BRITISH COLON BESEGED BY CHINESE MOB

SITUATION IS SERIOUS AS WARSHIPS RUSH RELIEF TO HANKOW

Infuriated Coolies Get Out of Control of Cantonese Military and Safety of Residents Is Imperilled by Action

CONCESSION BARRICADES DESTROYED

Battleships Vindictive, Carlisle and Wishart Speeding to Rescue; Available Armed Forces There Unable to Handle Situation and Retire

HONG KONG, Jan. 5.—The British warships Vindictive, Carlisle and Wishart today were ordered to Hankow. An Exchange Telegraph despatch from Shanghai says that all available naval forces are leaving there at full speed for Hankow. Frantic appeals for more land and naval forces are being made by the British community at Hankow to the British government.

PEKING, Jan. 5.—Official despatches from Hankow, where the British colony is being besieged by thousands of infuriated coolies, as the result of anti-foreign agitation, show the situation is growing increasingly serious and indicate that the angry natives are out of the control of the Chinese military forces which undertook to maintain order.

Practically all the barricades to the concession have been destroyed and a consular despatch says the British Bmd, the principal thoroughfare for foreigners along the waterfront there, is "unsafe for foreigners." It adds "that the situation is very discouraging."

A German citizen was stabbed and seriously wounded Monday by agitators within the British concession.

The British armed forces, feeling that it would have been impossible to hold the masses without firing, retired, leaving the concession in charge of Chinese troops. The British warships were not ordered to enter the concession until the Chinese authorities had been notified that the concession was being held by British troops.

CHINESE TO CONTROL. As a result of a conference yesterday between British and Chinese authorities, by which maintenance of order was left to the Chinese, British warships were ordered to remain outside the concession until the Chinese authorities had been notified that the concession was being held by British troops.

MAY BE STATE-MANAGED. In some circles there is a disposition to regard the demonstration as a state-managed by the extreme section of the Chinese Government.

Duke and Duchess of York Leave Tomorrow For Australia

Goal of Commercial Energy Within British Empire Urged For Canada and Australia

TORONTO, Ont., Jan. 5.—Speaking here last night at a banquet tendered him by the Ontario government, Premier Stanley M. Bruce, of Australia, emphatically declared that the hope of the British Empire rested with Canada and Australia.

If the Empire were to regain the commercial prominence it did, he believed the people of these two Dominions to awaken to the value of the resources at their command, to abandon the hapazard development which so often characterized the efforts of young countries and to set their energies earnestly toward a goal of commercial energy within the Empire.

IS GREATEST AMBITION. "The greatest ambition of my life," said Mr. Bruce, "is to get people to realize that."

Referring what Australia had accomplished by taking the question of immigration out of the hands of the government and placing it with a commission of business and financial men empowered to pass on any scheme involving capital expenditure for the absorption of new people, Premier Bruce said that this was "a question that is not a subject matter for consideration by governments or ministers. Get the best brains working and you will see great countries like Canada and Australia developed at a faster rate than ever before and beyond our wildest expectations," he said.

Dropping of Bar Causes Derailment. WALPOLE, N. H., Jan. 5.—The dropping of a broken equalizer bar on the head truck of the express car caused the derailment of three cars of the Mount Royal-Boston and Maine Railroad here last night. Five hundred feet of rails and ties were ripped up and traffic was delayed today, while repair crews worked at the scene.

FORMS FOR INCOME STATEMENT ISSUED

Those For Individuals Due on Feb. 10, For Employers January 10

The forms which have to be filled out by all city ratepayers, showing income and personal property valuations for assessment purposes are being sent out this week by the Board of Assessors. These have to be properly filled out and returned to the office of the assessors on or before February 10. Unless the person failing to file before the expiration of the period can furnish an excuse satisfactory to the assessors, they have the power to fix a valuation and as a penalty for not filing, double the amount for the current year.

Schedules from employers showing the number of employees liable to taxation are due to be filed with the assessors on or before January 10. The chairman of the board this morning called attention to a misunderstanding which he said had arisen in connection with the exemption to married men with two or more dependent children. Some thought that if the employer submitted the name of a ratepayer on his schedule this entitled the one to the exemption, but this was not the case. In order to get the benefit of this exemption, each person must file a sworn statement setting forth the amount of income and the number of dependent children.

