CHAPTER XXVI. LOVE THE MAGICIAN.

AS Heaven is my witness, I do not know—I do not care to guess. I love you too dearly to seek to pry into your secret—if you have one; but still I ask—why do you not trust me?

Now Cured of Rheumatism

Cost him $100.00 for medicines which failed—Cured by DR. CHASE'S KIDNEY-LIVER PILLS.

chattered and slandered about by the friends of your new life—you were right, quite right! But why did you mistrust me? Why did you refuse to show me your mother's portrait, why avoid all mention of that past which I will prove my love by obeying even this cruellest command you can give me—I will go, but—but my love cannot be slain or set aside so easily as I myself am set aside.

almost the sign of yielding, but it was not scorn. Unfortunately, for him, he uttered that name—Hilda; and a revulsion of feeling swept over her.

DYSPEPSIA

"Having taken your wonderful 'Cascarets' for three months, and being entirely cured of stomach catarrh and dyspepsia, I think a word of praise is due to 'Cascarets' for their wonderful composition. I have taken numerous other so-called remedies but without avail, and I find that Cascarets relieve more in a day than all the others I have taken would in a year."

if you do not care to trust me, I am indifferent. You will learn to trust me in time, to trust me with everything.

Do You Know Your Ailment

Or is it a complication which can be reached only by DR. CHASE'S KIDNEY-LIVER PILLS.

He took it eagerly; it was hot and burning. He clung to it passionately. 'I will go,' he said, his dark eyes fixed on her face. 'Yes, I will go; I will prove my love by obeying even this cruellest command you can give me—I will go, but—but my love cannot be slain or set aside so easily as I myself am set aside.'

'No, no! Do not speak to me—do not look at me! If—if—another love, leave me now without another word. Go! Oh, go, go!'

The Evening Chat-Chat

By RUTH CAMERON

A Dear little girl has written to tell me that, in a moment of weakness, she allowed a man, with whom she had been friends for some months but who had never said that he loved her, to kiss her, and that she has been w-o-r-r-y-ing about it ever since.

Long, long may you worry, little girl, over things like that. I wish there were more girls worrying with you. "Absurd!" says someone. "A kiss isn't anything wicked."

Indeed, it isn't, my friend—it is quite one of the most beautiful things in the world when it is exchanged as a seal of love between two avowed lovers.

But when it is not in the least a seal of love, when there is no pretense of love behind it, when it is merely a form of pleasure, I do not think it is beautiful at all, but foolish and dangerous.

"Remember, I like him very much and I feel quite confident it is mutual," writes my little friend. "I don't doubt that it is, and I don't believe you have done anything wrong at all, little girl, but if you really want the honest advice you ask for, and are not, as most advice seekers are, just hoping to be advised to do what you want, I will suggest that you let the man wait for caresses until he wins the right to them by telling you that he loves you.

I once had a great aunt who told me that, although she was engaged a whole year, she never kissed her fiance until he was her husband. I have also heard several worthy ladies of the same decade make similar statements, and it makes me think one of two things—either that human nature must have been mighty different in those days, or else the memories of people of that generation must be astonishingly weak.

I certainly don't believe in any such straightlaced prudery as that. I don't even believe that a girl must be diamond-rings-and-announcements engaged before she allows her lover to kiss her. But I do believe in a girl's being sure that a kiss is an expression of honest love and not a form of amusement before she grants it.

Isn't that a good test to apply to the whole matter of—well, I hate the word, but what other is there for it—"spooping"?

Whatever you do, simply for the sensation, without love behind it, is wrong.

Whatever—within the bounds of propriety—you do, as a spontaneous expression of affection because you love the man and he loves you, is right.

Now please don't use this to justify anything that you know in your heart is wrong. It is not meant for that.

Ruth Cameron

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription

is the best of all medicines for the cure of diseases, disorders and weaknesses, peculiar to women. It is the only preparation of its kind devised by a regularly graduated physician—an experienced and skilled specialist in the diseases of women.

It is a safe medicine in any condition of the system. THE ONE REMEDY which contains no alcohol and no injurious habit-forming drugs and which creates no craving for such stimulants.

THE ONE REMEDY so good that its makers are not afraid to print its every ingredient on each outside bottle wrapper and attest to the truthfulness of the same under oath.

It is sold by medicine dealers everywhere, and any dealer who hasn't it can get it. Don't take a substitute of unknown composition for this medicine of known composition. No counterfeit is as good as the genuine and the druggist who says something else is "just as good as Dr. Pierce's" is either mistaken or is trying to deceive you for his own selfish benefit. Such a man is not to be trusted. He is trifling with your most priceless possession—your health—may be your life itself. See that you get what you ask for.

HOUSEHOLD NOTES.

When finishing home-made rugs, bind the edges with the rubber matting ends that are used for finishing matting.

A little kerosene on a soft, wet cloth removes all dirt and grease from painted kitchen walls and from the gas range.

In patching if embroidery hoops are used to hold the cloth with which you are patching in place, basting is unnecessary.

A piece of court plaster on the end of the forefinger of the left hand will protect it from needle pricks when sewing.

Many women to protect their hands use chamios-mittens when sweeping and performing tasks where gloves will not interfere.

When a box of sardines is opened, so that the rent or hole will be almost invisible.

When an ink blot occurs and the eraser is not at hand, use a bit of the emery board which comes to manure the hands.

Many a basting can be dispensed with if you keep on hand a box of wire fasteners such as are used for keeping papers together.

Fresh fruit stains may be removed from linen by holding the cloth over a bowl and pouring boiling—not hot—water over them.

A cupful of grape juice or raspberry or a few crushed mint leaves added to a pitcher of lemonade makes a refreshing drink.

Gloves, fine muslins and all sheer materials can be mended with hair if should be drained of all oil possible, and the little fish turned out and sprinkled with lemon juice.

If one has forgotten to add flavoring to cake batter, try sprinkling the required amount over the cake as it stands in the pan before baking.

