SECOND LINE SMASHED BY BRITISH, GERMANS ARE NOW SERIOUSLY THREATENED AT POZIERES

Day's Gains Brings British Advance Into Line with the French at Hardecourt --- Huns Unable to Bring Up Reserves in Sufficient Numbers to Counter-Attack --- Heavy Casualty List.

FIGHTING CONTINUED ALL THROUGH DAY WITH BRITISH STEADILY GAINING GROUND

A Thrilling Display of Artillery Power as British Guns Sweep Path for Infantry—Huns Soon Surrender in Fighting at Close Quarters—Bombardment of German Trenches on Belgian Front at Its Fury.

London, July 14.—Renewing their great offensive in Northern France at daybreak today, the British broke into the German second line in the Somme region along a four mile front.

The day's fighting resulted in a steady increase in British gains, leaving them in possession of the enemy's second line position from Bazentin-Le-Petit to Longueval, both inclusive, and the whole of Trones Wood. A number of prisoners were taken, including two colonels and other superior officers. According to press correspondents fighting was continuing hotly late today.

Bitter fighting was proceeding in the afternoon in the woods beyond Longueval, and on high points of a ridge occupied by the British during the day. According to the correspondents the British suffered comparatively small losses in the day's fighting.

The positions gained today leave the Germans seriously threatened at Pozieres, on the main road from Albert to Baupaume, while possession of the territory around Longueval brings the British advance into line with the French at Hardecourt.

Further heavy British casualty lists, issued today, give the names of 104 officers killed, 311 wounded and 1,750 men killed and wounded.

Appropriately, on the day of the French national fête, when every Londoner wore in his buttonhole a tricolor ribbon in honor of his ally, came the stirring news of a successful British attack on the German second line, which opened before dawn, and covered a number of new positions.

The Associated Press correspondent at the front describes the attack as surpassing that of July 1 as a great spectacle and thrilling display of artillery power. Characteristic of the fighting through the battle of the Somme, the Germans appeared to be unable to bring up sufficient reserves to make successful counterattacks. A second point which is emphasized by observers on the Allied side is that in fighting at close quarters the Germans surrender freely.

Despatches from Sir Douglas Haig, had from the press correspondents, show that the fighting has again been of the heaviest character. At one point the Germans, by a furious counter-attack, succeeded in driving the British out of Bazentin-Le-Petit. They were immediately driven out again by a British infantry attack, and the village remained firmly in British possession.

Counter-Attacks of Germans Completely Crushed.

Bulletin—London, July 14.—Fierce counter-attacks made by the Germans, in an effort to reconquer some of the ground captured by the British in today's drive were completely crushed by the British forces, according to the official statement issued by the war office tonight.

The text of the statement follows: "It is now possible to give further details of the action begun at daybreak this morning. Having driven the enemy back, step by step, to his second system of defense, the period from July 11 to July 12 was mainly spent by our troops in bombarding formidable enemy positions, and in making other necessary preparations for a further advance. "This morning, after an intense

STORY OF YESTERDAY'S EVENTS ON WESTERN FRONT SUMMARIZED

After the briefest preliminary bombardment which has preceded any important action on the western front the British armies, on the Somme, have again swept forward and have captured several important German second positions. On a front of four miles the British have advanced to a depth of a mile, and have held all positions gained, in spite of violent counter-attacks.

The strategic importance of the British success is marked by the straightening of their line. In conformity with that of the French who had hitherto advanced at a much greater speed than their allies. The brevity of the preliminary bombardment, coupled with the statements of press correspondents at the front, that the British losses were comparatively small, lend strong support to unofficial statements that the German second line was much less strongly fortified than their first defenses.

On the French portion of the Somme front no action of importance was recorded, but in the French official statement for Friday was announced that the bombardment of German positions on the Belgian front had reached a point of the greatest intensity. This announcement receives additional significance, as for more than a week, the Belgians have reported a persistent and destructive bombardment directed against the German fortifications.

Another Drive. These announcements were similar to those made by the British preceding the opening of their great offensive and may possibly indicate that another big forward movement by the Allies may be attempted at the extreme western end of the battle line. Another point of significance in the German official reports is that the only actions reported on the Verdun front were assaults made by the French. These assaults were noted in the German official statement, which made no claims of any German offensive action.

On the Russian front the great battle of the Stokhod is still raging, with the issue remaining in the balance. The most important news from the Russian side is in regard to the operations in the Caucasus. The Grand Duke Nicholas reports continuous and substantial successes against the Turks, and is apparently launching another great offensive in the region of Erzerum and Baburt, aimed at the very heart of the Turkish Empire. A successful Russian advance along this line would cut off the Turkish armies in the south, and again place Bagdad in jeopardy.

CAMP BORDEN WILL NOT BE ABANDONED

No Intention of Such Move, Sir Sam says—Will Lay Foundation of Dominion Cartridge Factory at Lindsay.

Ottawa, July 14.—Major-General Sir Sam Hughes left for Lindsay tonight where tomorrow he will lay the foundation of the Dominion Cartridge Factory. On Monday night he will speak at a recruiting meeting on behalf of the Irish Rangers.

Before leaving Sir Sam stated there was no intention of abandoning Camp Borden. Western Ontario battalions there would remain until ready for overseas service.

RIOT AT KAVALA

New York, July 14.—A cable from Paris to a news agency here says: "Despatches from Saloniki report serious rioting at Kavala, when 500 Greek soldiers stormed a train on which they had been refused transportation. The railroad is controlled by the Anglo-French army. Pickets fired upon the Greek soldiers and drove them off."

BEZANTINE LE PETIT AND MOST OF ORVILLIERS VILLAGE NOW IN HANDS OF BRITISH

British Troops in High Spirits Over Results of Day's Successes—Fighting in Trones Wood Marked by Heavy Slaughter—Enemy Dug "Elephant Pits" Into Which Advancing British Were Precipitated.

London, July 14.—Reuter's correspondent at the British front telegraphs that the British forces have captured Bazentin-Le-Petit and most of the village of Ovillers.

A subsequent despatch from Reuter's correspondent on the British front says that later reports tend to confirm the first accounts of the success of the British attack this morning. The German second line was carried with small loss, the correspondent says, and the Germans surrendered freely. He reports that one regimental commander and his staff, three artillery officers and about 150 infantry officers and men had been brought into one camp by nine o'clock this morning.

In addition to the villages already reported captured, the correspondent says Bazentin-Le-Petit has been taken by storm. Fighting also is proceeding against Ovillers and virtually the entire village is in the hands of the British.

Several German counter-attacks against the positions just won have been repulsed by the British, who are now consolidating their gains. The British troops are in high spirits over their successes.

Heavy Slaughter at Trones Wood.

New York, July 14.—A news agency despatch from Paris published here today says:

"The fighting in Trones Wood is believed to have been marked by heavy slaughter. Driven out of Mametz wood and other small wooded regions in the vicinity of Contalmaison, the Germans clung desperately to their position in Trones Wood. Through the central part of the wood the Germans had dug 'elephant traps,' the British, advancing to the attack in last Saturday's fighting, were suddenly precipitated through the foliage into deep pits. Both sides resorted to night surprise attacks in heavy fighting for possession of the forest."

ONE LIFE LOST IN FIRE IN N.Y. STATE ARSENAL

$500,000 Worth of Military Equipment Burned—Explosion of Half Million Rounds of Ammunition Averted by Flooding Magazine.

