BRITISH IRE HAS BEEN AROUSED BY SEC. DANIEL'S SPEECH TO CONGRESS CALLING FOR THE GREATEST NAVY IN THE WORLD

Think He is Provoking an Unnecessary Race in Naval Armaments.

MENACING RELATIONS OF U. S. AND BRITAIN

If Announcements Were Taken Seriously Might Jeopardize Object of Wilson's Visit to London.

DANIELS WIELDS THE BIG STICK

Seems to be the Opinion That Those Who Cannot be Persuaded With Grace Must be Driven.

(Special cable to the N. Y. Tribune and The St. John Standard.)

By F. A. Wray.
London, Jan. 5.—Secretary Daniels' speeches evoked two opinions here, one section holding that he is carrying out a reasonable policy now that the United States is facing the necessity of the creation of a strong navy, competent to share in Great Britain's work of policing the seas. The other section thinks Mr. Daniels is provoking an unnecessary race in naval armaments with Great Britain, menacing the relations of the two peoples and pointing a pistol at this country, while Mr. Wilson is wooing it in soft words.

In justice to the latter section, it must be admitted that Mr. Daniels' announcements, during Mr. Wilson's voyage if taken more seriously here, might have jeopardized the whole object of the journey. The Pall Mall Gazette last night discussed the secretary of the navy, and said:

"Clearly, Mr. Daniels' opinion is that those who cannot be persuaded with grace must be driven with the power invested with 'the incomparably greatest navy' at the present time. It is our opinion that that would be most affected by fresh competition. It is scarcely probable, however, that any pulse will beat faster than the pulse of these islands for Daniels' announcements. Pending such we may speculate as to the chain of reasoning, whereby he is led to append this penal clause to the peace conference. A very slight acquaintance with recent history, must show him that Britain does not keep the largest navy for any reason but dire necessity, as many of his own countrymen first came to recognize. It wasn't many years before the war when we endeavored to persuade Germany to a mutual reduction of fleets. Among all the powers now represented in Paris, there are none more anxious than ourselves to find a policy that will ease the naval burden. Pending such relief, we will, doubtless, regulate our armaments as before, according to the needs of our island situation, and those of the scattered dependencies. But Mr. Daniels is quite mistaken if he supposes that we see a menace in even the highest expansion of the American navy. In such a development we see nothing but a fresh bulwark to the peace of civilization, and the partnership in the responsibilities that we hitherto have borne almost single-handed. Only one fear is awakened by Mr. Daniels' words, and that is lest they may lead many Americans to think that the President is more needed in Washington than in Europe."

PARIS EASIER ON FOOD LAWS

Paris, Saturday, Jan. 4.—To the decree signed last week by M. Boret, the Food Minister, prohibiting the sale of condensed milk, tapoca, macaroni and similar products, as well as on eggs, rice and beans, is added the warning that any abuse of the privileges, granted under the decree, will lead to the re-imposition of fixed prices. The restrictions under the new ruling are no longer restricted as regards hours during which meals may be served, nor as to the composition of the menu or the prices charged.

PROMPT MEETING OF PEACE CONFERENCE DEMANDED

British Press, Regardless of Politics, Says There Must be Prompt Action to Stem the Tide of Chaos Threatening Germany—No More "Scraps of Paper."

London, Jan. 5.—The past week has witnessed a strong and general demand from the most influential British newspapers, regardless of politics, for the prompt meeting of the peace conference, and prompt action to stem the tide of chaos which is threatening Germany because of the introduction of Bolshevism by way of the border states. There is a dawn of recognition that if anarchy seizes Central Europe the decisions of the

Ex-Kaiser's Condition Better But Fails To Leave Castle

Amerongen, Holland, Wednesday, Jan. 1.—(By The Associated Press).—Even the wonderful spring-like weather of the new year did not bring the former German Emperor outside of Amerongen Castle, although his condition is improving daily. The principal cause of his indisposition appears to be mental depression, induced by the gradual realization of the full extent of his downfall. Recent reports from Germany are said to have accentuated this feeling.

GERMANY BEGGED WHEN SHE SAW PROPOSED NEW OFFENSIVE

The Concentration of Troops on Lorraine Front for Attack to be Launched November 12th Hurried the Request for an Armistice.

Paris, Jan. 5.—Germany hurried to request the armistice when she saw that a new Allied offensive was about to be launched on the Lorraine front on November 12th by 300,000 men under command of General Castelnau, says the Excelsior.

American and French troops, it says, were concentrated on the front between Briey and Chateau Salins. They were supported by 3,000 guns of all calibres, and had 300 tanks available on a front of about 45 miles. The Duke Albrecht of Wurtemberg, the German commander on this front, had available only 35 divisions of inferior fighting quality. These divisions contained approximately 160,000 men. He had only one thousand guns. This Allied attack, the Excelsior continues, would have carried the war into an unexplored Lorraine and into Rhineland Prussia, threatening to cut off the German army in Belgium and in the Ardennes from its bases.

HON. BALLANTYNE IS IMPROVING

Attending Surgeons Gave Favorable Report Last Night on His Condition—Not Yet Out of Danger.

Montreal, Que., Jan. 5.—The condition of Hon. C. C. Ballantyne, Minister of Marine and Fisheries, is reported tonight to be much more favorable than had been reported. Mr. Ballantyne is at the Royal Victoria Hospital, where he was operated on for appendicitis. Dr. Geo. Armstrong and Dr. W. F. Hamilton visited their patient, early tonight, and found considerable improvement, though his temperature is still high. Dr. Hamilton, after the visit, was able to say that the prospects of recovery had greatly improved, though owing to the high temperature it was yet too early to declare the minister entirely out of danger.

peace conference in drawing boundaries and levying indemnities can be enforced only through military control by the Allies, otherwise becoming merely "scraps of paper."

The chief desire of the British people is to have the army demobilized as quickly as possible. The labor elements, in particular, oppose the retention of a large conscripted army for the policing of foreign territories, with the possibility of being drawn into conflicts with their people.

TUNISIAN GETS THE HAMMER

Passengers Report Food Unfit to Eat—Vermm and Rats Overrun the Ship.

