WILL YE BE SLAVES? HON. MR. FOSTER'S SPEECH. (Montreal Gazette.)

"Foster," I must congratulate you on making a most excellent speech. It was one of the best I have ever heard. Sir Charles Tupper, this afternoon, as he placed one hand on Mr. Foster's shoulder and the other on his hand with him on the conclusion, by that gentleman, of his masterly speech on the remedial bill. The house was wild with the excitement to which it had been raised by the powerful and eloquent appeal for justice and fair play to the minority, and for loyalty to the conservative party with which Mr. Foster had concluded his address.

TEMPERANCE COLUMN. By the Women's Christian Temperance Union of St. John.

Trust the people—the wise and the ignorant, the good and the bad—the questions, and in the end you educate the race.

PROVINCIAL WOMEN'S CHRISTIAN TEMPERANCE UNION. Department of Unfermented, Sacramental Wine.

Dear Superintendents—In addressing a circular to the unions and superintendents in regard to this important branch of our work, we would urge that every county and local union carefully consider the necessity of securing a temperance wine.

1st. That the wine of commerce is impure and poisonous, and does not a proper emblem of the Shed Blood of our Lord and Saviour.

2nd. That many cases have occurred in which the use of such wine for sacramental purposes has revived a latent desire for alcoholic stimulation.

3rd. That there is a danger that some may be deterred from partaking of the communion on account of the use of fermented wine.

4th. That no valid objection can be raised to, or danger result from, the use of unfermented wine. For the sake of others, and for the honor of Him who ever sought, and still seeks the removal of every stumbling block from the path of His followers, should we not take the high ground of St. Paul? "That no man put a stumbling block or occasion to fall in his brother's way."

Local superintendents would do well to secure suitable leaders, and send them to ministers, church officials and others, and at the same time ask a few questions, such as: What wine is being used; reasons, etc. To ensure an answer a postcard sent in the letter, addressed to the writer, is a good plan.

Notes.—The National W. C. T. U. urge that all W. C. T. U. women persistently refuse to partake of alcoholic wine at the communion. In three known instances this course was followed by Ontario W. C. T. U. women, and the result was the banishment of the fermented wine. But let every such effort be made in a spirit of love for any bitterness or personalities would grieve the Spirit of the Lord.

To county superintendents: How many local unions are there in your county? How many superintendents at beginning of year? How many new superintendents? To local superintendents or corresponding secretaries: Has your union a superintendent for this department? All those who are ready to go to the front in the army of our work, it was so still you could hear a cough drop—Christian at Work.

WHISKEY AT HAMPTON.

Sold in a Building Close to the Vendome Hotel. Interesting Reading for Solicitor-General White and Also the Public.

Sensational Evidence Submitted at the Trial Last Week.

Nothing more interesting in the history of Scott act affairs at Hampton has yet been brought to light than was brought out at the trial of W. T. Scribner, before Justices Piers and McLaughlin on Tuesday last week.

As stated in Wednesday's Sun, the case was prosecuted by F. A. McCully, while F. M. Sprout appeared for the defence. Two witnesses were examined: Wm. Fairweather, sworn, said: I was down as a witness some time ago between the 10th of January last and the 10th of March inst. On that day I drank some intoxicating liquor in Hampton. On that day I sent James Howes, now in court, for the liquor. He and myself and Wilbur Wilson were together at the station house at Hampton. We said we were dry. Jimmy Howes said that he knew where he could get some. I gave him fifty cents and Wilson gave him the remainder to get a bottle of whiskey. He said he would go over to Scribner's. He went over to the front door of the hotel called the Vendome, and he went in. He told me he had seen Scribner run that hotel. Howes came out of the same door. He was away 10 or 15 minutes. He came directly from the hotel over to us. He produced a bottle of whiskey. I took a drink out of it, also the others drank. Howes was in my sight from the time he came out of the door till he reached us. I drank that up. We afterwards got another bottle. Howes went for it. Wilson I think gave him a dollar bill. I saw Howes go into the hotel again. He returned and he was gone about a week. He returned and he had a bottle of whiskey. I drank some of that. We finished the bottle before we got home. I would be what is called a pint flask. I would be what is called a pint flask. I would be what is called a pint flask.

BRITISH NEWS.

Northcote's Visit to Washington on Venezuela Affairs. Discussion in the House of Commons on Agriculture Produce Bill.

The Measure Receives its Second Reading After Some Opposition.

London, March 18.—Enquiries made at the foreign office show that nothing is known there concerning the report that Sir Stafford Northcote, private secretary to the Marquis of Salisbury, at one time and now a member of parliament in the conservative interest of Exeter, who is now said to be in Washington, is charged with a special mission respecting Venezuela.

It was also stated at the foreign office that the cabinet has no knowledge of any fresh instructions having been sent to the British ambassador at Washington, Sir Julian Pauncefote.

London, March 18.—There was a big meeting this afternoon of bi-metallic leaguers, and it was determined to have active communications with the bi-metallics of France, Germany, Austria and Belgium, in order to promote a great campaign in all industrial interests. Secretary McNeill, of the bi-metallic league, in conversation with a representative of the Associated Press, after the meeting, said that the bi-metallics generally were satisfied with the debate in the house of commons yesterday, as by its vote the house had unanimously declared that bi-metallicism would be a great benefit to Great Britain, and that an international agreement was desirable. The gold party, he added, had not tried to challenge each of these principles and had never ventured to move their amendment when the crucial moment arrived.

Mr. McNeill also said that Mr. Balfour's speech had encouraged the bi-metallics by showing the government's desire for an international agreement and that it would go to the utmost length which public opinion would justify in order to promote that object.

In the house of commons today there was a discussion of the second reading of the agricultural produce bill, which provides for the marking of foreign and colonial meat and for the registration of persons who deal in the same. F. B. Midway, liberal unionist member for the Totnes division of Devonshire, quoted the house of lords committee report showing that many stores in the west end of London sold little else than American beef and at the same price as home grown British meat. According to Mr. Midway, British agriculture was thus seriously injured and he thought the case was so strong that he would favor marking American cheese, which was similarly sold. In the opinion of Mr. Midway, not only was the consumer entitled to protection, but the grower was also entitled to protection against a foreign product, when the latter was sold as English.

Mr. Parker Smith, liberal unionist member for the Patrick division of Lanarkshire, opposed the proposition. He thought the American and Canadian beef arrived in excellent condition, and objected to placing fresh meat on the same footing as frozen meat, which, he claimed, was equal to the home grown article.

Elliott Lees, conservative member of Birkenhead, expressed the opinion that foreign meat was a great boon to the working people, and that it was impossible to detect the difference between the imported American meat and the English grown meat.

Mr. Samuel, radical member for Stockton-on-Tees, who is a grocer by occupation, assures the house that no one could be deceived with American cheese, the importation of which, he declared, was desirable. The largest imports, he added, were from Canada, and they were increasing year by year. He thought it strange that members who professed to be anxious to strengthen the ties between the mother country and the colonies should try to stamp a colonial article as inferior.

