COMMUNISTS IN INDUSTRIAL DISTRICTS OF GERMANY ARE READY TO FIGHT GOVT. TROOPS

General Strike To Be Called in Places Where Government Takes Away Control From Reactionary Forces—Thousands of Workers Under Arms.

Chemnitz, Saxony, March 27.—Communists are firmly intrenched in control here and prepared to resist attacks by government troops, which may be sent against the city. In the event the troops secure control, a general strike may again be called. Heinrich Brandler, chairman of the executive committee of the workers, declared his followers were closely co-operating with workers in the Ruhr Valley.

"We do not expect an attack, as the government's forces are too weak," he said. "But if it comes, we will resist."

There are 12,000 men under arms in this district, and Herr Brandler said the workers' leaders could call upon not only the workmen of Chemnitz, who make up 92 per cent of the population, but those of the entire ore mountain regions.

TOWNS AND CITIES IN LOWER SAXONY IN WORKERS' HANDS

Falkenstehyn, Saxony, March 27.—(By the Associated Press).—Workers have taken over control in towns and cities of Lower Saxony, but there is an impression their ascendancy will be short-lived, as they are not sufficiently organized in a military way to resist pressure successfully. The principal task of the workers is policing the town.

One hundred workers, under the direction of Hoelz, entered Plauen in motor lorries and kidnapped City Attorney Hubert and held him as a hostage until he had given up data he had gathered for the prosecution of trade unionists and Communists accused of political agitation.

He was released after he had been a prisoner for several hours.

Hoelz has established headquarters in the castle of Freiherr Falkenstein, who has fled from this region. The red flag waves from the tower.

"The time is not ripe for the establishment of a Soviet form of government," he said in an interview with correspondents. The agriculturists would not approve of it, and we would be quickly starved out. We recognize the absolute helplessness of workers in case of armed conflict, and we will not attempt to physically resist military occupation of Falkenstein. If the troops appear, we will again call a general strike."

MOVIES CAN NOW BE SCREENED IN BROAD DAYLIGHT

Means End To Flirtations Frequently Held in Semi-Darkness.

London, March 27.—Daylight motion picture shows are in prospect here and for the United States if the invention for which patent rights in the two countries have just been granted is all its inventor has claimed for it.

The first test of the device is to be made in Drury Lane Theatre next week in the presence of a group of British picture magnates. During the test six spot lights will be focused on the screen. It is claimed excellent results may be obtained in the open under the glaring sun.

In addition to making possible the presentation of pictures at the seashore and other open air resorts, the inventor points out, among its attributes, that it will remove the reproach so often voiced, that darkness, necessary in a theatre to project pictures under the present conditions, is conducive to flirtations.

SEN. WILLIAMS SAYS CHEAP POLITICIANS DEFEATED LEAGUE

Charges That Effort Was Made To Prolong Wilson's Illness.

Jackson, Miss., March 26.—Addressing a joint session of the Mississippi Legislature today, Senator John Sharp Williams declared it "was the deliberate purpose of those who fought ratification of the peace treaty to protract the illness and bring about the death of President Wilson."

Senator Williams declared historians would brand the present time as "the period of the great conspiracy," in which the league of nations was defeated in the United States senate.

"Do you blame me," he asked, "for saying that I would rather be a dog and bay at the moon than to spend one minute in the senate after the expiration of my time of office?"

Senator Williams declared the "period of the great conspiracy" started even before "one syllable of the league of nations was put on paper." That it started in Washington with the announcement that the president would head the peace delegation to Paris.

"It was engineered," he said, "by a lot of cheap, two-by-four politicians. I call them that because that is what they are. I care not how high their station."

ITALIANS CLAIMED TO HAVE OCCUPIED SCUTARI CONTRARY TO DECISION

Belgrade, March 27.—A dispatch received here from Scutari, Albania, says that although General Dufor, the inter-allied commander, handed over the city to the inhabitants, according to the award of the allied war council, the Italians began to occupy the city immediately after the general had left. The dispatch adds that the Italians have placed a complete battery of artillery in the fort, training the guns on the city. South of here and across the Rhine began issuing passes for civilians to return to the city.

Murderers Laugh When Sentences of Death Passed

Two Montreal Men Will Be Hanged On June 18.

Montreal, March 27.—Fedor Belan and William Boycal will hang at the Bordeau jail here on June 18 next for the death of Peter Shulman, following the sentence passed on them by Mr. Justice Desy in the king's bench court. The murder for which the pair were tried was one of the most brutal kind. They entered a house on Lagauchetierre street in October last and fired a number of shots. Later, Peter Shulman, who was said to carry about $2,000 on his person, was found dead, shot through the lungs. On being taken to the cells after the trial, the men, who preserved an unconcerned demeanor throughout, were heard to laugh loudly at their sentence.

The trial was a speedy one, commencing at 10 in the morning and concluding at 6 with the judge's sentence.

REV. A. L. CLARKE OF GODERICH MAY COME TO ST. JOHN'S CHURCH

Call Extended To Former London Divine To Fill Vacancy Caused by Canon Craig's Death.

It is reported that a call has been extended to Rev. A. L. Clark of Goderich from the Church of St. John the Evangelist to fill the rectorship made vacant several months ago by the death of Rev. Canon William Craig, who was rector for many years.

Rev. Mr. Clark was at one time assistant rector of St. James' Church, South London. Bishop David Williams, under whose jurisdiction the appointment rests, would say nothing regarding the matter.

SCHOOL OF WOODCRAFT AND CAMP LIFE TO BE HELD IN ALGONQUIN PARK

W. E. Saunders of London and Jack Miner of Kingsville to Attend.

Toronto, March 27.—One hundred picked men, naturalists, scientists and leaders of boy efficiency training, from all parts of Canada, will gather at a school of wood craft and camp craft, under the auspices of the Canadian Standard Efficiency Organization, in Algonquin Park in August next.

Among those expected are: Jack Miner, the well-known friend of birds, of Kingsville, Ont.; Professor J. H. Faull and Professor R. B. Thomson of the University of Toronto, who will give special attention to botany; Professor C. A. Chant of the University of Toronto, who will lead in the study of the stars; Mark Robinson, the famous ranger and naturalist; W. E. Saunders, naturalist, of London, Ont., and R. G. Dingman of Toronto, a well-known photographer of bird life.

Winnipeg, Man., March 27.—Prorogation of the provincial legislature has been fixed for this afternoon, according to official statements.

Will Perpetuate Ruins at Ypres

Ypres, Belgium, March 27.—A large party of skilled workmen will soon be sent here by the Belgian Government to make permanent the ruins of the ancient Cloth Hall and the famous Church of Saint Martin as a lasting monument to the martyrdom of the town of Ypres. King George of England has decided to come personally to Ypres to present the heroic town the British Military Medal.

PANAMA CANAL CLEARED.

Panama, March 27.—Obstructions in the Culebra Cut district of the Panama Canal were removed yesterday, and the great waterway is again open for traffic after a six-day interruption.

LUCIEN CANNON (Dorchester) who at the recent debate in the House at Ottawa landed a severe attack against the government's railway policy. Mr. Cannon declared millions had been squandered in Quebec City. A magnificent grain elevator was erected there and is empty, and he declared will remain empty as long as this government remained in power.

POLES INFLICT HEAVY LOSSES ON RED ARMY

Severe Fighting in Progress On 250-Mile Front.

VILLAGES ARE TAKEN

Bolsheviki Launch Drive in Effort To Smash Polish Line.

NOVOROSSISK CAPTURED.

London, March 27.—Novorossisk, the last base in Southern Russia under control of Gen. Denekine, has been captured by the Russian Bolsheviki, according to a wireless dispatch from Moscow.

Warsaw, March 27.—Bolshevik forces attempting to smash through the Polish right wing on the Podolian front have captured several villages along the Lutch River, but have been unable to cross that stream. Fighting is proceeding over a front of approximately 250 miles, and a statement issued at Polish headquarters here says the Poles are inflicting heavy losses upon the Soviet army.

DENEKINE DECLARES HE WILL REMAIN TO LAST WITH TROOPS

Novorosche, Russia, March 27.—(By Associated Press). — Gen. Denekine, commander of the anti-Bolshevik forces in South Russia, told the correspondent of the Associated Press that he will remain with his troops until the last. He has asked the British to furnish boats to transport forty thousand soldiers. Fifty per cent of his supplies will be moved to the Crimea, 25 per cent to Batum, and the remainder will be left here.

MOHAMMEDANS MAY ALLOW BOLSHEVIKI TO MOVE UNOPPOSED

Constantinople, March 27.—(By the Associated Press).—Gen. Baron Wrangel, commander of the volunteer army in South Russia, has come across the Black Sea from the Novorossisk region, and is now on Prinkipo Island in the Sea of Marmora. He visited Constantinople before proceeding to Prinkipo. The Russian volunteer army has virtually disappeared.

Gen. Denekine, the anti-Bolshevik leader in South Russia, and his general staff have been at Novorossisk since March 14. The Cossack forces still number about 6,000.

The Daghestan Government in the Caucasus is dominated by Mohammedans, who are so outraged at the seizure by the Cossacks of their lands that they are reported to have made an agreement not to oppose the Bolshevik advances toward the Caspian Sea.

Uncertainty still prevails as to what will be the attitude of the Azerbaijan Government to the Bolshevik movement toward Persia, but it is rumored in Constantinople that the Turkish nationalists have influenced Azerbaijan in favor of the Bolsheviki.

It is said here that the remnants of Denekine's forces in South Russia will retire to the Crimea, where it is thought possible they can make an effective resistance against the Bolsheviki.

RUSSIAN OFFICERS ASSISTING GERMAN WORKERS' FORCES

London, March 27.—One hundred Russian officers, sent to Germany by Nicholai Lenine, Russian Bolshevik premier, are assisting in the operations of the German workers' army before Wesel, says a Copenhagen dispatch to the London Times.

The dispatch says the workers have taken over control of the Krupp works at Essen and are turning out arms and ammunition.

ODESSA OCCUPIED BY UKRAINIANS

Paris, March 27.—Odessa, the great Russian port on the Black Sea, has been occupied by Ukrainians under Gen. Pawlenko, commander of the Ukrainian national army, according to information received by the Ukrainian mission in Paris today.

REDS CAPTURE TOWNS.

Warsaw, March 27.—Russian Soviet forces, swinging south of the Pripet marsh country between Mozir and Pinsk and attacking Polish lines at various points over a front of approximately 250 miles, have captured several towns along the Slutch River, according to official statements issued at Polish army headquarters here. The enemy, however, has been unable to cross the Slutch River.

German Reds Wear Red Neckties, Fight a While, Eat, Then Sleep

Amsterdam, March 27.—Telegraphing from Dusseldorf after a visit to headquarters and the front of the Red army in the Ruhr district, the correspondent of the Amsterdam Handelsblad says:

"At general headquarters of the revolution, which is at Duisburg, nobody seems to know exactly what is happening at the front. Some say there has been no fighting for some time, while others declare the fighting has not stopped. The Red troops go from their homes to the front at their own will and fight for a while, and then return home to sleep and eat a bite. The Reds are a heterogeneous mass, wearing red arm bands, ribbons or neckties. Some of them had red shirts.

"The only thing in common to all is that they carry rifles. While the rest of the world uses such terms as 'government troops,' 'spartacans' and the like, in the fighting area, everyone speaks only of "Noskes," which includes all varieties of the former class, and "Carabinen" who include all Reds. It is a war of Noske against the carabineers."

DISCOVERER OF SOUTH POLE EXPLORES NORTH; IN DASH WITH BUT TWO COMPANION

London, March 27.—A new dash for the North Pole, led by Capt. Raold Amundsen, discoverer of the South Pole, is under way, according to a dispatch to the Daily Express today from Christiania, based upon news just received there from the far north. No further news of Capt. Amundsen's expedition is expected until spring.

The explorer is said to have left the exploration ship Maude on his trip across the Polar ice fields, accompanied by only two men.

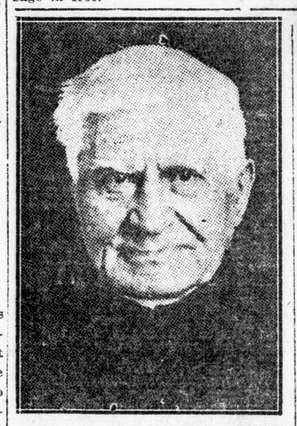

The steamship Maude left from Christiania, but Capt. Amundsen did not board her until she reached Tromsoe. Elaborate preparations for the expedition had been made. The explorer planned to follow the Siberian coast eastward from North Cape through Arctic seas with which he is familiar, having discovered the Northwest Passage in 1906.

The exploration ship Maude was built after a new design, and the equipment of the expedition included two aeroplanes. Whether or not the explorer will attempt to reach the Pole in one of the planes depends entirely upon conditions in the north. He studied aviation and became an expert flier before he left Norway.

Reports filtered in from the north last September that the Maude was icelocked somewhere north of Western Siberia. That was the first heard of the vessel in about a year.

Amundsen planned to drift eastward from the White Sea with the ice to the New Siberian Islands, which lie in the Arctic Sea. Sufficient food was laid in to last the party four years.

Capt. Amundsen planted the Norwegian flag on the South Pole on December 14, 1911. He is a native of Norway.

POLISH GOVERNMENT IS TRANSFERRED TO CITY OF BROMBERG

Seat of Administration Moved 25 Miles From Thorn.

London, March 27.—The Polish Government was removed on Thursday from Warsaw to Bromberg in Polish Posen, 25 miles northwest of Thorn, according to a Berlin dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph Company, quoting rumors in that city.

SAYS U. S. PRESIDENT WAS 'BAMBOOZLED' BY OVERSEAS PREMIERS

Presidential Candidate Johnson Says America Got Nothing Out of War.

Buffalo, March 27.—Reciting the territorial concessions made by the peace conference to allied nations in a presidential campaign speech last night, Senator H. W. Johnson, Republican, said that President Wilson was "bamboozled" by Premiers Lloyd George and Clemenceau in Paris. He expressed the view that the United States was the only nation which got nothing out of the war.

FRENCH SOCIALIST FAVORS RESUMPTION TRADE WITH SOVIET

Allied Policy Toward Turkey Is Criticized.

Paris, March 27.—Interpellations on the foreign policy of the Government were again discussed in the Chamber of Deputies yesterday. Marcel Cachin, Socialist, spoke in favor of a resumption of economic relations with Russia and declared it was indispensable that Europe should recognize the Soviet Government in existence for three years. M. Cachin criticized the policy followed with regard to Turkey, which he termed "a policy of haste."

Concerning Germany, M. Cachin declared the failure of the Kapp coup demonstrated that the democratic idea had permeated the masses of Germans. He asked that the Allies let the German situation follow its normal course, requiring of Germany the maximum reparations, but putting her in a position to pay them.

"HUNGER STRIKER" IS TAKEN FROM JAIL TO HOSPITAL

London, March 27.—William O'Brien, alderman of Dublin, who was arrested on March 3 during a raid on Liberty Hall in that city, and who has since that time been conducting a "hunger strike," was removed from jail to a hospital last night, says a dispatch to the Herald, organ of labor.

J. E. MACDOUGALL DIES SUDDENLY THIS MORNING

Popular London Financial Man Succumbs Unexpectedly.

BORN IN BELMONT

Held Many Important Positions During Successful Business Career.

James E. Macdougall, well known in the financial circles of London, died suddenly from heart trouble at his family residence, 304 Central avenue, at 5:30 o'clock this morning. A host of friends were greatly shocked to learn of his sudden demise.

Mr. Macdougall was in the best of health on Friday evening, and had remarked at that time how well he felt. He accompanied his wife to a theatrical performance during the earlier part of the evening.

He was born in the village of Belmont 65 years ago, and had spent about fifteen years of his business life in this city. At the time of his death he was secretary-treasurer of the Dominion Dyers.

For a number of years Mr. Macdougall was special agent of the Northern Life Assurance Company, with headquarters in London, his work being highly prized by the directors of the company. Leaving London, Mr. Macdougall went to the United States, where he lectured from coast to coast in the interests of the Canadian Pacific Railway. His headquarters were situated on Broadway, New York.

Later he was identified with the bureau of economics, with headquarters at Washington.

Coming back to London, Mr. Macdougall accepted a position on the advertising staff of The Advertiser, specializing in advertisements of a financial nature. He was also in the brokerage business for some time.

Mr. Macdougall is survived by his widow, three daughters, Mrs. W. C. Corbett of Washington, D. C.; Mrs. W. F. Hunt of Baltimore, and Mrs. Oliver G. Taylor of California, and one son, D. L. Macdougall of Bethlehem, Pa. O. C. Barrie, general manager of The Advertiser, is a close relative.

The funeral arrangements have not yet been completed.

BUYERS OBJECT, BUT BUY JUST THE SAME

Maple Syrup Finds Ready Sale On Market Today.

For the first time this year, maple syrup appeared in great quantities upon the market this morning. Although there were small quantities on sale a week ago, this was the first big display and the sweetness sold for from $3.75 to $4 a gallon. According to the farmers there will probably be more of this favorite Canadian sweet, if the nights keep cold.

"Sap will run as long as it freezes at night," declared one long-experienced farmer, nearly 90 years of age. "And so you will probably have maple syrup for almost a month to come." Another man was not so sure. He expected another run this week, but thought that that might be the end.

The syrup as a whole looked thick, and some of it was delightfully clear in color, while other lots had the rather cloudy aspect of the real old-fashioned syrup which always seems to have a special flavor of its own. The sale was brisk, even though almost every buyer objected to the price asked.

WINNIPEG STRIKE LEADERS TO LEARN FATE THIS AFTERNOON

JUDGE DELIVERS LONG CHARGE

Objections Made To Mr. Justice Metcalfe's Charge To Jury —Declares the Laws Made by Parliament Must Be Observed—Case Now in the Hands of Twelve Men.

Winnipeg, March 27.—By Canadian Press.—The seven strike leaders charged with seditious conspiracy will probably know their fate some time today.

Following the rebuttal address by A. J. Andrews, K.C., senior crown counsel, yesterday, Mr. Justice Metcalfe at 4:20 commenced his charge to the jury, not concluding till half an hour after midnight, when the jury retired to consider their verdict.

Objections to the charge were made by W. H. Trueman, K.C., who applied for a reserve case. The application was granted by his lordship, and the court was adjourned till 11 this morning.

The court was crowded, and the lengthy address by the judge was followed with the most intense interest.

Regarding the law, his lordship asserted:

"Our question is: Are these men guilty, under our law, of doing or going among others to do, or cause others to do the unlawful acts charged. That is our question. It is very simple. This is a court of justice, which is bound by the law as it stands, and not by the law as the accused say it ought to be. Therefore, we have nothing to do with the supposed law of natural justice, unless it be a part of the law of the land."

Having stated that it was parliament that made the law and amended it must be administered as it was. "Otherwise," he advised, "we would have mob rule and chaos."

As for the theories of strikers as to greater privileges, these must be regulated by the existing law, said the judge, who set forth the law in respect of the charges, and asked the jury to decide whether or not it had been broken by the accused.

F. G. ROBINSON, who has resigned from the position of deputy minister of the department of soldiers' civil re-establishment.

FARMERS PLOWING IN LONDON DISTRICT

Soil Rapidly Drying Out and Seeding Soon To Commence.

Several farmers are back on the land in this district, according to a report made by R. A. Finn of the department of agriculture to the department in Toronto. The land was reported to be drying rapidly owing to the little frost in the ground during the winter.

Fruit growers in many localities are spraying their trees with the dormant sprays. Many farmers are busy cleaning the brush from their berry patches. He reported much damage to have been done to the orchards by mice and rabbits.

Auction sales were more numerous this year than in any previous years, and they have been held earlier in the season. The great scarcity of feed of all kinds was given as a reason for this.

LONDONER'S SISTER IS SAFE IN CHINA

Miss Sadie Lethbridge Protected by Heroic Dr. Menzies.

Denite news from Pekin, China, of the facts of the death of Dr. J. R. Menzies, a Presbyterian missionary from Toronto, stationed at Hwaikingfu, Honan Province, brings relief to the home of George Lethbridge of this city, whose sister is also stationed in the compound at Hwaikingfu. Miss Sadie Lethbridge of Glencoe, who has been in China for the past six years, was one of the women who was protected from the inroad of robbers by the gallant act of Dr. Menzies, who came to their help. For the past few days, Mr. Lethbridge has been very anxious lest the women, his sister among them, might have suffered at the hands of the robbers.

Today, however, with the special dispatch from Pekin mentioning the death of Dr. Menzies alone, his anxiety has been relieved.

"The death of Dr. Menzies will be a great loss to the cause of the missions in China," declared Mr. Lethbridge."

LITTLE ORPHAN BOYS GET LOCKS TRIMMED

Kind Barber and Assistant Visit Children's Shelter.

Even if the prices of haircuts climbs to 50 cents London's orphan children will not be forced to revert to the hairdressing styles of the Seventeenth Century. They will be able to make their appearance just as neatly trimmed as in the good old days, when haircuts sold for 15 cents.

The principal reason for this happy state of affairs is Gordon Lamb, proprietor of the Grigg House barber shop. With his assistants he visited the Thomas Alway Hall home for children this week, and by the close of the afternoon had furnished nineteen little orphann boys with the best haircuts they ever had in their young lives. This was done on a Wednesday afternoon when the barbers might be expected to seek a rest from their somewhat monotonous labor of the remainder of the week, but without solicitation they offered their services to Inspector W. E. Kelly of the Children's Aid Society, and he gladly accepted them.

BOY HELD IN HOTEL ROOM BY KIDNAPPER SAVED BY HIS WIT

Paul Little, Locked in Hotel Room, Phones Father in Captor's Absence.

Lexington, Ky., March 27.—Paul Little, 12-year-old son of E. R. Little, Lexington capitalist, who has been held for ransom by kidnappers, was found this morning locked in a room at a local hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. Little first learned the whereabouts of their son when he telephoned his home from the hotel room. He said he had been kept a prisoner there since Wednesday night. Investigation disclosed that the room had been reserved in advance by a man registered as J. C. Cox of Cincinnati. The frantic parents, overjoyed at news of his safety, hurried to the hotel and took him home.

Kidnapped Wednesday.

The boy disappeared from in front of the Lexington postoffice Wednesday afternoon where he had been seen in conversation with a man. Playmates said the Little boy had told them he was to be given a dollar to deliver a box of candy. Soon afterward the father received a note stating his son Paul was being held for ransom. Little would not state positively but intimated that the amount asked for was $25,000. He declared he would comply with the kidnapper's demands, that he did not mind paying the money and only wanted the safe return of his son.

At the appointed hour, 7:30 o'clock last night, Little deposited a package containing the ransom money in a Main street garbage can. When he returned a half hour later the package remained intact. Believing the kidnapper failed to show up for fear of being "double-crossed," Little pocked the money and went home, intending today to seek other means of obtaining the boy.

At 7 o'clock this morning the key for the room in which the boy was found was turned in at the hotel desk. At 7:15 Mrs. Little, called to the telephone, was overjoyed to hear the voice of her missing son. Nothing has been seen of the "Mr. Cox" since he left the hotel at 7 o'clock.

Maid Describes Kidnapper.

Mrs. Katherine Sartin, maid of the sixth floor of the hotel, said she had not been able to get into the room for two days, ever since the boy was kidnapped. She saw the man enter the room and gave a description of him. She said he was about 5 feet 8 inches tall, weighing probably 170 to 175 pounds, rather rough looking, and wore a brown suit of clothes and a soft, black, round hat. A slip was found in the room printed like the letter to Mr. Little in which the demand for the $25,000 ransom was made. It bore the legend: "Do not disturb me; I am sick."

County Detective L. J. Ready, who thinks the kidnapping plot was conceived in Cincinnati, says he expects an arrest at any time.

Weak from his harrowing experience, though physically unhurt, the boy was put to bed by his parents soon after being brought home.

During his two days' confinement, he said, he had been given only two bananas, a cake and an apple to eat, and was constantly terrified by gruesome stories related by his captor, who many times shoved a pistol in his face.

Was Afraid to Sleep.

He spent the first night sitting on the edge of the bath tub afraid to sleep.

His captor was the only person he saw at any time, although the man he said called another person, whom he addressed as "Jack" on the telephone, and said to him, "Well, he is here."

A number of Paul's schoolmates called to see him. He ran to meet them and kissed them.

COST OF WALKING TO ADVANCE SHORTLY

Shoe Prices To Be Higher in Fall, Say Merchants.

The high cost of walking, will be boosted once more, according to local shoe merchants, who have to pay an advance in price on all fall goods.

No explanation for this can be given, as the factories are putting up strong competition at the present time and are holding their prices as low as possible.

Hides and leather are plentiful, but the price remains high for some unknown reason throughout Canada and the United States.

The merchants state that trade is brisk in all lines, especially in the lighter shoes for summer.

MINE SWEEPER IS SEIZED.

Amsterdam, March 27.—(By the Associated Press).—The capture by a Dutch torpedoboat of a German mine-sweeping craft in the Zuider Zee has revealed what is said to have been an attempt by the crew of the mine-sweeper to take advantage of the German revolution and sell the ship for their own profit. The vessel was left behind by the North Sea mine-sweeping flotilla, and after touching at Blokzyl, in the Zuider Zee, early in the week, proceeded to Minzerber, near Amsterdam.

PEOPLE IN ENGLAND SUFFERING ACUTELY, LONDONER DECLARES

Returned Visitor Describes Food, Fuel and Housing Shortage There.

Victor Ellis of this city, who last summer went to England with his wife on a visit to his parents, returned yesterday and, in conversation with a representative of The Advertiser, gave some interesting facts concerning conditions in "the old land" at the present time.

Unemployment in England, he said, was still widespread, and the food and fuel shortage was so acute that diseases traceable to undernourishment had reached almost epidemic proportions among the children. Doctors ascribed this condition principally to the shortage of fat in the diet, due to the scarcity of butter and other fats and the almost prohibitive prices of such commodities when they were obtainable at all.

Speaking of the fuel shortage, Mr. Ellis stated that coal was strictly rationed and even the small amount permitted under the regulations was seldom obtainable, with the result that comfort in an English home during cold weather was a practical impossibility. Sugar also was very short, and the ration permitted amounted only to eight ounces a week for each person. Butter was almost a forgotten luxury, and the margarine substitutes, while not particularly unpalatable, lacked the animal fat necessary to proper nutrition.

Eggs were fivepence-halfpenny (11 cents) each; butter, when obtainable at all, four shilling ($1) a pound; bread, eleven-pence (22 cents) a loaf, and milk eleven-pence a quart. Other food prices were correspondingly high.

Speaking of the unemployment situation, Mr. Ellis gave expression to the opinion that a large number of men were out of work because, under the system of governmental unemployment doles, they were quite satisfied to remain parasites. On the other hand, he qualified this statement by saying that genuine unavoidable unemployment existed on a tremendous scale.

The housing shortage, Mr. Ellis said, was more acute than Canadians could possibly realize from press or other written reports of the situation in this respect. He mentioned that advertisements offering bonuses of as much as twenty-five pounds ($125) for the privilege of renting a house were quite common.

As to the future, he was not prepared to express a personal opinion, but he stated that men of influence and wide knowledged in England generally held the view that any considerable amelioration of present conditions could hardly be hoped for for a year or two; that on the other hand, after the period of transition, the country would emerge into an era of unexampled prosperity built on a sound foundation.

LOSS OF APPETITE

Pimples and Other Eruptions—Mental and Physical Weariness.

They are all common at this time of year, and are all indications that the blood is wanting in the power to defend the body against infectious and contagious diseases, because they are all indications that it needs cleansing, enriching and vitalizing.

It is important to give them attention—it is in fact hazardous to neglect them.

Get Hood's Sarsaparilla today and begin taking it at once, regularly after eating and if convenient in a little hot water.

Remember, this medicine has given satisfaction to three generations, for the blood, stomach, liver and kidneys. It builds up the whole system. It makes food taste good.

For a gentle laxative or an active cathartic, take Hood's Pills. You will like them.

Hacking's Heart and Nerve Remedy Makes Rosy Cheeks

Women must have Nerve Force and Vitality in order to carry out the day's work. Beauty, Vivacity and Loveliness last only so long as the eyes sparkle with Nerve Force, and the body is filled with red blood. Spring Exhibit at Technical School Opens Display of Work Bears Out Claim That School Unsurpassed in Canada.

Ample evidence of the importance and value of London Technical School in fitting London young people for profitable and congenial life vocations will be afforded to anyone who pays even the briefest and most cursory of visits to the school during the next few days while the spring exhibit of students' work is in progress. The exhibition opened yesterday afternoon with very large attendances, and will continue open every afternoon and evening until next Wednesday night.

London's position in the industrial and mechanical world is undoubtedly a secure one if the young men who have produced the exhibits in electrical engineering, sanitary engineering, woodworking, tool-making, machine work and automobile mechanics can only be induced to remain in London and market through London factories and industrial enterprises the knowledge and expert mechanical skill they have acquired.

London will be well known in the world of art and decorative work if the artists of promise whose excellent pictures, designs, modeling and woodcarving are displayed do not forget to claim as their home the city where they have found such excellent training for the talents they possess. And most important of all, London will be a city of happy homes if all the young women who graduate in domestic science marry and settle down in London to bake for their families such excellent and etmping bread, cakes and other dishes as are displayed in the domestic science room.

The embroidery exhibit is one of wide variety and unusual beauty, and includes cushion tops, curtains, lamp shades, boudoir jackets, colored centres, fancy towels, library scarfs, spreads, dresser runners and whitewear.

Dressmaking Displays.

There are fine displays in the dressmaking departments, one by the night classes of adult age, and another of remarkable extent and high grade of workmanship by the day classes of girls of high school age.

In the cooking exhibit is shown the new $125 McClary gas and electric range won by Miss Christine Nelligan, the most proficient student in the class.

The art work includes splendid examples of plasticine modeling and some very excellent water colors. In the wood-working department are shown frame works of houses, with difficult rafter work accurately handled by the students. The exhibit of blue prints and architectural drawings is highly interesting, and shows careful and finished work. There is an equally good exhibit of mechanical draughting, and the plumbing shows remarkably neat joints and connections.

The machine shop and the class room where automobile and aeroplane mechanics are taught are other rooms that visitors found deeply interesting last night. Few millinery shops in the city can show a better display of hats than the millinery room at London Technical School, and the laundering exhibit and model home apartments appealed very strongly to the women visitors. Altogether the claim made for the London school, that it is unsurpassed anywhere in Canada, is well borne out by the excellence of the exhibits throughout.

SOUR STOMACH MADE SWEET

Gas Belching, Bad Breath, and Digestive Troubles Helped Quickest by Dr. Hamilton's Pills.

Better patch up the weak spots.

Give to the stomach the assistance it requires—or in other words, try Dr. Hamilton's Pills, which cure more weak stomachs than any other medicine.

Dr. Hamilton's Pills put the kind of life into a weak stomach that enables it to digest and assimilate all kinds of food.

It's the people who feel half-sick—sort of tired and depressed—for those who have any ailment of the stomach, kidneys, or liver, that Dr. Hamilton's Pills are sure to benefit at once. Try them, 25c a box, at all dealers, and insist on having only Dr. Hamilton's Pills. In yellow boxes only.

How Wrinkles Are Caused—and Removed

Wrinkles are caused by the skin becoming loose. Obviously the remedy is to tighten the skin. Equally it is obvious that the only thing which will tighten the skin is a good astringent application.

Now, it is well known that the only effective astringent which is at the same time perfectly harmless and beneficial as well, is pure powdered saxolite, obtainable from any druggist. Dissolve one ounce in a half-pint of witch hazel. Bathe the face in this refreshing lotion and—behold! The result is almost magical. The skin becomes firm and smooth, the face feels smug, comfortable and solid, instead of loose and flabby.

One should be careful to use no other astringents than pure saxolite.—Advt.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION COUNCIL NEW NAME OF S. S. ASSOCIATION

Change Is Made At Sunday School Convention Held in City.

The London Sunday School Association will no longer be known as such, but will be called the London Religious Education Council. This was decided at the afternoon session of the Sunday School Association, which has been in convention for the last two days.

Rev. J. C. Robertson, D.D., introduced the idea. He said that 30 of the associations in Ontario had already been changed, and that the religious education of the young people was more effective and forceful, because as a council representatives from every denomination as well as the Salvation Army, the Y. W. C. A. and the Y. M. C. A. were members. Before it was finally decided to take this step in establishing the council many of the clergymen present expressed their opinions, every one of them favoring the idea.