COUNCIL ORDERS $74,004 ISSUE OF CITY BONDS

F. R. Taylor's Offer Re Suit Goes to Mayor and Solicitor

An issue of $74,004 of civic bonds was ordered yesterday afternoon by the city council and an offer was received from F. R. Taylor, solicitor, to withdraw his suit against the city, provided the valuation on his German street property was reduced to $18,000. The mayor presided and for the first time in some weeks there was a full attendance. Commissioner Bullock, having returned from his trip in search of health. The report of the fisheries committee, that $6,425.13 had been received from the sale of fishing privileges, was received and adopted. A. B. Gilbert, solicitor for Dr. F. R. Taylor, wrote offering a settlement in the case of Taylor vs. The City of Saint John. In this case Dr. Taylor is appealing to the courts to reduce the valuation on his property in Germain street, the city council having refused to grant his appeal from the valuation of the assessors. The letter said that Dr. Taylor had been trying to sell the property for $18,000 but had been unable to do so on account of the high valuation on it. He was willing to withdraw the suit and any claim he might have to a refund on account of over-payment for the last five years, if the council would reduce the valuation to $18,000. TO MAYOR AND SOLICITOR Commissioner Bullock moved the letter be referred to the mayor and city solicitor for a report. Commissioner Prink said Dr. Taylor was trying to get the court to make into law his contention that the true and real value was that agreed upon between the willing buyer and the willing seller and he was in favor of letting him proceed with the case. Commissioner Wigmore agreed with this view. Commissioner Bullock said he was quite willing to have the case go on but he wanted the advice of the city solicitor as to whether the assessors were justified in basing their valuation on replacement value. The motion to refer carried. Commissioner Prink moved for the issue of $74,004 of 40 year bonds for city works and $26,174 of 20 year bonds for hydro construction, all bearing interest at the rate of five per cent. This was carried unanimously. It was then moved and carried that the mayor, chamberlain and controller be authorized to dispose of the bonds and arrange for having them printed. On motion of Commissioner Bullock a bill of $369 from the A. R. Williams Machinery Co. for machinery for the dock at the steamer Empress dock, was ordered paid.

Boy Rides Shark's Back To Free Pal

SYDNEY, N.S.W., Jan. 4.—A story of unexampled heroism in shark-infested waters comes from Port Hackling, New South Wales. When a huge shark attacked 15-year-old Mervyn Allum in 20 feet of water, Stanley Gibbs, his 18-year-old mate, jumped from the prow of their launch on to the back of the fish and, straddling his legs across its back, pummeled it so vigorously with both hands that it was compelled to release his comrade. When both lads were being hauled back into the boat, however, the shark made a second attack on Allum. It was beaten off, but the boy died from the effects of frightful injuries.

Maritimes Reaping Fruit of Evangelistic Work, Says Thornton

Sir Henry in Interview at Halifax Speaks Enthusiastically of Seaboard and of Atlantic Harbors

HALIFAX, N. S., Jan. 4.—Sir Henry Thornton, chairman and president of the Canadian National Railways, accompanied by Vice-President Hungerford, W. U. Appleton, general manager of the Atlantic region and M. F. Tompkins, traffic manager of the Atlantic region, arrived here tonight and will spend tomorrow in the Halifax property of the system. They will leave tomorrow night for Moncton and spend Thursday there. An interview shortly after his arrival, Sir Henry spoke optimistically of the future of the ports of Halifax and Saint John and the Maritime Provinces in general. "Canada has two great open ports on the Atlantic—Halifax and Saint John—and it is part of our responsibility to develop them," he said.

MUST DEVELOP PORTS

"If we didn't have these ports we would be in a bad fix and we must use them to the utmost and develop them to the most adequate degree." Sir Henry said that he had found during his recent visit to western Canada, a changed sentiment with regard to the Maritime situation. "You people did some real, effective evangelistic work out there and you are now reaping the benefit of it," he said. R. B. Teakle, general manager of the Canadian Government Merchant Marine, also a member of Sir Henry's party, forecasted an operating surplus for 1926 in that department, although explaining that he was speaking without accurate knowledge of the figures which has not yet come to his hands.

College Farm Training Is Urged by Speaker At York County Council Gathering

Warren, chaplain of York county, addressing the opening session of the semi-annual gathering of the York County Municipal Council here this afternoon. Rev. Mr. Warren pointed out that from 1918 to 1924 census returns showed a decrease in the gross agricultural revenue of New Brunswick, from $59,409,000 to $28,322,000; of Nova Scotia from $62,000,000 to $37,000,000 and of Prince Edward Island from $22,000,000 to $18,000,000. During the same period field crop acreages had decreased from 1,335,110 in New Brunswick to 659,412; from 1,011,144 to 698,013 in Nova Scotia, while a slight increase was shown in Prince Edward Island from 526,000 to 527,750.

Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup. Her Little Boy Caught Cold While Out Playing. Mrs. J. Onda, Elmwood, Mass.—"My little boy caught cold while out playing in the snow. He coughed incessantly all that night and the next day, and nothing I gave him seemed to relieve him. When my husband came home he brought a bottle of Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup with him. After the second dose my boy was greatly relieved and after the third dose he went to sleep and slept the whole night through without any coughing. I am never without it in the house, and whenever any of the children get the slightest cold it's the first thing I give them. Why a College Boy Should Never Cut Short His Education to Marry—How Can a Chivalrous Knight Rescue a Modern Wife From Her Brutal Husband?—Should a Man Who Can't Marry for Two Years Propose Now, or Wait?

DEAR DOROTHY DIX—What can a young man do who is confronted with the problem of whether to marry and go to work or to continue with his education? Suppose a man, in the midst of his college course meets a girl whom he considers an ideal of womanhood and with whom he falls in love. Should they marry or not? I have seen young men with the brightest prospects for the future cut short their education in order to be married, and I wondered if they ever regretted it. Is there a remedy for this situation? If so, what? COLLEGIAN.

DOROTHY DIX

There are seven million different reasons why no college boy should marry. The first is that he is too young, too undeveloped, too much in a state of flux and change to know his own mind and realize what he wants in a wife.

Every college town is full of college widows who have been the feminine ideals of successive generations of college boys who were preserved by Heaven from marrying them and who are now filled with mirth when they think back upon the ladies who filled their call dreams.

Another reason why a college boy shouldn't marry is that he should be giving his full mind to his studies and not to honeymooning and trying to adjust himself to a wife.

