Mr. Gladstone Talked to Her Majesty the Queen.

Secretary Littleton Says the Premier Has Not Resigned.

The Lords Deal Further With the Parish Councils Bill-Dramatic Death of a Famous Singer.

The Lords.

London, Feb. 28.-In the House of Lords to-day the Parish Councils Bill, as amended by the House of Commons, was considered. On motion of Lord Salisbury the minimum of population making parish councils compulsory was altered from 200 to 300. The motion was passed by a majority of five. Several others of the amendments of the the House of Commons were agreed to.

Death Silenced the Singer. LONDON, Feb. 28.-Mme. Janet Monach Patey, the distinguished contralto singer, died at Sheffield to-day, aged 52 years. Mme. Patey was closing at Sheffield a tour of the provinces, and last night, after singing unusually well, was twice recalled and sang "The Banks of Allan Water." She had barely finished the song when she ex-

Further particulars show that while she was singing the last lines of "The Banks of Allan Water," she was suddenly seen to lean over the piano, and she finished the song in this position, the closing words being, "There a corpse lay she."

The physicians who examined the body of Mme. Patey have certified that her death was caused by paralysis of the brain, due to the excitement induced by the enthusiastic applause of her audience.

Mr. Gladstone's Intentions.

London, Feb. 28.—The Edinburgh Evening News emphasizes its assertions that Mr. Gladstone will retire, and says positively that the Earl of Rosebery will succeed him as Premier.

The St. James' Gazette says that already widely-published comments upon the statements made have diminished the weight of official denials, and the increasing reticence of his entourage in regard to the matter is an actual intimation of the possibility of Mr. Gladstone's withdrawal at any mo-

the opposite view. The Times declares Home Rule will be dropped no matter who may become the Liberal leader, and expresses the belief that neither Lord Rosebery nor Sir William Harcourt will be likely to take it up.

LONDON, Feb. 28. - The Queen left Buckingham Palace for Windsor about 5 o'clock this afternoon.

After Mr. Gladstone's return to Downing street the Associated Press correspondent called at his residence and was received by Mr. Littleton, the secretary. Mr. Littleton informed the correspondent that Mr. Gladstone had not resigned and that the situation remained unchanged.

The Associated Press correspondent then asked Mr. Littleton if the situation is at present exactly the same as when Sir Algernon West telegraphed from Biarritz, after the Pall Mall Gazette first started the report that Mr. Gladstone intended to resign. After some hesitation Mr. Littlejoin replied that the situation of affairs was the same as when the much-discussed Biarritz dispatch was sent.

Caught in the Act.

Paris, March 1.-The police arrested a man last night while in the act of placing a bomb in front of a house in the Rue Oberkempf. The prisoner made an air of bravado, and boasted he had a quantity of bombs at his lodgings.

That Canadian Present.

London, March 1 .- The Countess of Derby, wife of the former Governor-General of Canada, presented yesterday to the Duke and Duchess of York the wedding gift of the Canadian women. The gift consists of two fine horses and a sleigh. Sir Chas. Tupper, Canadian High Commissioner, was absent from the presentation ceremony on account of illness.

Blondin's Birthday.

London, March 1 .- blondin, the famous rope-walker, celebrated his 70th birthday vesterday, and a reception was tendered him in the Crystal Palace, his venerable wife and their five children sharing in the honors of the day. During the reception Blondin walked a tight rope, carrying one of his children, who tipped the beam at 150 pounds. He said that he expected to be still walking the rope when his 80th birth. day is reached.

The Irish Party Issue a Statement. LONDON, March 1 .- The following statement of the committee of the Irish party in Parliament was given out late last night. The purpose of the statement is to define the attitude of the party on the main Irish question, home rule, in the event of Mr. Gladstone's withdrawal from office:

"So much excitement has been created by rumors concerning the position of Mr. Gladstone that it may be well to point out that the Irish members remain calm because in their judgment there really is no mystery in the matter-no occasion for surprise or sensation.

"Everyone, especially every politician who is not blind to the manifest facts, must have been well aware for no inconsiderable time that the retirement of Mr. Gladstone from the office of Prime Minister, or at least some modification of his position resulting in lighter labors, if not in lighter responsibility, had to be kept in view as an event that could not be long deferred.

"The one wish among the Irish members is that Mr. Gladstone may continue in the post of supreme direction as long as he finds it possible to do so. They believe he will so continue until he finds himself unable further to persevere.

"But at his great age, with its burdens "No. Don't give it away, Shadbolt, but of infirmity, the time when he can no it's ny old chinchilla. I paid a barber nity longer discharge to his own sat affection the centso run his clippers over it."

arduous duties of the Premiership may suddenly arrive, and the fact that it may arrive without notice is what constitutes the peculiarity of the present situation. The Irish members believe no conclusive step has been taken, so the situation remains at this time substantially the same as it has been for some time past.

"The reconstruction of the Cabinet in its most vital part by a change in the Premiership would be an event affecting so materially the whole political position that the Irish members are confident (regard being had to the state of parliamentary and political forces and of the position of home rule as the foremost issue to be submitted at the next election) that no definitive, or at any rate irretrievable step, would be taken by Mr. Gladstone without an opportunity being given them to present the expression of their views."

An Imperial Defense Ministry.

London, March 1 .- All this morning's newspapers give prominence to a long letter, urging that the War and Admiralty Offices be combined in a Ministry of imperial defense, which shall command the services of responsibible members of the army and navy. This letter is signed by Sir Chas. Dilke, Lieut.-Gen. Sir Geo. Chesney, Hugh Arnold Foster and Chas. Spencer, all members of the House of Commons. Copies of it were sent to Mr. Gladstone, Lord Salisbury, the Duke of Devon-shire, Arthur J. Balfour and Joseph Chamberlain. Mr. Balfour, in a diplomatic reply to the letter, admits that the existing system is imperfect and that the reform seggested is likely to attract the consideration of the nation. Mr. Chamberlain says he is favorably inclined to the principle of

Crispi Creates a Sensation.

