Father Killed, Son Hurt When Train Crashes Into Auto

ONE KILLED WHEN AUTO HIT BY TRAIN NEAR CLINTON

Thomas Churchill, Prominent Pioneer Farmer, Aged 82, Meets Instant Death.

SON IN HOSPITAL
Failure To Hear Approach of Train Is Believed Due to Wind.

Special to The Advertiser by a Staff Correspondent.

Clinton, May 8.—Thomas Churchill, aged 82, was instantly killed and his son, William, aged 49, was seriously injured when their auto was struck by a southbound C. N. R. way freight this morning at 9:35, two miles north of Clinton Junction.

The scene of the fatality is on a sideroad on the boundary between Hullett and Goddard, and the approach to the tracks is clear.

The father and son had left their farm on the 16th concession, Goddard township, to drive to Clinton, and after turning off "Crooks" sideroad to the road crossing the tracks, were heading in the path of the approaching train.

Both men were seated in the front seat, while the younger Churchill was driving, and as they neared the crossing, section men, working on the tracks, claim to have heard the train whistle repeatedly, and noticing the car fail to stop, they began blowing its way through the car, reducing it to a matchwood.

Landed on Fences.
The train was traveling at a fairly fast speed, and struck the car with such force that the motor landed on a fence 25 feet away, and being thrown to a stop as quickly as possible, the train crew found the body of Thomas Churchill against a post, a considerable distance down the track, with life extinct.

Midst a pile of wreckage, they found William Churchill, bleeding profusely, and in an unconscious state. After working for several minutes, they extricated his body and placed him on the train, which pushed back to Clinton, where he was removed to the hospital.

Dr. Shaw, coroner at Clinton, was hurriedly summoned, and after viewing the remains of Thomas Churchill, decided to hold an inquest.

Members of the train crew and the men who were working in the vicinity of the accident, are being questioned to explain how the warning sounded by the train was ignored. While it is believed that the train crew was at fault, it is not yet known.

ENTRIES BEING RECEIVED IN HOG FEEDING CONTEST

Jack Andrews, B.S.A. represented the Middlesex Branch of the Department of Agriculture at the Junior Farmers' meeting held in Belmont last night. The various agriculture competitions were talked over, and three entries were secured for the county hog-feeding competition. The prize is a two-weeks' course next winter at the O. A. C. in stock and seed judging, with all expenses paid.

THEY PLANNED THE UNIVERSITY YEAR BOOK.
The Year Book of the University of Western Ontario has been issued, and here are the two young men chiefly responsible for its production. On the right is Cecil L. Snyder, 25, editor-in-chief of the Year Book, and on the left is Leslie R. Grty, business manager. The comprehensive and attractive nature of the book reflects great credit on its producers, and is fresh indication of the degree to which the university has developed.

WELLAND MURDERER CONFESSES TO CRIME

Wife Deserter Caught At Last
Canadian Press Despatch.
Montreal, May 8.—Nemesio overtook John Broadley, alias Brady, though it took twenty years to a day to do so. On May 10, 1904, he badge good-bye to his wife and six-year-old boy at Acerrington, Lancashire, and sailed for Canada. His wife and child were to follow him as soon as he had found a position, but no news ever came from him and the wife had to work to support herself and bring up the boy. Two months ago Broadley was traced in this city and yesterday he appeared in police court here and was sentenced to a year in jail with hard labor for wife desertion.

GRAVELLING IN COUNTY NOW BEING PUSHED

Quarters For County Workmen Established at Coldstream Pit.
Gravelling operations on county roads in the townships of Metcalfe, Lobo, Carleton Place and the town of Stratford are being rushed along by the county gang, with headquarters at the Coldstream pit. A portable house has been erected on the property and houses the four drivers of the huge county trucks, the pit overseer and the cook, County Engineer Charles Talbot states.

NEWLY FORMED CLUB HAS SEVENTEEN MEMBERS

R. A. Finn, of the department of agriculture, Middlesex branch, reports 17 members in the recently formed "hog club" of Lobo Township. Mr. Finn is securing pigs six weeks' old, of the bacon type, for the various boy and girl contestants whose hogs will be shown at the school fairs, and later on shipped to Toronto to compete with hogs raised in other counties.

KING WILL TESTIFY AT BANK PROBE TOMORROW

Dominion's Premier Will Tell of Efforts To Save the Institution.

WHITE TO APPEAR
Will Be Given Chance To Explain $1,500 Fee From Home Bank.

Canadian Press Despatch.

Ottawa, May 8.—Premier MacKenzie King will appear before the Home Bank commission tomorrow morning to tell of efforts made by the government to save the bank just before the collapse of the institution. The prime minister communicated with government counsel during this morning's brief sitting, and said he would attend and make a statement tomorrow.

After tomorrow's sitting, there will be an adjournment, probably until the first of the inquiry will be heard. Sir Thomas White will be given an opportunity to argue his case and also to explain the payment to him of $1,500 by the bank just prior to its failure.

The investigation will, of course, continue after the conclusion of the first phase, which concerns merely the claims of the depositors against the government.

This morning's sitting lasted only half an hour.
A letter from E. H. Sutton, M.B. of Port Credit, Ont., stating that M. J. Haney former president of the Home Bank was ill and could not be allowed to go out for several months, was read at the opening of the sitting. The letter stated that Mr. Haney was suffering from inflammation of the right sciatic nerve.

E. J. Roberts, secretary of the finance department, was recalled to the stand to give information regarding the return of Sir Thomas White's private file of letters on the bank. He said he had returned the file on May 7, 1924, and he thought it his duty to do so.

Archdeacon Perry and Captain Johnson of the Salvation Army were with the doomed man from midnight to the hour of execution. The confession was made to two spiritual advisers, after Campbell had stoically maintained his innocence and again repudiated the confession he had signed before Chief Jones of Crowland last January. It was during the singing of "Jesus, Lover of My Soul" by the clergyman and Salvation Army officer that Campbell broke down and admitted his guilt, signing a second confession, warning young men and women against strong drink and immorality, declaring that to have been the cause of his downfall. "I also warn you all to attend some place of worship," continues the confession. "Had I done so I would have had sufficient light to guide me, avoid all bad habits, and live each day as if it were the last."

After the confession Campbell partly drew the curtain on his relatives. He stated that his father died when he was a child, and he was given over to a home, coming to this country with some other children twenty years ago. He believes that his mother and three sisters, Elsie, Maud and Lily, are still alive in England, although he has not heard from them in some time. He repeatedly cried for his mother, whom he said he had intended to bring out to this country this year, but was unable to locate her.

Elaborate Plans Made To Suicide

Frenchman Buys Expensive Coffin Before Ending Life.
Associated Press Despatch.
Bernay, France, May 8.—Elaborate preparations for his final rest were made by Ernest Deshayes, a laborer, before taking his life here recently. First he invested all his savings in a handsome oak coffin. When it was delivered he placed in it a soft pillow, a hot water bottle and a flask of old brandy. Then, dressing himself in his best, he hanged himself, choosing for the purpose a peach tree in full bloom.

SASKATCHEWAN SWEEP BY TERRIFIC BLIZZARD

Seeding Operations at Complete Standstill in Southern Part of Province.
Canadian Press Despatch.
Moose Jaw, Sask., May 8.—Records of freak weather in different seasons of the year are numerous in Saskatchewan, but none approach the blizzard which raged over a large portion of Southwest Saskatchewan Sunday night and Monday. Snow in several places was reported to a depth of over ten inches, telephones and telegraph service interrupted and seeding operations at a standstill. In the Mossbank area and in the south and west not only did the storm completely tie up spring farming operations, but it blocked traffic between towns for automobiles. Snow fell to a depth of 18 inches in some sections. Mossbank is completely cut off from telephone and telegraphic communication with nearby towns and villages, repairs to the line with Moose Jaw affording the only liaison at present with the outside world.

WILLIAM H. SOUTHAM IS SERIOUSLY INJURED

Son of Ottawa Publisher Hurt in Motor Crash Near Oshawa.
Canadian Press Despatch.
Hamilton, May 8.—William Henry Cargill Southam, 22 years of age, son of Wilson N. Southam, of Ottawa, was probably fatally injured at 10 o'clock last night when a car he was driving crashed into a truck standing on the roadside at Dumbarton, twelve miles west of Oshawa. Mr. Southam was returning to Stanley Barracks, Toronto, where he was taking a course. He was taken to the hospital at Oshawa, where he is still unconscious. No hope is held out for his recovery.

HON. W. L. MACKENZIE KING, premier of Canada, who will appear tomorrow morning before the McKeown committee investigating the failure of the Home Bank.

CURRIE TO MEET OFFICIALS TODAY

Street Railway Price Expected To Be Given Out This Afternoon.
This is the day when the mayor promises to get "the low dollar" on the purchase price of the street railway from President Currie of Cleveland who has promised to meet the mayor in his office this afternoon to submit a price to the city.

In spite of the arrangement for the meeting, the mayor had not heard from Mr. Currie at 2 o'clock, and R. G. Ivey, vice-president of the railway, was in the same position. However, both felt assured that the negotiable for the railway would keep his appointment with the mayor, and the outcome of the meeting and the best offer that the company feels it can make will be known tonight.

After the meeting between the mayor and the president, there is a meeting between the special committee appointed to go into the question of the paving of the track allowance of the street railway with Mr. Currie. The members of this committee are the mayor and Aldermen Douglas and Greer. The much-discussed question of who shall do this paving will also find an answer today.

WORKMAN INJURED.
James Garside of Byron, a workman employed on the new West London Public School, fell 15 feet from a scaffold yesterday afternoon sustaining injuries to his back and leg. His condition is not regarded as serious.

RED DEER MINISTER SEES GREAT NATIONAL CHURCH

Rev. W. C. Brown Speaks in Opposition to Church Union Bill.
STATEMENT QUERIED
Declares Present Moderator Is Responsible for the Prediction.
Canadian Press Despatch.
Ottawa, May 8.—This is to be the beginning of a great national Protestant church, asserted Rev. W. C. Brown, of Red Deer, who spoke today in opposition to the church union bill before the Commons private bills committee.

He was later questioned on the subject by J. J. Hughes of Prince Edward Island, and said that he had heard the statement made in the church union committee with the addition: "No government would dare resist such a church."

Drop "Debating Societies" And Give Utilities Power Is Proposal of R. H. Dowler

Number of Members on Council and Education Too Large, He Declares.

CITY MANAGER FORM
Believes Public Utilities Could Handle City's Affairs Economically.

Associated Press Despatch.

Turning the city government over to the public utility commissioners is the only hope of London reaching a fuller commercial life and greater progress, according to R. H. Dowler. "The sooner we have fewer debating societies in the city and a more businesslike administration, the sooner London will become a sound business center, giving more attention to the fundamentals of business growth and progress and less valuable time to pointless talk and recrimination," he said, in speaking of the business side of London's development.

What I advocated years ago and advocate now with still stronger reasons is the introduction of the city manager form of civic government. The present city council is too big, and so is the board of education. Five members would be plenty in both bodies, and that would allow them to get things done in a businesslike way and not spend days and weeks and months in deciding questions that four or five businessmen would decide in a few hours at most.

Then the ward system of electing the aldermen is faulty, and only adds the fuel of petty politics to hinder the legitimate business of the city.

Proved Capable.
"As I see things, the public utility commissioners have proved completely to the people that they are capable of running a very large concern in a businesslike way, profitably and expeditiously. My idea would be to turn the city management over to the commissioners and allow them to run it. I have not the slightest doubt that they would do it well and economically and give the city better service than it has ever had in developing it both commercially and in every other way."

"London is a city with extraordinary attractions to business in many ways, and it has wonderful opportunities, but it will never realize them as long as the present debating society system of municipal government is in vogue."

"Sooner or later we are bound to come to some simplified form of city control if we are to keep pace with the times."

HUCKSTERS TO AGAIN CONFER WITH CITY

Special Finance Committee Meeting Tonight To Consider Grievances.
London hucksters will have another conference with the aldermen tonight at a special meeting of the finance committee called to deal with their grievances. The rentals on the local market, the arrangement of space and a hundred and one details of the position of the huckster and the grower on the market square have been the subject of innumerable discussions between the two camps of sellers and the aldermen who want to act as judges and arbitrators in the matter.

It is quite probable that tonight's meeting will merely develop the question one more spasm and that further sessions will be necessary to settle the co-operative grievances of "legitimate" growers and the others known as the "hucksters."

Score Are Injured As Car Runs Wild

Associated Press Despatch.
New York, May 8.—A score of persons were injured last night when a Bronx surface car, out of control, dashed down the steep 155th street hill, crashed into a taxicab and a touring car, and ended its dash when it telescoped a car taking on passengers at the foot of the incline. The runaway car left behind it a string of injured a quarter of a mile long. Several were bruised and cut, and were taken to a hospital.

FREE STATE WILL NAME U. S. ENVOY

Prof. Timothy Smiddy, Who Is Expected To Receive the Appointment.
Associated Press Despatch.
London, May 8.—The Irish Free State's representative in Washington, when appointed, will have the title minister plenipotentiary but not envoy extraordinary, according to the Daily Telegraph's political correspondent, who says the scope of his activities will be limited to economic and financial questions. Prof. Timothy A. Smiddy is considered certain of appointment to the post.

The imperial government, in according to the Free State's request for such a representative, was indicated by former Premier Lloyd George's agreement to the appointment of a Canadian minister at Washington, the correspondent adds, but the international status of an autonomous dominion to which the Free State now belongs is very difficult to define, since their participation in the League of Nations as virtually independent units has obscured the position.

Claim is Disputed.
An objection has been raised to the point that if there was no charter the shareholders would not have to pay the double liability. This objection is that if the Home Bank did not have a legal charter, it would be a partnership, and consequently all shareholders would be partners, and so liable for all the deficits, not merely to the extent of a double liability equal to the value of their shares. "I don't think there is anything in this objection, though," stated Mr. O'Donoghue.

Clarkson To Sue.
Some London shareholders have not paid up their double liability although the last date for payment was to have been the first of this month. "We are going to the courts to collect this," stated G. T. Clarkson, receiver for the Home Bank, in speaking of this matter to The Advertiser today. "The bank has a charter. They claim it is illegal. It will be declared by the courts before whom the case is at present. We do not know just when it will come up for trial."

