JAPAN ANGERED OVER EXCLUSION

(By The Associated Negro Press)
Washington, D.C., June—According to reports coming to government officials in this city from Tokio, many classes of Japanese citizens are angered by the American immigration bill, carrying the Japanese exclusion provisions, which has just been signed by President Coolidge.

They appreciate the spirit in which Mr. Coolidge handled the proposition, but are unable to see the justice of the stand of the American Congress or to sense the spirit of the American people, if Congress represented them truly, in its disposition of Japanese interests.

America is being pointed to as a land of avarice and money, whose citizens want to impose themselves and their ideas on the rest of the world without rhyme or reason, just because they are Americans, and with little or no concern for the feelings of other peoples. She is haughty, say the Japanese, and is riding to a fall.

A handbill scattered in Tokio, reads: "The world is for people of the world, not for whites alone, and still less Americans. Why are the colored races oppressed and driven out of fertile lands? Is the color white so superior as to justify the exclusion of thrifty, hard workers? We, the people of this land, have maintained our spotless national dignity thousands of years. We are not as wealthy as Americans, but we are as brave and as true and courageous. Justice and heaven are with us. We must resist haughtiness and arrogance, lest, once kneeling before America, she make 700,000,000 'Asians' driven cattle."

FIRST NEGRO APPOINTED

Ebenezer Don Carlos Bassett is said to have been the first Negro to receive an appointment from the United States Government. In 1839 he was appointed minister resident and consul general to Haiti.

Bassett was born of Indian and Mulatto parentage at Latchfield, Conn. in 1833, and died in Philadelphia, in 1908.

He was a student at Sale and the University of Pennsylvania, and from 1857 till 1869 was principal of a colored school in Philadelphia.

YOUNG NEGRO ORATOR CAPTIVATES COLUMBUS

(By The Associated Negro Press)
Columbus, Ohio, June—Prof. Chas. Satchell Morris, the famous young orator of the race, and one of the most noted speakers of the country of any race, color, or creed, occupied the pulpit of Shiloh Baptist Church last Sunday, and on Monday evening lectured to one of the largest assemblies of the race that has occurred in this city. On Sunday Prof. Morris gave an interesting talk on "The measure of man," which talk was masterfully delivered and enthusiastically received. Monday evening Prof. Morris was presented by His Honor James J. Thomas, Mayor of Columbus, who after expressing his pleasure at being present on such an auspicious occasion, proceeded to introduce the professor who at once proceeded to address his audience on "The Hour Has Struck." Unity of purpose was the keynote of Prof. Morris' address and in plain and forceful language he proceeded to give a few outlines of his various experiences while travelling through the country.

SAYS METHUSELAH'S AGE WAS FAKED

(By The Associated Negro Press)
Philadelphia, Pa., June—According to Dr. Howard Chiera, professor of Assyriology at the University of Pennsylvania, the Babylonians and Hebrews of ancient times faked the ages of their heroes to hide their ignorance of history. Dr. Chiera says that historians of that day knew that the world was much older than they had any definite knowledge of, and that to fill in the gaps of their information they were forced to make the

A MORNING PRAYER

Maker of days, another night is gone;
But ere I face the tasks that wait for me,
I pause a moment in the quiet dawn,
And lift my heart to Thee.

Thou art my Guide, upon Thine arm I lean;
Wherever I must journey, Lead Thou me;
Through deepest mire I know I shall come clean,
If I but follow Thee.

Enlarge my vision, Lord, that I may see
A way to help my brother in his need;
Deliver me from hate and bigotry,
From selfishness and greed.

Thou art my life; enfold me in Thy love,
That when the day's temptations I must meet,
I shall not want for strength to rise above
Dishonor and defeat.

Then Thou be near me through the livelong day,
That I may know whatever comes is best,
And when the sunset fades to twilight grey,
Bring me safe home to rest.

MADELINE HIGGINS.

lives of certain popular heroes stretch over vast periods of time. In this manner the lives of ten kings were made to stretch over 432,000 years. The same method, according to the professor, was used in determining or deciding on the ages of biblical heroes such as Methuselah.

A CHANCE FOR BUSINESS MEN

(By The Associated Negro Press)

Louisville, Kentucky, June—An interesting topic of conversation that came up more than once during the convention of the A.M.E. Church and the holding here of the famous Kentucky Derby, the two events bringing to the city thousands of additional seekers of food and shelter, was the necessity of Negro business men looking forward to such occasions and planning in a large way to take care of them.