Montreal, Jan. 5.—Soldiers and civilians who arrived in Montreal today, complained of the treatment they received on the steamer Tunisian on the voyage from England. "Food unfit to eat; one whole hog was condemned by the medical officer, and a wait of an hour and a half for more food. Ship in a filthy condition, overrun with vermin and rats," were some of the expressions heard among the private soldiers, both Montrealeers and western men, and also among the civilian passengers. Warrant officers and non-commissioned officers were quite as emphatic that the conditions were "very bad," especially in connection with their berthing and mess arrangements. They were told by the medical officer, that he would make a report to Ottawa, for though this would not do any good, it might benefit men who would follow them."

KILLS WOMAN WITH RAZOR

Returned Soldier Commits Murder, Then Attempts Suicide by Cutting His Own Throat.

Toronto, Jan. 5.—Mrs. Charlotte Huntley, wife of Thomas Huntley, 127 Campbell Ave., was murdered in her home late Saturday night, and Peter John Cook, a returned soldier, with his throat gashed by a razor, is under police guard at the Western Hospital charged with her murder and with attempting suicide. Cook rushed from the house, it is alleged, exclaiming: "My throat is cut. I've gone crazy. I don't know what I'm doing yet."

An investigation resulted in the finding of the body of Mrs. Huntley in her parlor, with her throat cut, apparently with a razor. From the kitchen at the rear of the house, where the body was found, there were evidences of struggle. Apparently the woman had been attacked in the kitchen, and fled towards the front of the house, fighting for her life all the way, and arriving in the parlor to find herself trapped.

DEMAND RELEASE OF SINN FEINERS

He was angry because Johnson's daughter refused to elope a second time with him. Johnson, his wife and their young son, as well as their daughter, Mrs. Mabel Jones, and her child, were slain. Barnes, 45 years of age, was infatuated with Mrs. Jones, and his intention to her was strongly discouraged by her parents.

WILL CONTROL WAR SUPPLIES

Vladivostok, Friday, Jan. 3.—(Associated Press)—As a conservation measure the Inter-Allied Command here has appointed a commission to take charge of the immense quantity of war supplies in Vladivostok, pending the recognition of some Russian government as the suitable recipient. This measure applies only to the old stocks, the title to which is indefinite, and does not affect the supplies now arriving.

Should Such be Confirmed by the Peace Conference Serbia Will Fight Again and Fight to the Finish Says Dr. Vesnich, Premier of Serbia—Says, France, England and Russia Disposed of Serbian Rights in Their Treaties With Italy and Rumania.

Paris, Saturday, Jan. 4.—(Associated Press).—France, England and Rumania, in their treaties with Italy and Rumania, disposed of Serbian rights," said Dr. M. R. Vesnich, Premier of Serbia, today, in an interview given to the Associated Press. "Rumania lost her bargain when she began peace negotiations with the Central Powers in 1917," he continued. "Does the treaty of 1915 between Italy and France, England and Russia, regarding the Eastern coast of the Adriatic, still stand in international law?"

"There are two facts which would seem to negate this question. America entered the war after the signing of this treaty. She came in as the avowed enemy of secret treaties, and the Entente accepted that principle. Further, at the time of the signing of this treaty, Italy wanted the territory in question as a protection against Slavish domination, backed by Russian power. But, with the political upheaval in Russia, this situation has disappeared. The time is over, it seems, when an imperialist policy might be favored in Europe. Why should not the nations of the Balkans have the same rights as the others?"

"At the peace conference there will be represented four different kinds of nations. First, those who entered the war with the idea of domination; second those who were defending themselves; third, those who entered it with high ideals, like America; and fourth, those speaking on behalf of Serbia, those nations surrounding her belonging to the last named class."

"I believe that Serbia will demand to know on what basis she enters the Peace Conference, and, I think, that in so doing she will have the assistance of America. President Wilson has announced that the United States came into the war to abolish secret treaties. If America enters the conference with such treaties to be considered, then what will be the people of the world think?"

STRIKERS WILL RETURN TO WORK

THE NORTHLAND INVESTIGATIONS BRING FORTH MORE HARDSHIPS

Soldier Stories All Tend to Show Insufficient Food Supply, All Poorly Served, and Ship Facilities Wholly Inadequate to Care for Returning Men—Stewards All After the Soldiers' Coin.

Ottawa, Jan. 5.—Investigation into conditions on the transport Northland proceeded before Judge Hodgins throughout Saturday morning and afternoon. The stories told by returned soldiers were similar to those of the previous day. They were complaints of bad ventilation below, of insufficient food, and of the sale of food by stewards.

"Did you hear of that?" counsel asked, in astonished tones. "I saw it," Sergeant Smith quickly responded. "It was brought to the sergeant's room for sale. But Sergeant Smith admitted that to have a pig on a ship was 'buying a pig in a poke'."

He explained, too, that on one occasion two pints of water were put in the men's jam to make it go round. "It looked like this," and here the sergeant tapped the water jug standing on the table before them.

With regard to the quality of food generally, however, Sergeant Smith did not complain. His complaints were directed against the manner in which it was served. "I never heard so much kicking in my life," was the version of Company Quartermaster Sergeant Flood, who gave evidence in the morning.

Lord T. Elliott, London, testified as to the men's food the day he acted as orderly officer. He found the quality good. This was the first day out. St. Quartmaster Sergeant Harry Gibbons stated that he had gone to the front in June, 1916, and remained there eleven months, when he contracted trench fever. He had returned on the Northland. He said he had been down to the men's quarters, even taking into consideration the fact that they were not exercising. He thought, however, that they could get more if they were willing to wait for a second helping.

The ventilation of men's sleeping quarters was bad, but he was not sure whether it could have been better, owing to bad weather. He had given a subscription by the Sergeant Major Parker to take around to the men's quarters for contributions to the chief and second stewards. This money was to be contributed because they were said to have received the men's mess in class meals. He thought they had received first class cabin meals, but N. C. O.'s thought it somewhat of an imposition to be asked to subscribe. He had collected over three pounds, which he handed to Sergeant Major Parker.

