KNIVES AND FORKS.

We often laugh at the Chinese and their chop-sick, or small thin sticks of wood or ivory with which they eat, and fancy they must make very dirty work at their meals yet they are cleanly and civilized compared with the habits of our ancestors some three hundred years ago. Then forks were unknown; each man had his own knife, and at dinner seized the joint with his hand, and cut off what he wished; the dish was then passed on to the next, who did the same. The knife-cut up the portions into small pieces, which were put into the mouth by the fingers of the hand unoccupied by the knife.
In many parts of Spain, at present, drinking glasses, spoons and forks are rarities; and in taverns, in many countries, particularly in some towns in France, knives are not placed on the table, because it is expected that each person has one of his own, a custom which the French seem to have obtained from the old Gauls. But as no person will any longer eat without forks, landlords are obliged to furnish these, together with plates and spoons.
None of the Sovereigns of England had forks till the reign of Henry VIII; all high and low, used their fingers. Hence, in the royal household there was a dignitary called the exary, exary, who with a set of subordinates, attended at the meals with basins, water and towels. The office of exary survived after forks came partially into fashion. We learn that James I entertained the Spanish ambassador at a dinner very shortly after his accession; their majesties washed their hand with water from the same ewer, the towels being presented to the king by the lord treasurer, and to the queen by the lord high admiral. The Prince of Wales had a ewer to himself, which was after him used by the ambassador.
About the first royal personage in England who is known to have had a fork was Queen Elizabeth; but although several were presented to her, it remains doubtful whether she used them on ordinary occasions. Forks came so slowly into use in England that they were employed only by the higher classes at the middle of the seventeenth century. About the period of the Revolution, 1688, few English noblemen had more than a dozen forks of silver, along with a few iron or steel. At length for general use steel forks became an article of manufacture at Sheffield; at first they had but two prongs, and it was only in later times that the three-pronged kind were made. As late as the early part of the eighteenth century table forks—and, we may add, knives—were kept on so small a scale by country fairs in Scotland (and perhaps in some parts of England) that it was customary for gentlemen in travelling to carry with them a portable knife and fork in a sabbagen case. The general introduction of silver forks into Great Britain is quite recent; it can be dated no farther back than the termination of the French war in 1814.

IN EARLY SPRING.

The tiny snow-drift melting fast;
The breath of south wind floating past;
The crimson in the maple shoots,
The golden crocus at the roots;
The yellow on the willow wands,
The green of grass along the ponds;
The swelling buds, the blue-bird's note,
The dandelion on the mat;
The earthy color of the stream,
The warmer flush of sunrise gleam;
The dampness of the upland mould,
The new life in the open world;
The song of bird, the hum of bee,
The dawn of woods-side melody;
The brighter glitter on the hills,
The rapid rush of little rills;
The morning hoar-frost on the hedge,
The noonday drops upon the sedge;
The changing color on the vine,
The flashing blue of mountain pine,
Are things that tell to eye and ear,
That summer days are drawing near.

A Horse Car Passenger.

[From the Detroit Free Press.]
Yesterday afternoon a man dressed in good clothes, an eye-glass, and a gold-mounted cane, and possessing altogether a rather clerical appearance, hailed a passing street car. There was nothing unusual or particularly noticeable in this except the air or lofty dignity with which he commanded a halt, and the desperate effort which made to maintain his centre of gravity as he passed to the car, and revealed the fact that he was slightly inebriated. Arriving at the door, he solemnly raised his right foot to enter, but not raising it quite high enough, he fell headlong on the floor of the car. Raising himself up with some difficulty he cast a severely reproving look at the old gentleman sitting near the door and said: "Sir, what'd you lift up this car for just as I was goin' to get in?"
"My dear sir, I didn't lift the car," replied the old gentleman, meekly.
"Well, perhaps you didn't. I won't tempt to argue with a man in your condition. My amiable friend, it's my calm and deliberate opinion you're been looking upon the wine when it is red. Very sorry to see it in a man of your age. What'd's your mother would say if she would see you intoxicated? My friend, I've shed many bitter tears ever such cases as yours. Yes," continued he in a faltering voice and pulling out his handkerchief, "and I'm dashed if I ain't weeping now, as you'll readily observe."
Whereupon he wiped his eyes with a grand flourish, blew his nose and navigated to the other end of the car.
When he reached his destination he pulled the bell-strap and started for the door. When he got about half way and just as he was in front of a lady he tripped and fell at full length on the floor. Raising himself to a perpendicular he turned to the lady, and in a tone of mingled sincerity and whiskey said: "Ma'am, you've certainly got the biggest feet I ever saw in my life."
"Sir!" said the lady indignantly.
"Oh, don't apologize, madame. I beg you not to apologize. You're not to blame for it. But if you would just pare 'em down a little, 'twould be a great recommendation to the traveling public."
The lady was speechless with indignation, the passengers were convulsed and the gentleman stalked majestically out to the door, stepped to the ground and immediately sat down. As the car moved away he arose, examined his clothes, looked up and down the street, waved his hand in an uncertain manner, and walked away.

