Intense Artillery Duel Rages in the Lagarina Valley.

Special Cable to The Toronto World.

LONDON, May 30.—Resuming the offensive in the Posina zone and along the upper Astico in the southern Tyrol, the Austrians attacked the Italian positions south of Posina and after a desperate struggle they were driven back, leaving the Italians in possession of their positions. This attack was launched in the direction of Roglia di Campiglia and Monte Primofra.

In the Lagarina valley and in the Fambio sector an intense artillery duel and great military activity have prevailed. Austrian convoys were caught by Italian artillery fire and dispersed.

Reconnoitering detachments have been active on the Asiago plateau and in the Sugana valley and hostile batteries have opened fire on Ospedaletta.

In the Tofana zone the Italians repulsed a small infantry attack. The Austrians also exploded a powerful mine on the northern slopes of Monte San Michele and breached a considerable extent of Austrian trenches.

Speedy End of Futile War Is Demanded in Reichstag

Fantastic Plans of Conquest, if Continued, Will Bleed People White, Says Socialist Member.

BERLIN, May 30, 5 p.m., via London, May 31.—In the Reichstag today, Gustav Noske, Socialist, protested against the speech of Herr Hirsch, National Liberal of Essen, which, he declared, was calculated to prevent the neutral powers from mediating in behalf of peace. Herr Noske especially objected to Herr Hirsch's "scolding tone" toward President Wilson. He added:

"There is no disposition among the German people to hazard the lives of further hundreds of thousands for fantastic plans of conquest. The people at the front and at home want no more bloodshed. The masses reject the thought of continuing the war until peoples are bled white. That would be a crime. Humanity needs a permanent understanding."

He Advised Allison to "Scratch Gravel" After Sir Courtney Bennett's "Ring" Had Upset Plans—Colonel Too Conscientious to Take Commissions Fairly Earned.

By a Staff Reporter.

OTTAWA, May 30.—Sir Sam Hughes came to the defence of Col. J. Wesley Allison at the royal commission this afternoon, and said that Allison was entitled to whatever commissions he got. In fact, he thought he should have got more. It was only due to the fact that Allison was "stumpy" about the war that he did not go after a commission on every order he handled.

Sir Sam announced that it had been his intention to make Allison a purchasing agent on a commission basis for the Canadian and British governments, and his explanation of why this was not carried out threw a little light on previous hints of munition dealings concerning Sir Courtney Bennett, British consul-general in New York.

"In New York," Sir Sam said, "the ring of British agents immediately set to work to publicly and privately defame Allison and everybody who was not working with them. Some of the work of Sir Courtney Bennett's hirelings has been brought out this morning. I investigated Sir Courtney Bennett's outfit and found it was a false scheme run by people in the pay of Germany."

Profitable Smuggling.

When the ring had been broken by Allison, Sir Sam admitted he told Allison to go ahead and "scratch gravel" for himself. Allison would have made the British Government $100,000,000 in the first year's war purchases alone, Sir Sam said, by the help of Col. Allison, the Canadian Government would have gained thousands of dollars' worth of goods from the United States for war purposes at the beginning of the war. They were smuggled via Allison's land, on the boundary line, and with the connivance of the customs department.

Allison, too, made the arrangements whereby the goods could be shipped direct to England from New York. They were shipped this way a year.

WAR SUMMARY

THE DAY'S EVENTS REVIEWED

In his continued hammering at the French lines before Verdun with artillery bombardments, in which millions of shells are thrown away, and with infantry attacks, in which thousands are butchered, with the object of making a German holiday, the enemy, with each failure, confesses to his growing inferiority in strength to the allies, and even should he, by some lucky accident, be able to throw his legions into the outskirts of that ancient town, the fact must remain, that one of the weakest spots in the French battle line held up the whole German might for over 100 days. In that period, at the opening of the war, the battle of the Marne was fought and won, and the gap at the gates of Calais was closed by the matchless qualities and the highly scientific fighting of the British infantry. The French defence of Verdun is, indeed, comparable in excellence to the first British defence of Ypres. Thus, both armies have to their credit the successful conduct of two great and difficult operations in war. The task looks simple, but in reality it calls for the highest qualities of leadership and human endurance.

