

The Conception-Bay Man.

"TRUTH—Ever lovely since the world began, The foe of Tyrants and the Friend of Man."

VOL. 2

HARBOUR GRACE, NEWFOUNDLAND, WEDNESDAY, JUNE, 23 1859.

NO. 37

Post Office Notice—Registration of Letters

On and after the 1st April next, Letters may be registered in Newfoundland by the payment of a fee of 6d. currency on Local Letters, and 6d. sterling on Letters for the United Kingdom and for British Colonies, not passing through the United Kingdom, a further fee will be charged on Letters forwarded through the United Kingdom.

The safe delivery of those Letters, will not be guaranteed by the Post Office; yet their inland transmission will be comparatively secure, from the means that will be adopted to trace them to their destination.

The postage on Registered letters must be paid in advance.

Full information respecting the Registration of Letters may be obtained on application at the General Post Office, or Post Offices in the external districts.

W. L. SOLOMON, P. M. G.

Post Office Department, 1st. March, 1859.

Office of the Board of Works,

April 8th, 1857.

The following resolutions were adopted by the Board on the 4th inst.

Resolved.—That the Board of Works will not be accountable for any expenditure on Roads or public Buildings, or any institution over which it has control, except such expenditure shall be ordered by the Board,—such order to be verified by the written order of the chairman and Secretary for such expenditure.

Resolved.—That no surveyor or Inspector of Roads, or servant of the Board, shall give or have authority to give any order for supplies, or work of any description, without first obtaining the written order of the Chairman and Secretary.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

THE BOARD OF WORK hereby give notice that the temporary Light exhibited on Green Island, at the entrance of Catalina harbor, Trinity Bay, since the 1st March last, was on the 13th instant, removed, and replaced by one of a more brilliant character and extensive range. This is a FIXED WHITE LIGHT burns at an elevation of 92 feet above high water, exhibited every night from sunset to sunrise, and in favourable weather will be seen from E. N. E. seaward, to W. 12 miles. Vessels bound Northward by keeping this Light open with the North-head of Catalina until Bonavista Light opens with Cape Le Jean, will give the Flowers Rocks an ample berth, or when coming from the Northward and bound for Catalina, by giving the N. Head a moderate berth, you will clear the Brandie Rocks by steering for Green Island Light. Green Island is situated in lat. 48. 30. N. long. 53.03 West.

JOHN STUART

Acting Secretary Board of Works
Board of Works Office
St. John's July 8th

Warren, Brothers.

ST. JOHN'S... NEWFOUNDLAND
COMMISSION MERCHANTS AND GENERAL AGENTS

C. S. WARREN

NOTARY PUBLIC

Agent Casaba, Life Assurance Company

LET US REASON TOGETHER.

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS.

WHY ARE WE SICK?

It has been the lot of the human race to be weighed down by disease and suffering. HOLLOWAY'S PILLS are specially adapted to the relief of the Weak, the Nervous, the Delicate, and the Infirm, of all climes, ages, sexes, and constitutions. Professor Holloway personally superintends the manufacture of these medicines and offers them to free and enlightened people, as the best remedy the world ever saw for the removal of disease.

THESE PILLS PURIFY THE BLOOD.

These famous Pills are expressly combined to operate on the stomach, the liver, the kidney, the lungs, the skin, and the bowels, correcting any derangement in their functions, purifying the blood, the very fountain of life, and thus curing disease in all its forms.

DYSPEPSIA AND LIVER COMPLAINTS.

Nearly half the human race have taken these Pills. It has been proved in all parts of the world, that nothing has been found equal to them in cases of disorder of the liver, dyspepsia, and stomach complaints generally. These soon give a healthy tone to those organs, however damaged, and when all other means have failed.

GENERAL DEBILITY—ILL HEALTH.

Many of the most despotic Governments have opened their Custom Houses to the introduction of these Pills that they may become the medicine of the masses. Learned Colleges admit that this medicine is the best remedy ever known for persons of delicate health, or whose system has been impaired, as its invigorating properties never fail to afford relief.

FEMALE COMPLAINTS.

No female, young or old, should be without this celebrated medicine. It corrects and regulates the monthly courses at all periods, acting in many cases like a charm. It is also the best and safest medicine that can be given to children of all ages, and for any complaint; consequently no family should be without them.

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS are the best remedy known in the world for the following Diseases:—

Ague, Asthma, Bilious Complaints, Blootches on the Skin, Bowel Complaints, Colic, Constipation of the Bowels, Consumption, Debility, Dropsy, Dysentery, Erysipelas, Female Irregularities, Fevers of all kinds, Fits, Gout, Headache, Indigestion, Inflammation, Jaundice, King's Evil, Liver Complaints, Lumbago, Rheumatism, Retention of Urine, Scrofula, Sore-throats, Stone and Gravel, Secondary symptoms, Tic-doulaireux, Tumours Ulcers, Venereal Affections, Worms of all kinds, Weakness from whatever cause, &c. &c.

Sold at the Establishment of Professor HOLLOWAY, 244 Strand, (near Temple Bar,) London, and 80, Maiden Lane, New York; also by all respectable Druggists and Dealers in Medicines throughout the civilized world, at the following prices:—1s. 3d. — 3s. 3d.—and 5s. each Box.

There is a considerable saving by taking the larger sizes.

N.B.—Directions for the guidance of patients in every disorder are affixed to each Box.

Wholesale and retail by

T. McCANNAN.

St. John's N. F.

N & J. JILLARD WATCH AND CLOCK

Makers, Jewellers, General Dealers, and Commission Agents.

Quadrant-Compasses, Charts, Nautical Almanacks, Accordians, Violins, Flutes, and other Musical and Nautical Instruments Sold and Repaired.

Depository for the British and Foreign Bible Society, and the Religious Tract Society

BIBLES and other BOOKS Sold at the Societys Prices, Tracts Gratis

A MARVELOUS REMEDY FOR MARVELOUS AGE. HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT.

The Grand External Remedy.

By the aid of a microscope, we see millions of little openings on the surface of our bodies. Through these this Ointment, when rubbed on the skin, is carried to any organ or inward part.—Disease of the Kidneys, disorders of the Liver, affections of the Heart, Inflammation of the Lungs, Asthma, Coughs and Colds, are by its means effectually cured. Every housewife knows that salt passes freely through bone or meat of any thickness. This healing Ointment far more readily penetrates through any bone or fleshy part of the living body, curing the most dangerous inward complaints, that cannot be reached by other means.

Erysipelas and Rheumatism, Scrofulic Humours.

No remedy has ever done so much for the cure of disease of the Skin, whatever form they may assume, as this Ointment. Scourvy, Sore Heads, Scrofula, Erysipelas, cannot long withstand its influence. The inventor has travelled over many parts of the globe, visiting the principal hospitals, dispensing this Ointment, giving advice as to its application, and has thus been the means of restoring countless numbers to health. Sore Legs, Sore Breasts, Wounds and Ulcers.

Some of the most scientific surgeons now rely solely on the use of this wonderful Ointment, when having to cope with the worst cases of sores, wounds, ulcers, glandular swelling, stiffness or contraction of the joints, even of 20 years standing.