A delicious accompaniment to a fish course is small tomatoes, scooped out and filled with grated cucumbers, well seasoned. Serve ice cold.

Dish-mops and discloths are very apt to become sour in hot weather. It is a very good plan, to boil them out often in a solution of soda and water.

Muslin sash curtains are sometimes torn by fastening the rods to their hems. To prevent, put a thimble on one end of the rod and pass through the hem.

If a teaspoonful of salt and one of pulverized soap are added to every two cupfuls of starch, it will give a beautiful lustre to the starched clothes.

Use a new corset string to fasten buttons to children's clothes. Take a small piece, run through the two holes of the button and sew ends firmly to the garment.

When a gas mantle begins to turn black, sprinkle a little salt on it with a salt shaker and light. The black part will burn off and become white again.

An Outer Cove Man Drowned.

Wednesday a message reached Outer Cove from New York stating that a young man of that place had been drowned at the pogie fishery. The message which was dated 23rd inst. gave no particulars and was received by Rev. M. J. Clarke, P. P., Torbay. Both the parents of the deceased are dead and he is mourned by one sister. Father Clarke broke the sad news to Mrs. Kinella an aunt of the deceased who in turn informed her niece of her brother's fate and she, poor girl, is since prostrated from grief. The deceased who was in his 31st year was a very quiet, unassuming chap and a fine able athletic fellow. This was his first year to go pogie fishing. He heretofore worked at Bell Island where he made good wages. He was well known in St. John's and his friends here will learn with sorrow of his death.

A Champion Swimmer.

Hallifax, Aug. 21.—Ralph Kendall, of Sydney, captured all the leading events in the Maritime Provinces swimming championships held at the Waegwatic on the North West Arm Saturday afternoon.

A Powerful Swimmer.

He showed himself a very powerful and swift swimmer, and his style attracted a great deal of attention. The way he kept his head in the water and yet breathed with the greatest freedom as he turned his head with each stroke was something new in Halifax.

Won Everything.

Kendall won the 50 yards in 50.3-seconds; 100 yards in 1.17 3-5; 220 yards in 3.26 1-5, and the 440 yards in 7.32. At no time was Kendall really pushed. He simply won as he liked.

Marine Notes.

The Olinda, Capt. Courtenay, is being loaded with fish for Brazil by Monroe & Co.

The Bornu sails at 1 p.m. to-morrow for Halifax and New York. She takes considerable cargo and her passengers booked to date are—Miss Nutting, Miss Grief, Miss Gilchrist, Miss McPherson, Miss Murphy and two Sisters of Charity.

The S. S. Shenandoah leaves London for here on the 3rd prox.

Capt. Evans, of the Blanche Currie, says that it was an error which we made on Tuesday in saying that his vessel was about to leave for an out-harbor to load fish. He is not yet chartered, but is open for one.

The Olinda leaves Halifax to-night for this port.

The Galatea is now at Sydney and is loading coal for Geo. Neal.

The S. S. Thyra left Bell Island for Philadelphia yesterday with 6,260 tons ore, shipped by the N. S. S. Co.

Here and There.

The Methodist Guards Band will parade at Headquarters this evening at 8 o'clock sharp. Every member must be present.—ad 11

A QUICK TRIP.—The sloop Strathcona, Capt. Pettipas, arrived here on Wednesday from Oporto to Geo. Neal with onions and ballast, after a run of 23 days. She made the run over to Oporto from Lapelle in the quick time of 12 days.

BERRIES PLENTIFUL.—Partridge berries are plentiful again on the north shore of Conception Bay this season. The boys and girls are looking forward to earning enough from this source to purchase their winter flour.

WAS MR. BOGGAN.—In dealing with the erection of the new Sacred Heart statue, yesterday by a misprint the donors name was given as J. Duggan. It was Mr. James Boggan, cooper, who gave this splendid piece of statuary to the Nuns of the Mercy Convent.

BACK FROM THE STRAITS.—C. H. Hyndson's schooner arrived at Dildo from the Straits this week with 150 quintals. He made a quick discharge and went off to the Straits again yesterday.

Quick Relief

Request to the Council.

We believe it would clear the air considerably if the Municipal Council would make a statement of their policy in regard to the purchase of land in the vicinity of Windsor Lake. The public have the haziest of notions in regard to it. The Council would do well to tell us plainly why the policy was entered upon; what area of land will be required to carry out the policy; what the carrying out of the policy will cost; what has already been done; how far the Municipality is committed to the policy. We were told some time ago that many loads of filth were taken out of the approaches to the distributing main at Windsor Lake, and that previously that place had never been cleared of accumulations of dirt and debris. We also remember reading accounts of analyses of Windsor Lake water and the recorded presence of microbes with fearsome names, but whether their presence was as noxious as their names were unfamiliar we are not in a position to know. So far as our information goes, like "Reform," we have never heard of any outbreak of disease in the town being traced directly to any impurity of water at Windsor Lake, although we remember the cases of fever in the neighbourhood of the pond. At the time of the publication of the analysis of Windsor Lake water, we had a conversation with a medical practitioner in town who pointed out that there was more danger to be apprehended from unclean drains and grids near water pumps than could possibly arise from the chance of pollution in the vicinity of Windsor Lake. His views would bear out the opinion so emphatically expressed by our correspondent "Reform" that the danger spots lurk nearer home than in Twenty Mile Pond. In any case, it would be well for citizens to know where they are in regard to the scheme for appropriating land near Windsor Lake, and an authoritative statement from the Mayor and his colleagues which would throw light on the situation would not be untimely. We recognize the force of "Reform's" contention, but we should like to see the Council's case presented. At present, we have an open mind on the subject.

Football Match.

