SQUIBOGRAPHS.

The Omaha girl, who swallowed a diamond, is the only person in the West with a full jewelled stomach.

King Edward will exhibit a number of his horses at the leading Canadian fairs. Being from the royal stables they will be bred in the purple.

Guests at Toronto hotels complain that fruit seldom adorns the table. The proprietors consider they have done their duty when they provide prunes and evaporated apples.

A circus train was wrecked near Saskatoon the other day. The giraffe's neck made a telescope of the elephant's trunk, and the clown that was thrown against the fire box of the engine remarked that there was more than one tender on the train.

The real estate agents out west take daily measurements of the growth of the wheat crop, and expect to use step ladders in a couple of weeks.

There seems to be something in a name after all. A Chicago woman was fined ten dollars for calling a neighbor a "sausage."

It is claimed that certain kinds of fish are deaf. This will be a great comfort to them, as they will not hear the remarks made by fishermen when they refuse to bite.

An anemic mosquito is rarer than a four-leaved clover.

Parliament has closed its doors. Stowed in the cellar the Arctic stores. The last grist to go through the mill. Was the mangled remains of poor Sunday Bill.

Sing Hey the merry farmer and the hay.
Sing Ho the jolly hired man he has to pay.

There have been so many changes in the line up of the Toronto ball team that Manager Barrow has to introduce the players to each other at the beginning of every game.

SKYAN'S REPLY
"I'll be yours if you'll be mine
Yours Truly,
William Jennings Bryan."

The candidate in dread suspense.
Awaits his fate a few weeks hence.
Views the future with gloomy alarm.
For failure means back to the farm.

Given a city building contract in Toronto it is easy to be the architect of your own fortune.

"Resolved that the giant fire cracker is deadlier than a Chicago sausage" was a timely subject of debate in a Michigan Literary Club recently.

KNOTTY.
Some thought
The Government ought
To re-appoint
Magistrate Nott.
They quite forgot
How long he'd fought
And sighed because he found it not.
Naughty Nott.

A MAGNIFICENT CROP.

It is Said That 25,000 Laborers Will Be Required To Garner Wheat.

Winnipeg, July 9.—Last year about 17,000 men were required to assist farmers of the west in taking off the crop. This year your correspondent was informed to-day by a Provincial government official, the number required will not be much less than twenty-five thousand. Wages last year thirty-five to forty dollars per month and board, will prevail this year. There is only one story from the wheat fields—a magnificent crop.

The C. N. R. issues a bulletin this morning saying: All conditions are favorable, and an early and bountiful harvest is promised. Wheat is heading out in all parts of the country, and in a couple of localities it is expected that harvesting operations will begin this month if nothing occurs to set back the crop. There has been an abundance of rain, but not too much, excepting perhaps, on very low land. Present hot weather is what the crops now require after the heavy rains. Hail fell in some localities last week, but did light damage in a couple of places.

THINK of a shirt waist suit for two dollars, its tony too.—SWIFT BROS.

HAVE you seen the latest jewelry novelty, a slipper with your name on it. DOWDING.

THE unfortunate citizen of town or city who is denied the incomparable delight of an occasional drive through the country at this season is entitled to all the pity his fellows can bestow on him. Field, forest and meadowland are looking their prettiest.

DURING the sugaring season, W. H. Harrison, of Pittsford, Vt., sent his man "Hi" to find out how the sap buckets had been filling. "Hi" investigated and then submitted his report. "Some is full, some half full and some ruin" over, but average about full."

FOLLOW the crowd for cheap shoes at the farewell clearing sale.—MCDONNELL & SON.

MR. CHISHOLM, of Toronto, Inspector of Mutual Life Ins. Companies, inspected the books of Lambton Farmer's Mutual Fire Ins. Co., last week. In conversation with the editor Mr. Chisholm stated Mr. Willoughby's books were not excelled in neatness and systematic arrangement by any of the Province. This speaks well for the efficient secretary, and the standing of the Co.

THE trial Tuesday of the charges against Frank Hyde and Chas. Matthews, the Bridgen hotelmen charged with violating the local option law, resulted in a long-drawn-out battle in Bridgen. The charge against Hyde was not sustained. The charge against Matthews was declared sustained and a fine of $20 imposed.

A LINEN shirt waist suit for three dollars, it costs that to make it.—SWIFT BROS.

THE price of eggs has been keeping remarkably high all summer. In fact it has never gone down below 15c and 16c per dozen. In the experience of local grocers, this is regarded as almost phenomenal. All of them incline to believe that eggs will soar in price before very long.

THE funeral of the late Mrs. Jos. Kerion, whose death was noted last week, took place on Thursday afternoon to the Watford cemetery, the service being conducted by the Rev. S. W. Muxworthy. The pall bearers were J. H. Hume, A. Hume, T. Goodland, J. Lucas, S. J. Saunders, and S. W. Louks.

WINDSOR Record: The agitation to change Thanksgiving Day from Thursday to Monday will meet a responsive cord in the popular mind. Thanksgiving Day is usually a time of family reunion, and the combining of Sunday with Monday will be a decided advantage to those who have to go abroad to spend the day.

"I should like," the man cautiously explained to his tailor, "to have a little pocket, a very, very small pocket, one you could hardly see, you know, put somewhere, say in the hem of my trousers or in the waistband, eh, where it couldn't be so easily found. You understand?" "I see," said the tailor. "You are married, now?"

"The evening wore on," continued the man who was telling the story. "Excuse me," interrupted one of his audience, but can you tell me what the evening wore on that occasion?" "I don't know that it is important," retorted the other. "But if you want to know, I believe it was the close of a summer day."

TRAVELERS on the G. T. R. cannot but admire the well-kept station and grounds at Wyoming. The grounds look particularly nice at present with their well kept lawn, shade trees and flowers. Wyoming has the best kept station and grounds on the G. T. R. between Montreal and Sarnia.—Railway News.

HAVE disposed of our entire delivery outfit, horse, wagon, etc. Goods must follow.—MCDONNELL & SON.

THE Toronto Telegram says: "The geography papers set for the candidates at the entrance examination this year was a smart effort full of man-traps, pitfalls and spring guns. Ontario's Education Department is not growing in common sense when it confuses the troubled minds of nervous children with such a bag of tricks as its geography paper."