Piles and Fistulas.

These and other similar distressing complaints can be effectually cured if the Ointment be well rubbed in over the parts affected, and by otherwise following the printed directions around each pot.

Both the Ointment and Pills should be used in the following cases:—

Bad Legs, Bad Breasts, Burns, Bunions, Bite of Mosquitoes and Sand Flies, Cerebra, Cheigo-foot, Chilblains, Chapped hands Corns, (soft) Cancers, Contracted and Stiff Joints, Elephantiasis, Fistulas, Gout, Glandular Swellings, Lumbago, Piles, Rheumatism, Scalds, Sore Nipples, Sore Throat, Skin-diseases, Scourvy, Sore-heads, Tumours Ulcers, Wounds, Yaw.

Sold at the Establishment of Professor HOLLOWAY, 244 Strand, (near Temple Bar) London, and 80, Maiden Lane, New York; also by all respectable Druggists and Dealers in Medicines throughout the Civilized World at the following prices:—1s. 3d., 3s. 3d., and 5s. sterling, each Pot

Sub-Agents.—John McCarthy, Carbonear & N. & J. Jillard, Harbour Grace; John Stentaford Brigus.

Wholesale and Retail by

T. McCANNON, Agent

N. B.—Directions for guidance of patients in every disorder are affixed to each Pot.

THE NEWFOUNDLAND MINING ASSOCIATION

CAPITAL—£50,000 Sterling

WILL deal LIBERALLY both by Money Payments and in awarding Paidup shares to any Party who may bring to the Notice of their Manager at St. John's, any Mineral discoveries or INDICATIONS which may lead to the Discovery of any remunerative Mineral Deposits.

The Discoverer of any specimens which may on examination at the company's Office, prove worthy of attention, will be FAITHFULLY SECURED in his rights on account of such Discovery, before application shall be made to the Colonial Government for any Licence of occupation on the Company's account.

F. N. GISBORN, Manager

COFFIE at the head of Messrs. GIBBONS and HENDERSON'S Wharf, St. John's, Newfoundland to whom please direct all parcels of sample Letters, &c.

PHENIX FIRE ASSURANCE COMPANY.

Lombard Street, and Charing Cross, London

[ESTABLISHED IN 1782.]

Insurances against Fire are effected by the PHENIX COMPANY upon all descriptions of Property in Newfoundland, on the most favourable terms; and the experience of nearly three quarters of a century has manifested to the public the promptitude and liberality with which all losses have been adjusted by them.

Persons Insured by this Company do not depend upon restricted funds for the payment of their claims; the Security offered by the PHENIX OFFICE being unlimited, comprising in addition to the large invested Capital of the Company the whole fortunes of a numerous Proprietary, composed of some of the most opulent gentlemen and merchants in the United Kingdom.

Rates of Premiums, and all particulars of Insurance, will be made known on application to the undersigned, by whom Policies are issued free of charge.

W. & G. RENDELL,

Agents for Newfoundland

Post Office Notice.

SUMMER ARRANGEMENTS.

MAILS will be made up at the General Post Office for the following places:—

Harbour Grace, Carbonear and Brigus—on Tuesdays, Thursdays, and Saturdays at 10 o'clock a. m.

Trinity, Bonavista and King's Cove,—every Thursday, at 10 o'clock a. m.

Baybills and Ferryland,—every Wednesday at 10 o'clock a. m.

Trepassey, St. Mary's, Placentia, Burnt Head, Briton, Burgeo and Greenspout,—every alternate Thursday commencing on Thursday the 16th inst.

Fogo and Twillingate,—monthly, commencing on Thursday, the 16th inst.

W. L. SOLOMON,

Post-Master General.

Post Office Department,
Newfoundland
9th April 1857.

THE CONCEPTION-BAY MAN

(From Wilmer, June 5.)

The Lords have declared themselves beaten in the affair of the Jews. They wish to be let down easily, and, in deference to their pride and their position, this will be granted. Before the end of the session Baron Rothschild will take his seat, for then the comedy of "Much Ado about nothing" will have been played out.

More reinforcements are required for India. The East India Company have taken up twenty vessels, for the conveyance of troops to the presidency, in which it is proposed to carry 25,000 men,—the best proof that the rebellion has not been quite extinguished yet.

The foreign news of the week is meagre. The Montenegro affair and the sittings of the Paris Conference are discussed with the limited information at hand. The published despatch of Prince Danilo relative to his battle with the Turks relieve him of the treachery with which he was charged.

In the House of Commons, on the 14th June—Lord J. RUSSELL inquired what is the present state of our relations with China, and asked for the communication of the terms which Lord Elgin has demanded from the Emperor of China, and for the answer which has been received from the Chinese Government. A very large force was now acting against China. The movement of Lord Elgin towards the north opened a large question. He wished to know for what purpose so large a force was kept up, what were our intentions with regard to China, and what were the demands made upon the Emperor.

The CHANCELLOR of the EXCHEQUER.—With regard to the affairs in China, the Government were ignorant of the motives which influenced Lord Elgin in going to the north. He had no doubt that the cause was a wise and proper one, but they were as yet unable to state its cause. He did not know specifically either the advice of the Chinese authorities forwarded to Lord Elgin or the conditions which Lord Elgin had demanded from China, as a very large discretion had been left to Lord Elgin. In this respect we were acting, not by ourselves, but in conjunction with France, and even with Russia, which made it necessary for them to hesitate before they laid the papers on the table of the House. The Government had signified to Lord Elgin their hope that he would put an end to the present unsatisfactory state of affairs as soon as he could with regard to the interests of the country and our engagements with our allies.

Mr. BRIGHT called attention to the complication caused by our acting in concert with other Powers in a dispute arising out of an affair in which England only was interested. This, he complained, had been done without the authority of Parliament. This took the matter out of the hands of our own Government, and prevented the House of Commons from knowing anything about it. No such complications should be entered into without grave reasons. Were they to refuse to make peace with China till she had satisfied all the demands of France? He called on the present Government to bring these hostilities to a termination.

Sir JOHN PAKINGTON explained that the entire naval force in the East was a little above 11,000 men, which the Government intended to reduce as soon as possible.

Mr. Horsfall asked the Under Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs whether her Majesty's Government had received any intelligence from New York of Captain Judkins, of Royal Mail steamer Persia, and if so, whether the circumstances of the case warranted such a procedure on the part of the American authorities.

Mr. Wilson asked the Under Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs whether there was any objection to lay upon the table copies of correspondence between the British Government and the United States upon the measures taken for the suppression of the slave trade, and if not, when such papers could be produced.

Mr. S. Fitzgerald, in reply to the first question, said that no official information of the arrest of Captain Judkins had been received by Government. It was their wish to lay the correspondence with the United States relative to the slave trade before the House as soon as possible. That Government had preferred grave complaints relative to the conduct said to have been pursued by British officers in the West Indies towards American ships. The Government had replied that if such conduct had been pursued it would be viewed with great regret by her Majesty's Government, who would give it their immediate and careful consideration.

THE ATLANTIC TELEGRAPH.