PRES. WILSON ON WAY TO FRANCE

Left Rome Last Night and Expects to Reach Paris About Tuesday.

Rome, Jan. 4.—(Associated Press)—President Wilson left Rome for Paris shortly after 9 o'clock tonight, with the cheers of the Roman throng that had gathered to witness his departure, ringing in his ears. His visit to the Italian capital has proved the busiest of his European trip, as it was the most demonstrative. The President's party is not expected to reach Paris until Tuesday morning, as the itinerary provides for stops at Genoa, Milan and Turin.

The President is represented as expecting, on his return to the French capital, to find the delegates of the nations assembling for the Peace Conference, up to the point of deciding upon the first principles of the proposed League of Nations, thus paving the way to the disposal of what he regards as the necessary preliminaries to the Peace Conference before his return to the United States, about the middle of February.

President Wilson was a member of the Reale Accademia de' Lincei, or Royal Academy of Science, this morning. The President and Mrs. Wilson were seated between the King and Queen, while among those present were the American Ambassador, Thomas Nelson Page, and other members of the diplomatic corps, and many distinguished Italian officials and scientists. Senator D'Onofrio, who is President of the Academy, hailed the President as the worthy representative of the culture of the new world, which now revivifies the ancient culture of the old world.

During an awful death toll the influenza has abated. He said Ireland has one great drawback which jeopardizes the inhabitants continually, this is the existence of active volcanoes. On October the twelfth of the past year, previous to the outbreak of influenza, the volcano 'Katla' broke forth in all its fury and entirely encircled four large farm houses, and this is only one of the evils that must be contended with in the natural order.

"Now, I think you have enough," added he, "have a cigar, and tell me of your country." The party moved to the port of the narrative. Both men proceeded to New York tomorrow, the son will then return to Canada in the event of the trawler be sent to his interesting narrative, and the father will return home.

FIERCE FIGHTING BETWEEN AMERICANS AND BOLSHEVETS

Bolshevists Are Mutilating Allied Wounded and Dead According to Reports Received from Allied Officers—Situation Unchanged at Archangel.

With the Allied Army on the Dvina, Saturday, Jan. 4.—(By the Associated Press)—American troops, fighting desperately near Kadish, have driven back Bolshevist troops which made an advance there. The Bolshevists also launched attacks on the Onega sector, and bombarded the Allied front. The Americans went into the attack along the Petrograd Road, and in the frozen swamps that border it. The battle was fought in snow from two to four feet in depth. American forces captured Kadish last Monday. There were some casualties, but they were small in comparison to those inflicted upon the enemy.

On Tuesday the Bolshevists opened a terrific fire from three and six inch guns and launched a counter-attack against the Kadish. The Americans were in command of American forces. In the vicinity of Schenkursk, on November 29, Americans were the victors, according to the report. A patrol of sixty American soldiers and two officers was surprised early on September 29, by a force of about 700 Bolshevists. Seven Americans were killed, and seven others were missing after the fight. Today the fighting about Kadish, apparently, had ceased except for spasmodic artillery action. The headquarters report said: "The situation is unchanged in all sectors."

FATHER AND SON FROM ICELAND

Are Here on Business Trip, Being Connected With the Fishing Industry—Talk Interestingly Regarding Their Homeland.

M. Blondal and S. Blondal, father and son, both of Reykjavik, Iceland, are in the city guests at the Royal Hotel.

When seen at the hotel last evening the elder gentleman, who possesses a fair knowledge of English, stated that he recently reached New York direct from Iceland.

The younger man possesses a fine education and is quite fluent in the English language. He left Iceland in the early part of 1918 and landed in Halifax last May.

Both stated that their visit in the city was strictly of a business character, they owning a fishing trawler at Canoe, N.S., and were engaged in the fishing trade on a commission basis for a central Canadian firm. Today they would meet J. R. Brittain, Montreal manager of the Maritime Fishing Corporation, and H. T. Robinson, Canoe manager of the Canoe branch of the Maritime Corporation.

They report the fishing trade in the past year to be most successful, especially that trade in cod and herring. Speaking of the fishing trade they made mention of the same trade in Iceland, and added, "Blondal, the people of this continent believe we are an isolated and backward people. This is not the fact, and assuredly, we never have the same amount of snow in Iceland as is experienced in Canada, to the contrary the climate is invigorating and most healthful, and anyone visiting our country would be agreeably surprised in climatic conditions."

Former German Chancellor Was Considered Most Learned Man of All the Men Called to Chancellorship—Long in German Political Life.

Copenhagen, Jan. 5. (Associated Press)—Count Geo. F. von Hertling, the former imperial German chancellor, died Saturday night at Rumpold, Bavaria. He had been ill for six days. Count Geo. F. von Hertling was considered the most learned man of all the men called to the chancellorship of Germany since 1871. He had won for himself a scholar's reputation before he entered political life, and up to 1912, when he became Bavaria's minister-president, he had combined educational and literary work with his political activities. Von Hertling was appointed imperial German chancellor in October, 1917, succeeding Dr. Georg Michaelis. He resigned in the fall of last year, and the then Emperor William conferred upon him the order of the Black Eagle and his warm thanks for the "self-sacrificing faithfulness" with which von Hertling had served the country. Von Hertling was born in August, 1843, in Darmstadt.

SEMI-READY PEACE BENEFIT.

Mr. Fraser, of the Semi-Ready Tailoring Store, on Germain street, says that he has inaugurated a Peace Benefit Sale as a protest against the high price of cloth. Even since the armistice there has been a substantial increase in the cost of cloth, and the Semi-Ready Company have agreed with their stores all over Canada that the victorious price reductions should be made despite this advance. "If we can do a small share towards starting a downward trend in values we will be eminently satisfied," said the president of the company, in writing to Mr. Fraser. "We are selling today at less than what we can reproduce the cloth for, less than the manufacturer's cost of today—and you know that our label represents the lowest margin between cost and customer's price. No clothing is sold in the world at a closer margin of profit. We had to establish this policy in the first fight for recognition among tailors, and we have found that the larger volume of trade which semi-ready tailoring brings has helped to maintain that policy," concluded Mr. Fraser.

