NEW REGULATIONS BY THE BOARD OF COMMERCE TO COVER ALL KNOWN COMBINES

New Rules Promulgated Set Forth Definitions of Combines as Constructed by Board So That All Are Obligated to Report.

REGULATIONS ARE QUITE COMPREHENSIVE

They Include All Combines Which Have Relation to Any Article of Commerce Whatsoever.

Ottawa, Jan. 30.—The Board of Commerce of Canada has issued a set of regulations which have reference to the formation and operation of combines as defined in the combines and fair prices act. The intended issue of these regulations was foreseen by the Board at a meeting held December 27, 1917, at Toronto.

The regulations, after referring to sections 2 and 4 of the Combines and Fair Prices Act, and incorporating the definition of a combine as set forth in the act, and attaching to the use of the expression "combine," as used in the regulations, the same meaning as attached to that expression in the act, provide so as to compel the making to the board a full disclosure in writing, signed by those concerned, as to the object, purpose and scope of operations of all proposed and existing combines, with evidence satisfactory to the board that such combines will not be operated, and is not likely to operate, against the interest of the public. The information as to proposed combines must be supplied forthwith, that the combines formed since the Board of Commissioners of July 2 last, the information must be supplied before the first day of March.

As to combines existing before the formation of the Board, the information must be supplied before the first day of May. In the event of information not being supplied as required, those in default will be deemed guilty of an offence and, in addition, the combines will be deemed to be operated to the detriment of the public, and it will be dissolved. The board will examine the information supplied to it, and if it is satisfied that such information by public or other examination in case of insufficiency. In case the board concludes from any evidence submitted to it that the combine is one of which prima facie ought to be dissolved, the board will take proceedings under part I of the Combines and Fair Prices Act.

The regulations are quite comprehensive. They include all combines which have relation to any article of commerce. The expression "combine" extends to and includes not only mergers, trusts and monopolies, but also all agreements or arrangements whereby a common price is to be charged by any person for an article of commerce, whether a resale price is fixed by agreement. Where agreements or arrangements as to price or prices of articles of commerce have been reduced to print, or writing, a copy must be filed with the board together with a list of the names and addresses of all persons who have agreed upon the price and a statement as to the conditions and the sale price demanded or proposed to be demanded.

All persons who have taken part in the formation of any combine, including all parties to mergers, trusts, monopolies, common price arrangements and common resale price agreements, but the mention of such classes of combines does not exclude from the operation of the regulations persons who fall within a class not mentioned.

The regulations in fact constitute a "drag net" into which all existing and proposed combines and fair price agreements are proposed to be drawn and as the board may have opportunity, they will be examined, the good and defensible selected from the bad and those seeming to call for dissolution or punishment proceeded against.

Battle of Passchendaele Most Misunderstood of Whole War

Montreal, Jan. 30.—(By Canadian Press)—Lieut-General Sir Arthur Currie, Inspector-General of Canadian Militia, speaking before the Returned Soldiers' Association of McGill College here, said that the battle of Passchendaele was the most misunderstood battle of the whole war, since it had resulted in such heavy losses with apparently small results in territory gained. The fact was, he said, that after the frightful losses of the Appeal Made For Officers Demobilized

London, Jan. 30.—(Canadian Press)—Lieutenant appeals were made today by Marshal Halg and Admiral Beatty at a Mansion House meeting to consider the construction of societies for assisting demobilized officers and, subsequently, demobilized men. When the London headquarters were firmly established it was suggested that branches be formed in the Dominions. Admiral Beatty indicated a request by showing a half-witted youth the sights of London. Earl Halg declared it was not merely the Government who were responsible but the honor of every individual was involved. He added that there were proportionately more heart cases among officers than among men. The matter in which the Government which held money due these sufferers was scandalous, he said.

Great Enthusiasm G greets Assembling Of Dublin Council

Speeches Laudatory to Tom Kelly, Sinn Fein Member, Now in Durane Vile, Made by Assemblymen.

Dublin, Jan. 30.—When the new municipal council, composed mostly of Sinn Feiners, met for the first time today it was greeted with the greatest enthusiasm by huge crowds as the Republic flag was hoisted on the City Hall. Among the spectators within the hall, where it was necessary to obtain a special permit to secure admission, were Mrs. Clery, widow of Thomas J. Clery, one of the executed leaders of the Eastern rebellion in 1916; Mrs. MacBride (Miss Gonne) and Mrs. Wynne Power, who was elected a municipal councillor but was disqualified by the town clerk because she refused to sign the roll except in Gaelic. Retiring Lord Mayor O'Neill proposed Tom Kelly, Sinn Fein member of parliament who is in Wormwood Scrubs Prison, as his successor. Mr. O'Neill said that Kelly had not received fair play. Although he was a fair, honest, upright man, he had been "deported and spat upon in England." Admiral Cosgrave seconded the motion, saying that Kelly, behind prison bars as he was, had an easier conscience "than the puppets around the Castle." At the election of a Mayor, Mr. Darryl Ireland, C. Delevy, Yeikagans, was chosen. In Sigo, a Sinn Feiner was elected to the mayoralty.