OUR table of 69 cent white skirts and gowns are hummers.—SWIFT BROS.

MR. GEORGE N. MATHESON, the veteran collector of customs at Sarnia, has tendered his resignation to the department of customs at Ottawa, and the same has been accepted. MISS ANNIE ECCLES, who has been a member of the Alvinston teaching staff for the past two years, has tendered her resignation and left last Thursday for the Southern States, where she will spend the summer. MISS MARIE COUPLAND, A. L. C. M., Honorary Graduate in the "Teachers Normal, and Theory of Music," London, gave her first piano recital in Caldwell's Hall on Friday evening, July 6th, and was assisted by Mr. Morrow, vocalist; Miss Jessie Coupland, elocutionist; and Miss Jessie Coupland, vocalist. The pieces rendered by Miss Coupland showed her a pianist of marked ability an accomplishment that will assure her success as a teacher of music. She was obliged to respond to several encores indicating that the large audience of music lovers present thoroughly appreciated her playing. Mr. Morrow is so well known in Watford as a singer that he needs no introduction. He delighted the audience in his usual happy manner. The recitations of Miss Annie Coupland, elocutionist, were well rendered. A solo, "Sweet Bird of Song," was particularly well sung by Miss Jessie Coupland. The program was excellent throughout.

THE name of Grace Edwards was inadvertently omitted from the list of those who passed the entrance exam.

AN elderly woman who had, during the course of a somewhat eventful life, buried four husbands encountered, at the gates of the cemetery where the bodies of her former husbands reposed, an old but timid lover, whom she had not seen for years. She took him inside and showed him—not without a feeling of pride—the well-kept tombstones of her former lords and masters. "Ah," James," she remarked, feelingly, "you might have been lying there to-day if you had only had a little more courage."

IN our corset department we are selling a cool girdle for 40 cents.—SWIFT BROS.

UNION S. S. PIC-NIC.

The union Sunday School pic-nic to Lake Huron Park on Tuesday last was a very enjoyable outing. The G. T. R. provided a fine train, and a staff of courteous attendants who did everything possible for the comfort and accommodation of excursionists. Nearly four hundred tickets were sold, besides the scores of little tots on the free list.

On arrival at Sarnia electric railway cars were in readiness to convey the party to the park. Lake Huron Park is a revelation to those who have not visited it recently, and is rapidly becoming one of the most popular resorts on the beach. It is provided with everything required for the convenience and entertainment of pleasure seekers, and is an ideal place for an outing.

The street railway officials and citizens generally are displaying commendable energy in making its many attractions known, and their efforts are meeting with deserved success. The attention bestowed on visitors is appreciated, and will bring good returns. All were delighted with the pleasure of the day, and reached home at a seasonable hour, hoping that they would have as good a time next year.

John C. McNeil, living one mile east of Wanstead, had the misfortune to lose his barn and contents by fire on Monday evening. Lightning struck the building and in a few minutes it was a heap of ashes. The contents included a binder and a number of implements. Loss about $1,000. No insurance.

A Petrolia Character Dead.

Many of our readers will remember Wm. Evans, the unfortunate man who was obliged to crawl around on his hands and knees, owing to having had his feet frozen from exposure. He was a resident of Copleston for many years, and some few years ago was sent to the House of Refuge. He proved very untractable there, and had left the institution several times of late, coming to Petrolia and begging on the street. About a month ago he was committed to Sarnia jail, and on Thursday last he died there. Dr. Bradley, of Sarnia, a coroner, deemed it advisable to hold an inquest, and convened one on Friday night. The evidence showed that Evans had died from natural causes.—Petrolia Advertiser.

Fast Run on G. T. R.

One of the fastest runs ever made on the middle division of the Grand Trunk was reeled off July 4th by a special train having on board Manager McGuigan and a number of other officials.

The train was composed of two cars, and it went from London to Toronto, 118 miles, in two hours. One stop was made, and that was at Woodstock. Allowing three minutes lost by this, the actual running time is reduced to 117 minutes.

Seven miles in the run from London to Woodstock was covered in five minutes. A few days ago a freight special made an exceptionally fast run from Hamilton to Windsor, a distance of about 100 miles. The train included four cars of horses and a van, and it went the distance in four hours and 55 minutes.

Attempted Suicide.

Port Huron, Mich., July 9th.—Mrs. Randall, aged 70 years, wife of Dr. A. F. Randall, apparently attempted to end her life with chloroform Sunday morning during the absence of her husband and daughter at church.

Mrs. Randall has been worrying a great deal of late, without cause, so far as known. She has been prominent in temperance, church and humane society circles.

WATFORD, JULY 13, 1906.

Fell to His Death From a Small Building.

Tillsonburg, Ont., July 6.—While engaged in repairing an outbuilding on the farm of his nephew, John C. Connor, near Otrander, Peter W. Duffy fell from a scaffold and almost immediately passed away. The deceased was in the 70th year of his age, and had an extensive experience as a contractor and builder in the West. Mrs. O'Connor, a sister, survives, and she has a son living in the Western States.

Leaps From Train. Instantly Killed.

Toronto, Ont., July 6.—Angus McLeod, 17 Brant street, Toronto, was instantly killed by leaping from the Buffalo express at Strachan avenue. A number of trains stop up here to let customers off, as it is near the market. Apparently McLeod was under the impression that he could safely jump off, and had no idea of the speed of the train. He was accompanied by Allan McKinnon. They were returning to the city after a holiday trip.

Physically Exhausted.

Lacking in courage—out of joint with everything—scarcely on speaking terms with even fair health. Such low spirits are pitiable. Your brain is tagged, vitality so exhausted your constitution is well nigh ruined. What you need is Ferrozone, that great vitalizer and nutritive tonic. It's by making flesh and blood, by infusing iron and oxygen into the system that Ferrozone helps; it repairs weak spots, instills new life into worn out organs—makes you feel like new. Ferrozone lifts age from the old and imparts resilience and buoyancy to the depressed. Be manly, ruddy colored—cast aside weakness and enter the happy life that comes from using Ferrozone. Fifty cents—buys a box of Ferrozone.

