The Canadian Apple Trade.

LONDON, May 4.—Mr. Woodall, of Liverpool, reviewing the Canadian apple trade for the reason just closing, says the shipments have been the largest on record, the receipts at Liverpool alone reaching nearly 1,000,000 barrels, including American. During almost the entire period the prices were much higher than in previous years.

"Angel Makers."

ST. PETERSBURG, May 4.—At Vilne six Hebrews were convicted of murdering babies that had been intrusted to their charge, and were sentenced to from 6 to 20 years' penal servitude. In many cases the murders were committed with the connivance of the mothers of the little victims. The prisoners had gained the name of "angel makers" from their practice of killing children, whose expense was inconvenient or distasteful to parents.

Earl Grey's Good Advice.

LONDON, May 4.—Imperial trade matters still attract much attention here. Earl Grey has issued a pamphlet urging Canada to cease to hope for free treatment in the United States markets, but to adopt universal free trade. In this he echoes the general British desire for Canada.

Earl Grey predicts that Canada would secure unprecedented progress under free trade. His connection with Canada as Colonial Secretary in Peel's Government gives weight to his views.

The United Empire Trade League has abandoned its intention to formally protest against Lord Knutsford's dispatch, though they express much irritation.

"Sweet and Low."

BERLIN, May 5.—In court circles it is whispered that the expected visit of the Czar is connected with a projected betrothal of Princess Margaret of Prussia to a member of the Russian Imperial family. The Czar, however, has not yet made up his mind to assent to the alliance.

The Earldom of Stamford.

LONDON, May 5.—The House of Lords committee, in accepting William Gray as the rightful heir to the Earldom of Stamford, has escaped the awful possibilities of the Hottentot earl, but has not succeeded in setting aside a dowager countess who is a full-blooded colored woman. The late Earl of Stamford, who died at the Cape of Good Hope a year ago, married his third and surviving partner at Wynberga, South Africa. The coal-black Dowager Countess of Stamford is a daughter of a Hottentot named Solomon. The first attracted the favor of the late Earl by acting as a servant in his household. It was the Earl's mulatta son by this woman who sought to inherit his father's title and seat in the House of Lords. The Dowager Countess is in London under the guidance of a Cape Town lawyer, and it is feared she may demand to be presented at one of the drawing-rooms held by the Queen. Being a peer's widow, she is entitled to access to royalty.

He was about to drop into his seat when he lost his balance, tottered, and fell headlong over the gallery railing, landing headfirst on a chair in the second row of the orchestra and smashing it. There was confusion in the orchestra, while the occupants of the gallery peered over the railing to see what had become of Dunning. Two ushers lifted him to the stage and carried him back to the scenes. His injuries are a fractured right arm, right shoulder dislocated, left jaw broken, fracture of bridge of nose and probably a fracture of skull. It is feared he will die. A "Surprise" That Surprised Nobody.

The Artful Dodger of the Cabinet Gets In His Work.

[Special to the ADVERTISER.]

OTTAWA, May 4.—In the House this afternoon, when the debate on the Caron charges was resumed, the Government had a surprise prepared, which was not altogether a surprise because the decision the Cabinet had arrived at had leaked out. At the meeting of the council this afternoon the Government had determined to relegate the matter in safe shape to a royal commission. Mr. Bowell, therefore, rose and with a five-minute introduction moved the amendment, which was so long that is occupied fifteen minutes in the reading. It began by reciting the charges made by Mr. Edgar, and then a long list of quotations were included from the speeches made in this debate by Mr. Mills (Bothwell), Sir Richard Cartwright and Mr. Edgar. These were cited as the interpretation by the Opposition of Mr. Edgar's charges—as what was meant to be charged in them. From these speeches there were formulated a new set of charges, which, for investigation, were referred to a royal commission. The amended charges commenced:

"That from the aforesaid statements made by James D. Edgar, and comments and argument thereon by Hon. David Mills, Sir Richard Cartwright and Mr. Edgar, from their places in this House, it appears that it was the intention of Mr. Edgar by such statement to charge A. P. Caron, a member of the House and a member of the Privy Council of Canada, with grave offenses and dereliction of duty, notwithstanding that said statements as first recited did not make any definite or precise charges against him; that the following charges and allegations are indicated by the statements of James D. Edgar, and comments thereon by the members aforesaid as intended to be made in the statement, namely."

Then follows charge No. 1, the same as the first of Mr. Edgar's charges. No. 2 of Mr. Edgar's charges is omitted altogether, and so are Nos. 4 and 5. No. 3 of the new charges is intended to take the place of No. 6 in the original, but is varied, as are all other charges which are taken from the original. The effect of the changes and variations is to limit the charges in certain directions and to open them in other directions for which there is no warrant. The new and revised edition of the charges being drawn up, the amendment concludes as follows:

"That in the opinion of this House it is expedient that an inquiry should be made as to the truth or falsity of the allegations last mentioned and numbered 1 to 10, being the allegations and charges included in the original statement of Mr. Edgar and those made in the course of debate thereon, and that for that purpose this House deems it proper and convenient that the evidence relating to such allegations and charges should be heard by one or more commissioners, to be appointed under chapter 114 of the Revised Statutes of Canada, and having all the force mentioned therein, and that such evidence should be laid before the House when completed."

The debate was continued, and the question being a Quebec question the members from that Province took a large share in the debate. The speakers after Mr. Bowell were Messrs. Flint, Davin, Brodeur, Desjardins (L'Islet), Choquette, Dupont, Carroll, Desaulniers, Fraser and Cockburn. Before Mr. Fraser began to speak the Opposition wanted to adjourn the debate. Sir John Thompson refused. After Mr. Cockburn finished, Sir Richard Cartwright again suggested an adjournment, it being 1 o'clock. It was refused again, and the Government made it clear that the debate should be concluded at this sitting. Sir Richard accordingly proceeded with his criticism of the amendment. The debate was going on when the ADVERTISER went to press, and it looked as though the vote would not come until daylight.

Sir Richard Cartwright moved the amendment to the amendment that all the words of the amendment be left out and that the following be added to the original motion: "That this House refuses to allow the investigation into the charges preferred by J. D. Edgar, a member of this House, against Sir Adolphe P. Caron, also a member thereof, to be removed from the control of Parliament and to be committed to one or more commissioners to be appointed upon recommendation of Sir Adolphe P. Caron and his colleagues. That this House views with repugnance the proposition to permit the person accused to vary and alter the charges preferred against him, and instead thereof to substitute a new set of charges gotten up by himself or his colleagues, and that such a demand—no less than the proposal that the said charges should likewise be investigated by persons to be appointed by himself and colleagues—is entirely unprecedented and opposed to Parliamentary law and usuage as settled by the Parliament of the mother country and is a violation of the privileges of the members of this House, and is designed to elude and defeat the ends of justice."

NOTES.

A deputation of six ladies of the W. C. T. U., of Ottawa, and one of Aylmer, headed by Miss McDonnell, of Toronto, waited on Premier Abbott this morning, being introduced by a number of members of Parliament for the purpose of forwarding the claims of woman suffrage. They presented a petition of more than 18,000 signatures. The Premier said he was personally favorable to woman suffrage, but at the present time did not see his way clear in bringing the matter before the House.

SUSPENDED FOR A WEEK.

A Scene of Confusion in the House of Commons.

Mr. Graham, the Socialist Member, the Cause of Much Excitement.

LONDON, May 5.—Mr. Richard Haldane's bill to confer upon local authorities power to compel land owners to sell their land in order that it may be divided into small holdings was discussed in the House of Commons yesterday. Mr. Herbert Asquith (advanced Liberal), member for East Fifeshire, spoke quietly in favor of the measure. He contended that the owner of the land on which human residences are built is not entitled to the improved value of the land due to the increase of the population. In that respect, Mr. Asquith held, land differed from consols or a commercial enterprise. Before he had an opportunity, however, to explain wherein the difference lies, he was interrupted by Mr. Cunningham Graham, the Socialist, who represents the northwest division of Lanarkshire, who excitedly asked: "How about swindling the shareholders in a company?" Amid cries of order, Mr. Graham shouted: "I have a right to explain. This is a swindling speech."

The House was in great confusion, and the Speaker the Right Hon. Arthur Wellesley Pell, called Mr. Graham to order. The latter refused to be silent, and finally the Speaker said: "The conduct of the member is such that I am compelled to name Mr. Graham." This action was greeted with cheers.

Mr. Graham retorted: "All right. I am named for standing up for socialism."

This caused renewed confusion, and at last the Right Hon. Henry Matthews, the Home Secretary, rose and moved Mr. Graham be suspended.

To this Mr. Graham said: "Oh, suspend; I don't care."

Mr. Matthews' motion was seconded, put to the House and adopted without a dissenting vote. The suspension is for one week.

When the result was announced Mr. Graham said: "Mr. Speaker, I beg to apologize for any apparent discourtesy to you, but I consider that I have been suspended for standing up for socialism. I would be glad to argue the question before 100,000 people in Hyde Park."

During the scene, Sir John Lubbock, who was sitting near Mr. Graham, tried to control the latter, urging him to obey the Speaker's call to order.

Mr. Graham, in response to these well-intended efforts, said: "I don't care a d——. I have been named for talking socialism."

Immediately after the motion suspending him was adopted, Mr. Graham walked with a swaggering gait down the floor, saying as he went: "This House is a swindle. I am suspended as a Socialist." He talked until the door closed behind him.

The discussion of Mr. Haldane's bill was then resumed. When the measure was put to vote the House rejected it 148 members voting in favor of it and 223 against it.

A GERMAN HOLOCAUST.

Several Employes in a Feather Factory Burned to Death.

BERLIN, May 5.—The Strausse feather factory at Cannstadt, Wurtemberg, caught fire yesterday afternoon and the flames spread with such rapidity that several of the employes were burned to death.

Charged with Embezzlement.

WASHINGTON, May 5.—Lewis W. Johnson, supreme treasurer of the American Mutual Aid Society of Washington, with headquarters here, and Wm. Spencer, a photographer, were arrested here last night on a charge of embezzling $28,000 in Philadelphia. These men were connected in an official way with the Prudential Mutual Benefit Society, whose office was in Philadelphia.

Flocking to Pittsburg.

PITTSBURG, Pa., May 5.—The lame, the halt and the blind are again coming into the city in large numbers to see Father Mollinger, the faith cure priest, and to bow at the shrine of St. Anthony in the chapel on Troy Hill. Most of the new comers are from the south, and some of them so weak that they cannot walk and have to be hauled about in invalid chairs. Tennessee and Kentucky furnish a great many patients for the reverend physician, as he is said to have made some wonderful cures among the afflicted in that portion of the country. Thus far this season no remarkable cures have been reported.

Star Chamber Trial of Mr. Mercier.

QUEBEC, May 4.—The investigation in the Mercier boodle charges is conducted with closed doors, and no pressmen are admitted, a course which is severely censured. Hon. Mr. Mercier, when questioned on the secrecy of the proceedings, said that it was thus conducted because the evidence to be given against him was so weak that the Government thought it best to have the trick played in private.

