SUDDEN DEATH OF F. SIDNEY EWENS

Publication Manager for the Methodist Book Room—Heart Failure.

NEWS OF WARD SEVEN

Daring Sneak Thief Entered W. H. Weir's House on High Park Avenue.

Early yesterday morning the death occurred of F. Sidney Ewens, publication manager of the Methodist Book Room, at his home, 120 Evelyn avenue. Mr. Ewens had been in poor health for over a year, but not until a few days before Christmas did he become seriously ill. Heart disease developed, and his condition was serious, his death came as a sudden and severe blow to his family and friends.

The late Mr. Ewens was 41 years of age and had resided in West Toronto for over 15 years. He was, up to this year, the secretary of the Ward Seven Ratepayers' Association, and his energetic efforts in their behalf made him a friend to all its members. He was in politics a Liberal, and was a member of the High Park avenue Methodist Church. He is survived by a widow and five small children. Interment takes place on Thursday in Mount Pleasant Cemetery.

A daring thief entered the house of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Weir at 180 High Park avenue while they were at church on Sunday evening, and took with him Mrs. Weir's diamond ring, which had been left in its case upstairs. Probably because of a warning from an accomplice he was forced to beat a hasty retreat and on the way from the house met the occupants on their own walk returning home. He allowed suspicion, however, by politely raising his hat and speaking as a friend, and when the owners entered their house they found scattered drawers and burnt matches scattered about and every evidence of a hasty departure. Mr. Weir described the man as about six feet in height, wearing a black single-breasted overcoat and a derby hat.

Club Meetings. The Sunderland Football Club met last evening in St. James' Hall and shape.

PURSE SNATCHERS IN EAST TORONTO

Two Young Men Grabbed Woman's Chatelaine on Main St. Last Night.

Miss Mitchell, 723 Kingston road, had her purse snatched last night about 6:35 at the corner of Main street and Lynn avenue. She was coming down Main street on her way home when two young men came up behind her, one snatching her purse, a silver chain chatelaine. They then disappeared down Benlambert avenue. The police at the Main street station have the description of the men, and are now working on the case. There was about three dollars in the purse.

way and the construction company was produced, signed by Mr. Patterson on the 15th of the month. This exhibit was marked in the handwriting of the late S. C. Smoke, as an exact copy of the agreement.

Then came the disclosure that Mr. Moyes had shifted sums from the trust account of $833,000 into his own private account.

"Did any of it go into your private account?" he was asked.

"Yes, sometimes drawn in lump sums to relieve indebtedness," he answered.

"Why did you mix it with your account?" asked the chairman.

"Witnesses testified that they were kept track of in the books and papers he had sent to Mr. Smoke. He could not recall the carrier."

"It is very important that Mr. Moyes should get these," commented the chairman.

One claimed ownership. Counsel produced a declaration signed by Moyes several years ago and presented to the Goderich bank to prove that he had the right to grant power of attorney for that time.

James Ross, barrister, appearing in the morning, could tell little. His memory balked on him.

Thomas E. McCracken, who had acted as director, was asked who the president had been, but did not know.

"Were you?" he was asked.

"I do not know," he replied.

R. D. Little of the Sterling Bank produced records to trace the account, which the companies had held during the years of operation.

In some of the data produced it was shown that Moyes at a meeting in 1908 received $15,000, part as salary and part as expense money on disbursements. His receipts were to be totaled up at some future time.

A check for the sum was produced in the hearing, but Moyes could not remember having ever received it.

Margery.—Such an interesting letter to drop on to a work-a-day desk of a dreary afternoon. I am so glad you buried all those foolish notions and wrote to me. It was a really-ly pleasure, and not a bit of a trouble or even a bore to go down "among the books" and pick you out a few good stories to shorten those long dull evenings. But, my dear girl, you belittle the purchasing power of a dollar and a half where books are concerned. There is a small library available for that amount. I think the Nelson edition—cloth covers, good printing, quaint illustrations—at 15 cents a volume, these are some of the treasures you can have: "Emma," by Jane Austen; "Pride and Prejudice," by the same; "The History of Henry Esmond," by Thackeray; "Jane Eyre," by Charlotte Brontë; "Cranford," by Mrs. Gaskell; "Les Misérables," 2 vols., by Victor Hugo; "The Last Days of Pompeii," by Lytton; "The Bible in Spain," by George Borrow; and "Quentin Durward," "Kenilworth," and "The Talisman," by Sir Walter Scott. I think these are books of the type you want—the kind of books I should have read when I was young and didn't. I envy you reading them for the first time. When you are through we'll send you on another list. Happy New Year!

WOMAN SENATOR NOW IN TORONTO

Helen Ring Robinson of Colorado Will Give Address Tonight.

WAS ON A NEWSPAPER

Finally Was Elected to the Senate and Has Framed Good Laws.

Toronto has as its guest the only woman senator in the world. Helen Ring Robinson of Colorado arrived in the Queen City yesterday afternoon and was taken at once to 32 St. Joseph street, the home of Mrs. L. A. Hamilton, president of the Equal Suffrage Association, who is entertaining the distinguished visitor during her stay.

An hour after her arrival Senator Robinson gave an interview to a representative of The World, looking as bright as the sun and a long journey were far-away strangers. Speaking of her home state, Mrs. Robinson said the women there have had the franchise for twenty years. There are fourteen women in the legislature, four of whom were re-elected. On her way to Toronto she spoke at Montreal, when many had to be turned away, not being able to get into the hall where she spoke. She was introduced by Prof. Carré Derrich, who in her remarks called attention to the fact that Senator Robinson was born in Eastport, Maine, and said Mrs. Robinson smiling, "I never knew until it was pointed out by Professor Derrich how near I was to being a Canadian, and that in being born where I was I had got as near to Canada as I possibly could."

Senator Robinson was very pleased at the result of the election here, but pointed out a divergence between an appeal of this nature here and in Colorado. There results are more pronounced. A referendum that wins establishes a law without further action.

A Newspaper Woman. Asked how she came into politics, Mrs. Robinson stated that she had for about ten years been editorial writer on The Rocky Mountain News and Denver Times, also literary critic, and had gradually been recognized as having ideas on many subjects. "Ten men," she said, "often asked me to take places on a different committee, but I did not do much in this line until three years ago, when I became associated with the movement of Denver housewives against the removal of the franchise of the local water company."

In this campaign the women won, and later, in November, 1912, Helen Ring Robinson received the highest honor ever bestowed upon a Colorado woman, being elected to a four-year term in the state senate, party lines in her election being practically obliterated. She was appointed chairman of the committee on education, and in this capacity brought in against some opposition a measure which gave a more general distribution of school grants, whereby needy sections of the state were given schools for at least six months in the year with teachers at a salary of not less than $50 a month.

TORONTO ASKS FOR EGGS

Local Supply Firm Fails to Get Stock From Montreal. MONTREAL, Jan. 6.—(Can. Press).—Gunn, Langlois & Co., Limited, wholesale provision and egg merchants, have received a wire from their Toronto house, Gunn, Limited, stating that they were completely cleaned out of cold storage eggs and asking whether a consignment could be supplied them from Montreal. John Gunn, head of the company here, announced he had been compelled to reply that from present prospects, within two weeks there would not be a single cold storage egg left in Canada, and that the supply in the United States was not expected to hold out many weeks. He had not been able to decide whether he could let the Toronto have a consignment.