And the best reason of all why he shouldn't marry is that, except in a few cases where a boy has inherited money, he has no way of supporting a wife and he either has to cut short his education or else dump her upon his long-suffering family to be fed and clothed.

Of course, the boy may be willing to give up his education and go to work, but if he does the chances are that he will bitterly regret it, and in time he will feel an animosity against the wife for whom he has sacrificed so much.

He will inevitably blame her for his folly and feel that the reason why other men less talented than he have passed him in the race of life is because he was too heavily handicapped by his too-early marriage. It won't be just, of course, but justice cuts small ice in the domestic relationships of men and women.

A good education is the tool that a man fashions to his hand and with which he can do better work than he could without it. With it he can better care for the woman he loves, keep her safer and softer. With it he can achieve the triumphs to lay at her feet.

Therefore, if he really loves a woman he will have the courage and the unselfishness to wait until he is in a position to marry her. He won't rush into an untimely marriage that is bound to bring hardships upon her just to gratify a passing desire. DOROTHY DIX

DEAR DOROTHY DIX—I am desperately in love with a beautiful girl about 20 years old who is married to a brute. He treats her vilely. He is a pettiest-chaser and he beats her. I have seen him slap her face before a crowd of people, and then he comes in and kisses her. Should I try to persuade her to run off with me? I have money enough to give her everything she should have and maybe she could learn to love me. I will never care for any other woman. RICHARD.

ANSWER: It is a dangerous business, Richard, rescuing misused wives. Very often the abused lady turns upon the chivalrous knight who is trying to succor her and assists her husband in beating him up. My guess is that such would be your fate if you attempted to save this young woman from her unhappy fate. DOROTHY DIX

Any wife in these days who will let a husband slap her face or lay his hand upon her except in the way of kindness, as the old melodramas used to put it, is so much infatuated with him and has such a dog heart that she will stick to him through thick and thin. No other man can take her from him. He can't even drive her away himself, for no matter how he kicks her off she will always come crawling back to kiss his feet. Nobody can explain the psychology of such women. It is merely a fact that there are women who prefer men who treat them rough and who, having once set their heart upon a brute, never even resent being beaten or bullied by him.

No woman has to stand ill-treatment in these times when the world is full of opportunities for every one to support herself. But when one does suffer herself to be knocked and abused it is because there is something primitive in her that makes her prefer caveman stuff. So you are wasting your pity when you sympathize with such a woman. Save your love for some girl who is better worthy of it and who can appreciate a gentleman. DOROTHY DIX

DEAR MISS DIX—I am a recent college graduate in love with a dear girl, but am unfortunately not in a financial condition to ask her to marry me. By two years' hard work I expect to feel able to assume the obligation of matrimony, but the question is should I maintain silence until then or speak of marriage now? I feel that she cares deeply for me, and although we are both young we are not light-minded youngsters. To speak or not to speak, that is the question. ARDENT SWAIN.

ANSWER: It is every woman's privilege to have as much love-making as the gods allow her. It is a satisfaction to her as long as she lives to know that a man has loved her even when something turns up that prevents her from marrying him.

I don't believe in long engagements, especially where the couple must be separated and where there is every chance of their growing apart and yet being bound by a fetter which they feel that they cannot in honor break.

But two years isn't a long engagement. It is just long enough for a couple to get well enough acquainted with each other to know whether they really suit or not.

Don't let concealment wear upon your damask cheek. Tell your love. It is a safety valve that may keep you from exploding into a premature marriage. DOROTHY DIX

Colorful Fan Important Part of Milady's Evening Toilet

By MME. LISBETH. A MOST important—almost the most important—part of milady's evening toilet nowadays is her fan. Huge fans of ostrich feathers are the most popular, and they come in gorgeous colors. In fact it almost seems as if milady should wear a plain colored gown to act as a foil for her fan. As it is, usually the fans add a bit of color contrast or give a finishing touch to the gown.

Evening frocks range from the very much decorated gown of beads and paillettes to the untrimmed period gown of velvet with a single flower posed on the shoulder.

Contrasting colors in two or three tones are conspicuous in style offerings. Vertical stripes of different colors, and bodice and skirt, also of different color, are samples of this contrast.

Sets of hat, bag, scarf and parasol are featured in the showings of one house. Vividly colored prints are used for these sets.

MENUS For the Family

Liver is an inexpensive meat dish and many people like it. There are a number of ways of cooking it besides the time honored liver and bacon. In the following menu it is combined with peas and rice, making one of the popular one-dish menus. Liver with Green Peas and Rice. French Fried Turnips. Endive Sauce. Bread and Butter. Cottage Pudding with Quince. Snow. Coffee.

TODAY'S RECIPES. Liver With Peas and Rice—Brown one small onion in four tablespoons bacon drippings. Remove onion, cut liver for serving and dredge in four tablespoons flour. Brown well on both sides in drippings; remove liver, make gravy with drippings and one cup milk. Place in casserole one cup brown rice, then the liver and one cup peas, drained; cover with gravy well seasoned. Bake one hour in moderate oven. Endive Salad—Cut well bleached endive in about two-inch lengths, add finely chopped onion and enough red and green sweet peppers cut in small pieces to give coloring. Season with salt and pepper and add vinegar and oil dressing. Cottage Pudding—For cottage pudding with quince snow, cream one-quarter cup shortening, add one cup sugar slowly, one well beaten egg and one teaspoon vanilla, two cups flour, one-half teaspoon salt, three teaspoons baking powder, and add to first mixture a little at a time, alternating with one cup milk. This fills two good sized pans, but is good baked in a loaf or muffin tins in a moderate oven and may be served in many ways, neat or served with chocolate or lemon or marshmallow sauce. Quince Snow—For quince snow, cook ripe quinces till soft, press through sieve. To each cup of quince, sweetened, add one egg white and beat with an egg beater. Apples might be used in place of the quinces and the whole flavored with quince jelly.

