SIXTY MINERS ENTOMBED BY DISASTER IN ENGLAND.

Already Twenty Four Bodies Have Been Taken from the Pit—Another Large Force of Men Believed to Have Escaped the Danger.

DURHAM, Eng., Oct. 15.—An explosion occurred in the Wingate Colliery near here at about midnight, resulting in some 200 men being entombed. About 100 of these are believed to be safe in a lower part of the colliery, but there are between 60 and 80 men in the seam where the disaster occurred. Up to 10 o'clock today 10 bodies had been recovered, and every effort was being made to ascertain the fate of the remainder of the endangered miners.

DURHAM, Eng., Oct. 15.—Up to two o'clock this afternoon 24 bodies had been recovered and 30 miners had been brought out alive.

MISSING SERVANT GIRL SUSPECTED OF ROBBERY
Toronto Detectives Searching Philadelphia for a Woman Who Fleed After the Theft.

TORONTO, Ont., Oct. 14.—A clue has been obtained by Detectives Kennedy and Anderson to the whereabouts of jewelry stolen from the home of Walter Beardmore, St. George and College streets, and the former officer is now in Philadelphia tracing the valuables. Traces of a domestic employed by Beardmore were obtained at Union Station and the officers took the next train to Philadelphia, where local detectives are assisting Detective Kennedy to clear up the robbery. Stolen jewelry, valued at $2,000, was taken from a bureau drawer last week. There is yet no trace of twenty-six pieces of jewelry stolen from the apartments of Mrs. Deur, wife of Major Deur at the King Edward Hotel.

VICTORIA, B. C., Oct. 15.—According to F. C. Maszardian, an undergraduate of Allahabad University, who has come to British Columbia to spend two months investigating the situation for his Hindoo countrymen, about a thousand Sikhs are ready to come to British Columbia, allured by reports of scarcity of workmen and high wages prevailing in British Columbia. Much will depend on the report which he will make to his students at the college of the communes of Hooghly, district of Bengal.

CIGARETTES AT PINK TEA.
The Presbyterians Will Send a Special Pastor.

CHICAGO, Oct. 14.—A despatch to The Daily News from Madison, Wis., says:—Because a certain professor at Wisconsin University is said to have given a pink tea for students at which cigarettes were served the State Presbyterian Synod, in session here, has decided to have a special pastor to work among the students.

UNIVERSITY GOVERNORS ENTER ANOTHER SUIT
TORONTO, Ont., Oct. 12.—Another suit has been entered by the governors of the University of Toronto having its origin in the sale of the old Upper Canada College lands. This time the action is against Robt. B. Barber, and is brought to set aside an agreement dated August 5, 1904. The governors ask "to have the agreement declared null and void, as having been procured by conspiracy and by deceitful and fraudulent misrepresentation on the part of the defendant to the trustees of the University of Toronto." An accounting is also asked of all rents collected and profits made by defendant on all leases or sales of lands mentioned under the agreement, and for payment of any such profits to plaintiffs, and for an injunction restraining defendant from disposing of lands or collecting rents.

ARRESTED FOR PASSING WORTHLESS BILLS
ST. STEPHEN, N. B., October 15th.—A man giving his name as J. P. Starway and claiming to be the proprietor of the Cleveland house in Bangor, was arrested by the Calais police last night on a charge of passing spurious money. WILL NATIONALIZE IRISH RAILROADS.

This is the Policy of the Imperial Government. Ministers Believe That the State Can Give a Far Better Service Than Will Ever be Provided by Private Enterprise.

NEW YORK, Oct. 15.—The report current in America that Premier Campbell-Bannerman and his associates are considering a scheme of government ownership of British railroads is true to some extent, says a London cable despatch to the Times. The government has no idea whatever of bringing in a bill for the nationalization of any other railways than those of Ireland.

EDMONTON, Oct. 13.—The Parliament buildings site has been settled by the provincial government. It will be 21 or 22 acres, heretofore occupied by the Hudson's Bay fort, overlooking the Saskatchewan. The site selected is one of the most magnificent from a scenic point of view, and at the same time interesting from a historical point, that could be found in the whole vast west. Years and years ago, when the buffalo roamed the prairie and the Indian and fur trader were the only human inhabitants of the great lone lands, the company of one hundred gentlemen adventurers selected the site as being the proper one for the seat of government. With the whole country before them they selected this site and set up the big house from whence for years and years went forth the edicts which governed an area greater than many old country empires.

WORKERS' FRIEND EMPLOYED CHINESE
William Randolph Hearst's Orchard Employs are Chinese Instead of the Local Labor.

NEW YORK, Oct. 14.—The Herald, Republican, publishes the following:—People of the town of Palermo in the foothills of Sierra Nevada, are pleased at the exposure which has been made of the employment of Chinese laborers on the Hearst ranch. "His responsibility is regarded as a mere quibble. All the people here know that Geo. Hearst owned an orchard for years, employing Chinese workmen commonly done by women and children. They will begin work in two weeks. Many more will be added before the season is over. They are to be paid $12.5 a day and board themselves.

MONTREAL, Oct. 15.—Hon. Richard McBride, premier of British Columbia, arrived in Montreal yesterday from Ottawa. Mr. McBride justified his withdrawal from the conference by the remark that he felt it his duty to make his protest emphatic. British Columbia needed the special grant in view of her exceptional circumstances which had never received adequate consideration from the federal authorities. "What might be the aggregate amount you sought to obtain for British Columbia in addition to the per capita allowance to the other provinces?" Mr. McBride was asked. "I asked for $200,000, was the reply. "I do not think the $100,000 which the conference decided to apply for on the behalf of British Columbia is sufficient."

REV. MR. BAMFORD WILL GO TO LEWISVILLE
Insurance Company Takes a Hand in the Gorham Inquest—Scott Act Offender Fined.