Short Sleeves Waning.

The New York Press says:—Short sleeve waists are doomed. They are fast being packed away, and those who predict that women would be thankful for any sleeves at all before the summer was over seem bound to lose caste as oracles. The public, unfortunately, "caught on" too soon—for fads rust grow by degrees. All the working girls who throng the downtown section took to wearing lingerie waists and gowns and tennis shirts with elbow sleeves, and the "400" ceased to care for such attire. It is part of the game for the elect to start fashions of this sort and watch them die on the street.

The Arch-Enemy of the Age.

Not war, more deadly than even this modern butchery—but Catarrh which leads to consumption and annually kills more than famine or war combined. The doctors now successfully fight Catarrh with a remedy that never fails—Catarrhogen. Its death to every type of catarrh. It destroys every root and branch of the disease so thoroughly that a relapse need never be feared. If troubled with colds, nasal or throat catarrh, or subject to bronchitis or asthma use Catarrhogen and you'll be cured forever.

A Big Macabre Picnic on Monday.

The New Christian church at Poplar Hill was dedicated on Sunday last.

About 400 Tickets were Sold for the Stratroy K. P. Excursion to the Falls.

The Woodmen will conduct an unending service at Forest on Sunday next.

A new court of the I. O. F. was instituted at Camlachie on Friday evening.

Lloyd Anderson, a Theodford youth, fell and broke his arm while chasing a squirrel.

John McHattie, of Petrolia, was severely bitten on the leg by a dog owned by Morris Durgan.

Fred Marriott, of Plympton, and Miss Freeda Hicks, of Wyoming, were married on Wednesday of last week.

The grammar paper at the recent entrance examination will put down a lot of the candidates for admission to high schools. Some teachers say that the paper was almost as stiff as that given to second-class candidates last week. It would keep some of the teachers busy to answer the questions.

A LINIMENT FOR THE LOGGER.—Loggers lead a life which exposes them to many perils. Wounds, cuts and bruises cannot be altogether avoided in preparing timber for the drive and in river work, where wet and cold combined are of daily experience coughs and colds and muscular pains cannot but ensue. Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil, when applied to the injured or administered to the ailing, works wonders.

Hemorrhages.

HEMORRHAGES—Bleeding of the Lungs is a common occurrence in Consumption, and often comes with over work or straining of lungs. It is extremely rare that any one dies from a Hemorrhage, but it throws the system open for the ready reception of disease germs. A teaspoonful of common salt dissolved in the mouth and swallowed slowly generally stops the bleeding, while PSYCHINE quickly restores the strength and vitality of the patient. You can get PSYCHINE from any druggist.

C. H. Drage and his three sons, Vivian, Leonard and Ralph, of Loveland, Colo., were struck by lightning during a thunderstorm on their ranch. The lightning struck Drago on the head, singeing the hair from the right side and taking off a portion of mustache, severely burning his right side, melting the stem of his watch and tearing his shoes to pieces.

Only a Fish Story.

There is a Detroit policeman who goeth a-fishing frequently.

He went over on the Canadian side the other day, tied a line with three hooks on it to a large beam, and began fishing with another.

A boy came along and in yanking a fish from the water broke the policeman's line, which floated away. The policeman went on with his sport with the pole and line in his hands. All this transpired in the forenoon.

Late in the afternoon the policeman felt a mighty tug and pulled up—a small perch. But the perch was attached to two hooks. One hook was on the pole line. The other was attached to the lost line. And, so the policeman says, there were two gigantic pickers attached to the other two hooks.

Think of catching three fish at once in these meat scandal days!

FOR INFLAMMATION OF THE EYES.—Among the many good qualities which Farmville's Vegetable Pills possess, besides regulating the digestive organs, is their efficacy in reducing inflammation of the eyes. It has called forth many letters of recommendation from those who were afflicted with this complaint and found a cure in the pills. They affect the nerve centres and the blood in a surprisingly active way, and the result is almost immediately seen.

Thus cried the hair. And a kind neighbor came to the rescue with a bottle of Ayer's Hair Vigor. The hair was saved! This was because Ayer's Hair Vigor is a regular hair medicine. Falling hair is caused by a germ, and this medicine completely destroys these germs. Then the healthy scalp gives rich, healthy hair.

WATFORD, JULY 13, 1906.

WARWICK.

Miss Elba Foster, Arkona, is spending a week with Birnam friends.

Mrs. Sweet, Watford, spent a few days last week visiting Mrs. A. Hagle, Birnam.

Mr. Nicholas Luckham and Master Friend Smith are visiting friends in Petrolia this week.

Miss T. Abraham, of London, spent Monday and Tuesday with Mrs. Jarvis Westgate, of the 4th line east.

Mr. C. H. Barnes, wife and family, Toronto, are spending the holidays with relatives in Warwick and Arkona.

Mr. and Mrs. John Thomas and Mr. and Mrs. Joshua Thomas, Inwood, attended the Welsh picnic in Warwick on Thursday afternoon of last week.

The family of the late John S. Shields wish to thank all the kind friends and neighbors who showed so much kindness and acts of sympathy towards him and them during his illness and death.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Bruder and family, Milverton, are spending the vacation at Mr. Bruder's old home on the second line. Mr. Bruder is principal of the separate school at Milverton.

Rev. Mr. Phillips and Mrs. Phillips, who were married last week at Melbourne, and who purpose making their home in the west, spent last Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Luckham, Birnam.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Stewart and son Lloyd, of Warwick, are arriving in the city Sunday evening. We understand it is Mr. Stewart's intention to build and make this his home.—Rouleau Enterprise.

The Rev. H. Palmer Westgate, of Attwood, is spending a few days with his parents, 4th line east, prior to taking a six weeks holiday in England. He has secured passage on the Empress of Ireland, which sailed from Quebec, July 12th.

Robert McGillicuddy had the misfortune to break his arm at the wrist Wednesday afternoon. He was engaged in unloading hay, when the trip rope broke throwing him off the load. In the fall his wrist was broken. Dr. Newell set the fracture.

