ARE AFTER MORE CLEWS

It is Expected that receiver of Stolen Horses Will Be Captured

Local Officer Dezella Deserves Much Credit For Clever Work

For the past few days it has been practically a game of hide-and-seek between the local newspaper reporters and the detectives who have been working on the horse-stealing case. The latter were anxious that the findings should be kept a secret till they got the mystery cleared up, and until to-day they were successful in keeping out of the range of the newspapermen. It will be remembered, however, that The Planet was first on the ground with the story of the stealing of Dr. MacFarlane's horses, and published the details a day previous to any other newspaper, and before the sleuths of the law were on the scent. A further account of the capture and preliminary hearing given Yott will be found in another column of to-day's issue.

To-day a Planet reporter waylaid Provincial Detective Reaburn, near the Police Court. "I have been dodging you the last couple of days," was the cheerful confession of the sleuth from Toronto. The authorities are not giving out any information, but it is confidentially expected that another man will be rounded up before nightfall. This will probably be the receiver of the stolen horses. It is further understood that Yott has made a confession admitting his guilt.

A great deal of the credit for the capture of Yott should go to Officer Peter Dezella, of this city. The bulk of the information on which the detectives worked was supplied by the shrewd local officer, whom Crown-Attorney D. H. Smith described to look after the local end of the work as soon as the robbery was reported. Officer Dezella and Detective Reaburn kept in touch with Detective Campeau, of Windsor, and he, in turn, supplied them with what information he picked up in the border city. In this way evidence was secured, on which the Crown authorities hope to base a conviction.

AGE LIMIT IS CHANGED

Department of Education Issues Circular Re Model School

Candidates Who Were Refused Admittance May Now Attend

The following circular, in reference to the admission to County Model Schools for the season of 1907, has been received from the Department of Education, Toronto, by J. W. Plevins, Principal of the Chatham Model School, and H. W. G. Colles, Inspector for East Kent.

For the present session of the County Model Schools, and not thereafter, County Boards may admit pupils who are qualified non-professionally as prescribed in Regulation 59, and who will be eighteen years of age on or before August the 17th, 1908. Certificates of qualification as Public School Teachers shall, however, not be issued to such candidates until they are of the legal age, nor shall a County Board have authority to admit any other candidates than those qualified as above.

R. A. PYNE,
Minister of Education,
Education Department, Toronto,
Sept. 9th, 1907.

Those who were under age were denied admission on the opening day of the Kent County Model School. These may now attend.

AUDIENCE TAKEN IN

Schubert Symphony Club Was Not up to The Standard

Thomas Purcell, Violinist, Was The One Star Attraction

The Schubert Symphony Club, which performed in the Borden Opera House last evening, was a disappointment to the small but select audience, who had gone expecting to hear something out of the ordinary. The concert was under the auspices of the Ladies' Assisting Society, the members of which were as badly taken in as any person in the Opera House. It is unfortunate that the ladies who brought this entertainment to Chatham did not know of the real merits of the production, for there are people who are loyal enough to the hospital to purchase tickets for any entertainment recommended in aid of this worthy institution. It is hardly fair that these people should be "held up" as they were last evening.

The Schubert Symphony Club should be called a guitar and mandolin club—and a poor one at that. The one lone man, who is a member of the club, was the only redeeming feature to the whole production, and he was exceptionally good as a violin and mandolin soloist. He played a mandolin when the "Symphony" Club performed, and the rest of the players were easily sized up when once or twice he stopped playing in order to tune up his instrument. There were two guitars and three mandolins. One guitar made considerable noise, but, although the other fair maiden who held a guitar in her lap went through some of the motions, the sounds of her instrument were faint and indistinct. Sort of "double piano."

It was plainly evident that the high soprano was suffering from a severe cold, and on this account she should be excused. Barring this unfortunate circumstance, however, she had a pleasing voice, and, under favorable conditions, would have done herself credit.

One member of the company rendered what was termed a contralto solo, which turned out to be a high soprano voice, sung an octave down. This wouldn't have been so bad if the accompaniment had only been changed to suit her voice. The high treble accompaniment made the voice sound coarse and harsh.

The electioneer's first number was good, and thoroughly appreciated. After that her selection was at fault. If she had had anything better she should have given it, for the audience last night was cultured enough to appreciate her best. Her dialect was poor.

There was also a ladies' quartette. It looked very much as if this was why the Symphony Club was formed; the members of the quartette picking up a few notes on string instruments in order to fill in sufficient numbers to make up a full program. Their selections were good, but, as they were Chatham audiences are exceptionally hard for visitors to please owing to the fact that we have in the Maple City a ladies' quartette which is not excelled by many of the best on the American concert stage.

The violinist, Thomas Purcell, was the star attraction. Those who did not know too much about violin playing knew he was good because he wore his medals on his coat lapel. His playing was indeed exceptionally brilliant and fascinating. He is an artist of seemingly unlimited ability, and he took his audience by storm upon his first appearance.

The house netted about $60. The company took away about $40, so that, after the rent of the Opera House is paid, there will not be much to the credit of the hospital.

HAD A FINE TIME

Messrs. Drum Aitken, Claud Brundage, and John B. Smith have returned from Cleveland, after attending the cricket match between Detroit and Cleveland. Aitken and Brundage were prominent players in the game, and also in the game with Akron. Detroit won from Akron with a score of 159 to 47. This last game finished the series of the Middle West Cricket League. Detroit and Pittsburgh are tie, each having won five games out of eight. The league is formed from the following teams—Cleveland, Akron, Pittsburgh, Youngstown, and Detroit. The game to play off the tie between Detroit and Pittsburgh will be played on neutral grounds, and it is expected to be played in Cleveland.

