

CANADA TO SEND DELEGATION TO LABOR CONGRESS

Department of Labor Has Named the Men Who Shall Represent it at Washington Conference.

CONFERENCE RESULT OF PEACE TREATY

Agenda Reveals the Important Questions to be Discussed by This International Gathering.

Ottawa, Oct. 17.—The names of the delegation to the International Labor Conference, to be convened at Washington on the 28th instant, have been made public by the Minister of Labor. The conference is the outcome of the labor convention incorporated in the Treaty of Peace.

The convention provides that the original members of the League of Nations shall be the original members of a permanent organization for the promotion of the industrial relations of labor conditions. The permanent organization consists of:

- (1) A general conference of representatives of the members.
- (2) An industrial labor office controlled by a governing body, due provision being made for the creation of the governing body.

The League of Nations will, as is generally understood, comprise practically the countries of the world. Meetings of the general conference will take place from time to time and at least once a year.

Agenda of Conference.

The agenda of the conference contains five items:

1. Application of principle of the eight hour day, or of the forty-eight hour week.
2. Question of providing against unemployment.
3. Employment of children.
4. Questions relating to prohibition of night work for women employed in industry and prohibition of the use of phosphorus in the manufacture of matches.
5. All preliminaries, with respect to matters relating to the conference, have been in the hands of an international organizing committee consisting of seven members appointed by the United States of America, Great Britain, France, Italy, Japan, Belgium and Switzerland. The chairman of the committee is Mr. Arthur Fontaine, representative of France on the international organizing committee.

Committee Members.

The British member of the committee is Sir Malcolm Delevingne, K. C. B., assistant under secretary of state for the home office for the United Kingdom. The American member is the international committee is Dr. J. T. Shotwell, professor at Columbia University, Mr. H. B. Butler, C. E., assistant secretary to the Minister of Labor in the United Kingdom, and the secretary of the committee. Mr. Butler visited Ottawa when on his way from England to Washington.

After the conference agenda had been arranged the international organizing committee submitted to the government of each country being a member of the conference, a highly detailed questionnaire with respect to laws, regulations and practices as to every conceivable phase of the matters figuring in the agenda. The copy of the questionnaire reaching the Dominion government was dealt with by the Department of Labor, and the fullest information available was prepared and forwarded to the international organizing committee.

The regulations of the labor convention provide that the general conference shall be composed of four representatives of each of the members, of whom two shall be government delegates and the other two shall be delegates representative of the employers and the work people of each of the members. Each delegate may be accompanied by advisers, who shall not exceed two in number for each item on the agenda of the meeting. When questions specially affecting women are to be considered by the conference, one at least of the advisers should be a woman.

FRENCH DEPUTIES EXPRESS CONFIDENCE IN THE FUTURE OF FRANCE AND BELIEVE IT WILL SUCCESSFULLY PASS THE CRISIS

Paris, Oct. 17.—During a discussion in the Chamber of Deputies today on the financial bill, Deputy Andre Lefevre, former Minister of Finance, made a lengthy speech on the financial policy of the government in which he laid special emphasis on the difficulty the new parliament would have to face.

He expressed confidence, however, in the future of France and expressed certainty that the country would emerge from the present crisis.

Louis Riots, the minister of finance, in reply to Deputy Lefevre, said France was the greatest creditor in the world, and that this assured her respect and consideration. The finance minister then gave an outline of the future budgets of France. He said the budget for 1921 would amount to about 20,500,000,000 francs.

M. Riots concluded by praising the works of Parliament and expressing confidence in the financial future of France.

Missing Enver Pasha Discovered in Caucasus

Constantinople, Oct. 17.—(By The Associated Press.)—Enver Pasha, the young Turkish leader who fled from Constantinople to escape arrest upon the downfall of the Young Turk regime, and whose whereabouts it had been impossible to learn since, was today discovered at Kars, in the Caucasus. One reason for his activities in the new republic of Azerbaijan, (Northern Persia) and also among the Tatars, is that he is thereby making himself a political power who must be treated with, thereby insuring his own safety.

So far Enver Pasha has been disowned by Mustafa Kemal Pasha and the Nationalists.

UNITED STATES SENATE REJECTS AMENDMENTS

Only Two Amendments of the 46 Requested by Foreign Relations Com. Remain to be Acted Upon.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 17.—After a brief debate and without the formality of a record vote, the Senate today threw out two more of the amendments written into the Peace Treaty by the Foreign Relations committee.

The two amendments had been introduced by Senator Fall, Republican, New Mexico, and had as their common purpose curtailment of the power of the American representative on the reparations committee, an international body set up by the treaty to fix and collect Germany's reparations bill.

The vote came sooner than had been expected. The leaders agreeing to it as a part of a plan to complete the consideration of amendments as soon as possible so that the Senate might get down to the real work of drafting a ratification resolution. Only two of the committee's forty-six amendments now remain to be considered, and it is hoped to bring them to a vote early next week. They both relate to equalization of voting strength in the League of Nations.

During the day some progress was also made in the formal reading of the treaty text, and the foreign relations committee took under advisement an offer from Colonel E. M. House to appear before it.

In their reading of the Treaty text, a formality required by Senate rules, the Senate clerks about completed during the day the first half of their task. The reading will be resumed tomorrow and the leaders hope to complete it during the day.

KING ALFONSO WILL LEAVE TODAY ON VISIT TO PARIS

Queen Victoria's Indisposition Will Prevent Her Accompanying the King at This Time.

Paris, Oct. 17.—King Alfonso will leave Madrid for Paris tomorrow evening, as was originally planned, according to a despatch from the Spanish capital today. It has been decided that Queen Victoria's indisposition need not interfere with the King's departure. She will join the King in either Paris or London when she shall have recovered from the attack from which she is suffering.

FRENCH DIVISION TO RELIEVE BRITISH FORCES IN SYRIA

Paris, Oct. 17.—General Gouraud, the newly appointed French Commissioner in Syria, and Commander-in-Chief of the French army in the East, will leave Paris for Syria within a day or two. He will organize from the French forces at Salonika, a full division, which, when completed, will join the troops of the French General Hanotaux, already in Syria, and both divisions will relieve the British forces there.

CANADIAN CLUBS TO PLAY LEADING PART IN FUTURE

It Will be Their Duty to Inform and Educate Canadian People on International Affairs.

NOW TAKES PLACE AMONG NATIONS

Hon. N. W. Rowell Impresses Upon Association of Canadian Clubs the Important Place the Country Holds Today.

Ottawa, Oct. 17.—Canada having taken her place among the nations of the world, the importance of Canadian clubs in informing and educating the people on international and national affairs was pointed out by Hon. N. W. Rowell at this morning's session of the Association of Canadian clubs in the Chateau Laurier, when he addressed the delegates on behalf of the Government.

Mr. Rowell referred to the League of Nations and to the possibilities which Canada, no less than other nations faced, Canada was now a member of the world, and must in the future take a man's part. He also referred to the large alien population and the obstacles it represented in national unity. Canadians themselves were not very familiar with international affairs and thus Canadian clubs throughout the Dominion could do much valuable work along that line.

Honorary presidents—Col. Charles R. McCulloch, Hamilton; W. Sandford Evans, Winnipeg.

Commons In No Hurry Over Ry. Bill

After Listening to Three Speeches Yesterday Members Decided to Adjourn Until Monday.

ONT. ELECTIONS WILL DELAY WORK

Friday's Speakers Strongly Advocate Prompt Action on the Bill Which Means Much to Canada.

Ottawa, Oct. 17.—The Commons was not in a hurry to get along with the debate on the second reading of the Grand Trunk bill today. After listening to three speeches, the members decided to adjourn the House until Monday, when it is expected they will be more interested in the Ontario election than in the proceedings of the House. One thing is certain, the taking of the division on the second reading will be deferred until the members who have been participating in the provincial contest are back in the capital.

J. H. Sinclair commended the debate on the second reading today. He was inclined to favor private ownership of the Grand Trunk, but he was not prepared to support it until the rate of interest had been reduced to a rate not too high to be healthy. The national debt, he claimed, was increasing at the rate of $1,500 per minute.

H. H. Stevens, Vancouver, devoted some attention to the criticisms of Hon. W. S. Fielding, whom he accused of desiring the complete failure of the government ownership of Canada. He asserted that the legislation before the House had been freshened up for some time past and there was no good reason why it should not be dealt with at the present session.

Mr. O. Ferguson, Gloucester, who spoke briefly and adjourned the debate, argued that if the government was going to take over the railways they should be included in the list.

CANTEEN FUNDS TO BE OBJECT OF INVESTIGATION

Notice Given in House That Information on Various Canteens is Desired Monday.

Ottawa, Oct. 17.—Joseph Archambault, (Chambly and Vercheres), has given notice that he will inquire on Monday as to the amounts of the different canteen funds in the Dominion of Canada, and if there was any money left over, and if that money will be returned to the different regiments.