In this fighting before Verdun the French are not resisting for the purpose of retaining every inch of the shell-furrowed ground. They are fighting on the principle that gains of territory can be made by the paying of a certain price in men, and they are determined to exact the full price from the German army. The notion that now seems to actuate the mind of the French high command is to fight the enemy for exhaustion. Up till the present Germany has been able to hold the existing lines of trenches in the east and the west by about 120 divisions. This leaves her free to use the remaining 50 divisions of her army as a spear head to run about seeking to obtain a decision by piercing the allied front at some point or other in the hope of forcing the allies to fight a general engagement before they have fully prepared for it by the accumulation of a large reserve of men and guns. The French are fighting to blunt this German spearhead by knocking out the various drafts which the enemy continues to use in restoring the strength of this spearhead. Their military statisticians have proved to the satisfaction of their high com-

GERMANS FORCED FRENCH LINE BACK

Foe Gained Small Success East of Le Mort Homme.

WINGS HELD INTACT

Special Cable to The Toronto World.

LONDON, May 30.—In a powerful assault carried out by a fresh German division last night, French troops were forced back last night a distance of about 150 yards south of the Bethincourt-Cumieres highway on the front between Le Mort Homme and Cumieres in the course of fighting during the night. The assault as usual was preceded by a bombardment of extreme violence. The attack was launched on a wide front, and it was broken on the French left by the slopes of Le Mort Homme. It was in the Caurettes wood that the Germans made slight progress by forcing the French to give up some of their advanced positions. To the east of this wood the French trenches in the southern boundaries of Cumieres Village were firmly held in the face of the assault.

The bombardment was continued with great violence in the region of Le Mort Homme and Cumieres on the left bank of the Meuse this afternoon. The artillery was only moderately active on the right bank of the Meuse and in the Voerres today.

The German war office claimed that during the night Teutonic troops captured French positions along the entire front between the southern ridge of Le Mort Homme and Cumieres Village, south of the Corbeux and Cumieres woods. It is also claimed that 35 officers, including several staff officers, and 1212 wounded men were taken prisoner.

POLAND'S BIG CROP WILL GIVE RELIEF

Outlook is Hopeful Despite Germany's Rejection of British Plan.

AMERICANS MAY ACT

Appeal to Outside World for Funds to Feed Poles Not Necessary.

LONDON, May 30.—Berlin advices, intimating that the German Government will not accept Great Britain's counter-proposal for the relief of Poland, were not unexpected by the persons interested in the plan. Several offers to undertake the work have originated in Norway and Sweden, but both the British and the German governments have indicated a preference to have the work done by the American commission for the relief of Belgium, in the event of an agreement. Such work would be entirely supervisory, as well as to provide ships for its transportation. The relief work would not be necessary to make an appeal to the outside world for funds to feed the Poles.

Reports of neutral relief investigators bear out the German assertions that there will be a heavy crop in Poland this year. The portion of Poland occupied by Austria had a surplus last year. Cereals raised in that region have been supplemented by rations distributed by Austrians, who may duplicate such work in Serbia, thus obviating any necessity of outside relief for that nation.

CHRISTOPHER CORBETT IS SERIOUSLY INJURED

Six-year-old Christopher Corbett, 1685 Strachan avenue, sustained serious injuries to his head and fractured left leg when he ran into and was knocked down by a motor car driven by James Bailey, 129 Sheridan avenue, at the corner of Dalry street and Strachan avenue yesterday afternoon. He was taken to the Western Hospital in the car. His condition is serious.

Stoor: Wana ye no watch dog on th' job in they days an' wana it Sir Weelum that got th' franchise, John?

FOE TOWN TAKEN BY GEN. NORTHEY

Neu Langenburg Occupied by British Column in East Africa.

MUCH BOOTY SEIZED

Marema With German Garrison Invested by British Troops.

LONDON, May 30, 7:45 p.m.—The British force which is invading German East Africa from the southwest, and which yesterday was reported to have penetrated 20 miles into German territory on the front between Lakes Tanganyika and Niassa, has made still further progress, according to an official statement issued tonight. The statement says:

"In continuing the report of his operations sent on May 25, Brig.-Gen. Northey telegraphs that his operations against Neu Langenburg (north of Lake Niassa) were successful. The enemy was compelled to evacuate the town. We occupied it today, capturing large quantities of ammunition, food and stores of all kinds.

"An enemy garrison which is holding Marema, 25 miles east-northwest of Abercorn (on the Rhodesian border) has been invested."

"BIGGER NAVY" FORCES IN CONGRESS BEATEN

Proposal to Increase Number of Battleships Was Not Supported.

WASHINGTON, May 30.—Determined Republican efforts to enlarge the building program of the naval appropriation bill, as reported from the committee, resulted today in the adoption by the house, sitting as a committee of the whole, of an amendment increasing the number of submarines from 20 to 25. Proposals to provide for six battle cruisers instead of five, and to add two dreadnoughts and two scout cruisers to the program were defeated after a lively fight.

