Rev. A. J. Kempton, Mt. Carroll, Ind., will preach next Lord's day. Convention offering next Sunday.

Remember the business meeting Tuesday evening, "it is important."

Missions and Missionary Meetings are Important. "Go ye into all the world," are important words, charged with command which the Christian must obey. It is important that the heathen shall "hear the joyful sound," and be won to the Saviour, hence it is binding on the Christian Church to give them the Gospel. True we cannot all go to the mission field and tell the glad news of salvation—but, by our gifts and prayers we can greatly assist those who are engaged in the work. It is important that we acquaint ourselves concerning this great work, hence we are indebted to the various agencies, such as our Women's Aid Society, Mission Band, and Missionary Prayer Meeting, &c., through these channels we receive reports and intelligence from our missionaries and fields. We are also indebted to our B. Y. P. Union for the papers on missions prepared and read at the monthly Missionary Meeting. Miss Ina Bentley will read a paper on "Buddhism" next Wednesday evening. Missions are important.

Our Calendar. Items for the CALENDAR must be received not later than Thursday morning. Address—Clerk of the Church.
