A Powerful Plea.

Rosebery's Telling Speech in Favor of Home Rule.

He Refers to the Lords as the "Chamber of Death."

They Were Determined to Reject the Measure Beforehand.

Fighting the Irish People With Representatives of One Small Class—Chamberlain and Devonshire Scored—The House to be Disinfected—Cholera at Close Quarters.

The Queen Broke Down.

LONDON, Sept. 7.—Lord Gillford, flag lieutenant of the Victoria, had to face a trying ordeal at Osborne when the Queen asked him to give a minute account of the disaster to the Mediterranean. Her Majesty's strongly emotional nature is less under control now than it was in former days, and as Lord Gillford proceeded with his story, London Vanity Fair says, the Queen so completely broke down that his narrative had to be postponed until she had in some measure regained her composure.

Made a Baron.

LONDON, Sept. 7.—The Queen has directed letters patent to be passed under the great seal granting the dignity of a baron of the United Kingdom unto Sir Arthur Hamilton Gordon, G. C. M. G., and his heirs male, by the name, style and title of Baron Stanmore, of Great Stanmore, in the county of Middlesex. The new peer is the fourth son of the fourth Earl of Aberdeen, who was Prime Minister from 1852 to 1855. Lord Stanmore was Governor of Ceylon from 1883 to 1889, and previously administered the affairs of the Mauritius, the Fiji Islands and New Zealand. He was born in 1829, and married in 1865 a sister of Mr. Shaw Lefevre.

Nilsson's Later Days.

LONDON, Sept. 7.—The great cantatrice, Mme. Christine Nilsson, who is known in Spanish society as the Countess of Miranda—a title acquired five years ago by her marriage with a nobleman of the Peninsula—lives for the greater part of the year in a fine house—almost, indeed, a palace—at Madrid. In its internal decoration she has displayed a certain amount of eccentricity, for her bedroom is papered with sheets of music from the scores of the various operas that she has interpreted, while the walls of the dining-room are covered with a collection of hotel bills, the result of the diva's many professional travels in both hemispheres. The idea, though not absolutely original, affords material for wonder rather than amusement to the solemn Spaniards.

Cholera at Close Quarters.

LONDON, Sept. 7.—One of the women employed in cleaning the House of Commons has died of Asiatic cholera.

Sanitary Inspector Stricken.

LONDON, Sept. 7.—Sanitary Inspector Doherty was stricken with Asiatic cholera in Hull this morning. There has been one death from cholera in Hull to-day.

The House To Be Disinfected.

LONDON, Sept. 7.—Sanitary experts inspected the Houses of Parliament this evening. The House of Commons, with all the corridors, committee rooms, etc., will be disinfected during the night.

Soldiers' Extras.

LONDON, Sept. 7.—It is not generally known that the soldiers of the London garrison supplement their scanty pay by taking servant girls out for walks in Hyde Park on Sunday afternoons. The domestics in question have, as a rule, but a single afternoon out each week, generally on Sunday, and on that day they deck themselves out in all their finery, and, aping their employers, promenade in Hyde Park, usually up and down the banks of the Serpentine. Man does not like to be alone, still less does woman. Hence the girls feel the necessity of suitable escort, not so much for the sake of conversation as the look of the thing. The consequence is that they secure the services of a soldier, who promenades them in the park for a couple of hours for a stipulated sum, after which he escorts her home and leaves her at the back door of the house where she is employed. There is a regular tariff, an infantry man having to content himself with 25 cents, whereas the far more stately and imposing Life and Horse Guards receive as much as 50 cents, and in the case of cooks $1, together with, in most cases, a bottle containing some purloined wine which ought to have gone to make sauce.

The Lords and Home Rule.

LONDON, Sept. 7.—The House of Lords was crowded this evening with people eager to hear Lord Rosebery, Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, speak on the Home Rule Bill.

The first speaker was the Earl of Selborne, Liberal-Unionist, who made a bitter attack upon the bill.

Lord Rosebery followed Lord Selborne. He said that the arguments in which phrases about "capitulation" and "rash and uncertain experiment" had been used by opponents of home rule were exactly the sort that had been applied against every great reform of the present century. The same arguments had been used against the Catholic Emancipation Bill, the first Reform Bill, and also the bill for the repeal of the corn laws. Members of the Opposition had said that the present bill ought to be carefully considered, because it was legislation not for to-day, but for an uncertain to-morrow. The House of Lords, having decided before the debate opened to reject the Home Rule Bill, could not be called a dissecting room so justly as it could be called a chamber of death. Debate, therefore, was unreal and academic. There was no equal division of the parties in the House of Lords. It was only one party, only with a slight percentage of another.

He was perfectly certain that if the Unionists had frankly accepted the principle of a local legislature for Ireland and had offered in good faith to proceed on that line, with the view of applying the principle in a manner consonant with the safety and integrity of the empire, the Liberals would have held out both hands to welcome the Unionist proposals. The House of Commons had lingered over the Home Rule Bill with solicitude. The House of Lords gave the bill short shrift. This summary disposal of a great measure entailed upon the House of Lords a tremendous responsibility. There were 113 Irish peers sitting in the House of Lords, and he wanted to know, for it was an important factor in fighting five-sixths of the popular representatives of Ireland, how many of those peers in any sense whatever represented any part of Ireland except Ulster. Did the House of Lords mean to fight the Irish people with representatives of only one small class? (Irish shouts of "Hear, hear.") In 1886 Lord Hartington (now the Duke of Devonshire) and Mr. Chamberlain had said that home rule was mainly a question of degree, and they had succinctly and definitely laid down the limitations they were prepared to grant. Were they of the same opinion now? If so, the Duke of Devonshire had been singularly ill-advised in moving the rejection of the present bill. He might have allowed the second reading to pass sub silento, and then got the bill in committee, manipulated it to his liking, and, amended, returned it to the House of Commons, where, though the amendments might be stoutly resisted, a subsequent conference of the two Houses might have led to some agreement. Even if this course could have had no fruitful result it was a clear and patriotic line of action for the House of Lords to take. He was no enthusiast for home rule. He supported it simply as the best of the three courses open to the Opposition—to adopt modified home rule, continue the policy of coercion or disfranchise Ireland.

In concluding, Lord Rosebery said that the present bill was undoubtedly an experiment, but most legislation was experimental, and Irish legislation was necessarily so. It was a large and generous experiment. It was not a leap in the dark, but a leap in the light. It was a leap toward the reconciliation of two nations too long divided. It was a stride towards the adjustment of local business, enabling the British people to support the vast and varied burdens of the empire. Lord Rosebery was heartily cheered at the close of his speech.

A HEARSE STRUCK BY A TROLLEY

The Coffin Lid Torn Off and the Body of Its Baby Inmate Exposed.

NEW YORK, Sept. 7.—While a hearse bearing the body of a infant to the Hebrew Cemetery in Flatbush was passing the Willink entrance of the park in Brooklyn, trolley car No. 1,249 of the Flatbush line ran into it and broke off one of the hind wheels. In the smash-up the lid of the coffin was torn off and the dead infant exposed. The child belonged to a poor Jewish family, and a relative was on the hearse in addition to the driver, Moses Bernstein, who says the motor-man ran into the hearse without ringing his gong or giving any warning whatever.

SITTING ON THEIR COFFINS.

Manner in Which Two Condemned Indians Will Be Shot.

CADDO, I. T., Sept. 7.—Capt. Simon Wade and Solomon Lewis, condemned Choctaws, will be taken from the little house at Caddo which has so long served as a jail for them, on the morning of Friday, Sept. 8, hauled to Wilburton, eight miles away and shot to death. There is something grewsome in the proposed arrangements for the execution. Wade and Lewis will be stripped to the waist and seated on their coffins. A miniature heart will be painted over the heart that throbs within each breast. The sheriff will step off fifteen paces, kneel, and with a Winchester or six-shooter blot out the symbols on their breasts. This sheriff is the same man who in a similar way ended the life of Joe Bird. His aim then did not vary a hair's breadth. It is not likely that it will be faulty next Friday. Wade and Lewis will be buried with honors due a soldier by their tribe. They were the ringleaders in the killing of the four Choctaws near Hartshorne last September. Their five companions are to have a new trial.

A HUNTER'S FATAL MISTAKE.

Shot His Fellow-Camper at Night, Thinking That He Was a Bear.

HALIFAX, Sept. 7.—On Monday a party of five men went from Rawdon, Hants county, on a camping expedition. They had with them rifles to be used in case any bears or big game were seen during the night. One of the men named Jos. Woods awoke, and it is supposed that seeing the fire was low went to get some fuel to replenish it. While he was moving about outside another of the party awoke, and hearing the rustling among the bushes thought there was a bear at hand. Others of the party awoke and were told of the supposed proximity of the bear.

It is thought Woods heard the conversation, and for a lark got on his hands and knees and made a noise similar to a bear. John Custance, seeing the supposed bear, grabbed his rifle and fired, and then all was quiet.

Woods' absence was then noted, and a hurried examination showed that Woods had been shot dead by mistake. An inquest is being held.

EARLY BLAZE IN STRATHROY.

A Cottage and Contents Burned—Fire in Ridgeway.

STRATHROY, Sept. 7.—About 4 o'clock this morning fire started in the rear of the house on Maitland street owned by Lanson Lightheart and occupied by A. Scott. The blaze was not noticed until it had control of the whole rear portion of the building. Mrs. Scott and a little girl staying with her were alone in the house and were forced to escape from the burning building through the window, cutting themselves in their exit. The cottage, which is of brick, is insured for $600. On the contents, none of which were saved, there is an insurance of $600. Cause of fire unknown.

DUTTON, Sept. 7.—Fire broke out in A. C. Gordon's planing mill about 10 o'clock last night. The fire soon spread to the lumber yard, totally destroying both. The flames reached across the road to A. J. Leitch's barn and the Baptist Church stables, destroying both. About 500 men saved the surrounding houses. Mr. Gordon's loss is about $5,000; insurance is $1,000. Mr. Leitch's loss on his stable is about $450; insured. Cause unknown.

WARDSVILLE, Sept. 7.—At an early hour this morning a large frame building and its contents in the rear of Wm. Sheppard's residence was burned. Cause unknown.

TAVISTOCK, Ont., Sept. 7.—A barn on lot No. 11, in the 13th con. of East Zorra, seven miles from here, was struck by lightning at 10 o'clock to-day and completely destroyed, with all the grain and hay. Mr. Langdon is the tenant of the farm, which was purchased this week by Emers Rowe. Insured for $1,600 and $800 on contents.

RIDGEWAY, Ont., Sept. 7.—Cottage No. 1, situated on Oak Ridge at Crystal Beach, was burned to the ground Tuesday afternoon. The structure was fired by an explosion of gas. Cottage No. 3 adjoining also took fire. It was pushed over the cliff to the beach below, where it burnt fiercely until wholly consumed. Prompt action on the part of the residents was all that saved the remaining buildings from total destruction.

WELCOME TO THE CHIEF.

Preparations for Receiving Mr. Laurier in Stratford, Mitchell and Port Elgin—Other Prominent Speakers.

PORT ELGIN, Sept. 7.—Mr. Laurier, the Liberal leader, will visit North Bruce. The Port Elgin people have arranged to have the silver-tongued orator on the 20th inst. If the weather permits the meeting will be held in open air; if not the roller rink will be utilized, which will accommodate about 3,000. Besides the great Liberal leader there will be other prominent speakers present. Among them will be Messrs. Patterson, M. P. for Brant; Hon. David Mills, M. P. for Bothwell; J. F. Lister, M. P. for West Lambton; Hon. G. W. Ross, and Hon. A. S. Hardy. Sir Oliver has been invited and it is not known at present whether he will be present.

AT STRATFORD.

STRATFORD, Sept. 7.—The Liberals of Stratford have decided to tender Hon. Wilfrid Laurier, leader of the Liberal party, a reception at the G. T. R. depot on the morning of Sept. 14 during his brief stay here on his way to Mitchell. Mr. Laurier and a number of distinguished members of Parliament will arrive here from London by the Goderich train. A reception will be held immediately afterwards in the ladies' waiting room, which will be specially decorated for the occasion, when all—ladies included—who would like to be presented to the distinguished gentleman can avail themselves of the opportunity. After the reception Mr. Laurier will inspect the Grand Trunk shops, and at 10:30 will leave by the special train for Mitchell to attend the great demonstration to be held there in his honor.

AT MISCHELL.

