AN OUT-OF-DATE PRAYER.

S. H. Blake Objects to Petitions Which Presuppose Divisions.

The Anglican Synod is in an icon-oclastic mood, says a Toronto despatch, of the 12th. Prayers were scarcely over yesterday when Hon. S. H. Blake rose in his place and protested against the following clause: "Give us grace seriously to lay to heart the great dangers we are in by our unhappy divisions.
Take away all hatred and prejudice and whatever else may hinder us from Godly union and concord." Mr. Blake said the sentiment grated on him, as there were no divisions nor hatred nor prejudice in the church.
Dr. Langtry, presiding, said the objection voiced his own views. The prayer dated back to the time of William the III., over two centuries ago, when there was cause for such appeals.

It was decided to omit the objectionable phrases from the reading of the prayer at this meeting and to refer the question of striking it out to the bishop.

SOUTH AFRICA.

Gen De Wet Says It Is the Will of God.

LONDON, June 16.—Despatches received here from South Africa show that the surrenders of Boers are proceeding with the greatest good will.
The total of the number who have already surrendered is 16,500, and the British are extending every possible kindness to the men who come in.
The appearance of General De Wet at the camp at Winburg was the signal for a great display of enthusiasm.
When he arrived at the camp Gen. De Wet was at once surrounded by thousands of Boer men, women and children, who struggled and clamored to shake the hand of their hero. Gen.
De Wet mounted a table and delivered an address. He warmly applauded the staunch support that the women had given the burghers during the war which, he said, had greatly encouraged the men in the field. Continuing, Gen. De Wet recommended his hearers to be loyal to the new government, and said:

"Perhaps it is hard for you to hear this from my mouth, but God has decided thus. I fought until there was no more hope of upholding our cause, and however bitter it may be, the time has come to lay down our arms.
As a Christian people God now demands that we be faithful."

Neither General DeWet nor Mr.
Steyn, former president of the old Orange Free State, was ever wounded during the war. General DeWet has not seen his wife for two years.

The repatriation committee, which has been formed to assist the Boers in returning to their farms, has a gigantic task before it. The concentration camps will be converted into supply depots, the means to rebuild and re-stock their farms. The wives and families of the Boers will, if desired, be maintained at the expense of the government while the burghers are preparing the farms for their reception.

Two thousand of the National Scouts, who fought upon the British side during the war, will immediately be disbanded and each scout will be provided with a pony and enabled to return to his farm.

FAVOR ARBITRATION.

Chicago Federation of Labor Will Appoint Board of Review.

CHICAGO, June 16.—Recognizing the advantages of arbitration in labor difficulties, the Chicago Federation of Labor has decided to appoint a board of review and pass on all internal disagreements of affiliated unions. The Federation thinks the dissensions have invariably been the cause of unwarranted strikes.

This board of arbitration will be composed of one representative from each of the twenty-one unions affiliated with the Chicago Federation of Labor.
The judgment of the board will be absolute, and the workmen must abide by its decision or cease their connection with the Federation of Labor.

A CLOUDBURST

Causes Five Deaths and Great Damage to Railroads.

BARRE, Vt., June 16.—A cloudburst here last night caused the river to rise to such proportion that the Central Vermont railroad bridge near Middlesex was washed away and other bridges over the river at different points are reported gone. Considerable damage was done in this city, the electric light poles being washed out and the city is in darkness. The river was raised almost equal to the usual spring floods.

In addition to great property damage five railroad men lost their lives, a freight on the Central Vermont having run into a washout at Middlesex. The Winouski river rose to spring freshet pitch and several bridges were washed away.

THE DEATH ROLL.

NEW YORK, June 16.—James Egerton Learned, author and newspaper writer, and managing editor of the Evening Post, from 1882 to 1892, is dead at his home in this city. He was 64 years old and was born at New London, Conn.

NEW BRITAIN, Conn., June 16.— Hon. Robert J. Vance, ex-congressman, and editor of the New Britain Herald, died last night at Montreal, N. C. He had long been in poor health.

DUNLUCE COMING OVER.

LONDON, June 16.—Viscount Dunluce, eldest son of the Earl of Antrim, will be a passenger on the White Star Line steamer Celtic, which is to sail from Liverpool, June 20, for New York.

THE WEATHER.

WASHINGTON, June 16.—Eastern states and northern New York.—Showers and cooler tonight; Tuesday, fair, except showers on the coast, probably cooler, brisker southeast winds, becoming northwest.

STORM COMING.

NEW YORK, June 16.—The local weather bureau has received the following from Washington:
Southeast storm warnings are displayed upon the Atlantic coast, from Baltimore to New York. Storm central this morning in North Carolina, moving northeasterly, will cause strong southeast winds and squalls along the middle Atlantic coast this afternoon, and tonight, shifting to northwest towards morning.

THE KING ILL.

Compelled to Remain Indoors
Again Today at Aldershot.

The Queen and Prince and Princess of Wales Attend Review of 30,000 Troops.

LONDON, June 16.—King Edward, who was attacked yesterday by lumbago, following a chill contracted while reviewing troops at Aldershot, passed a good night and is much better. Rain is falling, however, so he will not risk attending the grand review today. The Prince of Wales will take the salute in his majesty's stead.

LONDON, June 16. 2.30 a. m.—The despatch to the Exchange Telegraph Co., from Aldershot says:

"The king's illness has become of a more serious nature than was at first expected. Yesterday the king was in a low state and laudanum was administered to allay the pain. Complications were feared this morning."