So decisive were the votes against additional battle and scout cruisers that the bigger navy advocates virtually have decided to abandon the fight for them, but they still hope to get the two battleships.

RUNCIMAN OBLIGED TO REST SIX WEEKS

President of British Board of Trade Made Ill by Overwork.

LONDON, May 30.—Walter Runciman, president of the board of trade, has been made ill by the strain of his public duties and probably will be obliged to rest for six weeks. It is expected he will be unable to attend the forthcoming economic conference at Paris.

Lewis Harcourt, first commissioner of works, has been appointed to take charge of the board of trade during Mr. Runciman's illness.

WAR CREDIT TO BE LARGER THAN WAS PREVIOUSLY ESTIMATED.

BERLIN, via London, May 30, 11:55 p.m.—According to The Tagblatt the credit to be asked in the reichstag within a few days will be 22,000,000,000 marks (about $2,000,000,000), not 10,000,000,000 marks, as previously announced.

HAD HAND LACERATED.

Stanley Avery, 467 Yonge street, had a tendon in his left hand cut when his motor car collided with a hydro pole at the corner of Queen and Victoria streets yesterday night. He was taken to St. Michael's Hospital.

ZEPPELINS KEEP TOURISTS AWAY

Yarmouth and Other East Coast Towns Suffer Loss of Business.

MANY RESIDENTS GONE

More Than Thirty Visits by German Raiders to Yarmouth.

LONDON, May 30, 5:05 p.m.—Distress in east coast towns as a result of the war was discussed in the house of commons today, and members of the constituencies concerned made an appeal to the government. It came out during the debate that zeppelins have visited Yarmouth more than 30 times. Tourists of Yarmouth and other resorts, who in former years numbered thousands, have dwindled to almost none. Many residents of the towns have departed, while others, chiefly women and children, proceed to interior places each night.

Arthur Fell, Conservative member for Great Yarmouth, pointed out that 40 per cent. of the people of Grimby had been dependent in the past on visitors for a living, and are now without this means of obtaining a livelihood. Thirty per cent. depended upon fishing, which also has been interfered with. Shopkeepers have been hard hit. Sir Edward Beauchamp, Liberal member for Lowestoft, said the town had been ruined by the loss of visitors.

Engineers of Canada Stewart Company Demand Wage Increase.

A settlement has been reached with the bridgemen who went on strike Monday on the Bloor street viaduct at Rosedale. They went to work yesterday at 40 cents an hour.

Twelve engineers of the Canadian Stewart Company, who were engaged on harbor work, went on strike yesterday for an increase in wages. They have been receiving 40 cents an hour and demand 45 cents. Shortly after work was stopped nine men appeared who had recently arrived from New Orleans, and on learning the trouble they refused to go to work until matters were discussed. The officials of the union, when informed that the wages paid here were 40 cents an hour they stated that it was back to Chicago for them, where they could get 70 cents an hour.

ed at Armentieres. While his wound was not serious, he contracted rheumatism, which affected his feet, and made it necessary to be invalidated home.

COUNCIL TO ACT ON DAYLIGHT SAVING

Board of Control Recommend That Plan Begin Tuesday, June Twentieth.

PUBLICITY BUREAU

Controller Foster Declares It Will Be a White Elephant.

More was heard about daylight saving at yesterday's meeting of the board of control when it was decided upon a motion of the mayor, to send the following recommendations to the council:

That the City of Toronto inaugurate the daylight saving plan starting at midnight on Tuesday, June 20, and continue until October 5.

That a proclamation be issued asking co-operation and compliance by all citizens in the matter, and by the federal and provincial authorities and by local departments.

That in accordance with the resolution passed by the city council, the mayor write the other Canadian cities for information on the subject.

His worship, in urging the adoption of the plan, stated that many of the European countries already inaugurated daylight saving. The Union of Canadian Municipalities is working with the municipalities to adopt a general plan pending the passing of a law by the Dominion Government next year, he said.

When the establishment of an industrial and publicity bureau for Toronto came up, Controller Foster informed the board that it was going to unload a white elephant on the city. He maintained people who were unaware that Toronto had factory sites to offer were blind, as the harbor commissioners had signs erected everywhere.

Controller Cameron did not want the city to shoulder the expense of a meeting, which was held last September. It was decided to call a conference to consider the question.

The Mayor and Controller Foster opposed the appointment of W. G. Webber as permanent secretary of the fire department at a salary of $2000 a year, but Fire Chief Smith's recommendation was finally carried.