Hon. Mr. Hall, Provincial Treasurer, was heard this morning to remark that he was strongly opposed to holding the investigation now going on against Mr. Mercier, et al., to the exclusion of the public and the press. Such action, he thought, was contrary to the Provincial statutes, and he intended to bring it before the House.

The Venezuelan Crisis.

NEW YORK, May 5.—A Herald special from Cumana, Venezuela, says: "The forces of the insurgent Gen. Guerra are encamped in the triangle formed by Turmeo, Teques and Victoria, north of the last named place. Guerra's position is almost on the direct road to Victoria and Carracas. Among the many unverified rumors is one that Dr. Casanas, Palacio's chief, has been killed in his camp at Calabcz. It is alleged a dozen lancers pretended to have deserted from the insurgents' army and asked to be enrolled under the Government's standard. They were interviewed by Casanas and pretended to supply information of the position of the rebels. This was on April 28. That same night they murdered Casanas in his headquarters. It looks as if this information was given out to strike terror to Palacio, who has been anxious to hear some favorable news from his commander-in-chief. He has maintained himself for several weeks in the heart of the enemy's country, penned in by rebels, and yet has not been captured. The rumor of his assassination shows at least that his army, which is a large one, is still intact. Another rumor current is that Valencia has been captured by the colored general, Mora, and his army of blacks. The revolution is surely approaching a crisis.

LABOR MATTERS.

A Thousand Toronto Bricklayers Quit Work

Rather Than Submit to a Reduction of Wages.

Stormont Cotton Mill Closed—Movement to Abolish the Sweating System Among Cloakmakers.

The Toronto journeyman bricklayers have refused to submit to the proposed reduction of wages, and have inaugurated a strike. The strikers number about 1,000.

The strike at Thackray's mill, Ottawa, terminated Tuesday evening, when an amicable settlement was arrived at. The men will quit work in future at 4 o'clock Saturday afternoons. After Mr. Thackray signed the agreement for shorter hours, the men held an impromptu meeting and passed votes of thanks to various employers in the city for granting them two hours on Saturdays.

All of the lumber shovers on Chequemagon Bay, Wis., struck Monday for an increase of 10 cents per hour, having been getting 40 cents. The lumbermen granted their demand.

The Employes' Relief Association of the Baltimore and Ohio Road has 22,303 members. During the eleven years it has been in operation over $3,000,000 have been disbursed in benefits.

The Stormont mill at Cornwall, Ont., closed down Tuesday, thereby throwing some 600 or 700 hands out of work. The trouble seems to have started among the union weavers. One of their number, it is said, reported a few minutes late on Thursday morning last and was sent out. He filed an appearance on Friday, but a "spare hand" was given charge of his looms, and he was once more compelled to go out. Tuesday morning there was a repetition of what occurred on Thursday, and the weavers immediately stopped their looms, refusing to work unless the weaver in question was given his looms. Their demand was refused and the mill was closed down.

A convention of cloakmakers, including operators, pressers and finishers met in New York to form an international organization. Delegates were present from New York, Philadelphia, Pittsburg, Baltimore, Boston, Chicago and Brooklyn, representing about 18,000 cloakmakers. The convention proposes, among other things, to abolish the sweating system, to open a national strike fund, to organize a central executive board, and to appoint general organizers.

THE SPRING ASSIZES.

The grand jury yesterday afternoon heard the evidence of most of the witnesses for the Crown in the murder case in which John Fitzpatrick, Wm. Wilson and Peter Fitzpatrick, of Strathroy, are the defendants. Late in the afternoon they adjourned until this morning at 11:30, when they will resume consideration of the case.

THURSDAY.

The Spring Assizes were resumed this morning at 9:30.

TREBILCOCK VS. WALSH

Was the first case entered into. This case was over a bet made at the time of the election on March 26, between C. S. Hyman and John Carling. F. T. Trebilcock bet $500 that Mr. Hyman would be gazetted member of the Dominion House for London. John E. Richards bet $500 on Carling, and S. C. Walsh, the defendant, was stakeholder. John P. Moore was present when the bet was made. Mr. Richards, he said, was willing to bet on who would be declared elected but agreed to bet on who would be gazetted. R. J. Blackwell was at polling sub-division 4 on election day, and Mr. Trebilcock, he said, voted there. Andrew Dale swore that John E. Richards voted at sub-division 15. Mr. McKillop produced the Canada Gazette to show that John Carling had been gazetted. The plaintiff sued to recover his half of the stakes. W. R. Meredith, Q.C., argued that it was not an illegal bet as it had been made on a fact of who would be gazetted. He said Mr. McKillop had not furnished the necessary legal proof to show that the election in question had been held. The defendant said he received a notice from Mr. Trebilcock the morning after the election claiming the $1,000. He also received one two days later demanding the $500 he put up. Mr. McKillop claimed that it was purely an illegal bet. Mr. Justice Street reserved judgment.

The same evidence applied in the case of F. T. Trebilcock vs. E. H. Gustin, except that the bet in this case was on the election and not on who would be gazetted. Geo. McClary bet on Carling and Trebilcock on Hyman. Judgment was also reserved in this case.

Woodland vs. Brown and Woodland vs. Callard were laid over until the Fall Assizes.

Lewis vs. Struthers, on application of the defendant, has been also laid over.

Stickles vs. North Dorchester was next called, and W. R. Burke, W. M. Davis, Francis Stewart and W. H. Johnson were witnesses. The last mentioned occupied the north half of the farm in question, and paid $50 a year rent for it. He estimated the worth of the land at $21 per acre, and that portion where there was gravel at probably $75 an acre. He did not think it would ever amount to much for farming land. The corporation of North Dorchester bought from the plaintiff Stickles one acre of land on which was a portion of a gravel pit. Stickles now charges that they have taken gravel from outside the limits of the prescribed acre, and claims $500 damages. The defendants deny the charge. A plan submitted by them shows the outline of the acre they claim they purchased from Stickles, but his outline does not agree with theirs. The case is still going on.

IN CONGRESS.

The Report on the Chinese Exclusion Bill Adopted by the House.

WASHINGTON, May 4.—In the House today Mr. Geary (Cal.) presented the conference report on the Chinese Exclusion Bill and demanded the previous question on the adoption of the report. Notwithstanding the protest of Mr. Hooker (Miss.) it was ordered, and after a short discussion the conference report was agreed to. Yeas, 185; nays, 28.

Probably Our Old Friend the Sea Serpent

RONDOUT, N. Y., May 5.—A strange fish which was seen in the Hudson at this point to-day terrified shad fisherman and others who were on the river near it. As described by several who saw it, and whose veracity has never been questioned, the fish was fully twenty feet in length and had large flippers about two feet in length, resembling those of a seal. The fish was dark, had a curved back, and an upright fin three feet long in the center of its back extending from near the head. The stranger swam into a fisherman's net and completely riddled it; another net was thrown out in which the fish was secured, but after a few struggles made its escape. Two boats were nearly swamped by swells produced by the struggles of the monster. It was moving south.

Do You Know This Person Who Write to Lumsden & Wilson, Seaforth?

Last spring when I called on you for a bottle of your Cough Remedy, Royal Glycerated Balsam of Fir, I was almost giving up in despair. I had tried a great many different things, but got no better, and really thought I never would get over it, but your Balsam of Fir cured me entirely. It is the best cough medicine I ever tried. I recommend it to every person I meet needing such a remedy.

Luck waits for something to turn up; pluck turns it up.

Thomas A. Garfield, the only brother of the late President Garfield, resides on a little farm near Grand Rapids, Mich.

Mr. J. R. Allen, upholsterer, Toronto, sends us the following: "For six or seven years my wife suffered with Dyspepsia, Costiveness, Inward Piles and Kidney Complaint. We tried two physicians and any number of medicines without getting any relief, until we got a bottle of Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery. This was the first relief she got, and before one bottle was used the benefit she derived from it was beyond our expectation."

This great busy world is too large for a man to be tied down to a business he despises and a position that is irksome to him. There is a place somewhere that will yield profit and congenial employment.

A Dinner Pill.—Many persons suffer excruciating agony after partaking of a hearty dinner. The food partaken of is like a ball of lead upon the stomach, and instead of being a healthy nutriment it becomes a poison to the sytem. Dr. Parmelee's Vegetable Pills are wonderful correctives of such troubles. They correct acidity, open the secretions and conver the food partaken of into healthy nutriment. They are just the medicine to take if troubled with Indigestion or Dyspepsia.

Miss Howe, the woman who won the second prize in the competition for designs for the Women's Building in the Columbian Exhibition, was a classmate of Miss Hayden, who won the first prize in the Boston Institute of Technology.

Mr. Job Scales, of Toronto, writes: "A short time ago I was suffering from Kidney Complaint and Dyspepsia, sour stomach and lame back; in fact, I was completely prostrated and suffering intense pain. While in this state a friend recommended me to try a bottle of Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery. I used one bottle, and the permanent manner in which it has cured and made a new man of me is such that I cannot withhold from the proprietors this expression of my gratitude."

BRANT.

Brantford Courier: The police lodged a beauty in jail Monday. He was caught by P. C. Adams on Colborne street, and his appearance is enough to condemn him offhand. He is about six feet in height, and weighs some 200 pounds. He has on a prison shirt and a prison cap, and when interviewed by the chief stated that he arrived here this morning from Chicago. He refused to give any name, stating that he never possessed one. He is held for vagrancy, and the authorities are inclined to think that there will be some tender inquiries for him in a day or so.

ELGIN.

The Elgin Baptist Association will meet at Iona on June 2, 3 and 4.

Mr. and Mrs. D. Coughlin, of Yarmouth, celebrated their silver wedding on Monday night, about 100 friends being present.

While B. Francis and John Humphries were engaged in plastering the ceiling of the W. C. T. U. rooms over Caskey's flour and feed store, in St. Thomas, the scaffold gave way and they fell to the floor. Both escaped comparatively unhurt, Mr. Francis getting a bloody nose, though Mr. Humphries was unconscious for a minute or two. They were able to resume work in a few minutes.

W. C. Rhodes, of the Molsons Bank, Ridgetown, leaves for Woodstock to-day. Mr. Bullen, of the Hamilton branch, will take the position in the branch vacated by Mr. Rhodes.

J. G. Nunn, of St. Thomas, has issued a writ in a civil action for damages for libel against H. A. Branton, who, it is charged, was the writer of a communication in the Springfield Star, alleging that a well-known auctioneer had fleeced a young Englishman, and hoped that he would not Birchall him.

The majority of cases entered for trial at the Elgin Chancery Sittings have been settled, among them the following: Travers vs. Ward, action by plaintiff as assignee of the defendant to set aside a conveyance of house and lot to his wife as a fraud on his creditors. Verdict by consent for plaintiff for $200, without costs. Carey vs. Davis, et al., action to set aside a fraudulent conveyance. Verdict by consent for plaintiff for $100, without costs. Fraine vs. Ballah, action by S. Fraine, administrator of Mary Fraine, wife of the plaintiff, against Jennie and Cynthia Ballah, her daughters, to recover moneys alleged to have been paid by deceased on certain mortgages made by her former husband. Defendants claim that all differences between the parties were settled by arbitration, and they also put in a counter claim for certain moneys paid by them on account of the said Mary Fraine. Consent minutes were entered ordering the dismissal of both actions without costs. Small vs. Hortop, an action by Mrs. Harriet Small for the ejectment of Thomas Hortop from the premises occupied by him as a livery and dwelling on Ross street, St. Thomas, on the ground that he is only a tenant by sufferance. Defendant agrees to give up possession on Friday, May 6, paying a quarter's rent at the previous rate.