MITCHELL, Sept. 7.—Arrangements are now complete for the reception of Hon. Wilfrid Laurier in this town on Thursday, Sept. 14. The Thirty-third Battalion Band, of Seaforth, has been engaged, and invitations have been issued to Hon. Thomas Ballantyne, Jas. Grieve, M.P., Hon. David Mills, Jas. Lister, M.P., Jas. McMullin, M.P., A. Bishop, M.P.P., Thos. Gibson, M.P.P., Jas. T. Garrow, M.P.P., and others, many of whom have signified their intention of being present. The procession to the Matheson Park will be organized at 1 o'clock, and the speeches will commence promptly at 2 p.m. A grand banquet will be held in the Town Hall in the evening, where arrangements have been made for accommodating over 250 persons.

The mayor has proclaimed a half-holiday for the occasion, and everything points to a most successful gathering. The Young Liberals have secured a large quantity of flags and bunting, and the town will present quite a gala appearance. The occasion is such as to attract the presence of every Liberal in the county and surrounding district, as well as those Conservatives who would like to hear public affairs discussed by the duly appointed exponent of Liberal principles.

LAURIER AT WELLAND.

The Storm Interferes With the Demonstration—A Good Indoor Meeting.

WELLAND, Sept. 7.—The Liberals of this and adjoining counties were greatly disappointed by the terrible weather they had for their demonstration. Never was so much thunder and lightning known here. The rainfall was very heavy, including a couple of showers of hailstones. Under the circumstances they had to abandon the procession, and the grove being so wet all outside preparations had to be abandoned. Mr. Laurier, accompanied by Mrs. Laurier and prominent speakers, arrived on the G. T. R. at 11:27, and after dinner at the Dexter House repaired to the Orient Hall, where an afternoon meeting was held. Speeches by Messrs. Laurier, Harcourt, Sutherland, German and others were made.

In the evening a reception was given Mr. Laurier, which a large number of citizens attended. Had the weather been fine, no doubt a very large crowd would have been present. Several large arches were erected across the streets, and business houses were well decorated.

A TORONTO GIRL'S STORY.

Found Half Unconscious on the Street—Says Two Men Kidnapped Her.

TORONTO, Sept. 7.—While on his rounds early this morning Police Officer Young found a young girl in a semi-conscious condition on King street near Portland. As she could not give any coherent account of herself, she was taken to St. Andrew's Market Police Station, where she gave her name as Christina Young, and age as 20. She stated she was at the Toronto Opera House on Wednesday night, and while on her way home she was accosted by two men, who inveigled her into a hack and drove away before she could make any outcry. Then she lost consciousness until morning, when she woke up and found herself in an empty house in the West End. The prisoner, who is good-looking, with dark eyes and luxuriant hair, gives her address as 5 Central Row, a short street in the East End. She was remanded on a charge of vagrancy.

Twelfth of July Orations.

ST. JOHN, N. B., Sept. 8.—The Orange picnic at Georgetown to-day attracted about 500 people altogether from this city. Speeches were made on the grounds by Clarke Wallace, Major Sam Hughes, C. N. Skinner, A. J. Armstrong, H. H. Pitts, M.P.P., and others. The speeches were of the Twelfth of July style of oratory.

ENGLISH MARRIED, SINGLE, AND WIDOWED.

(From the Tablet.)

A Parliamentary blue book relating to the last census for England and Wales shows that there were taken 8,716,363 unmarried males and 8,908,665 unmarried females, 4,851,548 married males and 4,916,649 married females, 484,990 widowers and 1,124,310 widows. Of this number there were 71 widowers and 169 widows over 15 years of age and under 20 years of age, and 2,095 widowers and 3,840 widows over 20 and under 25 years of age.

LONDON DISTRICT METHODISTS

Annual Meeting of the Finance Committee at Lambeth.

Superannuation Appropriations—The Coming Prohibition Plebiscite—Plans for Fall Work.

The financial meeting of the London District of the Methodist Church was held at Lambeth on Tuesday. Rev. J. R. Gundy, chairman, presided, and Rev. J. Philp, financial secretary, acted as secretary. The following were present: Revs. J. R. Gundy, J. W. Annis, M.A., J. C. Antliff, D.D., C. Smith, J. Philp, D.D., J. Ward, B.D., B. Clement, Wm. Penhall, J. A. Ferguson, G. J. Kerr, W. Quance, T. W. Blatchford, B.A., R. J. Garbutt, LL.B., and T. T. George, and Messrs. Thos. McCormick, C. J. Beal, W. H. McCutcheon, F. Harding, D. Nilson, F. E. Robertson, Joseph Wheaton, O. Cannon, Samuel Hunt, Albert Jones and George Heatley.

It was recommended that a grant of $575 be made by the missionary committee to Hamilton road mission.

Arrangements were made for the holding of the usual missionary and educational anniversaries on all of the circuits. The following are the amounts required for the superannuation fund: Queen's Avenue, $350; Dundas Street, $212; Wellington Street, $94; King Street, $40; Colborne Street, $45; Centennial Church, $59; Hamilton Road, $15; Askin Street, $107; London West, $52; St. Johns, $49; Siloam, $58; Thorndale, $76; Dorchester, $84; Lambeth, $51; Westminster, $86; Delaware, $51; total, $1,409.

A TRIPLE MURDER.

Mrs. Halliday May be Lynched—Attempted Suicide.

MIDDLETOWN, N. Y., Sept. 7.—The chief event of the day has been the finding of Paul Halliday's body beneath the floor of the house where the two Newburgh women—Margaret McQuillan and her daughter Sarah—were murdered. This makes three persons Mrs. Holliday stands charged with murdering. Constable Scott reports that this morning Mrs. Halliday tore her garter loose, broke it and twisted it around her neck and pulled on both ends with all her strength. He removed it from her as soon as he discovered what she was attempting to do, but her face was badly flushed and she was panting for breath. She has been watched very closely ever since. About two years ago a boy named George Kline, who lived in a house next the Hallidays, disappeared. It was supposed at the time that he had stolen a horse and wagon which had been missed and made off with it. Search was made for the boy but nothing was ever seen or heard of him. It is now thought that he may have in some way incurred the displeasure of Mrs. Halliday, who put him out of the way. In fact, it is generally believed that more bodies may be found about the locality of the Halliday house. There is great fear that a mob will form and lynch Mrs. Halliday to-night.

CONDUCTOR SMITH WAS SHOT.

But Was It by Tramp or an Explosive Fog Signal?—His Case Will Be Investigated by the C. P. R. Company.

On Sunday, Aug. 27, Conductor Sidney Smith, of the C. P. R., was brought to this city on his train, and reported that while attempting to put off four tramps who were stealing a ride between Galt and Drumbo he was shot in the leg. The tramp, he said, was caught by the train hands and bound with ropes to a stove in the caboose. He, however, escaped after having been handed over to the officials at Woodstock.

The C. P. R., upon the strength of the story, sent out detectives to investigate the case. They report the facts of the case as being very different from those related by Smith. During fogs or times of danger there are small explosives encased in tin placed upon the rails. When a train runs on one of these a loud report results. The engineer at once knows that danger is near and brings his train to a standstill. Placed as they are under the train no damage results. According to the official report it appears Conductor Smith was showing a friend how these fog signals worked, and struck one with a hammer. Of course it exploded, and a piece of the tin was driven into his leg. This was extracted by a physician on his arrival in this city. These explosives are not to be used except when necessary, and the conductor's action would be in contravention of the company's regulations. Mr. Smith is able to be around town again, but he has not yet taken charge of his train, nor will he until after his case has been thoroughly investigated.

Shooting the Rapids.

MONTREAL, Sept. 7.—The shooting of the Lachine Rapids formed the programme of the delegates to the Trades and Labor Congress this forenoon. There was a heavy downpour of rain, but a large number of the members went out by train to Lachine, taking the steamer Prince of Wales there. The delegates were received by Ald. Dagenais in the absence of the mayor, and a number of aldermen were present. Dinner was served on the steamer and the city reached at 2 o'clock this afternoon.

A Terrible Mistake.

Passing down one of the side streets toward the main thoroughfare, she thought she saw her husband in all the glory of his new spring suit standing on the corner. The clothes had come home the night before, and had been pronounced a fit, and quite unique.

"Not another like it in Boston,"

Now, this same husband is always railing at women for standing on the streets talking, and impeding the progress of busy traffic. Deciding that she had caught him this time, the lady gave the gay lounger a gentle poke with her parasol, and said:

"Really standing still on a corner, sweetheart?"

He turned around.

He was another man!

No one need fear cholera or any summer complaint if they have a bottle of Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Dysentery Cordial ready for use. It corrects all looseness of the bowels promptly and causes a healthy and natural action. This is a medicine adapted for the young and old, rich and poor, and is rapidly becoming the most popular medicine for cholera, dysentery, etc., in the market.

CONTINENTAL UNION.

Mr. John Jacob Astor's Views Upon Unification.

NEW YORK, Sept. 7.—John Jacob Astor has been giving his views on political union.

"I thoroughly believe in the annexation of Canada," Mr. Astor replied, "and should like to see an 'ocean bound republic,' under one government, extending from the Arctic to the Caribbean Sea.

"This would forever prevent such wars and armaments here as have blighted Europe, and would give a large area absolute free trade. The absorption of Canada would be a great step toward this achievement. The demand for it should, however, most properly come from the Canadians, since in the event of hard times, which the union would do much to ameliorate, they would then have nothing with which to reproach us.

"The next point would be for the united countries to assume the combined national debts, or the union might be hastened by purchase, as in the cases of Louisiana and Alaska.

"Our resources and development permit us to assert the belief that if there is one government it should be ours, though we could well make some such change as to enable the members of the Cabinet to appear in Congress to defend their measures, as is done in the English Parliament. Circumstances have favored the United States and not Canada. This is apparent to the Canadians, and they naturally desire the advantages of commercial union, which I think we can in all fairness condition upon its being also political.

"Though both countries would be greatly benefited materially, there would be a political advantage for Canada, for, in the event of a war between England and Russia, she would be safe under the Stars and Stripes, while dependence on England will entail enormous loss."

"Do you think the French element disadvantageous?"

"No! The French were in Louisiana, the Spaniards in California and Florida. How is it now? Both the French and Spanish languages, being based on Latin, are similar to English, while the people are easily absorbed."

"Might not a country comprising all North America be too large to hold together?"

"It would be no larger than the Russian empire and not as large as the British, while, of course, far more compact. Both contain more inhabitants than we should have for a long time, while the population of China is four times as great. The Canadian resources need development, while almost any temperate zone product can be raised on the high plateaus of Mexico.

"Central America and the Nicaragua Canal should, of course, be ours. There is no natural barrier in North America. Geographically, the continent is one. Means of transportation will not stay where they are. It should soon take less time to go from Alaska to Progresso than it took Gen. Washington to move from New York to Baltimore.

"The unification of North America is, of course, bound to come, and I see no reason why all enjoyment of it should be left to posterity."

The Sugar Refiners.

They say that they are reducing the taxes of the people. I admit at once that it is true; that they don't take much of that money out of the pockets of the people to put it into the public treasury—only $80,000. But when they take $80,000 out of your pockets of legitimate taxes they take $600,000 of illegitimate taxes, which they give to the refiners of Canada. But there is a reason they give for this. They say that if they remove the duty and allow the American refiners to come in, our refiners will have to close down. I do not admit that to be true. But suppose it were true that our refiners would have to close down. Is it true that by importing American sugars Canadian refiners would have to close down? Let us look at the history of one of the refineries in Montreal, of which Senator Drummond is the manager. Senator Drummond receives as the manager of that refinery a salary of $60,000 a year. Will any one tell me that a refinery which pays a salary of $60,000 a year to its manager cannot live without protection? I don't believe it.—[Hon. Wilfrid Laurier at Newmarket.

IS YOUR GROCER ALIVE

TO YOUR INTEREST AS WELL AS HIS OWN?

If so, he is never tired of recommending articles which are a mutual benefit, for he knows well that nothing he sells gives more satisfaction or pays the buyer and seller better than C. W. C. It is all that can be desired for washing and cleaning, as it makes labor light, clothes bright, saves money, and is perfectly safe to use. ASK YOUR GROCER FOR THIS VALUABLE COMPOUND.

SARNIA SUNBEAMS.

The steamer Hiawatha, has discontinued her trips to Stag Island for this season, making her last trip on Aug. 30.

Rev. C. C. McLaurin, who was recruiting his health during the month of August, has resumed his duties as pastor of the Baptist Church here, and will occupy the pulpit in the Central Church next Sabbath.