Archambault also desires to know if the government of Canada was assessed for the payment of damages arising from the riots at Kimmel and Widley camps. He stated that what was assessed, if that assessment was made, Mr. Archambault asks what the amount was; if money was deducted from the pay of rioters to meet that assessment, and if all soldiers affected were not mulcted for these payments.

TRIAL OF LONG RESUMED FRIDAY AT MONTPELIER

Husband of Slain Woman on the Stand Most of Day—Trial Will Continue Two Weeks.

Montpelier, Vt., Oct. 17.—Cross-examination of Harry E. Broadwell occupied most of today's session of the trial of George A. Long for the murder of Mrs. Broadwell at Barre last May. Broadwell reiterated his direct testimony that he was away from his home until 2:30 a.m. on the night of his wife's disappearance, and that he walked about the city for several hours after his return searching for her.

Comments for the defence asked many questions about incidents in Broadwell's life not directly connected with the murder. They intimated that they were seeking to attack his credibility as a witness. Broadwell asserted lack of recollection as to many of these incidents.

Asked regarding an occasion when Mrs. Broadwell was cut with a razor, he denied that he had attacked her. He said he was in another part of the house, and when he entered her room he found that she had cut herself.

Minor witnesses took up the rest of the session, corroborating Broadwell's testimony as to his whereabouts on the night of the murder.

No testimony directly connecting Long with the murder has yet been introduced. It was estimated last night that the trial would continue for fully two weeks longer.

CONFERENCE FAILS TO REACH AN AGREEMENT

The Threatened Strike of Nearly Half Million Bituminous Coal Miners Not Yet Averted.

DISPUTANTS WILL MEET AGAIN TUES.

Strike Set for Nov. 1st Must be Called Off Before Operators Will Deal With the Unions.

Washington, Oct. 17.—Falling after an all-day conference, to avert a strike of nearly half a million bituminous coal miners called for the very eve of winter, Secretary of Labor Wilson tonight invited miners and operators to send their full scale committees to Washington next Tuesday when another effort to bring about peace in the industry will be made.

Both sides accepted the invitation. This did not offer any great hope, however, for representatives of the operators stood firm in their determination not to negotiate any demand for a six-hour day, and not to deal with the unions unless the strike, set for November 1, was called off.

John L. Lewis, acting President of the United Mine Workers of America, whose word probably will swing the unions one way or the other, showed that he was laboring under a terrible strain when he left the three-cornered meeting. Speaking to a group of reporters he said he had told Secretary Wilson that the 32 members of his wage scale committee would be here Tuesday to meet an equal number from the other side, but that it would be useless to reconvene the joint interstate wage conference "unless the operators changed their stonewall attitude" and indicated a willingness to frame another agreement.

Thomas T. Brewster, chairman of the commercial operators' committee of Illinois, Indiana, Ohio and West Virginia, after sitting through the day at a table with Secretary Wilson and Mr. Lewis, hurried away from the Secretary's office and later he sent word to Mr. Wilson that his scale committee would be handled at the joint conference tomorrow.

JAP WORKMEN OBJECT TO THEIR DELEGATION

Demonstrations Made by Large Number When the Delegation Sailed for Labor Conference at Washington.

Yokohama, Friday, Oct. 10.—(By The Associated Press.)—An adverse demonstration by Japanese workmen accompanied the sailing of the Japanese delegation to the Labor Conference at Washington. When the Fushimi Maru sailed for Seattle, with the delegation a large crowd of workmen was assembled on the pier, dressed in mourning in protest over the method of selecting Ueki Masamoto, the member of the delegation who is supposed particularly to represent labor. The workmen have claimed government interference in the choice, declaring the convention that selected M. Masamoto was packed in the government interest.

A force of one thousand policemen maintained order while the steamer was leaving.

BERLIN ALARMED AT THE COSTS OF OCCUPATION

The Entente Armies of Occupation Have Entailed An Expense of Nearly 3,000,000,000 Marks.

Berlin, Wednesday, Oct. 15.—(By The A. P.)—Indignation was expressed today by members of the National Assembly when the nation-treasurer announced the cost of maintaining the Entente armies of occupation and various control commissions would be from 2,500,000,000 to 3,000,000,000 marks annually. The minister added that the drain on the national finances would eventually react on the "Entente," and expressed the hope that the size of the occupying armies would be gradually reduced.

FORGETFULNESS COST OTTAWA MAN IN VICINITY OF $600

Ottawa, Oct. 17.—For failing to make returns as to his income James A. Macdonald, a local theatre manager, was fined $600 and costs in the city police court this morning. He was charged under the order-in-council of 1917 relating to income tax.

League of Nations May Award Turk Mandate To Italy

Constantinople, Oct. 17.—(By The Associated Press.)—The possibility that Italy may be candidate for the mandate over Turkey under the League of Nations is being considered in political circles here, particularly in view of the great efforts that Italians are making to establish themselves in a banking and commercial way in Turkey. Discussion of the subject is based largely upon the supposed suitability of the Italians to live in the Turkish climate and the need which the Italians have for an outlet for their enterprises and for a "place in the sun."

'LONGSHOREMEN STRIKE STILL TIES UP TRAFFIC

Thirty-Eight Big Cargo Ships Are Lying Idle and Leaders Claim Men Are Not Returning to Work.

New York, Oct. 17.—Despite the vote of some of the local unions to return to work, the Longshoremen's strike continues virtually to tie up the port of New York. At the office of the United States Railroad Administration today, it was said many applications were being received from western merchants in regard to the shipping business.

Officials of the International Mercantile Marine said that thirty-eight big cargo ships were lying idle and that, despite the union leaders' claims, none of the strikers had returned to work.

The United States Railroad Administration today announced that the embargo against trans-Atlantic shipping through this port is still in force, and that it would be lifted until a settlement of the harbor strike was nearer an actual fact. The rising of the embargo last week constituted the Marine said that thirty-eight big cargo ships were lying idle and unable to unload or load. The United Fruit Company has been able to unload ships under police protection, and it has followed for years, it was announced at the company's office.

The United States Railroad Administration tonight notified the National Adjustment Committee, that it approved its award on the standard of wages for dock work on coastwise lines under Federal control and would abide by it.

CLERKS REMOVE THE MAILS FROM S.S. ADRIATIC

Because of the 'Longshoremen's Strike the Clerical Force Was Pressed Into Service at New York.

New York, Oct. 17.—Because of the longshoremen's strike every available clerk in the offices of the International Mercantile Marine was used today to take mail and baggage off the steamship Adriatic. The liner arrived from Southampton and Cherbourg with 2,138 passengers, mostly Canadians and Americans, who had been delayed in leaving England by strikes. While many longshoremen have voted to discontinue their unauthorized strike, many thousands are still on strike and the shipping congestion remains severe.

ST. JOHN MAN FALLS THROUGH RAILROAD BRIDGE

Special to The Standard.

Moncton, Oct. 17.—Geo. McDonald of St. John, and Charles Gould, employees of the Dominion Construction Co., while working at track laying just west of Moncton tonight, fell through a bridge about twenty feet high, both men being badly shaken up. McDonald was severely injured, being badly cut about the face and head but his condition is not considered dangerous. Both men were brought to the hospital.

FOUR MACHINES ENTERED IN FLIGHT FROM ENGLAND TO AUSTRALIA DESPITE ENORMOUS DIFFICULTIES FACING FLIERS

London, Oct. 17.—Despite the enormous difficulties of the flight from England to Australia, four machines have entered in the competition, for which the Australian government has offered a prize of $50,000. The competitors are Captain Matthews, who has announced that he will make a start on Monday, with a Sopwith aeroplane similar to that used by Hawker in his attempt to fly across the Atlantic; Captain Howell, with a Martinsyde machine; Lt. Douglas, with an Alliance machine, which it is claimed is capable of flying 3,000 miles and which is equipped with a powerful wireless; and Captain Wilkins, with a Blackburn machine, the largest of all. The Australian government is despatching a wireless steamer to patrol and pick up the wireless from the airmen during the flight.

MANDATE OVER GIBRALTAR IS SOME QUESTION

Morganthau, Recently Returned from a Seven Months' Trip Abroad, Discusses Situation.

JOINT CONTROL BY ENGLAND AND U. S.

Says Leading Statesmen of England Look Upon Such An Alliance as An Essential One.

New York, Oct. 17.—A suggestion that Great Britain share the control of Gibraltar with the United States was made by Henry Morganthau, today, on his return from a seven months' trip abroad, primarily as chairman of a committee appointed by President Wilson to investigate problems in Poland.

Referring to his previous advocacy of the acceptance by the United States of a mandate for Constantinople, Armenia and Anatolia, Mr. Morganthau said:

"Our people will expect Great Britain to welcome us in the Mediterranean and the Near East, not as a rival or competitor, but as a full partner with all rights, privileges and responsibilities. I have thought deeply as to how Great Britain can demonstrate her willingness, and think the best way would be by her giving us an equal control of the Straits of Gibraltar."