Rome, March 1 .- In the Chamber of Deputies yesterday Signor Crispi, the Prime Minister, explained the Government's reasons for proclaiming a state of seige in Sicily. Documents which came into possession of the authorities at Massa Di Carrara proved the existence of Socialist and Anarchist plans to reorganize and repeat their uprising on a scale approaching the proportions of a revolution. With this view foreign Anarchist leaders were flocking to Sicily. At a meeting of foreign and Italian Anarchists recently held in Marseilles it was resolved to foment an uprising among the peasants in Sicily. Promises were to be made to the peasantry to divide the lands among them. This outbreak was to occur during 1894, when, according to the representation of the conspirators, a foreign war would break out, Piedmont would be invaded and a Russian fleet would occupy Italian waters. These revelations having been discovered, the Government promptly seized all Anarchist property and documents to be found and proclaimed a state of seize. The statement of Premier Crispi, to-The Liberal papers insist that in the he mentioned, made a profound impression upon the Chamber.

dress. said: "In reviewing the work of the past year. am happy to inform you that great success has attended our efforts for the spread of Patron principles. At our last annual convention we were pleased to report an increase of 600 sub-associations to our list. It is now my pleasure to announce that 300 additional organizations have been formed during the past year, and, further, that a members than at any time during our past history. Not only has our order extended, but our influence has increased, until, at the present time, Patronism is recognized as an important factor in Canadian poli-

"The Grand Association, finding that our petitions in the interest of the masses received but scant courtesy at the hands of our legislators, outlined a system by which candidates should be placed in the field on The Matter to Come Up on the First the Patron platform in the several rural constituencies. Our people have responded nobly, and the greatest enthusiasm is manifest at the prospect of being able to enforce our demands on the floor of Parliament by a sufficient number of Patron representatives to hold the balance of power between the existing parties. We now find the press and representatives of both political parties claiming to stand upon our platform, and vieing with each other to be recognized as the Patrons' friends. "In view of the approaching general elections, and also of the fact that different interpretations have been given by the party press of the seventh clause of our platform, it may not be amiss that I should take this opportunity of giving what is generally accepted by Patrons of Industry as the proper system for the election of county officers, except judges. Patrons hold that all county officers paid by the people should be elected by them. We consider that electors who have sufficient intelligence to choose from themselves the lawmakers of our land may safely be trusted to elect those whose duty it is to enforce those laws. It is said that by this we are introducing the American system, and, further, that thorough inspection must cease when officers become elective. In reply, we may say that the election of county officers does not necessarily imply a change of officers every four years, as prevails in some of the American States, nor does it necessarily follow that a general inspection shall cease. County officers may be elected for a period of time consistent with proficiency and good behavior, subject to clearly defined Governmental inspection. This system, we believe, will result in a more thorough inspection than where officers and inspectors are appointed by the same authority, and will remove the stigma which is too often repeated that officers receive appointments as a reward for party service. "Upon the fee system the Patrons have made no pronouncement, but in the interest of economy we contend that no greater sum should be retained by county officers than reasonable remuneration for services

"It will be observed that your grand board has not caused petitions to be circulated during the past year to either of the Parliaments asking consideration at their hands in the interest of the masses. The zerious consideration' with which our former petitions were greeted by both Governments has resulted in nothing practical in our interest, and the action of the Grand Association of last year led us to conclude that the time for petitions was past, and that it was necessary for the industrial and that the greatest number must be recognized by our legislators dispensing the of the muscles, eyelids and elsewhere, bash greatest good.

"It is gratifying to observe that monopolists and combinsters are beginning to tremble at the strength of an organization formed to do them battle. We are not a sist the wave of independent thought which is spreading over the land. Capital has always claimed the right to combine.

ALTERING AN UGLY VISAGE.

A Toronto Man Having His Face Made Over.

His Mouth Enlarged and the Nose Operated On-A Singular Feat in Surgery-The Man Was So Ugly That He Became Melancholy and Tried to End His Life.

Toronto, March 1 .- On Nov. 25 last a young man of 24, named Wm. Foster, was admitted to the Toronto General Hospital suffering fron the effects of an unsuccessful attempt to end his life with opium. Foster lived at 36 Division street, and his story is peculiar.

He was a man of unique and somewhat homely appearance. He had a very large nose, very wide and flat at the bridge, and having as unlovely, tapering end. His mouth was uncommonly small, and the conjunction of the two features produced such a peculiar effect that Foster, like Richard III., was not made to court the amorous looking-glass.

He grew so sensitive about his personal earthy existence and pass to the undiswear a fairer shape than that which enveloss our spirits in this life. Ater the young man was taken to the hospital his case was brought to the notice of Dr. James Thorburn, jun., a successful sugeon, who has the combined experience bon of study in England and Germany. D. Thorburn decided that the unique fatures which were such a grief to Foster could be rebuilt and molded to a more conuntional form. He first operated on the young man's nouth, and widened it by cutting into the sheeks at either corner. To produce a proper curve for the lengthened lips he made a few temporary stitches and looped up the delicate flesh until it was solidified in the proper position.

He next set to work on the nose, cutting flesh from the wide portion of it at the bridge and grafting it on the pinched and narrow apex. This portion of the operation is still in progress, but complete success is anticipated, and Foster will emerge from the hospital with a face entirely alterated for the better, in form and expression, and it is hoped will make no more attempts on his own life.

Dr. Thorburn, when interviewed on the matter, refused to talk about it. In his opinion it was a case for discussion solely among medical men.

A well-known medical authority said: "I am thoroughly of the pinion that the operation which Dr. Thorourn is said to have under way can be brought to a successful issue. Fifty years ago such an experiment would have been looked upon as preposterous, but in the light of modern surgical research it has become entirely possible. No man need be ugly nowadays.

THE W. C. T. U.

Regular Meeting Wednesday - Work Among the Lumbermen-A Prohibition Meeting.

On account of the meetings addressed by Drs. Gordon and Pierson, in the interests of mission work, the regular meeting of the W. C. T. U. was postponed till Wednesday, Feb. 28. Some 85 members were present. Mrs. Carson, corresponding secretary of the union, led in the devotional exercises and gave a profitable Bible reading. Two nominations were made and three new members were received. An interesting letter was read from the Provincial superintendent of "Work Among Lumbermen" telling of the good work being done by this missionary sent out by the Ontario W. C. T. U. among the lumbermen in the eastern part of the Province. Encouraging news has also recently been received of work done in the Lake Simcoe and Georgian Bay districts, one of our valuable members, Mrs. Sage, having removed from London to that vicinity. She is working heartily and with success, visiting some of the camps weekly. The need for good reading matter for distribution is very great and "comfort bags," which have been sent to many of the camps, are in great demand.

A communication was read from Mr. T. W. Casey, corresponding secretary of the London and Western Ontario Prohibition Union, inviting the co-operation of the W. C. T. U. at the first public meeting of the said association which is to be held in Somerset Hall on Friday evening, March 2, at 8 o'clock. ## A TERRIBLE TRAGEDY

At a New Jersey Farm House-Three

Killed-One Dying. NEW BRUNSWICK, N. J., March 1 .- Last night two negroes, named Thomas Baker and Wm. Thompson, entered the residence of Moore Baker, at Franklin Park, six miles west of here, for the purpose of robbery. Upon being discovered by Mrs. Baker, who was up with a sick child, the robbers killed both her and the child. Mr. Baker then sprang from the bed and shot both negroes dead. Mr. Baker was reported to have a large sum of money in the house. Mr. Baker is a well-known and wealthy farmer and a strong and robust man. He heard a noise in the house during the night. He got up from bed and started downstairs to investigate. The two negroes were upstairs, it appears, instead of down, and were armed, it is thought, with a knife and an axe. While Baker was downstairs they rushed into the room where the farmer had left his wife and child. The latter at once gave alarm, and the negroes sprang upon them and stabbed them both to death. Baker rushed up with his gun and shot the first negro he encountered dead. The other sprang upon Baker with his knife. and with one blow cut the farmer's nose off. The latter dropped the gun, secured the axe and chopped the negro's head almost completely open. He will die.

ton McCarthy. A Broken Rail.