Trade seems to be picking up among vessel men on the upper lakes, as no less than twelve large steam barges passed up Tuesday between the hours of 9 and 11 o'clock.

The Oddfellows of Goderich excurt to Sarnia per steamer Cambra, to-day.

The sad news has been received of the death of Mrs. C. G. Meisel, of Port Huron, which occurred by the explosion of a lamp at the residence of her son-in-law, Mr. H. S. Bush, of Tubingen, Germany, where she was visiting for the summer.

Mayor Boynton, of Port Huron, father of the Knights of the Maccabees, is out for re-election as great record keeper at the meeting of the Great Camp, which will be held at Grand Rapids, Mich., on Sept. 12. It is hoped that Sir Knight Boynton will be elected by a handsome majority, and that his valuable services will be retained to the order for some years to come.

Mrs. Wm. Neil and daughter leave soon on a trip to Ecuador, South America, to visit Mr. Dixon, her daughter's husband, who is working in a gold mine there.

King's flour mill will soon be ready for the fall trade, after having undergone extensive alterations both as regards the building and first-class machinery.

On account of the very dry summer, and there being no pasture, our milkmen are charging 6 cents a quart for their milk.

It is said that Mr. John Jay, landlord of the Merchants' Exchange Hotel, Port Huron, has leased the Chapman House for ten years. Johnny will make a popular landlord.

John Goodison, of the Sarnia agricultural works, shipped a handsome McCloskey separator to the Industrial Fair, Toronto. He also intends to send one to the Western Fair at London.

Rev. C. C. McLaurin says he is the happiest man in the county. The arrival of a young son on Friday, Sept. 1, is the cause of his joy.

The Companions of the Forest, A. O. F., gave a peach social in Victoria Hall on Wednesday evening. A splendid programme was provided, and the large audience present thoroughly enjoyed the good things provided.

Two new fire alarm boxes have been placed in position on the corners of Vidal and Maria and George and Milton streets. They will add greatly to the efficiency of our fire alarm system.

Friday, Sept. 1, being the time for duck-shooting to commence, quite a number of sportsmen availed themselves of the privilege, and Sarnia Bay resounded with the noise of many shot-guns.

A special vestry meeting of St. George's Church will be held next Wednesday evening, Sept. 13. Business of importance in regard to church matters will be taken up.

Process of Making Postage Stamps.

Every part of postage-stamp making is done by hand. The designs are engraved on steel, 200 stamps on a single plate. These plates are inked by two men, and then are printed by a girl and a man on a large hand press. They are dried as fast as printed and then gummed with a starch paste made from potatoes. This paste is dried by placing the sheets in a steam fanning machine, and then the stamps are subjected to a pressure of 2,000 tons in a hydraulic press. Next the sheets are cut so that each one contains 100 stamps, after which the paper between the stamps is perforated, and after being pressed the sheets are filed away. If a single stamp is injured the whole sheet is burned.—[St. Paul Pioneer Press.

Corns! Corns!

Tender corns, painful corns, soft corns, bleeding corns, hard corns, corns of all kinds and of all sizes, are alike removed in a few days by the use of Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor. Never fails to cure, never causes pain, never leaves deep spots that are more annoying than the original discomfort. Give Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor a trial. Beware of substitutes. Sold by all druggists everywhere.—Polson & Co., Kingston, proprietors.

Scientists inform us that men on an average weigh twenty pounds more than women do. Notwithstanding this the fair sex are usually satisfied in having their own weigh.

Experience has Proved it.

A triumph in medicine was attained when experience proved that Scott's Emulsion would not only stop the progress of pulmonary consumption, but by its continued use health and vigor could be fully restored.

Mamma—Now, Teddy, we must all try and give up something while times are so hard. Teddy — I'm willing. Mamma—What will it be, dear? Teddy—Soap.

Abettie of Angostura Bitters to flavor your lemonade or any other cold drink will keep you free from Dyspepsia, Colic Diarrhea and all diseases originating from the digestive organs. Be sure to get the genuine Angostura, manufactured by Dr. J. G. B. Siegert & Sons.

Every wife occasionally wishes she could vindicate herself by letting some woman her husband praises have him for a few weeks.

Give Holloway's Corn Cure a trial. It removed ten corns from one pair of feet without any pain. What it has done once it will do again.

Young Sprigg — Mr. Bidquick, I am worth £5,000 and I love your daughter. Mr. Bidquick (retired auctioneer)—Sold.

We have no hesitation in saying that Dr. J. D. Kellegg's Dysentery Cordial is without doubt the best medicine ever introduced for dysentery, diarrhœa, cholera and all summer complaints, sea sickness, etc. It promptly gives relief and never fails to effect a positive cure. Mothers should never be without a bottle when their children are teething.

When a speaker has a whole train of thought it takes him some time to unload.

Carter's Little Liver Pills must not be confounded with common Cathartic or Purgative Pills as they are extremely unlike them in every respect. One trial will prove their superiority.

We can't object to the trapeze performer; surely her feats are of a high order.

Among the pains and aches cured with marvelous rapidity with Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil is earache. The young are especially subject to it, and the desirability of this Oil as a family remedy is enhanced by the fact that it is admirably adapted not only to the above ailment, but also to the hurts, disorders of the bowels, and affections of the throat, to which the young are specially subject.

Vacation signifies "empty," but with some it means full right along.

BRANT.

A new manufacturing establishment is to be started up in Brantford in a short time for the manufacture of an improved lawn mower. Alauson Harris is at the head of the scheme.

The Liberals of Paris have been revising the Provincial voters' lists, and applications have been made to put a lot of new names on the list and to strike off a number. The prohibitionists in town have also been at work in the same direction, and they handed in a number of names which they wish put on the list.

Edgar Smith was charged at the Brantford Police Court a couple of days ago that he did on or about the 3rd day of October, 1893, in the township of Brantford, under promise of marriage, seduce one Phœbe Downs, an unmarried woman under the age of 21 years, of previous chaste character. The defendant pleaded guilty and was committed for trial by J. P. Shaw, acting police magistrate. The plaintiff in the case had been employed in Brantford for some time as a cigarmaker, and about a month ago gave birth to a child, the father of which she claims is the defendant, who is hostler for Mr. L. F. Hoyd.

ELGIN.

While Mrs. Williams, wife of Mrs. Thos. Williams, of the G. T. R., St. Thomas, was visiting one of her neighbors Wednesday, her infant son tumbled into an open cistern. Fortunately she returned in time, and missing the child at once thought of the cistern, and just as she arrived there the little one came to the top of the water and she pulled him out. Medical attendance was summoned, and the child is now out of danger.

Rev. R. McIntyre, of St. Thomas, delivered a lecture on Sept. 5 in the North Street Presbyterian Church on "An Hour with a Scotchman." There was a fair attendance. The reverend gentleman kept his audience in the best of humor throughout the lecture, and was several times applauded for his witty sayings and anecdotes, which he can tell to advantage. The lecturer held that the mother tongue was a national language and not a provincial dialect, and that Scotchmen were born humorists and did not require a surgical operation to see a joke.

ESSEX.

Early Wednesday morning the Imperial Hotel, Windsor, was entered by burglars and the cash register carried away. It contained one gold and two silver watches, together with some $5 in money. Also a box of cigars and some liquors are missing. Fortunately the bartender removed some $60 from the register before retiring. The register was found in a field near town in the afternoon.

T. Jennings, Windsor, has been sentenced to six months in the Central Prison for stealing a bicycle from Joseph Moynahan.

HURON.

Thos. Harvey, of Hay, while attending Mr. Geo. Penhale's thrashing, con. 3, Stephen, on Wednesday, fell through the scaffolding and broke his right arm between the elbow and shoulder.

KENT.

The coroner's jury has returned a verdict of death from natural causes in the case of the late John Gilmore, who died at the Chatham jail the other day. The jury strongly condemned the action of the authorities, and expressed the opinion that they should act more humanely in the case of feeble and infirm paupers, and instead of causing their commitment to prison should secure their admittance to a hospital, where proper care and attention can be bestowed.

A few weeks ago a half-witted young man named Broadbent, son of a farmer living near Blenheim, disappeared and no trace of his whereabouts could be learned. About the time of his disappearance farmers were storing their hay away in their barns, and the neighbors advanced the theory that young Broadbent was buried in the mow of a barn near his father's home, that he had laid down to sleep in the mow—a thing he was known to do before—and that while asleep an immense bunch of hay from a hay fork was dropped upon him. For a few weeks a terrible stench has been emanating from the mow referred to. The matter was called to the attention of Chief of Police Ketchum, of Blenheim, who went out to clear up the mystery. It was discovered that where the stench was the strongest a quantity of hay had been cut away the previous night, yet there was ample evidence that the flesh of some man or beast had lain there and become putrid. The mouths of the owners of the premises are sealed regarding the affair.

One of a trio of young lads living in Harwich township, a few miles from this city, who recently daubed the Methodist parsonage at Huffman's Corners with a coat of "loud" paint, has been fined $50.

LAMBTON.

There was some excitement in Courtright Thursday morning caused by a sudden fall of three feet of the waters of the St. Clair. Some girls going out in a row boat from the M. C. R. slip dock had their boat grounded. Such a thing has not been known before, and the cause has not been explained.

MIDDLESEX.

Rev. Mr. Corbett, of Paisley, has been appointed by the Bishop of Huron to the incumbency of the Thorndale and Grace churches, in place of W. R. Seaborne, who has left the diocese.

John England, while working in the clay pit at Hoist's tile yard, Crediton, Wednesday, a mass of clay weighing nearly two tons fell on him, burying him to the neck. When extricated, Drs. Browning and Wicket were hastily summoned and found the thigh dislocated and the hip bone fractured.

Gordon McKellar, a little son of A. McKellar, merchant, Glencoe, had his spine injured and a rib crushed by being run over the other day.

Glencoe rate for 1893 has been struck at 2 cents on the dollar—4 mills less than last year. The total assessment of the village is nearly $100,000 more this year than last.

Daniel Hagerty, Mosa, has sold his chestnut mare, Minnie Holland, to Joseph Jacobs, of Montreal, for the handsome sum of $200. Mr. Hagerty has four other horses equally well bred.

Mr. Newport secured another flowing well of water on Monday on the farm of Dugald McKellar, near Kilmartin. A four inch stream gushes from the well, flooding the surrounding flats. Mr. Newport has also bored wells on the farms of Robert McLauchlin and Abram Burchell, a good supply of fine water being obtained in each case.

No less than 78 appeals have been entered for hearing before the county judge at the coming revision of the voters' list in Glencoe. It is the largest number ever entered. For the Liberals, C. McDougald appeals against 18 omissions of voters' names and 19 names wrongfully inserted, and J. A. Leitch, on behalf of the Conservatives, appeals to have 36 names inserted and 6 struck off.

OXFORD.

The value of the exports shipped from Woodstock last month was $77,323, and the duties on the imports amounted to $4,853 62.

A large frame barn on the old Millman farm on con. 12 was struck by lightning and entirely destroyed, together with all its contents, on Wednesday night. This is the second occasion on which Mr. Pratt has lost his barns and stables by fire. Loss, $1,200; insurance, $800.

PERTH.

Martin John Hickey, a former resident of St. Marys, dropped dead in Buffalo on Sunday, Aug. 27. He had been working in the G. T. R. car shops at Stratford, and Messrs. Storr and Nichol, of that city, were with him at the time.

Stratford cleared $300 out of its civic holiday celebration.

WENTWORTH.

The interesting case of Farrow vs. Nelles took up most of Chief Justice Armour's time in the Assize Court at Hamilton on Wednesday. The case arises out of the will of an old miser named John Stalker, who lived in a little log hut on the Grand River, near Caledonia. William Farrow and his wife Isabella tended and boarded the old man for some years before his death, and so expected a substantial portion of the old miser's wealth, which was reported to be fabulous. Shortly before he died, however, the defendants Frederick and Stalker Nelles, took him away from the Farrows, and, they allege, induced him to alter his will so as to leave them out. They, therefore, brought suit against the Nelles' as executors of old Stalker's estate. The evidence in the case went to substantiate the plaintiff's story. Chief Justice Armour decided to try the case without a jury, and gave judgment for $300 and costs; he also dismissed a counter claim filed by the defendants.

STATE SOCIALISM DEFEATED

By the Trades and Labor Congress—An Important Proposition.