SON OF BRITISH BARON WEDS GERMAN HEIRESS

BERLIN, Jan. 6.—(Can. Press).—The heiress to one of the largest fortunes in Germany, Miss Marie Anne von Friedlaender, 24, a daughter of Germany's "coal king," was married today to the Hon. John Power Bertram Ogilvy Freeman-Mitford, a younger son of Baron Redesdale of the English peerage. The ceremony was performed at 2 o'clock this afternoon in Trinity Church, one of the oldest religious edifices in Berlin, situated in the centre of the business and diplomatic district. The modest proportions of the church permitted only a limited number to attend, and the wedding party was therefore confined to the relatives and immediate friends and associates of the bride and groom.

THE WOES OF MRS. NEWLYWED

"I shall never try to press this linen again," vowed Mrs. Newlywed, as she held it up for Mrs. Neighbor's inspection of the sootied marks. "I can easily fix that," said the latter, and sutting her action to the words, she cut an onion in half and rubbed it over the marks and then washed it in the usual way. Then the linen became white again, much to the surprise of Mrs. Newlywed. "Unless the sootied marks are very bad," added Mrs. Neighbor, "that will always work."

A DAILY STORY FOR CHILDREN

The Little Fisherman

(By Virginia Vale.) Once upon a time there was a little boy who lived all the time at the seashore. His home was with his father and mother in a little cottage so near the water that when he went to bed he sometimes thought the waves were coming right in his room, but they never did. In the summer he would go in bathing, search the beach for pretty colored shells or play for hours digging in the sand and building all kinds of houses for forts. But what do you think was his fun in winter? Well, I will tell you, and I am sure all of you will wish you had lived near this boy. When they had what the boy's father called a "northeaster" it would make the waves very high and strong and would bring in shoals of all kinds of fish, and they would not have time to swim back before another wave would catch them and bring them further up on the sand. Father and the boy would take large baskets and go down on the beach and pick up the live fish as fast as they could and bring them home. This would sometimes last for two or three days, and the boy thought this great fun.

When they had caught as many as they could use at home, he would go down and look for the small ones he thought were the prettiest and bring them to live in his little glass house his father had made for him. This was filled with salt water and shells and seaweed. He was very careful to fill it often with clean water and the fishes liked to be there. They grew so tame that they would swim to the top and eat crumbs out of his hand. He had a crumb for each one, and told his mother that he was sure the fishes knew their names, but I am not at all sure myself that they did. What do you think?

BIRD DID NOT SING.

George C. Thompson, a Hamilton barrister, was given judgment for $5.23 in the division court yesterday afternoon, against the Ontario Bird Store. Thompson had purchased a canary which was guaranteed to be a singer, but when he got the bird home it would not warble. There was no defence in the case.

A Recipe for Bread

BEFORE attempting to make bread be quite sure you know toward what end you are directing your efforts. Bread must contain air cells so be light or digestible and these are formed by the yeast plant. Put into the flour, the yeast, gough rapidly and throws off a quantity of gas which spreads thru the bread dough and lifts the mixture with it as it rises. This gas must all leave the flour mixture before it is baked, and so bread is kneaded to squeeze it out and to introduce air, which supplies oxygen, necessary to growth of plant. When the bread is light the air cells have grown to the right size and the bread is put to bake. The increased heat stops the growing of the yeast and increases the size of the cells. Here is a tried and satisfactory recipe. It will make four large or six small loaves of bread and requires six hours: One pint milk and one pint of water, one cake of fresh compressed yeast dissolved in a little of the liquid, two tablespoons of sugar, two teaspoons of salt, two tablespoons of shortening, three quarts of sifted flour. Scald the pint of milk and cool it, add the water to it, then the salt, sugar and yeast. Warm and sift enough of the flour to make a soft batter and add the shortening. Beat this well with a spoon and immediately work in more warm sifted flour until the dough is heavy enough to turn onto a board to knead. It will be sticky and moist at first, but flour the hands and knead and coax it gently and soon it will work smooth under your hands. When it no longer sticks to your fingers, but looks light and porous and feels elastic, set in a bowl and cover with a heavy cloth and put it in a warm place (about 80 degrees).

In about three hours the mass will be two or three times larger, as the yeast plant has been feeding on the starch and sugar and growing. Knead it a second time right in the bowl, letting out the gas and punching in fresh air. Re-cover and the yeast will get to growing again. When light divide into loaves and half fill greased pans and let the mixture rise again, about 40 minutes this time. Bake 45 to 50 minutes. This is not a good method to use with dry yeast. Standard northwestern flour will always make good bread, but the woman who uses it must also be a weather buren as well as a baker for every change in temperature affects the tender bread spoils.

All breadmakers have their troubles, but they are not four troubles as often as we think.

Questions and Answers

Are there any harm in giving a baby tastes of food from my plate when he is old enough to sit up in a high chair? There is, decidedly. Never, under any circumstances, should you give baby "tastes" of food from the family table. More harm is done by this custom than most mothers realize. It may cause serious digestive trouble, and it teaches the child to want other food than that provided especially for him. Keep the baby away from the table until he is at least two, and then teach him to eat only his own especially prepared food.

My baby had a whooping cough six weeks ago, and still whoops at times. How much longer will it be necessary for me to keep him away from other children? Do not allow him to mingle with other children until he has entirely ceased to cough. This will be several weeks yet.

My baby girl is 15 months old and I am still nursing her. I give her cereal and bread and butter, but she does not seem very fat altho quite well. The baby must be weaned at once. Give her certified milk, diluted at first, well-cooked cereals, broths, jelly, eggs, simple milk puddings, etc. They are all good. Feed her at regular hours, see that she drinks water or milk often during the day and gets plenty of fresh air and sleep.

What should I do for my baby when he has an attack of colic? Warm his hands and feet, let him lie on his stomach over a hot-water bottle. If this does not give relief, give him a tablespoon of warm water in which is a drop of peppermint, a tiny pinch of soda. Always keep his feet warm and his knees covered. My little girl has a black line across her upper teeth just below the gums. I clean her mouth and teeth every day with absorbent cotton, but this mark has appeared. She is two years old. Do not think that the mark shows decay; but that a small soft brush is needed for cleaning instead of the cotton. Take a little powdered pumice stone on the flat end of an orange-wood stick, slightly moistened, and rub the black line with this. Use the brush and good tooth paste or powder every day.

World you get something new. It always leads. Others follow.

J. CUYLER BLACK IN FINE RECITAL

Well Known Tenor Able Assisted by Three Competent Artists.

BUNTY HERE NEXT WEEK

Toronto Symphony Orchestra Gives a Concert at Massey Hall Tomorrow.

James Cuyler Black's recital at the Canadian Foresters' Hall last night was given before a fashionable and representative audience. Verdi's romantic lyric, "Il Mio Tesoro Intanto," from the opera "Don Giovanni," afforded Mr. Black an opportunity of displaying the richness of his fine tenor voice to excellent advantage. This was also true of his pleasing flower song, "From An Old Garden," the Hungarian Folk Song, "Had a Horse" and Sigismund Lanesberg's "Dry Eyes." His concluding contribution was a spirited version of "Addio di Tiriddu," from "Cavalleria Rusticana."