Her Majesty's Agamemnon, in company with the steam frigate Niagara, Valarous, and Gorgon, returned to Plymouth Sound on the 3rd, after their experimental cruise off the Bay of Biscay with the Atlantic Cable. The experiments were quite satisfactory. The Agamemnon and Gorgon arrived in latitude 47. 12 N., longitude 9 32 W., about two hundred miles from Ushant, on Monday afternoon, and left on Wednesday, having made several successful experiments. The weather was fine; depth of sea, 25300 fathoms, or nearly 3 miles. The Cable was spliced four times, and the Agamem-non and Niagara separated on one occasion nearly four miles. The ships were put at various speeds, and by the aid of the new apparatus the cable withstood the strain in a satisfactory manner. Since the last trial the power of hauling has been greatly increased and improved. The cable was payed out from the Niagara on one trial at the rate of seven knots, per hour. Buoys were occasionally attached to the cable, which also passed from the stern to the bow, in a vertical position.

Electrical messages were sent through the wire when in various positions. The expedition is appointed to start from Plymouth finally on Wednesday, the 19th (9th?)

LATER FROM INDIA.

INDIA HOUSE DESPATCH.

The following message, dated "Malta," has been received at the India House:—

To J. D. DICKENSON, ESQ. EAST INDIA HOUSE.

Matters appear to be progressing satisfactorily in Oude. A number of principal talookdars have made their submission to the Chief Commissioner, either personally or by their representatives, and the settlement of the country around Lucknow is being rapidly made.

The rebel Moulvie and the mother of the puppet-King are said, to have abandoned Datsowli (?), where they had taken refuge, and to have fled into the Barajeta Pergunnah, beyond the Gogra.

The main body of the Ghoorkas is proceeding to Nepal, via Fyzabad, which is held by Maun Sing, with 2000 men and two guns, and the Ghoorkas do not expect any opposition. Jung Bahadur, with his body-guard, has already passed through Goruckpore.

BENARES DIVISION.

Sir E. Lugard reached Azinghur on the 15th, and the rebels were driven out of the city on the 17th. They fled in several parties towards the Gogra and Ganges, and the pursuing columns captured several guns and much ammunition and baggage, abandoned by the rebels in their flight. Kooser Singh, assisted by the villagers, outstripped Brigadier Douglas, who was pursuing him, and, crossing the Ganges at Shah-poor on the 21st, made for Jugdeespoor. His subsequent proceedings will be noticed under the head of Bengal.

An action with the rebels under Mahomed Hosen and Colonel Roweroti's force took place near Amorha, in the Goruckpore district, on the 17th of April. The enemy were defeated, and pursued to their entrenchment, losing one gun and about 100 men. The Yeomanry Cavalry behaved exceedingly well. Their loss was Corporal Troup and one private killed, four officers and 17 men wounded.

ALLAHABAD DIVISION.

Gen. Whitlock arrived at Baboon on the 19th April, having at Bhoragurh defeated the Nawab, who fled precipitately. General Whitlock captured four guns, and took possession of the city and palace of the Nawab. Eight guns were afterwards abandoned by the rebels and taken. Our loss one officer, Lieutenant Colbeck, 3rd Madras Europeans, killed; two officers wounded.

It is reported from Calpee that Tania Toped of the Banda Jhansi, and the Rajahs of Shagua and Campoor, with 7000 men and five guns, are encamped at Kooche (?) to oppose Sir Hugh Rose.

The Rao Sahib, with 1000 men and the relics of the Banda Nawab's force, is at Jubalpoor with three guns, to oppose General Whitlock at Calpee, where there are 2000 men and three guns.

General Whitlock is still at Banda. There is nothing of importance to report from the Agra and Meerut divisions.

FOREIGN-OFFICE DESPATCH.

The following telegraphic despatch from her Majesty's Acting Consul-General in Egypt was received at the Foreign-office, May 30, at 9 p.m.:

ALEXANDRIA, May 26.

The steamer Ganges arrived at Suez yesterday, with Bombay dates to the 9th instant.

General Walpole, with the heavy column from Lucknow, reached Futteghur on 27th April, where he was met by the Commander-in-Chief. Three other columns are to join as they advance on Barreilly, which is expected to be invested about the 10th instant.

General Walpole's division on the 15th of April made an unsuccessful attack on the fort of Rowas, which was attended with considerable loss, four officers, including Brigadier Adrian Hope, and about 100 men having fallen. Our troops were obliged to retire, but the enemy evacuated the fort in the night, and the column moved forward.

On the 22nd a large body of rebels was encountered opposite Kanouje, and was dispersed with loss of four guns, their camp, and 500 or 600 killed.

Kooser Sing, with about 2000 rebels, although hotly pursued by Brigadier Douglas, crossed the Ganges on the 5th of April and arrived at Jugdeespoor on the 22nd.

On the following day a force of 300 men under Capt. Lagrand, which advanced from Arrah, having followed the enemy into the jungle, was defeated; 123 men and 3 officers killed.

Body was taken by General Whitelock on the 19th of April, after an engagement in which the enemy lost 500 men and four guns.

Sir H. Rose left Jhansi on the 27th, and expected first, to be joined by General Whitelock and then to fight the Rancee's army, 12,000 strong, encamped at Kooche, in advance of Calpee.

The Kotah force has gone into quarters, with the exception of a small brigade ordered to proceed to Sir H. Rose's rear.

General Penny is moving now from the Ganges to assail Calpee from the east.

Brigadier Johns, of the 60 Rifles, has been successful in reaching Moordad (on 25th of April), after three actions, and the capture of Rojee dabad and Nujseena.

Sir W. Peel died at Cawnpore on 27th of April of smallpox.

This despatch arrived at Malta, from Alexandria, by steamer Euxine, at 7 46 A.M.

Malta, May 30.

INDIA.

SIR COLIN AND HIS MEN.

Sir Colin Campbell's tents were pitched inside the hot enclosure of the fort, and soon after our arrival his Excellency rode over to the hospital to inspect the wounded and sick from Walpole's column. He minutely examined all the preparations and accommodations for their reception and conversed with the men, who, confiding in his interest and in his well proved regard for their welfare, speak to him without reserve.

THE NANA SAHIB.

By the latest accounts from Bareilly we hear that Khan Bahadur Khan is fast losing the little intellect and influence which Lhang and opium had left him, and he is falling into second childhood. Under such circumstances the activity and energy of the Nana have secured to him a preponderating control, which he seems to be exercising most judiciously for the common interest of the enemy. He has in the Mahomedan city of Bareilly forbidden the killing of cows, and he has buried four amulets at each corner of the city, with crosses strictly Hindoo, to assure his followers of success. One of his emissaries was lately found near Indore with letters to persons of influence in Bundelcund and in the Mahratta country advising them to murder all the English, to hold out till the rains, and to organize a general rising, which will give a deathblow to our raj before the year is over. The cowardly assassin, who never yet has headed troops in the field, exhibits fertility of resources and power of combination beyond any of the leaders of the insurrection. But it is beyond his power to resist the force which will be brought against his troops, although the Rohillas are famous horsemen and Kohlicunh is said to swam with their cavalry.