Rev. Mr. Robertson said that the association known as the Ontario Sunday School Association had changed to the Ontario Religious Education Council, and took in representatives from every known religious organization.

Rev. H. C. Priest, B. A., in an address at the afternoon session, spoke on the dawn of a new era in religion. He said after the demonstration given in the forward movement campaign he was positive that if the spiritual campaign was carried out properly the people who gave so generously of their money would be just as generous with their undivided service. "We must raise the standard of service and devotion," said Rev. Mr. Priest.

Effective Work.

Rev. T. A. Halpenny, who is superintendent of the Ontario Religious Education Council, spoke of the effective work that is carried on by some of the Religious Education Councils in the province. He mentioned Stratford as being exceptionally well organized along this line. He also spoke of two or three other cities where there had been no progress in the religious education of the young people that was really effective.

With this council it was possible to have every denomination taking the greatest interest possible in the religious education of the young people of the city.

Rev. Mr. Halpenny spoke of the great need of having trained Sunday school teachers. He said that the children knew that the Sunday school teachers were not trained, and consequently they did not pay the same amount of attention as they otherwise would; nor were the teachers in the same position to teach, when they have received no training along that line, as if they had received special training.

Mr. Halpenny favored a course for the Sunday school teachers that would probably extend over two years.

Rev. W. J. Knox presided at the afternoon session.

At the evening session, Rev. Byron Snell, of Hale Street Methodist Church, presided. Rev. J. H. Arnup, B. A., assistant secretary of the foreign mission board of the Methodist Church, gave an interesting talk on "Life Service." He thought that if the young people received a more thorough religious education in their early life there would be many more of them who would dedicate their lives in service to God.

The convention closed after appointing a strong committee to get representatives from all religious organizations in the city together, and start out on a big campaign for more effective religious training.

PLUMBING BYLAW IS BRANDED FARCE BY REAL ESTATE OWNERS

Also Take Fling At Housing Commission at Regular Meeting.

Retraction of the plumbing bylaw recently passed by the city council was urged by the Real Estate Owners' Association last night. They also indorsed suggested proposals of the housing commission to build apartment houses for rental at low rates.

The following resolution regarding the plumbing bylaw was passed: "That in the opinion of this association the council of 1919 showed a singular lack of experience when they entertained the question of appointing a plumbing inspector, when mayors like George Taylor, John W. Little, and others, with their colleagues in council, always shelved this question. We think the council of 1920 would show its good sense by the abolition of this office and save the citizens not only the salary and the office expense, but destroy the combine it has created in that trade."

The resolution in regard to the housing commission was: "That this association has no objection to offer against the city of London through the housing commission going into the renting business. And we are pleased to hear that the movement embraces the creation of a number of red pressed-brick apartments, with all modern conveniences for about $20 per month rental. And, no doubt, it will prove a paying investment for the civic authorities, who are always able to undertake any construction work or building from 25 per cent to 40 per cent cheaper than the private individual, and like all other municipally-owned and conducted institutions, it should be successful from the start."

More Trouble.

The new plumbing regulations are a farce, a member of the board of education said this morning. Difficulties are arising over the cost of articles which the bylaw calls for in the plumbing installed, in either a new or old building.

One instance was cited by a local lithographer, where the cost of putting in a basin was raised from $30 before the inspector made his rounds to $108 after the regulations called for in the bylaw were met.

BEWARE OF DUDS.

It has been reported that several people have seen a number of little black boxes, usually chained together. Be warned! Look! See! But do not touch! They are "duds." While curiosity may tempt you very strongly, we cannot impress upon you too forcefully—do not open them. "Duds" are to be seen, but not touched.

ADDRESS FOR TEACHERS

Arthur A. Morrison of Winnipeg, who addressed the members of the Chamber of Commerce Friday noon in the Tecumseh House on "Community Recreation," gave the same address last night to a large audience in the Y. M. C. A. The address last night was given from the viewpoint of the teachers of the schools, as a large part of the audience was composed of the public school teachers of the city.

Mr. Morrison, who came east with the Winnipeg hockey teams, has been commissioner of recreation for the city of Winnipeg for a period of ten years.

"TIZ" GLADDENS SORE, TIRED FEET

No Puffed-Up, Burning, Tender, Aching Feet—No Corns or Callouses.

"Tiz" makes sore, burning, tired feet fairly dance with delight. Away go the aches and pains, the corns, callouses, blisters, bunions and chilblains.

"Tiz" draws out the acids and poisons that puff up your feet. No matter how hard you work, how long you dance, how far you walk, or how long you remain on your feet, "Tiz" brings restful foot comfort. "Tizz" is magical, grand, wonderful for tired, aching, swollen, smarting feet. Ah! how comfortable, how happy you feel. Your feet just tingle for joy; shoes never hurt or seem tight.

Get a box of "Tiz" now from any druggist or department store. End foot torture forever—wear smaller shoes, keep your feet fresh, sweet and happy. Just think! a whole year's foot comfort for a few cents.

LONDONER TAKES MAIN PART IN McGILL PLAY

That the leading role in the "Crowning of King Cook" at McGill University Meds. of '23 was taken by a former Western University gentleman in the person of Lieut. Maurice Druker, of this city, bespeaks the high esteem in which he is held by his numerous associates at Montreal. Mr. Druker is a son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Druker of Otaway avenue, and a brother of Miss Helen Druker. Previous to the war Mr. Druker was taking the arts course at the Western University when he enlisted for overseas service. The Montreal papers were high in their praise of him and the following has refefrence to Mr. Druker:

"King Cook III. was crowned by his royal subjects of the McGill medical '23 with all the ceremonial that usually attaches to that important yearly event. The tradition dates back to 1852, in which year the janitor of the medical building was a man named Cook, who was crowned king of the sophomore class, with authority extending over the united kingdoms of medicine and surgery.

"At 8 o'clock the procession was formed and made its way from McGill Union to St. Catherine street, passing along the latter to Peel street, where it turned up as far as Sherbrooke and thence to McGill Union.

"The king was attended by his subjects, who bore banners, with appropriate devices, let off fireworks, and enlivened the proceedings with suitable music and college yells. Arrived at McGill Union the program continued in the form of a musical and dramatic extravaganza, the principal part being taken by Lieut. Maurice Druker as "The Devil," who reigned supreme in the infernal regions until dethroned on account of reformations that were introduced by some of his supporters which did not meet with general approval.

"In the course of the program "Fragments from France" were introduced by a delegation from Laval. At the close a handsome gift was presented to King Cook. The event was open only to medical students this year as was the custom in years past. It is a noteworthy fact that in the 68 years that the tradition has been carried on there have only been three kings, a striking case of royal longevity. After the musical program had been completed a banquet was held. The committee in charge consisted of Everett, Elder, Hamilton, Druker, Murphy, Ackman and Wilkie."

CAMPAIGN TO DRIVE OUT GRASSHOPPERS

Regina, Sask., March 27.—A thoroughly organized campaign, with the farmers and municipalities co-operating, is all that is necessary to eradicate the grasshopper invasion in certain districts of the province, according to F. Millinery

Designed For Easter Wear

Moderately Priced

QUITE in keeping with the Easter season, our Millinery department has blossomed forth like a garden and a special effort is being made to keep prices down to the minimum cost. This Easter display is fraught with deepest interest to women who delight in every new phase of the charm of changing fashion. The artists have visioned a wonderment of harmony and color and design, expressing every mood and fancy. We might enumerate them. We might make a minute description of every style and every feature, but we are quite sure a practical genius could never describe the rare beauty of our Spring Millinery.

Smartest Hats Have Very Little Trimming

The French woman often wears no more trimming than a veil with her new hat, and many well-dressed Canadian women are following this mode.

Off-the-face effects are particularly good style. These are well represented, as are also youthful sailors and many closely fitting hats. Colors: black, navy, brown, sand and henna.

You will find it an easy task to make selection from a special range at prices from $8.00 to $15.00.

Second Floor.

"Lest We Forget!"

Tomorrow will be "Go to Church Sunday." A special effort to fill the churches tomorrow. Every person is invited to attend church at least once this Sunday.

SMALLMAN & INGRAM LIMITED

PLEADS NOT GUILTY TO SKIPPING BILL

Toronto Man Ran Up Bill of $53 at Local Hotel.

G. W. Thomas, 8 Bank of Toronto Chambers, Toronto, pleaded not guilty in police court this morning to defrauding the Tecumseh House of $53, and was remanded for a week. Guy M. Ferguson, manager of the hotel, charged that on February 10, Thomas gave him a check, which was not honored, for $53 for board and lodging. Four attempts were made to cash it at the Home Bank, but each time it was reported that the defendant did not have sufficient funds to his credit.

A friend was supposed to have placed some money in the bank for him, the defendant claimed. Apparently, he said, he had not done so. He was given the opportunity to secure bail. In order to secure his release until the date of trial, he must furnish $500 cash bail or two securities of $250 each.

The offence with which he was charged, was a serious one, and any person committing it was liable to five years' imprisonment, said the court.

CYCLIST IS RUN DOWN AND BADLY INJURED BY ROAD HOG

Motor Driver Speeds On With Heartless Disregard.

Another specimen of the "road hog" is still at large as a result of his ability to get away without indentification. This unknown motorist, after running down a bicycle ridden by N. C. Baley of 29 Inkerman street, at the corner of Queen's avenue and Adelaide street at 11:30 last night and seriously injuring the rider, instead of waiting to find out what damage he had done, put on speed and was away before any of the by-standers could decipher his car license number.

Bailey was picked up in a semi-conscious condition, and was taken to his home in the police ambulance, which had been summoned by a constable who was on duty near the scene of the accident. Bailey's condition was improved today.

GASOLINE IS UP TWO CENTS PER GALLON

Advanced Prices In All Lines, Says Hardware and Metal.

Hardware and Metal today says:

Advanced prices continue to affect the hardware markets and many revisions have again been made. The difficulty of securing goods continues to be one of the chief problems of those in hte trade. Especially is this true of wire, iron and steel products. The exchange situation continues to be a factor for higher prices.

Gasoline is one of the features of the week, having advanced two cents per gallon. Coal oil is also higher. Lead pipe, waste, traps and bends, glazers' points, door checks, furniture polish, automatic drills and screwdrivers, cabinet locks, horse clippers, hand and breast drills, cup grease, knife handle wrenches, rubber cement, grass seeders, melting ladles, rat and mouse traps, shaft splices, post-hole diggers, handles and fittings are all revised upwards.

Business is daily improving, and the opening up of spring is creating heavy demands for seasonable goods. The majority have received their booked requirements, and sorting orders are being placed for fair-sized replacements.

Collections are coming in good time and many are looking forward to a large spring turnover, providing the goods come forward in sufficient quantities.

BEWARE OF DUDS.

GETS TWO-YEAR SENTENCE.

Bombay, March 27.—Rev. L. W. B. Jackman, an American medical missionary, who recently shot and killed Major H. D. Cloete at the northeast frontier post of Sadiya, Asham, has been sentenced to two years' imprisonment. Domestic reasons were said to have been responsible for the tragedy.

A GENTLE LAXATIVE FOR THE CHILDREN

Mothers—the surest way of keeping your little ones well and happy; whether it is the new-born babe or the growing child is to keep their bowels regular and their stomach sweet. Nine-tenths of all childhood ailments are the result of clogged bowels and sour stomach. The most necessary and the best medicine for little ones is a gentle laxative—something that will relieve constipation; sweeten the stomach and promote rest and natural sleep. Such a medicine is Baby's Own Tablets. They are a gentle but efficient laxative; are absolutely guaranteed free from opiates or other injurious drugs and may be given to the youngest infant with perfect safety. They banish constipation and indigestion; break up colds and simple fevers and give the baby that health and happiness which all children should have. They are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams Medicine Company, Brockville, Ont.

A valuable and interesting talk on "The Character of a Young Girl" was given by Mrs. A. R. C. Hourd.

BYLAW CRITICISM IS MISUNDERSTANDING

Plumbing Inspector Defends Regulations.

Much of the criticism against the new plumbing bylaw is due to misunderstanding of the regulations, Plumbing Inspector James C. Young said today. He is confident this will be cleared up when it is brought before the council, and he is given an opportunity to explain some of the clauses about which there has been complaint.

"In some quarters it has been stated that the bylaw has increased the cost of plumbing 100 per cent. That is not so. I doubt whether it has increased it as much as 20 per cent," said Mr. Young.

The inspector referred to an instance cited by one complainant that a job which he contemplated before the bylaw was in force would have cost $25, but would now cost $129. Mr. Young said that in this case the person wished to connect a tank with a sewer. As a certain amount of sediment collected in the tank this in time would have blocked the sewer, Mr. Young claimed, and so he would not authorize the work. He claimed that it was possible to drain the tank into a pail, as only a small amount of water was used in it. This instead of increasing the expense decreased it.

ROBT. DOWNING DIES

Attending Physician Refuses to Discuss Report of Unusual Circumstances Surrounding Death.

Robert Downing, 61 years old, died in St. Joseph's Hospital on Friday, where he was removed from Mount Hope Home on Thursday evening, suffering from a sudden hemorrhage. He had been ill for some time, and had been living at Munt Hope for two years past. Reports of unusual circumstances surrounding the death of Mr. Downing could not be verified, and the attending physician, Dr. P. J. Sweeney, declined to discuss the matter.

An aged mother resides in Tillsonburg, and a nephew from Norwich came to the city and accompanied the remains to that place for interment. So far as could be ascertained today, the case had not been reported to the coroner.

GO TO CHURCH

Tomorrow Will be Specially Observed in Protestant Churches.

Tomorrow, Palm Sunday, will be recognized as "Go to Church" Sunday in every Protestant Church. It is expected that only those who are invalids or have other duties to keep them at home will be absent from church.

In many of the churches, the subject of the sermon will be on the matter of going to church regularly. At a meeting of the ministers of the city held recently, at which it was decided to hold a "Go to Church" Sunday, fair weather or a special musical service seemed to be the only means of getting some people out to church was the gist of some of the remarks made.

Madam Landry Tells What Dodd's Kidney Pills Did For Her.

New Brunswick Lady Who Had Tried Other Medicines Claims She Found the Remedy She Was Looking For In Dodd's Kidney Pills.

St. Leolin, N. B., March 26—(Special).—Among the many women who claim they owe their health to Dodd's Kidney Pills, none is more enthusiastic than Madam Bruno D. Landry, a highly estemed resident here.

"It is with great pleasure that I recommend Dodd's Kidney Pills," Madam Landry says. "I was ill for a long time, and nothing I took relieved me. I read often of the good Dodd's Kidney Pills did for others, but I had not much faith in them.

"At last, after having tried a lot of other medicines, I decided to give Dodd's Kidney Pills a trial. The result has brought me perfect health.

"If those who suffer from kidney disease will use Dodd's Kidney Pills, they will find them good and soon be convinced, as I have been, that they are the remedy for kidney disease."

Dodd's Kidney Pills are no faith cure. You don't have to believe in them to find in them the relief you are looking for. But if you ask your neighbors they will tell you out of their own experiences of the work Dodd's Kidney Pills have done.

BAUER CABINET QUITS; MUELLER TO FORM GOVT.

President Ebert Authorizes Foreign Minister To Go Ahead.

BERLIN, March 26.—(By the Associated Press.)—The cabinet of Premier Bauer has resigned. Hermann Mueller, the foreign minister, has been authorized by President Ebert to organize a new cabinet.

Vorwaerts announces that in deference to the unanimous wish of the entire Social Democratic party Herr Mueller has consented to form a new ministry.

The resignation of the Bauer cabinet, it is said, was due to pressure from the Labor Federation, which has been extremely discontented with the Government's attitude since its return from Stuttgart. It is stated that labor will have a strong voice in the new Mueller cabinet.

WORKMEN ADMIT LOSSES ARE HEAVY

WESEL, Rhenish Prussia, March 26—(By the Associated Press).—The workmen's headquarters today admitted that heavy losses had been sustained in the fighting.

Major-General Kabitsch, of the Reichswehr, in a communique today said the Reichswehr forces routed the workmen from the vicinity of Lippe-Schloss yesterday and found 150 dead there.

A feeling exists, particularly among the military on both sides of the Rhine that the workmen, who are generally described as Spartacans, have not been defeated, bu are playing a game—perhaps only harrassing the Reichswehr here to keep them in a state of siege, while a similar attack is being planned elsewhere. Or, it is considered likely, their forces are being organized for a military campaign on a wider scale to protect the political power the workmen, which is already effective in most cities of the Ruhr district.

SITUATION IN PROVINCES BETTER

LONDON, March 26.—Minister of Posts Giesberts has returned to Berlin from the Ruhr region. He confirms reports that Wesel is still holding out, despite a bombardment this morning by the revolutionary workmen, according to a wireless message from the German capital.

Herr Giesberts, who visited the Ruhr district to negotiate with the leaders for the workmen, reported to the cabinet the result of his labors, which will be made public tomorrow.

The situation in the provinces is improving, the wireless dispatch says. An executive council has been framed at Breslau, comprising six socialists and one communist while the members of the centre party will join the council subject to Berlin's acknowledgment of it.

Coal delivery in the Ruhr district has reached the February standard, and Berlin has secured a supply sufficient for its vitally important needs, the message asserts.

STUDENTS WILL GET TWO CHANCES TO TRY FOR MATRICULATION

Minister of Education Provides For September Tests.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

TORONTO, March 26. — Students trying the examinations for normal and faculty entrance and matriculation are to be given two chances during the year, according to Hon. R. H. Grant, minister of education, who issued a statement today.

Candidates who cannot try or who fail at the June examinations may write in September. The minister has also decided to make certain concessions to candidates in departmental examinations. A candidate whose failure is due solely to a failure on one paper may complete his standing by writing on that one paper alone at subsequent examinations and obtaining 60 per cent thereon.

No longer need junior matriculation students worry over the tricky translations of "Six Contes" and vainly strive to commit the difficult passages to memory. Acting for the four Ontario universities, R. W. Anglin today announced that "Six Contes" had been struck off the work prescribed in French for junior matriculation, and that any questions from it placed on the examination paper would be purely optional. In its place students will have on the examination another extract from the French reader and an additional passage of sight translation.

SUBMIT TEMPERANCE QUESTION AGAIN WITHIN THREE-YEAR PERIOD

WINNIPEG, March 26. — Premier Norris declared in the Legislature this afternoon that the policy of the Government will be to submit the question of temperance legislation to the people of the province again within a period of three years, should there be an agitation for the return of liquor in that time.

Should the referendum fail to carry next summer the Government, on the presentation of a petition signed by eight per cent of the electors of the province, will submit another referendum to vote on the matter of the sale of beer and light wines within the province.

FARMERS SAY WHEAT IS IN GOOD CONDITION

SARNIA, March 26.—Farmers report winter wheat fields in an exceptionally healthy condition, and meadows and clover promise good returns, clover seed having attained prices as high as $50 per bushel. It is expected that only those forced to seed will purchase this commodity. Those who have in former years bought or sold at $5 per bushel hesitate to seed heavily.

The recent visit from the Lord's Day Alliance representatives to this city resulted in several checks to Sabbath Day trading.

WANT HYDRO POWER.

STRATFORD, March 26.—At a large meeting of the ratepayers in North Easthope it was decided to take steps to secure hydro power for the township. A survey will be made as to the cost. Good roads were also favored.

ADVISES BRANTFORD NOT TO ESTABLISH ARTIFICIAL GAS PLANT

Ontario Govt. Commissioner Outlines Conditions in the Province.

BRANTFORD, March 26—Speaking before the chamber of commerce here today Commissioner Estlin of the Ontario Government, strongly advised against the proposal to establish an artificial gas plant in Brantford at the present time. Referring to the natural gas question he said: "Ontario's fuel supply presents a vital question, as no coal except that which is imported is available. The gas needs to be kept for domestic purposes only in order to make the limited supply last for a number of years. Oil companies must discontinue to waste the gas coming from their oil wells. Many of these companies who have faulty business methods are going out of business because they do not understand their wells. Fifteen per cent of the homes of Ontario use gas as a source of fuel. It is impossible to store natural gas as one can the artificial product. In winter the flow is faulty and other fuel must sometimes be supplemented. The only remedy is to stop using the gas so prolifically. There is at the present time too great a drainage on the gas wells, and the amount taken from the wells must be moderated."

Ald. Allan and others representing the city, spoke strongly against the venture of an artificial gas plant for Brantford.

HUNDREDS OF ACRES STILL INUNDATED

CHATHAM, March 26.—Hundreds of acres of land are still inundated in the Prairie Siding district as a result of the recent flooding of the River Thames, and while the inhabitants are not experiencing any hardships, the farmers are chafing under enforced idleness.

Mrs. Matilda Garner, wife of Arthur Garner of Fargo, died in the hospital today. She had been ill with complications which resulted from an attack of influenza in February.

Western U. and St. Peters Girls Win In City League

7-5 Score in First and 17-11 in Second, Which Was Faster Tilt.

Western University girls won from the Collegiate girls by 7 to 5 in the City League series last evening at the Collegiate gym. The Western girls checked close, and scored most of their points on foul shots. The teams:

Western (7)—M. Hughes, J. Walker, V. Schwartz, N. Lindsay, H. McIntosh, R. Davis.

Collegiate (5)—P. Peever, N. Barons, M. Gibson, G. Gardiner, A. Watt, L. Lawrence.

Referee—J. Lightfoot.

St. Peter's girls won their third straight game of the second series when they defeated the Canucks by 17 to 11 in the second event. Miss Catalano and the Roberts sisters were the stars.

St. Peter's (17)—M. Smith, R. Catatano, A. Pitt, T. Mohan, M. Clark.

Canucks (11)—B. Roberts, V. Roberts, E. Lynch, A. Woolway, G. Heddon.

Referee—J. Lightfoot.

BOTH TEAMS CONFIDENT OF WINNING TONIGHT

Toronto, March 27.—The stage is all set for the first game of the Allan cup finals tonight between University of Toronto and Falcons of Winnipeg. Both teams express optimism as to the outcome, but are not taking any chances of being overconfident. Falcons have a slight advantage over Varsity. They are fresh and their physical endurance has not been tested for some weeks. Varsity, on the other hand, played two strenuous games last week, and are naturally not in as good condition. They have been taking things easy since Wednesday, and Coach Carrol predicts a victory for the students. None of the varsity players suffered any ill effects in the shape of injuries from their two gruelling contests with the "Wolves of the North," as the Sudbury team were popularly termed, and hence, will have no alibis to offer in this direction. Bill Carson, Varsity's clever centre player, is in first-class condition, and it is upon him that the blue and white squad lay their hopes. Carson, owing to injuries, was unable to compete in the important O. H. A. fixtures this season, and this accounts for Varsity being termed as a third-rater in O. H. A. company.

CARPENTIER HAS AN OFFER FROM DETROIT

Detroit, March 27.—An offer of $20,000 to Georges Carpentier to meet Battling Levinsky, a light heavyweight, in a ten-round bout here was announced today by Max L. Barbour, president of the Wolverine Athletic Club. Mr. Barbour proposes to stage the match either at Navin Field or the state fair grounds.

MAY NOT SEND TEAM.

New York, March 27.—The report of the Davis Cup committee, recommending that no tennis team be sent to the Olympic games, and suggesting dates for the preliminary Davis Cup ties, was up for consideration before the United States Lawn Tennis Association here today. As the dates selected by the Belgian authorites overlap the United States national championships, it would be impracticable to send a team unless the Olympic dates are shifted, the report said.

MARYLAND ASSEMBLY INVITES DE VALERA

ANNAPOLIS, March 26. — Acting on a resolution adopted by the Maryland House of Delegates, Governor Albert C. Ritchie today sent a letter to Eamon De Valera, "president of the Irish republic," inviting him to address that body.

LIKE A TIDAL WAVE

Heart Disease and Nerve Troubles Sweep the Country.

Probably at no period in the world's history have heart and nerve troubles been so prevalent as they are today.

The heart can't stand the stress and strain of this busy, bustling age, and the care and worry, the anxiety and activity of business life constitute a serious drain on the nervous system.

The business of this work-a-day world goes with such a rush that the stoutest hearts and strongest nerves break down under the strain.

On the first approach of any breakdown of the system Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills should be taken. The reconstructive power of these pills on the heart and nerve system is simply marvelous.

Mr. W. A. Wright, Hopewell avenue, Ottawa, Ont., writes: "After suffering for some time with my heart, I consulted a number of doctors, but got no relief. However, I read what Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills had done for others, who had the same symptoms and thought I would give them a trial. Believe me, six boxes cured me completely. I am feeling fine now, and can attend to my work every day. I can recommend your pills to anyone suffering as I did."

Price 50c a box at all dealers, or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Company, Limited, Toronto, Ont.

WALL STREET.

New York, March 27—Wall Street, 10:10 a.m.—Gains extending from large fractions to 3 points were made at the active opening of today's stock market. Shippings and oils led, with motors, equipments and coppers also in demand.

10:30 a.m.—Despite the profit-taking incidental the week-end, stocks were strong at the broad and active opening of today's session. Motors and their specialties continued to lead, assisted by shippings, equipments and oils. Outstanding features included Stutz, Chandler, Studebaker, Pierce-Arrow and Stromberg, Atlantic-Gulf, Mexican Petroleum, Texas Company, Baldwin and American Locomotives, American Car, Republic Iron and American Woolen, at gains of 1 to 6 points. The market reacted within the first half-hour, however, on a sharp break in General Motors.

WALL STREET REVIEW.

New York, March 27.—Active trading in speculative shares was resumed on a broader scale this week, the movement continuing to centre, however, in specialties of the motor group, also oils, equipments and steels. Gains among some of these issues, which rose and fell in bewildering confusion on frequent profit-taking, were of substantial proportions, and in several noteworthy cases new high records were established. The advance was in large part traceable to relatively easy rates for call money, demand loans ruling between 7 and 9 per cent. though mounting at one time to higher quotations, with continued firmness for time funds.

Another important factor in the advance was the strength of remittances on London, which rose vigorously even before it became known that heavy imports of gold to the United States had begun. A large consignment of the metal is already here, according to reports current in shipping circles, but the inflow, which is supposed to bear close relation to the payment of the Anglo-French loan, maturing next October, may reasonably be expected to reach huge proportions.

Industrial conditions, as indicated by several favorable annual reports, pointed to high pressure of activity in many lines of trade, and the investment situation offered encouragement in the heavy subscriptions to new capital underwritings.

MAY BUY PAVING PLANT

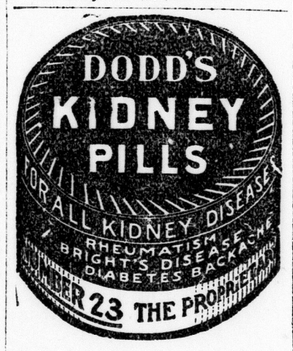

Sarnia City Council Considers It at Special Meeting.

SARNIA, March 26.—The city council, at a special meeting called this evening for the purpose of considering the purchase of a municipal paving plant, received a report from a committee appointed to look into the matter in which the approximate cost of a plant with a 2,000-yard capacity was given as between $42,000 and $45,000.

The council has at present about $30,000 available to apply on the purchase of such a plant, and the question of raising the balance would have to be submitted to the ratepayers. In the meantime Alderman Kirby was appointed to communicate with a Philadelphia firm, with a view to securing an option on a paving plant. He will report back to the council at the regular meeting on Monday.

GERMANY ARMY STRONG

PARIS, March 26.—Germany, in the event of mobilization, can place an army of 3,400,000 men in the field, says Henri Bidou, well-known French war correspondent, in a dispatch to Le Journal from Mayence. He adds that Germany secretly has reinforced her once famous war machine, which in 1918 was very scattered. Officers, he says, are available to command an army of 4,000,000 men.

ESSEX FLAX MILLS MOVED TO HARRISTON

ESSEX, March 26.—The Canadian Flax Mills have moved their machinery and stock from here to Harriston, and G. A. Constable, who has been manager for the company here, has moved with his family to the same town.

The local department of agriculture is at present arranging for four or five pig clubs in Essex County this year. This year they will likely be distributed over the county and confined to townsips, with about 25 boys and girls in each club.

W. Oldfield, who has been transferred to the M. C. R. agency at West Lorne, assumed his duties at that station on Tuesday. Joseph Cartier, who has been at Mull for some time past, has been appointed agent at Essex. Mr. Oldfield will move his family about May 1.

THERE WILL PROBABLY BE NO COAL STRIKE APRIL 1.

It looks now as if the operators and miners would get together on a two-year contract. They will get at least 30 per cent advance in wages. They are asking for 60 per cent.

What is Gluten? Do you know?

Food experts talk of food in terms of gluten, proteins, carbohydrates, fibre, heat, etc., These are important food properties. Reduced to simple English, they mean nutriment.

Gluten is one of the important nutritives of flour. It is the organic compound that forms tissue. Therefore it is a very important body-builder.

Manitoba No. 1 Hard and the best Ontario Soft Wheats contain very generous portions of gluten. When ground and baked into cakes, pies, etc., these two varieties of wheat provide a goodly share of gluten broken up into its most digestible form.

Therefore for body-building value and for digestibility you cannot do better than have bread, cakes, pastry, etc., made from a perfect blending of these two qualities of grain. That is why

Soldiers Raiding About 1,000 Irish Homes Weekly; Gen. Payne Aids French

Weekly Nation Says Carsonite Army Commander Called by Lord-Lieutenant To Rule the Nationalist Section — Former Belfast Police Chief Heads Constabulary.

LONDON, March 26.—Almost every day furnishes a new victim for the "underground" warfare in Ireland. This morning Alan Bell, resident magistrate, 70 years old, and for many years official of the Royal Constabulary, was dragged by a gang, some of whom were masked, from a crowded tram car in Dublin and shot four times in cold-blood before the eyes of the passengers. Some of the passengers were women, who fainted at the sight. The assassins ran away and no arrests have been made.

There have been three attacks on policemen in different parts of Ireland during the last three days, two of the policemen being dangerously wounded. One of them was a young man returning home after enlisting in the constabulary.

An inquest at Dublin today on the unknown man killed Wednesday evening revealed that he was a clerk at army headquarters. Dublin gossip says he was engaged in secret service work.

Viscount French, lord-lieutenant of Ireland, has written to the widow of Magistrate Bell:

"Your gallant and distinguished husband has crowned a life of devoted and valuable services to Ireland by his noble death in fighting the cause of his country."

Despite placards all over Ireland offering £50,000 reward and government protection for information, no one has been convicted for any of the assassinations, many of which have occurred in daylight in the presence of numerous witnesses.

Feeling still runs high in Cork over the murder of Lord Mayor MacCurtain. Several witnesses at the inquest attempted to connect the police with the murder, and the Sinn Feiners profess to believe the killing was in revenge for the slaying of a policeman in Cork a few hours before the lord mayor was murdered.

The House of Commons today discussed the case of Alderman William O'Brien, leader of the transport workers, who is in jail. He is said to be conducting a hunger strike and is in danger of death. T. P. O'Connor, the Nationalist leader, called attention to the fact that O'Brien was serving on the government's coal commission when arrested, and asked:

"Has the Government considered the effect on Irish opinion of the possible death of Alderman O'Brien resulting from his incarceration without trial?"

Great Responsibility.

Andrew Bonar Law, the Government's spokesman, replied:

"It is obvious this is a great responsibility. The Government would deplore that anyone should commit suicide under such circumstances. The first duty of any government is to protect the lives of its citizens, and the Irish Government has taken the responsibility of declaring this arrest was necessary for that object."

While the discussion was going on, Mr. Bonar Law was handed a telegram, which he read to the House. It announced the murder in Dublin of Magistrate Bell. Mr. Bonar Law said Mr. O'Brien would be taken to a hospital if he consented to take food.

The Weekly Nation, in its issue tonight, says the police and soldiers raid about 1,000 Irish homes weekly; that General Sackett-Payne, who commanded the Carsonite army in Ireland, has been called in by Field Marshal Viscount French, lord-lieutenant of Ireland, to assist in the rule of Nationalist Ireland, and that Inspector Smith, who was chief of the Belfast police when cargoes of rifles for Sir Edward Carson's forces were being landed, is now head of the Royal Constabulary.

With a superheated atmosphere on both sides of the channel, the Irish home rule bill will be debated in the House of Commons next Monday.

James Ian MacPherson, chief secretary for Ireland, will introduce the bill and John R. C. Clynes, former food controller, and former Premier Asquith, member of the Irish privy council, will lead the opposition for the Laborites and the Liberals. The debate is not expected to last more than two or three days. Premier Lloyd George will make the final summing-up.