New York, July 14.—One man was killed and several firemen were overcome by smoke in a fire which swept the New York State arsenal at Seventh Avenue and 35th Street late today. Large quantities of military equipment for the national guard were destroyed. Lieut.-Col. Henry A. Bostwick, quartermaster's department, in charge of the arsenal, estimated the loss in equipment at $500,000.

The cause of the fire, which started in the carpenter's shop, has not been determined. Explosion of a half million rounds of small arms ammunition, 200 rounds of shrapnel and 100 rounds of shell, was averted by quick work in flooding the magazine just before the flames reached it.

Among the stores destroyed were 5,000 rifles, five motor trucks, and large supplies of clothing, shoes, blankets and tentage. The man killed was Thomas McNally, a state chauffeur. With Andrew Moran, chauffeur for Lt.-Col. Bostwick, he tried to save the motor trucks, and they brought out two. McNally went back into the building and was not seen again until firemen brought him out unconscious. He was found under an automobile badly burned. He died twenty minutes afterwards.

Will be Repudiated Absolutely if Measure is Such as Lord Lansdowne Intimates.

London, July 14.—John Redmond, leader of the Irish Nationalists today again took up his charge against the Marquis of Lansdowne. In another statement in which he demanded the prompt production of the new Irish bill in order to settle the disputed points between himself and Lord Lansdowne. The Irish leader in his statement said: "With regard to the declaration of Lord Lansdowne in his speech of a policy of naked coercion in Ireland, I am loath to believe that it represents a deliberate decision of the cabinet but I repeat that such a policy can meet with nothing but repudiation and condemnation and opposition on the part of the Irish party."

RUSSIANS CRUSH FIERCE TEUTONIC OFFENSIVE

Attempt to Drive Czar's Army from the Left Bank of the Stokhod Ends in Disaster for Enemy and Capture of 3,200 Prisoners by Russians—Austrians Admit Line Pierced Near Buczacz.

London, July 14.—The centre of interest on the Russian front continues in the Caucasus where the Russians are maintaining their successes against the Turks. Fighting on the Stokhod has relaxed into trench warfare, but west of the Stripa in furious Austrian counter-attacks, the Russians have taken another 3,200 prisoners.

Petrograd, July 14, via London.—A Teutonic offensive near Stobychwa, northeast of Kovel, in an attempt to drive the Russians from the left bank of the Stokhod river failed, according to the statement given out tonight by the war office. The intensity of the fighting west of the Stripa river has lessened. The official statement follows: "Western Russian front: South-east of Lake Narocz, near the Stakhovits Farm, we attacked and put to flight German advance guards. On the left bank of the Stokhod, near the village of Zarzchie, south of Stobychwa, the enemy, under cover of artillery fire, took the offensive, but was driven back to his trenches. Enemy aeroplanes dropped bombs on Lutsk east on the station of Klyevsk, north-east of Lutsk."

"In the region to the southeast of the town of Svinoukhl, near the village of Pustomyr, the enemy fired salvoes from big and small guns. In the region to the west of the Stripa the intensity of the fighting lessened appreciably."

Line Pierced, Vienna Admits. Vienna, via London, July 14.—The Russians penetrated the Austrian lines northwest of Buczacz, after fierce fighting, but were driven out by a counter-attack according to the official statement issued by the war office tonight. The text of the statement follows: "After accomplishing their task our troops occupied their old positions on the heights west of the Upper Moldava. "West and northwest of Buczacz we repulsed yesterday two attacks on a broad front. During the third assault the enemy succeeded in penetrating our positions northwest of Buczacz but was completely ejected in outer night fighting. "North of the Sarny-Kovel railway, the Russians gained a footing on the left bank of the Stokhod, but by a surprise attack in the late evening were driven back and we captured 160 prisoners."

Turks Retreating Before Russians. Petrograd, July 14, via London.—A furious counter-attack was launched by Austrian and German forces yesterday against the Russians west of the Stripa. The war office announcement says that in this region the Russians took 3,200 prisoners, and captured two guns and nineteen machine guns.

Following is the announcement: "North of Lake Drieviaty we conducted successful reconnaissances. "Enemy aviators threw nearly seventy bombs on the town of Polonotshki, northeast of Baranovich. "The enemy attacked our forces on the left bank of the Stokhod. In the region of the Stripa the enemy conducted a heavy artillery fire."

"West of the Stripa the Austrian forces launched furious counter-attacks. We captured in this region 3,200 prisoners, two guns and nineteen machine guns and one bomber-thruster. "On the Caucasus front, west of Erzerum, our offensive is proceeding successfully, and a series of fortified Turkish positions already is in our hands. In many important sectors large columns of the enemy have been observed beating a retreat westward. We again attacked Turkish forces which attempted to approach our western positions. In the region of Mas-Pass one of our batteries caused the explosion of a munitions depot. "A body of our brave Turkestan troops, having repulsed a dozen furious counter-attacks, assumed the offensive and made an appreciable advance."

DOMINION WAR LOAN EXPECTED TO BE SUCCESSFUL

As Result of First Domestic Loan New Orders to Extent of $150,000,000 Have Come to Canada.

Ottawa, July 14.—It is expected here that the forthcoming dominion war loan, which is to be issued in September will meet with an even greater degree of success than the first, which was floated in November of last year. Out of that loan of one hundred million dollars, fifty million was advanced to the imperial treasury for the purchase of munitions and supplies in Canada. In addition to this fifty million the minister of finance was able to arrange with the chartered banks for further advances, aggregating one hundred million dollars, as an imperial credit to be availed of for similar purposes. The result of this total credit of one hundred and fifty million dollars has been that since the date of the first dominion war loan new orders, to an aggregate of a hundred and fifty million dollars have been placed in Canada by the imperial munitions board, of which Mr. J. W. Flavelle is chairman.

Rome via London, July 14.—The official statement is as follows: "In the Camonica Valley there was increased activity of the enemy's artillery against our positions in the Tonale and on the Adamello. In the region of the Adige Valley our artillery obtained hits on the enemy's batteries on the slopes of Biasana, and also on columns of troops and a transport on the march. A counter-attack of the enemy on Monte Malo was beaten off. "On Sette Comuni plateau heavy fighting continues. In the Tofana region the enemy's positions on Castelletto summit east of the Col Del Bois Dolomites, commanded the road of the Dolomites. The night of July 11 we exploded a powerful mine, which view them up entirely and gave us possession of them. The entire Austrian forces which occupied the summit were buried in the wreckage. On the following night the enemy attempted to regain his lost position, which we had fortified strongly in the meantime, but the attack broke down completely and the enemy lost heavily. "On the remainder of the front to the sea the artillery was active. "Last night hostile aircraft dropped bombs on Padua. The damage was slight. Two persons were killed and a few wounded."

of such a war—a war of righteousness—it is not once in a thousand years that the opportunity comes when the tremendous issues involved spiritualize everybody, when enthusiasm amounts to ecstasy and standing upon the boundary of the finite and the infinite you grasp them both. For a man to have gone through such a struggle and felt its emotions is to have lived the lives of countless generations.

It is only in these great crises, in the fates of nations and peoples which involves the accumulations of the past and the hopes of the future when the world waits in hushed expectancy the result that a man in the concentrated intensity of his feelings becomes God-like. Every one of you who passes through such a baptism would not exchange it for a hundred peaceful and uneventful years.

For those who went forth with you and who may be permitted to return we will always endeavor to show a full measure of appreciation of their work.

For those who are not permitted to return, we sincerely hope and pray that the future generations to come in being spared yet fittingly, in the bitterness of today, may remember our dead sons in gratitude for the sacrifice they made, without complaint, without fear.