Mr. Morganthau said he offered the suggestion on his own initiative without the knowledge of any governmental authorities. The idea did not occur to him, he said, until he was bound for New York on the Adriatic. Asked if he knew how English statesmen would feel toward such a suggestion, he said:

"I was told by leading English statesmen that they would be willing to accept almost any conditions for the United States to assume these mandates."

"The British are extremely anxious for us to take this mandate."

"The question is if we do so, whether we would have absolute safe ingress and egress to the Near East. The open door is needed at all times. Owing to certain propaganda here there seems to be a feeling of doubt among Americans as to what sort of treatment would be accorded them. A certain bridge is needed over which these people can get together. I think Americans would consider it the United States to assume co-operation by Great Britain if she would share with us one of her dearest possessions. If we invested hundreds of millions in the Near East, and put our feet in the Mediterranean we would want to have the absolute right to go there when we liked and as we liked."

Mr. Morganthau declined to reveal his conclusions as to Polish problems in advance of his official report. He expects to present that to Secretary Lansing tomorrow.

Referring again to the question of mandates, he said:

"If the United States does not rise to its responsibility we will be looked upon as shirkers."

He expressed confidence that the people at large would assume these responsibilities.

LAST WORD OF INVENTIVE GENIUS IN BIG DIRIGIBLES

Rome, Oct. 17.—Celeste Uselli, one of the pioneers of aviation in Italy, who has invented a new dirigible 350 yards long, and 50 yards wide, and provided with six motors of 500 horsepower each, with which he intends to fly from Rome to South America, stopping at Dakar, West Africa.

The dirigible, it is claimed by Signor Uselli, is capable of transporting a weight of twenty tons and can attain a speed of forty-five miles an hour with one motor, fifty-two miles an hour with two motors and seventy-two miles an hour with all six motors.

Using one motor, it is said, the dirigible can navigate for six days, and cover more than 5,000 miles.

Signor Uselli asserts that the dirigible is so constructed that it can float, but he is not certain that it can weather a storm at sea.

Signor Uselli expects it will take six days to fly from Rome to South America. He will make a trial flight in the early part of December.

FORGETFULNESS COST OTTAWA MAN IN VICINITY OF $600

Ottawa, Oct. 17.—For failing to make returns as to his income James A. Macdonald, a local theatre manager, was fined $600 and costs in the city police court this morning. He was charged under the order-in-council of 1917 relating to income tax.

Law Students' Opening Meeting

Twenty-Five Students Present in Equity Court Room Last Evening—Officers Elected and Other Business Transacted.

The opening meeting of the Law Students' Society was held in the Equity Court room, Pugsley building, Canterbury street, last night with some twenty or twenty-five students present. The attendance at the law school in a year is exceptionally large; the freshmen class being the largest in the history of the school and made up of men who have for the most part had college training. Judging from the tenor of the speeches of the evening and the amount of business transacted the Law Students' Society for the year promises to be a lively one. The possibility of debates with other colleges and universities was discussed, as the society has some excellent debating material.

The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: F. W. W. Bartlett, president; Cecil R. Mercereau, vice-president; P. N. McLaughlin, secretary-treasurer; Lionel H. S. Bent, associate editor of the King's College Record.

Considerable discussion followed as to the advisability of revising the constitution and by-laws of the society. It was moved by C. R. Mercereau, seconded by I. J. Goldberg, that a copy of the present constitution and by-laws be posted in the law library for the consideration of the students and that a committee be appointed to revise and amend the present constitution and by-laws and that such revisions be also posted in the library for one week and that these be considered at the following meeting of the society.

The president then appointed the following committee to draw up amendments and changes in the constitution: E. J. Chambers, C. R. Mercereau and E. C. Rice.

Moved by E. J. Chambers, seconded by I. J. Goldberg, that the regular meeting of the society be held on each Wednesday night at 7.30.

The question of holding debates, most courts and mock trials was then brought and enthusiastically endorsed by the members. It was then decided to appoint a permanent literary and debating committee whose duties should be to arrange all debates and programmes for each evening. This committee was also given power to choose the subjects and name the members of the debating teams. The following committee was appointed: H. S. Murray, J. J. Dunn, E. C. Rice, H. M. Groom and S. R. Kelley.

From several remarks of the speakers during the evening it is evident that the students are anxious to enter the intercollegiate debating field this year, as they consider they have some good talent along that line—some of their members already having been on intercollegiate teams.

Vendetta Among Quebec Liberals

Ernest Lapointe Aims to Step Into Laurier's Shoes, and May Soon be Openly at War With Gouin—Would Unite Young Liberals and Nationalists.

"The appearance of Ernest Lapointe as a candidate in Quebec East, Sir Wilfrid Laurier's old constituency, raises a pretty situation in Quebec politics," said a gentleman from the ancient capital who was in the city yesterday. "Mr. Lapointe has resigned his seat in the House of Commons to oppose Armand Lavergne, who has been regarded as the white hope of the Nationalists. Mr. Lapointe is at present the recognized leader of what is known as the group of Young Liberals of Quebec. It is generally believed he aims to step into Laurier's shoes. He has made a name for himself in the House of Commons, and if, as reported, Lemieux retires he will be the outstanding figure among French-Canadians in Federal politics if he succeeds in capturing Laurier's old seat."

"At the Liberal Convention he crossed swords with Sir Lomer Gouin. It was Lapointe and his followers who in defiance of Sir Lomer imposed MacKenzie King upon the Liberal Party."

"Lapointe's idea in entering the fight in Quebec East is to eliminate Armand Lavergne as a leader of the Nationalists, and then he hopes to form an alliance between the Young Liberals and the Nationalists."

"The outcome will probably be a new orientation of Quebec politics. Gouin and his followers lean towards protection, while Lapointe and his Young Liberals are ardent free traders—in opposition at any rate. The manoeuvre of Lapointe, who is backed by that astute politician Jacques Bureau, of Three Rivers, has interesting possibilities. It may split the Liberal Party in Quebec in a way that may effectively dash the Liberal hopes of arriving at power at Ottawa for a good long time. But Lapointe having been the king-maker at the Liberal convention, Mr. King dare not interfere with a movement where personal ambition threatens division in his stronghold."

MARITIME BAPTISTS HOLDING 74TH ANNUAL CONVENTION WITH WOODSTOCK CHURCH

Bright Skies and Inviting Weather Greeted the Many Delegates Who Listened to Instructive Discourses on Opening Day.

Special to The Standard.

Woodstock, N. B., Oct. 17.—Blue skies, bright sunshine and beautifully variegated scenery greeted the delegates to the Seventy-fourth annual gathering of the Maritime Baptist Convention at the Maritime Province as they gathered in Woodstock this morning. About one hundred members were present at the opening service, with others arriving on every train.

The work began this morning with the session of the United Baptist Institute. Rev. A. J. Vincent conducted the devotional exercises, calling all preachers to be true to the fundamentals of Christian faith. The president, Rev. E. E. Daley, then called the institute to order. The nominating committee was appointed as follows:

Rev. F. H. Beals, Rev. David Price, Rev. W. B. Benson, Rev. Z. L. Pash, Rev. M. C. Higgins.

Rev. David Hutchinson, D. S., of St. John, read a paper on "After-War Preaching," and showed the dependence of practically all philanthropic work on the Church for leadership and for funds, and defended the Church from the attack of hostile critics. The Church must, however, he said, take note of her critics. After-war preaching must emphasize the fact of human sin and of Divine forgiveness. The need of the new birth must be preached. Man needs now as before the will to be reconciled to God. Man still needs to be redeemed from the power and guilt of sin, he said. Men have no spiritual needs which the Gospel of God's grace can not meet, and the man who preached the Gospel of God's grace fully before the war needs to make no change in the substance of his message. This Gospel alone can save us from the perils of reconstruction now before us.

Rev. A. L. Fiddlestone, Halifax, dealt with "The Development of Religious Thought." He asked what is our thought of religious experience. Putting religious experience through our thought box gives us our religious philosophy. The process is revealed in the history of the Theory of the Atonement. Truth is eternal, but theological systems have their day and cease to be. The method of science sharply challenges the method of authority. The young men of today demand that we look the facts of life in the face. The method of authority cannot stand this test. Many good men are outside the Church because they cannot accept the dogma of tradition. The business of the Church, he said, is to be a dynamic sending out her power into political, industrial and social life. What is to be our attitude to our changed situation? Shall it be ultra conservatism? This is impossible. Shall it be ultra radicalism? This will fail, because it throws away the gold of the old and offers only rationalism. There is the golden mean which saves the gold of the old for use in accord with the new method.

Continuing the work of the Baptist institute this afternoon, Rev. W. B. Benson delivered his devotional address, speaking on Paul's Gospel.

Rev. F. E. Bishop read a paper on the Baptist position in relation to present conditions. He said that the Baptist position declares, fundamentally, that religion is spiritual matter and provides for the supremacy of the soul. Christ teaches the right and capacity of the soul to approach God directly. He said that intolerance is hateful to the lover of religious freedom.

OPPOSITION CONVENTION

Attention is directed to the announcement appearing elsewhere in this paper touching the Opposition Convention to be held in St. John on November 6th. It will be noted from this that a change of very great importance in the make-up of that convention is made and one which will prove of interest to electors in every part of the Province.