ONTARIO TAKES UP FIGHT FOR HIGHER PENSION

Liberal Member's Resolution Passes Provincial Legislature.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

TORONTO, March 26.—The resolution moved by Capt. Ramsden (Liberal, Southwest Toronto) that representations be made to the Federal Government for a revision of the pensions act passed the Legislature today with no discussion other than the speech by the mover. None of the cabinet made any reply.

Capt. Ramsden reviewed the present amounts paid to soldiers, and declared they were not adequate. The amounts paid to children were all right, but the ages for those who get it should be increased to 21 years. Widows should at least get $60 a month, he said, and the widowed mother of a married soldier should also be looked after. At present she got nothing. He also thought that the widows of soldiers who died after marrying, from war wounds, should get pensions.

Conservative and Liberal leaders evidently waited for the Government to say something, but as they did not rise the motion carried without further discussion.

COAL PRICES ARE EXPECTED TO ADVANCE

BRANTFORD, March 26.—Local coal dealers expect that the price of domestic coal will be advanced on April 1 from $13 per ton to $15. An increase in freight rates is expected as well as a readjustment of the wage scale for anthracite miners. Householders here are deluging the dealers with orders in anticipation of the advance.

THROWS CHARGE AGAINST RETAIL GROCERS OUT

Commerce Board Will Inquire Further Into Wholesalers' Actions.

TORONTO, March 26.—"The charge of a sale price-fixing combination against the Hamilton Retail Grocers stands entirely disproved and is dismissed," the Board of Commerce announced this afternoon at the conclusion of the argument by counsel in the board's investigation into the alleged wholesale grocers' combination. As to the charges against the wholesalers, the board states:

"If it were obligatory upon the board to now render a decision upon the materials and testimony put before it that decision could only be for the complete acquittal of all those accused, but, fortunately, the board is not bound to decide upon the fragmentary and insufficient materials which have been set before it."

Further the board states: "Accordingly in these proceedings, and at this stage the board neither acquits nor condemns any wholesaler, manufacturer or association."

A promise is made that the board will inquire further into the charges against the wholesalers. Regret is expressed by the board "that this investigation has been of an extremely superficial character, and that, in its judgment apart from the acquittal of the Hamilton Retail Grocers, and the benefit of the argument of counsel, the time spent thereon has been practically wasted time."

Notification is given that when the board resumes public hearings in the matter, the hearings will be "in charge of, and under the direction of, the board in all respects," and the board will ask the attorney-general of Canada to supply counsel to assist it.

"If the attorney-general of Ontario desires leave to prosecute all, or any of those charged in these proceedings," the board states, "he may have that leave."

WELSH LOCAL OPTION GETS SECOND READING

MONTREAL, March 26.—A bill which will give local option to Wales passed its second reading in the House of Commons today, 86 to 84. Lady Astor was active in the debate on the measure, explaining that she considered local option a principle of democracy. When asked to reconcile her activity for the bill with her campaign statement, "I am not a prohibitionist," Lady Astor replied that the whole of the speech in which she made the statement should be quoted to convey just what she meant.

Herbert H. Asquith, former premier, also spoke in support of the measure. The bill is much the same as the one which had been effective in Scotland for the last six years.

SAYS THAT PEAK OF HIGH PRICES HAS BEEN PASSED

Present Levels Will Obtain For Some Time, Says Banker.

WINDSOR, March 26.—Expressing supreme disgust at the result of governmental interference in the operation of public utilities in the United States and fearing that similar action was indicated in this country, J. H. Simpson, vice-president of the First National Bank, Detroit, advised border businessmen to refrain from interfering in questions of this nature during the course of his address before the chamber of commerce here. Canada's currency, he believes, will slowly but steadily rise to a higher level, and the unfavorable exchange rate having passed the zenith will not return to the previous high-water mark, Mr. Simpson declared.

He also declared the peak of high prices for foodstuffs and other commodities had been passed, and that present levels would obtain for some time, gradually lowering later, until there was a general depression.

Mountain Grown Orange Pekoes are Best

Orange Pekoe Teas are plucked from every tea bush.

So there are poor Orange Pekoes and those of fine quality. Low price and high price.

The best Orange Pekoes are plucked from tea bushes grown from selected seed in the carefully cultivated soil of mountain side gardens, and gathered at a certain time of the year when the flavor is most fully developed in the leaves.

Naturally these command the highest price.

They are worth it, as you will agree when you taste their exquisite flavor in our Red Rose Orange Pekoe Tea---the new and higher priced tea for those who are willing to pay a little extra price for a tea of extra quality.

There are numerous packages of Orange Pekoe teas on the market. See that the one you buy has the name---Red Rose Orange Pekoe Tea---on our waxed board carton.

Mountain grown Orange Pekoes from the best plantations. A tea of extra quality at a little extra price.

CHARGES MONEY RING TRYING TO BUY NOMINATION

Senator Borah Says Effort To Purchase Presidential Convention.

ACCUSES BOTH PARTIES

Advocates Congressional Action To Regulate Candidates' Expenditures.

WASHINGTON, March 26.—A direct charge that big financial interests were trying to buy the national convention of the Republican and Democrat parties was made in the Senate today by Senator Borah, Republican, Idaho, in a speech advocating congressional action to regulate the pre-convention expenditures of candidates for the presidency.

Concentrating his attack on the backers of Major-Gen. Leonard Wood and Governor Lowden for the Republican nomination, Senator Borah declared the Wood managers were attempting "to control the Republican convention by the use of money," while the Lowden organization apparently was spending even greater sums to gain support for their candidate. Within ten days, he predicted, two Democratic aspirants, whom he did not name, would be found spending quite as much as any Republican in the field.

Brought Heated Debate.

The speech brought on a heated debate, during which Senator Moses, Republican, New Hampshire, manager of Gen. Wood's Washington headquarters, made a general denial that excessive funds had been used in the Wood candidacy, or that any money had been spent except "legitimately and necessarily."

Calling on all the candidates to tell the country voluntarily how much they were spending and where it was coming from, Senator Borah cited newspaper reports that the Wood promoters had pledged a campaign fund of $1,000,000, that "testimonials" indorsing Gen. Wood were being bought in Indiana for $2.50 each, and that every vote cast for the Wood or Lowden candidacies on the recent South Dakota primaries represented an expenditure of $10. Such a situation, said the senator, forecast a saturnalia of corruption unless Congress intervened.

Third Term Question.

During the debate the subject of a third term for President Wilson was raised by Senator Ashurst, who said if any Democrat was seeking a third term the people ought to know it and oppose it. Senator Borah replied that he had evidence which convinced him the president was trying for another nomination.

GUARD AGAINST THE 'FLU

Serious Outbreaks of Influenza All Over Canada.

GOOD HEALTH IS THE SUREST SAFEGUARD

"FRUIT-A-TIVES" Brings Vigor and Vitality and Thus Protects Against Disease.

There can be no doubt that the situation regarding the spread of Influenza throughout Canada is one of grave concern. It is quite true that the number of cases does not constitute an epidemic such as caused the suffering and sorrow during the terrible days of 1918. Yet there is no disguising the fact that everyone should be on their guard against the disease.

In Montreal alone, from January 20th to February 21st, three thousand, one hundred and twenty-two cases of Influenza and 139 deaths from the disease were reported to the Health Department.

If the outbreak had come at the beginning of the winter instead of the end, we might reasonably feel that the very cold weather would check the spread of the disease. But coming as it has, at the end of the winter, there is grave fear that an epidemic may occur. For spring, with its slush and rain under foot, its dampness and chill, its constant changing from cold to warm and back again, is a prolific source of coughs and colds, pleurisy and pneumonia.

The best protection, in fact, the only safeguard against the 'Flu is, GOOD HEALTH.

Those who are not as well and strong as they should be; those who are underweight; those who are "rundown" through overwork or sickness; should build up at once. What they need is a Blood-purifier, a body-builder, a strength-giver, like "Fruit-a-tives," the wonderful fruit medicine.

"Fruit-a-tives" regulates the kidneys and bowels, causing these organs to eliminate waste regularly and naturally as nature intended. "Fruit-a-tives" keeps the skin active, and insures an abundant supply of pure, rich blood. "Fruit-a-tives" tones up and strengthens the organs of digestion, sharpens the appetite, brings restful sleep and renews the vitality of the nervous system. "Fruit-a-tives" contains everything that an ideal tonic should have; to purify the blood, to build up strength and vigor, and to regulate the eliminating organs, so that the whole system would be in the best possible condition to resist disease.

Now is the time to build up your health and strength, not only as a precaution against the ravages of Influenza, but also to protect you against "spring fever" and the inevitable reaction which comes with the appearance of warmer weather. Get a box of "Fruit-a-tives" today and let this fruit medicine keep you well.

"Fruit-a-tives" is sold by all dealers at 50c a box, 6 boxes for $2.50, trial size 25c, or sent postpaid on receipt of price by Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa.

Feared 'Dry Time' So Bought Liquor Enough For 7 Years

Resident of Erieau Spent About $800 of His Savings and Is Now Charged With a Breach of the Ontario Temperance Act.

BLENHEIM, March 26.—An interesting case was heard in police court here today before Magistrate J. C. Whittington, when William Punnett of Erieau, was charged with keeping for sale 45 cases of whiskey contrary to the O. T. A. George Peters, county constable, laid the charge, which arose out of a search he made a few days ago of the premises, when he discovered the goods. At that time there were eleven cases of Imperial and the others were Canadian Club. L. A. Pardo, another constable, was with him when the search was made. Barrister R. L. Gosnell acted for the crown in the absence of the crown attorney, and Barrister B. L. Bedford of Chatham acted for the defendant.

Constables' Evidence.

The constables told of the defendant telling his story of how he had ordered in three different orders and all had been received since January 2. He had refused to allow his wife to tell the constables about the orders given. They found on their first visit, March 16, two bottles gone and one half empty. Last Wednesday they found four gone. Defendant had told them he was only a laborer and rented the house he lived in at $8 per month, and had lived there since August 1918. He was a fisherman.

The constables were of the opinion that the liquor was not for his own use, as the quantity was so large, costing nearly $800, as defendant said he was not a heavy drinker, and did not drink more than a small amount at a time.

Several witnesses were called from Erieau. All gave the defendant a good character and none claimed to know anything about the liquor, or had any of it.

Feared "Dry" Time.

Defendant went into the witness box and told how he had purchased the liquor with his savings. He had got it because he feared a dry time coming. He expected it to last him six or seven years. Since receiving it he had had men come around at night trying to buy it, one man offering as high as $7 for a bottle. He had told them it did not belong to him, so that they would not bother him, and since then he had not been troubled.

He charged the constable with telling him a falsehood by offering to get him off if he could tell him of a man who had paid for a bottle. Both defendant and his counsel put up a strong plea that owing to there being no doctor at Erieau in case of sickness, it was very necessary to have liquor on hand. Defendant strongly held he had never sold any nor given any away.

After hearing the evidence and the addresses of the lawyers, the court adjourned to allow cited cases to be put in, the magistrate to give his decision on the case one week from today.

CIVIC GRATUITIES FOR SARNIA SOLDIERS

Distribution of $70,000 Will Be Made Very Shortly.

SARNIA, March 26.—Debentures are now being prepared for sale for the payment of the soldiers' civil gratuity, the bylaw for which was passed at a special meeting of the 1919 council. This provides for the distribution of $70,000 pro rata among Sarnia officers and men who served overseas and were residents of Sarnia for six months prior to enlisting. Many inquiries from outside parties claiming to have formerly lived here before enlisting are being received.

The Dominion Bank has leased the store occupied by F. F. Campbell, tailor, Front street, and will open a branch in this city.

A small fire in the rear of the Canadian Printing Company's premises tonight was extinguished before any damage was done.

FINED $1,000 FOR BREAKING LIQUOR LAWS

WINDSOR, March 26.—Arrested by Provincial Officers Smith and Hannah for having liquor illegally in his possession, Mr. Julius Simon of Detroit, was fined $1,000 in Windsor police court today.

Windsor doctors are being victimized by a gang of crooks who, under the pretence of waiting in physicians' offices for audiences, are stealing large quantities of narcotic drugs and surgical instruments.

Convicted of the theft of $50 from Theresa Ebelar, Reginald Green, colored, was today sentenced by Judge Coughlin to two years at Burwash. When the judge hinted of a seven-year term the prisoner collapsed in the box.

TEN CASES OF WHISKEY WILL BE CONFISCATED

SARNIA, March 26.—On Saturday at Port Lambton Magistrate Bootham will be asked for a confiscation order for ten cases of whiskey seized recently at that village by Ontario Police Inspector W. H. Stringer of Sarnia, and also for an order for six cases seized by Stringer and License Inspector Lucas. The liquor was taken by officers after notice had been sent out to the addresses with no responses.

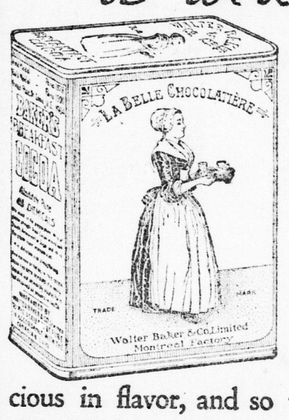

INDIAN DISMISSED ON SERIOUS CHARGE

ST. THOMAS, March 26.—After a hearing lasting through the entire day and held behind closed doors, Judge C. O. Ermatinger dismissed the charge of having carnal knowledge with a girl of tender years preferred against Jonas Nicholas, an Indian residing in this district. Nicholas was arrested some weeks ago. When he appeared in court today he faced two charges; one of detaining Frances John, an Indian girl, aged 13, for immoral purposes, and the other of having carnal knowledge. The charge of detaining will be heard at the courthouse Monday next.

First, Doctors — Then a Skin Specialist Then a bottle of D.D.D.

We shall publish every week for the benefit of skin sufferers in this section, a few words written by Canadian people—some of them of prominence—all heartfelt stories of relief from terrible suffering.

A sentence or two from a letter from J. W. Corns, 58 Melbourne Ave., Toronto, a man of fine standing. "I have been a sufferer for two years with eczema on the legs and ankles. I tried three or four different doctors. I went to a skin specialist. All of no use. I used one dollar bottle of D. D. D.—that is all. Today I am perfectly well."

If you wish to try a bottle of this Prescription that Mr. Corns found so remarkable, we will guarantee relief on the first bottle, or your money back. Stop that itch today. $1.09 a bottle. Try D. D. D. Soap, too.

"You Are Losing Weight— You Are Anaemic"

"WHAT does that mean, doctor?"

"It means that you are not deriving proper nourishment from the food you are eating."

"I eat enough, I think."

"That may be, but your blood is thin and watery, your nervous system is being starved and your weight is below normal."

"Is that what makes me feel so tired? I don't seem to have the energy to do much."

"Exactly, you have not enough nervous energy to drive the machinery of the body. Digestion fails and you do not derive proper nourishment from your food."

"What should I do?"

"You need a treatment that will supply to the blood in condensed form the elements which are necessary to build up the nervous system."

"How about Dr. Chase's Nerve Food."

"There is nothing better. I could easily give you a prescription that would cost you more money, but Dr. Chase's Nerve Food contains all the elements necessary for the enriching of the blood and restoration of the nervous system. If you keep a record of your weight each week you will be able to prove this for yourself.

"You think I am anaemic then?"

"Yes, your blood is weak and this is why your nerves are starved and exhausted. The headaches, tired feelings and sleeplessness are the result of this condition, but you will soon be all right if you follow this treatment faithfully."

Dr. Chase's Nerve Food is sold by all dealers. On every box of the genuine you will find the portrait and signature of A. W. Chase, M.D., the famous Receipt Book author. Edmanson, Bates & Co., Ltd., Toronto.

RETAILERS PLAN TO SOLVE PROBLEMS

OWEN SOUND, March 26.—A new departure in connection with the local board of trade has been made by the formation of a retail merchants' bureau to deal with all matters affording the retail trade. Among the objects of the new organization is the encouragement of home industries, promotion of the "Buy In Canada" campaigns, regulation of closing hours, holidays, enforcement of early closing bylaws and the censoring of advertising. It will also make an effort to find a solution for the donation problem.

The newly-organized Rotary Club had a field day yesterday, when it entertained a party of Rotarians from Toronto. The visitors spent the afternoon in sightseeing, and in the evening were entertained at a banquet, at which the charter of the new club was presented by Norman Tovell, together with the club colors. A jolly evening was spent, and the visitors returned to Toronto today delighted with their trip and confident of the success of the new club as a factor in the business life of Owen Sound.

HAS SON IN LONDON.

WOODSTOCK, March 26.—Word has been received of the death in Brooklyn, N. Y., of James Murray, a former resident of Woodstock. He had been in poor health since last September, and died at the home of his son-in-law, J. A. Brundige. Besides his wife, two daughters and one son survive: Mrs. Brundige and Mrs. Richards of Brooklyn, N. Y., and Lieut.-Col. K. A. Murray of London, who was overseas as head of the Canadian Postal Corps. There is also one brother, Alexander Murray, contractor, this city.

THIEVES RANSACK CHURCH AT GALT

GALT, March 26.—Some time during the night thieves broke into Knox Church, gaining entrance by a window, and thoroughly ransacked the edifice and incidentally doing considerable damage. They got only $5 in small change from a cupboard. Evidently the thieves were well acquainted with the building.

The C. M. C. Benefit Society held one of the most successful dances of the season this evening in the armories. It was attended by many from out-of-town. Kruger's Orchestra of Kitchener provided the music.

Dr. J. D. Radford, M. O. H., today tested samples of the milk distributed in the city and found all the samples clean, but a couple under the required percentage of butterfat. Samples of cream tested were better than the required percentage.

At the W. M. S. convention at Stratford, Mrs. M. B. Davidson of this city was elected to a position on the general council.

PRESIDENT OF BAKERS DENIES PROFITEERING

Harry J. Neal Says No Industry Is So Closely Regulated.

WINDSOR, March 26.—Action by Labor members of the city council, who threatened to demand a probe of alleged exorbitant profits in the bread industry in Windsor, is to be dropped, Mayor Winter declared tonight, when he explained that the report of the Dominion Board of Commerce which referred to the cost of manufacturing bread as seven and a fraction cents related to a pound, while the understanding got abroad that it referred to a loaf basis.

Denies Allegation.

Commenting on the original story that the cost of bread production in Windsor was seven and a fraction cents per loaf, while it was selling for 15 cents, indicating a profit of 100 per cent, Harry J. Neal, president of the Neal Baking Company and president of the Canadian Bakers' and Confectioners' Association, tonight declared the figures erroneous, and emphatically denied that profiteering was practiced.

He declared no industry in the Dominion was as closely regulated as were bakers.

WATER RATES RAISED.

Water rates in the town of Sandwich were tonight raised from 6 to 10 cents per thousand gallons by the Windsor Water Commission from which Sandwich secures its supply. The new schedule goes into effect April 1.

The finance committee tonight instructed City Engineer Brian to appoint a competent engineer to confer with a Welkerville appointee and the engineer of the Essex Border utilities commission as to a satisfactory solution of the water supply question in the border cities.

SALARIES INCREASED.

Salaries of the three members of the Windsor court of revision were increased from $150 to $250 annually.

Adjutant Martin of London, Ont., who is in charge of the campaign here to finance extensions to Grace Hospital, has been successful in having a grant to that institution again introduced to the city council after that body some weeks ago turned down a request for funds. The finance committee tonight refused to consider the question and threw it back to the council at large for an open debate Monday night. The army is asking for $24,500.

MAPLE SYRUP PRICES SOARING AT SARNIA

SARNIA, March 26.—In keeping with other commodities that are high and soaring, the price of maple syrup is quoted at $5 per gallon. This is a big disappointment to many who, with sugar receding from their grasp, had hoped to lay in an extra supply of this food.

There is little talked here but real estate. Every second person seems to be more or less concerned in buying or selling property. Many who were formerly well contented with their homes have been induced by high prices to sell and seek other locations, and are amazed to find considerable difficulty in bettering themselves.

HYDRO MAY COST $40,000,000 NEXT TWO YEARS

Auditor Clarkson Estimates Amount Needed for Electrical Work.

[Special To The Advertiser.]

TORONTO, March 26.—The Legislature will get a chance to discuss the Kapuskasing report probably on Wednesday. The report of the commission of investigation was laid before each member today. Hon. H. G. Ferguson, Conservative leader, asked that the Government bring down as many papers and other information as could be secured for the discussion.

R. R. Hall, rising on the point of privilege, replied to Sir Adam Beck's statements at Oshawa. He wished to restate, he said, that the hydro radials would prove abnormally expensive, and in many cases unwarranted. That must be the feeling of the electors, he thought, because both Sir Adam and Hon. I. B. Lucas of the hydro commission had been defeated in the elections. "I am sorry I hit Sir Adam where I hit him before, and he felt it," said Mr. Hall, amid laughter.

Several Resigned.

Dr. Creelman, president of the Ontario Agricultural College, has not been asked to resign, nor had he resigned, said Hon. Manning Doherty, in reply to a question. None of the professors had been asked to resign, either. Several had resigned.

Ontario up till February last made $536,800.40 profit in the running of liquor dispensaries, according to a reply given by Hon. H. C. Nixon to Major T. C. Tolmie. There were one wholesale liquor dispensary and seven retail dispensaries in Ontario, the provincial secretary said in reply to another question. There are 111 employees in the various dispensaries.

R. L. Brackin's bill to increase the exemption from garnishee from $25 to $50 was given its second reading.

With practically all the lawyer members present Hon. W. E. Raney took the opportunity of moving the second reading of his bill to codify partnership laws. At Hon. Mr. Ferguson's request he gave the identical explanation which he used to enlighten the House on Monday when the other legal lights were absent. On being satisfied that the bill included no amendments to the law, but simply provided for codification, neither Mr. Ferguson nor the Liberal leader offered any objection.

Hydro-Electric Report.

The report of G. T. Clarkson, auditor of the Provincial Hydro-Electric Commission, was tabled in the Legislature today. According to Mr. Clarkson's figures the expenditures in the next two years on the hydro, not including radial railways, will be between $26,000,000 and $27,000,000. If the radial projects go through a further expenditure of about $40,000,000 will be required.

Estimated costs of construction are thus given by Mr. Clarkson:

Chippewa works, $10,000,000, less $18,500,000 expended thereon.

Nipigon works, $4,000,000 to $5,000,000, less $1,000,000 expended thereon.

Rideau systems, $550,000.

On other systems, $150,000.

"The Government should give a full measure of support to the hydro," says Auditor Clarkson in his report.

NO REDUCTION IN SMALLPOX CASES

KITCHENER, March 26.—Sanitary Inspector Rau announced today that there is no sign of the local smallpox outbreak abating. There are as many cases as there were two months ago. The K. W. Hospital is still quarantined as a result of three cases being discovered in the institute.

The purchase by the John Sloan Company of Kitchener's oldest wholesale grocery concern was announced today. The firm purchased the interests of the Randall-Roos Company.

DR. HUFFMAN LEAVING ARKONA.

ARKONA, March 26.—Dr. J. L. Huffman, who has been here for sixteen years, is leaving shortly. He has not definitely decided where he will locate. Dr. W. P. Bole of Parkhill has taken over the practice.

John Stevenson, while at the buzzsaw on Ed Richter's farm Wednesday afternoon, suffered the loss of his left hand third finger.

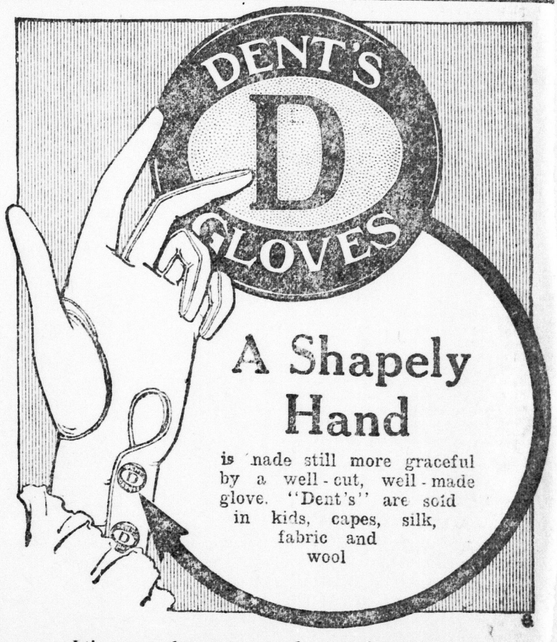

The D. A. M. I. D. K. Girls' Club and the U. N. I. O. N. O. Girls' Club held a pleasant and well-attended banquet in the public library rooms on Wednesday evening.

TAKE SALTS TO FLUSH KIDNEYS

Eat Less Meat If You Feel Backachy or Have Bladder Trouble.

Meat forms uric acid which excites and overworks the kidneys in their efforts to filter it from the system. Regular eaters of meat must flush the kidneys occasionally. You must relieve them like you relieve your bowels: removing all the acids, waste and poison, else you feel a dull misery in the kidney region, sharp pains in the back or sick headache, dizziness, your stomach sours, tongue is coated and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine is cloudy, full of sediment; the channels often get irritated, obliging you to get up two or three times during the night.

To neutralize these irritating acids and flush off the body's urinous waste get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine and bladder disorders disappear. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate sluggish kidneys and stop bladder irritation. Jad Salts is inexpensive; harmless and makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which millions of men and women take now and then, thus avoiding serious kidney and bladder diseases.

CANADA'S FISCAL SITUATION.

To carry on the business of the Dominion, the Government calls for the expenditure of $537,000,000 during the next fiscal year. This is a stupendous sum, but, according to Sir Thomas White, it is impossible to reduce it. As the revenue for the next twelve months is set at $365,000,000, we are in for a balance on the wrong side—a deficit—of $172,000,000, which will likely be boosted over the $200,000,000 mark when the supplementary estimates are passed. Commenting on this, the Montreal Star says:

"We are told that another national loan will have to be floated. But loans made by the people of Canada have to be paid back by the Government of Canada, just as loans by foreign investors have to be paid back. We cannot go on indefinitely floating loans to meet deficits.

"There is only one way in which Canada can extricate herself from the deep water into which she has been thrown by the unparalleled conditions of the last five years. That is to earn more and spend less.

"We have unparalleled potential wealth in this country, but potential wealth does not pay bills. Let us stop boasting about the natural resources of Canada and start turning those resources into hard cash with which to pay our debts. Our impending deficit does not need to cause us a moment's worry if we are willing to stop talking, stop spending borrowed money on things we can get along without, and get to work."

Don't overspend and get busy seems to be Canada's slogan for the hour.

THE BEST WOULD COME.

The Canadian Gazette of London, England, describes a meeting of the selection committee of the Soldier Settlement Board of Canada now operating in the old land, when a number of imperial ex-service men, who are anxious to come to Canada and settle under the soldier settlement act, were examined.

The correspondent comments on the excellent type of man passed by the committee, and the almost fatherly manner in which the committee treated each applicant. The first applicants were two excellent types of Englishmen, friends, who wished to come out together "A" had many years of farming experience, in the old country and one year in Canada. He had been gassed, but was completely recovered, and desired to settle in Alberta, where he had friends. "B" had lived on a farm until the age of 14; he, obviously, would require a year or two of training. In other respects, he was satisfactory as a settler. Both applicants were able and willing to put down the necessary $1,000 as a deposit to guarantee their ability to pay the 20 per cent to purchase farm and equipment. "A" was graded No. 1, and "B" was graded No. 3.

A third man, who had $1,250 in cash, was not prepared to put down $1,000 to be deposited to his credit in the trust fund. He wanted to take the $1,250 with him to help his brother, who was farming in Alberta, to buy stock, and he figured that he could get his transportation paid by the Imperial Government to Canada. He was set aside.

Next came a father and two of his sons. He had four sons, and his idea was that the two elder boys go out as settlers to British Columbia, and that he and the rest of the family should follow. He himself came from a farming family, and he had capital of a few thousand pounds. The young men were without experience in farming, and so would have to spend a couple of years learning. This they were quite prepared to do. The father was strongly advised not to use his capital at first, but to look around and get acquainted with conditions before he bought land. There was no over-statement of advantages of life in Canada. The winter was freely described, and no candidate could say by-and-bye that he had not been told of this, that, or other fact of life in Canada. The correspondent says that he could not help feeling that, while he admired the obvious ability of the examiners, he was still more strongly struck by their wonderful patience and kindness.

Interviewed by "Canada," another London publication, Mr. Russell Wilson, one of the selection committee, said: "We as Canadians feel that our country has the resources, and all we want is to get good citizens. The opportunities are there for the man who desires to work. Our primary aim is to establish greater production, and, in order to accomplish this, Canada must secure more settlers—and, let me say, the right type of people—to develop her immense agricultural resources. The right type of settler is the Anglo-Saxon. It has been abundantly proven to us born in Canada that there is no greater race of settlers and colonizers than the Anglo-Saxons. The proof is furnished by our ancestors, who well and truly laid the foundation for Canadian institutions and Canadian agriculture. They have been tried out and have proved to be the best of all nations. As representatives of the Soldier Settlement Board we are here to select from the British agricultural classes such men as will from our experience best fit into the agricultural life of the Dominion."

A NEW CONCILIATION PLAN.

The use of public opinion as a force to minimize strikes and lockouts, and to promote co-operation in industry is the chief feature of a plan which has been submitted by President Wilson's second industrial commission. The ideas, as worked out, are said to be the product of Mr. Hoover's brain, and if they prove practicable will further enhance the national reputation of the man now named for the presidency. According to reports from Washington, the new labor conciliation plan is an advance on the Canadian act, and has been declared by Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King to be ahead of any existing legislation. Indeed, it is hinted in some of the American papers that the Canadian act may be amended at a very early date in order to take in the better features of the Hoover plan.

The idea proposed is that disputes shall be settled "at the source," in shop councils, and that only when failing on an agreement there shall be reference of the issue to the system of investigation and arbitration tribunals. These tribunals are of two types, regional and national. The parties concerned may take their case to the regional adjustment conference, which consists of four representatives selected by the parties, and four others in their industry chosen by them and familiar with their problems. The chairman of the conference is a trained government official, who acts as a conciliator, and if an agreement is arrived at it results in a collective bargain, having the same effect as if reached by joint organization in the shops. Nowhere in the whole plan is there any compulsion as to arbitration, collective bargaining or acceptance of awards.

It is provided that if there is disagreement before the regional tribunal, the matter in dispute may be taken, with certain restrictions, to the national industrial board, unless the parties prefer the decision of an umpire selected by them. Submission to the regional board carries with it an agreement by both parties that production shall not be interfered with pending the processes of readjustment. If the parties, or either of them, refuse to lay their case before a regional board, provision is made for the constituting forthwith of a regional board of inquiry made up of the permanent regional chairmen, two employers from similar industry, and two employees, also not parties to the dispute. This board of inquiry can summon witnesses, carry on investigation, and report its findings. It cannot, of course, compel an acceptance of its findings. Public opinion may do that.

It is evident that there is nothing very radical in the plan proposed, which has as its chief object to stimulate settlement of differences by the parties in conflict, and which is depending upon the force of public opinion behind it to be successful in its object. A plan of this kind in operation a few months ago would have been of service in the steel strike, where Judge Gary contended that the workers could not be represented in conference with the steel trust by their paid union officials. Under the newer plan the steel workers would have elected their representatives, and could have chosen union officials or anybody they pleased. However, the United States is not likely to lack in opportunities for trying out this or any other plan that may possibly lead to industrial harmony. The threat of a coal miners' strike at the first of April seems likely to be carried through. In other basic industries there are similar threats being heard. If Herbert Hoover or anybody else can devise a plan whereby justice may be given to both parties in labor disputes, and the number of strikes and lockouts so directly affecting the general public lessened, that person will have conferred upon the republic one of the greatest benefits of the post-war period.

THE WINDS OF MARCH.

[Minneapolis Journal.]

Throughout the night the elemants are playing at bedlam around and over the house. It sounds like the dance of the seven furies. Every storm sash that is not tightly buttoned down clatters at intervals. The wind swells and falls, now tapping lightly, now hammering viciously, emitting the while a howl that fades away to a whine, then rises again to a shriek.

The wind is roughly fingering out its eolian music on the loose weather-boarding with one hand, and with the other is scooping up the snow from one side of the house and piling it on the other. The elm tree on the lawn groans and sighs. The invalid on wakeful bed discerns in these unearthly noises strange, ghostly meanings. Fever and March wind makes a doleful medley.