Phenomenal skill as a violinist was evinced by Miss Ruth Kemper who, at 11 years of age, possesses remarkable technique and played with apparent ease Acosta's Concerto in A minor, with Herr Von Kuntz at the piano. Miss Kemper was given an insistent recall.

E. Lavigne Carman, pianist, was engaged on playing Debussy's "Noctudes." He responded with the same composer's "Jardins Sous la Pluie."

"Bunty Pulls the Strings." The sale of seats for "Bunty Pulls the Strings," which comes to the Grand next week for the first presentation anywhere at less than a dollar fifty scale of prices, is now on. It goes without saying that no play of the last decade has created the same interest among theatregoers as "Bunty." Almost unheralded, it came to this country and immediately created a profound impression, so much so that the Comedy Theatre in New York was crowded to its utmost capacity for over fifteen months. The secret of the play's greatness lies in the fact that it is so different from all plays that have gone before. It is all about a simple old church-going folk of the Highlands of West Scotland, and here to the bone Scotch wit and Scotch candor of "Bunty" Elgner is her father's housekeeper. Her father, a prosperous grocer, is a pillar of the church. In his youth he deserts his bride-to-be, a simple girl from a nearby village, where he finds him thirty years after, just as he is about to be married to an old spinster against his will. "Bunty" comes to the rescue, frustrates the plans of the old maid and marries her father to the sweetheart of his youth, and generally straightens out matters. The company to be seen in the local production is headed by Miss Molly Pearson, who plays her original role of "Bunty" and is surrounded by a specially imported cast.

Toronto Symphony Orchestra. Tomorrow night at Massey Hall, Frank S. Welman and his Toronto Symphony Orchestra will present the most important program of the present season. The program, the numbers are as follows: The tone poem, "Death and Transfiguration," by Richard Strauss, a wonderful, ultra-modern composition that has the whole musical world talking; four numbers by Wagner, the "Siegfried Idyll," overture to the "Flying Dutchman," "Siegfried's Funeral March," and the "Overture Tannhauser." In addition to these will also play the concert overture, "In the South," by Sir Edward Elgar, and the greatest orchestral work in England today.

AT THE STRAND

Perhaps the feature at the Strand Theatre that is specially attracting public attention this week, is the marvellous interpretations of the tango and hesitation waltz given by Mr. Frederick Le Croix, the world's most famous dancing master. ## To Cure Catarrhal Deafness and Head Noises Persons suffering from catarrhal deafness and head noises will be glad to know that the tonic action of the catarrhal medicine that is so successfully treated at home by an internal medicine that is so successful in restoring to such an extent that the tick of a watch was plainly audible seven or eight inches away from either ear. Therefore, if you know someone who is troubled with head noises, catarrhal deafness, or out of this for a while, and hand to them, and you will have been the means of saving some poor sufferer, perhaps from total deafness. The prescription can be prepared at home and is made as follows: Secure from your druggist 1 oz. Perinat (double strength), about 70 worth of water and 4 oz. of moist or granulated sugar, stir until dissolved. Take one tablespoonful four times a day.

The first dose promptly ends the most distressing head noises, dizziness, cloudy thinking, etc., while the hearing rapidly returns as the system is invigorated by the tonic action of the treatment. Loss of smell and mucus dripping in the back of the throat are other symptoms that show the presence of catarrhal deafness, and which are quickly overcome by this efficacious treatment. Nearly ninety per cent. of all ear troubles are directly caused by catarrh; therefore, there are but few people whose hearing cannot be restored by this simple home treatment. Every person who is troubled with head noises, catarrhal deafness or catarrh in any form should give this prescription a trial. There is nothing better. Important.—In ordering Perinat always specify that you want double strength. Your druggist has it, or he can get it for you. It cost 75c to the International Laboratories, 71 St. Antoine street, Montreal, P.Q., who make a specialty of it.

Hints on How to be Beautiful

Proper Costume Needed For Beauty Exercise

By Maggie Teyte.

Prime Donna Soprano of the Chicago-Philadelphia Opera Company.

MAGGIE TEYTE

TAKE for a thought in all your beauty efforts: Harmony is the keynote of health, happiness and prosperity.

If I thought these talks were only to make you look pretty to satisfy your vanity, I should feel that I was giving only half value. My hope is that I can start some of you on the road to permanent betterment in every way.

We all need so much help in order to get the most out of life. You can help me by asking questions. That makes me think.

The active mind demands an active body. Laziness is the arch enemy of beauty.

The human body is made for activity. Joints must be kept limber by action, or they become rusty and creaky. Then we hear talk of old age. The way to ward off old age is never to sit down and make it welcome.

Always be too busy to hear, or see, or entertain unpleasant things. This means words and thoughts. Gossip is a foe to beauty. So is ill will. So is idleness.

How many of us exercise intelligently? Not more than one in ten exercise enough, and I wonder how many of the ten direct their body exercises from the brain.

If we want to be beautiful we must think as well as act. I don't need to tell you that this is an age of action.

All I can do is to help you to take your place in the activities, to keep up with the procession. When you learn how, you will find opportunity for helpful exercise in all the little tasks of the day. Just keep the mind alert and the body will have to keep pace.

Perhaps you have heard that I have shocked a lot of ultraconservative persons by declaring for trousers as the ideal costume. Well, I repeat they are ideal for wear if you love both activity and freedom. I wear them in my own domain. They are my exercise costume.

Try them if you will for the exercise hour. If not have a dress that gives equal freedom.

When you exercise, do it with a will and a mind single to the purpose. Walk. Then walk some more. It is the secret of health and beauty. If you are a woman of leisure, walk early in the morning. Walk in low-heeled, broad-soled shoes. Wear loose, warm clothing, the skirt full enough to let you take a good stride and short enough to swing clear of the ground.

And when you walk, neither stroll nor dawdle, but WALK! Keep your shoulders squared and swing along at a good, steady pace, and breathe deep and full and with regularity.

If you are a business woman and have been in the habit of stepping into a street car, walk part way to your work and part way home. If you are a housekeeper, plan the work so as to go to market. When you go shopping, walk. Get the walking habit. You can walk off half your worries. Also your surplus flesh.

It is the grandest and the cheapest exercise in the world. If we women only walked more we wouldn't have to spend half as much for face creams and doctors.

Where is there a man or woman who, thinking for himself or herself, doesn't want to end happily? Then don't blame the romancer. He is doing only what all philosophy, all ethics, all religions have been trying to do for thousands of years. He is holding up the image of the happy END. The newest science and the newest philosophy tell us that EXPECTING things helps to make them happen. It will be a sad world when such last pages stop being popular. Let us hope that we will all have the HAPPY ENDING in our own lives!

Secrets of Health and Happiness

Meaning of a Blush; Bible Truth vs. Theory

By Dr. Leonard Keene Hirschberg.

A.B., M.A., M.D. (Johns Hopkins)
Copyright, 1915, by L. K. Hirschberg.

DR. L. K. HIRSCHBERG

THE Japanese say: "Better a blush on the face than a black spot on the heart." Braver is it to have a glow on the cheek than a consuming passion in the breast. You have been to Sunday school, and perhaps you recall your Bible. Pundits still dispute one word at the end of the 25th verse of Chapter XI in Genesis: "And they—Adam and Eve—were both naked, the man and his wife, and did not blush."