Dr. Gibson met John Mains and Wm. Ansley, of Rouleau, in Moosejaw last week, where they were taking in the circus. Mr. Ansley has sold out his business in Rouleau and purchased a farm north of Moosejaw and his son Harvey expects to move on it this fall.

One of Mr. C. Hagle's valuable Paddy R. colts had its hind leg badly cut on a barbed wire fence last Sunday night. When Mr. H. found the horse Monday morning it was still bleeding badly and a veterinary was immediately summoned who said the animal could not live.

About sixty relatives attended the Welsh picnic held in Robt. McKenzie's sugar bush on Thursday afternoon of last week in honor of their cousin, Mrs. Griffiths, of Brooklyn, N. Y. Mrs. G. is a niece of the late Mr. Enoch Thomas, Sr., and has been visiting relatives in this neighborhood for the past week.

During the thunderstorm on Monday evening lightning struck Jos. McPherson's stable, 6th line, N. E. R., and the stable and implement house were burnt down, the contents included 20 loads of hay. Most of the implements were saved. Loss about $1,500. Partially insured in the Lambton.

The Warwick council of 1606 picnicked at Lake Valley grove the other day. It consisted of ex-Reeve H. McFarlane, Messrs. Wm. Harper, R. Auld, B. Pike, T. Crawford, and their families. The day was pleasantly enjoyed in boating, games and social chat, one of the principal topics being the discussion of the salary grab.

Mr. Jas. Kelly, 6th line, returned Saturday from a trip to Saskatchewan. Mr. Kelly was greatly surprised at the changes that had taken place since his last visit, twenty years ago. The prospects are for a big crop, the season being two weeks in advance of the average. The Watford boys, near Davidson, are all doing well. Land values are rapidly increasing and farm property will soon be as dear as in Ontario.

Brigadier Collier and family, of Orillia, are spending a few weeks with relatives on the 2nd line and in town. The Brigadier, who has had charge of the New Ontario division of the work of the Salvation Army, has been very much overworked of late and is feeling somewhat run down. The Brigadier has travelled about 12,000 miles during his twelve months sojourn in the north.

The large drive barn and implement house belonging to Mr. Joseph McPherson, 6th line, was struck by lightning on Monday evening of this week. Fire started in the lower part of the hay and soon smoke and flames were seen coming through the roof. Men from every direction were soon on the scene and they succeeded in saving all the vehicles and implements. About twenty tons of hay was burnt in the barn a good deal of which was drawn in that day.

The visit of Mrs. E. R. Griffiths, of Brooklyn, N. Y., to her Warwick friends was made the occasion of a very happy family reunion among the Thomas' connection. On Thursday of last week the immediate relatives to the number of fifty-seven gathered at the home of Mr. Robt. McKenzie, Warwick Village, and picnicked in the beautiful maple grove in the rear of his grounds where everything had been prepared with a view to the comfort and enjoyment of the guests. The afternoon was spent in various amusements and after a sumptuous repast, the toast, "Our Guest," was proposed by Mr. John Thomas, Inwood, and elicited a happy response full of loving friendship and good cheer. Mrs. Griffiths, in alluding to the pleasure of meeting her Canadian relatives, requested that they sing "The Maple Leaf Forever," and soon the woods re-echoed Canadian loyalty. Mr. W. H. Luckham acted as chairman and short addresses were given by R. J. McCormick, Joshua Thomas, Robt. McKenzie and others. Before separating a friendship ring was formed and all joined in the singing of "Auld Lang Syne," and "God be with you till we meet again." Mrs. Griffiths left the next day for her home in Brooklyn.

The death of Miss Mary McKenzie, eldest daughter of Mrs. H. McKenzie, 2nd line, S. E. R., which occurred at the Toronto General Hospital on July 5th, came as a shock to the family and many friends. Deceased had undergone an operation about three weeks before her death, and Mrs. McKenzie, who had been in Toronto for a time, returned Tuesday evening, as her daughter was making good progress toward recovery, the doctors expecting that she would be able to come home in two weeks. Her death, which occurred without a moments warning was caused by clotting of the blood in the large artery near the heart. Miss McKenzie previous to her last illness was engaged as a nurse at the Gravenhurst Sanitarium. Her cheerful and lovable disposition endeared her to a large circle of friends who heard of her sudden taking away with sincere regret. The remains were brought home Friday evening and on Saturday afternoon the funeral which was very largely attended took place to the Watford cemetery. The service was conducted by the Rev. E. B. Horne, M. A., pastor of the Presbyterian church, of which deceased was a consistent member. The pall bearers were W. H. Auld, D. Ross, R. Laws, W. Carroll, D. McLeay and Thos. McKay. The sympathy of the community is extended to the bereaved family in the sad affliction they have been called upon to bear.

MADE HIS MARK.

A Former Watford Boy Prospective Candidate for Governor of Michigan.

The Detroit News of Friday last has the following sketch of a former Watford boy who is now one of Michigan's most prominent men:—

William R. Clarke, Grand Ledge's foremost citizen, and a prospective candidate for the republican nomination for governor on the republican ticket in 1908, will sail from New York shortly for a 10 weeks' tour of northern Europe. He will visit Iceland, North Cape, Hammerfest, Tromsø and a number of other extreme northern points that few European tourists have ever seen or ever heard of.

Mr. Clarke is a striking type of a man, who, at the beginning of his career, saw opportunities for professional and commercial advancement in a small town, and seizing the opportunity, has achieved a large measure of success in both fields. Since shortly after he was graduated at the law department of the state university, in 1883, he has never had reason to regret his choice, when, after debating with himself whether to settle down in a large city or seek a field in an agricultural town, he decided upon making Grand Ledge his home. The little city now has a population of 2,500, and had always been largely dependent on agriculture. The city Mr. Clarke decided against was Detroit. He had an opening with one of the most prominent law firms in the state's metropolis.