ESCAPES POLICE WHILE HANDCUFFED TO ANOTHER LAD

Fifteen Year Old Lad Springs Old Game on Officials Having Him in Charge—Later Captured.

Montreal, Jan. 30.—William Shore, a fifteen-year-old boy, who escaped from the police, between Portage La Prairie and Winnipeg, by jumping off a train while handcuffed to another lad, was found by detectives in the Quisque Hotel, Craig and St. Demons streets, with Lily Brown, who has been arrested on an attempted theft. The woman, who is of the hotel thief type, was discovered by the manager while prowling about in his room at night. He summoned detectives, who found her in another room with the boy. "Arrest me," she told them, "but let my little boy go." "Please, mother," said the lad, "I'll go home with you." Something however aroused the officers' suspicions and they took them both to headquarters. Later it was proved that this was the boy who had escaped from the train west. He is being held until the two detectives who were sent from Winnipeg arrive to take him back. The woman is awaiting trial.

The fire was feared the railroad strikers would seek to gain admission by force.

Wholesale Robberies From Farmers in Carleton Co., Ont.

Ottawa, Ont., Jan. 30.—Wholesale robberies from farmers in the different townships in Carleton County, whereby large quantities of poultry, horse and cattle feed and even machinery, which have taken place very frequently of late, have culminated in even cattle being taken away on the hoof.

One day early this week some enterprising individuals drove out to the cattle barns of Mr. W. Graham, on the Richmond Road, with a cart, which they backed up to the barn door, and loaded on to it a fine big steer, which was vanished into thin air as far as Constable Hamilton is concerned. Recently three hundred bushels of oats in bags were stolen from Mr. E. Faulkner, on the Richmond Road, a portion of which was recovered yesterday by Chief Hamilton, assisted by Detectives McDonald and Culver, placed at his disposal by Inspector Joliat.

UNIONIST REVIVE HOPES FOR ELECTION OF ASQUITH BECAUSE OF HIS OPPOSITION TO LABOR

Spectator Takes the Ground That Ex-Premier Has Read the Times Aright and is Willing to Fight Labor's Supremacy.

PAISLEY BODIES ARE STIFF-NECKED

Believed That Ex-Premier Will Not Gain Much by Trumpeting in Paisley District Tolerance for Bolshevism.

London, Jan. 30.—(Canadian Press)—The Spectator, a weekly Unionist review, hopes on the whole that ex-Premier Asquith will win the Paisley election. It thinks his definite opposition to the Labor party is by first importance, for he has read the signs of the time aright. "However wrong," says the Spectator, "Mr. Asquith may be about other things, he is quite safe in taking this particular line. Labor extremists, in whose presence so many persons display false alarm, are an insignificant minority. If it were a question of supporting Mr. Asquith's whole policy, or supporting him as a possible head of a new government, we should write differently. The ex-Premier's Irish record alone would prevent us supporting him as Premier, but we are not clear that it would be a real advantage to have him as the leader of the opposition. The Saturday Review says that if the Prime Minister and his whip, Sir George Younger, had much control over local Paisley plans, it would have been a graceful and generous act to present Mr. Asquith with this seat, so far as the Coalitionists are concerned, but the Paisley bodies are probably the most stiff-necked of any in Western Scotland. The Saturday Review does not think that Mr. Asquith will gain much in the Scottish constituency by trumpeting tolerance to Bolshevism.

Hon. Arthur Meighen Defends Acts of Union Gov't

Kingston, Ont., Jan. 30.—Hon. Arthur Meighen, Minister of the Interior, addressed the Canadian Club here tonight. He said that the Union Government had been charged with drifting. War Memorial Fund Explained

Excellent Address Delivered at I. O. D. E. Provincial Chapter Meeting Yesterday by Mrs. D. W. McDougald of Montreal—The Business Transacted.

An eloquent and comprehensive explanation of the I. O. D. E. War Memorial Fund was given yesterday afternoon at the quarterly meeting of the Provincial Chapter held in Orange Hall. The speaker was Mrs. D. W. McDougald, of Montreal, honorary organizing secretary of the province of Quebec National Council.

During her address the applause was frequent as she pointed out that this is an undertaking to perpetuate the memory of our glorious dead, the men and women who fell in the Great War. Mrs. McDougald has organized forty chapters in the province of Quebec.

Mrs. R. FitzRandolph, president of the Provincial Chapter, presided and the Honorary Regent, Mrs. William Pugsley, was also on the platform.

Mrs. McDougald said in part: "I come to you with an appeal which is uniting the 50,000 women of our organization from coast to coast. An appeal for the children of Canada. One must feel that the root of all after-war problems is the conservation of the wealth of the nation which lies latent in the boys and girls of today. We have won the war, and yet in a decade it is conceivable that we may be looking for the victory, if we fail now to train for the future men and women who will be qualified to practice and defend those principles of liberty and civilization which cost this generation so dear.

There can be no true love of country without national unity. It can be only created by the sacrifice and service of every individual of the nation. Right here in Canada the battle of reconstruction must be fought. And every daughter of the Empire is called to the highest service in the cause of that wider patriotism which recognizes the British Empire as something greater than the sum of its component parts—which recognizes responsibility for the common life of that Empire which is symbolized by the Crown and shown in all lands by the Flag.