All in the wild March morning I heard the angels call;
It was when the moon was setting, and the dark was over all;
The trees began to whisper and the wind began to roll,
And in the wild March morning I heard them call my soul.

But it is only the matter-of-fact alarm clock that is calling the householder. His sleepy brain faintly remembers the bluster of the night, as he goes forth in woolen armor, armed with the snow shovel, to battle with the enemy.

But lo! no enemy appears. He is looking for a January wind carrying a razor rampant; and he finds only a March wind playing with a slapstick. The winds were not assaulting the house in the night; they were only romping about it.

It takes the morning to explain the night. One little shaft of sunlight can impale a whole battle line of the imps of darkness.

March is the bluffer between winter and spring; and a buffer in all its ways. March winds are sanitary, tinged with good humor, provocative of healthful hustle and wholesome hope. They bring healing in their wings. Spring rides to her triumph on the winds of March.

Up from the seas the wild north winds are blowing
Under the sky's grey arch;
Smiling, I watch the shaken elm bows, knowing
It is the wind of March.

ABOLISHING ITSELF.

[Ottawa Citizen.]

Sir George Foster has told us this week that the government has no intention of bringing in legislation abolishing the Board of Commerce. Very well; but what we would like to know is whether the government is considering the introduction of legislation making it impossible for the Board of Commerce to abolish itself, as it has already done, temporarily, in the matter of sugar price control. If the board is to be sole judge whether it is to function or not, it will not fill the bill, and, in respect to the commodity referred to, it is not filling the bill or attending to its duties. What is the Government going to do about it? We have it on the authority of the board itself that it was saving the people of Canada at least 100,000 a day in the matter of sugar costs. Some two weeks or more have passed since the board lifted its price embargo—to demonstrate its alleged efficiency and justify its existence—so that its action has already cost the Canadian consumer about $1,400,000 in this respect.

WOMEN MINISTERS.

[London Daily News.]

The refusal of the Lower House of Convocation to allow women to pray and speak in churches ignores a good deal of history. Even in the days of the Pharaohs some of the most sacred offices were held by women. In the early days of the Christian Church women shared both in the ministry and the administration, playing an important part in the progress made by the primitive church. For the first 300 years of the Christian era women were even ordained as priests, and for 800 years they served at the altar and administered communion. It is strange that today, when the claims of women, and where women do almost all the church and parish work, should deny them admission to the pulpit.

Just as the only true God—the Governor of Nature—corrected the late Joseph Chamberlain with deterioration of character, loss of health and premature death for advocating protection in free-trade England, so President Dr. Woodrow Wilson has been divinely corrected with deterioration of character and loss of health, as well as of reputation, for advocating in vain the ratification of the French Tiger's war treaty and the British Fox's humbug covenant by the Senate of the United States of America.

CLEMENCEAU'S FOURTEEN TROUBLES.

[Toronto Star.]

Mr. Clemenceau is an irreverent old man. On his recent arrival in Egypt he refused to be interviewed, and would only say that the ship's vermicelli was excellent. "I am taking a vermicelli cure," he said. "I have to take all sorts of cures, as I have fourteen maladies, the same number as President Wilson has points; one malady, one point, everybody has what he can."

PUNCH'S FAMOUS CARTOONIST.

[Manchester Guardian.]

The fact that it is only six years since he died (suggests a correspondent) may have led to the general forgetfulness of Sir John Tenniel's centenary last Saturday. Punch's famous cartoonist was born less than five years after the Battle of Waterloo; Napoleon, indeed, was still alive at St. Helena. His pencil described the Crimean War, the Indian Mutiny, America's Civil War, the Franco-German War, our own numerous "little wars," including the fall of Khartoum, the South African War, and the artist lived to within a few weeks of our own Armageddon. He saw five monarchs on the throne of Britain, and lived right through the longest reign.

Tenniel was not at first impressed with the prospect of becoming a Punch artist. "Do they suppose," he said, "that there is anything funny about me?" In this he did himself less than justice, for the man who illustrated "Alice in Wonderland" for all time was a humorist to his pencil-tip. It must be said, however, that Tenniel was seldom "funny" in his cartoons; the grand, the dignified, even "the horrible and awful" came more appropriately to him. It may be doubted whether Punch has yet really found Tenniel's successor. Have we had anything like "Dropping the Pilot" since 1890? Of course, Tenniel had the defects of his qualities. His attempt at drawing a tricycle resulted in a weird contrivance. His railway trains were always antiquated, and it is certain he would never have taken kindly to the motor car. But for more than a generation he represented Punch to the world, and in so doing he often represented the Britain of his moment.

WHITHER SHOULD WE TURN?

[Color, London.]

The nobles keep their wealth of old
And live as full of silk and gold,
They gain by craft and usury more
Than by the sword their sires of yore,
And now against us stands arrayed
The rallied remnant of Jack Cade.
The blue fly in the drop of glue
May question fate, an dthat may you;
But who shall 'scape his destiny,
Or fly, or fly,
And whither should we turn,
My songs and I?

The flinty, pitiless London stone
Reverberates a world-old moan.
The new ways are the ancient ways,
The new days are the ancient days,
And you no sharper agues feel
Than Marlowe, Lyly, Dekkar, Peel,
Such wits as walked with blistered feet
But to the Counter or the Fleet.
But who shall 'scape his destiny,
Or, fly, or fly,
And whither should we turn,
My songs and I?

Within a wood of mocking shapes
A trader once was met by apes
Who bade him give them, and anon,
Those pig-nuts that they fed upon.
From out a wallet that he bore
He drew great rubies, all his store,
And gave those hairy rogues and grim—
They were incensed and strangled him.
But who shall 'scape his destiny,
Or fly, or fly,
And whither should we turn,
My songs and I?

THE PRINCE'S RANCH.

The Prince of Wales's plans for his ranch in Alberta are described in detail by the agricultural correspondent of the Times.

Its 7,000 acres (he says) are entirely under grass, and at present it is without suitable or adequate buildings. The soil is a rich alluvial loam, and the grasses it carries are luxuriant and provide good feeding for stock in summer and winter. A certain area is mowed ever year to provide hay for young stock in winter, but the greater part is grazed throughout the year. The climate is severe, but cattle and horses can be out-wintered with safety and advantage. The summer production of grass exceeds the present requirements of the stock on a properly-managed ranch, and the surplus, then withered and dry, but of about the same feeding value as English hay, suffices to carry the animals through the winter. The climate renders this simple system of "haymaking" completely practicable in Alberta, and only the needs of young stock housed in winter have to be provided in the elaborate English method. Although there is no arable land within the limits of the E. P. Ranch at present, the acquisition of cultivated or cultivable land is contemplated with a view to making the ranch better adapted to the requirements of the improved classes of cattle and sheep it is proposed to introduce. With the same object, suitable buildings and fencing are to be erected in due course.

The ranch is to be stocked with cattle, horses and sheep. Hitherto horses have been bred chiefly, but cattle-raising will form the main feature under his royal highness's ownership. The immediate supervision of the ranch will be intrusted to Professor Carlyle, who, with Mr. Lane's approval, will add this task to his managerial duties on the latter's famous Bar U ranch of 120,000 acres. The stock to be sent out from this country will comprise Shorthorn cattle, thoroughbred horses, Dartmoor ponies, Dartmoor-Arab crosses, and Shropshire and Kerry Hill (Wales) sheep. The consignments of cattle, ponies and pony-Arab crosses can be supplied mainly from the prince's farm in Cornwall and Devon, and selections of thoroughbred horses have already been made at Newmarket, while the close-wooled sheep of Shropshire and North Wales are preferred because of their proved suitability for the climate.

The breeding of Shorthorn cattle will be the principle enterprise, and the royal owner is fortunate in being in a position to supply from his noted herd in England most of the shipment of about a score of highly-bred Cruickshank Shorthorns that are to form the nucleus of the new herd. The ranch is capable of carrying about 700 head of cattle in addition to other stock. At first the herd will consist principally of the ordinary grade cattle of the district, but as the pure-bred strains multiply and prosper the commoner kinds will be displaced by registered Shorthorns of the best families and types.

The enterprise would be important and of wide interest if it were merely to be conducted on the ordinary ranching lines; the system of management it is proposed to pursue increases its value and intensifies its significance. The E. P. Ranch is to be the home of a herd of pure-bred Shorthorns of the beeving type that should be of inestimable importance to the business of stock-breading in Western Canada.

WHITE MAN

BY GEORGE AGNEW CHAMBERLAIN.

In the shade of one of the vast acacias there was a veritable concourse of men. Their black bodies, clothed only in clouts of game pelt or dirty loin-cloths, were like a blot of ink against the surrounding glare. They sat for the most part on their heels smoking white, slow-burning cheroots. Two only could be said to be working. They were very old and sat with their backs against the trunk of the tree, their legs stretched straight out before them, and at their sides neat bundles of stripped palm leaves. They were weaving baskets. The men, at least, were not tongue-tied. They seemed to be going through some oral ceremony. First one and then another would take the cheroot from his lips and make a single remark; then the rest would all grunt in unison, and with a deep-chested expelling of all the breath in their bodies that gave almost the effect of an explosion.

It annoyed Andrea that her companion seemed to share the stoic calm of the natives in what, to her mind, ought to have been an occasion of much excitement and chatter. It never occurred to her that he was unmoved because he could understand what the men were saying and was merely bored.

At the moment the wheels of the flying-machine had struck the ground the apparently interminable and, to Andrea, meaningless, chant had been started by the native chief, a wizened figure distinguished in dress from his companions only by the ebony-black ring of polished wax that he wore like a halo of darkness on his close-cropped and grizzled head.

This was the liturgy got under way by the chief with a single word and carried on to its logical end by all the others in the gathering under the acaica tree:

"M'sungo!"
"Huh!" grunted thirty throats.
"The M'sungo arrives."
"Huh!"
"The M'sungo has come, his ship has landed from the air."
"Huh!"
"It has rushed across the craal."
"Huh!"
"Two huts held out their arms and stopped it."
"Huh!"
"The medicine of the M'sungo is powerful."
"Huh! Huh!"
"Never before has the ship descended within the craal."
"Huh!"
"Never before has it brought with it a white female."
"Huh!"
"The M'sungo's hair is straight like a dog's but the hair of the white female is like a river that winds beneath the sun."
"Huh!"
It was at this point that Andrea's companion stopped suddenly his rapid striding. For the first time it occurred to her that perhaps he was listening. The chant continued.
"Her eyes are like the midday sky."
"Huh!"
"Her cheeks are like flowers; they have the likeness of much paint."
"Huh!"
"She has no figure."
"Huh!"
"She is all clothes."
"Huh!"
"Expensive to keep."
"Huh!"
"The ship has landed in the craal because she has no legs."

At that the white man threw up his head and clapped his hands once. The chief grunted; silence fell. He spat to one side and spoke deliberately. "Let us arise to greet the master."

They came forward and stood in a long file. The chief took one step in advance, raised his right hands and fastened his gaze on the white man's face. His own seemed to be working in a sudden excitement. "Bai-ye-te!" he roared, and there followed, so quickly that it seemed but another syllable of the salutation, a mighty grunt from the depths of thirty chests, "Huh!"

In a moment the whole scene underwent a startling transformation. The file broke and became garrulous. Children stopped their play and ran to join in the rabble. The women dropped their work and crowded into a compact group from which came suddenly a cry that startled Andrea and jerked her around to face it as though she had been yanked by a string.

The cry was high, shrill, continuous. It was produced by rounding the open mouth and working the tongue laterally in a vibration as rapid as that of a serpent's. It was ghastly to watch, incredible in the rapidity of undulation, but once heard, unforgettable. It lasted much longer than Andrea could have held her breath, let alone used it, and ceased as suddenly as it had begun.

"All very interesting," said Andrea turning to her companion, "but why didn't they do it before?"

He looked at her absently. "There is a ceremonial," he said, "a dignity, about the African that is absurd till you've known it for years."

"For years?" repeated Andrea. "It—is this your home?"

He shook his head. "No, Africa—this sort of thing—is never home to a white man. It's a place where he goes to forget his sins. I've been using it—whenever life has given me a chance—as a sun-bath for the soul."

Andrea stared at him, a puzzled frown on her brow. She wondered why his bluntness did not offend her, wondered why his very presence did not hold her to a constant aversion, wondered if it would ever fall to her lot to hear him say a senseless thing or laugh aloud. While she still wondered, he turned from her and began calling out meaningless words. "Shilling! Five! Tin Hat! Bathtub! Overcoat!"

At each name, for names they were, a native stepped forward. They were all bright-eyed youngsters, fourteen or fifteen years of age, and their garb, made up of a clean cloth bound tightly around slim hips and falling to the knees and a red fez with tassel intact, marked them as houseboys—trusted pickanins who alone had the right to enter the white man's quarters, and were collectively his recognized mouthpiece in conveying orders.

"Bathtub!" repeated the white man. A youngster quickly saluted and stepped out of the line, grinning from ear to ear at being distinguished even for a moment above his fellows.

With a jerk of his head toward Andrea the white man began to talk rapidly. Bathtub's eyes rolled from his face to Andrea's and back again. They widened, they narrowed and, each of the three times the white man said "Kiboco" with a peculiar emphasis, they seemed to wince.

Andrea interrupted. "What does 'Kiboco' mean, please"

"It means a whip of raw rhino hide," said the man. "An implement that draws blood with a whisper.

Andrea went white; her eyes blazed. "So you whip your servants?" she said with curled lips.

"I have whipped a boy once," answered the man coolly. "They have never forgotten." He turned to her. "This boy, Bathtub," he continued, has an English vocabulary. He is yours. If he ever fails you I shall thrash him within an inch of his nine lives." He dismissed the boy with a nod.

Bathtub stepped before his mistress, saluted and said in English. "Kiboco plenty no good." He grinned the broadest, most friendly grin Andrea had ever seen and without waiting for the smiling answer of her eyes, was off like an arrow.

Interesting Reports Presented At Open Meeting of W. C. T. U.

The reports of the various branches of W. C. T. U. work in the city were presented at a big open meeting held yesterday afternoon in the Talbot Street Baptist Church, Mrs. H. Ashplant in the chair. Mrs. Green, the new Y. W. C. T. U. president, spoke on her side of the work. "I am coming to believe," she declared, "That education in regard to the evil effects of intemperance is more important than legislation. If we could impress firmly on our children the evil effects of alcoholic liquors, and in fact, of all intemperance in whatever form, we should be doing a big thing for the country. We hope to be able to do this in a scientific way by getting in touch with the 'teen age girls of the city through the Girl Guide organization and by taking up the matter with the Mothers' Clubs of the city.

Cigarette Smoking.

"One intemperate habit which I should specially like to mention is the growing habit of cigarette smoking among young girls, which will undoubtedly increase with the arrival of emigrants from the old land, where it is already firmly established. I should like to dare to suggest that the young people's organizations of the city churches have a pledge for girls, promising abstenance from the smoking of cigarettes."

Mrs. Harrison gave a most excellent report of her social service work, including her regular mothers' club meetings, and work among outcast girls. She referred to the help the W. C. T. U. had given in the way of food and clothing, mentioning the old cupboard full of second-hand clothing always ready for someone in need. "This cupboard is, however, not as full as it used to be before rummage sales became the fashion," she declared whimsically.

Open Homes.

In speaking of her work among the girls of the street, she said, "If the beautiful homes in London were opened to those who have no homes, the result would be a very different city."

Mrs. Copeland reported on the summer camp at Springbank, established there ten years ago, to give girls working in industries a chance to have a holiday, and later of its use as a fresh air camp for children. This year it is expected that the camp will be opened a month earlier than usual, to enable tired London mothers and their children to enjoy an outing.

The address of the afternoon was given by Mrs. Gordon Wright, the Dominion W. C. T. U. president, her subject being "Canadianization." And the Rev. Roy opened the meeting with a short address. At the close new members were received into the union and latter tea was served.

THE MOTHERS' CLUBS HELP TO GET HOMES FOR ORPHAN CHILDREN

Meeting of Union Mothers' Club in Alexandra School Monday.

A very important meeting of the Union Mother's Club will be held at the Alexandra School on Monday evening next at 8 o'clock, when W. A. Kirkwood, principal of the school, will demonstrate the new moving picture machine by showing some of the educational films lately procured. This machine is the finest one installed in a local school, and will be watched with interest.

At the meeting Mrs. W. A. Tanner will bring up the question of teaching housewifery in the public schools. Mrs. Tanner has just returned from Toronto, where she became very much interested in this question.

The call which came in from the Children's Shelter a short time ago asking that the Mothers' Clubs of the city undertake to help the shelter find homes for babies left on their hands will also be considered. Mrs. Hardy and Mrs. John Weld have been visiting the various clubs during the past two weeks, bringing this matter before the members, and hoping that they will interest persons who might adopt children.

A CUP OF COCOA.

A cup of cocoa differs from a cup of tea or coffee, because it contains nutriment as well as stimulant. Since, also, a good deal of milk is used in the preparation of cocoa, it is a really valuable food, and is a hot beverage suitable for children over 3 years.

Cocoa and chocolate are both made from cocoa nibs, as the beans of the chocolate tree are called. These nibs are roasted and crushed to bring out the peculiarly distinctive and pleasant flavor, just as in the case of coffee. But in cocoa much more of the fat is expressed from the ground nibs than in chocolate, and it is therefore not so rich a food, but is more easily digested. The solid cakes of cocoa obtained from the ground nibs is ground again, very small, mixed with a small amount of sugar, a little arrowroot or cornstarch to keep it dry, and, in certain preparations, flavored with cinnamon or vanilla.

Because boiling dissolves the cocoa more completely, and insures the cooking of any starch used in the manufacture, no instantaneous method of preparing cocoa can make it as smooth and mellow as that of boiling it for a few minutes.

The following method gives a good beverage: Take four level tablespoonfuls of prepared cocoa, six level tablespoonfuls of sugar, and a quart of liquid, half milk and half water. Put the liquid on to heat, and mix the sugar and cocoa dry very thoroughly. When the liquid is at the boiling point, add the cocoa and sugar slowly, sifting them in, and stirring all the time. Allow it to boil a few minutes. Add a pinch of salt, and beat with an egg beater, to prevent the scum from forming on the surface. Serve at once.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

Mrs. Thomas Teeple is leaving shortly for Calgary.

Miss Josephine Douglas of Petrolea is visiting relatives at 652 Dufferin avenue.

Mrs. A. C. Joseph, president of the Victoria Hospital Nurses' Alumnae, is attending a meeting of the executive of the Graduate Nurses' Association being held in Toronto today.

Another delightful Home Hour is promised for Sunday afternoon at the Y. W. C. A., King street, when girls from the Askin Street Methodist Church will be the hostesses.

The Easter closing exercises for Oakhurst School for Girls will be held at the Institute of Musical Art on Thursday morning, April 1, at 11 o'clock, when an attractive program will be given.

Mrs. Warrick and Mrs. John Irwin were the prize-winners at the Overseas Chapter bridge and Euchre held at Wong's Cafe on Thursday afternoon, the prizes being handsome cut glass vases.

J. O. Adams, general eastern freight agent of the Grand Trunk Railway system, New York city, is visiting his mother, Mrs. Adams, Becher street, South London, who is ill. Mrs. Adams accompanies him, and they expect to remain in the city a few days.

KENNEDY—SANDERS.

A quiet wedding took place on March 10, when Miss Laura Sanders, youngest daughter of Mrs. Louis Sanders, became the bride of John Kennedy, the Ven. Archdeacon Richardson officiating at the ceremony, which took place at the parsonage. Mr. and Mrs. Kennedy will reside at Hyde Park.

McVICAR—PREST.

A quiet wedding took place on Wednesday, March 24, at the residence of the bride's mother, when Mary Lourlena, only daughter of Mrs. Prest and the late Thomas Prest of Parkhill, was united in marriage to George Olck McVicar of Cayley, Alberta, youngest son of Mrs. Helen Tweddle of Ailsa Craig. The bride was attired in a hand-made gown of white satin with train and bridal veil, and carried a bouquet of roses and carnations. The wedding march was played by Miss Mary Amos of Ailsa Craig, cousin of the bride, and Miss Clara Kilmer of Clandeboye sang sweetly "Oh, Promise Me" and "Because." The couple were unattended, and the ceremony was performed by the Rev. C. P. Wells of Ailsa Craig, in the presence of the family and a few intimate friends. In a few days Mr. and Mrs. McVicar leave for their home in the West, the bride traveling in a dark navy suit with black hat.

On Tuesday evening last the bride was happily surprised at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alex. McLean, when she was presented with a handsome chest of silver by her many friends.

THOMPSON—HUNTER.

A quiet but very pretty wedding was solemnized at Dorchester Station on Wednesday, March 24, in the presence of near relatives and friends. The ceremony took place at the home of Mrs. Frank Hunter, her daughter May being united in marriage to Charles Elliott Thompson, the Rev. J. W. Rivers officiating. The bride entered the parlor on the arm of her brother, Roy Hunter, to the strains of the wedding march played by her twin sister, Miss Amy Hunter. The bride looked charming in silver-grey charmeuse, with silver lace and bead trimming, and carried a bouquet of cream roses. She took her place under a white bell in the archway, which was prettily decorated with cedar and white carnations.

After the ceremony the bride led the way to the dining-room, decorated with pink and white carnations, where a sumptuous wedding dinner was served by three girl friends of the bride, the Misses Estella Kingwell, Mildred Morris and Mae Parsons, who also wore pink carnations and maiden hair ferns. The happy couple left for their honeymoon on the 2:08 train for Toronto, amid showers of confetti and best wishes, the bride traveling in a suit of navy serge, trimmed with military braid and buttons, and a satin and straw hat to match. She also wore the groom's gift, a beautiful sable fur neck-piece.

On their return Mr. and Mrs. Thompson will reside on the groom's farm, second concession of Dorchester.

The high esteem in which the young couple are held was shown by the beautiful gifts received.

SCOTT—FARQUHAR.

A very pretty wedding took place at high noon on Wednesday, March 17, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Farquhar, Shady Lane, Gladstone, when their only daughter, Leila B., was united in marriage to William E. Scott of North Dorchester. The ceremony was performed by Rev. E. S. Clifton of the Gladstone Baptist Church. The bride, who was given away by her father, entered the parlor to the strains of the "Bridal Chorus" (Lohengrin), played by Mrs. S. Minard of Belmont, and met the groom under an arch of evergreens banked with foliage and geraniums ,on which hung a white bell, a silver basket and dove, which held the ring.

The bride looked charming in a gown of pearl grey satin trimmed with pink beads and seed pearls, and wore the customary veil of silk net trimmed with orange blossoms and seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of pink carnations and maiden hair ferns.

During the signing of the register Miss Kathleen Moran of London, cousin of the groom, sang very sweetly "Let the Rest of the World Go By."

After the ceremony was performed about 35 guests sat down to a sumptuous dinner, the tables being decorated with pink and white flowers and shamrock. The presents were numerous, showing the high esteem in which the bride and groom are held. They included a check from the bride's parents and a shower from the Glastone Baptist Church, of which the bride was a member of the choir. The groom's gift to the pianist was a table mirror.

The bride traveled in a suit of tank grey broadcloth, with shoes to match, and white satin hat with veil trimming. Mr. and Mrs. Scott left by C. P. R. for a short trip to Toronto, Galt and points east, and will be at home to their many friends on the fourth concession of North Dorchester after May 1.

Cynthia Grey's Mail-Box

My Dear Miss Grey.—Are you a fairy? I think you must be, for with a wave of your wand you produced the stocking-foot pattern, and then, lo, and behold! by magic, the dimes, the quarters with here and there a most encouraging dollar, arrived for the Mail Box fund for the Children's Hospital. And a little bird tells me the letters are pouring in, so I really can't help thinking that the Mail Box will have a cot of its very own if this goes on! What do you think? It is so encouraging to read the nice messages from the Pageites about the hospital, and to know that in a few corners of Ontario we have so many friends all willing to help. Good-bye, Fairy! Yours

ROSE E. SMITH,
Convener Children's Hospital Committee.

Has Never Written Before.

Dear Miss Grey,—I have long read your valuable paper for some time and have never taken the opportunity of writing before this. Have always enjoyed your information. Now for a few questions.

Can you supply me the instructions to knit a wool cap with rib band and plain top with tassel?

Can you also supply me with the recipe for canning beef?

What colors are the most popular?

Can you supply me with the recipe for cornflake macaroons that you had published last week by return mail? Am inclosing stamped, addressed envelope for the same. I will sign myself BLACKSNAKE.

Ans.—1. Have mailed your crochet tam directions. 2. Referred to readers. 3. For summer all colors seem to be in demand.

Reader For Long Time.

Dear Miss Grey.—Have been a silent reader of your page for a long time and thought I would drop in for some help. I saw in Wednesday's paper that "Woodchuck" offered to send pattern of novelty braid to one of the Boxites. I wonder if she would do me a favor also. Please forward enclosed letter to her.

How I admire your patience and hope this will reach you safely. Will close with questions: What day did July 3, 1910, fall on? GREEN EYES.

Ans.—Letter forwarded to "Woodchuck." Sunday.

Here's Sunshine.

Dear Miss Grey.—I am coming back again to thank you for the S. F. P., which I received some time ago. Does this lovely weather make any of the Boxites feel like planting a flower garden and donning summer apparel?

Now for a little help. Can anyone please send me the words and music of "When You and I Were Young, Maggie," for which I am inclosing a self-addressed envelope?

I am inclosing a beautiful recipe and hope you can find room to print it also, that all who try it will like it. I, too, like An Old-Fashioned Mother, think babies are God's fairest flowers. I have a Sunshine baby four months old, and I think she is the only baby.

May I come again, or is my letter too long? SUNSHINE.

Ans.—Why, yes, of course, somebody has that song for sunshine. Send it along Pageites, and I will forward it. As for Sunshine baby, give her my love, and won't you please write another sunshiny letter, and tell us all about her? When space permits I will publish the lovely poem.

Another Visitor.

Dear Miss Grey,—I am another visitor to your page, and, of course, wanting help. The Advertiser comes to my father-in-law, and we read it daily. Of course, I enjoy this page best; even the scraps are interesting. I was wondering if any of the Boxites could send me pieces of all kinds of fall and winter dress goods for a crazy quilt. I have tried to buy them, but the city dressmakers save them for the missionary quilts. I will leave my address with Miss Grey, and also return postage on all that are sent as I receive them. I am sending my recipe for tomato soup:

Tomato Soup.

Set on stove two quarts fresh milk and season with pepper, when it comes to a boil, add a pinch of soda the size of a kernel of corn in the milk. Then add two cups tomatoes. Let come to a boil and add salt to taste and crackers. If salt is added earlier it is liable to curdle the milk.

I believe the Boxites will take more pity on me if I sign myself HOMELY.

Ans.—Will keep your address for future reference. I feel sure your pen-name is misleading.

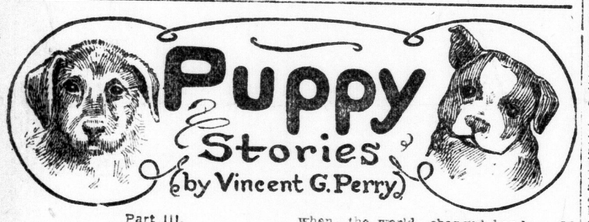

A Bonnie Lassie.

Dear Miss Grey.—Thank you so much for printing my last letter, which brought me the words of the song I asked for, and I thank An Outsider, too. It was just the very same. My mother used to sing it, but had forgotten some of it. I made it out quite easily.

Someone was saying, why did people ask for so many comic pieces for concerts and socials instead of using the numerous good patriotic pieces? Maybe the audiences in those parts are like the ones around here.

We gave a box social (U. F. O.) on Friday night, and I noticed that all the funny songs and dialogues took far better than such pieces as "There Is Something in the English After All" and "The Red, White and Blue." There was also a flag drill by the children, but they might as well have been outside, for all the response it brought. People seem to be tired of anything pertaining to the war now, at least around here, they don't want to be reminded about it. So maybe this is why others want funny songs and pieces. I am sending home to the People's Journal in the old country for some for the next time they may be wanted. And I will pass them on when I get them. SCOTCH BLUEBELL.

Part III.

Now, who do you suppose were Tickles' gaurds? Rats, to be sure—and what great big rats they were, too. Like the cats they had grown large when the world changed hands. Of course, it was natural that the cats, who now ruled, would make their old enemies slaves. It was not only the old grey rats that were pressed into service—white rats, even though they were pets, were made slaves also. To tell the truth the cats were jealous of the white rats in the old days, and this was one way of getting revenge on them.

Therefore, Tickles had a surprise when the new shift of guards came on, and he spied his old friend Pete, the white rat. Pete was a friend of Rosemary's, too; you remember Rosemary was the kitten who was now a princess of the kingdom.

Pete motioned Tickles not to let on he had recognized him. The captain of the guard was a toothless old white rat who had long been a spy in the service of the cats, and in the old days had told where the grey mice lived. As soon as he had marched away and left Pete in charge of our hero, the friendly white rat came forward.

"My goodness, how you have grown!" exclaimed Tickles, but he was so accustomed to surprise this one did not effect him as much as might be expected.

"I have a message from the Princess Rosemary," whispered Tickles. "She says to tell you that in the world now, whatever an animal wishes comes true. It is the great secret of the kingdom, and you must not pass it on."

"But what must I wish?" asked Tickles.

"Anything. The cats are rulers here and can do anything."

"I wish to goodness I was a cat," cried Tickles, and then what a cry of surprise Pete, the rat, gave. Tickles had turned into a great white cat.

TALKS ON HEALTH

BY WILLIAM BRADY, M. D., Noted Physician and Author.

Dr. Brady will answer all signed letters pertaining to health. Writers' names are never printed. Only inquiries of general interest are answered in this column, but all letters will be answered by mail if written in ink and a stamped, self-addressed envelope is inclosed. Requests for diagnosis or treatment of individual cases cannot be considered. Address Dr. William Brady, in care of this paper.

Dad, the Dodger.

Unfortunately it is impossible to publish some letters in their entirety, but these extracts from a letter written me by an unfortunate boy of eighteen should interest dads everywhere:

". . . but dad was distant and never told me anything. Dad never chummed with me. . . . seldom took me anywhere but to church. . . . I attended a technical school, all boys in the classes, but nothing was ever taught us about these things—what information we did get we got from a few fellows who had experience or claimed to have had it. . . . I recently attended a party for the first time in a year or more, but the girls present smoked and drank wine, the very best class of girls in town. . . . I have found the moving pictures that are supposed to teach the evils of the black plague merely suggestive in the ordinary way. . . ."

Think it over, dad. Are you a dodger? Do you attempt to conceal your cowardliness or indifference by assuming that YOUR boy is unlike other boys?

Remember what the investigations of surgeons showed that the average age at which boys receive their first proper instruction in sex hygiene is 15 years, but the average age at which boys pick up their first improper sex misinformation is 9 years.

Dad, don't be six years late. The boy is worth much more than that.

If you do not feel competent to teach the boy the truths of life, then obtain the assistance of your physicial. Don't let the matter slide. The sliding is all downhill.

A real live dad will chum with his boys at every opportunity; it is as good for dad as it is for the boys.

I feel sure that if every father and mother could read the letters I receive from boys and girls a great change in our educational system would be instituted without further delay. The young people have certainly not received a square deal at our hands. If we were to be marked by an unbiased teacher on our parental efficiency most of us would receive a C.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS.

Bromide.

Kindly give your opinion of tabloids of triple bromides. What are they usually prescribed for and are they harmful if taken continually?

MRS. D. M. D.

Answer.—The bromides of sodium, potassium and ammonium compressed in tablet form. Heaven only knows why the three are used together—no doctor does, I fancy. Bromides club the nervous system into temporary dullness. Such drugs are exceedingly harmful if taken for a long time.

Water Does Not Hurt Little Girls.

I am a little girl 12 years old, and I drink a prodigious amount of water, though no tea or coffee or milk. Do you think so much water will injure my health in any way? (L. A.)

Baby's Hair.

1. Is there anything that can be applied to a baby's head to make the hair grow? 2. Does cutting a child's hair tend to thicken it? (C. S. D.)

Ans.—1. I know of nothing. 2. No. I've had my hair cut every few weeks for years, and it is thinner than ever.