All of the old versions of the Bible translate the Hebrew word for "blush" as "ashamed." Certain radical scholars insist that in the Garden of Paradise, where they knew no evil, the word could only mean that Adam and Eve were entirely unconscious of their nudity, and hence did not blush.

But the serpent said, "Eat of the Tree of Life, then your eyes shall be opened, and ye shall be as gods, knowing good and evil." Which, as everybody now knows, they did. Then Eve blushed and Adam blushed and hid themselves.

Blush Denotes Health.

Just think of it! In those brief verses in Genesis are to be found all of the most modern knowledge about blushing. When an accomplished physiologist observes Lilly Smith and Mary Jones, each sixteen, his attention is also attracted to Harry Green, who is about to shake hands with them. He studies the ensuing blush upon Lilly's cheek, and notes its absence upon the pale face of Mary. But whatever he discovers in Harry's features, as well as those of the pretty maid, he can discover little beyond what Genesis teaches.

Harry stammers and reddens. Lilly blushes and stands first on one foot, then the other. Mary is pale and motionless. Whence these differences? What is taking place at the moment the girls encounter Harry that is missing before? Would the Hesperian color on Lilly's face have been present if they had met a girl instead of a young chap? The answer is emphatically "No!" When a girl meets a boy, or a boy meets a girl, it is the unconscious inheritance of the knowledge of good and evil which has descended from the stolen fruit of Eden that makes the blush of health rise upon the cheeks of the mighty.

And why did not Mary blush? Because she is not normal. She is pale, anaemic, below par physically. Mary is ill, about to go into decline, or just over a severe ailment. Indeed, it is not too much to say that if you have lost the power to blush it is only for two reasons. These are, to wit, unhealthy bodily conditions or that well-known familiarity with blush-stirring experiences which breeds anaemic contempt.

The Blush of the Poet. Muscular is the correct word, although you will not find it in any books—yet. A heightened cheek color, that is to say, flushing up or blushing, is strictly a muscular phenomenon, despite the universal omission of such a description. Open any alleged authority upon physiology, psychology or Darwinism and you will be flabbergasted to read that you are in moments of embarrassment afflicted with such formidable things as "vasomotor discharges," "capillary dilatations," "vascular paralysis" and "arteriole convulsions reflexively affected from the sympathetic medul-lary system," whatever such heathenish flubdub may mean.

Yet these horrid verbal explosions are intended to describe the ordinary, simple and common or garden variety of blush; the reddened cheek of Mrs. Browning's:

Girls blush, sometimes, because they are alive.

Half wishing they were dead to save the shame.

The sudden blush devours them, neck and brow;

They have drawn too near the fire of life, like gnats.

And flare up bodily, wings and all.

Now, what these pedants do not say about the bashful scaries of a modest cheek is the fact that the blush is actually the same sort of muscular movement as a clenched jaw, a smiling mouth, shaking sides, doubled-up fists and even the erect quills of the angry porcupine. When Matthewson or Plank "feel" like pitching good baseball they usually do. When a man is afraid his muscles become all a-quiver, they tremble.

Badges of Blooming Youth.

Once Diogenes saw a youth blushing and addressed him: "Courage, my boy! That is the complexion of virtue." Another unconscious savant has said: "The man that blushes is not quite a brute." Here are two sorts of blushing; there are a legion of others. There are bashful persons who feel the pain of faded scorn. Needless shame, self-imposed disgrace, unexperience, even certain inadequate breeding may all give rise to innocent blushing.

Be it remembered, then, that blushing is behavior peculiar to the human tribe. It is evidence that exposes the soul to the court of neighborhood resort. The mantling of a maiden's cheek by good red blood is the kindling of her thoughts into muscular action.

DAILY HEALTH HINT

Pimples of the uncomplicated variety are easily treated with equal parts in a four-ounce jar of salicylic, sweet almond oil and lanolin with a teaspoonful of extract of garratone or violet mixed in with it.

Dr. Hirschberg will answer questions for readers of this paper on medical, hygiene and sanitation subjects that are of general interest. He will not undertake to prescribe or offer advice for individual cases. Where the subject is not of general interest letters will be answered periodically. ## Advice to Girls

By Annie Laurie.

Miss Laurie will welcome letters of inquiry on subjects of feminine interest from young women readers of this paper and will reply to them in these columns. They should be addressed to her, care this office.

HOW many times is it proper for you to dance with one man in the same evening—when you are not engaged to him? You think it's all right to give him every dance on the program—your mother says people will talk about you if you do—but you hate to have the fellow think you are old-fashioned and prudish. One of them called you "mamma's baby" once because your mother wouldn't let you sit out on the porch with him in the moonlight after ten o'clock.

Well, that doesn't seem such a terrible name to me. It isn't such a frightful disgrace to be "mamma's baby" as it is to be some other things I might mention.

Don't be so afraid of what the "fellows" think. Be a little more anxious about what the other girls will think—that's safer.

What would you whisper to the girl next to you if one of the other girls danced every dance with one man?

Oh, no; it isn't different at all—you aren't a bit different from the girls that you would whisper about if they did a thing like that.

Who are you that you should have different rules for yourself and expect other girls to live up to quite another set of ideas?

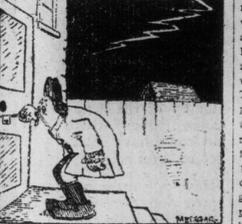

You are not half as much unlike the rest of the world as you imagine, little sister, and the same good old rules that govern them must govern you—or you are sure to get the worst of it some time, some way or other.

Besides, the man will like you a whole lot better if he has to wait for a dance once in a while. Try it and see if he doesn't.

Annie Laurie

The Banff Geyser

FEW persons ever heard of a defunct geyser, but they are not uncommon. It is said that that beautiful winding of the Mississippi River known as Lake Pepin is really a defunct geyser or perhaps the crater of a volcano, but the most remarkable one I know of on this continent is near Banff, the Canadian Summer resort.

Here is a large cave or chamber within a mountain, and in its centre is a small, hot lake. The domelike roof comes to an apex some twenty feet above the water, and in this is an opening, or vent, two feet or so in diameter, which pierces the rock six or eight feet until it reaches the outer air. This is thought by scientists to be an extinct geyser, and that the vent in the roof has been caused by the eruption of the waters.

One reaches this hot pool now by means of a tunnel, but formerly it was necessary to descend through the vent, and a story is told of a distinguished Canadian official who, some years ago, tried to make the descent. Half way down the shaft this corpulent person stuck—to the alarm of himself and friends. He remained a fixture for some time, in spite of strong language on his part and various devices used by outsiders for his extrication.

It is believed that this incident led to the construction of an entrance tunnel by the Canadian Government, but the process of squeezing through the hole, leaving some cuticle in the descent, and the knowledge that a slip would mean a ducking in a hot lake below was a novel experience that the tunnel cannot furnish.

For a Conservative Dresser

WHILE many of the Winter modes are so extreme as to prove offensive to the woman of conservative ideas, it is possible to find a model worthy of the materials.

One of the exclusive importers of fashions commends the design shown as one which combines the best of the season's novelties. It is especially desirable for a half-ceremonious suit, to be worn when one does not care to don the heavy fur or cloth coat, and is equally attractive developed in duvetyne, broadcloth, or the more supple velours, velvets or wool satin.