The I. O. D. E. is offering in its War Memorial scheme what we believe to be a practical means of holding our Canadian heritage intact. It is a vast scheme of patriotic educational propaganda. The scheme offers a practical defence against the perils which threaten national life. We know that the terror of the world today is an uneducated undisciplined democracy, that blighting spectre which stalks across many lands bringing ruin and destruction in its train. Already the dread shadow has been cast across the sea and fallen upon liberty-loving Canada and our only sure defence is education for our children.

If we are to face the future in a spirit of victory we must plan the education of youth upon a national scale with a national purpose, for education is one of the social problems which demand the intelligent co-operation of every individual, not only boys and girls but their parents and teachers. Unlike the decadent empire, we swear not by "the shibboleths of our time, for as we deal with these children today so will our world be shaped in the future."

Speaking of the franchise, Mrs. McDougald said: "Up to now women have been occupied in mopping up the spilt milk, covering up the gashes. Now they have the power to prevent emergencies. Let us use this power in a good cause, and let us use also that older influence—the well recognized ability of a determined woman to get her own way—always being sure our way is the right one."

Mrs. McDougald went on to speak of the number of college students training men and women in the best schools of thought. To its influence was laid the steady power of many labor leaders during the war. She told of foreign immigration and the necessity of making all into Canadians.

The following are the aims of the War Memorial:

1. An Endowment fund to be used for:
 - Scholarships.
- Only for the children of our men of all services who have been killed or permanently disabled or who have died of wounds as a result of the war.
- Nine Post-Graduate Scholarships Distributed Among the Provinces.
- Each winner of a scholarship to have a year at a British University.
- The nine Post-Graduate Scholars in British Universities will compete for a Fellowship and the winner will be entitled to another year in any University he may choose overseas.
- A lecturer will come to Canada from any part of the British Empire and his lectures on current Imperial questions will be available for educational purposes.
- Canadianization of Our Foreign-Born Citizens.
- By placing in at least 1,000 schools of Canada reproductions of the paintings which are the record of Canada's part in the war.
- By providing free illustrated lectures to the children of Canada on the history and geography of the Empire.
- By placing in every school in Canada, attended by children of foreign-born citizens, a Daughter of the Empire Historical Library.
- At least $500,000 is needed from the whole of Canada. This money will be invested and administered by a War Memorial Committee which with a Board of Trustees is appointed by the Order.
- Mrs. McDougald was tendered a vote of thanks moved by Mrs. William Pugsley, seconded by Mrs. W. C. Crockett, of Fredericton. Mrs. E. Atherton Smith proposed that assistance should be given girls desiring to take Normal School courses so as to increase the supply of teachers.
- Mrs. M. G. Peed spoke on the necessity of improving our public school books.
- Miss Valde Fenton gave two beautiful solos accompanied by Miss Agnes Anderson. An invitation was received from Mrs. L. P. D. Tilly for out-of-town members to attend the Canadian Club lecture in the evening, and from the Municipal Chapter to be present at an afternoon tea at the Lantern this afternoon. Colonel Murray Mac-

The Best Cough Syrup is Home-made.

Here's an easy way to save $2, and feel better than ever.

You've probably heard of this well-known form of making cough syrup at home. But have you ever used it? When you do, you will understand why thousands of families, the world over, feel that they could hardly live without it. It's simple and cheap, but the way it takes hold of a cough will quickly earn it a permanent place in your home.

Into a 16-oz. bottle, pour 2½ ounces of Pinex (50 cents worth); then add plain granulated sugar syrup to fill up the bottle. Or, if desired, use clarified molasses, honey, or corn syrup instead of sugar syrup. Either way, it tastes good, never spoils, and gives you 16 ounces of better cough remedy than you could buy ready-made for $2.50.

It is really wonderful how quickly this home-made remedy conquers a cough—usually in 24 hours or less. It seems to penetrate through every air passage, loosens a dry, hoarse or tight cough, lifts the mucus from the membrane, and gives almost immediate relief. Splendid for throat tickle, hoarseness, croup, bronchitis and bronchial asthma.

Pinex is a highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, and has been used for generations for throat and chest ailments.

To avoid disappointment, ask your druggist for "2½ ounces of Pinex" with directions, and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money refunded. The Pinex Co., Toronto, Ont.

SAINT JOHN, N. B. SATURDAY, JANUARY 31, 1920.

THE WEST SIDE KICKS.

Commission form of Government appears to have got the goat of West St. John. There was a very positive note of indignation in the speeches of protest against the proposed increase in the ferry rates addressed by the representatives of the West Side Board of Trade to the City Commissioners yesterday. The wind appears to have been taken out of the sails of the Commissioners, for it was evident that the proposed increase in the ferry tolls was only the last straw which has broken the back of the patience of the West Side with their unconsidered position in the scheme of things civic. They seemed to be as much annoyed by the fact that they had no representation in the City Council as at the proposal to increase what Major McLeod called a surtax upon the people of the West Side. They were obviously angered by the thought that the city fathers had given no more consideration to the understanding under which Carleton came into the city than if they had been so many outlanders. When one of the Commissioners attempted to expound the Union Act in a manner which astounded the West Enders, Mr. Harding very curtly suggested that his studies in ancient history should be pursued out of business hours; and other members of the delegation took strong grounds that the Union Act had not only promised them protection against increases in ferry tolls, but that the agreement plainly called for vigorous efforts on the part of the city to build a bridge across the harbor.