About a year ago a Missouri farmer captured two Young's geese and raised them with the rest of his domestic prairies. They became quite tame, but in November prompted by instinct to seek a more sunny climate, flew off to the South. This spring, however, they have returned, bringing with them eleven more wild geese, whom they parted from some Southern layon, and the whole flock have settled down as if to the manner born.

PRICES IN NOVA SCOTIA A HUNDRED YEARS AGO.

The Windsor Mail has an article headed "Early Business of Windsor," in which it mentions the retail prices paid for merchandise at that place at the time of the American revolution.

[The Mr. DeWolfe mentioned above, was uncle to the late Mr. John DeWolfe of this town, who was a clerk with him for nine years, having taken the place of the late John DeWolfe of Chatham, who was also in the same store.—EDUCATORS.]

The Toronto Globe of a recent date contains some observations on a matter of serious import to society and the country generally.

Some short time ago there was a memorial presented to the Senate from a large number of the ladies of Ottawa praying for the enactment of a law which should make a distinction between offences and crimes, and that the law should be changed, and that there should no longer be any reason for saying as must be said at present, that there is a grievous wrong for which the law provides nothing like adequate punishment or compensation. It is both insulting and demoralizing to say that a father has no remedy for one of the most grievous injuries he can by any possibility receive, except by suing the offender for pecuniary compensation for the loss of his daughter's services, while it is equally evident that prosecution for offences in such cases lowers the whole tone of thought and feeling on the subject, and makes it appear that there is no criminality and wrong involved. The law can do something to remedy the evil, and ought to be put into such a state that it will be able to do its part.

Church Societies.

We find the following article and merited rebuke in a provincial paper upon a growing evil—church entertainments:

It is a sign of the times, or rather a peculiarity of them, that the churches and lecturing societies are on a very extensive scale. Perhaps this may be considered a return to first principles, for there appears to be a well founded impression that the early church was largely communistic, that property was held in common, and that the common danger gave all a common interest in the general welfare and led to a common table. But, however this may have been, it was left entirely to modern progress and enlightenment to divide the property, leaving what are called "societies," which the church is metamorphosed into a kind of an high class oyster saloon, in which music and comic readings are sandwiched between cups of coffee and crisp doughnuts. One can readily imagine that such gatherings are of themselves very pleasant; but it is their connection with the church which puzzles. What is their significance? Do they represent a high state of mental Christianity? Is a good religious feeling engendered by the rendering after the manner of the stage Irishman of "Father Phil's Collection," and equally pleasing pieces which are just now very popular among church members? Even in churches which condemn theatrical entertainments the gentlemen who can by their voice and setting simulate queer characters are in great request, and are apparently doing much good work in the way of converting the heathen who dwell in our midst. The "love feasts" of the past have entirely disappeared, and we have in its place this new form of feast which is not quite so spiritual if more intellectual. As however, it appears to be approved by godly men of eminence and learning we cannot but feel satisfied at the progress that is being made in this new growth by which the stomach is gratified, the fancy tickled and Christian fellowship promoted!

During the recent gales in the North sea, 26 vessels and snacks belonging to Yarmouth, Lowestoft, Grimsby, Hull and Ramsgate, England, were lost and 215 men and boys were drowned, leaving entirely destitute 88 widows, 166 children and 15 aged relatives.

The St. Andrews Standard

Saint Andrews, April 4, 1877.

AN ACT RELATING TO MUNICIPALITIES.