A fast and clean game of football was played last evening on St. George's field between the C. C. C. and the M. G. B. The game resulted in a draw, as it did on two previous occasions this season when these teams played. It is also remarkable that the same number of goals were scored each time, namely, two. The Guards took the western goal, with the wind in their favor. They worked well and secured their two goals before the half time whistle sounded. On the positions being changed, the Cadets got in their work in good style and before the full time was called had secured the equalizers. The attendance at the match last night was not large, those who were in attendance viewed a very fine game of football. The receipts will be given to the men on the gate.

CRICKET MATCH RECEIPTS.—Ninety dollars is the amount received on the gate and the grand stand at the recent cricket match. The money was handed over to the Lord Bishop for the ships fund.

Sad, Sudden Death.

A very sudden death occurred this morning and under sad conditions, the victim being Mr. Jas. Walkins, of Bannerman Street. The deceased, who was a well known cooper and worked for years on Job Bros. premises, as did his father before him, had been ill for lengthy periods and suffered from heart trouble and dropsy. Though unwell for some time past and under the doctor's care, he was not ill enough to keep his bed and could work. He was at work on Job's all yesterday, and last evening after tea took a stroll down town and went on Job's wharf. He retired last night in apparently good health and at 4 o'clock this morning his wife called him to get ready to go to work. She received no answer and was horrified to find her husband dead in his bed. The affair was indeed a sad one and when discovered Mr. Walkins was beyond the reach of medical aid. He was a well known and kindly disposed man. He leaves a wife and 5 children, a brother, also in Job's employ, and an aged and widowed mother, to whom the Telegram extends its sympathy.

Why Must We Die?

"Behold we die, we perish, we all perish" (Num. xvii. 27). Whenever we fasten our sorrowful gaze upon a coffin, we feel not merely that its lid covers for aye the remains of a person dear to us, but also that it hides from our sight the very mystery of Life and Death; it conceals from our human ken the answer we all long to learn, to the old yet ever new question: Why must men be born only to die? Why must the cradle feed the grave? Why must the home people the cemetery? Why, oh why must parents become childless and children fatherless and motherless? Why not get your clothing, dry goods and furniture for cash or credit from B. FRIEDMAN, Complete House Furnisher, 299-301 Water Street (water side)? P. O. Box 45; Phone 546. Mail orders promptly attended to. aug26,21

Tourists Visit the R.C. Cathedral.

A large number of the tourists who arrived by the Bornu visited the R. C. Cathedral last night. His Grace Archbishop Howley who was there at the time kindly showed them around, and had all the electric lights turned on brilliantly illuminating the handsome interior. All were delighted with the artistic appearance of the edifice and later went through the grounds viewing the stately and the ecclesiastical buildings.

The Siberian Here.

The Allan liner Siberian arrived here at 11 o'clock this morning from Philadelphia after a run of 5 days. She left there Saturday and had excellent weather down, but was delayed four hours off Cape Race last night by fog. She brought considerable mail matter, a freight of 1,000 barrels and the following passengers: Winifred Dawe, Paul T. Warner and C. W. Smith. She sails for Glasgow at midnight taking 900 casks oil and these passengers: Miss Tyndall, T. B. and Mrs. Job, T. K. Job, Rev. W. Stacey, Miss Carruthers, Commander and Mrs. Innes, R. J. When a person feels "blue"—"all tired out"—doesn't feel like doing anything—cannot concentrate his mind on his work—feels weak mentally and physically—doubts his powers—complains of poor appetite and sleeplessness—suffers from headaches—then his nervous system is run-down and demands a good up-building tonic. Nervous exhaustion is a modern disease, caused by too close attention to business, overwork, worry, devotion to trying family cares over-study, etc. Nutritive Hypophosphites forms the best nerve and brain food known, and have restored thousands of sufferers to health. A large number of fishermen of the North Shore, Conception Bay, are now making ready to leave for Canada. Twenty came by the schr. ### POLICE COURT NEWS.

To-day a drunk was discharged. The West Ender who was arrested Tuesday as an accomplice of the man who was apprehended last evening for stealing lead and carpenters' tools, was released. Although he sold the goods for the other he proved to the satisfaction of the Court that he did not know they were stolen. The man arrested yesterday was then brought to the bar and charged with (1) the larceny of 28 lbs. of sheet lead, valued at $1.60, from residences in course of erection near Robinson's Hill; (2) the larceny of a pair of overalls valued at 80 cents; (3) a brace and bit and hand saw, valued at $4; (4) the larceny of a bench axe, 1 bevel, 1 chisel and 1 plane, valued at $2.50, and (5) the stealing of 1 brace and 3 bits, 1 chisel, 1 turn-screw and 1 iron plane, valued at $4.50. These larcenies occurred on the nights of the 18th, 23rd and 24th. The prisoner pleaded not guilty to each charge. The evidence of Sergt. Byrne and the carpenters who owned the property was taken. The implements were all produced in court and were identified by their owners. The lead, which was torn in a peculiar manner, as well as the overalls, were easily recognizable. The prisoner was remanded for eight days.

Personal.

Mr. W. O'Neil and bride returned by last night's train from Avondale where they had been spending the honeymoon. Mr. M. B. Vall left by the express last evening on a three weeks business trip through the Provinces. Mr. V. P. Burke and wife returned by the S. S. Bornu. Rt. Rev. Monsignor Veitch, P.P. Conception Harbor, is in town to-day. Mr. F. O'Toole, J.P., arrived from Harbor Main to-day.

A Peculiar Happening.

Yesterday a mercantile firm in the city had a letter from Tizzard's H.R. dated the 22nd inst., saying that there was quite an improvement in the fishery there. This of course was quite a lot of welcome news, but a peculiar feature of the letter was the fact that the captain had struck the shore again. This is undoubtedly an unprecedented circumstance for this late season of the year. Fish have let the coast all pound for six weeks past.

Bishop Thanked Him.