Considerable discussion followed the application of Colonel Ripley and the officers of the Construction Battalion for the appointment of a recruiting officer. Each of the controllers with the exception of Controller Foster, is in favor of making a grant. The militia department's letter stating that the government provided a salary of $1000 for the organization of units was read, and Controllers Cameron and Thompson both declared that the letter was in fact a grant. It was in touch with the $1040 to the battalion. Controller Foster, being the only one dissenting, raised the question of the cost of the units.

Rag collectors in the city are suffering from the Red Cross rag collecting campaign according to three representatives of the Hebrew Protective Association. Controller Cameron thought that the motive behind the Red Cross campaign was undoubtedly a good one, but at the same time, he felt that the rag collectors might be able to come to some arrangement by which they could assist the society if the latter would refrain from collecting rags. The men stated that if they were allowed the exclusive right to collect rags in the city, they would each pay $10 a year to the Red Cross.

There are 600 men engaged in this business, which would mean $6000 a year to the fund and from the smaller buyers it would be quite possible to get $2000 a year. The men claimed that $4000 is the amount that the Society raises each year by the collection of rags. It was decided to communicate with the society in this regard.

"Casual Employee." The definition of the words "casual employees" caused a little commotion when Aid. Gibbons introduced a deputation of scavengers from the street cleaning department. He stated that the definition of the word "casual" was not clear, but Commissioner Wilson did not want to do this. Controller Thompson could not see why two weeks' annual vacation and sick pay would make the men permanent employees, but the fund and from the smaller buyers it would be quite possible to get $2000 a year. The men claimed that $4000 is the amount that the Society raises each year by the collection of rags. It was decided to communicate with the society in this regard.

SGT. NEIMEYER RECALLED

Hamilton Recruiting League Displeased With Manner in Which He Works.

HAMILTON, Wednesday, May 31.—Sgt. W. C. Neimeyer has been recalled from the city at the request of the League, many of whom have declared that they will withdraw their support from the league if Neimeyer was allowed to continue recruiting here. While he has been successful in obtaining recruits, his manner of work was against him, more harm than good would be done. The 210th Battalion has started its recruiting campaign here for the purpose of signing up 50 men, from this city and the surrounding districts, in different parts of the city, and they intend to open depots at Burlington and Dundas, also. The Canadian Mounted Rifles are after more men, as an order for the overseas draft is expected daily. Recruiting for this unit throughout Ontario has been quite favorable, and different parts of the province, also, here, and the men are being sent to Toronto as soon as they are signed up.

The annual meeting of the Diocese of Niagara will be held at St. John's Cathedral, and will continue in session until tomorrow. Members are in attendance from the entire diocese and will present their business reports together with proposed amendments.

The standing committee showed that the amount held by the Diocese for the purpose of the $506,225.85, and that during the past year the income from the invested funds was $10,000. The standing committee also stated that the amount held by the Diocese for the purpose of the $506,225.85, and that during the past year the income from the invested funds was $10,000.

WAR SUMMARY

mand that Germany is verging on the point of exhaustion in manhood.

How comes it then that the Germans are playing into the hands of the French by persisting in their battering at Verdun? The military explanation is this. In their original attack, the Germans forced the French back to the high ground, but their own lines are generally drawn in the hollows, trenches of the enemy, and these trenches are therefore constantly subjected to accurate shelling from the commanding positions. The Germans therefore are constrained either to retreat to avoid useless losses or to adhere to a policy of attrition, which is the policy of the French.

Keeping up their attacks on the hundredth day of the assault, the German soldiers captured some small posts on a narrow front between the slopes of Le Mort Homme and Cumieres Village on a depth of line, held at the most by two men and a machine of this narrow strip of yards' interval, gives no foundation for the claim of the enemy to having taken prisoner 35 officers, including several French staff officers, and 1313 unaccounted for. It is highly doubtful if a full company held the positions captured at the outset, and the bulk of these men probably fell back again to get a footing into them.

It was unusually quiet on the British front yesterday. No infantry trenches southeast of Neuville St. Vaast were shelled, but the artillery Basee Canal. North of the Lys, British counter-batteries engaged successfully in a duel with the artillery of the enemy near Messines. German aircraft were more active than usual and they shot down a British machine in an aerial combat. It fell in the hands of the British. British airmen returned the compliment by bringing down a German machine out of control within its own lines.

With Teutonic stubbornness the Austrian high command, after its failure to dislodge the Italians from their mountain positions in the south-west, again drove its men forward to the assault in the Posina zone, ceding none. All the Italian positions were the same fate as the previous ones. The bombardment of Ospedaletta. On the northern slopes of Monte San Michele the Italians exploded a powerful mine and breached a considerable extent of Austrian trenches.