We sincerely trust that you may be restored to your original good health and strength, and that you may be permitted to enjoy for many years to come, the gratitude which your fellow citizens feel for you today.

Detachment from 146th Battalion. T. McAvity & Sons' Employees. Employees from Col. McAvity's Glenwood Foundry. Decorated Automobiles. Long procession of citizens. Interesting Banners.

A large number of banners were carried by the soldiers and McAvity's employees, and some of these read as follows:

“Welcome to our Colonel.” “He was tried and was true.” “He was a father to the 26th.” “A year of glory.” “U. R. a corker.” “Welcome home.” “Colonel of Gallant 26th.” “We are proud of you.” “Our Hero.” “A thousand royal welcomes from Glenwood range employees.”

Between lines of thousands of citizens the procession wended its way by the following route: Mill, Dock, Market Square, King, Charlotte, Coburg, Garden, to Hazen street, and halted in front of the colonel's home. There was a continuous roar of cheering as the colonel passed along. Steamship whistles sounded in the harbor, the Ship Laborers' bell clanged a welcome, and the reception was indeed a grand one.

As soon as Col. McAvity arrived in front of his residence the crowd cheered, he acknowledged the cheering and then entered his home, where he was met by members of the different patriotic societies and hundreds of friends who took occasion to call on him.

The firemen and soldiers headed by the bands paraded back to their place of starting and were dismissed.

had proved himself a hero, and St. John might well feel proud of the 26th. They had promised on leaving to do their best, and they had nobly kept that promise. They had been at different points of the line, but while there were no more casualties whose names were now it was harder on the nerves, they being bombarded all the time from practically all points of the compass, and it was very wearing on the men, but they had given a good account of themselves.

A number of his non-commissioned officers had been taken for instructional purposes. Some are in England and a number have been brought back to Canada and given commissions. He referred particularly to his Sergeant-Major, Roy Edwards, who has been given a commission in one of the Nova Scotia units, and paid a high tribute to his worth as a soldier. He had officiated at the burial of a great many of those killed in action, as the chaplain was not always available. Of his own part in the doings of the battalion the Colonel would not talk at all, he gave all the credit for good work to his men, and said they were “as fine a bunch of boys as ever faced a foe.”

AMERICAN NAVAL COLLIER SUNK; NO WORD OF CREW AND 50 MARINES ABOARD

Charleston, S. C., July 14.—Captain F. R. Hunt of the tug Vigilant reported late today that the United States naval collier Hector, bound from Charleston for Santo Domingo, with 50 marines aboard, had sunk nine miles southeast of Charleston lightship. The fate of the crew and marines is unknown.

GREEK KING NEAR DEATH IN FOREST FIRE

Paris, July 14 (5 p. m.).—A wireless despatch from Athens today describes the destruction of the summer palace of King Constantine, and the burning of the forest of Taiol, in which the palace stood. The king, says the despatch, occupied in an automobile from a dangerous position, where he was directing the foresters, endeavoring to extinguish the fire which had started in the woods. The motor in which the king appeared from the burning district had been surrounded by flames, and he darted on foot through the danger zone, reached another automobile and got away in safety. Many persons were caught by the flames and perished, among them several army officers.

FINANCIAL CONFERENCE OF ENTENTE

Great Britain, France, Russia and Italy Represented at Meeting in London.

WHY DECLARATION OF LONDON ABANDONED.

Manifold Scientific Improvements in Warfare have Precluded Conditions Unknown in Previous Naval Wars.

New York, July 14.—A London cable to the Journal says: “A financial conference between representatives of Great Britain, France, Russia and Italy was held this morning at the treasury office.”

London, July 14.—The British foreign office today addressed a note to neutral governments explaining the abandonment of the declaration of London. The declaration was abrogated by an order-in-council, published on July 8, and a similar decree was issued in Paris on the same day.

The present British note explains that the Allies adopted the declaration of London, at the beginning of the war because in their anxiety to conform to international law, they believed the declaration provided a suitable digest of principles and a compendium of working rules.

“These rules,” says the note, “did not necessarily possess the force of law, but seemed in their main lines, to present a statement of rights and duties of belligerents based on experience in previous naval wars. But, as the struggle proceeded, it developed, beyond all previous conceptions, new and manifold scientific improvements in warfare, and produced conditions altogether different to previous naval wars. It then became clear that the attempt made in times of peace on the same day, to determine the principles of law and their application, failed to produce a satisfactory result.

“The Allied governments, forced to recognize the situation thus created, therefore declared they must confine themselves simply to applying a historic and admitted rules of the law of nations.”

GRIT OFFICERS HAD HAND IN TROUBLE AT CAMP BORDEN

For Political Purposes Helped Create Dissatisfaction Among Men—London Interests Also Helped Engineer Disturbances.

Special to The Standard. Ottawa, July 14.—General Sir Sam Hughes stated tonight before leaving for Lindsay that he has been conducting a thorough inquiry into the causes of the troubles at Camp Borden and he is now assured from reliable sources that the agitation had been engineered by London interests, chiefly liquor and tobacco, who want the troops brought back to London.

General Hughes also blames a number of Liberal officers of other battalions who, for political purposes, have assisted in stirring up trouble and creating animosity against him. He promises that he will deal with these officers later.

The minister states that influential parties in London with whom he consulted agreed that it would be a wise move to take the troops away from Carling Heights. The object was in the interest of the men themselves, who were being preyed upon by camp followers. At Camp Borden they will be free from the objectionable followers. Liquor and politics were at the bottom of the trouble, he says.

M'GRAW, GIANTS' MANAGER, JAILED

Arrested on Warrant Sworn Out by Fan on Disorderly Conduct Charge—Out Under Bond.

Cincinnati, July 14.—John J. McGraw, of the New York National League team, was arrested here tonight on a warrant sworn out by John T. Reed, a local fan, charging him with disorderly conduct. McGraw gave bonds for his appearance in the municipal court tomorrow and left with the team for St. Louis tonight.

Trouble started after the game when remarks by several spectators were addressed to the New York team while they were in their dressing rooms. McGraw resented the remarks. There were no blows struck but some ugly language was used, according to the police.

After McGraw's arrest Arthur Fletcher, skipper of the New York Club, swore to a warrant causing Reed's arrest.

FRANZ JOSEPH ILL, FAMILY IS SUMMONED

Zurich, via Paris, July 14.—Members of the Austrian imperial family have been summoned to Schoenbrunn, owing to the illness of the Emperor Franz Joseph, according to news despatches from Innsbruck. Several specialists are attending the aged emperor and the news of the war is being withheld from him.

POPE TO APPEAL FOR PEACE ON WAR ANNIVERSARY?

New York, July 14.—A news agency despatch from Rome today says: “Pope Benedict, it is reported in church circles here, is preparing to issue a second appeal for peace on the occasion of the second anniversary of the beginning of the war, now only two weeks away.

“The issuance of the appeal depends upon the success of the Allies in their present offensive. If the Anglo-French forces, for example, have made a wide breach in the German lines and are steadily pushing back the enemy as the anniversary draws near, His Holiness will regard the time as inopportune, and will have little or nothing to say regarding peace.”

MR. GUTELIUS DOING WELL

Montreal, July 14.—The condition of Mr. P. P. Gutelius, general manager of the Government Railways, who was operated upon at the Western Hospital here on Wednesday for appendicitis, was regarded as so favorable today by the doctors in attendance that his family physician, Dr. Ferguson, of Moncton, N. B., left for home. There are strong hopes of Mr. Gutelius' recovery.