Mr. Amassa Wood, of St. Thomas, has received word that the church bearing his name in Japan was recently destroyed by fire. Mr. Wood will rebuild.

ESSEX.

Peach trees in the Leamington district have wintered in splendid form, and the present prospect for an abundant peach crop was never better.

HURON.

Miss M. E. McGregor, daughter of Capt. McGregor, of Goderich, was married at St. Peter's Church, Goderich, on Tuesday morning, to Mr. Geo. A. Kidd, of Omaha, Neb., son of Mr. Thos. Kidd, of Seaforth.

The Hunter and Crossley meetings at Wingham are, as usual, well attended.

M. C. Cameron, of Goderich, who has just returned from Florida, says that A. H. Manning, reeve of Clinton, is improving in health very rapidly, and will soon be sufficiently recovered to return home.

Death has claimed another victim in the person of Henry Clark, a highly-esteemed young man of Stephen township. A short time ago he took a cold, which developed into consumption and finally ended in death.

Mr. W. Weymouth, of Hullett, has a horse that is 30 years old and is working well every day. Mr. W. Farquhar has another that is 26 years old, and by all appearance is likely to raise a good foal this summer.

KENT.

Constable Alex. McDonald, of Big Point, the other day laid information before Squire McNaughton, J.P., charging James Brown, of Dover township, with cruelty to a 10-year-old girl named Nellie Plunkey. Brown, it is alleged, lives with a woman who is not his lawful wife, and the little girl is a member of the household. Both are implicated in the charge, but the woman, who is sick, is not being proceeded against at present.

Chas. Edsall has returned to Thamesville to fill a post as telegraph clerk, etc., in the C. P. R. agency there.

LAMBTON.

An Alvinston man sat dreaming the happy hours away in a chair Sunday afternoon. A practical joker thought it would be a good joke to yell in the sleeper's ear, and did so. The man fell over backwards and broke three of his ribs. He is now inquiring where the joke came in.

The Mechanics' Institute of Wyoming will purchase about $40 worth of additional books this year.

MIDDLESEX.

Henry Hambly, of Fort Gratiot, who was killed on Sunday last at Charlotte, Mich., was a brakeman on the C. and G. T. Railway. The train was backing up, and Hambly was trying to uncouple a car when his foot got caught in a sidewalk crossing, and he was run over before the train could be stopped. He leaves a wife and two children to mourn his loss. Deceased was a son of Reuben Hambly, of the 3rd line of Lobo. The Melrose Methodist Quarterly Board passed a unanimous resolution of sympathy with Mr. Hambly and family at is session on Monday. Mr. Hambly is a very highly respected member of said board.

Rev. Thos. Jackson, of Mount Brydges, delivered a very practical discourse at the Melrose quarterly meeting on the 1st inst.

H. Freer was awarded the contract. His being $291 75 below the estimate made by the engineer, the handsome reduction to the parties assessed of nearly 13 per cent. will likely follow. The drain is to be completed on or before December, 1892.

Henry Freer has re-let the contract of the Watt drain in Metcalfe to Henry Gough for a monetary consideration.

Dr. Jas. W. Nixon, of Napier, was on a prospecting tour throughout part of Michigan last week.

J. W. Nay, of the Bank of Commerce, Stratford, has been transferred to St. Catharines and promoted to the position of ledger-keeper.

There is a hitch in the negotiations for the purchase of a plant by the Perth Flax Mill Company, of Stratford, for the manufacture of binding twine, and there are prospects of a big lawsuit before the trouble is ended. The fight is between the Sewell & Day Company, of Boston, and the National Cordage Company, a strong corporation controlling all the binder twine mills in Canada but one and many in the United States.

Vandepoele, the electrician who died lately leaving a seven figure bank account for his heirs, was at one time a resident of Stratford. He went there from Belgium some 30 years ago, and was employed in building the altars in St. Joseph's Church. He had then only commenced the study of electricity, at which he afterwards achieved celebrity, being the originator of the Vandepoele system of electric lighting and power transmission.

CAN WE ASSIST YOU?

Notwithstanding the fact that Paine's Celery Compound is accomplishing a wonderful work in Canada, in the subjugation of disease and suffering, we know that many men and women are still doubtful, and hesitate to use the Compound, from a fear that it is not quite suited for their particular troubles.

These doubting individuals, we feel assured, are looking for good medical advice to guide them. Many hesitate about consulting a physician in their neighborhood, and others fear the cost of consultation and advice.

For the benefit of such people, we are now in a position to offer them free medical advice. We have secured the services of a thoroughly qualified Canadian physician—a graduate of one of our best colleges—whose attention and experience will be devoted to the sick and suffering who may correspond with us.

In this great work, the old and young, rich and poor, will be treated and prescribed for quite as effectually and carefully as the family physician could do.

Our physician, as an independent agent, is untrammeled in his work; and Paine's Celery Compound is only recommended for use when the physician is assured that it will benefit and cure.

Our physician's work since the 1st March has been heavy, and the correspondence from all parts of Canada is fast increasing.

We have reason to believe that the good work done by our Consulting Physician, and the marvelous effects of Paine's Celery Compound, will be far-reaching, and will tend to the happiness of thousands of families.

Advice and prescribing free to all in Canada.

Nothing Like a Generous Husband.

She was a sweet, inoffensive-looking woman, one of that class who are everywhere regarded as model wives. She was evidently going on a journey, for as she was about to get into the railroad car she remarked in a hesitating voice to the man, evidently her husband, who had come to see her off:

"Don't you think, James, I shall need some money when I'm away?"

With a look of surprise he replied:

"Didn't I give you a half-dollar last week?"

Among the pains and aches cured with marvelous rapidity with Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil, is ear-ache. The young are especially subject to it, and the desirability of this Oil as a family remedy is enhanced by the fact that it is admirably adapted not only to the above ailment, but also to the hurts, disorders of the bowels, and affections of the throat, in which the young are specially subject.

THE FIRE DEPARTMENT.

A Decrease Compared With Last Year—The Huckster Bylaw Again—Some Important Amendments—Fire Supplies.

No. 3 Committee received the estimates for the Fire Department for 1892 from Chief Roe at a meeting last evening as follows:

No. 1 Station	$3,200
No. 2 Station	3,700
No. 3 Station	3,050
Total	$14,950

Last year the estimates were $16,400, and $15,952 69 was expended. The estimate for this year did not include the proposed expenditure on a new aerial truck.

A petition was received to have Colborne street, between Dufferin and Princess avenues, watered. Referred to the engineer with power.

Ald. Wm. Heaman moved that the committee arrange for street car fare for the street watering inspector. He had to go all over the city two or three times a day during warm weather, and the work would be done more efficiently. The chairman will ascertain the cost of a pass.

J. M. Wilson, market clerk, furnished a report on the huckster bylaw. He recommended: 1. That the bylaw be not repealed. 2. That $1 be paid any person giving information that would lead to the conviction of a huckster violating the law. 3. That the north end of the market bazar be boarded up, except what is required for a passage. 4. That hucksters be charged $2 a month for a 7-foot space under the veranda, and $4 for 14 feet. 5. That the clerk be empowered to place hucksters at the rear of stores at north side of market. The report was adopted clause by clause. In future the fruit dealers will be charged a rental for space.

Robert Duncan appeared before the committee and asked for half the contract of sweeping chimneys. The Council will be recommended to give Mr. Duncan wards 1, 3, and 6, and Mr. Berry wards 2, 4 and 5.

The matter of abolishing fish peddlers' licenses was laid over.

Tenders for fire department supplies were then taken up, and contracts were awarded as follows: G. W. Ness & Co., Montreal, 15 inch trip gong, $50; ten pounds gutta percha wire, $15; two pairs magnets, $3; Tanton & Ashplant, twelve pairs gum boots, $38; Waterous Company, Brantford, 10 pounds Okonite wire, $22 50; Toronto Gutta Percha Company, six rubber coats, $24; two play pipes, $30; controlling nozzle, $20; Toronto Electrical Company, four 12-inch gongs, $40; 25 pounds office wire, $7; glass insulators, $4 50 per 100; six disque cells, $3; ten wire connectors, $1. There were present Ald. Fitzgerald (chairman), Hannah, Wm. Heaman, John Heaman and Moule, Secretary Bell and Chief Roe.

HUNDREDS BEING RESCUED

MRS. OWENS STILL LIVES.

Looks and feels like a "new woman." A splendid example of what the forward march of science is accomplishing for the "gentler sex." even where all hope seems gone, and in its place only despair. If you would avoid the rocks which will surely wreck, and the deep waters which will surely sink your now frail craft, listen to the warning: "Suffering ladies of Toronto and elsewhere, I advise you to try the Histogenetic System of Medicine. It has done more for me in three weeks than I can tell you here. The remedies are unlike any I ever saw. It does not seem like taking medicine. No horrible, nauseating bad taste, and yet the curative power is wonderful. Two years ago I had typhoid fever, from which I have never thoroughly recovered. About four months ago my condition was such that I decided to undergo an operation, which I did, but have been still worse since. This was followed by inflammation and all kinds of bad results. My friends have all been much alarmed and very anxious about me. My husband's hard-earned money seemed worse than wasted on me. I was six months in the hospital at one time, and suffered dreadfully also with a diseased ear. Three months ago a complicated female weakness made my case still more hopeless. At last, and I believe just in time, I heard of the Histogenetic System and consulted Dr. Rear, of Toronto. He assured me there was one hope of ultimate and complete recovery. I took the treatment, and in a few days was some better. I continued to gain, and now in three weeks my ear has completely healed up, my system perfectly regular, organs all restored to natural position and condition. I am sound and well. I have walked nearly two miles to-day and feel none the worse for it. It is a grand treatment. Try it; you will not regret it.

"MRS. OWENS,
"98 Bond street, Toronto."

Free books; free examination. Just the actual cost of the medicine supplied. Experienced physicians prescribe for you free. Remember, all chronic and acute diseases treated, and you have only the medicine to pay for. Question sheets sent to outside patients, who are treated successfully at their homes. Will you believe the statements of your neighbors? Do you wish to get well? Try once more. If this fails all else will, for it is the latest and greatest achievement of medical science.

We cure these also—

If you have Nervous Debility, Consumption, Paralysis, Epilepsy, Rheumatism, Dropsy, Heart Disease, Kidney Disease, Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Catarrh, Blood Diseases, Female Weakness, Histogenetic Medicines will positively cure you if cure is possible. If not, your case will be refused treatment. We charge no fees. Address Histogenetic Medicine Association, rooms 2 and 3 Albion Block, London, Ont., and New Arcade, Yonge and Gerrard, suite of rooms 10, Toronto, Ont. Office hours, 9 a.m. to 8 p.m.

LONDON AND PORT STANLEY RAILWAY BILL PASSES.