MONTREAL, Sept. 7.—The labor delegates held a short session to-day to consider a proposition to admit representatives of the Patrons of Industry, the Grangers and the Single Tax Association to the congress. The motion met with strong opposition, and they adjourned without reaching a decision. A motion by Delegate Darlington in favor of State socialism was defeated by a large majority.

LIGHTNING'S WORK.

Barns and Crops Destroyed by the Flames—Heavy Losses.

FONTHILL, Ont., Sept. 7.—The large barns belonging to Michael Haist were burned by lightning this morning with contents, 1,800 bushels of wheat and 300 bushels of barley, during the heavy thunder storm which raged here for over three hours. Loss about $3,000.

MIDLAND, Ont., Sept. 7.—During the heavy storm here to-day the barn of Wm. Hunter, three miles from here, was set on fire by lightning. Barn and contents destroyed. Small insurance on building only. The loss will be heavy, as the barn was full of grain unthreshed.

COLBORNE, Ont., Sept. 7.—This morning a heavy rain storm with thunder and lightning passed over the district, doing considerable damage, among which the frame barn owned by Richard Terry was struck and consumed with contents. No insurance.

WARKWORTH, Ont., Sept. 7.—This morning about 8 o'clock the barn owned by Andrew Shaw was struck by lightning and consumed with the whole season's crop. The crop was owned by Mr. John Hariot and insured for $4,000. The barn was insured for $300.

REVOLT IN BRAZIL.

Rio Janeiro to be Bombarded—Italian Warship Sent There.

ROME, Sept. 7.—The Brazilian Minister has informed Premier Giolitti that the Brazilian squadron has revolted and that the Government, although strong enough to preserve public order, will not be able to prevent the bombardment of Rio Janeiro. The Italian cruiser Dogali, now at Bahia, has been ordered to proceed at once to Rio Janeiro to protect the Italian residents.

HOW DIFFERENT FROM LONDON'S

Montreal's Fair Declared a Failure—Western Ontario Exhibits a Redeeming Feature.

MONTREAL, Sept. 7.—To those who expected anything of the Montreal Exhibition it is a disappointment. It is not worthy of the name of a Provincial Fair, and is far from being a credit to the metropolis of Canada or the Province of Quebec. The stock exhibit is small, and empty stalls and pens are the feature of that department. The horse show is fairly well filled, and among the exhibits are some fine animals, but most are not above mediocrity. There are a few good head of cattle, a dozen pens of fine sheep and as many of swine. Most of them are from Western Ontario. That is about the whole fair. The dairy display would not be a credit to a county show. The attendance is small and weather unpleasant. It is raining to-day, and practically nothing is being done on the grounds.

Bandits Rob a Bank.

DELTA, Col., Sept. 7.—The Farmers' Bank here was robbed at 10:30 this morning and the cashier shot, but not killed. As the outlaws dashed down the street on horseback a hardware merchant shot and killed two of them.

—Sir Charles Tupper is probably here, among other things, to do a little tariff hocuspocusing. He it was, it will be remembered, who bruted the present iron duties through the House.

—The Trades and Labor Congress at Montreal has passed a resolution requesting the Dominion Government to abolish the office of High Commissioner to England. Sir Tupper is an expensive luxury.

—When part of the platform at Newmarket collapsed, Mrs. Laurier remained calm. Mr. Laurier looked about, and seeing that his wife was unhurt and undismayed, remarked smilingly, "O, I see she is all right; I always said she would make a good soldier."

—Mr. McMullen, M.P., in his speech at Newmarket, got in a good one on the "infant industry" pretext. "I appeal," said Mr. McMullen, "to the mothers here. If you had a 16-year-old baby boy who wished to be carried around on your back, would you not think it time for him to use his own legs?"

—Quite a list of tariff reform (i. e., Liberal) mass meetings have been held in the Lower Provinces, and a number more are now announced. The Montreal Herald rightly remarks that an encouraging feature of these gatherings is that they are so spontaneous, so easily organized, and attended freely by men of all political shades.

DESTROY AND GET RICH!

Now that the currency question is a live one, it is interesting to recall the fact that tobacco was the only "money" of the early Virginians. The settlers in that British colony kept their accounts in tobacco. The salaries of members of the Legislative Assembly, the stipends of clergymen, were paid in tobacco; offenses were punished by fines expressed in tobacco. Absence from church cost the delinquent 50 pounds; refusing to have his child baptized, 50 pounds; entertaining a Quaker, 5,000 pounds of the weed. These early settlers had as small a regard for free speech as some of our modern associations. When the stock of tobacco was unduly large, the currency was debased and much inconvenience resulted. The Virginians corrected this evil in their monetary system by compelling every planter to burn a certain proportion of his stock. Here is a hint for the clamorers for the maintenance of a high value for silver money. Everybody of sense recognizes that the reason why silver dollars are less sought after now than formerly is to be found in the fact that the commodity of silver has in recent years become so much more plentiful, in proportion to gold, that it has been much cheapened. The only safe way to keep up the intrinsic value of silver money is to reduce the supply of the raw material. Let the silver miners destroy a portion of their product, and all will be well!

Northern Clans

In the Great Gathering at Lucknow.

Thousands Enjoy the Highland Games.

The Noted Athletes, Pipers and Dancers Present.

Scenes and Incidents Recorded on the Grounds.

(Special to the ADVERTISER from Our Representative.)

The great northern Caledonian gathering at Lucknow on Wednesday was probably the most successful event of the kind that has ever taken place in the Scottish Mecca of the northern country. Last year the sports were spoiled by a downfall of rain, but this fact did not dampen the ardor of the enthusiastic promoters of these manly contests, and early in the summer they began the organized effort which was brought to so successful culmination on Wednesday. This year the weather was all that could be desired—clear, bracing, sunshiny and warm. Success under such auspices was assured, and before the day passed upwards of 6,000 spectators bore testimony to the fact. The celebration really began on Tuesday evening, when the members of Albyn Camp, Sons of Scotland, Lucknow, set the ball rolling by assembling at the commodious town hall. They were joined by almost the entire population of the village, for, be it known, that no matter what his antecedents, on the occasion of this great annual assembling of the clans everyone in Lucknow and neighborhood considers it to be his duty to join hands with the majority and work for success. Speeches were given by Chief Brown, chief of Albyn Camp; Reeve Bryan, the able and energetic warden of the county (by the way, many years ago a valued member of the ADVERTISER staff), and others. At 10 o'clock was extemporized, which marched to the G. T. R. station, and with torches, variegated fireworks and unbounded Scottish enthusiasm, received the pipers' band of the Forty-eighth Battalion of Highlanders, Toronto, noted athletes and many visitors from a distance. The procession to and from the village was headed by the Lucknow Brass Band, an organization which is a credit to its talented young leader, Mr. John W. Armstrong, the village jeweler. Its music was frequently cheered. The great source of attraction was the visiting band of pipers, every member of which, from Pipe Major Ireland down, proved an artist in "skirling." Not till an early hour in the morning would the crowd consent to a cessation of the weird music that so delights the hearts of the north countrymen and those of their descendants whose education has not been neglected. On Wednesday morning Lucknow presented a decidedly holiday appearance. The village is ordinarily one of the greatest centers of population in the northern peninsula, but on the occasion of its annual gala day it assumes metropolitan airs, and from start to finish maintains them. Wednesday was no exception to the rule. About noon an imposing procession of visiting camps, pipers, dancers and athletes was formed at the Albyn Camp headquarters, headed by the band of the Forty-eighth Highlanders, Lucknow Band following. There was cheering all along the route, and there could be no mistaking that all had "Caed Mille Failthe." The procession was marshaled by Messrs. Daniel Geddes and Hugh Morrison, and was composed as follows:

Standard Bearers, with Lion Rampant of Scotland.
Mounted Marshals.
Pipers' Band of Forty-eighth Highlanders, Highlanders in Costume.
Distinguished Visitors.
Bonnie Jean Camp, S. O. S., Ripley: Chief, J. Reavie: Secretary, John McRitchie.
Roslyn Castle Camp, S. O. S., Tiverton; Chief, John McKellar; Secretary, D. E. McLaurin.
Mc Crimmon Camp, S. O. S., Underwood: Chief, D. McNaughton; Secretary, John G. McKay.
Albyn Camp, S. O. S., Lucknow; Chief, J. C. Brown; Secretary, P. A. Malcolmson.
Lochnagar Camp, S. O. S., Walkerton; Chief, Robert Marr; Secretary, J. A. McGill.

Prior to the games the Drop Shot Lacrosse Club of Lucknow had defeated the Walkerton Club. There was a fierce and exciting contest, and the Lucknow boys were victorious by two straight games in three. The large crowd thoroughly enjoyed the contest.

CALEDONIA PARK,

which was the rendezvous, is admirably adapted for a great public gathering. It is situated at the northwestern limits of the village, the heights presenting the appearance of a natural amphitheater, and affording excellent facilities for many thousands of spectators to witness every performance in the arena. The park had a very animated appearance. A finer looking body of men and women could not be brought together in any similar center in the Dominion. There was variety enough in costume, the gay sunnied dresses of the ladies, the striking outfits of the large body of Highlanders, and the kilted broad bonnets and feathers of the hundreds of sons of Scotland completely eclipsing the attire of ordinary visitors, and affording a unique and striking spectacle. Among those in attendance were Messrs. Jas. Bryan, warden of Bruce county, and proprietor of the Sentinal; Dr. McCrimmon Underwood, the veteran ex-chief of the Caledonian Society, that twenty years ago first set on foot this noted northern gathering; D. McNaughton, reeve of Bruce; Neil McDougall, deputy-reeve of Bruce; John McKellar, reeve of Tiverton; Sam. Hawthorn, reeve of Greenock; J. McClure, deputy-reeve of Elderslie; J. D. Clarke, London ADVERTISER; Thos. Lawrence, pioneer hardware merchant in Luck now, and father of Mr. L. Lawrence, druggist, London; Peter Corrigan, a Kinloss pioneer; A. G. Stewart, Teeswater News; A. Gordon and Dr. Gillies, Teeswater; Capt. Robertson, grand secretary Sons of Scotland; Dr. Meldrum, chief of Wingham Camp, S. O. S.; Dr. Gordon and Dr. Tennant, Lucknow; Neil Lamont, collector, Kincardine township; Wm. McIntosh, reeve of Arran; Alex. Nicholson, deputy reeve of Kinloss; Councilor John McNeilledge, Bruce township; Alex. Stewart, reeve of West Wawanosh; Robt. Walker, Kincardine. The prize list was most liberal, $8, $7 and $5 first prizes being plentiful. This had the effect of drawing many noted athletes, pipers and dancers. Among the prominent men of muscle who entered were C. J. Currie, the Parkhill giant, whose 6-foot 6-inch form towered above all; Archie Scott, Strathroy; M. O'Neill and J. O'Neill, Ridgetown; C. Fritz, Dashwood; J. D. McColl and J. S. McDonald, Parkhill—all broad-shouldered, well-developed young men in their prime. At no previous gathering has there been such

or such keen competition in these departments. The judges in dancing had a most arduous task, as the entries from the northern counties as well as from the world were very large. The consequence was that some of the more noted dancers had to be contented with second and third prizes, and others failed altogether. In the ranks of the pipers were to be found Pipe Major Ireland, F. Riddell, Geo. Murray, Wm. Currie, Frank Atkins, John Blackall, N. McBain, Toronto; Wm. Thain, Guelph; Archie Anderson, St. Helens; Duncan McKinnon, Tiverton; D. McKay, Ripley; D. N. McKay, Kintail. Among the crowd of Highland dancers were Wm. McLeod, Seaforth; Fred Riddell, Montreal; F. A. Wilson, Elgin, Ill.; Geo. Murray, Toronto; John Rattray, London; Wm. Templeton, London; G. A. Mathieson, the Hamilton veteran, and Miss May Mathieson, his pretty little daughter; J. Fotheringham, Strathroy; Frank Wilson, Hugh Galbraith, and Geo. May, jun., London; Misses A. McMurchie and C. McMurchie, Kintail; Misses J. McLaren and A. McLaren, Goderich; Miss Edith Scott, Strathroy; Miss W. Kelly, Galt; Miss Lillie Austin, Ashfield; Misses Annie Paton, Edith Murray and C. Gerrie, London. With so many competitors it was only by hard work, and at times by keeping two contests going at the same time, that the managers were able to get the programme approximately completed. Several of the dancing contests, indeed, had to be delayed till the evening concert. Sandwiched into the afternoon's programme were two marches round the grounds by the Forty-eighth Highlanders Pipers' Band. The music was charming to Scottish ears, and evoked the warmest enthusiasm in the great assemblage. Stoical old Caledonians rose and waved their bonnets and cheered as they had never cheered before. It was a striking scene, as the vast gathering on the hillsides and opposite grand stands joined in the chorus of approval. If there was a great crowd at the games, there was a perfect jam which was given in the Caledonian Hall, a commodious structure that stands on the eastern limits of the grounds. How so many people got wedged into the building was a mystery to most people, but there they stood for three long hours and more. The programme was participated in by Miss Agnes Forbes, soprano, Toronto; Miss Ida Walker, contralto, Kincardine; the Misses McLaren, violinists, Goderich; Thomas J. Scott, of Wingham, who proved a Scottish vocalist above the average; and W. E. Ramsay, a versatile Toronto comedian. The accompanists were Miss Lena Ramsay, Mrs. Armstrong and Miss McNab. Dr. McCrimmon was chairman. Despite the length of the programme he found it difficult to repress encores. Capt. D. M. Robertson, grand secretary S. O. S., delivered a congratulatory address, and promised his assistance to make future great Scottish gatherings at Lucknow even greater successes than the present one. The dancing competitions, adjourned from the afternoon, were completed. There were many contestants, and the following were the prize winners:

AT THE EVENING CONCERT,

Hornpipe—1 F. A. Wilson, 2 George A. Mathieson, 3 F. Riddell
Irish jig—1 W. McLeod (Seaforth), 2 — Fizell (Lucknow), 3 F. A. Wilson.
Shan trews—1 Annie McLaren, 2 Miss Kelly (Galt), 3 Miss Murchie.
Highland fling, under 10 years of age—1 Edith Murray, 2 George May, London.
Gillie Callum—1 F. Wilson, 2 F. Riddell, 3 G. A. Matheson.

