DRURY WINS CHIPPAWA BATTLE IN HOUSE

SIDE LIGHTS AT OTTAWA

By JOHN J. McLELLAN, Advertiser Staff Correspondent.

HOUSE OF COMMONS, Ottawa, April 12.—For the second division in the house the vote was strangely divided. The bulk of the French members split in half on the motion of James S. Woodsworth. Half of them were for the removal of the Northwest Mounted Police to the unorganized districts, and the other half favored leaving them as they are.

The Ontario members voted solidly against the resolution. It is understood today that there was more of principle in their voting than of thought of the police question. The fact that the Winnipeg strike was brought into the debate, and the issues of that famous struggle fought over again with a considerable amount of heat, prejudiced Ontario members and as a consequence they voted against it.

THE Easter recess having been extended a day it is understood at the instance of the western members, the house finds itself when plunging into the work of the week, brought up short by the recess. However, as members may come back from their short holiday with renewed impetus the work of legislating may proceed with greater vigor.

THE older members who have sat through three or more sessions deplore the unsettled state of politics at the present time. Particularly are their depreciations loud and long when a vote such as that on the mounted police is taken.

Then is emphasized the difference between new and old days. To some parties divide so easily is a source of great regret to the older members who were first schooled in politics when the thing was to stand by the party through thick and thin, when a division was tight the members voted with their party, and when the vote was won easily and votes didn't matter one took particular care not to offend by voting different from one's leader.

POTATOES, salmon, and several other varieties of pure food came under discussion tonight, only going to show what a wide range of matters can be discussed in one day by a House of Parliament. One might almost say from soup to fish, and all in one day. It is no wonder that most parliamentarians are lawyers. No one could take part in discussions covering such a wide range of subjects but a lawyer and even they must find themselves at a loss at times.

For instance when the department of agriculture estimates were in hand it was noticeable that many of the Conservatives had no questions to ask because they knew very little about agriculture in the practical sense though they do criticize severely when the department of estimates are in hand.

Such is the way of lawyers and farmers. Now the Progressives were the most critical individuals extant when the department of agriculture estimates were being taken up, but very, very quiet when the estimates for the department of state.

IN the matter of voting, most of the members have, when the crisis arrived, seemed to know their own minds. Divisions have been characterized so far by the members bobbing up and down, all over the place when registering their votes by standing up.

LLOYD GEORGE SEEKS CUT IN LAND FORCES

French Delegates Declare Discussion of Matter At Genoa Impossible.

WOULD RESTORE EUROPE

Experts Present Report On Program To Aid Stricken Powers, Including Russia.

Genoa, April 12.—Prime Minister Lloyd George of Great Britain contemplates an agreement for limitation of land armaments in Europe for a definite period, according to an unverified report, before the adjournment of the present international economic conference here.

"The army holiday," it is thought, would be patterned after the naval holiday arranged at the Washington conference.

The statement of Louis Barthou, head of the French delegation, yesterday, explaining why France cannot discuss disarmament at Genoa, will probably remain the basis of the French attitude on this question, despite the attempts of the Russian delegation and other national groups, to raise the issue.

"This is purely an economic conference," said the French leader last night, again emphasizing France's position, "and we have simply got to stick to our agenda as America did at Washington, otherwise we will get nowhere."

Asked if France would be disposed to discuss disarmament at some later conference, M. Barthou replied: "If I wanted to say the easy, pleasant thing, my answer would be yes; and yet the real answer of France is, we do not know."

"Don't forget that we have before us a great army in Russia, and while Germany certainly is not a menace at present, we have a menace in the potentially great German army of the future."

The report of the allied experts meeting in London relative to the program for the restoration of Russia and the restoration of Europe whereby it is hoped to bring back Europe, including Russia, to healthful prosperity.

This report, marked confidential, was handed today to M. Chicherin, head of the Russian delegation, who asked until Thursday to study the preamble.

Would Restore Europe. It declares that the restoration of Russia depends in great part upon assistance which Russia will be able to obtain from foreign enterprises and capital, but insists that without profound transformation of the actual conditions in Russia, which affect commerce and industry, foreigners will refuse either to resume old enterprises or begin new ones.

Article three declares that the soviet government should accept all damage suffered by foreigners in consequence of the acts or negligence of the soviet government.

Faces Deportation

GEN. GREGORY SEMENOV.