MONCTON, N. B., Oct. 15.—Lewisville Baptist church has occurred for its pastor Rev. F. B. Bamford, a former pastor of Carleton Baptist church. The call was extended last week and at last evening's service the congregation was informed that the call has been accepted and the new pastor will probably take charge the first Sunday in November.

THE FIRST BATCH OF SCOTT ACT CASES RECENTLY STARTED, came before Stipendiary Kay this morning. Thaddey Richards, of the Park hotel, was fined a hundred dollars or one month in jail. Two hundred dollars or two months in jail was the penalty imposed in the last conviction made.

LARGE CONGREGATIONS attended the evangelistic meetings in Coburg street Christian church yesterday, and much interest prevailed. Rev. T. H. Bates preached the gospel with great power, and last night there were three additions to the church. The meetings will continue every evening this week and the public are cordially invited to attend.

JOHN MURPHY INSTANTLY KILLED THIS MORNING.

Crushed Under a Load of Deals on the Battle Liner Nemea When the Chain Broke—An Inquest Will Be Held.

HE WILL KILL NO MORE Worst Indian in British Columbia Held for Life. He Has Been Thrice Tried on Capital Charges and Admits That the Lust to Kill Overcomes Him.

JOHN MURPHY, a longshoreman, well known about town, was killed at nine o'clock this morning on the Battle liner steamer Nemea, which is loading deals at the Pettigill wharf. Mr. Murphy was piling deals on the after deck with another man and had seized hold of a sling load to swing it into the required position when the chain holding the deals broke and the whole load fell on the unfortunate man, crushing him to the deck and breaking his neck.

McBRIDE THINKS HIS ACTION WAS ALL RIGHT
He Repeats That British Columbia Deserves More Money Proportionately Than the Other Provinces.

MARYLAND MALDON OF 45 CLAIMS MR. WALZ, 68, BROKE HIS PROMISE TO WALZ.

TOWNSON, Md., Oct. 14.—Miss Susan Wheeler, a maiden of forty-five, is suing the Rev. Edward B. Walz, a Baptist preacher, for $25,000 damages for breach of promise. The Rev. Mr. Walz is sixty-eight years of age and has buried two wives.

THE ENGAGEMENT began this way, according to a letter by the Rev. Mr. Walz, read in court:—"After I retired on the night after my first visit to her, involuntarily, without any forethought, the feeling was impressed on my mind and heart: 'This is your destiny; Susie Wheeler is to be your future wife.'"

THE RESULT showed conclusively that opinions were divided as to its location. There were, of course, those who referred to it as being erected at the Champlain market place, but some favored the Falls, while others were of the opinion that it should be erected on the heights. Another very significant fact was that the C. P. R. was not represented.

MRS. EDWARD C. PALMER. DORCHESTER, Oct. 12.—There died at Dorchester, N. B., on October 10th last, Elizabeth Bower, wife of Edward C. Palmer, of the same place, merchant tailor, and a niece of the late James Bower of Sackville, N. B., in the sixty-seventh year of her age.

THE AMBULANCE was called out this afternoon to take George Kaye to the General Public Hospital to be treated for slight injuries received while working in the operating department at the Lawton Co. Ltd. Mr. Kaye received a cut on his face, which will not prove serious.

QUEBEC'S PLANS FOR NEW TERMINAL

Plans Involve a Decision as to Location of the New Union Station—No Decision as Yet.

QUEBEC, Oct. 13.—At the meeting of the railway commissioners and transportation people held here on Friday, a special committee of the representatives of the different companies, engineers, etc., were appointed to deal with the situation of the future greatness of Quebec's railways and ocean shipping industries and terminals, etc., etc. The committee to receive reports from the engineers and in turn to report to the railway commission.

ANOTHER IMPORTANT feature was the question of the new union station. This question was not finally dealt with, but some of the delegates present in the course of their remarks touched on the matter incidentally. The result showed conclusively that opinions were divided as to its location. There were, of course, those who referred to it as being erected at the Champlain market place, but some favored the Falls, while others were of the opinion that it should be erected on the heights. Another very significant fact was that the C. P. R. was not represented.

THE THEORY is that the C. P. R. intend holding aloof and will carry out their own programme mapped out some time ago. The C. N. R. had no representative either, but this fact was not commented upon with the same significance.

MRS. EDWARD C. PALMER. DORCHESTER, Oct. 12.—There died at Dorchester, N. B., on October 10th last, Elizabeth Bower, wife of Edward C. Palmer, of the same place, merchant tailor, and a niece of the late James Bower of Sackville, N. B., in the sixty-seventh year of her age.

MRS. PALMER left her surviving, one son, Edward C. Palmer, D. D. S., of the city of New York and three daughters, Mary of Amherst, N. S., Mrs. Aggie M. Perry of Boston, Mass., and Mabel of Toronto, and one grandson, Russell B. Palmer, Jr., son of the said Dr. Russell Palmer of New York. The late Mrs. Palmer belonged to well known and prominent families here and in Quebec, and will be very much missed by a wide circle of friends here and elsewhere.

SUNDAY TRAGEDIES.

HOUSTON, Mo., Oct. 14.—Barney Parsons, a farmer, his wife and three children were murdered yesterday near Licking, Mo. A farmer named Hamilton has been arrested charged with the murder, and is said to have confessed.

Parsons had sold his farm and crops to Hamilton, and it is alleged that the men quarrelled over the terms of the sale. Parsons and his family set out from their former home in a covered wagon, bound for Northern Missouri. Parsons was found shot to death and the mother and three children had been killed with clubs.