As usual, Mr. Scully did not let slip the opportunity to advance some interesting arguments in support of his favorite project, and to remind the Commission form of Government that nothing had been done to give effect to the views of the citizens there-ant as expressed in the plebiscite some years ago. Mr. Scully was also wroth about the failure of the city fathers to oblige the street railway to give a better service on the West Side, and suggested that if they would not build a bridge they might build a harbor wall fence across some of the streets until the street railway amended its ways. The answer of the city fathers, who have been conducting an expensive and dilatory legal quarrel with the street railway people for some years, that in accordance with their well-known love of law-abiding they were taking or undertaking legal processes to improve the West Side situation, did not appease the indignation of Mr. Scully or his friends.

Members of the delegation were emphatic in their declarations of discontent with their present unrepresentative relation to the government of the city, and one speaker suggested that the reason why the interests of the West Side were not looked after was that the Commissioners spent no time giving thought to conditions over there. While apparently themselves not desiring secession from the city, they hinted plainly enough that there was enough dissatisfaction on the West Side to support a movement to rupture the present unpleasant relations and organize a new and rival city across the harbor, taking in Carleton, Beaconsfield and the thriving town of Fairville.

The breeze from the West rather disturbed the usually torpid atmosphere of City Hall, and it ought to blow away the apathy which exists in respect to civic affairs. The revelation of the discontent which exists in the unrepresented West has its lesson for the citizens of the parent city. The experiment of Commission form of Government has already been sufficiently expensive. Among its interesting achievements, or dearth of them, none is more deplorable than that it should have developed among the people of the West Side a feeling that they are outlanders, whose rights and interests receive scant consideration from the powers that be. As Mr. Scully observed, the old time system of government by potates dwell, ing afar in Imperial aloofness is breaking up, and small nations are asserting their rights to have a voice and say in their own government. Commission form of Government should not, as a crowning achievement of its career, be permitted to cause the West Side to set up as an independent city, and deprive St. John of the opportunity of growing in what, as Mr. Barry suggested, is possibly the best direction in which it can grow and realize its destiny as the Liverpool of Canada.

VOCATIONAL SCHOOLS.

While the only complaint that can be made against the City Council's present attitude to vocational education is that it has been a long time working up to an obvious need, the fact that St. John is called by pay about three times the amount for vocational evening classes that Halifax does may cause reflection, if only the reflection that a parsimonious attitude towards modern improvements may often prove poor economy. Had St. John asserted itself it might now have had as good facilities for technical education as Halifax has at a cost to the City Council of $4,000 or $5,000 a year. The Governments of New Brunswick have for some time shown a commendable enterprise in making provision for agricultural education of various useful kinds, but it has been slow to take up the question of providing facilities for industrial education. This dilatoriness may have been due to the fact that dominant interests have been commercial rather than industrial, or that the principal industries of the Province have been of a relatively simple character, requiring for their operation no great amount of scientific knowledge and technical training. Be that as it may, very excellent provision has been made for commercial education in St. John by private enterprise, while up to recently little interest had been shown in industrial education, which by reason of the need of more extensive equipment does not readily lend itself to private enterprise.

Nova Scotia, being more industrial, took up the question of industrial education years ago. The Provincial Government established a Technical College at Halifax, magnificently housed and adequately equipped for instruction in engineering and a variety of industrial occupations. This college became the directing centre of a system of technical education which now extends to all the industrial towns of the Province. Lately the technical college has been used by the Dominion Government for the training of disabled soldiers; without it our wounded in the Maritime Provinces would have been at a great disadvantage.

In 1918, the last year for which complete returns are available, the Nova Scotia Government made the following expenditures:

Technical college	$20,876
Technical schools	15,441
Mining schools	9,372
General expenses	8,598
Total	$54,288

At Halifax the Provincial Government's expenditures for technical schools, apart from the Technical College, are given as follows:

Salaries	$2,699
Apparatus	1,572
Expenses	73
Refunds	1,033
Total	$5,377

GOUIN FOR PROTECTION.

L'Evenement: "The population of Quebec and all Canada owe a large debt of gratitude to the Association of Leather and Shoe Manufacturers, for the happy initiative which, at last night's banquet, at the Chateau Frontenac, led two of the most eminent political men of the country, one speaking the English language, and a staunch Conservative; the other speaking French, and chief of a Liberal Province, expressing the same views on the present great question of the protection of our industries."

"We were particularly happy to hear Sir Lomer Gouin, following the Hon. Arthur Meighen, declare himself as being absolutely in favor of a policy of moderate protection and a protective tariff. He spoke from the best national viewpoint, which is ignored by too many aspirant chiefs of the Federal Opposition, who are ready to sacrifice the interests of the nation to their prejudice and their thirst for power. This attitude of the Prime Minister of the Province of Quebec is perhaps the first glimmer of a new era which will soon dawn on Canada. We hail its appearance."