ALDERSHOT, England, June 16.— The indisposition of King Edward and the incessant downpour of rain combined to effectually spoil the grand review of troops here today. The king did not leave the royal pavilion, and was represented by the Prince of Wales, who rode to the saluting point, accompanied by the Duke of Connaught and a brilliant staff, comprising several Indian princes, the military attaches, Lord Roberts, the commander-in-chief, and the headquarters staff.

Queen Alexandra drove to the parade ground, in a closed carriage, with the Princess of Wales and the Princess Victoria. In other carriages at the saluting point were the Duchess of Connaught and many of the nobilities who are now visiting England. Over 32,000 rain-soaked troops marched past the heir to the throne.

LATER.

LONDON, June 16.—Lord Farquhar, master of the household, who is at Windsor castle, said this afternoon that King Edward was much better and that his majesty would arrive at the castle this evening from Aldershot, in accordance with his previous arrangements.

LONDON, June 16, 3.40 p. m.—When questioned regarding the alarmist reports circulated about the king's health, his majesty's private secretary, Sir Henry Knolly, said: "The best answer I can give is that the king is going to Windsor this afternoon."

GRANTED A DIVORCE.

LONDON, June 16.—Julie Opp, the American actress, was granted a divorce today on the ground of desertion and misconduct on the part of her husband, Robert Lorraine, an actor.
The cause was not defended.

TODAY'S FUNERALS.

The funeral took place this afternoon of Christopher Mallman, from the residence of his son, West End. Service was held at the home and at Cedar Hill where interment was made by Rev. H. Penna.

The remains of the late Charles Johnston were laid to rest at three o'clock this afternoon from the residence of his father on Duke street, west.
Interment was at Cedar Hill, and the services were conducted by Rev. H.
Penna. The pall-bearers were J. Olive Mundy, Stephen Cunningham, William Holder, Geo. Lane, Theodore Shaw and Mr. Poup.

A NEW LEAGUE.

An effort is being made to organize another base ball league consisting of three teams, from the North End, Carleton and Fairville. At present the Canadians, of the North End, and the Electrics, of Carleton, have been playing every week, and it is expected that in a short time a team from Fairville will join. The Electrics and Canadians meet again Wednesday evening.

SHE'S A GOOD ONE.

The new steamer Majestic went up to Gagetown on Saturday and came down this morning. She is a fast one, and the passengers both ways were delighted with her speed and accommodation. She was newly painted and fitted up last week, before going on her route. It is stated that she is exactly suited to the requirements of the service.

REDUCED FARES ON MAGGIE MIL- LER.

In today's Star the corrected timetable of the steamer Maggie Miller is given. Arrangements have been made with the provincial government and a reduction in fares will take place tomorrow. The fare for teams is 15 cents to Summersville, and 20 cents to Bayswater; for passengers 8 cents to Summersville and 10 cents to Bayswater.

PROSPECTIVE WEDDING.

The wedding is announced for the 25th of this month, of Dr. Dow Coburn, of Canterbury, eldest son of the late Dr. B. Coburn, of Fredericton, and Miss Lawson, also of Canterbury, daughter of Luke Lawson, customs official at McAdam Junction.

A FLYER.

NEW YORK, June 16.—The first of the new Pennsylvania railroad flyers, eastbound, which are scheduled to make the trip from Chicago to New York in 20 hours, arrived at Jersey city at 8.35
a. m., today, and its passengers were landed in New York at 8.50; three minutes ahead of schedule time. The train's fast trip was accomplished without a hitch.

POPE AND PHILIPPINES.

American Proposals Favored By All
But a Jesuit Cardinal.

ROME, June 16.—The complete success of the negotiations between Judge Taft, governor of the Philippines and the Vatican on the subject of the friar lands in those islands appears to be assured, four out of the five cardinals composing the sub-committee of cardinals favoring the governor's proposals. Cardinal Steinhuber, a Jesuit, opposes them.

After the completion of the negotiations, an acute conflict is expected between the Vatican officials and the Phil-ipino religious orders in regard to the disposition of the money which the United States will pay for the lands.
The Vatican considers that the money ought to be given to the propaganda, or society of cardinals, having the care and oversight of foreign missions.

HAPPY TWINS

Will Have a Real, Live Prince For a Godfather.

NEW YORK, June 16.—Prince Henry of Prussia has made glad the hearts of Mr. and Mrs. Christopher Blume, of Newark, N. J., by consenting to act as godfather by proxy of their twins, who were born the day Emperor William's yacht was launched. Mrs.
Blume wrote to the prince, saying that she would like to name the boy twins William and Henry, and asking if he would stand as sponsor. She has just heard from the German consul at this city that Prince Henry has consented, and expressed the hope that the twins may some day do honor to their names.
The prince also sent a check for a good sum for each boy.

BANISHED 60,000 PEOPLE,

And Then the Worm Turned—Result of Russian Despotism.

ST. PETERSBURG, June 16.—An enumeration of the persons, including working people, expelled from various cities during the last two and a half years of the administration of the late M. Sipiaguine, the minister of interior, who was assassinated April 15, drawn up by instructions of M. Von Plehwe, who succeeded M. Sipiaguine, shows the enormous total of 60,000.

M. Von Plehwe has decided to clean this slate so far as possible and permit the exiled people to return, as he does not desire to inherit the hatred inspired by M. Sipiaguine. It is said that Pleh-we is inclined to adopt milder measures generally, but the reactionists, under the leadership of Count Sheremetiev, are still influential with the czar.