Soldiers Home Coming Campaign War Work and After-War Work of the SALVATION ARMY "FIRST TO SERVE—LAST TO APPEAL" If one institution in the Empire was prepared for war, it was the Salvation Army. For fifty-three years it has been relieving distress wherever and whenever the need arose. The Salvation Army has always been organized on a military basis—inured to hardship, sacrifice and service. It is always in action, day and night. When the War came, intensifying human suffering and the need for bodily and spiritual help in a thousand ways, the Salvation Army was ready. The twelfth day of the war found the Salvation Army at work behind the lines in Belgium. It has maintained 197 huts, 96 hostels and 40 rest rooms; 1,200 uniformed workers and 45 ambulances have been in service at the front—in addition to taking care of the needs of soldiers' families here at home, assisting the widows and orphans, and relieving distress arising from the absence of the soldier head of the family. Hostilities have ceased, leaving vast and complex problems, and these problems arise notwithstanding all the Reparation work the Government has undertaken, in addition to the granting of pensions. Above and beyond what other agencies are accomplishing, there are thousands of cases of urgent human need among soldiers' families that the Salvation Army is trained and equipped to meet—provided the financial help is forthcoming. Hence—

The Salvation Army Million Dollar Fund JANUARY 19th to 25th

While it could do so, the Salvation Army has carried on without any general appeal. Now the crisis has arisen, because our three hundred thousand soldier boys are returning. The budget for essential work during the coming year has been prepared. A million dollars must be raised to continue the after-the-war activities, which include:

- Hostels for Soldiers: Salvation Army hostels are vitally necessary for the protection and comfort of the soldier at the many stopping places between France and his home here in Canada. These hostels—or military hotels—provide good food, clean beds, wholesome entertainment at a price the soldier can afford to pay. In addition to hostels already in operation, many more are needed near stations and landing places, from Paris, through London, Halifax, St. John, right through Canada to Vancouver. If the boys do not have the hostels, WHERE would they go?
Keeping the Family Unit Intact—Home Visitation: The women of the Salvation Army on their visiting rounds accomplish the apparently impossible. Is the discharged soldier out of a job? They find him one. Is the wife sick, the home-work piling up—are the children neglected? They nurse the wife, mother the children, wash and scrub. Is there need for food, fuel, clothes or medicine? They are supplied. Influence is brought to bear to guide the older children. Whatever can be done to keep the home intact, is joyfully done in the true spirit of the Master.
When the Soldier Needs a Friend: As long as a Canadian soldier needs the comforts the Salvation Army can offer, he will find them available. The Salvation Army Lassie will be there with the hot coffee, the pies, chocolate, magazines, writing materials, and always the spiritual comfort for which the boys feel the need over there. The Salvation Army Lassies have heard and carried out the last wishes of many a man who has made the supreme sacrifice. Until the last homeward-bound soldier is happily re-established in civil life, will you not help the Salvation Army to combat the discomforts and evils that beset his path?
Care of the Wives, Widows, Dependents and Orphans of Soldiers: Scores, and hundreds, of cases could be cited where soldiers overseas have been comforted by the assurance that the Salvation Army had stepped in to relieve their families from dire need. For instance, a mother with six children is discovered—no fuel, weather freezing, food and funds exhausted by sickness and other troubles. They are taken to the Salvation Army Emergency Receiving Home for a few days until their home is made habitable once more. Widow of soldier sends for help: Salvation Army workers cope with immediate necessity—send mother to Maternity Home, three children to Emergency Home. Winter and 300,000 boys returning increase the demands on the Salvation Army, whose personal help alone is of avail.

The service of the Salvation Army, founded on sacrifice, demonstrates the true Christian spirit. It is directed to the extension of the Kingdom of Christ. For two generations the Salvation Army has stood out and out for God. It approaches practical problems in a practical way and achieves results. It co-operates with all—overlaps none. It recognizes neither color, race, nor creed. No organization does greater work at less cost. To carry on its great work among the 300,000 returning soldiers and their families, it must have financial help. On its behalf members of the Dominion Government, business men, and returned soldiers endorse this appeal for funds.

LORD BEAVERBROOK.

SCHOOL FINANCES.

The Board of School Trustees of the City of St. John will apply to the Legislature at the approaching session for a further increase in their assessment.

The last application made by the Trustees for a similar advance of $50,000, but this was opposed by the City and a compromise...

Yet, even while engaged in these various imperial undertakings, Lord Beaverbrook has perhaps been the most brilliant of Canada's ever had...

In the spring of 1915 he was appointed Canadian Representative in France, and Military Eye-Witness with Lieutenant General Alderson at headquarters of the First Canadian Division...

At another time, as Canadian Representative, his office was with General Headquarters at St. Omer. In the winter of 1915-1916 he organized the Canadian War Records Office in London...

It has purchased such historical pictures as were available in London, having been appointed officer in charge. This institution has become one of the greatest of its kind in the world...

By means of these exhibitions and by the literature which has been sent out through the War Records Office, Canada has secured throughout Britain such advertising as money could not buy under other circumstances.

During the early days of the war an old reservist sergeant was out on musketry exercise, range finding, etc., with a new batch of recruits, and pointing out a large house, and giving the range, he inquired if any of them could pick out any details about the house. "Oh, yes," answered one man, promptly. "There's a small well in the garden, some lumps of coal in a heap, and a bird cage in the front window." "Well," said the sergeant, "you have remarkable eyesight. What's your name and number? How do you come to see so well at that distance?" "Oh," calmly replied the recruit, "that happens to be where I'm billeted."

FOR AND ABOUT WOMEN

Let's Talk It Over

What Marguerite Sees and Hears. That the slush through which we have to wade Friday and Saturday was hard enough upon strong, well-to-do people, but almost caused a termination of the career of several victims of the "flu."

That pearl neck chains hanging just below the yoke length are the very last word in decoration.

That African brown is having a revival of favor and entire costumes are seen of this shade.

That according to the society columns entertaining is being taken up again with enthusiasm and particularly by the scholars home from schools and colleges are being given a good time in their holidays, which is quite as it should be.