Brundage is reported to have given the finest exhibition of cricket playing that has ever been known to the D.A.C. Club. He has to his credit an average of twenty-five runs per innings, having made 175 runs in 7 innings. This is the highest average in the Middle West League. "Bunny" is thus awarded the medal. Dr. Biggar, of Cleveland, entertained the players to a fine banquet at the Colonial Hotel. This was indeed a great pleasure to the players, as the Doctor is one of Cleveland's most distinguished personages, being John D. Rockefeller's private physician.

PRAISE FOR MR. CLEMENTS

He Is Assiduous In Promoting Interests of his Constituency

So Says The Toronto News, Independent—Tribute to Bowyer

The Toronto News Independent, in the report of the Borden meetings at Chatham, says—

"A corner may be found for the speech by Mr. Clements, the member for West Kent. Mr. Clements is assiduous in promoting the interests of his constituency, and his speech dealt with local questions, such as the protection of agricultural products, which in Kent seems something of an issue, the shutting out of American hops, and a severely local issue—the interchangeability of Grand Trunk and Wabash tickets on that line of the Grand Trunk, the old Great Western, which is leased to the Wabash; apparently some irritation has been caused by one road refusing the other's tickets. Incidentally Mr. Clements denounced bounties."

"Mr. P. H. Bowyer, the Conservative member for the Ontario House, in an admirably brief speech, said: 'I have read Mr. Borden's platform, and am personally thoroughly in accord with it. I desire to make special reference to the progressive plank, to me very dear; I mean those which can in the direction of the public ownership of public utilities.' That little speech may be taken as a model. Mr. Bowyer selected the newest and boldest features of his leader's policy—expressed his adhesion to it and his pleasure at seeing it in the platform—and sat down. Furthermore, the crowd showed interest in, and approved of, Mr. Borden's exposition of the Radical plank in his platform."

A CLEVER CAPTURE

George Yott Suspected Of Dover Horse Thieving Is Arrested

He Was Brought Here And Case Is Adjourned For A Week

One of the cleverest captures in the criminal history of Western Ontario has just been accomplished by three of the shrewdest police officers in the Province, in the arrest of George Yott, alleged horse thief, on whose tracks Provincial Detectives Rayburn, of Toronto, and Campeau, of Windsor, along with Officer Peter Dezella, of this city, have been following swiftly the past few days.

Crown Prosecutor H. D. Smith naturally feels quite elated over the capture, which was accomplished under his direction.

Yott was brought to the city yesterday morning, and was brought before Judge Houston in the County Police Court, for a preliminary hearing, at 2:30 in the afternoon. Chas. Cook, a liveman, of Windsor, was the only witness examined. He identified Yott as the man who appeared in the border city a week ago with a team of horses tallying in description with the horses stolen from Dr. MacFarlane's stables in Dover. He said that Yott brought the horses to his barn on Tuesday night, at 9:30, and took them down to the ferry at 8 o'clock the next morning. He did not appear to be anxious to sell them in Windsor. Richard Zakoor, of Windsor, offered Yott $150 for the Clyde mare, but the prisoner replied that he wouldn't take less than $200 for her.

The case has been adjourned for a week. Lewis and Richards are solicitors for the defendant.

BORROW CAREFULLY

Toronto, Sept. 9.—An important official statement was made to-day by the Ontario Railway and Municipal Board on applications for approval of by-laws increasing the rate of interest on debentures.

Speaking generally, the Board are not encouraging applications of this kind during the present stringency in the money market. The Board are of the opinion that it is good policy for municipalities to postpone the construction of municipal improvements for some time until monetary conditions have improved. The present stringency may only be a passing condition, which will right itself in a short time, and in that view it will be well for municipalities to borrow as little as possible at the present excessive rate of interest.

A TRIP TO JAMESTOWN

Will Foreman And Roy Robertson Had A Pleasant Outing

Many American Cities Visited—A two Weeks' Tour In States

Messrs. Will Foreman and Roy Robertson returned home on Sunday afternoon, after a two weeks' trip through the Southern States. They report having had a very pleasant time and feel greatly refreshed after their outing.

After leaving this city they set out for Albany. They travelled by the Wabash and New York Central Railway to New York, where they spent a very interesting time. Mr. Foreman, when interviewed this morning, stated that New York is a most beautiful place. They visited the Bronx or Zoological Park, Washington Heights, Grant's Tomb, The Columbia University, and the Museum of Natural History. They also attended the Zoological Congress of the World, which was being held there at that time. People from every country of the world were there. The Central Park has fine scenery, and the art galleries and museum exhibit the finest paintings in the world. Morgan and the Vanderbilts were contributors to these fine galleries. Battery Park was visited, and from there they went to Coney Island, thence over to Brooklyn. Here they saw the American warships, the Massachusetts and the Washington, and several cruisers. From here they continued on to Boston, and by the Neptune line, to Long Island Sound and Fall River.

This is the seat of the famous cotton mills. It is the largest cotton concern in the world and the trip through it was a most interesting one. They returned to New York and from there journeyed by electric train to Boston. Steam is being done away with on this road and is being replaced with electricity. From Boston they went to Fall River in an open electric car. The distance was about sixty miles and the country was very fine. The quaint old New England architecture, as much in evidence in the homes along this line.

In regard to the Jamestown Exposition, Mr. Foreman said that the reports were incorrect in stating that the fair was a failure. He said that the exposition was splendid and it was nearly completed. The reason he gives for it having received such a disreputable name is that the buildings had not been finished, and the exposition is all that can be desired.

Next to be spoken of is the Hampton road, between Old Point Comfort and Norfolk. From Norfolk they went to Washington by boat, a distance of 110 miles up the Chesapeake Bay and about 90 miles up the Potomac. Washington was described as a fine city, having beautiful parks and boulevards and magnificent Public Buildings. The Congressional Library is a fine construction.