London now controls the London and Port Stanley Railway. The bill practically so providing passed its third reading in the House of Commons last night, and will in due course be declared law. The provisions of the measure are as follows:

"At the next and at all subsequent general annual meetings and at all other meetings of the London and Port Stanley Railway Company, hereinafter called the company, the holders of the mortgage bonds or debentures of the company shall have and possess the same rights, privileges and qualifications for acting and voting as shareholders, and for being elected and acting as directors, as appertain to the shareholders of the company, and each $100 of the amount of any mortgage bond or debenture shall be computed for such purpose as one share of capital stock of the company.

"The mayor and any member of the Municipal Council of the Corporation of the City of London, the mayor and any member of the City Council of the Corporation of the City of St. Thomas, any officer of the said corporations or either of them, for the office of director of the company, shall be eligible for election as, and to be a director of the company, although he may not be a shareholder or bond or debenture holder.

"Nothing herein contained shall affect the rights or priorities of the holders of the bonds or debentures of the company as such in respect of the assets and property of the company, which shall continue as if this act had not been passed."

The effect of these provisions is to enable London, which has a far greater financial claim on the road than any other stock or bond holder, to control the election of directors, and thus obtain the future disposal of the road. The last clause was added to the bill with the object of securing to all parties the benefits of the legislation passed in 1882 regarding the distribution of the assets, but it is of minor importance. On behalf of St. Thomas it was attempted to amend the bill by providing that so long as the mortgage bonds or debentures of the City of St. Thomas remained unpaid no lease of the railway should, without the consent of the Corporation of St. Thomas, contain any agreement or stipulation for the erection of workshops or the employment of any specified number of men within the City of London, or give that city any preferential rates or any advantage not enjoyed by St. Thomas. The amendment was opposed by the London delegation and rejected.

Now that the voting power is no longer confined to the stock-holders, but is shared by the bond-holders as well, it may not be amiss to state how the strength of parties will in future stand:

OWNED BY LONDON.
Original stock	$ 150,000 00
First mortgage bonds	327,649 00
Interest deficiency, after crediting London's share of rent from G. T. R.	23,717 61
Total	$ 351,366 61
Second mortgage bonds	161,400 00
Interest on ditto	132,540 60
Total	$ 296,940 60
Third mortgage bonds	133,329 00
Interest	112,314 59
Total	$ 251,643 59
Grand total, London's claim	$1,049,950 80
OWNED BY THE G. T. R.
Original stock owned by Sir Joseph Hickson on behalf of G. T. R	$2 6,000 00
OWNED BY ST. THOMAS.
Original stock	$32,800 00
First mortgage bonds	38,296 00
Third mortgage bonds	10,637 00
Total	$81,733 00

Interest on the St. Thomas bonds would be about $3,000, bringing the total claim of that city on the line up to over $84,000.

OWNED BY SUNDRY PERSONS.

The future control of the road being thus secured to the City of London, the question of its disposal becomes a live question. On 1st September next the lease entered into with the G. W. R. in 1872, and assumed by the G. T. R. ten years later, expires, and a new arrangement will have to be made with that or some other company, or the city must take over the line and work it as a corporation enterprise. It is understood that the Grand Trunk Railway Company is not averse to renewing the lease, and many citizens would prefer that the company should continue in control, provided the interests of the city in its lake port are properly safeguarded, and a fair rental is guaranteed. It will be for the Board of Aldermen to consider the question in all its aspects, and make the best bargain possible.

Mayor Spencer and the aldermanic committee which has acted with him are to be congratulated on the work done so far. They placed their case before Parliament in admirable shape, and worked energetically to secure the success of the measure. That it has been passed so promptly must be gratifying to all.

As the line is a joint stock enterprise, the change in the directorate cannot take place till the 15th of January next, when the annual meeting of the shareholders will be held.

LONDON'S HUMILIATION.

Among the cities of the Dominion with over 30,000 inhabitants London alone has but one member of Parliament.

Every other city with over 30,000 of a population has two members under the new gerrymander, and has had for many years.

What has London done that she should be shorn of the prestige freely conferred on other centers of population?

Was it to insure the continuance of this anomaly, this humiliation, that Mr. Carling so greedily grabbed the seat stolen from Mr. Hyman, M.P.?

This is how the Globe correspondent sizes up the member for Elliot: "At best the Minister of Agriculture is but poor game. He moves so slow that there is no sport in hitting him."

THE CARON "INQUIRY."

In the Dominion House of Commons, at an early hour this morning, the followers of Sir John Thompson, at his bidding, carried the Bowell motion in favor of emasculating the charges brought against Sir Adolphe Caron by Mr. Edgar, M.P., and providing that an investigation should be held by a commission to be appointed by the Ministers themselves.

This extraordinary change of front has been taken partly in response to public opinion and partly to provide means for delaying investigation and suppressing the truth, under legal technicalities, if that is at all possible. Sir John Macdonald was afraid to face Parliament when the Pacific Scandal accusations were made by Hon. Mr. Huntington, and the charges were sent to a commission, but even Sir John Macdonald was not so unscrupulous as to emasculate the indictment laid against him. Sir John Thompson is more daring. No doubt the circumstances are such as require for their control a man with his ability to turn sharp corners, to engineer tricky expedients.

A brief reference to the proceedings of the past year will bring to the recollection of our readers the fact that, while it is now deemed highly improper for Parliament to inquire into the sins of a member of the Government, no such objection was raised when Sir Hector Langevin was "investigated." It was, however, made evident then that members of Parliament had a habit—a very bad habit, defaulting Ministers now allege—of getting at the truth despite many attempts to prevent exposure by raising technical objection to questions. By the time the bill of particulars against Sir Adolphe Caron reached the House it had fully dawned upon Sir John Thompson that the whole truth regarding the charges brought against the Minister and his associates would so completely expose the means by which they secured power in recent elections that under no circumstances could they stand it. At that time Sir John Thompson reasoned that these charges could not lie against the accused as a member of the House of Commons, because at one part of the time covered by the charges he was not a member of Parliament, as he was seeking re-election, and that too, despite his assurance of a few weeks previously that every accusation would be investigated. Then, too, Sir John Thompson argued that the charges should be thrown out as indefinite. Now he indorses a resolution which apparently regards them as too definite, for at least three of the principal counts have been entirely suppressed in the motion that has passed the House. The charges, as laid by Mr. Edgar, may be thus briefly summarized:

1. That since 1882 the Lake St. John Railway Company has received more than $1,000,000 in bonuses from the Dominion.
2. That these bonuses were handed over to a construction company, which built the road.
3. That Sir Adolphe Caron was a member of that construction company.
4. That Sir Adolphe Caron corruptly received large sums of money out of the subsidies.
5. That large sums were paid out of the subsidies for election purposes with the knowledge of Sir Adolphe Caron and other members of the Government.
6. That the Temiscouata Railway Company has, since 1885, received Dominion subsidies to the extent of $649,200.
7. That Sir Adolphe Caron corruptly received large sums of money out of those subsidies.
8. That large sums were paid out of those subsidies for election expenses with the knowledge of Sir Adolphe Caron and of other Ministers.
9. That the sums so contributed amounted to more than $100,000, and were expended in 22 counties and ridings in Quebec, which are named.

Charges 2 and 3 are entirely omitted in the amendment forced upon the House, and the other charges are changed around, limited or widened, so that it is hard for the original author to recognize the connection between the two.

It is not to be wondered at that this taking of liberty with the charges by the man accused and by his colleagues, who share with him the advantages of his misdeeds, should meet with the disapproval of the Liberals. They hold that Parliament is the custodian of its own honor, and that it cannot fairly delegate to others its right to investigate the wrongdoing of its members or of the Government of the day. Sir Richard Cartwright moved this amendment to the amendment:

"That all the words of the amendment be left out and the following added to the original motion: That this House refuses to allow the investigation into the charges preferred by J. D. Edgar, a member of this House in his place in the House, against Sir Adolphe P. Caron, also a member thereof, to be removed from the control of Parliament and to be committed to one or more commissioners, to be appointed upon the recommendation of said Sir Adolphe P. Caron and his colleagues. That this House views with repugnance the proposition to permit the person accused to vary and alter the charges preferred against him, instead thereof to substitute a new set of charges drawn up by himself and his colleagues, and that such a demand, no less than the proposal that the said charges should likewise be investigated by persons to be appointed by himself and his colleagues, is entirely unprecedented and opposed to parliamentary law and usage, as settled by the Parliament of the mother country, is a violation of the privileges of the members of this House, and is designed to elude and defeat the ends of justice."

The amendment was voted down at the bidding of Sir John Thompson. He was afraid to permit a committee of Parliament, in which his friends are largely in the majority, to investigate the serious charges against a member of the Administration, because he knew that such an investigation would be thorough. He dared not allow an investigation of the charges in their completeness. He apparently looks for safety in restricted inquiry, in emasculation of the accusations, and in technicalities. It is not probable that the Liberals will aid in any such inquiry, but that will not prevent the exposure of Sir Adolphe Caron.

THE CAR SHOPS.

The City Council Railway Committee and the Grand Trunk Railway managers have spent a great deal of time perfecting the legislation just passed by Parliament respecting the London and Port Stanley Railway ownership, and some people have thought that the car shops agreement has been lost sight of. That is not the case, however. The agreement between the City Council and the Grand Trunk Company, by means of which it is intended to concentrate the car shops necessary for the western system in this city, has been under consideration by the company and the committee, and the latter has not lost sight of its importance. Now that the railway legislation has been removed from the field of disputation, the Railway Committee will be able to bend their energies to the settlement one way or another of the car shops agreement, and the disposal of the line.

It is not in the interest of either the city or the railway company that the shops agreement should longer hang fire. London has made an offer to the company which will be indorsed by the people if it is not surrounded by conditions of too onerous a character, and it will be well for both parties to get to a "finally final" arrangement as soon as possible.

Such a consummation should not be far off. When Mayor Spencer was in Ottawa, forwarding the legislation regarding the L. and P. S. Railway this week, he had a conference with Mr. Bell, solicitor for the Grand Trunk, on the subject of the car shops agreement. Mr. Bell assured the mayor that the agreement would be sent on to this city for consideration immediately on his return to Montreal; and he gave it to be understood that it would be in such shape as would meet with the indorsation of the Council. We hope that this will prove to be the case, and that the closing of the arrangement and the speedy construction of the works will follow. The bargain, as now understood, is a fair one, and should be beneficial to both the company and the municipality.

Mayor Spencer will doubtless call the aldermen together for action as soon as the document reaches him.

In Britain the Chancellors of the Exchequer look upon the return of leap year with peculiar satisfaction. It adds another day to the financial year, and this means the addition of about $1,500,000 to the revenue.

The Ottawa Herald (Independent Conservative) says: "If the Mowat Government has one cause for satisfaction greater than another at its victory in Toronto last week, it is that the victory was won in spite of an honest declaration that it had no bribe to offer the electors. The announcement was made by the Liberals during the campaign that win or lose, Toronto would be treated just the same by the Provincial Government. A strong contrast to recent Dominion elections."

