ETABLE

TRANSLATED FROM THE GERMAN. Tis well with me, O, Friend unfailing! When I am resting in thy love. Depressed and sad, -my courage failing,-Thou liftest me my fears above. Thy joy dispels my night of sorrow, and thousand blissful mercies follow. When Thy love-beams upon me shine. E'en here on earth I find a heaven, Such sweet content and peace are given To him whose will is lost in thine.

I find the hostile world opposing. But be it so : 'tis nought to me. Not in her smile am I reposing,-Her praises I distrust and fler. Thee my spirit finds her pleasure, Thou art my Friend, my chosen Tressure My Solace, though all comforts fail. awave on wave of trouble swelling? Thy faithfulness surpasseth telling, My Anchor holds within the veil.

When sin's dread burden weighs upor me, When Sinai-thunders fill my ear, Listen, Lord, to gaze upon Thee ---Arisen Christ dispels my fear. Safe in the Rock my soul is hiding -That blessed place of God's providing ! No streke of wrath can reach me there. For me there is no condemnation. Christ is my Peace, my sure Salvation. What hand to pluck hence may dare.

When Thou dost lead through deserts dreary, I tollow on, and lean on Thee : Thy strength sustains my footsteps weary. Thy cooling streams there flow for me. Tay wonder-ways so full of blessing, Thy wisdom Lord, by faith confessing. I walk in peace, for Thou art near. The glory-path is ever lowly, And by Thy guidance sars and holy. Thy people tread Thy footsteps here.

Though death seem dark and fraught with sor-

To those who scarce believe Thy love, Tis but the veil o'er that fair morrow Thine own shall spend with Thee above. Neath every cloud Thy love is sending In perfect peace I pass along, Thou art my Sun that shineth ever, My Life, my Strength that faileth never, My Rest, and my Eternal Song!

The Christian and his Echo. True faith, producing love to God and man, Say, Echo, is not this the Gospel plan?

The Gospel plan. Must I my faith and love to Jesus show.

By doing good to all, both friend and foe? Both friend and foe.

But if a brother hates and treats me ill. Must I return him good, and love him still?

If he my failings watches to reveal. Must I his faults as carefully conceal?

As carefully conceal. But if my name and character he blast, And cruel malice, too, a long time last; And if I sorrow and affliction know, He loves to add unto my cup of woe ; In this uncommon, this peculiar case, Still love and bless. Whatever usage i'll I may receive, Must I patient still, and still forgive?

Sweet Echo, say, must I still love and bless?

Be patient still, and still forgive, Why, Echo, how is this? thou'rt sure a dove! Thy voice shall teach me nothing else but love! Nothing else but love.

Amen! with all my heart, then be it so; Tis all delighful, just and good I know; And now to practice I'll directly go.
Directly go.

Things being so, whoever me reject, My gracious God me surely will protect. Surely will protect.

Henceforth I'll roll on him my every care, And then both friend and foe embrace is prayer. Embrace in prayer.

But after all those duties I have done, Must I in point of merit then disown. And trust for heaven through Jesus' blood alone Through Jesus' blood alone.

Echo, enough! thy counsels to my ear, Are sweeter than to-flowers the dewdrop tear Thy wise instructive lessons please me well: I'll go and practice them. Farewell, farewell. Practice them. Farewell, farewil Ministerial Supply.

The Baltimore Methodist Protestant gives the following among some of the reasons why more Christian young men do not become ministere of the Gospel :- First, they fail to " magnify the office of the ministry. To their minds it presents too humiliating a contrast with other professions and spheres of activity. There is too much of a disposition to seek the glory which paradise. cometh from men, rather than that which cometh from God. It is to be feared that many resist alike the benevolent impulses of their hearts and the admonitions of their consciences by yielding to the temptations of avarice or worldly ambition in choosing other callings. But how great imploring for all those to stand around the altar the ministerial office in comparison with the most exalted rank among men. To be an ambassador of God: to have committed to him the word of reconciliation; to be the chosen medium through which heaven's treasures are sent to men; to be a worker together with God; and She struggled with intense emotions of hesitation to fill the same office which Moses, and Aaron, and distrust. At last the holy Spirit descended and David, and Isaiah, and John, and Paul, upon her bewildered soul; she found the inward and the Son of God himself filled—oh, how can peace, and acknowledged the salvation of the one who covets the best gifts and has regard to cross. With fervor and with seal she took from honors which rise even to the supernal, hesitate off her fingers her golden jewels, she displaced in the presence of the most alluring worldly her watch, and laid them all under the table prospects, to give himself in preference to the within the altar rails. Newfoundland and its Mission-

"A nealtly printed volume of 448 pages, from the pen of the REV. WM. WILSON formerly resident in this Island Little has hithertherto been known of Newfoundland, and, as a natural consequence, incorrect and very absurd ideas have been formed both of the country and ts people. The book before us will assist, we have no doubt, in dissipating this ignorance, and communicating to the public authentic inand communicating to the public authentic information on various important matters connected with that ancient colony. It is written in a chaste, perspicuous style, without ostentation or flourish of any kind, and ought to occupy a place in the library of any intelligent colonist. Newfoundland is, it appears, the oldest Methodist Mission on the face of the earth. To Wesleyans, therefore, 'Newfoundland and its Missionaries' will doubtless prove peculiarly attractive."—Weekly Bulletin, Charlottetown, P. E. Island.

LAROOKAH'S PULMONIE SYRUP.

Is prepared to meet the universal demand for safe and effectual remedy for Throat and lung omplaints. These complaints are alarmingly prevalent in very climate and at every seaso The slightest cough, unless promptly checked, ot unnfrequently ends in consumption. Yet few diseases are so readily overcome in their early stages, as those of the respiratory And for those diseases, incipient or advanced, no remedy has ever been devised, which can be administered with such uniformly good resulte.

DR. LAROOKAH'S PULMONIC SYRUP!

Qualities which are indispensable in a medicine designed for popular use are, certainity of salutary effect, and absence of danger from accidental overdoses.

These qualities are noteworthy in the Pulmonic Syrup. Though this medicine has been before the public for many years, and though thousands in every section of the country place their dependence upon it in all disorders of the Throat and lungs, the first instance has yet to be recorded where it has failed to cure or afford relief. Purely vegetable in its composition, it is ad ninistered with safety to the most delicate in valid or tender child. Yet its power over disease is such, that in larger doses it cures those complaints for which it is designed, no matter how robust the constitution of the patient. Thousands of cases of pnimonary disease that had baffled every expedient of human skill, have been speedily and permanently cured by this remedy. Certificates of such oares from men of the highest standing in society, men who are too shrewed to be deceived and too conscientious to deceive, have been published through out the land, and every community furnishes living testimonials to the virtue of this medicine, which carnot be doubted or gainsaid. The complaints which have a common origin, and which the Pulmonic Syrup effectually and speedily cures, are Coughs, Colds, Croup, Whooping Cough, Asthma, Catarrh, Bronchitie, Influenza, Diptheria, Pleurisy, Spitting Blood, Psin in the Side, Night Sweats, Hoarseness Consumption in its early stages, and affections tending to consumption. This medicine is offered to the sick with the utmost confidence that it will be found the surest, safest and speediest cure for all Pulmor complaints, that has ever been placed within their reach.