Joda Hamilton, the alleged murderer, is in the Houston jail strongly guarded to prevent lynching. He is said to have made a complete confession of which the following is a summary:

"At a timber bordered place in the road, as Parsons and his family were driving along, they were confronted by Hamilton, armed with a shot gun. Deliberately aiming at Parsons, Hamilton discharged both barrels of the gun and clubbed him over the head with the butt of the gun several times. He then beat the head of the mother almost to a pulp, and after killing her, clubbed the three children to death. The bodies of all five were then loaded into a wagon and taken to Big Piney Creek, about one mile distant from the scene of the murder and dumped into the creek."

NEW YORK, Oct. 14.—Two men are dead and three others are suffering from dangerous burns following an accident on board former Commodore F. G. Bourne's yacht, Columbia, today. The dead and injured were members of the engineering crew. A steam connection blew out and they were engulfed in steam.

One of the dead was James Southwell, 45 years old. The other's identity has not been established tonight.

The seriously hurt are Alfred Gripe, John O'Hara, Edward McCormick, Chief Engineer John F. Leonard, and a fireman whose name was not given.

"Soon as possible after the accident the victims were brought on deck by other members of the crew and rolled in oil-soaked sheets and cotton.

As soon as he learned of the accident Commodore Bourne arranged for a special train to meet the men who were taken to Oyster Bay in a launch and hurried them to a hospital.

NEW YORK, October 14.—Seven firemen were seriously injured, two of them, it is believed, fatally, when a fire patrol wagon at the junction of West Broadway and Murray street tonight. The injured men were members of the salvage corps. The captain and his six men were thrown violently to the pavement. All were removed to a hospital. They were: George Ennis, of Elmhurst, L. I., fractured skull and internal injuries, may die. Frank Hoff, of Passaic, N. J., three fractured ribs and internal injuries. John Hennessey, internal injuries. Joseph O'Donnell, scalp wounds. Peter Connell, cap, contusions and lacerations.

ADD SUNDAY TRAGEDIES.
NEW YORK, Oct. 13.—Margaret Kelly, aged 22 years, was shot and fatally wounded by Frank Reis shortly after midnight tonight at 84th street and Eighth avenue. Reis, who is 45 years old, fired five times at the woman, while she was walking with another man. The bullets took effect in her back. Reis was arrested only after a struggle and after he tried to draw a revolver on the two policemen.

GREENWICH, Conn., Oct. 14.—An automobile, owned and driven by J. B. Van Hulen, a New York business man, resident here, and containing besides himself, his wife and two daughters, went beyond the driver's control at the top of Putnam's Hill and dashed down the five hundred foot incline, striking every house, and at the bottom of the road and overturned, pinning Mrs. Van Hulen and her daughters beneath it, and seriously injuring them. Mr. Van Hulen was thrown out and was not so seriously hurt.

HAZING AGAIN PRACTISED AT U. S. NAVAL SCHOOL.
A Mild Form This Time—A New Student Given a Nickname.

ANNAPOLIS, Md., Oct. 14.—Notwithstanding the severe lessons taught and dismissals of last spring, hazing has again appeared at the naval academy. So far the recurrence of the practice seems to be an isolated one.

Third classman R. P. Gullor, Jr., whose home is in Calais, Ohio, has been called upon by Supt. Sands to answer the charge of "assuming unwarranted and unauthorized authority over a lower class man, in such a way as to humiliate and embarrass" fourth classman Godfrey D. C. Chevalier, of Medford, Mass.

The hazing of Midshipman Chevalier is said to have been a mild case that would be classed by the midshipmen under their differentiating rule used in the courtmartial of last spring as "punishing." Gullor, it is understood, went to Chevalier's room and asked the fourth classman his name. Upon being told, he inquired of it was too big a mouthful and said "hereafter you will be known as 'Gully' a silly name."

FOLK IN FAVOR OF GOVERNMENT SUPERVISION.
FARMINGTON, M. O., Oct. 14.—Governor Folk who has given public expression of his opposition to government ownership of railroads, came out yesterday in advocacy of a policy of government supervision.

The governor favors a government control similar to the present control of national banks by the Federal Government.

Governor Folk travelled with Mr. Bryan Friday and spoke from the same platform. They held conferences on the issues of the day and discussed Mr. Bryan's advocacy of Federal ownership.

TREASURE TROVE.
LONDON, Oct. 14.—An ingot was held at Sheffield yesterday on some Roman silver coins found by workmen near the old British camp. They were claimed both by the crown and the Duke of Norfolk. The men who found the coins had exchanged many of them for beer at public houses.

CHILD AGRICULTURISTS.
CAPEFROWN, Oct. 14.—The Tasmanian Government is offering prizes to children attending public and private schools in the country for the best crop of mangles grown from seed distributed to it free of cost.

REVOLUTIONISTS GOT ALL THE REVOLVERS.
Stoessel Resigns from the Army—Murdered.

WARSAW, Oct. 14.—A consignment of several thousand revolvers purchased by the Russian government in Berlin, recently fell into the hands of the Polish revolutionists. Shortly after the arrival of the consignment, the Polish revolutionists, who were armed with the revolvers, appeared, presented the bills of lading and an authorization to receive the weapons, which were loaded upon a wagon and carried away. It later developed that the soldiers were disguised revolutionists and the documents forged.

Investigation shows that since last December the revolutionists have been accumulating large stocks of rifles and revolvers in Poland, the greater part of these, according to a member of the party, being purchased in Berlin, where their agents, well supplied with money from the proceeds of recent robberies and forced contributions, are able to pay cash for weapons of the latest pattern.

ST. PETERSBURG, Oct. 14.—An Imperial order giving notice of the retirement of Lieut. General Stoessel on the ground of ill health, has appeared.

The trial of Lieut. General Stoessel for surrendering Fort Arthur to the Japanese has been going on since Sept. 29. His resignation from the army has been expected. It has been asserted that he would resign because he preferred to face the court in civil garb instead of in uniform.