U. A. Buchner stated this morning that he was sending his double liability money to Toronto today as a shareholder in the Home Bank. "The shareholders have to pay the money," said Mr. Buchner. "But if it should turn out that we could have raised a defence regarding the charter on anything else, we will be protected. I have been informed from Toronto."

ICE ON GREAT LAKES HOLDS UP STEAMERS

Coldness of Weather Causes a Delay in Opening of the Year's Traffic.
Due to the prevalence of large fields of ice in the Great Lakes and the coldness of the weather, the sailing of the steamer Huronic has been cancelled from Sarnia on Wednesday. The first boat to leave Sarnia, weather permitting, will be the steamer Harmonic, which is scheduled to leave Sarnia on Tuesday.

Large shipments of freight had been received by the C. N. R. and were forwarded to Point Edward dock for shipment on the Huronic, but will be subject to delay.

CLARKSON IS DETERMINED TO COLLECT LIABILITY

Receiver For Home Bank Disputes London Shareholders' Claim.
WILL GO TO COURTS
Maintains Legal Charter Can Easily Be Established.

Special to The Advertiser.
Toronto, May 8.—"We hope to convince the court that there never was any charter for the Home Bank and that, therefore, there could be no shareholders who have to pay the double liability," stated J. G. O'Donoghue, in comment on the action of certain London shareholders, who have refused to pay their double liability as shareholders in the Home Bank.

"The case is to come before the courts," continued Mr. O'Donoghue. "The master in chambers has appointed James Bain, K.C., and myself to prepare a defence common to all the shareholders. That defence is in the process of preparation at present, and the point that there was no legal charter will be included along with various others."

ULSTER'S DECISION PERTURBS THE BRITISH CABINET

DIFFICULTIES ARE INCREASING OVER BOUNDARY ISSUE

The British Cabinet Is Greatly Alarmed Over Delimitation of Line.

NO DECISION TAKEN

Associated Press Despatch. London, May 8.—The British cabinet is much perturbed over Ulster's refusal to appoint a representative on the commission for delimitation of the boundary between Northern and Southern Ireland, as provided in the Anglo-Irish treaty. It is understood the government's legal advisers have definitely ruled that the commission cannot function without an Ulster representative and no way out of the impasse has yet been discovered. The question was earnestly discussed at yesterday's cabinet meeting, and it is believed the suggestion of asking the Duke of Abercorn to nominate the boundary commissioner was debated, but so far as known without any decision being reached. The ministers are said to believe that the Ulster government would comply with the request if made but this belief is not shared in some Conservative quarters, where it is contended it would be equivalent to invoking interference by the king with the autonomous government of Ulster by nominating a commissioner over the latter's head.

Famous Concert Singer Once Acted As Life-guard Along Beach At Brooklyn

Reginald Werrenrath Typically American and Fails To Feel Burden of Art.

FOND OF ATHLETICS Tears Down Pile of Bricks Built Around Artistic Temperament.

A husky life-guard and a famous concert singer are the last two personalities in the world one would readily combine. Werrenrath, who is singing tonight at the Grand Opera House, has in the course of an interesting and distinctively American career been both. In his youth he was a life-guard on the beach at Brooklyn. About Werrenrath there is none of the romantic atmosphere which is attributed commonly by fiction and newspaper interviewers to opera singers and concert artists. His romance is that of a typical New Yorker, a young chap who early in life picked out a profession, stuck to it, and has succeeded. In short, Werrenrath tears down another substantial pile of bricks in that well-known wall of artistic temperament which is supposed commonly to divide singers from their brothers in every-day life. Born of Danish parents and in a family of singers, Reginald Werrenrath is yet typically American. His musical training has been all-American, and he states with the utmost candor that it is all "bunk" about no good singers ever coming out of America.

"The men who are making the most money in Europe today," he says, "are Americans, who have gone over there to teach. Operatic training is more readily found in Europe than in America, but for a real musical foundation we can supply our singers at home."

Boy Soloist. Singing came as easily to Werrenrath as handspins to a youngster born in a circus tent. At thirteen he was the boy soloist in a Brooklyn Church, and his education in the University of New York was a contribution to the only career he has had in music. He is a swimmer, a diver, and a scuba diver. In common with every swimmer, Werrenrath can wax enthusiastic about his sport.

"No thing exists," he claims, "for the singer. It develops the wind, and for anyone, singer or otherwise, there is no better all-round sport going than swimming."

Golf Devotee. In the meantime, since swimming is not readily available at this season of the year, Werrenrath is devoting himself to golf. He spent this morning on the links with Mr. Currie of St. Thomas, who is presently in London. He frankly acknowledges having succumbed completely, and finally to the golf craze as any other of its several million devotees on this continent. Walking across the lobby of the Tecumseh House, where he stopped for the day, Werrenrath, with his dark suit and square cut (not horn-rimmed) glasses, had every appearance of an American business man. He is as typically an American as Edward Johnston is a Canadian. He strikes no attitudes and he laughs freely, explaining that he had suffered no privations, made no sacrifices to the great cause of art. He is genuine to a degree.

There is an interesting feature about the concert program this evening. It includes a song by Deems Taylor, one of the best-known and most influential of the younger American critics, who writes at the present time for the New York World. He was a room-mate with Werrenrath during their college days, just one class below him, and by one of those jolly tricks Fate likes to play, they are in later year to sit before the New York public, and thus the American public, in judgment on his senior.

It was manifestly absurd to ask a man what he thought of bobbed hair or the Ruhr situation, when he was eager to be off to golf—and so the interview closed.

Georgette Lette—Can you give me the poem entitled: "Honesty is the Best Policy"?

Dear Georgette—Honest Injun, this one is much better. It's called, "Theoretically, Honesty is the Best Policy."

Upon her clear face, honestly Beams fearless, frank avowals. But in her bathroom you should see The stack of Pullman towels!

Jennie Speare—Can you remember the rest of the poem starting: The saddest words of tongue or pen.

Dear Jen—Our memory system is in good. For instance: The saddest words of tongue or pen (inspired of dismay and fear). Will ever be, have always been, "You're getting stouter, ain't you dear?"

Odds and Ends. Ted—"Think of a number and I'll tell you whether it is odd or even." Ned—"All right. I just called my girl on the phone. Which number was it?" Ted—"Did you get her?" Ned—"Yes." Ted—"Right away?" Ned—"Yes." Ted—"That's odd."

—D. M. March. The sweetheart of an El Dorado, Kansas, girl was leaving town for a considerable length of time. Thinking to put him in a romantic mood before he left she bought a sentimental record to play for him on her phonograph. It was entitled, "I'll be there when you get back."

Imagine her dismay when she heard the whole record, in the presence of her admirer, and the words of a popular soprano rang out clearly, "I'll be there when you get back, but I'll be with somebody else."

"Your Eyes Have Told Me So." Minister (to little Johnnie)—"Johnnie, your clothes are all torn and your eye is black. I fear you up in later year to sit before the New York public, and thus the American public, in judgment on his senior."

It was manifestly absurd to ask a man what he thought of bobbed hair or the Ruhr situation, when he was eager to be off to golf—and so the interview closed.

MANY HAVE ENTERED HELICOPTER CONTEST

Associated Press Despatch. London, May 8.—Entries have just closed for competition for the British air ministry's prize of £50,000 for a helicopter fulfilling the conditions prescribed when the test was announced in May, 1923, says the Daily Chronicle. There are between fifteen and twenty entrants, including some of the greatest authorities upon the theory of this form of flight. It now only remains for the ministry to fix the date of the competition.

It is required that, to win the prize, a machine shall accomplish a straight up-and-down flight, attaining an altitude of 2,000 feet; a hovering flight of half an hour; a circular flight of twenty miles at 60 miles an hour, and a descent into a small area from 300 feet with the engine stopped.

SPLENDID VIEW OF PHENOMENON SEEN IN LONDON

Astronomical Students Watch Mercury's Transit Across the Face of the Sun.

TELESCOPE USED

The London branch of the Royal Astronomical Society held its annual meeting yesterday afternoon and evening in the Normal School to watch the transit of the planet Mercury across the face of the sun, a phenomenon which occurs only twelve times in the twentieth century. The transit began at 4:42 p.m. in London, and requiring nearly eight hours to pass entirely across the sun's surface, was less than half-way across at sunset.

The sky was clear for the first hour, and a splendid view of the transit was obtained through the telescope. Clouds later obscured the sun, and also prevented evening observation of Venus, Saturn, and other objects of interest, which had been planned. However, the society outwitted the weather man by having an alternative program in readiness.

A delightful picnic supper was arranged by the ladies of the society under the leadership of Mrs. W. R. Saunders, Dr. H. R. Kingston, the president, gave an informal address on "Transits of Mercury," explaining their causes by means of diagrams and a model depicting the paths of Mercury and of the Earth around the Sun.

The society had as its guests at the observation meeting, the members of Dr. Kingston's class in astronomy at the University of Western Ontario. Appreciation was expressed to W. B. Saunders for the use of his splendid collection of instruments and a model depicting the paths of Mercury and of the Earth around the Sun.

Meetings of the society are to be resumed in October, and regular meetings will be held on the first Friday of each month throughout the year.

The success of the observations of the rare event which took place yesterday was due largely to the instrument devised by W. T. Boon and J. N. Rowley. This was an adjustable screen attached to the telescope and designed not only to protect the study of the transit by a number of people at the same time.

AUSTRALIA RILED AT HOME GOVT.

Politicians Would Abolish the Preferential Duties Worth Hundred Million.

Associated Press Despatch. Melbourne, Australia, May 8.—The recent announcement of the British government's opposition to imperial preference was immediately reflected in the proceedings of the Australian federal parliament when its sitting was resumed yesterday.

Notice of motion was given to the effect that in view of the failure of the imperial government to ratify or give legislative effect to the decisions of the imperial economic conference with regard to preferential trade within the empire, while at the same time entering into or negotiating trade agreements with foreign countries, notably Russia, the British preferential tariff duties under which British manufacturers are given an advantage over foreign competitors of approximately £18,000,000 annually in Australia, should be abolished.

Further, the notice of motion asked that the government should enter into negotiations with Canada or other countries desirous of making reciprocal trade arrangements with Australia.

Mr. MacDonnell, who is the British premier, has written another letter to Premier Poincare on the subject of reparations, according to Pertinax in the Echo de Paris. Pertinax says he does not know whether the letter has as yet reached the French foreign office.

Premier MacDonald in the letter, he says, contents himself with informing M. Poincare that he had talked with M. Theunys and M. Hymans, respectively premier and foreign minister of Belgium, and that he is happy to know the viewpoint of each interested government on the subject of reparations.

Pertinax interprets Mr. MacDonald's latest move as an indication of a resolution to hasten inter-allied negotiations to settle the reparation question.

MACDONALD IS AWAITING FRENCH ELECTION RESULTS

London, May 8.—Premier MacDonald is not likely to take any new step in the reparation situation until after the French parliamentary elections, which occur the coming Sunday, it is stated at the foreign office. The letter which Mr. MacDonald was reported to have sent to Premier Poincare of France, it is added, was merely a message to the British embassy in Paris asking that M. Poincare be informed of the British premier's conversation at Chequers Court last Saturday with Premier Theunys of Belgium.

NOTORIOUS NOVEL CAUSES BIG SUIT

V. Marguerite, Author of "La Garconne," Charged With Plagiarism.

Associated Press Despatch. Paris, May 8.—Madame Marie La Parcerie has brought suit for 50,000 francs damages against Victor Marguerite, author of the notorious novel "La Garconne," alleging plagiarism.

Mme. La Parcerie declares that her novel, "Rosine's Lovers," appeared July 13, 1922, whereas Marguerite's was published Aug. 19, 1922. She alleges that her manuscript was in the hands of the publishers in 1919, and asserts that she told M. Marguerite that she had detailed passages from her work which were reproduced in "La Garconne" with suspicious fidelity.

Publication of the novel "La Garconne" in 1922 drew upon M. Marguerite a storm of criticism, and he was later expelled from the Legion of Honor because of a number of alleged indecencies in the volume. Later films based upon the novel, were prohibited from being shown because of their alleged indecencies.

Modernism to Perfection When Out Comes Milady in a Pyjama Coat.

CHANT OF SORROW Hackneyed Parody Results in Grave Truth Being Revealed.

There's many a true word oft spoken in jest, and that hackneyed refrain about the banana, with its equally hackneyed parody of "Yes, we have no pyjamas," has become the doleful chant of many a young man about town. The popularity of strictly tailored clothes for the sweet young thing has spread even into the privacy of her brother's wardrobe and violated the sacred precincts of his dressing-table. A great chant of lamenting went up from the young bloods when they observed the first inroads upon their snappiest four-in-hands, but now that the matter has gone as far as their new and brightly-hued spring shirts and has embraced those gorgeous silk pyjamas of which they were so passionately fond, the matter is thought to have progressed far enough.

Boycotting System. To the more pessimistic, the only sane course considered is to establish a system of boycotting on the tailored clothes and insist on frilled drapery and other things considered proper feminine.

At first the birds had an advantage on the shirts. The neck bands were usually not less than size 14, and this proved a bit unwieldy for the slim, girlish throats. However, feminine ingenuity soon overcame this trifling obstacle, and by means of a little artful seaming shirts of all sizes were pressed into service. The only condition was, of course, that they have the nifty, tailored collar and be one of the spring's new and fashionable shades.

Saddest Tale of All. But the saddest tale of all was that of the pyjamas. A decade or so ago, maidens of Victorian modesty were utilizing the frilly fronts of their best nightgowns for a daytime job.

Now their modern sisters have commenced an onslaught on their brothers' pyjamas and are determined to utilize them for tailored blouses. Men's shops can display some very attractive interpretations of the pajama style. They are nearly always of silk, a heavy white silk, of a much better quality than sister could squeeze out of her allowance or her weekly wage. HOBBY BOOKS GAINING IN POPULARITY HERE

Books Telling How To Do Things in Great Demand at Library.

Hobby books are gaining in popularity. There is an increasing demand for such books at the public library. It seems that young men and girls are treating their hobbies as a serious scientific way and do not proceed with the business of stamp collecting or the keeping of pets without consulting authorities on the subject.