It was noted that despite the genuineness of Louisville's hospitality and the earnest efforts made by her individual private citizenry to take care of the guests at the Conference and the Derby there was only one hotel to serve the needs of hundreds of visitors. This hotel, under the direction of J. J. Burns, a former Chicago real estate dealer, backed by some of the local business men, did all that capable management and an efficient staff could be expected to do, but it was impossible for it to meet the full need.

There was the constant assertion that not only Louisville, but other cities where large visiting delegations are apt to come, should look in some way toward the provision of adequate facilities for these transients, not only as the proper gesture toward visitors, but as sound business investment. The only thing that seems to have prevented the Walnut Hotel from making what is termed a grand clean-up is its size. Burns prepared it in a few months to do a remarkable business and made it stand out as one of the bright spots during the Conference days.

MILLER AND LYLE IN NEW SHOW

New York, June—Rehearsals began on May 30th for a new musical comedy by Miller and Lyle, that is to be presented in one of the smaller Oliver Morosco theatres, with June 11 set as the opening day. Louis Asquith is producing the piece and it is said to be one of the funniest books that the boys have written. Porter Grainger, Robert Ricketts and Joseph Trent collaborated on the music.

Shelton Brooks, Walter Richardson, Anna Reid, Ethel Finney, Eva Freeman and Long and Short make up the cast announced.

CONCERNING THE COLORED MEN AS RAILWAY EMPLOYEES.

Mr. Tommie Church, M.P., from Toronto has filed certain questionnaires in the House at Ottawa which are, to say the least, interesting to us Colored folk.

He asks if it is true that Negroes are brought over from the States and employed in the capacity of porters, waiters and cooks on the C.N.R. and C.P.R. railways. He asks why these positions are not given to the hundreds of returned white soldiers who are walking the streets unable to find employment. He further wants to know what the government intends to do about it, if it is all true.

To begin with we would advise Mr. Church to answer his own questions, as we are certain he is able to answer them satisfactorily to himself and to the general public. In the first place he knows the railways endeavour to render efficient service in all of their branches. Having had the advantage of much travel on the different roads of Canada Mr. Church will gladly testify with the great majority of the traveling public that the Colored men are among the most efficient, most courteous and polite employees of the railway companies.

Of the thousands and thousands of men employed by the Canadian Railways, about 200 are colored men—all of whom are employed as cooks, waiters and porters. Out of these two hundred colored men, about 20 are from the States, the remaining 180 being either Canadian born or British subjects, many of whom are returned soldiers. Furthermore, it is well known that only 2 per cent of the white waiters and cooks on the C.N.R. and the C.P.R. are either Canadian born or even British subjects. If it is simply a matter of filling these positions with returned men rather than a matter of color prejudice our government can recall from the States hundreds of colored war veterans who have gone there and have secured positions there. If it is an attempt to freeze out American citizens we would remind Mr. Church of the thousands of Canadian boys who have secured remunerative and even lucrative positions there.

Aside from a possible one or two letter carriers in a few of our larger cities the only places opened to colored men in Canadian Government employment, is a few, a very few positions as waiters, cooks and porters on the government owned roads. Who would be so narrow as to wish these few doors of opportunity to be closed to a race which is already so proscribed against that it can hardly eke out an existence?

We would like to remind Mr. Church of this fact, which he himself must be aware of, that in the section of Toronto known as The Loop, there dwell over 600 Negroes and still in this same section not more than 10 Negroes are employed on the real-roads. What would become of these families should the railroads discharge the colored men? Either they would become public charges or they would be compelled to leave Canada. We are wondering what that venerable Governor Simcoe, who extended such a cordial welcome to the Colored people—we are wondering what he would have said and what he would think now. Whatever were the motives that prompted Mr. Church's questionnaires it appears to us to savor of race prejudice. It seems to be an attempt on the part of a few unemployed white men whose opportunities are unlimited, to take a few positions from Colored men whose opportunities are most limited. Only recently we were informed by the government employment agency that one of the most pathetic features of his office was that he was unable to secure positions for strong, manly, colored youths even on farms, where they the willing and anxious to work. Said he: "Unless I can place them on the sewers of the city there is nothing I can do for them. No one seems to want them—not even the farmers."

