

WILD SCENES IN KITCHENER WHEN RETURNED MEN SHOW THEIR DISAPPROVAL OF NAME BERLIN

Mayor's Name Greeted With Hoots and Hisses, While Aldermen With German Names Were Booted, Made to Kiss the Flag and Given a Ducking—Member of Parliament Euler on Refusal to Kiss the Flag Was Severely Beaten and Rendered Senseless—Newspaper Office Wrecked—Lively Doings from Start to Finish.

Toronto, Ont., Dec. 2.—Reports reaching here give the following descriptive story of the riotous scenes which followed the meeting of the Kitchener City Council, when the resolution to go back to the name "Berlin" was struck out by the Council:

"Cheers greeted this decision to strike out the resolution. Some called for three cheers for the Council, but few voices responded. A call for cheers for the Mayor met with 'hoots' and 'hisses.' The Council proceeded with other business and the deputations began to file out. They did not proceed outside the hall, however, but began a session in the council chamber. The Council members and Aldermen, Brown and Betzer. The two were found in a side room with the door locked. The lock was quickly broken and a crowd of men from the Veterans who filed the corridor, 'hissed every step of the way. Betzer was held dragged, half carried into the council chamber. Take your seat like a man,' from the Veterans greeted him. He was thrown into his seat by one of the Veterans and a demand made that he kiss the Union Jack which was held out to him. He refused. A few minutes later, Alderman Bowman was found and hurled into his seat in the Council chamber and also asked to kiss the flag. On his refusal, one of the soldiers sprang on him, with the remark that that was the way the Germans had treated the British soldiers when the opportunity came their way.

Crowd Grows Angry.

"The anger of the crowd rose at continued refusals to kiss the flag, and finally they dragged both Betzer and Bowman from the building. The latter making good his escape while the veteran threw him sprawling at the foot of the stairway. Betzer was hurled to the G. W. V. A. room, followed by a crowd of more than two thousand people. At the club he was marched to the front of the room and there made to kiss the flag. A cuff over his head was administered first, however. Taken from the rooms and followed by the mob, a parade was started to Victoria Lake, where he was ducked. He was then allowed his freedom and his way home hastened by a few healthy kicks and admonitions to 'hiss town' with new vigour.

Wreck Newspaper Office.

The crowd then made for the News Record office, where they smashed the windows and wrecked the place completely, and after that they visited the home of Alderman Ammann, M. P. P. He was prepared for them and met them on the veranda of his house with a revolver, advising them to keep their distance. An argument was started which looked serious, and a woman ran across the street, calling out, 'In the name of Christ! A veteran replied that Christians had not used Christianity with them. Ammann was finally persuaded to go with the men to the G. W. V. A. Hall, where he was made to sing 'God Save the King' and to kiss the flag.

Get After Euler.

Still unsatisfied veterans went in search of W. D. Euler, M. P. for South Waterloo. He was located at his club, dragged out and taken to the G. W. V. A. headquarters where, when he refused to sing the National Anthem and kiss the flag, he was knocked down three times. Eventually he was spirited away by Captain Macintosh, president of the G. W. V. A., as he was about to be taken to the lake to be ducked. Mr. Euler is editor of the News-Record of Kitchener, who was wrecked by the mob during the riot. When Euler was first knocked down he fell part way through a window and was saved from falling three stories to the pavement and rescued from his perilous position by the prompt efforts of Captain Macintosh, who stated that he got Euler away because he did not have a chance after the blows he had received and because four hundred to one was not fair.

The editorial in his paper, the Kitchener News-Record, which Mr. Euler was asked by the returned soldiers to explain, was published just after the Prince of Wales' visit to the city was headed "Overturning the welcome." "What democrats are, to be sure. The Prince of Wales is a nice, pleasing young man, and, as long as we must have Kings and Emperors (I almost said Kaisers) I suppose it is all right to have the Prince visit a country whose King he is to be some day, but it is amusing and it is disgusting how silly and humble people will be in the presence of a person of flesh and

Claim That Germany Still Retains War Prisoners in Close Confinement

Dijon, France, Sunday, Nov. 30.—That Germany still retains French prisoners of war in close confinement is the claim made by Louis Boucher, a French volunteer of the 1918 class, who was made prisoner at Villers-Bretonneux, June 6, 1918, and returned to his home here today. Boucher declares that he, with two comrades, was tried before a Court Martial for attempting to escape, and were sentenced to ten years imprisonment in a fortress. He was taken to Danzig, the French mission from Berlin, which visited the Danzig fortress, discovered, according to Boucher, seven prisoners in solitary confinement and had them released. Boucher was among those given their freedom. French war office records carried the word "disappeared" against the name of Boucher, who had been unable to communicate with his relatives after his capture.

Baltic States and Soviet Russia In Conference

Dorpat, Monday, Dec. 1.—(By the Associated Press.)—Representatives of the Baltic States are gathering here for the Peace Conference with the Russian Bolsheviks, which is expected to be begun on Thursday, December 4. (A recent Bolshevik wireless message said the Soviet government would meet an Eschomina delegation for a peace conference on December 2. The other Baltic States were not mentioned in the Soviet report, but the indications from other sources were said to be they probably would take part in the conference.)

The Bolshevik delegation is reported to consist of M. Krasin, Soviet Minister of Trade and Commerce, and Adolph Joffe, former Soviet Ambassador to Berlin, together with a large secretarial force. This delegation is expected to arrive here on Wednesday. A third delegate, it is said, will probably be Carl Radek, who for many months has been a political prisoner in Berlin, where he was arrested last February on the charge of assisting the Spartacan movement. It is not clear, however, how he is to obtain his release for the purpose of attending the conference, nor what route he will take to come to Dorpat.

Poland, Finland, White Russia and the Ukraine will be represented, unofficially, as they were at the previous Baltic Conference.