Mr. T. Ritchie, president of the board of agriculture, in reply to Mr. Samuel, there was a consensus of opinion in favor of such legislation. The home producer, he added, was entitled to that amount of protection. Continuing Mr. Ritchie said that he thought that in marking provisions, the bill would not work, but butchers, in his opinion, should be punished for misrepresentation of the origin of goods, and he agreed to support the second reading of the agricultural produce bill if the promoter would consent to the measure being referred to a select committee.

Mr. Bryce, liberal, formerly president of the board of trade, opposed the bill on the ground that it was of a protective character.

Eventually the agricultural produce bill passed its second reading.

LETTER FROM REV. GEO. B. LLOYD.

Rev. George E. Lloyd, rector of Rothbury, writes as follows from The Rectory, Santa Cruz, Jamaica, under date of March 3rd to George E. Fairweather: Dear Mr. Fairweather—With you allow me through you to make acknowledgment of my indebtedness and to return my earnest thanks to all those who at such short notice made it possible for me to take the journey here.

Every hour of rest in this land of oranges, palms and sunshine brings home to me both the kindness of all our friends in St. John who have made their kindly expressions of good will already I am beginning to wonder why I came down here at all, for I feel so much better, especially as the leading physician in Kingston exactly confirms bill in all its bearings and... fully evaded in St. John, but the government would appoint men of such high standing and reputation to enforce the law that it would no longer be evaded.

he would ask that the government of the country was going into the damnable traffic of rum. He felt it his duty to his country and to his God to oppose this measure.

(Dibble) would have been pleased to have stated the position of the Woodstock council in the matter, and had so told the mayor. There was evidently a disposition on the part of his ship not to consult with him (Dibble).

though the extra 50 cents a head was actually coming into the revenue of the province. The fact was that the provincial government could not touch one dollar of the county fund, but that fund goes into the districts, it is collected by the collectors of the different parishes and paid into the hands of the county treasurer, and drawn out by order of the chief administrator.

On motion of Mr. Richard, seconded by Mr. Stewright, the sum was made $3 per day. Mr. Shaw moved an amendment that have been recommended by the municipal committee, that the bill should not apply to St. John city and county.

Mr. Shaw said he understood that the desire of the people of the west side man, Es (White) would have been glad if they could, in the public interest, have yielded still further, because there was not only the utter absence on the part of the government of any disposition to deal unfairly with the city of St. John, but a very strong desire to aid and assist that city in any possible way.

Dr. Stockton said he was gratified to observe the friendly feeling entertained by the government for the city of St. John. He noticed, however, that the chief commissioner was reported in an interview with representatives from that city as saying that St. John was drawing money from all parts of the province, and intimating that he might expect a further draft to be made upon them in the near future.

Hon. Mr. Blair—Are you anxious that we should withdraw the amendment? Dr. Stockton—You can do as you please about that. The generosity of the government in giving two-thirds of the fines to the city of St. John instead of one half amounted to the princely sum of about $500 per annum.

Mr. White—It will be nearer $1,500. Dr. Stockton said it was another instance of the great generosity of the government that they had decided to place a tax on brewers and were willing to give one-half of the amount to the city of St. John.

Hon. Mr. White said in doing that the government had also been to the hon. member's suggestion. Dr. Stockton—Well, I think you did right in taxing brewers. Hon. Mr. White thought it could not be held that the city of St. John had any special right to the license fee from brewers, considering that brewers practically carried on a wholesale business in all parts of the province, and therefore their business was a provincial one.

The remaining sections of the bill were then considered and most of them agreed to without amendment. Section III was struck out. On motion of Dr. Stockton an amendment was added to the bill providing a penalty with reference to the employment of minors in licensed establishments.

AN OUTRAGE.

The Sun always tries to discuss public matters with proper reserve and restraint. But the most emphatic language of protest is called for by the course of the government in respect to the liquor bill.

Only the other day two ministers strongly supported an amendment to the license act. They said that it was good temperance legislation.

THE EGYPTIAN CAMPAIGN.

Conversation Between M. Berthelot and the Marquis of Dufferin.

The Khedive Witnesses the Departure of Troops for the Front.

Paris, March 18.—The French government gives evidence tonight that the announcement made by M. Berthelot yesterday of the renunciation he had offered against the Egyptian campaign up the Nile in a conversation with the Marquis of Dufferin...

As a consequence, steps have been taken to dull a little the seemingly sharp edge of the communique made to the British ambassador by M. Berthelot, the minister of foreign affairs.

The speech of the minister, which was punctuated throughout with applause, was made in reply to the Duke of Arenburg, who urged France to establish herself strongly in the Congo territory in order that she may have nothing to fear from the Derivates.

Paris, March 19.—Egypt has continued to be the chief topic of discussion all day in the lobbies of the chamber of deputies, and the statement made upon the matter of foreign affairs, M. Berthelot, adds abundant fresh material for discussion.

As the situation adjusts itself and the intentions of the different parties to the European balance begins to emerge, it becomes more and more evident that France is not prepared to avert the Nile campaign, not that she likes it any better than when it was first broached.

It would be hard to find a Frenchman who sees in the proposed campaign any plan of aggression on the part of Great Britain. They all deny utterly that there is any need for it as a measure of protection of Egyptian interests against the Derivates.

The only purposes which any one in France will consent to see in the British plan are, first an excuse for prolonging indefinitely the hated occupation of Egypt by the British troops, and second, a re-occupation of the Sudan with the intention of barring the future designs of France for a colonial expansion of the upper Nile.

statements seem to have entertained a hope that Germany would decline to acquiesce in a British project to throw the Nile on the upper Nile. But the promise of aid Italy, Germany's hard pressed ally, that would extricate her from her unpleasant predicament in Abyssinia...

There is a skepticism felt and expressed here about France's power to prevent the expenditure of the Egyptian budget under the present circumstances. The value of the argument advanced by M. Berthelot in his address to the chamber of deputies today that unanimity of approval of none of the guaranteeing powers is required to authorize the withdrawal of Egyptian funds is doubted even among Frenchmen.

SUFFERING ARMENIA.

Strong Resolutions Adopted at a Meeting Held in St. John.

Elloquent Addresses by City Clergymen and Other Speakers.

The Amount Thus Subscribed in St. John for This Cause.

The Armenian relief meeting held in St. David's church on the 19th had a very small attendance, doubtless due to the storm.

Rev. Dr. Macrae led the opening devotional exercises, prayer being offered by Rev. Dr. Daniel.

Rev. Mr. Gordon thought these troubles would under Providence be a means of proving the unity of the Christian world, in face of calamity; would teach the United States and England that their interests lie together; and would show to what extent our Christianity is permeated and vitalized by the Christ-like spirit.