Mr. Jeremiah Savage of the Shamrock Cricket team had a sincere note of thanks to-day from His Lordship Bishop Jones for the proceeds of the game, in Wednesday's match which were handed to His Lordship. The gross proceeds amounted to about $104, and the net amounted to nearly $90. Mr. Savage put forth every exertion to have the match played and certainly his efforts were crowned with success.

WATCH GUARD TORN OFF.—Two fellows were fighting on Water Street West, near P. Wadden's store, this morning. Mr. Leo O'Dea who interfered to separate them, was poorly rewarded for his kindness and one of them tore his watch chain out and broke it in two pieces and otherwise roughly handled him.

TRAINED NURSE RETURNED.—Miss Minnie Dawe, daughter of Capt. Eli Dawe, returned home by the S. S. Siberian from Philadelphia. She had been engaged as nurse in the children's Hospital, Philadelphia the past two years. Miss Dawe holds "first class diploma" and is at the head of the profession.

Only Triplane in the World.

Special Evening Telegram. BOSTON, Mass., Aug. 25. The first triplane to be seen in this country arrived to-day for the Harvard Aero meet, in which will compete some 18 American and foreign aviators with at least 15 different makes of machines. The triplane is the first foreign machine to arrive at the grounds, and it is the property of A. Roe of England, who has the only triplane in the world.

Ashore at Bell Isle.

Yesterday Hon. John Harris had the following message from Belle Isle in the Straits, via Cape Ray:—"Stranded east and Belle Isle; struck reef yesterday, 3 o'clock afternoon; steamer ashore, full of water forward; can do nothing; advise what to do. Still aboard whaling steamer Cachet." (Sgd.) AMUNDSEN.

Here and There.

The Cachet is a well known and very successful whaling steamer, and for the past four years has been fishing from Hawke's Harbor, Labrador. When the Invermore arrived here she reported the Cachet with 32 fish, and with encouraging prospects ahead. It is likely she was after fish when the accident occurred; and no doubt she stranded in a fog, though the message does not say so. She is owned by a company of which Hon. John Harris and Mr. D. A. Ryan, of King's Cove, are large shareholders. She is insured only against total loss. It is not likely that she will come off the rocks.

Typhoid Fever.

Nurse Beagle Ellis went out to Millerton by the express last evening to attend the cases of typhoid fever reported from there yesterday. Three of the patients are very ill and their recovery is very doubtful. Miss Ellis is an experienced nurse and spent some years at the General Hospital. She also did good work in nursing patients at Harbor Buffet two years ago when diphtheria broke out there.

Bait the Drawback.

The schr. Ida C. Spofforth, Capt. T. Griffin, arrived at James Baird, Ltd., yesterday from Harbor Buffet with 1,000 qts. fish. Capt. Griffin reports speaking to a fleet of boats at Cape St. Mary's and they report fish very plentiful there but the great drawback is scarcity of bait. The same applies all round St. Mary's Bay when it squid were plentiful a good hook and line voyage would be killed.

Good Draws.

Editor Evening Telegram. Dear Sir.—Now that our football season is over, all the little incidents of the "game" appear and appeal to me. I have noted the peculiar attitude of the Cadets and Guards in the field, and it is remarkable that these two teams have made in the brigade matches three draws, being two goals each in those respective games. It is also noteworthy that besides the ability to draw with each other, those players can also draw a crowd, and that 'twas the Cadets who were always on "guard". The Guards are however, "good fellows," and are always first—to a buoy (boy). Yours truly, P. J. K.

RETURNED FROM HOLIDAY.—Mr. S. Ryall of Anderson's returned by last night's train after spending a very pleasant holiday of 10 days at Holyrood. Skipper Sam enjoyed some good fishing while there.

Have 60 Whales.

People in from Placentia Bay by last night's train say that the Lynx and Puma, which are fishing from Rose au Rue, had 20 whales each up to Sunday last. The Lynx secured two last week, which brought her catch up to the Puma's. She killed these fish between Grand Bank and St. Pierre Bank, a distance of 80 miles from the base of operations, and had a long tow with them. Whales are very scarce in Placentia Bay.

C.L.B. Doings.

The Battalion purpose to hold drill twice a week when the holiday season is over. A new division to be known as "E" Company will be formed which will take in the bigger boys of "B" Company and the smaller lads of "A". The new gymnasium is progressing favorably and will soon be ready for use of the members.

Fishery at Burin.

Mr. James Moore arrived here last night from Burin and says that during the past week there is much improvement in the fishery in that section. The bankers are doing exceptionally well, and the voyage will be the best for several years.

BURIED AT PETTY HARBOR.—The remains of the late Laurence Hanaford were yesterday afternoon conveyed to Petty Harbor, his native place, where they will be interred to-day in the family burial plot in the R. C. Cemetery.

Here and There.

from New York via Halifax. The ship had exceptionally fine weather on the run down from New York and Pastor's Term is Unchanged.

Four Year Period Retained by Vote
at Methodist Conference.
Victoria, B. C., August 20.—Yesterday saw the great question of the length of the pastoral term discussed in the general conference. The report of the committee on itineracy and transfers was the first to be presented at the afternoon session. It recommended that the pastors of mission churches, ministers engaged in teaching in colleges or in universities, general conference officers and certain others be not subject to the limit term. All were agreed on this. The storm broke, however, when the report recommended that by a two-thirds vote of a quarterly board a minister might be allowed to remain in one church for any time up to a limit of eight years. Immediately on the reading of this clause there came the hottest discussion that has as yet occurred. Prominent among the speakers in favor of the retaining of the old system were: Mr. Fortner, of Toronto; Dr. Hearts, of Nova Scotia; Judge McLaren, of Toronto, and Joseph Gibson, of Ingersoll. In favor of the change were: Dr. Speir, Dr.
Locke and Dr. Burns. The scene at one time became almost stormy. The final vote showed a majority in favor in keeping the old time limit to four years.
Mr. John Lake presented the final report of the Union Church Relief Fund. This fund started twenty-four years ago by the Methodist Union to help churches embarrassed, having served its purpose, now passes out of existence, leaving a balance of $2,000.
The committee recommended that this amount be paid into the General Conference Fund.
The Rev. Dr. Griffin and Mr. Edward Gurney were unanimously re-elected treasurers of the Superannuation Fund.