The Peace Conference is expected to last a month or more. Maxim Litvinoff, the Bolshevik emissary, who carried off the negotiations with the Baltic States here regarding the exchange of prisoners and now is in Copenhagen for similar negotiations with Entente representatives, may participate in the Dorpat deliberations on his return from Copenhagen.

LeBlanc was counsel for the plaintiff, and M. G. Teed, K. C., of St. John, and E. A. Rieley, K. C., for Tramways Company.

With No Coal Stocks in the City and Gas Pressure Down, the Conditions Rapidly Becoming Alarming.

PROMISED COAL ALLOTMENT FAILS

United States Unable to Make Good Its Promise and Railway Board Orders Reduction in Train Service.

Calgary, Alta., Dec. 2.—Calgary citizens face serious situation with continued bitter cold, gas pressure down to six pounds, and no coal stocks in the city. The condition is rapidly becoming alarming. One or two days more of such bitter cold will find the citizens without either coal or gas, it is feared.

Montreal, Dec. 2.—"Of the one hundred and fifty cars per day which the United States government undertook to supply to Canada beginning November 24, not one car has been received. The prospects are that little, if any, coal will reach Canada during the month of December. Even although the strike may be settled this week, it will probably be some time before an official statement of the Railway Association of Canada (The Canadian Railway Board) issued here tonight. The Canadian Railways are using wood for stationary boilers. They have already reduced passenger service. Further cuts in passenger services are almost to be announced. But even with these changes it is almost inevitable that a serious reduction in freight service will also have to be made. In this case preference will be given to food, fuel, and other necessities. It is practically certain that almost all manufacturing will have to be stopped. The first of these to suffer will necessarily be export traffic, such as pulp wood, lumber, nickel, asbestos and other ores."

IMPOSSIBLE TO PREDICT EVENTS IN RUSSIA

Noted War Correspondent Declares it Difficult to Say What is Going to Happen in That Country.

Special to The Standard. Montreal, Dec. 2.—"It is very difficult, indeed almost impossible, to say what is going to happen in Russia," declared Dr. E. J. Dillon, the noted war correspondent who left Montreal tonight for Vancouver, en route to California. "I know that some of the Bolsheviks are anxious that a considerable modification should be made in the aims and tactics of the present administration with a view to a coalition between all the Socialists in government, but whether that is really feasible I am unable to say. I do know, however, that neither Denikine nor Koltchak would for a moment accept it, for both are men of great ideals who have the good of the country at heart, and have identified themselves with the anti-Bolshevik doctrine. To that extent they have become democrats and made concessions, but they refuse to have the country governed in the interests of any one class, and for that reason I do not believe any of the leaders would give his consent to such a coalition. I look upon the Bolsheviks as a disaster to the country, all the more so as I am inclined to believe that the source of that movement is not Russian. To my mind it originated with the foreign element in the country."

Answering a query as to how Europe is setting down Dr. Dillon said everything would depend upon what happened in Russia and Germany at the present moment, however, the outlook will be very much better economically whether the political results will be satisfactory to everybody is another question, because I think if the Germans manage to regain their feet, they will take a large part in the re-organization of Russia. At the present moment, however, the Germans are very heavily handicapped by the conditions of the treaty. People sometimes express the fear that the Germans will dump their wares in various countries, but there is no real ground for that apprehension because the Germans are lacking raw material and transportation, and their exports are as a result of a low level; so that unless something is done by themselves or by outsiders to enable

Prince Alexander Declares Serbia Cannot Agree To New Provisions

Paris, Dec. 2.—Prince Regent Alexander of Serbia, who came to Paris yesterday in connection with the situation over the Austrian Treaty which the Jugo-Slav State has not yet signed, declared today that the Allies ought to see that his nation should not be asked to sign new engagements presented at the last moment. He was referring to the annex to the Treaty submitted for signature, which contained a provision setting off the debris of the new parts of the kingdom against the indemnities due Serbia. This, Prince Alexander declared, was incontestably a new provision. "We are obliged to make this declaration," said Prince Alexander, "while holding sentiments of the utmost devotion to our friends and allies, but conscious of our responsibilities toward our people."

Within a few weeks prices began to advance and they've risen ever since. But as fast as they come in we've ordered every garment according to Spring's cost. The result is that we're selling Overcoats now at $35 and $40 that would cost that to replace them. In fact our prices right through are hardly more than today's prices at the makers. Better see about that Overcoat at once, though. $25 to $65.

COMMON COUNCIL REGULAR MEETING HELD YESTERDAY

Letter from Minister of Marine Declines to Accept Council's Resolution Regarding Reservation for Ferry—Of Opinion That Satisfactory Arrangements Will be Made—Report on Millpond Question Submitted—Other Business.

The City Council at its meeting yesterday received a letter from the Minister of Marine declining to accept the Council's resolution regarding the reservation for the ferry, but expressing the opinion that the Harbor Commissioners, when appointed, would make a satisfactory arrangement with the city. The Mayor stated that Admiral Jellicoe had signalled his intention of visiting St. John some time during December. Dr. Emery, of the Vocational Board, was advised that his plans of sitting young people for useful occupations were too ambitious if not unnecessary. The City Engineer submitted a report on the millpond question, and Mr. Bullock was instructed to look into the matter of devising a reclamation scheme for that area.

Harbor Question. The following letter from the Minister of Marine, dated Nov. 23, was read: "I have before me your letter of the 21st inst., enclosing copy of resolution passed by the Common Council in reference to the transfer of the harbor to the Government. It is observed that the resolution as passed by the City Council provides for excepting certain property within the harbor from that which is to be transferred to the Government, whereas the legislation passed by Parliament provides that the entire property shall be transferred to the Government. In view, therefore, of the provisions of the enabling legislation, you will, I am sure, appreciate that I am unable to recommend to the Government acceptance of the terms of the resolution of the Common Council. In the event of the property being transferred as being provided for by the Act, I see no reason why satisfactory arrangements respecting the property required for ferry purposes should not be concluded between the Harbor Commissioners, when they will be appointed and the Common Council of the City of St. John.