Members of the pipers' band supplied excellent dance music. The concert was closed with the singing of "Auld Lang Syne" and the National Anthem shortly after 11 o'clock, but the early hours of Thursday morning had arrived before the day's enthusiasm was bottled up in sleep.

SKIRLS.

Pretty little Edith Murray, of London, rejoices in the possession of a fine eagle's feather, presented to her at the concert by Chieftain McInnes.

The athletes voted the grounds splendid for their work. They were comparatively soft and springy, and no one feared a tumble.

James Hunter, the trumpet-tongued orator of Lucknow, announced results most satisfactorily, and in addition carried off prizes for sprinting and stilt racing. James is a character.

No fakirs were permitted on the grounds. A few operated in the village, and one or two attempted to gamble, and found several victims; but Reeve Bryan promptly sent the constables to suppress their operations under penalty of being locked up.

As the 56-pound weight competition was nearing completion the handle came away. Fortunately no one was hurt by the mishap.

One enthusiastic Scot danced on stilts to the music of the pipes.

Thos. May and George May, jun., the London dancers, go to live in Yonkers, N. Y., for a time soon.

The Lucknow Scotchmen own the Caledonian grounds. They have them planted round with poplars, and on the hillside there is a never-failing spring of water.

Warden Bryan makes as good a Scotchman as any of them. He is, however, above all things a Canadian.

The tug-of-war only lasted a couple of minutes. Ripley, the winner, had the advantage in point of muscle.

Mr. M. Dalton, a veteran Ashfield dancer, gave "points" to many younger devotees when he footed the strathspeys and reels.

A remarkable exhibition of heavy lifting was given by Welch, the iron-jawed man. With his teeth this individual picked up and hoisted off the platform filled quarter-kegs. He also lifted with his grinders a table on which a dozen chairs had been piled. Sam Coles, a colored athlete from Ashfield, essayed to duplicate the table-lifting, and managed to move the table and chairs an inch or two from the ground, but failed to sustain them as Welch had done. Coles claims that this was his first attempt, and that he can accomplish the feat after practice.

That the demonstration was a complete success is due in large measure to the earnest efforts of Chief J. C. Brown, Secretary P. A. Malcolmson, Treasurer D. R. McIntosh and Financial Secretary J. Murchison, of Albyn Camp, S. O. S.

Blood Poisoning

Mrs. Mary E. O'Fallon, a very intelligent lady of Paris, Ohio, was poisoned while assisting physicians at an autopsy 5 years ago, and soon terrible ulcers broke out on her head, arms, tongue and throat. Her hair all came out. Her husband spent hundreds of dollars without any benefit. She weighed but 78 pounds, and saw no prospect of help. At last she began to take Hood's Sarsaparilla and at once improved; could soon get out of bed and walk. She says, "I became perfectly cured by

It has been decided to appoint Dyson, of Guelph, for the west, and Collins, of Dundas, for the east, as umpires for the final games in the Canadian series.

The Central League championship is rather complicated just at present. The Victors, of Hamilton, have put in a claim to be awarded the game which they went to Toronto to play with the Dukes on Saturday, and the Athletics have claimed their game with the Park Nine, also by reason of alleged default. These two cases will have to be settled by the judicial committee of the league.

BILLIARDS.

TORONTO, Sept. 7.—The Roberts-Sutton English exhibition billiard match at the Academy of Art to-night lasted 1⅝ hours, in which time Roberts scored 1,001 and Sutton 238, the largest break being 144, made by Roberts. Roberts will play Sutton to-morrow, giving him 700 points.

YACHTING.

THE CUP DEFENDERS ON TRIAL.

SANDY HOOK, Sept. 7.—The first of the trial races between the cup defenders was sailed in a stiff wind and heavy sea off Sandy Hook to-day, and resulted in a victory for the Colonia by six seconds over the Vigilant, the Pilgrim and Jubilee both having become disabled and withdrawn at the start. The day was an ideal one for yacht racing, and no better conditions could be asked than those which were presented this morning. The second trial race will be sailed Saturday over a triangular course outside of Sandy Hook. The distance will be 30 miles, 10 miles to a leg.

YACHTING.

BRITANNIA RULES THE WAVES.

LONDON, Sept. 7.—The race for the international gold cup took place off the Isle of Wight to-day. The Britannia won, beating the Navahoe by three miles.

THE WHEEL.

Scotland is now talking of a licensing scheme for 1894.

Next season wooden rims will be used very extensively.

A. J. Watson, the English five-mile champion, has been winning some prizes at Malmos, Sweden.

Frenchmen will endeavor again to capture the 24-hour record at the Velodrome Buffalo, Paris, Sept. 16.

Fournier and Cassignard, the two French cracks, are great rivals. They are now matched to ride 5,000 meters for $500 a side.

J. W. Linneman, the American 100-mile champion, who promised the promoters of the Batavia meet that he would go for the 25-mile record, has changed his mind, but, provided he can get satisfactory pacing, he will attack the 50-mile record, which is held by Meintjes—2 hours 11 minutes 6 4-5 seconds.

The 50-mile Scottish championship was run at Dundee on the afternoon of Wednesday, Aug. 16, and ended in an unexpected win for C. Robertson, Dundee. Time, 2 hours 26 minutes 37 4-5 seconds. Early in the race the machines ridden by J. McLaren and R. A. Vogt, between whom the issue was supposed to lie, came to grief, and although they remounted and rode to the finish they failed to recover their lost ground.—[London Field.

G. E. Osmond, brother of F. G. Osmond, has displayed excellent form this season. On July 27 he all but accomplished the feat of riding 25 miles in the hour, being but four seconds outside that time. On the 17th inst. he rode two miles at Herne Hill against time. He covered the first mile in 2 minutes 10 seconds, and going remarkably well through the second mile accomplished the distance in the splendid time of 4 minutes 24 2-5 seconds, which is 12 3-5 seconds faster than the previous best on record.—[London Illustrated Sporting News.

LACROSSE.

SEAFORTH, Sept. 7.—A semi-final championship lacrosse match took place here today between Seaforth and Kincardine, resulting in favor of Seaforth by 6 to 0. The return match takes place at Kincardine on the 15th.

FELLED BY A FLASH.

A Seaforth Young Man Was Struck by Lightning—Living, But May Die.

SEAFORTH, Sept. 7.—During a severe thunder storm this morning a young man named Knight escaped instant death by lightning in a most miraculous manner. He was struck by a lightning bolt while watching the storm. He was knocked insensible. His face and body were badly burned and one boot torn off. His recovery is doubtful.

A FIRM IN TROUBLE.

The Junior Partner Accused of Overdrawing His Account $70,000.

TORONTO, Sept. 7.—Official Referee Cartwright, on behalf of James Cooper, of Cooper, Smith & Co., stayed the execution of $122,000 judgment against the firm of Cooper & Smith, boot and shoe makers. Mr. Cooper files an affidavit to the effect that no knowledge had been given him of any legal proceedings until judgment had been served. He further states that he had the books examined by Accountant W. H. Cross, who found that J. C. Smith, junior member of the firm, had overdrawn his account to the amount of $70,000. An enlargement was granted to allow cross-examination on affidavit.

QUICK RETRIBUTION.

An Orillia Robber Struck by a Train—The Theft.

ORILLIA, Ont., Sept. 7.—While Dan McPhee was returning home on Wednesday night from Strawberry Island he was attacked by three men and brutally pounded about the head. They took his watch and chain and about $3 in money. Two of them were arrested this afternoon. They also broke into Thomas McDermott's liquor store and stole two dozen quart bottles of whisky. The one at liberty, whose name was McDougall, was struck by the 3:30 train one mile south of Atherley, and is now lying in a critical condition. When searched it was found McDougall had McPhee's watch and chain. He had also three bottles of whisky in his pockets.

DISEASE AND DEATH IN IMPURE WATER.

An impure and contaminated water supply to any city or town is fraught with disease and death. An impure and sluggish supply of blood for the human system carries with it the seeds of disease. The blood represents life; how necessary, therefore, to have the great life stream pure and flowing naturally. Health, strength, vigor and long life depend upon the condition of the blood. Impure water shows itself in many forms, such as pimples, eruptions, sores, sallow skin, langor, and a worn-out and run-down system.

The only way to thoroughly enrich the blood and cause it to flow freely and naturally is to use Paine's Celery Compound. This precious medicine is vitalizing, purifying and enriching, and does a work that no other medicine can do. We think it unnecessary to enlarge upon the benefits of this wonderful life-giving medicine. It is too well-known to the public and to the medical faculty to require any boastful introduction. Its past record of wonderful cures is a complete guarantee of its honesty and power.

One Effect of the Trolley.

TORONTO, Sept. 7.—Mr. Maughan, the assessment commissioner, has been making his annual investigation in connection with the assessment returns. He is not able to give the exact figures, but reports that there is a substantial increase in population over last year. There are fewer empty houses in the city his year than last also, although many have gone up in the meantime. The decrease in vacant houses has been, however, in the outlying portions of the city, the number of those in the central wards having somewhat increased. This is attributed to the effect of the trolley cars.

TWELVE KILLED.

A Shocking Railway Accident Near South Chicago.

Two Trains Collide With Awful Results —Many Injured—The Names.

CHICAGO, Sept. 7.—A head-on collision between a milk train and the Chicago, Pittsburg and Fort Wayne Railway and the east bound passenger on the Panhandle, or Pittsburg, Cincinnati, Chicago and St. Louis Railway, killed twelve persons and injured many more this morning. The collision occurred on the "L" running from the main line just south of Colehour to East Hammond, Ind., at the point of a curve, and in a sparsely settled locality. The baggage car of the east bound passenger train was and from this most of the killed and injured were taken. The removal of the scene of the wreck from immediate police and surgical aid made the calamity a most distressing one, and it was more than an hour before most of those rescued, maimed and bleeding, could be carried to houses in Colehour and South Chicago for treatment. Physicians were summoned from the latter place, and engines were hastily prepared and rushed to the scene of the wreck.

THE DEAD.

The dead are: Anton Temple, manager of the Schiller Theater, Chicago, head crushed in; an unknown man with Manager Temple, probably an actor; Wm. Riguey, traveling passenger agent of the Wisconsin Central Railroad; G. A. Hines, Vincennes, Ind.; Wm. Shinock, New Albany, Ind.; Wm. Richards, Chicago; R. D. Adams, Fairfield, Ill.; A. R. Barnard, Terre Haute, Ind.; four unknown men.

THE INJURED.

Among the injured are: Charles Lichte, Knox county; Michael Bail, Louisville, Ky.; Wm. Brewer. The above will likely die.

Paul Serber, newsboy, foot crushed; Jas. Ickenberry, Camden, O., hurt about chest; Joseph Ball, Louisville, Ky., leg crushed, hip dislocated and internal injuries; Wm. Richter, Westforks, Ind., injured internally; Wm. J. Turner, Chicago, hurt about the head; Joseph Dillingslea, Clyde, O., legs crushed and internal injuries.