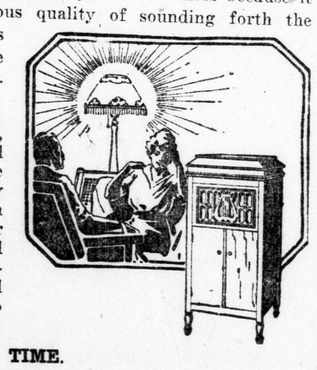

THE DIFFERENCE IS IN THE TONE

When you hear the STARR for the first time, you will agree with us, as have hundreds of purchasers, that the STARR has certainly attained the "Excelsior" heights of the phonograph world. Each and every tone is sweet, rich and clear. The tones of a violin are easily discerned, although several instruments may be playing at the same time. Those of a harp are easily distinguished from a piano.

Starr PHONOGRAPHS

A pure, rich tone is very elusive. It is difficult to produce. Yet you will agree with us when we say that the STARR phonograph has certainly reached perfection in that line.

Silver-Grain Spruce is supreme in bringing forth a tone of rarest richness, purity and sweetness because it possesses a marvelous quality of sounding forth the finest vibrations known to the science of acoustics.

The singing throat, tone chambers and sound horn are made exclusively from Silver-Grain Spruce, as no other wood has been found with the same wonderful qualities, and therefore is not so adapted.

Wells Gave Carpentier His Hardest Three Minutes

At Ghent the Bombardier Met George's Nervous Rush With a Wallop That Had Him All But Out — Englishman's Failure To Finis h Work Ring Mystery.

[By Georges Carpentier.]

My worst three minutes was on the Sunday afternoon, June 1, 1913, in the half-finished Floral Hall of the Ghent Exhibition in my first contest with Bombardier Wells. Even now, after six years, it comes to me all over again, and I shiver and wonder and am amazed that I not only survived it, but won when the odds against me were unnameably long.

One gentleman—a well-known member of the National Sporting Club—who sat at the foot of my corner, told me afterwards when I was sipping tea at a cafe close by and being made embarrassed by gorgeous bouquets of flowers showered upon me by various ladies who had witnessed my triumph, that he had offered a thousand to three against me, and there were no takers. I agreed that even such extravagant odds were justified. Let me tell what happened.

It Was My Greatest Gamble.

A year before I had lost to both Papke and Frank Klaus, the American middleweights. Each had punished me terribly, and had set me wondering whether I should completely recover from the effects of those two desperate encounters. With every reason, the experts declared that if I could not beat a middleweight it were foolish, impudent, suicidal to attempt to conquer the best heavyweight in Great Britain, a man many inches taller and at least a couple of stone heavier.

For the first time I will make this confession. I entered into a match with Wells knowing full well that I was plunging into the greatest gamble of my life. I realized that were I beaten, my stock would be at a discount, and since I was getting heavier every day and could not comfortably do anything short of the light heavyweight limit I would be relegated to quite a humble position.

It was mad for me to tackle Wells in 1913, for the Bombardier, whatever may be said to the contrary, was a better man than he is today.

My victory brought me the fame I sought after, and it meant robbing Wells of whatever confidence he ever possessed.

It was to me the beginning of an era of abundant prosperity. When you come to think it all over, it broke the heart of Wells, for he has never done himself any real good since.

Wells Looked So Very Big.

Let me try to analyze my feelings as I dived between the ropes on this memorable Sunday afternoon. I had come through torrential rain to the exhibition grounds; it was a day that makes for depression. As I looked round I imagined that Lens had sent all its menfolk. They screamed their welcome to me. I tingled all over, and I whispered to Descamps:

"Francois, if I am beaten today I shall be disgraced. I can never go back to my home again."

Then I looked at Wells. His handsome face was aglow with health. You know what it is when the brain is strung up tight; when it dances and makes for exaggeration, when it magnifies so that little, even inconsequential things, loomed up before you as a mountain.

I pictured Wells as I ran my eye over my boyish frame, as big as the building in which the rink had been pitched. So big did he seem that I imagined that he was all the people present rolled into himself. So I said:

"Francois, isn't the Bombardier too big? How will I reach him? I will scarce be able to hit him. He will smother me."

I was not frightened. I was not scared or apprehensive, but I was puzzled to know how it had come about that we met.

Then I remembered that at Leigh-on-Sea I had sparred with him, that in the gymnasium I, though then very little, had discovered a way to break through his guard. I recalled a day when I had hurt Wells, and so I steadied myself. I was hopeful.

"Time!" was shouted, and we faced each other.

The Bombardier stood almost bolt-upright, his pose delightful. I crouched slightly, and I swayed my body so that any blow I made would have the full weight of it behind it.

I was young then—not quite nineteen years of age—and it must have been that my youthfulness, which is oftener than not synonymous with impetuosity, caused me to do what I did, and incidentally almost ended in the greatest tragedy in which I have ever been involved.

My coming down with a bang when I was flying over the Vosges Mountains, and death came stark before me, was as nothing to what happened at Ghent. As a flight-sergeant, there were many days when I flew wing to wing with death. But I digress.

I literally flew at Wells. I was tigerish, blinded with desperation.

I did not reach Wells, for, like the wonder he can be, he shot out his phenomenal left hand, stopped me with a jerk, and as quick as lightning hit me on the jaw.

Down I crashed. Black specks danced fiendishly before me, my head throbbed and was bursting; I could feel myself sick and green. It was as if I had been thrown from the top of the building, and I am sure I said to myself, "Georges, foolish, vain, reckless, mad boy! You are beaten, disgraced; you are no heavyweight. If you continue you will be killed."

I shook my muzzy head and daylight came. I could see! And there was Wells, monstrously big and imposing, the perfect gladiator. His principal second, Maloney, was calling to him to "keep back, Billy, you have won."

But to my own and everybody's astonishment $ rose before ten secondse had been counted. How, I shall never be able to tell.

Why I did not weep and shriek from a feeling of sheer impotency that had seized me, I cannot explain; and why Wells, when I went up to him, rocking and rolling and reeling, as pale as death, sick and weary, with only my last ounce of strength left in me, did not measure me with his left hand and finish me off with his right, will ever remain one of the greatest mysteries of the ring.

I will tell Wells now that in the first round at Ghent he reduced me to the worst plight I have ever been in. My condition was terrible and hopeless.

I Never Had So Hard a Blow.

Can I explain how I won? I have given the question deep thought, and this is my answer.

When I rose, after having my jaw nearly smashed, I am certain that Wells, who I have an idea is too imaginative ever to become a great pugilist, was so astonished that he was robbed of all his wits. He made me half blind and like a drunken man by hitting me harder than I had ever been hit before or since; I made him almost sightless and reel and tremble by getting up and continuing the fight.

The fact that he had me in the hollow of his hand, he clean forgot; all he could do was to stare and wonder and think about not what he could easily have done, but what he had done, and why he had not finished the job.

He had done no more than punch twice; he had not been called upon to draw unduly upon his strength, and yet when I, only by instinct, got up and leaned on him—oh, how sick and limp was I—I felt him breathing hard, breathing as a man would do who was being suffocated. His huge body was quivering, it was almost cold; a kind of paralysis of the mind and body was creeping over him. And when I got to my corner, though I was more dead than alive, I saw more than a glimmer of hope.

Then I Knew I Would Win.

I nursed myself in the second meeting, doing nearly the whole of which Wells permitted me to lean on him, and when it was over I said to Descamps:—"He is big and heavy; he has hurt me, but I am better. I made a mistake in rushing at him. Not again will I do so. I think I can win."

My third round I played a tattoo on the body of Wells. Every time I hit him he shivered with pain, then I knew I would win.

In the fourth round I drove my left to the pit of his stomach. He dropped his hands, and I sent him into semi-consciousness with a right to the chin.

It was as much as I could do to prevent myself from swooning when I saw Wells lying all of a heap. I could hardly believe my own eyes, and I suffered as much as I did from the terrible right which Wells had landed in the very infancy of the fight.

Yes, I had my worst three minutes at Ghent on this Sunday six years ago, though I won my most wonderful victory.

I would not suffer it again; I do not expect I shall. The like of it cannot be any more. It is awful to look back upon. Wells must sicken when he thinks of it. I am sure he has never recovered from it.

GEORGES DOES SHOPS AND—THEY DO HIM

NEW YORK, March 26.—Callers on M. and Mme. Georges Carpentier became convinced today that the French champion is a prize fighter de luxe. Their flower-filled sumptuously furnished rooms constitute the best suite in one of the city's newest and best hotels. From France they brought a valet, a maid, a secretary, a manager and a trainer, and thirty-five trunks.

In addition to nautral Apollo-like gifts, Carpentier is enabled to be a Beau Brummel by the following wardrobe, according to the Evening World:

One hundred silk shirts of various hues, stripes and dots with collars to match.
Twenty overcoats, three fur coats and one fur robe.
Seventy-five suits.
Seventy-five pairs of shoes.
Two hundred neckties.

The wardrobe has been found to be insufficient for American purposes, and Carpentier is repeatedly increasing it by visits to Fifth avenue shops.

AS YOU WERE

"May the best team win" can hardly apply to the first of the Allan Cup finals between Varsity and Winnipeg Falcons in the Toronto arena tonight. If Varsity wins there will be a pretty general opinion abroad that the best team did not win. Unless Falcons go in and make the blue of Varsity look like the effects of near and the white like mourning, they certainly won't be considered representative of the best Canadian hockey talent in Belgium.

Both the Stanley and Allan Cup governing rules have proved a sort of mix-up this year, and while it is too late to retrieve the promise of the trip to Belgium for the winners of the latter cup, another year should see changes—must by the temper of sporting opinion throughout the country. Seattle's second defeat in inches of water after being used to artificial ice, as evidence, is about as good as when it comes to 100 a drop under the O. T. A.

Arthur Morrison, supervisor of playgrounds in Winnipeg, who spoke here yesterday before the chamber of commerce and who has had much to do with both Falcons and the late Selkirks, is optimistic over Falcons' chances. He stated last night that in his opinion, Falcons' 17-day lay-off would more than counterbalance Varsity's fatigue after two hard battles.

FUSSED, BUT NOT MUSSED UP.

Major Drexel-Biddle and Georges Carpentier souped and finished it through two rounds before 1,000 members of the International Sport Club just prior to a banquet night before last, both in evening dress. Pretty near nuts to soup.

SIMPLE CALCULATION.

White Sox minus Weaver, Gandil and Riseberg; Havana minus cocktails.

THE LAMENT.

I wish I had gone to war
Instead of building ships,
But who would a thought a woman
Could make so many slips.

We had it fixed, old Jack and I,
'Twas simple as could be.
The wine went out, but she came in
And the song was all about me.

HEAD OF C.A.H.A. SAYS VARSITY INELIGIBLE UNDER ITS RULES

TORONTO, March 26.—With reference to the question that has been raised as to the eligibility of the University of Toronto to play the Falcons of Winnipeg for the Allan Cup, F. E. Betts, president of the Canadian Amateur Hockey Association, handed the following statement to the Canadian Press tonight:

"My attention has been called to the newspaper comments on the wire from Secretary Bettschen, a copy of which has been placed before me. I notice that one portion of the wire has been touched on, viz—The eligibility of the Varsity team on account of non-payment of dues. Nothing has been said as to how the fact that the Varsity, as a team, and its players as individuals, have been allowed to participate in two schedules for the right to play in the Alain Cup elimination, can be reconciled with rule 7, page 28, C. A. H. A. rule book, which reads as follows: 'No player shall be permitted to play for either a challenging or defending club if he has, during the same season, played with another team in a cup match, nor shall any player be considered eligible for a cup match if he has played on another team belonging to the same or another league, union, or association, in the same season.'

"The fact that the Canadian Inter-Collegiate Union, which has been under suspension for several years for non-payment of dues, in accordance with the C. A. H. A. constitution, article 11, section B, page 40, and has never asked for reinstatement, nor have been reinstated in accordance with the C. A. H. A. constitution, article 9, section C., page 9, may be a minor matter as far as the receipt of the cash is concerned, but as a constitutional precedent it is important.

"It is to my mind certainly unfair to other contenders that a defeated team in its own group in O. H. A. schedule can have a second opportunity in another schedule under another association, and, as I see it, contrary to Allan Cup rules.

"It may be that those mentioned in the newspaper comment feel, as one American statesman some years ago put it: 'What's the constitution between friends?'."

ENGLAND IS BACK TO PRE-WAR SPORT BASIS ALREADY

LONDON, March 26.—The present week witnessed the beginning of a sporting session which promises to be one of the most enthusiastic in English history. After a five-year recess for most branches of competition, the people are returning to their old customs anxious to make up for lost time.

One of the greatest crowds ever gathered at an English racetrack witnessed the Grand National Steeplechase today, many thousandsin including the whole sporting population of Ireland, went to Liverpool for the event. Many hotel accommodations had been booked a month in advance for persons desiring to witness the race.

King George went to Liverpool by special train. He was accorded a warm reception when he appeared at the racecourse. He will sleep abroad the train tonight and tomorrow will go to Manchester for the football game to be held there. After a suspension since 1914 the Varsity race between Oxford and Cambridge, and track events between the two colleges take place tomorrow afternoon. The rowing, which is to be from Putney Bridge to Mortlake, does not start until 5:30 p.m., when the tidal conditions will be most favorable. Good weather is forecasted for the day. A great part of London's population will spend the afternoon on or beside the Thames. Sales of tickets for boats and grandstands have broken all records.

Oxford appears to be the favorite in the rowing classic, while Cambridge is best thought of in the track events, about which there is much interest, it being considered that some idea of the material available for the coming olympiad may be had from the results.

BEWARE OF DUDS.

It has been reported that several people have seen a number of little black boxes, usually chained together. Be warned! Look! See! But do not touch! They are "duds." While curiosity may tempt you very strongly, we cannot impress upon you too forcefully—do not open them. "Duds" are to be seen, but not touched. b

PASTIME BOWLERS ELECT OFFICERS AT BRANTFORD

BRANTFORD, March 25.—Anticipating the best year in the history of the club, Pastime bowlers have elected the following officers here: President, R. T. Stillman; vice-president, Arthur Ames; secretary-treasurer, F. S. Blain; trustees, Bert Inglis, A. B. Burnley, Donald Thorburn, S. Burnley, F. S. Blain; executive committee, J. A. Hainer, Fred Corey, Frank McQuillan, F. S. Hartley, R. H. Hope, F. C. Harpe.

PLAYERS ARE NOT GOING SOUTH

In a letter to Manager Buzz Wetzel of the London M.-O. League Club, First Baseman Robert Donnelly, who set such a lively pace during the early part of last season and then departed to the beside of a sick wife in New York, states that he will be unable to play baseball this season.

Mrs. Donnelly and her baby girl have been confined to the Catskill Mountains for their health, and now their physician recommends the climate of Colorado, and for this reason Robert will be compelled to forego baseball to take his little family to Denver immediately.

Wetzel treats the loss of Donnelly as a blow to his calculations, as he was looking forward for a big season for Donnelly around first base, since he started out so well last year; in fact he looked like the only ball player London had during those terrible days of all defeats.

Lamb Quits.

Another item of interest comes in the form of another misfortune in a way as Bert Lamb, who had been traded for Fearnley, now has decided that he is not going to play baseball this summer.

Instead of playing at Toledo on May 8 and 9 with the Rail Lights a two-game series will probably be played at Pontiac, Mich., with the Wilson Foundry and Machine Company's team. Pontiac fans last summer offered to buy a franchise in the M.-O. League, and are going to show Wetzel that they have a real baseball town for the final exhibition games before the season opens.

Incidentally, Frank McVicar, an old London boy, is manager of the Wilson team, which made an enviable place last year in industrial baseball.

The Toledo dates were cancelled, as they interfered with the American Association schedule.

JULIA KID SIGNS TO MEET WILDE AT WINDSOR

WINDSOR, March 26.—The "Julia Kid" signed articles here tonight to meet Jimmy Wilde, flyweight champion of the world, here in the armories on April 12. He will receive $2,500 as his share of the purse for facing the little Briton, who will get $7,500 for his work.

LEAMINGTON BASEBALL CLUB ORGANIZED

LEAMINGTON, March 26.—At the annual meeting of the baseball club, the financial report was read by the secretary, John Ross, and was very satisfactory.

The following officers were elected for the season 1920: Honorary president, J. B. Mutrie; president, E. C. Aurey; vice-president, Arthur McKay; secretary-treasurer, John Ross; senior manager, Clyde Little; assistant manager, George Aurey; official scorer, Jake Snider; ground keeper, Jack Lamarsh; team captain, Earl Taylor; league representatives, Clyde Little and Jake Snider; umpire, William Bohret.

The club will give a dance on April 14, and the following committee were elected to make all arrangements: George Aurey, Earl Taylor, Bruce Aurey, George Fry, John Ross, Clyde Little and Roy Pickle.

LONDON NORMAL GIRLS WIN AT STRATFORD

STRATFORD, March 26. — London Normal girls came here this afternoon and defeated the local Normal girls at basketball by 9 to 4. The game was a feature of the program which marked the visit of the London girls to the city over the week-end. Tonight the visitors were entertained at a social at the Normal. The game today was close, but it was a case of too much Miss Lucas. She secured 8 of the 9 London points. For Stratford Miss Cryan scored 3 points. The teams:

London.		Stratford.
Miss Lucas	Forward	J. McCabe
D. McGaw	"	M. Cryan
H. Morris	Centre	E. Johnson

London Y Wins Senior National "Hex" Honors

Once again the local Y. M. C. A. has come to the front with the senior class B Dominion Hexathlon championship. A wire was received last night from headquarters by Principal-Director David Allen announcing that the local institution had won the senior honors with a grand total of 3,707 points. Ottawa comes second with 3,472 points, and Hamilton third with an even 3,000.

Enhancing the championship in this division for the local Y. is the fact that Walter Dutton, a member of the local team, won the national individual championship of the class A senior division with a remarkable total of 572 points.

The Hexathlon contests so over the whole Dominion, and to take a championship is no mean feat when the number of athletes entered is considered, and this year's success reflects great credit on Director Allen and his voluntary assistants in the work.

Juniors Do Well.

Although in the senior division the London Y. total placed them fourth in the international, there are strong hopes from the way the points are piling up that the results of the junior events will bring not only the national championship to London, but that the international honors of the continent will come here.

There is only one event to be completed on Monday in the junior events, and thus far the total number of points tallied exceed last year's total, which brought a championship here, by 1,596 points. This practically assures the national championship and makes certain of a strong bid for the international honors.

A comparative table of this and last year's points follows:

	1919.	1920.
Short potato race	2,295	2,475
Long potato race	2,768	2,756
High jump	2,236	2,156
Broad jump	1,925	2,196
Fence vault or snap under bar	1,728	1,843
Eight-pound shot put target throw	1,310	1,926
Totals	12,316	13,352

Meds '22 and '23 Turn in Tie 13 All Tie Game

Meds '22 and Meds '23 who, from all appearances will battle it out for the honors in the Western U Interfacutiy Basketball League this year, played a hard, close-checking game yesterday at the Varsity gym to a 13 tie.

Meds '22 were well away in the first half, but the Skidoo crowd came from behind in the final spasm and in the last few seconds of play scored the tieng point on a foul. Mace and Fisher were the stars of the '22 crowd and to C. M. G. Fletcher and Dougall went the honors of the '23 year men.

The lineup:

Meds '22—Douglas, Smith, Fisher, Lewis, Mace.

Meds '23—M. D. Fletcher, Cargill, C. M. G. Fletcher, Dougall, Campbell, Spares, Beatty and H. G. Fletcher.

Referee—Mel Brock.

ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION TO BE FORMED IN STRATFORD

STRATFORD, March 26.—Preliminary steps looking to the formation of an athletic association in Stratford for the general promotion of sports were taken at a meeting of the athletic committee of the Chamber of Commerce on Friday afternoon. Following an interesting discussion, in which it was the general opinion that such an association would be of great benefit to the city, it was decided to call a public meeting at a later date, when the advisability of such an association could be more thoroughly gone into. It was decided that the Chamber of Commerce should promote a big program of sports for July 1, as was done last year.

O. Haycock Is President of Ingersoll Ball League

INGERSOLL, March 26.—At a well-attended meeting held in the council chamber this evening to discuss baseball matters it was decided to form a town league. As quickly as possible details will be obtained regarding the number of players available, and at a later meeting it will be decided whether the league will have four or six teams. There is every indication that the season will be the most successful in the history of the town. In order to prevent any team having a corner on all the good material players are to be allotted.

Officers were elected as follows: Honorary president, E. A. Wilson; president, O. Haycock; vice-president, William English; secretary-treasurer, Thomas Morrison; executive committee, the officers and Rev. W. E. McMillen, William Gemmell, John Cross and Reg Bloor.

BANQUET TENDERED STRATFORD MIDGETS

STRATFORD, March 26.—Stratford junior hockey team, runners-up in the junior O. H. A. series, were entertained at a banquet by Dr. Lorne Robertson this evening at his home. The boys had been promised the banquet if they got in the finals, and Doc Lorne made good his promise.

Weaver, Risberg and Gandil Of Sox May Be Dropped

CHICAGO, March 26.—Three veteran members of the Chicago White Sox, last year's American League pennant winners, may be dropped from baseball this season if they fail to report, according to a statement issued today by Charles A. Comiskey, president of the club.

The three players named in the statement are George "Buck" Weaver, third baseman; Charles Risberg, shortstop, and "Chick" Gandil, first baseman.

Comiskey, who returned from the Pacific Coast, declared that he had not seen any of the trio while there and had no reason to see them. Weaver and Risberg are under contract to play with his club this season. Gandil has not signed his contract.

The players have threatened to go into business if their demands for higher salaries are not granted, while President Comiskey is determined in his stand that the players live up to their contracts which were given them at their own request.

A TONIC IN SPRING AN AID TO EFFICIENCY

You Can Lay the Foundation of Good Health Now By Building Up Your Blood and Strengthening Your Nerves

The good old fashion of taking a tonic in the springtime, like most of the customs of our grandparents, is based upon sound common sense and good medical practice. Winter is always a trying time, for those who are not in rugged physical health. Many men, women and children go through the winter on reserve strength they have stored up during the sunny, summer months, and grow increasingly pale and languid as the spring days approach. A tonic for the blood and nerves at this time will do much for such people, by putting color in the cheeks and banishing that tired feeling that worries thousands of people at this season of the year.

It is impossible to be energetic if your blood is thin and weak, or if your nerves are frayed or shattered. You cannot compete with others if you do not get refreshing sleep at night, or if your appetite is poor or you are losing weight. You need a tonic at this time to add to your efficiency now, as well as to save you from suffering later on. And in all the realm of medicine, there is no safer or better tonic than Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. These pills tone and enrich the blood which circulates through every portion of the body, strengthening jaded nerves and run-down organs, and bringing a feeling of new strength and energy to weak, easily tired, despondent men, women and children.

HAD NO ENERGY.

Another of the thousands who have found benefit through the timely use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills is Mrs. T. Flynn, R. R. No. 1, Erinville, Ont., who says: "Last spring I got into a badly rundown condition. I had no energy, work left me exhausted and the least exertion would make my heart palpitate violently. I had often read of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and decided to give them a trial and got a half-dozen boxes. I had not been taking the pills long when I felt a decided improvement in my condition, and by the time I had used the sixth box my health was fully restored and I could do my housework with ease. I can recommend Dr. Williams' Pink Pills to all weak people."

BADLY RUN DOWN.

Mrs. J. N. McNeil, Glace Bay, N. S., says: "For years past my home has never been without Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and I have good reason to praise them highly. Following an attack of la grippe, I was left in a badly rundown condition. I had no appetite and felt so weak I could scarcely go about the house. I was taking medicine, but it was not helping me, and a friend advised me to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. I used them for a time with the most beneficial results. My appetite improved, my strength returned and I was soon able to do all my housework. I now use the pills every spring, and find them a splendid strength-bringing tonic. I have recommended the pills to other friends who have used them with good results."

NEVER FELT SO WELL.

Miss Beatrice Bishop, Fendale, N. B., says: "I have never felt so well as I do since taking Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. When I began their use I was very much run down. I had no color, no appetite, could not go up stairs without stopping to rest on the way. I had frequent headaches and a feeling of despondency. I took Pink Pills regularly for about eight weeks and while I felt a benefit from them almost from the first, at the end of that time I was in better health than I had ever enjoyed before. I freely give you permission to publish this letter, as my experience may be the means of pointing the way to new health to some other weak and run down girl."

BILIOUS HEADACHES GONE.

Mr. D. C. McClure, Heffley Creek, B. C., says: "As a spring tonic I know of nothing else that can equal Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. Last spring I felt weak and run down and suffered a great deal from bilious headaches. I got a half dozen boxes of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and after taking them I felt like a new man. The lassitude from which I suffered had disappeared. I had a better appetite, and was in every way stronger and better than before I began the use of this medicine. Almost everyone needs a tonic in the spring, and for this purpose I can strongly advise Dr. Williams' Pink Pills."

PALE, WEAK GIRLS.

When your daughter's strength fails and pallor, breathlessness and backache disclose her anaemic condition, remember that you can make her well and assure her healthy development by giving her Dr. Williams' Pink Pills to make good red blood. Remember, too, that for women of all ages Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are especially helpful in the many ailments that result from watery blood. They make women and girls well and keep them well. This is amply proved by the case of Miss Eva McKinnon, Glammis, Ont., who says: "As a school girl, I grew very pale, and would take dizzy spells and sometimes vomiting. My condition was such that I was not able to attend school regularly, and my mother was very much worried about my condition. Finally she decided to give me Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and I took these for a considerable time, gradually gaining strength, until I was perfectly well. It is some years since I took these pills and I have since enjoyed the best of health, and I am certain pale, sickly girls will find new health if they give Dr. Williams' Pink Pills a fair trial."

HAS A BETTER APPETITE.

Mrs. M. D. MacLeod, Caledonia, P. E. I., says: "I have used Dr. Williams' Pink Pills as a spring medicine with satisfactory results. Before I began their use I was subject to weak spells, but these have now disappeared. I find that my appetite is better, and I have every confidence in your pills as a blood builder.

A MEDICINE WORTH TRYING.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are a tonic, not a stimulant. They build up the blood, and through their use not only the disastrous after-effects of influenza but also troubles due to poor blood, such as anaemia, rheumatism, indigestion and the generally wornout feeling that affects so many people, disappear. You can get these pills through any dealer in medicine, or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50, from The Dr. Williams Medicine Company, Brockville, Ont.

TIGERS WIN.

PITTSGURG, March 26.—The Hamilton Tigers defeated the Pittsburg Athletic Association hockey team here tonight by 4 to 3.

NEW SCHOLARSHIP BY RHODES FOUNDATION

TORONTO, March 27.—Toronto University has received word from the Rhodes Foundation that three scholarships are to be given this year instead of two. The first is to be open to graduates of any college in any province, and will be for £300 for three years. Applicants must not be over 27 years of age by October 1, 1920. The other two are the usual scholarships.

JAY GOULD AND WEAR WIN FIRST OF SEMI-FINALS

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., March 26.—Jay Gould, the open champion, paired with Joseph W. Wear, representing the Racquet Club, defeated D. L. Hutchinson and S. L. Andrews, also of the Racquet Club, in the first semi-final match of the national doubles tennis court championship here today, 6—2, 6—1, 6—3.

Hutchinson and Wear played well, but the contest would have been closer had not Hutchinson served double faults at critical moments.

Joshua Crane and C. T. Russell, Boston, won the other semi-final match from F. Culling and S. Culling, 6—3, 4—6, 6—5, 6—3. The final will be played tomorrow.

NON-STOP BICYCLE RACE MONTREAL-TORONTO ON

MONTREAL, March 26.—A non-stop bicycle race has been arranged to take place from Toronto to Montreal as soon as the roads get in good condition.

This will be the first Canadian trial in connection with the formation of a Canadian bicycle team for the Olympic games.

CLEVELAND, Ohio, March 26.—Jack Britton, welterweight champion, won the newspaper decision over Byron Downey of Columbus, Ohio, in a ten-round bout here tonight. Britton won six rounds. Downey won three rounds and one round was even.

OVERWORKED, RUN-DOWN MEN

Vinol Will Enrich Your Blood and Restore Your Strength, Vitality, Energy and Vim.

Recommended by Physicians, and Guaranteed by Druggists.

Men who are overworked, rundown, nervous, lack energy and working strength, we know that VINOL is just what you need, as it increases the red corpuscles, enriches the blood, quickens the circulation and imparts strength and vigor to every organ and muscle in the body.

The reason VINOL is so successful is because it is a combination of the oldest and most successful tonics known, Iron, Beef and Cod Liver Peptones, Glycerophosphates, etc., and what VINOL did for Mr. Joseph J. McDougall of Cape Breton, N. S., it will do for every weak, rundown, nervous, overworked man.

Mr. McDougall says:

"I am a farmer and was overworked, rundown and weak. My druggist recommended VINOL. It built me up and made me strong. I also gained in flesh. Other members of my family have also used it with splendid results."

For all rundown, nervous, anaemic conditions, weak women, overworked men, feeble old people and delicate children there is no remedy like VINOL.

Your druggist will return your money if it fails to benefit you.

AWAY WITH THOSE ACHES AND PAINS

Stop That Pain!

Why suffer—and, in suffering, neglect an ailment which may cost you your life?

Such things should not be. Pain has one purpose only—to show you where the trouble is. It is up to you to make it right.

Many aches and pains are due to Kidney trouble. Backache, pains in the side, headaches day after day, rheumatism, lumbago, neuralgia, sciatica — may be traced in almost every instance to uric acid and poisons which the kidneys have failed to take out of the blood. Weak kidneys also account for stone in the bladder, dizziness, sleeplessness and that tired-out, dragged-out feeling which is so fatal to your work.

50 Cts. a Box

Gin Pills will Stop the Pain

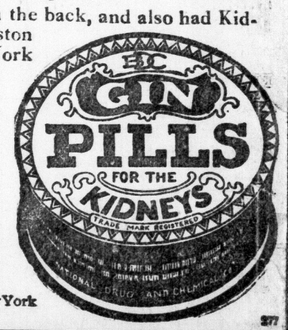

They have a wonderful action on the kidneys, soothing congestion, healing inflammation, rebuilding tissue, and enabling the delicate organs to resume their work of filtering the waste and poison from the blood.

Gin Pills FOR THE KIDNEYS

They contain no alcohol, but all the beneficial properties of the Juniper Berry, and seven other helpful diuretics and antiseptics.

"I suffered with pains in the back, and also had Kidney Trouble," writes Preston Nurse, 437 W. 35th St., New York City. "Five doctors failed to relieve me. Then I tried Gin Pills, and in two weeks I found great relief. They are an excellent remedy."

Get a box at once from your druggist or dealer—50c. with money-back guarantee. Or write to us for a free sample, sufficient to prove its value. Act without delay—before worse complications develop.

AT THE GRAND

"BEHIND THE DOOR," A THOS. H. INCE PRODUCTION, AT THE GRAND MONDAY, TUESDAY AND WEDNESDAY.

Whenever a photoplay production bears the imprint of Thomas H. Ince's direction, then the screen fans look for something extraordinary. That seems to have become the rule since Mr. Ince produced such screen triumphs as "Civilization," "The Guilty Man," and "False Faces." That Mr. Ince is making huge strides forward will be amply evidenced at the Grand Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, when his latest production, "Behind the Door," starring that virile player, Hobart Bosworth, will be displayed for the first time in London.

In addition to the feature picture and the big vaudeville program, an added attraction will be the two-reel Big V comedy, "Squeaks and Squawks." The Pathe Review, Topics of the Day and the Canadian Kinograms will complete an excellent bill.

VAUDEVILLE AT THE GRAND MONDAY, TUESDAY AND WEDNESDAY.

One of the breeziest and incidentally best varied shows of the season will be offered at the Grand Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday. Five all-star acts comprise the vaudeville portion of the bill, while the film features include a roaring Big V comedy, "Squeaks and Squawks," the Pathe Review, Topics of the Day and the Canadian Kinograms. The feature film introduces Hobart Bosworth, in "Behind the Door."

Heading the list of vaudeville attractions will be the Byron Brothers (seven in number), musical artists. "The Unexpected" is the title of a surprise novelty offering to be presented by Bassett and Bailey. All lovers of high-class singing, including popular and classical selections, will enjoy the offering of Doria and Merilees. Sullivan and Meyers will keep any audience in good spirits with the laughable skit, "It Happened in Freeport." Ernest Hiatt's offering "Nothing Serious," is one of the most laugh-provoking bits in vaudeville today.

"THE MOLLUSC."

"The Mollusc," staged by the H.-K. Players, which will be presented at the Grand Theatre on April 1, one night only, is one of the best of English comedies in three acts. This offering abounds with dramatic situations, which are not brought out, however, at the expense of the comedy.