We give another instalment of the above Act, desiring that our readers should be acquainted with its provisions, affecting as they will their interests. Many taxpayers will not be in a position to cast their votes, simply because they have not paid their school rates for the present year, which Section 65 states must be paid. We shall give some of the remaining sections in our next issue. The 22nd of May is the time appointed by law for holding the first election of Councillors:

The meeting for any election shall begin at 10 o'clock in the morning, and the electors present shall elect one of their number Chairman, who, after taking the oath (A) in the Schedule to the Act, shall preside at the election, which oath, in the absence of a Justice of the Peace, may be administered by the Parish Clerk or any freeholder then present, and the Chairman shall not be elected in the office of Councillor at such meeting.

Unless otherwise provided every male British subject of the age of twenty-one years, being a ratepayer of the Parish on income or personal property together to the amount of one hundred dollars, or on real property of any amount, and having paid his rates on or before the day of election and whose name is on the lists in this Act directed to be furnished by the Parish Clerk, may vote at the election of Councillors.

Should any Collector, or any deputy appointed under this Act, wilfully keep away and not attend any election of Councillors with the list of ratepayers as aforesaid, or refuse to give a receipt to any ratepayer entitled to receive the same on payment of his rates, he shall, on the complaint of any ratepayer, be liable to a penalty not to exceed fifty dollars for each and every default.

The voting for Councillors shall be by ballot; the names of the Candidates shall be written or printed on white paper and delivered by the Elector to the Chairman of the meeting, who shall satisfy himself that the ballot is single, and deposit it in the ballot box without reading; at the hour of closing each candidate, or in his absence some one on his behalf, may choose an elector to be sworn before the Chairman of the meeting as teller, and the Chairman shall publicly open the ballot box and take out each ballot separately, and read the names thereon, so that each teller may take them down; when all are read and taken down, the Chairman shall state the number of votes polled for each candidate, and declare the two having the majority elected; the Chairman in addition to his vote as a ratepayer or shall give the casting vote if necessary.

The chairman during the time of the election shall be, and be deemed to be, invested with all the powers of a Justice of the Peace.

All Justices of the Peace and other persons present at any election shall aid the Chairman in the purpose of keeping peace and order thereat.

The Chairman within ten days after closing the election shall send a penalty of four dollars for each day's neglect, make return in writing to the Secretary-Treasurer of the Councils elected, and in case a poll is granted shall also state in such return the number of the votes for each candidate, which return shall be open for inspection to any ratepayer upon deposit or income as aforesaid.

After the election of any person as a member of the Council, he be convicted of felony or infamous crime, or become insolvent within the meaning of the Insolvent Acts, or apply for relief as an insolvent debtor, or remain in custody, or assign his property for the use of his creditors, or make application for examination and disclosure under any Acts relating to arrest and imprisonment for debt, or absent himself from the meeting of the Council for three months without being authorized so to do by a resolution of the Council entered in its minutes, he shall be deemed to have become incapacitated within the meaning of the preceding section, and his seat shall thereby become vacant, and the Council shall declare the seat vacant and order a new election.

The Clerk of the Peace for each of the Counties shall prior to the day fixed for such election furnish to the Parish Clerk a list of persons assessed for County or Parish Rates for the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-six upon property or income as aforesaid, and any person being a male British subject of the age of twenty-one years whose name is on such lists shall be allowed to vote, unless on being required to do so by an elector he shall decline to make oath that the amount for which he was so assessed has been paid.

The first meeting for the purpose of organizing the Municipality shall be held at the time specified by the Sheriff in the notice for election of Councillors, which shall not be later than the seventh day of June next, and upon the election of a Warden the Municipality shall be deemed to be organized, and the County Council shall then proceed to the appointment of County officers, and may make and ordain Bye Laws, Rules and Regulations for the good government of the Municipality.

The Council shall meet each year on the third Tuesday in January and the 1st Tuesday in July not being a public holiday, in which latter case it shall meet on the succeeding day.

AN RAGE ATTEMPTS TO CARRY OFF A CHILD.—A few weeks since two boys, aged respectively three and five years, belonging to a family named McKenna, living at Green Harbor, about three miles from Lochport, were playing at the back of the house, when suddenly it seemed to them to grow dark, and looking up they saw a tremendous eagle, with wings out, and claws extended, almost in the very act of seizing the child the smaller boy. The elder comprehended the danger at a glance and gave a terrific scream, which alarmed the eagle and brought the family to the rescue. They say, as far as they can judge, that the bird must have measured at least ten feet from tip to tip, and would have had no difficulty in lifting the boy. It was certainly a narrow escape. The same eagle, no doubt, has been discovered soaring above and about the premises.—Halifax Chronicle.