The Key Note

of a man's attire is his necktie. The eye seems instinctively to fasten on the little spot of color shown by the high cut vest.

A becoming tie adds materially to the effect of a stylish suit. Many men study this and have an ample variety of handsome cravats.

Ours for Fall comprise the newest and most attractive patterns. There's a large assortment and early selections would be very prudent as materials are getting scarcer and dearer.

So then—
My part is ended. Other men,
And women, too, still play their part,
With courage resolute and dauntless heart.

My broken comrade—
Scared by scars that time can not efface,
Is not the jest of fortune; for his aid
A nation's mighty forces doth provide.

And those who live—
To carry on our story down the years,
Face not their "quiet days" in bitter pain;
(Forgotten, now they've stilled the nation's fears,
Dwarfed by the lust of pride and selfish gain.

My Canada—
Thou fair land for whom great love
Inspired my youth to ancient sacrifice;
Grant that our serried ranks in realms above
May witness bear thee, worthy of the Price.

To Pay Debts of Honour

To the Dead and to the richness of their dying, we must give pause, and in humility confess a debt beyond redemption.

Before the altar of their sacrifice, Canada is consecrated to make its dominion worthy. The Torch that illumines Victory so dearly bought, must burn eternally. Each year of peace must record an added lustre to our heritage.

But to those who have come back in suffering, Canada owes a debt which money can, in part, repay.

It is a Debt of Honour. Canada was pledged to the end, that the wounded and the sick be adequately cared for, until they were fairly fitted for the competitive existence of civil life.

For this purpose, our medical services, and our vocational training schools must be maintained until the need for them is no more.

These, then, are some of the purposes for which the Victory Loan 1919 is being raised. Other purposes are told about in other announcements.

As you read them, the conviction will grow upon you of the absolute necessity for the

Victory Loan 1919

Issued by Canada's Victory Loan Committee in co-operation with the Minister of Finance of the Dominion of Canada.

Money was subscribed to many well known funds and eight rooms at the Star and Gordon Hospital were equipped, one of them being endowed in perpetuity. In all $100,000 has been raised for war relief since 1914.

The Key Note

of a man's attire is his necktie. The eye seems instinctively to fasten on the little spot of color shown by the high cut vest.

A becoming tie adds materially to the effect of a stylish suit. Many men study this and have an ample variety of handsome cravats.

Ours for Fall comprise the newest and most attractive patterns. There's a large assortment and early selections would be very prudent as materials are getting scarcer and dearer.

Moonshine Game In The Dominion

Inland Revenue Authorities in Last Four Years Have Discovered 642 Cases of Illicit Distillery Operations—Ontario the Leading Offender.

Perhaps because it is noted for its sunshine, New Brunswick knows next to nothing of the art of moonshining, and the same is true of the sister provinces of Prince Edward Island, where the silver foxes flourish now and then. In the last four years the Inland Revenue authorities of the Dominion have discovered 642 cases of illicit distillery operation, and only four of these discoveries were in New Brunswick, and two in Prince Edward Island. Unfortunately for the law-abiding reputation of the Maritime Provinces, 24 cases of discoveries of illegal stills were reported in Nova Scotia, and there will be general sorrow over this falling from grace of an erring sister.

All Canada will learn with amazement that Ontario, the province which boasts the possession of all the civic virtues, is by long odds the leading offender in the moonshine game. In Ontario there were 179 cases of discoveries of illicit distilling operations, whereas wicked Quebec only had 85 cases. British Columbia was slightly ahead of Quebec in backsliding, having 88 cases reported. Alberta, the virgin prairie province, had 115 cases, Manitoba 78, and Saskatchewan 63.

More Farms - Good Times

How it Affects You

Among our returned soldiers there are thousands of practical farmers. Still other thousands are studying farming under Canada's supervision, by hiring out to farmers, and by taking courses in agricultural colleges. These men want to "go on the land," but they have no capital. So, through the medium of the Soldiers' Land Settlement Act, Canada says to them "If you are fully qualified to farm, I will lend you money to purchase land, stock and implements. You may pay it back within a stated time, and for the loan of it, I will charge you only a moderate rate of interest."

Canada makes this offer, not only because men who have fought deserve well of their country, but because it is of prime importance that more land should be cultivated.

The love of outdoor life and the resourcefulness of our soldier citizens are just the qualities to make them successful farmers, and upholders of the best Canadian tradition.

As evidence of the value of the Land Settlement Act, the following figures were available on August 15:--

Number of applications from soldiers.....	29,495
Number of applications investigated and approved (not all placed).....	22,281
Number of soldiers actually farming this year.....	9,043
Average amount of loan to each soldier.....	$2,960
Total amount of loans.....	$26,767,304
Average size of farm.....	160 acres
Total amount of homestead lands—that is, virgin soil placed under cultivation.....	1,000,000 acres

This million acres was divided among 3,768 soldiers, 160 acres each being the original allotment; but 2,512 soldiers availed themselves of the privilege open to all soldier-homesteaders to obtain an additional 160 acres, making their allotment 320 acres each.

In addition to a million acres of virgin soil already placed under cultivation, more than 6,000 other farms are now being worked, many of which would have been less productive if returned soldiers had not taken them over.

It is just as true to-day as it was before the war that big crops favorably marketed mean general prosperity for Canada.

The more wheat and farm products Canada grows and sells, the more money will be spread through all classes of the community. Not only the farmer, but the merchant, the manufacturer, the industrial wage earner and the professional man will benefit.

Here is where YOU come in.

$24,000,000 of the forthcoming Victory Loan will be used to make loans to soldier farmers.

By purchasing Victory Bonds you will help the soldier who is starting life anew on the farm as well as sharing in this national investment in farm development. You will not only get good interest on your money with the best security, but you will participate in the increased general prosperity which greater farm production brings.

Get ready to join in the promotion of greater national prosperity, therefore, by subscribing to the

CARLETON COUNTY.

There can be only one result in the Carleton-Victoria bye-election contest. Colonel Melville, who was nominated at the Unionist convention on Thursday evening and has announced himself as an independent Conservative, will lead the poll by a very large majority. Dissension in the ranks of the Liberal party destroys whatever hope of success that party might otherwise have entertained, and while it is evident that the Farmers' organization has been putting forth every effort, it is unable to retain the support of men of opposing political instincts. The United Farmers' Association as it exists in Carleton-Victoria is composed of seventy-five per cent. Liberals and twenty-five per cent. Conservatives. The latter, despite whatever lukewarm desire they may have for representation at Ottawa by one of their own number, will rally to the support of Colonel Melville, who has deservedly commands the esteem of every resident of the united counties. The Liberal element among the Farmers will split, not very seriously perhaps, but sufficiently to weaken Mr. Caldwell's chances. Mr. Copp and Mr. Tweeddale, who were successful in calling off the Liberal convention announced for Thursday afternoon at Andover, found on stating up the situation that certain defeat would follow the nomination of a straight Liberal candidate. They urged in certain districts that the support of the Liberal voters be given to Mr. Caldwell, but that suggestion received very slight encouragement from those whom they met. Indeed from some quarters, especially among business men, the complaint was put forward by Liberals that the farmers in Carleton County are getting both ends and the middle and that rather than encourage the Farmers' organization by supporting Mr. Caldwell these Liberals would cast their ballots for Mrs. Adney. Thus even the cracking of the whip over the heads of those who desire the nomination of a straight Liberal on the ticket has failed to force them into line as Mr. Copp desired and has left a party divided against itself, a condition rendering hopeless the cases of both Mr. Caldwell and Mrs. Adney.

Colonel Melville is about fifty years of age and has been a life-long resident of Carleton County. He is a former resident of Finesville and previous to the war was engaged in business in addition to his agricultural pursuits. A very few days after the declaration of the war he obtained permission to organize the First Canadian Engineers. This corps was largely recruited in his own county and went overseas soon after organization. Colonel Melville has been an active militia man for years, a student of military affairs, and in consequence of the knowledge and ability which he possessed, won speedy recognition in France. After two and a half years of service on the firing line, during which time he held several very responsible posts he was returned to Canada and placed in charge of the Engineers' Training School at St. John's, Quebec. There he remained until relieved of duty a couple of months ago. He is very popular, not only among returned soldiers who know of his work overseas, but among all classes of people who recognize his capacity for hard work, who appreciate his personality and who look upon him as a worthy party leader qualified to uphold their interests at Ottawa. A striking phase of the situation is that Victoria County, which has been regarded as strongly Liberal in its sentiments, has apparently turned completely around and will accord to Colonel Melville as a Conservative candidate most enthusiastic support.

SAVING LABOR.

