THIS INSTITUTION offers to the Assure entitled, whether at the payment of his first Pre-mium, or at any future period, to borrow, upon interest, to the extent of one-half of the Annual interest, to the extent of one-naty of the Annual Payments made, without any responsibility or guarantee, personal or otherwise, nor will the Policy (the only security) be required to be lodged with the Society, as each Loan will be endorsthereon.

Under this new system, the value of each Policy will at all times be known, and the great objection to Life Assurance entirely removed, as the Assured can at any time present his Policy, and demand of the Society an immediate payment of one-half of the Annual Premiums paid thereon, thus giving to each Policy a known actual cash value.

But this woman was doubless dou'd, then the question arouse did she die naturally, by a cidlest, or by her own hand. On that point there was little to mays for it seemed there was little to anys for its seemed th or by mer own mand. On that point there was lit-tle to may; for it seemed there, was little reason to suppose she died naturally; inatmuch as she was in good health in the morning. However, this one rea-son, there was, that she was with child, and like son the ewas, that she was with carro, and had a subject to subject. At any rate, she went to the well, and there was no reason to suppose she was taken there by force. Well, then, being there, she might have fainted; but the cid-water nould, in that care, have probably restored her.
