substitute for the despotism of a privileged few who may have borrowed the doctrines of Bolshevism.
We cannot help apprehending that when the detailed conditions of the composition of this force—kept back as they are now—are revealed later on, they will be found to be molded on the plan of the Russian Red army. For one nation to treat as a condition of peace with another that the force organized for the protection of life, property and good order to the latter country shall be drawn from only one class of its citizens, to the exclusion of all others, is an unwarranted infringement of the liberty, independence and self-respect of that country.
A Gross Breach of Faith.
To have added such a condition, after Kamenev's pledges to the British government that being not of a secondary nature was omitted from his summary of the terms, is a gross breach of faith, and a violation of any kind with a government which so lightly treats its own promises.
The soviet government has rejected the suggestion by the British government for a truce under conditions which would have enticed Russian territory away from any acts of aggression, and has continued its career of invasion of ethnological Poland, with a view to the conquest of that country by force of arms for soviet institutions.

If the soviet government, notwithstanding the punishment which its aggression is encountering, still refuses to withdraw this sinister proposal, but continues to force its acceptance on the Polish people, no free government can either acknowledge or deal with the soviet curd.
"What has fallen in this short war to the invaders of national rights, whether in Russia or in Poland, ought to teach wisdom to aggressors. The world, east and west, is crying for peace, but peace is only obtainable on the basis of full recognition of the liberties of nations.
"The British and Italian governments are alarmed at the indefinite prolongation of the present state of conflict amongst nations. The peoples engaged in these antagonisms can bring nothing but ever-increasing misery to the peoples of the world at large, for they involve continued unrest. Until these conflicts cease the betterment of agricultural industry and the interchange of commodities, on which the economic life of nations depends, cannot come into full operation. Scarcity and high prices, with attendant privations and perils, are the inevitable result.
"Civilization itself, shaken and weakened by five years of incessant warfare, is menaced by the prospect. The British and Italian governments, therefore, are united in urging that every effort should be made to bring to a conclusion the existing conditions of strife between nations."

DISPOSAL OF BODY OF BABY CENSURED

Coroner's Jury Considers There Was Negligence on Part of Undertakers.

WERE BABIES MIXED?

Jury Thinks So, Altho Hospital Authorities Deny Such Possibility.

"That the female infant upon which we have this day held an inquest came to its death from unknown causes, and that in the jury's opinion, said infant was not the Bishop baby born July 29, 1920, at Coronado Hospital, that the jury strongly recommend that a law be passed at once if there is not one already in force, making it a criminal offence to bury as still-born infants who have had separate existence and lived, and thereby prevent the easy disposal of infants coming into the world unwanted and unwelcome; that the jury is also of the opinion that there was negligence on the part of the undertaker in this case." Such was the verdict rendered by Coroner Dr. Lattimer Pickering's jury at the mortuary last night in the inquest into the death of an infant whose body was found in a plain wooden casket in the rear of Washington and Johnston's undertaking establishment in the early morning of August 14, by P. C. Cumming (103).

It was brought out at the inquest that Helen Bishop gave birth to a baby girl in the Coronado Hospital on July 29. The infant lived for two weeks, and died on Aug. 12, when the body was delivered to Washington & Johnston, undertakers, for burial.

Dr. J. H. Humphrey testified that on Aug. 12 the body of the Bishop baby was shown to him at the hospital, and that in his opinion death had been due to an obstruction of the bowels.

Dr. A. J. Harrington, who made the post-mortem examination on the female infant found by P. C. Cumming in the rear of the Washington & Johnston establishment, stated that there was nothing to show that the infant, whose body he had examined, had ever lived after birth. In his opinion, birth had been premature. There was nothing to indicate an obstruction in the bowels.

Dr. Harrington stated that he had never seen a state of decomposition such as that of the body of the infant he examined in a body dead less than a week. He thought such decomposition could not take place in 48 hours.

Denial of Mistake.
Miss Mildred Gilpin, a nurse in training at the Coronado Hospital, stated that she had attended the Bishop baby from the time of its birth, July 29, until its death, Aug. 12. She prepared the baby's body for burial. There was no possibility of getting the babies mixed at the hospital, she stated.