Crack Shooting of Canadian Snipers Gets Several Huns

Ottawa, July 14.—Major General Sir Sam Hughes has received the following communique from the Canadian general representative at the front: Canadian Corps Headquarters in France, via London, July 14.—There was a noticeable diminution in the volume of hostile artillery duels during the last few days on the Canadian front. Only one severe bombardment was directed upon our positions. Starting at 7.30 in the evening it continued until 10 with exceptional violence. Our heavy and field batteries responded with the greatest vigor, and under the concentrated weight of their fire, the hostile guns were eventually silenced. Our artillery, on many occasions, shelled the German lines. Enemy machine gun emplacements, observation posts and strong points were damaged and in some instances destroyed. Numerous hostile working parties were also dispersed.

Our battalions in the front lines displayed particular activity. A daily toll of victims was claimed by our snipers. By night and by day our machine guns harassed the enemy and hampered his efforts to strengthen his defenses. The size and number of our patrols was increased, and an unquestionable ascendancy established over No Man's Land. One night a French-Canadian patrol, under Scout Sergeant Pouliot and Corporal Labelle, was returning from an inspection of the German entanglements when it encountered an enemy party of equal size. Simultaneously bombs were thrown by both sides.

One Prisoner Wore Iron Cross.

Led by the sergeant our men rushed at the enemy. The foremost two of the Germans were seized and overpowered, while the remainder of the hostile party rapidly withdrew, carrying with it a wounded man. One of the prisoners taken was a corporal, wearing the iron cross. On many former occasions Scout Sgt. Pouliot greatly distinguished himself by his courage and enterprise.

Another night scouts of a Calgary battalion located an enemy working party of about one hundred and fifty men in the open. Word was carried back to our trenches, and the machine guns were promptly turned on the Germans. At daybreak two bodies were still lying on the ground.

At a different point in the line, after a short bombardment by our artillery, five parties of a Winnipeg battalion carried out a raid on the advanced positions of the enemy. The posts were all found vacant but close to one of them fifteen Germans were discovered in a crater. Bombs were at once thrown among them. The majority of the enemy fled back to their front line trenches but five or six were left lying at the bottom of the crater presumably dead.

The other parties, having encountered no opposition, advanced to the enemy's parapets and bombed his saps and trenches with excellent result.

A patrol of a Montreal battalion under Lieut. Fryer encountered a German party numbering over fifty men. Our patrol at once opened fire with a machine gun and the enemy soon withdrew, leaving a number of dead on the ground.

An attempted raid of the hostile trenches by parties of a certain Ontario battalion under Captain Scott and Lieut. Ansley and Lieut. Gracien was frustrated owing to unexpected entanglements close to the German parapet. The enterprise was most gallantly conducted by all ranks. Under a withering fire of bombs, machine guns and rifles, our men made repeated and desperate efforts to cross the obstacles and only desisted when the order to retire was received. Our party suffered casualties but much valuable information was gained in regard to the enemy's disposition in this section.

BRITISH STEAMER SILVERTON SUNK

London, July 14.—A report to Lloyd's says the British steamer Silverton has been sunk.

Latest maritime records report the Silverton, a vessel of 2,685 tons, as leaving the River Tyne, England, on June 11 for an unnamed destination. The Silverton was built in West Hartlepool in 1891 and was owned in Leith.

ICE CREAM REWARDS FOR UNIVERSAL JUVENILE PLAYERS.

On one of the big stages at University City, Lyle Warrenton, one of the best known character actresses of the photoplay world, and in days gone by a noted Shakespearean artist, was directing a one-reel picture in which the principal actors were children, and the featured one a little colored girl.

Mrs. Warrenton is producing pictures intended solely for children, made by children, and with a heart interest for the young mind.

Never for a minute during the time she was at work did Mrs. Warrenton lack an audience of the actresses of University City. There seemed to be an attraction about that schoolroom scene, with the little boys and girls, that spelled more to the feminine heart than the work of handsome Jack Kerrigan or his rival for matinee adulation, Herbert Rawlinson.

But the real treat was when Margaret Whistler, who played the teacher, served the children with a huge bowl of ice cream during the recess. There was no acting about this, it was real.

Another letter was read from Mrs. Warren, St. John, being an appeal for the “Quarter Fund,” for the blind soldiers who are being cared for at St. Dunstan's, London, among whom are eight Canadian soldiers. Arrested on Warrant Sworn Out by Fan on Disorderly Conduct Charge—Out Under Bond.

Cincinnati, July 14.—John J. McGraw, of the New York National League team, was arrested here tonight on a warrant sworn out by John T. Reed, a local fan, charging him with disorderly conduct. McGraw gave bonds for his appearance in the municipal court tomorrow and left with the team for St. Louis tonight.

Trouble started after the game when remarks by several spectators were addressed to the New York team while they were in their dressing rooms. McGraw resented the remarks. There were no blows struck but some ugly language was used, according to the police.

After McGraw's arrest Arthur Fletcher, skipper of the New York Club, swore to a warrant causing Reed's arrest.

BARGE SUNK IN COLLISION WITH PIER

Sydney, N. S., July 14.—This afternoon, a barge being towed by the tug Springhill, through the Grand Narrows bridge, collided with pier No. 6 and glancing off crashed against the swinging span pier and immediately sank. Her masts are sticking up directly in the line of the track and above it, it was impossible to close the draw with the result that railway traffic will be held up until the masts can be saved. The Steel Company sent an acetylene plant to do the sawing which will take some time. It is expected that navigation will be closed for at least two weeks or until the obstruction can be removed. The draw cannot be opened or closed as the pier is damaged.

Never before have lace veils been more fashionable or more attractive than this year, possibly because they are suggestive of things Spanish. They were not seen much in the very early spring, but now they add a new note, or rejuvenating touch, to the hat that has seen a few weeks' wear, and has been faded by the sun.

To Overcome Sunburn, Tan, Freckles, Wrinkles

If your skin is ungly reddened, freckled or stained, dab a liberal amount of ordinary mercuric wash on the face and allow it to remain over night. In the morning wash off the wax in the morning, using a soft brush. Repeating this daily, the entire outer skin is absorbed, but so gradually, that there is no sloughing or inconvenience. Even the stubbornest freckles are affected. The underlying skin which forms the new complexion is so fresh and youthful-looking, you'll marvel at the transformation. It's the only thing known to actually discard an aged, faded, muddy or blotchy complexion. One ounce of mercuric wash, procurable at any drugstore, is sufficient in most cases.

If sun and wind make you squint and stream, you'd better cultivate wrinkles and crow's feet. To overcome these quickly, bathe the face in a solution made by dissolving an ounce of powdered saxatite in a half pint witch hazel.

Director Frank Reicher has been selected to film the first Lou-Tellegen story, and Cleo Ridgely will play the opposite lead.

Upon the completion of "The Storm," now being filmed with Blanche Sweet in the stellar role, Lasky Director Jas. Younger will take up the making of "The Unconquered," with the same actress. Both of these subjects were especially written for the actress by Mrs. H. C. deMille, mother of Cecil B. and William C.

Anita King and Tom Meighan are to be co-starred in an early Lasky production, scenario for which is now being prepared.

In the cafe scene of "The Man from Bitter Roots," the William Fox picture which William Fox will release within a week, sixty extra persons were employed. The scene was taken at the lunch hour, so that the appetites displayed by the "extras" would be more realistic.

