHEN, N.B., Feb. 11.—Four rinks of St. Andrew's Club, of Saint John, played here today against the local club and lost the match by a total score of 12 to 41. One rink arrived last night and one rink left Saint John this morning, but on account of the lateness of the train, caused by the delay at Fredericton Junction, some of the curlers returned to Saint John, only three rinks coming on and arriving at 8:30.

SIMPSON RE-INSTATED. NEW YORK, Feb. 12.—Joe Simpson, defence player of the New York Americans who was recently suspended for breach of training rules, is again in the good graces of the management. He left with the team last night for Montreal. Simpson was fined $500, it is stated, and Spill Campbell, who was also suspended and later reinstated, paid a fine of $200.

LONDON, Feb. 11.—About 20 of the visiting Canadian curlers who arrived in Scotland on Jan. 8 and played a series of matches in Edinburgh and Manchester and have been in London and Paris since early in February, will sail for home on the Montrose tonight. Others of the party are still on the Continent.

BOSTON RUM ROW. BOSTON, Feb. 12.—Rum Row, which has been abandoned for some time, took on new activity this week with the arrival of the schooner Beatrice and Ocean Maid. Charlie Gorman To Act As Starter For Junior Finals Saturday

Along The Sport Trail

By JOHN J. DUNLOP

A SKATING FAN writes in to ask us the following question: "Would you be so kind as to advise us, if possible, just why Charlie Jewtraw and Joe Moore are not competing in any of the skating meets this year?"

THE CRESCENTS-SAINT JOHN game last night set a dizzy pace at spots and then at times was ragged. The superb defence work of the visitors saved them time and again.

THE LAST FEW YEARS has witnessed a well-defined movement to stage finals for the Dominion basketball title and the news that this year's final in the men's division has been allotted to the east has aroused great interest.

Charges affecting Charlie Gorman's status as broadcasted from board, were handled over to Mr. Page, Detroit, by Julian T. Fitzgerald, of Chicago.

MRS. GRIBBLE IS HEAD OF LEAGUE

Animal Rescue Society Holds Annual Meeting and Elects

Work For Suffering is Reviewed in Report Read By President

Mrs. Mary E. Gribble was re-elected president of the Animal Rescue League at its annual meeting held last night in the Admiral Beatty Hotel. Other officers elected were as follows: Vice-presidents, Mrs. C. J. Conroy, Mrs. Joseph Murdoch; recording secretary, Mrs. C. S. Public; corresponding secretary, Miss Eva Newcombe; treasurer, Miss Gray; and secretary, Miss Gilbert. Mrs. Thomas Rippey, additional member of the executive, Mrs. R. T. Robertson, Mrs. D. W. Newcombe, Mrs. Frank White, Mrs. Douglas White, Mrs. W. D. Bowden, Miss Furlong, Miss Rawlings, Miss Frances Stetson and Miss Frances Travers.

PRESIDENT'S REPORT.

Mrs. Gribble's report, the 18th annual of the league, was as follows: "When, at the annual meeting, Feb. 16, 1925, Mrs. H. B. Fook was made president, the society started on its newly career under a new regime, not only of officers, but of plans and procedure. The lax business methods and haphazard management were corrected by Mrs. Fook's firm parliamentary hand, and a strong executive began to maintain a vigorous campaign along the lines of publicity, fund raising and repairs to the premises. Although heavy mortgages burden us, the feeling that we are independent of the caprice of a landlord gives us security for improvements, and on this to greater efforts.

Therefore, in this connection, I mention that by no means the least of the year's achievements was the building of an important retaining wall, cement, pitch lined, between the shelter and the adjoining property, thus preventing the continual drainage of water across the room where animals are choriformed. It was an expensive but necessary improvement, adding to the value of the property and making for greater comfort to Mrs. Daley in her work.

Besides the wall, the society has improved the house by the addition of a side porch, and the building of a fence enclosing what this summer is to be a garden of flowers and shrubbery.

FINANCIAL.

Beginning in June we were able to give Mrs. Daley a modest monthly salary for her invaluable services, which up to this time had been rewarded by nothing more than the rent of the dwelling. These expenditures have been met by funds raised by the society during the year, excepting the welcome civic grant of $100 and the rental from the super flat of the dwelling. (Incident.—Please observe that a tenant voluntarily chooses to live above all this so-called noise and these shocking sights.)

CANADIAN ART EXHIBITION IN YORK GALLERY

Montreal Art Gallery Loans Exhibit for One Month to English Public

184 PICTURES SHOW DOMINION SCENERY

Paintings Differ Greatly from Work of English and Continental Artists.

LONDON, Jan. 14.—(By Mail)—The exhibition of Canadian art which created so much interest in London when shown at Wembley, last year, has just been opened at the York Art Gallery. The exhibition, which comprises some 184 oils, water colors, etchings and a few lithographs, will remain open for a month. The pictures which include works by prominent artists, have been lent by the art gallery of Montreal.

GIVES NEW PHASE.

The majority are landscape oils, depicting scenes in town, village and countryside of Canada. Not a few represent snow scenes, and the greater number are of a style and treatment almost unknown in this country. Indeed, the unorthodox method of treatment affords a striking contrast to the English, and probably the continental schools, and in this connection the exhibition has a very valuable bearing upon art in this country. It gives an entirely new phase of art to the English for comparison.

Undoubtedly the 1926 exhibition entirely eclipses its predecessor, but even so, the Canadian artist has much to learn in technique, not that the majority of studies are not extremely clever.

There is a broadness, perhaps an extravagance, that probably does not commend itself to the English school, more especially the older school; but there can be no doubt that the exhibition as a whole is very interesting, affording evidence of the temperamental difference in the outlook of the Canadians and ourselves.

"SOME OF THE LEADERS."

The most important picture is one by Horatio Walker, "Fogging," representing a team of oxen drawing a plough. The effect of open prairie, and the light upon the oxen is very fine, while there is plenty of action and imagination in the treatment.

Two very clever exhibits are by Clarence A. Gagan, one representing a snow-clad log cabin, with blue water in the foreground. The other depicts a village in winter, and technique and color effects are an outstanding feature.

Possibly the most dainty study is that by P. Woodcock of a rope in autumn bordering a lane verging upon fields, and overlooking a plain with a town in the distance. The treatment has probably been influenced by the French school, very delicate with rare attention to detail.

Other pictures that claim the attention are "Spring Ice" (Tom Thompson); "Royal Mail Crossing the St. Lawrence in Winter" (H. Walker, R. C.A.); "A Prairie Trail" (Charles W. Jeffrey, A.R.C.A., president of the O.S.A., Canada); and a landscape study of a stream under the trees by H. Watson.

Conventions May Net Montreal Million

MONTREAL, Feb. 12.—(United Press)—Montreal's gross revenue from convention delegates will be close to a million dollars in 1926, according to a report of the Montreal Tourist Bureau. Forty-two conventions, national and international, are already booked for this year, and these are expected to bring 17,600 visitors.

HEROISM OF WOMEN

It may be the women in your own home who have to smile and make those around them comfortable and happy, while they themselves are racked with pain and misery caused by some woman's ailment about which they keep silent. Few men realize how common such heroism is. The best known remedy for this condition is Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs. For over 40 years it has been making sick and ailing women well and strong.