Today Mr. Clarke is the senior member of the law firm of Clarke & Lattin, which has a business worth as much as that of good firms in towns three or four times the size of Grand Ledge. He is the sole owner of the Clarke Hardware Co., the largest business of the kind in Eaton County, and president of a dry goods company that carries an average stock of $25,000. Mr. Clarke is also president of the Grand Ledge State Bank, and with his brother owns the Independent, a profitable weekly newspaper property whose circulation and advertising patronage has nearly doubled in the six years since he invested in it. In fact, the subject of this sketch has never failed in any enterprise that he undertook. One of his neighbors says:—

"Mr. Clarke's record of what an ambitious young man can do in a small town can be pointed to as an example to help keep our young men at home, where we need them as much as they are needed in the big cities."

While exercising a general supervision over his various interests, Mr. Clarke has found time for some years past to make an annual tour of two to three months to see other parts of the world.

HOT WEATHER AILMENTS.

At the first sign of illness during the hot weather, give the little ones Baby's Own Tablets or in a few hours the trouble may be beyond cure. Baby's Own Tablets is the best medicine in the world to prevent summer complaints if given occasionally to well children. The prudent mother will not wait till trouble comes—she will keep her children well through an occasional dose of this medicine. Mrs. Edward Clark, McGregor, Ont., says: "My little girl suffered from colic and bowel troubles but Baby's Own Tablets speedily cured her." And the mother has the guarantee of a government analyst that these Tablets contain no opiate or harmful drug. PRESBYTERY OF SARNIA.

Rev. A. E. Hannabson Goes to Missouri.

A meeting of the Presbytery of Sarnia was held in the school room of St. Andrew's church, Wednesday forenoon last, at 11 o'clock. The Rev. John Bailey, M. A., of Arkona, moderator for the next six months, occupied the chair. Rev. H. Currie, B. A. of Theford, officiated as clerk. A call was presented from the congregation of North and South Missouri, in the Presbytery of Stratford, in favor of Rev. A. E. Hannabson, B. A., of Arkona and West Adelaide. Mr. Hannabson declared his acceptance of the call, and it was decided to release him from his present charge after July 15th. After transacting considerable routine business, including the appointment of standing committees for the ensuing twelve months, the Presbytery adjourned to meet again on the second Tuesday of September.

Frank K. May was brought in from Sombra, by Provincial Officer Murray on a charge of stealing a watch from Alex. Ariel at the town of Sarnia, on the 5th inst. May consented to be tried summarily by the police magistrate and pleaded not guilty.

KIDNEY TROUBLES

Increasing Among Women, But Sufferers Need Not Despair

THE BEST ADVICE IS FREE

Of all the diseases known, with which the female organism is afflicted, kidney disease is the most fatal, and statistics show that this disease is on the increase among women.

Unless early and correct treatment is applied the patient seldom survives when once the disease is fastened upon her. We believe Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the most efficient treatment for chronic kidney troubles of women, and is the only medicine especially prepared for this purpose.

When a woman is troubled with pain or weight in loins, backache, frequent, painful or scalding urination, swelling of limbs or feet, swelling under the eyes, an uneasy, tired feeling in the region of the kidneys or notices a sediment in the urine, she should lose no time in commencing treatment with Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, as it may be the means of saving her life.

For proof, read what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound did for Mrs. Sawyer.

"I cannot express the terrible suffering I had to endure. A derangement of the female organs developed nervous prostration and a serious kidney trouble. The doctor attended me for a year, but I kept getting worse, until I was unable to do anything, and I made up my mind I could not live. I finally decided to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound as a last resort, and I am to-day a well woman. I cannot praise it too highly, and I tell every suffering woman about my case." Mrs. Emma Sawyer, Conyers, Ga.

MARY'S INSANITY

By Louise Jackson Strong

Copyright, 1906, by McClure, Phillips & Co.

"Well, Molly!" Mrs. Briggs kissed her daughter again tenderly. "I'm glad to get you back. It was unreasonable in your Uncle Page to keep you for months. I'll never spare you so long again."

"That isn't the only thing Uncle Page is unreasonable about," Mrs. Briggs said following her mother to the buggy.

Mrs. Briggs said nothing more until they were jogging along the pleasant road. Then she turned with a doubtful smile. "We may as well have it out and done with, Molly. Of course I know you mean that your uncle is unreasonable about that schoolteacher, but he's a good judge of men."

"He is too prejudiced to judge fairly," Mary declared. "And he prejudiced you against Allen too. If you only waited until you had become acquainted with him, mother!"

"I would never consent to your marrying a mere schoolteacher!" Mrs. Briggs broke in.

"Allen hasn't taken it up as a life profession," Mary hastened to explain.

"Time he's pattered around at country school teaching a few years he'll be spotted for anything else," Mrs. Briggs asserted, "and I can't have you tied to that kind of a man, dear."

Mary was silent, and her mother scrutinized her face, finding it thinner than it should be and pale, now the excitement of their meeting had passed. That made her anxious.

"You can't really have cared for him, Molly, so as to make you unhappy! You had never seen him until you went up there, and your father and I were two years, off and on, making up our minds."

"I think it is different with some," Mary said shyly, her cheeks pinking. "It seemed as if we had known each other always, from the first, and I saw him constantly, you know, till Uncle Page interfered. I care for him more than I can ever care for any one else, but I couldn't defy you, mother."

"I suppose he was angry over my letter?" Mrs. Briggs said tentatively.

"No, he wasn't angry, but he felt that you were unfair in not giving him a chance to show what was in him. He went away, as you had forbidden me to see him, and I have known nothing of him since," Mary said wistfully.

Mrs. Briggs felt a sudden contempt for the young man who had obeyed her mandates so completely without a struggle. However, it only proved him a poor thing, unworthy such a prize as Mary, and the dear girl was young. She would get over it and be happy in the love of some man who was a man. Such a one was at hand, and Mrs. Briggs considered him so desirable as a son-in-law that she already regarded him as such prospectively.

"Well," she said finally, "I am glad, Molly, that you hold no grudge against me. I told you about the judge's nephew, a fine, smart young fellow. Mrs. Brown has a couple of girl cousins visiting her, and the Hendersons have several nice young men among the boarders. Our little town will be gay this summer, and I've fixed up a bit, so you can do your share of entertaining."

Mary shrank, exclaiming, "Oh, mother, I want to stay quietly at home with you!"

"And have people saying you're moping over a disappointment?" Mrs. Briggs spluttered.