Sing Sing, March 1 .- The through mail and express train on the New York Central and Hudson River Railroad was wrecked about two and a half miles below Sing Sing at 5:30 a.m. It was a heavy train with two engines. The first engine went into the river and is badly wrecked. The other engine, with two forward cars loaded with express matter, left the track and are badly damaged. No one was seriously injured. The cause of the accident is said to have been a broken rail.

The weather to-night will be dark in places.

The chair was occupied by Mr. Boke, and an interesting programme rendered, which afforded great satisfaction to those who listened to the renowned Sim Fax and others who kindly gave their assistance for the evening.

Among them were Misses Allen, Boke, Baines, Jeffery, Smith, Graham, Barter and

THERE WAS NO QUORUM.

Six Members Attend the Special Meet ing of the City Council Called to Act on Proposed License Reduction. When Mayor Essery returned home from the week and one day trip with the water commissioners, he straightway instructed City Clerk Kingston to call a special meeting of the council to act on the bylaw embodying the proposed license reduction. At 8 o'clock in the evening, the time called for the session, Mayor Essery mounted his chair and looked around him.

Before his eyes stood twelve empty leather upholstered chairs, while six other leather upholstered chairs were filled with aldermen. Outside the railing about a score of onlookers were gathered. The mayor looked at the chairs, then at the aldermen and then at the clock, while silence reigned supreme.

The aldermen present were J. W. Jones John Heaman, S. O'Meara, Wm. Heaman John Nutkins and M. Scarrow. Ald. Wm. Heaman was the first to break a hole in the silence. "It's a kind of slim meeting and it's very quiet," said he. Mayor Essery-Yes; I guess, gentlemen, there is no quorum.

Ald. J. W. Jones—It's a mutual admiration society.

Then Mr. Wm. Heaman began to tell the mayor how glad he was to see him back again, and the mayor said that he had come a long way to attend the meeting.

The gathering lapsed into silence again and waited for the members that did not come. When the long hand of the clock had moved on its course to the extent of five minutes the mayor said "Well, I declare; no quorum," and retired, while five of the six aldermen present went to attend the meeting of No. 3 committee, of which they were members.

Persons who sew a great deal often suffer from soreness of the thimble finger. Silver or plated thimbles are the best and next to these a lightly burnished steel thimble should be used. Swelling of the finger and very serious inflammation are often caused by cheap thimbles.

THE manufacture of brick from blast furnace slag has recently been commenced in Germany. One set of furnaces alone turned out over 5,000,000 bricks last year. The bricks are weak at first and have to be handled carefully, but they become sufficiently strong for building purposes after the lapse of six months.

As TO THE speed with which the migration flights of birds are accomplished. Canon Tristram, in the British Association, quoted Herr Gatke as maintaining that godwits and plovers can fly at the rate of 240 miles an hour. Dr. Jerdon had stated that the spine-tailed swift, roosting in Ceylon, would reach the Himalayas, 1,000 miles, before sunset. In their ordinary flight the swift was the only bird the author ever knew to outstrip an express train on the Great Northern Railway.

REV. GEORGE GLENN, of Hughesville, Pa., has earned the title of "Fighting Parson." One night recently two young men, much the worse for liquor, insulted the minister as he walked along the street. He gently chided them, when one seized a buggy whip and struck Mr. Glenn a blow, cutting a gash on his cheek. In an instant the ministerial coat was off and in less than three minutes both young men were lying in the street. Rev. Mr. Glenn then repaired to the office of a magistrate and swore out warrants for their arrest.

According to the Paris Gaulois Mr. Gladstone is a relative of Queen Victoria. Here is the pedigree: John of Beaufort, legitimate son of John of Gaunt, "time honored Lancaster," was the progenitor of two great Scotch lines of dukes-Sutherland and Athol. On the other money-savers we are to you. generations back of Anne Mackenzie, grandmother of Mr Gladstone.

THE caprice of the moment in Paris is Chinese soup. In this sharks' fins are the chief ingredient. Only the high class grocers have them, and put up as they are, beaded on pink wool, in little glass boxes. they look at first glance like some goodie from the confectioner's. Another dish seen now at fashionable dinners in the French capital is young roast peacock, served with truffles, and the most affected ice for the same feasts is flavored with hazel nuts and called "Bombe Avelane"a souvenir of the recently visiting Russians, who, though lost to sight, are still evidently to memory dear.

THERE are many ways of eating oranges, but the Floridian has probably the most common-sense way of disposing of the fruit. He uses a sharp knife and pares the orange much the same as one would peel an apple, taking care not to cut through the white rind that protects the pulp. Then holding the orange at the poles and cutting through the center the seed pods are removed. The rest is easy. As a colored boy in Jackson-ville said: "Put yoah face in it and eat till you come to the rind." The white rind forms a natural cup for the juice, and any one who ever tries this method will never think of removing the skin in the old way and quartering the fruit.

Are You Cleansed and Made Whole?

Paine's Celery Compound Makes New Blood.

It Truly and Honestly Makes People Well.

In a week or two we shall be ushered into the spring season with all its trying changes to health. The close and heated house; the stuffy office, the ill-ventilated store and workshop, where you have been confined during the winter, have done their share toward sowing the seeds of disease in your oody and blood.

You have become weak, nervous and excitable; dyspepsia and indigention are rampant, and making life miserable; you experience continual headaches and dimness of vision; you are bilious, and care not what becomes of you; you cry out sorely from the racking d rheumatism, and no doubt your blood is slogged with impurities.

How an you expect to pass through the changeul spring in such a condition? You need leansing—a thorough cleansing! Paines Celery Compound does this work effecually and well. It cleans out every cloged avenue; it gives a free course for ne blood to circulate; it brings new stength, new vim and new life.

Try the life-giving virtues of Paine's elery Compound for one week at this seaand you will save many dollars later on the doctor would surely get. No ine in the world can compare with Celery Compound as a cleansing and ng agent. Thousands recommend it y, and the best doctors now prescribe mir patients

ONTARIO CABINET CHANGE. The resignation of the Hon. C. F. Fraser,

Commissioner of Public Works, on account of ill-health, as announced in our Toronto special dispatches to-day, will be heard of with regret by many Conservatives as well as by the Liberal party. By the retirement of Mr. Fraser the Ontario Cabinet loses one of its ablest, most painstaking and reliable members, and it will be no easy task to fill his place. The leader of the Opposition, as well as the Attorney-General, last evening paid a graceful and well-merited tribute to the excellent qualities of the retiring Minister. Until his successor is appointed Mr. Fraser will continue as as great. nominal head of the department, which it is considered probable may ultimately be presided over by Mr. W. Harty, M.P.P., | tion" system the medical superintendent of Kingston.