Greer, Bishop Coadjutor of the diocese of New York; Rev. W. H. Faunce, D. D., President of Brown University; and Rev. Wm. Adams Brown, of Union Theological Seminary.

In his dedicatory sermon Dr. Parkhurst paid high tribute to the genius of Stanford White, the architect, whose final achievement was the designing of the new church. He made no reference to the tragic death of White.

H. R. McLELLAN,

In the Catholic churches in the city yesterday prayers were said for the repose of the soul of the late Rev. James Feeney, C. S. R., who died of apoplexy last week at Mayaguez, Porto Rico. The announcement of Rev. Feeney's death was made in St. Peter's church last Wednesday evening, when the prayers of the congregation were requested. A feeling of deep regret was expressed by the parishioners of St. Peter's, having been associated there for some time, six or seven years ago. Besides doing good work in that parish, he also had charge of Chapel Grove parish, whose congregation held him in affectionate esteem. The deceased was born in Quebec on Oct. 14, 1855. He studied for the sacerdotal order at North-west, Pa., and made his profession Aug. 1, 1885. He was ordained to the priesthood on April 8, 1890.

BETTER TERMS.

Nothing can ever happen in the future which will cause surprise. One of the members of the local legislature, the premier and his colleagues will be able to point the finger of scorn at their critical opponents and throw at them the time worn "I told you so." But of course no mention will ever be made of the five or six millions or whatever it was, from the fisheries award which the Attorney General also promised to bring back from Ottawa in his pocket—for the province. It is gone, but not forgotten, and we must all be satisfied, for the extra $120,000 is just like getting money from home.

The general increase in subsidies was not wholly unexpected, for the attention given by Premier Laurier to request for a conference was an indication that the government would favorably consider all arguments for a re-adjustment. And that the federal government is acting fairly with all must be admitted. The increases granted are not extravagant, and are on an average about two-thirds of what were demanded. Thus the premier, who expected only fifty per cent. of their claims, should be well satisfied. Mr. Deane of British Columbia, has made a mistake. He should have taken all that was offered, for a two pound trout in the basket is worth half a dozen stories of the six pounder that got away, and a man who holds the political supremacy of a province only as one might say by the skin of his teeth, should make the best showing possible. His refusal to agree in the demands made will furnish British Columbia with an excuse for a long drawn out row against the government, but the who will not when he may, when he will shall have say.

The doing away with the commercial travellers' tax will be a blessing. This imposition has been in existence for some years and has found a restriction of trade in Quebec and Prince Edward Island.

No one will worry over the maritime surpluses of all claims for shares of the fisheries award. The hope of securing such allowances was only a dream.

JOSEPH CHAMBERLAIN.

Although no one is anxious to admit it, the feeling is becoming general that the public career of Joseph Chamberlain has closed. For some months this man, who has long been in the forefront of political struggles in Britain, has been an invalid, suffering from the effects of a stroke of paralysis. Announcement is made that he will fill engagements arranged for the winter, and it may be that his voice will later be heard by English audiences, but it is very improbable that he will ever again take up his parliamentary duties, or engage in parliamentary debate.

With Chamberlain's retirement, the movement in favor of imperial preference is now in a state of stagnation. It does not seem likely that the cause of serious divisions in his party, will receive a set-back. The project will not be killed, but without the master mind of its originator to keep it before the people, it must inevitably lose ground. Chamberlain's proposal was of such a revolutionary nature in free trade England, that people simply stood agape when it was first presented to them, but gradually the convincing earnestness and conclusive arguments put forth, won for preferential trade many warm supporters. If Chamberlain were twenty years younger he might live to see the day when his ideal would become a reality, but too late in life he began his campaign, and it seems that now there is no Ellaha on whom his mantle may fall.

THE DIRECTING OF FUNERALS.

The Halifax Echo and the Maritime Funeral Directors Association have been engaged in a controversy over matters relating to the undertaking business. The Echo strongly objects to legislation which will be sought by the association and which is intended to confine this business to a few. Those who may be permitted to practice, if the proposed bill is passed, will include only men who have taken special courses, or those who are members of the association. The purpose of course is to confine the work to those who join the association, and to give that body sole authority in the province. The arguments put forward in support of this request are such as might ap-

LIGHT ON THE CLOUD.

There's never an always cloudless sky. There's never a vale so fair so fair. But over it sometimes shadows lie. In a chill and songless air.

But never a cloud overshadowing the day. And flung its shadows down. But on the heaven-side gleamed some ray. Forming a sunshine crown.

It is dark on only the downward side; Though rage the tempest loud, And scatter its terror far and wide, There's light upon the cloud.

And often when it trilleth low, Shutting the landscape out, And only the chilly east winds blow. From the foggy seas of doubt.

There'll come a time, near the setting sun, When the joys of life seem few, A rift will break in the evening dusk, And the golden light stream through.

And the soul a glorious bridge will make. Out of its golden bars, And all its priceless treasures take. Where shine the eternal stars.

SCARED OUT.

In some parts of the West Indies the negroes speak with a brogue. They are descended from the slaves of the Irish adventurers who accompanied the Spanish settlers. An Irishman arriving at a West Indian port was accused by a negro of being a spy. "Top of the morning to ye, an' would ye be after wantin' to buy a bit of fruit, sorr?" the Irishman looked at him a moment.

"An' how long have ye been here?" he asked.

"Goin' on three months, yer honor," said the vendor, thinking of the time since he had left his inland home.

"Three months, is it? Only three months an' as black as that?" Faith, I'll not land!"

ANOTHER BALLOON RACE STARTS FROM BERLIN

Seventeen Big Bubbles Blown Away on a Long Distance Contest.