The story centres about a female of the idle rich class, who insists that others perform her tasks, even to those of the minor variety. Because of her listless attitude in everyday life she is termed a Mollusc by her brother from the west, who discerns in her motive characteristics similar to that creature of the animal kingdom which is too lazy to seek its own food and dies when fortune does not deliver the necessary nutrition. Seats on sale now.

"FLO-FLO" AT THE GRAND GOOD FRIDAY AND SATURDAY.

"Flo-Flo is the attraction to be presented at the Grand Good Friday and Saturday, with matinees daily. It was one of the hits of Broadway, running at the Cort Theatre for one solid year. Frolic, fun and frills form the "Flo-Flo" formula. It has won its way to public favor through its magnificent costuming, pertinent lines, pretty girls and lovely lyrics. "Flo-Flo" is one of the most handsomely gowned productions ever seen on the American stage, the wares of Mosher and Simpson exhibited in the Fashion Shop, where the scenes of the story are laid, having been selected from the most exclusive shops in New York and Paris.

The heroine of the piece is "Flo-Flo," Mosher and Simpson's most beautiful model, who although a vampire at heart, renounces her love for a rising young men from Oshkosh, who has taken a position at three sixty a week in the Fashion Shop in order that he may marry Angelina Stokes, who is being forced by a stern mother into a wedding with a bogus count, that she may thus retrieve the waning Stokes fortune.

AT THE ALLEN

NORMA TALMADGE HAS DELIGHTFUL NEW COMEDY PICTURE, "SHE LOVES AND LIES," SHOWN AT THE ALLEN MONDAY, TUESDAL AND WEDNESDAY.

He didn't love her, so she quit being his wife, and became his naughty affinity; and he fell in love with her. Then he went back to his wife, and left her, and that made her happy, for then she won him. Sounds complicated, doesn't it? But that's the charming comedy plot of the delightful romance, "She Loves and Lies," which Norma Talmadge is starring in at the Allen Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday. Norma Talmadge productions are always unusual, they must be, for is not Norma herself the most beautiful and most unusual woman of the screen? Her quaint and widely-varied characterizations are at once the delightful and surprise of her millions of admirers. Her new production, "She Loves and Lies," is one of the most delightful comedies that has ever graced the screen.

A Snub Pollard comedy, Allen News, and Chester Outing pictures complete a program par excellence. Special overture and musical accompaniment by the Allen Concert Orchestra and magnificen organ.

TOM MOORE IN THRILLING PICTURE OF MYSTERY AND ADVENTURE AT THE ALLEN, SUPPORTED BY NAOMI CHILDERS.

Yellow eyes, blue diamonds, red-blooded courage, dark trails, desperate ventures, and strange women, such are the ingredients of Tom Moore's new picture, "Duds," which is presented at the Allen Thursday, Friday and Saturday next week. Starring with Tom Moore in this, his latest picture, will be his favorite leading woman, Naomi Childers. Christine Mayo, Edwin Stevens, and other noted artists. Captain Plunkett, alone and unaided, assailed the smugglers in their own headquarters. Death lurked at every turn. Men cursed, fought, knifed and died for the Sultana Diamond; women engaged in stealthy intrigue, an ex-army officer turned detective, a combine of wholesale jewelers offered huge rewards, struggles on sea and land, raids, romance and love, all are woven into this wonderful picture of mystery, drama, lightning action, and strange romance.

A special comedy gem, "Two Dollars, Please," will also be shown on this special feature program, and many interesting news films and scenic pictures.

WILLIAM S. HART AT THE ALLEN TODAY.

Presented at the Allen on the big special matinee program and tonight also, will be William S. Hart's big picture of the out of doors; of the big timber camps and the rushing rivers; of great log drives and husky men of the north.

AT LOEW'S

"MORE DEADLY THAN THE MALE," ETHEL CLAYTON'S PICTURE AT LOEW'S FIRST HALF OF WEEK.

Ethel Clayton's new picture, "More Deadly Than the Male," is coming to Loew's Theatre for the first half of next week. It is adapted from a story that appeared in a popular fiction magazine recently, and concerns a high-spirited girl who concocted a clever scheme by which to prevent the man for whom she secretly cared for going to South Africa in search of adventure. Edward Harper appears as Miss Clayton's leading man, and others in the cast are Herbert Heyes, Hallam Cooley and Peggy Pearce. The picture is a Paramount-Artcraft.

KATHERINE MacDONALD IN NEW FILM AT LOEW'S LAST HALF OF WEEK.

The world's most beautiful woman, Katherine MacDonald, will be seen in her latest production for First National Exhibitors Circuit, "The Beauty Market," at Loew's Theatre the last half of next Week. In this picture Miss MacDonald portrays the part of a society girl, whose beauty wins her the attention of wealthy admirers, and whose heart leads her to eschew the sham life she has been leading for a wholesome love.

LOEW'S VAUDEVILLE.

Loew's vaudeville for Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday will comprise Miss Billie Richmond, assisted by the Moyer Sisters and Maurice La Maur in "Cabaret De Luxe"; Eugene Barnes and Jack Freeman in a laughing skit called "The Intruder," Ferry and Hawthorne appear in a skit "The Turning Point." Burns and Garry in some very lively dancing steps, and the three Maxims are ambidexterous girls.

The latter part of the week the Charlotte trio, Al Tyler, Alanson, Butler and De Muth and one act comedy entitled "Women," comprise the bill.

AT THE MAJESTIC

"THE END OF THE ROAD," PUBLIC HEALTH PICTURE, COMING TO THE MAJESTIC.

Indorsed by the Canadian National Council for Combating Veneral Diseases, "The End of the Road," is presented by the Public Health Films at Majestic in a few weeks. Besides the great lesson it teaches, "The End of the Road," is a most interesting drama. The beautiful screen star, Clair Adams, and Richard Bennett, the famous actor, has the leading roles, and the picture, although presenting its moral forcefully and unmistakably, is a production which can do nothing but good to any one who sees it, from the youngest child to the most modest maiden. In fact it is a picture, which in many ways, is quite free from censorship.

ONE REELERS

"The Fly-Cop" is the title of Larry Semon's new comedy to follow "The Grocery Clerk." Lucille Carlisle again appears as Larry Semon's leading woman, taking the part of a cabaret queen in a palatial underground Chinese cabaret.

"The Trenton," one of the old-time clipper ships, was purposely wrecked off Mount Loretta, Staten Island, a few days ago to provide thrills for Harry T. Morey's forthcoming picture, "The Sea-Rider."

Joe Rock, a Vitagraph comedian, whose previous forte has been acrobatics, weight-lifting and wrestling, appears as a female impersonator in his newest comedy film.

Corinne Griffith, the Vitagraph star, will commence this week the first scene of "Gumshoes, 4-B," an adaptation of the same title by Forrest Crissey.

Alice Joyce will make a final decision this week as to which of three strong stories she will select for her next special production. The last six Alice Joyce productions have enjoyed extensive Broadway engagements.

Vitagraph plans to release its million-dollar super-serial, "The Silent Avenger," next month. William Duncan is the star of this production, and in several of the episodes appears as a policeman. He has rare opportunities for displaying the athletic prowess for which he is noted.

Joe Ryan and Jean Paige have finished the first episode of their Vitagraph serial, "Hidden Dangers." Ryan recently recovered from injuries sustained while "bull-dogging" a steer.

David Smith is at Donner Lake, California, filming wild animal scenes for the Vitagraph special, "The Courage of Marge O'Doone," based on the famous novel of that title by James Oliver Curwood.

Earl Williams' Pekinese made a sweep of its class by winning first prize, two special prizes and two cups at the Los Angeles Pekinese and Pomeranian show just closed.

Pauline Frederick has invested in a new home at Beverly Hills, Cal., valued at $75,000. She took possession last week, and is so enthusiastic over her estate that it is said by members of her company that no conversation can be edged in, because of the alternate boasting of the star and her director.

Frank Floyd, who owns one of the finest improved ranches in the San Fernando valley above Los Angeles.

An airplane with many special devices, including a newly-patented stabilizer, is being used in Vitagraph's special production, "The Girl From the Sky," which is being directed on the west coast by Tom Terriss. This is an adaptation of a story by Gouverneur Morris.

"Harriet, the Piper," will be the first story filmed by Mildred Harris Chaplin, under the direction of Lloyd Ingraham, who was secured by her at the conclusion of his contract with Thomas H. Ince, where he directed several of the Douglas McLean and Doris May features. Mr. Ingraham is now putting the script of the story in shape and production details will be taken up this week.

The part of the soldier hero in "Civilian Clothes," which Paramount has begun to produce, will be played by Thomas Meighen. In Los Angeles this comedy ran as a stage play for over thirty weeks, breaking all western records.

The veteran star, William H. Grand, has begun work with the Shurtleff Company in his original part in the filming of Winchell Smith's comedy, "The New Henrietta."

Claire DuBrey, the talented young player formerly with Charles Ray, has been engaged by Robert Brunton to support J. Warren Kerrigan in his latest production, "The House of Whispers." Margery Wilson has also been added to the cast.

Frank Borzage's second picture for Cosmopolitan Films has been held up b ythe illness of his star, Kitty Gordon, and the severe weather conditions in the east, where the picture is being made. Letters from the director say that the difficulties of movie makers during the recent blizzards along the Atlantic slope have been innumerable, and have made the producers and workers cast many a longing eye toward sunny California. Borzage's first Cosmopolitan priduction, "Humoresque," which is to be released, is said to be wonderfully picturesque upon its realistic side.

"What Happened to Jones" will be Bryant Washburn's next. Twenty years ago this farce, one of the first written by George Broadhurst, was a reigning success, and it has since been played continuously by stock companies.

Blanche Sweet's next, which will be made under the guidance of Henry King, will be considerable of a novelty. It will be an aeroplane story, with many of its scenes made in the air. The Jesse D. Hampden Corporation, by whom the picture will be put out, have sent Mr. King and his company to Santa Catalina Island, the nationally famous resort off the coast of Southern California, for the early scenes.

XXXVII.—An Irritating Novel

I rested quietly in my room before dinner hour. For I felt tired. And there are times when we all long for solitude.

Alice's maid— a kindly Irish girl—hovered about me for a moment. I longed for her to go. Was there anything that I needed? she inquired solicitously.

She insisted on removing the hairpins from my thick, curly tresses, and brushing out my hair.

"Madame is quite beautiful," she said, with the French accent Alice has taught her to assume. She wrapped my blue kimono about me, and insisted that I lie down on the bed. "I shall return in half an hour, and prepare the bath for madame," she added, smiling amiably.

She switched on a shaded electric light beside me. Madame might like to read, perhaps?"

I nodded.

"Pass me down that book, please," I pointed to one of the latest novels on a shelf close to my bed. "Thank you." I dismissed her.

With careless fingers I turned to the pages of the book. My thoughts were on Alice, and her foolishness. . . . And then a printed paragraph caught my eye.

"Women today are increasingly fond of playing with fire, of going as near the danger-line as possible, so long as they do not cross it, of dancing on the edge of the precipice without falling over."

That "gave one furiously to think," as the French say!

I read the paragraph again. It seemed an echo of my own thoughts.

Love of excitement! Love of change! Restlessness! Those things formed the keynote of the modern woman.

But—was she happier? I wondered. . . .

At heart I do believe I am old-fashioned. I believe in wifehood, motherhood and home. This perpetual chasing of false gods—this endless social game—it wearies me.

Few people really know the truth about us women. We pretend—pretend—

I think there is an instinct in all of us to camouflage. We don't want the world to fathom us. We like to appear mysterious, misunderstood.

But so many of us are just fakers, taking all, and giving nothing.

I twisted round into a more comfortable position, stuck an extra pillow behind my fluffy head, and gave the book a more interested perusal.

"Women are disloyal to other women whenever it becomes a question of men," I read.

I flung the book down, irritated. I dislike that horribly superior saying. A man had written that, I was assured. A complacent, smug, superior man!

Glancing at the name below the title, I was satisfied. Yes, this aggravating piece of sentiment had been perpetrated by a man!

But—a grain of truth lay in his words—although I hated him. For thoughts of Alice surged through my consciousness. Alice—always predatory in her instincts—would sacrifice her own best woman-friend, if the stake were some stupid, meaningless flirtation with a man!

Oh well, we weren't all like Alice—and thank heaven for it!

I—Helene St. Aubyns—was a different type. Not that I disliked or despised men—no! But—apart from Jim—they couldn't rouse emotion in me. I'd grown weary of their flattery—their unoriginal methods of attack.

Why couldn't women be plain friends with men, without all this heart-bother? Wasn't friendship something very precious, very beautiful? I was capable of friendship. Jim had often told me so.

"The best little pal a fellow ever had," he'd often said.

Tony, too, in different fashion, had reiterated Jim's words. Yes, I could be a pal!

Then my wandering eye caught a new sentence in this irritating novel:

"There is no such thing as Platonic friendship between red-blooded men and women. It is less—or more."

I made a little angry face. This wretched writer! Someone really ought to slap him. He deserved it.

I'd had a heap of men-pals, always! But—had they all remained, strictly—friends? Sudden memories of little episodes swept over me—episodes wherein I'd been considerably disconcerted. My "pals" had grown a shade domineering—had wanted all my company to the exclusion of other "friends." There had been scenes of jealousy, reproaches.

"You're far too pretty, Helene," one of these candid ones had said. "I just can't keep up this cool and level-headed friendship game! If you won't marry me, then I'm off. You tantalize me, you fascinating little witch! And then you laugh at me—or stare in mock surprise with those big, cool, beautiful eyes of yours—until I long to kiss you, and carry you far away to some desert island where no other man may ever see you!"

Remembering this, I had to smile.

Then I read on, this time more tolerantly:

"Women love pursuit, and are easily reconciled to capture. The besetting sin of all women is vanity—the consciousness of power over men."

Was this really true? I pondered. Yes, I'll admit it. We all—from Cleopatra downwards—do enjoy this sense of domination. "The besetting sin of all women is their consciousness of power over men."

We trade with that power—in business life—in Undergrounds—oh, everywhere! But—why call it a "besetting sin?" No sin about it! It's woman's birthright!

Of course, there are some women who do seem to lack that "consciousness of power." Poor things! So stupid of them! They never are appreciated. Self-assurance counts for so much, always. Plus brains.

I thought of Mary Higgins, the acidulated little spinster who so obviously pines for matrimony—and can't achieve it. Mary is quite forty—but if she were only clever in her methods, she hasn't reached the hopeless stage!

It's Thackeray who wrote that "any woman, unless she has a positive hump, can marry any man she pleases. But," he continues, "the little dears are like the beasts of the field, and don't know their own power."

I smiled, amused. And then I read in this new novel:

"It is possible for any reasonably attractive woman up to forty-five to get a reasonably satisfactory husband, if she will work to get him as a man works to get money." (This would be joyous news for Mary Higgins).

A knock came at my door, and Alice's head popped in. She handed me a glorious bunch of violets and carnations.

"Get up, Helene. Mr. Travis Lloyd has sent you these. I expect him here at any moment."

Again I smiled. For me, it wasn't necessary "to work." It never had been necessary!

Monday—Violets and Carnations.

WIFE OF CHAPLIN SEEKS SEPARATION

Alleges Screen Star Made Life Unbearable For Her.

Los Angeles, March 21. — Charlie Chaplin's screen antics in making an entire nation laugh gave him no time to create an atmosphere of happiness at his family fireside, according to his wife, Mildred Harris Chaplin, who announced today that she would seek a legal separation from the film comedian.

Mrs. Chaplin did not make it clear whether she would file suit for divorce or for separate maintenance. In a newspaper interview Mrs. Chaplin, herself a motion picture actress, declared that her husband's coldness and neglect had made life with him unbearable for her.

"He finally deserted me altogether, after threatening that unless I accept a settlement of $25,000 from him and file suit for divorce in Nevada, he would start such a suit against me," said Mrs. Chaplin. "Following this he had detectives follow me everywhere."

BEAVER 'COMES BACK' IN ALBERTA STREAMS

Edmonton, Alta., March 22. — The beaver, once threatened with extinction, has "come back" under protective laws to such an extent in Alberta that the Provincial Government has proclaimed an open trapping season, lasting until April 30, in all the country south of the 55th parallel of latitude.

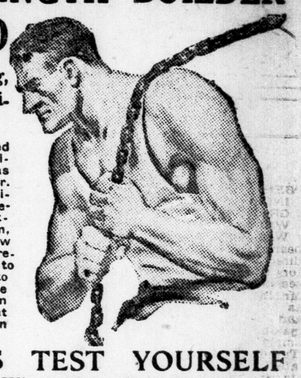

Beavers may be said to have been the architects of Edmonton's early fortunes. The Hudson Bay Company's pioneer fur post, founded on the city's site in 1795, flourished on its trade in beaver pelts. Every prairie stream was full of beavers, and the three million acres of land dotted through every township of Alberta, Saskatchewan, and Manitoba south of the North Saskatchewan River, which the company has now thrown open to farm settlement, was once included in the richest beaver country in Canada. When the settlers began swarming in upon the prairies in the last quarter of the last century the prairies were swept almost clean of beavers.

Laws for its protection gave the animal peace from its human enemies, and it is now again plentiful in many districts. Numerous complaints have been made of damage by beavers in Alberta in the last year. Their numerous dams have caused streams to inundate farm lands, and many cattle and horses have been drowned recently in attempting to cross these swollen streams on thin ice. The animals also have destroyed much brush and timber which the farmers needed for shelter for stock.

In view of this widespread damage to farms, the Alberta Government has declared war on the animal, which is the national emblem of Canada. Farmers everywhere are busy trapping, and it is expected that at least 1,500 beavers will be taken before the open season ends. Farmers will be able to turn a pretty penny by their trapping, as beaver pelts are now selling at from $20 to $25 apiece.

NUXATED IRON

--MASTER STRENGTH BUILDER OF THE BLOOD

The Power Behind the Strong, Sturdy Men and Healthy Beautiful Women of Today.

"To make strong, keen, red-blooded Americans there is nothing in my experience which I have found so valuable as organic iron—Nuxated Iron," says Dr. James Francis Sullivan, formerly Physician of Bellevue Hospital (Outdoor Department), New York, and the Westchesten County Hospital. Nuxated Iron, by enriching the blood and creating new blood cells, strengthens the nerves, rebuild the weakened tissues, and helps to instill renewed energy and endurance into the whole system. It often increases the strength of weak, delicate people in two weeks' time. It is estimated that over 3,000,000 people use Nuxated Iron annually as a tonic and blood-builder.

MAKE THIS TEST YOURSELF

And Find Out Where Your Blood Stands.

See how long you can work or how far you can walk without becoming tired; next take two five-grain tablets of Nuxated Iron three times per day after meals for two weeks. Then test your strength and see how much you have gained. Numbers of nervous, run-down people who were ailing all the while have most astonishingly increased their strength and endurance simply by taking iron in the proper form.

Manufacturers' Note: Nuxated Iron, recommended and prescribed by physicians, is not a secret remedy, but one which is well known to druggists everywhere. Unlike the older iron products, it is easily assimilated, does not injure the teeth, make them black, nor upset the stomach. The manufacturers guarantee successful and entirely satisfactory results to every purchaser or they will refund your money. It is dispensed by all good druggists.

A Man's Estate

At age 21 " twas all the Estate he had."

At age 30 he wisely increases his insurance.

At age 40 he finds the security of his Estate unquestioned by his Banker.

At age 50 he has no fear of hardship for himself or his family.

At age 60 his "Estate" fully paid for becomes a substantial fund, earning dividends.

There is but one certain way of having an Estate, and that is through life insurance.

"The records of the Surrogate Office of New York County, covering a period of five years, showed that the average number of deaths among adults for those years was 27,011. Of these:

23,051 or 85 per cent. left no estate at all.

1,171, or over 4 per cent. left estates valued at $300 to $1,000.

1,428, or over 5 per cent. left estates of more than $1,000, but less than $5,000.

475, or nearly 2 per cent. left estates of more than $5,000, but less than $10,000.

490, or nearly 2 per cent. left estates of more than $10,000, but less than $25,000."

The Canada Life Way

This Company will guarantee to provide at your death an Estate which is twenty or thirty times greater than the amount of your annual deposit. And if you live—

Every dollar of regular annual deposit will be returned at the end of twenty years, along with substantial dividends.

Fifty dollars a month will be paid to you while living if you should become totally and permanently disabled before reaching the age of sixty.

Our "Capital Return" Policy

1st. Deposits are made yearly. This is what you are saving, and at the end of 20 years the Canada Life guarantees the return of every dollar paid in.

2nd. Your life is insured from the day you make the first deposit,—for $5,000, or whatever amount you decide.

3rd. Dividends are paid at stated intervals in addition to the return of all deposits at the end of 20 years.

4th. These dividends may be used to increase the amount of your insurance, or be allowed to accumulate at interest for 20 years.

5th. The cash value of Policy and Dividends represents a valuable asset, useful in business, and your "estate" is protected by the insurance.

6th. At the end of Twenty Years you can draw out all you have paid in, along with the accrued dividends—

---or--- you can draw a Special Cash Guarantee, together with the Accumulated Dividends, making a substantial sum, and leave the $5,000 Policy fully paid for and continuing to earn Dividends as long as you live—

---or---

this Special Cash Guarantee may be applied to increase the amount of your policy to more than $7500.

BIG LAKE BOATS ARE BEING FITTED OUT AT SARNIA

Will Be All Ready For Early Opening of Navigation.

SARNIA, March 26.—The fitting out of the Northern Navigation Line and the Imperial Oil fleet is now in full swing. The boats have been receiving machinery repairs all winter and painting and decorating will be started at once. The bay is now clear of ice and the steamers will be able to move to the docks of the company.

A heavy gale from the south today kicked up a fairly heavy sea on the river and helped to break up the ice fields in Lake Huron. So far tonight no ice is coming into the river, but the wind is shifting and ice may start to enter the river at any time. Ice conditions over Lake Huron's southern extremity are very bad.

Gravel steamers from Detroit and Windsor are expected here shortly. Joseph Glass, Government sand inspector has been notified to be ready to start these boats digging. Ice conditions in St. Clair Lake alone are preventing the boats from coming. The steamer Wauketa of the White Star Line, is ready at Detroit now to begin operations.

Dominion Convention Urges Government To Control the Price and Exportation of All Forestry Products and Building Materials.

MONTREAL, March 26.—(Canadian Press.)—R. B. Maxwell of Winnipeg was elected president of the Dominion Command of the Gread War Veterans' Association at the convention this afternoon. S. Stalford of Ontario is the first vice-president, and Capt. L. Plante of Montreal was unanimously elected second vice-president.

T. Dayse of Alberta was named to take the chair for the elections, and he announced the withdrawal from nominations of Comrades Scott, Davidson and Jeakins, leaving Dr. A. M. Forbes of Montreal, and R. B. Maxwell of Winnipeg the only contestants for the office of president. The vote resulted as follows: Maxwell, 150; Forbes, 46.

Vote Made Unanimous.

Comrade Forbes then moved that the vote be made unanimous, which was done.

Votes for vice-president, resulted: Stalford, 119; Plante, 78, and Irwin, 8.

All candidates for second vice-president withdrew, and Capt. Plante was declared unanimously elected to the position. His popularity was shown when the whole convention sang "Alouette."

Dominion executive members named by the various provinces were ratified as follows: E. Edgett, British Columbia; T. Dayse, Alberta; Leo Ward, Manitoba; C. E. Jeakins, Ontario; A. MacKenzie Forbes, Quebec; H. F. Whitman, Nova Scotia; N. McLeod, New Brunswick and C. McMillan, Prince Edward Island.

Re-establishment Additions.

The additions made to the re-establishment resolution this morning included the following recommendations: That the Dominion and Provincial Governments be urged to control the price and exportation of all forestry products and building materials, and that the federal housing act should be administered directly by the federal authorities, loans being made in city, town or village to returned citizens.

That the Dominion Government provide medical service for a period of five years after discharge to all returned soldiers on account of their being more susceptible to sickness than ordinary citizens.

That the time limit during which free dental treatment can be received by soldiers be extended to May 1, 1921.

BANK CLERKS ASK 25 PER CENT RAISE IN THEIR SALARIES

Also Want Restrictions On Marriage To Be Removed.

BRANTFORD, March 26.—Notices have been received in the local banks that at a meeting held in Montreal of the United Bank Clerks they asked for a 25 per cent increase in salary, a change in the present system of night work and the removal of the restrictions on marriage. A copy of the resolutions is being sent to all the branches of the chartered banks in the country.

With the operation of the bylaw enforcing the pasteurization of milk in this city, local dealers are building plants to conform to the bylaw. There will be five separate concerns, several of the vendors having formed partnerships to make the capital outlay required for pasteurization. M. O. H. That there will be no new Lorne bridge this year was announced today by Ald. Ballantyne. Plans for a concrete structure are now being drawn up by a Toronto firm, but will require two months before completion.

Cadet drill in the public schools is being advocated by the Municipal Chapter, I. O. D. E., and a resolution was drawn up at a meeting of the executive, to be forwarded to the board of education.

Mrs. H. Alfred Jones of Brant Chapter and Mrs. Colquehoun of the Dufferin Rifles Chapter mothered a resolution stating that the I. O. D. E. had always stood strongly for the military training of boys and girls, and had always appreciated the great value to them, both in mind and body, and as such non-militaristic countries as Australia and New Zealand had insisted on their children having the advantage of military training, they urgently requested the board of education to re-establish cadet drill in the schools.

YOU CANNOT HIDE YOUR FAT

Overfatness is the one misfortune you cannot hide from yourself or from those around you. If too thin, your dressmaker or tailor can supply the deficiencies, but the overfat carry a burden they cannot conceal. There is one sure way to reduce your weight safely and quickly. The harmless Marmola Prescription, which changes the fatty tissues and fat-producing foods to solid flesh and energy, helps the general health and digestion, permits you to eat and live as you like, and leaves the skin clear and smooth. This famous prescription is now condensed into tablet form. Each tablet contains an exact dose of the same harmless ingredients that made the original prescription capable of reducing the overfat body at the rate of two, three, or four pounds a week without the slightest ill effects. Take but one tablet after each meal and at bedtime until the normal weight is reached and the bodily health completely restored. Ask your druggist for Marmola Prescription Tablets, or send to the Marmola Company, 864 Woodward avenue, Detroit, Mich., and you will receive for $1, a full case—enough to start you well on your way to slimness and happiness.

1870 Our Golden Jubilee 1920

Present home of the Mutual of Canada, Waterloo, Ont.

"Fifty Years Young"

The Mutual Attains its Jubilee

FOR a life insurance company there is no such thing as "old age." The older the company the more strength and energy it acquires, that is, if the company has experienced a normal and healthy development such as characterized the first half century in the life of "Canada's only Mutual."

This company was incorporated in 1868, organized in 1869, and began writing business in 1870. The steady and consistent progress of the company from that time to the present has been phenomenal. The progress has been as uninterrupted as the growth of a tree. The figures from the successive reports suggest the rings that form year by year in the trunk of a sturdy Canadian Oak.

The growth of the Mutual is evidenced in the different office buildings occupied during the half century. The preliminary meetings were held in the upper story of a conveyancer's office. After a few months a larger suite was secured and there the early years of struggle were passed. A permanent home was erected in 1878, and in the year 1912 the present office was occupied—but although more than adequate then an enlargement has already become necessary.

The distinctive principles of the Mutual are such as strongly to recommend it in these days when mankind is turning to co-operative effort.

The Motto of the Mutual is "Each for all and all for Each." This more and more expresses the spirit of the age and insures the continued popularity of the company.

LLOYD GEORGE REPEATS ATTACK ON LABOR PARTY

Premier Charges Labor Program Means Co-operative Commonwealth.

LOP-SIDED EDUCATION

Says Men Who Started Movement Not Among Working Classes.

LONDON, March 26.—Premier Lloyd George and Herbert H. Asquith, former premier, and member of the House of Commons for Paisley, are conducting an informal debate over the right to claim the leadership of the Liberal party. Incidentally, the question who will be the predominant figure in the National Liberal Club, the party's headquarters, is involved. Mr. Asquith's supporters arranged a luncheon in his honor at the club last Wednesday, and the premier's Liberal followers organized a luncheon in honor of Mr. Lloyd George today.

In his speech at today's luncheon, Premier Lloyd George defended his attack of last week on the Labor party, for which he has been condemned by both the Labor party and the party of Mr. Asquith.

"The program of the Labor party is to put an end to the capitalistic system and create a co-operative commonwealth," he declared. "I have read carefully everything said by Mr. Clynes (John Robert Clynes), the Laborite, and Mr. Henderson (Arthur Henderson, Laborite), and all the apologies of the Labor party. Not one of them denies that the doctrine of the Labor party is a doctrine of communism.

Doctrine Not Sincere.

"It is said by some that the doctrine is not sincere; that common ownership is only put into the Labor program in order to conciliate a section of the party. That is a very dangerous thing in these days. These are tropical days when seed put into the ground spreads, sprouts and brings forth fruit with startling rapidity. You must not put doctrines of that kind into the forefront of the program of a powerful party, and then say they mean nothing.

"Suppose the Labor party won a general election and formed a government. You may say Mr. Clynes and Mr. Henderson are moderate men who would not do these things, but they would have to do them or break faith with the people who put them in power. We cannot take any chances in these revolutionary days. The nation must realize what the Labor program means, then make its choice with its eyes open.

Lopsided Education.

"The Labor program is not a movement started among the working classes. It comes from a group of men who have received a lopsided education, who have had no experience of affairs or of work in factory, in shop or office, and who call themselves intellectuals. A vast majority of the working classes have repudiated that program, and the common sense of the working classes will save them right to the end."

Replying to Mr. Asquith's reference to him as a "demagogue," Mr. Lloyd George said the term had been applied to some of the greatest statesmen in history.

"It is an epithet which has always been hurled by the dull and pompous against any man who has a greater power of appealing to the masses than they have," he declared.

The next event at the Liberal Club is a dinner in honor of Mr. Asquith, commemorating his election to the House of Commons, at which the president of the club, Lord Lincolnshire, will preside. This function was arranged before the split between Mr. Asquith and Premier Lloyd George became acute, and some of the premier's followers are now removing their names from the list of subscribers to the dinner.

Eye Specialist and Medical Author Report on Wonderful Remedy To Strengthen Eyesight

Say It Strengthens Eyesight 50% in One Week's Time in Many Instances.

New York.—Dr. Smith, a well-known eye specialist, and Dr. Judkins, a Massachusetts physician and medical author, make the following reports after a thorough test of a popular remedy for the eyes.

Says Dr. Smith: "When my attention was first called to it I was inclined to be skeptical. But it is a rule of mine to give every new treatment a chance to prove its value. Having specialized in eye work for many years I feel qualified to express an intelligent opinion on remedies for the eyes. Since this one has created such a sensation I welcomed the opportunity to test it. I began to use it in my practice a little over a year ago, and I am frank to say that some of the results I have accomplished with Bon-Opto not only astonish myself, but also other physicians with whom I have talked about it, and I advise every thoughtful physician to give Bon-Opto the same careful trial I have, and there is no doubt in my mind that he will come to the conclusion I have, that it opens the door for the cure of many eye troubles which have heretofore been difficult to cope with. I have had individuals who had worn glasses for years tell me they have dispensed with them through the use of Bon-Opto. In my own practice I have seen it strengthen the eyesight more than 50 per cent in one week's time. I have also used it with surprising results in cases of work-strained eyes, pink eye, inflamed lids, catarrhal conjunctivities, smarting, painful, aching, itching eyes, eyes weakened from colds, smoke, sun, dust and wind, watery eyes, blurred vision, and, in fact, many other conditions too numerous to mention in this report. A new and striking case that has just been brought to my attention is that of a girl 12 years old. Two prominent eye specialists, after a thorough examination, decided, according to her father, that in order to save the sight of her right eye, the left must be removed. While awaiting an opportunity for the operation, and still undecided as to its wisdom, her father was told it would do no harm to use Bon-Opto. In less than three days a marked improvement was noticed. At the end of a week the inflammation had almost disappeared, and at the end of six weeks the eye was pronounced saved. Just think what the saving of that eye means to this little girl! Another case is that of a lady 93 years old. She came to me with dull vision and extreme inflammation of the lids and the conjunctiva was almost raw. After two weeks' use of Bon-Opto the lids were absolutely normal, and her eyes are as bright as many a girl of 16."