SHOT HIS LITTLE BROTHER.

A Sad Accident—One Aged 8, the Other 4.

RIGAUD, QUE., Sept. 7.—A terrible accident occurred here this afternoon, Victor, the 8-year-old son of Felix Jarry, wharfinger at the R. O. N. C. wharf, shot his brother Henry, aged 4, killing him instantly and scattering the little fellow's brains on the floor. The two were playing in a room when a man came in and left two guns, going out for a few minutes, leaving the children alone.

Want Big Damages.

TORONTO, Sept. 7.—An action to recover $30,000 for false arrest was to-day instituted against the Niagara Navigation Company and Joseph W. Chapman, a purser on the Cibola. The plaintiffs in the suit are three ladies, Bessie, Jennie and Hattie Scott, daughters of Alexander Scott, of Queenston. The alleged false arrest occurred in the early part of July, when at the instance of the above-named purser the defendants were detained at the custom house and handed over to a constable on suspicion of having stolen a purse from another passenger.

Society Event at Goderich.

GODERICH, Sept. 7.—A very enjoyable social event took place here yesterday in the marriage of Dudley Holmes, barrister, of the firm of Cameron, Holt & Holmes, to Mary, eldest daughter of the late John Y. Elwood, and grand-daughter of the late Archdeacon Elwood. Rev. Mark Turnbull, M.A., officiated, and the ceremony took place in St. George's Church. This handsome edifice was beautifully and profusely decorated with flowers and tropical plants, and was filled with invited guests and spectators. Miss Clara Slack was maid of honor, with Miss Edith Elwood, Miss Mary Malcolmson and Miss Mable Cameron as bridesmaids. Mr. John Elwood was groomsman, the ushers being Mr. Henry MacDermott, Dr. Hunter and Mr. Allen Seager, Conno and Groff Holt making two sweet little pages. After partaking of a recherche breakfast at the residence of the bride's mother and admiring the bridal presents, which in number and artistic beauty surpassed anything here before seen, the guests, with good wishes and showers of rice, parted from the happy couple, who left for the east to enjoy their honeymoon.

The Allan steamship Nestorian, from Boston for Glasgow, arrived out on Thursday morning with her 376 cattle in good order.

Great slaughter in all Trunks and Valises for this month. Note this! No idle talk, we have said it and we mean it, and for this month you can buy Trunks and Valises fully one-third cheaper than regular dealers have ever offered them before. We have a good assortment. Now is your opportunity.

At our Branch, 123 Dundas street, we have added a fine line of Silver-Plated Ware. We do not pretend to keep all quadruple plate, but it rests with you whether you will buy the best or cheaper quality. No danger of being deceived in quality of goods, and we can sell you much cheaper than regular dealers. Sheffield Silver-Plated Knives, 79c per half dozen, Rogers' best quality, 12 dwt., Silver-Plated Knives, $1 75, per half dozen.

We have just received over 100 cases foreign goods, bought direct of the manufacturers at the lowest prices spot cash could secure.

We doubt if ever in the past such grand opportunities were ever offered for the cash buyer to secure goods at such ruinously low prices as during the depressed state of the money market of the past few months.

We had the ready money, we secured great bargains, and we purpose to give our customers the benefit.

Will you avail yourselves of the opportunity?

Local Market Quotations.

Reported by A. M. Hamilton & Son.

LONDON, Sept. 7.

The only change in the grain line to-day occurred in new oats. There was an unusually heavy demand and only moderate receipts; sales were made up to 90c for choice black and 89c to 90c for white. No alteration in the price of wheat. Butter and eggs steady and unchanged. Musk melons sold from 30c to 80 per dozen, according to size; some of to-day's offerings were equal to a watermelon in size. Hay was a glut and full 50c lower per ton, selling at $8 to $8 50, and later on at $8. Quotations:

—Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Dandy, Detroit, are visiting Mrs. Dandy's mother, Mr. Mawby, Quebec street.

—Mr. David Andrews, Queen's avenue east, leaves in a day or so for the World's Columbian Exposition.

—Charles Crockett has withdrawn the charge of assault against Wm. Cooper before Squire Lacey and the case was settled.

—Mr. Geo. Chapman, formerly a resident of London, has disposed of his tailoring business at St. Marys to J. McGrath, of St. Thomas.

—A swarm of bees invaded the grocery store of George Loveless, Richmond street, a day or so ago, and drove out the inmates. Honey was the attraction.

—Travelers report that the rain storm of yesterday lasted for several hours in the neighborhood of Lucknow, Wingham and Clinton. Rain fell in torrents.

—The London Street Railway Company have carted about a carload of ties over to London West, and work on the electric road will be begun immediately.

—Arthur Platt and John Crawford, the two young men who were committed to jail for stealing pears from Farmer J. B. Lee, of Westminster, have been released on payment of costs and damages.

—Three young men, driving at a furious rate, ran into a dray on Dundas street last night. No one was hurt, but the horse the young men were driving struck the dray with great force. They whipped the brute and drove off.

—Building permits have been issued at the city engineer's office to D. J. Batzner and Wm. Clark for two-story brick houses on Waterloo street, and to R. Angus for a brick veneer residence on Princess avenue to cost $1,000.

—Mr. Thomas Chrysler, of the East End barber shop, and Miss Ada Bartlett, daughter of T. J. Bartlett, of Elizabeth street, called at the Centennial Methodist Church parsonage Wednesday. After a brief ceremony, conducted by the Rev. Mr. Philp, they went away, "no more twain, but one flesh."

—Mr. Herbert Woods, compositor in R. Southam's office, has just returned from his honeymoon. He left here last week for Mount Forest, and of course did not return alone. He was met at the station by a number of his friends and escorted to his home in London West, where they spent an enjoyable evening.

—Mr. Albert E. Reid, city, was married at Arthur Wednesday, to Miss. M. T. Drummond, of that place. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. Smith, and Fred W. Parkinson, city, stood up with the groom. The bride was supported by Miss Florence Drummond. The newly-wedded couple were tendered a reception at their home here in the evening.

—Mr. George Bonsford, sen., who live west of St. Thomas, fell off a small bridge on the M. C. R. about 10 o'clock Wednesday night, while on his way home. He received injuries that medical men pronounce fatal. Mr. Bonsford is the father-in-law of Thomas, A. Aitken, of the Central fire station here, and of Mr. H. Northey, Bruce street, South London. The former left for St. Thomas this morning. A dispatch since received states that Mr. Bonsford had since died.

—Guelph Mercury of Wednesday: The Rev. W. S. Ball, a former well-known pastor of Knox Church, Guelph, for a number of years, passed through the city today on his way to Toronto, where he will abide in future. Mr. Eall has been 46 years in the ministry of the Presbyterian church. During the 46 years of his ministry he never lost a day's service from ill-health. Mr. Ball is now 67 years of age, and although he has been put on the superannuated list, he is able to preach a vigorous sermon as heretofore, or face the guns of a foe, as he did during the Northwest rebellion. He was chaplain for the Thirtieth Battalion for many years, and was ever at his post, administering to the spiritual wants of the soldiers.

—At a meeting of the executive committee of the R. C. R. I. Society of Christian Endeavor, held recently in Victoria Hall, the following officers were elected for the ensuing term: President, H. Pratt; first vice-president, M. O'Connell; second vice-president, W. E. V. McMillan; recording secretary and treasurer, J. H. Hambly; corresponding secretary, R. McDermid. The following gentlemen were also elected as chairmen of the various committees: Lookout, W. H. Poole; prayer meeting, A. McPherson; temperance, W. D. Buckle; good literature, F. M. Brock.

—A patient was driving a rig belonging to the asylum, in company with a son of Dr. Bucke's, yesterday. He stopped in front of the postoffice, and descending, entered the building. His young companion also alighted, and left the vehicle without guardianship. Shortly afterward the horse, too, undertook to leave. It started down Queen's avenue at a gallop. At Dr. Woodruff's the buggy came into collision with a boulevard railing, and from that point almost down to the Methodist Church the palisade was completely demolished. The buggy was badly smashed. The horse escaped uninjured.

—A very pleasant time was spent on Tuesday evening in the London West Methodist Church, when the Women's Missionary Auxiliary of the church held their annual public meeting. Rev. B. Clement presided. The choir, under the able management of Mr. Max Armstrong, furnished excellent music. Reports were read by Mrs. J. B. Heritage. The results of contents of mite boxes, as given by Miss Deacon, showed the receipts for the year in advance of any previous one. Rev. John Saunby then held the attention of a deeply-interested audience for nearly an hour while he dwelt on the past and present of Japan, and presented its needs as only one could whose heart and life had come in touch with its condition. Hearty votes of thanks were tendered the lecturer and the choir at the close.

Struck by Lightning.

During the progress of the storm in this vicinity yesterday morning the house of Mrs. Mary G. Scott, a widow lady, residing at 569 Central avenue, was struck by lightning. The fluid entered the chimney and entirely demolished the stove. Several of the family were in the house at the time but escaped injury. Neighbors thought the house to be on fire, but when the smoke cleared away the damage was found to be comfined to the chimney and the stove.

Pond Mills Notes.

A Pond Mills correspondent writes: The farmers in the vicinity of Westminster are sowing very little fall wheat.—The Patrons of Industry at Pond Mills are arranging for a first-class concert to be held soon.—Mr. David Carroll, Westminster, had a narrow escape of his life lately. The bull attacked him, but luckily he had a pitchfork, which he used to the greatest advantage, breaking one of the prongs in the bull's nose, after which the bull retreated and David escaped unhurt.

Water Scarcity Again.

The scarcity of pumping power at Springbank is again making itself felt. The water has gone down eight feet in the reservoir, though the steam pumps have been working at their greatest capacity. The commissioners have ordered the water for street sprinkling to be taken from the river again. The drop is caused by unrestrained use of lawn hydrants, and also by the fact that the hydraulic pumps have been closed down for some time, owing to low water and repairs necessary to the dam. Engineer Findlay was enabled to start one of the hydraulics Wednesday night.

Osborn's Relatives Found.

Albert Osborne, London West, left Wednesday for Erie, Pa., in response to the telegram received by the local police respecting the death of Alfred Osborn there. Mr. Osborn believes that the man mentioned is his father. Another son, Walter, also resides in London West, while the only daughter, Mrs. Wm. Dyson, lives on Dundas street east. Arthur Osborn, Wingham, is another son, and two more are in Australia. It is eight years since the father resided on Palace street in London, later in London West. He lived in Detroit for a while after leaving this city. The remains will be brought home this morning.

Where is Mr. Morkill?

Bostonians are somewhat worried over the disappearance of Mr. Nelson A. Morkill, for one season local manager of the Grand Opera House of this city. Mr. Morkill disappeared on the day before he was to have started, with his wife, for the World's Fair. Telegrams have been sent here asking if he had been seen in London. Mr. Morkill left London to act as manager for John Stetson, the well known theatrical magnate of Boston. He was afterwards made manager of Mr. Stetson's drygoods store, and lately had gone back to the stage. His accounts are all right, and foul play is suspected. Mr. Morkill was born in Sherbrooke, Que., where his parents reside and where he was married.

A Domestic Drama.

The second portion of a three-act domestic drama was enacted in the Police Court yesterday. The inaugural scenes, consisting of squabbles between Mrs. Liza Watson and her husband, and of Bacchanalian revels on the part of the former, were given a reflex production through the description of Mr. Frank Love. The second act comprised the conviction of Mr. Watson on a charge of drunkenness. Sentence was suspended. The act of climax will be found in a suit for alimony which the unfortunate woman mentioned has entered against her spouse.

John Wesley was arraigned on three charges of larceny. His career of crime has been for one so young alarmingly extended. He has only been in the country a few weeks, but, according to his own statement, he is familiarly acquainted with the interior of English reformatories. He was sent to Canada from one of these. Two months in jail was the judgment registered.

George Moore and Thos. McLogan, two alleged vagrants, also appeared. The former was discharged, while the latter was released on suspended sentence.

Local Legal at Osgoode Hall.

Meredith vs. Wennesheimer.—E. R. Cameron (London), for the plaintiff, moved for judgment for immediate sale in a mortgage action. F. W. Harcourt for the infants. Granted.