Brig-Gen. Northey, who invaded German East Africa from the south-west, occupied New Langenberg, north of Lake Niasa, on May 25, and the Germans were compelled to evacuate it. The British have also surrounded a German garrison at Maramba, 23 miles northeast of Abercorn on Gen. Smuts the whole credit for the new flanking operation. This is a mistake, owing to a mental confusion in regard to the handling of military operations. In a modern war all campaigns are planned by a body of staff officers, and the general staff draw up the plans, estimate the resources required to do the work, give instructions to the general in command as to how the campaign is to be conducted, and place sufficient men at his disposal for the task. The general is the leader in the field. If the staff has good chances of being successful. In the present instance the plans for the reduction of German East Africa were prepared by the newly-organized British general staff under Sir William Robertson. Previous British subsidiary campaigns have been failures owing to deficiencies in the general staff, and this defect has been remedied by the creation of a general staff for the control of all land operations undertaken by the British

It is pointed out by the recruiting staff that anyone who fraudulently obtains a rejection button or who is wearing one that doesn't belong to him will be punished to the full extent of the law.

Join Guides Today. Any men who cannot go overseas immediately could, by joining the Guides, "carry on" along the same lines as the cyclists and be getting ready for future calls. The Guides are being recruited on home service as cyclist orderlies or clerks at Exhibition Camp.

The manoeuvres for the 97th Battalion, American Legion, on account of rain were postponed from yesterday to tomorrow. Brigadier-General Logie who was expected in Toronto to review the 97th cancelled his visit. General Logie has just received word from Ottawa, that the 97th will go overseas as soon as possible.

The newest American Legion, the 514th Battalion, put recruiting officers on the streets yesterday. They wear a red, white and blue ribbon and the words "American Legion" on their hats.

With Lieut.-Col. John A. Cooper riding at the head of the battalion, the 18th Canadian Buffs marched into Exhibition camp yesterday morning to take up quarters in the process building. Lieut.-Col. R. C. Winderup, camp commandant, and Lieut.-Col. J. S. Campbell inspected the regiment as it marched in from Dufferin street.

Ready June 10. Twenty-five livers are wanted for the 169th Battalion's signal corps and machine gun section. Recruits will be examined at the recruiting depot armories, and be given transportation to Niagara.

By June 10 Camp Borden will be lighted in readiness for the thousands of troops to move there about the middle of the month. Superintendent Letimer of the hydro-electric commission is in charge of the corps of 10 men engaged in erecting the transmission line.

It is expected that the old General Hospital on East Gerrard street will be remodelled from a barracks to a base hospital within six weeks. A party of engineers are now at work making the necessary changes.

YORK RANGERS RALLY AT RAMSDEN PARK

Capt. Mills Says Young Men Evade the Recruiting Officers.

A recruiting meeting was held in Ramsden Park last night by the 29th Battalion York Rangers. The Battalion Bugle Band was in attendance and rendered a good program.

Addresses were given by Lieut. Pick-up and Capt. C. E. Mills.

Capt. Mills said he did not want to call anyone names, especially the married men, who along with women and children made up the majority of the audience. The married men had done extremely well as far as recruiting was concerned, but he had no sympathy for the hundreds of young unmarried men living in the neighborhood, who kept away from the recruiting officers and spent their time in pool-rooms and similar places.

CONSTRUCTION CAR TO A RECRUITING

Glorified Trolley Created Interest in Run Thru City Yesterday.

DECORATED IN COLORS

Is One of the "Stunts" in Campaign of Col. Ripley's Unit.

It remains for the No. 1 Construction Battalion to beat the glorified trolley car of the 208th. They have a real construction car, one that has seen service in the construction and repair work of the Toronto Street Railway. What a changed car it was yesterday afternoon after the battalion had fixed it up for recruiting purposes.

Posts from the sides of the old fat car now support a glorious roof of red, white and blue bunting. The front of the car has been painted in these "colors so true." The posts are wrapped with colorful and bear above the bunting covering the flags of the allies.

The Construction Battalion posters enclose the motorist who is a returned soldier, and the sides of the car bear the legend, "We go overseas quickly. No. 1 Construction Battalion, Lieut.-Col. Ripley, C.O." The front of the car bears the sign, "To Berlin," and the name of the battalion.

Together the car is indeed a glorified construction car and as it passed along the streets yesterday afternoon under the command of Lieut. Fleming, it certainly caused a rush to the sidewalks and even those most complacent to the present methods of recruiting gave it more than passing notice.