OTTAWA, March 29.

In the House this afternoon Hon. Mr. Smith introduced a resolution rescinding the Pilotage duties upon ship trading between the various Provinces and between the Provinces and Atlantic ports of the United States, Halifax and Pictou ports excepted, and also providing for the re-issuement of all steamships under the Imperial Shipping Act of 1874. The resolution was agreed to and a bill founded on it and read a first time.

A resolution was also agreed to, and a bill founded thereon read a first time, transferring the control and maintenance of harbors, piers wharves and breakwaters in Canada, except in St. John and Pictou, from the Department of Public Works to the Marine Department.

AND BELL THEY CURE.—Another breach of promise case is raised in Richibucto. The plaintiff is a well-known young lady who resides in Richibucto, and it is said she has a promise of marriage in writing from the gay deceiver. The defendant was divorced from his first wife, married his second wife, and now resides with wife No. 3 in Westmorland County.

Those harbingers of spring "wild geese" passed over the town yesterday.

PUBLIC HALL.—The newly formed Reform Club, have in contemplation of erecting a large building the upper story to be devoted to a public hall with ante-rooms, the ground flat to be finished for public offices or stores. We hope the report is correct as the want of a large hall has long been felt. Several lecturers and proprietors of entertainments have not visited the town because there was no suitable building to contain an audience which would be sufficiently large to pay expenses. Such a building would pay good interest.

It is said the Siltora Line is gaining friends, and its prospects are brightening—parties are offering to contract for building the line at low rates.

Taken Light Procession.—The St. Andrews Reform Club had a torch-light procession last night, preceded by the Band. The night was mild, and the procession was remarkably well, and the effect was fine. It is said there were upwards of sixty torches in the procession. Remember that the Club gives a public meeting on Thursday evening 5th inst.

The attempt to carry temperance into local politics at St. Stephen was a failure. Politics and temperance do not appear to go well.

The State of New Hampshire rejected an amendment to the State constitution at the recent election and Catholics are still prohibited from holding office.—Halifax Chronicle, happy land, with its religious bigotry.

The County Court is still in Session, the arguments of counsel are reported to be excellent specimens of legal acumen.

Small Pox.—This loathsome disease is spreading at River John, N. S. Is there a large herd of cattle in St. Andrews? If not some person should be appointed with authority to prevent the spread of the disease should it unfortunately visit the town.

The St. John School Trustees, have agreed with Bishop Sweeney, on terms which the Roman Catholic children are attending the Common Schools—the teachers, Sisters of Charity—having passed satisfactory examinations, and were licensed to teach. The Christian Brothers have left the Province.

It is satisfactory to notice, that U. S. papers report indications of reviving commerce in the States, and that public confidence is being restored. The premium on gold is only three or four cents.

At the annual election on Easter Monday, the following officers were elected in All Saints' Church:

Church Warden—Geo. D. Street, B. R. Sterrysons. Vestrymen—C. E. O. Hatheway, Angus Stinson, Wm. Whitlock, T. T. Odell, John Burton, H. H. Hatch, D. S. F. Gore, Geo. S. Gaitman, Geo. F. Campbell, Henry Osburn, W. B. Morris, Geo. F. Stacey. Delegates to Synod—G. D. Street and G. S. Gaitman.

We extend to our brother, the Georgetown Advocate our kindly greeting, and with it the "lion's paw" for his generous notice. May the glorious rays of the rising sun shed its lustre on his banner, and encourage and animate him in his labours.

The nomination of General G. B. McClellan as Superintendent of the New York State Canal has been rejected by the Senate at Albany by a strict party vote. Much surprise and regret have been expressed at this decision.

No final decision has been arrived at respecting the political situation in Louisiana and South Carolina. The commission appointed by the President to visit these States and investigate the facts will proceed on their mission. It is thought that the happiest results will follow. In the meantime both CAMBERLAIN and HAMPTON are expected in Washington to confer with the President.