A representative list of books that are in wide demand at the public library these days are: Boy Craftsman, by Hall; Outdoor Book for Boys, Adams; Book of Woodcraft, Seton; Book of Magic, Collins; Stamp Collecting, Armstrong; Pets and Hobbies and Carpentry for Beginners, Adams; Book of Box-craft and Things Worth Doing, Beard, and Girls Make-at-Home Things, Bailey.

LONDON TOWNSHIP PROTESTS POWER CONCESSIONS

TOWNSHIP COUNCIL ASKS GOVERNMENT TO REFUSE GRANTS

Strongly Worded Resolution Is Forwarded to Dominion Authorities.

Following a report on the Ontario Municipal Electric Light Association convention in Kitchener last week, attended by Reeve Hodgins and Miss Mary Grant, clerk of London Township the township council has passed a strongly worded resolution which will be forwarded to the Dominion Government, protesting against any private corporations receiving any rights in connection with the development of water power on the Great Lakes and rivers, particularly the St. Lawrence River.

Text of Resolution.

The resolution is as follows: Mover by Austin Einter, seconded by Richard Bengate, that the municipal council of the Township of London enacts as follows: Whereas from time to time notifications of a more or less definite character have been published in the public press of the Dominion of Canada and of the United States, showing that private interests are seeking rights to develop the navigation and the water powers of the Great Lakes and their connecting waterways and the St. Lawrence River;

Whereas over 370 municipalities of this Province of Ontario are already investing $250,000,000 in a municipally-owned and operated undertaking for the supply of hydro-electrical energy to citizens in the Province of Ontario;

Whereas the citizens of the province of Ontario will soon require large additional supplies of electrical energy for their municipal, domestic, commercial and industrial requirements;

Whereas the undeveloped water powers in the St. Lawrence and Niagara rivers constitute the most desirable large sources of supply for electrical energy at low cost.

Protest Granting Rights.

Be it therefore resolved that the municipal council of the township of London, assembled in conference, transmit to the government of the Dominion of Canada an expression of their united opinion that a transference of any of the interests of the people of the province of Ontario in the water power of Niagara, Ottawa and the St. Lawrence rivers to be developed by, or in aid of, private or corporate interests, or public interests other than the Hydro-Electric Power Commission on behalf of the municipalities, would be in the course of events greatly prejudicial to the interest of the people of the province of Ontario and a condition, far more than which would be intolerable to the municipalities of Ontario that have made such extensive investments in their hydro-electrical undertaking, and, moreover, that any such action would be a menace to the hope the municipalities have confidently held that the great navigation and water power of the St. Lawrence and Ottawa rivers and the remaining water power of the Niagara river would be developed for general service of the people.

TOWNSHIP GIVES $200 FOR IMPROVEMENTS

Oxford and Argyle Parks To Benefit From Council Grants.

London Township council has granted the $100 to both Oxford and Argyle Parks toward street improvements.

Warren Pimberton was paid $16 for one sheep and $5 for one lamb killed by dogs.

It was agreed that statute labor lists be given out at Ballymote at 9:30 a.m. and at Fanshawe at 11 a.m., on May 8, at St. Patrick's Ward, at Bryanston at 1:30 p.m. on May 21, for St. Andrew's Ward, and at Hiderston at 10 a.m., and at Denfield at 1:30 p.m., on Tuesday, May 12, for St. David's Ward.

DECISION RENDERED IN LONDON WILL CASE

Justice Riddell Decides Mrs. Levy Lacked Power To Bequeath Property.

Canadian Press Despatch. Toronto, May 8.—Isaac Levy of London, Ont., died in 1916, leaving his entire estate to Rachel, his wife, for her life, with authority to deal with it in as full and ample a manner as himself, if he were living. After her death the property was to be divided equally among his three children.

Mrs. Levy managed the estate for ten years as if it were her own and then undertook to dispose of it by will. She died in 1922 and her bequeathed numbers 243 and 247 Clarence street to her son Murray. Recently he wished to sell this property and the question of title arose. Mr. Justice Riddell gave judgment today holding that Mrs. Levy had no power to dispose by will of the land in question.

News From City Churches

LOCAL COUNCIL A. Y. P. A.

The final meeting for the season of the Local Council of A. Y. P. A. was held last night, with a splendid attendance. Reports from the recent spring picnic and arrangements for the summer sports formed the principal business. Votes of appreciation were passed to the Y. M. C. A. P. Liddle for their assistance in making the picnic such a success. It was decided that the prize awards should consist of three pennants instead of one, as formerly intended.

The sports committee, under the convener of James Dean, Jr., was appointed to take full charge of new sports for the summer. It was decided also that an attempt should be made to arrange a joint picnic with young people's associations from St. Thomas, and the following committee was appointed for this purpose: Miss Pearl Ashworth, Miss Ethel Oliver and Miss Winnifred Dunstan.

RIDOUT STREET L. A.

Reports presented at the regular meeting yesterday afternoon indicated splendid progress for the Ladies' Aid of Ridout Street Methodist Church in the year just closed. BLENHEIM GETS WATER FOR CANNING FACTORY Difficult Problem Solved When Deep Well Cleaned and Tested.

Special to The Advertiser. Blenheim, May 7.—The problem of a water supply for the Dominion Cannery's plant appears to be solved after several years of difficulty. The Rutherford Milling Company have cleaned out a deep well which was thought to be practically useless, and it now appears that the well will supply sufficient water for the canning factory. After several hours of pumping the well shows no signs of reduction, so a contract has been entered into for a supply to the canning plant, just across the road.

The town and the cannery both put down wells, but with little success, and for some years a supply was furnished from fire tanks, but this was very unsatisfactory and limited. It appears now that the factory will operate successfully this fall. Manager Havens says that contracts have been made for 75 acres more of tomatoes than were raised last year.

KERWOOD ORIENTALS WILL ATTEND EVENT

Thebes Sanctorum Completing Plans For Big Ceremonial May 24.

The degree team of Thebes Sanctorum, No. 26, London, visited Kerwood last night, where they were successful in lining up about 40 candidates for the big spring ceremonial to be held in this city on May 24.

The candidates include those from the Kerwood, Strathroy and Mount Brydges lodges, and it is expected that when the day rolls around for the degree exercises, the objective of 150 candidates will be reached.

Communications from out-of-town sanctorums have been pouring in to R. R. Whitehead, chairman of the general committee, and from the number who have already signified their intention of coming, it will be the biggest gathering of Orientals ever held in Canada.

MOULD IS NAMED NEW SECRETARY OF WORKERS' CLUB

Educational Association Has Made Great Strides in Canada and Other Countries.

EXECUTIVE CHOSEN

Arthur Mould has been appointed secretary of the Workers' Educational Association. Mr. Mould takes over the duties that have been carried on by Richard Crouch, who resigned last fall. The members of the general council feel that they are particularly fortunate that Mr. Mould has accepted the position, and he has the fullest confidence of the board.

The workers of the general council have been elected to constitute along with the executive officers the executive committee, Wm. Tite, W. H. Stewart, Frank McKay, Col. James Brown, Dr. W. Sherwood Fox, Dr. H. W. Hill.

A teachers' and tutorial committee was elected. Its duties will consist of procuring and providing teachers to carry on the work of the association. The following committee was chosen: H. B. Beal, Dr. W. Sherwood Fox, Col. Walter J. Brown, Frank Crockett.

The Workers' Educational Association is a worldwide educational movement that had its beginning in the British Isles over twenty years ago, and has now gained a firm foothold in the colonies. It is a thoroughly democratic institution, and provides practically a university education for those adults who cannot take the regularly prescribed courses at a college.

Its purpose is to offer to the average man and woman an opportunity to find out and study under the best leadership those subjects in the fields of human interest in which they are particularly drawn. The work of the Workers' Educational Association has been taken up by the labor organizations throughout Britain. Leaders of labor circles claim that the aggressive action of those adults who could never hope to know the benefits of higher education except through such courses as the association offers.

STRATHROY COUNCIL REJECTS AUDIT REPORT

Councillors Refuse To Accept Report in Form Presented.

Special to The Advertiser. Strathroy, May 7.—The report of the finance committee of the town council occasioned a protracted session at the May meeting, held Friday. The discussion centered about the auditors' report for 1923, which the committee would not accept in the form presented. A. R. Morrison of London, one of the auditors, was present and after the council had amended the report of the committee, amended his report to make it conform with the provincial municipal auditors' regulations.

George Edgar, H. Pincombe and Sam Oakes were appointed fenceviewers for the town.

CHURCHILL CALLS REGIME OF LABOR SHAM MONUMENT

Conservative Papers Welcome Former Chieftain Back to the Fold.

MAKES VIEWS CLEAR

Associated Press Despatch. London, May 8.—Winston Churchill's speech under Conservative auspices at Liverpool last night was largely a general attack upon the "socialist tendencies of the present ministry, which he described as a vast monument of sham and humbug."

Apart from such picturesque generalizations, Mr. Churchill's remarks with regard to his personal attitude towards the Conservatives are interesting. He very carefully denied allegations that he intended to bring dissension into the Conservative ranks. What he proposed was the co-operation of Liberals with a solid body of Conservatives from national and common interests.

In making these advances, however, Mr. Churchill retains his own opinions on free trade, although he thinks the McKenna duties were "barbarous" and their proposed abolition under their agreement with the occupational regime in order to gain advantages for the workers.

EDUCATION BOARD GETS 1924 COAL $2 LESS PER TON

Contracts For Entire Supply Let by Number Two Committee.

CHANGE OF MIND

Coal contracts as recommended to the board of education yesterday by No. 2 committee for the coming season, are as follows: an order for 2,295 tons of smokeless Pocahontas to Chantler Bros., an order for 640 tons of non-smokeless coal to Hawken and Lang; and an order for 250 tons of anthracite to A. Deviney.

The committee agreed that all coal supplied to the board shall be weighed "on the city scales. This is a change of mind from the original intentions of the trustees. Some weeks ago at a general discussion upon the board it was felt that, while passing all the coal over the city scales was protecting the board in the matter of coal quantities, accepting the railway weights as is done by most of the large business houses and factories in the city would be economical and efficient.

At yesterday's meeting, however, it was discovered that the coal is weighed at the pit heads on the American side and that this is all the railway weights the board could get, unless they paid a fee of $5 a car for weighing in London and if they wanted to get the tare of the railway cars another $5. So the trustees decided that it was cheaper in the long run to pay 25 cents a ton to the city and have the coal weighed on the city scales.

The coal has been bought at a good price, being $2 a ton less than the board paid last year.

RUHR SITUATION GROWS SERIOUS

German Government Feels Serious Consequences in Mining Areas.

Associated Press Despatch. Berlin, May 8.—The situation in the Ruhr is growing more serious because of their refusal to meet the demand of the owners for the addition of an hour to the working day, is admittedly serious. Government circles evidently are deeply concerned.

The entire German press is apprehensive that the conflict may have serious consequences in the Ruhr. The German Government is expressing its concern over the Ruhr miners are lacking in financial reserves, and may be driven by hunger to plunder.

JOHN PRITCHARD, secretary of the London Motor Club referring to the phrases of courtesy which should be in evidence in all motorists said: "It is wish psychologists would tell us what it is that makes a perfectly decent law-abiding citizen, a householder and ratepayer, a 'road-hog,' just as soon as he climbs into his car and grips the wheel. The very fact of sitting in a car, having the power to get along at 'unimpaired' miles an hour, and a fine, paved highway on which to try it out, seems to destroy the sedate neighborhood citizen entirely.

COURTESY IS LOST WHEN A CITIZEN CLIMBS INTO CAR

What Psychology Causes the "Road Hog," Motor Club Secretary Asks.

DANGEROUS WEAPON

Speaking of courtesy, that much-neglected faculty of humanity, the secretary of the London Motor Club referring to the phrases of courtesy which should be in evidence in all motorists said: "It is wish psychologists would tell us what it is that makes a perfectly decent law-abiding citizen, a householder and ratepayer, a 'road-hog,' just as soon as he climbs into his car and grips the wheel. The very fact of sitting in a car, having the power to get along at 'unimpaired' miles an hour, and a fine, paved highway on which to try it out, seems to destroy the sedate neighborhood citizen entirely.

"Why is it necessary for an automobile club to plant its road signs, bearing the phrase, 'Courtesy Makes Safety,' throughout a locality in which we know traffic to be very heavy?"

"It is not our custom to ram people as we pass them on the sidewalk; we do not cut a man off as he crosses the street; we do not deliberately slip to steal another man's seat in the trolley car, yet we see analogous actions on the part of the motorist every day.

"The whole question apparently resolves itself into this: Every act of discourtesy encourages a more serious act of retaliation with its resulting train of annoyances and accidents. Why not, therefore, infer that every act of courtesy will bring forth a better act of reciprocity? Furthermore, why not try it? Automatically, others will follow suit."

With the great increase in the number of cars on our roads, and the corresponding increase in the complexities of driving, old-fashioned motor courtesy it seems, has pretty well gone by the board. Many of our traffic tiups and accidents are laid to the score of too many automobiles on the streets. The capacity of our streets has not been reached—they will accommodate many more automobiles without any trouble if we are more considerate of the other fellow and the other fellow is more considerate of us.

It was pointed out that the additional $4,500 authorized by the city council on Tuesday night for fire protection would assist considerably, but the large overhead due to the construction of the large reservoir on the Edgeware road still amounted to $10,000 for debt service payments and interest.

It was suggested that a service charge of 50c a quarter be made, but Treasurer S. O. Perry stated that it would be difficult to convince some of the smaller consumers that the extra service charge was necessary.

This charge would bring about $10,500 a year.

Chairman Roberts proposed to reduce the number of different classifications of consumers from 13 to four. Classification methods were inaugurated for the purpose of the district, which ranges from 14 per cent to 35 per cent.

Mr. Perry said a flat rate produced more revenue than a meter rate, but delivery by meter was more equitable. If the flat rate was increased from 17c to 20c the increase would be nearly $8,000 a year.

The clerk and the engineer were instructed to submit suggestions at next week's meeting.

The request to have the three dead streets joined up with a 6-inch pipe line was agreed to, the estimated cost to be $1,500 to $1,800. A pipe line will be constructed to the civic golf links to supply water for lawn purposes. The links will be laid out on a meter basis.