Gallant Newfoundland Captain and Crew Rescues Passengers and Crew of Northumberland in Mid-Ocean.
On November 18th, 1857, the American ship Northumberland, 1,200 tons burthen, left New York for London, Eng., with 38 passengers and a crew of 25—numbering 63 souls all told.
She encountered heavy gales of wind, and on December 4th she was in such a battered state that she few signals of distress. The brig Jessy, Percy, owned by P. Rogerson & Son, of St.
John's, Newfoundland, on a voyage from Liverpool to St. John's, saw her condition. Her passengers and crew were taken from the ship.
The seas were going over her, sweeping everything movable. Though apt. Percy had all he could do to keep the Jessy afloat, she having sprung a leak some days previous, yet he gave his whole heart to the task before him, namely that of saving the lives of the American ship's passengers and crew. He gave orders for a boat to be launched, but no sooner was the boat in the water than she was smashed in twain. The ship's big boat was next put over the side manned by Capt. Percy, his two sons and some of the crew which reached the Northumberland. A rope was fastened to both ships and by this means the passengers and crew were taken safely on board the Jessy; even a nine months old baby was safely got on board the Jessy. The captain of the Northumberland, whose name was Spencer, had his wife on board.
The Jessy was then "put about" and headed for Queenstown, Ireland, where the crew and passengers were landed. The Irish papers were loud in their praise of Captain Percy and his gallant crew. Sometime after the Home Authorities presented Captain Percy with with a gold medal, and a silver medal to each of his sons.

Two Hundred Drowned—Loss of the Anglo Saxon at Clam Cove.
A most appalling loss of life happened in 1863, on the 27th of April, the Anglo Saxon with 444 souls on board struck on the rocks near Clam Cove, Cape Race, and became a total wreck. The accident happened in a thick fog. The Anglo Saxon left Liverpool on April 16th for Quebec and Montreal. When the ship struck she heeled over on the rocks, and the crew began the work of getting the women and children landed, this was done by means of a rope fastened to the rocks and to the foreyard arm, numbers were got ashore in this manner. At 11 o'clock in the morning the ship struck, but at dinner hour she swung from the rocks and began to settle down, carrying with her about two hundred who were in every conceivable place on board; great numbers of them clung to the rigging, some were saved by the ship's boats.
The captain was lost, his name was Burgess.

Steamer John Knox Goes Down With All Hands.
Another appalling catastrophe, which I remember, was the loss of the str. John Knox, which took place
May 2nd, 1887. She struck the South West Point of Channel Harbor, and sank in about thirty or forty minutes.
It was blowing hard and raining, with dense fog. The ship left Glasgow on April 18th, her cargo consisting of steel rails, iron of all kinds, brick, liquors, and various other articles.
The village of Channel was aroused by the ringing of the church bells and the piercing whistle of a steamer, which could not see the steamer's hull,
but they could descry the lights which burned along her length, and saw the rockets that her ill-fated mariners set up. The people lighted tar barrels and blazing torches in answer. No boat at their command could live for a moment in the fearful sea. Shortly after striking she sank with all on board; a great number of her crew were recovered and buried at Channel. The John Knox was bound to Montreal, and when sailing down the English Channel several stowaways were discovered on board,
they were put ashore at Whiting Bay.
The same night that the John Knox was lost, a Norwegian barque had a narrow escape from being lost in the same vicinity.

Yet Another Drowning.

Mr. James J. Collins Loses His Life Over Baird's Wharf.

When the report spread last evening that another drowning had occurred and that Mr. Jas. J. Collins, the well known and old fashioned publican, was the victim, citizens were incredulous, but when the sad fact was definitely ascertained great regret was expressed, as Mr. Collins was a man who had many friends. The accident occurred over Jas. Baird's western wharf shortly after 7 p.m., and a Telegram reporter who was on the premises while efforts at resuscitation were being made, received the following particulars of the accident from Watchman W. Spence, Capt. T. Griffin, of the coaster Ida C. Spofforth, Mr. T. Whalen and others, who were on the wharf when the accident occurred. Watchman Spence, who served Mr. Collins for two years and consequently knew him well, said that he saw him come in on the premises, as far as he could judge, about 7:30, and walk down the western pier, near the head of which a couple of men were standing chatting. He was speaking to Capt. Griffin of the Spofforth and Whalen, and as Mr. Collins came in on the wharf these two men left the watchman to go up town. These two as well as the watchman saw Mr. Collins walk down the pier and go to its eastern side, when suddenly, as the watchman was about to get his lamps ready for the night, and as Messrs. Griffin and Whalen were crossing the boardwalk to go out the gate, they heard the splash in the water and cries of excitement from the men on the pier and from men on the wharf. Four Brothers, Woodrow, master, which with another craft was hauling out at the time. When Mr. Collins fell he went overboard sideways and shot out into the dock about 6 feet. He went under water but was on the surface instantly and could not have been more than one minute immersed when one of the crew of the Four Brothers jumped into a boat swinging at the stern and soon had the man into her. The watchman, with Messrs. Griffin, Whalen and others, soon had the unfortunate man on the wharf, and these say that he then showed signs of life, that he rolled his head occasionally from side to side and that he ground his teeth and frothed at the mouth, though these conditions lasted only for a few moments. Immediately the men began to work on him trying to bring artificial respiration, and quickly a messenger was despatched to the lockup near the police. Supt. Grimes with Inspector Collins and Sergeants Byrne, Mackey and Savage were quickly on the scene and rendered first aid, using every possible means to revive the man. Meantime while they worked an officer ran for Dr. Rendell, who was promptly at the side of the unfortunate man and directed the efforts being made to restore animation. Considerable water was ejected from the stomach, and after a half-hour's exertion, when every known means of reviving him had been exhausted, the doctor pronounced life to be extinct. It was the doctor's opinion that the shock of the sudden immersion had stopped the beating of the heart. A stretcher was then procured and the body taken to the morgue. When it was deposited there Rev. Fr. Sheehan had arrived from the R. C. Cathedral, but poor Collins was beyond his ministrations. The blow to his relatives was a terrible one and they will have the sympathy of the entire community in the sad fate which has befallen one who was greatly liked. Mr. Collins has not been in good health for several years past, and within the past two months has been under the care of a physician. He often suffered from heart trouble, which induced fainting spells, and it is possible that he was thus attacked when the accident which caused his death occurred. His wife died last February 12 months, and his daughter, Mrs. O'Reilly, died about the same time. His son Frederick, who has been residing in Lynn, Mass., for 12 months past, and his sister, Mrs. John Dwyer, only arrived here by yesterday's express to pay Mr. Collins a visit, and they are prostrated with grief over this unfortunate affair. His youngest daughter, Miss Monica, is at school at Key-ville, a suburb of New York, and Mrs. Gus Omond, another daughter, resides in the city. Another sister is Mrs. Jas. Trelogan, of Water Street. His aged mother, who is at least 80 years old, also survives him and is disconsolate over her son's death. Mr. Collins was a man of quiet and kindly disposition and had many friends and few, if any, enemies. The remains were committed last night and borne from the morgue at 10 p.m. by Undertaker Martin to the residence of Mr. Trelogan, from whence they will be interred. The family and relatives are sincerely sympathized with and the Telegram extends to them its sincere condolence.