On the car are benches which may later accommodate recruits as possibly a band, and there is now a table on which a new recruit may sign up. The constant ringing of the car gong yesterday caused many to rush from stores and shops to witness the unique recruiting medium of the Construction Battalion, which is making an appeal thru every centre of Ontario men experienced in the different mechanical lines so that the whole battalion may handle any kind of construction work.

SHOWS SOMEONE THINKS OF THEM

Boys at the Front Thank Trench Comforts League for Parcels.

Letters to President Men Are Cheered by the Work of Brave Women at Home.

Mrs. Holland, president of the Trench Comforts League, received the following letters from the front:

To the Trench Comforts League, Toronto: Dear Friends—Very many thanks for the very useful parcels you sent me on the 15th. The socks and the writing paper came in very handy, and were much appreciated by the boys of our company.

The boys were very pleased with the articles I passed among them, and said that it was so kind of you to send such useful things which the boys are doing very much for the good they are doing, and it certainly cheers us up to know how the people at home are doing their best to comfort us out here. We are enjoying the weather here at present, and hope it continues, as it is very pleasant in the trenches when it is raining. Major Dick used to be our company commander. We are in a lively part of the line now, many artillery detachments and infantry engagements, but we are holding our own at present, and it will be only a matter of time before we will be ours. Our motto of "Slow and sure wins the race," is being carried on here. We have all kinds of ammunition and artillery, and are far superior to the enemy in every way. We will be glad when this war is over, so that we can return to our homes once again, but we want to see the German sea first.

Well, dear friends, I have said enough for this time, so will close. I remain, yours sincerely, A. J. Young, 3rd Batt., 1st Canadian.

Mrs. Holland: France, May 13, 1916. Dear Madam—Your parcel was highly appreciated by myself and chums. I am sure it proves useful to us and shows that someone is still thinking of us. I have shared it up as well as possible amongst my chums. The tin of campbore has great demand; so have mullin shirts that weather. I know of one boy in this outfit who seldom gets anything, and would be greatly pleased to get a parcel from you, and am sending you his address, as you requested. You might like to see who you are sending your parcel to, so I enclose you a photo which was taken on my last pass in London. Every success to your brave league. I remain, yours truly, Driver A. Carpenter, 42094.

INACTIVITY RULES ON BRITISH FRONT

Artillery Fire Shows Marked Decrease All Along Line.

FIGHT DUEL NEAR LYS

Rival Guns Engage in Counter-Bombardment North of River.

Special Cable to The Toronto World. LONDON, May 30.—A marked decrease in artillery activity is noted on the British front by tonight's official communique of the British war office. No infantry was engaged on the Flanders front during the day.

The following is the British official report: "The enemy's aircraft was more active than usual yesterday (Monday). They shot down one of our machines in an air combat, but it fell in our lines. A hostile machine was brought down out of control within the German lines.

"During the night we successfully expended a mine southeast of Cuijnchy. Two German mines near Souchez and northeast of Neuville St. Vaast failed to do appreciable damage to our trenches.

"Today (Tuesday) was quiet. There were no infantry actions and little artillery activity. Near Pricourt and Mametz there was an unimportant artillery duel.

"Farther north, our trenches southeast of Neuville St. Vaast were shelled, but between Neuville St. Vaast and La Bassee Canal there was a marked decrease in the artillery activity. There was some shooting about Richebourg.

"North of the Lys our counter-batteries engaged successfully the enemy's artillery near Messines.

"Excepting unimportant shelling near Diekebusch and Ypres there is nothing to report from the north."

IRISH LEADERS NEARLY AGREED

London News Says Lloyd George is Making Real Progress.

QUESTION OF DETAILS

Important Announcement May Be Made in the Commons Tomorrow.

LONDON, May 31, 3:02 a.m.—The negotiations which David Lloyd George is conducting on the home rule question have been fairly successful thus far, says The Daily News' lobby correspondent, and it is not impossible that Mr. Lloyd George will be able Thursday to give the house of commons some preliminary statement foreshadowing a basis of agreement between the Irish parties.

"The Ulster and Nationalist representatives," says the correspondent, "have actually conferred together and reached a position very close to an agreement. Although the details may take some time to work out, the preliminary announcement which Mr. Lloyd George hopes to make Thursday will probably be complete enough to afford great relief to the members of the house of commons."

INTERNED BELGIAN WANTS STAMPS

Writes to Toronto World for Aid in Obtaining Collection.

IN CAMP AT HOLLAND

And Wants Some Distraction on Account of Length of Captivity.