Miss C. M. Lloyd, superintendent of the Coronado Hospital, declared the Bishop baby was born alive and lived over two weeks. She was emphatic in stating there was no possibility of mixing the babies at her institution. She said that at the mother's request she had made the funeral arrangements with Washington and Johnston.

Boy Moore, undertaker with the Washington and Johnston firm, testified that the bookkeeper at his establishment had given him instructions to call for a body of an infant at the Coronado Hospital and that according to instructions, which the bookkeeper received by telephone, the infant was to be buried as a still-born one. He said that he could tell by the look of the baby that it had lived some time after birth, but his instructions were to bury it as a still-born child.

Asked by Crown Attorney Snyder whether there was a difference in cost between this and the ordinary form of burial he said that there was.

Here the coroner interrupted to say that he did not believe that a parent's love could permit such a form of burial of a child who had lived after birth, but Moore declared that it was done.

When Moore took the body to the undertaking rooms it was at first placed in the basement, but later transferred to another room. About 3 o'clock the following morning the odor from the body was such that one of the employees removed it into the air on the outside of the building. It was here that the shell containing the body was found by Officer Cumming and later sent to the morgue.

Coroner Pickering strongly condemned the practice of burying infants who lived after birth as still-born. He said that such a practice was contrary to law in England. "What," he asked, "is to prevent children who are not wanted being murdered and then buried as still-born?"

In summing up the evidence the coroner stated that one doctor had testified that the Bishop baby had died of acute intestinal obstruction, the doctor who made the post-mortem on the body found in the rear of the undertaker's establishment discovered no evidence of such obstruction in his examination, and nothing to indicate that the child had ever lived, but he said you must now bring in a verdict telling "how, when, where and by what means the infant on whose body the inquest is now being held came to its death."

Morrison, However, Denies Saying Premier "Could Lump It or Lump It."

"No, there is considerable misconception, not perhaps intentional, but nevertheless evident in the report of my address at Brockville given in The Star," said J. J. Morrison, the U.F.O. secretary, to The World in an interview yesterday afternoon. "For instance, I did not say that we didn't care whether Drury liked it or lumped it, as per quotes in the report. We do think that the government should have been represented at the hearing, especially so in view of the fact that Premier Norris of Manitoba and the provincial solicitor of the province were on hand to do justice to the province. "Again, the report states, 'the government' he says 'was wrong in the round robin issue.' Now, what I did say was that those interests opposed to the government in the round robin issue were wrong, quite a different aspect to the case. "Touching upon the question of the recall, the report in The Star does not place the matter in a sufficiently clear light," said Mr. Morrison. "What I meant was this, that there were two parties to the contract when an M.P. was elected, the elector and the individual elected. Both entered into an agreement, the elector being the first part of the contract and the M.P. being the second part. Now, if one of two parties to an agreement breaks or fails in his agreement he is so considered by law, and the wronged party has title to redress from him by virtue of the broken contract. Likewise, when the U.F.O. M.P. breaks the contract he made with his constituency that constituency is entitled to redress. The redress which in our estimation best fits his case is the recall for the rest the report is fairly correct."

Canadian Dental Association Will Launch Effort for Education of the Public.

The Canadian Dental Association has appointed a Dominion oral hygiene committee, headed by Dr. F. J. Conboy of Toronto. The other members are Drs. Seccombe, Thomson, Grievies and Bothwell. The committee will immediately start to work on an educational program of "prevention" of mouth diseases. They will recommend the establishment of a sufficient number of efficient school dental systems to provide for the inspection of every school child's teeth at least once in every six months. Requests have been made that Provincial Dental Officer Dr. F. J. Conboy, who has had charge of the Ontario system, be loaned for a time to help organize inspection systems in every western province. The chief features to be emphasized in the educational campaign will be regular inspection and treatment of teeth, proper diet, efficient mastication and oral cleanliness.

WILL CLOSE ONTARIO HOSPITAL FOR INSANE

The Ontario Hospital for the Insane on West Queen street is gradually being vacated. The Ontario government is moving patients from that hospital as soon as it can, and it will not be long before there will be no place which can be used as a reception hospital in the city. One hundred women are being moved this week from the hospital to the hospital at Cobourg, which the government is now using since the military have given up the premises. There is room at this hospital for about 500 women patients, and the building, it is claimed, is the most up-to-date in its equipment in the province.