WASHINGTON, April 12.—Hearings before the senate labor committee began today under the direction of Senator Borah, of Idaho, in his effort to bring about deportation of Gen. Semenov, anti-Bolshevik Russian leader, for alleged "butchery" of Allied soldiers in Siberia.

At their regular meeting in the Labor Temple Tuesday night, the members after a thorough discussion passed a resolution instructing their delegates to move at the next regular session of the central party that the two councillors be requested to quit the civic board.

The party claims that Aldermen Ashton and Watkinson, by their recent action in the council, have not fulfilled their obligations. While it was pointed out that one of the latter has already "admitted that he did wrong in failing to support his colleague, Ald. Ashplant," his resignation would demonstrate that he was "big enough to accept the verdict of his supporters."

Favor Another Chance. The resolution was not passed unanimously, there being certain of the gathering who held that the aldermen "be given another chance."

Both councillors are officers of the party, and it was pointed out, after certain discussion, that their resignation from the council, if forthcoming, would not necessarily mean their automatic elimination from the party. Their return to the ranks would be considered a reprimand only.

The basis for the entire proceeding rests upon the fact that they did not support two motions introduced by the third Labor representative on the council, Ald. Henry B. Ashplant, the first, a motion to collect school taxes from East London industries, and the second, an amendment to Mayor Wilson's civic salary reduction.

Want Gas Bill Opposed. During Tuesday's meeting Ald. Ashplant returned from Toronto, where he attended, with the mayor and city solicitor, the private bills committee of the provincial legislature, witnessing the initial passage of the city gas company's bill.

Ald. Ashplant reviewed briefly the action of the members of parliament, following which a resolution was passed asking the U. F. O. and I. L. P. members of the Ontario government to oppose the gas company's bill.

Bill and the Cooper bill as well. Ald. Ashplant, selected to attend the provincial convention of the Independent Labor Party at Hamilton this week, will present both resolutions at the latter gathering.

GRECIAN PRINCESS IS ILL. London, April 12.—The condition of Princess Elizabeth, wife of Crown Prince George of Greece, who is ill with typhoid fever, is causing anxiety, says a Central News dispatch from Athens dated Tuesday. Fever has developed, and the patient has a temperature of between 102 and 104, with some hemorrhages.

Discuss Rendering Plant. The first deputations came in regard to the removal of the rendering works from the east end of the city. The council, by resolution, had instructed the board of health to have the plant closed up or moved. The board of health visited the plant and found it sanitary, according to its reports, and decided not to act. The feature of this deputations' discussion was the charge by a resident that the rendering works were a nuisance.

ASK ALDERMEN TO VACATE CITY COUNCIL SEATS

Independent Labor Party Is After Heads of Ashton and Watkinson.

MUST RETURN TO RANKS

Resolution Asks U. F. O. and I. L. P. Members To Oppose Gas Company's Bill.

As a unit of the London Labor Party, the local branch of the Independent Labor Party, asks that Aldermen Fred Watkinson and John Ashton, two of the three Labor members of the city council, tender their resignations from the latter body.

At their regular meeting in the Labor Temple Tuesday night, the members after a thorough discussion passed a resolution instructing their delegates to move at the next regular session of the central party that the two councillors be requested to quit the civic board.

Coroner's Jury Exonerates Londoners For Child's Death by Train at Ford.

Boy's Body When Struck Was Hurled Along the Ground Against Another Engine.

Windsor, April 12.—A verdict of accidental death, attaching no blame to the train crew, was returned by the coroner's jury at Ford police station Tuesday night investigating the circumstances surrounding the death of 7-year-old George Dragonchuk, Aubin road, Ford.

The boy sustained fatal injuries when struck by a Grand Trunk east-bound train at the foot of Aubin road shortly after 12:40 p.m. on Monday, April 3.

The boy was playing in the vicinity of the tracks when the train struck him. He died six hours after.

John Porteous, London, engineer in charge of the train, said he saw the boy playing behind a pile of railroad ties when the train was about 150 yards distant. Suddenly he ran headlong across the track, but did not get over safely, the north side of the locomotive striking him.

The train was not traveling over 30 miles an hour, the engineer testified. He said that it was impossible for him to avoid striking him. He brought the train to a stop within the length of five cars.

This testimony was corroborated by the fireman, Earl Stevenson, also of London, who added that when the boy was struck his body was hurled along the ground against a west-bound freight train. The body then rolled in between two main line tracks, he said.

Will Fight Attorneys' Efforts To Press Trial Set For May 16.

Special to London Advertiser.