The skirt, in walking length, has a side draping which shows the slight rounding up directly over the instep which characterizes so many of the best suits.

The coat evidences the Russian influence. It is collarless and gathered a little in front into a yoke. The sleeves, cut in one with the body, are entirely new. They are fuller than we have been wearing and are drawn into a deep cuff fastened with buttons. This cuff may be fur-edged.

The coat closes high and a ruff of fur is worn.

Cold Just the Same. "It was one of the strangest things I ever knew." "Yes." "Yes, indeed. A man who had his legs shot off at the knee got cold feet while playing poker."

A Bad Effect. "What caused Mack's last lapse from sobriety?" "Listening to a dry temperance speech."

Sure of His Love. "How did Miss Speeds manage it to marry a man who did not wed her for his money?" "She married one who had twice as much money as she had."

Daddy's Good Night Story

By GEORGE HENRY SMITH

THE children at the Frogville School were so excited over the questions and conundrums that Miss Panny Frog had to hear them before they began their lessons.

One morning she took her place at the blackboard with a piece of chalk and said:

"My dear children, I want to-day to show you a few things about words.

"They are all we have. When you wish to talk you use words. They make the one you are talking to joyous or angry, happy or sad, active or inactive. That is, you can make me do something by asking me to get the rubber for you and I can make you inactive by asking you all to be quiet.

"Now, how many children have seen a—?" and Miss Panny Frog wrote the word "goat" on the board. "Now, what two words make up go-a-t?"

"Wait a minute, wait a minute," shouted Jack Frog. "You asked if any of us had seen a goat. I have seen a goat and he tried to 'GO AT' me!"

"There you are," said the teacher, "Jack has the answer. The two words are GO and AT. Now you might to see how words are made up.

"Let me ask you another question," began Miss Panny Frog. "Does the window ever get sick?"

"No," shouted Little Willie Tree-toad, "but it sometimes has a pane." "Yes," said the teacher, "but the two words are spelled differently. The window has a pane, and he wrote the words on the board, 'Jack Frog has a pane.'"

"I haven't any pain," said Jack Frog.

"You must not answer me that way," said Miss Frog, "for it is not so much what you say as the way you say it. By the way, Jack, have you a conundrum for us for to-day?"

"Yes, teacher," said Jack, "as he began to fish in his pockets. He looked first in one and then in the other and then turned them inside out. He looked through his desk, shaking the leaves of all his books. He don't see why boys have so many pockets," whispered Willie Hop-toad to Jill Frog.

"I guess I won't hunt for it any more," said Jack, "for it's in my head. What is that which by losing an eye has nothing left but a nose?"

The children guessed and guessed and finally gave it up.

"Noise," said Jack proudly, as he sat down.

WHO IS THINKING OUT LOUD?

To the Ottawa correspondent of The Toronto Mail we are indebted for what purports to be a précis of the judgment soon to be handed down in the western freight rate enquiry by the Dominion Board of Railway Commissioners.

It is satisfactory to know that for the last six months—at any rate the stagnation anticipated for Toronto by The Globe and The Telegram has not overtaken the city.

It is satisfactory to know that for the last six months—at any rate the stagnation anticipated for Toronto by The Globe and The Telegram has not overtaken the city.

Canon Dyson Hague has been denouncing the higher critics for not recognizing the unity of the Bible.

The expectation of those concerned is that the railway commission contemplates such a readjustment as will meet some of the objections raised in the middle western centres from the burden of which they have complained.

Those who are inclined to be captious may find fault with a court which allows its decisions to leak out or to be given out in advance.

Perhaps they are more particular in the United States on account of the Dred Scott decision.

The bare suspicion that the court was not independent, but subject to pressure from the government, so inflamed the public mind that no settlement of the slavery question was possible except by sword.

is our good neighbor The Mail merely guessing, or has our former neighbor, and we hope still our good friend, the chairman, or one of his associates, been talking in their sleep?

Three anonymous members of the board of trade were quoted by The Telegram last night as in favor of changing the usual elections for the new council into a Telegram dog fight over an issue which does not exist.

The Telegram has a theory that Sir William Mackenzie and others have been trying to purchase the City of Toronto and all that it contains in order to sell to the City of Toronto the street railway and Toronto Electric Light Company.

when it appears from The Telegram Sir William is to come down himself and nominate Mr. Gundy as president with a select list of councillors. It is useless to point out that Mr. Gundy has gradually been working up to the position thru the council and vice-presidency chairs.

It is unfortunate that the board of trade should be so disturbed by the street railway purchase plan when The Telegram announces every night that it is as dead as Marley—quite dead.

CITIZENS TAUNTED ZABERN SOLDIERS

Evidence Indicated Troops Were Hooted and Jeered by People.

STRASSBURG, Germany, Jan. 6.—(Can. Press.)—Testimony much more favorable to the accused army officers was given at the resumption today of the court-martial on Con. Von Reuter and Lieut. Schud of the 89th Infantry who are charged with making illegal arrests, willful assault and disturbance of the peace during the clash between the military and civilians at Zabern, Alsace, in November.

The testimony was flatly contradicted by the state's attorney of Zabern and by other civilian officials, but was partially substantiated by the evidence of 23 of the men who had been arrested by the soldiers on Nov. 28, and who had spent a night in the cells of the barracks.

AN IRISH MUSICAL GENIUS

Some of His Songs. Michael William Balfe was born in Dublin, Ireland, 1808. His father taught him the rudiments of music and to play the violin when only eight years old, receiving great applause for his performance at a Royal Exchange concert.

Five years later the death of his father so agitated the boy that he went to Charles Horn, the great musician, and in desperation begged him to take him with him to London.

Later Count Mazzora, who at sight of young Balfe grew pale and nearly fainted, explained the reason as follows: "He has buried his only son, whom Balfe so closely resembled that he could not have told them apart."

He became a singer in Italian opera, and under the name of Balfe he was successful in Paris, where he died Oct. 19, 1870, in his 62d year.

5,000 BARRELS A DAY BY NEW PROCESS.

(Special Correspondent.) ST. JOHN, N.B.—A factory for making barrels, kept up by patent process is a possibility for St. John in the near future.

Mr. Sanford said it was the intention to establish a factory with the capacity of 5,000 barrels a day in the Maritime Provinces, and that St. John would not doubt be selected as the site.

Several of Balfe's famous songs are to be found in "Heart Songs"—the book now being presented to the public in this paper.

THIRTEEN SEAMEN SURVIVED WRECK

Death Toll of Tank Steamer Oklahoma Reduced to Twenty-Five.

RESCUE WAS HEROIC

Young English Officer Gallantly Saved Five of Imperiled Crew.

NEW YORK, Jan. 6.—(Can. Press.)—Thirteen survivors were counted for tonight out of the thirty-eight men aboard the tank steamer Oklahoma when she broke in two last Sunday in storm off Barnegat. Another story of heroic rescue was written beside the tale told by the wireless that brought the first news of the disaster.

Of the Oklahoma's death list stood at 25 tonight, and although her owners swore that the vessel was not impeding any other vessels that might be about there was little hope that more of the crew would be saved.

Last April two of our representatives solicited applications for life assurance from a prominent Toronto wholesale merchant and his son.