"C. C. BALLANTYNE." The letter was referred to the Mayor. The Young Women's Patriotic Association and the Ladies' Auxiliary were urged to establish the of the Juvenile Court—with judge and probation officer. Commissioner Jones—if they would pay the salaries I would be willing to vote for now. The communications were received. George Taylor, president of the Aerial League, Vancouver, wrote that they were arranging for a flight from Halifax to Vancouver in the spring, and asking what St. John could offer in the way of aerodrome facilities. The letter was referred to the Mayor. Dr. A. F. Emery wrote urging the Council to put up the money to buy the Oddfellows' building in order to provide accommodation for a proper system of vocational training. Commissioner Bullock said at present he was not prepared to vote much money for buying a building for vocational training. If the Board made a start and it was proven there was a great demand for vocational training, then it would be up to the city to see what it would do.

The Mayor—This appears to be only some observations of Chairman Emery. Commissioner Bullock moved that the Vocational Board be notified that the city would not consider a proposition to buy any building now. Commissioner Jones seconded this. He said some people charged their minds; a gentleman the other day told him that vocational training was impossible in St. John, but now he is prepared to be strong for it. Commissioner Jones had doubts of the value of vocational training anyway. Commissioner Thornton moved in amendment that the communication be received, and this was adopted. The Mayor said he had invited Lord Jellicoe to visit St. John, and had received a reply that the Admiral would be here during December. He thought the Admiral should see the only large dry dock on the Atlantic coast of Canada. The contractors were now ahead of their excavation programme; the dock would be finished in two and a half years, and possibly by the end of 1921.

The Mayor was authorized to make arrangements for the entertainment of the Admiral while in St. John. The N. B. Power Company were given permission to erect a pole on Union street. The N. B. Telephone Company asked permission to erect a large number of poles and Commissioner Fisher was given power to act. Commissioner Fisher presented some bills incurred in connection with the visit of the Prince in August. Commissioner Jones—"Great Management."

The Mayor—The bills are O. K. only the people who rendered the services have been slow in settling in their bills. Even the St. John Times is among the sinners. One bill was from the hospitality committee for printing—$7. Another was for setting up a flag at Read's Point—$46; and another for painting a welcome sign there—$45. Commissioner Thornton recommended that the firemen be given $300 for expenses in connection with the celebration, and for acting as policemen. Commissioner Jones opposed. Only $150 was voted. The firemen knew what they were supposed to spend. Commissioner Thornton—The firemen turned out for police work, if they hadn't we would have had to employ special police. The bills were ordered paid.

Commissioner Thornton said the organizers of the West Side Evangelical meetings did not want to pay $30 a week for the use of the Carleton hall but were ready to pay the expenses for the month, which were $31.50. The evangelists did not raise enough money to pay expenses. It was agreed to accept $31.50. Commissioner Bullock brought up the question of providing water and sewerage for lands on Douglas avenue, where the Housing Commission proposes to erect some houses. Commissioner Jones said his department had authority to proceed with the matter, but had been in doubt as to whether the Housing Commission had purchased the lands. Commissioner Fisher said the city should not grade the proposed street off Douglas avenue, which were not for through traffic, or provide sewers there, except at the expense of the land holders. Commissioner Bullock said the Housing Commission would grade the street. Commissioner Jones said he would have a report on the question of sewers prepared as soon as possible. Tenders for cloth for summer uniforms for police were received as follows:—Mark Fisher, $9.50 and $6.50; M. R. A., $3.00; J. McDonald, 3.50, $5.00 and $3.50. Samples of cloth were submitted. The tenders were referred to Commissioner Thornton to report.

The Y. M. C. A. were given permission to erect an electric sign. Andrew J. Belyea, a returned soldier applied for a position on the police force. It was decided that the grant of $5,000 for vocational training would have to do for the whole season of 1919-20. It was decided to erect a gear shed for the Furness-Whitby Co. about 33 feet by 16 feet outside and at end of No. 5 shed, West Side, to be heated by steam and have a concrete floor and base; the rental to be $100 a year. The City Engineer submitted the following report on the millpond, so called, at West St. John: "This millpond covers an area of some twenty acres. Many years ago a mill was established in the neighborhood of the present opening on Union street, which utilized the power of water dammed back from the sea, and it is most probable, therefore, that the level of the millpond at high tide was never lower than the level of the water in the harbor; thus the water at high tides must have flooded the land now built upon, as it was flooded by the extremely high tides on the 9th and 10th inst. There is no record of when the gates were removed, thus allowing the pond to empty; nor could I find any record of any undertaking on the part of the city to restrict the ingress of the water so that the level of the water in the pond would never rise to the full level of the tides. I examined the sluiceway and did not find any structural work that would lead me to think that any work had been carried on with the deliberate intent of checking the inflow. There are two pieces of cribwork, now partially broken, at the harbor end of the opening, but these appear to be part of some general work carried out by the C. P. Railway to strengthen the opening and support their tracks, and their effect was, no doubt, to restrict the flow to some extent. "Some time after the tide mill ceased operations and the gates held-