Two M. C. coaches were badly damaged and one man suffered engine on his hand when a passenger engine struck two passenger coaches on a siding just west of the depot.

Settlement Reached. The county court case of Duncan Galbraith of Southwold versus J. D. Galtton over a tractor was settled by Judge Ross Wednesday afternoon, the plaintiff agreeing to pay $300 and each party paying their own costs.

Assault Alleged. Hugh Campbell, an elderly resident of St. Catharines street, accused his neighbor, Robert Houston, of threatening assault. Magistrate Maxwell postponed the hearing till Saturday, advising the parties to come to an agreement in the meantime.

Undergoes Operation. Robert Higginson, a patient in Amasa Wood Hospital Tuesday, He is reported to be progressing favorably.

WALLACEBURG PASTOR PRESENTS RESIGNATION

Special to The Advertiser. Wallaceburg, May 7.—Rev. J. S. Leckie, who for the past four and a half years has been pastor of the First Baptist Church, tendered his resignation at the morning service on Sunday, to take effect on August 1. A committee will make their report upon him and will make their report next Sunday.

During his stay in town Mr. Leckie has interested himself in many organizations in town, among them the Wallaceburg Concert Band and Agricultural Society, in which he holds important positions. He is also chaplain to the local G. W. A., and was also one of the prime movers in the organization of the Sydenham Co-operative Society.

M. O. H. ASKS PAY INCREASE, WORK WILL BE PROBED

Dr. C. C. Ross, M. O. H. of London, Township, has asked for an increase in salary, but before going into the question the township council at a recent meeting asked that Reeve Hodgins and Deputy Reeve Butler bring in a report as to the work carried on by the M. O. H., and to answer to it is his duty to analyze matter from the wells of township residents at the expense of the township.

A short item of missionary information on Africa was given by Miss Hilda Morris of the missionary committee.

The president, Thomas McCormick, presided over the second half of the meeting.

MAYOR WOULD RESIGN BUT ISSUES CHALLENGE

DISCUSS FIREMEN

Britann Report Has Little Influence On Action of Aldermen.

Philip Pocock, member of the public utilities commission, has been credited with the advice that Mayor George Wenige should resign forthwith as chief magistrate of this city in order to save the citizens from further embarrassment, and Mayor Wenige duly notified members of the finance committee last night that he would be willing to oblige under certain designated circumstances.

In the first instance, Philip Pocock must agree to be the mayor's opponent at the subsequent by-election, and in the second instance, there must be a definite indication from the majority of the ratepayers that the mayor should resign. Mr. Pocock's bidding and seek re-election with the latter as the second candidate.

Chairman Leonard Douglass essayed the suggestion that the question was scarcely within the realm of the finance committee, while Ald. Edwin Smith reminded that they would have to furnish the funds for the necessary by-election to fill the vacancy.

Ontario Hydro Commission Applies For Water Leases At Various Points.

Canadian Press Despatch. Toronto, May 7.—The first step in an Ottawa River power development project, which looks ultimately to the generation of some 700,000 horsepower, to be distributed throughout the province, was taken today by the Ontario Hydro Commission, when it made formal application to the Ferguson government for certain water leases.

The sites asked for by the hydro are located on the Ottawa River between Ottawa and Pembroke, being principally Chats Falls, Du Ford Falls, Des Joachim Falls and Alouette Falls. Premier Ferguson stated that they would be made available to the hydro, the government having agreed that the sites for this important Ottawa power would be reserved from private interests.

The hydro will commence immediately the preliminary investigation by engineers, which must precede the construction work. Plans are also to be commenced with dispatch, and final provision for the bylaw will be made in the hydro estimates to come before the next sitting of the legislature. Sufficient funds are now available for the survey stage of the work. Possible development sites do not fall short of 800,000 horsepower, the energy generated by this system will not be transmitted to any special section of the province, but it is likely that it will be developed in the Thunder Bay System, will be served in part from it.

ATTRACTIVE YEAR BOOK REFLECTS PROGRESS OF "U"

Beautifully Illustrated Volume Gives Outline of All the Branches of Endeavor.

PROFESSORS LAUDED

Sketches of Each Member of Graduating Classes Bright Feature.

Bearing Western's crest of purple and white, the 1924 year book just issued marks another milestone in the history of the University of Western Ontario. Like the institution itself, the volume shows the passing years to have been one of progress. The publication staff set themselves to the work of publishing a book that would measure up to the increasing high standards of the university and the result is a rich and beautiful record for the graduation class of 1924.

The volume is illustrated with photographs of one hundred and fifty photographs of the graduating classes, members of the faculties, clubs and societies embracing University College, Brescia Hall, Huron College, the Medical Historical Society, the Glee Club, and the members of the faculties have contributed valedictory addresses and traced briefly the history of their colleges and their high hopes for the future.

An editorial speaks of the years spent by the students in acquiring an education that will lead them into fuller knowledge and really serviceable living. A splendid tribute is paid to the professors who "live not for worldly emoluments but find their satisfaction in releasing and expressing the idealism of their nature in connection with the developing life that comes under their fostering care."

Chancellor's Address. In penning a brief valedictory address, the Hon. W. J. Roche, M.D., LL.D., chairman of the civil service commission and chancellor of the University of Western Ontario, showed that the university has long since passed the experimental stage, stating that its development and expansion have justified the optimism and confidence of its founders. He drew attention to the remarkable growth of Western from a little band of a score or so to the 639 students registered in the faculty of arts, with an additional nine in the department of public health.

In the faculty of arts appear groups of graduates—the Glee Club, the Students' Council, the 1924 "Lion and Arts officers for years 1924-25-26-27, with the two pre-medical years 1928 and 1929.

Forty-four pictures of graduating students of University College are shown. Each carries an outline of the student's life and college activities, suitably titled with an appropriate quotation by Paul H. Hill, Huron College and Ursuline College, and the graduating class of Brescia Hall, wearing the cap and gown.

"23 "Med" Graduates." In the faculty of medicine are found the pictures of the 23 "med" graduates of this year's graduating class, together with photographs of Dean Paul S. McKibben, and groups showing others of the Hippocratic Society, the Medical Historical Society, executive and fraternal orders.

The faculty of public health shows the graduating class group, with a brief valedictory by Paul H. Hill. That music has not been slighted at the university is evidenced by reproductions showing the Little Theatre Orchestra of eighteen musicians, under the leadership of Helen Gordon Patterson, of the university orchestra, of seven pieces, including the popular piano, saxophone and "traps," the Five University Saxophones, and the seven members of the Glee Club.

In a chapter devoted to athletics are to be found pictures and articles on sport at the colleges, together with reviews of activities in basketball, the athletic union, and women's athletic committee, the rugby and hockey teams, followed by an article on the University Officers' Training Corps, together with the group picture of that body.

CHOIR OFFICERS. Special to The Advertiser. Street Methodist Church choir elected as officers: President, Frank Lovett; vice-president, John Rankin; secretary, Miss Marion Sleigh; home, treasurer, Miss Zita Cavell; music and robes committee, Misses Marjorie Russ, Winnifred Dent, Flossie Entwistle and Lillian Darden.

BLYTH LADIES' AID. Special to The Advertiser. Wroxeter, May 7.—The Ladies' Aid Society of the Methodist Church elected as officers: President, Mrs. T. Walker; vice-president, Mrs. T. Walker; secretary, Mrs. F. Kitchen; treasurer, Mrs. R. Stocks; corresponding secretary, Mrs. J. R. Wendt; members, Mrs. J. Hupfer, Mrs. T. Hopcroft.

NO DAMAGE. Firemen were called to Wray's jewelry store, Dundas street, today at 11:30 a.m. employees of the firm, engaged in lighting some metal, turned in an alarm when the mixture started to smoke. No damage was done.

YEAR OF PROGRESS NOTED PETROLIA CHURCH REPORT. Special to The Advertiser. Petrolia, May 7.—The annual "at home" of the Petrolia Methodist Church was held on Tuesday evening. Reports were given by members of the various departments of the church. Each report showed the church to be in a flourishing condition.

Under the superintendency of N. B. Lindsay and his staff of teachers and officers, the Sunday school has grown until it has a total enrollment of 889. A. S. Mayoock, president of the choir, expressed his appreciation of the efficient leadership of P. C. Oyster and thanked the choir members and the congregation for their loyal support.

E. McGinn, treasurer of the missionary committee, gave a very optimistic report of his department. J. J. Mathews, the envelope steward, briefly outlined the number of contributors and the amounts.

The pastor, Rev. A. M. Stuart, thanked the congregation for its loyal support during the year. J. R. Stradling, recording secretary, and T. H. Speight, treasurer, both spoke words of appreciation of the capable and efficient leadership of the pastor.

C. J. Collins, in reporting the "Shut-In" department, said that 50 printed sermons a month were being sent out to those who were unable to attend church.

Sole were given by Mrs. D. Mathison and A. S. Mayoock. A feature of the evening was a short lecture given by Mr. Carey of the Bell Telephone Company on "The Wonder Servant of the Age."

WYOMING W.C.T.U. Special to The Advertiser. Wyoming, May 7.—The annual meeting for the election of officers of the W. C. T. U. resulted in Mrs. Armstrong as president; Mrs. C. H. Smith as vice, with Mrs. R. McKay and Mrs. Hall as secretaries. A resolution protesting against any change in the O. T. A. was drawn up to be sent to the attorney-general of Ontario.

TOUCH UP STATION. Minor repairs are being made to the C. N. R. station platform with the laying of new planks which were used in the work which will continue for several days. Painting and decorating is also being carried out on a number of buildings in the vicinity of the station.

ARE SLIGHTLY INJURED. Associated Press Despatch. Lisbon, May 8.—A message received here confirms the report that the Portuguese aviators flying to the far east suffered an accident in Jodhpur. The message adds that the aviators were slightly injured and their biplane damaged.

WOMEN OF MIDDLE AGE

Relieved of Nervousness and Other Distressing Ailments by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Brooklyn, N. Y. - "I first took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound four years ago, and am taking it now for the change of life and other troubles and I receive great benefit from it. I am willing to let you use my letter as a testimonial because it is the truth. I found your booklet in my medicine box and read it carefully, and that is how I came to take the Vegetable Compound myself. It has given me quiet nerves so that I sleep all night, and a better appetite. I have recommended it already to all my friends and relatives. Mrs. ENGLAND, 2392 Palmetto St., Ridgewood, Brooklyn, N. Y.

FEEL BETTER IN FEW HOURS OR NO COST!

This is the time of year when your liver becomes sluggish and your intestines become clogged up with poisons. Your liver does not properly purify blood, the flow to your skin. The result is sallow complexion, dark circles and pimples. As these poisons continue to invade your system, your resistance is lowered, you feel dull and tired and sick. Make this time of year a time of cleansing and tone your liver with Dr. Thacher's Liver and Blood Syrup. Contains pure ingredients prescribed by Physicians. Helps nature strengthen your stomach, soothe tired and over-taxed nerves, brace up system and purify your blood. Notice quick difference in way you look, eat sleep and feel. You, too, will be satisfied, as others have, or no cost. Dr. Thacher's is sold and recommended by B. A. Mitchell, 111 Dundas St., Taylor's Drug Store, 320 Richmond St., half block south of Dundas, in London; J. W. Craig in Dresden; E. M. Crosthwaite and W. A. McIntyre in St. Marys; John E. Warner in Alvinston and by leading druggists in every city and town.—Adv.

STOMACH TROUBLES ARE DUE TO ACIDITY

So-called stomach troubles, such as indigestion, gas, heartburn, acidity and inability to retain food are in probably nine cases out of ten, simply evidence that excessive acid is being taken place in the stomach, causing the formation of gas and acid indigestion. Gas distends the stomach and causes that full, oppressive, burning feeling sometimes known as heartburn, while the acid irritates and inflames the delicate lining of the stomach. The trouble lies entirely in the excess development or secretion of acid. To stop or prevent this souring of the food contents of the stomach and to neutralize the acid, make it bland and harmless, a teaspoonful of Bisurated Magnesia, a good and effective corrector of acid stomach, should be taken in a quarter of a glass of hot or cold water after eating or whenever gas, sourness or acidity is felt. This neutralizes the stomach and neutralizes the acidity in a few moments and is a perfectly harmless and inexpensive remedy to use. An antacid, such as Bisurated Magnesia, which can be obtained from any druggist in either powder or tablet form, enables the stomach to do its work properly without the aid of artificial digestants. Magnesia comes in several forms, so be certain to ask for and take only Bisurated Magnesia, which is especially prepared for the above purpose.—Adv.

Cured His Rupture

I was badly ruptured while lifting a trunk several years ago. Doctors said my only hope of cure was by operation. Trusses did me no good. Finally I got hold of something that quickly and completely cured me. Years have passed and the rupture has never returned, although I am doing hard work as a carpenter. There was no operation, no lost time, no trouble. I have nothing to sell, but will give full information about how you may find a complete cure without operation, if you write to me. Eugene M. Fuller, Carpenter, 8233 Marcellus Ave., Manhattan, N. Y. Better cut out this notice and show it to any doctor who tells you you must have a life or at least stop the misery of rupture and the worry and danger of an operation.—Adv.

"TIZ" FOR TIRED, PUFFED-UP FEET

The minute you put your feet in a "Tiz" bath you feel pain being drawn out and comfort just soaking in. How good your tired, swollen, burning feet feel. "Tiz" instantly draws out the poisonous exudations that puff up your feet and cause sore, inflamed, swollen feet. "Tiz" and only "Tiz" takes the pain and soreness out of corns, callouses and bunions. Get a box of "Tiz" at any drug or department store for a few cents. Your feet are never going to bother you any more. A whole year's foot comfort guaranteed.—Adv.

GOVT. NO POWER TO PASS CHURCH BILL, ANTI SAYS

Lafleur Declares Parliament Has No Right To Deal With Property.

DIVERSION ILLEGAL

Canadian Press Despatch. Ottawa, May 7.—The Dominion parliament has no authority to pass the church union bill, declared Eugene Lafleur, K.C., counsel for the Presbyterian Church Association, in the hearing on the church union bill before the private bills committee this afternoon.

