NO. 3

Instructions to Scrutineers

The following persons may vote in Algoma, at the coming election.

"Every male person of the full age of twenty-one years, being a subject of Her Majesty by birth or naturalization, and not otherwise disqualified, who is at the time of the election actually and bona fide the owner of real estate, in the Electoral District of Algoma, of the value of two hundred dollars or upwards, or who is at the time of the election a resident householder of such place, and has been such owner or householder for the six months next preceding the election."

"All Indians or persons with part Indian blood who have been duly enfranchised, and all Indians or persons with part Indian blood, who do not reside among Indians, though they participate in the annuities, interest moneys, and rents of a tribe, band, or body of Indians, subject to the same qualifications in other respects, and to the same provisions and restrictions, as other persons in the Electoral District."

(1.) If you are at all doubtful as to whether a person presenting himself as an elector and asking for a ballot paper, is in all respects qualified and entitled to vote, request the Deputy Returning Officer to administer the following oath:—

"You swear (or solemnly affirm) that you are (name the voter.)

"That you are actually, truly, and on good faith, possessed to your own use and benefit as owner of real estate, in this Electoral district, of the value of two hundred dollars or upwards, (or that you are actually, truly, and in good faith, a resident householder in this Electoral District.)

"That you have been such owner (or householder as the case may be) for the six months next preceding this election, and are entitled to vote at this election.

"That you have not

"voted before at this election, either at this or any other polling place.

"That you have not received anything, nor has anything been promised you, either directly or indirectly, either to induce you to vote at this election, or for loss of time, travelling expenses, hire of team, or any other service connected therewith. And that you have not, directly or indirectly, paid or promised anything to any person, either to induce him to vote or to refrain from voting at this election. So help you God."

(2.) Examine the ballot boxes, at the hour fixed for opening the poll, and assure yourselves that there are no ballot or other papers in them.— See sec. 37 of the consolidation of the Election Acts of 1874 and 1878.

(3.) If a voter refuses to take the oath, or affirmation, above recited under No. 1, he cannot vote.—See sec 51.

(4.) Watch carefully when the ballot boxes are opened, and while the votes are counted. Be certain that every vote cast for McDougall is counted.—See sec. 55.

(5.) Obtain a certificate from the Deputy Returning officer of your polling place, of the number of cast for each candidate, and of the number of rejected ballot papers. You are entitled to receive it by sec. 58.

In conclusion, Mr. McDougall and your own interests expect that each one of you "will do your duty" on the 5th inst.

CORRESPONDENCE.

To the Editor Algoma Review.

SIR.—I see in an editorial in the Pioneer of the 29th inst, the Editor says in reference to the Hon. William McDougall, "This wonderful eloquent man has never represented any constituency twice." Now, Sir, this is false. When I was a resident in the county of North Oxford the Hon. Mr. McDougall was elected twice for the same county, and each time by a good majority. The first time he was returned he was opposed by the Hon. J. C. Morrison, late Judge, and the second time he was opposed by Sir Isaac Buchanan.

Yours, truly,

GEORGE ALDERSON.

Sault, June 30th, '82.

To the Editor of the Review.

DEAR SIR.—I have been waiting to see some one at the Sault submit the following questions to Mr. S. J. Dawson, and in order that he may have a chance of answering them before the day of election, I take the liberty of asking them myself.

1. Why was the North Shore Mail contract, after it had been awarded to Wm. Turner, taken from him and given to Mr. Plummer, whose tender was $12 higher for each trip? It is no wonder Plummer is so anxious that Dawson should be elected. Self is the first and last, the all in all of these latter Gentlemen.

2. Why did he appoint a man for Little Current, a census enumerator, who could neither read or write; and to rub in the insult to his constituents, have same person appointed light house keeper on Strawberry Island?

3. How is it that there is no polling place in the vicinity of Desert Lake? Perhaps he has an interest in keeping them at home, no doubt they would remember his broken pledges.

4. How comes it that a polling place was not provided for the settlers on the mountain range of St. Joseph's Island? Was it because they have too much stake in the election, and he was afraid of their influence?

5. What reason can he assign for not having the polling place continued at Batchewana? Perhaps he considers the Ma Mainse miners have no right to use their franchise.

6. Can he give a reason why the grant of $500 promised from the Indian Department, and of which he took the credit of procuring, was afterwards withdrawn from the road leading from Bear Lake to Echo River, through Indian lands? If his George Ley sort of friends had been holding large tracts of land on that line it would have been carried out, but the hardy settlers must not have such luxuries as roads. Such are Mr. Dawson's views.