THE COAL STRIKE.

No Important Change in the Situation Today

WILKESBARRE, Pa., June 16.—As far as can be learned, the strikers' efforts to have the fire bosses and other bosses strike today, was not as great a success as was expected by the union.
It is generally believed the number who went out was not great. Jasper Clark, of Toledo, international president of the Team Drivers' Association, who came here last night, saw President Mitchell. Clark said his union will do everything possible to help the miners.
There was a general shooting affray near the William A. Colliery of the Lehigh Valley Coal Co. at Duryea shortly after midnight. No one was hurt.
Reports are conflicting, residents of the neighborhood say several coal and iron police left the colliery after midnight and were attacked by a number of men who were lying in wait. They managed to board a car for Pittston, it is said, without being injured. All this is denied at the offices of the Lehigh Valley Company, who say some Italians had a celebration and fired revolvers.

PRAYING FOR RAIN.

DALLAS, Texas, June 16.—The serious condition of the crops, owing to a long drought, continues. A light rain fell in Dallas yesterday, but it was not sufficient to do any good. Reports from Southern and Central Texas show a worse condition than reported Friday. In many sections it is said corn has been literally burned up and cotton is suffering heavily. At Taylor all business will be suspended for one hour between 11 and 12 o'clock tomorrow and prayers for rain will be offered. Hundreds of head of stock are being shipped away to avoid the drought.

A CHICAGO TRAGEDY.

CHICAGO, June 16.—Shot by his pursuer and cut in a dozen places by a man whom he had shot through the heart after a desperate fight, Joseph Haddock, colored, took refuge near the grounds surrounding Harlow N. Hig-ginbotham's residence, Twenty-ninth street and Michigan avenue last night.
Before the police discovered his hiding place he made good his escape. Haddock has shot and killed Robert Fulton, also colored, as the result of a fight over a pool game.

TWO MEN KILLED.

(Special to the Star.)
FERRY SOUND, June 16.—By an explosion of one large boiler in the Ontario Lumber Company's mills at French River, Saturday afternoon, two men, Geo. Webster and Hugh Campbell, firemen, were instantly killed. The mill was not running at the time of the accident, having been shut down temporarily for repairs. No cause is assigned for the accident. The men killed were both married, their families living at French River.

CORONATION STANDS ARE UP.
But There Is Little Market for the Seats They Offer.

(New York Sun.)

LONDON, June 14.—Coronation Day is now a short time distant, and the vast stands, with scores of tiers of seats, are nearly completed. lofty red poles, crowned with artificial floral designs, are rising along the entire route of both days' processions.

The builders and the public authorities are nonplussed by the absence of a market for the seats. People who were asking five guineas a week ago for seats are now offering good positions for two guineas, and there are few buyers even at the reduced rate. Even the seats in the first row of many of the stands have not yet been disposed of.

It is understood that the king has intimated that he will be gravely displeased if the route of the procession on Coronation Day is lined by rows of empty seats, and speculators and builders will practically be compelled, if their seats are not sold at big prices, to let them go on Coronation Day at a new shilling apiece.

The reason for the public backwardness seems to be partly the memory of the ease with which the crowd in the streets saw the diamond jubilee in 1897 without any particular crush, and also the persistence of miserable weather. The temperature for several days has been under 60 degrees, and frequent rains have fallen.
The king's displeasure is particularly aimed at a number of lords who refused to take the trouble of attending the coronation. Truth mentions a very large number of peers who have intimated to the earl marshal that they will not be present for the reason that they are not prepared to meet the manifold expenses involved.

Therefore there will be as much space in the transepts of Westminster Abbey set apart for peers and peeresses that will not be occupied by them personally that their eldest sons and eldest daughters, if unmarried, will be included in the congregation.

WHY IS THIS THUS?

Why did the Freeman on Saturday, in naming the civic members of the recent civic delegation to Ottawa omit the name of Alderman McGoldrick, the only Catholic on the list? If such an omission were made by another paper would not the Freeman discover evidence of design?

THE LANGUAGE QUESTION.

(London Canada Gazette.) The Boer in South Africa will enjoy such the same privileges in regard to language as the Jew enjoys in England. His position cannot in any way be compared with that of the French-Canadian, whose language is officially recognized and placed upon an equal footing with the English tongue. As our readers know, every Act of the Dominion parliament and every royal proclamation has to be printed in two languages which occupy an absolutely equal footing in the eyes of the law. The Dutch taal, being mere dialect, could not, of course, claim any such distinction.

ST. JOHN STAR.

ST. JOHN, N. B., JUNE 16, 1902.

STIR UP THE FIRE.

There appears to be something lacking in the matter of energetic leadership in connection with the proposed celebration of Coronation Day. Only another week remains for preparation, and it certainly cannot be said that the amount of enthusiasm in evidence is likely to produce great results. Frederick has thrown itself into the work with great heart and vigor, and other provincial towns will mark the day in a fitting manner. Unless St. John bestirs herself there will be more loyal enthusiasm at the Penobscia barbeque than at the observance here of the great day of King Edward's coronation. Who is the man with ideas, and eloquence, and courage, to shake this community out of its careless mood, and give direction and force to a popular feeling of rejoicing in an event, or series of events, of such vast significance in the history of the British empire? We would naturally look for such a leader in the city council.