It would seem therefore, that it is not only insubstantial upon our government to keep her few colored employees at work but also to see to it that their pay is equal to that of white employees engaged in the same capacity.

Letters to the Editor

To The Dawn of Tomorrow:

Dear Sir—In answer to your request re Co-operation I believe I was the first one to answer, in August, 1923. I still cling to my views, to start at the bottom of the ladder and climb up. I mentioned shoe shine parlors because Italians and Greeks have become rich at this work. I also mentioned the restaurant, because many men have become wealthy in the business (Childs for instance). The barber shops, once entirely in the colored man's hands, are now handled by the white man, and he has become rich. They were small beginnings but many a man has amassed a fortune from them.

I believe in the large numbers becoming interested, by contributing their money, then they feel that they are one of the enterprise and begin to be boosters and workers. The Italian rents a dilapidated store, buys a few bunches of bananas and a few dozen oranges and lemons. He places them all out in front and sits there until someone comes along and buys. He continues this for a few years until he gets enough money to return home a rich man.

The Jew, he starts out gathering rags, bones and iron in a bag. In a few years he is in the wholesale business or perhaps in real estate. How? By co-operation and persistency, by helping each other. Can we do that? Yes. Will we? That is the great question. I really think we want to do too many big things all at once. We are not willing to begin at the bottom, to lay a solid foundation and build up. Therefore let us select a business we can manage. Select our men to carry on. I don't believe it would be well for us to try to compete with Henry Ford in the automobile business or Massey Harris in the farm implements business. But we can start with something that will find a ready market. Madam Walker started with a hair grower and face bleach at the right time, advertised, found a market and became wealthy.

THAT FELLOW LOVETT

(By The Associated Negro Press)

One of the outstanding men of the city of Louisville, Ky., is named Lovett, is President of a Negro bank in the city. They tell of how during the recent Methodist Conference in that city Lovett stood one day talking on the corner with some friends when an unkempt and ordinary Negro came toward him bearing an armful of dirty bottles. The man with the bottles put them on the ground, and touching the bank president on the shoulder asked him to watch them while he did something else. While the man was gone, Lovett turned from those he was talking with enough to be able to keep his eyes on the dirty bottles. The owner of the bottles came back, picked them up, told the bank president he had done a good job and that he, the bottle owner, would do as much for the bank president some day, and left. It was purely a matter of course to Lovett. They say he is just like that, and that many of the people who come to his bank are just like the bottle man.

By co-operation we can do the same as others have. Now, as time nor space will permit me to say more, I would suggest that we meet some time near the middle of July in Hamilton, the most central point. That city used to be a great meeting point, and I believe it would be the best place now, with such men as Mr. G. Morton and Mr. R. Hammond and others there to boost it along.

Let us lay aside politics, fraternal societies and churches and come together as men with The Dawn of Tomorrow and of a new day, to start something worth while, and to carry it on to completion. Let it be a come together meeting, for the betterment of all the colored people of Canada.

Heretofore it has been: "Come to us and we will lead you". We will take the glory. We should choose a leader from our ranks who is a WORKER and not a big I.

I would also suggest, that as many as will, send $1.00 to the Dawn of Tomorrow to finance this affair in Hamilton, Brantford, London or St. Catharines.

General Items

Andrea Razaf, one of our younger writers has placed two numbers with a Broadway Publishing house that give promise of becoming very popular. One is "A Bobbed Haired Bandit Stole My Heart Away," and the other is "Moonlight on the Mississippi Blues." The former has been placed in several vaudeville acts already.

Harvey Baker, tenor, appeared at Imperial Hall, on May 26th, in a classic programme of sixteen numbers with Tourgee DeBose at the piano, under the management of the Donald Musical Bureau.

Col. Douglas C. McDougald of the U.S. Marine Corps took eight native Haitians to France to participate in the Olympic games. They are members of the constabulary of the island. The contests occur at Chalons and Rheims between June 7 and 29.

Jack Moonfixer hands us a nice bit of philosophy in the Los Angeles New Age Despatch. We shall profit by it, and pass it on to our readers. It reads: "To keep quiet under fire is one of the best signs of strength of character and self control." In another place he says "Greatness is not a matter of show, but of worthy achievement and strong character." That fellow deserves credit for his apt phrasing of some good advice.

Mother wit, without the knowledge of reading and writing, wont sign your name.

There are now three hundred and sixty-four national holidays in the U. S.A.