"As Sir Lomer Gouin said, it is not the manufacturers only who are interested in the policy of a moderate protection. The prosperous laborer of our cities would be more cruelly affected than his patron, if the policy which has been the cause of the industrial success of Canada were abandoned from one day to another. And the farmer, whose most advantageous market is yet the neighboring city, would himself suffer in his prosperity, if a Crerar, Mackenzie King or Lapointe succeeded in sap- ping the work of the clear-sighted statesmen of the political generation of 1897.

"We are happy for our worthy boot and shoe manufacturers of Quebec, particularly, that they have had the advantage of hearing their political chief declare himself so distinctly in favor of the policy which their fine industry needs to continue and obtain prosperity for this city, her laborers, her merchants, and all the surrounding agricultural region. The political era of the narrow-minded draws to its close, we will all benefit by this materially and morally. But it would not be sufficient to listen with satisfaction to such patriotic declarations as those of Sir Lomer Gouin to suppress the free-exchange movement which is now making its way in the Canadian West. Farmers there are active. Let us organize ourselves so that this defence of our Canadian industry be victorious; let it not be permitted, in the country, for impostors to blind our farmers on such a serious question."

"As far as we are concerned, it matters not to us that the next Government be Conservative, Liberal or Unionist, provided it be in favor of a policy of a rational and moderate protection."

ONE MILLION DOLLARS SPENT IN SOLDIERS' RELIEF

The Largest Number of Applications for Assistance Came in First Week of January—Fund Withdrawn in March.

Ottawa, Jan. 30.—In the neighborhood of one million dollars has been paid to ex-soldiers out of work since the opening of the Federal Emergency Application, it was announced this morning. Returns from all Canadian centres are not yet complete, but the estimate includes the cost of administration as well as the unemployment amounts paid to the men.

In the first week of January alone there were 17,000 applicants who benefited to the extent of nearly $600,000. The cost of administration was $5,732. It was the holiday season then, and first payments were made without much investigation, because it was feared hardship might be worked if officials were too strict. As soon as there was time, every case was investigated until now the list of "renewals"—those who come back week by week for money—is said to be almost wholly deserving. General Ross, C. B., who has charge of the fund, said it was fairly certain that the total spent would not be more than three millions. "The first month was our heaviest and we required just about a million dollars," he stated. "The relief is withdrawn at the end of March, and the lists are much smaller now than in January owing to a thorough weeding-out by investigators."

Judging from the figures given about many soldiers were out of work in Montreal as in Toronto in January. There were 4,900 applicants in Montreal who received $140,000 and 4,500 in Toronto who received $188,000.

"At last a friend advised me to take 'Fruit-A-Tives.' I did so and soon I felt some relief. I continued with 'Fruit-A-Tives' and in a short time the Constipation was banished. I felt no more gas or pains or headache or the disagreeable sensations that follow dyspepsia. Now I am well, strong and vigorous."

Do you know her? If not introduce her to the playmates the next time you are wondering what to play. Form a circle, then give each child the name of an article of a woman's belongings, a parasol, a fan, a hat, a slipper and so on. Another player spins a name in the centre of the circle on the floor and says, "Lady Jane is going a-visiting and needs her hat," or some other article and the person to whom the name "hat" was given must seize the plate before it ceases to spin. If successful the one in the centre must spin again and call out another of the Lady Jane's articles and keep on trying until some one fails to catch the plate before it ceases to spin, who then takes their turn in the centre.

Common Council Meeting Yesterday

Matters of Importance Before the Commissioners—Carlton Ready to Rebel and Form Alliance With Fairville—Delegation from West Side.

Charges that the Commission Government was not giving the West Side a square deal, and hints that Carlton was ready to rebel and form an alliance with Fairville and Beaconsfield were made by the West Side delegation which appeared before the city council yesterday to protest against increases in the ferry rates.

"We are in the position of small nations and may have to assert our independence of St. John," said W. E. Scully, who complained that Carlton's rights to a harbor bridge had received no consideration. Com. Bullock agreed to passenger books of 22 tickets for 25 cents, and book teams at present rates, but wanted higher rates for transients. The matter was laid over for further consideration.

J. Fish Britton of the West Side Board of Trade entered a protest against any increase in the ferry rates.

W. E. Scully said the West Side was not represented in the council and his views were not understood. The West Side regarded the ferry as a highway. When the Union Act was passed, a bridge was dangled before the West Side, and they expected a practically free ferry until the bridge arrived. He could not in his business stand an increase of 25 per cent. He was told that he could go out of business.

The powers that be did not look after West St. John.

Harbor Bridge.

Mr. Scully complained that no action had been taken on the proposition in favor of building a harbor bridge, and accused the Commission of negligence in not forcing with the way to give good connections with the ferry.

Com. Fisher—How can the powers that be made the railway run to the ferry?

Mr. Scully—If the powers that be had any gumption they could do it. Put an injunction on them. If a company who used my property did not keep its agreement I'd put up a barbed wire fence.

