THE RAILWAY.—We are happy to state that the survey and course of levels completed a few weeks since on the line of Railroad, under the direction of F. Neale, Esq., the chief engineer, are In the course of a short time we shall be able to

The New Brunswick says:— THE LECTURE SEASON: the 'Mechanics' Institute will commence the first week in December. It is expected that Professor Johnston will deliver the opening address, as the Directors have invited him to do so, and if the learned gentleman's engagements will permit, the invitation will be complied with.

The Methodist in England have determined to erect a college in one of the most vicious and destitute portions of London for gratuitous education of the poor, in which cause the Wesleyan Methodists have for some years past been extremely active.

AMATEUR BAND.—Mr. R. Foster the instructor and leader of the St. Andrews Am.
Band, having terminated his engagement, is about to leave for St. John, we deem it but justice to that gentleman to state, that the progress the Band have made under his tuition, and the respectability of their performances, have met with the approbation of the public. Mr. F. carries with him most respectable testimonials and we have seen highly flattering notices of his ability in the United States papers. We heartily commend him to our musical friends in St. John as a gentleman of acknowledged abilities, and correct, thorough, efficient and accomplished musical teacher.

As a proof of the mildness of the present season compared with last year, the New Brunswick has been furnished, with the following diary:—