Los Angeles, Cal., April 11.—The United States government took further action today in the county jail tragedy that resulted Sunday in the murder of Herbert R. Cox by Herbert Wilson, former London, Ontario, pastor, and alleged mail truck robber, by arraignment of Frank B. Wilson, a brother of Herbert Wilson, and a female companion, Mrs. Helen Gillespie, before Commissioner Long.

Each were placed under a bond of $25,000, and the date of the preliminary hearing was set for April 19.

The allegations in the complaint, signed by Postoffice Inspector Webster, are that Wilson and Mrs. Gillespie attempted to assist in the delivery of Herbert R. Cox, Herbert Wilson and Eddie O'Brien, federal prisoners in the custody of United States Marshal C. T. Walton, from the Los Angeles county jail on April 9.

Neither of the accused had anything to say when they were arraigned, the woman exhibiting a stoicism that gave Wilson something to emulate.

Wilson was taken into custody immediately following the shooting of Cox, but no formal charge was made against him until yesterday.

The couple was accompanied by Mrs. Jessie Johnson. Both of the women are divorcees and sisters, and live at the Butler apartments, No. 559 San Tee street, where the Wilson brothers made their headquarters, according to testimony in the hands of the government.

Tracks Are So Rough Cans Fall Off Shelves When Street Cars Pass

THE lives of storekeepers on Richmond street, south of Central avenue, are in jeopardy daily, according to Ald. Douglass, which is the reason for his demand that the engineer call upon the London street railway to repair its tracks in that section.

The danger to the storekeepers comes from the fact that the cars, traveling over the rough tracks jar the buildings so much that cans on the shelves are constantly falling about the shops.

The alderman said that pedestrians were also in danger, as the trolley wires were so loose that they shook for a couple of blocks when a car passed. If they fall, someone may be killed.

The engineer will ask the railway to make the repairs.

SAYS ACCOUNTS SYSTEM WRONG

Chairman Smith of Board of Education Will Work For New Procedure.

"One Man" Group Is Description Applied to Audit Committee of Seven.

That the audit committee of the board of education, although comprising seven trustees, is nothing more or less than a "one-man" group is the frank contention of Trustee Edwin Smith, chairman of the board. He states further that he is the "one man," but shoulders responsibility for this circumstance upon a system dating back a number of years.

Discussing the question Wednesday, Mr. Smith explained that directly the board has completed all business respecting this year's estimates, he will move to inaugurate new procedure involving the passing of all accounts for payment to board of education creditors.

When Chairman Smith announced Tuesday that he often authorized the payment of checks before the same were submitted to the audit committee, he seemingly surprised certain of the public school committee, including Trustee (Rev.) Bice, who contends that the "audit committee is one of the largest at the board."

Trustee Harry Hayman, however, concurs with the chairman's claim that the audit is a "one-man" organization despite its numbers.

"The entire system of passing our accounts is totally wrong from the start, and has been so for years and years," explains chairman Smith, "I have been watching this question pretty close, and have determined, once we have dealt with the estimates, to move for a change of procedure in this respect."

"As a matter of fact, I can authorize payment of a check before it goes to the audit committee. Then the latter checks it up, and it comes back to the board, authorized again by them for payment, although the Turn to Page 17, Column 2.

VOTE FOR ROYAL COMMISSION IS 53-33 VICTORY

Longest, Sharpest Debate of Session Lasts Until 2:30 a.m.

WAIVE ANY CLAIM

Ferguson's Offer Refused By Drury, Demanding Confidence Vote.

Toronto, April 12.—The Chippawa power undertaking will be investigated by a royal commission. At 2:30 this morning the Ontario Legislature voted confidence in the Drury government in regard to this question by a majority of twenty, the vote standing 53 to 33.

It was the greatest battle of the session so far, the debate, which at times was characterized by sharp accusations and pointed crossfire, lasted through most of the afternoon and all the evening sitting, with midnight finding the speakers still going strong.

The vote was an expression of confidence on the part of the house that the government would conduct a thorough, efficient and expert investigation into the Chippawa project, and was in amendment to Hon. Howard Ferguson's resolution that a committee of the house probe the charges made in the legislature by Hon. D. Carmichael, the government representative on the hydro commission.

While the amendment itself was simply an expression of confidence in the government in regard to the inquiry, and did not bind the hands of the administration as to the form of inquiry, it followed a statement of the premier that the premier had decided in favor of a royal commission.