Only 38 Per Cent. of Capital Stock in America, Kennedy Says.

In reply to a letter of James R. Roaf, published in The World, yesterday, alleging that the Bell Telephone Company was controlled by United States companies and that the company paid excessive prices for its materials, Frank Kennedy, the Toronto manager, stated: "The American Telephone and Telegraph Company own 38 per cent. of the capital stock of the Bell Telephone Company. Therefore, it does not own a controlling interest. At the end of 1919 there were 3,050 shareholders of the Bell Telephone Company of whom 2,788 live in Canada." Mr. Kennedy could not say offhand whether there was such a thing as a "controlling interest" in the Bell Telephone Company, but he did not think there was. "As regards the allegation that we have paid excessive rates for materials," he replied, "it may be said that the Northern Electric Company do not sell to us alone and the prices that they charge us compare favorably with those that they charge to our competitors. The Northern Electric Company did not pay any dividends in 1917 or 1918 and now only pays 7 per cent."

In the afternoon police court yesterday, before Magistrate Ellis 15 boys were charged with playing cards on the steps of the Manning Avenue School. Sam Mastrangelo pleaded guilty and Harold Arnett claimed that he had only been looking on. The other 13 were not caught. Mrs. Mallison and the chauffeur, Duncan Black, denied having been at College and Yonge streets that day. The constable described the motor as dirty green in color and containing a woman and a dog. The chauffeur admitted the details and Mrs. Mallison's solicitor paid $12.35.

TO PAY RELIANCE CREDITORS IN FULL

Nothing for Shareholders—Dinnick is Not Likely to Testify Again.

F. C. Clarkson stated yesterday that the receiver in the defunct Standard Reliance Corporation now hoped that the creditors, depositors and debenture holders would be paid in full, but that it would take a few years to clear the cap. He did not look to shareholders getting anything. Altho Col. Wilfred T. Dinnick has left Toronto and gone to England to live, the inquiry into the affairs of the Standard Reliance will be opened again in September. Mr. Clarkson said that as soon as the court action was over and the master returned, appointment would be taken out before the receiver. In discussing the absence of Col. Dinnick, Mr. Clarkson stated that he understood no further examination of Dinnick could be gone on with owing to his physical condition. It is understood that Dinnick is a physical wreck and that, on medical advice, he will reside permanently in the old country. "Has Col. Dinnick disposed of his North Toronto property?" "I cannot say," replied Mr. Clarkson. "His residence is covered by a mortgage to his bankers, as well as the furniture." Creditors under $25 have already been paid off, and considerable "compassionate allowances" made. The liabilities at the time of liquidation were: Depositors and deposit receipts, $1,248,000. Debenture holders, $4,024,578. The share capital of the defunct corporation was given at $2,644,020.

To Address Soldiers in All Large Cities—Also at Some U. S. Points.

Ottawa, Aug. 23.—(Canadian Press.)—For the purpose of explaining to returned soldiers and their dependents, and also to the public who are interested, the provisions of the amended pension act, and also the returned soldiers' insurance act, Col. John Thompson, chairman of the board of pension commissioners, and Col. J. W. Mergerson, commissioner, will make a tour of the western provinces next month, addressing public meetings, at the same time, the pension commissioners will hear appeals from pension board awards.

Start About Sept. 16. Leaving Ottawa about Sept. 16, the pension commissioners plan to commence a series of lectures in one of the British Columbia cities and thereafter visit every large city in the four western provinces. Then they will go to some of the United States cities, where there are a great number of former C.E.F. men, and address them also. There are several pensions appeals in the United States centres to be heard.

NEW YORK WOMEN STAGE MCSWENEY DEMONSTRATION

New York, Aug. 23.—A demonstration was staged today in front of the British consulate on Whitehall street by a handful of women who paraded up and down the sidewalk bearing signs protesting against imprisonment of Terence MacSwiney, lord mayor of Cork, who was convicted of sedition after trial by court martial in Cork this month. The signs, referring to MacSwiney, who has been on a hunger strike since his conviction, read: "Shall two mayors of Cork be murdered to sustain British rule?" "Shall MacSwiney die?" "Shall MacSwiney die?" "Twenty million Irishmen will know the reason why."

ALLIED VETERANS WILL CO-ORDINATE

Initial Step Will Be Empire Conference of Soldiers in Capetown.