See-Sawing On Broadway

THERE is a hotel, in the very centre of the frantic Forties, where gather at noon on a well-known round table of sophisticates and intellectuals, referred to as the Algonquians. Here, too, come all the spawners of movieton: the press agents, the directors, the movie columnists, the fan magazine writers, the actresses. They clique together in the lobbies and over the tables. Actors seek it out, knowing they will meet some of their fellows and those newspaper and magazine people who will record news about them. It is, in a sense, one of the most cosmopolitan and metropolitan places in New York. Yet, like the inns along the old country roads, it locks its doors at night. And those who come late must ring a bell and be let in after the fashion of another century. SUCH customs of another day are not uncommon incongruities in this ultra-modern metropolis. In Greenwich Village there is a church upon the steps of which an ancient Greek oil lamp never ceases to burn. It is watched constantly and sports its tongue of light night after night. There is, in one of the expensive hotels, a department in which elderly women do the darning and sew on the buttons for traveling men and are kept quite busy. There is an up-town restaurant in which women are forbidden to smoke and there are several eating places in which men may not smoke. And so it goes. AND there are still a few idealists in Manhattan. A few months ago, a New York millionaire who wished to preach a religious ideal to Broadway tossed $200,000 into a certain theatrical enterprise that had no possible chance of surviving without artificial stimulus. He has no possible chance of recouping and has announced that he will keep the show going until March if it costs him another $200,000, and he has to give the seats away. GILBERT SWAN.

BEHIND THE SCREEN

By GILBERT PICKARD. IN THE early days of the screen famous teams generally consisted of a hero and heroine who were cast opposite each other so often that their love-making became familiar to audiences throughout the country who would have resented their appearance with another. These were the days which produced the teams of Beverly Bayne and Francis X. Bushman; Harold Lockwood and Mae Allison; Doris May and Douglas MacLean, and Helene Chadwick and Richard Dix.

These still remain a few well-known teams. The notable examples are Alice Terry and Ramon Novarro; Norma Shearer and Lew Cody; Greta Garbo and Antonio Moreno. These actors do not play opposite each other in all of their pictures, but they have been cast together frequently enough to make the combination familiar.

When speaking of Carl Dempster, Ricardo Cortez comes to mind. And when Wallace Berry moves into view can Raymond Hatton be far behind? Famous teams of the present screen era are more often existent between director and actor. John Gilbert and King Vidor have made three consecutive pictures together, "The Big Parade," "La Boheme," and "Bardelys the Magnificent."

Len Chaney and Tad Browning have done some of their best work together. Browning directed Chaney in "The Unholy Three," "The Blackbird," and "The Road to Mandalay."

Sometimes there is a team of cameramen and star. Norma Shearer has appeared in few pictures in which Ben Reynolds did not manage the camera. With the exception of "Annie Laurie," Herrick Sartov has shot every one of Lillian Gish's pictures for the last four years.

SNODGRASS IS GOING TO CHAMP, SAYS GORMAN

World Title Holder Highly Praises Speedy, Resourceful Young Teammate

RETURNS HOME WITH NEWBURGH LAURELS

New York Seeks Another Indoor Match With Moore at Madison Square

Charlie Gorman, world's amateur champion skater, who returned today to the Boston express from New York after having successfully defended his additional title of Middle Atlantic champion at Newburgh, N. Y., on New Year's Day, unequivocally proclaimed Edgar Snodgrass, of this city, to be the fastest skater he has yet seen at so early a stage in one's speed career. "He's simply flying this year," said Charlie of his town mate, who also competed to the extent of winning places in all finals and a third in one of the big events at Newburgh. "Snodgrass has got barrels of speed. I think, really more than he can see to handle at this stage of his experience. Although he got in all sorts of jams and was knocked down a couple of times last week he gave me the surprise of my life by the way he got over the ice."

ONLY LACKS EXPERIENCE

Gorman thinks Snodgrass is a coming champion once he gets enough grueling in competition to teach him the knacks of the sport and the tricks of opponents. He has the style of "Chick" Jewray and just as much latent speed. The extent of Gorman's only lacking essential in Snodgrass, according to the world's champion, is experience.

SPAR COVE ROAD BOY RECOVERS IN G. P. HOSPITAL

Slipped on Snow Crust and Knew Nothing More for Day

IS ABLE TO GO HOME THIS AFTERNOON

Young Trapper Happily Near Lone Residence When Mishap Comes

DOUGLAS WILLIAMS, son of Joseph Williams, of 39 Spar Cove Road, Indiantown, North End, who lay unconscious on a snow-rusted field near Hannah's farm, Board's Head Road, throughout Monday night, regained consciousness yesterday afternoon in the General Public Hospital and will be discharged from that institution this afternoon practically none the worse of an experience that might easily have been his death.