The Duchess of Edinburgh's eldest daughter, Princess Marie, is nearly of an age now to make her first appearance at a drawing room (the daughters of the royal family are never "presented," they simply "attend" the drawing room with the other members of the Queen's family, though they do wear white presentation dresses). Princess Marie is nearly 17, and it is quite possible that she may attend the drawing rooms this season with her mother, though this is not yet settled. If she does, it is certain she will be an object of great interest at court, and undoubtedly will be much admired, as she is the prettiest of the Queen's grandchildren. The Duke of Edinburgh's daughters are all pretty girls; the third, Princess Alexandra, is the most Russian in feature, and most resembles her mother.

"How many who use the term 'average woman,'" says Professor Sargeant, of New York, "know what it implies? Physically, it means that she weighs about 117 pounds, and that, if an American, she is somewhat taller than 5 feet 1 inch. Observations taken by the French Academy relative to the average height of 1,107 Frenchwomen, without shoes, show it to be that much." Dr. Sargeant, from 1,835 observations, concludes that the American woman is nearly 2 inches taller than the average daughter of France; and Dr. Galton, an Englishman, in 770 measurements, found that the women of Great Britain are tallest of the three, they exceeding Miss Columbia by fully half an inch. In the matter of weight, though, American femininity is slightly ahead, though the figures are not given."

MR. MEREDITH AND THE WOMEN.

[Woman's Journal, Boston.]

The Ontario Legislature has been wrestling with the question whether the foundations of society would be subverted if women were allowed to practice law. Mr. Meredith, the principal opponent, "grew eloquent over the disaster to the dignity of a court that might result from the sudden descent of a lady's back hair" while she was addressing a jury. Another opponent mournfully represented that "the bill would open up to women the flood-gates of a profession already overcrowded, and in the practice of which many young men, once in high hope, were reduced almost to actual destitution." The advocates of the bill used the common-sense arguments, and pointed out that women were already practicing law in the United States, and even before the U. S. Supreme Court, without shaking the foundations of society. It was finally voted to empower the Law Society to admit women to study law, with a view to their becoming solicitors, but not barristers. The gallery was crowded with ladies interested in the passage of the measure, including Miss Clara Brett Martin, of Toronto, whose application for admission to the Law Society of Upper Canada had led to the introduction of the bill.

Dyspepsia. There is a gentleman at Malden-on-the-Hudson, N. Y., named Captain A. G. Pareis, who has written us a letter in which it is evident that he has made up his mind concerning some things, and this is what he says:

It would be difficult to find a man better known in the vicinity of Burlington, Vt., than Mr. R. D. Wheeler of Winooski Falls, the efficient Deputy Sheriff of Burlington county. He says:

"C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass.:

"Dear Sirs: If Hood's Sarsaparilla cost

$10.00 a Bottle

I should still keep using it, as I have for the past ten years. With me the question as to whether life is worth living depends upon whether I can get Hood's Sarsaparilla. I don't think I could live without it now, certainly I should not wish to, and suffer as I used to. For over ten years I suffered the horrors of the damned with for if ever a man suffers with anything in this world it is with that awful disease. It seems to me as if all other physical suffering were compressed into that one. I took about everything man ever tried for it but never got a dollar's worth of help until I began taking

I have taken it now pretty regularly for ten years and have no more pain and can get around all right. I have advised a good many to try Hood's Sarsaparilla." R. D. WHEELER, Deputy Sheriff, Winooski Falls, Vt.

FOOTBALL.

The Seaforth Football Club defeated the Brantford team on Tuesday by 10 goals to 1.

It is a curious commentary on English football that the leading position in the football league should be held by a club composed, as Sunderland is, exclusively of Scotchmen.

Thirty thousand spectators witnessed the final cup tie for the championship of Yorkshire, Rugby football, at Huddersfield last week, when Hunslet defeated Leeds by 3 goals and 3 tries to 0. Of the 164 clubs which originally entered, the above two were left to decide the championship.

The Meaford Football Club has elected the following officers: Honorary president, Dr. J. G. Clarke; honorary vice-president, S. D. Perry; president, Lawyer A. Skinner; vice, C. T. Sutherland; captain, Jas. Fleming; secretary-treasurer, J. W. Bridgett; executive committee, Jas. Cleland, R. Paul, F. Robinson; club committe, H. Luton, F. R. Baker, W. Butchardt.

AQUATIC.

Champion oarsman William O'Connor and ex-champion Ned Hanlan are in Chicago. O'Connor was considerably elated when he heard that Stansbury has defended his title to the sculling championship successfully, as the latter has promised to at once sail for this country and meet the Canadian for $2,500 a side and the world's championship. He maintains that he can defeat Stansbury on any course in America.

LAWN TENNIS.

At the annual general meeting of the Paris (Ont.) Lawn Tennis Club Mr. A. H. Baird was re-elected president, Rev. Alfred Brown vice-president, and Mr. R. Wolferstan Thomas honorary secretary-treasurer. The Hon. R R. D. Hill, Messrs. A. Douglas, Wickson, R. W. Thomas and J. Moyle were appointed to act as the executive committee.

TURF TIPS.

LONDON, May 4.—The Two Thousand Guineas was run to-day, and was won by Bonavista, with St. Angelo second and Curio third.

The trotting brood mare Ino (dam of Godelia, 2:10½), by Ericsson, died at Lexington on Monday night. Her owner, Gerhard Lang, of Buffalo, valued her at $4,000.

A big chestnut mare named Laura, owned by S. R. Hammond, of Hamilton, has developed considerable talent as a jumper. On Saturday last at the Hendric farm she cleared a gate about six feet high with Reginald Morton in the saddle.

Miller & Sibley's string of nineteen valuable horses, and Robert Bonner's famous trotter Sunol, are now at the new kite-shaped track at Meadville, Pa. Sunol will at once begin training under the supervision of Charles Marvin.

The trotting stallion Dandy, 2:18½, by Atlantic, who won a large sum for his owner last season, has been sold to William Sherrick, of Pennsville, Pa., for $18,000.

The trotting horse Lynx, owned by John P. Gibbs, of Fleetwood Park, N. Y., was burned to death Sunday at Pimlico. Mr. Gibbs' string of trotters had just arrived from New York, and Lynx had been in the stable but a few minutes when the fire was discovered. The other horses were got out uninjured. Lynx was valued at $6,000.

The ordinance which in its effect will wipe out the notorious Garfield race track at Chicago has once more met with defeat in the city council. This is the ordinance providing for a street opening through Garfield Park, cutting the sheds and requiring the destruction of part of the grand stand.

There was an accident in the third race at St. Louis Tuesday which may cause Mike Watson to be killed. Jockey Britton attempted to take Mike through the bunch at the stable turn. There was a jostling and Watson went down, injuring his spine so badly that he could not regain his feet. Britton escaped with a general shaking up. Hugh Penny and Easty were fined $100 each for fighting in the scale room directly after the fourth race.

The directors of the St. Thomas Turf Club have elected the following officers: President, C. P. Geary; vice-president, G. R. Pennington; secretary-treasurer, S. O. Perry.

Notwithstanding the autocratic authority vested in the umpire by the new rules the same old kicking is still indulged in.

The Cleveland club could not resist the Sunday click of the turnstiles. They played their first Sunday game on May 1.

Ex-Umpire John Kelly the other day offered to make the following bets: $1,000 to $2,000 that Boston would come in first; $500 even that Boston would not lose five games out of the twelve to be played on this western trip, and $500 that they would not lose two straights to any team.

CANADIAN EMERALDS SECEDE

From the American Branch of the E. B. A.—A Separate Jurisdiction Formed—Reception at the Palace—The Death Benefits.

The delegates to the E. B. A. convention prefaced yesterday's business by attending mass and afterwards a reception at the palace. They were addressed by Bishop O'Connor, who warmly commended the principles and practices of the order and gave his auditors some very fatherly advice. The discussion on the death benefit question was resumed at the City Hall, and it was decided to adopt the various grades proposed, namely, $100, $250 and $500. The association also decided to secede from the American body and to establish an independent branch under the name of the Emerald Beneficial Association of Canada.

The next place of meeting will be Stratford. Aug. 6 being the anniversary of Daniel O'Connell, excursions will be run to the points of celebration, members of the eastern district going to Peterboro and those in the western to Ingersoll.

Bro. Thomas Manning, of Toronto, received the sad news of the death of his eldest son and left for home. A resolution of condolence was passed by the convention.

With experience, capital, enterprise and a thorough interpretation of the wants of the public it is no wonder that the members of the firm of H. McKay & Co. have won the confidence of Canadian smokers. Nothing has done more to advertise London as a commercial center than the fame of the 5-cent Highland Lassie, manufactured by this celebrated company. Once tried, it is sure to become the companion of all who can distinguish a first class article.

A bottle of Angostura Bitters to flavor your lemonade or any other cold drink will keep you free from Dyspepsia, Colic Diarrhea and all diseases originating from the digestive organs. Be sure to get the genuine Angostura, manufactured by Dr. J. G. B. Siegert & Sons.

In a letter from one of the missionaries in the New Hebrides the writer states that the islanders are killing and eating each other, and are threatening to kill all the white people. Rev. J. H. MacVicar, writing from Hunan, says: "Newcomers should not be expected to assume responsible work till five or six years after their arrival." The medical work in the Indian mission has been made a special feature, the following figures showing the work done: Attendance of outpatients, 18,884; in patients, 171; patients visited in their homes, 239. At this post, too, an active educational work is going on, and from these schools the future native laborers will come. The dispensary at Mhow, India, shows the following work for the year: Number of patients treated in dispensary, 1,116; visits to patients in their houses, 23; patients treated in villages, 52. In the Canadian Northwest a practical interest in mission work among the Indians has been manifested. The number of industrial schools is eight, and day schools four.

The summary of the home work, as reported to date, is as follows: Presbyterial societies, 25; new auxiliaries, 47; new mission bands, 31; auxiliaries that have failed to report or contribute, 17; mission bands that have failed to report or contribute, 22; auxiliaries that sent contributions but no report, 9; mission bands that sent contributions but no report, 10; total number auxiliaries reported working, 493; total number mission bands reported working, 193; auxiliary membership, 11,771; mission band membership, 5,255; scattered helpers, 91; total membership, 17,117; life members added during the year, 93; members of the general society, 3,124; number of auxiliaries that contributed to Northwest supplies, 290; number of mission bands contributed through their auxiliaries, those reporting direct, 57. The report of supplies to missions and publication report were satisfactory.

The treasurer's statement showed a total income of $39,141 14.

It was decided to recommend the organization as a whole to grant a sum not exceeding $5,000 towards clearing off the debt of the church's hospital at Indore. This institution was erected at a cost of $9,000. Of this $4,000 has already been subscribed by the ladies. The election of officers resulted as follows: President, Mrs. Ewart; first vice, Mrs. (Dr.) McLaren; second vice, Mrs. Kirkland, third vice, Mrs. G. H. Robinson; fourth vice, Mrs. Hamilton; foreign secretary, Mrs. Harvey; home secretary, Mrs. Shortreid; recording secretary, Mrs. Playfair; secretary of publication, Mrs. Telfer; secretary of supplies, Mrs. A. Jeffrey; corresponding secretary, Miss Haight.