His worship was sure the good people of St. John would respond to the appeal. He was sure the relief fund would grow, and felt that from all Christians should go forth an appeal that would impel the Christian nations to rise in their might and end the troubles of the suffering Armenians.

Attention was directed to the fact that Secretary Williams of the Y. M. C. A. is treasurer of the fund. Mr. Williams reports the following subscriptions to date: Miss Fullerton, Carleton, $1; friend, $2; friend, $1; Geo. H. Evans, $10; D. F. Brown, $5; friends in general, $1; John Jackson, $1; A. G. R., $1; cash, $1; Mrs. D. McCallan, $5; G. and M. Murphy, $3; Sir L. and Lady Tilley, $20; Anon., $1; H. C. Tilley, $5; E. H. Nash, $2; Mont. McDonald, $1; A. Stranger, $1; J. A. friend, 50 cents; total, $32.45.

Rev. Dr. Bruce moved the second resolution, as follows: Resolved, That without expressing any opinion as to the propriety of the war, we, the undersigned, more especially British and American statesmen, and the people of the world, are deeply grieved and shocked by the news of the massacre of the Armenians.

Rev. Dr. Bruce said he was moved by the news of the massacre when he contemplated the attitude of England and America concerning this question. The Sultan of Turkey is personally responsible for the Armenian outrages.

but as this could not be done without the unanimous consent of the house, and as the member for York (Pitt) objected, the amendment in question was not adopted. He thought it was not in the interest of temperance that a man who wanted a bottle of liquor for family use should be obliged to go to the saloon for it, whether he wanted to go there or not.

A convenient device for hanging hogs is a valuable assistant in the handling of heavy animals. The accompanying illustration represents a simple and effective contrivance.

APPARATUS FOR HOISTING HOGS.

They consist of a hard-wood roller four inches in diameter and of about the same length, from which hangs a long iron loop including the beam. This loop should be wide enough below and extend downward far enough that the carriage may pass to the pulley.

In working this device all the carriages to be used are transferred to the right end of the beam except one which is brought into position on the left of the pulley.

There are two all-important matters connected with the bacon trade which are entirely in the hands of the farmers, and which ought to receive every attention.

CHEESE FACTORY SYNDICATES.

The Scheme Proposed by the Western Dairyman's Association.

Mr. J. W. Wheaton, secretary of the Western Dairyman's Association, 361 Richmond Street, London, writes us giving an outline of the scheme proposed by the association for the formation of cheese syndicates.

1. To secure a uniform quality of cheese there must be uniform methods of making, and to secure uniformity in making there must be a uniform system of instruction.

2. There are about 350 cheese factories in Western Ontario. It is proposed to organize these into syndicates of from 10 to 25 each.

3. A thoroughly competent instructor and inspector will be placed over each syndicate who will visit each factory at least once a month.

4. An inspector-general and an instructor-general will be employed by the association to look after and direct the syndicate instructors.

5. All instructors will be responsible to the association for the work done in their various spheres.

6. A fair division of the cost would be for the factories to pay the salary and expense of the instructor over each respective syndicate, and the association to pay the salary and expenses of the instructor-general and to manage the finances and control the work throughout.

7. The salary and expenses of syndicate instructors are estimated to cost from $500 to $700 per annum.

8. This would require an average of from $30 to $75 from each factory in syndicates of 10 and from $20 to $30 from each factory in syndicates of 15 factories and proportionate amounts according to the number of factories in a syndicate.

9. The scheme is proposed for fixing the amount each factory should pay, a certain rate per ton of cheese or to guarantee a certain number of members for the association according to the size of the factory.

10. The average quantity of cheese made in each factory is estimated to be 60 tons. At this estimate a rate of about 40 cents per ton would be needed from the factories.

11. If each factory in a syndicate will guarantee 55 members for the association at 50 cents each, or from 40 to 90 members, according to the size of the factory, the association will undertake to pay the cost of syndicate instructors and to manage the whole scheme.

12. The membership scheme seems to be the more favorable one for the factories to adopt, as each patron who becomes a member will receive reports and agricultural literature worth ten times the admission fee.

13. The association intends, if possible, to organize one or two of these syndicates for the coming season, as a test. But a number of factories in the locality desire to form themselves into a syndicate and will guarantee their share of the cost of the association will be ready to appoint an instructor and assume control of the work.

A NEW CROSS.

An Admirer Says the Holstein-Jersey Cross is a Success.

Referring to Mr. Havemeyer's plan of "putting new life into the Jerseys" by crossing them with Simmental bulls, Mr. S. Hoxie, writes in American Agriculturist: "The impression is strong that Mr. Havemeyer might have found breeds nearer home more suitable for his purpose."

The Ayrshire is a beautiful animal, of unquestioned health and stamina; the cow gives nearly or quite as much milk as the Simmental, and it is as rich. The Red Polled, with equal stamina, is not behind in any dairy quality.

EPPS'S COCOA.

By a thorough knowledge of the natural laws which govern the operations of digestion and nutrition, and by a careful application of the fine process of Epps's Cocoa, Mr. Epps has provided for our breakfast and supper a deliciously flavored beverage which may save us many heavy doctors' bills. It is by the judicious use of such articles that a constitution may be gradually built up until strong enough to resist every tendency to disease.

NEWS FROM OTTAWA.

Laurier Makes Some Enquiries About the School Conference.

Mr. McNeill's Motion in Reference to Preferential Trade.

The Government Determined to Push the Remedial Bill Through.

Ottawa, March 23.—In the house this afternoon, Mr. Laurier made one of his good natured declarations in parliament today which seemed to put everybody in good humor and shows that the opposition leader reads the signs of the times.

The board of husbandry, writing to Mr. Chamberlain, secretary of state for the colonies, on March 16th, report their opinion that the proposals contained in Mr. Long's bill are not likely to produce the developments of the Canadian cattle trade that they have the trade in cattle from the United States.

BOTS.

Did you ever know of a horse die of the bots? Of course you have, hundreds of them, then why run the risk of losing yours in the same way.

Be advised. Get a package of MANCHESTER'S TONIC POWDER. It will clear every bot and worm from his system, purify his blood, digest his food, and make him a new creature.

These are straight facts. We are qualified VETERINARY SURGEONS and know that it is so.

Ask your dealer for them, if he is out send 25cts. to J. W. Manchester & Co. St. John, N. B. for powder. Do not let your dealer impose on you with an inferior powder.

Ours are the only Horse Medicines put up for sale by VETERINARY SURGEONS in these provinces. Demand the Best. Take no other. Wholesale by T. B. Barker & Sons and S. McDiarmid, St. John, N. B.

Canada, but England's free trade policy stood the way. Was it likely England would give up the great foreign trade in order to secure the small trade of the colonies?

Mr. Powell said the first fault glimpsed of this was a practical question would not be ours, but our children's to enjoy. He moved the adjournment of the debate.

The motion was carried and the house adjourned tonight.