The return trip home was somewhat the same. After leaving New York they went to Buffalo, and from there took the Eastern States to Detroit. The trip was a very pleasant and educating one.

In New York they met Mr. Hector Jackson, and in Washington Mr. C. K. Eberts.

GOOD SHOOTING

Dr. Neil Smith returned to the city yesterday, and, in conversation with The Planet, gave some information as regards the success of the Regimental team from this district, who were taking part in the rifle matches at Toronto and Ottawa.

All the marksmen were from Tilbury East, and were as follows—Dr. Oliver, of Merlin; Dr. Neil Smith, of this city; J. W. Smith, of St. Mary's; Roger Hutchinson, of this city; M. Kerr, Mr. Graham and Mr. Lumley, of Tilbury.

The first week was spent in Toronto, where good shots were made at the Ontario Rifle Association, and the following week was spent in Ottawa, at the Dominion Rifle Association. The International Trophy was competed for by four teams. The teams taking part were from Canada, Great Britain, United States, and Australia. The United States team won. Each team was composed of eight men, and was allowed fifteen shots at 800, 900, and 1,000 yards range. The United States team had the advantage of the other teams, in the fact that they used peep sights, while the other teams were compelled to use open sights. The United States War Office has authorized their regiments to use peep sights, while the other war offices will not allow it. The scoring was the highest that has ever been made in any contest for the International Trophy. The United States came first, Canada second, Australia third, and Great Britain fourth.

BANNER'S INCAPACITY.

On Tuesday evening the local Liberal organ, in a far-fetched, mis-constructed and characteristically exaggerated criticism of the big Borden meetings, held here on Saturday, puts up its usual defence against arguments which it finds itself insufficiently intelligent to destroy.

In speaking of one of the planks in Mr. Borden's platform, the Banner says:

"Mr. Borden would make of the Railway Commission a Public Utilities Commission, such as they have in New York State. The idea may be all right; the scope of operation of the Railway Commission could doubtless be extended with profit to the country and to the State."

Then the Banner goes on in a disconnected way to conjure up objections which certain corporations MIGHT have to this reform. Why this beating around the bush in the hope of securing up probable criticism? Why does the Banner not have the courage to come out boldly, and give credit where credit is due, and commend Mr. Borden for bringing before the people a policy which the Banner itself is forced to admit could be adopted "with profit to the country and to the State?"

It is unfortunate that the Banner will persist in playing to the lower element in its own party. There are many of the more high-minded Liberals who commend Mr. Borden on this and many other stands, and such unfair, prejudiced and weak-minded mutterings from the Banner must indeed be nauseating to them—if they really read them.

Down a little farther, in the same article, the Banner switches off on Clements. It speaks of the action of the energetic member for West Kent in advocating before the Minister of Agriculture the annulling of the bonding privileges on American pork. In spite of the fact that the Minister, as a direct result of the pressure brought to bear upon him by Mr. Clements—who conducted a single-handed fight for the farmers of this country against the whole combination of pork packers—revoked these privileges, thus giving way to the arguments and representations made by Mr. Clements, the Banner refuses to offer one word of commendation to the member for West Kent. They hear the credit upon the Minister, Hon. Mr. Fisher. In view of the information he had on the subject, Mr. Fisher could in all fairness do nothing else. But what of the man who supplied the information—Mr. Clements?

The Banner might as well select a legal case where a certain lawyer is battling in the courts for justice to his client. After a persistent fight against opposing counsel and an eloquent and convincing appeal, he wins his case, and his client is free. The Banner would then give the credit for winning the case to the judge! It would forget all about the clever lawyer who hunted out the evidence and astutely and successfully opposed all efforts to injure his client. BUT THE CLIENT WOULDN'T FORGET.

One of the strongest objections that the Banner evidently has to Mr. R. L. Borden, is the fact that he uses "moderate language" and does not call into play any exaggerated degree of fiery eloquence and excitement. It is true that Mr. Borden made no delicious attempts at enthusiasm in the course of his addresses, but he is to be admired rather than censured for this. He stated his stand on all of the various public questions of the day in a clear, almost unimpassioned, style. His manner was that of an earnest, honest business man, and he did not resort to fireworks to gain an audience or to promote empty enthusiasm. The day of the fire-eater is passed. Too often the people's mind has been taken off the real public issues through the presentation of flowery word pictures which mean

When an attack started I got out my inhaler and invariably got relief. Feeling satisfied Catarrhoxone would cure, I continued the treatment until one bottle was finished. I didn't use more, because I was cured and asthma has never returned." Catarrhoxone is sure death to asthma and bronchitis. Try it and be convinced. Two sizes, 25c. and $1.00 at all dealers.

A SERIOUS CHARGE

Sarnia, Sept. 10.—Information as to the identity of J. W. Brown, the oiler on the Kensington, under arrest at Duluth, has reached the Sarnia police.

Brown was arrested in Duluth on September 6, charged with connection with the death of Joseph Krantz, who fell in the hold of the boat at Superior, Wis., while engaged in an altercation with Brown. The latter gave his address as Sarnia, but he was not known here.

From letters now at hand it appears that he is John W. Brown, formerly of Wallaceburg. His father is a wealthy farmer and he has many friends. Of late he has been selling with the Reid Wrecking Co., tug boats here, and always bore a good reputation.

He left several weeks ago and joined the Seamen's Union at Detroit, and took a job as oiler on the Kensington. Those who met him here speak of him as a well behaved and intelligent young man. His friends believe him innocent of any culpability in connection with the death of Krantz, and are prepared to render him every assistance possible.