It was decided to obtain if possible the approval of the Foreign Mission Board for the scheme of establishing in Toronto a training home for mission workers, and if such approval is obtained to proceed with the proposition.

ALL ALONG THE LINES.

Verdict Against N. Y. Central Employes—A Costly Crash—Efficiency of the Block Signal System.

The world's passenger cars can seat 1,500,000 people.

Thomas C. Shaughnessy, vice-president of the Canada Pacific Railway, has been naturalized as a British subject.

Canadian Pacific Railway traffic earnings from April 21 to April 30, 1892, were $483,000; same period in 1891, $472,000; increase in 1892, $11,000.

Mr. D. C. Brown, district passenger agent for the C. P. R. on the coast has been appointed agent for the company at Winnipeg at a salary of $6,000 a year.

Both in Austria and in Hungary a railroad passenger having any other baggage than that which he can carry in his hand is obliged to pay extra therefor.

The Erie people are so pleased with the workings of their new block signal system between Kent, Ohio, and Salamanca, N.Y., that they will at once extend the service to Chicago and Cleveland on the western lines.

The jury investigating the cause of the railroad accident at Churchville, on the New York Central, on Saturday night, whereby Engineer Jones, of Buffalo, came to his death, returned a verdict finding the accident due to the negligence of Conductor McElhenry in failing to properly flag the train following. Charles Smith, engineer of the second train, is also censured for fast running. The cost to the railway company will be $100,000. Two engines were destroyed and twenty freight cars demolished.

ACure for Constipation and Headache

Dr. Silas Lane, while in the Rocky Mountains, discovered a root that, when combined with other herbs, makes an easy and certain cure for constipation. It is in the form of dry roots and leaves, and is known as Lane's Family Medicine. It will cure sick headache in one night. For the blood, liver and kidneys, and for clearing up the complexion, it does wonders. Druggists sell it at 50 cents a package.

CAUSED BY A SPARK.

Destructive Fire at Waterloo, Que.—A Montreal Blaze.

WATERLOO, Que., May 4.—A disastrous fire originating from a spark from a locomotive on the Central Vermont Railway destroyed from sixteen to twenty buildings in the upper end of this town. Loss between $30,000 and $40,000.

MONTREAL, May 4.—A fire last night in Wallis' photograph studio, over Dobier's boot store on Sparks street, did considerable damage. Wallis' loss is $3,000, and Dobier's $8,000 to $10,000.

Forgiving is as easy as forgetting is difficult.

Industry, devotion and energy do not always count; even the burglar may exercise all these. The end in view is of considerable consequence.

LOCAL MARKET.

Reported by A. M. Hamilton & Son.
London, Thursday, May 5.

There was no change in the wheat situation to-day. The demand was good. Values fluctuated between $1 35 and $1 40, the latter price being less frequently paid than yesterday. Oats were scarce and the demand very good; prices advanced 2c per 100 lbs. Peas steady and no alteration in values occurred. The deliveries of eggs were good to-day, and prices steady and unchanged; 9c per dozen was the price paid in large quantities, while some small lots are reported as having been dealt at 9½c in trade. Butter was steady. Outside of the above we see little of any moment in to-day's market. The rain had a damaging effect as usual. Quotations:

Live Stock Markets.

TORONTO.

TORONTO, May 4.—Receipts were heavier by about one-half to-day at the Western cattle market than they were on Friday on account of the large arrivals of cattle for export to Britain. There were 62 carloads on sale.

Cattle—A few extra fancy choice exporters brought 5c per lb and a $5 premium, but most of the fancy stuff sold for 5c or under. The range was from 4c to 4½c up to 4¾c per lb for choice shippers. Butchers' cattle dragged somewhat, and the highest price paid for choice grades was 4½c per lb, only a few odd lots going at that. Bulls sold at $3 to $4 25 to $4 30 per cwt for exporters. There were about 25 milch cows and 30 springers on offer. Some backward springers for export brought 4½c per lb, and a few were taken by local operators at 4½c and a fraction over. Those selling per head brought from $40 to $59. Milch cows moved with a slight drag at from $25 per head for inferior up to $40 for choice.

Sheep and Lambs—Receipts light; trade only fairly active. Shorn sheep $1 to $1 25 per head less than those with the wool on. Choice yearlings, $6 to $7 per head, a good many going at $6 50; by the cwt they fetch from $5 50 to $6 50. Wooled sheep $3 75 to $4 75 per cwt, with a slow demand. Spring lambs firm at $4 50 to $5 apiece. Dealers are beginning to look around for export muttons, but on account of the indecision of the steamship companies as to freight charges there is an uncertain tone to the trade.

Hogs—Good straight fat hogs brought $5 50 to $5 60 per cwt, weighed off cars. Stores sold well, some being taken for British Columbia at from $4 75 to $5 per cwt. Too many light rough hogs offer. There is practically no demand for such stuff, but heavy rough hogs find sale at firm figures.

Calves — The quality of the offerings was mediocre, sales being made down to as low as $3 for poor stuff. The price range was from $4 50 to $6 50 generally.

EAST BUFFALO.

EAST BUFFALO, N. Y., May 4—Cattle—One car of fresh stock and a few ordered lots for city butchers' made up to-day's trade; market fairly steady.

Sheep and Lambs—Receipts about 25 cars fresh and 5 cars held over; market slow and easy for sheep, but about all were sold; choice wool lambs bring $7 70; good to best clipped, $6 25 to $6 65; clipped sheep of good to best quality, $4 75 to $5 25; Eastern reports were fair for lambs and none too good for sheep. Wool sheep are about done.

Hogs—Market steady; better inquiry; the 15 cars on sale about all changed hands. Best Yorkers, packers and heavy weights sold at $4 75; light Yorkers and pigs, $4 70; pigs, $4 65 to $4 70; roughs, $4 to $4 20; stags, $3 to $3 25.

MONTREAL.

MONTREAL, Q., May 4.—Cattle—Best beeves sold at about 5c per lb, pretty good stock from 4c to 4½c do; bulls at from 3¼c to 4c do, and lean beasts at from 3c to 3½c per lb; milkmen's strippers, $30 to $35 each, or about 3½c per lb; best calves, $6 to $8 each; common veals, $1 50 to $4 each. Sheep with their wool on sold at about 5c per lb, and shorn sheep at 4c to 4½c do. Lambs, $2 50 to $4 50 each. Fat hogs, 5¾c per lb.

BRITISH CATTLE MARKETS.

John Swan & Sons, Edinburgh, in their weekly report of April 23, say: Though the numbers of home-fed on offer in Edinburgh and Glasgow have been lighter, supplies at the local sales throughout the country have been fairly large. Trade has not been quite so good, in some cases materially worse. The compulsory slaughter of cattle in Edinburgh within four days is against the trade in this market. English buyers being precluded from buying here find their way to Perth and other markets from which they can move stock without restriction. English markets have been worse, the colliery strikes seriously affecting the trade there. The trade for cows and bulls, though slightly better, is very unsatisfactory. States cattle have not been so plentiful, and they have met a better trade, nearly all the principal buyers from Glasgow and a wide area all round finding their way to Yorkhill. There have been fairly large supplies of sheep on offer. The best classes made nearly last week's prices, but secondary were cheaper. Fat lambs are coming to hand more plentifully, but a considerable number of them are being too soon drawn. For the best qualities a good demand is experienced; all others only meet a moderate trade. Best calves continue to sell well; secondary cheaper. Pigs make full prices. Best beef, 7s 9d; exceptional, 8s; secondary, 7s; cows and bulls, 5s 6d to 6s 2d per stone. Best mutton, 8½d to 8¾d; secondary, 7½d to 7¾d per lb.

Butter—Eighteen packages of creamery butter at 19c to 21c. The market was fairly active for the season of the year.

LITTLE FALLS, N.Y., May 3.—Four hundred and seventy boxes cheese sold at 9¼c, 105 boxes at 9½c, 143 boxes at 9c, 268 boxes on commission, 150 boxes dairy on commission.

SAVED THE MONEY.

Mayor Spencer and the Council and Board of Trade delegation who accompanied him to Ottawa to forward the city's interests in the London and Port Stanley Railway Bill, have more than one reason for felicitation on the outcome of their labors. The aldermanic deputation were given authority, at a special meeting of the City Council, to buy out the claims of St. Thomas, amounting to $41,000, if they found it necessary to do so in order to secure the legislation desired by London. By energetic action, however, the deputation got the ear of the parliamentary committee, and had their bill passed without the expenditure of the money.

LONDON AND ENVIRONS.

—Suppose they should appoint Judge Elliot, in whom there were some people in this country wicked enough not to have confidence.—[Mr. Fraser, M. P. for Guysboro, on the proposal to appoint a "royal commissioner" to investigate the Caron scandal.

—This city is to be the next meeting place of the Presbyterian Women's Foreign Missionary Society (Western division), the meeting to take place on the Wednesday and Thursday of the third week in April next. Brockville was also recommended, but was outvoted in the meeting just closed at Toronto.

—Thos. Pearce, of Mount Brydges, lost a valuable horse on Monday morning. Some person left the gate open leading across the track. The horse wandered down the railroad for a short distance. The early morning express coming along so frightened the animal that it attempted to run from one side to the other and was struck and instantly killed.

—The grand jury at the Middlesex Assizes this afternoon brought in a true bill for the murder of the old man Richard Upton against John Fitzpatrick and Wm. Wilson.

—Lieut.-Col. Smith has written to the city asking if the latter is prepared to undertake the expenditure necessary to provide accommodation for the militia corps to be trained at the annual camp here next month. The city clerk has replied in the affirmative. The average expense has hitherto been about $350, caused principally by the laying of water pipes.

Intending candidates should notify the city or county inspector, who will give them the necessary forms of application, which should be filled up and returned to him not later than May 24.

A Righteous Complaint.

A Parent sends the following complaint for publication: "Askin Street School was dismissed to-day during the heavy rainstorm, and children were compelled to expose themselves to the wet weather. My little girl, though she had sense enough to protest, was compelled to line up and go out with the other unfortunates with the result that she was thoroughly soaked when she got home. I do not infer that my children are any better than any of the others, but why should such a rule be applied to any child? Then to make matters worse, many of the little ones have to go a block or more out of their way, on account of the boys and girls being compelled to use separate gates. Thus, a girl living on Becher street is forced to go out by a gate on the south of the school and walk all the way back to the street she lives on. Nice business on a wet day like to-day. Do such school laws exist? or is it a nonsensical whim of the teachers?"

DOMINION PARLIAMENT.

[Special to the ADVERTISER.]

OTTAWA, May 5.—The debate on the Caron charges concluded at 3:15 this morning without any speeches being made from the Government to Sir R. Cartwright's sub-amendment. Mr. Davies and Mr. Casey were the last speakers. The Government had its following well in hand, and their full majority was reached. The vote was on Sir Richard's sub-amendment, 63 yeas to 123 nays. The Government's amendment was then passed by a vote of 125 to 63, it being agreed the names of the commission were to be submitted to the House for approval. The House adjourned at 3:35 a.m.

THE LONDON PRESBYTERY

Accepts the Resignation of Rev. Mr. Simpson—He Adheres to His Resolution to Leave.