It is obvious that the celebration cannot be as successful as it would have been had vigorous action been taken at an earlier stage. Nothing of the kind can be successfully carried out without funds from some source. There has been a general holding back on this account. Had the city council taken the matter up, as it very properly could have done; made a small grant itself, and made an appeal to the generous loyalty of the citizens, keeping the subject steadily before them through the medium of the press, there would doubtless have been ample funds to make the celebration outrank any ever held in the province. We shall have a notable day, as the case stands now, with the military parade, memorial park exercises and other features, but it does seem to the Star that an opportunity has been missed through lack of strong and aggressive leadership. There is nothing the people so much admire as courage, whether it be in a soldier or in the men to whom they look for leadership in public affairs. Better a blundering policy that gets somewhere in the end than a policy of eternally marking time and throwing up straws to see which way the wind blows.

BEATS ROTHESAY LISTS.

Evidently there were irregularities of the most glaring kind in the recent Ontario election. The recount in North Grey, where McKay, liberal, had a majority of nine over Boyd, his conservative opponent, revealed some of the work done on behalf of the Ross government. During the recount McKay's majority was cut down to one, when it was discovered that four ballots clearly marked for Boyd had been tampered with, and an extra cross placed under the name of McKay, thus destroying the ballot. All four disfigured ballots had been sealed by the deputy returning officer of one polling sub-division, who, it might be well to state, had not sworn to his returns. Judge Morrison, before whom the recount was made, said it was a case of the gravest suspicion, and after giving the point fullest consideration, he was clearly of the opinion that the ballots had been tampered with since the day of the election. Other cases of a similar character are coming out. It is in view of these things quite easy to explain how the Ross government was sustained, despite the will of the people.

The evening reprint on Saturday did not have the mainline to correct its statement that Minister Fielding and Paterson were to sail from New York. It is typical of that sheet that it endeavors to ignore its many errors and make neither apology nor excuse. Consequently it is natural that it does not acquire much circulation, for the people know they cannot depend upon it for facts.—Telegraph.

The Star stated on Saturday that Hon. Messrs. Fielding, Mulock and Paterson sailed that morning from Montreal on the steamer Tunisian. The Telegraph's apology is graciously awaited by this reputable young journal.

The question of the size and general extent of ladies' head gear, which has been touched upon gingerly by men for many years, has at last come up in the British house of commons. One of the members the other day sought the help of the first commissioner of public works with the view of procuring a limitation in the size of the hats worn by the ladies occupying stands during the progress of the coronation procession. The first commissioner is evidently a married man. He refused to prescribe any conditions that would meet the view of the courageous member.

Sixty dollars of this amount was given to Mr. Hartwell for a magic lantern to be used in his work in China, the balance is to go to their mission station in West China.

S. A. NOTES.

Colonel Jacobs, the popular chief secretary of the Salvation Army, from the territorial headquarters, Toronto, will visit St. John and conduct special meetings in the Charlotte street barracks on Monday evening, June 16th; subject, The First Labor Strike.

Colonel Jacobs is one of the oldest army officers on the continent of America, having entered the service as far back as 1882. After laboring most acceptably and with great success in Scotland for seven years, and filling various positions from that of lieutenant to divisional officer with the rank of major, Colonel Jacobs left the Edinburgh, Scotland, division and was appointed by the general to be in charge of the Canadian eastern provinces in 1893. His command comprised the maritime provinces and Newfoundland. In 1894 he was called to territorial headquarters to fill the position of general secretary. In May, 1896, the general was appointed to the important position of chief secretary.

Mrs. Jacobs, who hails from MacDuff, Scotland, is an excellent consort to her husband, often assisting in special services and contributing by her sweet singing and effective speaking to the success of the chief secretary's public ministry.

Col. Jacobs is extremely popular in army circles, as in addition to his being an able speaker, his administrative and executive abilities are of a high order, and he is an excellent second to the army's brilliant commissioner, Miss Booth.

HALIFAX SUICIDE.

HALIFAX, N. S., June 15.—Wm. P. Browne, aged seventy years, a native of Topsham, near Exeter, Devon, England, drank carbolic acid and discharged a revolver behind his right ear, the bullet penetrating downwards to his thigh, in a summer house in Point Pleasant Park, on Saturday evening. The deceased came to Canada at the age of 40, in 1875, and was for twenty years employed as superintendent of the meter repair department of the old Halifax Gas Company. He left its employ in 1896, when the now defunct heat and light company took over the control. Since then he lived on the interest of investments, which had dwindled down, leaving but little at the time of his death. He leaves two sons in London, England, and nieces, the Misses Ego of Owen Sound, Ont. He was a member of St. George's Society for years, and the past five years its secretary. He was a member of St. Andrew's Lodge, and a Masonic funeral will be given him. The cause of the deed was physical troubles and dread of financial embarrassment.

When the latter assaulted him the second time he shot him dead. Gillian contended that he did right, and had to protect his own life. Graves was intoxicated.

ABOUT THINGS IN EVERYDAY USE

Nearly all the nickel used in the United States is obtained from the great nickel mines at Sudbury, Ontario. The other mines are New Caledonia, in the Pacific, and Silesia, Austria. The world's production of nickel in 1900 was 16,559,565 pounds, so that Canada produced more than half of the world's total output thereof. There are claimed to be very extensive deposits of the metal at Tulaween River, B. C.

