THE STANLEY FAIR.

A Fine Day Favors All Parties for Yesterday's Show.

Larg. Crowds and a Splendid Exhibit—List of Prize Winners—The Annual Dinner.

A more pleasant and chery day could not have been desired for the holding of a show than yesterday, and as a natural consequence the Stanley exhibition was a great success. Hundreds of people attended from the surrounding country districts, many also travelling long distances from outside parishes to be present at Stanley's big day. Frederick was well represented. Besides the usual quota of teams that generally drive up from the city on such occasions, some or more people took advantage of the cheap excursion offered by the Western & Western. Those who went by rail had a quick and pleasant trip to Cross Creek station, but the journey of about four miles over the rough and rocky road from the station to the village, in crowded conveyances, was not so delightful, and everybody was fully persuaded that the Stanley villagers should either have a branch railroad built at once or the condition of the roadway improved.

From the early morning the village presented a lively scene. Cages containing people from the different parts, farm wagons groaning under the weight of the big pumpkins and produce of all kinds, of pigs and sheep and calves, kept thronging in until noon hour. When the exhibits had all arrived, the display was a most magnificent one. Mr. B. McEneaney's hotel and stables were crowded to their utmost, but extensive additions and improvements that he has recently made to his fine hotel provided ample accommodations for the large crowds, and the hundreds who took dinner there were served in "Barney's" well known royal style.

The horses and cattle were exhibited in the open field, a short distance from the hotel. The broad mares, colts, and horses, among which there were some fine animals, seemed to attract the greatest attention while they were on exhibition. The Percherons took the lead in the matter of numbers, and there were some fine ones shown. Mr. Wm. Currie exhibited a Clydesdale yearling colt, and Mr. Robert Orr, of Fredericton, a sucking colt of the same breed. Mr. Michael Brannen had "Angus Obie" on exhibition and entered him for a prize. The horse attracted considerable attention. There were some cattle in the grand and also a few in the breeds.

The exhibit in the horticultural department was a magnificent one. The display of roots and the surface vegetables was a good one, and a better exhibit would be difficult to find in any agricultural exhibition. A quantity of manhood hybrid turnips exhibited by Mr. Howe attracted the attention of everybody. It was commented on all sides that these turnips, for size and solidity, surpassed anything in the turnip show ever shown in the county, and in fact, it was being made by the president of the society, Mr. Beckwith, and others, to have them and some of the other roots exhibited forwarded to the London exhibition. Some large and beautiful potatoes were shown, Mr. William Currie, who exhibited varieties of early roots, turnips, chard, and other vegetables, and some taking the lead. But the most attractive display of all was the garden exhibit by Mr. John Thomas. He filled one long table with a great variety of ornamental garden products which he had cultivated in his garden at Cross Creek. The collection was indeed a fine one, including many varieties of vegetables never before exhibited in the province nor even cultivated. Visitors crowded about the collection all day during the day, and many a one could scarcely believe that the products were raised in our country. The collection included: Chardons, round asparagus, yellow sweet potato, pumpkin, squash, pumpkin, climbing pumpkin, and a number of other varieties of the pumpkin, about fifteen varieties of squash, among which was the perfect gem, cucumber, striped virgin beauty, Chinese red, warty marrow, potato, globe and long-necked marrow, white globe of Canada, cucumber, small round cucumbers, garfield cucumber, 12 of which weighed 14 pounds; trophy tomato, island beauty, fulton market and other vines; red tomatoes; red cherry and yellow plants; dwarf egg plants; ruby king and golden dwarf; a variety of winter chery and many other curious varieties of products which made up a most interesting and attractive display. Mr. Thomas also exhibited two rare varieties of pumpkins, one of pale orange and the white vogue, both varieties of which were excellent samples of chery.

The fruit exhibit was also a good one—the best ever shown in Stanley. In apples, Wm. Howe, Daniel Douglas, Henry Blair, Samuel Blair and others made a most excellent display. The sheep and pigs were exhibited in pens near the exhibition building. There were a good lot of pigs shown, but the exhibit was only a fair one. There was also a fair exhibit of sheep. The two Oxford down sheep, presented to the society by Thomas Temple, M. P., were also on exhibition in the centre of the field and attracted a good many visitors, among whom was Mr. Temple, who visited the show grounds for about an hour during the middle of the day.

The handling match took place on the road in front of McEneaney's hotel during the afternoon and ended a great deal of interest. Daniel Elliot's well matched team came off best in the hand amid the cheers of the crowd and the judges awarded the second and third prizes respectively to Mr. William Currie and Mr. A. B. Avery, respectively. The ploughing match takes place at Stanley today.

The prize list was completed about five o'clock and was announced to the crowds by President Beckwith, from the balcony of Logan's hotel. The judges on the different exhibits discharged their duties in a most satisfactory manner. They were: On cattle—Wm. McEneaney, Luther Good, and Wm. Young; On sheep—Robert Orr, Lieut. Young, Fredericton and Wm. Bradley; On pigs—Thomas H. Peirce, Bear Island and Wm. McEneaney; On poultry—Jas. S. Bull, Fredericton and A. B. Avery, respectively; On domestic manufacture—William Wilson, M. P. F. L. W. Sherman, Fredericton and Wm. Murray, Kingsclear; On sheep—J. H. Reid, Joseph Broderick, Fredericton and D. T. Dibb, Miramichi; On fruit and vegetables—Arthur Limerick and Wilton Oulton, Fredericton.

MOONDYNE.

THE GOLD MINE OF THE YAKS.

This tender thing had stolen inside her giant. Its sweet fragrance, before she back to the happy days of her girlhood.

She kept the flower to her lips, kissing it.

She fed her wistful eyes on its beauty.

She had been so long without emotion

pumpings of imagination, that her heart had become thirty unto death for some lovely or lovable thing. This sweet young flower took for her all forms of drink in its delicious breath, like a soft,

and a woman's music; its perfect coloring filled her with still another delight; its youth, its form, its promise, the rich completeness, made a very sympathy for the delicate heart.

Two hours passed, and still she fondled

the precious gift. She had not once her cell.

"You are pleased at that, Number Four," said a female warder, who had been looking into Alice's cell.

For the first time in five years, the warder saw that her eyes were flooded with tears.