They succeeded in selling to the father a policy for a considerable amount, but the son could not be induced to protect his dependents in this way against the financial loss which would result from his early death.

Private Patients' Wing of General Hospital Ready for All Cases.

FINANCIAL STATEMENT Fifty Thousand Dollars Needed Every Year to Carry on Work.

The opening of the private patient department of the General Hospital yesterday afternoon was an impressive function, at which a large number of Toronto citizens assisted. J. W. Flavelle, president at the ceremonies, which were opened with the reading of Scripture by Rev. Dr. Carman, followed in prayer by Ven. Archbishop Cody.

The financial statement of the hospital was given by W. E. Rundle, manager of the National Trust Co., and chairman of the hospital finance committee. An expenditure of over three and a half millions has been met with the exception of $87,659.77. In addition it will be necessary to raise $50,000 annually to carry on the work. This amount, it is hoped, will be met by a general appeal to the people of Toronto. Mr. Rundle thanked all who had contributed—the city, the government, university and private individuals.

public have heard it. The entrancing and exhaustless melodic originality of Beethoven is prominent throughout the composition but neither does it lack the massive phrasing so characteristic of the master hand. Both aspects of the work were finely interpreted, and in the sweetness of the Andante theme Jan Hamburg had an opportunity to show his growing sense of the tender side of his art. The charming variations were played with fine taste and delicacy. The jubilation of the final presto was expressed with spirit and intensity. In all this Miss Leginska confirmed the impression she made during the fall, and in spite of extreme fatigue from long railway journeying for which an apology was made, and her last suite changed for the Schubert-Tausig "Marche Militaire," her playing won the heartiest admiration. The first number played was the Tachikowky trio in A minor, op. 59, which created such a furor when played by Miss Leginska and Messrs. Jan and Boris Hamburg in November. The repetition was closely followed and with keen delight. The performance occupied an hour, and

TWENTY THOUSAND MORE IMMIGRANTS

Came to Ontario From Britain This Year Than Last. DOMESTICS IN DEMAND Farm Laborers Also Are Needed in All Parts of Ontario.

British immigration to Ontario for the year 1913 shows a total of 62,574, as compared with 44,485 for 1912, an increase of 18,000 and enquires now pouring in from the old land, it appears assured that the present years will see an even greater increase. Since the beginning of the year about a hundred new arrivals have come in, but all of these, with the exception of some domestics, were placed outside the city with farmers. Although domestics will be kept here, all other British immigrants coming in for the next two months will be placed on farms. A wage of $10 a month with board and lodging is now being paid by the farmers, and it is contended by the officials that this is much better than allowing immigrants to come to the city to perhaps swell the ranks of the unemployed. It is not expected that the rush from the old country will commence until March 1, when the sum of $50 now required to be possessed by those coming in will be reduced to $25. After April 1 farm hands and domestics will be admitted without possession of a stated amount of money.

Let the Band start "Dixie" anywhere in the United States today—north or south, east or west—and the audience will applaud. In the South it is a signal for a storm of cheers—spontaneous and lasting. But to hear it in foreign waters, played by one of the bands of their great war vessels—with throngs of Americans—far from the shores of their native land—standing about with bared heads and glistening eyes—that is to know what "Dixie" means—now that there is no longer a North or a South! It is truly an American song—the most melodious, the most stirring of all their national airs.

Words and music were written by a "blackface" minstrel, Dan Emmet. Yet it is an inspiration direct from the source of song itself—and is proof that genius is not peculiar to greatness and learning—but is dowered, as well, upon the humblest. Only one other national air is to be compared with "Dixie" in its power to thrill and stir the masses—the "Marseillaise" of the French. This latter song is to be found on page 494 of Heart Songs. Many other national and patriotic songs appear also in this unique volume.

Kingston Prison Enquiry Has Resumed

SYSTEM ALLOWED TO DETERIORATE

Evidence of Witness at Pen. Inquiry Attributes It to Lack of Labor.

ABSENCE OF HEADSHIP

Better Methods of Schooling Urged, With Appointment of Qualified Teacher.

(Special to The Toronto World). KINGSTON, Jan. 6.—That system in the penitentiary has been allowed to deteriorate on account of lack of labor was the statement of Inspector Stewart in giving evidence at the prison reform commission's session this afternoon.

He declared he was a great believer in the "gospel of labor" as he referred to it, and that it was absolutely necessary to have labor to have discipline in prison. Asked for opinion as regards prison reform, he stated that labor was most essential; another point in bringing about reform was that of removal of insane convicts from the penitentiary to some other institution.

Education a Privilege. Although the inspector advocated the appointment of a qualified teacher, he held that it was not the duty of the state to provide education for a man sentenced to prison; it was merely a privilege given the convict.

In the line of manufacture, he advocated the making of furniture and the turning out of railway mail service supplies for the government, with all repair work.

Politicians Ran Prison. Inspector Hughes declared that lack of a head for Kingston Penitentiary was the cause of much of the trouble in management. With a proper head there would be no trouble. Politicians had the running of the prison.

Another weakness in management, said the witness, was that of lack of strict medical examination of all convicts upon their entering prison. Judges also showed weakness in some of the sentences imposed on young boys. There should be a better system of schooling.

At the morning session, Inspector Stewart who, according to certain convicts, had used the hose on them, said he had been inspector since February, 1895, and had carried out the duties of warden at the Portsmouth Penitentiary from May, 1912, to April, 1913. From memory he believed that six convicts had been hosed in this time. The men were "hosed" on his instructions and he handled the hose himself.

Striped Suit Not Degrading. "The striped suit is not degrading," declared Inspector Stewart. "It is no more degrading than the costume put on by a football player."

HELD UP BY HIGHWAYMEN. Dover Township Man Relieved of Roll by Modern Dick Turpins.

CHATHAM, Jan. 6.—(Special.)—George Kim of Mitchell's Bay, was held up by highwaymen on the River road, Dover Township, about a mile from the city, and relieved of about $12 in money and a quantity of personal effects. From all appearance the robbery was carefully planned.

Acting on information given by the complainant, the authorities arrested Jack Banks and David Grant, both local young men, on suspicion of being implicated in the affair.

On appearing before Magistrate Stanworth this morning Banks and Grant pleaded not guilty to the charge laid and elected to be tried by a jury. The magistrate remanded them for one week. Neither man will be allowed bail.

ADVOCATES SURVEY OF FARMING LIFE

N. W. Rowell Points to Rural Depopulation—Remedy Should Be Found.

OPPOSITION LEADER

Picked Flaws in Whitney Rule at Canada Forward Club Meeting.

"In no way can we be of more service to our province or to the country as a whole," declared N. W. Rowell, speaking last night before the Canada Forward Club, "than by giving public questions our intelligent study in order to arrive at a solution which may serve to better conditions. The effort of the State of California in calling together the clergymen of that state in an effort to interest them in public matters with a view to their solution is a move which may well be copied by the government of many other states and provinces."

Mr. Rowell declared that it was in the rural parts of Ontario that there was greatest opportunity for the development of healthy citizenship. You will find no country better fitted for mixed farming than is the soil of Southern Ontario. Also there is a ready market almost at the door for all products of the soil, the fact has to be faced that in the last ten years the population of rural Ontario has grown less, and that the power of the rural schools and churches is being impaired. Following this decrease in the country population there has been a corresponding increase in the city population, and as the quantity of agricultural produce diminishes there comes a greater demand for it."