The London Presbytery held a special meeting Tuesday to consider the resignation of Rev. Mr. Simpson, of Melbourne. The unanimous resolutions of the congregation, expressive of the cordial relations between pastor and people, of the esteem in which he was held and the regret felt at his step were submitted. Messrs. Alexander Campbell and Lockwood, of Melbourne, and Graham, Fletcher, Campbell and Murray, of Riverside, represented large deputations from the two parts of the congregation. Mr. Simpson declined to reconsider his resignation. He desired to return to the Maritime Provinces where his family connections were and was strengthened in that wish by the annoyance he had experienced at the hands of one or two recalcitrant parishioners. The following resolution was passed by the Presbytery: "Having heard the delegates, and also Mr. Simpson the Presbytery record with great pleasure the testimony borne by the delegates from both congregations to the material progress the congregations have made during Mr. Simpson's pastorate, to the cordial relations existing between the two sister congregations, and among the people themselves, regret that Mr. Simpson has had occasion to feel constrained to press his resignation, and in accepting the same express sympathy with the congregation in their present circumstances, assure them of all help and encouragement in the Lord; and hope that the great Head of the church will speedily raise up for them a suitable pastor. The Presbytery, with deep regret, ordered that the pastoral tie be dissolved on the 29th day of May, that the pulpit be declared vacant on that day by Rev. A. Henderson, and that he act as interim moderator of session thereafter, with power to moderate on a call before next regular meeting of Presbytery, if necessary." The meeting was then adjourned.

TERRIBLE RAILWAY DISASTER.

A Vestibule Train Crashes Through a Bridge.

Several Lives Reported Lost in the Wreck or by Drowning.

FORT MADISON, Ia., May 5.—A disastrous accident has occurred on the Atchison, Topera and Santa Fe Railroad, 25 miles west of here. The vestibule train has gone through a bridge, probably through the weakening of the foundations by the recent rains. Thirty-five persons are reported to have lost their lives in the wreck or by drowning in the swollen stream.

LATER.

CHICAGO, Ill., May 5.—Meagre details have been received by Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe Railroad officials of a horrible wreck at Medill, Mo. The Chicago limited express direct from the coast and San Francisco, was thrown from a bridge near that point at 8 o'clock this morning. So far as known all the cars of the magnificent train, loaded as they were with transcontinental passengers eastward bound, were buried in the waters of a flooded ravine. It is already known that many were crushed and drowned and more injured.

The best information so far obtained is that 7 persons were killed outright and 23 injured. None of the names of the killed or injured have yet been obtained. Medill is a small town about 25 miles beyond the Mississippi, within a few miles of the place in a deep ravine, usually dry. It is spanned by a 50-foot arch, which it is supposed the heavy rains weakened and finally displaced. The wrecked train was due in this city this evening. Being an overland and limited train, it is usually well-filled with the best class of passengers. All the Santa Fe wires are down. The engineer and fireman were among the killed.

The Little Minister

By J. M. Barrie.

AUTHOR OF "WINDOW IN THRUMS," "WHEN A MAN'S SINGLE," "MY LADY NICOTINE," ETC.

"Hae you heard o' Mr. Dishart? He'll ever daur show face in Thrums again."

Without giving her a word I hastened to its Tenements.

"The leddy's no here," Sam'l Farquharson told me, "and Tammas is back at the manse again trying to force his way in."

From Sam'l, too, I turned, with no more than a groan, but he cried after me, "Perdition on the man that has played that leddy false."

Had Margaret been at her window she must have seen me, so recklessly did I hurry up the minister's road, with nothing in me but a passion to take Whamond by the throat. He was not in the garden. The kitchen door was open. Jean was standing at it with her apron to her eyes.

"Tammas Whamond?" I demanded, and my face completed the question.

"You're ower late," she wailed. "He's wi' her. Oh, dominie, whaur's the minister?"

"You base woman!" I cried, "why did you unbar the door?"

"It was the mistress," she answered. "She heard him shaking it, and I had to tell her wha it was. Dominie, it's a' my wite! He tried to get in last nicht, and roared threats through the door, and after he had gane awa she speired wha I had been speaking to. I had to tell her, but I said he had come to let her ken that the minister was taking shelter frae the rain in a farm-house whaur he had been called to pray wi' a dying man. Ay, I said he was to bide there till the flood gaed doon, and that's how she has been easy a' day. I acted for the best, but I'm sair punished now, for when she heard Tammas at the door twa or three minutes syne she ordered me to let him in so that she could thank him for bringing the news last nicht despite the rain. They're in the parlor. Oh, dominie, gang in and stop his mouth."

This was hard. I dared not go to the parlor. Margaret might have died at sight of me. I turned my face from Jean.

"Jean," said some one, entering the kitchen, "why did you——"

She stopped, and that was what turned me around. As she spoke I thought it was the young lady. When I looked I saw it was Babbie, though no longer in a gypsy's dress. Then I knew that the young lady and Babbie were one.

CHAPTER XXXIX.

How had the Egyptian been spirited here from Spittal? I did not ask the question. To interest myself in Babbie at that dire hour of Margaret's life would have been as impossible to me as to sit down to a book. To others, however, it is only an old woman on whom the parlor door of the manse was closed, only a garrulous dominie that is in pain outside it. Your eyes are on the young wife.

When Babbie was plucked on the hill she thought as little as Gavin that her captor was Rob Dow. Close as he was to her he was unrecognizable until she screamed the second time, when he pressed her to the ground and tied his neckerchief over her mouth. Then, in the moment that power of utterance was taken from her, she saw the face that startled her at Nanny's window. Half carried, she was borne forward rapidly until someone seemed to rise out of the broom and strike them both. They had only run against the doctor's trap, and huddling her into it, Dow jumped up beside her. He tied her hands together with cord. For a time the horse feared the darkness in front more than the lash behind, but when the rains became terrific it rushed ahead wildly, probably with its eyes shut.

In three minutes Babbie went through all the degrees of fear. In the first she thought Lord Rintoul had kidnapped her, but no sooner had her captor resolved himself into Dow, drunk with the events of the day and night, than in the earl's hands would have lain safety. Next, Dow was forgotten in the dread of a sudden death which he must share, and lastly, the rain seemed to be driving all other horrors back, that it might have her for its own. Her perils increased to the unbearable as quickly as an iron in the fire passes through the various stages between warmth and white heat. Then she had to do something, and as she could not cry out she flung herself from the dog-cart. She fell heavily in Caddam wood, but the rain would not let her lie there stunned. It beat her back to consciousness, and she sat up on her knees and listened breathlessly, staring in the direction the trap had taken, as if her eyes could help her ears.

All night, I have said, the rain poured, but those charges only rode down the deluge at intervals, as now and again one wave greater than the others stalks over the sea. In the first lull it appeared to Babbie that the storm had swept by, leaving her to Dow. Now she heard the rubbing of the branches and felt the torn leaves falling on her gown. She rose to feel her way out of the wood with her bound hands, then sank in terror, for some one had called her name. Next moment she was up again, for the voice was Gavin's, who was hurrying after her, as he thought down Windygboul. He was no further away than a whisper might have carried on a still night, but she dared not pursue him, for already Dow was coming back. She could not see him, but she heard the horse whinno and the rocking of the dog-cart. Dow was now at the brute's head, and probably it tried to bite him for he struck it, crying:

"Would you? Stand still till I find her. I heard her move this minute."

Babbie crouched upon a big stone, and sat motionless while he groped for her. She heard him feeling for her, first with his feet and then with his hands, and wearing when his head struck against a tree.

"I ken you're within hearing," he muttered, "and I'll hae you yet. I have a gully-knife in my hand. Listen!"

He sevord a whin stalk with the knife, and Babbie seemed to see the gleam of the blade.

"What do I mean by wanting to kill you?" he said, as if she had asked the question. "Do you no ken wha said to me 'Kill this woman'? It was the Lord. 'I winna kill her,' I said, 'but I'll cart her out o' the country.' 'Kill her,' says He; 'why encumbereth she the ground?'"

He resumed his search, but with new tactics. "I see you now," he would cry, and rush forward, perhaps to within a yard of her. Then she must have screamed had she had the power. When he tied that neckerchief round her mouth he may have saved her life.

Then came the second hurricane of rain, so appalling that had Babbie's hands been free she would have pressed them to her ears. For a full minute she forgot Dow's presence. A living thing touched her face. The horse had found her. She drew back, its frightened head pressed heavily on her shoulder. She rose and tried to steal away, but the brute followed, and as the rain suddenly exhausted itself she heard the dragging of the dog-cart. She had to halt.

Again she heard Dow's voice. Perhaps he had been speaking throughout the roar of the rain. He groped for the horse's head, and presently his hand touched Babbie's dress, then recoiled from it, so had he found her. No sound escaped him, and she was beginning to think it possible that he had mistaken her for a bush, when his hand went over her face. He was making sure of his discovery.

"The Lord has delivered you into my hands!" he said in a low voice, with some awe in it. Then he pulled her to the ground and sitting down beside her, rocked himself backwards and forwards, his hands round his knees. She would have bartered the world for power to speak to him.

"He wouldna hear o' my just carting you to some other country side," he said confidentially. "'The devil would just blaw her back again,' says He, 'therefore kill her,' I says, 'they'll hang me.' 'You can hang yoursel',' says He. 'What wi?' I spiers. 'With the reins o' the dog-cart,' says He. 'They would break,' says I. "Weel, well,' says He, 'though they do hang you, nobody'll miss you.' 'That's true,' says I, 'and you are a just God.'"

He stood up and confronted her.

"Prisoner at the bar," he said, "hae ye onything to say why sentence of death shouldna be pronounced against you? She doesna answer. She kens death is her desserts."

By this time he had forgotten probably why his victim was dumb.

"Prisoner at the bar, hand back to me the soul o' Gavin Dishart. You winna? Did the devil, your master, summon you to him and say, 'Either that noble man or me maun leave Thrums?' He did. And did you or did you no drag that minister, when under your spell, to the hill, and there marry him ower the tongs? You did. Witnesses, Rob Dow and Tammas Whamond."

She was moving from him on her knees, meaning when out of arm's reach to make a dash for life.

"Sit down," he grumbled, "or how can you expect a fair trial? Prisoner at the bar, you have been found guilty of witchcraft."

For the first time his voice faltered.

"That's the difficulty, for witches canna die, except by burning, or drowning. There's no blood in you for my knife, and your neck wouldna twist. Your master has brocht the rain to put out a' the fires, and we'll hae to wait till it runs into a pool deep enough to drown you."

A Pleasant Herb Drink.

The best cure we know of for Constipation and Headache is the pleasant herb drink called Lane's Family Medicine. It is said to be Oregon grape root, combined with simple herbs and is made for use by pouring boiling water onto the dried roots and herbs. It is remarkably efficacious in all blood disorders, and is now the sovereign remedy with ladies for clearing up the complexion. Druggists sell the packages at 50c and $1. ywt

A man's wife should always be the same, especially to her husband; but if she is weak and nervous, and uses Carter's Iron Pills, she cannot be, for they will make her "feel like a different person," at least so they all say, and their husbands say so, too.

Carter's Little Liver Pills must not be confounded with common Cathartic or Purgative Pills, as they are extremely unlike them in every respect. One trial will prove their superiority.