Premier E. C. Drury had almost the solid support of the members on his side of the house when the division came, the only exception being W. H. Casselman, U. F. O. for Dundas, and on the other hand the administration obtained six votes among the Liberals, these being Sam Clarke (Northumberland), W. O. Nicholas (Assumption (Waterloo North)), J. M. Govenlock (Huron Centre), Z. Mageau (Sturgeon Falls), R. R. Hall (Perry Sound) and J. Bragg (Durham West). The remainder of the legislature on the opposition side voted against the government.

Of the entire house, which on account of deaths last fall, has 108 members, exclusive of the Speaker, 86 voted, 12 were paired, and the remainder absent.

The premier announced that the scope of the probe would be larger than had previously been understood, and in addition to including an inquiry into the work already completed at Chippawa the commission would be asked to advise the government as to work to be conducted there in the future, and general questions in regard to future policy of the administration and the commission relative to terms of sale of power, development of new power, organization of the commission, and similar questions which may affect this great public ownership enterprise.

The debate ranged over a wide variety of questions, but in the main, the speeches supporting the commission urged that it was the only way to investigate the question with a thoroughness and expediency that was needed, and the only way to keep hydro from becoming a political football.

The supporters of the committee claimed that the members of the Turn to Page 2, Column 6.

"FUNNY WHAT A DIFFERENCE A FEW YEARS MAKE"—IN EASTER BONNETS

MISS 1862. TRACING back to the days of the real old-fashioned girl. She wore an Easter bonnet with wide crown swathed in ostrich feathers. A few flowers peeped through on a brim of black taffeta above and white silk underneath.

MISS 1872. SAUCY, to say the least, was the be-feathered bonnet worn by fair Easter paraders a half century ago. White ostrich plumes cascaded down over a brim just wide enough to cast a shadow over the brow.

MISS 1882. SHE would come to town in her Quaker gown, and bonnet—would the Miss of 1882. Soft straw covered with grey silk and trimmed with shy pink roses. This gave a youthful look and appealed to the youth of that day.

MISS 1892. INTRODUCING the last word in chicness and dash. It prevailed just 30 years ago on Easter morn. 'Twas a sailor bonnet with pert crown and saucy brim. Ostrich feathers drooped far down over the side.

MISS 1902. LIKE the headgear of proud cavaliers was the hat which the early twentieth century girls wore on Easter morn. There was a wide brim of flower embroidered silk and a drooping ostrich feather at the side.

MISS 1912. ONLY ten years ago—yet Miss 1912 peeps at us from a bonnet that would appear very queer in this day. Truly a picture hat, it was exceptionally large with parasol brim of flowered silk and graceful ostrich feathers covering the brim.

MISS 1922. HERE we are, up to date! Ostrich feathers, after a run of 50 years, have passed out. And Milady of the present day steps forth in a unique bonnet of woven straw with clusters of color silk and a dash of ribbon.

circumstances. Our supervisors are at the grounds from 9:30 a.m. until dusk. The only trouble is that, occasionally a few fellows come to the grounds after that hour, take possession of the swings and other paraphernalia, and possibly enact certain damage in the neighborhood. Incidentally the committee has shouldered the expense for making this good.""There has been complaint about breaking windows. The fair board, as an instance, first opposed the use of the Western Fair grounds for fear that the windows would be smashed.
As a matter of fact, less windows have been broken since the supervisors have been in charge than previously."The directors considered among the several committee reports, certain new industrial prospects for London, which are considered of great promise. Definite information as to these is withheld temporarily, however.Passed at the fifth general meeting in Stratford recently of the United Exporters of Western Ontario, the following resolution respecting trade between Canada and the United Kingdom was approved:"Resolved, that the Dominion department of trade and commerce be requested to consider whether representations should not be made immediately to the British government with the purpose of entering into negotiations, which shall have in view examination and analysis of the manufactured products of Great Britain and the manufactured and natural products of Canada, with the object of fostering and directing interchange of trade between these British countries without detriment to their respective established industries."The parade on Ypres Day will form

Roads Committee of Kent County Plans Big Year's Building Program

CHATHAM, April 11.—Provided that the Kent county roads committee is successful in obtaining adequate supplies of road material, approximately thirteen miles of concrete roads will be laid in the county
this year.

W. G. McGeorge, chief of the engineers' department of the county, stated today that plans for the construction work are almost complete and will be in readiness when the weather conditions are such that actual work can be started.