NOTES. This is probably the last private members' day until the remedial bill is disposed of. Tomorrow, Hon. Mr. Foster will move that government business take precedence hereafter on both Mondays and Thursdays, and the government will take them in spite of the opposition.

The debate on Mr. McNeill's amendment to defer the remedial bill to the supreme court will be resumed tomorrow. It is officially announced to be the government's intention to put the remedial bill through no matter how the Winnipeg negotiations result, but with the proviso attached, that it shall go into effect only by proclamation, and if Manitoba legislates on behalf of the minority, then the bill will not be proclaimed.

Messrs. Dickey, Desjardins, and Sir Donald Smith left for Manitoba this afternoon. The premier in the senate this afternoon said the government was keeping in mind the doubts which might be cast on the legality of the parliamentary proceedings after 24th April, and the facts that even if the supreme court did give an opinion on the subject that the opinion might be subject to serious delay of an appeal to the imperial privy council.

Mr. Mackenzie Bowden made himself ridiculous this afternoon by airing his views on universal peace, pronounced by an Ottawa crank, H. Wentworth.

Mr. Boulton went on to show that the time had come when the idea of a universal peace in this province, brought before the public.

Senators Macdonald of Victoria, Dever and Mr. McLellan were in favor of the establishment of such a tribunal as would inaugurate the peace of a dispute between nations.

Senator Almon thought the idea would only be practical when the lion could be induced to lie down with the lamb, and the young child to play with the cockatrice.

The lobster packers along the coast are making preparations for next season's catch. Henry O'Leary, who buys the fish from over thirty factories, will give $1 more a box than last summer.

ST. STEPHEN. St. Stephen, March 23.—The annual election for mayor and councillors in the town of Milltown was held today.

John L. Ray, who has served as mayor for eight or nine years, retired, and J. M. Descom, M. D., was elected without opposition.

T. W. Butler and Whidden Graham were elected councillors for ward one, Harrison McAllister and Abner Harman being defeated.

The two elected got thirty-nine votes each, and the two defeated thirty-eight votes each. In ward two, Harrisson Morrison and Arthur Hiltz were elected, with eighty-four and seventy-eight votes respectively.

Robert Hill had fifty-four votes and was defeated. In ward three, Daniel Fitzsimmons and Thomas Fallou were elected without opposition.

Mayor Deacon is a young man whose ability and popularity are rapidly carrying him to the front.

A serious break was discovered on Saturday in the water company's main pipe at the Canadian end of the bridge in Milltown. The water has since been shut off from a short section, and day and night crews have been busily at work to repair the damage.

The supply of water for the lower towns has not been affected, for the foresight of the St. Stephen town council, which was in office when the system was introduced, compelled the company to place an emergency main across the river at Ferry point bridge. Calais is now getting its water from the main way, but St. Stephen and Milltown, N. B., both get their supply by way of Ferry point bridge.

AN INDESCRIBIBLE SENSATION.

To be easily described a thing must have clear outlines and uniform colors. In other words, it must be simple. A rent in one's clothing, a hole in one's body, a tumble while walking, the shape of a box, etc., are easily set forth in words. On the contrary, the complex and comprehensive things puzzle the mind and take the meaning from language.

It was for this reason that Miss Sabina Mitchell, alluding to an experience of illness, says: "At this time there came upon me an indescribable sensation. It was as if the powers of life were going to fall me, and I should sink down without help, as a stone sinks in the water. Yet in saying this, I convey no adequate idea of the nature of that feeling. I hope I shall never have it again."

The illness which led to it began in the spring of 1892. My health appeared to give way all at once. I found myself tired, heavy and feeble. My appetite was poor, and after eating I had much distress at the stomach and pain in the chest and sides. My strength gradually declined and I became very low, weak and nervous; and it was when in this condition that I felt the indescribable sensation I have spoken of.

"I soon became so depressed in body and mind that it was with great labor and strain that I attended to my business. I was extremely down-hearted and feeble, and none of the many medicines I tried did me any real good. In December, 1892, Mother Selig's Syrup was recommended to me, and I began using it with, I confess, small confidence. But after having taken it for a few days I felt wonderful relief. My appetite improved and eating no longer gave me pain. A short time afterwards the Syrup proved its value in the matter of my disordered nerves. The nervousness disappeared with my increasing strength. Nowadays when I need any medicine, a few doses of Mother Selig's Syrup quickly sets me right. Having had so convincing an experience of what it can do, I recommend it to all my friends and acquaintances. You can make such use as you like of this letter. (Signed) Miss Sabina Mitchell, March 17th, 1895.

"In March, 1892," writes another lady, "my health began to give way. I had lost my energy, and was languid and heavy in feeling. I had a sense of faintness and dizziness that was almost constant, and occasional spells of sinking which I cannot describe. Hot and cold flushes came over me, my mouth tasted badly, and after eating I had a feeling at the chest like the pressure of an actual load upon it. I never seemed rested, and awoke in the morning more tired than when I went to bed. I was also much troubled with wind or gas from the stomach, and raised a sour, biting fluid.

"In this manner I continued to suffer for nearly two years, no medicine that I took giving me any relief. In January, 1894, I got a small book and read in it of cases like mine having been cured by Mother Selig's Curative Syrup. I immediately procured the medicine from Boots' Drug Stores, and after taking it about ten days felt much better. I could eat something unobjectionable without any pain following. I kept on with the Syrup, and was soon in my former good health once more. You have my permission to make this statement public. (Signed) Mrs. Ann Shaw, 174 Barnside Road, Batsmore, Sheffield, Eng., 1895.

Touching the "Indescribable Sensation" alluded to by both ladies, an eminent medical author says: "It is a sense without the loss of consciousness. The sufferer has the keenest realization of the bitterness of dissolution. I have seen stalwart men unnerved and shaken by such experiences till they trembled like aspen leaves."

"The cause is an acid poison in the blood produced by indigestion or dyspepsia. The remedy is to purify the blood with Mother Selig's Syrup, and to tone the stomach in the same way. Use the Syrup on the approach of the earliest signs of weakness."

Joggins Strike Settled, Followed by Resignation of Mr. Dick.

Funerals of the Late Mrs. J. Allen Chisholm and J. W. McDonald.

AMHERST

Amherst, N. S., March 17.—There is no change in the affairs at Joggins Mines. Warrants were issued this afternoon against about thirty of the men on a charge of being implicated in the recent disturbance and were given to constables to serve. Some of the men previously signified their willingness to give themselves up without resistance, but it is feared that that will not apply to all. A meeting of the men is being held tonight and the police are awaiting developments. An exception of one clause, that of finding employment for all men, giving men their old places, has been accepted, but nothing will be done until the case for creating a disturbance have been settled.

Amherst and vicinity was today visited by a regular blizzard, during which over a foot of snow fell. Amherst, March 20.—A telegram received here today from Boston announces the death of our analysis at that place of one of Amherst's residents, Jefferson McDonald. Deceased was 29 years of age and was a brother to W. H. McDonald of Dunlap Bros. & Co. here and Mrs. J. Leardy of Dartmouth. He leaves a wife and one daughter. The remains are being brought here for interment.