ENGAGE IN A RIOT

Disatisfaction Over a Start at the Longchamps Course led to an Exciting Squabble.

PARIS, Oct. 14.—There were violent public demonstrations at the Longchamps race course yesterday afternoon as a consequence of an unsatisfactory start in the free handicap. The trouble culminated in riots, pillage and incendiarism. Many persons were arrested. The racing programme comprised six contests and the first two passed off with the ordinary calm. Then the flag fell for the free handicap. There were nine starters in this race, and four, including the favorite, remained at the post owing to a misunderstanding. Amid a terrific uproar, a complete out-of-control won. The public indignation became enraged, broke down the barriers and invaded the track. Crowds demanded the return of their bets. They surrounded the bookmakers' booths, chased out the cashiers and seized the money. Attempts to restore order were in vain. The crowd's anger increased, and the men began breaking chairs and throwing them on the track. Then a rougher element raised some automobiles stationed near the grand stands, seized supplies of petroleum with which they sprinkled the booths and other woodwork and set them on fire. The squad of firemen on duty were helpless as the hose had been cut. The authorities telephoned for assistance to Mont Valerien and a strong body of troops was at once started out on the double quick. The soldiers succeeded eventually in clearing the enclosure by charging, but in the meantime the betting structures had burned to the ground. A large wooden building belonging to the bookmakers also was set on fire. The last three races were postponed. Sixty arrests were made, and a large number of policemen and rioters were injured.

A large force of troops will remain on duty throughout the night at both the Longchamps and Autoul courses.

SUDDEN DEATH OF CHATHAM MAN

Michael Hockin Stricken With Paralysis—Married St. John Lady Who Died Recently

CHATHAM, N. B., Oct. 14.—Grieving for the death of his wife, who occurred last November, Michael Samuel Hockin, one of the best known and honored of Chatham citizens, was stricken suddenly last evening, and as if in answer to his wish he too passed out into the great beyond within twelve months of his wife's death. Mr. Hockin had been in his usual health up to Saturday evening, and the news of his death came as a distinct shock to his fellow citizens, who had seen him around as usual all the week. He was in his office on Water street last evening, and evidently suffered a sudden attack of paralysis, for he had only managed to send a telephone message to Mackenzie's drug store, and when Col. Mackenzie hurried in he found Mr. Hockin partly paralyzed, but still conscious. His eyes turned upon the suburbans for about twenty minutes and passed away at 11 o'clock Saturday night, within two hours of the attack. Dr. Joseph Benson, who was summoned, said the cause of death was hemorrhaging of the brain.

MASTERS OF ARTS.

A two-inch stub of a blue pencil was the wand with which Keogh performed the preliminary acts of his magic. So, with this he covered paper with diagrams and figures while he waited for the United States of America to send down to Corralo a successor to Atwood, resigned.

CABBAGES AND KINGS.

SHIPS.

"What suits me," Keogh used to say, "in the way of a business proposition is something riverwise that looks like a longer shot than it is—something in the way of a general principle that isn't working."

The grass-grown globe was the green table on which Keogh gambled. The games he played were of his own invention. He was no grubber after the diffident dollar. Nor did he care to follow it with horn and hounds. Rather he loved to coax it with gracious and brilliant files from his habitat in the waters of strange streams. Yet Keogh was a business man; and his schemes, in spite of their singularity, were as solidly set as the plans of a building contractor. In Arthur's time, Sir William would have been a Knight of the Round Table. In these modern days he rides abroad, seeking the Graf instead of the Grail.

Three days after Johnny's departure, two small schooners appeared off Corlo. After some delay a boat put off from one of them, and brought a sun-burned young man ashore. This young man had a shrewd and calculating eye, and he gazed with amazement at the strange things that he saw. He found on the beach some one who directed him to the consul's office, and thither he made his way at a nervous gait.

Keogh was sprawled in the official chair, drawing caricatures of his Uncle's head on an official pad of paper. He looked up at his visitor.

"That's just like him," remarked the nut-brown one, leaning against the chair. "He always was a fellow to gallop around instead of tending to business. Will he be in soon?"

"I'm looking after the business just now," Keogh said. "I've had my eye on that factory?" "Are you—then, say—where's the factory?" "Why, the factory where they use them cockleburrs. Lord knows what those things are for, but I've got the basements of both them ships out there loaded with 'em. I'll give you a bargain on this lot. I've had my eye on a woman and child around Dalesburg that wasn't busy pickin' 'em for a month. I hired them to come to my place. Everybody thought I was crazy. Now, you can have this lot for fifteen cents a pound, delivered on the wharf. As if in answer to his wish he too passed out into the great beyond within twelve months of his wife's death. Mr. Hockin had been in his usual health up to Saturday evening, and the news of his death came as a distinct shock to his fellow citizens, who had seen him around as usual all the week. Claim He Used Bank's Money in Extensive Speculations.

Bank of Montreal Takes Over Liabilities and Assets of Ontario Bank and Run is Avoided — Manager Denies that He Misappropriated Any Funds.

Montreal to the extent of two and one-half millions. The effect of the arrangements is that there is no longer any Ontario Bank. It is the Bank of Montreal.

Cockburn explained that the Ontario Bank bills were now bearing interest at 5 per cent. per annum. This 5 per cent. is provided out of a redemption or guarantee fund, to which all the banks contributed. It was designed to maintain the value of the bank notes. Any Canadian bank will redeem the notes of another bank that has gone out of existence and pay interest on them.

"Why, the people could put their bills away and collect interest on them," said Cockburn.

Inspector Caldwell of the Bank of Ontario was asked when the bank was last inspected.

"I do not believe," he answered, "that the head office has been inspected for years. My duty is only to inspect the branches, and I am a regular bank officer, not an outside authority. This has been a great surprise to me as it is to you and the public."