Present plans of the commission
call for the completion of the permanent road from Chatham to Pain-court along the river road and Pain-court road; the paving of the Chatham-Dover townline from the 2nd to the 4th concessions; five miles of pavement to complete the permanent road between Wallaceburg and Dresden, and the completion of the pavement between North Thamesville and Wabash, approximately two and a quarter miles.

seeking to have a five-mile limit on the whole of the north shore.

Mr. Dromgole charges that Ex-Warden N. S. Cornell, of Port Stanley, who went to Toronto last week to lay the claims of the gill fishermen before the department, was a member of the association at the time the ten-mile limit was fixed, and knows the full facts of the case.

At the time the change was made,
Mr. Dromgole said, there were just two gill-net licenses issued west of Port Stanley, and the waters west of Port Stanley were closed for restocking purposes. Absolutely no fishing of any description has even been allowed in that section. In exchange for open-water privileges in the west end of the lake, the gill-netters willingly conceded the ten-mile limit, asked by the pound-netters. There was no trouble at the time and no opposition and Reeve Dromgole expressed surprise at the present attitude adopted by the Port Stanley gill-netters.

MAMMALS FLED SAFELY

Alberta Richest Province in World For Prehistoric Animal Fossils.

CALGARY, Alta., April 10.—Five million years ago the Rock Mountains were pushed up, the huge din-osaur, who had ruled Alberta for many years without challenge, perished, and, lo, the little warm-blooded mammals who, through fear, had existed in concealment since their origin, were able for the first time in their lives to come out into the open and start the long line of evolution which has culminated in the super-animal production, man.
Every page in this wonderful and fascinating story of animal origin in Alberta was unfolded and interpreted to the Canadian Club by Professor P. S. Warren, of the University of Alberta, who delivered an interesting address on "The Animals of Alberta—Past and Present," here recently.

Describes Dinosaurs.
Describing the pre-historic dinosaurs, Prof. Warren said the diplo-doc, which was about 80 feet long and weighing several tons, was the largest of these reptiles. The fact that the reptiles "specialized" in size, and the fact that nature hates anything specialized, caused their extinction, explained the professor.
When the cataclysmic disturbance which attended the upthrusting of the Rocky Mountains occurred, the massive animals, with poor and slow equipment for locomotion, had either to get out of the district or perish—and not being able to get out, they did perish completely, without leaving a descendant to carry on in the scale of evolution. At that same time there were also alligators and tortoises, but these reptiles did not "specialize" in size, and they therefore got out, with the result that there are many members of their species remaining today.

It was at the time of the extinction of the dinosaur that the mammals which are the ancestors of all the animal creation today, first came into their own. These mammals, warm blooded and swift of foot, embodied more speed than any other animal of that day, and they were seldom seen by the larger animals.

Deductions Interest.
Some interesting facts are brought out in studying the trend of evolution which the descendants of these mammals have taken, said the speaker.
For instance, it is hard to believe, but true, that an animal existed in the ancient days embodying the composite characteristics of the camel, deer and pig. The horse at that time was the size of the present dog, and it came from the same source as the rhinoceros.

Man, declared Prof. Warren, represents the very last of the series of evolution that have taken place in the animal world, although he came into being only a few thousand years ago.

Alberta has a right to be proud of her field of fossilized remains of these prehistoric animals, he said. In previous years these remains were removed from the bad lands and taken to all parts of the earth, except to points in Alberta. Fortunately, however, the province has now started a museum of its own. Alberta stands pre-eminent in the production of animal fossils, and there is no greater range of material for evolutionary research in the world than that which exists in this province, he averred.

TO ISSUE CALL TO SEAFORTH PASTOR

Special to London Advertiser.
LISTOWEL, April 11.—At the quarterly official board meeting of the Listowel Methodist Church tonight it was decided to extend an invitation to Rev. E. W. Edwards, M.C., M.A., D.D., of Seel River, to preach at Seel River, who has accepted an invitation to Blenheim. Rev. Edwards served four years in the great war.

World News CUT SHORT

ATHENS, April 11.—Ten more accused of having plotted the assassination of Jean Dragoumis, former Greek minister to Petrograd, on Aug.
14, 1920, have been tried in the court of assizes here. Five found to have had guilty knowledge of the plot have been condemned to life imprisonment. Two others were sentenced to twenty years of detention,
and three were acquitted.