SIR JAMES OUTRAM.—Sir James Outram has left Lucknow for Calcutta. A letter to a contemporary, dated the 6th inst., thus touchingly mentions his departure:—"General Outram left yesterday. He also under the salute due to his rank; but he left with that which rank cannot claim nor regulations compel—the tearful valedictions of many attached friends and the affectionate regrets of the whole army. How Sir James must have been beloved! was the pleased exclamation of his successor, Mr. Montgomery, as he watched the general's departure from Bank's House—that now historic mansion which shall henceforth know him no more for ever. God bless the dear old General as uttered by many a manly voice from the Dilkoosha to Moosa Bagh—from the cantonments to the Residency—in tones of deep emotion, and with the emphasis of unfeigned sincerity. And the bravery, the goodness, the tender-heartedness of the fine soldier who had so often led them in battle were the favorite topics of discussion yesterday afternoon, in every guard room, and at every mess. Well did this true hearted, chivalric, generous English gentleman merit the love of his troops, for rarely has there been a commander to whom the happiness and well-being of his men so much the object of incessant thought. Have you noticed the difference between his despatches and those of most other generals? With them it is I did this, I ordered that, I pushed on here, or effected a division there. With him how different! The whole operations are described as though they had been the spontaneous fits of the individual commanding officers, with no directing mind to regulate their movements. His is a limited to acknowledgments of his obligations, and how warmly does he acknowledge his obligations! How eager to say a kind word for every one! How thoughtful about all but himself!"—Bombay Telegraph.

SIR JAMES OUTRAM.—Sir James Outram has left Lucknow for Calcutta. A letter to a contemporary, dated the 6th inst., thus touchingly mentions his departure:—"General Outram left yesterday. He also under the salute due to his rank; but he left with that which rank cannot claim nor regulations compel—the tearful valedictions of many attached friends and the affectionate regrets of the whole army. How Sir James must have been beloved! was the pleased exclamation of his successor, Mr. Montgomery, as he watched the general's departure from Bank's House—that now historic mansion which shall henceforth know him no more for ever. God bless the dear old General as uttered by many a manly voice from the Dilkoosha to Moosa Bagh—from the cantonments to the Residency—in tones of deep emotion, and with the emphasis of unfeigned sincerity. And the bravery, the goodness, the tender-heartedness of the fine soldier who had so often led them in battle were the favorite topics of discussion yesterday afternoon, in every guard room, and at every mess. Well did this true hearted, chivalric, generous English gentleman merit the love of his troops, for rarely has there been a commander to whom the happiness and well-being of his men so much the object of incessant thought. Have you noticed the difference between his despatches and those of most other generals? With them it is I did this, I ordered that, I pushed on here, or effected a division there. With him how different! The whole operations are described as though they had been the spontaneous fits of the individual commanding officers, with no directing mind to regulate their movements. His is a limited to acknowledgments of his obligations, and how warmly does he acknowledge his obligations! How eager to say a kind word for every one! How thoughtful about all but himself!"—Bombay Telegraph.

SIR JAMES OUTRAM.—Sir James Outram has left Lucknow for Calcutta. A letter to a contemporary, dated the 6th inst., thus touchingly mentions his departure:—"General Outram left yesterday. He also under the salute due to his rank; but he left with that which rank cannot claim nor regulations compel—the tearful valedictions of many attached friends and the affectionate regrets of the whole army. How Sir James must have been beloved! was the pleased exclamation of his successor, Mr. Montgomery, as he watched the general's departure from Bank's House—that now historic mansion which shall henceforth know him no more for ever. God bless the dear old General as uttered by many a manly voice from the Dilkoosha to Moosa Bagh—from the cantonments to the Residency—in tones of deep emotion, and with the emphasis of unfeigned sincerity. And the bravery, the goodness, the tender-heartedness of the fine soldier who had so often led them in battle were the favorite topics of discussion yesterday afternoon, in every guard room, and at every mess. Well did this true hearted, chivalric, generous English gentleman merit the love of his troops, for rarely has there been a commander to whom the happiness and well-being of his men so much the object of incessant thought. Have you noticed the difference between his despatches and those of most other generals? With them it is I did this, I ordered that, I pushed on here, or effected a division there. With him how different! The whole operations are described as though they had been the spontaneous fits of the individual commanding officers, with no directing mind to regulate their movements. His is a limited to acknowledgments of his obligations, and how warmly does he acknowledge his obligations! How eager to say a kind word for every one! How thoughtful about all but himself!"—Bombay Telegraph.

SIR JAMES OUTRAM.—Sir James Outram has left Lucknow for Calcutta. A letter to a contemporary, dated the 6th inst., thus touchingly mentions his departure:—"General Outram left yesterday. He also under the salute due to his rank; but he left with that which rank cannot claim nor regulations compel—the tearful valedictions of many attached friends and the affectionate regrets of the whole army. How Sir James must have been beloved! was the pleased exclamation of his successor, Mr. Montgomery, as he watched the general's departure from Bank's House—that now historic mansion which shall henceforth know him no more for ever. God bless the dear old General as uttered by many a manly voice from the Dilkoosha to Moosa Bagh—from the cantonments to the Residency—in tones of deep emotion, and with the emphasis of unfeigned sincerity. And the bravery, the goodness, the tender-heartedness of the fine soldier who had so often led them in battle were the favorite topics of discussion yesterday afternoon, in every guard room, and at every mess. Well did this true hearted, chivalric, generous English gentleman merit the love of his troops, for rarely has there been a commander to whom the happiness and well-being of his men so much the object of incessant thought. Have you noticed the difference between his despatches and those of most other generals? With them it is I did this, I ordered that, I pushed on here, or effected a division there. With him how different! The whole operations are described as though they had been the spontaneous fits of the individual commanding officers, with no directing mind to regulate their movements. His is a limited to acknowledgments of his obligations, and how warmly does he acknowledge his obligations! How eager to say a kind word for every one! How thoughtful about all but himself!"—Bombay Telegraph.

SIR JAMES OUTRAM.—Sir James Outram has left Lucknow for Calcutta. A letter to a contemporary, dated the 6th inst., thus touchingly mentions his departure:—"General Outram left yesterday. He also under the salute due to his rank; but he left with that which rank cannot claim nor regulations compel—the tearful valedictions of many attached friends and the affectionate regrets of the whole army. How Sir James must have been beloved! was the pleased exclamation of his successor, Mr. Montgomery, as he watched the general's departure from Bank's House—that now historic mansion which shall henceforth know him no more for ever. God bless the dear old General as uttered by many a manly voice from the Dilkoosha to Moosa Bagh—from the cantonments to the Residency—in tones of deep emotion, and with the emphasis of unfeigned sincerity. And the bravery, the goodness, the tender-heartedness of the fine soldier who had so often led them in battle were the favorite topics of discussion yesterday afternoon, in every guard room, and at every mess. Well did this true hearted, chivalric, generous English gentleman merit the love of his troops, for rarely has there been a commander to whom the happiness and well-being of his men so much the object of incessant thought. Have you noticed the difference between his despatches and those of most other generals? With them it is I did this, I ordered that, I pushed on here, or effected a division there. With him how different! The whole operations are described as though they had been the spontaneous fits of the individual commanding officers, with no directing mind to regulate their movements. His is a limited to acknowledgments of his obligations, and how warmly does he acknowledge his obligations! How eager to say a kind word for every one! How thoughtful about all but himself!"—Bombay Telegraph.