A thorough examination of rural conditions was advised by Mr. Rowell. The same problems were facing Great Britain and the United States, but were present in a much lesser degree in Germany, Holland and several other European countries. "Put before the child of every farmer of this province, a knowledge of the rudiments of scientific agriculture and you have advanced a great way upon the solution of this question. This could be done thru the agency of the Guelph Agricultural College. It is possible, we are assured, that the productivity of Ontario could be doubled, and this would to a very large extent afford a solution to the problem of the high cost of living which confronts us."

City Problems. "The city has its problems as well. The question of housing involves not merely proper accommodation for the working class, but means also that the family life which is in the final analysis the basis of the state, be maintained in its highest and purest form, and in its most vital relationship."

The advisability of giving municipalities the option of taking the water off improvements and levying them entirely upon land was referred to. It would, the speaker declared, be no small factor in the solution of urban economic, since it would preclude the holding of vacant land for speculative purposes.

Workmen's compensation was touched on by Mr. Rowell, who urged that the present Factory Act was entirely inadequate. He was exceedingly anxious that a bill providing for such legislation be introduced at the coming session of the house.

Abolish the Bar. A province-wide abolition of hotel club and shop licenses, he said, was the best way of solving the liquor problem. "The voting yesterday affords a striking illustration of both utility and insufficiency of local option as a weapon for fighting the evils of the liquor traffic. Its utility

HEAVY ENTRY LIST AT STRATFORD POULTRY SHOW

Extra Space Had to Be Provided—Wardenship Race—Trading Company in Court.

STRATFORD, Jan. 6.—So numerous have been the entries in the poultry show of the Stratford Poultry Association, which opened today that the judging has been held over until tomorrow. The number of exhibits has exceeded by far the estimates of the directors. They were still arriving late on into the evening, and additional space had to be found. Rev. W. E. Milson and T. W. Edwards, late of Victoria, B.C., are the judges.

County councillors S. E. Smith of Wallace and Julius Cook of North Easthope will be out for the wardenship this year.

The case of the Ontario College of Pharmacy against the Barnsdale Trading Company and D. B. Nichol, for alleged illegal selling of hydrogen peroxide, was heard in Judge Justice's court for judgment. As the evidence stood this morning, however, the magistrate was of the opinion that the defendants were guilty of a breach of the law. The practical impossibility of bringing it into force in the larger centres of population.

Provincial Law. "Unless, therefore, we are prepared practically to concede to the liquor traffic its right to maintain the open bar with all its abuses in our chief centres of population as well as in a large number of the smaller cities and towns of the province, we must have a province-wide measure and it is in this view that we have accomplished the object desired by the liquor interests when it was enacted as an amendment of the liquor law. Out of 121 licenses condemned by the people the liquor interests saved 97 by the three-fifths requirement."

STEPPED IN FRONT OF G. T. R. ENGINE

Geo. Kostoff, Cook With Construction Gang, Killed at Milton Junction.

(Special to The Toronto World). GUELPH, Jan. 6.—George Kostoff, a Montenegrin, employed as cook with a C.P.R. construction gang at Milton, was killed at the junction of the G.T.R. and C.P.R. at Milton today.

Kostoff stepped from behind a small building directly in front of a Grand Trunk engine and was thrown into the ditch.

He was conscious when picked up and was carried into one of the construction cars, where it was found his right arm and left leg had been broken. A physician rendered first aid and the man was placed on board a C.P.R. train, with the intention of bringing him to the Guelph General Hospital, but he died on the way.

An inquest will be held. Kostoff had been in the employ of the C.P.R. for four years. He was about 45 years of age, and had two sons in the recent Balkan war. When searched he had a small amount of money in a pouch belt.

FIRST SHIPPING LOSS OF SEASON ON LAKES

Barge Pendall Burns to Water's Edge at Harbor Beach—Matoa to Drydock.

(Special to The Toronto World). SARNIA, Jan. 6.—The tug Fisher, with the lighter Kinderhook of the Reid Line, arrived here today from Harbor Beach, where she has been working on the wrecked steamer Matoa. The Matoa is now safe in Harbor Beach and will be brought down here under her own steam tomorrow. If the weather keeps good, the steamer will be brought down tomorrow for Alpena, where they will pick her up. The Reid will work on the Matoa, weather permitting.

Word was received this morning that the steam barge Dorcas Pendall was destroyed by fire at Harbor Beach last night and is practically a total loss. The wooden barge was carried ashore inside the breakwater during the storm of Nov. 9, and at the time of the fire was lying in four feet of water. The fire is supposed to have been caused by an overheated stove in the quarters of the ship-keeper on the vessel. Tugs were unable to get near enough to be of any assistance in saving her, and the boat burned to the water's edge, becoming the first total loss of the season of 1914. The Pendall was owned in Buffalo. She was valued at about $4,000 and carried no insurance.

AVIATOR ORDERED TO FIGHT RIVAL Unless Vedrines Consents, He Will Be Stripped of Aerial Honors.

PARIS, Jan. 6.—(Can. Press.)—Julius Vedrines, one of the aviators who recently flew from Paris to Cairo, Egypt, was ordered today in a telegram from Rene Quinton, president of the French National Aerial League, to give satisfaction immediately to Henry Roux, his rival, who also had accomplished the flight, and who had challenged him to a duel after Vedrines had struck him in the face during an altercation. The quarrel between the two aviators is said to have arisen because Roux is alleged to have requested the Turkish officials not to assist Vedrines on his flight in the Orient.

BEARS STAMPEDED IN BRAZILIANS

Sudden Turn in Market Disturbs Balance of Bear Traders.

LOCAL STOCKS FIRMER

Toronto Rails Show Ready Response to a Little Real Buying.

The bears in Brazil were trapped yesterday to the extent of about two points. This did not come unexpectedly as some such move has been looked for any time.

A better undertone pervaded the London and New York exchanges. Many New York financiers prefer to believe that conditions have improved and that the monthly bank statements will bear watching in this particular.

The volume of business yesterday showed considerable expansion, with Brazil far in the lead of any other of the listed issues.

C.P.R. was stronger at 20 1/2. Toronto and the city's share, amounting to $3,312,427.75, the net would be $2,710,922.25.

For 1913 only 52.4 per cent. was allowed for operations, but in 1914, the amount was 53 per cent. was allowed, which, according to the civic experts, is necessary for the cost of operation.

Dividends amounting to about $800,000 and bond interest aggregating something like $100,000, are to be debited against the net. The city's share, amounting to $3,312,427.75 on the percentage plan, is to be deducted, and the net would be $2,710,922.25.

Here are the figures for the past year, including the cheques received by Toronto as its percentage of earnings:

Table with columns for Month (Jan to Dec) and corresponding financial figures.

Baltimore & Ohio. This stock was brought into the limelight today by the recommendation of the executive committee of the United Pacific Railroad that the stock recently purchased should be distributed to the United Pacific shareholders.

The proposed distribution of Baltimore & Ohio stock to United Pacific shareholders would represent a 32 per cent. share. Valuing the stock at $120 as an average price, the shares should approximate $167 to $168.

