

feeling; and when they grow up they pursue the same course with their own children...

The British Museum.

The first public establishment that I visited was the British Museum. As you approach the building, you are struck with a beautiful lofty iron railing...

reached two large reading-rooms, 180 feet long, where there were 400 or 500 persons engaged in reading, writing, and study...

Obituary Notice.

The recent death of Mrs. Catherine Barnard, wife of Mr. James Barnard, of this town, has forcibly brought to my mind...

books, enlarging to make room for additional treasures, just as though it was a new thing.

Missionary Intelligence.

AMOY AND HONG-KONG.—The London Missionary Society are having returns for their labor in China of a cheering character.

published reports upon this subject in the Swedish language. A missionary journal appeared in 1834...

What if Russia Succeeds?

Lamartine's forthcoming History of Turkey gives the following graphic and striking view of the consequences if Russia succeeds in the present war.

contempt, derision, and persecution. They were sometimes beaten, and often hooted; but now they were in perfect peace...

Marks of Divine Providence in England.

It is well to notice unlooked-for events and occurrences which no one could have expected; because in this way we are perpetually reminded of that Unseen Hand which in our daily plans and calculations, we are too apt to forget...

feeling; and when they grow up they pursue the same course with their own children...

Strange Matrimonial Adventure.

The event of which I am to speak occurred a few weeks since in the city of Dubuque, among a man connected with one of the Evangelical congregations there...

feeling; and when they grow up they pursue the same course with their own children...

General Intelligence.

PROVINCIAL SECRETARY'S OFFICE, Halifax, Nov. 15, 1854.—His Excellency the Lieutenant-Governor, in Council, has been pleased to make the following appointments...

I. The Egyptian Saloon, within whose lofty walls we move through a crowd of Egyptian gods and heroes, all wrought in scagliola and mummy tones...

From this apartment we passed into the King's Library, a lofty and elegant hall three hundred feet in length.

Of the thirteen children which God gave her, we trust eleven are now alive, and the seven daughters (all of whom are members of society) were privileged to witness the departure of her who had been the guide of their youth...

Such was the happy end of our dear sister; and blessed be God there are with us many such members—walking in like precious promises—and whose sons and daughters even now rise up and call them blessed.

Again, from another letter read the following: "I am glad to hear that the position of a mother Church. You will be interested to hear that the only Society of Christian Christians in America is composed of individuals who originally belonged to it."

At the late meeting of the Evangelical Alliance in London, the Hon. and Rev. Baptist W. Noel gave some account of his recent visit to the Valleys of the Vaudois and the Waldensian Churches...

Resolved, that this Association feel deep regret at the loss they have sustained in the death of their Venerable President, the Hon. H. H. Cogswell...

II. The Phigaleian Saloon, so named because it contains a series of bas-reliefs which once encircled the upper part of the temple of Apollo at Phigalea...

From the King's Library we passed into the General Library. Here, among other curiosities, I saw Wellington's schedule drawn up on the field of Waterloo...

March 2nd.—This day has been interesting, on account of the examination we have been holding of the nine Chinese women who have applied for baptism—the mother of two of our members (one deceased) and who is also the widow of the first member admitted to our Church here...

At the late meeting of the Evangelical Alliance in London, the Hon. and Rev. Baptist W. Noel gave some account of his recent visit to the Valleys of the Vaudois and the Waldensian Churches...

Resolved, that this Association feel deep regret at the loss they have sustained in the death of their Venerable President, the Hon. H. H. Cogswell...

Resolved, that this Association feel deep regret at the loss they have sustained in the death of their Venerable President, the Hon. H. H. Cogswell...

Resolved, that this Association feel deep regret at the loss they have sustained in the death of their Venerable President, the Hon. H. H. Cogswell...

III. The Elgin Saloon, named from Lord Elgin, who procured its chief contents, which are fragments of sculpture from the Parthenon, or Temple of Minerva, at Athens.

From the King's Library we passed into the General Library. Here, among other curiosities, I saw Wellington's schedule drawn up on the field of Waterloo...

At the late meeting of the Evangelical Alliance in London, the Hon. and Rev. Baptist W. Noel gave some account of his recent visit to the Valleys of the Vaudois and the Waldensian Churches...

Resolved, that this Association feel deep regret at the loss they have sustained in the death of their Venerable President, the Hon. H. H. Cogswell...

Resolved, that this Association feel deep regret at the loss they have sustained in the death of their Venerable President, the Hon. H. H. Cogswell...

Resolved, that this Association feel deep regret at the loss they have sustained in the death of their Venerable President, the Hon. H. H. Cogswell...

Resolved, that this Association feel deep regret at the loss they have sustained in the death of their Venerable President, the Hon. H. H. Cogswell...

IV. The Lycian Saloon, so called because it contains the Lycian sculptures discovered by Sir Charles Fellows in 1845, which are several tombs—reconstructed in the manner of the originals—which are supposed to be two thousand, four hundred years old.

From the King's Library we passed into the General Library. Here, among other curiosities, I saw Wellington's schedule drawn up on the field of Waterloo...

At the late meeting of the Evangelical Alliance in London, the Hon. and Rev. Baptist W. Noel gave some account of his recent visit to the Valleys of the Vaudois and the Waldensian Churches...

Resolved, that this Association feel deep regret at the loss they have sustained in the death of their Venerable President, the Hon. H. H. Cogswell...

Resolved, that this Association feel deep regret at the loss they have sustained in the death of their Venerable President, the Hon. H. H. Cogswell...

Resolved, that this Association feel deep regret at the loss they have sustained in the death of their Venerable President, the Hon. H. H. Cogswell...

Resolved, that this Association feel deep regret at the loss they have sustained in the death of their Venerable President, the Hon. H. H. Cogswell...

V. Not the least interesting is the Nimrod Saloon, containing the sculptures prepared by Mr. Leverett for the French Emperor Napoleon in 1810, which were brought hither at great expense in 1846.

From the King's Library we passed into the General Library. Here, among other curiosities, I saw Wellington's schedule drawn up on the field of Waterloo...

At the late meeting of the Evangelical Alliance in London, the Hon. and Rev. Baptist W. Noel gave some account of his recent visit to the Valleys of the Vaudois and the Waldensian Churches...

Resolved, that this Association feel deep regret at the loss they have sustained in the death of their Venerable President, the Hon. H. H. Cogswell...

Resolved, that this Association feel deep regret at the loss they have sustained in the death of their Venerable President, the Hon. H. H. Cogswell...

Resolved, that this Association feel deep regret at the loss they have sustained in the death of their Venerable President, the Hon. H. H. Cogswell...

Resolved, that this Association feel deep regret at the loss they have sustained in the death of their Venerable President, the Hon. H. H. Cogswell...