That when a reporter on a paper was asked not to mention the name of a certain person as being in the city one felt sufficiently impressed with the importance of the above-mentioned official.

That a criticism of a recent motion picture was "outside of three automobiles and six telephone poles 'Davy Crockett' is true to atmosphere."

That mere women wonder, when the emphasis is laid on the women and children's duty to buy thrift stamps, if the men of the family are going to give up a few packages of cigarettes or other little expenditures to help government pay for the war.

That four elephants performing in Winnipeg at a vaudeville house, broke away from their keepers and paraded the town "on their own," one visiting the General Public Hospital and giving the patients the scare of their lives.

That a policeman testified before a magistrate regarding the sanity of a prisoner: "He's crazy, your honor. I know that because he's standing on the corner assassin's wife."

That the magistrate said: "But that doesn't prove him crazy." Whereupon the policeman answered: "His wife wants there your honor."

That the very funniest thing Marguerite sees and hears are the ones she can't write or tell.

TWENTY-SEVEN ARE REINSTATED

Nearly All of Dismissed Policemen Are Back on Their Beats — New Chief to be Suggested by Com. Thornton.

Last evening it was reported that twenty-seven of the former dismissed policemen have been reinstated. Four were to be reinstated, but it was believed that three of this number had obtained positions in other lines of employment and only one more would report for duty. Relative to the men taken on the force after the dismissal of the policemen, it was hinted that nearly all of these would seek employment elsewhere, some of them having already handed in their resignations, and some having vacated their positions without resigning. Referring to who might be the new chief, the supervisor to ex-Chief Simpson, it is said the matter will be with the common council, who will act on the suggestion of the new commissioner of public safety.

A THOUGHT FOR TODAY

"She made him happy!" through the long, sad years. The mother toiled and never stopped to rest. Until they crossed her hands upon her breast. And closed her eyes, no longer dim with tears. The simple record that she left behind was greater than the soldier's, to my mind. —Henry Coyle.

SPORTING GOSSIP

CANADIENS WON FROM OTTAWA

The Score Was Five to Two and Exhibition Was Best Witnessed in Montreal in Several Years.

Montreal, Que., Jan. 5.—Showing superior stamina and shooting ability at almost all stages of the play, the Canadiens defeated Ottawa at the final twenty minutes, night in a National Hockey League exhibition by a score of 5 to 2. The exhibition was the best witnessed in a local rink in several years, and the fast pace that was started by the visitors benefited the winners and told against Ottawa's in the closing moments. Canadiens showed vast improvement over their previous matches this season, and were on the aggressive throughout the play.

Joe Malone and Corbeau, who were late in breaking into the game this season, have rounded into form and showed to advantage.

Although beaten, Ottawa never let up in the race until the fast pace that their opponents, who even scored while they were playing five men against Ottawa's six, owing to a penalty to Joe Hall, Ottawa tossed away chance after chance to score, while the locals accepted every opportunity.

The play was over a keen sheet of ice, which enabled the fast pace that the work of both Benedict and Vesina was brilliant.

With one exception the play was free from roughness. Joe Hall was the great offender. On several occasions he tried to aggravate Neighbor until the referee intervened, when he rushed across the ice and jammed Neighbor into the boards, at the same time slashing at him. Referee Maritz allowed the play to continue.

Knowing that a victory for Ottawa would give them a strong lead in the race, Canadiens scored Ottawa on to the defence after the first few minutes and then allowed them to wear themselves down in carrying the puck. After the great start, the first goal period had passed Lalonde took a pack and started a combination with Corbeau. The latter shot and on the race, Canadiens scored Ottawa on to the defence after the first few minutes and then allowed them to wear themselves down in carrying the puck.

Among the organizations operating among the troops, both at home and abroad, to improve their social condition and ameliorate the hardships of the war, the Salvation Army is in the field, and it is the last to an appeal for public donations.

This organization, which operates sixty-three countries and speaks languages, is launching a campaign to raise throughout the Dominion million dollars to carry on the among the troops and to help them back into civil employment has adopted the slogan "First to Last Appeal," referring to the fact that the Salvation Army officers and soldiers in Belgium the heels of Lord French's army, on the 18th day of August, just eighteen days after the declaration of war, and has stayed with them till the last without asking a cent to make a special donation the expenses of the campaign.

The Canadian public, who have asked to give a million dollars for the Salvation Army's war and reconstruction work, is entitled to know the details of the Army's direct monetary assistance. In the first the Army has spent $2,000,000 in activities. Here is a summary of operations of the Army directly connected with the war:—

Forty rest rooms, equipped with papers, magazines, writing materials. These are for the use of soldiers.

Forty-five motor ambulances, France, manned by Salvationists.

Ninety-six hostels for use of soldiers and sailors. These are located in France, England and Canada.

"Nothing could more fully mark historic connection of this city America; nothing could better that great self-sacrificing compliance to the Civil War which Americans never forget, when the Lancashire natives were content to go to America might be united free."

The Guardian states that the statue to Manchester was made by Charles P. Taft, of Cincinnati.

ARMY SPENT TWO MILLIONS IN MANY WAR ACTIVITIES

But Has Never Made an Appeal for Help — Operated 197 Huts and Ninety-six Hostels, While Many War Widows and Orphans Are Being Cared for.

Among the organizations operating, among the troops, both at home and abroad, to improve their social condition and ameliorate the hardships of war, the Salvation Army was the first in the field, and it is the last to make an appeal for public donations.

One hundred and ninety-seven huts at soldiers' camps. These are used for religious and social gatherings, and at these huts the fighting men are able to buy what extras they require in the nature of "casts" at the very lowest rates.

Two hundred and ninety-eight war orphans cared for.

Seven hundred and sixty-one Salvation Army officers and members devote their whole time to work at the front.

Twenty-one hundred war widows in the care of the Army.

Five thousand three hundred and seventeen beds in hostels close to railway stations and port landings for the soldiers and sailors going to and returning from the front.

Fifty thousand Salvation Army officers and members fighting with the Allied armies.

One hundred thousand parcels of food and clothing distributed among soldiers and sailors.