The earnings of 8.56 per cent. compare with 7.22 per cent. for 1913, 1911, and 12.99 per cent. in 1910. Southern Pacific earnings show a good margin over dividend requirements.

The weakness in this stock was caused by the decreased net earnings, notwithstanding the large increase in gross for the year. The cutting of the New Haven dividends has also a sentimental influence on New York Central stockholders.

STERLING. Sixty days, 482.15. Sterling demand, 487.92. Cable transfers, 486.55.

FRANCE. Demand, 526, plus 3-64. Market, demand, 514, plus 1-32. Bank of England rate, 5 per cent. Open market discount rate for short bills, 3-16 per cent.

NEW YORK FUNDS. 3-22 premium. A favorable report of unfilled tonnage is expected on Jan. 8. This accounts partly for the recent improved demand for the stock.

A Trust Company's Function. Every man who makes a will should avail himself of the services of a trust company to act as his executor. The charge is no higher than when an individual is appointed, and the testator is assured of the provisions of his will being explicitly carried out.

STOCK BONUS GIVEN BUT DIVIDEND CUT

U.P.'s Distribution of B. and O. Holdings Not Entirely Festive Occasion.

Announcement Caused Flurry in Wall Street—Strength Shown at Close.

NEW YORK, Jan. 6.—(Can. Press.)—The feature of today's stock market was the announcement at midday of United Pacific's intention to distribute its holdings of Baltimore and Ohio shares in the form of a stock dividend approximating 33 per cent.

The news was preceded and followed by considerable excitement and violent fluctuations in Union Pacific and Baltimore and Ohio issues, the former advancing smartly and the latter declining correspondingly. In fact, Baltimore and Ohio common today attained its lowest level in one year.

The list as a whole was strong for the greater part of the session, opening gains in the more speculative issues extending from 1 to 2 points. Towards the end of the morning session, however, prices yielded in most quarters and business fell away. In the final dealings the activity of the first hour was resumed to the accompaniment of a wider buying movement, in which all the more seasoned issues, as well as numerous specialties participated.

Baltimore and Ohio shares were the only listed exceptions, the common and preferred losing 3 and 2 1/2 points respectively.

London and the continent were decided factors in the day's fairly large operations, buying for foreign account, chiefly Union Pacific, Southern Pacific and United States Steel being estimated at fully $2,000,000.

Offerings of time money were scant, with rates unchanged. Call money was in high demand and commercial paper was taken under recent quotations. Bonds were active.

MONTREAL STOCKS SHOWED BUOYANCY

C. P. R. and Brazilian Leaders in Activity—Richelieu Strong Spot.

MONTREAL, Jan. 6.—Local stocks responded today to an improvement to-day in the tone of outside markets and the C.P.R. and Brazilian were both firmer and 1 1/2 to 2 points on the former and 1 1/2 for the latter. Subsequently C.P.R. developed a somewhat reactionary tone in New York, but one point of the early advance was retained to the close.

Richelieu was strong and advanced a little more than 200 in the late session sent the price to 12 1/2, and it closed at the top with a net gain of 1 1/2 on the day.

The improvement in these two stocks gave strength to the rest of the list and as a result prices had to be bid up to obtain stock. Power rose 1 to 2 1/4, where it closed. Richelieu was strong and advanced a little more than 200 in the late session sent the price to 12 1/2, and it closed at the top with a net gain of 1 1/2 on the day.

LONDON MARKET MORE CHEERFUL. Strength in Americans, Mexicans and Home Rails the Features.

LONDON, Jan. 6.—Money was more plentiful and discount rates were easy today. The Bank of England secured most of the $4,000,000 new gold offered in the open market.

The market was more cheerful, largely in sympathy with the strength in Americans. Covering orders advanced and the market for Mexican shares, while Brazilians hardened on a favorable budget statement. Consols eased off when it was announced that the underwriters were taking ninety per cent. of the New South Wales £3,000,000 four per cent. loan.

American securities opened firm and a fraction higher. Good buying advanced prices during the early trading and at noon values ranged from 1/4 to 1 1/2 points above parity. Wall street bought in the early afternoon and the tone continued good until the late trading, when the list reacted in sympathy with the weakness in Baltimore & Ohio. The closing was dull.

J. P. MORGAN IN FOUR OF BIG REGIONAL BANKS

Son of Former Financial Giant Expresses Views Before Committee. NEW YORK, Jan. 6.—(Can. Press.)—J. P. Morgan aligned himself today with the advocates of a regional bank of commanding size in the district which is to include New York. Most of the other witnesses who appeared at today's hearing of the federal reserve organization committee shared Mr. Morgan's views, arguing for the establishment of a regional bank in this territory, which would represent forty per cent. or more of the capital of the entire national system.

BOMB OUTRAGE LAID TO BLACKHANDS

ROCHESTER, N. Y., Jan. 6.—(Can. Press.)—The front of the building, 200 North street, in which C. Cappellino conducts a bank, express business and a grocery store, was blown into the air by a bomb explosion this morning, arousing the neighborhood. Cappellino, his wife and three children were thrown from their beds by the shock. Two police discovered remnants of a bomb on the front door step. An attempt to blow up Cappellino's business was made last March by Black-handers, and the same gang is suspected.

BIG FIRE THREATENS HEART OF MONTREAL

Three Business Stands Wrecked With Losses Placed at Hundred and Fifty Thousand.

MONTREAL, Jan. 6.—(Can. Press.)—Four St. Catharine street stores at the corner of McGill College avenue were destroyed by fire this afternoon and the fire is still burning.

The heart of the uptown district on St. Catharine street was seriously threatened this afternoon by fire which wrecked three business establishments with damage estimated at $150,000. The firms are: The T. H. Philbin Hardware Company, the Warnes Feature Film Company and an office of the Montreal Light, Heat and Power Company.

Evangeline Leblanc, a young stenographer, was rescued from the roof of a blazing building by firemen as she was about to jump after standing on the edge of the roof for five minutes screaming wildly for help.

EXHIBITION TRAIN PLAN NOT CREATING FURORE

British Firms Slow to Engage Space to Display Goods.

LONDON, Jan. 6.—(C. A. P.)—The Canadian Press agency is stating that the British manufacturers are showing a lukewarm attitude towards the proposed exhibition train to four Canada. Some firms are convinced their goods could not be adequately advertised under such conditions, and in any circumstances it would have been surprising if the average British exhibitor inherited conservative instincts had embraced such a proposal with enthusiasm.

It is understood, that several firms who hitherto held aloof have been strongly urged by their Canadian agents to associate themselves with the scheme. The exhibition train promoters hope to sell advertising space to the value of $150,000.

WILL MAKE CHANGES IN MEET AT BISLEY

N. R. A. Accepts Army Council Proposals—Still Encourage Bullseye Shot.

LONDON, Jan. 6.—(C.A.P.)—There is good authority for stating that points at issue between the N.R.A. and National Rifle Association affecting the future of the Bisley meeting will be amicably settled at an early date on a basis of "acceptance of army council's proposals." It is pointed out that the N.R.A. will be allowed to continue to encourage bullseye shots in all-combination conditions, and no change will take place in long range match rifle shooting.

An interesting feature of the Bisley programme, and one of the most important, is in view of the considerable amount of detail as well as expense which will be necessary to give effect to the new regulations it may not be possible to carry all new rules into practice at the Bisley meeting next July.