THE HAPPIEST GIRLS IN NEW BRUNSWICK STAR ON THEIR LONG TRIP TODAY

Three of the Winners in Standard Travel Club Leave on the Ocean Limited this Forenoon on a Ten Thousand Mile Journey to Alaska—Will be Gone for More than a Month.

These three girls, Miss Mildred Murray, daughter of Dr. S. C. Murray of Albert, Albert Co., Miss Hazel Winter of Fredericton, superintendent of Women's Institutes for New Brunswick, and Miss Hazel Newton, daughter of I. N. Newton of Grand Harbor, Grand Manan, start today on a trip which, before it ends, will have covered between ten and eleven thousand miles. Their tickets are nearly half a mile long and special suit cases had to be arranged to carry them. One of the girls felt that she could not go, but tickets were sent to her and after seeing them she decided that the man who went to all the trouble of making them out would be so disappointed if they were not used that she could not bear to think of this, so she changed her mind and will go with the others.

Miss Newton and Miss Winter came to the city yesterday and leave on the 11.30 today for Moncton. At Salisbury they will be joined by Miss Murray, and at Moncton they take the Ocean Limited for Montreal. A member of The Standard staff will accompany the trip on the first stage of the trip, and in Montreal they will be met by the organizer of the party. There they will be joined by the New England group who are coming from various parts of the Eastern States with the chaperons and other attendants. Sunday will be spent in Montreal, and on Sunday night the party will leave for Toronto, over the Grand Trunk where they will spend one day. There the tour will be more thoroughly organized, and it is really from Toronto that the actual start of the united party will be made. The girls go through the Cobalt and Porcupine districts, stopping off to see the mining operations. Thence over the Transcontinental to Winnipeg with various stops at points of interest, and so on through all the principal cities of the west, to Prince Rupert. They will stop for a side trip through Jasper Park, Alta., and will arrange their journey by such stages as will enable them to obtain the finest daylight views of the mountains. At Prince Rupert they pick up the steamer for the magnificent trip northward through the Inland Passage to Skagway and other Pacific Coast points. In Skagway there will be a programme of entertainments arranged by the prominent mine owners and business men. Leaving Skagway on Sunday, July 30th, the party will spend three days on the Pacific, and on Wednesday will reach Vancouver, where a short time will be spent in sightseeing and other entertainment. Thursday they will be at Seattle, and on Saturday, August 5th, at Portland, Oregon. On Sunday the tourists reach Spokane, and Monday and Tuesday they have the finest side trip of all through Glacier National Park. On August 9th there will be a quiet day's journey eastward through to Montana and North Dakota, and on Thursday the excursionists will be entertained in St. Paul and Minneapolis. Friday they will spend at Duluth, the great wheat shipping port. On Saturday, August 12, they will be on board the steamer sailing down Lake Superior, one of the most beautiful inland water voyages in the world. They will continue down the lakes, through the Sault Canal to Detroit, and thence on to Toronto and home.

The whole outing will occupy from thirty-one to thirty-four days according to detailed arrangements to be made later. All expenses of this trip are paid by The Standard. The girls do not have to use any money of their own except for personal expenditures, such as souvenirs, snap-shots, or other small items in which they wish to indulge. Pullman arrangements for the entire trip have been completed, all hotel bills will be paid by this office and there will be such perfect organization that none of the members of the party will have the slightest worry. Naturally the girls are greatly excited over the outing, and are looking forward with a great deal of pleasure to the enjoyment of the prize for which they worked so hard.

and making thorough preparations, of which Sir Douglas Haig, the British commander, insists there is evidence on every hand.

"Tomorrow morning at three" came the laconic word yesterday evening, "preceded by the usual intensive preliminary bombardment, only a little hotter." The ground gained by the British on July 1 and in subsequent operations gave the Associated Press observer a viewpoint from which the whole line of attack could be seen. The faint moonlight enabled the gunners to dimly see their work, the infantry and the contour of the ground. "This is a real daylight saving show," said one of the gunners. "Faintly, as the observer pushed so cautiously close to the German line, there was the greatest concentration of guns of all calibres probably ever made in a given area. From behind the German trenches gained on July 1 darted the danger flashes through a blanket night. One, two, three, four, for battery after battery was shooting at high speed, from the bottom of the hillside to the top. The scene of artillery power was no less indescribable than the thrilling suggestion of the waiting infantry battalion lines which were seen going into position before the battle. At the moment the assault started it seemed there was no interval in their thunders as the guns moved forward their curtain of shell bursts in front of the first wave of infantry advancing across the zone between their trenches and the German lines.

Enemy Strongholds Burning Red Patches.

In the direction of Longueval a big fire was seen. It was the village or a storehouse burning as the bright spot was growing to a steady point in the field of gun flashes. Then soaring heavenward, went a rocket signal light which gave the positions gained in the attack. Commanders in the rear answered with other signals while what had been the German strongholds half an hour or an hour before were burning red patches, spread with the sparks of Roman candles. This method of communication is a different part of the business of directing an army under cover of darkness. At the first flush of dawn, the first British aeroplane came sailing from its aerodrome toward the German lines and the message observation balloons rose together into the air in a vague scene of oblong and grotesque monitors. Out of the blanket where the guns were flashing rose the white flashes of the old German trenches, the ribbons were roads and finally the dark masses became Mametz and other now famous woods and the gaunt finger points the trunks of trees which had shaded the highways, but were now denuded of limbs by the shell fire.

While the smoke barrages from the British lines were carried by favorable winds and the shells made other points of the line indistinct the ridge of Longueval, where the British burrowed forward against commanding positions and a stubborn cunning and brave foe were seen distinctly to be in their possession. More lines of troops were moving through the German curtains of shell fire to the support of those who had gained the hotly desired summit, and were now looking downhill where the German guns are hidden and with the Bapaume Ridge in the distance. Behind them all was the organization which had plotted the action of the army, and back of those were battalions awaiting their orders. A sergeant of artillery, of the typical ruddy-faced "John Bull" type sitting stiff on his horse after a sleepless night directing the columns of caissons, hurrying up ammunition to the greedy guns, called out: "Mind your wheel horse! Now, all together like I taught you to do." The wheels with their padded and noiseless axles went up the embankment, with every rider urging his straining mount.

RUSHING WORK ON THE VALLEY RAILWAY

Special to The Standard. Fredericton, July 14.—Work on the St. John Valley Railway near Oak Point, where Poupore Bros. who have a sub-contract under Smith & Merrieth are engaged, being rushed along rapidly. Yesterday Messrs. Poupore started their large steam shovel at work on Crumley Brook, near Oak Point, being the first of contractors to have their steam shovels started. This concern transported their plant from the Barony to Oak Point via Fredericton, loading their steam shovels, dump carts and other equipment on scoops at Gibson and towing them down river. They have their entire plant at work now, and there are upwards of 200 men engaged between Oak Point and Evandale. Other contractors are also rushing along their work.

President Sumner and several directors of the St. John and Quebec Railway Company made an inspection trip over the line this week.

THE POLICE COURT.

In the Police Court yesterday the case against Chas. Ryder, charged with driving on the wrong side of Douglas Avenue, was further postponed owing to the absence of the defendant from the city. John Walsh, an important witness, lately discharged from the General Public Hospital, occupied a seat in court. William M. Ryan was present as counsel for the city and requested the magistrate to have J. Harry Doody, a previous witness in the case, recalled.

Mr. Parlee, owner of car 4265, reported for exceeding the speed limit on Main street July 11th, was fined ten dollars.