One hundred thousand wounded soldiers taken from battlefields in Salvation Army ambulances.

Three hundred thousand soldiers and sailors daily attend Salvation Army huts.

These are but a few of the things that are seen and recorded. There are many other activities which count for the Salvation Army, but which cannot be put down in statistical form. For instance, many soldiers can tell us of some favor, some blessing, some advice that they have received at the hands of the soldiers enlisted under the Blood-and-Fire Banner of the Army. It is a wonderful story of sacrifices and heroisms. This boys have told us about it in their letters home. The deeds of the Salvation Army are well known and appreciated.

In getting the boys back to civil life the Salvation Army has much work to do. It will help many a discouraged man onward and upward in the struggle for existence, but to do the work that will be open to do, a vast amount of money will be required. One million dollars will not be too much.

BARNARD STATUE FOR MANCHESTER

Guardian Expresses Satisfaction at Proposed Bestowal of Lincoln Memorial.

London, Jan. 4.—(Reuter)—Commenting on the report that George Grey Barnard's statue of Lincoln has been offered to the city of Manchester, the Manchester Guardian says: "The Barnard statue is anything but conventional, and to those accustomed to the sentimentalism which marks most of the statues in our squares and buildings, it comes as something of a shock. Rather than refine one feature of a man who was rough hewn in every limb and lineament, the sculptor almost fiercely tarporated the clumsiness and clapperton of Lincoln's figure, as though to say, Here is a man who needs no sentimental treatment."

"If the statue comes, as we hope and believe it will, to Manchester, it will be one of the few in the city of first-rate interest to all who care for sincerity in art, and will be an object for pilgrimage by Americans for all time to come."

"Nothing could more fittingly mark the historic connection of this city with America; nothing could better recall that great self-sacrificing compliment to the Civil War which Americans will never forget, when the Lancashire operatives were content to go hungry that America might be united and free."

The Guardian states that the offer of the statue to Manchester was made by Charles P. Tatt, of Cincinnati.

LONG REACH

Long Reach, Jan. 3.—A reception was held in Victoria Hall, Long Reach, Jan. 1st, 1919, in honor of Frederick Porter, one of our returned heroes, who enlisted in the early fall of 1914. When war was declared he went overseas with the First Canadian Contingent and has been in the heaviest of the fighting ever since and just returned home shortly before Christmas.

Victoria Hall was very prettily decorated for the occasion, named with evergreen and flags. A handsome gold watch, chain and locket were presented to Mr. Porter by Lieut. Col. O. W. Wetmore in behalf of those present. Mr. Porter rose to the occasion and thanked the people very kindly. Speeches were also made by Col. Wetmore and Capt. E. P. Fullerton.

The gathering broke up about 10:30 by singing the National Anthem.

A SLUGGISH LIVER CAUSED SEVERE HEADACHES

The duty of the liver is to prepare and secrete bile and serve as a filter to the blood, cleansing it of all impurities and poisons.

Healthy bile in sufficient quantity is Nature's provision to secure regular action of the bowels, and when the liver is sluggish it is not working properly, and does not manufacture enough bile to thoroughly act on the bowels and carry off the waste products from the system, hence the bowels become clogged up, the bile gets into the blood, constipation sets in, followed by sick and bilious headaches, coated tongue, bad breath, heartburn, water brash, bad taste in the mouth in the morning, jaundice, floating specks before the eyes, etc.

Miss Dian Clark, Myer's Creek, Ont., writes:—"I take pleasure in writing you concerning the good I have received by using Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills for a sluggish liver. When my liver got bad I would have severe headaches, but I got better after I had used a couple of vials of your pills."

Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills gently unlock the secretion, clear away all waste and effete matter by acting directly on the liver, and make the bile pass through the bowels instead of allowing it to get into the blood.

Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills are 25c a vial at all dealers, or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

DESTROYED MANY SUBMARINES

Over Two Hundred German Undersea Craft Destroyed or Captured—Surrender of Subs Not Yet Completed.

London, Jan. 4.—(British Wireless Service)—The Allies destroyed or captured 202 German submarines during the war. In addition to these, four hundred German submarines were destroyed by the Germans themselves—ten in the Atlantic, four off Flincaux. Seven others were interned in neutral countries.

The surrender of German submarines is not yet complete; the number already brought into British ports is 122. There are at least 58 still to be surrendered. The Germans are still busily engaged in building submarines. The Allies are making no objection to this, for all the boats will be at the disposal of the Allies when completed.

German surface warships, actually brought into British ports, were less by one battleship than stipulated in the armistice terms. The reason for this is that neither the Saxton nor the Mackensen has been completed by the German yards. The German battleship Baden is to be handed over instead. She will leave German waters for Scapa Flow within a week.

NEWCASTLE

Newcastle, Jan. 1.—The Town Council met in special session last night, Mayor Troy in the chair. Aldermen present: R. W. Crocker, D. P. Doyle, John Russell, A. J. Ritchie and H. H. Stuart.

On recommendation of appointment to office committee—Ald. J. Russell, Ritchie and Crocker—Wm. Gifford, Jr. returned soldier was appointed night policeman to take the place of Edward Walsh, whose resignation took effect last night.

D. Cohen of Montreal, was granted license to trade in horses here for $50 a year.

The mayor with power to select additional members from day to day, was appointed a committee for the reception of returned soldiers.

The Water and Light Committee submitted the report of Engineer McKechnie on the feasibility of sites for a dam for power purposes.

Ald. Crocker and Doyle were appointed a Committee to compile all information available re this proposition and report the same to the ratepayers.

The report recommends building of the power dam at the Square Forks of the Levoige, about 28 miles from town or preferably at Levidier's Landing, below the Forks, about 26 miles from Newcastle. In either place a good dam site is obtainable.

As fishing rights and lumbering operations will be somewhat affected by the erection of a dam, it will be necessary to provide a satisfactory fishway over the dam, and perhaps, special provision for chating logs.

It will be necessary to obtain: 1—Permission to erect dam at site chosen. 2—Permission to flood land above dam. 3—Right to clear 20 foot right of way for transmission line. 4—Right to erect poles and run transmission line at side of public highway. 5—Information as to what power can be sold at Redbank, Douglastown and other neighboring places.