Mr. Lafleur maintained that the bill invaded provincial rights in regard to education and property and civil rights. Further, Mr. Lafleur declared that his clients did not oppose "church union" in itself, but were opposing the "destruction of our church and the seizure of another on its ruins." Mr. Lafleur was asked his opinion of the effect of taking another vote. He replied that another vote would show whether the minority was large enough to administer the trusts of the church. He added that he did not think the minority should be asked to recede from a breach of trust. Mr. Lafleur's statement and examination occupied practically the entire afternoon sitting. The rest of the day was taken up with the hearing of Rev. Stuart Parker of Toronto, who claimed that the basis of union included in the present bill departed from the Westminster Confession in regard to Calvinist theology, government solely by elders, equality of all Presbyters and ordination solely by Presbyters.

Feeling Runs High. Interest in the evidence ran high during the day, and Chairman McGivern had again and again to remind the spectators, who crowded the committee room, that no display of feeling or expression of opinion was permissible.

Before Stuart Parker left the stand he was asked by J. L. Brown of Ligon whether the church courts could not speak for the Presbyterian Church as parliament spoke for the people of Canada. "That is a good analogy," replied Mr. Parker. "If this parliament were to hand Canada over to some country you would have the same situation as now in the Presbyterian Church."

After being on the stand for four and a half hours Mr. Parker was then released, and Mr. Lafleur was called.

Oppose Destruction. "We are not opposing union," said Mr. Lafleur. "We are opposing the destruction of our church and the erection of another on its ruins." Mr. Lafleur said he appeared for the Presbyterian Church Association. That body now had 70,000 adherents. "I am not asking you to decide between modernism and fundamentalism," pursued Mr. Lafleur. "If the unionists do not believe the creed, they are quite right to go out of this church, but in such a case they cannot walk out taking the name and the property."

MAN IS KILLED BY M. C. R. FLYER

Immigrant From Scotland Steps in Path of Train At Tilbury.

Tilbury, May 7.—Norman McLeod, 23 years old, of Stornoway, Scotland, was instantly killed by M.C.R. train No. 48, the Destroyer, here this evening. The young man, who was one of the recently-landed Hebrides party, arrived in town half an hour previously with three others to join an extra gang that is laying rails on the track here. The boarding car is on a siding about a mile from the station, and shortly after he reached the car he stepped in the path of the flyer.

LABOR PROTESTS USE OF CHINESE ON SHIPS

Carry Complaint Against Displacement of Canadians in Coastal Trade.

Canadian Press Despatch. Ottawa, May 7.—Premier Mackenzie King has received an emphatic protest from Tom Moore, president of the Trades and Labor Congress as to the displacement of Canadian seamen by Chinese on boats of the British Empire Steel Corporation in the coastal trade. Protest is also made that apparently the employment service of Canada is to be ignored. It is stated that 75 Chinese were imported in one instance.

Some Feature For Every Day

Standard Drug Fill An Important Place in Community.

Standard Drug from the day it opened the first store in London has filled a place in the community. Insuring a system of selling by which it was able to feature its "Save You Money" slogan, the one store has now become four stores in London, with one each in St. Thomas, Woodstock and Stratford. The growth of the stores is an indication of the popularity of the Standard Drug system and in the opinion of the management ample proof of faith kept with the public.

Y.W.C.A. EXHIBITION IN ARENA, MAY 26

Beautiful Dance Numbers and Physical Drills Now in the Course of Preparation.

Monday, May 26, has been set aside for the annual Y. W. C. A. physical exhibition, to be held this year in the Arena, under the direction of Miss Edith Wynne-Price. Last year the Armories was unable to accommodate the crowds and hundreds of people were turned away. The Arena, however, has a very large seating capacity, and is admirably adapted for the presentation of the physical drills and dance numbers, which are now being arranged throughout all the Y. W. C. A. classes.

The Blue Danube waltz, most beautiful of all the numbers on this year's program, will be executed by thirty young girls in floating Grecian draperies of pale pink, blue, orchid and other lovely shades. The steps of this dance are intricate and the groupings beautiful, while filmy scarfs, trays and roses and tumbourines are introduced with pretty effect. The program throughout will illustrate how the physical work at the Y. W. C. A. induces dignity, poise and grace, and builds up the health of growing girls and children. All of the fundamental steps in dancing will be demonstrated in the technique and pastiche of dancing, those taking part wearing simple Grecian costumes of pale gray. Other dance numbers will be "The Song of the Robin," "Wood Nymphs," "Autumn," "The Rose of Old Madrid," "Play-time," "Little Gossips," "Tulip Time" and "Ojra," while the purely physical drill numbers will be done with wands, dumbbells and clubs, the girls appearing in gym middies and bloomers.

THOUSAND CHILDREN FLEE INTO THESSALY

Local Committee of "Save the Children" Fund Appeals For Further Help.

There is still need for more money and food in order to save the lives of refugee Greek children, one thousand of whom have just landed at Salonika, according to reports from Dr. W. A. Kennedy, the Canadian at the head of Save the Children Fund work in Greece. In one of the refugee camps outside the city three hundred fresh cases of malaria are reported. "It is imperative," Dr. Kennedy says, "to increase both the feeding and medical relief."

mosquito season is in full swing, we are bound to have an epidemic of malaria, besides which last summer's and the chronic kind that was so much in evidence in winter, will pale almost into insignificance. For one thing, every refugee, with practically no exception, has the microbe in him by this time, and then they are in a weaker state of health than they were last year. This will mean many deaths and a recurrence on a larger scale of the sad story of men and women going out to work on the farms and returning almost immediately in the grip of fever and being incapacitated for days, apart from contracting kidney diseases and anaemia in the long run. It is a very serious matter to look forward to, and the only thing to do would be an extension of feeding, a plentiful supply of milk and quinine. The time is coming when food will be practically useless without quinine. It is important that if this drug be sent that it reach me in time to be used as a preventive. As a result the local committee for Save the Children Fund is still making its appeal to the public, and has arranged with B. B. Manning, manager of the Dominion Bank, to have the contributions received there.

HAT MUST BE LARGE OR SMALL, NOT MEDIUM

Cloche Has Passed Its Peak of Popularity, According to the Milliners.

By AILEEN LAMONT. Special to The Advertiser. Copyright. New York, May 7.—Buy a large hat or buy a small hat, but shun the medium-sized hat. Parisian milliners are informing their clients that the medium hat is as non-existent in the eyes of fashion as present as a new-rich climber through the log-jam of a Southampton social leader outside a charity board meeting. The size of the hats, according to the French designers, has a tendency to become larger for smart wear, although they admit the small shapes continue to be worn. Horsehair is the favorite medium of expression for the large floppy types, while picot straw is the most popular for the small hats. The cloche, the milliners continue, has passed its peak of popularity.

C. E. F. CHAPTER ROOMS TO HOUSE HONOR ROLL

Plans For Decoration Day Are Made at Yesterday Afternoon's Meeting.

The C. E. F. Returned Soldiers' Chapter, I. O. D. E., has decided to place an honor roll in the chapter rooms in memory of the fathers, sons and husbands of the chapter members who lost their lives as a result of the great war. This decision was made at yesterday afternoon's meeting of the chapter, Mrs. B. J. Dunlevy in the chair. Further plans were made for Decoration Day, Sunday, June 15, when the chapter expects to have the cooperation of practically every women's organization in the city and of the military authorities in the decoration of graves of men who died as a result of the great war. Convoyers to represent every religious denomination are being appointed by the chapter, and letters have been forwarded by the secretary to every women's organization of the city, asking their sympathy and co-operation on Decoration Day. On the Sunday chosen, June 15, members of the chapter will see that flags are placed on every soldier's grave in Mount Pleasant, Woodland and the Catholic cemeteries. Flowers will also cover the graves on that occasion.

LEAGUE TO PRESENT DANCING EXHIBITION

Catholic Women Arrange Program Under Direction of Miss Barbara Dickinson.

What promises to be a delightful affair of Monday evening next will be the exhibition of dances being given by the physical culture classes of the Catholic Women's League, in St. Peter's Parish Hall. Mrs. Charles Wilson, second vice-president of the league, is convener of the affair which is being given under the direction of Miss Barbara Dickinson, who herself has won fame as a graceful young dancer.

The girls, numbering over one hundred have been working energetically for many weeks preparing for this event, which is the first affair of this kind given under the auspices of the league. The program, which will include interpretive dances, opens up with many spring dances, the girls wearing picturesque costumes in pastel shades. These are made under the direction of the convener, Mrs. Wilson. The opening numbers are: "Welcome to Spring," "Apple Blossoms," "Lark Song," "Rainbow" and a "Golden Basket of Flowers." Misses Ruth and Eleanor Wilson are presenting a duet, "Minuet," and another lovely number will be the "Pierrot and Pierrette" dance, being presented by Katharine Givins and Marian Hart. Character dances will also be included in the program, and Miss Dickinson herself will give a solos dance, "The Enchantress," which will be a delightful number. Miss Kathleen Dromole and Miss Anastasia Pirth are the pianists.

THURSDAY, MAY 8, 1924.

The Urgency of the National Lines.

Sir Henry Thornton found it necessary to appear before the railway committee at Ottawa to plead the cause of the branch lines requested for the Canadian National lines.

The president of the road told the committee what had already been placed before them—that the lines were needed, that they had been decided on after getting the studied opinion of the officials of the road and by officers who had an intimate knowledge of the district to be served. Sir Henry made it clear that the road must keep on chasing business; it could not possibly keep quiet and wait for it to come, and also that it would be rightly and soundly criticized if it did follow such a course.

There is no room for argument on this matter, but there is room for argument about the attitude of men like Sir Henry Drayton who, in order to placate the sentiment that is antagonistic to the successful development of the National Railways, obstruct and hold up the assent of parliament to such a point that it becomes imperative for the president and general manager of the road to go to Ottawa himself to fight the thing through.

The National Railways must grow, and they must go after business. The whole atmosphere in which the government took them over, and in which they are being operated, has a degree of urgency that finds expression in the word "must" at every turn.

The Canadian Nationals must succeed or else this country will have a financial wreck on its hands, the size of which can hardly be appreciated.

The Canadian Nationals must have an equal chance with the C. P. R. to get out and equip itself to fight for new business and increasingly retain its present volume.

The Canadian Nationals must give the obstructionists, no matter under what guise they operate, stand away from its elbow.

Men, Boys, and Hobbies.

London Rotary Club Hobby Fair is being deluged with entries. When it opens at the armories next week it will be the greatest exhibition of the hobbies of boys and girls of this city ever put on display. The idea has become contagious. Rotary clubs all over this district, which extends far into Michigan, want to know how it is done. Rotarian Roy Cunningham started the venture in London and now it is an accomplished fact.

After all, there's nothing new in a hobby. Plenty of people have them, but their ranks should be greater. A hobby gives a man a chance to rest by doing something else. It brings a new set of brain cells into action, and gives the old ones that perform the daily grind a chance to see their fellows at work.

It is surprising how many men have some sort of a hobby—they may not call it that, but that name does very well just here. It is something they do apart from their regular occupation—do it because they like to, because it is beneficial, brings them into contact with wider fields or the great outdoors.

Some time ago The Advertiser dealt with the hobbies of London men. It is interesting to recall some of them. Ed. E. Reid, general manager of the London Life, plays tennis and does it well—has a fine court in his own yard; George Reid, of Reid Bros., a veteran Londoner, is father and big brother generally to the Welfare Fund. A. O. Jeffery, lawyer, has for years collected stamps; John Pringle, for a long time prominent in banking circles, has one of the finest herds of Jersey cattle in the Dominion. S. F. Wood, manager of the Hobbs Manufacturing Company, follows horticulture in an extensive way at his Kilworth residence; W. E. Saunders has studied birds and their habits until he is recognized as an authority on all such matters; Dr. Henderson collects antique furniture; Ray Lawson is interested in many London and Montreal enterprises, but finds time to take recreation on a farm where he has a splendid herd of Holsteins. Ex-Mayor E. S. Little knows all that goes on at his 850-acre farm in Delaware; he specializes in pure-bred cattle and sheep. Arthur Little, apart from his downtown business, finds spare hours in which to look over a fine herd of Jersey cattle on his farm. Judge Quintin Warner of the juvenile court, and rector of Cronyn Memorial Church, finds his relaxation in playing the 'cello, on which he is a very efficient performer; Pat Waugh drives a Richmond street car, yet he finds time to collect stamps and do pen and ink sketching; Dr. Barnett collected rare books for years, and his gift to Western University library was a notable contribution; Dr. Woolverton has enough geological and historical specimens to start a museum; Sir Adam Beck, busy as he is, loves horses and has a stable that can hold its own with anything on the continent.

Hobbies—yes, many people have them, and they are better for it. They are regular safety valves for overwork. It is because the Rotarians' Hobby Fair aims to develop this same idea among the juvenile population in London that the exhibition next week assumes unusual importance. It should succeed, and it will.

The Invasion of the Barber Shop.

The old barber shop used to be the exclusive property of man. Like his lodge room, he could cross the portals and know that he was in the company of the sterner sex. He could talk to the barber of manly things; he could get into an argument and cool off over a game of checkers. It was there he learned the news of the day, who'd gone away and who'd come home. And all the while the whiskers of the community were being mowed and the hair trimmed and anointed. Truly it was a pleasant place, where men of low estate or big holdings laid shoulder to shoulder in a chin-scraping fraternity.

But this is 1924, and the men have been elbowed over to the last three seats nearest the window. All that is left to them is a chance to read the papers and speak in subdued tones about the weather.

A screen surrounds the end chair. There is a woman's hat on the nail that had for years been the exclusive anchorage of the headgear of man. Hair is being bobbed, and another customer is waiting.

Laugh at the idea if you will, but it has passed the laughing stage. Bobbed hair is here—at least the bobbed head from which the hair has departed is. It is not an adventure or an experiment—rather it is a fact.

The barbers and the hair dressers know it; they have altered their customs accordingly. Instead of depending on men for their trade, they find the girls and the women knocking at their door. They have tapped a new source of income, and man, instead of being the whole financial bulwark of the business, is now simply one of the props. He has lost his preferred position. Instead of holding a place at the top of the page, surrounded by reading matter, he has to accept a position buried away on an inside page.