"What have the directors determined on doing in the way of instituting a presentation?"

"I really cannot tell you. The bank of Montreal is in charge and the accounts are being gone over. We can not tell until the accounts have been gone into and the shortage discovered. Charles McGill, general manager of the bank, was seen in his room at the King Edward Hotel and asked as to the probable shortage of a million and a quarter. "If the loss will be so large, where did the funds go?" he was asked. After many repetitions of questions, McGill finally answered: "The losses are made up in the ordinary course of business, made up of old debts and losses in securities purchased on behalf of the bank. I have been placed in a terrible position in the last few days."

"The directors, instead of taking hold, have stood under and have with assistance wanted when it was most needed. I had to raise money in my own name to keep things going. You can understand why the directors blame me when I could not raise money in securities in the name of the bank. I had to do it in my own name."

"There is a statement published this morning that I had a lot of transactions with Mr. Choate. I never had a dollar with him in my whole bank business. There is no use of my coming out now and making a statement. The directors have been very unkind to me and to the directors who are fully secured and to avert a panic that might shake the whole banking system in this city."

"The directors have thrown all the blame and the branches on my shoulders. I will protest myself later, but I do not want to start a dispute at this time. If this thing is settled, as to the merger, then the directors must look into the matter of losses. I can only say that if they don't come down too hard on me, I will bear the brunt of it, but we must wait and see."

"The losses were made in pursuance of the bank's business. The losses were made on securities. The losses were made on securities. The losses were made on securities."

"I should like to ask you this question, would you deny the statement made that the loss was being made by your own speculations with the bank funds for your own account?"

"I do deny that. I never had a dollar with him in my whole bank business. There is no use of my coming out now and making a statement. The directors have been very unkind to me and to the directors who are fully secured and to avert a panic that might shake the whole banking system in this city."

DISGRACEFUL STREET BRAWL

Five Men Arrested Late Saturday Night

Three Were Captured on the Spot, and the Other Two Were Found in Bed

One of the most disgraceful street brawls that has occurred in the city for a long time took place about midnight Saturday on the corner of Hornefield and Charlotte streets. Men and women attracted by the noise, rushed to their windows and peering out, beheld a number of men in a fearful fight and were subjected to language they would blush to repeat. Officer Crawford, who was the first policeman on the scene, said that it was one of the worst street fights he ever witnessed. The contestants all belonged to Lower Cove and were five in number, Wm. Lavey, Frank O'Brien, Wm. Wallace, James Connors and Louis McDermott. A telephone message to central police station between 12 and one o'clock was the first intimation to the police of the disturbance. Officer Crawford immediately responded and hurried to the scene. On the way he saw Police Constable Belyea and told him to follow him. Before coming up to the crowd Crawford halted a moment to see what was going on in order that he would have a case against them. He then ran up to them, and the first man to come within his grasp was Lavey. Officer Crawford proceeded to the street and went to Connors' house. On being questioned, Connors admitted that he had turned his back on the officer and rolled the quills around himself. This was the last thing he saw. He was then quietly hauled him out of bed and told him to dress. McDermott, who took into the matter of losses. I can only say that if they don't come down too hard on me, I will bear the brunt of it, but we must wait and see."

"The losses were made in pursuance of the bank's business. The losses were made on securities. The losses were made on securities. The losses were made on securities."

FRANK FLYNN'S WAY OF PAYING DEBTS

Is Now in Jail For Assaulting E. B. Spragg a Liverman, Whose Horse He Ill Used

Frank Flynn of Rockland road was arrested between 9 and 10 o'clock last evening by Serg. Kilpatrick and Policeman Marshall. Flynn was given into charge by Edward B. Spragg for having assaulted him. Mr. Spragg runs a livery stable at the corner of Main and Harrison streets. About three o'clock Flynn hired a horse and carriage from Spragg until 6 o'clock in the evening and paid for it. Flynn, however, was very warm, and when the carriage was brought to him he was angry. Mr. Spragg told Flynn that he wanted him to pay for the damage, but the man objected. After some further parleying, Flynn agreed to pay a certain sum, part of which he said he would pay at once and the balance Monday night. Mr. Spragg said that Flynn, as he thought, started to put his hands in his pocket for the money, but instead of doing so struck him in the face, cutting through his lower lip. He then made another pass, but this was dodged, after which he ran. When arrested he was on Fort Howe in company, it is said, with a young lady. Dr. McIntyre dressed the cut on Mr. Spragg's lip.

In speaking of the matter, Mr. Spragg said that Flynn must have had a ring on his hand when he struck him or it would not have cut through. Three or four men were standing around the stable and were witnesses of the assault.

CHINAMEN WERE BURNED TO DEATH

Fire on Steamer Hankow May Be Work of Incendiary—The Awful Results

SUICIDE THROUGH TERROR.

Russian Woman Kills Herself on Receipt of Letter.

HONG KONG, Oct. 14.—The fire on the steamer Hankow, which was burned at her dock early today, with the loss of the lives of several hundred Chinamen, was brought under control at 6 o'clock a.m., at which time only the shell and hull of the Hankow remained. The gruesome work of recovering the dead was then begun.

The fire-lighters recovered seventy-five corpses early. Many of them were huddled together and only singed, while others were incinerated beyond recognition.

A large number of the 2,000 Chinese aboard are supposed to have been drowned by jumping into the bay. Of these, a four-story and one that was badly damaged by water.

The remainder was totally destroyed. There are many theories as to the cause of the fire. The first is that the lantern of a Chinese boarding house runner, who came aboard seeking customers. The second was that the opium smoker accidentally set fire to a mattress; the third is that it was caused by the crossing of electric wires. A fourth theory and one that is considered the most probable, is that the fire was incendiary and was the work of the boycott against the British river boats.