DIPHTHERIA.—The case of diphtheria reported from Battery Road yesterday is being nursed at home.

Some Facts About a Fad.

Editor Evening Telegram:
Dear Sir,—We have lately been told that the current revenue of the town is going to fall short of the current expenditure. This means that we are living beyond our means and that we can only provide for present needs by mortgaging our future prospects. It is that the true state of our finances must be plain to every mind that the time has come when there must be retrenchment in every department of our expenditure, and when every luxury of our civic life must be dispensed with for a season. Increased taxation we cannot face. There are certain services which cannot be abandoned without danger to the health of the town, but even in the administration of these departments economy must be the rule. Certainly this is of all times the most improper to undertake large expenditures which will serve no purpose beyond the interest of our people. Nothing but extreme necessity will warrant extraordinary disbursements of money at such a time as this. Our finances were flourishing and we had a balance at our bankers I should not, perhaps, have a word to say against the creation of a reservation around Twenty Mile Pond. I might not see that it served any useful purpose but I would not be willing to deter the Council from any measures which promised even

A Possible Benefit to the Town.
but as the case stands now it lies upon the Council to make it perfectly clear to the public that there is a pressing necessity for the expenditure of the large sum of $20,000 upon this reservation before it sanctions it. The Council must prove that the Water of Twenty Mile Pond is likely to be infected, and it must also prove that the proposed reservation will save us from the danger of infection. And neither of these things can the Council do. On the contrary, it is easy to show that the water there is capable of proof, for they are both demonstrably false. For sixty years, as I have previously stated, not a single case of infectious disease has been traced to any pollution of our water supply at its source in Twenty Mile Pond. Even when we had an almost unexampled drought, an analysis of the water proved nothing more than that the water had deteriorated somewhat in quality. No infection was found in it, and not a case of disease developed from drinking it. And it will not be contended that all our people took the precaution of boiling the water. We therefore have the unimpeached testimony of two generations of our citizens that no danger of infection need be feared from our water supply even in the worst of seasons. If such a season should ever in the future recur we should take every precaution against the remote possibility of infection, but we on from traffic occurred. No, the merest measure of precaution can always keep the town abundantly supplied with pure water and there is no need for this extravagant and foolish expenditure. If we spend even $20,000 on such a purpose as this reservation we must go without a number of things which are vital to our security. With that $20,000 we could cleanse the town and keep it pure and thus escape the dangers to which our filthy and disgusting conditions of life expose us. With much less than $20,000 we could purify our plague spots and make the lives of our children more pleasant and healthy. I protest, and shall continue to protest, against

as long as our streets and drains remain in their present condition, so long as we cherish the enemies which daily are arrayed against us, so long as disease lurks in every gutter, so long as the poor are compelled to live in filthy surroundings and suffer from preventable diseases, and so long as the innocent poor carry infection into the houses of those who are well-to-do. I have now given roughly the main reasons which lead me to oppose the creation of this reservation around the Pond, but I will add one more. During the course of years a large area of land has been painfully and laboriously carved out of the wilderness in the neighbourhood of Twenty Mile Pond and made to serve as a market garden for St. John's. Homesteads have arisen and a race of well-to-do farmers has been created. Will it not be a pitiable thing to see this land which has been wrested from the wilderness thrown back into desert again at the will of a public body and at a time when extraordinary efforts are being made everywhere else to extend agriculture as a permanent occupation of the people? It seems to me to be little short of a crime thus to extinguish the labours of two or three generations and force men who have inherited an earnestness to go forth and conquer the wilderness as their fathers did before them. Experience, reason, sentiment all war against this project. Nothing can be urged in its favour. It is a thing not worth doing at any time, a thing never to be dreamed of at a time when we are poor and crying out for necessities. If we persist in this scheme our children will justly reproach us with having wantonly indulged in an extravagance and left them to foot the bill.

Yours truly,
REFORM.

Wedded Wednesday.