SIR JAMES OUTRAM.—Sir James Outram has left Lucknow for Calcutta. A letter to a contemporary, dated the 6th inst., thus touchingly mentions his departure:—"General Outram left yesterday. He also under the salute due to his rank; but he left with that which rank cannot claim nor regulations compel—the tearful valedictions of many attached friends and the affectionate regrets of the whole army. How Sir James must have been beloved! was the pleased exclamation of his successor, Mr. Montgomery, as he watched the general's departure from Bank's House—that now historic mansion which shall henceforth know him no more for ever. God bless the dear old General as uttered by many a manly voice from the Dilkoosha to Moosa Bagh—from the cantonments to the Residency—in tones of deep emotion, and with the emphasis of unfeigned sincerity. And the bravery, the goodness, the tender-heartedness of the fine soldier who had so often led them in battle were the favorite topics of discussion yesterday afternoon, in every guard room, and at every mess. Well did this true hearted, chivalric, generous English gentleman merit the love of his troops, for rarely has there been a commander to whom the happiness and well-being of his men so much the object of incessant thought. Have you noticed the difference between his despatches and those of most other generals? With them it is I did this, I ordered that, I pushed on here, or effected a division there. With him how different! The whole operations are described as though they had been the spontaneous fits of the individual commanding officers, with no directing mind to regulate their movements. His is a limited to acknowledgments of his obligations, and how warmly does he acknowledge his obligations! How eager to say a kind word for every one! How thoughtful about all but himself!"—Bombay Telegraph.

SIR JAMES OUTRAM.—Sir James Outram has left Lucknow for Calcutta. A letter to a contemporary, dated the 6th inst., thus touchingly mentions his departure:—"General Outram left yesterday. He also under the salute due to his rank; but he left with that which rank cannot claim nor regulations compel—the tearful valedictions of many attached friends and the affectionate regrets of the whole army. How Sir James must have been beloved! was the pleased exclamation of his successor, Mr. Montgomery, as he watched the general's departure from Bank's House—that now historic mansion which shall henceforth know him no more for ever. God bless the dear old General as uttered by many a manly voice from the Dilkoosha to Moosa Bagh—from the cantonments to the Residency—in tones of deep emotion, and with the emphasis of unfeigned sincerity. And the bravery, the goodness, the tender-heartedness of the fine soldier who had so often led them in battle were the favorite topics of discussion yesterday afternoon, in every guard room, and at every mess. Well did this true hearted, chivalric, generous English gentleman merit the love of his troops, for rarely has there been a commander to whom the happiness and well-being of his men so much the object of incessant thought. Have you noticed the difference between his despatches and those of most other generals? With them it is I did this, I ordered that, I pushed on here, or effected a division there. With him how different! The whole operations are described as though they had been the spontaneous fits of the individual commanding officers, with no directing mind to regulate their movements. His is a limited to acknowledgments of his obligations, and how warmly does he acknowledge his obligations! How eager to say a kind word for every one! How thoughtful about all but himself!"—Bombay Telegraph.

SIR JAMES OUTRAM.—Sir James Outram has left Lucknow for Calcutta. A letter to a contemporary, dated the 6th inst., thus touchingly mentions his departure:—"General Outram left yesterday. He also under the salute due to his rank; but he left with that which rank cannot claim nor regulations compel—the tearful valedictions of many attached friends and the affectionate regrets of the whole army. How Sir James must have been beloved! was the pleased exclamation of his successor, Mr. Montgomery, as he watched the general's departure from Bank's House—that now historic mansion which shall henceforth know him no more for ever. God bless the dear old General as uttered by many a manly voice from the Dilkoosha to Moosa Bagh—from the cantonments to the Residency—in tones of deep emotion, and with the emphasis of unfeigned sincerity. And the bravery, the goodness, the tender-heartedness of the fine soldier who had so often led them in battle were the favorite topics of discussion yesterday afternoon, in every guard room, and at every mess. Well did this true hearted, chivalric, generous English gentleman merit the love of his troops, for rarely has there been a commander to whom the happiness and well-being of his men so much the object of incessant thought. Have you noticed the difference between his despatches and those of most other generals? With them it is I did this, I ordered that, I pushed on here, or effected a division there. With him how different! The whole operations are described as though they had been the spontaneous fits of the individual commanding officers, with no directing mind to regulate their movements. His is a limited to acknowledgments of his obligations, and how warmly does he acknowledge his obligations! How eager to say a kind word for every one! How thoughtful about all but himself!"—Bombay Telegraph.

SIR JAMES OUTRAM.—Sir James Outram has left Lucknow for Calcutta. A letter to a contemporary, dated the 6th inst., thus touchingly mentions his departure:—"General Outram left yesterday. He also under the salute due to his rank; but he left with that which rank cannot claim nor regulations compel—the tearful valedictions of many attached friends and the affectionate regrets of the whole army. How Sir James must have been beloved! was the pleased exclamation of his successor, Mr. Montgomery, as he watched the general's departure from Bank's House—that now historic mansion which shall henceforth know him no more for ever. God bless the dear old General as uttered by many a manly voice from the Dilkoosha to Moosa Bagh—from the cantonments to the Residency—in tones of deep emotion, and with the emphasis of unfeigned sincerity. And the bravery, the goodness, the tender-heartedness of the fine soldier who had so often led them in battle were the favorite topics of discussion yesterday afternoon, in every guard room, and at every mess. Well did this true hearted, chivalric, generous English gentleman merit the love of his troops, for rarely has there been a commander to whom the happiness and well-being of his men so much the object of incessant thought. Have you noticed the difference between his despatches and those of most other generals? With them it is I did this, I ordered that, I pushed on here, or effected a division there. With him how different! The whole operations are described as though they had been the spontaneous fits of the individual commanding officers, with no directing mind to regulate their movements. His is a limited to acknowledgments of his obligations, and how warmly does he acknowledge his obligations! How eager to say a kind word for every one! How thoughtful about all but himself!"—Bombay Telegraph.

SIR JAMES OUTRAM.—Sir James Outram has left Lucknow for Calcutta. A letter to a contemporary, dated the 6th inst., thus touchingly mentions his departure:—"General Outram left yesterday. He also under the salute due to his rank; but he left with that which rank cannot claim nor regulations compel—the tearful valedictions of many attached friends and the affectionate regrets of the whole army. How Sir James must have been beloved! was the pleased exclamation of his successor, Mr. Montgomery, as he watched the general's departure from Bank's House—that now historic mansion which shall henceforth know him no more for ever. God bless the dear old General as uttered by many a manly voice from the Dilkoosha to Moosa Bagh—from the cantonments to the Residency—in tones of deep emotion, and with the emphasis of unfeigned sincerity. And the bravery, the goodness, the tender-heartedness of the fine soldier who had so often led them in battle were the favorite topics of discussion yesterday afternoon, in every guard room, and at every mess. Well did this true hearted, chivalric, generous English gentleman merit the love of his troops, for rarely has there been a commander to whom the happiness and well-being of his men so much the object of incessant thought. Have you noticed the difference between his despatches and those of most other generals? With them it is I did this, I ordered that, I pushed on here, or effected a division there. With him how different! The whole operations are described as though they had been the spontaneous fits of the individual commanding officers, with no directing mind to regulate their movements. His is a limited to acknowledgments of his obligations, and how warmly does he acknowledge his obligations! How eager to say a kind word for every one! How thoughtful about all but himself!"—Bombay Telegraph.