GUT HIS THROAT WITH A RAZOR

Fredericton Man Kills Himself at Friend's House

Charles Moffat a Prominent Contractor Kills Himself After Long Period of Ill Health

FREDERICTON, N. B., Oct. 14.—Charles Moffat, one of Fredericton's best known contractors and carpenters took his life this afternoon at New Marsford by cutting his throat with a razor. Mr. Moffat had been in ill health for some past and the sad fatality is attributed to his mind having become unbalanced. He was a man greatly respected and successful in his line of business. During the summer he had suffered from a sun stroke and had not enjoyed good health since. Thus afflicted and worried over his work he suffered much with headache. His illness took a suicidal turn and about four weeks ago he attempted suicide by taking acid. From this attempt, however, he was frustrated in time. After this his physical condition ordered rest and he spent the next two weeks or so in the country. About ten days ago he returned to the city apparently well and went to work last Monday in the best of health.

That evening he suffered from his head and was again obliged to give up work. Last Friday morning Mr. Moffat and his wife on invitation of Mrs. Moffat, visited New Marsford and here Mr. Moffat and his brother-in-law spent parts of Friday and Saturday shooting in the woods. This morning Mrs. Moffat, with Mr. Moffat, and during the meal Mr. Moffat appeared to be in the best of health and spirits. He afterwards spent some minutes playing with the child in the house and then announced that he thought he would go out and have a smoke. Mr. McKnight followed soon afterwards and found the unfortunate man in his room suffering considerably. He asked if he were sick, and the reply came that his throat was cut and that he had slashed his throat with a razor, the cut extending from his ear to beneath his chin. He was immediately summoned, and Dr. Harry McNally of this city telephoned to the doctor arriving within an hour and found that the fatal wound had been severed. He put in a number of stitches with the hope of keeping the cut shut, but within fifteen minutes the unfortunate man had breathed his last.

Mr. Moffat had found the razor in the vicinity of the match box when after dinner he went to get a match to light his pipe. The deceased was about 41 years of age and leaves besides a widow, formerly Miss Ellen Kirk, a daughter of two years of age, a sister, Miss Jane Abo, survives. The latter is at present visiting in Boston.

HOPEWELL HILL, Oct. 14.—Hueston Stewart, one of the best known residents of the village, passed away at 4 o'clock this afternoon, after nearly a year's illness. The deceased had not been in robust health for some years, but was able to attend to his duties until last fall, when he gave up work, and has since been gradually failing.

Mr. Stewart, who belonged in Alma, was about 65 years of age, and had been a resident of this village for over thirty years. In early life he followed the sea, but later engaged in blacksmithing, which business he prosecuted with much success during his residence here. He was a man of the strictest integrity and had very many friends, by whom he was held in the highest esteem. The deceased was a strong Liberal in politics and took a great interest in public matters. He was twice married, and is survived by his second wife, who is a daughter of the late Hugh Wright of Mountville, and three children—C. A. Stewart, I. C. R. Stewart of Moncton, and Miss Maud Stewart of the first family, and Robert E. Stewart, who is now in the army. He also leaves two brothers—James Stewart of Alma and Capt. Andrew Stewart of Hillsboro, and a sister, Mrs. Norman Copp of West River.

Laurier Grants Provincial Demands—Grant for Legislation Increased—Capitation Allowance Based on Last Census—B.C. Extra Demands Turned Down Provinces Surrender Control of Fisheries and Commercial Travellers Tax.

OTTAWA, Oct. 14.—The Provincial conference closed successfully Saturday evening with an announcement by Sir Wilfrid Laurier that he was willing to ask the Imperial Parliament to amend the British North America act in such a way that the provincial subsidies would be increased on the basis of the present population to the extent of $2,372,000 a year, and to provide for further increase in proportion to the growth in population.

The provincial premiers practically got all they asked for with the exception of twenty cents a head for criminal administration, and with the exception of the exorbitant demands of British Columbia for special recognition.

In return the Dominion Government was given to understand that the provinces would give up control of deep water fisheries, and would abandon commercial travellers' tax.

On behalf of the Federal Government Sir Wilfrid announced he was prepared to grant the provinces increase on the basis of the population of 1887 as far as specific allowance for legislation and civil government is concerned; secondly, he was prepared to grant a capitation allowance of eighty cents a head on the population of the various provinces shown by the last decennial census of 1901. That eighty cents a head would be allowed each province on a population up to two and a half millions and for all population above that figure sixty cents a head. For a specific allowance for legislation and civil government, the Quebec resolution provided that the provinces with a population up to a hundred and fifty thousand the allowance is $100,000; the minimum paid to any provinces, for population between one and two hundred thousand people, $180,000; specific subsidy; four to eight hundred thousand people, $180,000; population over one million and a half of people specific subsidy of $200,000; above a million and a half, the rate of $200,000, is the maximum.

New Brunswick	120,000	267,650	177,650

British Columbia	210,000	140,825	215,000

Next in interest and importance to the announcement that increased subsidies would be granted the event of the last day's proceedings was the withdrawal of Premier McBride of British Columbia from the conference after "can't do nor frank" by Premier Whitney then denounced the conference.

Mr. McBride had asked to have the claim of British Columbia left for valuation by a special arbitration. He then stated that he would accept a special increase allowance on a sliding scale beginning at a dollar a head and running down to 25 cents a head when the population of his province reaches two and a half millions. This the other eight premiers declared was far beyond what they would recommend. Premier McBride was offered a hundred thousand a year extra. Premier McBride refused and the conference then adjourned.

After Premier McBride had withdrawn from the conference, Mr. Roblin, Premier of Ontario, then moved to return to the conference room. The visit was without result and the British Columbia premier ended his connection with the conference and its proceedings were concluded without him.