Rev. R. Williams, Methodist minister here, has accepted an invitation to the Pugwash circuit. Amherst, N. S., March 22.—The strike at Joggins mines was settled last night and work will be resumed tomorrow. The men accepted a reduction of five cents per box for coal cutting, ten per cent on all wages over $2.5 per day, and under this rate seven per cent. This arrangement is not so favorable to the company as that made with Mr. Dick some time ago, but which the directors in Montreal rejected. The action of the directors caused the resignation of Mr. Dick, which was announced by himself in a letter to the men immediately after the settlement was concluded. Since his going to Joggins the colliery has enjoyed a period of steady work, and there is a general feeling of regret at Mr. Dick's early departure. A dinner is to be tendered him before he leaves by the prominent people of the place.

The remains of the late Mrs. J. Allen Chipman of Moncton were interred here yesterday afternoon. Rev. Roy Campbell of Dorchester, assisted by Rev. V. E. Harris of Amherst officiating. The pall-bearers were: Hon. Judge Wells, D. Pottinger, P. S. Archibald, J. L. Harris, I. W. Binney and Supt. Mowbray. Among the mourners present were: Rev. W. and R. H. Chipman, Miss Chipman, Mrs. Purvis, Mrs. (Senator) Primrose, Pictou; S. F. Wilson, Dorchester; J. P. Charité, St. John.

Another funeral was that this afternoon of the late Jefferson W. McDonald, whose remains arrived here last night from Boston. Rev. Robt. Williams officiated. The deceased was stricken down with paralysis on the street in Boston on Wednesday, and died in the hospital on Thursday.

HALIFAX

Halifax, March 18.—Lawyers are making some excitement among themselves tonight over Charles Stern's assertion of money, which he brought from New York. Judge Townshend discharged the prisoner today owing to the non-appearance of the prosecutors from the New York police. Three leading lawyers have claims against Stern, and they are proceeding against him on their own account, leaving scores of smaller creditors out in the cold. When Judge Townshend released Stern he immediately capitated for $1,000 on behalf of Knath, Nachod & Kuhn, New York firm and there is another large creditor. The $10,000 capias could not be satisfied today because none of the Halifax brokers would accept either Stern's bonds or his foreign gold coin, and he is still in the hands of the sheriff. Meanwhile the lawyers cannot come to an agreement among themselves regarding Stern and his money. The chief of police holds the cash and will not give it up without proper authority. The different New York interests are conflicting and the lawyers are making sure of their own fat fees before they will let their man go.

William Roche, M.P., and Michael Dwyer were nominated some months ago as the liberal candidates for Halifax to oppose Messrs. Stairs and Kenny, conservatives, M. P's. Both have declined the nomination. The liberal convention meets again tomorrow night, when Hon. A. J. Jones and ex-Mayor Keefe will probably be nominated. Halifax, March 20.—The Halifax Herald tomorrow morning will publish a three column letter under the heading "What St. John Thinks of Halifax," compares the wholesale enterprises of the two cities greatly in favor of St. John, comments on the unanimity of its people in stinking all petty differences and standing shoulder to shoulder for the interests of St. John, praises the good work done by the St. John board of trade, and admits that St. John is more of a Canadian winter port than Halifax, that it is not only a rival but away ahead of Halifax, and advises Halifax people to awake out of their sleep. The letter will make very interesting reading in both cities.

A year ago the liberal convention nominated as candidates to oppose Messrs. Kenny and Stairs, Wm. Roche, M. P., and Michael Dwyer, wholesale grocer. There was a strong feeling at the time and at the way Hon. A. G. Jones, "the old liberal war horse," was unceremoniously frozen out by the element who wanted a new man. Mr. Dwyer declined at once, leaving Mr. Roche in the field with W. B. Wallace, a bright young liberal barrister, as a prospective Catholic colleague. But for some weeks both factions of the party have been intriguing against each other, and yesterday it was stated that the Jones faction had triumphed, but at the convention tonight the anti-Jonesites rallied in force and succeeded in again defeating the nomination of the old leader, which was finally captured by Prof. Russell, one of the faculty of the Halifax law school, and ex-Mayor Michael E. Keefe. Professor Russell is a leading lawyer and a brilliant conversationalist. Mr. Keefe is a successful contractor.

WARING DISTRICT LODGE, I. O. G. T.

The representatives of seven lodges west of the Kennebecas met at Kingston, Thursday, March 19th, for the purpose of organizing a district lodge. The grand lodge officers present were: G. C. T. W. L. Waring, G. T. Austin R. Wetmore, G. M. C. M. MacLean, M. D., G. D. M. Miss Ida Northrup.

The meeting was called to order by G. C. T. at 2.30 p. m. After the district degree was conferred the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: D. T. S. Z. Dickson, D. C. Wm. Logan; D. V. Mrs. H. S. Wainwright; D. S. J. T. Miss Elizabeth Wetmore; D. Secretary, A. R. Wetmore; D. T. Miss Miss Northrup; D. C. Geo. Kierstead; D. M. Jas. White; D. G. Chas. Lamb; D. S. Lee Urquhart; A. D. Secretary, Miss Annie Lyon; D. D. M. Wm. Irwin; D. P. T. Leonard.

After installation the meeting adjourned for supper, which was served by the members of Loyalist Lodge.

Business was resumed at 7.30 p. m. The committee appointed to investigate the credentials of Miss Annie Wainwright, C. M. MacLean, M. D., Robert Shekdrake.

Programme—Miss Annie Darling, Mrs. Geo. Chaloner, Aubrey Northrup.

Audit—Harry Pickett, Miss Ida Northrup, Miss Elizabeth Wetmore. State of the order—Miss Millie Northrup, Arthur Dickson, Geo. Kierstead. By-laws—C. M. MacLean, M. D., S. Z. Dickson, A. R. Wetmore. At a meeting of Loyalist Lodge, held on March 19th, 1896, it was resolved that the grand chief templar be presented with the following address at the institution of district lodge on March 14th: To W. L. Waring, G. C. T. for New Brunswick, I. O. G. T.

Honored and Esteemed Chieftain—On this your first visit to our lodge since you became the leader of the Good Templar army in New Brunswick, we, the members of Loyalist lodge, wish to accord you a most hearty welcome to the old shiretown of historic Kingston.

We are glad to know that you were the unanimous choice of the grand lodge for the office which you reluctantly accepted and to find you bringing to that office not only the dignity of an important position in the government service, but the record of six years of faithful work in the upbuilding of our noble order.

Your life-long devotion to the holy cause of temperance has given you a warm place in the hearts of six thousand Good Templars who acknowledge you their leader. By your frequent visits to lodges, by your kindly manner, by your wise counsel, you have done as much as not more than any of your predecessors to advance the interests of our order.