The men may grouch at first; they may rebel like the red man did when the whites started to elbow him into one corner of the township where there was nothing but swamp and scrub timber. But that's about all he can do. The day of his domination in the barber shop is gone, done, dead, extinct, obsolete.

He must face the situation bravely; he must learn to talk on a variety of subjects, domestic problems, how to train children, how to manage a husband, and new ways to serve rhubarb in season. A man who can't fit in with the new order might as well get a pair of horse clippers and a sewing basket and prepare to do his own scapling.

Divorce Cases In Canada.

Canada in 1922 granted 544 divorces; in 1923 the number decreased to 505. The drop is a wholesome reduction, indicative of a returning sanity and a more severe regard for sacred obligations.

The division, according to provinces, with the population of each, is as follows:

Provinces	Population	Divorces
British Columbia	139	524,582
Ontario	105	2,938,662
Alberta	87	588,454
Manitoba	81	610,118
Saskatchewan	41	757,510
Nova Scotia	22	523,837
New Brunswick	19	387,876
Quebec	11	2,361,199

Worked out on the basis of divorce and population, it gives one divorce for the following units of population:

British Columbia	3,770
Ontario	27,749
Alberta	6,776
Manitoba	7,532
Saskatchewan	18,475
Nova Scotia	23,809
New Brunswick	20,413
Quebec	214,654

The showing of Quebec in this table is remarkable. It is undoubtedly due to the fixed attitude of the Roman Catholic Church against divorce or its recognition.

A downward revision of the figures in 1924 would be welcome. Canada does not want to be known as a nation where divorce is frequent. Particularly should British Columbia make a big alteration in its figures. They are too large to be healthy.

Three In a Row.

Schweitz, for many years official headman in Germany, is dead. He shot himself.

He was 74 years old, and lived on a pension, so small in the days of swollen costs and deflated money that it was just starvation.

He had in his time executed 123 condemned criminals. His purse was low, and he had to live. So it was that he decided to turn his life history to financial gain—he would lecture and exhibit the axe with which he had carried out the last clause in the chapter of criminal law.

But apparently he was a failure as a lecturer. Even his old axe failed to draw the people. He had seen many a man die, but even his recital of all these things failed to bring him the added revenue.

So, like his two predecessors in office, he took his own life.

Of course, it's easy to argue that the executioner is simply part of the law machine, and that he only carries out what the jurymen decide should be done. But the answer is, there is Schweitz and his two predecessors, three of them, all headmen, dead at their own hand.

Note and Comment

Niagara Falls man risked his neck to smuggle foreigners across the river. For trying to get around national doors he will spend the next year behind prison doors.

A Pottsville, Pa., man, on hearing that his second wife was coming to town, tried to kill himself. One of the wives will probably attend to that, so he need not worry.

Lady Astor carried her hat in her hand when entering the British Parliament. Agnes McPhail probably leaves hers in a handbag, because she never wears it in the Commons.

Many a man will take a warning from the Sault Ste. Marie people who started to clean up the premises around a church and nearly burned the place down. He will leave his backyard alone.

St. Thomas Community Male Choir came to London and convinced a lot of people here that St. Thomas has an organization of which it can and should be proud. The choir is not large, but it is good. It has fine common sense in selecting material it can handle well. This idea of a men's community choir is excellent, and the St. Thomas men are deserving of all the congratulations they received.

WENIGE KNOCKED OUT BY HIMSELF IN FOURTH ROUND OF BIG FIGHT

Douglass Declared Winner of Terrific Battle Witnessed By 80,000,000,000 Persons

CITY CLERK CLEANS UP

Dr. Douglass scored the greatest victory in the history of the squared circle here last night when he knocked Mayor Wenige for a row of test tubes in the fourth inning of their scheduled 10-round bout.

The battle attracted a $16,000,000,000 gate. Many spectators brought their own gait and City Clerk Baker reaped a tremendous harvest picking up empty bottles of condensed heat which were thrown at the contestants.

A special section of the arena seats had been reserved for gentlemen. Another was occupied by aldermen and their friends.

At 8:15, Wenige, wearing a crepe de chine earmuff and purple bloomers, entered the ring and was accorded an extraordinary reception. He managed to dodge most of the cabbages, but was not so successful with the tomatoes. The mayor maintained his poise when Dr. Douglass came in and the latter regained his avoirdupois. The doctor wore pink organdy pantaloons trimmed with orange blossoms. On the lapel of his B.V.D.'s was a beautiful spring radish, the symbol of victory.

Wenige weighed in at 8:20. The scales broke when the doctor attempted to weigh in. Ald. Greer gave last instructions to the two men and warned Wenige there was to be no pinching or nose tweaking.

ROUND ONE—Wenige opened with a kick in the slats. Douglass butted Wenige in the solar plexus. Douglass kicked Wenige's shins. Douglass bit off the lobe of Wenige's ear. Wenige smiled. Douglass shot a right to the eyebrow. Wenige lost his smile and was running around the ring with Douglass after him at the bell. THREE HITS, ONE RUN, THIRTEEN ERRORS.

SECOND INNING—Revived from a tumbler of condensed heat, Wenige made a terrific lunge at Douglass' Adam's apple and sliced off part of the peel. The doctor hit one of the ring posts with rage and it fell on Ald. Towse's toe. The fight stopped while policemen escorted Towse out for saying "Gracious!" before women. Douglass drives Texas leaguer to Wenige's center. Wenige catches Douglass off his base and wallops the doctor's cerebellum. Doctor hits Wenige's arterio sclerosis. Spectator throws hot muffin, which catches Douglass on the peritineum. TWO HITS, ONE BUN, NO ERRORS.

THIRD HOLE—Wenige makes wonderful drive and lands by mistake on Referee Greer's fairway. Greer takes count and is pulled out of ring denouncing Wenige for failure to yell "Fore." Douglass takes iron shot at Wenige, but lands in rough. Douglass opens mouth to catch a fly and Wenige tries smashie shot which lands in hole. A gin and a vermouth bottle were heaved into the ring. Both men were mixing it at the bell. WENIGE ONE UP AND SEVEN TO GO.

ROUND FOUR—Wenige makes Herculean slash at Douglass' moustache, but misses and hits himself terrible wallop on the proboscis. Wenige drops and takes the count. Ald. Drake offers Wenige prunes to revive him. Wild scene ensues. Douglass hoisted on backs of admirers and is carried dozen steps when admirers break down under weight and all take the count. Douglass dragged to Humane Society and Inspector Tustin administrators first aid.

BULLETIN—Douglass in Humane Society reported bitten by dog. Tustin claims Douglass attacked dog first. Wenige completely recovered except for loss of voice. Aldermen hear news regarding voice with gratification and are considering possible ways of making it permanent. Wenige says thorough probe to be instituted into prize fight, which he terms "a disgrace to the fair name of our city."

Banjo, Spade and Rake

I know a chap not far from me, he putters round with spade and hoe, a-scratchin' in the garden plot, a-teachin' bulbs and things to grow.

He seems to take a lot of fun in nursin' things he plants out there, he whistles in the mornin' time a tuneful sort of garden air.

And when he's done with things at night he puts away the spade and hoe, and makes a bit of melody from pickin' on an old banjo.

He ain't what folks would call expert, there's no degrees tagged to his name, but he can pink and plunk all right and turn out music just the same.

He sits there in the evenin' hours, a-perched upon a kitchen chair, at times he thrums some soulful chords and sings a plaintive little air.

When folks drop in, as oft they do, he's glad to have them meet his clan, and if they ask him for a toon he says I'll do as best I can. And off he starts to punk and plunk, not makin' any fuss or show, but turnin' out the best he's got by pickin' on his old banjo.

He's not like lots of folks I know, who go a-scamperin' here and there, a-seekin' for new thrills each day, a new sensation, raw or rare.

He seems to know just what to do as each new hour comes 'long his way, he grieves with them what trouble hits, and laughs with them what's young and gay.

I reckon that a lot of folks will miss him when he's got to go, and put aside his spade and rake, and leave behind his old banjo.—ARK.

The Devil's Handicap

THE difficulty with a lie is that it does not fit.

It not only does not fit the truth but it does not fit other lies. The excellence of truth is that it does fit.

An error is like a monkey wrench in the machinery.

The whole universe is a wonderful mechanism. Every law in it harmonizes with every other law; every force in it co-operates with every other force.

That is why this solid globe spins around the sun and keeps its orbital track to the nicety of a hair.

And what is true of matter is true of mind.

That is the reason why William James' definition of truth is the best yet made:

"The truth is what will work."

The excellence of truth is that it leads to harmony. One truth is akin to all others. They are all members of the same living family and do not quarrel.

But when you get hold of a piece of nonsense, or of untruth, the more you hang on to it the more entangled you become.

The first duty of man is not to believe; it is to find out what to believe; it is not to have faith; it is to know what to have faith in.

YOU may believe with all your heart and with true religious devotion that a bullet, fired from a gun, will not harm you, yet you will get killed just the same if somebody shoots you, and quite as effectively, as if you were an agnostic.

Every falsehood is very much like a disease germ; unless it is destroyed it will break out in some kind of sore. Retained in the system it invariably causes pain or weakness.

Faith is of no value as a substitute for Truth; it is only good as a handmaiden to Truth; a follower and servant of Truth.

The devil always stumbles finally. He may run fast for a while and we may all imagine that he will win the race. But the truth is he does not belong in this world. He does not know the paths and pitfalls of the universe. By and by he falls. Only the honest mind and the good heart understand the world. They invariably succeed because every force in the universe is in cooperation with them. Their tragedy is only seeming. Their suffering is but temporary. Those who are half blind are those who believe that evil pays. But, if a man's vision is clear and his judgment sound, he will never doubt that the devil is fatally handicapped.

There is no other remedy like Burdock Blood Bitters that can possibly give such relief to all sufferers from eczema, salt rheum and all other diseases of the blood for the reason that this old and well tried remedy goes right to the seat of the trouble and completely and permanently drives these diseases out of the system by cleansing the blood and making it pure and rich.

Mr. F. W. H. Schultz, Pembroke, Ont., writes: "Having been troubled with eczema for fifteen years, during which time I tried everything I could think of, including doctors, but without getting anything to do me much good, I finally decided to take Burdock Blood Bitters, and I was certainly surprised to find that two weeks after I had started to take it I was relieved of my trouble. That was nine months ago, and I have not had a sign of it since. I surely wish to thank you for this wonderful medicine and strongly recommend it to anyone suffering from the same trouble as I had."

For Cream Soups

CREAM OF GREEN PEA SOUP

- 1/4 cupful Borden's Evaporated Milk
- 2 1/2 cupfuls cold water.
- 1 teaspoonful sugar.
- 1/2 teaspoonful scraped onion
- 2 cupfuls canned or cooked fresh peas
- 2 tablespoonfuls butter or butter substitute.
- 1 1/2 tablespoonfuls flour.
- 1 teaspoonful salt
- 1/4 teaspoonful pepper.

Add the peas, sugar and onion to the cold water and simmer for twenty minutes. Then rub through a sieve; add the evaporated milk, reheat and thicken with the flour blended with the butter and the seasonings.

WHEN dining in a noted restaurant haven't you enjoyed a cream soup you wished you could duplicate at home? Most likely, it was made with evaporated milk.

It is marvellous how your favorite recipe is improved if you use Borden's St. Charles Milk. Just try this Cream of Green Pea Soup recipe!

CABLE COMMUNICATION BRITISH WEST INDIES

Telegraphs Bill Given Third Reading in House At London.

Associated Press Despatch, London, May 7.—The House of Commons tonight passed the third reading of the Indian telegraphs bill, which provided for the expenditure of £400,000 for the establishment of a system of cable and wireless communication in the British West Indian Islands and British Guiana.

Loew-Advertiser Contest Winners Awarded Prizes

Principal A. E. Miller of Central Collegiate Makes Presentation At Loew's Theatre.

RECEIVE CHECKS

Management of Theatre Presents Girls With Bouquets of Flowers.

GEORGE EDWARDS,
Toronto auditor, who estimated the total "padding" of Home Bank profits at $2,747,000 in his testimony before the royal commission at Ottawa.

Principal A. E. Miller of the London Central Collegiate presented the prizes last night in Loew's Theatre to the three winners of the Popular Business Girls' Contest. With the checks given by The Advertiser to the winners went three lovely bouquets of cut flowers, a gift of the management of the theatre.

In congratulating the winner, Mrs. K. Harris, who is a member of the staff of the Westwell Business College, and presenting her with a $50-check, Mr. Miller remarked that credit was due to the enthusiastic efforts of some of her pupils in the school who had worked in her behalf, gathering votes, adding that it was a happy sign of her popularity with her pupils, hoping that London would have the benefit of her presence and personality for many years.

Miss Emma Pearson, who came second, and Miss Hannah Drucker, who was third, and who each received a check for $25, were also congratulated on the result of the competition and on the possession of a personality sufficiently attractive to win them so many friends and well-wishers to record votes in their favor.

The large audience received the presentations with the same interest that has been in evidence throughout the rounds of the competition, and when Mr. Miller handed Mrs. Harris the basket of roses and lilies from the management, her supporters, who had turned out in force, cheered the winner with the college yell and provided an impromptu note to the formal presentation.

Mr. Miller complimented the entrants on the fine showing each had made and expressed his belief in the young ladies who had entered the contest were an invaluable civic asset.

"It takes personality," he said, "to emerge with high standing in such a contest as this, and it is to be hoped that these ladies will for many years remain here in London and further merit the popularity they have already attained."

SENATE DEBATES INDUSTRIAL ACT

Benefits Derived From Act Pointed Out by Senator Dandurand.

Canadian Press Despatch, Ottawa, May 7.—Amendments to the industrial disputes act which were rejected in the second chamber last year and which have passed the House of Commons again this year were considered in the Senate today. Senator Dandurand, in introducing the bill, traced the history of the industrial disputes act from 1907 until the present time. He pointed out that in 580 disputes investigated in that time, 544 had been amicably settled and only 36 strikes had ensued.

EIGHT MORE DETECTIVES MAY BE ASKED TO RESIGN

Canadian Press Despatch, Montreal, May 7.—Eight more detectives are slated for removal, according to rumors at police headquarters here today. Heads of the department, however, disclaimed any knowledge of impending changes. Recently eight detectives were asked either to resign or accept reduction in rank. One was later reinstated. It is also rumored that officials higher up are slated to go.