ing the water in disappeared, permitting the pond to empty at low tide, complaint was made that a nuisance was created and some work was done to add a portion of the tide water to dilute the sewage, and mitigate the nuisance complained of, and at the present time a small quantity of water remains in the pond at low tide. "It is merely to show that there was never any deliberate attempt to check the free ingress of water and prevent the tide reaching its full level inside the millpond, and those who built at such a level as to be in danger of being flooded are not warranted in expecting the city to come to their relief. "It is, of course, feasible to control the inflow so that the water inside the millpond may never rise above a predetermined level, but it is incumbent upon the city at large to incur such an expenditure? Such an expenditure could only be justified on the ground that parts of Rodney and Ladlow streets are at times flooded and the backing up of the sewers causes an overflow of discharge into the street through the catch-basins at extremely high tides. Such extreme high tides are not of frequent occurrence. "The tides which caused the overflow in November were 23 feet high and over. There will be three tides, December 7th, 8th and 9th, 23 feet and over, and only one tide in 1920 (June 16th) as high as 23 feet, none higher. "If it is deemed expedient to regulate the flow, it would be preferable to construct an abutment immediately to the west of the present opening and entirely independent of it, rather than attempt to carry on any work under the C. P. R. tracks over the present opening. "It has been suggested that the water be held back and an artificial pond created. Such a pond would very soon be contaminated by sewage unless discharged periodically, which would mean considerable attendance on the central sewer. If the sewerage system be extended to discharge into the harbor, not into the millpond as at present. "Practically the whole area bounded by King, Queen, City Lane and Union streets, and in addition a portion of the sewage from the county, is drained into the millpond. The cost of extending the sewerage system would probably be not less than $50,000. "No doubt sooner or later the millpond will be filled in and the area reclaimed and put to some good use, and in considering the design of a sewer system we must consider for what purpose this ground may be utilized. The Rodney and Ladlow streets be extended, must necessarily discharge below high water and would have to be provided with a gate at the outlet to prevent the tide backing up and flowing out of the catch-basins at extremely high tides. The main sewer would, on account of the light grades, have to be of large size to carry the water, about 120 cubic feet per second, and no doubt would probably have sufficient storage capacity to care for the ordinary heavy sewage while the tide was up and the flow of the sewers checked; but should a heavy rainstorm occur during the time of high tide the sewers would quickly fill and the water back out of the low catch-basins. To provide storage for the storm water for several hours or to install a pumping outlet to take care of any excessive flow at high tide does not seem worthy of practical consideration. "The extension of the sewers must precede the entire filling in of the millpond. When this filling in is undertaken the level of the ground should be set well above the highest tide and certainly the level of part of Rodney and Ladlow streets raised, and the buildings which are set low—there are many—jacked up. New buildings set upon this reclaimed land should be without cessars, or set at such a height that they may drain freely into the sewer at any stage of the tide. Gates should in any case be placed at the mouth of the sewer to check a probable surging in the sewer due to the action of the waves and a possible

Commissioner Bullock suggested they should have a plan of filling in, but people objected to orders. Commissioner Jones said the sewer workers lived long and were hale and hearty. The report was referred to Commissioner Bullock for further consideration.

The cost of extending the sewerage system would probably be not less than $50,000. "No doubt sooner or later the millpond will be filled in and the area reclaimed and put to some good use, and in considering the design of a sewer system we must consider for what purpose this ground may be utilized. The Rodney and Ladlow streets be extended, must necessarily discharge below high water and would have to be provided with a gate at the outlet to prevent the tide backing up and flowing out of the catch-basins at extremely high tides. The main sewer would, on account of the light grades, have to be of large size to carry the water, about 120 cubic feet per second, and no doubt would probably have sufficient storage capacity to care for the ordinary heavy sewage while the tide was up and the flow of the sewers checked; but should a heavy rainstorm occur during the time of high tide the sewers would quickly fill and the water back out of the low catch-basins. To provide storage for the storm water for several hours or to install a pumping outlet to take care of any excessive flow at high tide does not seem worthy of practical consideration. "The extension of the sewers must precede the entire filling in of the millpond. When this filling in is undertaken the level of the ground should be set well above the highest tide and certainly the level of part of Rodney and Ladlow streets raised, and the buildings which are set low—there are

ing the water in disappeared, permitting the pond to empty at low tide, complaint was made that a nuisance was created and some work was done to add a portion of the tide water to dilute the sewage, and mitigate the nuisance complained of, and at the present time a small quantity of water remains in the pond at low tide. "It is merely to show that there was never any deliberate attempt to check the free ingress of water and prevent the tide reaching its full level inside the millpond, and those who built at such a level as to be in danger of being flooded are not warranted in expecting the city to come to their relief. "It is, of course, feasible to control the inflow so that the water inside the millpond may never rise above a predetermined level, but it is incumbent upon the city at large to incur such an expenditure? Such an expenditure could only be justified on the ground that parts of Rodney and Ladlow streets are at times flooded and the backing up of the sewers causes an overflow of discharge into the street through the catch-basins at extremely high tides. Such extreme high tides are not of frequent occurrence. "The tides which caused the overflow in November were 23 feet high and over. There will be three tides, December 7th, 8th and 9th, 23 feet and over, and only one tide in 1920 (June 16th) as high as 23 feet, none higher. "If it is deemed expedient to regulate the flow, it would be preferable to construct an abutment immediately to the west of the present opening and entirely independent of it, rather than attempt to carry on any work under the C. P. R. tracks over the present opening. "It has been suggested that the water be held back and an artificial pond created. Such a pond would very soon be contaminated by sewage unless discharged periodically, which would mean considerable attendance on the central sewer. If the sewerage system be extended to discharge into the harbor, not into the millpond as at present. "Practically the whole area bounded by King, Queen, City Lane and Union streets, and in addition a portion of the sewage from the county, is drained into the millpond. The cost of extending the sewerage system would probably be not less than $50,000. A HOPELESS TASK.