Much interest is being taken in the "Egg System" of egg preservation. A case of eggs from New Zealand was tested in the office of the agent general for New Zealand. The eggs were shipped among the ordinary cargo and not in the refrigerating room, and proved fresh and good in smell and taste when four months old. The system is not one of preservation in lime or coating with preservatives and may revolutionize the egg trade. It should be of special interest in the west, where facilities for holding eggs in cold storage until a sufficient number is collected for profitable shipment are very limited.

FORESTERS' PARADE.

City Members of the I. O. F. Attend Service in Carleton Baptist Church.

Members of the I. O. F. in the city headed by the Royal Foresters and accompanied by the Carleton Cornet and Alexandra Temple of Honor bands, paraded from the Foresters' Hall yesterday afternoon to Carleton Baptist church for divine service. Besides the order there was a large congregation, completely filling the church.

After an invocation by Rev. B. N. Nobles, the pastor, singing of hymn No. 354, Hark, the Glad Sound, the Saviour Comes; scripture reading and prayer, followed by an anthem and the singing of hymn No. 509, Lord, Speak to Me, that I May Speak, the reverend gentleman welcomed the order to the service in a few appropriate words, referring to the purposes of their institution. He chose for his text I. Peter III, 11: "What manner of persons might ye be."

The world, he said, needs brotherly men like Jesus; those who will help the weaker rather than trample them down. The world needs friendship and sympathy, and it is these Jesus gives to the needy, the helpless and the unfortunate. The only help that has ever come to the race has come through the life and teachings of Jesus. Christian influence and sympathy has founded hospitals, asylums and almshouses, yet how small the work which they can accomplish compared with what is needed. More sympathy was needed. The whole criminal world needs it. Labor and capital present a problem only to be solved by sympathy. It was the sympathy in Lord Shaftesbury that made his hand giving such a power for good in the slums of London.

The world needs unselfish men like Jesus. What a change would be made in the world if in the pulpit, in business, in social life, in every department there were to be found more golden rule men practicing the law. Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself. Unfortunately, selfishness too largely prevailed. The fraternal orders were for their own members and not for those outside. Even here was selfishness. When should we rise to nobler forms of life and work for all others as did Jesus? Jesus marked the false interpretation of the scriptures by the Pharisees and he dared to correct them. He saw social evils and dared to mark them. He dared everything for the benefit of the people and all the people. What the world needs is men who have convictions of right and dare to maintain them; who cannot be bought to forsake those convictions; who, though they may fall in the fight, will yet fall in the front of the fray with their faces toward the enemy.

The need of the world, in short, was pious, earnest, godly men and women, willing to work and to fight under the banner and in the name of Christ Jesus, their Lord, for the betterment of all mankind. Our nation, our own city, needed such men. May God send them to their work. Let the order, then, seek to be such men, doing such work.

The service concluded by an anthem, the singing of hymn No. 536, God's Glory is a Wondrous Thing, and the benediction.

The Foresters then reformed and marched to the ferry, to which they were escorted by the Carleton Cornet band.

About 150 Foresters paraded, and their fine appearance and steady marching were much admired.

RECENT DEATHS.

The death of Charles H. Johnston, only son of Wm. Johnston of Duke street, Carleton, which occurred on Saturday evening, besides being a severe blow to his parents, deprives the community of a bright and active young life. The deceased, who was only 18 years of age, was an employee of Manchester, Robertson & Allison, and was highly esteemed as well by his employers as by his friends who were won by his cheerful and obliging disposition. The circumstances of his death were peculiarly sad by reason of their suddenness. On Friday at noon he went home from his work complaining of feeling so ill that he could not go back. His illness, which at first seemed to be an attack of biliousness, developed into severe inflammation, and on Saturday evening he collapsed. He leaves two sisters besides his father and mother, the latter being herself unwell and prostrate with grief. Service will be held at the house at 2 o'clock this afternoon and the funeral will leave at 3.30 o'clock. The deceased was a member of the Methodist Sunday school, and also of No. 2 Company, 3rd Regiment, C. A. He will be buried by the militia organization.

Christopher Mallman, an old resident of Carleton, died on Saturday evening at the advanced age of 85 years. He has been ill for some time, being in feeble health for many years, and has lately lived with his son, John A. Mallman of the postal service. The deceased was a ship carpenter and boat builder, and was in his prime a successful and active citizen, though outliving his generation he is now perhaps less widely known. His wife predeceased him and he leaves, beside the son mentioned, two daughters, Mrs. Howard D. Clark and Mrs. Nell Peterson. The funeral takes place this afternoon.

DEATH IN THE RIVER.

On Thursday last Mrs. Dennis Cyr, a young widow in feeble health, strolling, being a few miles above Grand Falls, took her little girl, aged 5 years, and boy, aged 7 years, to the bank of the river. She threw the little girl into the water, and tried also to throw the boy after her, but he ran away, the mother then plunged into the river herself, and was drowned. Her mind was affected by grief and poverty.

LOST OPPORTUNITIES.

Don't Waste Your Youth; Use It in Getting an Education.

How the handicapped millionaire envies boys in school or college and would give half his wealth for the chance to lay a foundation which they are thinking of spurning! How many an embarrassed man in public life longs to relieve boyhood that he may correct the mistakes of his youth! How much more he could make of his life, of his position, if he had cultivated his mind when young! He does everything as a disadvantage. His grasp of documents, speeches and books is weak because he does not know how to study. He must employ a literary secretary to save himself from blunders of grammar, errors in history and biography or in political economy. He is forced to petty expedients to hide his ignorance, says Success.