Lloyd C. Ryan, reported for the same offence on the same street July 6th, stated that his car had been sold at auction about a month ago and that he had not driven a car for four months. He was excused.

James Taylor, owner of "Golden Gate," reported for furious driving on Brussels street on the eleventh instant, was obliged to pay a fine of eight dollars.

One drunk was remanded.

William Hodgins Falls 35 Feet while at Work Aboard Dredge—Small Hopes for His Recovery.

Special to The Standard.

Bathurst, July 14.—An accident occurred here this morning about nine o'clock which will in all probability result in a fatality. While William Hodgins of this town was on the arm of the dredge invader he in some manner lost his balance and fell to the iron turntable about 35 feet below. He was picked up in an unconscious state and taken to the hospital. Examination revealed the fact that one leg was broken in two places, the other leg and hip were broken, one arm broken and internal injuries. At nine o'clock tonight he was still alive but no hope is held out for his recovery.

He was about 50 years of age and has a wife and four children. The accident has thrown a gloom over the whole community.

Infantry Charged Behind Curtain of Shells From British Guns.

EVEN STAFF OFFICER RELATED OVER RESULTS

British Gradually Worked Way During Past Week to Point where Blow Could Best be Delivered.

British front, in France, July 14, via London.—Even the phlegmatic British generals and staff officers are showing elation over the results this morning to state that the great task of the night attacks against the German second line, although carefully started, soon after daylight the joyful news of the British success slipped into a telephone message over the area occupied by the British army. As a spectacle to an eye-witness, this action of the second big stage of the battle of the Somme surpassed that of July 1. Taking needed ground for organizing new trenches and throwing out small parties, who dug themselves in, the army has been gradually gaining a position from Ovillers, La Boisselle, and Monzanhan, a distance of four miles, from which to deliver a blow and until many points were within 200 yards of the German's second line. Meanwhile, the shells of the British artillery could be seen cutting the wire

"We are fighting for a worthy purpose, and we shall not lay down our arms until that purpose has been fully achieved."—H.M. The King.
TO THE PEOPLE OF THE EMPIRE—Every fighting unit we can send to the front means one step nearer peace.

WHY?

Frank B. Carvell, Member of Parliament for the County of Carleton, N. B., and George W. Kytte, Member of Parliament for the County of Richmond, N. S., have made serious allegations against a responsible minister of the Canadian Government and responsible Canadian officials.

These allegations and comments upon them by the media named and the Liberal press have had the effect of defaming Canada and of arousing throughout the world a contempt and prejudice against this country.

Free and full investigation of the allegations made by Carvell and Kytte has shown there was no corruption or dishonesty on the part of the Minister of the Canadian Government or the Canadian officials referred to.

Why should Frank B. Carvell, Member of Parliament for the County of Carleton, N. B., and George W. Kytte, Member of Parliament for the County of Richmond, N. S., be permitted to remain in Canadian public life?

IN WESTMORLAND.

It is but fair to say that the personnel of the local opposition ticket in Westmorland comes as a disappointing surprise. That a party which, if we are to believe the speeches of Mr. E. S. Carter, and the per-ferid appeals of the Telegraph and Times, was supposed to be operating on the policy of a new deal for New Brunswick, honesty in public life, new representatives and new leaders, should so completely set itself up to the gang of corruptionists and grafters who misruled this province for so many years must come as a severe shock to those misguided souls who might have been inclined to accept at par the promises of Mr. Carter or the clamorous assertions of his newspaper organs.

The opposition ticket in Westmorland, as at present constituted, is headed by Hon. C. W. Robinson and Hon. F. J. Sweeney while the other members are Mr. C. M. Leger, Dr. E. A. Smith and Mr. Fred. Magee. Three of these gentlemen have already occupied seats in the Provincial Legislature as members or supporters of what the Telegraph was fond of terming "the most corrupt government" this province has ever known. Dr. E. A. Smith, the fourth member, is the gentleman who, through the shameful use of racial and religious canvasses, and an openly expressed uncertainty as to the wisdom of the Clarke Government's prohibition legislation, succeeded in defeating Hon. P. G. Mahoney in the recent Westmorland by-election. The junior candidate, Mr. Magee, is an estimable business man but his political career has been confined to the activities of a party healer and a seceder of cut and dried resolutions. However, since he has endorsed the judgment of his fellows in the choice of the captain and first mate of his ticket, he must be prepared to accept the responsibility for the acts of Hon. Messrs. Robinson and Sweeney when they were in power.

Hon. C. W. Robinson, it may be recalled, came to St. John a few months ago and attended the opposition convention called by Messrs. Carter and Ventot, and, after looking over the collection of purists from whom the Grit organizers hoped to select candidates for a new administration, decided he would have nothing more to do with the outfit; consequently he resigned the party leadership.

It is evident that pressure has been brought to bear upon Mr. Robinson to cause him to change his mind, and it would be interesting to know the nature of that pressure. Probably Mr. Carter has promised that he shall have the premiership when his party attains power. If that be so then the Grit organizer is plotting to turn the affairs of this province over to the gentleman who, in the opinion of the Telegraph, produced jangled surpluses and gave an account of his stewardship that should deceive no one.

It is however but fair to say that Mr. Robinson was not solely to blame for the sorry showing of the government formerly led by him. That government was "wished upon him" by stronger men and stronger minds and he lacked the courage to resist the imposition. Consequently he stands today as the defender of the Central Railway steal, the suspense account transactions, the smudged condition of provincial accounts which became so bad that a trusted official of the government of that day retired to the basement of the province building and took his own life rather than face the certain exposure of the pilferings of his political superiors.

Hon. Mr. Sweeney, when in Frederickton, was Surveyor-General, and it was under his administration that the territorial revenues of this province reached a low ebb. The condition of affairs in Mr. Sweeney's department may be gleaned from the fact that under another government, with a lumber cut substantially the same, the public revenue increased to a point never before dreamed possible. Mr. Sweeney will have ample opportunity to tell the people that he intends to do better in future but they will not be deceived. He and his leader must be judged by the record and, unfortunately for them, the record of the government of which they were members is not clean.

Clement M. Leger, the third member of the ticket, was never more than a subservient follower of the Robinson-Tweedie-Pugsley plunderbund. In that capacity he said what he was told to say, voted as he was ordered to vote and was never accused of originality or independent motive. In the present case he stands as the representative of the French-Canadians and will oppose Hon. D. V. Landry. A simple comparison of the two men will suffice to settle Mr. Leger's case.

Dr. Smith, the fourth member, is a recent political accident. He shared with Mr. "Abolish the Bag" Foster the doubtful distinction of membership on the "committee of management" of the Carter-Ventot party, and, it was said, had been promised the party leadership. The selection of Mr. Robinson, however, leaves Dr. Smith much in doubt as to his present status. Mr. Magee, as stated, is a new man to be judged by his company rather than by any characteristics of his own.

In short, the Westmorland ticket must be regarded as a keen disappointment to those Liberals who had hoped they had seen the last of the Robinson brand of supine inactivity, or the Sweeney incompetence. Those who looked for a new deal must at last realize that they have been fooled, and that the candidates who will carry the opposition banner in the next provincial election represent no school of idealistic patriots striving to improve public affairs, but the same old gang of political adventurers who looted New Brunswick prior to 1908 and whose palms again itch for the contact with the public revenues. The opposition party has not helped its cause or its prospects by its selection in Westmorland.

WELCOME HOME.