WILL TAKE TWO YEARS

To Reconstruct Wrecked Portion of Quebec Bridge.

President Says Loss Will Only Be One-Fourth of First Estimate—Commission Continues Enquiry—Power of Inspectors Over Bridge-builders—Could Not Stop Work—Seven Bodies Recovered.

Philadelphia, Sept. 11.—David Reeves, president of the Phoenix Bridge Co., said yesterday, that, although the enquiry into the concern's loss as a result of the fall of the Quebec cantilever bridge had not been completed, he did not believe that the loss would be one-fourth as large as was at first supposed.

Other officials declared that the work of rebuilding the bridge would be continued if the Canadian Government did not object.

"Several weeks must elapse before any conclusion as to the cause of the accident can be reached," said one of them.

"However, I can say that it will take years of hard work to reach the stage of completion at which we stood when the accident occurred."

Quebec, Sept. 11.—Seven bodies of victims of the bridge disaster, were picked up in the river yesterday. Five of them are said to be McNaughton, Couture, Delisle, Johnson and French.

At yesterday afternoon's sitting of the bridge enquiry, Mr. Milliken continued his evidence, testifying that he was daily on the works with the foreman, and also inspected on Sundays during the absence of others.

Mr. McClure, assistant to Mr. Hoare, the Quebec Bridge Co.'s engineer, described his methods of inspection and said he watched the driving of all pins. In answer to Mr. Hoare, he said he could not stop the work on account of anything being unsatisfactory, but if such an occasion had arisen he would have reported the matter to Mr. Hoare.

Mr. Kinloch, the inspector of material at the yards, under Mr. Hoare, for the Quebec Bridge Co., made weekly reports to the consulting engineer, Theodore Cooper of New York, who could stop the work whenever he deemed it necessary. He could not say whether or not Mr. Hoare had that authority.

C. H. Kinloch, inspector, testified that he reported to Mr. Hoare, and that he was supposed to see that the iron was in good shape before it went into the bridge. He inspected it as to workmanship when it arrived from the yards by cars. That he found wrong was trivial. He said he really had no jurisdiction over the men except by taking the matter up with Mr. Hoare or through the foreman.

His instructions from Mr. Hoare were to make everything perfectly safe.

Judge Scores Police.

St. Catharines, Sept. 11.—At a meeting of the police commissioners, Chief Farnell reported that P. C. Loome had been picked up on King street in the morning in an intoxicated condition.

Judge O'Connor strongly censured the local force, saying: "Things have come to a pretty pass when everyone in the city knows the constables are good for nothing, and it is up to us to reorganize it. This man is not the only one of the force who has been to work drunk. All the men are good for is to catch boys."

Loome was discharged, and Wm. Goff of Beaverville was put on for a month's trial.

Prize Court at The Hague.

The Hague, Sept. 11.—The committee of the Peace Conference, to which the question was submitted yesterday, approved by a vote of 26 to 2 the project providing for the establishment of a supreme tribunal to deal with prizes captured at sea.

The tribunal will be composed of permanent judges from Great Britain, the United States, Russia, Germany, Austria-Hungary, Italy, France and Japan, the smaller nations having a judge only for a number of years, proportioned to the tonnage of their mercantile marine.

The highest reward lies not so much in royal conditions as in regal character.

At the Brisco Opera House—Faust—Thursday Sept. 12.

AT THE BRISCO THEATRE TO-NIGHT.

Mr. Porter J. White and an excellent company will give one of the most superb presentations of that most spectacular play, "Faust," that has ever been put on in this city.

Faust contains a large measure of moral philosophy, both in the actual words of the players and in the grand ensemble of its weird lights and shadows, its comedies and tragedies. Sam Jones aptly characterized it when he said it was "better than a sermon."

This splendid production will be put on by the above mentioned excellent company at the Brisco Theatre to-night. There will undoubtedly be a large audience.

HORSE WAS KILLED

Turnerville, Sept. 11.—As young John Forsyth, of the 5th Concession, Chatham Township, was driving to the Lindsay Road Church, on Sunday night, he met with a serious accident. A dog frightened his young horse. It ran away and upset the buggy in the ditch, and the horse was killed. The young man escaped with a few cuts on his head.

"All that now remains is for the local company to get their mains connected up." I understand that the delay on their part has been caused by the non-arrival of some necessary valves. When these arrive it is expected that the completion of the work will be rushed.

BRAY—MAGNET

We clip the following from the London Free Press, which will be read with interest by a great many of our readers in the Maple City. The gentleman connected with the very pleasing event is an old Maple City boy, where he still has hosts of friends:

The marriage of Miss Mary Tracy Macfie, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert G. Macfie, of Ridout street, South London, to Mr. John Neil Bray, of the Bank of Montreal at Hamilton, son of Dr. J. L. Bray, of Chatham, took place yesterday afternoon at St. James Church, South London, in the presence of a distinguished company of guests from many points.

Miss Macfie and Mr. Bray were of the most highly thought of members of the younger set in London, for while Mr. Bray has not been a resident of the city for some time, he has always been held essentially a Londoner, up till the present at any rate, and Miss Macfie is one of the fairest and most esteemed of the city's daughters.

The ceremony was performed by Very Rev. Dean Davis, assisted by Rev. Horace Bray, of Port Rowan, uncle of the groom. The bright golden effect was predominant in the decorative scheme of the church, and the imposing interior of St. James has never been so brightly lit as it was by the radiant combination of color-touched sunbeams and the abundance of autumn shades attained in a profusion of seasonable flowers.

The bride, a sweetly winsome girl always, seemed to be perfect, with the added staidness of her wedding robes.

She leaned upon the arm of her father, and glances that bore admiration, sincere and well-wishing, came from all sides.