SIR JAMES OUTRAM.—Sir James Outram has left Lucknow for Calcutta. A letter to a contemporary, dated the 6th inst., thus touchingly mentions his departure:—"General Outram left yesterday. He also under the salute due to his rank; but he left with that which rank cannot claim nor regulations compel—the tearful valedictions of many attached friends and the affectionate regrets of the whole army. How Sir James must have been beloved! was the pleased exclamation of his successor, Mr. Montgomery, as he watched the general's departure from Bank's House—that now historic mansion which shall henceforth know him no more for ever. God bless the dear old General as uttered by many a manly voice from the Dilkoosha to Moosa Bagh—from the cantonments to the Residency—in tones of deep emotion, and with the emphasis of unfeigned sincerity. And the bravery, the goodness, the tender-heartedness of the fine soldier who had so often led them in battle were the favorite topics of discussion yesterday afternoon, in every guard room, and at every mess. Well did this true hearted, chivalric, generous English gentleman merit the love of his troops, for rarely has there been a commander to whom the happiness and well-being of his men so much the object of incessant thought. Have you noticed the difference between his despatches and those of most other generals? With them it is I did this, I ordered that, I pushed on here, or effected a division there. With him how different! The whole operations are described as though they had been the spontaneous fits of the individual commanding officers, with no directing mind to regulate their movements. His is a limited to acknowledgments of his obligations, and how warmly does he acknowledge his obligations! How eager to say a kind word for every one! How thoughtful about all but himself!"—Bombay Telegraph.

SIR JAMES OUTRAM.—Sir James Outram has left Lucknow for Calcutta. A letter to a contemporary, dated the 6th inst., thus touchingly mentions his departure:—"General Outram left yesterday. He also under the salute due to his rank; but he left with that which rank cannot claim nor regulations compel—the tearful valedictions of many attached friends and the affectionate regrets of the whole army. How Sir James must have been beloved! was the pleased exclamation of his successor, Mr. Montgomery, as he watched the general's departure from Bank's House—that now historic mansion which shall henceforth know him no more for ever. God bless the dear old General as uttered by many a manly voice from the Dilkoosha to Moosa Bagh—from the cantonments to the Residency—in tones of deep emotion, and with the emphasis of unfeigned sincerity. And the bravery, the goodness, the tender-heartedness of the fine soldier who had so often led them in battle were the favorite topics of discussion yesterday afternoon, in every guard room, and at every mess. Well did this true hearted, chivalric, generous English gentleman merit the love of his troops, for rarely has there been a commander to whom the happiness and well-being of his men so much the object of incessant thought. Have you noticed the difference between his despatches and those of most other generals? With them it is I did this, I ordered that, I pushed on here, or effected a division there. With him how different! The whole operations are described as though they had been the spontaneous fits of the individual commanding officers, with no directing mind to regulate their movements. His is a limited to acknowledgments of his obligations, and how warmly does he acknowledge his obligations! How eager to say a kind word for every one! How thoughtful about all but himself!"—Bombay Telegraph.

SIR JAMES OUTRAM.—Sir James Outram has left Lucknow for Calcutta. A letter to a contemporary, dated the 6th inst., thus touchingly mentions his departure:—"General Outram left yesterday. He also under the salute due to his rank; but he left with that which rank cannot claim nor regulations compel—the tearful valedictions of many attached friends and the affectionate regrets of the whole army. How Sir James must have been beloved! was the pleased exclamation of his successor, Mr. Montgomery, as he watched the general's departure from Bank's House—that now historic mansion which shall henceforth know him no more for ever. God bless the dear old General as uttered by many a manly voice from the Dilkoosha to Moosa Bagh—from the cantonments to the Residency—in tones of deep emotion, and with the emphasis of unfeigned sincerity. And the bravery, the goodness, the tender-heartedness of the fine soldier who had so often led them in battle were the favorite topics of discussion yesterday afternoon, in every guard room, and at every mess. Well did this true hearted, chivalric, generous English gentleman merit the love of his troops, for rarely has there been a commander to whom the happiness and well-being of his men so much the object of incessant thought. Have you noticed the difference between his despatches and those of most other generals? With them it is I did this, I ordered that, I pushed on here, or effected a division there. With him how different! The whole operations are described as though they had been the spontaneous fits of the individual commanding officers, with no directing mind to regulate their movements. His is a limited to acknowledgments of his obligations, and how warmly does he acknowledge his obligations! How eager to say a kind word for every one! How thoughtful about all but himself!"—Bombay Telegraph.

SIR JAMES OUTRAM.—Sir James Outram has left Lucknow for Calcutta. A letter to a contemporary, dated the 6th inst., thus touchingly mentions his departure:—"General Outram left yesterday. He also under the salute due to his rank; but he left with that which rank cannot claim nor regulations compel—the tearful valedictions of many attached friends and the affectionate regrets of the whole army. How Sir James must have been beloved! was the pleased exclamation of his successor, Mr. Montgomery, as he watched the general's departure from Bank's House—that now historic mansion which shall henceforth know him no more for ever. God bless the dear old General as uttered by many a manly voice from the Dilkoosha to Moosa Bagh—from the cantonments to the Residency—in tones of deep emotion, and with the emphasis of unfeigned sincerity. And the bravery, the goodness, the tender-heartedness of the fine soldier who had so often led them in battle were the favorite topics of discussion yesterday afternoon, in every guard room, and at every mess. Well did this true hearted, chivalric, generous English gentleman merit the love of his troops, for rarely has there been a commander to whom the happiness and well-being of his men so much the object of incessant thought. Have you noticed the difference between his despatches and those of most other generals? With them it is I did this, I ordered that, I pushed on here, or effected a division there. With him how different! The whole operations are described as though they had been the spontaneous fits of the individual commanding officers, with no directing mind to regulate their movements. His is a limited to acknowledgments of his obligations, and how warmly does he acknowledge his obligations! How eager to say a kind word for every one! How thoughtful about all but himself!"—Bombay Telegraph.