Our estimate includes: 1—Power dam, with fishway, 2—Power house, 3—Hydraulic and electrical equipment, 4—Transformers and transmission line, 5—Clearing for transmission line, 6—Complete engineering supervision.

We advise that provision be made for the installation of two units of 225 H.P. each, one unit being installed at once and the second when it is needed. Our estimate has been based on the basis, as follows: 1—Power available at Newcastle, 2—Foot dam, 342 H.P. for the 24 hours, 3—Estimated cost of development, exclusive of land and rights, $200,000.

FIRE DESTROYS PLANT

Kearny, N.J., Jan. 4.—Fire today destroyed the fertilizer building at the plant of Swift & Company, near Newark, located in the Kearny Meadows. The loss is estimated at $200,000.

HOW THIS NERVOUS WOMAN GOT WELL

Told by Herself. Her Sincerity Should Convince Others.

Christopher, Ill.—"For four years I suffered from irregularities, weakness, nervousness, and was in a run down condition. Two of our best doctors failed to do me any good. I heard so much about what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound had done for others, I tried it and was cured. I am no longer nervous, an regular, and in excellent health. I believe the Compound will cure any female trouble."—Mrs. ALICE HILLAS, Christopher, Ill.

Nervousness is often a symptom of weakness or some functional derangement, which may be overcome by the famous root and herb remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, as thousands of women have found by experience.

If complications exist, write Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass., for suggestions in regard to your ailment. The result of its long experience is at your service.

ADDRESSED THE EXPRESS MEN

M. C. Lockhart, Grand Organizer of C. B. and R. E. With Others Talked to the Express Employees Yesterday.

Among the visitors in the city is M. C. Lockhart, Halifax grand organizer of the Canadian Brotherhood of Railway Employees. Mr. Lockhart's mission in this city is relative to business connected with the organization which he is organizing for.

He has in his possession a copy of the schedule governing the Canadian Northern Express employees for the year 1919.

This schedule which he has at hand has nothing in common with the McAdoo award, stated Mr. Lockhart.

"These increases in this schedule have nothing to do with the McAdoo award as the War Board at Ottawa claimed they have no jurisdiction over express companies."

Consequently it is a measure solely brought about by the Canadian Brotherhood of Railway Employees.

The increases in this schedule are on a par with the McAdoo schedule and in some instances far above for the same class of labor. The minimum for any employee going to work for the Canadian Northern Express Company is $87.50 per month for an eight hour day with straight time for the next two hours, and time and a half for all holidays and Sundays.

For a messenger on the road the minimum is $135 on a bulge basis, and all overtime at the rate of twenty times per hour after five thousand miles per month.

All employees have two weeks' holidays over time and a half after one year's service with the company.

Mr. Lockhart had the pleasure of addressing the local division of express employees yesterday afternoon in the C. M. B. A. hall, Union street. President Gibbs presided at the session which was most successful in every feature.

Grand President A. R. Mosher, Halifax, now in the city was present at the meeting and gave a short address to the men which was well received. C. E. Cole, general chairman of the C. B. and R. E., was present and gave a short address. All the speakers were well received and the employees of the Dominion Express Company are quite satisfied with the explanations given by the different speakers.

Mr. Lockhart remains in the city for a time organizing this section of the province.

SERVICE IN MEMORY OF FALLEN MEMBERS

Impressive Sermon in Douglas Avenue Christian Church Yesterday—Pictures of the Brave Heroes Shown in Church.

A memorial service was held yesterday in the Douglas Avenue Christian Church in commemoration of the brave members who have fallen during the war. In connection with the service three special selections were given by the choir, and afterwards a male duet rendered a favored hymn.

The pastor dwelt for a time on the characteristics of the fallen members and chose as his subject, "Greater love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends."

The pictures of the following deceased members who have been killed in the war or from its effects were exposed in a frame in front of the pulpit:

Archibald Estey, one of the dead heroes, enlisted when only sixteen years of age, going across with the 10th, came through everything in the war zone and finally contracted influenza and died.

Walter Vanaskirk was gassed and shell shocked, returned to Canada and died a short time ago in the city.

The fate of Lester Titus is unknown as he was reported missing a long time ago and no official word has ever been received relative to his whereabouts; he is presumably killed.

John Leary never knew pain as an official war hero to his relatives that he was killed outright in action.

Daniel Oram, Fred Buckley and Clifford Davidson were the other members of the church who have nobly died for a noble cause.

I. L. AND B. DRIVE IS SUCCESSFUL

President Stafford of the Irish Literary and Bepevolent Society stated yesterday that the drive of the society for new members was meeting with genuine success in every feature. Already fifty-five new members have been added to the society, and every day sees the advent of many more into the realm of the society.

The activities in the different sport lines of the society are moving along with a bound, there being some decided interest now taken in the "Domino contest" in which rest two members, who are tied for first place. The contest will close in the near future looking now as though the final results rest with the two.

With the staging of the play "Within the Law" and other proposed winter activities, it now appears as though future members of the society will be granted various and diverse amusements.

MIX-UP IN THE FIRE ALARMS

The firemen were given a run about one o'clock this morning for a slight fire which originated in a mattress in room 18 of the Park Hotel. It is claimed that a citizen pulled the hook of box 78 on the corner of Charlotte street and King Square, and hearing no alarm he rushed to box 3 on Union street. The alarm from box 3 had hardly finished when 78 followed, and the fire was extinguished. The other 4 not only brought extra apparatus from the North End but led the citizens to believe there was a serious conflagration. Other than some smoke and the destruction of the mattress the damage was slight.

SPECIAL MEMORIAL SERVICE WAS HELD

Impressive Service to Memory of Charles H. Williams in St. Mary's Church Last Evening—Was Leader of the Band.

A special memorial service was held in St. Mary's church last night in honor of the memory of Charles H. Williams, late instructor of St. Mary's band, who made the supreme sacrifice October last at Cambrai.