The Mayor—We are a law-abiding body. We are taking legal processes. Mr. Scully said the West Side wanted action, not processes.

Com. Fisher thought Carlton had always been unkind to the city.

Mr. Scully—We have our own city hall—a better building than this one. You should read the Acts of the Assembly. When we came into St. John, we only had a debt of $140,000.

Mr. Scully thought commission form of government might drive Carlton to leave the city and form a union with Fairville.

W. L. Harding said the commissioners might choose some other time to learn ancient history. The delegation was there to protest against increased ferry rates. They had already submitted to increases, contrary to promises given in the past.

Talk of Secession.

J. A. Barry said most cities grew to the West. There was talk of Carlton, Beaconsfield and Fairville linking fortunes. However, it would be a good thing if St. John could maintain the present connections and grow to the West. The agreement on which the Carlton people voted when they came the delegation was not opposed to putting up the rates for transients to 5 cents. He understood that for teams they favored a book system, based on the present rates; but would not object to 10 and 20 cents being imposed on transient teams.

With books of 22 tickets for 25 cents for passengers, 5 cent transient fares, and book tickets of 8 cents for single teams and 15 cents for double teams, and 10 cents for single and 20 for double teams on transient traffic, he figured he would have an additional revenue of $7,000 for the current year.

Mr. Harding—Up stairs you figured it would be $7,400.

Com. Bullock—I'm making allowances.

Mr. McLeod wanted to know if he could not figure on an increased traffic.

Com. Bullock wanted to know if they would accept the proposals. The delegation said they were instructed to oppose any increases. They were to report back to a meeting. They wanted the best terms possible.

After the delegation withdrew, Com. Bullock said he was willing to accept into St. John provided for a bridge; there was no doubt about that.

Major Norman McLeod said the commission was not giving the West Side a fair deal. He was opposed to any change in rates, except a reduction. The ferry was a public highway under definite agreement. The West Side paid its taxes for highway maintenance, and the ferry tolls were simply a sur-tax on the West Side.

Com. Fisher—You say the West Side is not getting a fair deal? In what respects. The statement reflects on the whole commission.

Mr. Harding—If you gave any thought to the West Side, you see in what respects yourself. Increasing ferry tolls, for instance, and not forcing the street railway to give us a decent service.

Mr. Barry and Mr. Scully complained that the street railway had taken off the cars that met the last two boats.

Mayor—We have to take legal processes.

Mr. Scully—It's time you put your foot down.

Com. Bullock said he understood to their request regarding book tickets, they were fairly reasonable. He moved that book tickets be 25 for 25 cents for passengers, and 5 cents for transients; and that book tickets for teams be issued at the present rates of 8 and 15 cents, with rates for transient teams of 10 and 20 cents. These rates, good years and bad, might yield an additional revenue of $12,000.

Com. Thornton thought that if the Carlton people were promised a bridge, their contention was reasonable.

Com. Fisher said the matter of changing the fares was important, but wanted more time to consider the proposal.

Com. Jones said he had always taken on the stand that the Carlton ferry was part of the city highways. He wanted to know if the cost would be reduced if the ferry was made free.

Com. Bullock—There would be more travel and wear and tear.

Mayor—You wouldn't need ticket collectors.

Com. Bullock's motion regarding the ferry fares was laid over till this morning.

LANCASTER FERRY.

Heber Vroom of the Lancaster Ferry Commission, said they would now have to pay $276 per month for ferry maintenance till March 1st. The Provincial Government would pay their third. He asked the city to pay its third.

Councillor O'Brien said the Parish of Lancaster proposed to issue bonds and build a boat to replace the Elijah Ross.

Mr. Vroom said after March 1st, the cost of running would be reduced by $35. After May 1st he did not think the city's grant need be more than $50—the present grant. The commission would retain the present boat, if they could supply the St. John Dry Dock's Company with another boat of a suitable character.

Com. Bullock wanted to know if the ferry was needed.

Mr. Vroom said for years the ferry had yielded a revenue, paying the city and Lancaster on a 50-50 basis.

A written statement was then submitted, asking the city to pay $1,000 for the year, or 1-3 of $1,000.

Com. Jones—The Provincial Government takes a lot of our taxes, we should get something out of it.

Com. Thornton had doubts about the rates of the ferry, and the gas-worthiness of the boat.

Com. Bullock said nobody in touch with the ferry was represented on the commission, which was not right. He moved that a grant be made to the ferry, not to exceed $1,000 to cover a detailed statement of expenditures.

Com. Bullock's motion was adopted.

Dr. G. C. Vanwart, Fredericton, was in the city yesterday attending the meeting of the Medical Council of New Brunswick.

KEEP HEALTHY DURING WINTER

Colds and Diseases May be Avoided if the Blood is Kept Pure.

Do not let your blood get thin this winter. For people who have a tendency towards anaemia, or bloodlessness, winter is a trying season. Lack of exercise and fresh air, and the more restricted diet, are among the many things that combine to lower the tone of the body and deplete the blood.