"I Got It For Passing My Exams"

"GEE, George, I bet my dad will get me a C.C.M., too, I studied hard all year, and I passed my exams, well, I think I deserve a bike, don't you?"

"I hope you get it, Eddie. Then you can join the rest of us fellows in our runs out into the country and our picnics."

"I'm taking mine away on my vacation, too. There are lots of country roads to ride along and dandy woods to explore, some streams to fish in and other things to see, all within easy riding distance."

"Mother says it will be so handy to have a bike around. There's always the mail to go for and other errands to run."

"Well, George, I'm going to get my dad to go with me to the C.C.M. dealer's and see the new models—especially that dandy Curved Bar Sport Model and the other one a boy won't outgrow."

"Don't forget to tell him, Eddie, that C.C.M. Bicycles are away down in price. $15 to $20 less than the war prices. Also that they're made of English Seamless Tubing and equipped with the C.C.M. Triplex

Hanger, Gibson Pedals and the Hercules Coaster Brake without extra charge.

"If he says he's short of cash, Eddie, tell him he only needs to pay a few dollars down, and the rest in small weekly or monthly payments."

"And I'll offer to help pay the balance, George. There are lots of jobs for a boy with a bicycle during the summer holidays, delivering small parcels, running messages, and doing other things. It will be good experience and heaps of fun, too."

BEATTY WOULD APPLY ACT TO C. N.

Says Road Should Be Brought Within Provisions of Railway Act.

Canadian Press Despatch, Montreal, May 7.—There were two phases of the general railway situation of Canada which involved objectionable and discriminatory features not in the interests of the transportation companies themselves, or in his opinion in the interests of the people of the Dominion, E. W. Beatty said in the course of his presidential address at the annual meeting of the shareholders of the Canadian Pacific Railway today.

LALIBERTE GUILTY OF MANSLAUGHTER

Sentenced To Refrain From Driving Car For Next Five Years.

Special to The Advertiser, Windsor, May 7.—After deliberating for nearly two hours, a jury at Sandwich late today returned a verdict of manslaughter against Felix Laliberte of Ford, charged with running down and killing a 2-year old boy, Freddie Schoen, about a month ago. A strong recommendation for mercy was included in the verdict. Justice Mowat suspended sentence on condition that Laliberte does not drive an automobile for the next five years.

The defendant, pale and nervous and plainly showing the strain under which he has labored, gave his promise while tears trickled down his cheeks. He would never drive a car again, he declared.

Associated Press Despatch, Copenhagen, May 7.—When Douglas Fairbanks' press agent informed a Danish newspaper that Fairbanks and Mary Pickford were ready to visit Denmark if the newspaper could arrange an audience for Doug and Mary with the king, the editor of the paper rung up the king's chamberlain and asked whether this would be feasible.

"Who are Fairbanks and Pickford?" asked the chamberlain. Learning their vocations and nationality the cham-

Eight Carloads of Gold

One hundred and nineteen million Canadian dollars in 1923, went to the United States for coal—equal to eight express cars each loaded with thirty tons of gold.

The 1923 Coal Bill for Ontario and Quebec

THE combined importations of coal by central Ontario and Quebec from the United States in 1923 totalled 21,376,562 tons (besides 444,800 tons from Great Britain.) The cost of this imported coal ranged from $6 to $10 per ton and averaged well over $8 per ton. The Department of the Interior places a value of $10 a ton upon this coal but even at an average of $7 per ton the bill for coal imported from the United States for these two provinces would be $149,635,000.

Less than 20% of this money went to Canadian railways, coal dealers and workmen.

The balance, 80%, or $119,708,000, went out of Canada forever—in one year mind you—to build up United States business, to give employment to United States citizens. Not a dollar of that money will ever again be fingered by a Canadian.

Yet in Nova Scotia, from the untold millions of tons of coal resources in that province, there is ample coal which can be mined and laid down in Montreal with a fair profit, at a price which will cover only the American cost of extraction, freight and duty, to say nothing of delivery and profit. And Nova Scotia coal is equal to or better than the average American coal imported into Canada.

Think of the tremendous economic value of $119,000,000 sent out of Canada in one year for coal. Consider the buying power of the Nova Scotia communities which could be supported if this money were sent to that province instead of to the United States. What it would mean to Nova Scotia can be realized when it is stated that the total value of the coal produced in Nova Scotia in 1923 was just $29,000,000, or a little more than one-quarter of what Ontario and Quebec spent for coal in the United States.

With the increased population and wealth this trade would bring to Nova Scotia would be developed big new markets for the products of Ontario and Quebec industries.

Instead of sending $119,000,000 out of the country that money would circulate in Canada and stimulate Canadian business as only $119,000,000 could stimulate it.

Tecumseh's Even Series With Saginaw, Take on Wolves Today

TECHUMSEH'S EVEN SERIES WITH SAGINAW GOES TO LONDON 8-7

Two Triples by Sandquist Drive in Five Tec Runs.

CARMEN BUMPED

London Infield Put Up Almost Faultless Exhibition.

The Beattymen evened up the series here with the Aces Wednesday afternoon by beating them 8-7 in 10 innings, thus clearing the decks for the three-day action which starts over the river today with Punch Knoll's Wolf Pack.

They not only evened the series, but in the sixth inning they beat them last week, and also the count, at that moment which resulted in the game going into extra innings.

Nason and Effert topped off the afternoon in the tenth, when the former drew a walk, slipped down to second as the Saginaw infield took a short nap after a foul had been returned to the box, and the latter followed by a sacrifice bunt.

It was an up and down struggle, second with the Aces, Tecumseh replied with two. With two gone, two walks put Delman, or as some of the fans thought, the ump, in the hole and he couldn't extricate himself before three Aces runs were across.

CHICAGO POUNDS PIRATE HURLERS

Giants Takes Game From Phillies 4-2 in Tenth Inning.

Associated Press Despatch. Pittsburgh May 7.—Five Pittsburgh pitchers were unable to stop the slugging Cubs, and Chicago evened the series by taking today's game, 5 to 1. Kaufmann pitched a brilliant game, but was especially effective with men on bases.

There are two distinct types of ball teams in this circuit—those that have been gathered together without much regard to expense and those which are built up on the law of averages. The Aces would come under the latter head. Most of the players played in the league last year. Under normal conditions they will strike a pretty fair average of play outside unusual breaks.

Beatty's squad comes somewhere between these two. With the season but a few games old, some of Beatty's younger prospects look like real finds.

Canada's tramping team as chosen for the Olympic has the best chance of any portion of the Maple Leaf entry of making a real showing in the world games, but has been refused financial support from the Canadian Olympic committee.

Whether or not some of the trappers are able to pay their own way should not enter into the question. It's a sport and competitive, and on the past performances sheet the team would probably gain more points for Canada than those which will compete in any other lines.

The Canadians blamed their showing in the last Olympic games on having to use English shells. The Americans, who were using the shells Canadians were used to, refused to lend the Canucks any. However, the Canucks will have their own supply this trip.

Western Ontario has one representative on the team again this year, Sam Vance of Tillsonburg.

One Hamilton man thought there would be over 18,000 at the Hamilton Park to see Judge Landis opening day. This was either a guessing contest or he was a new resident.

L. A. A. girls' basketball team supporters are not convinced that Shamrock's reasons for not playing a city series were to avoid a display of bad sportsmanship and lowering the standard of basketball in London.

It may be a hot summer, but the Shamrocks won't need any footbaths to cool their toesies, one wag put it. But then he may be doing the Shamrocks an injustice.

Since the beginning of time, the stellar sport attraction in London has been the annual baseball tournament and festival, with The Advertiser editorial team (long famous in sport annals), and a number of Free Press editors, whose baseball efforts are doubtless well meant, if a trifle crude.

"Can" Charles Carruthers has been challenged to meet The Advertiser team, with the place to be settled by arbitration. As the Free Press strenuously objects to Mayor George Wenke as official umpire, a special committee has been authorized to bring in a list of recommendations. It is understood that "Jimmy" Bell, city treasurer, and old time city leaguer, will officiate.

Many other oldtimers will participate in their respective capacities, various and sundry. "Pinky" Wigle, oldtime hurler, may be on the mound for The Advertiser team, with R. J. Churchill and six other fingers waiting behind the bleachers, in reserve.

It is reported that "Dusty" Rhodes, Free Press selection, still entertains possibilities as a twirler. Some think that "Doc" Pep should occupy a prominent place on that team. Thousands of others hold contrary views. This is the same "Roads" that tried to steal second while the base was occupied, oldtime fans will recall.

On the Side Lines

With C. S. G.

FANS NOT SO CRITICAL. Indicative of the new baseball spirit which has struck London, fans were not in a critical mood after the opening game here, which London lost. London fans, as well as those of any other city, like the opening game turned in to the win column, but Tuesday they took the trouble to search out the perfectly good alibis for the teams. There weren't many needed. "It's a sweet team. Give Beatty a chance to fit them in." "They are new to this league. They'll come."

Other comment of a similar trend was heard on all sides. The Hamilton and London teams provide most of the new faces in the Mint this year. Beatty is probably breaking in more of the less experienced players of the two teams, though there are actually only three rookies on the outfit at present.

Players breaking into a new league are at a temporary disadvantage. Styles of play vary in different leagues; it takes time to get the hang of not only the strategy likely to be forthcoming but of certain players who are apt to do the unexpected.

Saginaw is typical of most of the other teams of the Mint. Nearly a new team, but made up of old Mint League players switched around from other teams.

SENATORS STOP RED SOX STREAK

Athletics Suffer Ninth Straight Defeat At Hands of Yankees.

Associated Press Despatch. Cleveland, May 7.—St. Louis defeated Cleveland today, 10 to 8. St. Louis drove Coveleskie from the box in the first inning. In the fifth Levensen was driven from the rubber. Jacobson made five hits in five times up.

The score: St. Louis 600 040 000—10 16 0 Cleveland 061 000 100—8 13 0

New York, May 7.—Terrific slugging gave the New York Yankees a third straight victory over Philadelphia today, 7 to 4. It was the ninth consecutive defeat for the Athletics. Pennock pitched a strong game until the closing innings, when he had to be rescued by Hoyt. Shortstop Gallo turned his ankle after making a sensational stop, and was replaced by Riconda.

The score: Philadelphia 000 000 310—4 13 2 New York 201 121 002—7 15 0

Boston, May 7.—Boston ended its winning streak today when Washington won an 11-inning game, 5 to 4. The deciding run came on singles by Judge and Ruel. Prother's infield out, and a wild pitch into the dirt by Jack Quinn. Lee's fielding and three Washington double plays were features.

The score: Washington 012 000 001 01—5 13 0 Boston 000 210 010 04—4 9 1

Local fandom is all worked up over the Inter-County League opening Saturday and the baseball prospects for the coming season. The baseball committee of the G. A. A. has arranged for opening ceremonies on Saturday's game with Guelph. The Terriers will not have their championship pennant from the O. A. A. in time to raise it Saturday. They will be a parade of a band, fire department and teams and officials.

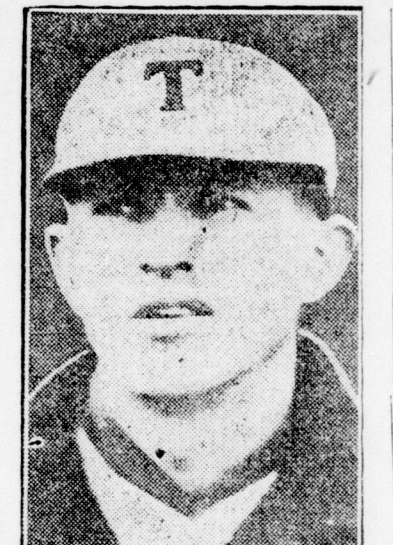

At the park Mayor A. E. Willard, Wm. Elliott, M.P., Col. A. J. Oliver, president of the G. A. A., and Ald. J. E. Gardiner will participate in the opening ceremonies. The Terriers will in this game make their debut in their new uniforms of black and white.

Paris, May 7.—Georges Carpentier off for his fight in the United States aboard the boat train this forenoon amid the plaudits of some 100 of his followers. His departure was in striking contrast with the circumstances of his leaving two years ago when he sailed forth to conquer Jack Dempsey, and the world's championship, on which occasion the police reserves were summoned to protect him from being mobbed by thousands of his admirers at the St. Lazaire station.

Paul Fritsch, European lightweight champion; Charles Ledoux, European featherweight champion; Johnny Sullivan the welterweight, and Trainer Gus Williams completed the party, which will board the liner Majestic at Cherbourg this evening for New York.

Paris, May 7.—The French Olympic boxing team was selected in the Cirque de Paris last night before 5,000 spectators, the largest crowd ever attending an amateur boxing event in France. Savignac, a lightweight from Louraine, was the most promising boxer uncovered, and, on the strength of his showing, would appear to have a good chance against any adversary in his class.

Montreal, May 7.—Manager Leo Dandurand of the Canadiens will leave here Friday for Toronto to attend the N. H. L. meeting Sunday. It is expected he will go to New York from Toronto. The local club has been dickered with some players, and they are to meet the local manager in the Queen City Saturday.

CHURCH BASEBALL LOOP ORGANIZED FOR SEASON

Large Number of Entries May Mean Conducting Two Groups.

At a meeting of the city church baseball executive, to which a member from each city church was invited, was held in the Anchor Club rooms, Tuesday, May 6. S. Parsons, the president for 1923, gave a very encouraging report of the progress made.

The new officers elected are: John A. Nash, honorary president; F. Adams, Dundas Center, president; Mr. Goodland, Empress avenue, vice-president; H. McTavish, First Methodist, secretary-treasurer.

The executive adopted the 1923 constitution, with the exception that games will go as far as possible up to nine innings. Should the umpire see fit to call the game during an inning, the score shall revert to what it was at the end of the last even inning; also that the teams must be on the field with nine men by 6:45, otherwise the game is forfeited.

Each team must furnish a list of prospective umpires by the next regular meeting. This season it is expected there will be enough teams to make it necessary to run two groups. Every church is urged to enter a team. Any member of a church or any adherent of a church may play; only professional and senior C. E. A. A. players are barred.