Re Chittick vs. Stone and Wellington.—E. R. Cameron (London), for the plaintiff, moved for an order prohibiting the enforcement of an order of the county judge of Middlesex transferring this action from the Seventh Division Court in the county of Middlesex to a Division Court in the county of York, the plaintiff contending that the whole cause of action arose within the territory of the Seventh Division Court of Middlesex, and that the judge had therefore no jurisdiction to order a transfer. Neville, for the defendants, contra. Order made for prohibition with costs, the learned judge holding in the facts and law that the whole cause arose in the Seventh Division Court of Middlesex.

Davis vs. Johnson—D. Armour, for the defendant, appealed from an order of one of the local judges at Chatham under rule 739, allowing the plaintiff to sign judgment for part of his claim and allowing the defendant to defend for the balance. W. M. Douglas, for the plaintiff, contra. Appeal dismissed with costs.

Tory Tariff Reform.

The Government had in the past been a protectionist Government. They were running protection into the ground in the United States, and in Canada also. At the last session they had inaugurated a tariff reform movement. Formerly the people of Newmarket could bring in coal oil in barrels only. Now, as a result of the Government's tariff reform, they were permitted to bring it in in tanks. In tanks, and they called that tariff reform! The people of Canada had been told that protection legislation would make them rich. Had it done that here in North York? Protection after all was only prevention. It would not raise, but it would depress, and had depressed affairs in Canada more than anything else, more than any plague that ever afflicted Canada.—[Dr. Lauderkin at Newmarket.

THIS is the Ethiopian's favorite season of the year, for the luscious melons, with their golden and bright red, juicy hearts, are now "dead" ripe. The fruit is of two varieties, which, for distinction, are termed watermelon and muskmelon, or canteloupe. The former is a native of either Central Africa or India, which is not known. Its scientific name is citrullus vulgaris, and it is the melon of Scripture. The canteloupe received its peculiar name from the villa of Canteluppi, near Rome, from whence missionaries carried the seeds to Armenia and many parts of Europe. Egyptians cultivate it extensively and use it as a medicine in cases of fever. It is of the same family, cucurbitaccae, as the cucumber and gourd. A wide-awake statistician has estimated that 150,000,000,000 melons are grown every year in the United States alone, and the melon is a favorite fruit of all nations, civilized and savage.

EUROPE'S TWENTY MILLION SOLDIERS.

[From the London Daily News.]

It is estimated by Major General Tyrrell that whereas at the time of the Crimean war, the last European struggle in which this country was engaged, the aggregate strength of the armies of the great powers of Europe did not exceed 3,000,000 in round numbers, to-day it is more than 20,000,000.

Without including the final reserves, and only reckoning those men who have been thoroughly trained as soldiers and are liable for service beyond the frontiers, Russia has in round numbers 5,000,000 of men, France and Germany 4,000,000, Austria 2,500,000, and Italy 2,000,000. And these numbers are being continually increased. Very lately France, by lengthening the duration of liability to service from a period of 20 to 25 years, made an enormous addition to her military strength and the present German Army Bill contemplates a large increase in the numbers of the German army.

HIS REPENTANCE.

She went to the bedroom and brought down Dr. Davenal's desk. To Edward's surprise, he saw that it was bound round with a broad tape and sealed. When Sara had placed the papers in the desk, received from Mr. Alfred King, she had immediately sealed up the desk in this manner; a precaution against its being opened.

"What's that for?" exclaimed Captain Davenal, in his quick way, as he recognized the desk and to whom it had belonged. "Did my father leave it so?"

Sara replied by telling him her suspicions of the desk's having been opened; and that she had deemed it well to secure it against any further inroads when once those papers were inclosed in it.

"But who would touch the desk?" he asked. "For what purpose? Was young Dick home at the time?"

"Dick was not at home. But Dick would not touch a desk. I would not answer for Dick where a jam cupboard is concerned; but in anything of consequence Dick is as honorable as the day. I suspected Neal, Edward."

"Neal!"

"I did. I feel ashamed to say so. Do you remember telling me that papa had a suspicion, or doubt, whether Neal had not visited some of his letters?"

"I remember it. I thought my father was wrong. Neal! Why, Sara, I'd as soon suspect myself."

"Well, I can only tell you the truth—that when I found cause to fear this desk had been surreptitiously opened my doubts turned to Neal. You see we have no one about us but him and Dorcas; and Dorcas I am certain is trustworthy. But I admit that it was in consequence of what you told me that I cast any doubt on Neal. However it may have been, I deemed it well to secure the desk afterwards."

She had been opening the desk as she spoke, and she took from it a sealed packet and handed it to Captain Davenal. He opened it at once, and glanced over its contents, two or three papers, one by one, slightly drawing in his lips.

"What a shame!" he burst forth.

She did not like to ask questions. She only looked at him.

"That they should have bled my father in this manner! Scoundrels! I was away, therefore the game was in their own hands. Did you read these papers, Sara?"

"I was obliged to read them, to see that they tallied with copies papa left. He left written instructions that I should do so."

"To whom was the money paid?"

"To Mr. Alfred King. Don't you see the receipts?"

"I'd walk ten miles before breakfast any morning to see that fellow hanged. It's what he'll come to."

"He told me that he and you had once been friends," she said, in a half whisper.

"And so we were. I believed in the fellow; I had no suspicion that he was a villain, and I let him draw me into things from which I could not extricate myself. I was a fool and I had to pay for it."

In Sara's inmost heart there arose unbidden a rebellious thought; that others had had to pay for it; not Captain Davenal.

"Did it affect my father's health, this business?" he inquired, in a low tone.

"I fear it did," she replied, feeling that she could not avoid the confession. "I am sure it affected him mentally. There was a great change in him from that night."

Captain Davenal folded the papers slowly and pushed them into his waistcoat pocket in his usual careless manner. "What a fool I was!" he muttered; "and what a rogue was the other!"

"Are they safe there, Edward?"

"Safe enough until I get home. They will be burnt then, except this final receipt. Oh, if my father had but lived! I could at least have repaid him his pecuniary loss. It took all he left behind him, I suppose, to satisfy it?"

"Yes; all."

"He told me he feared it would, or nearly all, in the letter he wrote me when he was dying. Did things realize well?"

"No, very badly. There was not enough to satisfy the claim by two hundred pounds. Finally, Aunt Bettina advanced that."

"Does she know of this?" he exclaimed, in a startled tone.

"No, I kept it from her. It was difficult to do, but I contrived it."

"You are a brave girl, my sister! I don't know who would have acted as you have! All this trouble upon you, and never to worry me with it in your letters!—never to ask me for money to help in the need!"

"I thought you had none to give," she simply said.

"True enough; I had none. But most sisters would have asked for it. I shall repay, at once, Aunt Bettina; I shall repay more gradually, to you, the half of what my father possessed before this trouble was brought by me upon him. What do you say?—my wife's money! Tush, child! do you know the amount of the fortune we have come into? Compared to that, it will be but a drop of water in the ocean. If I did not repay it to you, she would."

Sara looked up.

"My wife knows all. I told her every word."

"Oh, Edward! Before your marriage?"

"Not before. I suppose I ought to have done so, but it would have taken a greater amount of moral courage than I possessed. I couldn't risk the losing her. I told her partially a short time after our marriage; the full particulars I did not give her until last night."

Last night! Sara was surprised.

"She fell in love with you yesterday, Sara, and I thought it well to let her know what you really were—how true you had been to me."

Sara was silent. It was in her nature to be true; and, as she believed, it was in her nature to be able to suffer.

"There were times when I felt tempted to wish I had stayed at home and battled with it,' resumed Captain Davenal, after a pause. "But in that case the scandal would have gone forth to the world. As it was, no living being knew of it, save you and my father."

"And Mr. Alfred King," she said. Another name also occurred to her, but she did not mention it—that of Oswald Cray.

"Alfred King? Sara, my dear, I don't care to enter into particulars with you, but he was with me in the mess; more morally guilty, though less legally so, than I was. He has never told it, I can answer for, for his own sake."

"He always spoke to me of being only a sort of agent in the affair," she said. "He intimated that the money was due to other parties."

"Was due from him, then. But it is over and done with; let it drop. And now, Sara, you must allow me to ask you a personal question; are you still engaged to Oswald Cray?"

The demand was so unexpected, the subject so painful, that Sara felt the life-blood leave her heart for her face. "I am not engaged to Oswald Cray," she said in a low tone. "I—I cannot say that I ever was engaged to him!"

A pause. "But surely there was some attachment!"

"A little; in the old days. It is very long ago, now. How did you know of it?"

"Oswald Cray himself told me. It was the evening we went up town together after Caroline's wedding. He knew I was going out immediately with the regiment, and he gave me a hint of how it was between you. Only a hint; nothing more. I suppose—I suppose," more slowly added Captain Davenal, "that this miserable business of mine broke it off. I conclude when Oswald found, at my father's death, that you had no money he declined the compact. It's the way of the world."

"Not so. No. I do no think money or the want of it would have any influence on Oswald Cray. In this case it certainly had not. We had parted before papa died."

"What, then, was the cause, Sara?"

Sweeter Than Honey is the Honeycomb

"What in life is half so sweet,
As the hour when lovers meet?"

Nothing is sweeter to the youthful and robust in health, but, alas! too many "Court in poetry and live in prose" after marriage. This is especially true of the wives whose changed relations bring on weaknesses and derangements peculiar to married women, so that their lives become "prosy." To all such, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a great boon. It cures weak backs, headaches, neuralgic and "bearing-down" pains, displacements and irregularities of the female organs. It is likewise a restorative and invigorating tonic, strengthening the nerves and imparting new life to the tired and debilitated, bringing back the "roses to the cheek," and the "rainbows to the eyes." Sold by all druggists under guarantee from its makers of satisfaction in every case, or price ($1) refunded.

A Wonderful Cure.—Mr. David Smith, Coe Hill, Ont., writes: "For the benefit of others I wish to say a few words about Northrop & Lyman's VEGETABLE DISCOVERY. About a year ago I took a very severe cough, had a virulent sore on my lips, was bad with dyspepsia, constipation and general debility. I tried almost every conceivable remedy, outwardly and inwardly, to cure the sore but all to no purpose. I had often thought of trying Northrop & Lyman's VEGETABLE DISCOVERY, so I got a bottle and when I had used about one half the sore showed evident signs of healing. By the time that bottle was done it had about disappeared and my general health was improving fast. I was always of a very bilicus habit and had used quinine and lemon juice with very little affect. But since using three bottles of the VEGETABLE DISCOVERY the biliousness is entirely gone and my general health is excellent. I am 60 years old. Parties using it should continue it for some time after they think they are cured. It is by far the best health restorer I know." 3

STATIONARY ENGINEERS.

Annual Convention in Montreal—Favorable Progress.

MONTREAL, Sept. 7.—The fourth annual convention of the Canadian Association of Stationary Engineers of the Dominion opened this morning. Delegates were present from Toronto, Hamilton, London, Brantford, Guelph, Ottawa, Dresden, Belleville and Montreal. Opening the convention, the president, Mr. A. E. Edkins, remarked that the progress of the association had been most favorable. A great many manufacturers employed engineers of the association on the recommendation of the board. The different reports were received and adopted. To-night the engineers hold an open meeting. To-morrow they run the rapids, and in the evening will be tendered a banquet by the members of Montreal, No. 1. Meetings of the association will be held on the 8th, 9th and 10th.

LOVE'S LABOR LOST.

Lawsuit to Get a Bride—After Bringing Her From Europe She Loved the Other Fellow.

POTTSTOWN, Pa., Sept. 7.—The pranks of lively Cupid nearly drove a lover from Phœnixville distracted, but pluck won, and he got the bride in the end. W. Zalleski, a resident of the "iron town," was deep in love with a pretty Polish girl. He came to this country, accumulated a snug sum, and then sent enough money to his sweetheart to bring her from Europe. When the girl landed she met Joseph Toiesti, of this place, and her heart was soon his captive. It is alleged that she ran away with her new lover, and then Zalleski had Toieski arrested for alienating the affections of his promised bride.

Zalleski had already procured a marriage license and was all ready for the wedding as soon as his sweetheart set foot in this country. He carried the license about with him, and when he appeared in the office of Justice of the Peace Graham to testify against Toieski he showed his marriage license. This so overcome the girl that she at once repented and consented to an immediate wedding with her old lover, Zalleski, as groom. And the couple were married by the justice, after the case against Toieski had been withdrawn.

PAPINEAU'S PROTESTANTISM.

His Reasons for Leaving the Catholic Church—Not a Matter of Money.