When Hon. Mackenzie King came upon the gathering of undistinguished representatives of the once great Liberal Party assembled at Ottawa to reorganize the party he must have felt like Moses in the wilderness—mightily small. It was reported a little while ago that the Liberal Premier of Manitoba and Saskatchewan were not likely to attend the Organization Committee meeting because of their dissatisfaction with the leadership of Mr. King, and whether as a result of their attitude or the general outlook in the West due to the rise of the Farmers' Party, the representatives of that section attending the meeting are not of sufficient prominence to set the hearer afloat.

The first and apparently the most important business of the first day's proceedings appears to have been the reading of letters of regret from the numerous Liberals who were expected to attend, but did not want to do so. Being no doubt troubled by the evidence of the unpopularity of this new leader or the general hopelessness of the party's prospects, the meeting then proceeded to consider the creation of an office at Ottawa, the purpose of which would be to try and discover the whereabouts of the various scattered sections of the party, and piece them together again if possible. Mr. King appears to have been so flabbergasted by the obscure character of the men the party would have to form an Organization Committee that he even forgot to hand out an interview describing the party's glories in the past, and its desires, if not its hopes, for the future.

FARM PRODUCTION.

In view of the reports of the bad effects of drought upon the grain crops in the West about the time the Government Wheat Board was deciding the price to be paid for wheat it is worth noting that the latest estimates from Ottawa give a comfortable increase in the wheat crop, as compared with last year. The estimate of field crops for all Canada are as follows:

Fall wheat	16,135,000	7,942,800
Spring wheat	180,228,000	181,132,500

Swine	4,040,870	4,289,682
Hens	51,795,722	51,534,498

Other descriptions, comprising turkeys, geese and ducks, 1919, 2,850,516; 1918, 2,825,195. Total poultry, 1919, 34,645,238; 1918, 34,159,591. Rabbits, 83,050 in British Columbia. For horses and cattle the numbers for 1919 constitute the highest on record. Sheep show a further very satisfactory increase since the annual decline in numbers was arrested in 1917. This year's total is the highest on record, and compares with 3,156,509, the number recorded in 1871, by the first census after Confederation. Swine show a decrease of 249,612, as compared with last year's record number of 4,289,682.

MR. DRURY AND THE LIBERALS.

Now that the Leader of the Liberal Party in Ontario has decided to fight the Drury Government these journals like the St. John Telegram and the Montreal Transcript which professed to believe that the victory of the United Farmers would help the cause of the Liberal Party will need to do some explaining. Mr. Drury announced the United Farmers of stealing the planks in the Liberal Platform, and then, with unconscious irony, he observes, "they have shown themselves adept in adopting the narrowest idea of party government that has ever been suggested anywhere" — which would seem to be hard on the Liberal Platform.

The Statesman, of Toronto, a weekly which professes to be the exponent of the only real and unadorned Liberalism, is also greatly annoyed with the United Farmers. It holds that the great weakness of the Farmers' movement is the strange doctrine that no Liberal is eligible for a place in its ranks, as a candidate or a member of the Government, unless he first betrays his principles by curving Liberalism.

PROVINCIAL FINANCE.

The Financial Post of Toronto says: "The Bank of Nova Scotia was the successful tenderer for the issue of $2,282,000 Province of New Brunswick bonds, but the bank did not put in a separate bid as has been stated. It is a daily & Co. and W. A. Macdonald & Co. were associated with the bank in the bid, which was for 98.11. This is on a basis of 6 to 6.05 per cent. Other bidders were: Harris, Forbes & Co., United Financial Corporation and National City Company, 98.80; A. E. Ames & Co., Dominion Securities Corporation, Wood, Gundy & Co., J. M. Robinson & Sons, and Eastern Securities Company, 95.84."

A few days ago the City Council of Halifax was confronted with the necessity of raising money to pay off some debtors falling due. Its financial advisers came to the conclusion that it would be policy to wait till the money market was in better shape, and the city decided to borrow $500,000 as a temporary loan from the Royal Bank, which offered the money at 5 1/2 per cent. If Halifax can make a temporary loan at 5 1/2 per cent. and the Government of New Brunswick can only get a price for its bonds that requires the payment of over 6 per cent, it does not speak very well for the administration of the financial affairs of the Province. But it is possible that the Provincial Government was not in a position to wait until it might possibly obtain a better offer. Owing to the big expenditures of the Department of Public Works on an extended permanent roads the Government has been carrying a big overdraft on the bank, and it may not have been able to obtain further accommodation of that character. There are rumors that the Provincial Government is some what embarrassed at the present time.

WHAT THEY SAY

A Difficulty. (New York Herald.) Some may wonder why the vote on Ellis Island should not be allowed to stand. The answer is simple. If they want to, but there is a difficulty. An officer of the land is sworn not to permit the performance of a felony if he knows it. Outside is sworn

Where The Money Is.

(New York Herald.) Daylight bandits held up and took $40,000 from a postoffice the day after Thanksgiving. Highwaymen seem to be very well informed as to the sort of persons to rob in these hard times.

Grave Responsibilities.

(New Orleans Times-Picayune.) The American Senate has disclaimed at great length the consequences to follow this country's participation in the League, and the responsibilities involved, but have its members individually weighed on carefully the probable and possible consequences to follow this country's refusal to go in? Certain grave responsibilities attach to either course.

Honest Intentions.

(Cleveland Plain Dealer.) Questions such as these now offered by the British Government will not allow Egyptian discontent. But they will serve the purpose of proving to the world that the British Government desires to deal justly with the Egyptians. England must maintain herself in Egypt to protect the Suez canal. But England has no desire to oppress the Egyptians or to hold them in dominance as she holds the uncivilized people of her African colonies.

Foch And French Aims.