-The Wm. Davies Company (Limited), of Toronto, calls attention to the alarm raised in certain quarters over a prospective reduction in the Dominion tariff on pork.

"We wish to assure them this fear is goundless, because duty or no duty in Canada will not affect the English market in the least, as the price ruling there governs the price here. What will be done in Ottawa in relation to the subject we have no idea, but nothing can be more certain than this: The export to Great Britain of bacon, hams and lard is the cause of the present satisfactory condition of the heg business which the farmers now have, and which they appreciate."

This is the sensible view of business men, and not of politicians. Farmers are recommended to raise long, lean hogs, and to feed them till they weigh 180 pounds, when they will bring the highest prices. This advice has before now been tendered to farmers in this neighborhood by the London packers.

LONDON A COURT CENTER.

An important concession to public opinion in the west, as voiced by the newspaper press, the London Board of Aldermen, the Middlesex County Council, the Bar Association and other bodies, was made by Sir Oliver Mowat when he announced his consent to the establishment of weekly High Court sittings in London to hear motions in regard to all questions arising in the county of Middlesex, and also to those arising in western counties in which the solicitors consent to have motions heard. Other important concessions, it is expected, will be made during the present session of the Legislature, and it is possible that Ottawa in the east, like London in the west, will be affected by them,

The holding of High Court sittings every week in this city will save the lawyers in London and the west many a trip to Toronto that could not be avoided while all motions in the High Court had to be heard in that city. It was pointed out that there was not entire unanimity among the western lawyers on the subject of making London, to a considerable extent, a legal center. There should be no jealousies about this matter. The saving in time and money to both lawyers and clients nader the new system will be considerable. and public opinion will no doubt speedily popularize the change to such an extent as will make anyone now kicking very speedily wonder why he could have opposed a change so very desirable.

London is already a railway, manufacturing, wholesale and educational center. It is admirably situated to become a legal center, as Sir Oliver Mowat, by his response to western public opinion, has conceded.

MR. W. R. MEREDITH, talking of his appointment as city solicitor of Toronto, says that "his first duty will be to his new client, the corporation of Toronto." Considering that it is but four years since Mr. Meredith left London and cast in his fortunes with Toronto he has done well to get a Toronto office that will net him $5,000 or $6,000 a year,

SHOULD AN ASSESSOR BE PARTY ORGANIZER?

Mr. Stephen Grant, the assessment commissioner, under the law, had the power to have placed on the Ontario voters' lists of the city all applications for the franchise properly made. We understand that he has been most fair in his dealings with those who have business before him, showing a good example to others placed in a like quasi-judicial or judicial position.

It does not look well, however, to have Mr. Alf. McCoubrey, one of the assessors sworn to do justice to all parties, acting as special canvasser for names for the Conservative party and appearing before the assessment commissioner as their agent. No one can object to a city assessor having strong predilections towards either of the political parties, but it is surely highly reprehensible for a man to be in the pay of the whole people as a civic officer and yet busily working for one of the political parties as its paid organizer.

That this assessor's list of names to be added, in his capacity as Conservative agent, was considerably smaller than that added by the Liberals, is no palliation of his unseemly conduct. Perhaps the only way to prevent its repetition in future Provincial revisions will be for independent citizens to take good care that such a state of affairs shall not exist as will make it possible to have him foisted upon the community. Civic officials should not be offensive partisans under any circumstances.

AN ASYLUM LESSON IN SEWAGE DISPOSAL.

Dr. Bucke, medical superintendent of the London Asylum for the Insane, in his annual report states that for another year the asylum authorities here have used no restraint or seclusion of patients and no alcohol, making ten years' disuse of the former and eleven of the latter. As regards employment of patients, there has been equally no change; more than 800 are employed every lawful day in some useful manner. The aggregate amount of work accomplished is enormous, and the benefit to the patients is, the doctor is persuaded.

The disposal of the sewage at the asylum by the "Intermittent Downward Filtrareports as continuing to be a success. Four acres are set apart for sewage disposal. Of his acreage about one-half is occupied by the depressions into which the sewage is run, and from which it sinks, while the other half is in the form of long, narrow beds between these depressions. For 9 couple of years back the asylum authorities have been experimenting with these beds in order to find out what could be grown to the most advantage upon them. This year the crop upon the two acres of beds in the sewage field was as follows:

Watermelons, 110 dozen at $2...... $220 00 Muskmelons, 216 dozen at $1 25...... 270 00 Squash, 441 dozen at $1..... 44 52 Pumpkins. 28 dozen at 90 cents..... 25 20 Celery, 3274 dozen at 40 cents...... 131 00 Peppers, 134 dozen at 10 cents...... 13 45 Cucumbers, table, 92 dozen at 25 cents.. 13 80 Cucumbers, pickling, 10,649 dozen at 25 Peas, 24; bushels at $1..... 24 50 Radishes, 368 bunches at 5 cents...... 18 40

Chilies, 77 quarts at 10 cents.... 7 70 This makes the total value of the crop $850 09 and at prices which Dr. Bucke is assured are rather too low than too high. The sewage used to irrigate the crop could not have been more than one-eighth of all that was thrown upon the field for disposal, and the authorities intend to extend their sewage farm considerably. Dr. Bucke warmly praises the work of Mr. Richard Flynn, gardener, who has done so much to make both the sewage disposal and the sewage farm so great a triumph as they both

The success of the system for disposing of the sewage of 1,200 persons at the asylum for the insane emphasizes the propositions that have been made from time to time with regard to the city sewage. If the city were to establish a sewage farm down the river, as some propose, on to which all the city sewage would be diverted, as is the case at the asylum, it is made apparent that a considerable portion of the cost would be defrayed by the crop yield that would result. Plymouth, Birmingham and other English cities have corporation sewage farms, and net a handsome revenue from the immense crops that grow on them. One thing is certain, the military school authorities must soon follow the example set by the asylum people, and get rid of their sewage by some other channel than Carling's Creek, and the city cannot much longer delay dealing with the whole question in an intelligent manner.

-THE great anxiety of the Chatham Planet to have Mr. Pardo preverted from opposing Mr. Clancy, supports the news that comes from West Kent from various sources. Mr. Pardo is conceded to be a much abler man than Mr. Clancy. He is a representative farmer, possessed of strong horse-sense, and likely to take a manly, independent stand in the Legislature. If Mr. Pardo runs he will have strong enough support to get elected, hence the pleading of the Conservative organ to let Mr. Clancy be elected by acclamation.