Although read by more race people than any other paper in Philadelphia, The Evening Bulletin, a white daily with a circulation of over 500,000, hires no colored help, and it made an unsuccessful attempt to prevent race drivers of teams that hauled the print paper.

DISRUPTS PARADE: BEATEN.

Chicago, Ill., June—More than 50,000 veterans of America's wars, joined the Memorial Day parade in this city in a sort of live defiance to the wave of pacifism now running rampant in some districts.

Outstanding features of the parade were the Chicago Defender Newsboys band under the direction of Major N. Clark Smith which followed the first division of Policemen, a handful of the wearers of the old blue, veterans of the "Remember the Maine" set to, now growing gray, the Pullman porters' band and chorus, Negro women war workers, and the famous Eighth Illinois infantry.

The soldiers of the last war were given the honor of ending the parade and long before they came many queries were out as to the whereabouts of the Eighth. White and Colored onlookers waited for the wearers of khaki in bronze.

Only one event marred an otherwise inspiring day. A yellow taxicab chauffeur sought to break through the line of march of company G. of the Eighth Infantry while it was on its way to the assembly point. When he was accosted by Lieutenant Albert Williams, he made an effort to drive away, but the officer hung on to the car and received a blow across the head for his trouble. Thereafter members of the company are reported to have beaten up the driver. He was taken to the hospital where hopes are held for his recovery.

WORKS WITH BROKEN NECK

Gaffney, S.C., June—George Nelson who broke his neck in a three story fall at the new high school in this city three weeks ago, returned to his work when discharged from the hospital on Wednesday.

United States Senator James Wharton Pepper, of Pennsylvania, is chairman of the committee that is raising funds for the Mercy Hospital, a colored institution in Philadelphia.

Mme. Prentz, the only woman, white or coloured to promote boxing shows, had her license revoked by the Pennsylvania Boxing Commission for failure to pay the boxers she had engaged.

Why struggle through next winter worrying every time the weather falls below zero? Why suffer the discomfort of a cold, chilly home?

Now is the time to go seriously into your warm air furnace problem. We are better situated to give you service at the present time. If you feel your present furnace should be overhauled, or are anxious to receive expert advice on your heating problem.

OWEN SOUND NOTES

Sunday May 25th was our Rally Day. We set a mark to raise $100 or more but through unforeseen circumstances we were not able to reach the mark but we are trusting in God for the amount we asked for. The total amount for the Rally Day was nearly $30 for which the Officials wish to thank all who contributed to the worthy cause.

June the 1st was a fine day here, the weather was ideal and Rev. E. A. Richardson preached both morning and evening to a fair congregation.

The Sunday School is making preparations for their anniversary day, the second Sunday in June under the supervision of Sister a Harrison and Brother T. Green and the Rev. E. A. Richardson.

Sister Clifford Johnson was elected as assistant Sunday School teacher to fill the vacant classes. She is a good worker in the Sunday School.

The stork visited Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Miller and left a fine baby girl. Both are doing well. This makes the 37th grandchild for Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Green of our city within 17 years.

COLLINGWOOD NOTES

Our General Superintendent, Rev. S. R. Drake was with us on Sunday, May 18th on his annual visit. We are always pleased to have a visit from him but are sorry his stay was so short.

He preached in the morning to quite a good congregation and at 4 o'clock to the men's league of which our Sunday School Supt. Mr. J. Thomas is a member. A large crowd greeted the Superintendent in the afternoon and are only waiting for his return here again.

A goodly crowd came out to hear the reverend gentleman again at the evening service, at which time the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper was administered.

The Senior Girls Social on Thursday evening the 16th was a splendid success. Come again girls.

Mrs. and Mrs. Fred. L. Bollen, of Portland, Oregon, but formerly of Collingwood, spent a few days enjoying old acquaintances. While here they were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. H. Duval. Their many friends were pleased to see them looking so well. They left on Monday morning for Hamilton and Canfield.

Mrs. Chas. Duval entertained on Friday evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Bollen. The evening was spent in music, games and dancing.

Mrs. C. Duval entertained Miss D. and Miss F. Sheffield on Tuesday evening at dinner. Covers were laid for 7.

Mrs. Donald Garbett is suffering with bronchitis and is confined to her bed.

We are sorry to learn that Miss Marguerite Sheffield has returned to the G and M. Hospital again. She is suffering from throat trouble and neuritis of the nerve of the eye.