The entry fee is $10. Diamonds are being secured, and the schedule will be ready soon. Many churches this year claim new dark horses on their teams, and it is fully expected that some of the speediest amateur baseball of the year will be played under the Senior Church League banner.

The next regular meeting will be held in the Nikator Club rooms, Dundas Center Church, Tuesday next, at 7:30. Every church interested in baseball is urged to have a representative at this meeting as the entries must be in and the schedule will be drawn up then.

Montreal, May 7.—Jack Terrence, Moose Jaw middleweight, and light heavyweight champion of Canada, has been matched to defend his middleweight title against Billy Harrow, Everett, Wash., against Billy Harrow, Everett, Wash., in the Pacific Northwest champion.

Special to The Advertiser. Sarnia, May 7.—Sarnia O. I. athletes are ruminating regretfully on what they just failed to achieve in the various lines of sport this season. Time was a short year ago when the local collegiate carried off most of the trophies and championships in sight. This season they were runners-up in four branches of sport. They lost the rugby title by a final to Hamilton C. I. mostly through an injury to Captain Eddie Robinson, Woodstock came along and handed out a sudden death training in the Wosso finals, and both boys' and girls' basketball teams reached the final rounds only to taste defeat. The reason of Sarnia's fall from power has been a unduly large exodus of star players all in a year. Sarnia's school spirit is splendid, however, and there is a promising crop of athletes coming along.

Golf AS CHAMPIONS PLAY IT

GET A PENDULUM SWING HITTING UP A BALL FOR OVERSPIN.

Is it a good practice to stab putts when greens are slow and rough? Answered by WM. MELHORN, "The St. Louis Wagoner" whose battering courage and sound golf enable him to finish well up in all the tournaments he enters.

To stab putts is bad practice on any kind of a green, especially on slow or rough greens. A putt hit with an overspin is always easier to control. On a rough green the putt with an overspin will keep its line better, tending to roll right over the bumps and keep a straight course, while a stab putt is hit with more of a cut and every bump it hits might make it kick further off the line. Try a more pendulum swing, hitting up at the ball.

OIL STOCK PRICES TAKE BIG SLUMP

Reports of Increased Crude Production Has Damaging Effect.

Associated Press Despatch. New York, May 8.—Wall street, 1:30 p.m.—With the bullish impulses apparently exhausted for the time being, there was more incentive to active selling this afternoon, when the steel group displayed conspicuous heaviness. Oil continued to lose ground. Sinclair preferred falling 2 1/2 to 7 1/2, a new minimum for the year. Studebaker, American International, Dupont, U. S. Alcohol, American Hide and Leather preferred, and National Lead also lacked support.

Associated Press Despatch. New York, May 8.—Wall Street, noon. Weakness in the foreign exchange markets, and reports of another increase in crude oil production by the American Petroleum Institute, were regarded as contributing factors to the morning selling. Trading, however, was relatively light in volume. Oils were the hardest hit as a group, Atlantic Refining dropping nearly 5 points, and General Asphalt, Pacific Oil, and General Electric extended their early losses to 1 1/2 points each, while United States Steel, American Steel, and American Iron and Steel were added to the list of stocks to sell a point or so below yesterday's final figures. Call money opened at 3 1/2 per cent.

Associated Press Despatch. New York, May 8.—Heavy selling of French francs, based on speculative uncertainty over the outcome of the forthcoming French elections, and threatened disturbances in the Ruhr, today caused a sharp decline in the price of the franc in the rate to below 6 cents. After dipping as low as 5.89 cents, the price of the franc was restored to 6 cents by a rally in the afternoon. Sterling also was subjected to selling pressure, dropping from 24 1/2 to 24 1/4, and then rallying fractionally.

An occasional dose of DR. CALDWELL'S LAXATIVE SYRUP PEPSIN Keeps young girls fit

False Modesty Wrecks Health THE young lady just assuming the responsibilities of a woman is very apt to be self-conscious of her physical functions, and in consequence neglect them. There is no time, however, when it is more important for her to look after them. Chief among her troubles is constipation, and her suffering will be serious when she gets older if she does not regulate her bowels now. Mrs. J. Charbonneau, 3410 Adam, Montreal, recommends Dr. Caldwell's Laxative Syrup Pepsin to all her friends, and Mrs. Henry Joyce, Croton, Ont., says it is the best remedy for constipation she ever used.

Public Recognizes Merit You will quickly see the difference between a mild laxative like Dr. Caldwell's Laxative Syrup Pepsin and castor oil, or rough cathartics and physics. Syrup Pepsin acts gently and does not gripe. Increased doses are not necessary. A bottle can be had at any drug store, and a spoonful costs less than a cent. It has been successfully used for thirty years and is the largest selling liquid laxative in the world, over 10 million bottles having been sold in drug stores last year. Keep Laxative Syrup Pepsin in your medicine chest. If You Want to Try It Free Before Buying... "Syrup Pepsin," 24 Caldwell Bldg., Toronto, Ont. I need a good laxative and would like to prove what you say about Dr. Caldwell's Laxative Syrup Pepsin by actual test. Send me a free trial bottle. WATER BILLS NOT TO BE REPORTED States F. H. Keefer Concerning Outcome of Chicago Diversion Fight. Canadian Press Despatch. Toronto, May 7.—Asked for his opinion as to the probable outcome of the fight against the Chicago water diversion before the rivers and harbors committee of the United States, F. H. Keefer, M.L.A., Ontario's representative before that body, upon his return today stated that the bills before the committee would not likely be reported. "The probable outcome is," he said, "that there will be no bills reported by this committee this session. The supreme court will give its decision next November, and, in all reasonable probability, they will confirm the judgment of the lower court—that is, enjoining Chicago against using more than 4,100 feet, which the war office permitted."

In Canada's Parliament

Canadian Press Dispatch, Ottawa, May 8—

Today in Parliament.

The debate on the budget will be resumed in the House of Commons. The Senate will sit.

Yesterday in Parliament.

In the Senate. An amendment to the industrial disputes act was given a second reading. A bill to amend the criminal code, making it more difficult to obtain bail in certain criminal offences, was given second reading.

In the House. Hon. W. R. Motherwell, minister of agriculture, declared that there had been no selling out to the Progressives. The budget was a real Liberal budget and the parties were lining up for a fight on the tariff issue. The premier said that Mr. Fielding had asked him to repeat his statement of approval of the budget. Col. Arthur (Conservative, Pa.) (Sound) believed that though the budget might satisfy the west, the rest of the country would have to pay for it.

FIFTY THOUSAND CLUB GETS START IN CITY

Vic Wong Elected Chairman of London Branch at Meeting in "Y".

The London section of the Fifty Thousand Club was organized last night among the boys of the Y. M. C. A. The Fifty Thousand Club is composed of all the boy members of the Y. M. C. A. of North America who contribute $1 or more towards the world brotherhood movement.

In London, the "Y" efforts in this movement at the present time are confined to the boys' work in India. 31 members contributing last year. Those in charge expect that a big advance will be made this coming year. Last night was the first meeting of this club, and Victor Wong was elected chairman of the London division.

Mr. Ormond, who has been serving for the Y. M. C. A. in India, gave the boys an interesting talk on the customs and habits of the boys of India, and had some interesting slides on Indian life. Each boy present at the supper was given a kite made by a boy in India. The following boys attended last night: Norman Routledge, Jack White, Art Glen, Vic Wong, Bud Foot, Fred Edwards, Ben Higgins, Arthur Kingsmill and Alan McNaughton.

HUDSON BAY SCHEME INTERESTS GERMANS

Foreign Capitalists Willing To Raise $100,000,000 Toward the Project.

Canadian Press Dispatch, Saskatoon, Sask., May 8.—German capitalists are ready to go ahead with the Hudson Bay Railway scheme and develop mineral, oil and other resources adjacent to the Hudson Bay. This announcement was made by Col. R. H. Webb, a member of the working committee of the On-to-the-Bay Association, here last night.

The Germans had offered to raise $100,000,000 before the war to carry out this project. Since the war, he said, Germans had again approached capitalists in Montreal, Toronto and Winnipeg to form a syndicate to develop these resources, and the question for Canadians to consider was would they allow the Germans to do this thing or complete the road themselves.

BUDGET HAS APPROVAL OF HON. W. S. FIELDING

Minister of Finance Asks Premier To Make Statement in House.

ANSWERS TORIES
Motherwell Asserts Liberals Did Not Sell Out To Progressives.

Canadian Press Despatch.
Ottawa, May 7.—"There has been no selling out," declared Hon. W. R. Motherwell, minister of agriculture, in the House today during continued debate on the budget. Mr. Motherwell was referring to relations be-

Dynamite Stick Taken For Cigar

Special to The Advertiser.
Ripley, May 7.—Mistaking a stick of dynamite for a cigar, the son of William Hamilton, a farmer of Huron Township, received serious injuries when the powder exploded in his hands.
The powder was being used for blasting purposes. The boy's face and hands were badly burned.

between Liberals and Progressives. He added that the platforms of the two parties were identical. "If we carry out ours, we carry out theirs," Mr. Motherwell charged that the real reason why Conservatives did not like the budget was because it had "got them on the hip." The budget was a real Liberal budget, and the parties were lining up for a fight on the tariff issues.

Subsequent debate brought a further assurance from Premier King that Rt. Hon. W. S. Fielding, minister of finance, was in sympathy with the budget proposals. After making his late statement on Mr. Fielding's attitude, said the premier, "I have had a conversation with Mr. Fielding, and he requested me to repeat it again."

Hon. E. M. MacDonald, minister of defense, added that Mr. Fielding had said to him that the budget had his full approval.
Colonel Arthur's, Conservative, of Parry Sound, referred to immigration as one of the gravest problems Canada had to face. During the last fiscal year 133,000 had entered Canada, while in the same period 183,000 left Canada. Calculating that the average laboring man earned a thousand dollars a year, Canada lost $183,000,000. Col. Arthur's remarked that the budget would satisfy the west, but the rest of the country would have to pay for it.

Real Liberal Budget.
Hon. W. R. Motherwell, in resuming the debate, said it was well that the tariff issue had been sharply defined. The budget was "a real Liberal budget." The parties were lining up for a fight on the tariff issues and the budget was good in that it made a distinct cleavage between high and lower tariff groups.

"The 'bleached faces' of the opposition while they listened to the speech from the throne indicated how hard hit they were," Mr. Motherwell continued. The estimates and the budget had been further blows. The announcement from the implement manufacturers that they could get along very nicely under the new tariff was a final blow to the opposition, which was still trying frantically to represent industry as ruined by the tariff.

Dr. Manion had cried out that industry was being sacrificed to politics that Liberals had sold out to the farmers. "There has been no selling out," said the minister of agriculture. "Our platform is identical with the farmers. If we carry out ours, we automatically carry out theirs. We are merely doing gradually what we tried to do rapidly in 1911, when we were told that we were going too fast. We are saying to a group of interest which have been on our back for fifty years, 'Get off and walk on your own feet for a while.'"

Supplement Estimates.
The minister said that the latest cry of the Conservatives in their disapproval of the progress toward opportunity and stability which the government was making was to prophesy that the supplementary estimates would exceed twenty millions. "I don't know anything positive about them," said Mr. Motherwell, "but I don't believe they will be half of twenty millions."

Now there was the prophecy that Canada would be "gobbled up by Uncle Sam." This was exceeding the limit in nonsense and indicated to what depths of impotence the Conservatives were reduced in their arguments against the government.

One of the most hopeful signs today was the way in which the Massey-Harris Company had accepted the budget. Mr. Motherwell said he had always taken the ground that new industries should receive support, but he had never believed in adopting it "as a principle even unto old age."

Col. James Arthur's of Parry Sound referred to the statement recently made in the House by Premier King that the budget had the entire approval of Rt. Hon. W. S. Fielding, finance minister.
Denial by King.
Mr. King—Yes, and since making that statement I have had a conversation with Mr. Fielding and he requested that it be repeated in the House.

"There is a rumor that the mental condition of the minister of finance is not of the best," remarked Col. Arthur's.
The prime minister immediately rose and declared that there was no foundation for such a rumor and that the statement should be retracted.
Hon. E. M. MacDonald, minister of finance, also protested, saying that Mr. Fielding had intimated to him that the budget had his full approval. He thought that Colonel Arthur's had no right to make this statement.

Colonel Arthur's replied that he was merely repeating a rumor which was current. He proposed to read Mr. Fielding's statements in regard to the budget last year.
In his last budget speech Mr. Fielding had said that the government announced was "as low as any country can afford to have it under present conditions." Mr. Fielding has also spoken of the necessity of industries being "without any further changes." A reasonable measure of tariff stability should be assured according to last year's budget speech. Col. Arthur's claimed that the government had broken faith.

OVERPRODUCTION BAD FOR FARMER

Prof. Leitch of O. A. C. Believes Present Conditions Due Surplus Products.

Special to The Advertiser.
Guelph, Ont., May 7.—The special committee of the legislature engaged in making a survey of agricultural conditions in Western Ontario, securing information with a view of arriving at some definite solution of the farmers' difficulties, spent another profitable day at the Ontario Agricultural College today.

In the morning, headed by their chairman, Dr. Jamieson, they inspected the biological and chemical departments, where they secured considerable information in respect to the work that is being done for the benefit of the farmer; chemical analysis of soils, etc. The committee also visited the new dairy building, under the supervision of Prof. Dean, where they saw club and cottage cheese in the process of manufacture by a class from Macdonald Institute. They also inspected the ice cream, pasteurizing, cheese-making and milk powder plants at the institution.

After inspecting the botanic and physics departments in the afternoon, a sitting was held in the farm economics, where Prof. Leitch, head of that department, gave them an idea of the work being done by the college in inducing the farmer to keep an accurate account of production costs in order that they would know at all times on which stock they were making a profit, and on what a loss, so that they could get themselves accordingly. He also voiced the opinion that present agricultural economic conditions were due in a great measure to overproduction on the farm.

Prof. Colquhoun, speaking of marketing problems in the province, was of the opinion that there was room for improvement, and thought that to some extent at least co-operative handling of fruit would prove the remedy.
The members of the committee left tonight for Hamilton, where they will hold a meeting tomorrow.