"I don't care what they say. It's no use, mother. I see what you mean for me, but I can't forget." Then, with a wan smile, "I am not behaving very well, mother, but don't mind it, and let's just go on as usual."

"And don't fling me at the judge's nephew," she added mentally.

"I have asked the nephew and Flora for this evening," Mrs. Briggs said presently, "but I can send John to tell them you are too tired."

"John, the new hand?" Mary commented absently.

"Yes, and he's a wonderful manager. There he is," Mrs. Briggs pointed with her whip as they rounded the home corner.

Mary glanced indifferently at the figure beyond the grove, then with a low cry leaned forward, gazing intently.

"John!" she repeated, turning a bewildered face to her astonished mother.

"Why, Molly! What is it?" Mrs. Briggs cried, somewhat alarmed.

The young man took off his hat and tossed back his hair with a peculiar gesture, and with a shriek Mary jerked up Dobbin, plunged out over the wheel, darted to the barbed wire fence, dropped flat, rolled smoothly under it and flew, still shrieking, across the meadow.

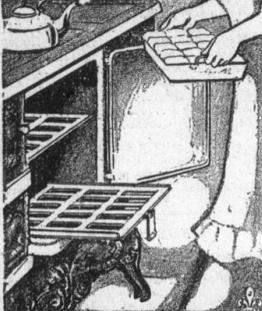

Paralyzed with dreadful fear, Mrs. Briggs gazed helplessly. There could be but one hideous explanation of the astounding scene—Mary was suddenly seized with mental derangement—she had taken that miserable affair to heart; she had brooded over her trouble; her whole expression showed that, and now, having it all brought up again—oh, horrible! It was her own mother who had—

"Oh, lordy, lordy!" Mrs. Briggs moaned, backing clumsily out of the boggy and fluttering along the fence like a hen at the garden pickets, but she could not roll her plump figure underneath. She would have to go around, and that poor child running headlong, perfectly wild. She was now disappearing in the grove. In her frenzy she would rush on down the hill beyond, and the creek was high.

"John! John!" Mrs. Briggs screamed frantically. "Catch her, John!"

John apparently understood and disappeared in the trees, while Mrs. Briggs, shaking with sobs, scrambled into the buggy and lashed Dobbin into

It does do good baking

This is the range that bakes better because the diffusive oven flue draws in cold air from the kitchen floor, carries it around the oven, and pours it HOT down into the oven FROM THE TOP in a current that moves all round the whole oven and up and out the flue. When that clean, hot air leaves the oven it takes with it all the moisture, all the odors, which in OTHER ovens stay in and saturate the baking food. Perfect draft control, perfect oven, draw-out oven rack for easy baking,—all points singular to a run with a suddenness that nung me before the top of the dashboard. She slid to her knees in the box and plied the whip, waiting aloud at every jump of the horse. At the pasture lane she turned so sharply that the buggy tilted against the post, nearly tipping her out, but she only urged the astonished Dobbin on, her imagination picturing her darling already at the bottom of the swirling stream. She dashed through the open gate of the potato field.

She could not wait to take down the bars of the small out patch that intervened, but squeezed through and ran, panting breathlessly, too exhausted to call. Soon she caught sight of John. He had Mary safe. Her abused knees weakened at that, but she struggled to them. John clasped Mary close in his arms, and she was laughing shrilly, crying hysterically, "Oh, it is Allen; it is Allen!"

"Yes, honey; yes," Mrs. Briggs quavered. "Oh, lordy, lordy! Come to the house with mother, dear. Don't let go of her for your life, John. I've been wicked cruel to her— Yes, honey; yes; it's Allen."

"It's Allen, Allen!" Mary reiterated, her face on the young man's breast.

"Oh, lordy, lordy!" moaned Mrs. Briggs, the tears streaming. "Humor her, John. Help me get her to the house, then bring the doctors. Yes, ho-honey; it—it's Al-Allen."

"Mrs. Briggs"—John patted her shoulder comfortingly—"you needn't be frightened. Mary is all right. It is Allen—John Allen Smithers, instead of John Smith. I wanted to prove to you that I wasn't a mere good for nothing"

"Mrs. Briggs sat down suddenly—"and I hope you have changed your opinion of me and will accept me as your son-in-law."

"For I'll never, never have anything to do with the judge's nephew!" Mary declared aggressively.

Mrs. Briggs started, then burst into peals of tearful, choking laughter. "I guess we'd better stop and see where we're at," she gasped. "I'm the only one that's crazy, it seems. Who wants you to have anything to do with the judge's nephew, missie? So, you young scamp, you're Allen, are you? And you've worked a slick game on me, but I'm suited. Why, it's the very thing I've been planning for weeks!"

Then, with fresh shrieks, Mary fell upon her mother, and they kissed and cried and laughed together, while John Allen looked on, grinning foolishly.

Noon as Nature's Dining Hour.

Persons who keep close watch on themselves are of the opinion that the hour of noon is the most critical period of life. At that time the human frame undergoes serious changes. The stomach has dispatched the morning meal and sends scouting parties in search of another. The eyes and brain are on the alert, and there is a sort of all-goneness pervading the anatomy that sharpens the faculties and puts a new edge on the teeth. It is nature's dining time, and everything about the healthy man or woman is attuned to the demolition or enjoyment of what is called a "good square meal." Those who pay heed to the prompting of nature at this divine hour have their reward in good appetite, good temper and excellent digestion, which is conducive to all the good that flesh is heir to. But those who, following the imperious dictates of fashion, defer the hour of dining until all natural longings are dead and have to be resurrected by adventitious aids lay a train of evils and discomforts which sooner or later become the plague of their lives.—London Telegraph.

Blood Showers in Olden Times.

In the "Annals of Remarkable Happenings in Rome" mention is made of fourteen different showers of blood or blood and other substances mixed, which occurred between the years 319 A. D. and 1170. In 1222 we find record of a shower of blood and dust which covered the larger part of Italy. In 1226 a "snow" fell in Syria "which presently turned into large brooks and pools of blood." A monk who wrote in the year 1251 and whose manuscript is now preserved in the British museum, tells of a three days' shower of blood "all over southern Europe." Burgundy had a blood shower in 1361, and Dedfordshire, England, witnessed a similar phenomenon in the year 1450. In 1686 hailstones fell in Wurttemberg which contained cavities filled with blood or blood red liquid. The last "blood shower" on record occurred in Siam in the year 1802.