Miss Macfie wore a robe of Lincolnton lace, and the orange blossoms which had graced her mother on her wedding day.

She wore the groom's gift, a beautiful gold necklace of amethysts and pearls.

The bride was attended by a maid of honor, Miss M. Macfie Wheeler, a charming Boston girl. She was gowned in white chiffon, embroidered with chrysanthemums in shades of yellow.

The groom was supported by his brother, Mr. Walter Bray, of New York, while the ushers were Messrs. Woodman E. Leonard, of this city; Norman R. Lookie, of this city; H. S. London, of Strathroy, and Gerald R. Coghlin, of Montreal.

The groom's parents, Dr. and Mrs. J. L. Bray, were present at the ceremony, and the latter was stately in black and white silk gown.

The bride's mother wore a handsome black lace dress. Among the most immediate friends and relatives present were, Dr. and Mrs. R. V. Bray, Mrs. S. M. Glenn and Mrs. A. F. Falls, of Chatham; Mrs. Robertson, of Newmarket, Ont.; Mr. and Mrs. Harrington, of Walker, of Detroit, and Miss Bray, of Port Rowan.

The ceremony performed, the party returned to the handsome home of the bride's parents, where the reception was held and despatched congratulations extended. A dainty luncheon was served—a culmination of the caterer's art.

The wedding gifts, received from far and wide, made a profuse and handsome display. The cut glass and silverware presents were magnificent, and there were several substantial checks.

To the groom was given a magnificent silver salver, with Roman open-work border. This splendid testimonial was the gift of a number of his friends in the Bank of Montreal in Montreal.

It was a merry party which escorted the happy couple to the Grand Trunk station, where they embarked for Lake Simcoe, there to spend their honeymoon.

The bride's travelling gown was of dark green broadcloth, with picture hat.

On the expiration of their honeymoon, trip Mr. and Mrs. Bray will reside in Hamilton.

SORE ON GOVERNMENT

Vancouver Proposes Shipping Hindus To Ottawa

Rebellion at the Coast May be Ultimate Result

Vancouver, B. C., Sept. 12.—From Japanese-Chinese Vancouver's race problem has shifted to Hindus. Yesterday afternoon 900 arrived on the Montague from Hong Kong. Thirty Japanese only came to Vancouver. The Canadian Pacific Railway, owners of the steamer, had its wharf barricaded, roped off and protected by special police. It will be late in the evening before any large number of Hindus are expected to leave the steamer. No trouble is expected, as the laborites will not probably move against the Hindus because the latter are British subjects.

But the civic authorities yesterday morning backed up the labor people in bringing the entire immigration scheme to an issue. For two days the health department of Vancouver has been placarding as "unfit for habitation" every empty house and barn in the city limits in order that those of the Hindus are not allowed to take possession. Special guards will see that none of these houses are used by new arrivals. At noon, Mayor Beithme despatched this telegram to Premier Laurier:

"Neither accommodation nor employment for Hindus arriving to-day; nor is it possible to house them under sanitary conditions. Shall we house them in drill hall at Government's expense?"

Anticipating refusal by the Government, the mayor ordered the opening of a popular subscription list by the citizens to ship the entire 900 Hindus east by special train, leaving this morning. The mayor proposes that this would be the cheapest way of riding Vancouver of these immigrants, and would, at the same time, give Eastern Canada a taste of what Asiatic labor is like.

The train would be billed right through to Ottawa.

No more demonstrations have occurred, and no renewal of rioting is expected until the arrival of the steamer Indians and Woolwich, with more than one thousand Japanese.

They are expected to-day or to-morrow.

At 2.15 this morning it was announced by the C. P. R. Telegraph Co. that efforts during the night to reach British Columbia by train had failed because of auroral disturbances. Via New York, however, came the news in a brief special to The Toronto Globe that the crisis anticipated in Vancouver upon the landing of the thousands of Hindus had been averted by the decision of the shipping company not to take the Montague to Vancouver.

The decision was a wise one, in view of the condition of public opinion and the grave danger of further rioting.

Tokio, Sept. 12.—The Hochi, which was the only newspaper here, regarding the recent Japanese difficulties in San Francisco, in an editorial last night, says:

"The trouble in Vancouver, which appears to be over, was confined to one city. Japan can safely leave her interests in the hands of Premier Laurier, who has always been friendly. There is no reason why the people should feel uneasy over the outcome."

The Hochi is considered to be representative of public sentiment.

Slames Yankees.

Montreal, Sept. 12.—Sir Charles Herbert Tupper is here to meet his father, who arrives Friday. Speaking of the Vancouver riots, he blamed them on Americans, who want to introduce their methods in Canada. He says they have caused trouble before. He cannot see that there is any justification for the riots, and would insist emphatically on the rights of Japanese by treaty.

Against All Asiatics.

London, Sept. 12.—Despatches from London state that the incidents at Bellingham and Vancouver have greatly excited Hindus, who are highly incensed at the action of the British Government to take effective measures to protect their countrymen in the United States and Canada.

Ottawa, Sept. 12.—The Mayor of Vancouver has telegraphed Sir Wilfrid Laurier the lengthy arrests of Hindus have been made.

He also states that the attacks were directed against Asiatics in general, and not against the Japanese in particular.

Must Uphold Rights of All.

London, Sept. 12.—The Times in an editorial article yesterday morning says it is convinced that there is now full and ample confirmation for the belief that the anti-Oriental riots at Vancouver were actually organized by American labor agitators. "The men whose intrigues brought San Francisco under the dominion of Ruet and Schmidt."