Ottawa, Aug. 23.—(Canadian Press.)—Steps are apparently being taken toward the co-ordination of all returned soldiers and sailor organizations not only within Canada, but within the British Empire, and the allied nations. Following the receipt at Great War Veterans Association Dominion headquarters here, of a communication from Harry J. Flynn, proposing an amalgamation of the Great War Veterans and Grand Army of United Veterans in Canada, representatives have been made by officials of the American Legion, the United States organization of ex-service men, asking that Canada send representatives to their convention to be held in Cleveland, Ohio, in September.

The agenda has also been received of the Empire Conference of Returned Soldiers and Sailors, to be held in Cape Town, South Africa, in February, 1921.

NEW COMMISSIONERS ARE NOT TALKATIVE

Members of Transportation Board Prepare to Take Up Important Work.

The World visited the offices of the new transportation commission at the city's Hydro-Sheraton hotel, yesterday. E. M. Ashworth is acting secretary. Mr. Ashworth is also the assistant-general manager of the Toronto Hydro-Electric system, but is handling the secretarial work of the commission until a permanent man is appointed.

"You had better see the chairman, P. W. Ellis, for any news about the transportation commission," said Mr. Ashworth, "as I am merely acting secretary. I do not feel justified in speaking as an official of the commission."

The reporter found Mr. Ellis in his own business office at 31 East Wellington street.

"What is the news from the commission?" Mr. Ellis was asked. "Have you appointed any permanent officials yet?"

"No," replied the chairman. "we are first finding out what powers we have and getting organized. We can't get going in a few days."

"Any dates fixed for regular meetings?"

"Not yet, there is really nothing to give out at present."

"I understand a communication has been sent to you from North Toronto regarding the proposed Mount Pleasant car line. Would you care to say anything about that?" asked the reporter.

TEACHERS ON VISIT TO NORTH COUNTRY

Party of One Hundred and Fifty Arrive in Cobalt—See the Mines.

Cobalt, Ont., Aug. 23.—The peaceful invasion of northern Ontario by 150 school teachers from the other sections of the province commenced this morning, with the arrival here of the special train bearing the party. Hon. R. H. Grant, minister of education, and Mrs. Grant are with the party. After a formal welcome by Mayor McEachren, the company divided, half going thru the mines and the others taking a trip thru the agricultural districts north of New Liskeard. In the afternoon there was a cruise on Lake Timiskaming, and tonight an open air entertainment at Liskeard Beach. The party goes north tomorrow.

HEALTH DISPLAYS AT THE EXHIBITION

Evidence Also of Vocational Training for Returned Men—Grounds Look Lovely.

Never was preparedness with perfection as the ultimate end more evident a week in advance of the National Exhibition than is apparent at the present point of the work. Yesterday, when members of the press visited the great area given over to what will be one of the finest displays in the history of what is now an institution in which the entire Dominion is interested, the buildings were fairly alive with workmen putting finishing touches to various departments.

Private enterprise, too, is being assisted by government grants which are generous in gift, something in the neighborhood of $40,000 being expended on the public health and educational displays which are to be found in the government building. Never before did the health department have as fine an opportunity for demonstrating its work as it has this year. The large section, where white and gold walls, with windows tastefully adorned with soft green curtains, and a background of country scenes, presents the spectator into the realms of fairies and other denizens of the forest.

Lack of confidence in the officials of the Dominion Trades and Labor Congress to meet next month at Windsor, is generally expressed by officials of local unions. The announcement of Jim Watters as a candidate for the presidency in opposition to Tom Moore is believed to be the first step taken by local organizations to resist the alleged "railroading" of the present executive.

Business Agent W. J. Storey of the Plumbers' and Steamfitters' Union has claimed was boom timber. "Most of the inaccuracies," said Mr. Raymond, "are small and negligible, the most important inaccuracy being that the accountant's tables do not account for 163,048 logs. It is inferred in these tables that these logs were not reported to the government. These logs were not on the scale sheets, but they were reported to the government in other forms, in log-books for instance. Only 50,000 of these logs were boom timber."