PITTMAN-WORRALL.
The wedding of Miss Lillian Isabel Pittman and Mr. Alfred E. Worrall took place at George Street Methodist Church Wednesday afternoon. Rev. J. W. Bartlett officiated. Mr. Christian played the "Voice that breathed o'er Eden" as the bridal party entered the church. The bride looked quite charming in a costume of mervic silk with silk embroidered trimming, veil and orange blossoms, and carried a bouquet of white carnations, sweet peas and maiden hair fern. Miss M. Pittman and Miss Geraldine Worrall were the bridesmaids. Mr. Sparkes supported the groom and Mr. Kenneth Burden, uncle of the bride, performed the duties of father given. Misses Gertrude Snow and Mildred Samson were flower girls. The bridesmaids were dressed in shell pink silk with blue picture hats trimmed with pink velvet, and the flower girls in white muslin trimmed with Maltese lace. They bore baskets trimmed with pink, trailing roses. After the reception held at the residence of the bride's uncle, Atlantic Avenue, the happy couple and the guests drove to Forest House, Petty Harbor, where the honeymoon will be spent. The Telegram extends congratulations.

Harbor Grace Notes.

Mr. Selby Parsons, of Grand Bank, who with his son and daughter spent the past couple of weeks here, left by yesterday's train for his home via Placentia.
A daughter was born on the 12th inst. to Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Moriarty. Congratulations.
Mrs. W. H. Thompson took passage on the S. S. Invermore yesterday for St. Anthony, and Miss May Chafe for Bonavista.
The death of Miss Lavinia R. Heater, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Heater, which took place last evening, calls for the sympathy of the whole community to the bereaved family. This is the third daughter Mr. Heater has lost during the past 13 months. Mr. Heater's father also passed away during the same period. Miss Heater was 19 years of age, and was sick for a long time with the dreaded consumption. Funeral to-morrow.
A letter lately received from a former citizen of this town who is now settled down in Plymouth, contains many expressions of regret at the sudden death of Dr. Allan. "The doctor," it says, "was the only medical man I knew from my infancy until I left home a few years ago. I am sure he will be greatly missed by a large number of people, and his place will be hard to fill. I deeply sympathise with his sisters."

Arrested for Larceny.

A couple of days ago Sergt. Byrne arrested a well known West Ebber on a charge of being an accomplice in the larceny of 50 lbs. of sheet lead and other articles, the property of Mr. Wm. Harris, contractor, who is building two new residences for two Water Street business men near Robinson's Hill. Within the past week three separate raids were made on the place, the last time being Wednesday night. Sergt. Byrne worked hard on the case and yesterday evening arrested a well known character who has done time for larceny before. There are five different charges against him in connection with stealing from these residences. Besides the lead, he is charged with having lifted a pair of overalls, several braces bits, axes and other carpenter's implements. The man arrested first gave the sergeant information which led to the arrest of the principal in the matter yesterday evening. Only the overalls were recovered, and it is believed he sold the rest of the articles stolen.
FOOTBALL MEETING.—The Football League will meet at 9 o'clock to-morrow evening to wind up the season's work, and arrange for the presentation of the trophies next week.

The Cricket Match.

The Bishop begs to thank those who kindly helped to make the Cricket Match a success, and especially the following:—The St. George's Field Committee, for the use of their ground, the Press, for free advertisement, the C. L. B. Band, for their tent, and, last but not least, the members of the Shamrock and City Teams for their excellent display of cricket. The net proceeds, amounting to nearly $90, are given to the new Church Ship Fund.

Horse Goes Overboard

In hauling coal at Harvey & Co's, lower premises this morning one of Mr. C. Lester's horses was accidentally backed over the wharf. Men had to climb down and cut the heat clear of the traces, after which it was towed up to Shea & Co's, wharf where it was hoist up with a crane. The horse—a fine one—narrowly escaped drowning.

Leaves for Ireland to Enter College

Ferryland is Proud of Mr. T. J. Devereaux.

Mr. T. J. Devereaux left to-day for St. John's where he will board the s.s. Siberian en route to Ireland. He will enter the Sacred College of All Hallows, Dublin, where he will begin his ecclesiastical studies. The boys of Ferryland were not aware that their young friend would be leaving so soon, as the fact was not made known to them till this morning, and having but a few hours at their disposal to be up and doing, the result was that when Mr. Devereaux met them in the T. A. Hall in the afternoon he was handed a cheque for one hundred dollars, also a purse of gold and the following address from the T. A. & B. Society, of which body he is a true member:—

Address to Mr. T. J. Devereaux.

Dear Sir.—We, the members of the T. A. & B. Society, take this opportunity of conveying to you our warm congratulations upon the sacred vocation you have chosen.

Judging from the exemplary traits of character which you have evinced since childhood, we predict for you a virtuous and honourable course through all your studies for the sacred ministry.

The Society has always recognized in you a true friend and most zealous member, and although the blue waters of the Atlantic shall divide us for many years, still we feel sure that the best interests of our Society will ever be dear to your heart, and we will look forward both with pleasure and pride to the day when you will return to us as the chosen minister of God.

Accompanying herewith is a small purse of gold which we ask you to accept as a more substantial proof of the high esteem in which you are held by the Society.

In conclusion we wish you a pleasant passage across to old Ireland, every success in all your studies, and a safe return to Ferryland's most worthy sod.

Signed on behalf of the Society,

J. M. Costello, President; J. L. Sullivan, Vice-Pres.; E. J. Johnston, Treas.; Wm. Barnwell, Asst. Treas.; Wm. J. Costello, Secretary.

Reply.

Mr. Chairman and Gentlemen: Mr. President and Members of the T. A. & B. Society.—Our meeting here this evening has, I assure you, come to me quite unexpectedly, and in rising to thank you, both for the kindness you have shown and the purse with which you have presented me, I can scarcely find words to express my gratitude or conceive ideas to portray my feelings for you who, needless to say, have by your actions this evening shown your generosity and loyalty of opinion for one who has never deserved anything from you.

Be assured, gentlemen, that the events of this evening will never fade from my memory. No words of mine can convey to you my heartfelt appreciation of your goodness. I shall always look back on this evening's events and regard them as those of the most memorable of my life, and as I stand here before you perhaps for the last time, but surely for the last time for a number of years, I can truthfully say that the memory of your friendship, kindness and generosity will never sway from my mind.