The Literary Digest for this week has been printed from plates made by photo engravers direct from typewritten manuscript. Necessity, created by the printers' strike, compelled the adoption of this method, but in view of the success which the Digest has met with this issue, scores of publishers all over the country are taking steps to investigate the feasibility of the plan for general service. What the Digest has done, other magazines can do, and while the cost of engraving runs up very rapidly, it is indicated that the saving which can be effected by this method, over machine composition, promises to reduce very greatly the cost of magazine publication. There is just a possibility that the ill-advised action of New York printers who quit work through no cause whatever and contrary to the orders of their International and Local Unions, may eventually lead to the elimination of a great part of the type-setting formerly considered necessary in any important printing office.

Despite the very great development which the last century has witnessed in the printing business, this industry is still complicated and cumbersome. Machinery has been brought to a really marvellous stage of efficiency, production has been doubled many times, and in view of these and other advances it is surprising that no reduction has been effected in the number of processes through which an article must pass before it reaches the reader. The first printers spelled out their thoughts with individual type and printed directly from that type. Today the writer prepares a manuscript which is copied by the operator of a type-setting machine. The product of this machine is used merely as a pattern from which an impression is taken and from that impression a plate is cast for use in the printing press. Processes have been multiplied to increase production, but they have involved added expenditures, until the operating costs of a printing plant today are out of all proportion to the real value of the work done.

Possibly the Literary Digest's experiment of bridging at one jump the gap between the typewritten manuscript and the engraved plates may ultimately result in simplifying methods to such an extent that much of the ordinary printing house equipment can go to the junk heap.

HIGH SCHOOL ATHLETICS.

High School boys who are endeavoring to keep alive interest in the game of football are working under great difficulties. There are no grounds in the city to which an admission fee may be charged, and indeed the only playing field available is the Shamrock Grounds, which after a light rainfall, is covered with water. Under the conditions now prevailing the boys are themselves compelled to shoulder the financial burden in addition to providing the sport, and now the High School Athletic Club treasury possess about thirty dollars. This appears to be all the money in sight for carrying on the game during the autumn and early winter. The boys are thus required to provide from their own resources not only the necessary equipment for play and for marking the grounds, but their expenses on trips to Fredericton and Robeson. In other seasons an excellent field to which admission might be charged was available and the comparatively small amount thus collected helped to meet expenses. But this year the funds must come out of the pockets of the lads who play. This means that, allowing for a total expenditure of approximately one hundred and twenty-five dollars for the season's play, each boy on the team must pay about five dollars in cash besides providing himself with a uniform.

The High School Athletic Club provides recreation during the year for fully one hundred boys, and it has been suggested that in view of the graduates might take a deeper interest in the organization. The Alumnae responded very generously to the call for funds for a memorial scholarship, and a similar endowment would give the Club an annual income sufficient to relieve of the burden those boys who should not be asked to play and pay as well. Financial assistance from outside would encourage these lads in their efforts to keep amateur sport alive, relieve them of the difficulties and discouragements they now meet, and yet maintain the athletic standard of the St. John High School on an equality with its academic record.

THE OPPOSITION CONVENTION.

The Committee in charge of arrangements for the opposition convention to be held in St. John on November sixth, urges upon electors of all parishes and wards the advisability of extending the most generous consideration to women voters and of accorded them fair representation at this convention. For the first time in New Brunswick politics women voters will play an important part. Recognizing the value which their opinions will undoubtedly have in shaping the affairs of the party, opposition leaders have revised the qualifications of representation. These changes provide that each ward and parish shall elect three delegates, and the committee strongly advises, though does not actually specify, that at least one of the three shall be a woman.

WHAT THEY SAY

Law Unto Themselves.—Montgomery Advertiser.—Captain d'Annunzio and General von Gotha seem to be a law unto themselves.

Don't Jibe.—Nashville Banner.—The price of hogs has dropped from 72 to a hundred pounds to 15, but you needn't look for corroboration on the restaurant price cards.

Chance for Puns.—Tampa Tribune.—If the capital of the League of Nations is really moved to Belgium there will be many puns about calling resistant members upon the Brussels.

Barberians Admitted.—Wilmington Star.—We admit the barberians to our gates. We are not absurd. We shall continue to do so, because we consider it a good deed, if a nuisance. But the proverb is, "Crack the miscreant's fan, it is another matter."

A Cheerful Detail.—(N. Y. Herald.)—A naval battle off the city of Riga is the subject of the incidents that tend to enliven these piping days of peace.

Her Day, Too!—(N. Y. Herald.)—Spain took a prominent part in honoring Columbus this year. Why should she not, seeing that she paid the freight?

Got Caught.—Louisville Courier-Journal.—Last spring the editor of the Nation, after making a tour of Germany, rounded up at Paris and called his paper that the Bolshevists were sweetening Europe so fast, on their way to America, that he was frantic to get a boat home ahead of them. But they seem. Some of its devotees are lifting their hands to heaven in horror at the possibility of a "parliament of groups." Why not?

Always Wrong.—Vancouver Daily Province.—When the House of Commerce took up the investigation of the milk market after prices there was protest from the interests concerned. An Ontario farm paper wanted to know why the commissioners did not attack the makers of boots and clothing. This is what the board is now doing, and we shall soon learn that they are prosecuting the innocent and sparing the oppressive hardware dealers. It is plain that this board must either be criticized for doing nothing or for anything it may do. In that case the commissioners may as well keep right on.

A New Significance.—(New York Tribune.)—It is not wise to blindfold one's self to realities. A man as William Z. Foster is able to command a considerable following has a meaning all his own. His recantation before the Senate committee was dismissed when it is known that about the same time he recanted he was writing to his friends that the revolutionary friends that he purposed to use were not so stupid as those who employed by other revolutionaries—that his plan was to capture the American Federation of Labor from the inside.

THE EDITOR'S MAIL

THE ST. STEPHEN ROAD.—The Editor of The Standard:—Some weeks ago there was published in your paper an article telling of a "streak of bumps and bumps" called trunk road between St. John and St. Stephen. I have heard several people refer to these remarks as exaggerated intimations that the condition of the road was more for political effect than actual fact, and suggesting that the road is not nearly as bad as those travelers made out. Since that article was published, Mr. C. J. Steeves, and party, of Penobscot, made a trip over the St. Stephen road, if it is fair to call it a road. Mr. Steeves informs me that this letter that the only trouble with the article in The Standard was that it did not tell the truth. He feels that it would be quite impossible for a man possessing only an ordinary command of the English language to fully express himself as to the state of that road. He says that the condition of the road was more for political effect than actual fact, and suggesting that the road is not nearly as bad as those travelers made out. Mr. Steeves informs me that this letter that the only trouble with the article in The Standard was that it did not tell the truth. He feels that it would be quite impossible for a man possessing only an ordinary command of the English language to fully express himself as to the state of that road. He says that the condition of the road was more for political effect than actual fact, and suggesting that the road is not nearly as bad as those travelers made out. Plans Arranged For The Coming Season

Reports Received and Officers Elected Yesterday at Annual Meeting of Ladies' Association of Natural History Society.

In the excellent sphagnum moss work done last year the members of the Ladies' Association of the Natural History Society with Mrs. W. H. Shaw as convenor learned to grade so expeditiously and continued at the work so faithfully that their last week's output had a total equal to the first month of grading.

This fact was stated at the annual meeting of the Ladies' Association of the Natural History Society held on Thursday afternoon in the N.H.S. on Union street. The report of the retiring secretary, Miss Winifred Colwell, showed that the lectures though late in starting on account of the "flu" were well attended and the receipts $137.74 in excess of last year.

The treasurer, Mrs. W. E. Raymond, reported receipts $177.78; expenditures, $68.70; balance on hand, $119.08. Miss Grace Leavitt audited this report.

In the president's report Mrs. John A. McAvity called the society "Our dear, modest, yet invincible Natural History Society," and spoke of the pride felt in the general council whose glory and attainment reverberate through all corners of the world.

Speaking of the Ladies' Association she said "Each year we strive to bring before the public some of the possibilities of our organization, so this year with our floors and cellars cleared of sphagnum moss which had its war glory and brought us new workers and renewed interests in our resources, we hope to take advantage of the opportunity to be useful in opening up the wealth, joy and happiness with which the society is well stocked.

The season's work will take the nature of a series of loan collections which added to the museum, specimens will be arranged in most attractive form, month by month as a social evening open to the members by presentation of their annual membership card, and to the public for the small sum of twenty-five cents an evening. Each evening will be in charge of three or four ladies, who will vie with each other in making their subject the most attractive. The following are the months and subjects as outlined at present:

November—Indian Life and Customs, Indian music and tableaux by the Junior Association.

December—Maglo and Religion, smulists talismans, leading up to the Christian tradition.

January—The Romance of British and Canadian coins and medals by Miss McLaren and Miss Jack.

February—Loyalist relics, household utensils, furniture, costumes, and tableaux by Loyalist Chapter, L. O. D. E.

March—Lavender and Old Lace, Silver and Crystal, Loan collection of lace, embroidery, old silver and glassware, quaint costumes and air of Cranford, by Miss Miriam Hatheway, Miss Ethel Jarvis and Mrs. T. N. Vincent.

April—Who is the Potter, pray, and who the Phil? The Story of Pottery, Loan collection, examples of produce of the famous potteries, historical china, by Mrs. William H. Shaw and others.