Various labor officials have confirmed the report of dissension in local labor ranks published by one of the evening papers. The failure to agree upon a united policy is generally the subject of sincere regret. Evidence to show that "cullers" methods of scaling were detrimental to the company rather than favorable to them was given by Mr. Raymond. It was alleged that the logs were over-scaled, one instance being given in which the scale showed 52,000,000 feet for a certain number of logs when, as a matter of fact, only 45,000,000 feet were cut.

Justice Latchford: "Do your system of accounting for culls show 30-inch logs scaled down by the scaler to 6 inches?" Mr. Raymond: "The culler is not required to account for culls over his signature."

Justice Riddell: "It seems plain that you to the advantage of the government?" Mr. Raymond: "I don't say they cheated us; they made a mistake."

Justice Latchford: "Was complaint ever made by you of the scale being too rigid?" Mr. Raymond: "I don't know about that."

Justice Riddell: "It seems plain that the cullers gave advantage to the company?" Mr. Raymond: "It would be very hard for them to do that, I think."

ELECTRICAL MEN AGREE TO AWARD

Labor Temple Officials Ridicule Soviet Article Appearing in The Gazette.

The Electrical Workers at a special meeting of their union, held last evening, decided practically unanimously to accept the majority award proposed by the board of conciliation which investigated the request for increases of the employees of the Toronto Railway, Toronto Power and Toronto and Niagara Power Companies. The award grants an increase of from 10 to 12 cents an hour over present rates to the workers of Toronto, an increase of five cents per hour over present rates for workers at Niagara Falls, an increase of 10 cents per hour over present rates for machinists, and an increase of 7 cents per hour over present rates for their helpers. The woodworkers and carpenters are also affected and secure an increase of 10 cents per hour.

The report of the board is most comprehensive, and deals individually with the case of each man affected, and the increases advocated are thus considered by the men to rest upon a carefully reasoned basis. Working conditions are left practically unchanged, but it is understood that the question of the classification of the electrical workers will be taken up by the individual firms with their employees.

Labor Temple officials ridicule the article appearing in the August issue of The Labor Gazette, stating that it is the desire of various factions of organized labor to establish a soviet in Canada. The article is, they declare, absolutely without foundation and several characterized it as a deliberate attempt to prejudice organized labor in the eyes of the public.

The Amalgamated Carpenters at their meeting last night expressed themselves as emphatically opposed to the secretary of the Dominion Trades and Labor Congress holding a government position as well. The present incumbent is also a King's printer and it is the belief of the carpenters that his labor affiliations are of sufficient importance to occupy the whole of his time. The local also expressed itself as favoring the Windsor convention any resolution which would advocate the closer union of the various factions at present dividing the labor movement.

Business Agent W. J. Storey of the Plumbers' and Steamfitters' Union has claimed was boom timber. "Most of the inaccuracies," said Mr. Raymond, "are small and negligible, the most important inaccuracy being that the accountant's tables do not account for 163,048 logs. These logs were not on the scale sheets, but they were reported to the government in other forms, in log-books for instance. Only 50,000 of these logs were boom timber."

TARIFF INQUIRY WILL BE THOROUGH

Commission to Spend Several Months in Gathering Evidence.

Ottawa, Aug. 23.—The itinerary of the tariff commission has not been definitely decided, but the chief points where evidence will be taken have been named. The commission will open its work at Winnipeg on Sept. 15, and from there proceed to Toronto, in addition to the session at Victoria, others will be held in British Columbia, at Vancouver, Vernon and Nelson. Calgary and Edmonton sessions will follow, then the British Columbia tour, and probably Medicine Hat, Alta., will also be visited. Leaving Edmonton, the commission will hold two sittings in Saskatchewan, at Saskatoon and Regina, and from the latter city will go to Brandon and will close the western tour with a final session at Winnipeg.

In Ontario evidence will be taken at Fort William, Sault Ste. Marie, Toronto, Windsor, London, Hamilton, Kingston and Ottawa. Quebec meetings at Montreal, Sherbrooke, Three Rivers and Quebec will follow the Ontario tour. The work of taking evidence by the commission will close with meetings in the maritime provinces, at St. John, Charlottetown, Sydney and Halifax.