(Boston Transcript.) The peace of Europe demands the continuance of France as a first-class continental power. But that position will ever be maintained by a Germany in which still lives the spirit of militarism. Marshal Foch is but the most recent of a long line of witnesses who have testified to the fact that Germany is still possessed by the evil thing which has made her the outlaw of civilization. How best to secure the safety of France must be a cardinal point in the diplomacy of each member of the Alliance. In the future, as well as in the past, her security is intimately connected with the peace of the civilized world.

A BIT OF VERSE

A Plea For The Boy. If you'd dressed him up on Sunday in his prettiest little shirt, Expect that he will promptly find his way into the dirt. Don't stand aghast and started if he starts to climb a tree Or wants to play in places where he never ought to be! It's the nature of the youngster to run wild in search of joy. Were he tame and neat and careful then he wouldn't be a boy.

A BIT OF FUN

Quite Right. Customer—Have you anything in the shape of bananas? Greengrocer—Yes; cucumbers.

No Danger. Doctor—"It is a little difficult to diagnose your case. Perhaps you have been eating too much." Patient—"Impossible. The hotel is run on the European plan."

Safety First. Full man's grave he's filled to-day, by men who had The right of way.

Benny's Note Book

BY LEE PAPE

Me and Skinny Martin walked to the park last Saturday to see if there was any chummers, with three bits of bin, any if there was we could find them, and on the way home it started to get dark, me saying, Heck, I bet I'll be late for supper again, I wish I had a good excuse, I was supposed to be started home early.

Why don't you say you didn't know how early it was, and by the time you found out how late it was it wasn't early any? said Pops.

I've had that too many times, they always ask me why didn't I ask somebody, I said.

Well you don't say every time you felt like asking somebody there wasn't anybody around to ask or you would of asked? said Skinny.

That's a hook of a excuse, I said.

And we kept on walking and it kept on getting darker, and Skinny said, you don't say you stopped to pick up a pig every time you say me and you never saw no money in your life?

Aw keep quiet, I'm trying to think up a excuse, I said. Which I kept on doing till I got all the way home without having any thaw up yet, and I walked in the dining room and supper was nearly over, pop looking at me and saying, Well?

Sir? Who, me? I said.

No, me, and pop, what do you mean by wakin in here at half past supper time a quarter to dinner, after all I've said to you lately?

Skinny Martin kept me back by trying to tell me all sorts of excuses to tell you, I said.

Ya gods that's so bad it's good sit down and drink your soup, said pop.

Well I did.

home suddenly and copped me with his girl. And I only used to take her down of an evening to the newspaper shop to see if he was killed or not!" — Sydney Bulletin.

The Real Reason. "John," asked the teacher, "what is a synonym?" "A synonym," said John, "is the word you use when you can't spell the other one." — The Watchman-Breeze (Philadelphia).

Depends on the Result. "Don't you make determination in a man's character?" "That depends. If it brings success I praise it as an splendid perseverance, if failure, I denounce it as a confounded obstinacy."

"The Poor Boss." The workman now has shorter hours. And that is surely right! But, oh, the poor and wretched boss. Must labor day and night. The toilers working hours are brief. But I am sorry for the chief.

Thinking of Others. "Oke—Would you be satisfied if you had all the money you wanted?" "Owens—I'd be satisfied if I had all the money my creditors wanted."

Some Laughing Matter. Mrs. Mody—"How do you like her latest frock?" "How do you like it old dear?" Mr. Mody—"Her—her! It's a scream, a riot, a stow-stopper, a joke!"

Couldn't Walk A
Step, Welch Says
Since Taking Tanlac He is Free from Rheumatism and Gets Around as Well as Anybody.

"I had rheumatism so bad before I began taking Tanlac that I couldn't walk, but now I haven't a pain in my body," was the statement made by Mike Welch, a well-known fisherman, who lives at 12 Spencer Street, St.
John's Newfoundland. In an interview with a Tanlac representative recently.

"For two years I have been troubled with rheumatism in my legs and arms," Mr. Welch continued, "and the pains were so bad that I could not raise my right arm above my waist.
At night I would ache so bad that I could hardly get any sleep at all and I was so nervous that I would actually shake. I lost my appetite and what little I ate wouldn't digest but would sour and cause so much gas to form that I would have awful dizzy spells. I had terrible pains across my back and my kidneys troubled me a great deal. In fact I was troubled with something all the time. I could not get strength or nourishment at all and lost weight rapidly, going from one hundred-and-thirty pounds to one hundred-and-fifty, an actual loss of forty-five pounds."

"I tried all sorts of treatments and medicines but they did me no good and finally I made up my mind to try Tanlac as I had seen so much in the papers about what it was doing for other people. In all fairness to this medicine I must say that it has completely overcome all my troubles and put me back on my feet in fine health and able to do my work. The rheumatism has all left my legs and arms and the pains through my back have gone and my kidneys are in good condition. I have a fine appetite and can digest everything I eat perfectly, and am gaining back my lost weight and strength right along. I have not had a dizzy spell since I started taking Tanlac and at night I sleep like a log and get up of morning feeling fine and fit. I just feel like a new man. I have in years and I think so much of Tanlac that I wish you would publish this statement of mine for I believe it will be the means of helping other people who are troubled like I was."

Tanlac is sold in St. John by Ross Drug Co. and P. W. Manro under the personal direction of a special Tanlac representative.—Adv.

ber Case — Brayley Drug Company Fined—Case Settled Out of Court—Drunks Fined.

A further hearing in the William Webber prohibition case was before the police court yesterday morning.
Evidence was given by Andrew Skinner, a sleeping car porter on the Halifax train, in which the liquor was found. He told of a man coming to him with a ticket for drawing room A, and a man in a suit and a hat. The man came into the drawing room with two parcels, which were left there.
He could not identify the defendant in weight and stature. The case was again postponed until this morning at 11 o'clock. W. M. Ryan counsel for the prosecution and E. S.
Ritchie for defence.