OTTAWA, Sept. 7.—An interview is published by the Journal with Louis Joseph Papineau at Montebello, in which that son of the great French-Canadian Liberal, while refusing to give details of the causes which have led him to join the Protestant church, says that they are not of recent origin, and that it was not merely on account of a heavy assessment for the proposed new Catholic church at Montebello. He said: "I have my reasons for leaving the church, and in due time will make them public. As far as the question of money is concerned, I do not consider myself in any way in debt to the church. My family built the church they are now seeking to rebuild, and we have given our money freely to repair it. But the church question had nothing to do with my change of religion, as I had made up my mind to a change before the rebuilding of the church was spoken of. I will publish a letter soon giving my reasons."

Mr. Papineau, who is over 70 years, has been under the ban of the church for years in consequence of maintaining his connection with the excommunicated Institute Canadien of Montreal.

HE STANDS BY THE FARMERS.

I believe that the Canadian manufacturer can compete with the American manufacturer. Mr. Cane is willing to accept such competition, and other manufacturers, too, if they are allowed to compete with American manufacturers on American soil. But the Government say that they would not give reciprocity to the farmer in natural products, because they say that while it would be an advantage to the farmer, reciprocity in manufactured goods would not be to the advantage of the manufacturers. I do not admit it; but suppose it is true. Let us suppose it, and let me argue the matter to all here, Conservatives and Liberals alike, and let us discuss the situation calmly. Let us suppose that it is true that reciprocity with the United States would be to the disadvantage of the manufacturers, but would be to the advantage of the farmers; then the position is this: that we have to take our choice between the agriculturists on the one side and the manufacturers on the other side. I do not admit that the choice is true; but if it be true that any party has to make this choice between the agriculturists on the one side and the manufacturers on the other, let me say, my choice is made. I stand by the farmers of Canada. And let me tell you that in speaking as I do now I do not come here as a demagogue to flatter your passions. I do not speak thus because I am addressing at this moment a meeting of farmers. I said this fifteen days ago in Montreal to an assembly of workingmen. I said this because the farmers represent 75 per cent. of the population of Canada, because the farmers are the basis of prosperity, because without them the country would not be prosperous. We could live for months without professional men, without doctors, perhaps without lawyers—(laughter)—but we could not live without the farmers at all. And therefore it comes to this, that if as leader of a party I have to make my choice as between the farmers and the manufacturers, my choice is made. What I have said I will say again, and I will stand by the farmers, because they are the very basis, the bone and sinew of our prosperity. The Government would not accept the proposition of Mr. Blaine, who wanted to give us reciprocity in agricultural products; they would not include in a treaty some few articles of manufactured goods.—[Hon. Wilfrid Laurier at Newmarket.

Castoria.

"Castoria is an excellent medicine for children. Mothers have repeatedly told me of its good effect upon their children."
DR. G. C. OSGOOD,
Lowell, Mass.

"Castoria is the best remedy for children of which I am acquainted. I hope the day is not far distant when mothers will consider the real interest of their children, and use Castoria instead of the various quack nostrums which are destroying their loved ones, by forcing opium, morphine, soothing syrup and other hurtful agents down their throats, thereby sending them to premature graves."
DR. J. F. KINCHELOE,
Conway, Ark.

Castoria.

"Castoria is so well adapted to children that I recommend it as superior to any prescription known to me."
H. A. ARCHER, M. D.,
111 So. Oxford St., Brooklyn, N. Y.

"Our physicians in the children's department have spoken highly of their experience in their outside practice with Castoria, and although we only have among our medical supplies what is known as regular products, yet we are free to confess that the merits of Castoria has won us to look with favor upon it."

THIS DAY IN HISTORY.

September 8.

ARIOSTO.

70—Jerusalem was taken by the Romans; Josephus says 1,100,000 Jews perished, and Tacitus says 600,000, but the number could not possibly have exceeded 300,000.

1397—Thomas, duke of Gloucester, seventh son of Edward III, was foully murdered by order of his nephew, Richard II.

1474—Ariosto, poet, born near Modena; died 1533.

1560—Amy Robsart, wife of the Earl of Leicester, was murdered by his order.

1644—Francis Quarles, the leading poet just preceding Dryden, died.

1650—The Princess Elizabeth died in Carisbrooke castle, largely of grief for her father, Charles I; born 1635.

1828—General George Crook born at Dayton, O.; died 1891.

1869—William Pitt Fessenden, statesman, died at Portland, Me.; born 1806.

1890—Beginning of the great strike of dock laborers and others at Southampton, England; much rioting and destruction followed.

1891—The City of New York, steamer, crossed from Queenstown in 5 days, 22 hours and 50 minutes.

LONDON AND ENVIRONS.

—Ald. J. W. Jones, auctioneer, disposed of the household effects of Dr. F. P. Drake yesterday.

—Mr. Justice Meredith and Mr. and Mrs. T. G. Meredith are guests at the Windsor, Montreal.

—About 200 people took in the Port Stanley excursion yesterday. Next Thursday's will be the last.

—Capt. Clark's celebrated Guelph classes, "The Daughters of the Regiment," will attend the Western Fair, London.

—Popular prices at the opening of the season of the Grand Opera House to-night. "Held in Slavery" is the attraction for two nights and matinee.

—Lieutenant Wm. McLean, of Brockville, late of London Infantry School, has been spending a few days at Mr. J. M. Corneil's.—[Glencoe Transcript.

—Mrs. H. C. McBride, of this city, attended the recent wedding at Ottawa of her sister, Miss Clara Mutchmor, to Mr. Charles S. Clark, of the British Bank Note Company.

—The last monthly meeting of the trustees of the Protestant Orphans' Home was well attended. They very gratefully acknowledge a check of $100, a bequest of the late Henry Mathewson, which was placed in the endowment fund.

—Miss Mabel Fortner, of 546 Pall Mall street, returned home after spending her vacation at Toronto, Niagara, St. Catharines and other eastern cities. Miss Mamie Fortner was unable to take her part at the harvest home at Putman last evening.

—The police were called last night to the residence of Mr. J. C. Judd, South London, where burglars were supposed to be trying to commence operations. Upon investigation, however, it was found that all was right, and the services of the police were not required.

Opera House To-Night.

Walter N. Lawrence will direct the production of one of the strongest dramatic plays that will be seen the coming season. "Held in Slavery," a nautical melodrama by Martin Hayden, will be presented with special scenery, electric and mechanical effects and a host of incidental novelties at the Grand to-night and to-morrow afternoon and evening. The company is the best procurable from the ranks of New York favorites, each artist being selected for his or her especial fitness and adaptability to the work required of them.

There will be quite a number of songs, dances, amusing specialties, and no end of genuine comedy introduced to relieve the melodramatic and pathetic incidents in the play, thus making a combination of mirth, music, song and sentiment. The scenery carried with the company will be very elaborate, painted by Clare at Niblo's Garden, New York. A storm at sea, with rainfall of real water, lighthouse and moving sail boat, and a thrilling interior fire scene, during which the house falls in ruins, will prove revelations of stage mechanism. "Held in Slavery" will be produced at reduced prices of admission of 15c, 25c, 35c and 50c.

No. 2 Committee, B. of E.

No. 2 committee of the Board of Education met last night, with D. W. Blackwell in the chair. The other trustees present were: Messrs. Turner, Anderson, Dewar, Jeffrey, Martin, Principal Merchant, Inspector Perry and Secretary McElheran. The question of a hydrant at Maple avenue school was laid over. A slate blackboard will be put in Miss Adcock's room at the Rectory street school. A fence will be built between the Queen's avenue kindergarten property and that adjoining. A great deal of talk was indulged in over the location of the fountain and walks at the High School. The matter was referred to Messrs. D. W. Blackwell, Merchant, Dewar and Jeffrey. The fences and sidewalks will be repaired at the Colborne street school. A new clock will also adorn the wall. Tenders will be called for the repairing of the gymnasium at the Collegiate Institute. Inspector Carson will report where side blackboards are required in the city schools. Mr. David Murray wrote to the committee questioning the letting of a certain tender, and insinuating that Chairman Blackwell had shown partiality with reference to it. The following motion was passed relating thereto, namely:

"That no action be taken in reference to letter of David Murray, as the matters in question were dealt with by this committee as a whole, and was not the individual action of the chairman."

The Board of Works.

Mr. Orme some time ago asked the Board of Works to build a sewer on English street from Dundas street to Carling's Creek. The sewer was duly advertised, and afterwards, as there was no contra petition, it was ratified by the court of revision. At last night's meeting of the Board of Works a largely signed petition against the sewer was received. The names attached were: T. Sargent, A. Gibling, D. Hardey, M. Martin, J. Cripps, George Taylor, R. Fish, G. Welford, C. Peares, S. Henville, J. D. Smith, Eliza Watson, Mary Leathorn, Mrs. L. E. Dicker, M. Higman, William Chamberlain and Miss Skinner. Messrs. Sargent and Cripps acted as spokesmen of the petition. They did not want to be burdened, they said, with the expense of a drain that would nominally increase the value of one man's property at the expense of the ratepayers on English street. Messrs. Ward, Martin, Galpin and Saunders were also present in favor of the drain, receiving one large enough was put down. A great deal of talking was done on both sides and the whole matter was left to the assessment commissioner to arbitrate.

John Young, liveryman, sent in a claim for damages done to a buggy at the corner of Pall Mall and Wellington streets on Monday last. The letter was referred to the engineer. The pay sheet amounted to $288 22. Those present were: Ald. Garratt (chairman), the mayor, Dreaney, Shaw, Thos. Jones, Coo, Engineer Graydon, Commissioner Owens and Secretary Bell.

Western Fair Directors.

The directors of the Western Fair Association met yesterday afternoon. Capt. Porte, president; Thos. A. Browne, secretary; and Messrs. Geo. Taylor, A. M. Smart, J. S. Pearce, D. G. McKenzie, Col. Lewis, Ald. Pritchett, Chas. Trebilcock, Wm. Yates, J. Hook, John Kennedy and Rowat were present.

The secretary reported that there was no judge for Holsteins and Ayrshires. John Corrie, of Ingersoll, will be asked to fill the vacancy. Mr. Higby, on behalf of the city cabmen, asked what would be charged them to enter the grounds with passengers. Filed.

The platforms adjoining the G. T. R. at the south of the grounds will be repaired.

W. W. Buchanan, Hamilton, requested space on the grounds for a tent in which to exhibit temperance literature during the fair. Granted.

The Bell Telephone Company agreed to loan the directors poles to be used in the special attractions, on the understanding that in case of accident they will not be made defendants in any suit.

The Seventh Fusiliers' Band tendered their services for afternoon and evening engagements at the fair. They will be engaged as usual.

Mr. Taylor reported that the grand stands had been examined and found in satisfactory condition.

A check will be drawn on the trust account and the mortgage on the grounds will be paid off.

The patients of the Asylum for the Insane will be admitted as heretofore.

THEY KNEW ALL ABOUT IT.

So They Blew Out the Gas—One Dies and the Other Comes Near It.

TORONTO, Sept. 7.—Mr. Outhwaite, a plasterer of Shelburne, who, accompanied by Robert Carr, farmer, of the same place, came here to visit the exhibition, lost his life through blowing out the gas in a bedroom of the Peacock Hotel, Toronto Junction. The two men engaged a room on Wednesday and returned about 10 o'clock. The proprietor showed them how the gas was turned off and was told they knew all about it. Early yesterday morning, when the men failed to appear, the door was forced open, and Outhwaite, who is 38 years of age, was found dead in bed, suffocated by gas, while Carr was unconscious. Drs. Gilmour, Clendinning and Harris worked for a long time upon both men, and succeeded in restoring Carr.

A MOTHER'S EXPERIENCE WITH A POPULAR FOOD.

A lady recently made a very significant statement; she said: "When any of my children are indisposed, cut-of-sorts and cannot relish their regular meals, I always commence feeding them with Lactated Food, which they seem to relish. The Lactated Food seems to tone and strengthen the weak stomach, and quickly corrects every irregularity in digestion. I have pursued this course for several years, and have never had occasion to call in a physician."

Thousands of mothers in Canada have had the same experience with Lactated Food. It has become such a valuable agent in the family that a supply is constantly kept on hand. The baby and young children thrive amazingly when fed with it; and never require to be dosed with medicine, as children have to be when fed with the common foods of the day.

Mothers, do not fail to use Lactated Food; it will make your babies hearty, happy and healthy.

People all are speaking extra well of the curing properties of Duncombe's Dark Pills for Indigestion and Dyspepsia (so will you.)