Oh, what a pity it is to see splendid ability made to do the work of mediocrity! A man of magnificent parts, feeling that he is by nature intended to shine as a leader, is pitiable when compelled to do the work of an inferior and plod along in hopeless obscurity.

The eager unrest of youth that chafes at restraining school walls and longs to rush to action makes havoc with countless careers. In after days the old proverb will ring mockingly in memory:

He that will not when he may

When he would he shall have nay.

What are investments in bonds and stocks, in houses and lands, compared with investment in an education, in a broad, deep culture which will enrich the life and be a perpetual blessing to one's friends?

To rob oneself of the means of enjoyment which education and culture give has no compensation in mere money wealth. No material prosperity can compare with a rich mind. It is a perpetual wellspring of satisfaction, of enjoyment. It enables one to bear up under misfortune, to be cheerful under discouragements, trials and tribulations which overwhelm a shallow mind and an empty heart.

MAN SLOWLY OSSIFYING.

Resident of North Judson, Ind., Patiently Faces a Terrible Fate.

INDIANAPOLIS, June 10.—Every physician and scientist of prominence in this city has at one time or another during the last few weeks paid a visit to one of the strangest freaks in medical annals. The sufferer, with a disease that puzzles and baffles the physicians and surgeons, is Ell Green, a resident of North Judson, Ind.

Green is slowly turning to stone. Already the flesh of his body is hard and brittle, and only the faint beating of the heart beneath the hardened casing of the skin, the action of the lungs and of the digestive organs evidence life. His mind, however, is unimpaired; and, to add to the horror of his situation, Green has been informed that the disease will run its course in less than three years more—not a day less or a day more. At the end of three years the stricken man will die. There is no hope for him.

The physicians who have visited Green assert that the disease with which he is afflicted will continue its ravages for seven years after its contraction. The patient has already suffered silently for four years of the short span left to him. Four years ago Green was well; he was hearty and strong, in perfect physical condition.

The parallel of Green's mysterious case is that of Jacques Moritz, a resident of Sydney, Australia. Eight years ago Moritz was seized with a malady over which the medical world has no control. Drugs and medicine and treatment of all descriptions were utterly without results. From the feet of the patient upward a numbness began to creep. Gradually this ossification extended through the whole body. At last the features of his face were frozen into marble-like rigidity. He died a year ago, when the fatal malady reached his brain and froze the faculties of the mind, as it had hardened the muscles of his body.

Science, with the passing of time and the nearing of the date for the complete ossification of Mr. Green, is exerting all efforts in behalf of the unfortunate one. There is yet hope that something may be found to check the dire disease, if disease it may be called, and so save the life of Green.

YACHTING.

The first of a series of races for a prize given by the summer residents at Westford was sailed Saturday afternoon on that place. The course was from Westford wharf to a buoy off Belyea's Point, thence to a buoy off Brandy Point, back to the starting point. A heavy northwest wind prevailed, which interfered with some of the contestants setting up from Mullidville. The Grace M. reached the place five minutes after the other boats had got away, and they were not started till 3.15. The yacht which won over the course was the Canada, Wabowas and Winogone. They went away in the order named. The Wabowas gradually increased her lead and won quite handsomely. The fight between the other two second places was an exciting one. The Wabowas finished about a length ahead of the Winogone. The officers of the day were F. H. Ruel and Fred E. Sayre.

Roses 4, Alerts 3.

For the seventh consecutive time this season the Roses, on Saturday, defeated the Alerts. It appeared to be the greatest game until the last half of the ninth, but three errors helped the Roses along and they won. Both pitchers were effective. Stackpole pitched for the Alerts, while four of the five which the Alerts copped off Vail were obtained in the third inning. Dolan made his first appearance in the game since the 24th, and despite the leather stock on his thumb caught a good game. He had little throwing to do.

IMPERIAL LIMITED.

Magnificent Through Service of the C. P. R. to the Coast.

MONTREAL, June 15.—The Canadian Pacific railway inaugurated its imperial limited train service today. The train is to make the run from Montreal to Vancouver in 97 hours. The equipment is all new.

The days of departure from Montreal are Sundays, Wednesdays and Fridays, from Vancouver, Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays; the run across the continent—a distance of 2,906 miles—being accomplished in ninety-seven hours.

The Imperial Limited trains, both in their design and construction, it is believed approach nearer perfection in railway equipment than anything previously reached. The cars are solidly built, are wide-vestibuled throughout, and in their arrangement and appointment it is apparent that the comfort of the traveler has been aimed at in the most marked degree. Each train consists of two or more palace sleepers, a dining car, and a baggage car. The exteriors are uniformly finished in mahogany of the well-known Canadian Parian standard.

The sleeping cars intended for the service—the "Montrose," "Lorraine," "Lausanne," "Chantilly," "Narbonne," "Soissons," "Trianon," "Vincennes," "Fontenoy," and "Rochelle"—are designed after the chaming style of Louis Quinze, and are magnificent creations of their kind. The elaborate decorations are exquisitely beautiful, being chiefly in ivory and gold, which gives a general effect of superb, yet tasteful, luxury. Each car has eight sections, two large staterooms, furnished with lavatory, etc., and a spacious smoking compartment. The main saloon is finished in red mahogany, and the staterooms in Prima Verra—the upholstery throughout being in velvet frappe, and the draperies harmonizing in color and richness with the other furnishings.