An excellent summary of the participation of the Ladies' Association in the year's activities of the Local Council of Women was given by Mrs. W. Edmund Raymond.

The election of officers resulted as follows:
Mrs. John A. McAvity, president.
Miss Grace Leavitt, first vice-president.

Mrs. W. H. Shaw, second vice-president.
Mrs. W. Edmund Raymond, third vice-president.

Mrs. James P. Robertson, fourth vice-president.
Mrs. W. F. Burditt, fifth vice-president.

Miss Grace Leavitt, treasurer, pro tem.

Executive—Mrs. Frank Ellis, Mrs. J. E. Secord, Mrs. G. P. Mathew, Mrs. J. V. Ellis, Mrs. John Sealy, Mrs. G. F. Smith, Mrs. William S. Neales, Miss Ethel Estey, Miss Alice Estey, Mrs. T. H. Estabrooks, Mrs. J. A. Coeter, Mrs. John H. Bullock, Mrs. William McIntosh, Mrs. H. Lawrence.

Delegates to the Local Council of Women—Mrs. J. A. McAvity, Mrs. J. E. Secord, Mrs. William McIntosh, Mrs. W. Edmund Raymond, Mrs. L. G. Chipman, Miss J. G. Sadler.

The resignation of Miss Winifred Colwell as secretary was accepted with deep regret and Mrs. Raymond, who declined re-election as treasurer, was thanked for her splendid services in this office.

FOR THOSE PESKY PIMPLES

There Are Handsome Complexions in Almost Every Village That Prove the Remarkable Value of Stuart's Calcium Wafer.

Nature decreed that every woman should have a clear, smooth, delicate skin. If it is blotched with pimples, blackheads and other such eruptions, it is simply an evidence that the skin lacks certain elements that promote and preserve skin health.

And the greatest of these is the wonderful calcium sulphate in Stuart's Calcium Wafer. Calcium is one of the natural constituents of the human body. Your skin requires it to be healthy. It invigorates the skin health, dries up the pimples, boils and blotches, enables healthy skin of fine texture to form and become clear, pinkish, and smooth.

Stop using creams, lotions, powders, and bleaches which merely give for the moment. Get a 50-cent box of Stuart's Calcium Wafer at any drug store today.

The 16th New Brunswick Battalion, which he took overseas to England. When the regiment was broken up he was given important military duties in England. A wide circle of friends wish the happy couple many hearty good wishes.

Ferris-Carvill.
An interesting wedding took place on Wednesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Carvill, 181 Victoria street, when their granddaughter, Miss Marion Carvill, was united in marriage to Arthur Ferris by Rev. G. D. Hudson. The bride was given away by her father, William Carvill, who was becomingly attired in a wedding gown of white lace, trimmed with satin, wore a veil of orange blossoms and carried a bouquet of roses. Miss Habel Currie, of Carter's Point, was bridesmaid, while Albert Cheseeman, of this city, supported the groom. Miss Marion Crossie played the wedding march. After the ceremony, a dainty supper was served and a very enjoyable evening spent in games and music. Many presents were received, including cut glass and silver. The out-of-town guests included the Messrs. Jeffreys, of Haverhill, Mass. Mr. and Mrs. Ferris will reside at 181 Victoria street.

Temperature Above Average.
"Showers are part of today's programme," said the Weather Man, "but they may not come until tonight" in Montreal and Toronto. Both the Yesterday's maximum was 76 degrees and both are well known in and the mean temperature ran even in St. John. Colonel Wedderburn raised degrees above the average.

BIFF!

Stop jolting Liver and Bowels with violent drugs, but take "Cascarets."

"Dynamiting" bile out of your system with calomel and other sickening purgatives is all wrong. Salts, Oils and Cathartic Waters act by flooding the bowels with the digestive juices which are vital to the stomach. Cascarets are different. They act as a tonic to the bowel muscles, which is the only sensible way to relieve a bilious attack, a sour, acid stomach, or constipated bowels. There is no griping or inconvenience. You naturally return to regularity and cheerfulness. Cascarets cost very little and they work while you sleep.

MARKET REPORTS

STOCKS, BONDS AND PRODUCE

MARKET REACTED SLIGHTLY FRIDAY

News Concerning Pres. Wilson's Condition Caused Slight Slump in Trade.

(McDougal & Cowans.)
New York, Oct. 17.—The market reacted only slightly in the early afternoon on the announcement of a new consultation of physicians in respect to President Wilson's condition, and the intimation that an operation was possibly under consideration. A number of specialties reacted to the downward movement, among them the Leather and Shoe Company stocks, which took their turn in going up in the last hour of the day. The market was generally quiet, with the price of the call money market, a considerable volume of loans being made at 8 per cent, and some money being offered at 6 per cent. Private advices received in the street favored the view that the industrial conference was really making progress toward agreement and the achievement of practical results, although the press reports of its proceedings did not seem to support this view. C. P. R. earnings week ending Oct. 14th, increase $505,000.

SPECIALTY POOLS DOMINATED THE STOCK MARKET

Deals in Stocks of That Description Frequently Overshadowed the Demand for Recognized Leaders.

New York, Oct. 17.—Trading in stocks today was dominated, to a greater extent than at any recent period, by the unrestricted operations of pools in specialties, particularly miscellaneous issues of comparatively obscure origin. Deals in stocks of that description frequently overshadowed the demand for recognized leaders. Some of the latter, notably steel, were inclined to react, but came forward in the general rally of the last hour. For the first time this week, money market advanced a tendency to relax. Call loans opened at yesterday's ruling rate of ten per cent, but dropped to six per cent, when a prominent local bank offered large sums at the latter figure. Time funds held firm at seven per cent bid, but so far as could be learned, no loans were made at that quotation even for the shorter dates, although commercial paper was freely purchased at 5 1/2 to 5 3/4 per cent. Included among the strong, but hitherto inactive specialties, were Johnson very strong, Sales, 1,331,400. C. P. R. earnings week ending Oct. 14th, increase $505,000.

(Issued by The Canada Life)

Absolutely guarantees the return at the end of twenty years of all annual deposits, with accumulated profits, after giving you insurance protection for twenty years.

Easily Understood:

- 1st. Deposits are made yearly. This is what you are saving, and at the end of 20 years the Canada Life guarantees the return of every dollar paid in.
- 2nd. Your life is insured from the day you make the first deposit,—for $5,000, or whatever amount you decide.
- 3rd. Dividends are paid at stated intervals in addition to the return of all deposits at the end of 20 years.
- 4th. These dividends may be used to reduce the amount of your yearly deposits, or be allowed to accumulate at interest for 20 years.
- 5th. The cash value of Policy and Dividends represents a valuable asset, useful in business, and your "estate" is protected by the insurance.
- 6th. At the end of Twenty Years you can draw out all you have paid in, along with the accrued dividends—

---OF---

you can draw a Special Cash Guarantee, together with the Accumulated Dividends, making a substantial sum, and leave the $5,000 Policy fully paid for and continuing to earn Dividends as long as you live—

---OF---

this Special Cash Guarantee may be applied to increase the amount of your policy to more than $7500.

An Immediate Estate
The great advantage over any other form of investment is that a small percentage paid yearly creates immediately an estate of $5,000, or more.

These active, progressive years of life in which you are earning the most money are the years in which premiums can be more easily met.

Drop Frezzone on a touchy corn, then lift that corn off with fingers

Doesn't hurt a bit! Drop a little Frezzone on an aching corn, instantly that corn stops hurting, then you lift it right out. Yes, magic! No ointment! A tiny bottle of Frezzone costs but a few cents at any drug store, but is sufficient to remove every hard corn, soft corn, or corn between the toes, and the calluses, without soreness or irritation.

Frezzone is the sensational discovery of a Cincinnati genius. It is wonderful.

Middle Aged Women

Women should take warning from such symptoms as heat flashes, shortness of breath, excessive nervousness, irritability, and the blues—which indicate the approach of the inevitable "Change" that comes to all women nearing middle age. We have published volumes of proof that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the greatest aid women can have during this trying period.

Fremont, O.—"I was passing through the critical period of life, being forty-six years of age and had all the symptoms incident to that change—heat flashes, nervousness, and was in a general run-down condition. I had lost my appetite and was unable to do my work. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was recommended to me as the best remedy for my condition, which is surely proved to be. I feel better and stronger in every way since taking it, and the annoying symptoms have disappeared. I am, I believe, well again."
Mrs. J. E. Pinkham, 121 Napoleon St., Fremont, Ohio.

Urbana, Ill.—"During Change of Life, in addition to the annoying symptoms I had an attack of grippe which lasted all winter and left me in a weakened condition. I felt at times that I would never be well again. I read of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and what it did for women passing through the Change of Life, so I took my doctor's advice and bought a bottle. I soon began to feel better and the annoying symptoms disappeared and my Vegetable Compound has made me a well strong woman. I can recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to all women suffering through the Change of Life."