SIR JAMES OUTRAM.—Sir James Outram has left Lucknow for Calcutta. A letter to a contemporary, dated the 6th inst., thus touchingly mentions his departure:—"General Outram left yesterday. He also under the salute due to his rank; but he left with that which rank cannot claim nor regulations compel—the tearful valedictions of many attached friends and the affectionate regrets of the whole army. How Sir James must have been beloved! was the pleased exclamation of his successor, Mr. Montgomery, as he watched the general's departure from Bank's House—that now historic mansion which shall henceforth know him no more for ever. God bless the dear old General as uttered by many a manly voice from the Dilkoosha to Moosa Bagh—from the cantonments to the Residency—in tones of deep emotion, and with the emphasis of unfeigned sincerity. And the bravery, the goodness, the tender-heartedness of the fine soldier who had so often led them in battle were the favorite topics of discussion yesterday afternoon, in every guard room, and at every mess. Well did this true hearted, chivalric, generous English gentleman merit the love of his troops, for rarely has there been a commander to whom the happiness and well-being of his men so much the object of incessant thought. Have you noticed the difference between his despatches and those of most other generals? With them it is I did this, I ordered that, I pushed on here, or effected a division there. With him how different! The whole operations are described as though they had been the spontaneous fits of the individual commanding officers, with no directing mind to regulate their movements. His is a limited to acknowledgments of his obligations, and how warmly does he acknowledge his obligations! How eager to say a kind word for every one! How thoughtful about all but himself!"—Bombay Telegraph.

SIR JAMES OUTRAM.—Sir James Outram has left Lucknow for Calcutta. A letter to a contemporary, dated the 6th inst., thus touchingly mentions his departure:—"General Outram left yesterday. He also under the salute due to his rank; but he left with that which rank cannot claim nor regulations compel—the tearful valedictions of many attached friends and the affectionate regrets of the whole army. How Sir James must have been beloved! was the pleased exclamation of his successor, Mr. Montgomery, as he watched the general's departure from Bank's House—that now historic mansion which shall henceforth know him no more for ever. God bless the dear old General as uttered by many a manly voice from the Dilkoosha to Moosa Bagh—from the cantonments to the Residency—in tones of deep emotion, and with the emphasis of unfeigned sincerity. And the bravery, the goodness, the tender-heartedness of the fine soldier who had so often led them in battle were the favorite topics of discussion yesterday afternoon, in every guard room, and at every mess. Well did this true hearted, chivalric, generous English gentleman merit the love of his troops, for rarely has there been a commander to whom the happiness and well-being of his men so much the object of incessant thought. Have you noticed the difference between his despatches and those of most other generals? With them it is I did this, I ordered that, I pushed on here, or effected a division there. With him how different! The whole operations are described as though they had been the spontaneous fits of the individual commanding officers, with no directing mind to regulate their movements. His is a limited to acknowledgments of his obligations, and how warmly does he acknowledge his obligations! How eager to say a kind word for every one! How thoughtful about all but himself!"—Bombay Telegraph.

SIR JAMES OUTRAM.—Sir James Outram has left Lucknow for Calcutta. A letter to a contemporary, dated the 6th inst., thus touchingly mentions his departure:—"General Outram left yesterday. He also under the salute due to his rank; but he left with that which rank cannot claim nor regulations compel—the tearful valedictions of many attached friends and the affectionate regrets of the whole army. How Sir James must have been beloved! was the pleased exclamation of his successor, Mr. Montgomery, as he watched the general's departure from Bank's House—that now historic mansion which shall henceforth know him no more for ever. God bless the dear old General as uttered by many a manly voice from the Dilkoosha to Moosa Bagh—from the cantonments to the Residency—in tones of deep emotion, and with the emphasis of unfeigned sincerity. And the bravery, the goodness, the tender-heartedness of the fine soldier who had so often led them in battle were the favorite topics of discussion yesterday afternoon, in every guard room, and at every mess. Well did this true hearted, chivalric, generous English gentleman merit the love of his troops, for rarely has there been a commander to whom the happiness and well-being of his men so much the object of incessant thought. Have you noticed the difference between his despatches and those of most other generals? With them it is I did this, I ordered that, I pushed on here, or effected a division there. With him how different! The whole operations are described as though they had been the spontaneous fits of the individual commanding officers, with no directing mind to regulate their movements. His is a limited to acknowledgments of his obligations, and how warmly does he acknowledge his obligations! How eager to say a kind word for every one! How thoughtful about all but himself!"—Bombay Telegraph.

SIR JAMES OUTRAM.—Sir James Outram has left Lucknow for Calcutta. A letter to a contemporary, dated the 6th inst., thus touchingly mentions his departure:—"General Outram left yesterday. He also under the salute due to his rank; but he left with that which rank cannot claim nor regulations compel—the tearful valedictions of many attached friends and the affectionate regrets of the whole army. How Sir James must have been beloved! was the pleased exclamation of his successor, Mr. Montgomery, as he watched the general's departure from Bank's House—that now historic mansion which shall henceforth know him no more for ever. God bless the dear old General as uttered by many a manly voice from the Dilkoosha to Moosa Bagh—from the cantonments to the Residency—in tones of deep emotion, and with the emphasis of unfeigned sincerity. And the bravery, the goodness, the tender-heartedness of the fine soldier who had so often led them in battle were the favorite topics of discussion yesterday afternoon, in every guard room, and at every mess. Well did this true hearted, chivalric, generous English gentleman merit the love of his troops, for rarely has there been a commander to whom the happiness and well-being of his men so much the object of incessant thought. Have you noticed the difference between his despatches and those of most other generals? With them it is I did this, I ordered that, I pushed on here, or effected a division there. With him how different! The whole operations are described as though they had been the spontaneous fits of the individual commanding officers, with no directing mind to regulate their movements. His is

On Sale.

BY
PUNTON & MUNN
EX Queen from Liverpool

538 coils CORDAGE
171 bags NAILS
200 kegs PAINT

—AND—
A General Assortment of store and shop GOODS
Suitable for the Season (Cheap for Cash).
May 3rd 1858.

Ridley & Sons

ARE
now landing from the Schooner "Triumphant"
From Hamburg

700 firkins BUTTER
1000 bags BREAD

THE
Whole will be sold on reasonable terms.
Harbor Grace, May 5th.

Wallace Free Stone Quarries.

THE undersigned being agent for the proprietors of the above quarries. Parties requiring Stone, for this Years operations, are requested to forward their orders as soon as possible to

GEO. F. BOWN.

WANTED

To hire a vessel for the Summer.

APPLY
As under

HENRY WARREN.

St. Johns May 26th

At the Premises of the Subscriber
100 M. Prime Board
And Plank

Per "Napoleon" from Liverpool N. S.
25 M. Hemlock Board
20 M. pm. Pine Board
3 M. Clapboard
200 M. Shingles
55 M. Herring Brl.

Staves
170 Bushels Oats
100 Hhds. Coal

Per "Eclipse" from Sydney
ANDREW DRYSDALE
Harbor Grace, }
May 26 1858. }

BY

RIDLEY AND SONS
115 pun. Cienfugas
Molasses

Very Superior.
1000 Brs. FLOUR Superfine
200 do. PORK
30 Boxes TOBACCO
Ex Mary Zabine, from Baltimore.

ON SALE.

30,000 Feet Pine
CLAPBOARD
10,000 Feet Pine
BOARD.

RUTHERFORD BROTHERS

Harbor Grace, }
May 26 1858. }

For Sale, Cheap,
50,000 prime hemlock
BOARD,
1000 M. Shingles

Cargo of Schooner Acheiver
RUTHERFORD BROTHER
Harbor Grace 19 May, 1858.