Continuing the paper says it believes "this shameful riot upon British soil was gotten up by officials of American labor organizations for the purpose of conveying to M. Ishii, the distinguished member of the commercial department of the Japanese Foreign Office, who is now at Vancouver, the feelings of the labor element of the Pacific Coast."

Accounting for the race prejudices evidenced in such disturbances, the paper says: "The plain truth is that on account of his thrift and industry, the Asiatic is detected as a dangerous competitor on the labor markets which the laborites want to keep a monopoly in white hands."

In conclusion, The Times says: "The rights of all men who visit British soil, whatever their color or race, must be unflinchingly upheld by the whole authority of the local Government and the Imperial Crown."

John McDonald, an inebriate was rounded up by the police yesterday afternoon, and spent the night in the cells. He came up before Judge Houston this morning, and was remanded for a week.

Mr. James Galloway, organist and choir-master of Christ Church, Chatham, who is shortly leaving Chatham to take up an appointment in Toronto, will give a farewell benefit Piano Recital in Christ Church Hall, on Monday evening next, Sept. 16. Admission 25c.

Ven. Archdeacon Young, of Simcoe, has been in Chatham this week in the interest of the Diocesan Jubilee Fund. He has been very successful in his canvass of Holy Trinity parish, and will return in the course of a few days to take up the work for Christ Church.

A large crowd attended the roller rink Tuesday night and had a good skate. The weather was cool, thus making it more pleasant for the skaters. Tommy Burns, champion heavy-weight pugilist of the world was present and enjoyed the skating.

Mrs. Tommy Burns, while watching the ball game at the Agricultural Park, Monday afternoon, was struck on the shoulder by a foul ball. The swiftess of the ball was great, and, in striking her, caused her to faint. She recovered in a short time, however, and no serious injury, with the exception of a bad bruise, was inflicted.

At eleven o'clock Monday night a man, apparently under the influence of strong liquors, was driving in his buggy at a break neck pace through Tecumseh Park, nearly opposite the Hotel Santa, and, lashing his horse, drove across the grounds to the bank of the river. Here he turned, and rushed along the bank of the river to the break water. He whirled around and raced back through the trees at a high speed. He arrived at William Street and started a full speed down towards King Street. His escape through the trees at such a furious rate of speed was miraculous.

A gentleman buying a bottle of Vaseline's Skin Ointment, said: "This is a small bottle for 50c." I replied, make a calculation. A 12 oz. bottle of other medicine costs $1; the dose is 1 tablespoonful 3 times a day, equal to 11-2 oz.; the 12 oz. lasts 6 days. That 50c. V. S. C. bottle contains about 156 days' medicine; 18-2-4 times as much as the 12 oz. bottle—a saving of $18.00. In the one you pay for water and glass. V. S. C. is concentrated medicine without water. It is the medicine for all classes; 50c. and $1 bottles. At druggists'. Mailed anywhere by The V. S. C. Med. Co., Chatham, Ont.

The Grey Nuns & Zam-Buk

LEADING INSTITUTIONS NOW USE THIS BALM.

Many of the leading institutions throughout Canada have now adopted Zam-Buk as a standard preparation without equal for skin diseases and injuries, burns, blood poisoning, etc.

From the St. Patrick's Asylum, Ottawa, comes the following appreciation of its merits—

"Gentlemen,—In the orphanage department of the Asylum, we have found Zam-Buk very good for healing cuts, cold sores, and skin injuries generally, and such continue to use it for such. Yours sincerely, (Signed) GREY NUNS."

When a mother rubs on to the delicate skin of children a balm or ointment to heal some cut, bruise, burn, eruption or skin disease, she needs to be as careful as if she were giving a child an internal remedy.

Zam-Buk is pure—free from all animal fat and all mineral matter, and may be applied with wonderful benefit even to the skin of young babies.

Zam-Buk heals sores, cures eczema, skin eruptions, ulcers, ringworm, itch, barber's rash, blood poisoning, bad leg, salt rheum, abrasions, abscesses, cuts, burns, scalds, and all skin injuries and diseases. Of all skin stores and druggists at 50 cents, or from Zam-Buk Co., Toronto, for price, 3 boxes for $1.25.

The Valuable Book.

"I never met a more ignorant man than Nutch," said Mugley. "What he doesn't know would fill a good many books."
"Yes," replied Wise. "But what he does know seems to have filled one pocketbook at least."

Hopeful.

Granger—How are you getting along at your house? Timson—Pretty well, on the whole. We are nearly out of everything but debt, and in time, if things go on as they have been going, we ought to be out of that.

Safe Scheme.

Mr. Phoxy—Did you send the Borems a card for our "at home"? Mrs. Phoxy—Yes. How could I get out of it? Mr. Phoxy—I'll tell Borem that Jenks is coming. Borem owes him money.

Instructed.

"That lady," said the new clerk, "wished to know if these eggs were fresh. How do I tell when eggs are not fresh?"
"You don't,"—Houston Post.

Clay's Ready Wit.

When Henry Clay was stumping Kentucky for re-election, at one of his mass meetings an old hunter of wide political influence said, "Well, Harry, I've always been for you, but because of that vote (which he named) I'm going against you."

"Let me see your rifle," said Clay. It was handed to him.
"Is she a good rifle?"
"Yes."
"Did she ever miss fire?"
"Well, yes, once."

"Why didn't you throw her away?" The old hunter thought a moment and then said, "Harry, I'll try you again."
And Harry was elected.

GIVING OF SMALL DINNERS.

The Secret of Success Where Finances Are Somewhat Limited.

Because one may not spend many dollars on the giving of dinners, that is no reason why one may not have them. It needs only a prettily arranged table, a congenial and carefully selected group of six or eight guests and a hostess in a pretty pale frock to achieve an atmosphere that cannot be outdone, except in the matter of money spent, by the hostess who has a menage of sorts with a butler to serve and three or four maids to help take off one's wraps.