"I think I must have hit my head quite a thump when I slipped on the crust and fell over Hannah's hill," said young Williams to a Times-Star representative this morning. "I was walking through a field near the farm on the Board's Head road about 4 o'clock Monday afternoon when my heels went under me. That is all I remember except that that little baby over there"—pointing to an infant in an adjoining bed—"woke me up with its crying."

WAS NOT LOST.

The husky lad said it was not a case of being lost in the woods or exhausted that gave him his mishap. He had been out for a long time, and he had been making the rounds of snares for rabbits and traps for foxes, which was an occupation with him for some time.

All he can figure out is that his tumble to the hard snow and ice on the hillside near the Hannah place was so swift and unexpected that he went down and out like a boxer receiving a knockout blow. As he lay in the hospital bed he was the picture of health this morning.

NOT WORRIED AT FIRST.

Douglas Williams is one of seven brothers and four sisters, all of whom are living in the field from 4 o'clock in the morning until 11 o'clock in the evening, making the rounds of snares for rabbits and traps for foxes, which was an occupation with him for some time.

Mr. Hannah brought the unconscious youth to the hospital on his own sled, and constant effort was made by the doctors and nurses to revive him. He has been lying in the field from 4 o'clock Monday afternoon throughout the night, a period of nearly 18 hours, and was still unconscious when a full day had rolled around Tuesday afternoon. A sore ankle and a tender spot on the head are the only injuries of which Williams complains.

FRENCH TRADE FACES TRYING PERIOD IN 1927

Repercussions of Franc's Rebound Just Being Felt

PARIS, Jan. 5.—Economically, 1926 was an exceptionally good year for France on the whole, and financially it was exceptional in the extremes which the franc registered. But one may say at the outset that 1927, even though it gave a good year financially by bringing stabilization of the franc, will certainly be one of the hardest periods for French trade and industry.

MUST FACE DEBT AND STABILIZATION Nevertheless, there remain two great financial questions for settlement in 1927—ratification of the inter-Allied war debts and stabilization, which should be solved during the coming year, unless some new political catastrophe again throws the national life into a condition of chaos.

Morning Stock Letter

NEW YORK, Jan. 5.—The first thing that strikes any observer in the market that breaks do not bring out heavy liquidation. On Monday the market was weak on a comparatively small turnover, while yesterday's selling attracted still less of a following.

Brokers' Opinions NEW YORK, Jan. 5.—Josephthal would be in no hurry to buy the general list, but believe plenty of support will be found at points a little below present levels.

does not seem to be interested one way or the other. Consequently, unless there is some distinct change of some sort, we believe a run-in of the shorts will be followed by another reaction.

Penner & Beane—Professionals are bearish and may succeed in shaking market down for a few days.

Horowitz & Weeks—"We would like to see some one else do the selling from now on and watch for buying opportunities when and as they develop in the oil and rail groups."

Clark Childs—"Less important selling develops in the big stocks than has been looked for."

TROJANS TO STAGE ICE SKATING MEET IN VICTORIA RINK SOON

PUBLIC SHOULD SUPPORT CLUB IN ITS VENTURE

Will Seek Affiliation With N. B. S. A. and Apply for Sanction

A SKATING meet will be staged in the near future in the Victoria rink by the Trojans Athletic Club, it was announced this morning by Walter R. Golding. As there seemed to be no organized move to conduct skating meets here this winter, the Trojans are stepping into the breach and will take up the offer of George Hamm, proprietor of the "Vic," who has placed that building at the disposal of any organization wishing to hold skating races. The Trojans will seek affiliation with the New Brunswick Association and apply for a sanction for the holding of a meet here. The idea is to raise funds for the payment of expenses of Saint John skaters worthy of being sent to the big meets in various parts of the country.

According to present plans the meet will be held about the middle of this month and a handsome cup, to be known as the Trojan cup, will be hung up for the skater scoring the most points. There is plenty of local talent and the holding of such a meet should produce lots of competition, especially in the intermediate and junior classes.

The action of the Trojans in going into this field of sport deserves the unstinted support of the public. This organization is a truly amateur one and its efforts to keep up interest in the ice skating game here are deserving of success.

League Leading Ottawa Senators Suffer Second Defeat of Season

Blind Captain Spars Draw With One-Legged Officer

BRIGHTON, England, Jan. 4.—A blind captain boxing a one-legged major, both wounded in the war, was the feature of a ring contest here for the benefit of the Royal Sussex County Hospital. The event was a draw. Although he is an all-round sportsman, swimmer, diver and enthusiastic follower of boxing, this was Captain Gerald Lowry's first public appearance as a boxer. Explaining after the match how it was possible to keep track of his opponent or where his opponent was going to hit him, the captain said: "A man blinded as I was, straight off and not by gradual disease, can develop a sort of sixth sense. It seems to be partly acute hearing, partly acute sensitiveness to sensations of touch. My opponent must breathe and that tells me where he is and helps me to guess what he is thinking about as much as if I could watch his eye. And when it comes to fighting I am not handicapped at all. With my superior sense of touch I believe I even have an advantage. His opponent was Major Micky Leahy, who lost his leg at Mons.

MT. A. AND Y. M. C. A. PLAY SLOW CONTEST

Visitors Take Basketball Tilt by 30 to 20 Score—Much Rough Play

The Mount Allison quintette defeated the Y. M. C. A. team by a score of 30 to 20, in a poor exhibition of basketball on the Y. M. C. A. floor last evening. Neither team showed combination play to any extent, except in the latter part of the second period, when Mount Allison rolled up a good score.