Another long debate has taken place in the Canadian House of Commons on the Tariff question. Two amendments were submitted—one by Dr. Oakes for protection to agriculture, and the other by Sir J. A. Macdonald in favor of protecting the mining, manufacturing, and agricultural interests of the country. Both were voted down, and in each case the majority of the Ministry was larger than on the first division. The last vote stood 119 for the Government scheme, with only 70 against it. This is decisive in favor of a free tariff, and for another session, at least, it will be wise to allow the subject to rest.

MR. GILLMOR'S SPEECH DURING THE TARIFF DEBATE.

We have read several notices in Ontario newspapers of Mr. Gillmor's speech during the Tariff Debate on the 21st March, but have not as yet received the Hansard Report with the full text; the correspondent of the Woodstock (Ontario) Sentinel gives a brief sketch which we append:

Mr. Gillmor, member for Charlotte, New Brunswick, took the floor and soon awakened the members and renewed their interests in the discussion. Mr. Gillmor, who was formerly Provincial Secretary in the Hon. A. J. Smith's Government in New Brunswick, is not a frequent speaker in the House but, like Mr. Hymal, when he does speak he has always something good to say and is therefore accorded special hearing. Like Mr. Hymal he has also a large fund of quaint humor and never did it appear to him to his advantage than on Friday morning. Many of his illustrations were exceedingly good and the style in which they were delivered left the House in frequent fits of laughter throughout the whole speech. Referring to the selfish character of the Government's tariff amendment, which led out the lumbering, mining, fishing and other important interests, he said in grandiloquent style of the old man's prayer— "Lord bless my wife my son John and his wife us four and no more, Amen," the delivery of which by Mr. Gillmor was greeted with shouts of merriment on both sides of the House. Speaking of the corruption practiced by the late Government, he said the Tariff Board was only the natural culmination and result of a corrupt system, as exemplified by the St. Paul de Vincent Penitentiary "land job" and other related to which had been carried on for twenty years. He said he, slipping the old pistol, at last he would enter into the same as they ran down into the sea and were drowned—another palpable allusion to the Northern Railway disclosures. Mr. Gillmor said that when the exile ran down into the sea "the devil was not drowned" but it was in this case also the "devil of corruption" had reappeared and entered into the Conservative leaders in the Northern Railway and recent service business. They were even worse than Julius Fenwick for the latter, when he had betrayed his Master and taken the thirty pieces of silver afterwards returned it and then went and "hanged himself." They also had taken the money and betrayed their master, the public, but unlike Julius Fenwick, they were not conscience-stricken and now they refused to pay back the money or "go hang themselves." The effect of this on the House may be easily imagined. Mr. Gillmor resumed his seat, and repeated cheers and laughter, by expressing a wish that the country could be assembled at Ottawa to see Mr. Mackenzie "skin and whistle up" the best man the Opposition could produce, and he challenged them to ask for Committee on the floor of the House to investigate and prove if they could the numerous "charges and slanders" which they had formulated against the Government at the West or in the "back settlements."

THRILLING SCENE IN A DEPOT.

The Poughkeepsie Eagle has the following account of a narrow escape from death by several persons at Fishkill Landing depot, Wed. morning: "The upward bound passenger train, due here at 10 z. m. had just arrived at the station, and 40 or 50 passengers had started to get on and off when the St. Louis Express, bound south, and which does not stop at Fishkill Landing, came thundering around the curve just north of the station. No alarm of the approach of the train had been given. It was behind time, and running at the rate of 40 miles an hour. Its track in front of the station was filled with men and women. The men that saw the train coming ran shouting in every direction, women screamed and cried for help, and bystanders turned their heads, fearing to see at least a dozen persons cut to pieces. One or two women grasped the iron railing attached to the platforms of the up train, and fainting as the men crowded them as close to the train as they could. One lady, Mrs. Frank Browne, of Newburg, was crossing the track to get on the up train, but when she reached the centre of the down track the express was close upon her. With great presence of mind she turned and ran back as the train thundered by, the pilot of the engine just missing her dress. Men on the west side of the scintillating train were thrilled with horror, as they expected that the people who were clinging to the railing of the upward-bound train had been drawn by the frightful suction under the wheels of the passing express. Luckily no one was hurt.