NO CHANGE NEXT YEAR. The failure of a majority of the London City Council to show up at the special meeting of the City Council last night leaves the liquor licenses the same for next year as during the present. Under the law any bylaw passed to lessen the number must secure its second reading before March l. There was a good deal of talk last night over the fact that the calling together of the aldermen to settle so important a subject was left till the eleventh hour. It gave those who wished to shirk the vote an opportunity to formulate an excuse of want of sufficient notice. All the aldermen went on record, however, when the bylaw was up for a second reading.

-We are glad to be informed that the London Woman's Art Club has promptly affiliated with the Women's Art Association of Canada, being the second to do so. This step is creditable to the plucky local organization and is certain to be beneficial to its members. By this federation of organizations of woman artists and their active sympathizers throughout the Dominion the general objects of the members of each club will be promoted, a circuit for exhibitions will be established, interest will be kept up and mutual stimulation through the interchange of work will result. Indeed, the chief advantages will at first come to the branches.

Sleeping With the Mouth Open. "In sleeping in a cool room," says one of a series of health rules, "establish a habit of breathing through the nose and never with the mouth open." This is rather a hard rule. No one can get any sleep by staying awake to see if the mouth does not come open, and it would be expensive to employ an attendant to stand by and give the alarm whenever the jaws drop apart. Besides the attendant might fall asleep, let his mouth fly open and permanently injure his lungs.

The marked benefit which people overcome by That Tired Feeling derive from Hood's Sarsaparilla, conclusively proves that this medi-

Important Announcement Made by the Attorney-General.

Hon. C. F. Fraser Resigns His Cabinet Position Owing to III-Health.

Graceful Tributes to the Retiring Minister's Ability-Petitions of Interest to London Citizens Introduced.

(Special to the ADVERTISER.) PARLIAMENT HOUSE, TORONTO, Feb. 28. -An important and surprising announcement was made in the Legislature this Washington, Feb. 28. - After conferring afternoon. It was no less a one than the resignation of a member of the Cabinet. While it had been generally known that the health of the Hon. C. F. Fraser, Commissioner of Public Works, had been in a precarious condition for several years past, the news of his action in this respect was somewhat unexpected. Sir Oliver Mowat brought the matter to the attention of the House. Ill-health was the reason assigned. "Six years ago," said the Attorney-General, "Mr. Fraser asked to be relieved from public duties, but with considerable difficulty he had been persuaded to keep his specially anxious that Mr. Fraser should continue to hold his portfolio until the completion of the Parliament buildings. This he had done, and they were now ad- and bitten. mitted to be a lasting monument to the ability, efficiency and economy of the ad-ministration of the Commissioner of Public because Mr. Fraser had been an admirable Minister and invaluable in council. Possessed of a clear and incisive intellect, having a retentive memory, being a forceful speaker and an able debater, Mr. Fraser's withdrawal would prove a great loss to the House, to his party and to the whole country. In conclusion, the Attorney-General expressed the hope that Mr. Fraser might be blessed with that measure of health that would enable him for many years to perform less arduous duties than those connected with public life. Until a successor was appointed through the con-

While they had had several somewhat severe controversies, he yet held the Minister of Public Works in the highest esteem. He hoped that some provision might be devised by which the retiring Minister, while conserving his energies, might exercise his great abilities to the advantage of the country. Continuing, Mr. Meredith criticised the Attorney-General's atatement regarding the responsibility of Mr. Fraser for only such measures as the latter approved. This position was an anomalous one, and, if he mistook not, an unconstitutional one. Sir Oliver Mowat averred that a constitutional rule provided for open questions in the Government. In the present instance they were only observing this recognized provision. It Mr. Fraser differed from the Government, he would state the differences to the House himself. McGreevy and Cennolly Still in Jail-Their Friends Growing Anxious.

OTTAWA, Feb. 28. — The friends of Messrs. McGreevy and Connolly are some what alarmed to-night over the fact that the memorandum of the Minister of Justice to his Excellency the Governor-General ordering their release has not yet been approved of. There are all kinds of rumors around, and some say that the Governor-General may refuse to sign it. This is not at all likely, but it is apparently clear that he intends to look in- too, are courteous. to the whole case carefully before doing so. At a late hour to-night both men were in jail, and had no information when they tashionable Tweeds would be released.

HOME AGAIN.

We are going to talk again about home. We like home just as much as anyone else, and think that it should be made as attractive as possible. We know a great deal about the requirements of a comfortable place of abode, having spent a great deal of our time in studying them. That is our business. Take curtains for instance, and especially our Lace Curtains of Scotch and Swiss makes. These are handsome and good. Will please today, to-morrow and for years to come, simply because they are not trashy.

Make Home Attractive

Linens, too, add much to the appearance of home. Snowwhite tablings, napkins, etc., give it a tidy, clean look that is appetizing. Our Irish Damask Linens are none too good for any home, though the best manufactured, and they are none too

-At Osgoode Hall, Wednesday, Hanley vs. Canadian Packing Company.—Judgment on appeal by the plaintiff from the judgment of the judge of the county court of Middlesex dismissing the action, which was brought by a vendor for damages for refusal to accept a carload of hogs. The plaintiff shipped a doubledecked carload of hogs, and the defendants refused to accept it, on the ground that a carload of hogs (which was what was contracted for), meant a single and not a double-decked carload, and the county court judge so held. The appellant contended that the onus was on the defendants to show that a carload of hogs could not mean a double-decked carload. Appeal allowed, with costs, and judgment to be entered for the plaintiff, with costs, the court holding that either kind of car might be a carload of hogs, and, therefore, and what the plaintiff offered the defendants was what the defendants had contracted for; Hagarty, C. This was complied with and yesterday afternoon, at 5 o'clock, the test was given before Mr. T. Williams, the divisional superintendent, at the Adelaide street crossing of the C. P. R. The switch is very simple in construction, and is designed to prevent run-offs which are now caused by misplaced switches. With this contrivance, no matter how the switch is placed, it is impossible for a car to jump the track. This was fully proven yesterday, when it was thrown open in the face of an approaching engine and tender, and both passed over safely. Mr. Williams spoke very highly of its merits and complimented Mr. Best on the success of the trial. Mr. Best has also been working of late on a wrecking dog, which, on a recent trial, placed three derailed cars on the track in one minute. Among other inventions by Mr. Best is a lubricator for engines and railway cars, and an axle box, both of which have been patented in Canada, United States, Great Britain, France, Germany and Belgium. Another lubricator was afterwards invented for use on street cars, patented in the United States and Canada and used on the cars of the street

With your permission I would ask the use of a few lines of your paper-not a whole column for abuse as Mr. Macdonald resorted to—as a final answer to his letter of the 28th (yesterday). In answer to the last part of his letter, namely, that if I or any of my friends would furnish the cost of an election that he would only be too happy to embrace the opportunity of a contest with me or any other person, and as this no doubt would soon settle how many friends he has left in the village and also give me a chance to verify his prediction regarding, as he states, my disability, etc. Now, sir, I publicly accept Mr. Macdonald's offer, and will furn su the cash-not a check-for the full expenses of an election. Further, that the village will not suffer any less thereby, or that Mr. Macdonald will be called upon to pay any more law costs in this case. The fire and light committee of the counoil met at the adjournment of the City Council last night, with Ald. John Heaman (acting chairman), Wm. Heaman, Nutkins, Scarrow, O'Meara, Mayor Essery, Secretary Bell, Inspector Bell, Assistant Engineer Ironsides, Chief Roe and Market Clerk Wilson in attendance.