7. Why does he contend that the redistribution bill for the increasing of members to Parliament is, on the whole, a very good measure, especially as it leaves Algoma out in the cold for another 10 years? He certainly ought to have contended for the rights of his constituents, and demanded one more member at least for the District—but this would not have answered Mr. Dawson and his friends.

8. How came it when the Sault Ste. Marie Railway bill was being discussed in the House, that Dawson, with other objections he was urging, stated that it was impossible to construct a line along the South Shore of Lake Superior, that it would have to be carried back from the coast from 75 to 100 miles, thus creating a bad impression among the members as to the Sault Railway and in a measure the means of its defeat? But this is in keeping with his love for Algoma, or rather for its benefit.

9. Why did he speak and vote against the Railway bill for the construction of a line from Prince Arthur's Landing to Duluth? Ah! his special friends can best answer this.

I remain, Mr. Editor,

Respectfully yours;

CONSERVATIVE.

Bruce Mines, June 27th.

Editor Algoma Review.

DEAR SIR.—It is with much pleasure I receive the above named paper, it being the first independent paper ever issued in this section of the District. And I as a Liberal Conservative feel proud that we have got into the field a thorough independent man. But had it not been for some slips of paper scattered round the Sault, and containing an extract from the Globe in reference to Mr. McDougall, I should not have rushed into print. But what does the Globe say? "Mr. Dawson would serve any Government in power." Not so with McDougall, neither can buy him.

Mr. McDougall's politics are measures not party. There are far too many voting machines like Dawson, whose country is a secondary consideration, and it is high time the electors of this district asserted their right and let Dawson know they are living in a free country and that they have a voice in this matter; that it is for them to say whether they will be represented by a man who has your interest at heart, or by the one they have had the last term and has shown himself to be unworthy of their confidence. Vote for McDougall.

Yours, &c.,

ALGOMA.

The Algoma Review.
SAULT STE. MARIE, ONTARIO.

J. E. DUDLEY, . . . Editor & Prop.

July 1st, 1882.

How the Electors of Algoma, who consult the welfare of their own District, will mark their Ballot paper, on Wednesday.

Election for the Electoral District of Algoma 1882.

DAWSON.

Simon James Dawson, of
I. Prince Arthur's Landing,
Gentleman.

McDOUGALL.

Hon. William McDougall,
II. C.B., of the City of Ottawa, X
Barrister.

By marking your ballot as above you will assist in electing one of the ablest men in Canada to represent you in the House of Commons.

The Pioneer of June 29th gives a list of officials appointed by S. J. Dawson in this district. The Editor mentions among others "Division Court Clerks and Bailiffs." Now it is well known that by all well informed persons that the said officials were appointed by our esteemed District Judge prior to the year 1880, in which year the Legislature passed an Act "To extend the jurisdiction of Division Courts, and to regulate the officials." If the wise Editor had desired to give correct information to his readers, he would have seen by reference to said Act in sections 32 to 42 inclusive that the Local Government, from and after 1880, made those appointments, and that Mr. Dawson who was not then a member of the Local House could not have had any influence, and more especially as he had turned his coat after being elected to the House of Commons. The credit should have been given to our worthy member, R. A. Lyon, Esq., who was our representative at the time the officials are claimed as having been appointed by Dawson. Surely the Editor of the Pioneer, who is himself a Division Court Clerk, must be poorly informed in the Act relating to his own office. He also names several Magistrates whose appointments he credits Mr. Dawson with. If he would furbish up his memory a little, and had a love for truth, he would have sought to have done, ascribed the appointments to the late F. W. Cumberland, who was our member, and as he, the Editor, while gaoler and Court House keeper must have seen those very Magistrates occupying seats with his Honor the Judge at the Quarter Sessions. This was before Mr. Dawson was even thought of as a member.

The truth telling Editor ascribes the appointment the present gaoler to Mr. Dawson. It is well known that at the time he received his appointment, that all Sheriffs had the appointing of gaolers, and it is to the ex-sheriff that he owes his position, and not Dawson. The Editor also ascribes to Dawson the appointment of W. O. Luscombe to the crossing of the buoy in our channel, he knows he is telling an untruth, for Mr. Luscombe's tender was the lowest of a number, and therefore Mr. Dawson's influence had nothing whatever to do with it.

We have not the time at present to go over all the list, but give these as a sample of the Pioneer's veracity, and that his utterances are not to be depended upon. All lovers of the truth will see the object the Editor has, and will accord to him his just reward.