The first principle for the hostess with one maid who aspires to a dinner is to be tremendously careful not to attempt the impossible. Just the fact of giving the dinner is bound to mean a lot of work for her, but that will be part of her joy in the occasion. The menu ought to be simple and of things that she knows her cook can achieve, and the salad, the dessert and all the arrangements must be done by herself if they are to be at all elaborate.

An oyster or a fruit cocktail, to begin with, is an inexpensive dish, and one that will give a simple meal a "party-like" air that will start it right. A pineapple cocktail, for instance, may be made from canned fruit. The fruit is shredded quite fine; then to it are added three sherry glasses of curacao and the juice of three lemons. Use enough sugar to sweeten and a gill of good brandy and a few cherries or white grapes. Place at each plate a tall glass of this on a small dish.

There need be no worry over the clear soup, for every cook can make that, only be sure it is hot. Then the fish may be in ramekins or large artificial shells and of saltbush with bits of lobster, and this too, loses its goodness if not hot. With the roast there need be but one vegetable, and that a hot macaroni dish or chestnuts creamed or tiny carrots in a cream sauce; always potatoes in some form, those beaten up and seasoned and put back into their half shells with a top dressing of whipped egg, being nice.

The salad, the next course, should be, above all, very cold and the plates equally so. Haven't you dined in houses where the plates were sadly limited and the cook had hastily washed some that had been used before and that were still hot? That is one of the small tragedies that the hostess of small affairs must guard against, trusting upon the notice of her guests.

A skinned tomato stuffed with a delicious concoction of chopped up nuts and apple, with a delicious dab of mayonnaise dressing flowing over it, with a crisp lettuce leaf beneath, will make a splash of color that looks most refreshing after the hot dishes. One serves tiny toasted and cheese bits with this, with cream, Camembert or Brie cheese.

And then the dessert may be as elaborate as one dares attempt. About the simplest and yet most elaborate looking sweet there is made by filling tall stemmed glasses with a vanilla ice into which you have chopped walnut and wee bits of pineapple or cherry and on which is poured a hot chocolate sauce.

HOUSEHOLD HINTS.

Discarded dainty skirts make very attractive bureau scarfs. They may be bleached white, if necessary, and then conventional designs worked on them with floss or cut out cretonne designs applied on.

When ants are troublesome sprinkle sugar through a small piece of sponge and leave these about the pantry shelves. In a short time the ants will be holding a high carnival. Plunge the sponges in boiling water and set again.

A good remedy for keeping moths out of furs and woolen pieces is to wrap the fur tightly in a piece of newspaper that has been soaked in turpentine. Place in an old pillowcase or bag. There is absolutely no danger that the moths will disturb any piece so treated.

For the Toilet.

While you are preparing to retire for the night health and beauty sleep, do you wash your face thoroughly?

It is absolutely necessary that the grime and soil accumulated on the countenance during the day be removed—that is, if you are doing things to keep your complexion in good order.

Of course you take a bath before retiring as a means of better rest and consequent good health. Certainly along with the bath you wash your face, but perhaps you dash it with cold water, while telling yourself that "the cream will do the rest."

This is a mistake. Wash the face thoroughly and then apply the cream. Wipe off the first application of cream and you'll take off more grime with it. Then rub cream into the cuticle to nourish the flesh. Keeping the face as clean as possible is first rate assistance in removing blemishes and a great help in keeping them off.

White Cake.

Take three cups of flour, two cups of sugar, two teaspoonfuls of baking powder. To this add one cup of fresh butter, one of sweet milk and the whites of five eggs. Mix well and bake in a loaf. Line the tin with buttered paper to prevent burning.

With White Enamel.

Did you know you could use white enamel to paint the oven of your range and it will look as pure and white as the porcelain of your refrigerator? It will not burn brown and does give a clean appearance to the baking apartment of the stove or range.

"C. B." AT HOME.

British Prime Minister Is Good Nature Personified.

The Prime Minister has given a series of special sittings for photographs to go with an intimate and gossip article in a recent number of The Pall-Mall Magazine, and has in every way justified the visitor's assertion that he is good nature personified. Sir Henry's private sitting-room at 10 Downing street, the room where he does a great part of his public work, is on the floor above the cabinet council room. It is a large apartment, almost square in shape, and with paneled walls, on which are hung several fine portraits of former Prime Ministers. Opposite the fireplace, and dominating the room, is a large copy of Millais' splendid portrait of Mr. Gladstone. The dark and well-remembered eyes are full of fire of late, and the force that was in him still energizes this dark old house, where he so often fought and won.

Sir Robert Walpole.

Over the fireplace hangs a painting of Sir Robert Walpole, the first Minister to be styled "Premier." That large desk near the window in which the present Prime Minister transacts a great part of his important affairs. When he is not in attendance at the House of Commons, one may almost be certain of finding him here; the only difficulty is gaining admission. Of late, and in fact since his retirement, Sir Henry's medical advisers insist on his sparing himself until his health has improved. The doctors have emphatically and explicitly urged on him to refrain from all-night sittings and these terribly severe tests of physical endurance.

To a man recovering from an illness, this private sitting-room of Sir Henry's, with its broad outlook on St. James' Park, is much more health-giving than the national drawing chamber, with its burning heat and noise. I noticed one or two fine French bureaux in this room, belonging to the days of the early Empire, and without any of the grotesque liberties taken in so much old French furniture of that same period.

Where Cromwell Lived.