The tourist sleepers—designed to meet the requirements of those who do not care to incur the expense of accommodation in a palace sleeper, yet desire all the comforts within their means—are in some respects the equal of the latter, although lacking its elegance and luxury. These cars are handsomely finished in light wood, and are hoistered in leather or corduroy, and suit the requirements of the traveler. The kitchen and pantry are fitted with every modern convenience that will insure the choicest viands and service. The menu, which is changed daily, and offers every variety according to the season of the year, can only be equaled by that supplied in leading metropolitan hotels. The charges for meals are $1.00, and children under ten years 50 cents.

A BIG INSURANCE DEAL.

The Queen and Royal Insurance Co.'s Have Taken Over Maritime Provinces Business.

(Halifax Recorder.)

A big insurance deal has just been consummated in Halifax, and as a result the Maritime Provinces business of two insurance companies will be taken over by two other companies and the headquarters will be in Halifax.

Some time ago the Alliance Insurance Co. and the Imperial Insurance Co. of England amalgamated. Previously the amalgamation the Alliance Insurance Co. had retired from doing business in the Maritime Provinces, and subsequent also withdrew from business in the Maritime Provinces.

As stated above, an arrangement has been carried out whereby the business has been taken over by the Royal and Queen Ins. Companies, and the headquarters for the Maritime Provinces and Newfoundland will be at Halifax, with C. A. Evans as resident secretary and E. F. Doyle as assistant secretary.

E. L. Whittaker, the former resident secretary for the Maritime Provinces, with headquarters at St. John, has entered into partnership with the former agent of the Queen's Insurance Company, C. E. L. Jarvis, and they will now control the New Brunswick field. We understand that E. F. Doyle, the assistant secretary, is at present in Prince Edward Island arranging for the taking over of the P. E. I. portion of the business.

MOTHER-IN-LAW.

Chicago Judge Says She Has as Many Rights as a Dog.

CHICAGO, June 13.—Judge Holdom in the Cook county superior court has decided that a man has as much right to keep a mother-in-law in his house as he has to keep a dog, and that a wife who objects to the presence of the mother of a former wife has no just complaint in law.

Wm. Gliese, four times married, was the defendant in the case. The fourth Mrs. Gliese was suing. Among other reasons why she wanted separate maintenance, she said, was because Mr. Gliese insisted that she share her home with the mothers of two of his former wives who were sisters.

The case will be appealed.

POLICE COURT.

Judge Ritchie Wants the Men Who Sell Liquor
After Hours.

Ten More Men Sent Down to Jail—

Preliminary Examination of the Burglary Case Commenced.

Eleven men occupied the prisoners' bench at the police court this morning, filling it comfortably. All had in different ways been celebrating the advent of the new time by having something of a time of their own.

John Powers, of Britannia street, was charged with being drunk, assaulting his wife, and threatening to end her life by means of a pair of scissors. His honor endeavored to find out where the prisoner obtained the liquor, and after various explanations, Powers said that a sailor taking pity on his thirsty condition, had furnished him with a bottle. His honor was inclined to be doubtful of the truth of the story. It appeared by the evidence of Officer Baxter, who made the arrest, and by that of Mrs. Powers, that the prisoner left his home after seven o'clock, locked up his wife and three little children, and came back late at night drunk. After the officer's arrival on the scene Powers threatened his wife with a pair of scissors. Judge Ritchie expressed his desire to get hold of the men who sold liquor after hours, and Powers was remanded to jail until his memory becomes more clearly refreshed as to when and where he obtained the various liquors which he imbued.

Thomas Smith and Richard Anderson, sailors, drunk on Saturday night, were mulcted to the tune of $8 or twenty days in jail. Peter Britt lay down in the old burial ground, entirely overcome. His emotion cost him $3. Richard Anderson, drunk on Sheffield street, was fined the same amount.

William Lane came across from Carleton Saturday evening, and obtained a Sunday supply of liquor, which he consumed before that day arrived. As a result he lay down on Rodney wharf to rest. He was taken in charge. Today he did not remember when or where he obtained the liquor. He got twenty days in jail to get his head straight.

John Johnson and John Leach, for fighting on the east side ferry floats, were fined $20. John Thompson attempted to interfere, and was taken in charge. His interference cost him $16. The preliminary examination of William Holm, Albert Holm, John Tobin and William Doherty for breaking and entering John Cullinan's store, was then commenced. William Holm was also charged with stealing a light overcoat from the residence of Lt. Col. Markham. The coat disappeared on the 5th or 6th of the month. Complaint was made to the chief and two hours afterward the coat was returned. Officer Lee testified that he had found the missing garment in the Boston second hand store. Nathan Druker, one of the proprietors of that place, testified that he had seen young Holm in his place. In fact the boy had been there several times. A young man, who signed himself J. M. James, of 185 Union street, sold an overcoat, identified as Lt. Col. Markham's, to the store on the 6th. He could not swear that Holm was the man. His build and clothes were the same, but the face seemed different. He had identified him previously in the jail, but was somewhat doubtful now.

Holm was remanded on this case.

The other case against the boys was then taken up. G. Murray appeared for Tobin and E. Ritchie for Doherty. Officer Rankine, with his left hand bandaged and in a sling, as a result of the cut he received while making the arrest, testified about finding the young men, the Holms, in an alleyway near Cullinan's. He told of the conversation that ensued, the manner of arrest, how the elder Holm, who gave his name as McGrath, broke away, and the younger fellow cut him (the officer) with a knife.