I will not delay, you gentlemen, but before leaving I ask you to pray for me, because I assure you that the road which lies open to me is not one of pleasure, but one which requires increasing prayer and perseverance.

I shall be always glad to hear from our Society and will ever pray for a continuation of its victories over the evils of intemperance, and I hope when, please God, I again return amongst you, I shall see the same smiling faces before me.

Thanking you, gentlemen, for your attention, and thanks one thousand times for your good will and generosity, and remember that wherever you go there will be at least one who will be ever interested in you.

I remain, sincerely yours,

T. J. DEVEREAUX.

The meeting then closed with hearty cheers for the success of the young student, who carries with him the good will and best wishes of all.

HIS REPRESENTATIVES.

A leading merchant was once asked how it was he had no representatives on the road. He replied:

"I have the best representatives in the world. They always tell the value of my goods in plain language. They always attend to business. They are always polite. They never miss an appointment, and they are at work early in the morning till the last thing at night. They take no holidays, and work the whole year round. MY REPRESENTATIVES ARE MY ADVERTISEMENTS and I know exactly where they are in every city and town, and know to a cent what they cost me."—Printers' Ink.

Wedding Bells at Bonne Bay.

LAING-CAINES.

The Church of the Good Shepherd at Bonne Bay was the scene of a very pretty wedding on Thursday, August 18th, the contracting parties being Mr. Arthur Caines and Miss Mary Laing, daughter of Mr. Arch Laing. The officiating clergyman was the Rev. I. Parsons, and the church was filled with friends of the bride and bridegroom. The bridesmaids, numbering six, were Misses Lizzie Caines, Lizzie Harding, Dora Organ, Maud Kennedy, Kate Humber and Clara Humber, and they looked charming in dresses of silk muslin with large picture hats. The groom was supported by Messrs. Bryant Harding, Thomas Caines, Michael Ryan, John Samms, Walter Squires and John Tucker. Walter Squires also presided at the organ. Precisely at four o'clock the bride, leaning on the arm of her brother, McAndrew Laing, entered the church and met the groom at the chancel steps. She made a very beautiful picture in her gown of cream crepe de chene, with silk floral trimmings, and silk tucked net; a long bridal veil fell over a coronet of orange blossoms, and she carried an enormous bouquet of lilies of the valley, tied with white silk ribbon. At the conclusion of the ceremony the minister gave a short address to the bride and bridegroom, after which "How welcome was the call" was sung, and the bridal party retired to the vestry to sign the marriage register. Then, amidst showers of rice, they proceeded to the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Caines where a reception was held, at which nearly two hundred guests attended, and the dancing was kept up till the wee sma' hours. The wedding presents were very numerous, testifying to the esteem in which they were held by their many friends. We wish Mr. and Mrs. Caines unalloyed happiness on the wedded sea of life. XENOS.

Passing Strange.

Editor Evening Telegram:

Dear Sir.—A paragraph appears in the "Daily News" giving us another example of how the average mortal delights to be "gulled"—as the old Roman philosophers tersely puts it: "The people wish to be deceived." The article is headed

"WARNED OF AN ICEBERG."

It goes on to tell how Dr. Grenfell's mission ship warned the C. G. S. Stanley by a Marconigram of the presence of a dangerous iceberg in the Straits of Belle Isle, "South by west eighteen miles from Point Amour!"

The first sensation of the ordinary reader is a burst of enthusiasm for the wondrous knowledge, observation, philanthropy, charity, etc., etc., of the noble minded missionaries who have so recently "discovered" Labrador! How few there are who will even think of questioning the truth, or even the probability of the statement! Yet a moment's thought ought to show how absurd it is.

In the first place, as a general rule, there are not one only but dozens of icebergs about the Straits at this time of the year, and all vessels keep a sharp look out for them. Any information by Marconigram would be absolutely useless. The Straits at this point are only twelve miles wide, and if an iceberg is there it will not require a Marconigram to find it out; especially as the tide is rushing in and out there at a rate of nearly twelve miles an hour, so that an iceberg located at a certain point by one slip will have moved some miles away before the next ship arrives.

But the humour of the whole thing lies in the fact that the precise spot so minutely and accurately located by the clever navigators of the "Strathcona," viz., "Eighteen miles south by west from Point Amour"—happens to be on the top of the Long Range mountains on the Petit Nord Peninsula of Newfoundland!

Will Bless Statue.

The handsome life-size marble statue of the Sacred Heart, which has been presented by Mr. James Bogan to adorn the facade of the Church of Our Lady of Good Counsel, Military Road, will be blessed by His Grace Archbishop Howley on Sunday next near the church. It will be placed on the pedestal erected for it in the front of the edifice next week. The work is being done by W. J. Ellis under the supervision of Mr. James Coady, and specially heavy tackle is being rigged up to get it in position.

PUBLIC NOTICE!

The Newfoundland Agricultural Board has ascertained that certain plots of potatoes in the neighbourhood of St. John's are affected by the dreaded

"Potato Canker" Disease.

This is the same disease that was first detected at Red Island, in Placentia Bay, about a year ago, and is so fatal in its effects that if not immediately checked the absolute impossibility of growing potatoes in Newfoundland for years to come, is sure to result.

The Agricultural Board therefore requests that all potato growers who may observe indications of disease in their crop will at once notify the Secretary of the Agricultural Board at the office of the Department of Agriculture and Mines.

The Agricultural Board recognizing the incalculable injury that must accrue to the country if this disease be not immediately stamped out earnestly requests all persons to aid the efforts now about to be made to effect this.

In February last the Agricultural Board issued an illustrated pamphlet from a special report by Professor Gussow on this disease. Some thousands of copies were sent to Outport Magistrates and Clergymen, and the Board now requests that potato growers in any affected Districts will procure a copy of this report and be guided by its recommendations.

By order,