Sitting at his desk, the Prime Minister can look out of the window and see a parade, while close at hand he sees a bit of the ancient building of the lord high treasurer's house—where, it is recorded, Cromwell lived. Leading to this latter house there was once on a time a gateway, now broken up, and in some mysterious way it also gave access to the Thames. In the protector's time the river would appear to have run much nearer Downing street than it does now. Perhaps the dryness of debate has had some influence there.

The drawing-room communicates with the sitting-room; but during her stay in this historic house Lady Campbell-Bannerman was too ill over to use it.

On the other side of the sitting-room is a small private dining-room, used by the Premier when alone. Beyond this oak-paneled room lies the larger and more stately dining-room, chiefly utilized for state ceremonies and those parties which the head of the Government must needs give on royal birthdays or great public occasions. The oak floor and the oak wall paneling are both worthy of admiration, and age has lent them a certain beauty. One big picture hanging in this huge dining-room is an immense portrait of Pitt, placed over the mantelpiece.

Heart Strength

Heart Strength, or Heart Weakness, means Nerve Strength, or Nerve Weakness—nothing more. Poorly, not only weak heart in a hundred is, in itself, actually diseased. It is a hidden tiny little nerve that really is all at fault. This obscure nerve, the Cavalier, or Heart Nerve—simply needs, and must have, more power, more stability, more controlling, more governing strength. Without that the heart must continue to fail, and the stomach and kidneys also have these same controlling nerves.

This clearly explains why, as a medicine, Dr. Shoop's Restorative has in the past done so much good. It actually does, and it does so by strengthening the Cavalier, or Heart Nerve—simply needs, and must have, more power, more stability, more controlling, more governing strength. Without that the heart must continue to fail, and the stomach and kidneys also have these same controlling nerves.

OLGA VERNE

There is something about Olga Verne's personality that asserts itself in every play in which she appears. Somehow, she seems to carry an atmosphere around with her that freshens and sweetens the theatre and the audience like a draft of pure air from hills where daisies blow.

It's a charm stronger than her talent—a mysterious, elusive fragrance that one doesn't often find in the theatre, or in the world, for that matter.

But if you watch an audience coming out after a matinee of "Faust," there is a certain serenity of soul expressed on the most frivolous face in the group. The brightness of eye and color of cheek and snatched whiff of skirt that you may observe after a "Faust" matinee may be missing, but voices have grown sweeter, ways more gentle, words kinder.

It's all the wonderful magic of this little woman's personality. It's a force that reaches over the footlights and spreads out among us and makes us better.

The part of "Marguerite" has been the crowning effect of Miss Verne's career, and her appearance in this city under such favorable auspices bodes well for her warm welcome.—Detroit News.

A LARGE FUNERAL

The funeral of Mr. John Rice, postponed pending the arrival of his son, Mr. Frank D. J. Rice, of California, who desired to pay his last tribute to the memory of his departed father, occurred yesterday afternoon, under the auspices of the A. O. U. W., to Maple Leaf Cemetery. Mr. Rice was born on the old Gansgrave farm, adjacent to the city. He was one of quite a large, respected, and he bred family, all of whom have predeceased him Miss Sarah Rice, Capt. Philip Rice, now living in the old homestead, William, of this city, and Isaac, of New Zealand. One peculiar incident in his long and honorable career is that he died on the farm he was born on some 77 years ago. He was largely a self-made man, accumulating his large fortune, represented by over six figures, by dint of great energy, perseverance and enterprise. He was in this Western District knew and had dealings years ago with John Rice, merchant and far trader, King St., Chatham. He was familiar with the French language, and could talk the Indian language quite intelligently. His dealings were always fair and honorable, and to this may be attributed largely his great success, ranking as Chatham's most successful merchant in his day, and helping largely in various ways the building up of this city. He was active in politics, being a true believer in protective "Canada for the Canadians." The Park Street Methodist Church will remember him as a true and consistent member of its church. He was twice married. Both wives have predeceased him. He has two children living, Mrs. John W. Knight, of Detroit, Mich., and Mr. Franklin D. J. Rice, of Ocean Park, California. The funeral service was conducted by Rev. Dr. Daniel. The pall bearers were Messrs. William Sloan, H. G. Reed, Sam Cowan, S. M. Smith, William Somerville, and Ed. Jordan.

Catarrh for Twenty Years and Cured in a Few Days.—Hon. I tried Dr. Agnew's Catarrh Powder. The first application gave instant relief. After using a few bottles I was cured. 50 cents." Sold by C. H. Gunn & Co., and W. W. Turner.

SCHOOL INSTRUCTION.

To the Editor of The Planet:
Dear Sir,—We hear a great deal at times of the teaching ability of those in charge of our city schools, and some of them certainly have the brains of the little ones under high pressure. Here is a sample of ten words given to little tots six and seven years old, who as yet cannot read, which they are to learn to spell as home work and recite in the morning: Cousin, Joseph, Ochan, Strongest, Brothers, Stephen, Commander, Repeated, Forefathers, Conquest. What sweet dreams the dreams the little ones must have.
Yours,

PARDON FOR ROWLEY.

Former Manager of Elgin Loan Co. Is Released.
St. Thomas, Sept. 12.—George Rowley, the defaulting manager of the Elgin Loan Co., the collapse of which four years ago, ruined so many people here, who was sentenced to 12 years in Kingston Penitentiary by Judge Ermainger for forgery and theft, has been pardoned and is now out west.

Rowley served exactly four years. His pardon was kept a complete secret. Rowley's delinquency came to light at the time of the Atlas Loan smash. He was arrested and brought to trial on July 25, but at the request of the crown sentence was deferred three weeks to allow Rowley to assist the liquidators in investigating the books of the wrecked company. At the time of his sentence Rowley pleaded for leniency in order that he might endeavor to repay at least some of the money he had taken from those who trusted him.