Dr. Judkins, Massachusetts physician and medical author, formerly chief of clinics in the Union General Hospital, Boston, Mass., and formerly house surgeon at the New England Eye and Ear Infirmary of Portland, Maine, says:

"I have found oculists too prone to operate, and opticians too willing to prescribe glasses, while neglecting the simple formulas which form the basis of Bon-Opto, which in my opinion is a remarkable remedy for the cure and prevention of many eye disorders. Its success in developing and strengthening the eyesight will soon make eyeglasses old-fashioned, and the use of Bon-Opto as common as that of the toothbrush. I am thoroughly convinced from my experience with Bon-Opto that it will strengthen the eyesight at least 50 per cent in one week's time in many instances."

Victims of eyestrain and other eye weaknesses, and many who wear glasses will be glad to know that according to Drs. Smith and Judkins there is real hope and help for them. Many whose eyes were failing say they have had their eyes restored by this remarkable remedy, and many who once wore glasses say they have laid them aside. One man says after using it:

"I was almost blind. Could not see to read at all. Now I can read everything without any glasses, and my eyes do not hurt any more. At night they would pain dreadfully. Now they feel fine all the time. It was like a miracle to me." A lady who used it says: "The atmosphere seemed hazy with or without glasses, but after using this prescription for 15 days everything seems clear. I can read even fine print without glasses." Another who used it says: "I was bothered with eyestrain, caused by overworked, tired eyes, which induced fierce headaches. I have worn glasses for several years, both for distance and close work, and without them I could not read my own name on an envelope or the typewriting on the machine before me. I can do both now, and have discarded my long-distance glasses altogether. I can count the fluttering leaves on the trees across the street now, which for several years have looked like a dim green blur to me. I cannot express my joy at what it has done for me."

It is believed that thousands who wear glasses can now discard them in a reasonable time, and multitudes more will be able to strengthen their eyes so as to be spared the trouble and expense of ever getting glasses. Eye troubles of many descriptions may be wonderfully benefited in this easy manner. Go to any drug store and get a bottle of Bon-Opto tablets. Dissolve one tablet in a fourth of a glass of water, and use from two to four times a day. You should notice your eyes clear up perceptibly right from the start, and inflammation and redness will quickly disappear. If your eyes bother you even a little, it is your duty to take steps to save them now before it is too late. Many hopelessly blind might have saved their sight if they had cared for their eyes in time.

NOTE: Another prominent physician to whom the above article was submitted said: "Yes, the Bon-Opto prescription is truly a wonderful eye remedy. Its constituent ingredients are well known to eminent eye specialists and widely prescribed by them. I have used it very successfully in my own practice on patients whose eyes were strained through overwork or misfit glasses. It is one of the very few preparations I feel should be kept on hand for regular use in almost every family." Bon-Opto, referred to above, is not a patent medicine or a secret remedy. It is an ethical preparation, the formula being printed on the package. The manufacturers guarantee it to strengthen eyesight 50 per cent in one week's time in many instances or refund the money. It is dispensed under guaranty by all good druggists in this city, including Standard Drug Company and Strong's Drug Store.

INFLAMMATORY RHEUMATISM

CURED BY B. B. B.

Rheumatism is a constitutional disease, caused by the uric acid in the blood. It manifests itself by pain and lameness attacking the muscles and joints of the body, which often swell and become hot and inflamed.

Anyone who has suffered month after month, and perhaps year after year, with rheumatism, and who has tried remedy after remedy in the hope of relief, and without success, should not give up hope.

Burdock Blood Bitters, by invigorating the digestive organs and eliminating the uric acid from the system, will give prompt and permanent relief.

Mrs. D. Barry, Puribrook, Ont., writes: "I feel it my duty to let you know of the great benefit my husband derived from using your Burdock Blood Bitters. He had been suffering for the past two years with inflammatory rheumatism. He tried many medicines but got no better. A friend advised him to take B. B. B. He did so, and after taking five bottles he felt like a new man, and was able to go to work the same as ever."

Burdock Blood Bitters has been on the market for over 40 years. Manufactured only by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

DRUG CANKER IS EATING INTO HEART OF WEST COAST CITIES

Vancouver, March 22.—Like a festering canker that grows worse with neglect, is the growing evil of the drug habit which is eating into the very heart and well-being of some of the Pacific coast cities today.

In the city of Vancouver since the New Year drugs in the form of cocaine, heroin and morphine have been seized in "dope raids" amounting to approximately $200,000 on the street retail price. What is said of Vancouver can be applied to Seattle and other coast cities.

Drug Traffic Ring.

"Never in the history of the city has there been such a systematic and organized traffic in habit-forming drugs as at the present time," says the city's chief of police. "Raids, seizures and arrests and fines seem to have no effect in stamping out the nefarious traffic. Ball money and fines, irrespective of amount, is promptly advanced, indicating the operation of an organized ring, and the guilty parties return to the business immediately they are released. So widespread are the ramifications and so insidious the methods of the 'dope traders' that under the present inadequate laws affecting the evil the police have an almost hopeless task in trying to stamp it out."

The police chief sees the need of much more stringent penalties if this blasting traffic with its final revenue of wrecked lives and broken humanity is to be quelled.

Many Women Customers.

"If we were to tell the names of some of the fashionable people in the city who are addicts to the drug habit, the city would have the greatest scandal it ever knew," say the detectives who are specializing in tracking down the "dope" trade.

Ricci and Sinclair, two of the detectives, tell that in a raid on a Chinese premises a fortnight ago, they had to wait for about an hour before the Chinamen whom they wanted should return, and in that time the unlisted telephone was used 21 times, nineteen times by women and three times by men, giving orders for drugs. Some of the customers, declare the detectives, were fashionable women in the best residential parts of the city.

Tricks to Evade Detection.

Police pressure has forced traffickers and their clients to resort to all sorts of tricks to evade detection and arrest. Unlisted phones, secret phone signals, counter-words and caballistic names and numbers for the drug and the quantity, and for meeting-places, are all now part of the system.

Whites Higher Up.

All the peddling and distribution is done by Chinamen, but there are white men and women in the wholesale side of the business higher up. The Chinamen in the business are mostly known to the police, but the "higher-ups" are either under protection or the chain of distribution has so many links that the heads of the ring are beyond reach.

The phone, the automobile and the Chinese boy are the main elements in distribution. Orders are made in cabalistic phrase over the telephone, a date and place is fixed, the Chinaman drives a heavy and fast car to the spot, picks up the customer and takes a fast quarter of an hour's ride, afterwards dropping the customer at some other place near home. The fast ride enables the traffickers to elude a possible police car, and in the interval the transfer of "dope" and payment is safely made. The Chinese boy, on the other hand, is sent out with a single packet to a known customer, either to a shop, store or private residence. Such methods are difficult of detection.

Pacific Coast Clearing Centres.

It is a known fact that certain New York drug firms regard Vancouver and Seattle as their clearing centres on the Pacific coast. Shipments are made via Montreal from New York, and drugs that cost $20 in Montreal fetch as high as $120 when retailed in Seattle, and $200 in Butte, Montana.

Worse Than Dante's Inferno.

The scenes at the police station on a night when twenty or thirty "hop-heads" are in the cells outrivals Dante's Inferno in hideousness and yells of suffering. When the craving for the drug grows on the prisoners they cry, plead, weep, rage and yell in the most abject and pitiable fashion. Often the police doctor has to be called to give the worst of them a hypodermic injection in order to allay the horrid bedlam.

Rising Against Curse.

Public sentiment is growing against the insidious traffic that subordinates the wreck of human lives to the love of gain, and already the people are clamoring to the Legislature for more drastic penalties and repressive measures to eliminate from the community what is today one of its greatest

KAISER NARROWLY ESCAPED DROWNING

History of World Might Have Been Changed by Incident At Potsdam in 1880.

How the history of the world might have been changed by an incident which occurred at Potsdam in 1880 is told vividly in a book just published by Hodder and Stoughton, and called "The Vanished Pomps of Yesterday: Being Reminiscences of a British Diplomat."

William of Hohenzollern; then Prince William, in spite of his withered arm, desired to learn to scull, so he asked Lady Ampthill, wife of the ambassador at the Prussian court, to instruct him, for Lady Ampthill was expert in the use of a boat.

One morning a light skiff was brought to the landing-stage of the Potsdam lake and William stood ready for his lesson. Lady Ampthill "explained to Prince William that this was not a heavy boat, such as he had been accustomed to, that he must exercise extreme care, and in getting in must tread exactly in the centre of the boat.

William of Hohenzollern, who had never taken advice from anyone in his life, and was always convinced that he himself knew best, responded by jumping into the boat from the landing-stage, capsizing it immediately and throwing himself and Lady Ampthill into 16 feet of water.

Prince William owing to his malformation, was unable to swim one stroke, but Lady Ampthill, a very strong swimmer, managed, in spite of the weight of her clothing, to support him in the water for five minutes until help came and they were both rescued."

Wagner and the Waitress.

A sidelight on another and greater German is also given us. Twice a week Wagner, the master musician, used to play at the house of Baroness von Schleinitz, wife of the minister of the royal household.

"Two grand pianos were placed side by side, a point Wagner insisted upon, and here the master played us his gigantic works. . . . His playing finished, a small, very plainly-appointed supper-table was placed in the middle of the Fest-Saal, at which Wagner seated himself alone in state."

Then all the great ladies of Berlin would bustle about, waiting upon the musician. Plates of sauerkraut, liver sausage, black puddings, herring salad, cheeses of various kinds, raw ham, and raw smoked goose-breast would be piled upon the table amid much fussing amongst the fair amateur waitresses.

They would jostle and reprove one another for ignorance of the master's pastronomic tastes. "Meanwhile Wagner dressed in a frockcoat and trousers of shiny black cloth, his head covered with his invariable black velvet skull-cap, would munch steadily away, taking no notice whatever of those around him."

Bill Bismarck's Beer.

Bismarck, we are told, was fond of enlarging on his favorite theory of the male and female European nations, Germans, Scandinavians, Dutch, English, Scotch, and Turks "he declared to be essentially male races. The Russians, the Poles, the Bohemians, and indeed every Slavonic people and all Celts, he maintained, just as emphatically, to be female races. A female race he ungallantly defined as one given to immense verbosity, to fickleness, and to lack of tenacity."

But he conceded these "female nations" had great powers of attraction and charm. Bismarck's two sons, Herbert and William, did not, says "A British Diplomat," inherit one spark of their father's genius. Herbert was arrogant and unpopular; "William, universally known as 'Bill,' was a genial, fair-headed giant of a man. . . Bill Bismarck drank so much beer that his hands were always wet and clammy. He told me himself that he always had three bottles of beer placed by his bedside lest he should be thirsty in the night. He did not live long."

"His Mother's Cooking."

The author of these memoirs recounts numerous other anecdotes of his sojourns in five continents. Speaking of conversational difficulties, he relates that on one occasion it was his duty to pay ceremonial visits to the mother of an Indian prince.

The old lady had spent 55 years of her life in the seclusion of the zenana, so she was rather out of touch with current events. Also an interperter was required owing to language difficulties.

"You could not well discuss fashions with an old lady who had found one single garment sufficient for her needs all her days, and any questions as to detail of her life in the zenana, or that of the other inmates of that retreat, would have been indecorous in the highest degree.

"Nothing then remained but to remark that the Maharnjah, her son, was looking remarkably well, but that he had unquestionably put on a great deal of weight since I had last seen him. I received the startling reply from the interpreter. "Her highness says that, thanks to God and to his mother's cooking, her son's belly is increasing indeed vast size.'"

A Queer Custom.

At Buenos Ayres, a certain British official, whom the author designates "Sir Edward," refused to make allowances at carnival time for the traditional water-throwing, which was then one of the main features of the festivities.

"Sir Edward, a remarkably neat dresser, appeared beautifully arrayed in a new suit, the smartest of bow-ties, and a yellow jean waistcoat. . . . . Presently our housekeeper, Frau Bauer, entered the room demurely, and made her way to Sir Edward's table.

"Suddenly with a discreet titter she produced a large water-squirt from under her apron and secure in the license of carnival time, she thrust it into Sir Edward's collar and proceeded to squirt half a pint of cold water down his back, retiring swiftly with elderly coyness amid an explosion of giggles. I think that I have seldom seen a man in such a furious rage." Later on, however, Sir Edward inquired where squirts could be purchased.

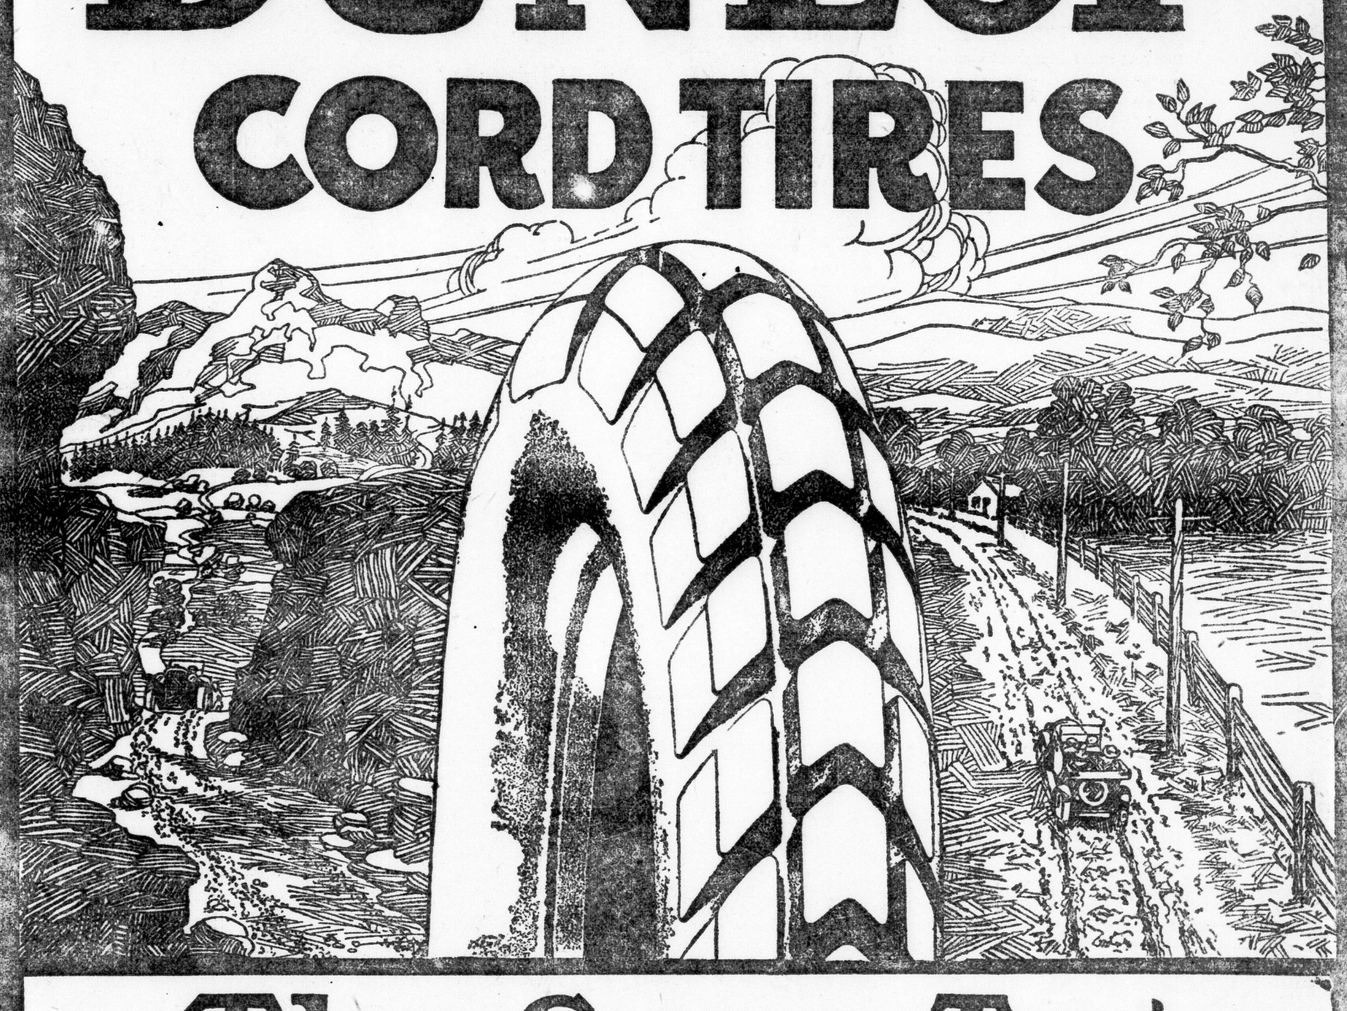

Spouting Water in All Directions.

Returning home after a moist but enjoyable afternoon, I saw a great crowd gathered at the junction of two streets, engaged in a furious water-fight. The central figure was a most disreputable-lonking individual with a sodden wisp of linen where his collar should have been; remnants of a tie trailed dankly down, his soaked garments were shapeless and his head was crowned with a sort of dripping poultice.

"He was spouting water in all directions like the Crystal Palace fountains in their heyday, with shouts of "Take that, you foolish female; and that, you fat feminine Argentine!" With grief I recognized in this damp reveler Her Britannic Majesty's Minister-Plenipotentiary."

MEIGHEN UNMASKED TRIES TO EXPLAIN VOTE-STEALING BILL

After Euler Bared Sinister Proposal of Union Government, Minister Hurries Explanation—Would Prevent Canadian But Allow Mexican To Vote—Bill To Keep Dying Government in Power, Says Western Member.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

OTTAWA, March 26.—As a result of the unmasking of the Government's intentions with regard to the Canadian franchise by W. D. Euler of North Waterloo last evening, and the consequent storm of protest from the members of the Farmers' party, and from certain members on the Government's own side, the "coon has come down." The member for North Waterloo, in one of the most effective speeches heard this session, disclosed to the House last night the incontrovertible fact that under the provisions of the new franchise act, not thousands of Canadian citizens, "as had been the case under the nefarious war-time elections act," but tens of thousands would be deprived of the franchise. In protest against this, Mr. Euler was backed up by Levi Thompson, chief whip of the Farmers' party; Dr. Clark, its acting leader; H. Mackie, Unionist member for Edmonton, and others.

Hurried Conference.

From what can be gathered, there has since been a heated conference of members of the cabinet, Liberal Unionists contending that something was "put over" and that the act must be amended so that utter and complete discredit should not be brought upon the name "Canadian citizen." On the other hand, certain of the Conservative members of the Government are anxious that the strictest possible measure be employed against all persons of so-called enemy alien origin, no matter how long they may have been in the country and no matter how loyal their citizenship may have been.

This afternoon, however, Hon. Arthur Meighen, minister of interior, was put up by the Government to "explain" the Government's intentions, in the most plausible manner, he declared that it had never been the intention of the administration to deprive persons who in the past had been considered as British subjects of the franchise.

By Operation of Law.

"There was no intention," he said, "that this act should affect those who were British subjects at the time of the passing of the act." On the other hand, it was stipulated that those persons who were British subjects merely by the operation of law, that is by marriage or other relationship, should be required to establish their qualifications for voting on their own individual merits.

The minister of the interior announced that the Government would amend the measure. He was not very clear as to the nature of the amendment, but from what can be gathered the requirement of "personal" naturalization will not apply to persons who in the past have been British subjects by reason of marriage, relationship or the operation of the law, though such persons will be required to establish their qualifications in other respects.

While the Opposition will await the amendment, they are confident that the disclosures of Mr. Euler have resulted in a highly important change of mind on the part of the Government.

MEIGHEN WOULD EXPLAIN.

OTTAWA, March 26.—(By Canadian Press.)—Following an afternoon of keen debate in the House of Commons, the franchise bill received second reading, and at the evening sitting started on its more monotonous way through committee. It was still in committee, with a number of non-contentious clauses passed when the House adjourned.

As anticipated, Hon. Arthur Meighen, on resumption of the debate on second reading, stated the Government's position on the disqualification clauses, particularly in regard to their effect on naturalized immigrants of enemy origin.

These are the clauses which throughout have aroused the keenest criticism. Mr. Euler, North Waterloo, claimed on Thursday night that they would disfranchise women of German birth, married to naturalized Canadians, but residents in Canada for many years—and numbers of them had sons who fought for the Allies.

Intent of Clause.

Taking up this point especially, Mr. Meighen argued that the intent of the clauses was not to disfranchise these long-time residents in Canada, as Mr. Euler instanced. The intent was to establish equality, so far as the right to vote was concerned, between the person naturalized by personal application and the person naturalized by operation of law, such, for instance as by marriage with a British subject.

"It is inconceivable," Mr. Meighen declared, his word applauded from both sides of the House, "that this or any other Government would wish to grant the franchise to a man who came to the country in 1911, became naturalized through the naturalization of his parents, and, at the same time, take the vote away from those who have been here 40 or 50 years, and who have enjoyed the vote."

When the bill was in committee, therefore, the Government would have an amendment to submit which would meet the main objections raised by Mr. Euler.

Opposition critics made merry over some of the "anomalies" of the bill. Mr. Jacobs was keenly satirical over exceptions made in the disqualifying clauses in favor of persons "born on the continent of North America." Why, so argued Mr. Jacobs, such provisions would place the talented Frenchwoman or Belgian at a disadvantage, compared with the full-blooded negro of San Domingo, the daughter of the Mexican greaser, and the mulatto of Georgia.

Duchess Disfranchised.

"If the late Duchess of Connaught were alive," Mr. Jacobs scoffingly continued, "she would have no vote whatever, but her cook or housemaid, imported from Alabama would get the right to vote."

Voicing a western view, Mr. White (Victoria, Alberta), called the bill a resolution to keep a government in power which could not keep in power by another means. Such a bill, he said, was worthy of Mexico.

On the other hand, Mr. Foster (East York) took a stand, which is understood to find considerable favor among Government members. Mr. Foster would have the ball go further. He would disfranchise slackers, alien enemies and deserters.

Otherwise placid proceedings in committee were interrupted in the evening by a sharp, short battle over the clause forbidding companies, not incorporated for political purpose, to contribute to campaign funds. Attack on the clause, as was expected, came from the agrarians. Mr. Maharg (Maple Creek, Sask.), led with a demand if it meant that no group of individuals could band themselves together to assist in an election campaign.

"Yes," the solicitor-general agreed, "I think that is the practical effect."

Labor, Returned Soldiers.

Mr. Maharg was on his feet. "Then," men, returned soldiers, or—"

"—or farmers," came the shout from the dozen points.

"It could be done and was done under the old act," Mr. Maharg warmly retorted. And on the suggestion of the solicitor-general, the committee proceeded with less contentious clauses of the bill.

An interim supply bill for approximately sixty-three million dollars passed all stages during the early afternoon.

Disfranchise Slackers.

Thomas Foster (East York), advocated an amendment disfranchising slackers, deserters and alien enemies. This was one way of placing a check on the revolutionary and Bolshevik element. "Why should we give the vote to people whom it was necessary to intern during the war?"

W. H. White (Victoria, Alberta), who casually mentioned that he was a member of the Royal Northwest Mounted Police for many years, wished to know what was the charge against the settlers of enemy alien birth. He referred to the election of 1917 as a revolution, worthy of Mexico. He quoted D. B. Hanna as having prophesied that the Austrians of Western Canada would some day be our best citizens. They produced more than any other class, their national spirit was Canadian and they did not talk about the fine country they had left behind. Thousands of them had enlisted in the Canadian army; many of them subscribed liberally to the patriotic fund. They only asked to be allowed to live and work as Canadians.

Accept British Act.

The ten-year disqualification clause did not cover the dismembered portions of Germany and Austria. A man from Danzig—than which there was no city more German—could take out naturalization papers and vote.

While the president of the privy council, Mr. Newton Wesley Rowell, was proclaiming loudly that Canada had taken on a new national status we had decided to drop our own naturalization act and accept the British act, dictated by Downing street, which we had to swallow, nauseous as it may have been.

Hon. Arthur Meighen asked Mr. Jacobs if he would suggest that persons unnaturalized should be allowed to vote. The naturalization act, he reminded Mr. Jacobs, had passed the House without division. Mr. Jacobs retorted that the Liberals had challenged it at every form, but could not defeat the bill.

After much firing the speaker called Mr. Meighen to order. The minister said that Mr. Jacobs was discussing the naturalization act, instead of the franchis bill. The speaker said there was undoubtedly some connection between the two measures, but he warned Mr. Jacobs not to wander too far afield.

The debate was continued by Devlin (Wright) and Lucien Cannon (Dorchester).

Printers' Names Appear.

The act was given a second reading, and the House went into committee on the bill five minutes before the dinner-hour.

Passing of formal clauses in the franchise act took up the first hour of tonight's session.

One clause provides that the printer's and publisher's name must appear on all election matter. Mr. Guthrie said this applied also to typewritten matter.

The penalty under the old law for an infraction of this provision was $200 fine or six months in jail, or both. The clause carried without discussion.

There was considerable discussion of a clause which provides that no companies, incorporated or otherwise, may contribute to campaign funds.

This is the clause which provoked much discussion at the meeting of the Council of Agriculture.

Mr. Guthrie pointed out that this clause had been on the statute book since 1896, and was designed to provide against the practice whereby companies who stood to gain by the success of a certain party contributed huge funds to further the cause.

To Strengthen Clause.

Mr. Guthrie urged that this clause should be strengthened rather than weakened. It should have the effect of practically eliminating the vicious practice of corporation subscriptions to political parties.

At this point an incredulous "oh!" came from the Opposition benches, and Mr. Guthrie remarked that it had done a lot of good in Ontario. He didn't know about Quebec.

This clause and the clause dealing with the publication of campaign funds were allowed to stand.

A clause which also caused some discussion was the one which seeks to prevent election hirelings coming from across the line to work at elections and then disappearing within 24 hours of the result being known. Opposition members declared this would prevent speakers from the British Isles or from the United States making election addresses or becoming election candidates.

Mr. Guthrie said he would be prepared to make it so that it applied only to men not a candidate, although, he went on to argue, he would also favor a candidate being resident of the country.

G. C. Power, Quebec, said Canada might soon have a big labor party which would want to bring in United States speakers.

"No! No!" said several Government members.

Prohibition Campaign.

"Well, we might have a big prohibition campaign and want to bring in 'Pussyfoot' Johnson. I see no reason why he should not come here, although he would probably land in jail," persisted Mr. Power.

"I think we are most of use agreed that the Canadian people can very well run their own elections without the assistance of any persons from the United States or any other country," said R. J. Manion, Fort William, and the discussion closed.

Some amusemenut was caused by the clause which prevents the hiring of vehicles by candidates to carry electors to the polls. Included in the prohibited list now are aeroplanes.

"Be fair and candid, strike out this clause," urged Pteer McGibbon, Muskoka.

M. A. Mackie, Edmonton, also contended that every member of the House broke this rule. "I did it and defy any member to prosecute me," he said. "You have got to get the electors to the polls if you want to win an election," was Mr. McGibbon's further plea. The clase also stands over.

Hon. Hugh Guthrie terminated the debate on the franchise measure shortly before 10 o'clock.

A bill to amend the Indian act was sent to special committee on second reading.

A bill to provide for settlement of differences with the British Columbia Government reached committee stage.

The maple products act was given second reading.

The House adjourned at 11:05 p.m.

NEW COPYRIGHT BILL INTRODUCED IN HOUSE

OTTAWA, March 26.—Sir George Foster in the House this afternoon introduced a bill respecting copyright. The purpose of the bill, he said, was to establish a uniform period of copyright protection. It further extended copyright protection to gramophone records, films and lithographs. Projection was also provided for the works of the Canadian authors throughout his majesty's dominions.

On a motion of Mr. Rowell, the membership of the pensions committee and its scope of activity were extended. To the membership were added the names of those on the re-establishment committee and the pensions committee have been given authority to carry on the work begun by the re-establishment committee.

Advises People to Cure Constipation Without Drugs; Suffered Ten Years, Well in Three Weeks by Internal Bathing.

Did you ever hear of a person being cured of chronic constipation with drugs? They relieve at the time some, but larger doses are usually necessary from time to time. Nature's own cure, just pure sterilized water, administered with the J. B. L. Cascade, is the only scientific and permanent treatment. Don't force Nature with drugs. Bathe internally.

Mrs. A. McLeod, Middleboro, B. C., writes: "For ten years I suffered from constipation, and for the last year I became a wreck. I had awful pains in my back, severe headaches, indigestion and swollen limbs. I tried all kinds of medicine and many doctors without permanent benefit. It was an act of Providence that I saw the J. B. L. Cascade advertised. The first time I used it I felt relieved, and in three weeks I was completely cured. My habits are now quite regular, and I am in better health than I have been for years. I am very thankful to be doing my own work again."

The J. B. L. Cascade is the perfected invention of Dr. Chas. A. Tyrrell of New York for internal bathing. It is now being shown and explained at Standard Drug Company, Limited.

Phone or ask them for free booklet all about it—or write Tyrrell's Hygienic Institute, 163 College street, Toronto.

FEED SO SCARCE SOME FARMERS ARE USING GRAIN

ILDERTON, March 26.—The fall wheat fields are now clear of snow and are looking well. They came through the winter splendidly, and so far the clover and grass crops are also looking well, and with a warm rain and mild weather will soon snow green.

In some sections feed is getting scarce, especially grain, oats and barley, which crop was light last year. Some farmers are grinding wheat to help out, as they say it can be done just as cheaply as to buy the high-priced millfeeds at present.

The Komoka Farmers' Co-operative Society shipped 120 hogs last week, the price paid being $19. This week the price is down to $18, and the farmers are saying that will not pay for the feed at present prices.

The Ilderton Farmers' Co-operative Society at its last shareholders' meeting decided to build a new elevator on the old site. It will be of reinforced concrete, two stories, and the third for grain. The bins will be of wood sheathed with iron, with iron roof. Work will be started as soon as possible.

Sap ran freely this week, according to some of the big makers, but today it has almost ceased. Monday and Tuesday were splendid days, and some of the larger markers had to work nearly night and day, 24 hours a day, to keep up to the flow. The very warm south wind on Thursday stopped the flow, and even now should the weather turn colder the product will not be first class. Maple syrup will be a light crop and many of the orders cannot be filled.

GAGGED WATCHMAN, BUT FAILED TO GET STORES OF ALCOHOL

Windsor Firm Had Anticipated Robbers' Visit and Frustrated Plans.

WINDSOR, March 26.—After binding and gagging the night watchman and breaking every door lock in the building, thugs who broke into the plant of the Bayer Company here early today failed to locate the stores of alcohol for which they were searching, and which the company uses in the manufacture of its products. The alcohol stock has been successfully hidden in anticipation of this action for several months past, and so good was the hiding place that the thieves were frustrated. One of the robbers was described to the police as a tall dark man wearing a light grey overcoat. This and the other particulars furnished coincide with the description of the slayer of Morris Rapportta, the Wyandotte street merchant, who was murdered in his store some weeks ago.

ONLY TRUE ASPIRIN

If you don't see the "Bayer Cross" you are not getting Aspirin at all

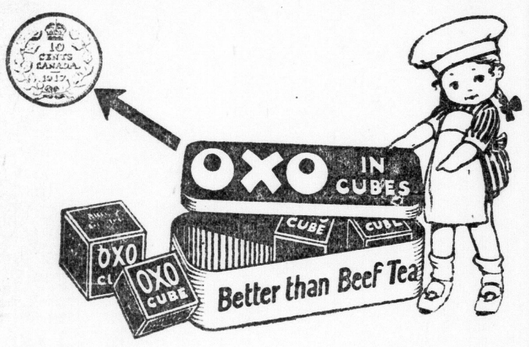

The name "Bayer" on Aspirin is like 14 Karat on gold. It positively identifies the only genuine Aspirin,—the Aspirin prescribed by physicians for over twenty years and now made in Canada.

Always buy an unbroken package of "Bayer Tablets of Aspirin" which contains proper directions for Colds, Headache, Toothache, Earache, Neuralgia, Lumbago, Rheumatism, Neuritis, Joint Pains, and Pain generally.

Tin boxes of 12 tablets cost but a few cents. Larger "Bayer" packages.

There is only one Aspirin—"Bayer"—You must say "Bayer"

Aspirin is the trade mark (registered in Canada) of Bayer Manufacture of Monoaceticacidester of Salicylicacid. While it is well known that Aspirin means Bayer manufacture, to assist the public against imitations, the Tablets of Bayer Company will be stamped with their general trade mark, the "Bayer Cross."

The Best Cough Syrup is Home-made.

Here's an easy way to save $2, and yet have the best cough remedy you ever tried.