Keeping in line with other civic departments, Chief Roe, of the fire hall, submitted his estimates for the year, placing ings, $800; fuel and gas, $650; fire alarms, $500; capital, $800; general expense, $800; keeping of horses, $1,000.

The work coming under the jurisdiction of No. 3 committee was placed by the city engineer at $26,600, by allowing $4,500 for street watering (including water), $21,000 for street lighting (without extensions) and

TWO TERRIBLE CAVE-INS

In Pennsylvania-Miners Imprisoned. Perhaps Dead. ASHLAND, Pa., March 1.-While seven miners were at work this afternoon in the west gangway of the Boston Run mine, an avalanche of crop and surface coal swept down upon them and imprisoned them. A rescuing party was formed and entered the shaft. They soon found two of the men, John and Joe Wickes. They reported that five men were still imprisoned in the gangway, and that they were Lewis White, Chas. Mohen, Elwood Mingle, James Kramer and Wm. Ervine. All the men live in Frackville.

ANOTHER ONE. ERIE, Pa., March 1 .- A cave-in occurred at 8 o'clock this morning in Owen T. Williams & Sons' quarry at Williamstown. The roof of a tunnel caved in on seven workmen, three Hungarians, and Joseph Remeleg, Samuel Kreetz, Griffith O. Pritchard and Wm. R. Jones. Jones has been rescued, but so badly injured that he may die. The others are still buried in the tunnel. There are no hopes of finding them alive.

OTTAWA, Feb. 28.—It looks as if Toronto was to have a sensation. The Postmaster-General has ordered an investigation by Chief Inspector Sweetnam into certain alleged irregularities on the part of Post-office Inspector Barwick. The Deputy Postmaster-General is very reticent on the matter, and declines to give any information to the press concerning this unfortunate affair.

Railways vs. Steamships. MONTREAL, March 1 .- The proposal to start a fline of steamers between Toledo, Cleveland and Montreal is meeting with opposition on the part of the railroads interested. This line is expected to bring large quantities of flour to Montreal which has hitherto been carried by such roads as the New York Central, the West Shore and the Grand Trunk, which, if the line turns out a success, will lose this traffic. There is some talk of these roads putting on opposition boats in order to run London, March 1 .- Mr. Gladstone appeared in the House of Commons this evening. He was received with prolonged and enthusiastic cheers, which were repeated with even more enthusiasm as he rose to speak on the Parish Councils Bill. He was in excellent voice and showed no signs of physical weakness.

The Government, he said, was of the opinion that the time for passing the Parish Councils Bill back and forth between the two Houses had ended, and determined upon a decisive course. Refusal to adopt the amendments of the House of Lords means the loss of the bill. The other day the Government was obliged to lose a bill because the Lords had entirely destroyed the principle of it. In the case of the Parish Councils Bill, however, the principle of extension of local government remained, therefore the Government was willing to withdraw its opposition to the amendments of the House cheers.) The Government in accepting the Lords' amendments did not intend to end the controversy by any means. It was a matter to be submitted to the arbitration of the nation. (Cheers.)

"You're a good subject, a deuced good subject," he said with appreciative approval, "quite the best subject I ever saw. There," with a sudden long sigh, "what do you think of that?"

He threw my hands from his grasp and stood on his feet.

God help me; it was Darnley who so rudely broke the clasp of the joined hands! It was Darnley who rose, from the log, to a standing position! It was Darnley's lips that had spoken the last few words! I was on my knees, on the ground, looking up at him! The maddest miracle of which I had ever heard had been wrought! Two men, with good reasons to fear and distrust one another, had changed bodies!

I sat in horrified amazement for a time. I couldn't say much. And as for standing up, or walking, I hardly dared to try. I wasn't used to Armstrong's body; I actually feared

I might break it! The other man, if you'll accept a designation that strikes me as the most definite and satisfactory of any I can think of, had evi-dentily experienced this sort of thing before. He walked recklessly with my legs; he laughed, with my lips and eyes, in a way so unlike my way that I laughed with his, in spite of myself. And I dare say I used his ace so strangely as to still more excite and intensify his mirth. At any rate, we laughed heartily and repeatedly at one another. And, by and by, after a good deal of encouragement and coaxing on his part, I got up and walked about with him. Really, I did fairly well. His legs were no less than six or eight inches longer than mine, and I was rather dizzy in consequence, but I didn't get a single fall. It wasn't nearly as hard to learn as skating was, years ago when I was a boy. We went, after a time, around to several of the groups gathered near the camptires. Few of the men noticed anything unusual about us, though one or two suggested that we acted as though we were drunk! At last-well toward morning-the other man got tired of the play. He wanted to go to sleep. And he liked, in as large a degree as our manner of life left possible, to sleep at

"Come, Darnley," he said, "take my hands again! We'll get back—into our own clothing! You'll find it easier going home than it was going visiting!"

But I resolutely folded my hands-or his -behind me-him-Armstrong, anyway, and doggedly refused.

The other man was angry at first, and threatened. But he might as well have spared himself the foolishness of that. I occupied the body of an athlete-a body for which that of David Darnley was no sort of a match; and I could manage it as well at least as the other man could manage mine. He was powerless, and I could afford to laugh at his anger. I did so. He showed that he appreciated the situation when he promised me a most thorough and satisfactory thrashing the moment he got his mind in control of his own muscles again! In the second place, I think the other man was frightened. But fear was too unnatural to a nature like Anthony Armstrong's for it to last long. He rapidly passed on to the third stage—the stage of inquiry and reason and argument. He wanted to know why?

"I love Alice Williams," said I.
"So do I," said the other man.

"I don't think a man in David Darnley's body would have much of a chance with such a woman," I asserted. "We-e-ell-er-er-no!" said the other est in his criticism, "I don't think so either. And yet, you can never tell. Women are strange beings. You could find out by try-hotiy.

"As God is my witness—"

"You lie," I cried, and I'll never—never, mind you—give you back your unfair advantage. I'll marry Alice Williams, see if I don't, and you may whistle!" I snapped my fingers in his face, or his in mine, and strode away.

I did not sleep any that night. For hours

I could not. And when, at last, in the gray dawn time, my breath grew longer and more regular, when my eyes closed, when my senses were drifting away, we were suddenly ordered into line! The enemy had unexpectedly attacked us. Our pickets were driven in. A hurriedly-formed skirmish line was beaten back and broken. The foe was almost in camp before we were ready to resist the assault. We had entered upon the hardest struggle I had seen in all my war-time experience ! In every battle, so far, Anthony Armstrong had stood at the right of David Darniey. If the soul be the man, he stood so in the line formed that fatal morning, but, to the eyes of their comrades, they had changed places.