It is probable that within a few weeks the internment camp at Amersfoort, Holland, will be flooded with all sorts and conditions of postage stamps. Every man, woman and child can help to gratify the whim of this poor Belgian soldier, interned in Holland, who, wanting something to occupy his mind, started to collect postage stamps and wrote the letter printed below to The Toronto World. Here is a chance for everybody to show that Toronto has a warm spot in its heart for the Belgians.

The letter which follows is a copy of that sent by the soldier and speaks for itself:

Camp at Amersfoort, March 13, 1916. Dear Sir,—At first will be kind as to allow of introducing myself.

I am a Belgian soldier interned at Amersfoort since October, 1914, who wants so me distraction on account of the length of my captivity, I therefore, began to collect poststamps, but having no correspondent, I allow myself to ask if you would be so kind as to impress in your honored journal an advertisement expressed as follows:

"The Belgian interned soldier, Cyrille Van Lulle, Camp of Amersfoort, Holland, asks respectfully to forward him some used poststamps for collection."

I pray not refuse this kindness for which I am much obliged to you. I have, sir, the honor to be very obedient and humble servant, Cyrille Van Lulle, Belgian Interned Soldier.

There is a general disposition in some quarters in Germany to regard the war as won, or at least in a fair way to be won against the allies.

After the War

There is a general disposition in some quarters in Germany to regard the war as won, or at least in a fair way to be won against the allies.

What outsiders think is another matter. It appears that President Wilson takes the view that the war is nearing an end, and that he is so uncertain about the result that he declines to commit himself one way or the other.

It may be correct diplomatically, but behind it there must be some feeling that Germany is not far enough from a victory, or not sufficiently near defeat to be treated otherwise than with friendship and courtesy.

One of the signs of the situation appears in two despatches published yesterday concerning the shipping preparations going on for the future after the war, both in Germany and in Britain.

A CHANGE, BUT STILL HANDLING EXPLOSIVES

Nearly any man he favors can be nominated and almost any platform that he may suggest will be adopted.

That is the question that is being eagerly discussed today everywhere in the United States and probably also in Mexico and Berlin.

Baseball As High Art

A writer in the Los Angeles Times endeavors to answer the question: "Why will several thousand frenzied men gather together on a hot afternoon and stare for two hours out into a brilliant, parched, perfectly flat field at the gyrations of eighteen full-grown men who allow all their actions to be governed by the inanimate flight of a small white pellet?"

Baseball makes its way because it conforms more than any other game to the fundamental requirements of high art. In a tragedy or a novel well constructed everything said or done by every character directly contributes to produce the climax.

The men who made baseball wanted a game which the business man could witness after office hours without getting home too late for dinner.

WILL RENEW BATTLE FOR BAIL FOR KELLY

WINNIPEG, May 30.—Edward Anderson, solicitor for Thomas Kelly, has replied to a communication sent him by Attorney-General Hudson refusing to release his client on bail. He states that he will make further application before Justice Tremblay on behalf of Kelly for bail.

Anderson says he feels that the attorney-general was under a harsh in opposing the application when there was decided feeling among a large body of the public that Kelly had been unfairly treated. He goes on to state that there have been instances where bail was granted an extradited person, mentioning especially the case of Dr. Beattie Nesbitt, of Toronto.

F. W. Simon, English architect, who held the position of consulting architect in connection with the new parliament building, and whose services have been retained by the new government, arrived from the old country today to give evidence for the crown at the trials of the ex-ministers.

CATTLE MARKET HELD STEADY YESTERDAY

Buyers Did Not Succeed in Hammering Prices Down Much.

HOGS A TRIFLE EASIER

Sheep Prices Decline—Lamb Market Strong—Market Notes.

Receipts of cattle at the Union Stock Yards yesterday were 56 carloads in all, containing 818 cattle, 250 calves, 817 calves, 1,029 sheep, 120 lambs.

The market throughout was fairly steady for all classes of cattle, and closed moderately higher for prospectively favorable for a continuation of the present prices.

Hogs were firm at 11c, off a cent while the outlook for sheep was undoubtedly lower. Lambs are said to be slightly higher, the demand being fairly strong.

While some of the commission houses were brought down to 85c, a thing as slow and dragsy this view of the situation was not reflected in the prices which, especially for the better class of butchers' cattle, continued to hover around the 100 per cent mark.

As a result of the heavy demand for beef and mutton, the market for hogs was not so good as it was a few days ago. The market for hogs was not so good as it was a few days ago.

MARKET NOTES.

Commenting yesterday on 'The World' on the record price for cattle on foot, J. B. Shields stated that 15 years ago he bought in November at his own farm which cost him $2.25 and which he sold out in May at $2.95. The price had gradually crept up to record figures now quoted. Hogs from $2.25 per cwt, had gradually climbed to 12c, weighed off cars, the highest price ever paid at the Union Stock Yards.

