Technical and Bibliographic Notes / Notes techniques et bibliographiques

The Institute has attempted to obtain the best original copy available for filming. Features of this copy which may be bibliographically unique, which may alter any of the images in the reproduction, or which may significantly change the usual method of filming, are checked below.

L'Institut a microfilmé le meilleur exemplaire qu'il lui a été possible de se procurer. Les détails de cet exemplaire qui sont peut-être uniques du point de vue bibliographique, qui peuvent modifier une image reproduite, ou qui peuvent exiger une modification dans la méthode normale de filmage sont indiqués ci-dessous:

The copy filmed here has been reproduced thanks to the generosity of:

The United Church of Canada Archives
Victoria University Archives

The images appearing here are the best quality possible considering the condition and legibility of the original copy and in keeping with the filming contract specifications.

Original copies in printed paper covers are filmed beginning with the front cover and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression, or the back cover when appropriate. All other original copies are filmed beginning on the first page with a printed or illustrated impression, and ending on the last page with a printed or illustrated impression.

The last recorded frame on each microfiche shall contain the symbol \rightarrow (meaning "CONTINUED"), or the symbol ∇ (meaning "END"), whichever applies.

Maps, plates, charts, etc., may be filmed at different reduction ratios. Those too large to be entirely included in one exposure are filmed beginning in the upper left hand corner, left to right and top to bottom, as many frames as required. The following diagrams illustrate the method:

Les cartes, planches, tableaux, etc., peuvent être filmés à des taux de réduction différents. Lorsque le document est trop grand pour être reproduit en un seul cliché, il est filmé à partir de l'angle supérieur gauche, de gauche à droite, et de haut en bas, en prenant le nombre d'images nécessaire. Les diagrammes suivants illustrent la méthode.

THE METHODIST HYMN BOOK, WITH ACCOMPANYING TUNES.

The Distinguishing Features of the Work.—The Tunes are of a strictly devotional character; they are all suited to the clear enunciation of the words of the Hymns; they suitably express the sentiments of the hymns; they are sufficiently easy for all to join in their performance; they are all adapted to the warmth, earnestness, and joyfulness of the Methodist Church ; many of them have been used and consecrated to the service of the early Christian Church ; many of them have been used and consecrated to the service of the Reformation ; many of them have been used and consecrated, from early days, to the service of the Methodist Church ; many of them have been used and consecrated to the service of all Evangelical Churches.

In addition to this, it will be found that the Hymn and Tune being on the same page, are brought into immediate association with each other, thus peculiarly adapting it to the wants of the family circle, the choir and the congregation. The benefit of this last result is incalculable. The Tune becomes inseparably associated in the minds of the people with the Hymn. No sooner is the Hymn given out than the Tune starts to the memory, and, conversely, the Tune suggests the Hymn, the Hymn calls to memory the Tune.

The work may, therefore, be deemed one of the most valuable contributions to the Service of Praise ever issued in Canada.

LESSER HYMN AND TUNE BOOK.

This book comprises Selections of Hymns and Tunes of the various metres on the different subjects embraced in our Hymn Book, taken from the larger "Hymn and Tune Book," and is suitable for Congregational Meetings, Social Gatherings, and for Choirs. It will be found to contain some of the choicest hymns in the language, and some of the most popular tunes extant. It is so cheap as to be within the reach of everyone, and is of sufficient extent to meet almost all the requirements of Congregational Singing. It is neatly printed on good paper, bound in cloth and lettered on the side. Price 20 cents per single copy ; $1.80 per dozen.

The Canadian Anthem Book ; a choice collection of Anthems, Sentences, Motets, Chants, &c., &c., selected with great care from works of the most Popular Composers for the use of Church Choirs, Musical Associations, and Social Gatherings. Enlarged edition. Bound in cloth. Per copy $1.25 ; per dozen..... 12 00

"The Choice." By Jus. McGranahan, and C. C. Case. A new book for Conventions, Singing-Classes, and Churches, contains sixty pages of Anthems. Per copy 75cts ; per dozen..... 7 50

CLASS LEADER;

His Work and How to Do It,

With Illustrations of Principles, Deeds, Methods & Results.

BY JOHN ATKINSON, M.A.

CHEAP EDITION.

12mo. cloth; 172 pages. Price, Sixty Cents.

"It abounds in practical counsels that cannot fail to render the Class Leader who carefully ponders it, more efficient in the discharge of his important duties. The volume has been condensed from the American edition without impairing its value, so as to bring it within the reach of all, and thus widely increase its sphere of usefulness."—London Advertiser.

"We have read it with pleasure and profit, and heartily recommend it to our Class Leaders, and assure them that in view of the responsibilities associated with their office, they cannot better invest 60 cents than by the purchase of the book. In its perusal they will catch a new inspiration."—Observer, Bowmanville.

"We believe it to be a most valuable aid to those for whom it was written, and that its circulation among our Class Leaders would largely promote their usefulness and contribute much toward the increasing interest of class meetings."—Christian Advocate, Hamilton.

"It is practical, sprightly, devout, and full of profit. We would urge every Class Leader to possess himself of a copy."—Christian Guardian, Toronto.

"The purpose of this work is to furnish an aid to this important class of Christian workers for the improvement of their ministrations. Mr. Atkinson has deeply pondered the subject. He gives us the result of wide observation and long experience. He brings to us the experience, also, of veteran and skilful Class Leaders. They describe their most successful methods, and discuss difficulties and the best means of overcoming them. Among others, the following important themes are treated: Reclaiming the Wanderers, The Strangers, The Poor, The Leader in the Sick-Room, The Troubled, Hindrances to Class Meetings, How to lead a Class, Different Methods of Leading a Class, The Pastor, Revivals, The Care of Converts, Children and Children's Classes, Training Christian Workers, etc. On each of these subjects, wise counsels and valuable suggestions are given, such as cannot fail to be of great practical benefit to all who thoughtfully ponder them. No Class Leader should be without this book. No one who rightly appreciates the importance of his office and the weight of his responsibility, will neglect to avail himself of every help within his reach; and one of the most valuable of these, we hesitate not to affirm, is Mr. Atkinson's book. It is written in a lively style, abounds in illustrative incident and racy anecdote, is inspired by a glowing love for souls, and is suffused with intense earnestness of spirit. The Canadian edition is elegant in style, well printed, strongly bound, and furnished at such a price as to be within the ability of every one desiring to obtain a copy of the book."—Canadian Methodist Magazine, Toronto.