We advanced a short distance, perhaps an eighth of a mile, fighting hard for every foot of the way. Then our officers got tired of so slow an advance through the tangled woodland. They ordered us to fix bayonets, and to charge.

A bayonet charge is a terrible thing to encounter. You cannot reasonably expect any body of men to stand long against it-when once it has reached them. But there is a grand chance for wholesale murder while the line of steel is coming-coming. We body-the home of the other man-was shot through the breast. The blood was pouring from a dreadful wound. It was staining the livid lips as well.

I caught him in my arms before he fell, and carried him to a shady spot, a rod or two out of the hell of shot and steel. I bent over him. Oh, God! how repentant I was. "It is my place, mine," I faltered, catching at the hands that eluded me, "and you must change back! You must! Tell Alice

The glazing eyes looked up at me and

"The bullet—was—was for—the—man—on—the—right," he gasped, "and—that—was—my—my place! I will not—live—and let-you-die!

A struggle—a spasm—and all was over. Five minutes later I was in the thickest of the fight, trying to rid myself of the handsome body that had grown so unwelcome to me-striving to find my freedom again. That night, when the struggle of the fearful day was over, they buried the body of David Darnley. They sent home word that he was dead.

man to endure. I have settled down, at last, to let Anthony Armstrong's body wear itself out. I must be contented, I suppose, to die of old age, after so many attempts to meet death have ignominiously failed!

So many attempts? Why, yes. Let me name some. Let me show how persistent I have been, though I have utterly failed. I was with the Austrians at Sadowa, in 1866; I was with Napoleon III. at Sedan, in 1870; I fought in the Russian army in 1877-78, and, in 1885, I was with Wolseley's expehave decided to die in my bed. I may try

And between these seasons of despotic endeavor? What have I done then? I have gone, again and again, to tell Alice Williams of my unchanging love—mv undying devotion. And her answer? What has that been? The most hopeless answer I could hear from human lips.

"I like you, Mr. Armstrong, as I told you the night before you enlisted to go into the Northern army, long, long years ago. I like you, and that is all. I made a mistake nce, and you must not over-urge me to make another. I sent a man from me to his death, and I shall never marry any one. I found when it was too late, that I loved David Darnley!"

(THE END.)

A Wonderful Cure.—Mr. David Smith, Coe Hill, Ont., writes: "For the benefit of others I wish to say a few words about Northrop & Lyman's VEGE-TABLE DISCOVERY. About a year ago I took a very severe cough, had a virulent sore on my lips, was bad with dyspepsia, constipation and general debility. I tried almost every conceivable remedy, outwardy and inwardly, to cure the sore but all to no purpose. I had often thought of trying Northrop & Lyman's VEGETABLE DIScovery, so I got a bottle and when I had used about one half the sore showed evident signs of healing. By the time that bottle was done it had about disappeared and my general health was improving fast. I was always of a very bilicus habit and had used quinine and lemon juice with very little affect. But since using three bottles of the VEGETABLE DISCOVERY the biliousness is entirely gone and my general health is excellent. I am 60 years old. Parties using it should continue it for some time after they think they are cured. It is by far the best health restorer I know." 3

Rev. S. Bond on Mr. Joly's Mes:age of

To the Editor of the ADVERTISER: I have read with much interest the address of Mr. Joly and your notes thereon, and with your kind permission I propose to add to the discussion some points which are necessary to a just conception of the dition that was too late to save the great subject. At once I will say that while I Gordon. Should France crowd Siam too admire his frank and gentle spirit I do not closely, one of these days, I may forget that agree with his inadequate conception of the state of affairs. Such an address as his is calculated to create the impression on all who are not posted on the subject, that he really dealt with the difficulties and made them appear imaginary-some of them arising from an Englishman's proverbial disposition to grumble. The idea that these lifficulties are to be answered by a joke betrays a lack of respect for the deep convictions of the people of this Province.

We have heard the changes rung on the words "oleration," "justice" and "liber-ality," and have heard the Protestants of this Province called "fanatics" and "bigots," till one of two things must be done. We must believe these charges are true, or we must repel them. Whether these things are said by Roman Catholics or Potestants, by party partisans or newspapers, they are a base slander. When they come from a Roman Catholic, though he may believe them true, they are not only untrue—they are offensive. Let any one impartially examine the case and he will be forced to admit the statement.

1. In none of the Provinces of this Dominion, even though Protestantism is in the ascendancy, are Roman Catholics or their church placed by law in any position of inferiority to the Protestants. The law has made no distinction unless in the separate school question, and this at their desire, for their advantage as they judge.

2. No one in any of these Provinces has ever hinted at a purpose to secure any law that would in any way make their position different from their fellow subjects. 3. In these Provinces the Roman Catholic Church has every privilege and advantage which any Protestant Church has. When any person desires to become a Roman Catholic they are allowed to do so without any hindrance or even disadvantage. There are no financial, social or civil hindrances existing or created. They are not compelled to leave home or country, and they are not abused in the newspapers for their

4. No one in these Provinces proposes to impose any regulations on the Roman Catholic Church in the new territories different from what shall apply to Protestants. Even the P. P. A. organization does not propose to pass any law imposing disabilities on them more than on others.

Now, if these things are so, it may well be asked, What ground of complaint have the Roman Catholic people in any part of this Dominion? If they are content with Max Kaufman, a Berlin sjeweler, has equal rights and privileges with their their tellow-subjects, they have not the shadow of reason for complaint that they are being treated unjustly.

