THE RESERVE OF THE PARTY OF THE We are sorry to anneance, on the authority of a letter received by a friend of ours, from Lord Brougham, on Monday last, that the accounts given in many papers of his Lord-hip's convales ence and of his being on his way from London, are incorrect. His Lordship when he wrote, was rather worse than he had been during the preceeding week and feared that he would not be able to leave Brougham Hall in less than six weeks from the date of his letter.—Liee, pool Mercury:

THE NAVE.—There was a report yesterday in the City, that a press was carying on at Wapping; there is not a word of truth in it; on the contrary, men enter extremely fast. Indeed it gives us pleasure to learn that the eagerness to enter has been truly astonishing.—London Morning Herald.

The revenue accounts are satisfactory. There has been an increase on the whole year of £82.401, and an increase upon the quarter of £221 619. The Customs present an increase of nearly £1.2000.000 man THE NATE. - There was a report yesterday in the toms present an increase of nearly £1,2000,000, upon the year, and £162,000 upon the quarter.—London Standard.

To Correspondents - We have inserted all of No Flincher's letter which we sup; pose he meant for the public eye. The post-script we regard as confidential, and will merely say, that information from any quar-

the ris always acceptable.

The notice of "Croyezle," and the paper of "St. Croix," aithough evidently by different writers, are on the same subject and almost in the same words. As soon as we see our way clear, we shall not hesuste to give the name of the writer to whom the artiele in the Calais paper is imputed.