Several Months' Inquiry. The commission will be composed of Sir Henry Drayton, Hon. Gordon Robertson and Hon. J. A. Calder, with Hon. Dr. Tolmie substituting for Hon. J. A. Calder until he returns from England. It is expected that the meeting to secure evidence for the tariff revision will take between two and three months. After the evidence is all accumulated, the commission will make its recommendations to the cabinet, and these will be embodied in the budget of next session. It is expected that the various manufacturing industries will present written statements of their views on the tariff, and also that the market gardeners, fruit growers, grain growers and stock raisers will give evidence on the effect of the tariff on production and prosperity in their several occupations.

R. will in future receive a clothing allowance of seven dollars per month.

CARVELL ABLE TO PASS UPON TELEPHONE RATES

Ottawa Does Not Consider There Are Legal Grounds for Objection. Ottawa, Aug. 23.—(Canadian Press.)—A report that Hon. Frank Carvell, chief commissioner of the railway board, may be unable to preside when the application of the Bell Telephone Company for increased rates comes up for hearing, is not seriously regarded by Mr. Carvell's colleagues and officials of the board for the reason that the New Brunswick Telephone, with which it is said Mr. Carvell is connected, does not come under the jurisdiction of the board. The New Brunswick Telephone Company, so far as is known here, operates under a provincial and not a federal charter. It is known that Mr. Carvell has been a shareholder in this company in the past, but whether he is still one is not known.

REGARD SCHEME ON BUSINESS BASIS

New Note is Added to Gratuity Issue—Famous Man is Expected.

A new note was added to the gratuity issue last night at Central G.W.V.A. when a prominent member of Kingston G.W.V.A. emphasized his opinion that the gratuity scheme as outlined under the constitution of the G.W.V.A., a dollar a day according to length of service, was based upon the reasonable assumption that the C.E.F. soldier was paid at the rate of a dollar ten a day during war service; that the dollar in 1914 was worth one hundred cents; that it was worth only 70 cents at the end of 1918, and that the returned man was entitled to the difference in valuation of the dollar during his period of service.

It was pointed out that this argument was based upon purely business principles, and proved unanswerable even to hard-headed business men. This is an argument which will be taken up in the near future in the meantime, it was pointed out, unity of the veterans was the main issue confronting the returned man.

Who is Famous Man?

"One of the most famous men in the world today" will address Central G.W.V.A. at a special meeting which is to be held on Thursday night at Columbus Hall. Officials resolutely refused to give out the name of the speaker of the evening, but elsewhere it was understood that Sir Auckland Geddes, British ambassador to Washington, would be the lion of the hour at the meeting. It was even whispered that Admiral Beatty was coming.

HISTORIC MAPLE TREE

Planted in Allan Gardens by King Edward When He Was Prince of Wales.

Many people who haunt the Allan Gardens this evening and for many evenings hereafter, will perhaps miss the familiar outline of the sugar maple tree which was planted by the late King Edward when he was Prince of Wales, in 1860. No more will the spectators in the sight-seeing party that pass the gardens, regale their customers with the history of this, the most famous of all maple trees. It stood for 59 years at the west side of the walk about half way up between the Gerrard street entrance and the fountain.

The tree died about a year ago, apparently of old age, and the lifeless trunk was cut down yesterday by the parks department and taken away. The tree doctor in the parks department reported, when the maple began to wither, that nothing could be done to save it. Sixty years, he figured, was about the allotted span of a sugar maple.

MANY CANCER CASES TREATED IN NEW HOME

Evidence of the increasing testimony to the work of Dr. Glover is seen in the fact that yesterday a large number of cancer cases were treated in new quarters at the residence of the late Catharine Mallock, 538 Jarvis street. Part of the house had been previously furnished and was ready for the reception of the patients who on the appearance of Dr. Glover at 1:30 p.m. awaited him.

Sixty-five cancer cases are now in St. Michael's. It is reported that so incessant is the work of Dr. Glover in the interest of his patients and science that he was at the hospital yesterday at 2 p.m. Reports from patients and doctors are all of an encouraging nature.

The next clinic will be at the hospital at 3:30 on Thursday.

FIRST NIGHTS AT TORONTO THEATRES

"Hello, Alexander" at Royal—Pictures and Vaudeville Delight Patrons Elsewhere.

"Hello, Alexander," at Royal—Pictures and Vaudeville Delight Patrons Elsewhere.