LONDON AND ENVIRONS.

Sweet May, in pity tell us!

—Mrs. J. C. Nation, of Morpeth, has decided to reside with her daughter, Mrs. Rodgers, of London, in the future.

—J. W. Jones, auctioneer, offered for sale yesterday the real estate of Mrs. Ralph Hodgins. It was withdrawn at $4,100.

—Mr. J. Frank Rupert, traveler for R. C. Macfie & Co., London, is at the Hotel Vancouver.—[Vancouver, B. C., Telegram.

—Mrs. R. M. Graham, wife of Principal Graham, has passed the matriculation examination for the faculty of medicine in the Western University. She will enter the college for study in October.

—Mrs. J. Brooks, of the Hamilton road, lost a purse containing between $75 and $100 the other day. She laid the pocket-book on a store counter, forgot it when going out and on returning a moment later it was gone.

—Professor James H. Bowman gave a very instructive and entertaining lecture on Combustion, accompanied by appropriate chemical experiments, in the North Branch Presbyterian Sabbath school building, Oxford street, last night.

—The remainder of the members of the Ottawa deputation returned home last night, Aldermen Leonard and Yates having gone to Montreal, and Messrs. Taylor and Nelles having broken the long journey by a short stay in Toronto. They are naturally satisfied with the success of the project they went to support. The Minister of Militia was seen regarding the proposed new drill shed. "Consideration" was promised.

—At the last regular meeting of the Epworth League of the King Street Methodist Church, a new game, the "Epworth Wheel of Knowledge," was introduced, affording a great deal of pleasure and interest to those present. A quartet was rendered by Misses Miller and Reason, and Messrs. Rossiter and Goodge. The president, Mr. A. George, gave an address, and the meeting closed with the usual benediction. There was a large attendance, and all enjoyed a very social evening, and felt that it was good to be there.

—A correspondent in the Niagara Peninsula fruit growing region writes: "It has been discovered that the past winter has been unusually severe on the fruit trees in this section, especially the plum and pear trees, in many instances all of last season's growth being frozen back. In the small fruits the red raspberries seem to be equally unfortunate. The strawberry plants look all right. Apple orchards show indications of a full bloom, so also do cherries and older plum trees. It is unsafe to predict as regards peaches yet."

The Dehorning Commission.

The dehorning question has been lent special interest by the recent developments in this vicinity. The commission appointed by the Ontario Government to inquire into and report upon the practice will hold meetings in Tilsonburg, Brownsville and Harrietsville commencing Tuesday, May 10. Parties holding pronounced opinions on the matter will be given an opportunity of appearing before the commission, of which Hon. Charles Drury is president and J. J. Kelso secretary.

Fine Art Collection.

Mr. Jones on Tuesday opened the sale of a collection of pictures that might worthily be presented before the most critical of art connoisseurs. It includes some of the choicest pictures yet presented in this city, among them being several fine examples of A. Hulk, G. Champion, A. De Leuw, Angeloy, Alizoni, Koeck-Koeck and other eminent masters, whose works are seen in London for the first time on this occasion. It will probably be long before an equally excellent exhibit of true art works will be seen here, this being Mr. Dillon's farewell visit, as he is about leaving Canada on an early date. The auction sale still continues.

The Manager's Benefit.

Ladies who desire to see the modern husband should attend the Grand to-morrow evening. "A Modern Husband," as portrayed by that clever author, Prof. Hennequin, is a very funny character and decidedly exaggerated. He is first represented as a man of science, whose whole mind and being is absorbed in abstruse subjects, chiefly in the invention of a powerful explosive. He succeeds, makes his fortune, and becomes suddenly transformed into a gay man of the world. These extremes afford scope for an unlimited amount of humor. This farcical comedy is interpreted by a first-class company, and the fact that the occasion is the annual benefit to the local management should pack the house.

Official Visit to St. George's Lodge.

District Deputy Grand Master of London District, No. 3, R. Wor. Bro. Thomas E. Robson, of Ilderton, paid an official visit to St. George's Lodge, No. 42, A. F. and A. M., last night, and was received with the grand honors. Among other visitors were: W. Bros. Hess (St. Thomas), John Smith, A. B. Greer, A. E. Cooper, W. J. Tisdale (Arkona), A. G. McWhinney, John Callard, W. J. McMillan, O. J. Bridle, W. Skinner, W. Thornton and T. R. Parker. The third degree was exemplified by Wor. Master T. H. Luscombe. Fifty-five of the brethren afterwards sat down to a splendid spread in the banquetting hall, the worshipful master at the head of the table. Short addresses were made by the D. D. G. M. and others.

Mills—Sage.

There was an interesting wedding at 462 Maitland street last evening. Miss Annabel Sage, daughter of Mr. Willard Sage, was married to Mr. Nathaniel Mills, accountant in the Dominion Savings and Investment Society and nephew of Hon. David Mills. The bride was beautifully attired in a Henrietta dress with cream trimmings, and wore roses and orange blossoms in her hair. She was assisted by Miss Laura Mills, of Palmyra, sister of the groom. Miss Mills was also prettily costumed in cream Henrietta with silk trimmings and carried pink roses. The groom was supported by Mr. Byron Brown, of this city. Rev. Ira Smith performed the ceremony. About 100 guests were present from the city, Stayner, Palmyra and other places, and the esteem in which the young couple are held was manifested by the large number of charming gifts they received. A pleasant time was spent until the Erie flyer carried Mr. and Mrs. Mills east on their honeymoon trip. They departed amid the congratulations of a delegation of young friends assembled at the station to see them off. Mr. and Mrs. Mills will reside in the city.

A Maritime Province View of It.

The Ottawa correspondent of the St. John (N. B.) Sun says: Mr. Lister got the floor and brought up the long-delayed, though oft-expected matter, the impeachment of Judge Elliot. He made an able and eloquent speech, reviewing the whole case, and asked the House to refer the charge to a commission to investigate. Mr. Lister sits directly across the floor from the Hon. Mr. Carling, who holds the seat for London, and he addressed his remarks to that gentleman, eyeing him all the time. Mr. Carling had to maintain his seat, but his discomfort was very evident. Under the scathing criticism of Mr. Edgar he winced and fidgeted uneasily in his seat. For the greater portion of the time he kept his eyes on his desk and several times tried to read a blue book, but it was evident that he could not concentrate his thoughts on it. His face was flushed and his whole demeanor one of great discomfort. Once or twice he tried to speak to a passing member, but even then he was ill at ease and his colleagues did not stay long with him. Mr. Lister in making his charges, said he took all responsibility and was prepared to prove that the judge had acted in a most partisan manner, and had written editorial and other articles in the London Free Press against the Liberals. In closing he charged that Mr. Carling occupied the seat which rightfully belonged to Mr. Hyman, by virtue of Judge Elliot and by virtue of bad votes. He charged that the Conservatives of London knew beforehand what the legal decision of Judge Elliot would be, and said if these charges were true the judge had degraded his high position and forever destroyed his usefulness.

TORONTO TOPICS.

Cutting Down Civic Estimates—J. Ross Robertson's Successful Plea for the Children's Hospital.

TORONTO, May 4.—The sub-committee on the reduction of the civic estimates met this morning and pruned them down to such a point that the general committee may be able to strike a rate of 14½ mills. In the proposed expenditure on parks a saving of $86,000 was made. The net reduction was $208,804.

The list of liquor licenses issued for the year shows only one new license. The Ontario Government will shortly issue a circular requiring brewers to take out brewers' licenses under Government authority.

Before the Executive Committee of the City Council to-day, J. Ross Robertson made a powerful and successful appeal for a $5,000 grant to the Hospital for Sick Children, and in so doing struck a sympathetic chord in the heart of Ald. Hallam, who pulled a blank check book out of his pocket and filled out a check for $1,000 and handed it to Mr. Robertson for the hospital.

At the first meeting of the Board of Directors of the North American Life Assurance Company since the death of its much-esteemed president, the Hon. Alex. Mackenzie, held at the company's head office here to-day, a resolution expressing the company's sense of the irreparable loss it has sustained was passed.

The action brought by the city of Toronto to restrain the Ontario and Quebec Railway from removing its shops to Toronto Junction was argued in Chancery sitting Wednesday. Judgment was reserved. Damages asked in case of removal are $500,000.

It is the king of liver invigorators and blood-purifiers, and a powerful tonic, building up the debilitated patient to perfect health. Contains no alcohol.

This Syrup is pleasant to the taste, and unsurpassed for relieving, healing and curing all affections of the throat and lungs, coughs, colds, bronchitis' etc.

An inventive genius has patented a combination rifle and shovel for soldiers in war times.

A PHYSICIAN'S OPINION OF DISEASE.
Over-work less injurious than over-worry. A leading physician says: "The over-working and worrying of brain and mind and loss of rest cause most of the nervous ailments and many other diseases that we have to combat. It is making terrible havoc in the rank and file of our society, and it works in such a way that few people properly realize their great danger, and its victims are among our brightest and best people, selected from the richest to the poorest. Daily I meet with men and women suffering from nervous prostration, headache, insomnia—all the result of improper living and dieting." This honorable physician's opinion agrees with hundreds of our English, Canadian and American practitioners' opinions. These dreadful causes and ravages are increasing, as seen by the hundreds of cases, many of which lead to insanity and death. But we are glad to know that with the increase of the calamities modern science has made even more rapid strides, and the old medicines are being quickly replaced by new and more scientific remedial agents, whose work is to thoroughly purify the system, not by purging, but by a more modern and reliable action, taking hold of the debilitated system and permanently uplifting it. The great and wonderful modern agent for this is known as "Williams' Royal Crown Remedy." It will truly be the wonder of the twentieth century. w

EPISCOPALIAN METHODISTS.

The M. E. Conference at Omaha—A Roseate Picture.

OMAHA, Neb., May 4.—Bishop Warren, of Denver, presided at this morning's session of the Methodist Episcopal Conference. The past quadrennium, Bishop Foster's report states, has been a prosperous one for the church. There have been no deaths. Fifty assignments of ministers had been made with but little dissatisfaction.

The book concerns of the church are the largest in the world. There have been no dissensions in the church, and there is more intelligence and less bigotry in the pulpit. The membership during the past four years has grown rapidly, and now numbers 2,292,694 communicants. Four hundred and forty-two thousand souls have been added to the church during the four years. Contributions to all missionary societies have increased $334,134.

The Epworth League received great praise as a mediator between the Sunday school and church. It has in the three years sprung up from naught to 8,000 chapters with 500,000 members. The National University at Washington is announced as a certainty and liberal endowments asked $4,000,000, being necessary for its equipment.

has two pipes, one covering the valve rod (dry pipe) and the one conveying the water to the ground (wet pipe). The rod in this hydrant is actuated by a brass screw and handle above, and raising plunger the smallest fraction of an inch, closes waste before any water can enter discharge pipe. With the valve open we have the full and unobstructed flow of water through the hydrant which can well be compared to a straight way valve or round-way cock. Closing the valve empties all water from wet pipe through dry hole. To repair hydrant or washer remove top cap or plate and withdraw plunger valve. It can be readily repaired without digging up.