The first period ended 12 to 10 in favor of the Y. M. C. A. Rockwell starred for the Y. M. C. A. with 10 points to his credit. Although both teams had lots of opportunity to shoot neither one could seem to find the basket. There were six personal fouls called by the referee in this period.

SECOND PERIOD

The second period provided lots of excitement as Mount "A" overcame the "Y" lead and gradually put a safe margin between them. Ray Smith was the star for Mount Allison with nine of the 20 points to his credit. Urquhart, the fast Y. M. C. A. forward, injured his ankle in their period when he collided with Wilson of Mount Allison. He was replaced by Frost. The play was rough and nineteen fouls were called, though no player was put out of the game for personal fouls. George Lockhart refereed very efficiently.

Line-up follows:

Mt. Allison		Y. M. C. A.
Smith	9	Frost	0
Malcolm	4	Pattison	0
Lister	8	Urquhart	5
Lee	3	Centre	0
Jamieson	3	Rockwell	12

Y. M. C. A. and Trojans In Basketball Game

The Y. M. C. A. and Trojans will meet this evening in a regular City Basketball League fixture. The game should be one of the best of the league as the Trojans have apparently hit their stride at last and the "Y" aggression is regarded as the coming team of the league.

Trinity will face the High School squad and the Y-Nots the Rangers in intermediate games. The Y-Nots and High School teams are leading in the league and each is expected to hand the Saint John Fusiliers in the local opening of the Southern N. B. hockey league, the score was 5 to 0. Fredericton's individual efforts failed to penetrate the visitors' defense. Saint John with the personnel largely the same as in previous sessions—Keating, late of Chatham, and Wilson, former of Moncton, being with the squad—showed good condition, all the tempo play necessary, and the referee's call was in favor of the Y-Nots.

MEETING OF THE LEAGUE EXECUTIVE

A meeting of the league executive will be held at the Y. M. C. A. on Monday night at 7.30 o'clock.

RISBERG IS ON HAND TO PREFER CHARGES

To Face Players Accused of Fixing Game Back in 1917—Gandil Coming

CHICAGO, Jan. 5.—Sveide Risberg came to Chicago to hang some ten year old baseball lines on the line in Commissioner Landis' office and to deny more than a score of the game's greatest stars to deny that it was dirty.

THIRD PERIOD

The third period opened up with Fredericton trying to get through and beat Wilson out. He handled all the Hickey also kept the puck out for half the period. The best of the Fredericton players then began to show. Kiley scored on a rebound. Soon after Thompson got one all alone on a wing shot. Fredericton then took the play to the other end, and the visitors had to handle the hardest attack of the game. A Fredericton goal was signalled by the referee, but over-ruled by the goal judge.

Hoppe Favored To Win Championship Again

NEW YORK, Jan. 5.—Wille Hoppe tonight will begin his fight to recover the world's 182 lb. title snatched from him by Jake Schaefer of Chicago two years ago. But Eric, mottled overthrew Schaefer, I believe, apparently has no fears for his championship in the 1,600 pound match. In two previous matches he won victories over Hoppe. Students of the game consider the veteran former title holder to be playing in such form that they have installed him a favorite to regain the honors he held for more than a decade.

Amherst Wins From Sackville In Opener

AMHERST, Jan. 4.—Taking the lead in the first period, Amherst held a 2-0 goal margin and defeated Sackville 2-0 in the opening game of the central section of the Maritime Amateur Hockey Association. It was a rugged exhibition of the winter pastime with the players on both teams being closely marked.

Johnny Nemis Gets Win Over Tony Julian

GLACE BAY, Jan. 4.—Johnny Nemis, of New Waterford, Maritime welterweight champion, was awarded a close decision over Tony Julian, of Boston, here tonight after ten rounds of fighting. The visitor excelled in fighting, while Nemis showed up better at long range. A small crowd attended the fight, which was refereed by Tom Casey.

FREDERICTON, Jan. 4.—The expected happened tonight when the organized Fredericton team was defeated by the Saint John Fusiliers in the local opening of the Southern N. B. hockey league, the score was 5 to 0. Fredericton's individual efforts failed to penetrate the visitors' defense. Saint John with the personnel largely the same as in previous sessions—Keating, late of Chatham, and Wilson, former of Moncton, being with the squad—showed good condition, all the tempo play necessary, and the referee's call was in favor of the Y-Nots.

BOXERS ARE READY FOR CARD TONIGHT

Three Good Bouts on Armories Program—O'Leary Referee

JIMMY FRUZZETT, New England's flashy boxer, books up with Gordon Paris, Saint John, in the main bout of a likely looking card at the armory tonight. Both men are trained to the minute and ready for the contest. Fruzzett has been working out for the past week at the Y. M. C. A., while Connie Veno and O'Connell will open the card with a six-round engagement that will lack polish and finish. Both boys will develop polish as they get more experienced but that will not be before tonight and the fans will see some action.

EL PASO, Texas, Jan. 4.—Chick Gambil, who was expelled from Chicago football in connection with the Chicago Black Sox scandal of 1919, left Denning, N. M., today for Chicago. He refused to say whether he would attend the hearing called by Commissioner Landis to sift the alleged payment of money to the Detroit Tigers in 1917.