As soon as you notice the tired feeling, lack of appetite and shortness of breath that are warning symptoms of thin blood, take a short course of treatment with Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. Do not wait until the color has entirely left your cheeks, until your lips are white and your eyes dull. It is so much easier to correct thinning of the blood in the earlier stages than later. This is well illustrated in the case of Mrs. E. Williams, Elk Lake, Ont., who says: "I take great pleasure in letting you know the benefit I have found in the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. I was in an anaemic condition, and was very weak and run down. The least exertion would leave me breathless and it was with difficulty that I did household work. I was advised to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and after the use of four boxes I felt like a new person. In fact my system seemed filled with new energy and new life. I strongly recommend this medicine to all who feel weak or run down."

The purpose of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills is to build up the blood. They do this one thing and they do it well. They are for this reason an invaluable remedy in diseases arising from bad or deficient blood, as rheumatism, neuralgia, after-effects of the grip or fevers. The pills are guaranteed to be free from opiates or any harmful drug and cannot injure the most delicate system.

You can procure Dr. Williams' Pink Pills through any dealer in medicine, or they will be sent you by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 by writing direct to The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

NEW RECORD MADE BY CONFEDERATION

Another insurance company to report a record-breaking year of new business is the Confederation Life Association, whose annual meeting will be held today. New policies to the extent of $30,662,751 were issued in 1919, much the largest volume in the company's history, and compared with $18,969,274 in the previous year. Total insurance in force at the end of the year was $112,481,374, a gain for the year of $20,495,208, which is due to the small number lapsed policies as well as the new business written.

The total paid to policyholders during the year was $3,069,826, which is $541,690 greater than in the previous year. During the period of the war the company paid war claims amounting to $936,289, and there were claims from the influenza epidemic amounting to $490,289. Despite these unexpected claims, which were outside the calculated mortality, only a precautionary modification of the profits declared has been necessary. A much reduced expense rate is reported, notwithstanding the large volume of business.

Recently Mr. C. S. Macdonald was appointed General Manager, and Mr. W. L. Matthews takes the place of his father, the late W. D. Matthews, as the Board of Directors.

"SOLID AS THE CONTINENT"

The business for 1919 further established the strength and security of the North American Life. To-day the financial position of the Company is unexcelled.

Other People's Comments

One man says, "I never saw a car of the same wheelbase that is so easily handled. It turns in small space and steers with remarkable ease."

"The clutch engages and disengages so easily and the brakes are so gentle and yet so positive that even a 70-pound woman can operate it without effort," says another.

"I never sat in a more comfortable car, and even at speeds over 25 miles, it runs along so smoothly and with so little effort that one needs to keep his eye on the speedometer. 2200 miles already driven around the state have convinced me that you are producing the easiest riding, easiest handled light six in the world."

These remarks are not surprising to us, for the Grant Six is not only an unusually good looking car—it is unusually fine mechanically and it is built to last as well as to serve.

Come and see it at your convenience. Only 20,000 of these fine cars will be built. We suggest early orders.

The Council decided that there be raised, levied and assessed upon all the several Fire Insurance Companies doing business and having agents in the city of St. John in the present year, the sum of seven hundred and fifty dollars ($750.00) towards the costs of maintenance of the Salvage Corps in the city of St. John under the provisions of the Act of Assembly 2 Edward 7, Chapter 47, to be raised, levied and assessed on the said several fire insurance companies doing business and having agents in the said city of St. John pro rata according to the whole number of such companies doing business and having agents in the said city.

The assessment of $42,500 was ordered to recoup refunds and non-payments last year under the new Assessment Act. "Features that will not occur again," said the mayor.

The mayor said last year $200,000 was raised by loans to renew old water mains, a new departure. He there fore wanted the assessment for hydrants amounting to $8,340 charged against water revenue.

Com. Thorston supported this.

Com. Jones—I think the hydrants ought to be charged to the Safety Department. My department does not need them.

Com. Fisher said sewers should be charged against general assessment. Council decided that fire hydrants as well as sewer maintenance should be charged to general assessment.

Com. Jones moved that the additional school grant be reduced from $75,000 to $65,000, and that the trustees be instructed to apply $20,000 towards the reduction of the school debt.

Com. Ballock—Can the school trustees get by on that?

The motion was adopted, as the school trustees thought $65,000 would be sufficient.

Milk Inspection

Hon. W. F. Roberts wrote, describing the danger of contaminated water and milk, and asking the council to make a grant of $1,000 to provide for the inspection and analysis of milk in the city.

Com. Fisher—And of water.

Common Clerk—He also writes about water.

Mayor—I think he only means milk, but he might not be far wrong—An order to assess for $1,000 was passed.

Com. Fisher said he had taken up the matter of obviating the level crossing in regard to proposed new C. P. R. bridge at the Bevering Falls, and was instructed to write to the C. P. R. and the Railway Commission.

W. M. Ryan of the Knights of Columbus wrote that if money was granted the Travelers' Aid or similar society grant to the Catholic Girls' Guild would be appreciated. The mayor was instructed to reply that the grant could not be made.

An invitation to attend a Good Roads Convention in Louisville was received; referred to Com. Fisher.

An inspector of the Marine Department wrote advising the city to provide gangways for tramp steamers coming to its wharves. Present condition.