Dr. J. Walker's California Vinecar Bitters are a purely Vegetable preparation, made chiefly from the native herbs found on the lower ranges of the Sierra Nevada mountains of California, the medicinal properties of which are extracted therefrom without the use of Alcohol. The question is almost daily asked, "What is the cause of the unparalleled success of VINECAR BITTERS?" Our answer is, that they remove the cause of disease, and the patient recovers his health. They are the great blood purifier and a life-giving principle, a perfect Renovator and Invigorator of the system. Never before in the history of the world has a medicine been compounded possessing the remarkable qualities of VINECAR BITTERS in healing the sick of every disease man is heir to. They are a gentle Purgative as well as a Tonic, relieving Congestion or Inflammation of the Liver and Visceral Organs, in Bilious Diseases.

If men will enjoy good health, let them use VINECAR BITTERS as a medicine, and avoid the use of alcoholic stimulants in every form.

H. H. McDONALD & Co., Druggists and General Agents, San Francisco, California, and cor. Washington and Charlton Sts., New York.

No Person can take these Bitters according to directions, and remain long unwell, provided their bowels are not destroyed by mineral poison or other means, and vital organs wasted beyond repair.

Grateful Thousands proclaim VINECAR BITTERS the most wonderful Invigorant that ever sustained the sinking system.

Bilious, Remittent, and Intermittent Fevers, which are so prevalent in the valleys of our great rivers throughout the United States, especially those of the Mississippi, Ohio, Missouri, Illinois, Tennessee, Cumberland, Arkansas, Red, Colorado, Brazos, Rio Grande, Pearl, Alabama, Mobile, Savannah, Roanoke, James, and many others, with their vast tributaries, throughout our entire country during the Summer and Autumn, and especially so during seasons of unusual heat and drouth, are invariably accompanied by extensive derangements of the stomach and liver, and other abdominal viscera. In their treatment, a purgative, exerting a powerful influence upon the various organs, is essentially necessary. There is no cathartic for the purpose equal to Dr. J. Walker's VINECAR BITTERS, which will specify remove the dark-colored fecal matter with which the bowels are loaded, at the same time stimulating the secretions of the liver, and generally restoring the healthy functions of the digestive organs.

Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Headache, Pain in the Shoulders, Cough, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations of the Stomach, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Bilious Attacks, Palpitation of the Heart, Inflammation of the Lungs, Pain in the region of the Kidneys, and a hundred other painful symptoms, are the offspring of Dyspepsia. One bottle will prove a better guarantee of its merits than a lengthy advertisement.

Serofula, or King's Evil, White Swellings, Ulcers, Erysipelas, Stuffed Nostrils, Goitre, Scrophulous Inflammations, Indolent Inflammations, Mercurial Affections, Old Sores, Eruptions of the Skin, Sore Throat, &c., &c. In these, as in all other constitutional Diseases, WALKER'S VINECAR BITTERS have shown their great curative power in the most obstinate and intractable cases.

For Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism, Gout, Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, Diseases of the Blood, Liver, Kidneys, and Bladder, these Bitters have no equal. Such Diseases are caused by Vitiated Blood.

Mechanical Diseases.—Persons engaged in Paints and Minerals, such as Gunpowder, Type-setters, Gold-beaters, and Miners, as they advance in life, are subject to paralysis of the Bowels. To guard against this, take a dose of WALKER'S VINECAR BITTERS occasionally.

For Skin Diseases, Eruptions, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Blotches, Spots, Pimples, Pustules, Boils, Carbuncles, Ringworms, Scald Head, Sore Eyes, Erysipelas, Itch, Burns, Discolorations of the Skin, Humors and Diseases of the Skin of whatever name or nature, are liberally and long carried out of the system in a short time by the use of these Bitters.

Pain, Taps, and other Vermin, lurking in the system of so many thousands, are effectually destroyed and removed. No system of medicine, no vermifuge, no cathartic, will drive the system from worms like these Bitters.

For Female Complaints, in young or old, married or single, at the close of womanhood or the turn of life, these Tonic Bitters display so decided an influence that improvement is soon perceptible.

Jaundice.—In all cases of jaundice, rest assured that your liver is not doing its work. The only sensible treatment is to promote the secretion of the bile and favor its removal. For this purpose use VINECAR BITTERS.

Cleanse the Vitiated Blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in Pimples, Eruptions, or Sores; cleanse it when you find it obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it when it is foul; your feelings will tell you when. Keep the blood pure, and the health of the system will follow.