Four Games Tonight In Society League

All four teams in the Inter-Society Basketball League are now tied, and the two games this evening on the floor of the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium should furnish plenty of thrills. The first game will be between St. John Baptist and St. Peter's, and the second will bring together the Y. M. C. A. and St. Peter's. The Baptists will appear in their new uniforms of purple and white and no doubt will present a natty appearance this evening.

SPRINGFIELD TIES

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Jan. 4.—Two overtime periods in the game here between Providence and Springfield, in the Canadian-American Hockey League tonight, failed to settle the contest, which ended in a 2 to 2 tie. The game was the roughest seen here this year.

BOSTON BRUNNS SCORE WIN IN EXTRA PERIOD

HUB TEAM TIED FOR FIRST PLACE IN SECTION AS RESULT OF VICTORY

MONTREAL, Jan. 5.—A record crowd of 1,000 Boston hockey fans saw their team defeat the Ottawa Senators, leaders of the Canadian section of the National Hockey League, by a score of 2 to 1, after an overtime period. As a result of their victory, and the defeat of the Chicago Blackhawks by Pittsburgh, Boston are now first place in the United States division.

Ottawa Senators, without the services of Frank Nighbor, the pecking order, played below their usual form and were outclassed by the Bruins for the greater part of the game. Penalties were frequent during the match, with Senators' chief offenders, Hooley Smith made five trips to the penalty bench. King Clancy received three, and Boucher got two. The Boston team only drew four penalties.

After playing a scoreless initial period, the Senators got the jump on the Hub City team in the second session, when Clancy scored on a brilliant individual rush. From then on, the Senators elected to play defensive hockey and managed to hold their margin until six minutes after the start of the third period, when Herberts and Cooper crashed the Ottawa defence, and the latter took a perfect pass to equalize.

LEADERS WILT

The league leaders displayed some flashy hockey in the overtime period, they wilted before the savage attacks of the Bruins. Nine minutes after the start of the extra session, Herberts best Clancy on a pass from Oliver.

That the Senators did not suffer a more decisive defeat was due to the spectacular goal tending of Connell, who turned in one of his best exhibitions. The two shots that beat him were of the impossible variety and he had no chance to save. The performance of the balance of the team was average. Herberts and Cooper starred for Boston.

MISS BARRETT OUT OF CATALINA SWIM

Says no Swimmer Can Overcome Cold Currents—Entries Close Today

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 5.—Traffic congestion in the channel between San Catalina Island and the California mainland January 15, when swimmers will throng the waters in a try for the $40,000 prize money offered by Wm. Wrigley, Jr., was lessened to the extent of one mermaid today, when Miss Clarabelle Barrett, New Rochelle, N. Y. school teacher, withdrew.

Miss Barrett, who gained fame by her plucky fight against the English Channel, said that current of extremely cold water to be encountered by the swimmer in the California event, are a barrier which no contestant can hope to overcome.

Entries for the swim, which carries a $25,000 prize for the first to cross the channel and $15,000 for the first woman who succeeds in case a man wins the major award, will close tonight.

St. Jude's Defeat Central Baptist, 9-5

In the Girls City League basketball game played last night under boys' rules on St. Jude's floor, St. Jude's team won from the Central Baptist team by a score of 9 to 5. The lineup and individual scores were as follows: Central Baptist, St. Jude's.

CLARA BOW and Esther Ralston let a coin decide whose name should appear first in the billing of "Children of Divorce." They flipped and Miss Bow won.

Proceedings of Municipalities Union In Book Form

THE proceedings of the Twentieth annual convention of the Union of New Brunswick Municipalities, held in Saint John last October, have just been issued in book form. It makes a handsome book of 88 pages, and is illustrated with portraits of the new president, Mayor Graham of St. Stephen, Premier Baxter, Dr. Lidy, of Sackville; Dr. Farris, of Saint John; F. Lansdowne Belyea, and excellent pictures of the General Public Hospital, the Nurses' Home and the Saint John County Hospital. The very valuable addresses delivered by outstanding men during the convention are printed in full, along with the proceedings of each session. Because of the varied nature of the topics treated this publication is a valuable book of reference.

GYROS NAME H. E. MAGNUSSON AS PRESIDENT

Annual Meeting Hears Review of Work Done During 1926

Harry E. Magnusson was elected president of the Saint John Gyro Club for 1927 at the annual meeting of the club held at the Admiral Beatty Hotel last evening.

The general business was preceded by a banquet at which the retiring president, Donald W. Armstrong, presided. The retiring president submitted a report in which he said that the past year had been marked with great success. Among the results achieved had been the founding and installation of a flourishing club at Moncton while clubs had also been formed at Fredericton and Woodstock. These installations would shortly be held.

The club had committed itself, Mr. Armstrong went on, to the building of a fresh air camp for children and a considerable amount had been raised toward the project. The closing of the year was marked by the appreciation of the co-operation of the club members in the year just closed.

The election of officers resulted as follows: President, H. Magnusson; vice-president, Joseph B. Hamm; secretary, W. Harry MacFarlane (re-elected); treasurer, Ralph S. Stephenson; directors, W. H. Donovan, Robert B. McDade, Lloyd Ryan, Donald W. Armstrong and James Robinson.

A motion of thanks to the newspapers of the city for their help in placing the aims of Gyro before the public was passed.

GIVEN OVATION.
The president-elect was tendered an ovation on taking the chair. He gave a brief address in which he outlined the aspirations of international Gyro. He stressed the fact that its primary object was friendship, its secondary object was service. It was dedicated, while not essentially a service club it strove to render service.