OLD TIME LEGAL METHODS.

When the Evidence of Ghosts Sufficed to Hang Men.

The testimony of a ghost would not now count for much in a court of law, but the day has been when it has sufficed to hang a man. There was a ghostly accuser in a case with which the readers of Scott are familiar. Soon after the "45" an English soldier wandering near Braemar met a violent death. Years passed and then came a story of a communication from another world.

A farm servant declared that in the night a spirit had appeared to him declaring itself to be the ghost of the soldier, whose bones, it is said, lay still unburied. The highlander must see to their decent interment and have the murderers, two men named, brought to justice. The highlander promised, but did not keep his word, and a second and third time the spirit appeared and upbraided him for his breach of faith. Alarmed at last and no longer daring to delay, the man called a companion and went to the spot which the spirit had indicated and there found the bones of the murdered warrior concealed in a moorland tract called the hill of Christie.

The story of the highlander came to the ears of an anti-Jacobite, who caused the matter to be brought to trial before the court of judicary, Edinburgh. There the tale was corroborated by a woman who had seen a naked figure enter the place on the night spoken of by the man. It was an age of superstition in a district more than commonly given to superstition, and the jury seemed disposed to find the two men charged guilty of the murder, but it happened that the principal witness spoke only Gaelic. "Now," said the counsel for the defense, "in what language did the ghost speak?" "In as good Gaelic as I ever heard in Lochaber," was the reply. "Pretty good for the ghost of an English soldier," said counsel, and that question and comment saved the necks of the men at the bar. The jury could believe in a ghost, but not in an English ghost speaking Gaelic.—London Standard.

SUNLIGHT SOAP

is better than other Soaps but is best when used in the Sunlight way. Follow directions.

SUNLIGHT WAY OF WASHING

FIRST.—Dip the article to be washed in a tub of lukewarm water, draw it out on a washboard and rub the soap lightly over it. Be particular not to miss soaping all over. THEN roll it in a tight roll, lay in the tub under the water, and go on the same way until all the pieces have the soap rubbed on, and are rolled up.

Then go away for thirty minutes to one hour and let the "Sunlight" Soap do its work.

NEXT.—After soaking the full time rub the clothes lightly out on a wash board, and the dirt will drop out; turn the garment inside out to get at the seams, but don't use any more soap; don't scald or boil a single piece, and don't wash through two suds. If the water gets too dirty, pour a little out and add fresh. If a streak is hard to wash, rub some more soap on it, and throw the piece back into the suds for a few minutes.

LASTLY COMES THE RINSING, which is to be done in lukewarm water, taking special care to get all the dirty suds away, then wring out and hang up to dry.

For Woollens and Finer Fabrics proceed as follows:— Shake the articles free from dust. Cut a tablet of SUNLIGHT SOAP into shavings, pour into a gallon of boiling water and whisk into a lather. When just lukewarm, work articles in the lather without rubbing. Squeeze out dirty water, without twisting and rinse thoroughly in two relays of lukewarm water. Squeeze out water without twisting and hang in the open air.

Get the most delicate colors may be safely washed in the "Sunlight" way.

$5,000 REWARD will be paid to any person who proves that Sunlight Soap contains any injurious chemicals or any form of adulteration.

A Bret Harte Joke.

Sam Davis of Nevada once made a wager that he could successfully imitate the style of any living or dead poet and do it so thoroughly that the difference was not discernible and that the public, the press and the critics would not detect the fraud. As a result he wrote "Binley and 46," to which he signed F. Bret Harte's name. The fake was put out in a publication known as the Open Letter. It described an engineer who took his train through a snowstorm in the Sierras, dying at his post. From the Atlantic to the Pacific the poem was copied. "Binley and 46" was given a full page in Leslie's Weekly, with a portrait of Bret Harte, and described as "the best short poem of the decade." It was many years before Mr. Harte denied its authorship. The poem has since been incorporated in several books of popular recitations, notwithstanding Binley freezes to death beside a roaring locomotive furnace, with 150 pounds of steam up and two cords of wood within reach.

No Surprises In Dreams.

No one is ever surprised in a dream. A man dreaming is at one moment bathing in the sea and at the next moment soaring in a balloon, but the sudden and inexplicable change does not surprise him, nor is he surprised to meet in the flesh friends long dead, nor is he surprised to find himself doing deeds that really are beyond him. The reason is that dreamers have no memory. In real life to be pursued through the streets by a lion would be astonishing, but this accident would be accepted in a dream as horrible, but quite commonplace, the memory not being there to say that it is unheard of for lions to pursue one in cities. In the same way, in dreams, men are not surprised to find themselves ballooning because they don't remember that they were never up in a balloon before, and they are not surprised to find themselves conversing with dead people because they don't remember that these people are dead.

How He Remembered It.

When they met on Chestnut street after some months in which they hadn't seen each other the one chap told the other he had taken a little house in Germantown and was there with his lard, penates and coal bill. "Come up and see me some evening—any evening. We're rarely out, you know, and then, we have a telephone, so you can let us know when you're coming." "I suppose your name is in the telephone directory?" queried the other. "Well, no, not yet, as we've just got the telephone, but our number is—really it's funny, but just this minute I can't—it's something like—Ding it all, it's strange I forget that number, for just on purpose I multiplied it by two and divided the result by four, so as to enable me to remember it, and I can't recall the first thing about it. Ever know the like? I'll write you the number."

Clothes and Conduct.

Every man and every woman feels the influence of clothes and appearance upon conduct. You have heard of the lonely man in the Australian bush who always put on evening dress for dinner so that he might remember he was a gentleman. Addison could not write his best unless he was well dressed. Put a naughty girl into her best Sunday clothes, and she will behave quite nicely; put a blackguard into khaki, and he will be a hero; put an omniscient conductor into uniform, and he will live up to his clothes. Indeed, in a millennium of free clothes of the latest fashion we shall all be archangels.—London Chronicle.