That instrument was produced and was a murderous looking affair with a blade about nine inches long.

Neither of the Holms mentioned Doherty or Tobin.

James Gaffey testified that on the night in question he came along Sydney street. As he passed the alleyway he saw Tobin and heard him whistle. He met Officer Rankine and saw him go into the alleyway. Then he passed on to Dr. Berryman's where he works, after standing at Scribner's corner a time, and about ten minutes later Officer Rankine came in to get his hand dressed.

In answer to Mr. Murray the witness said he identified Tobin as the man he saw.

Mrs. Margaret Holm, mother of the two boys, testified that she lived at 196 Union street. The night before the boys were arrested she saw Tobin and her son Albert in her yard. She saw Tobin with an instrument in his hand that looked like a large chisel.

A Mulholland in the employ of J. Cullinan & Son, described the condition of the place as he left it Thursday night and found it next day. He had seen William Holm, Tobin and Doherty before. There would be a chance for a man to hide in the alleyway that runs in back of Cullinan's place.

Sergeant Baxter told of finding a knife sheath, near the entrance to the alley, and at the back of the store a large chisel on a shelf.

The case was adjourned until Wednesday morning. As there was no evidence against Doherty he was allowed to go on promise to appear Wednesday morning. The other prisoners were sent back to jail.

MR. ROURKE'S BIG SALMON.

The biggest salmon that has come this way for some time was brought in by the Canadian Express Co. on Saturday. J. E. Rourke, of the Savings Bank, landed this fish about twelve miles above Campbellton, and all the anglers of the region went wild over it. And no wonder—for it weighed 40 pounds 7 ounces, and was over three and a half feet long. Mr. Rourke had a hard struggle to land him.

THE WEATHER.

Comparison of May and June This Year and Last.

Through the courtesy of D. L. Hutchinson the Star is able to give a comparative statement of the weather conditions since May 1st, compared with the like period last year.

In May, 1901, the average temperature was 49 degrees. The highest was 70 degrees, on the 18th; the lowest, 32 degrees on the 6th. The rainfall was 4.1 inches. There was frost only once, on the morning of the 6th.

In May of the present year, the average temperature was 45 degrees. The highest was 66 degrees, on the 23rd; and the lowest 27, on the 11th. The rainfall was 4.8 inches, practically the whole of it in the last week, the first three weeks being very cold and dry. There was a snow flurry on the morning of the 10th, with a northwest gale, and the thermometer dropped next morning to 27. From the 10th to the 17th, ice formed every morning.

It will thus be seen that the conditions for growth of vegetation in May this year were far less favorable than in the like month in 1901.

Coming to the month of June, the following comparative statement tells the story:—

| | 1901 | 1902 |
|-------------------|-----------------------|-----------------------|
| June 1st. | High. Low. High. Low. | High. Low. High. Low. |
| " 2nd. | 67 45 65 42 | 55 42 55 42 |
| " 3rd. | 61 45 60 42 | 60 49 60 49 |
| " 4th. | 60 46 52 42 | 52 42 52 42 |
| " 5th. | 54 46 59 41 | 59 41 59 41 |
| " 6th. | 61 49 55 40 | 55 40 55 40 |
| " 7th. | 56 49 59 42 | 59 42 59 42 |
| " 8th. | 55 48 55 45 | 55 45 55 45 |
| " 9th. | 54 46 54 43 | 54 43 54 43 |
| " 10th. | 62 46 62 44 | 62 44 62 44 |
| " 11th. | 73 50 62 44 | 62 44 62 44 |
| " 12th. | 73 50 69 46 | 69 46 69 46 |
| " 13th. | 65 50 52 46 | 52 46 52 46 |
| " 14th. | 61 49 74 48 | 74 48 74 48 |
| " 15th. | 62 48 62 45 | 62 45 62 45 |

This gives an average for the first fifteen days of June this year of about 53, compared with 56 in the like period last year. Three degrees in the average really means a good deal, as a comparison of the detailed figures will show. Up to Saturday last the highest temperature was 63, while in June, 1901, various days showed 64, 65, 67, 71 and 73 degrees.

The rainfall in June this year was 1.62 inches, compared with .71 in the first half of last June. There have been ten fine days of the first fifteen in June this year, and nine in the like period last year.

It is worth noting that on the 16th of June last year there was frost in St. John and Kings counties, and the I. C. R. rails from Hampton down were coated with white frost.

THAT OVERCROWDED JAIL.

Judge Ritchie this morning, at the police court, referred to the fact that there are forty-eight prisoners in the jail and that last night they were sleeping seven in a cell. The ten sent down this morning will rather tax the entire accommodation of that institution. His honor suggested that it would be a good idea to take today's contingent out to Rockwood park and set them to work fixing up that place. It would be an improvement on the so-called hard work in the jail.

SCARCITY OF WATER.

The members of the board of fire underwriters' committee appointed to investigate into the cause of alleged scarcity of water at the beginning of the Bourke fire, have been notified to attend the meeting of the water and sewerage board this afternoon. The matter comes up then and the members of the board and their witnesses will be present.

A GOOD SUGGESTION.

It has been suggested that the Masonic lodge of the city might turn out and parade on Coronation Day. As King Edward is a Mason the suggestion appears to be a good one. The Masons of Hamilton, Ontario, are going to parade on that day and hold a special service in honor of the occasion.

The new standard time enabled at least one church to cut down its light bill last night. It was not found necessary to turn on the light until the last hymn was sung.