A fine of $20 was imposed against the Brayley Drug Co. for an infraction of the prohibition law. J. M. Truman conducted the prosecution.
The William Truffan prohibition case was postponed until this morning.
The usual fine of $8 or two months in jail was imposed upon four men charged with drunkenness.
A case against Collingwood Brennan charged with obtaining money under false pretences by selling an automobile which did not belong to him, was settled out of court and the defendant allowed to go.

WEDDINGS
Snarr-O'Neill.
A wedding of much interest was solemnized on Sunday evening, November 23rd, at the United Baptist church, Grand Harbor, when Flora Mabel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs.
Augustus O'Neill was united in marriage to Appolis William Snarr, of Point du Chene, N. B. The ceremony was performed by Rev. R. O. Morse.
The bride entered the church which was prettily decorated for the occasion, on the arm of her father, while the bridal chorus was beautifully rendered by Mrs. Grant L. Dakin. The bride was becomingly attired in dark brown velour tailor-made suit with hat to match, and carried a bouquet of American Beauty roses. The ceremony was followed with a solo
"O Perfect Love," sung by Mrs. L. E.
Russell. The happy pair then left the church to the strains of Mendelsohn's wedding march. They proceeded to the home of the bride's father, where a few relatives and friends gathered to extend their congratulations. The presents received by the young pair included fancy as well as useful gifts of cut glass, china, silver, gold coin, linen and furniture.
The groom's presents to the bride was a set of Northern furs. On Monday morning Mr. and Mrs. Snarr left by boat for St. John, en route to Sydney, C. B., where they will enjoy a short honeymoon. The bride is well known and very popular here, and will be greatly missed. The groom has recently returned from overseas where he saw service in England and France for nearly four years. The many friends of the young couple wish them many years of happiness.
Among the out-of-town guests were Mrs. A. W. Snarr and Lloyd Snarr, of Point du Chene.

MARKET REPORTS STOCKS, BONDS AND PRODUCE

CONFUSION AND IRREGULARITY ON STOCK MARKET

President's Message and Industrial Conditions Had An Influence on Price Quotations.

New York, Dec. 2.—Reflecting the unusual events which influenced its course, the session of the Stock Exchange today was dull with many confusing and irregular changes of prices.

Adoption by the government of coal families, another collapse in foreign exchange, the sudden death of H. C. Frick and the President's message to Congress augmented the uncertainties which had previously obscured the financial horizon.

As a market factor the President's communication took precedence. Disappointment was expressed in many quarters at the remedial railroad legislation. This was partly offset by recommendations for the protection of various home industries.

MONTREAL MARKET SHOWED FIRMNESS

Montreal, Dec. 2.—Features of interest in the market today included continued sharp advance to new high record prices of Ames Holden, the advance of seven points for Steamship Common, the drop below par of Lyall with recovery of a few points of the loss, the weakness of Forgings and Laurette and the strength of Spanish River Common, St. Lawrence Flour some of the cotton stocks, Bridge and Glass and the good tone displayed by the steel issues.

The announcement of the placing of Steamships on a seven per cent dividend basis jumped the stock from 71 1/2 to 75 with closing bid at 78 1/2. Laurette dropped seven points, selling at 233 and Bridge recovered five points lost yesterday by selling at 105.

McGoorty Quit Carpenter Camp

After An Informal Bout With The Frenchman—His Show- ing at the Scrap Led French to Believe Carpen- tier Will Best Beckett.

Sparrow Robertson, the American sporting authority who has been in Europe for some time, has the following story about Eddie McGoorty, the Detroit pug, who went to the training camp after he had been knocked out by Beckett and recently left the Carpenter camp in a hurry: "The writer met Carpenter in Paris on the day he left for England. The French champion looked to be in splendid shape. He weighed 178 pounds at that time. That is the figure at which he expects to enter the ring on December 4. Beckett will have about ten pounds advantage in weight.

According to a story I heard the day Carpenter left for England, the followers of the Frenchman consider that they have some very good odds on the fight. In my former letter I told about McGoorty leaving the Carpenter training camp. A very intimate friend of the French champion asked me if McGoorty gave me any reason for his abrupt departure.

Why McGoorty quit. I answered: "No, he did not. "Well, I will tell you why he left," said my informant. "Carpenter had a big French heavy at the camp with whom he sparred occasionally. McGoorty and the Frenchman were having a playful bout one day when Carpenter was getting into his training costume. The Frenchman accidentally landed a hard swing on McGoorty's jaw. The latter completely lost his head and went after his opponent like an enraged bull. Carpenter, who entered the room while the pair were mixing it up, saw the 'bout' was going too far for a friendly contest and called time.

McGoorty refused to stop and Carpenter had to pull him away from his opponent. McGoorty wanted to get at him again, and at this juncture Carpenter stepped in and said: "Look here, McGoorty! That big fellow is only a novice and no match for you. He will not hit you any more with you, and if you are so very anxious to have some hard work, why we can have a bout and you may go as hard as you like."

McGoorty, who always had an idea that he was in a class with Carpenter, fell for the invitation. The result was after receiving a terrible laceration from Carpenter during the first two minutes, McGoorty drew off the gloves, packed his grip and took the first train for Paris. That is the true story why McGoorty left the Carpenter camp, according to my informant. The French enthusiast figures the coming battle this way: It took Joe Beckett seventeen rounds to beat McGoorty and Carpenter can do the trick inside of two rounds. The betting at the present time is 10 to 5 on Beckett, and an ocean of money has already been bet at above odds.

Amateur Skating To Be Revived

Frank White, St. John, is Elected to the Directorate of the A.S.A. of Canada— Big Year's Programme.