THE SUBSCRIBERS have just received
Ex. ST. VINCENT from New York
And offer for Sale.

1000 Brs. superfine
Flour.

150 Do. Prime Beef
50 Do. Prime Pork
30 Do. Mess Beef

RIDLEY & SONS.

NOW Landing Ex. CAROLINE from Baltimore. And for sale.

984 Brs. sp. Flour
234 Do. Pork
48 Superior Tobacco

PUNTON & MUNN.
May 8.

NOTICES.

COMMERCIAL BANK
OF NEWFOUNDLAND.

THE RATE OF INTEREST allowed by this Bank on Special Deposits made after this date, will be Three per cent per annum, and all deposit receipts now outstanding will be reduced to the same rate of interest as they respectively fall due.

(By order of the Board,)

R. BROWN.
Manager

UNION BANK
OF NEWFOUNDLAND.

THE RATE OF INTEREST on Deposit
Receipts of this Bank, will be reduced to Three per cent per annum. from and after the 1st day of July next.

(By order of the Board)

JOHN W. SMITH,
Manager

May 25.

THE STEAMER

ELLEN GISBORNE,

Will leave Harbor Grace for Portugal Cove on Monday at 8 a.m. calling at Carbonear, Bay
Robert's, and Brigus return to Harbor Grace.

Tuesday, leave Harbor Grace at 10 a.m. for Portugal Cove, return to Brigus, Carbonear and Harbor Grace. Thursday, leave Harbor
Grace at 8 a.m. for Cove, calling at Brigus and return to Brigus, Bay Robert's and Harbor Grace, Saturday leave Harbor Grace at 8 a.m. for Cove calling at Brigus, and return to Brigus, Carbonear, and Harbor Grace.

G. MACKINSON.
Harbor Grace, }
May 6th 1858 }

ON SALE.

RIDLEY & SONS

HAVE received per Greyhound & Spirit of the Times, the remainder of their Spring GOODS containing all supplies necessary for the fishery, which will be sold on usual accommodating terms.

Harbor Grace, May 19 1858.

JUST RECEIVED per Queen from Liverpool—A large & well Selected Stock OF

MEDICINES

PATENT MEDICINES of all kinds
Also, of Excellent quality, Pearl BARLEY
SAGO, ARROWROOT.
Patent BARLEY, Patent GROATS,
TAMARINDS,
BREAD SODA, SALT PETRE,
SAL PRUNELLA, PEARL ASHES,
SAND PAPER
SERVANT'S FRIEND, MUSTARD
STARCH, FURNITURE POLISH
Brass do.
Hair DYE, Marking INK, Black Red and Blue do.
Dry PAINTS, WHITE LEAD,
Copal VARNISH No. 1, LYTHARGE,
CITRON,
LOGWOOD, &c. &c. &c.
—ALSO—

Spices, Confection-ary, Perfumery,

(Wholesale and Retail)

AND

New garden SEEDS.

Depository for the British and Foreign Bible Society.

Carbonear April 27, 1858.
W. H. THOMPSON.

CHEAP GOODS!

SELLING off at and below prime cost, by the Subscribers at Mr. Thomas Ross's Shop two doors east of Church Hill, an assortment of British Manufactured GOODS, saved from the FIRE, consisting of

Cobergs, Merinos
Muslins Linnens
Silks Calicos
Ribbons Flannels
Laces Serges
Prints Hosiery
Blanketing
Shoes Boots

And a variety of other articles.

WALKER & ROSS

May 10th, 1858.

Ridley & Sons

Have received per "Belle" from Liverpool large and well selected stock of British Manufactured Goods,

Suitable for the coming Season,
—ALSO—
a general assortment of store Goods.

25 March

Notices.

BRITANNIA LIFE
Assurance Company
1, PRINCESS STREET, BANK, LONDON.

ESTABLISHED—1837.

Impowered by Special Act of Parliament, IVN
1st. cap. IX.

ADVANTAGES OF THIS INSTITUTION.
INCREASING RATES OF PREMIUM.

A Table especially adapted of the securing of Loans or Debts, and to all others cases where a Policy may be required for a temporary purpose only, but which may be kept up, if necessary throughout the whole term of Life.

HAL-CREDIT RATES OF PREMIUM.

Credit given for half the amount of the First Seven Annual Premiums, the amount of the unpaid Half-Premiums being deducted from the sum assured when the Policy becomes a claim

SUM ASSURED PAYABLE DURING LIFE.
The amount payable at the death of the Assured, if he die before attaining the age of sixty out to the assured himself, if he attain that age thus combining a provision for old age with assurance upon life.

ORPHAN'S ENDOWMENT BRANCH.

Established for the purpose of affording to parents and others the means of having Children educated and started in life, by securing annuties, to commence at the Parent's death, and to be aid until a child, if a son, shall attain his 21st year, or, if a daughter, her 25th year of age.

BRITANNIA MUTUAL
LIFE ASSOCIATION.

1, PRINCESS STREET, BANK, LONDON.

INSITUATED—1839.

Impowered by Her Majesty's Royal Letters
Patent.

Annual Division of Profits—applied in reduction of the current year's Premium.

Policy-holders entitled to participate in the profits after payment of Five or Seven Annual Premiums according to the table of Rates selected.

Premiums charged for every three month difference of age—not, as is usually the case for every whole year only.

Half Credit Policies granted on terms unusually favourable to the assured, the amount of half premiums for which credit is given being liquidated out of the profits.

At the last Annual General Meeting a reduction 30 per centum was made in the current year's premium on all participating Policies.

Age of the Assured in every case admitted in the Policy.

Medical Attendants remunerated in all cases of the Reports.

Age.	Quarterly Premium.		Half Yearly Premium.		Annual Premium.
	s.	d.	s.	d.	s.	d.
25	0	12	1	4	2	7
30	0	12	1	4	2	7
35	0	12	1	4	2	7
40	0	12	1	4	2	7
45	0	12	1	4	2	7
50	0	12	1	4	2	7
55	0	12	1	4	2	7
60	0	12	1	4	2	7
65	0	12	1	4	2	7
70	0	12	1	4	2	7
75	0	12	1	4	2	7
80	0	12	1	4	2	7
85	0	12	1	4	2	7
90	0	12	1	4	2	7

Age.	Whole (Annual) Premium for remainder of Life.		Half Premium during First 7 years.
	s.	d.	s.	d.
25	1	19	0	10
30	1	19	0	10
35	1	19	0	10
40	1	19	0	10
45	1	19	0	10
50	1	19	0	10
55	1	19	0	10
60	1	19	0	10
65	1	19	0	10
70	1	19	0	10
75	1	19	0	10
80	1	19	0	10
85	1	19	0	10
90	1	19	0	10

Detailed prospectuses, and every requisite information as to the mode of effecting Assurances may be obtained upon application to

ROBERT PROWSE,

NOTARY PUBLIC,

January Agent for Newfoundland

PERSONS having claims against the estate of the late Isabella Richards are required to furnish them to the subscribers.

Harbour Grace } John Richards } Executors
May 13 1857. } Robert Walsh }