D. W. Ledingham and H. C. Schofield asked for an opportunity to express the views of shipping companies regarding the proposed changes in discharging ballast here. They will be heard.

Dr. T. F. Johnson tendered his resignation as a veterinary surgeon for the city; accepted.

Savannah, Ga., Jan. 30.—Jack Britton, world's welterweight champion, was given a referee's decision over Jimmy Conway, of Savannah, at the end of a twelve-round bout here today. Britton had the better of his opponent at all stages of the bout.

Wilde Matched With Mason

Toledo, O., Jan. 30.—Jimmy Wilde, the British champion, and Frankie Mason, of Fort Wayne, Ind., have been matched for a 12-round bout in Toledo the latter part of February for the fly-weight championship of the world, according to a telegram received late this afternoon from Ad. Thatchar, who went to Milwaukee several days ago to obtain the signature of Wilde's manager to a contract.

A WORD FOR THE TRANSLATOR

Since the translator plays such an indispensable part in the carrying on of our export trade it is time his services were adequately recognized and remunerated. Up to the present it may safely be said that he is not properly appreciated, except by a very few of those who employ him, writes C. T. Mason, in "The World's Markets," published by R. G. Dun & Co.

One reason for this lack of appreciation—if not the chief reason—is that the majority of firms and individuals who have translations done for them, either directly or through some bureau, have no real understanding of the exacting nature of good translating work. Indeed, unless a person has studied a foreign language, it seems impossible for him to realize just what confronts the translator when making a translation from English into any foreign language. The average business man who has a document or a catalogue to be translated, let us say, into Spanish, apparently believes that all the translator has to do is to turn each word from English into Spanish; and since he expects the translator to know his own language and to be able to read English, he regards the work as offering no particular difficulty. To him it means simply a matter of transcribing words from one language into the other, and the man who does such work, he thinks, is entitled to no unusual consideration or remuneration. Such lack of information not only results in low pay for the good translators, but is responsible for much of the inferior work being turned out by translators who would not be entrusted with the task if translating were better understood by those who require it done for them.

A good translator, if we will pause to consider what is demanded of him, must of necessity be equipped with a vast amount of general information. Indeed, it may be questioned if any other calling demands so much versatility of one man. The capable translator, to be able to perform his work satisfactorily, must possess information on almost every conceivable subject—certainly those about which he may be called upon to write. If it be a catalogue on tools to be translated, he must know something about tools, and if of machinery or art or science, something about machinery, art and science. No matter what the subjects may be, from a pin to a dreadnought, he must know enough about each and all of them to understand what he is translating. The technical language employed in all manufacturers' catalogues, and which is not only unintelligible to the uninitiated, but often misleading, makes all this absolutely necessary, if glaring and costly blunders are to be avoided. Take as an example the term "lead screw" in a catalogue picked at random from a number before me: without an acquaintance with screws what would this nomenclature mean to the translator, let us say, into Spanish? Of course, with no description to guide him, the words would signify a screw made of lead, in Spanish, Tornillo de plomo. But a "lead screw" is really not a lead screw, and hence is not Tornillo de plomo; actually it is a "leading screw" and the metal lead, plomo, has nothing whatever to do with it! A translator having to translate these two simple English words, lead and screw, would have, therefore, to call upon his fund of general information in order to render an intelligent, and not a ridiculous, version of the original. It is certainly not so simple a matter as writing down the Spanish equivalent for lead and the Spanish equivalent for screw; it is rather a matter of brains unusually well trained, and such brain work is certainly entitled to more remuneration, not to say appreciation, than the average good translator receives.

The example cited is not by any means an isolated one, as any person who has glanced through a manufacturers' catalogue cannot but admit. Every page, say every line, abounds with technical words that only the initiated know the meaning of. To the individual, including the translator, who has no description data to guide him, or who has never seen the article in question, such terms are apt to be as intelligible as the chattering of a monkey.

IN CHANCERY DIVISION.

In the Chancery Division of the Supreme Court, yesterday morning, before Sir Douglas Hazen, Chief Justice, argument in the case of Baird vs. Jones was resumed. An application made at the previous hearing on behalf of the plaintiff to have the defendant cross-examined on his affidavit was disposed of by His Honor in favor of the applicant. The case was then adjourned sine die or to a time when it would be possible to have the defendant before the court. D. Mullin, K. C., appeared for the plaintiff; J. B. M. Baxter, K. C., for the defendant.

That Bump—Three-Point Suspension Triplex Springs In Overland 4 Take Out the Jar

THE three-point suspension Triplex Springs of the new Overland 4 mark the greatest riding improvement since the introduction of pneumatic tires.

These springs are diagonally attached at the extreme ends of a 130-inch Springbase. They give Overland 4 with 100-inch wheelbase the steadiness and smoothness of riding which long wheelbase and heavy weight give the large car.

They smooth out road roughness. They take up the jolts and rebounds.

Overland 4's light weight and efficiency make it surprisingly economical of fuel and oil.

In completeness and quality of equipment, including Electric Starting and Lighting, this greater-comfort car ranks with higher-priced cars.

Come and see for yourself how it rides on rough roads.