The secretary-treasurer's report of the Amateur Skating Association of Canada at the annual meeting in Montreal Friday night showed the finances of the association to be in sound condition. The following officers were elected: Honorary president, W. G. Ross, president, Jas. A. Taylor; first vice-president, Brig.-Gen. W. O. H. Doidge, C. B., D. S. O.; hon. secretary, Louis Rubenstein; executive, Sir Hugh Montgomery Allan, W. C. Finlay, E. W. Hays, C. Creighton, Frank White, St. John, N. B., and J. C. Almon.

A committee which is to consist of the president, the vice-presidents and the secretary, was chosen to look after skating and to allot the championship most locations, etc. for the coming season. Everything points to a strong post-war revival of amateur skating throughout the Dominion. One new departure as a direct outcropping of the war was the announcement that the association will give a cup for competition amongst amateur skaters who are service veterans, none of whom formerly have captured a first prize in civilian competitions. Cups will again be offered to the Minto Club of Ottawa and to the Wm. Club of Montreal for figure skating. These competitions have not been held during the war. Every branch and section of the sport will be revived for the 1915-16 season.

Senior Game of the Basketball Series Goes to Y.M.C.A.—Intermediate to Y.M.C.I.—Tonight's Game Postponed

"Both games of the City Basketball League at the Y. M. C. I. last night were one-sided, but as the victory changed from side to side, the honors were rather even. In the intermediate section the Y. M. C. A. team suffered one of the worst defeats that had been handed to a basketball team in the city for some time. As usual, the senior team played a setting good game.

A senior game was slated for tonight between the Atlantic Sugar Refiners' team and the St. Andrew's five, but this has been postponed until Saturday night owing to the production to be staged at the Imperial theatre.
Senior Section.

ALONG THE SPORT TRAIL

Writing about football enclosures Wagstaffe Shimmons, the well-known English football authority states: "It would almost seem impossible to realize the necessity of building grounds of greater capacity than those we have in Glasgow, Manchester Liverpool, Birmingham and London. In Glasgow there are Celtic and Rangers. That of the Queen's Park will hold 15,000, and at an ordinary match seems empty with, say 20,000 present. Glasgow is a great football city, with its half dozen leading clubs, each possessing an up-to-date ground and all are well supplied.

Lu Princeton, 2:34, will race no more and within a few days announce the meet will be made as to where he is most to go into the stud. The public has had its last look at Mabel Trank, for the greatest of all campaigning trotters will be bred to Lu in the Spring. She was bred this year, but is not thought to be with foal.

J. Foley, who was the premier jockey of Australia when the war began, gave up a retainer of $10,000 a year and enlisted. With the war ended, as soon as he could, he began riding in England, where he confirmed the reputation he enjoyed at home. That flattering inducements must have been made to him by some English turfman is evident from the fact that, being still in khaki and obliged to go to Australia to be demobilized, he has announced his intention of making a trip to Melbourne and return. He hopes to make a journey occupying seven weeks, get his discharge and reembar on the same steamship.

George "Mooney" Gibson, manager last summer of the Toronto Leaf and prospective manager of the Pittsburgh Pirates, was elected president of the London, Ont., Thistle Curling club at the annual meeting. Unique in prize fight promotion is the system used by H. H. Richards, who is running boxing exhibitions at Pueblo, Colorado, on the "pass-the-hat" plan. Richards is staging bouts with charging admission and so liberal have the fans been when the hat was passed that he has been able not only to pay the participants a bonus over their guarantee, but is picking up many shakels for his own coffers.

One thing gratifying about the performance of the new crop of heavyweights is the decisive way the scraps are ending. They're being counted out on all fronts. They like the old fashioned wallop. The no-decision fight towns are taking a back seat, too. The heavies are pulling off their scraps in towns where they can punch out to a finish, but few of the mills ever get the limit.

As a result of his raid on the Ostend meetings this year, Horatio Bottomley, the well-known English owner, comes out third in the list of winning owners in Belgium, his prize money reaching 102,141 francs, of which 80,721 francs were won on the flat and 21,410 francs over the jumps. The Stock Stud, with 126,041 francs heads the list.

Because of Michigan's poor showing on the gridiron this year, it is said that Coach "Hurry-Up" Yost is to be disposed of. This was one of the worst seasons that the Wolverines have ever had.

One of the English runners expected to shine in the Olympic games is A. G. Hill, of the London Polytechnic Harriers, who in the recent sports of the Celtic Football Club at Glasgow, finished second in the one-mile race, covering the distance in 4:16 4/5. He was scratch man.

The New York Giants will have new men this spring in place of Zimmerman, Chase and Doyle. The scouts are busy digging up prospects.

BOMBARDIER WELLS.

The return to the ring of Bombardier Wells has been watched by thousands of fans with great interest. He knocked out Jack Curphy in the second round of a 20 round contest recently, and seems to have all his old time form. Wells fought with the Imperials in France for three years.

Fritz Pollard, great Brown halfback of 1914 gets "only" $1,600 for playing four games in the Akron pro backfield. That is considerably more money per game than any of our baseball stars get, excluding, of course, the world series plums.

One of the English runners expected to shine in the Olympic games is A. G. Hill, of the London Polytechnic Harriers, who in the recent sports of the Celtic Football Club at Glasgow, finished second in the one-mile race, covering the distance in 4:16 4/5. He was scratch man.

JUST HUNGRY.

"You poor boy!" said the visitor, after watching little Tommy eat his dinner. "You're just started, aren't you?"
"No," said Tommy, according to the Windsor Magazine. "I'm always starved before my dinner, but after I've had my dinner I'm only just hungry."

THE YOUNGEST JOCKEY

Jockey Simpson Boye, 18, Sweden's crack lightweight, contract rider, is one of the youngest jockeys artists on the American turf today. He is just sixteen years old and succeeded in piloting his first winner to the wire last February. While he has been riding less than nine months Boye ranks among the leading jockeys of the country.