Col. James L. McAvity, officer commanding the "Fighting 26th," is welcomed back to St. John with an added heartiness not alone because of his own personality and general popularity but by reason of the fact that he represents one of the finest military units that ever carried the flag of the British Empire into battle. The 26th Battalion is peculiarly New Brunswick's own, and although reports from the front indicate that more than half of the original force has figured in the casualty lists yet the boys who remain can be depended upon to live up to the high example set by those who have already suffered in the Empire's defence.

Through more than a year of active service Col. McAvity has been not only the commanding officer but the friend and counsellor of every man in the fine force under him. By precept and example in the early stages of the battalion's career he inculcated in officers and men a knowledge of their duty and the determination to perform it faithfully. Under the enemy's guns, or in the reserve trenches, he cheered and heartened his soldiers and after they had fought the fight to the death he performed the last rites of Christian burial on their remains.

He is loved and honored by every man in his regiment and the citizens of St. John who turned out last night to bid him welcome are but spokesmen for the many thousands throughout the province to whom he is known as a gallant, thoughtful and competent officer, and a man. St. John has honored herself in honoring Col. McAvity and in expressing the hope that his furlough will prove beneficial and that when the time comes for him to return to duty it will be in the fullness of his accustomed health and vigor. The Standard but echoes the wish of the entire province.

FRENCH-ACADIANS AND THE WAR

The Standard publishes, this morning, a letter from "A French-Canadian" which is worthy of the closest attention of all. The French-Canadians in this province have responded nobly to the call for men and are fairly entitled to full credit for their splendid sacrifice.

Possibly there has been a popular disposition to confound the French-Canadians of New Brunswick with the French-Canadians of Quebec who latter province the response to the call has not been satisfactory, but this has been due to the fact that the French-Canadians of Quebec have been led largely by a Laurier and a Bourassa, a leadership under which they have been taught to regard that for them, the Empire commenced and ended with Quebec. In New Brunswick the French-Canadians have enjoyed the counsel of wise leaders and the result is manifest in the readiness with which they have answered the appeal for men and have gone forward willingly to fight and, if need be, to die, for the principles of British liberty and freedom.

So I am taking the liberty of submitting the following advice to those seeking such information:

Write to the International War Prisoners' Bureau, Geneva, Switzerland, giving full details of soldier and ask them to see whether they can find him in the German prison camps. This may take some time, but it is the surest way to obtain the information. Yours truly, J. S. C.

HOW THE FRENCH ACADIANS ARE RALLYING TO THE CALL TO BEAR ARMS FOR EMPIRE

A Correspondent Gives Facts which should dispel Opinion that French of New Brunswick are Backward in Enlisting.

To the Editor of The St. John Standard:

Dear Mr. Editor.—While travelling through the province for some time past I have been surprised to find that there is a general opinion, amongst our English-speaking friends that the French-Canadians of the Province of New Brunswick are not enlisting as they should.

I believe that this opinion must spring from lack of knowledge of the facts, for I am sure that the ideals of British fair play for which the British people have fought and died, would not permit criticism of the French-Canadian race if the facts were known. Consequently, I am writing to ask you if you will enlighten the public, through the columns of your valuable paper, what we, the French-Canadians of New Brunswick, are doing in the recruiting line?

Up to date we have sent to France fifteen hundred or more young men, and that they are doing their duty can easily be surmised by a glance at the casualty lists. Moreover, with the New Brunswick battalions now at Valcartier, we have two French-Canadian battalions, a fact not generally known; the 165th, under Lieut-Col. D'Algie, composed of men of Acadian origin only, and the 132nd, under Lieut-Col. Mersereau. This latter battalion, known as the North Shore Regiment, although not considered as French-Canadian, contains nevertheless, between 700 and 800 men, and is even so it is under strength; if it is to be considered as an English battalion should the number of men missing not be recruited from the English-speaking people of the province? Yet I venture to say it would not be ready to sail until after the war is over if the Frenchmen from the North Shore do not step up and fill the ranks. So much for the French-Canadian battalions of New Brunswick. But let us not forget that several hundred of our young men are in the ranks of the 104th, the 140th, the 145th, and the 115th.

In Nova Scotia and in Prince Edward Island we have also done our share, and as one example let me give the 105th P. E. I. Highlanders (if you please), in the ranks of which there are upwards of five hundred French-Canadians.

I do not wish to take up too much space, but in the interest of our dear country in order to promote the feeling that should exist between the two races, I ask that our English friends consider this: Thousands of our young men, the best blood that the French-Canadians can claim, have gone, or are on their way to fight for British freedom and for justice. Why not show them "fair play" here at home, and give them that for which they are fighting now on the battle fields of Europe "British Fair Play"? Give them honor and credit, because honor and credit are due them. We have recruited among the French-Canadians over five battalions, and with what are we popularly credited? An "under strength" battalion in Valcartier, is this fair? I am sure, now that the facts are known, this erroneous opinion will not prevail.

Little Benny's Note Book

Grandpop came around last nite, and him and pop and me started to talk about what I'm going to be when I grow up, grandpop saying, You can say what you like, there's no field like politics, all our governors, all our presidents, ust to be politicians.

So did all our last story men, and pop, so, so, I want Benny to be something modest and respectable and at the same time moderately wealthy, such as the owner of a string of department stores, or the president of a ship building company.

Grandpop ust to be a politician, and look what he amounted to, sed grandpop.

That's so, he had a travelling bag named after him, dident he, sed pop.

Well for my part sed me, I want him to be a lawyer or a doctor, something professional, my goodness, look how much good a doctor does in the work.

I dont know about that, sed grandpop, doctors are always discovering new diseases, and I dont call that a good influence, look at Bismark, he was a politician.

Yes, and it made him prematurely bald, sed pop, but after all, Im a believer in natural selection, I think a boy ust to be allowed to take his little hatchet like George Washington and chop out his own career. Benny, have you any ideeer of what path in life you wood like to pursue when you reach an age at which you will begin to wash your hands and comb your hair without a special invitation.

Yes sir, I sed.

Hear, hear, sed pop.

I want to be either an undertaker or the man that drives the dog-catchers waggon, I sed.

As the sweet girl graduate remarked, procons, sed pop. And they started to talk about the war and I went out to see if any of the fellows was around yet.

CARVELL TALKING PURITY IS NAUSEATING SPECTACLE

Special Correspondent who Contributed Some Straight Truths Regarding Recent Hartland and Centreville Meetings Submits a Few Questions for Gum Shoe Frank to Answer.

(From a Special Correspondent.) The Carvell Sentinel, F. B. Carvell, president, publishes the following: "The 'Special' Hartland correspondent of the St. John Standard in an article referring to Mr. Carvell's recent successful meetings in Hartland and Centreville indulges in a lot of abuse and slander, which marks the 'special' correspondent as a despicable partisan mud-slinger, blinded by the narrowest and bitterest partisan prejudices. The article is false to the knowledge of the person who wrote it. * * * This 'special' journalistic prostitute is without shame or common decency and his references against the honor and probity of Mr. Carvell and other gentlemen are beneath contempt."

Hartland, July 14.—The above is the only reply that can be made to the plain, straightforward, truthful statements made in my recent correspondence regarding the Hartland and Centreville meetings. Evidently I touched the bull's-eye. It's a mighty sore point with the Grits about here that, after all their hard work they could not do any better. No one disputes that they had a good audience, but I repeat that over sixty per cent. were Government supporters, who went to hear the "big wind blow." They also expected to hear or see some enthusiasm, but it was not there. All they heard was Carvell's usual tirade of abuse, slander and insinuations, and much use of the big "I." As a comic opera it was a success; all the meeting needed to complete its ridiculous character was Frank Thornton as right and Allan Bradley as left supporters of Chairman Miller.