Bandmaster Williams crossed to England in the master of the 140th Band, and later crossed to France at the head of the famous Princess Patricia Band, and was with that unit through many of the fiercest fights and vicissitudes. He was in most of the important Canadian engagements and died just a short time before the cessation of hostilities from wounds received while rescuing his comrades and stranger from an exposed position.

The services were conducted by the Rev. R. McKim, rector of St. Mary's, and the organ was provided by the orchestra of which Bandmaster Williams was a former leader.

During the service a letter from Archbishop V. O. Raynaud, formerly rector of St. Mary's, now of Toronto, was read in which sympathy was given to the remains members of the family, the most dear brother Harold on active service in France, and Edith, a nursing sister at the front who was with her brother Charles when he died. Archbishop Raynaud wrote that Christ had said "Greater Love Hath No Man Than This, That a Man Lay Down His Life for his Friends."

It was announced that the old members of St. Mary's Band intend to inaugurate a brass memorial in the church in honor of their late master.

At the close of the service the organ was played by the band, very impressively. Deacons Stoford and Saul, and Buglers Clarke and Stoford sounded the Last Post.

A very large audience was present, on whom the service made a deep impression.

SPECIAL MASSES TO BE CELEBRATED

Today "The Feast of the Epiphany" in the Catholic world, will be commemorated as such by fitting services in every known church of the Globe. In the city special masses will mark the activities for the day, and the evening services will be of a special nature.

At the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception four masses will be celebrated as follows: six, eight, nine and ten o'clock respectively. The last mass will be the high mass of the day. The early mass will grant opportunity to workmen to attend services before commencing their duties.

In the other Catholic churches of the city the day will be fittingly observed by special services. As is the custom, today is a holy day of obligation in the Catholic world.

ONLY ONE OF FOUR BROTHERS RETURN

Gunner W. H. Englehart Arrived Saturday After Fighting in Many Battles—His Three Brothers Paid the Sacrifice.

Two full years behind a Victoria machine gun, with Hill 70, Vimy, Lens and Passchendaele as a background, has been the experience of Gunner W. H. Englehart, of the 5th West Canadian Rifles. When war broke out there were four boys in the Englehart family, living in a small town in Saskatchewan. The following year saw all the boys in the service, and in the early months of 1916 they were in the trenches.

Only one is returning home, the other three sleep beneath Canadian crosses over there, and Harry, the lone survivor, is bearing home with him scars on his side and legs, a maimed hand, and memories that keep him awake at nights.

After leaving eight bunkmates killed, one after the other, Englehart took as his "buddy" a sanitary fete man named McLeod, who was considered too old for front line service. "Mac," as he was called, was not satisfied with his fatigues detail and was always wanting a chance to direct a gun at the boss. And eventually he got his chance, many of them saw "Mac" into the line, Harry, he would see each time to Englehart, and he took as much joy in the front line as a boy at a picnic. But one day he did not seem so cheerful, he did not speak to his mate on the hike to the line. That day a German shell blew up the trench, and when he was able to crawl around he came across Mac, but he was still interested in the game, and he managed to sit up, putting his hands on the ground behind him and pushing his head up an inch or two to look around. This he did once, and on the second time a bullet from a watching German caught him right under his steel helmet.

But the German paid the price. He too, was dead five minutes afterwards.

Englehart was sent out one night with a visiting party, when the 5th was in front of Lens. He started out at twelve o'clock, crawling on his hands and knees over No Man's Land towards Fritzie land, his first objective being a clump of bushes which he had noticed during the day. Skirting the bushes and crawling on all fours his hand suddenly came in contact with a foot. Surprised, he challenged the party, but got no reply. Approaching nearer, ready for all emergencies, he found the foot was that of a German sniper, his rifle in position, but his body cold and stiff, killed that day while he was picking off some of the boys from the western ground.

At Vimy, after the Lone Tree scrap, Englehart was on duty cleaning dugouts in a support trench, and came on a German soldier who by any matter of means could not hold his own than one man, and he would have a mate, saw a German airplane coming with the machine gun popping, headed right over the line. The two made for the dugout at the same time, and both of them were killed. It was one of the "closest quarters" the gunner was ever in.

Englehart arrived on the Tunisian front, and left the coast on Monday, Saturday, and got to the front for home. Though glad to be back it is a sad home-coming, for his three brothers are ever of the days over there and the graves that contain all the other boys of the family.

MUSIC LOVERS' LAST CHANCE

By request from many musical lovers in the city, Mary Desmond, the noted soprano, will be appearing at the Opera House, will sing as one of her numbers this afternoon and evening, an aria from "Samson and Delilah" which will be Mary Desmond's last appearance in the city. If you enjoy real good music, go and hear her—it is a treat that comes but seldom.

Today is the last opportunity to enjoy the splendid vaudeville program being given at the Opera House, with Mary Desmond, the noted English contralto soloist, in some special request numbers; four other good features and the arrival of the Women's program. This afternoon at 7:30, evening at 7:30 and 9.

Commencing tomorrow afternoon there will be an entire change of program, the new features including the celebrated Manon Four, a quartette of Grand Opera singers in a high class vocal feature; Watson's Comedy Dog Circus; Henry Myers, funny man; The Renzettes in sensational feats of juggling; Field Barnes, xylophone soloist; and good comedy picture. This program opens tomorrow afternoon and continues to Thursday evening.

ONE MATINEE IMPERIAL TODAY

Because of P. A. McKenna's moving picture war lecture at the Imperial 4 o'clock this afternoon under the auspices of the Women's Canadian Club, the Imperial's own programme will be shown but once, namely from 2 to 4. With Sir Johnston Forbes-Robertson and all the famed players of Great Britain in the cast, this should attract many of the lecture patrons to the preceding programme as well. Signor Guarino will sing and the arrival of Canadians in Siberia will be an added feature. The English picture will commence at 2.45.

HAD NARROW ESCAPE

A heavy slide of snow and ice crashed down the sidewalk from the roof of J. S. Gregory's house on Main street Saturday and a citizen who was walking on the sidewalk had a narrow escape from being buried under a narrow mass. The only damage caused was the breaking of the telephone wires.

Good tea on Victoria Bank every afternoon and evening. Ring every night and Saturday afternoon.