Delightful Dance And Reunion

St. Andrew's Rink presented an animated scene last evening when the officers, N. C. O.'s, and men of the Third New Brunswick Regiment Canadian Garrison Artillery held a reunion and dance, the first since the signing of the victorious peace which so many of the members of the Regiment helped to win.

Entering the building, the guests were face to face with the Regimental colors on either side of which were large colored crests of the N. B. Regiment and the Royal Artillery with the dates 1793 and 1919. About the walls were military devices and national emblems making a fine effect. Several pieces of field artillery were placed to advantage.

Nine hundred or more guests were received by Lieut.-Colonel Beverley Armstrong and Mrs. Armstrong, Lieut. Colonel W. A. Harrison and Mrs. Harrison, Sergt. Major Ellis and Mrs. Ellis. A programme of sixteen dances with two supper extras, was carried out to the excellent music of the Great War Veterans' Band. Those who cared for cards found tables arranged for them at the end of the rink.

Supper was served by the Y. W. P. A., the tables being lighted with the Regimental silver and red geraniums. Silver candlesticks with scarlet shades added to the beauty of the color scheme.

The committee in charge of the dance and to whom much credit is due for a very successful affair, was as follows: Major W. H. Harrison, Lieut. Keltie Jones, Captain J. H. A. L. Fairweather, Captain Slader (Adjutant), Sergt. Lamb, Sergt. Lanyon, Regimental Sergt. Major L. G. Vincent, Corporal Morley, Quartermaster-Sergt. Flewelling.

The catering was done by the Young Women's Patriotic Association with the following committee: Miss Charlotte Dodge, convenor; Misses Rielton, McNeil, Margaret Henderson, Allen Nixon, Lois Colston, Winifred Upham and Adra Fawell.

It is the intention of members of the Regiment to have these social affairs annually and thus keep up the spirit of comradeship gained through many experiences at the front. A large percentage of the personnel of the Canadian Corps Heavy Artillery was made up from the Third N. B. Regiment C. G. A.

Terms of Races For America Cup

Royal Ulster Yacht Club Sends Challenge on Behalf of Sir Thomas Lipton.

New York, Oct. 17.—Conditions under which the Royal Ulster Yacht Club which recently challenged in behalf of Sir Thomas Lipton, to race for the America's Cup, were set forth in a cablegram made public Wednesday night by George Cormack, secretary of the New York Yacht Club. In part the cablegram reads:

"We challenge to sail a series of matches for the America's Cup with the yacht Shamrock IV against any one yacht built in the United States of America. First race to be sailed June 24, 1920; second race, Saturday, June 26; third race, Tuesday, June 29. Further races, if any, to be sailed on each following Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday."
The cablegram further says that the race shall be sailed according to the conditions made for races given in 1914 in which the Shamrock IV, was to have taken part. No decision in reference to the challenge has yet been made by members of the New York Yacht Club, but it is expected that it will be accepted.

"Stingey's one of those careful saving fellows, isn't he?"
"Yes. He puts the cork in the ink bottle between dips."
"What insect does the blacksmith manufacture?"
"What?"
"He makes the firefly."

Fred—Yes. She said she had no use for it.

These Are Values
Light Weight Economy, Fineness, Durability and Performance, Equalling Many of the Costliest
Essex Owners Admire

Exclude all the praise you have heard for the Essex. Then ride in it, and judge for yourself. The unflinching verdict of the ride, will content us.

We urge this with a reason. For many who inquire about the Essex expect to see a large car. They expect to hear a costly price.

That is because Essex owners and admirers, invariably compare its performance to certain large, high-priced cars, notable for qualities of speed, power, hill-climbing and durability.

Its Fine Car Endurance
You will make those same comparisons yourself, after a ride. For only among cars of advanced price range will you find qualities by which to describe the way the Essex performs.

Certainly no one would think of rating it with other lightweight automobiles. Its appearance instantly settles that. It stamps the Essex in a class alone. Yet, neither is the Essex a large car. Therefore it offers the advantages of economy and liveliness exclusive to light weight automobiles. But it is also a reliable car.

Habitual skeptics, who never buy a car in the first year of production, fearing development of faults, now buy the Essex. In ten months, individual cars have rolled up 10,000 and 12,000 miles without any repairs whatever and more than 16,000 are in service, with more than 100 being added daily.

Its Charm in Action
Judge the Essex exactly as you would any fine quality car.

Match its speed with any car. Try it on hills that only cars noted as supreme climbers ever attempt. Note its spacioussness, and the luxury of its interior fittings. Ask owners who have had their cars long enough to learn Essex endurance.

Surely you will then agree that the Essex establishes and occupies alone a distinctive new field.

Moderate Price and Performance of the Highest Order
Every sense of pride and satisfaction that comes with the possession of fine car quality, and performance that gives place to none, is yours with the Essex. All now know that no light car, and not many of the finer cars equal the Essex in construction, in performance or in durability.

The demand everywhere exceeds production, and it may be necessary to wait for delivery for either the five passenger touring, the new roadster, just out, or the Sedan. But it is better to wait a little while and get an Essex, than to accept a second choice car that you may afterwards regret.

Weekly Chat

Dear Girls and Boys—
On each rainy day and evening like to picture many of you with busy fingers making scrap books for the sick kiddies which I told you of in last week's chat.

As one time I thought of offering a reward for the best scrap book, but in thinking it over that would spoil it all, for this is to be a test of love and cheerfulness and not a means of gaining a reward. With each move the editors and each diabe of parts think kindly and with pity of the sick ones lying on beds of suffering and separated most of the time from those they love best. I am sure pleasant work such as book making will be a happy means of spending all the rainy days, for most of the little folks like the grey and dreary days and wander about from one part of the house to the other, saying "What can I do? There's no fun on rainy days," and so they don't help to make the atmosphere any more cheery for themselves or others. They think that because the season of the grey sky and drud, they are quite justified in carrying about a grey temper and a muddy disposition. When we do consider the season of the grey sky and drud, and mud are quite proper things after all, aren't they? and it might seem strange without them. But to balance these unfavorable and dull conditions, kiddies, we have such a huge pile of pleasant summer-time memories to cheer us up, we really can't afford to forget such good times too soon, and then come the many ambitious plans for the winter season. So how can you grumble at the fall weather when it is not all sunshine and how glad I will be if this suggestion for pleasant times on dreary days should answer the question of "What can I do?" Do you know that the most unhappy people in the world are the idle ones. Watch the squirrels when you have a chance, in the fall they are too busy to look side ways with the apples to gather in and their winter homes to build, they frisk about continually chattering and consulting each other instead of quarrelling as they did in the busy idle summer days. That ought to be proof enough of what I say in regard to idleness and unhappiness, so do watch the cunning little friends if you can and study their funny little ways and perhaps you can learn lots by their actions and sounds.

There should be a certain amount of sunshine in our lives every single day and if it is rainy outside we should smile all the more to prove the usefulness of our own hearts and positions. You may say to me, "Well, that's all right to feel bright and cheery but that does not give us something to do." So now we have discovered something which every one can do, from the very youngest up to the oldest members of our family, and I hope in this discovery you will not only get but also give a great deal of pleasure, so boys and girls make the prettiest scrap books you can and send them to me and thus help to brighten up the little hearts.

Just here let me remind you that little jokes, short verses or phrases mixed in with pictures would be lovely and especially the wee patients who were able to read would enjoy them very much. Indeed many of these you might find on our own Children's Corner and in your own books.

By today the prizes won in our recent contest should be with their rightful owners and of course you will let me know if they reach you in good order. Now that you are settling down for the winter's work, I am hoping to receive some contributions to our puzzle column, as well as any new stories, riddles or jokes you may have. It may seem more like your very own page, chums, when you add to its interest instead of sitting back and enjoying it without any contributions of efforts from the members. Hoping you can "hide a wee" for the new contest secret. With good thoughts for all.

Some Canadian Political Topics

Premier Borden's Work for Canada at Paris—Women's Influence in Politics—Federal Liberals' Repudiate Laurier's Railway Policy.

The Prime Minister at Paris. (Ottawa Journal.)

Further correspondence relative to Canada's status and representation at the Peace Conference, tabled in the Commons the other day, serves to emphasize the splendid fight waged by Sir Robert Borden for recognition of the Dominion in Paris. It shows that while the Prime Minister was being subjected to petty criticism at home, he was putting a fight for his country abroad for which history at least will give him high credit. He had to encounter the strongest kind of opposition, not alone from nations outside the British Empire, who did not comprehend its structure, but from forces inside the British Empire. The fact that he won, won all along the line, is a tribute to his persistency and strength, and no one need envy the heart and mentality of any Canadian whose slavery to parliamentarism compels him to withhold credit for such a fight.

The Women Voters. (Toronto Mail.)

The women may prove themselves Ontario's best electors. In some respects the feminine judgment is more trustworthy than the masculine judgment, and we are inclined to believe that in the marking of the ballot woman will show her peculiar good sense. Women, we believe, are more inclined to regard the suffrage as a trust than men are. They are more inclined than men to look upon public office rather as a responsibility than as a prize. Their vote is given less as a favor to the receiver than as a call to service. The woman votes the business up to the candidate and the man who is elected will in most cases be made to feel that his women supporters are keeping an eye on him.