The speaker traced the growth of Gyro from its inception in Cleveland in 1911 with a membership of three, until the present time when it had 72 branches in Canada and the United States with 4,500 members. Its membership was largely among the professional, business and professional men.

The president-elect is junior partner in the firm of Charles Magnusson and Son. Last year he was vice-president of the organization. He is also a member of other organizations including Saint John's Lodge, No. 2, F. and A. M.; Saint John Lodge No. 80, K. of P.; the Y. M. C. A., and the Young Men's Club of the General Street Baptist church.

GIVES ORPHANAGE PROPERTY HE WON

Liale Isaacs Returns Deeds—Valuable Fox Also to Swell Revenue

Gifts of money and of goods for the New Brunswick Protestant Orphanage, which have always been received in large quantity in the month of December, were last December more lavish and more generous than in any previous year, it was reported at the meeting of the directors held yesterday afternoon in the Pythian Castle, and very hearty thanks were extended to all the donors.

Among the gifts received was a valuable female fox, presented by a lady. The fox is now being cared for by W. T. Chapman & Son, fox rancher of Salisbury, Westmorland county, who has agreed to give the orphanage one-quarter of the value of the litter. Should anything happen to the animal the orphanage will have the value of the pet, estimated at $500.

Another very generous gift received was from Liale Isaacs, 21 Orange street, who had decided back to the Orphanage the lots in Millidgville which he had won at the drawing held in connection with the recent fair. These lots are a valuable property, and F. A. Kinneer and W. A. Steiper were appointed a committee to arrange for their sale or other disposal for the Orphanage advantage.

W. M. Campbell, third vice-president, was in the chair for the opening of the meeting and J. W. Brittain, first vice-president, was chairman during the remainder of the session. There were 17 members present.

Reports showed that the health of the 210 children under the care of the Orphanage was very good. The last school term and the closing exercises were reported to have been eminently pleasing and the Christmas celebrations in both Homes had far eclipsed those of other years.

The directorate endorsed the project of a survey of welfare work of the city and county by the Board of Trade and appointed H. Usher Miller to represent the Orphanage at any meetings to be held in this connection. C. H. Smythe was named director, succeeding H. J. Evans, resigned. It was decided to hold the monthly meeting for the next four months on Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock instead of in the afternoon.

Many Attend Week Of Prayer Services

"The Church's Resources," was the theme for the Week of Prayer services held by the various uniting Protestant churches last evening, and at each of the six centres there was a large attendance.

The services were characterised by earnestness and devotion, and were full of inspiration and helpfulness. Tonight the theme will be, "The Church and the Home," and the annual meeting of the West Saint John Bible Society will be held in connection with the services.

The Bible Society meeting will convene in St. George's church, at which the congregations of the fifth group of churches will attend.

GOVERNMENT MAKES TWO APPOINTMENTS

J. G. Hart Given Place on Canteen Fund Board of Trustees

The appointment of Harris G. Penney, of Fredericton, as Clerk of the York County Circuit Court in place of J. D. Sharkey, deceased, and appointment of Major J. Gilbert Hart to the Board of Trustees of the canteen fund for New Brunswick, in place of Lieutenant Col. Alex. MacMillan, resigned, was announced by Premier J. B. MacBride last evening at the close of the evening session of the Provincial Government here.

The resignation of Col. MacMillan was tendered to the government and accepted, to take effect Dec. 31, 1926. The resignation of the names of Major J. G. Hart and Major J. Gale were agreeable to the local command in connection with the appointment of Major Hart followed.

During the evening session a delegation from the Saint John Exhibition, headed by E. J. Terry, waited on the government in connection with a grant for the coming year. The matter was taken under consideration by the government.

As Hiram Sees It

"Hiram," said The Times-Star reporter to Mr. Hiram Hornbeam, "there is a couplet from an Irish poet that comes to me sometimes with striking force: 'There is nothing sweet in the city 'But the patient lives of the poor.' 'What sort you thinking on it this morning, Mr. Hiram. 'The story of a family,' said the reporter, 'is dead and the father in poor health. One son, a young man, is the real father of the family, although two sisters help as best they can. There are other children, at school. The young man gladly gives his small earnings. The home is kept as neat as a new pin—and no money is frittered away. Always on the edge of want, there is no railing at fate, but a strong will to hold the family together. It means sacrifice. It means self-denial. It means courage. It means patience—the patient lives of the poor.' Is it not beautiful? 'Mister,' said Hiram, 'you said it. We don't none of us know what some poor souls that's better'n we be has to put up with—an' we don't care half enough. 'The rewards of this life don't seem to find the right folks sometimes—no, sir—they do not.'"

Program Given At Municipal Home

A group of Salvation Army members last night visited the Municipal Home and gave a very fine concert and entertainment program that greatly delighted their large audience. About 200 of the residents in the home attended and enjoyed to the full the excellently rendered numbers of the varied program, which included vocal and instrumental music, recitations and readings.

The children in the Home contributed three songs and Mrs. Askew, of Boston, niece of Mrs. Wood, the matron of the Home, gave very pleasing vocal selections, furnishing her own accompaniment. After the program, Santa Claus appeared and distributed fruit and candy to all the inmates. Mrs. Major Knight was the chairman for the evening and the matron, Mrs. W. H. Walsh, was present. The matron very cordially thanked the visitors and assured them that their contribution had been very much appreciated.