The bravest and noblest are not those who join glory fields "mid cannon's roar and trumpet's shrill blast," perform deeds of valor, but they who in life's stern battle strive by word and deed to make the world purer, nobler and better—who strike with all their might the wrongs that oppress the lowly and who have always a kindly sympathetic word for those who have fallen—and who strive to lead them back to the path of virtue, as well as to save the innocent from going astray.

In you, our grand chief templar, we feel certain we have such a worker, and we hope our "order" possesses many such. While your official duty as grand chief templar leaves you those which devolve of you in the service of the state, and which are so necessary to the protection of human life and property, makes many demands upon your time and leaves you little space for rest, we feel quite sure that you have the loyal support of every Good Templar lodge in the province.

May a gracious Providence grant you many years to labor in the cause of temperance and morality, and when at last in the twilight of life "the silver cord" shall be loosed, may your spirit depart as gloriously as a winter sun, to rise in a land of endless day, and to hear the welcome words "Well done."

Signed on behalf of the lodge, Geo. H. Kierstead, G. T. Muriel Wainwright, R. S., pro tem.

Mr. Waring replied in a few pleasing and well spoken words, after which the lodge adjourned with a hearty vote of thanks for the kind reception they had received from Loyalist Lodge.

KING'S PROHIBITIONISTS.

The County Convention Postponed Until Tuesday, March 31st.

The county convention of prohibitionists, called to meet at Sussex on the 20th for the purpose of organizing for the coming dominion election, has been postponed until Tuesday, 31st inst., at 10 a. m.

Owing to the heavy rain storm of Thursday night the roads were in an almost impassable state, with the result that only Sussex, Studholm and Havelock were represented yesterday. The 15 gentlemen present informally discussed the situation, with Gideon Prescott, county vice-president of the Provincial association in the chair. The Rev. B. H. Noyles acting secretary, and decided to postpone action until the 31st. It was decided to invite the Rev. Dr. McLeod to be present at the convention and also to take part in the public meeting in the evening, and to call on the friends of the temperance movement for a liberal contribution towards the campaign fund.

Mr. Prescott read the constitution and plan of political action adopted by the provincial convention, also a letter from Rev. Dr. McLeod containing practical suggestions as to the manner of organizing and conducting parish and county conventions.

THE BRITISH COMMONS

Liberals Ask Questions Regarding the Nile Expedition.

Germany, Austria and Italy are With Great Britain.

The New Egyptian Policy—John Morley's Motion Defeated.

London, March 20.—The under secretary of state for the foreign affairs, George N. Caron, answering a question in the house of commons this afternoon, said that the decision of the government to send British-Egyptian troops to Dongola was considerably influenced by a communication from Italy relative to the prospects of a Dervish attack on Kassala, and the effect it might have upon Egyptian interests.

The house was occupied for an hour today with various questions put by John Morley and John Dillon regarding the expenses of the Nile expedition and the expediency of Italy with regard to the steps being taken. Mr. Morley during his remarks on the subject pointed out the unfortunate nature of the expedition decided upon by the government, saying that "it was not only a derogation of the pledge of Great Britain that she would assume a protectorate over Egypt, but he added it was likely to withdraw from the country some of the benefits and blessings of the British administration of its affairs."

Mr. Morley added that the divisions of the funds of the Caisse for the purpose of the expedition would necessarily prolong the English occupation, and by insisting upon remaining in Egypt Great Britain admitted that Egypt was not strong enough to stand by itself. Yet he continued, the new policy is to impose upon Egypt the duty of governing one of the most difficult territories on the earth. Therefore he asked the government to furnish the means with full realization of the value as nothing, in his opinion, showed that the Egyptian frontier was menaced. The government, Mr. Morley asserted, was pursuing a mad and infatuated policy, and he moved a resolution, and that in account of the civil service which they were discussing at £100.

Joseph Chamberlain, the secretary of state for the colonies, replying for the government, contended that all the opposition arguments were tainted with a preconceived determination to evacuate Egypt. He pointed out the benefits resulting to that country from the British occupation, saying that nothing in recent history was the subject of greater pride than the peaceful revolution in Egypt. The finances had been restored, its administration improved, and its people enormously reduced, irrigation had been restored, and other great benefits had been conferred upon the country. All authorities, he added, agreed that the withdrawal of the British troops would mean that all this work was to be undone, and a vast majority of Englishmen were convinced that the work of Great Britain in Egypt was completed, and that it would be dishonorable to leave Egypt until it was completed.

Great Britain, he said, had been too sanguine in the past respecting the time for the fulfilment of pledges, and it would occur to the majority of the house that she was determined to maintain her troops in Egypt until her work was accomplished and they were ready to be withdrawn. The under secretary of state for foreign affairs and the first lord of the treasury, said Mr. Chamberlain had already explained the reasons for the retention of the British troops in Egypt, that her ideal policy was the recovery of the Sudan, and that until it was recovered there would be no real peace or prosperity. The situation as Mr. Chamberlain explained it might have been borne for some years longer had it not been for the defeat of the Italians. Now, however, it was felt that if Kassala fell the forces would be inculcated among Egyptian interests, and if Italy was again defeated many a tribe hitherto alienated from the Khalfia would rejoin his arms, and he might make a great further step to destroy Egypt and the civilization of which England was the protector. Therefore it was of paramount importance to Egypt that Kassala should not fall, and the advance of the British-Egyptian troops up the Nile was dictated from this direction. The wisest policy for Egypt was to anticipate attack and prevent the concentration of the Dervishes, thereby creating a diversion in favor of Italy.

Mr. Chamberlain further said that Lord Rosebery had taunted the government with its isolation, but the present situation did not show that they were isolated. Germany supported Great Britain; Austria warmly approved the advance, and Italy thankfully accepted it. In regard to France and Russia, the government waited. (Ironical opposition cheered.) The demonstration on the part of the liberals caused a smile to cross Mr. Chamberlain's face and when he was about to continue, he said that it would be wise to anticipate what the notion of France and Russia would be and there was no reason to suppose that they were not in accord with the other powers.

The advance upon Akasheh, Mr. Chamberlain explained, might possibly be extended to Dongola; but it would be limited by the security of the communications which they could maintain and the amount of resistance which would be met. However, the secretary of state for the colonies firmly asserted wherever the troops went they would remain, for Great Britain was not going to hand back to barbarism whatever territory they might recover.

The government did not want to incur incalculable expenditure, and send a gigantic military force into the rainless Sudan. If the dervishes were capable of serious resistances, which would overstrain the resources of Egypt, the government would not enter into such a policy. But, on the other hand, it was true that the Khalfia's power was entirely broken and the tribes were tired of his misgovernment, would be glad to see him removed, and would be glad to see the British troops push on to Khartoum.

Henry M. Stanley, the African explorer, liberal unionist M. P. for North Lambert, made a speech in support of the government, saying the course of which he said that he hoped the British troops would push on to Khartoum.