It said for by the stockholders? Did it come from the fund at Ottawa which keeps the reptile Grit press going? Does Mr. Carvell know anything about certain parties who only get 55 p. c. of their contract for services rendered on the Transcontinental? Who got the remaining 45 p. c.? Who pays E. B. Carter and Peter Veniot? The St. John Telegraph, the Carvell Sentinel and Hartland Observer pay dividends to their stockholders? If not, who keeps them going? Does Mr. Carvell want to purchase some more real estate in Hartland? If so, we will be pleased to obtain for him a half dozen lots in this flourishing town for 50 p. c. less than he paid for the post office lot and equally as good, and will contribute a generous take-off to his Purity Campaign Fund. Carvell talking purity turns the stomach of everybody but a few Grits with cast iron stomachs and the digestion of an ostrich.

FREDERICTON WOMAN HAS 15 RELATIVES IN KHAKI

A brother of a Fredericton woman has been wounded for the second time while fighting in the trenches with one of the British regiments, word having been received here this week by Mrs. J. Mackintosh, Carleton street, that her brother, Pte. Geo. Ross, had been wounded in action. Pte. Ross is a member of the Sixth Seaforth Highlanders, one of the territorial regiments that has been doing such great work at the front. He enlisted a few days after war was declared and went to the front in November, 1914. He was wounded about six months ago in the forearm, but returned to the firing line after a short stay in hospital. Pte. Ross is one of two brothers wearing khaki, another brother being with the mechanical transport at the front. Mrs. Mackintosh, whose husband is a member of the mechanical staff of the Gleaner, has fifteen or more near relatives enlisted in the present war. One brother-in-law, David Mackintosh, is with a flying corps in Roumania, being stationed now at Bucharest. Her father, who is a former sergeant in the Imperial Volunteer Army, offered his services and may be accepted.

RECOMMEND POWER HOUSE FOR GENERAL HOSPITAL

Finance Committee of Municipal Council Considered This and Other Matters Yesterday Afternoon.

A meeting of the finance committee of the municipal council was held yesterday afternoon in the government rooms. Most of the time was taken up discussing the request of the commissioners of the General Public Hospital that a power house be erected at a cost of $23,000. At the present time the boilers and laundry are in the basement of the hospital itself, while in the proposed power house provision would be made for them. After the matter had been thoroughly talked over the committee decided to recommend to the council that the power house be built. They also decided to recommend to the council that Mr. Ryan of Brookville be given permission to put a pipe across the road for the purpose of getting water from Lawlor's Lake, the work to be done under the supervision of the councillors of the Parish of Simonds and the road to be put in as good condition as before. A deposit of $50 would be made when work was started and returned when the road engineer was satisfied that the road was in as good shape as before work was commenced.

THE GREATEST PRAYER IN THE WORLD

Prayer is the highest act of man. In it he is nearest to his Creator and the farthest from his sometime brother—the brute. All women and most men pray—whether they admit it or not. Prayer is the soul's answer to the question, "If a man die, shall he live again?" It came direct from Heaven, and did not unfold itself along with the convolutions of the brain. Prayer is Hope with wings. It antedates all History. It will outlast Humanity itself. But prayer without faith is not prayer.

Tobacco satisfaction is hard to attain for the discriminating smoker. If you are as particular about having the best as we are about making it, you should compare a with the brand you usually smoke—Nothing will do so much to convince you of its superiority.

"Polo" is unquestionably the best flavored smoke—burns longer—holds its fire better—is sweeter and more fragrant than most pipe-tobacco. It makes your old "corn-cob" taste like an expensive calabash.

Do Not Order "Just Beer"

It is amusing how some people when ordering a beverage, beer, for instance, just ask for "Beer," omitting Ready's, for READY'S LAGER BEER is a wholesome and delicious beverage made from pure malt and hops.

Always sold in bottle, a Beer full of sparkle and invigorating qualities, making it unequalled for table use.

Order a supply for home use from your dealer, but be sure and ask for READY'S. Sold at hotels, clubs and bars.

COL. JAMES L. McAVITY OF THE 26TH RECIPIENT OF GREAT WELCOME HOME

Thousands of Citizens Lined the Streets and Cheered While Lengthy Procession of Firemen, Police, Returned Soldiers, Local Units and Citizens Escorted Hero from Union Depot to His Home—Address of Welcome Delivered on Arrival—Officer Commanding "Fighting 26th" Talks to Th. Standard of Officers and Men Under His Command

From Europe's far flung battlefields and the trenches of France, Col. J. L. McAvity, officer commanding the gallant Twenty-Sixth, returned to St. John last night, and the home fires of welcome burned brightly and the loyal city gave the gallant colonel a reception befitting the leader of men who have been put to the test and proved themselves the stuff of which heroes are made. In letters of gold the name of the Twenty-Sixth is inscribed in the records of this war and in honoring Col. McAvity last night the citizens of St. John had a thought as well for the brave lads whom the colonel led to the firing line.

Col. McAvity the man, Col. McAvity the soldier, was honored by a reception seldom paralleled in the annals of St. John. Gladdened is the traveler as the first strains of "Home, Sweet Home" sound in his ears, but it is doubtful if the recipient of last night's ovation has heard sweeter music. A contrast to the hissing shells were the cheers of the thousands of citizens, a sight to gladden the heart, the eager, kindly welcome written on the faces of all as the colonel emerged from the station into view; the flag-bedecked houses, gayly trimmed automobiles and vehicles, each filled with its crowd eager to do their part in honoring the hero of the hour.

Dense Throng Lined the Streets. From King Square to Union depot a dense line of humanity awaited for over an hour the arrival of the train. A good natured, well ordered crowd. At the depot a veritable sea of faces greeted the colonel as he left the station and mounted the platform. His appearance was the signal for cheering and for fully five minutes the crowd voiced its welcome, the strident notes of automobile horns lent their unmutual sound to the noise, street car bells clanged, the whole combination a veritable din that the roaring of the big guns to which the colonel's ears have been so long attuned could scarce overrule.

But a smile lighted the face of the recipient of the ovation, as he realized that once more he was among his own, and that his fellow citizens recognized his sterling services on the field of battle and welcomed him back to the peace and quiet of his family circle.

The brief ceremony of welcome finished the triumphant procession formed up and began the march to the home of Col. McAvity. As the parade made its way through the streets lined with people from house tops and windows and every point of vantage cheers resounded, flags waved and words of welcome floated to the ears of the guest of honor. All along the line the welcome was continued, until the parade halted in front of the colonel's residence on Hazen street, and the hero of the hour disappeared within his home where the hardships of battle, wars, gruesome pictures and sounds of strife were forgotten in the joy of being again under his own roof tree.

The Former Demonstration. The return of Col. McAvity recalled most vividly to the thousands who witnessed his arrival last night such another demonstration just thirteen months ago when the gallant lads of the 26th marched through the streets of St. John for the last time and embarked on the first stage of their journey to war-ridden Europe. Bright were their faces with the light of eager desire to prove themselves on the field of battle, bravely the tears which welled to their eyes were held back as they spoke a parting word to the near and dear ones, but through the mist of tears shone every face determination to do their part well, with none more eager than the hero whom St. John welcomed back last night. When the call first came he answered and while he too has paid the price of his loyalty, the glorious deeds of the men he banded together