But let us look also at how they and their church stand where they are in the ascendant. What are their attitude and efforts in regard to Protestants and their position in the Northwest Territories? Are they in the enjoyment of no advantages denied to ates the popular antidote to pain, throat others? Are they seeking for no privileges by which to help the propagandism of their Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil. It may be used faith? The very opposite is the case on without the slightest apprehension of any each of these points. Their church is liquors close to our fair grounds? The man, evidently desiring to be fair and hon other than salutary consequences. Coughs, buttressed on every side with numberless number of drunks which had to be taken laws which give advantage and dominance care of at our last fair was large. in Quebec, altogether greater than the State | Queen's Park is a resort for many, both old church in England possesses, and yet the and young, during the summer, we think it Protestants of Ontario are "fanatical" and | well to make it as hard as possible to do 'illiberal," are "intolerant" and "bigoted," harm or to get into harm's way. Then if they complain or resolve to oppose the there are a great number of young peoextension of the special favors to other | ple who pass through the park on their parts of the country. Where will be found | way home sometimes late in the evening. a more daring piece of assurance than is presented in these complaints? Where will be found more quiet and longsuffering attitude of forbearance than that no other remedy. Ask your druggist for Swayne's Ointmenr. Lyman, Sons & Co., such arrogant assumptions? That these such arrogant assumptions? That these are not extreme deliverances let us look at "I married Horace to reform him," said the facts as to the position held by the churches. A man who goes into court with a complaint against another must himself he clear of complicity in the crime. Here the party he charges is innocent of the crime and himself is the guilty party. 1. The Roman Catholic Church in Quebec is especially recognized by the state and allowed to hold immense wealth altogether beyond the needs of the most aggressive propagandism and untaxed. 2. The tithe system which Mr. Joly loves and approves is a part of the civil law and is enforced by the officers of the state, so that it is an engine to drive out the Protestants. It cannot stand so as to relate to and affect only the Roman Catholics. It injures the Protestant citizen. 3. The bishops of that church possess the right to establish parishes for ecclesiastical purposes, and then can and do get them established for civil purposes to the loss and injury of every Protestant in any municipality touched by the act. His property in the municipality is taken from him, and he is, at the dictation of the Roman Catholic majority, compelled to bear his share again in other municipal expenses. This is one place among others of insecurity of his property of which surely Mr. Joly is not ignorant. And this also is a powerful agency by which to drive away the Protestants and thus secure the lands they hold for increased tithes. 4. The Roman Catholic Church has priority of claim for debt. Even a first mort. gage obtained prior to the existence of the church claim will not avail to prevent its having a first claim. This and the tithe system and the parish system mentioned above all stand as a barrier against Protestants purchasing land held by a Roman Catholic unless they are willing to pay the church's assessments. And yet the Protestants are treated generously and have no cause of complaint! 5. The Roman Catholic Church claims and is granted immunity from many phases of the action of the courts of law. Civil death is allowed. The canon law of the church becomes the law of the state, and the bishop first interprets for the civil TRY court, and the court indorses the ecclesias. tical authority and enforces the law.

6. Full civil status is secured only by baptismal registration or its equiva-lent, and then if a Roman Catho-lic becomes a Protestant in order to stand safe and right before the state he must sign a recantation of his for-mer faith. Then the spirit of persecution, notwithstanding Mr. Joly's assurances, to their toleration and liberality, is put into operation by means of social life, so as to compel the convert to Protestantism to leave home and country.

7. The marriage laws of Quebec are all in favor of the Roman Catholic Church and can be used to propagate that faith. He huvs no license of the state and so he pays no money into the state treasury. But the Protestant must buy his license of the state and must pay $8 for it. The Roman Catholic priest may marry a Catholic and a Protestant, but the Protestant minister cannot safely do so. These are some of the many ways in which that church is placed by law and usage in positions of advantage and ascendancy as compared with Protestantism. And yet our censors would make the world believe that the Keman Catholics of Quebec are most liberal and magnanimous toward the Protestants. Whatever the people may be privately, the heirarchy which rules them and is the power with which the Protestants have to deal is utterly destitute of the spirit of equality and justice. Witness all these legal disabilities on Protestants, and yet forsooth it is little less than a crime for a Protestant to complain. Designing politicians and timid Protestants who care more for office than for their country, their rights or justice, are loud in denouncing our fair country.

I am not a P. P. A., and have no intention of being one, but I do not wonder at their existence. This "peace-at-any-price" doctrine cannot be endured any longer. No self-respecting people can be expected to remain quiet under such circumstances. Remove these aggravating causes and the agitation will cease in one year.

any who speak out against these things or who organize to prevent the dreaded extension of these wrongs to other portions of

Mr. Joly did not seriously discuss the real causes of the disquietude, or where he did he trifled with them. The patronage question, his consistency or that of the Liberal party on the Riel question are matters of comparative indifference to the people when left separate from other issues. The offense of the Jesuits' Estate Bill which he misrepresents and the liberality of Mr. Mercer in removing an educational disability which had only recently been created, are equally not the matters which concern us. It is the method of the trailing of the hare across the path. And then he tells us that the Protestant minority of Quebec have no grievances, that they are being dealt with in the most magnanimous fashion. Any discordant notes are simply the product of the Englishman's grumbling propensity.

When the people of Quebec repeal every law giving special privileges to the Roman Catholic Church in that Province and place it on exactly the same plane of equality which the Protestant churches of this Province hold, then may they claim the right to talk to us about fair dealing and toleration. When they cease to demand for their church special favors in the Northwest and abandon the solid French vote to secure any advantage desired to others, it will be time for the citizens of this Dominion to abandon concerted action to defeat their designs. When they cease to foist on other parts of this Dominion the medievalism of Quebec they will have no more of opposition to their plans. But so long as these special privileges are in full blast, and these efforts are made to extend them, so long will it be necessary to watch and oppose them. Even with the glaring injustice to the Protestants of Quebec, if they (the Protestants) are willing to endure it, the cessation to plot and scheme to get special advantages in the Northwest would remove a great part of the present determination to oppose the dreaded system of ecclesiastical interference and domination. If the attitude of Protestants in this Province does not suit our Roman Catholic fellow-subject the fault is theirs and the remedy is in their own hands. I am, etc., S. Bond. Petrolea, Feb. 22, 1894.

The Choral Society.

A well attended meeting of the London Choral Society was held last evening at R. S. Williams' music store, the object being to deal with reports from the concert committee and decide as to future intentions. The financial statement was not as satisfactory as desired, but this did not dampen the enthusiasm of the members, as they have full confidence that the society's entertainments will rapidly become popular and receive the recognition that their arduous practice deserves. It was decided to begin rehearsal at once for another grand concert to be made up of the best known sacred selections, such as the 'Kyrie" and "Gloria" from Mozart's No. 12, Tanphauser march and chorus (Hail! Bright Abode!), Hallelujah chorus, and other equally bright compositions. Practice begins next week, and the members are requested to bring along all copies of Gilmore's Festival Chorus book which they may have. A committee was also appointed to secure more commodious rooms for the practices.

Prohibition Mass Meeting.

On Friday evening next the first mass meeting of the London and Western On-tario Prohibition Union will be held at Somerset Hall, commencing at 8 o'clock. A general invitation is given to the public to attend. All who come will be welcome. Among the speakers expected from a distance are the Rev. Dr. Mackay, of Woodstock, one of the best known prohibition workers in Ontario; Rev. Principal Austiu, of Alma College, St. Thomas, also a prominent worker for many years; Hon. Senator Vidal, of Sarnia, the leader of the Prohibitionists in the Dominion Senate and hibitionists in the Dominion Senate, and probably Rev. Dr. Aylsworth, of Highgate, president of the London Methodist Con-

The W. C. T. U. have also been invited to take part and provide a musical programme and a speaker. If there is time some of the well known local workers of the union will also address the meeting. Probably a collection will be asked to assist in defraying the expenses. A pleasant and profitable meeting may be looked for, and there should be a large attendance. The meetings will inaugurate an important ampaign.