A capacity house greeted the initial performance at the Royal Alexander last night of the musical extravaganza "Hello, Alexander" presented by Messrs. Lee and J. J. Schubert, in which the principals are the old-time favorites, McIntyre and Heath, widely known as the deans of American minstrelsy. The combination, which had long engagements last season both in New York and Chicago, presented a two-act performance of musical numbers, vaudeville turns which, with spectacular settings, sustained the reputation gained by advance notices. Jokes which sent volleys of laughter amongst the audience were plentiful, for a few were too broad for at least a portion of the house. Among the musical numbers were several usually large number of good dancers and the end men and clever interactor in the "Mason and Dick Minstrels" did some entertaining work. As Alexander, man of all work and former minstrel, James McIntyre gained the admiration of old supporters as did also Thomas K. Hunt, the proprietor of the "Ever-Ready Colored Minstrels." A feature of the evening was the artistic singing of Misses Holt and Rosemary, who gained an enthusiastic recall for their singing of "Hiawatha's Melody of Love," "Rock-a-Bye-Baby," by Captain Spensley, and two songs which confirm the right of the female members of the company to be billed as a "singing chorus." Beautiful costumes appear to advantage in the various dance numbers, and the scenic effects are particularly good.

Alice Joyce at Regent.

Grand and majestic as it is, the drama of nature is always full of thrilling interest, but never will it be as compelling and as heart-searching as the two-by-four drama of the home itself, since in this little touch of life are all the elements of grandeur, beauty and pathos one finds in the grander touches of national interest, only in this drama all these elements are concentrated, resolved into the essence of the human touch. This is the beautiful imagery of the drama so presented at the Regent Theatre this week, is entrancing and compelling to an unusual degree. And Alice Joyce dear old soul, is with us once more.

Treasure Island Charms. Robert Louis Stevenson's masterpiece, "Treasure Island," is the centrepiece of all the presentations at the Strand Theatre this week, and was presented yesterday afternoon before a large and appreciative audience. We are all familiar with the beautiful imagery of the drama so presented at the Regent Theatre this week, is entrancing and compelling to an unusual degree. And Alice Joyce

dear old soul, is with us once more.

A capital offering at Shea's attracted crowded houses yesterday. Stella Mayhew, who heads the bill, delighted the audiences with her clever singing and she had to answer several encores before she was allowed to retire. "How About You?" a satirical comedy playlet presented by Howard Smith & Company and William T. Morris, afforded a vast amount of entertainment. The play portrays that what one does today will be regretted in 100 years hence, and many humorous situations arise which are well handled by a very capable company. Margaret Taylor gave a capital exhibition of tight wire walking and stunts on the wire. Funny talks, songs full of pep with piano accompaniment were given by Bob Murphy and Ed Moore. White, who made quite a hit with their presentation. As a diversion the pretty act given by Carl Emmy and his pet dogs was hugely enjoyed and the antics of the clever little pets were keenly relished. Fred La France and Jot Kennedy, in "The Party of the Second Part," gave a pleasing turn and their "daisy" humor was very droll. Others who added to the general enjoyment were the Gelles, with a dancing and "Run Em Ragged," a cinematograph showing.

Hundreds of people around the doors and lobbies of Loew's Theatre yesterday afternoon waiting for a chance to get in, all the seats having been taken some few minutes after opening. Children came in droves, especially to see the 20 little girls who are putting on one of the best vaudeville acts that happen along in a season. "The Mink's Wild of 1919" a production for both sexes and all ages. All the members of the troupe are both clever and pretty, but the Fields sisters who are making their last tour in this act, are top-liners as vaudeville attractions. They give impressions of several famous dancers and singers. The laughs, however, go to Alice Morley as Frogs, who knows how to hand out good, breezy conversation without emphasizing the fact that she is speaking a part.

The feature of the picture collection is "The Perfect Woman," showing Miss Constance Talmadge in one of the brightest comedy reels of her career. This picture play is full of sparkling situations, and tell again the old story of man's ability to follow with courage and determination a course which some designing woman has already laid out for him. There are other features well worth hearing, and the work of the orchestra was also commendable.