The So-Called Liberals. (Ottawa Journal.)

During the next few days the country will have an opportunity of appraising the Liberalism of the present federal parliamentary Opposition at its true value. We have in mind the coming debate on the nationalization of the Grand Trunk. The Opposition was what it tries to make the country believe it is, to wit, a party of progressives and radicals, it would heartily support the Government's action. As it is, it is practically certain to revert itself in its true light, namely, a party of corporatists and counter-revolutionaries.

Quebec East. (Montreal Gazette.)

The contest in Quebec East for Sir Wilfrid Laurier's old seat in the House of Commons may be the most interesting of the bye-elections to be held on the 27th instant. Mr. Ernest Lapointe, now member for Kamouraska, has accepted the nomination of the Liberal party, in the expectation of saving the situation, which was imperilled by the number of aspirants for the candidature. Mr. Lapointe is an old member of the House of Commons but it was only in the late and present parliaments that he came forward in a notable way, and always as a right partisan. The expectation is that his opponent will be Mr. Armand Lavergne, and he may well be a serious one. Mr. Lavergne has not the intellectual force and vigor of his old friend and co-worker, Mr. Bourassa, whose strong voice is now muted and his quick pen unused. But Mr. Lavergne has an adaptability and a sense of humor that make up for some deficiencies, and as a candidate or representative stands above the average. He is a pronounced nationalist, using the word in the restricted sense that finds acceptance in this province, and he knows how to play upon the feelings of a community which feels, and has been made largely the fact that it is a minority. There is much buncombe in what he says of his opponents and his platform; but there is behind it factors which may make it effective.

Proportional Representation. (Ottawa Journal.)

As to the "Proportional representation" plank recently added to Mrs. Sears' platform and not mentioned in the Hearst platform, it may be pointed out that Mr. Hammett V. Hill, is a member of the Canadian Proportional Representation Society. When in England he attended several of the sessions of the Speaker's Committee which investigated the new method of voting and, as the result of his study of the question, has become an enthusiastic supporter of the movement in Canada. Proportional representation has a great many things to be said in its favor, but there are also some apparent disadvantages the full effect of which are not quite clear. The principle is being applied experimentally in some sections of the British Isles, and upon the result of those experiments, depends to some extent its adoption in Canada. Should these experiments be successful, the Hearst Government, which has proved fearless and progressive in the past, may be relied upon to move with the times. Mr. Hill's name will be a prominent supporter of the Hearst Government in the Legislature. In that position, he is not likely to be better able to help the cause which the Proportional Representationists have at heart than Mrs. Sears sitting in the Legislature with a party of one with no influential affiliations.

Women and Prohibition.

Women as a whole seem to favor prohibition. They know what a difference it has made to their happiness or to the happiness of other women, having the bars closed. They are not likely to forget that the Hearst Government dared to bring in prohibition at a time when it was vital to the war service of the province. Nor will they forget that the Premier is now keeping his pledge, that when the war was over and the soldiers were home again the whole question of the liquor legislation would be submitted to the people. If it is the people, and the party, who have the right to decide this point, which so vitally affects them.

In Agreement.

"Here's a critic that takes the view that Hamlet was mad."
"Well, I don't think he was any too well pleased myself."

Ends Stubborn Coughs in a Hurry

For real effectiveness, this old home-made remedy has no equal. Easily and cheaply prepared.

You'll never know how quickly a bad cough can be conquered, until you try this famous old home-made remedy. Anyone who has coughed all day and all night, will say that the immediate relief given is almost like magic. It takes but a moment to prepare and really there is nothing better for coughs.

Into a 16-oz. bottle, put 2½ ounces of Pinex (50 cents worth); then add plain granulated sugar syrup to make 10 ounces. Or you can use clarified molasses, honey, or corn syrup, instead of sugar syrup. Either way, this mixture saves about two-thirds of the money usually spent for cough preparations, and gives you a more positive, effective remedy. It keeps perfectly, and tastes pleasant—children like it.

You can feel this take hold instantly, soothing and healing the membranes in all the air passages. It promptly loosens a dry, tight cough, and soon you will notice the phlegm fly out and then disappear altogether. A day's use will usually break up an ordinary throat or chest cold, and it is also splendid for bronchitis, croup, hoarseness, and bronchial asthma.

Pinex is a most valuable concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, the most reliable remedy for throat and chest ailments.

To avoid disappointments, ask your druggist for 2½ ounces of Pinex, with directions and don't accept anything else. Guarantee to give absolute satisfaction or money refunded. The Pinex Co., Toronto, Ont.

A hearing in the case of Fletcher vs. Wetmore took place yesterday morning in Chambers, before Mr. Chief Justice McKeown. This is an action brought by Thomas Fletcher against George R. Wetmore, for alienating his wife's affections. Daniel action against a second man for alienating his wife's affection. His Honor is considering the application. G. H. V. Belyea for the plaintiff; Daniel Mulla for defendant.

Timber Market Quiet

Stocks of New Brunswick Spruce at Liverpool High—Shipments to Smaller Ports—Steady Demand for Pine Deals.

Barnworth and Jardine's Wood Circular, dated Liverpool, Oct. 1st, says: Imports were maintained at a satisfactory level, with fair quantities going into consumption. Stocks generally are increasing. The difficulty of berthing and discharging promptly has doubtless been the cause of diverting a number of wood cargoes, notably spruce, to outports, some considerable shipments are being landed at, under ordinary conditions, most unusual prices. The Foreign Exchange problem is another vital matter with which traders have to contend, and rates on balance show only slight improvement compared with the end of August.

Canadian Woods—Pine timber—The import to Liverpool and Manchester Canal amounted to 155,000 cubic feet, largely government account. Moderate quantities went into consumption from Manchester, but stocks are now heavy, amounting to 241,000 cubic feet, evenly distributed between Liverpool and the Canal. Waxy pine—Pine class. Arrivals heavy; fair quantities were absorbed by deliveries, but the general demand is intermittent; stocks are large. Second-class—Lift the call for this description, square pine, red pine—Seldom asked for; stocks bare. Oak—No arrivals, and the market is without supplies. Shipments of first class wood would meet with fair demand. Elm—No import or consumption; stocks are very light; fresh imports are wanted. Shipping space, however, is strictly limited. Pine deals—There was a plentiful supply during the month; fair quantities were accounted for by deliveries. Stocks are increased, but are not heavy.

New Brunswick and Nova Scotia Spruce and Pine Deals, etc.—The import to the Mersey and the Manchester Canal was a plentiful one, amounting to 12,850 standards, practically evenly distributed between the two ports. Most of this was on government account; deliveries were on the small side, totaling 3,410 standards. Stocks are high, viz. 22,200 standards. The position generally has undergone no change; buyers for the most part are not inclined to purchase more than they can promptly handle. Large arrivals, however, have been allocated to a number of ports, which, under normal conditions, only import small quantities. Pine deals—steady demand.

PROTESTANT ORPHANS' HOME EXTENSION

THE Protestant Orphans' Home, conducted under provincial charter since 1854, will shortly be in a position to accommodate between forty and eighty more little ones, including infants under three years of age. Martello Hotel, West St. John, is being renovated and furnished for this purpose. To carry out the initial cost of the work and to finance both the British street and West Side orphanages for the ensuing twelve-month, $15,000 will be required. This budget is based upon the care of eighty-five children as against forty-five at present. Therefore subscribers are respectfully requested to send their cheques to Treasurer H. C. Rankine, 212 Germain street, at an early date, with increased generosity if at all possible. The upkeep of the Protestant Orphans' Home is maintained almost entirely by the contributions of the people of New Brunswick and now with radical enlargements of facilities for caring for needy little ones assistance on a larger scale is asked of well-wishing friends.

This is the Original Protestant Orphans' Home that has been Mothering and Fathering hundreds of Children for 66 Years.

The Brunswick

ALL PHONOGRAPHS IN ONE

What Shape IS a Horn?

Made in Canada.

Did you ever hear of a horn or a megaphone that was square? Do you know why they never send water through a square pipe? Every phonograph or talking machine has a "horn," but they call them "amplifiers." They are really the megaphones of the machine. It is their duty to round out the tone and send it to the listeners.

Now what shape do you think this "horn" should be to give the best "tone"—and what do you think it should be made of—resonant, vibrating metal or wood—built on the violin principle?

Before you buy any phonograph, find out the shape of the horn and what it is made of.

One of the secrets of the Brunswick's wonderful tone on ALL records is the exclusive patented OVAL tone chamber and throat—built entirely of wood, like a fine violin.

It actually DOES eliminate all harshness, all the stridency, and that "tinny" timbre that we have always thought a necessary evil of the old style "Talking Machines."

All we ask is that you use your own ears—your own judgment—see this wonderful improvement with your own eyes—compare it with anything you like—at any price.

You cannot afford to make a mistake, and it costs you nothing to be sure.