Sir Wm. Vernon Harcourt, the opposition leader, protested against the policy and believed that it was fraught with danger and would be condemned by the country. Arthur Balfour, the government leader, in the course of a short reply to the opposition leader, said that in the interests of Egypt and of Egypt alone, they were well advised in their present policy.

The vote was then taken on John Morley's motion, and it was lost by a vote of 288 to 145.

The result of the division was received with loud cheers on the part of the supporters of the government. London, March 22.—The French ambassador, Baron De Courcel, had a long interview with Lord Salisbury at the latter's residence on Sunday. The conference is supposed to have dealt with the subject of the Nile expedition. An official visit by an ambassador on Sunday to the private residence of a prime minister or minister of foreign affairs is an unusual occurrence and this leads to the supposition that the subject of Baron De Courcel's call was an important one.

LA GRIPPE'S VICTIMS.

A Scourge More to Be Dreaded Than Pestilence.

The Story of a Nova Scotian Lady Who Almost Lost Her Life Through the Ravages of This Trouble—Unable to Feed Herself and had to be Carried to and From Bed.

(From the Acadian, Wolfville, N. S.) In the spring of 1894 the many friends of Mrs. Mary Freeman, in Wolfville, N. S., very gladly welcomed her return home after a long absence from her native town, but it was with the deepest grief that they beheld in her the prey of a disease of almost incredible severity. It appeared to all that the brightest future in store for her was now a complete and irrevocable extinction. Not long after her return, however, the people of Wolfville were surprised to hear that after using a few boxes of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills she had almost completely recovered. In January of 1893 Mrs. Freeman, who was then living in Foxbury, Mass., was severely attacked by la grippe. She had partly recovered when a relapse followed, and while recovering from its effects she was seized by acute rheumatism and neuralgia. The combined sickness resulted in completely breaking down her constitution. She had recovered from the neuralgia, she one day noticed a little bump on her left ankle which became exceedingly painful. It grew rapidly, soon becoming as large as a gold dollar and breaking into a running sore. Others immediately followed and soon the whole body was covered, the limbs becoming terribly swollen. The most eminent physicians of Boston were appealed to, but beyond informing her that the ailment was due to a completely run-down system, they rendered her no assistance. In the spring of 1894 she came to Nova Scotia, hoping that a change of climate would effect a cure, but to no purpose. Some ulcers, greatly exceeding in painfulness the sores which first appeared, manifested themselves. She soon lost the use of her limbs, became unable to feed herself, and was compelled to be carried to and from her bed. Her eyes became weak and she was thus denied the enjoyment of reading. After many remedies had been tried and proved useless, Dr. Williams' Pink Pills were finally appealed to. Scarcely six boxes had been consumed when the ulcers showed symptoms of healing, the appetite grew better and her general health greatly improved. Since that time her condition has steadily improved, and her health is now far better than it was previous to her serious illness. Save a slight stiffness of the limbs, she shows no signs of the terrible scourge she has passed through. Mr. Freeman is not unmindful of the great obligation she is under to this remarkable medicine, and she is anxious that the wonderful cure which it has effected should be generally known.

The experience of years has proved that there is absolutely no disease due to a vitiated condition of the blood or shattered nerves than Dr. Williams' Pink Pills will not promptly cure, and those who are suffering from such troubles would avoid much misery and save money by promptly resorting to this treatment. Get the genuine Pink Pills every time and do not be persuaded to take an imitation or some other remedy from a dealer, who, for the sake of the extra profit in himself, may say it is "just as good." Dr. Williams' Pink Pills make rich, red blood, and cure when other medicines fail.

"It's a Raphael portrait." "Doesn't look like him." "Have you seen his photograph?" "New York Times." NEWFOUNDLAND.

A Movement on Foot to Organize Two Battalions of Militia.

Halifax, March 21.—The Newfoundland mail steamer today brought the news of steps having been taken at St. John's, N. F., toward the organization of a Newfoundland militia. At a meeting of a committee representing the volunteers, a deputation was appointed to present to the government a petition asking for recognition. There will be no trouble in getting men to enlist in St. John's and other places, as the residents there are enthusiastic and loyal. It is probable that two large battalions will be formed at once. There is at present no militia in Newfoundland and the government constabulary is the only standing force maintained. The old French and English fortifications are all in a state of ruin. Sir Herbert Murray, the new governor, approves of the plan to form a militia and it is believed that the British government is through him encouraging the movement. Surveys are being made at points of strategic importance with a view of erecting fortifications to protect the chief harbors and to command the entrance to the Gulf of St. Lawrence.

THE WEEKLY SUN

ST. JOHN, N. B., MARCH 25, 1896

A CLEAR MAJORITY

In the division on Mr. Laurier's amendment the government majority was composed of 102 liberal conservatives and seven regular members of the opposition. The minority vote was composed of 75 grits, 13 conservatives and three McCarthys.

THE OLDEST CANADIAN REGIMENT

Much of the history of a city like St. John would be more or less connected with the events in the career of a militia corps which maintained continuous existence in the community for a century.

This claim of seniority is clearly made good by the historian of the regiment in the Canadian list; the corps is numbered the third, but as Captain Baxter points out it is thirty years older than the Halifax regiment, which is styled the first, but which appears to be its junior to the Montreal regiment called the second.

The history of the artillery regiment connects itself with some striking national events. The first company was organized in a time of national peril. It contained men who had seen military service and were willing to see more.

The Duke of Kent reviewed the corps in 1794, and sixty-six years later the regiment greeted his grandson, the Prince of Wales. In another way the regiment is connected with the history of city and province.

Leading men in the public, professional and business life of the community have at all times been members of the corps.

memory of those who served in its ranks at other times. The handsome volume roughly described above, which of the preparation and publication has been laborious and expensive, is not for sale. It is published by the officers of the corps for private circulation.

MR. MILLS AND PROFESSOR WELDON

Hon. David Mills is by general consent the leading constitutional authority on the opposition side of the house of commons. He voted with Mr. Laurier on the remedial bill, but he made an argument which opposes one of the contentions of the opponents of the remedial law.

Some days ago this paper said that it was doubtful whether the separate schools of Ontario and Quebec had a better constitutional status than those which the Greenway act swept away in Manitoba.

Professor Weldon may be regarded as the highest constitutional authority among those liberal conservatives who oppose remedial legislation. But it must not be supposed that Dr. Weldon opposes remedial legislation as such.

Dr. Weldon—That is a question that requires to be answered in very much more detail than I have time for. Mr. Gillies—I would like to know what method you would adopt to put the bill in Manitoba in the same position as in Nova Scotia and Brunswick, except by remedial legislation.

THE PROPOSED NEGOTIATIONS

The attempt to effect a settlement which will make remedial legislation unnecessary should have the sympathy of all good citizens. Mr. Martin, the author of the present Manitoba school law, has admitted that the act is unjust to the minority. Mr. Weldon, who is counted as an anti-remedialist, says that he would favor remedial legislation if that were necessary to obtain such conditions as exist in this province.