Swift Canadian Company had in the pen 450 hogs of fine even quality, shipped in from different points in Ontario. J. B. Carter bought for Puddy Brothers, 100 hogs at 11c per lb., weighed off cars. With the exception of a few 'light weights,' all the hogs on the market were a credit to the farmers that raised and fed them.

E. H. McIlwain, the well-known auctioneer in York County, purchased a few well-bred steers at $8.50 per cwt. he had in the County of Essex there is plenty of rain, crops are looking fine, and the live stock are not

Had a Nervous Breakdown Could Not Sleep or Work

Is Now Cured & Attributes His Recovery to the Use of Dr. Chase's Medicines.

Some splendid results have been reported to us from the combined use of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills and Nerve Food. In complicated cases they work together with best results. While the Kidney-Liver Pills arouse the action of liver, kidneys and bowels, and so overcome derangements of these organs, the Nerve Food enriches the blood, strengthens the nerves and builds up the system in a general way. Mr. R. B. Hillman, Purbrook, Muskoka, Ont., writes: "About four years ago I was all run down and could not work, and as to writing a letter, I could not do it on account of my hand shaking so badly. My nerves were unstrung and I was troubled with a nervous breakdown. I could not sleep soundly and would start up so suddenly as to almost jump out of bed. My kidneys were bad, too, and I had awful pains in the back all day. I did not seem to know what I needed. I was recommended to try Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, and could sleep well three nights after starting the use of the Nerve Food and Kidney-Liver Pills. I take great pleasure in recommending these medicines, as I have proved that they do all that is claimed for them." When used together the Nerve Food should be used after each meal and bedtime, and the Kidney-Liver Pills only as often as is necessary to keep the bowels in healthy condition. Dr. Chase's medicines are for sale by all dealers, or Edmanston, Bates & Co., Limited, Toronto.

ECONOMIC CONDITIONS OF CONCERN TO WOMEN

Time to Take Hint and Prepare for Possibility of Shortage in Certain Lines.

ALL COULD PROFIT

Government Already Considering Agricultural Situation in This Connection.

One phase of the war which should concern women in the home in a particular way, is the economic conditions which it has occasioned. This view, of course, will come to the legislators and to the leaders in big concerns, but for women generally there is much that might be done now, that will have to be done later under the pressure of necessity, unless that which may come to pass is forestalled by provision on the part of the housekeeper. Canada, fortunately, has at yet not felt the pinch of poverty, or of deprivation as a result of belligerent happenings in anything like the measure that has come to other countries. All the world knows of the hardships of Serbia, Belgium, France and other lands which have endured invasion. All the world, too, knows by this time that the doctrine of thrift has been taught and is being taught in the schools of England, to the children and thru the papers and magazines to the adults. Systems are being attempted in the carrying out of the campaign, and, without doubt, much good will be effected, but there is much theory passed about that will never be put into actual practice. The teachings of this national campaign must have a more than passing effect upon the economic life of the country, and none are in a position to profit more by its instructions and suggestions than are the housekeepers and makers of the home generally.

Should Take the Hint.

In Canada it is time for women to take the hint and begin to seriously contemplate the possibility of shortage along agricultural and other lines. If this never comes, so much the better, but the saving in any case will not be lost, and any surplus that may be acquired can easily find patriotic outlet in helping countries which are felt the pressure of poverty, even to the point of starvation and death. Those who legislate for soldiers' wives make the mistake of bringing class distinction into conditions which stretch out and are an entire whole of the community. War and invasion make no distinction of class, and if direct help ever came to Canada in the shape of a "war surplus" of food, it would be general. The government is already considering the agricultural situation, and it is not too late to time for the women thinkers to consider the evolution of suggestion which will stretch out and are an entire whole of the community. Exquisite Table Linens for the Brides-to-be

For a whole year we have been preparing for this month, bringing beautiful linens from all the available markets of the world, collecting the choicest lots of genuine Madeira hand-embroidery work, the ever popular French hand-made city linens, Irish embroidery work, finest Irish satin damask cloths and napkins, afternoon tea cloths and serviettes with spoke-hemstitched or scalloped edges, tray cloths, scarfs, etc., so that even though fine linen goods is one of the scarcest lines of merchandise, the bride of 1916 need not lack the beautiful things she takes such pride in when stocking her linen closet.

The completeness of our stocks is the wonderment of customers every day, and when you come to see the rich, exclusive goods in our Linen Department on the Fourth Floor you will be shown many striking results of our linen buyer's recent purchasing trip to the linen markets across the sea.