Diagnosis of Headache.

"There are more than fifty kinds of headache," said a physician, "and sufferers from the more common forms may cure themselves by locating the cause and treating themselves accordingly. The more frequent forms are a dull pain across the forehead, due to dyspepsia; a pain in the back of the head, due to the liver; a bursting pain in both temples, due to malnutrition; an ache on the top of the head, as though a weight pressed on the skull, due to overwork; an ache between the brows just above the base of the nose, due to eye strain."

Stale Brains.

Of course there is no future for stale brains or for a man who stands still and ceases to grow. He is old who thinks he is old and useless who thinks he is useless. When a man has ceased to grow he begins to die, and many people are half dead at fifty, not because of their age, but because of their mental attitude, because of the way they face life.

The Honeymoon Ove.

"No one comes to see me," said she wearily, "like they did before I was married." "Speaking of that fact," said he, "I used to call on you seven evenings in the week at that time. But I am as bad off as you—I now have nowhere to go."

BY-LAW NO. 2, 1906.

A By-law to repair the drain from lot 12, in Township of Warwick, westward to outlet, along the Boundary line between the Township of Brooke and Warwick, in the County of Lambton.

Whereas complaint has been made to the Municipal Council of the Township of Warwick by residents of said Township that the ditch or drain along the Boundary line between said Township and the Township of Brooke is out of repair.

And whereas said ditch or drain was originally constructed and improved partly by funds of both Townships interested, and partly by statute law and subscriptions from parties benefited.

And whereas the said Council of the Township of Warwick acting under Section 70 of the Municipal Drainage Act enacted a resolution to be made by C. A. Jones, Esq., D. L. S., being a person competent for such purpose of the ditch or drain proposed to be repaired and of the lands and roads liable to assessment under the "Municipal Drainage Act" and has also procured plans, specifications and estimates of the drainage work to be made by the said C. A. Jones, Esq., and an assessment to be made by him of the lands and roads to be benefited by such drainage work and of other lands and roads liable for contribution thereto, stating as nearly as he can the proportion of benefit, outlet liability and outlet liability, which in his opinion will be derived or incurred in consequence of such drainage work by every road and lot or portion of lot the said assessment so made being the assessment hereinafter by this By-law enacted to be assessed and levied upon the roads and lots or portions of lots of the drainage work as specially set forth and described in the report of the said C. A. Jones, Esq., in respect thereof and of the said drainage work being as follows:

Petrolia, Jan. 16th, 1906.

To the Municipal Council, Township of Warwick.

GENTLEMEN:—In compliance with instructions received from your Honorable Body I have made an examination of the drain on the Township of Brooke, which in his opinion will be derived or incurred in consequence of such drainage work by every road and lot or portion of lot the said assessment so made being the assessment hereinafter by this By-law enacted to be assessed and levied upon the roads and lots or portions of lots of the drainage work as specially set forth and described in the report of the said C. A. Jones, Esq., in respect thereof and of the said drainage work being as follows:

The Branch Drain 1/2 mile north of the Main Drain at station 05 or 10 rods each for the most part, commencing with stake "0" at the head of the proposed work which is opposite the line between lots 2 and 3 of Warwick, which the drain enters upon the highway from said lot 12 each stake being numbered the distance in chains is from stake "0". It continues westerly along the northerly side of the township a distance of 2 1/2 miles to station 53 1/2 of lot 13 in Warwick, where it crosses the road grade and continues westerly along the southerly side of the township a distance of 2 1/2 miles to station 125 planted about 2 rods east of the 67 side road of Brooke, where it again crosses the road grade to the northerly side of the township at which point the Branch Drain empties into it, from here it continues westerly along the northerly side of the township a distance of 1/2 mile to stake 276 planted about opposite of the highway and angles in a north-westerly direction through lot 2, a distance of 1/4 mile to stake no. 292, where it joins the Higgins Drain of Warwick and where it becomes a pronounced natural creek. The previous work ends at station 258 and from there to station 292, a distance of 4 rods new work of straightening the natural course which I deem advisable for the more thorough working of the drain. The total length of this Main Drain is 2 1/2 miles or 168 rods.

where it enters the Main Drain at station 113 1/2 on same where, as above mentioned, it crosses from the south to the north side of the highway. This makes a total of 1202 rods in both.

The culverts across the township at stations 13 1/2 and 13 1/4 are both in good condition and being comparatively new ones and of sufficient size will not require any work done on them, the one opposite the 67 side road of Warwick is in very bad condition and wide enough, but the covering is about a foot too low and will require to be raised.

In my estimate of the cost of the proposed work, I have not included the construction or repair of any of the culverts or bridges over the drain leading from the private land to the highway as all the parties, either prefer or are agreeable to build or repair their own bridge or culvert and I have kept this fact in view in making my assessment on the lands affected for the cost of the work. There should, however, be a certain uniformity in these bridges or culverts and I would recommend that where they are built with posts and stringers they conform to the following regulations, viz:—

St. 0 to 52 they be at least 5 ft. wide and 3 1/2 ft. high in clear.

St. 52 to 114 they be at least 6 ft wide and 3 1/2 ft high in clear.

St. 114 to 154 they be at least 7 ft wide and 3 1/2 ft high in clear.

St. 154 to 276 they be at least 8 ft wide and 3 1/2 ft high in clear.

Should they be built with long stringers resting on the ground at the edge of the drain, the ends of the stringers should project each 12 ft. beyond the edge of the drain and the underside of the stringers be at least 3 ft 9 in above the bottom of the drain.

Many of the present bridges I find are even larger than the minimum I have specified particularly in the lower portion while some of them at the upper end are smaller, but where they are new they might be left for a time to test whether or not they are capable of carrying the water. The one at st. 179 opposite the west 1/2 lot 6 is a comparatively new one but is about a foot too low and should be raised and the one at st. 102 opposite the east 1/2 lot 5 is also too low and if not replaced with a new one should at least be raised to the required height.

I have prepared plans, profiles and specifications of the proposed work and schedule of assessment on the lands affected all in duplicate, one copy being for service on the Township of Brooke and all of which I herewith submit.