There may be members of both parties who would prefer to keep the trouble alive. These persons in Manitoba are doing their best to make it impossible for Mr. Greenway to negotiate. In the house of commons they find a cause of offence in every thing that is done in the interest of peace.

It is understood that the valued telegraph, having got the local legislature off its hands, will now take up the great broad question and force it to an issue before the federal campaign commences.

The vote on the remedial bill was the largest ever recorded in the house of commons. It exceeded by five the vote on the Jesuits' estates resolution.

MR. BLAIR'S BORROWING

Mr. Blair has not been very successful in the attempt to show that the whole or nearly the whole of the debt incurred by his government was required for railway subsidies. Mr. Stockton charged that some $800,000 had been added to the debt for other services than railways.

The government has now taken authority to borrow $400,000 more for bridges. The Sun is not much given to prophesying, but it will venture to predict that this $400,000 will not last much longer than two years unless other money is borrowed in the meantime for public works.

A MISTAKE

The Atlantic Weekly of Dartmouth, N. S., says: Dr. Weldon, M. P. for Albert, does not appear to be very acceptable to some of the conservative party.

Dr. Weldon's speech was delivered at midnight Thursday morning. It was reported for the Sun more fully than any other speech of the day. But as the report was not received until three o'clock in the morning it was not used until the next day.

The valued telegraph contrasts the speed with which the provincial government has rushed business through the legislature, with the slow progress of legislation at Ottawa.

A two-thirds majority of the United States congress has voted condemnation on Senator Bayard, the United States minister in London.

The difference between a member who opposes the remedial bill in what he believes to be the interests of peace, and those who do so in the hope of producing a war of race and creed is shown by the way in which they treat the negotiations with Greenway.

It is understood that the valued telegraph, having got the local legislature off its hands, will now take up the great broad question and force it to an issue before the federal campaign commences.

The vote on the remedial bill was the largest ever recorded in the house of commons. It exceeded by five the vote on the Jesuits' estates resolution.

P. E. ISLAND NEWS

Charlottetown, March 24.—In the last Democratic contest, held in Zion church, basement, the medal was awarded to the Rev. Dr. Elsie Lowe. The Rev. D. Sutherland made the presentation.

The Hon. David Laird delivered a very fine lecture in Zion church last week on the history of Canada, which is very highly spoken of. He has this evening delivered a lecture on the history of the Upper Methodist church, to be delivered on the 23rd. This is the day of the opening of the legislature, and it is arranged to give the members a chance to hear this timely lecture.

From the proceeds of a recent lecture in the Upper Methodist church the choir has been able to purchase the new Methodist music book, and are using it with great satisfaction to the increasing congregations.

A new district lodge, I. O. G. T., was organized at Pownal, a few miles from town, on Friday last, with the following officers: T. Rev. John Goldsmith, D. V. T., Annie Hanson, D. Sec. J. E. Mathews, D. S. J. T. Mrs. Kennedy, D. Chap. C. A. Myers, D. Treas.

Rev. Wm. Lawson lectured Thursday evening in St. Peter's Presbyterian church on the subject of "The Temperance Alliance and the W. C. T. U. of New York to take special courses of study in medicine."

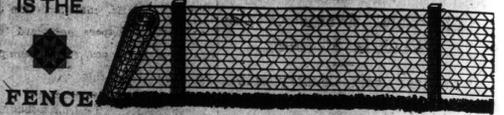

Shediac, March 18.—One of the horses of the fine sorrel team of Michael Connors died last Wednesday from glanders.

Chipman, March 18.—Miss Reta Legasse, sixth daughter of Joseph Legasse of this place, died on the 15th inst., after a lingering illness of consumption, which she bore with Christian resignation.

The preliminary examination of R. C. March, charged with forgery of a police debenture, which began before Police Magistrate Ritchie on Saturday, is still in progress.

At an examination recently held before W. L. Waring, examiner of marine engineers, the following were granted certificates: John Frederick Williamson of St. John, second class; George William Cowie of Miramichi, third class; James Henderson, a. s. Prince Rupert, fourth class; engineer's certificate.

THE WEEKLY SUN takes pleasure in notifying its readers that it has perfected arrangements with J. W. Manchester, V. S., whereby all questions with reference to diseases of lower animals will be answered by him, and treatment prescribed in those cases where it is asked for through the columns of THE SUN.

D. McE.—I have a mare 14 years old. She has a swelling on outside of right foreleg, above the knee. She is getting lame. What would you advise? Ans.—Give complete rest and blister every three weeks with the following: Hydrarg. biniodide, 1 part; cantharides, 1 part, and lard, 4 parts.

R. C.—Have a large mastiff dog that has a large tumor, it seems to be base of fang tooth. It seems to cause him a good deal of pain. What had I better do? Ans.—Secure dog firmly with ropes; then remove tooth with ordinary dentist's forceps. It will be easily done, as roots are probably diseased.

L. M.—I see a great deal in the papers about green cut bone for laying hens. Do you think it a very valuable food, and would you advise my buying a bone cutting machine? I keep fifty hens. Ans.—Cut bone is a splendid food, and I should think a bone cutter would soon repay the cost.

MARINE MATTERS

Bark Ashlow, at Sandy Hook, has been ordered by W. C. E. at 37s. 6d. Sch. Marston, Capt. Retford, from St. John for Stamford, Ct. broke port anchor at Whitehead, Me., but has procured another anchor at Vineyard Haven.

Masters' certificates in the coasting trade have been granted by the marine board of examiners to B. M. Dykeman of St. John and James R. Milton of Port Granville, N. S. Capt. Carland, who left the bark Cambusdon at Barbadoes owing to ill health, writes from the voyage from Manila for New York, that the bark Cambusdon also arrived there the same day.

Auckland, 18 days; with 15 days of Bermuda, with heavy N.W. gales; lost and split sails. March 13, A. Young, ordinary seaman, aged 20 years, Auckland, N. Z., fell from aloft to the deck and was killed. His body was buried at sea.

Ship Annie M. Law, from Boulogne for Santos, before reported anchored in the Downs in a leaky condition, has been docked at Tilbury, taking at the rate of a foot an hour.

Captain Harding of the bark Galatia, which arrived at Boston on Wednesday from Manila, reports sailed Nov. 4. Had moderate easterly winds in the China sea, and passed Anjer Nov. 25, Cape of Good Hope Jan. 7, having had fresh S.E. trades in the Indian ocean. Took a heavy westerly gale off the Cape of Good Hope. The bark passed St. Helena Jan. 20, and had light S.E. trades and no N.E. trades in the Atlantic. The Galatia has been 15 days from a point 200 miles south of Bermuda, having encountered strong northwesterly gales and rough sea until reaching port. No damage resulted.