The minutes of the conference show that Premier Roblin of Quebec was the chairman of the conference on the motion of Premier Whitney, seconded by Premier Roblin. The members of the first day referred to a committee consisting of the chairman and Hon. Messrs. Poy, Murray, Fugstoy, McBride, Campbell and Weir.

This committee reported on the second day and on motion of Premier Roblin, seconded by Premier Peters, its resolutions were unanimously adopted. They declared that the members of this conference are of opinion it is desirable in the interest of the people of Canada and essential to the development of the provinces, that an immediate provision be made for an increase of the subsidies granted by the federal government to the several provinces, and for the award to the provincial governments by Canada of an amount sufficient to meet the cost of administration of criminal justice not exceeding 20 cents per head of population. That if this is resolved, the subject matter of the resolutions of the Quebec conference of 1902 ratified by the legislatures of all the provinces and British Columbia, be now pressed upon the Dominion government for immediate favorable action, under reserve of the right of any province to now submit to the government representatives of the Dominion when time permitted, memoranda concerning any claims it may have to larger sums than those set out said resolutions or to additional consideration or recognition. That in case the government of Canada concurs in the view of the conference, a measure should be submitted to parliament at the next session to provide for payment of increased subsidies pending an amendment to the British North America Act.

An amendment offered by Premier Roblin carried unanimously, declared the population shown by the last decennial census should govern except as to British Columbia, Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta, and as to these the population taken in 1901 should govern until annual payments are now made to them until their population is greater. These resolutions were submitted to Sir Wilfrid Laurier and the other federal ministers Wednesday morning in joint conference. Sir Wilfrid made representations to the provincial representatives that he might give some consideration in conference to the Ontario undivided jurisdiction by the Dominion over deep water and international water fisheries to technical education and to the ability of doing away with commercial travellers' tax. Sir Wilfrid did not put these subjects forward as a matter of bargaining but as subjects in which all were interested and which could be considered by the provinces. After the federal ministers withdrew Premier McBride submitted a telegram from the Vancouver Daily Province suggesting a uniform insolvency law. It was decided this was outside the scope of the conference.

Premier McBride occupied most of the time until Friday pressing the claim of British Columbia for special treatment. On to Premier Murray of Nova Scotia moved, seconded by Mr. Weir, that it is inadvisable in the opinion of the conference that the claim of the province of Alberta, P. E. I., Alberta and Saskatchewan have not yet increased in population to the limit of their present capitation allowance.

It was then proposed by Premier Whitney, seconded by Premier Murray, that in view of the large size, geographical position and very exceptional features of the province of British Columbia, it is the opinion of this conference that the said province should receive a reasonable additional allowance for the purpose of civil government in excess of the provisions of the Quebec resolutions of 1902, and that such additional allowance should be one hundred thousand dollars a year for ten years.

Premier McBride protested so vigorously against this that the conference broke up for the day.

On Saturday morning Premier Scott moved, seconded by Premier Rutherford, an amendment to Premier Whitney's motion, that in view of the very exceptional conditions of settlement existing in Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta each should be granted an extra fifty thousand dollars a year for ten years.

Premier McBride at this stage withdrew from the conference. Mr. Scott's amendment was lost and Mr. Whitney's resolution was unanimously carried. A resolution offered by Premier Roblin and seconded by Premier Peters was adopted. It recommended each provincial legislature to abolish the specific tax on commercial travellers providing they do not come under acts concerning the sale of intoxicating liquors; that this conference also recommends that the legislatures of the several provinces shall make no discrimination in the taxation of companies incorporated by the Dominion and those incorporated by the provinces wherein such tax is imposed. Mr. Whitney and Mr. Murray said they desired to consult their colleagues before assenting to the second portion of the above resolution.

It was then resolved that a meeting of the prime ministers of the several provinces be held each year to consider matters of common interest and that such meeting shall be convened by the prime ministers of Ontario and Quebec.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier then announced that the federal government was prepared to give.

A vote of thanks to Sir Wilfrid and the federal ministers for their efforts to facilitate the work of the conference was unanimously adopted, after being moved by Premier Whitney.

Votes of thanks were adopted to Chairman Gouin and Secretary Charles Lanctot.

The provincial representatives then accepted Premier Whitney's invitation to visit the Ontario room, where they were drunk and the singing of God Save the King, led by Premier Peters, closed the conference.

HE TAKLED A MOOSE WITH A PITCHFORK

And Only for the Interference of a Barbed Wire Fence, Mr. Brinley Might Have Had Success.

Whether St. Patrick, in his house-cleaning campaign in Ireland, included moose along with the snakes and toads is not on record, but at any rate R. J. Brinley, a native of the old sod, never had the misfortune to become acquainted with a moose until he struck this country.

On Saturday night last, Mr. Brinley, who is employed with John Hannah, a milk dealer on the Board's Head road, drove home from town and going into the barnyard found there an animal which was neither horse nor cow.

He responded to the question of procuring a license until another day, and selling a pitchfork decided that the family must have moose steak for Sunday dinner.

Carrying his weapon at the charge, Mr. Brinley advanced in open order. The moose lowered its antlers and prepared to withstand the steel.

Mr. Brinley lunged. The moose shook its head. Again the pitchfork was advanced, and this time the moose, becoming excited, executed a flank movement with the intention of taking Mr. Brinley by surprise.

He used the pitchfork, the moose used his horns, and the barnyard was the scene of a more lively conflict than occurred on the Mahogany Road when Waltham's game rooster tackled the partridge.

During the melee a barbed wire fence which had been standing at the side of the yard came over to get a closer look at Mr. Brinley, walking backwards, sat down on it.

The price of his fare to Maine was given him by Mr. Golding.

Cousins was not a heavy drinker, and was only seen intoxicated once. He is now behind the bars in Boston, with a serious charge against him.