"Follies of Pleasure." Rubie Bernstein's "Follies of Pleasure" is the attraction at the Star Theatre this week. The show is not ordinarily for three things: Clyde J. Bates, as chief funster; Sid Gold, straight, who is billed as burlesque's classiest kid, and the "Champion" challenge chorus, composed of sixteen girls all above the average with regard to looks. True, the show is weak in the brand of comedy designed for Bates gets the best results with the material furnished him. Gold as Straight wears his clothes well and handles his lines with a clean enunciation. The chorus was good. There are three leading ladies: Dorothy Barnes, prima donna; Ruth Barbour, subrette; and Betty Fernan as Gold's first and only foil for Bates, but does a couple of dances and sings several songs which land solidly with the audience. He is a tower of strength to the show.

"Three Gold Coins" at Hippodrome. Daring intrigue, sparkling comedy, and a pleasing touch of romance account for the success secured by "Three Gold Coins," the feature film heading this week's bill at the Hippodrome. Tom Mix, starring in the role of an honest oil promoter who is connected unwittingly with a "fake" rusher, gives his particularly liberal in his exhibitions of daring feats of horsemanship. The manner in which, with the assistance of the girl he loves, he outwits his rascally associates and finally even strikes upon the long sought "gusher" is unfolded in one of the best plots that this popular screen mags has appeared in recently. The vaudeville section of the bill is well up to standard and includes the saxophone act of the Sutherland Sextette, the novelty act of Frank and Ethel Carmen, a clever dancing turn by Cornell, Leona and Zippy, the excellent harmony singing of the Garden Girls, and the pianologue of Karl Carey. The Clifford Wayne troupe, appearing as the only Indian troupe upon the vaudeville stage, secured a remarkable success, largely by virtue of their clever juvenility which was the central figure in an attractive musical and novelty act.

Mirth at the Gayety. Mirth-provoking comedy is the attraction which the "Girls From Hayland" hold out to patrons of the opening week at the Gayety Theatre. Sam Lewis, with such able lieutenants as Harry Kohler, Jimmie Jannors and Bert Lester, maintains the fun at a pace that is fast and furious, and which gives rise incidentally to the presentation of the two burlettas, "Nearly a Husband" and "Wonder Springs." Occasion is found during the course of the show to render some score of tuneful musical numbers, which confirm the right of the female members of the company to be billed as a "singing chorus." Beautiful costumes appear to advantage in the various dance numbers, and the scenic effects are particularly good.

The Remedy!

THE only corrective for overloading of lines and excessive "Busy" reports is a charge proportionate to use of the service.

For street car transportation you pay by the ride; for gas when the tap is turned on; for electricity when the lights burn.

Why not for telephone service by the message—so much for each effective call you originate?

Flat rates, especially for business service in big cities, are unfair to the small user. A flat rate high enough to yield a fair return would aggravate this unfairness.

Pay for what you get, not for what someone else gets—that's the principle of message rate telephone service.

The Bell Telephone Company of Canada has just the face and manner which takes the part of the heroine well, not altogether compelling at first, but gradually unfolding until at last the personality becomes itself the centre of interest.

Miss Edna Reed and the Regent orchestra delighted matineers with several excellent classical studies, with the well-known opera, "The Bohemian Girl," and with "The Cuckoo" and other more popular songs and songs. Comic cuts and topical studies completed the series.

C. VALENTINE WINS THREE OUT OF FOUR

Fleming Drives the Other on Opening Day at Poughkeepsie.

Poughkeepsie, N.Y., Aug. 23.—Charley Valentine took the lion's share of the honors at the opening day of Poughkeepsie's 1920 Grand Circuit meeting this afternoon, piloting three winners in four events. He drove Bogalusa to a victory in the Dutchess Trot for two-year-olds, winning the second and third heats handsly after following Pavonian home in the first, and also scored with Red Lancelet and Peter Coley in the Hudson Valley, and the Knickerbocker 2:08 pace and 2:38 trot respectively. The fourth event on the day's card, the Union 2:15 class trot for three-year-olds, went to Lucille Harvester in eyeslash finishes with Emma Harvester in the last two heats. Great Britton, the favorite, behaved poorly, placing seventh in the first heat and being distanced in the second. The weather was a little cool for racing and the track not at its best, but the three-year-olds recorded three heats at 2:10 or better, Lucille Harvester stepping the final mile in 2:08 1/2. Red Lancelet made the best time of the day, 2:04 1/2, in the second heat of the 2:08 pace. A break took Peter Coley victory in the second.