You've probably heard of this well-known plan of making cough syrup at home. But have you ever used it? When you do, you will understand why thousands of families, the world over, feel that they could hardly keep house without it. It's simple and cheap, but the way it takes hold of a cough will quickly earn it a permanent place in your home.

Into a 16-oz. bottle, pour 2½ ounces of Pinex (50 cents worth); then add plain granulated sugar syrup to fill up the bottle. Or, if desired, use clarified molasses, honey, or corn syrup instead of sugar syrup. Either way, it tastes good, never spoils, and gives you 16 ounces of better cough remedy than you could buy ready-made for $2.50.

It is really wonderful how quickly this home-made remedy conquers a cough—usually in 24 hours or less. It seems to penetrate through every air passage, loosens a dry, hoarse or tight cough, lifts the phlegm, heals the membranes, and gives almost immediate relief. Splendid for throat tickle, hoarseness, croup, bronchitis and bronchial asthma.

Pinex is a highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, and has been used for generations for throat and chest ailments.

To avoid disappointment ask your druggist for "2½ ounces of Pinex" with directions, and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money refunded. The Pinex Co., Toronto, Ont.

GOLD SHIPMENTS ON WAY TO NEW YORK, EXCHANGE GOES UP

Demand Bills On London Rise To $3.95—Stocks Generally Rally.

NEW YORK, March 26.—Stocks were tossed to and fro apparently at the whim of professional traders during the greater part of today's active session, but rose almost buoyantly in the final hour on confirmation of reports that the gold import movement was under way.

Announcement of the gold inflow, which is expected to attain formidable dimensions, was accompanied by a steady advance of sterling exchange, demand bills on London rising to $3.95 before the close of the market.

The broad rally was accelerated by a decline of call money to 6 per cent, or 3 per cent under its opening rate, and offerings of time funds for short periods at a slight concession from long-prevailing quotations.

The session was marked by several distinct advances and reactions, due chiefly to heavy selling for profits in several of the more speculative shares. General Motors, for example, opened at 400, a gain of 16 points on the larger dividend, fell back to 377, and closed at 391, a net advance of 7 points.

Affiliated shares, notably Stutz Motor and Stromberg Carburetor, moved more consistently, Stutz closing at 324, within a point of its new maximum, and a gain of 42 points, while Stromberg forfeited part of its 6-point rise.

Other motors, also equipments, steels, oils, coppers and numerous specialties were carried on the crest of the late rise to levels extending from 2 to 8 points over the preceding day's close, and rails also improved, though in comparatively minor degree. The sales of stocks amounted to 1,378,000 shares.

Save for several unimportant exceptions, Libery issues strengthened, and the internationals were also irregularly higher. Nominal gains were made by railway and industrial bonds, also local tractions and other utilities. The total sales of bonds, par value, aggregated $12,200,000.

Old U. S. bonds were unchanged on call.

BLACK LAKE SCORES TWO-POINT ADVANCE IN TORONTO MARKET

Reaches Highest Level of Year As Result of Jacob's Offer To Buy.

TORONTO, March 26.—Black Lake Asbestos, which scored a 2-point advance to the highest level of the year, established itself as the feature of today's trading on the Toronto Stock Exchange. More than 1,400 shares of Black Lake were dealt in in the morning, the price at the close of the session being 16, as compared with 14 on Thursday. In the afternoon trading in the stock was limited to a few odd lots, but a high record for the movement was set up at 16¼, with this figure as the closing bid.

The upturn in Black Lake from 8, which was initiated several weeks ago, was inspired by the offer of J. A. Jacobs of Montreal to pay 12 for a big block of the stock. It is now announced that litigation is pending in Montreal with a view to the annulment of the agreement made with Mr. Jacobs, and that the latter is buying in the open market to strengthen his position.

Brazilian, with a turnover of 430 shares, led the listed market, and scored a good rally of 1¼ points to 47½, closing at the day's best. Barcelona Traction rose ½ a point to 7. National Steel Car, preferred, was again in brisk demand, and rose ½ a point to 41½. Atlantic Sugar moved up 1 point to 89. Consolidated Smelting was active, and a shade firmer at 28. Steel of Canada rose 1⅜ point to 81¾, while Dominion Iron at 72 was up ¼ point.

The war loan of 1937 was the only issue in this section to show even a moderate volume of trading. Its tendency was easier, small lots selling at the close as low as 97¾, while the closing bid at 98 was under that of Thursday.

Total trading: Listed stocks, 3,032 shares: bonds, par value, $43,900.

CHICAGO CORN PRICES JUMP WHEN SHORTS GET NERVOUS

Rapidly Advance When Rumor Is Not Substantiated.

CHICAGO, March 26.—Sharp upturns in the price of corn took place today owing largely to nervousness of shorts, which had been apperently mistaken in assuming that a maximum limit on trading was again to be enforced. The close was unsettled, 1¼c to 2⅞c net higher, with May, $1.56⅝ to $1.56¾, and July, $1.50¼ to $1.50¾. Oats gained ½c to 1¼c, and provisions, 2c to 32c.

Corn quickly displayed a tendency to ascend in the absence of confirmation of yesterday's rumors that 200,000 bushels was to be the greatest amount of open trade allowed to any one interest hereafter. The supposed purpose of such a rule was believed to be to check unduly heavy bullish speculation. Bears, however, seemed to have overreached themselpes, and at times today, especially near the finish, were lively competitors for all available offerings. Wet weather and a prospect that receipts would be light were also strengthening factors, and so, too, were indications of active export demand for wheat and rye.

Closing out of spreads between Chicago and Winnipeg gave independent strength of oats. A small failure at Winnipeg was noted in this connection.

The brisk rise in sterling, together with gossip that Germany had obtained important credits helped to lift provisions.

WINNIPEG GRAIN.

WINNIPEG, March 26.—Oats closed ¾c higher for May, and ⅝c higher for July.

Barley closed 2⅝c up for May, and 2c higher for July.

Flax finished 11¾c up for May, and 9c in advance for July.

The outcome in ry was a decline of ½c for May.

STRONGER TREND IN MONTREAL MARKET

Bulk of Net Changes Consisted of Gains.

MONTREAL, March 26.—The stock market as a whole showed a stronger trend today. The bulk of the net changes consisted of gains, which amounted to from 1 to 10 points, while the losses were confined to 1¼ points for Toronto Railway, and 1 point each for Canadian General Electric, Steamships, Dominion Steel, preferred, Riordon and St. Lawrence Flour, and fractions for Shawinigan and Canada Cement.

The largest gain of the day was made by Price Brothers, which rose 10 points to 310, and held the gain with 315 bid for more stock. Abitibi sold as high as 333, and closed at 332, 2 points up; Atlantic Sugar, preferred, which sold at 125½, ex-dividend 3½ per cent, equal to a gain of 4 points; National Breweries, up 2 points, and Steel of Canada advanced 1⅛ points to 81½, and held the gain.

Atlantic Sugar was again the leader in activity and showed strength, moving up to 89, and closing at the top, a net gain of 1½ points. Detroit United Railway made a new high at 111, and closed at 110½.

Total trading: Listed stocks, 12,735 shares; bonds, par value, $43,200.

EVENING STOCK LETTER.

NEW YORK, March 26.—Thomson & McKinnon wire Jones, Easton, McCallum Co., Ltd., brokers, Royal Bank Building, London, Ont.:

Considering the present money rate and the uncertainty caused, thereby, we have had a market that should satisfy the most enthusiastic of its friends. The short covering movement of late yesterday was followed by a renewal of the demand for stocks this morning, and the most encouraging feature was the improvement noticeable in the copper shares. This is important, because activity should not be confined to a few groups of stocks, but should extend through the list, and that in turn minimizes the danger of a congested long interest in a limited number of issues.

Based on the outlook as portrayed by the most prominent copper authority here we should have a good market for these shares with an ultimately higher level of values. The one objectionable feature in the present market is the violence of fluctuations of a few issues included in the motor and motor accessory group, but these are matters that cannot be controlled and are incidents of every bull market.

Business activity shows no signs of relaxation, supply and production do not equal demand, therefore, we have the foundation for a rising market, and all we need is a supply of credits. If we were assured as to this, we would unhesitatingly recommend continued purchases of stocks, but as there is no assurance as to this, it is to the interest of each individual to operate along lines of safety and not hesitate to accept profits on at least a portion of the line.

Stock Gossip.

John D. Ryan, president of the Copper Export Association, says the apparent world consumption of copper in 12 months ending March 31 will total 2,970,000,000 pounds, exceeding the production for any year in history.

Stockholders of Stutz have authorized an increase in the capital stock from 100,000 shares of no par value to 120,000 shares of no par value. The new 20,000 shares are to be used to pay the stock dividend of one-fifth a share recently declared.

Ben Ettelson says: Every time a stock moves rapidly an explanation is demanded, and this gives room for experts in formulating imaginary mergers. The popular story is that General Motors is buying up everything in the country, especially in the motor accessory line. We have no facts, and so far as I know, no one has, and I think it will wind up in a squeeze of shorts.

Delaney says: Looks to me like there is a considerable short interest in Studebaker.

BRAZILIAN FIREMEN STRIKE.

Rio Janeiro, March 26.—Firemen on all Brazilian steamships have struck in sympathy with the idle teamsters and truck drivers, and carpenters, woodworkers, waiters and restaurant employees are joining the movement, it was announced today. The strike is assuming serious aspects.

Pewee Valley, Ky., March 26.—Fire last night destroyed the large home for Kentucky veterans, entailing a loss estimated at $75,000. There was no loss of life or injuries, the several hundred aged veterans being taken from the buildings before the fire gained much headway.

Electric Cooking For Small Families and Summer Cottagers

The "Cottage" Electric Range
Science has now produced for the housewife the last word in cooking appliances—a compact, highly efficient electric range, that will meet all the requirements of a small family.
Its seamless, sheet steel, sanitary oven holds all the heat inside. It retains the rich and strengthening juices in the meat which in other ovens is carried away through forced circulation. In addition to the oven you have one nine-inch and one six-inch burner — to give quick action for frying, boiling and other household operations.

Use It At the Summer Resort
The "Cottage" type electric range is so small and compact that it has a particular appeal to summer cottagers.
When you go to Port Stanley this summer have a "Cottage" range installed. It operates off your ordinary electric lighting circuit and is ready for business in an instant.
With it your kitchen will no longer be a place of torment on the hot and sultry days. It guarantees real kitchen comfort.
Besides, there are no matches, no fumes, no dust. Just turn the switch and, in an instant, cook.

IN MEMORIAM.

MANN—In loving memory of Abbey Mann, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Mann, Lambeth, who died two years ago, March 28, in her 10th year.

We loved her, yes, we loved her,
But Jesus loved her more,
When He called our little darling,
To yonder shining shore.

She has gone to brighter regions,
Free from every grief and care,
We shall meet her up in heaven,
And there'll be no parting there.

Angels guard you, darling Abbey,
May your harp ring loud and clear,
Leaving notes of love behind you,
To the ones who loved you dear.
—Father, Mother, Brothers and Sisters. b

CARD OF THANKS.

MIXED FARMING IN WESTERN Canada—In Central Alberta and Saskatchewan are rich park lands—open prairie, ready for the plow, interspersed with trees, which afford excellent shelter for stock. Here grain growing, dairying and livestock raising are being carried on successfully. The country is ideal for mixed farming. The Canadian Pacific Railway is offering a large area of these fertile lands in the neighborhood of Lloydminster and Battleford. These rich districts will become the home of thousands of prosperous farmers. On similar land Seager Wheeler grows the world's prize wheat. Near Lloydminster the world's prize oats have been grown and butter of the highest quality is made. A man can soon become independent on a farm here. These lands can be bought now at prices averaging about $18. You pay down 10 per cent. If land is purchased under settlement conditions, no further payment of principal until end of fourth year, then sixteen annual payments. Interest is six per cent. Irrigated lands in Southern Alberta $50 an acre upwards. Same terms. Write for illustrated booklet. H. La Due Norwood, C. P. R. land agent, Windsor Station, Montreal, Que. F.28,M.13,27

Our time is money! So is yours. We study our clients' needs and show them property only within their means. Our salesmen go with our clients, consequently you are barred from the annoyance of curiosity seekers.

We have been fifteen years in the Real Estate business, operating principally in the City of Detroit, where we had an organization of twenty salesmen. The office was divided into six departments, each department specializing along certain lines. The advanced methods in vogue in that city will be adopted here as soon as this city is ripe for such developments.

REAL ESTATE AND INSURANCE.

If you wish to deal with a reliable firm try us. Every day we are getting buyers through recommends from previous satisfied purchasers. Our past month's business has exceeded all previous records. Why? 1. Because we are honest and straightforward in all our dealings. 2. Because we use good judgment when placing every purchaser. 3. Because every purchaser is a satisfied purchaser. 4. Because we know where to get the money when our purchasers need a loan. 5. Because every prospective purchaser is treated as a gentleman or a lady, whether we are successful in supplying their needs or not. You need not hesitate at calling 7040 any time for one of our salesmen to call on you with a car to inspect our properties.

Below are a few of the many properties placed in our hands for sale:

Belgrave avenue; a beautiful 9-room, 2-story, fully modern, red brick, with oak floors, fireplace, full basement, trimmed with chestnut and southern pine, floored attic and stairway to same, front open stair from reception hall. One of our good ones. Call for price and terms. Possession at once.

Also another choice home, on paved street south, 9-room, fully modern red pressed brick. Description as above. This has been reduced $400 for quick sale. Call for price. Possession in two weeks.

We have about twenty choice red brick homes, ranging from $6,000 up, some north and some south; also a great number of fully modern white bricks in various parts of the city. If you have a house to sell that is not already on our list, place it there today and get the benefit of our past reputation. Let us take the responsibility of your real estate worries. We have helped others; we can also help you.

We also carry a full line of Fire and Automobile Insurance. Let us take your risk. How about your car today? Is it covered by insurance? Could you buy another if it was damaged by fire, accident or theft, without insurance? If not, you cannot afford to carry the risk yourself, but you can pay the premium on one of our policies. If you are not already covered, see us today.

MURDER ARMENIANS

ROME, March 26.—The Vatican has received reports of new massacres of Christians in Armenia. In addition to large numbers of native victims, several Catholic missionaries are declared to have been killed.
The pope, in order to relieve the great suffering in Armenia, has sent 50,000 lire to be distributed among the needy.
The pontiff has also sent 200,000 lire to Cardinal Lucon, archbishop of Rheims, for the children of the devastated regions of France.

WAGON-DRIVERS ASK FREE DAY EACH WEEK

TORONTO, March 26.—A deputation of wagon drivers waited on Dr. W. A. Riddell, deputy minister of labor, today, asking for his support in their movement to obtain one day off a week. The drivers explained that it was not their desire to do away with Sunday delivery of milk, but that by maintaining a slightly larger staff dairy companies could allow all of their men at least one day free in the week.

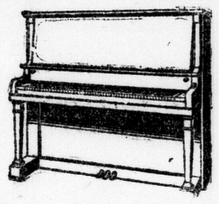

PARIS DENIES SPLIT WITH SYRIAN KING

PARIS, March 26.—The foreign office stated today that it had no knowledge whatever of any command by Prince Feisal, recently-proclaimed King of Syria, that the French troops must evacuate Syria before April 6 or any other date.
On the contrary, the foreign office officials said, reports received indicate that the best relations exist between the prince and the French authorities in Syria.

REJECTED SUITOR IN DOUBLE TRAGEDY

ST. JOHN, N.B., March 26.—A double tragedy which startled Grand Falls occurred yesterday, when Miss Phoebe Bell, a young girl of that town, was shot and killed by Newman Clark of Four Falls, a rejected suitor for her hand in marriage. Clark almost immediately shot himself. This morning he was in a very critical condition and was not expected to survive long.

FRECKLES

March Worst Month for This Trouble—How To Remove Easily.
There's a reason why nearly everybody freckles in March, but happily there is also a remedy for these ugly blemishes, and no one need stay freckled.
Simply get an ounce of Othine, double strength, from your druggist and apply a little of it night and morning, and in a few days you should see that even the worst freckles have begun to disappear, while the light ones have vanished entirely. Now is the time to rid yourself of freckles, for if not removed now they may stay all summer, and spoil an otherwise beautiful complexion. Your money back if Othine fails.

Something We All Do
Something We All Eat
Something We All Want
Something We All Wear

Solve this Puzzle!

FOR Johnny's birthday his mother presented him with a dandy rifle, and Johnny took the four targets that came with the rifle and went out to the back yard to try his skill. Shortly after, his mother came out too to satisfy herself that Johnny knew how to use his gun. Upon examining the targets showing all the holes made by the bullets, and being a quick-thinking woman, she exclaimed: "Why, Johnny, what a good shot you are—and do you know that you have made every target spell a word? Can you tell me what each target spells?"

Can YOU Puzzle It Out?

Johnny couldn't, so his mother told him HOW TO DO IT. Each target spells a word. Each circle of each target shows a number of bullet holes, as you can see by the targets, and each circle represents a letter. The number of holes indicates the position of that letter in the alphabet. For instance: "A" would be represented by one hole; "B" by two holes, "C" by three holes, and so on.
After you have worked out all the letters that are represented in each word, you will find that they are not in their proper order. Put them into their proper order to spell out correctly the names of the four things wanted.
In order to help you, we will tell you that the letter represented by the middle circle of first target is "A," because "A" is the first letter of the alphabet. This is not an easy puzzle, but with perseverance you can work it out—and the prizes are worth trying for.
Copy your answer upon a plain white sheet of paper as neatly as you can, because neatness, spelling, handwriting and punctuation count if more than one answer is correct. Put your name and address in the top right-hand corner of the paper. If you have to write a letter, or show anything else, put it upon a separate sheet of paper. We will write as soon as your answer is received and tell you if your solution is correct, and also send you a complete illustrated list of the grand prizes that you can win.

THE PRIZES:

First Prize - Genuine Culver Chummy Racer, value $250.00
Second Prize - Magnificent Gold Watch and Chain, or Girl's Wrist Watch, value 25.00
Third Prize - Genuine Autographic Kodak Folding Camera, value 20.00
Fourth Prize - Solid Gold Ring for Boy or Girl, value 15.00
Fifth Prize - Moving Picture Machine, with Film, value ... 10.00
Sixth to Tenth Prize - Self-Filler Fountain Pens, value, each ... 2.50

And 2,000 Extra Special Prizes Valued at $3,000.00.

What Others Have Done, YOU Can Do!

Here are the names of only a few of the boys and girls to whom we have already awarded big prizes:
Shetland Pony and Cart—Helen Smith, Edmonton.
Shetland Pony—Beatrice Hughes, Hazenmore, Sask.
$100.00 Cash—Lyle Benson, Hamilton, Ont.
$50.00 Cash—Helen Benesch, Junkins, Alta.

$150.00 Cash—Bryden Foster, Leamington, Ont.
$25.00 Eastman Kodak—Frankie Kirby, Three Hills, Alta.
$15.00 Bracelet Watch—Mary Procter, Vancouver, B.C.
$10.00 Doll and Carriage—Eva Gabig, North Bay, Ont.
We will send you the names of many others too. Only boys and girls under 17 years of age may send answers, and each boy and girl will be required to perform a small service for us.
The contest will close on June 30, 1920, at 5.30 p.m.
Send your answers this very evening.

"The Bond of Sympathy Between One Woman and Another"

If you are discouraged with your condition, weak, tired, subject to headaches, backaches, bearing-down sensations, weakness of bladder, constipation, hot flushes, melancholy, tendency to cry over trifles, nervousness and loss of interest in things generally, I want to help you to better things.
My own was probably as deplorable a case as could be found, yet it quickly yielded to "Orange Lily" treatment, and today I am a well woman.
"Orange Lily" is a simple, natural, common-sense remedy that you apply yourself. To go to drinking harmful drugs for troubles such as ours, is like trying to cure a sprain with pills. The only right and effective treatment is a strictly local application, like "Orange Lily."
Because I am sure in advance of the wonderful results you will have, I want to send you ten days' treatment, FREE. Will you write me today, NOW, and let me help you? Inclose three stamps. Address: Mrs. Lydia W. Ladd, Windsor, Ont. Sold by leading druggists everywhere.

TOWNSHIPS DO NOT WANT GOVERNMENT LOANS FOR ROADS

Not Likely To Take Advantage of Offer, Says County Engineer Talbot.

It is not likely that any of the townships in the County of Middlesex will take advantage of the offer of the Government of a loan of money without interest for a period of five years for the purpose of improving the roads, according to County Engineer C. Talbot. The farmers, he said, in the county had always shown indications that they would rather pay for the construction and upkeep of the roads as they went.

A loan of a considerable sum of money would be of no use to a township unless that township had a considerable building program ahead of it and intended to construct new roads, he thought. There was little construction to be done in the county of Middlesex, and the county was rich enough to bear the cost without outside assistance.

Great Aversion.

"The farmers have always shown a great aversion to the assuming of debts, and at the present time the County of Middlesex owes little money," he said. "No debentures except those for schools and ditching have been issued and by adding three or four mills to the tax rate the whole debt of the county could be wiped out.

"The only use which such a loan could be put to would be for the construction of bridges. At the present time there is one big bridge to be built, and that is in the township of Ekfrid. It is very improbable that money would be borrowed by any township for the purpose of graveling a road."

Mr. Talbot said that there was a growing agitation in the Government to put the construction and maintenance of county roads under the supervision of a commissioner. A dispatch from Toronto also stated that the Government was prepared to pay 40 per cent of the salaries of overseers and superintendents, and 20 per cent of the expenditures on the county roads.

The farmers were not likely to jump at the idea of just one commissioner or a superintendent over the whole of a county, Mr. Talbot opined. It was probable that they would hesitate to depart from the present system of dividing the township into four or five wards and of putting each ward under the supervision of a councillor. The dispatch from Toronto indicated that the Government would pay the 40 per cent of the salary of the one township supervisor, so it was not likely that many of the townships would take advantage of that offer either.

The offer of 20 per cent of the expenditure on the roads would prove acceptable.

OVERLAND REPRESENTATIVES DINE AT TECUMSEH HOUSE

Dealers From Various Towns In County Were Present.

An Overland dinner was held at the Tecumseh House Wednesday evening, out-of-town guests including several company representatives and also dealers from Hamilton, St. Thomas, Stratford, Exeter, Aylmer, Glencoe, Ingersoll, St. Marys, Dutton and various towns in this county. Frank McLachlin of London Overland Sales, was the host and following the dinner he called upon various guests to deal with subjects of interest to the trade.

W. A. Dover, sales manager of the Willys-Overland, Limited, Toronto, was the chief speaker. He reviewed the car situation fully. He also emphasized the value of co-operation, and his address proved a decided inspiration to the organization.

Among those present was Robert Weir, manager of the company's branch at Regina. He spoke of the car needs of the West, and reported an enthusiastic sales organization in his province. H. E. Brazier, service manager, and Claude Sannigan, advertising manager, also represented the company, speaking on the work and aims of their respective departments.

FOREST CITY LAUNDRY

"Of your service"

DRY-CLEANERS & DYERS

WILL BE SQUIRE NOW

JOHN STUART, county clerk of Middlesex, who has been named a justice of the peace.

COUNTY CLERK STUART MADE PEACE JUSTICE

Will in Future Be Known As Squire John Stuart—A Native of County.

John Stuart of this city, who for the past four years has been clerk for the County of Middlesex, was made a justice of the peace yesterday afternoon. Hereafter Mr. Stuart will be known as Squire John Stuart.

Mr. Stuart is a native of Middlesex, his parents having come to the county with the early pioneers. Before coming to this city in the capacity of county clerk he farmed for many years in the township of Caradoc. He was reeve of the township for three or four years immediately preceding his appointment to the clerkship, and he also served on the county council for several terms.

While acting as clerk Mr. Stuart made many friends by the efficient and kindly service which he always gave. In addition to the duties as 'clerk he fulfilled those of secretary-treasurer of the Middlesex Patriotic Society, and in this capacity he endeared himself to many who were suffering hardships through the absence of their bread-winners.

When the Government established the federal appropriation fund for the assistance of the returned soldiers who were out of work and of those who were receiving insufficient wages, Mr. Stuart was put in charge of distributing the money in this district.

The appointment as a justice of the peace is a permanent one. Mr. Stuart acted in this capacity when he lived in Alberta several years ago, but he resigned the position when he left that province to return to Ontario. He still will hold the position of county clerk.

At The Theaters

AT THE GRAND.

In Greenwich Village, perhaps, too, in Soviet Russia, "Please Get Married" would not draw the crowded, hilariously entertained audience that packed the Grand last night. Some people, social radicals or others of assumed superiority, would doubtless find this play inane and tediously frivolous. But to ordinary orthodox, conventional folks it is one of two things, either uproariously clever and amusing, or shockingly risque. Nobody seemed too badly shocked by the venerable humorous innuendoes about bridal couples, however, and the ever-popular comedy plot of two people of opposite sex unmarried in a hotel bedroom couldn't have been more richly entertaining had it been invented by a tired and overworked dramatist for the first time. Apart from the essential oldness of the plot and treatment and the familiarity with which the philosophical witticisms on marriage strike anybody who has ever read a joke book, there's nothing much to the play. Maybe after all it's clever acting that puts this farce over, for it was clever acting, and the play did go over the footlights with a regular hoop-la zip-bang-bing. Nothing succeeds like success.

There are two classes of people who never joke about marriage, eugenists and people who are married. Some day, alas, such serious-minded folks may prove to the rest of the world that marriage is both a rational and serious proposition, and that sex is a normal attribute of human beings. In that dread day of awful retribution for lazy playwrights, bedroom plays will be just about as interesting as midweek prayer meetings or an Indian medicine man's harangue on the market square. A few people still may be entertained by the threatened horror of outraged convention, with some subtle twist of plot to make everything perfectly correct and respectable in the happy ending, but the majority in time will prefer Bernard Shaw or even Ibsen to American ragtime drama.

All the actors are good. Anna Hill as the bride who was, who wasn't and who was after all, is superb. William Street, as the problematical groom, is clever and capable. Earl McLellen, as the stuttering hotel clerk, house detective and news-hound, three-in-one, is excellent. Adam Earl, the "fake" minister" who turns out to be a genuine sky-pilot suffering from loss of memory, is very fair, and Virginia Elwood as the girl's mother, Rose Tiffany as the community gossip, Forest Zimmer as the boy's father, and Charles Bates as the girl's father, are all capable actors. Fred Strong George Roberts and Ernest Everett in other roles gives creditable support. The performance will be repeated twice today, at 2:30 and 8:15.

LOCAL G. A. C. WILL AMALGAMATE WITH UNITED VETERANS

Single Organization For All Soldiers Is Planned For Canada.

By an unanimous vote, the London post of the Grand Army of Canada decided in favor of amalgamation with the United Veterans' League at a meeting held last night. Such a vote is being taken in every post, both of the G. A. C. and the U. V. L. throughout Canada, and according to J. F. Marsh, the Dominion organizer, the returns so far show that every post is in favor of the amalgamation.

Mr. Marsh dealt chiefly with the gratuity question during his address. He said that the Government could afford to pay the sums asked for in the petition, $2,000, $1,500 and $1,000, respectively. The scheme would cost the Government approximately $400,000,000, and this would mean a cost of $24,000,000 in interest annually. According to a report made by the Hon. Mr. Crerar, a tax of one per cent placed upon natural resources would raise $80,000,000 annually, leaving $56,000,000 each year to pay off the principal.

He also advocated the levying of a tax on excess capital, which would affect the food and munitions profiteer. Bonar Law had referred to the levying of an excess profit tax in England, and Germany had decided to try the same plan in order to pay off her war debt. If the plan had been found practical in England and Germany, there was no reason why it should not meet with success in this country.

He said that some objection had been raised to the gratuity scheme on the erroneous grounds that men who served only a month or so in Canada would benefit most. The petition plainly stated that a man must have served at least six months in Canada in order to qualify, unless he had become a casualty in that time.

Mr. Marsh did not think it would be fair to expect the present generation to bear the full cost of the gratuities. The obligation should be assumed in such a way that the generations to follow would be given an opportunity to repay the debt they would owe to the men who fought for their security on the battlefield. He thought no one in the next generation would object to such a plan.

The speaker attacked the stand that the delegates of the G. W. V. A. attending the convention in Montreal had taken regarding the gratuity question. He thought it was unfortunate that there should have been a difference of opinion and so much warm discussion or that any other scheme should have been suggested after the provincial convention in Peterboro had backed up the scheme outlined in the petition. Such a course had given the Government the opportunity to give the same reply as the last time. "You do not know what you want."

The G. A. C. is planning to form one big soldier organization in Canada by uniting all the existing organizations.

LABOR WILL SEND A LARGER DEPUTATION TO FIGHT CITY BILL

Labor Representation Committee Appoints An Additional Representative.

On advice received in Toronto by William Tite from Hon. W. A. Raney, the labor representation committee at its meeting on Friday night decided to increase the deputation which is to go to Toronto to oppose the city of London bill. Delegate Tite was the representative when Mr. Raney and Dr. Stevenson were interviewed. To aid him on the next trip Delegate Beggs was appointed. In addition deputations from the Independent Labor party and other organizations will be appointed.

H. B. Ashplant was appointed to wait on the city council to urge the annexation of the property between Springbank Park and the city.

The committee went on record as favoring the changing of the date of municipal elections, which is now January 1, to some date in October.

A copy of a resolution that the bakers be not required to work at night will be sent to the Legislature. The resolution was passed last night. Ald. Harry Wheatcroft objected to a statement in the Byron Breeze that he had seconded, in the city council chamber, a motion for increased street car fares. He believed that he was voting for better service by asking Parliament, through this resolution, to give London power to use its judgment in street railway matters. A. E. Pocock stated that probably some of the older officials put one over on him. Mr. Wheatcroft's explanation was accepted.

It was decided to include in the constitution a clause providing that labor can have no affiliation with any political party except the Independent Labor party.

MIDNIGHT SHOW AT ALLEN THEATRE IN AID OF HOME

Music and Pictures, 11 p.m. to 1 a.m., April 1.

The big special program arranged for the show is of such high-class order and refinement that all lovers of good music and fine pictures will remain up just a little later than usual. Manager C. B. King of the Street Railway, will provide the patrons with a car service to all parts of the city after the show. A. D. Jordan will be heard for the first time on the Allen organ. Mr. Winterbottom has arranged special organ numbers during the pictures. Miss Florence Eccleston will render some of her violin masterpieces. Ed. Webster has selected two fine solo numbers. Master Sam. Munro will be heard in one of his best Harry Lauder songs. There are possibly two other artists who will prove a pleasing surprise.

The object is worthy of the support of everybody, being in aid of the Florence Nightingale Home, under the auspices of Ruth Chapter, No. 26, Order of Eastern Star. Geo. E. Logan is convener of the committee, and Mrs. R. E. Logan is matron of Ruth Chapter.

MUSICAL ART SOCIETY AT FIRST METHODIST CHURCH

One of the most famous organizations in the world will appear at the First Methodist Church on Monday evening with the Musical Art Society, when the Trio de Lutece gives its first performance in Canada. Each artist is a virtuoso on his individual instrument, and what Paderewski is to the piano and Heifitz is to the violin, so is George Barrere, the flautist, and Carlos Salzedo, the harpist, to their instruments. These men have no equals on their instruments. Lucient Schmitt, the 'cellist, is a new acquisition to the ensemble, and he is upholding the reputation he had already made as first 'cellist of the New York Symphony Orchestra for five years.

Applications for tickets have come in from Toronto from students who want to hear Salzedo and Barrere, neither having appeared there.

The program to be given by the Musical Art Society Choir is a most unusual one, consisting as it does entirely of Russian church music. None of the numbers have been produced in this country.

A very limited number of course tickets for the series of three concerts are still to be obtained at the music stores. Single tickets are also to be had.

BUSINESS BOOMING IN LONDON EAST

Bradstreet's Forecasts Great Development For East End.

London reports to Bradstreet's say that building during the coming season promises to break all previous records. Permits for the current month are much in excess of those for the same month a year ago. Great development is taking place in the east end of the city, and it is expected that a number of mercantile firms will take advantage of this and establish branch stores there. The business tax return for this year will be about 36 per cent in excess of that of last year. Wholesale firms are increasing in number and in business activity. This is reflected in the enlargement of their establishments by a number of the larger firms. The basic situation is considered sound and the city is regarded as being in a very prosperous and healthy condition.

Eggs are lower in price, while hay is easy on account of larger deliveries. These will probably fall off when seeding commences. Collections are good.