GENEVA, April 11.—As Former Empress Zita of Austria-Hungary has expressed a wish to reside with her children in the Chateau Wartegg,
the property of the Duke of Parma,
situated in Switzerland, the council of ambassadors has requested Switzerland to grant her the necessary permission. The Swiss government is considering the matter, but it is said that before acquiescence is given it will require assurances that Zita will not enter into any intrigues.
Zita has stated that the climate of Madeira does not agree with her and her children.

BUENOS AIRES, April 11.—Advices from Rio de Janeiro, Cape Verde, state that the departure of the Portuguese aviators for the American continent is still uncertain.
They have asked the Brazilian government to keep them informed of atmospheric conditions. Accordingly, the observatories in Northern Brazil are wirelessly observations every four hours and will continue to do so until the flight is resumed.

The Brazilian destroyer Para was sent to Fernando Noronha to assist the aviators. The Portuguese government has ordered the wireless station at Noronha to send the first news of the arrival to Lisbon.

CHEERBOURG, April 11.—The Canadian steamship Mauretania arrived yesterday from New York, having made the trip from the Ambrose Channel Lightship, 3,811 miles, in 5 days, 10 hours and 5 minutes, which is declared to be the fastest time recorded by any transatlantic vessel since the beginning of the war in August, 1914.

LONDON, April 11.—Thomas J.
Macnamara, minister of labor, declared in the House of Commons that under the new unemployment insurance plan £60,000,000 could be paid, if necessary, by June, 1923. Of this amount, he said, the government would furnish £15,000,000, and contributions of employees and employers would furnish the balance.

SOUTHAMPTON, April 11.—"A wonderful people," was Mrs. Asquith's statement to newspapermen as she disembarked from the steamship Mauretania, returning from a lecture tour of Canada and the United States.
Mrs. Asquith declared that she enjoyed every minute she spent abroad,
although she did not contemplate returning. Prohibition, she asserted, was the only fraud she found. She said the prohibition law worked most unfairly between the rich and poor.
When informed that many people expected her to lecture on her experiences, she replied emphatically:
"Well, they will be jolly well disappointed."

Asked if she was going into politics, she replied:
"What is my husband but a politician? He isn't a jackass. I've been in politics all my life. You don't suppose I'm going on the stage, do you?"

TOKIO, April 11.—Viscount Uchida, Japanese foreign minister, in a statement published in the native press, has failed to confirm the report of an agreement at Dairen between representatives of the Far Eastern Republic and Japanese delegates. He admitted that the Siberian problem must be solved promptly.

He declared that if the Japanese troops were withdrawn Japanese residents must necessarily follow. He added that this would work no severe hardship upon them, as they had been doing very little business. The foreign minister was emphatic in his declaration that the Korean frontier should be carefully guarded against Bolshevik attacks.

He gave assurance that Japan would act in concert with the Allies
at the Geneva conference in giving aid to Russia, but said that Japan would demand strict payment of Russia's debts to his country.

BOYS FIND TARGET IN HYDRO LIGHTS

CHATHAM, April 11.—Five boys who used ornamental hydro lights as targets for their sling shots appeared before Magistrate Arnold in the city juvenile court this morning and were reprimanded. The sling shots were confiscated.

Logan Farmer Following Storm Ferries From House To Barn.

MITCHELL, April 11.—Two inches of rain fell in this district from 12 o'clock on Tuesday morning. The River Thames rose to above the high-water mark, and many cellars in town had from six inches to two feet of water in them.
There were threatened washouts of two culverts between Mitchell and Stratford, and conductors received orders to travel at a speed not greater than eight miles an hour over this section of the road.

A number of culverts in Pul-larton Township were washed away, and the big drains in Logan, north of Mitchell, were filled, the water running over the roads. Low-lying fields were like small lakes, and one farmer had to use a rowboat in order to reach his barn.

The Mounted Police.

OTTAWA had a free-for-all vote when the question of retaining the Royal Canadian Mounted Police, better known as the Northwest Mounted Police, in anything but unorganized territories, was under discussion.

The feeling is growing that the Mounted Police belonged to a day that is fast departing. It, indeed, has not departed entirely in some quarters.

There were occasions, even in the settled parts of Western Canada, where their services were useful. It is not so very far back that residents of towns along the main line of the C. P. R. can recall the conduct of some of the harvest excursion parties, as they went through. The town that was fortunate was often one where the train did not stop. It used to be a frequent practice for a party to swoop down out of the train, as it stopped for a change of engines or for some other cause, and make a raid on anything in sight that looked good to eat. Very often produce from gardens, stray poultry, goods from the stores, or anything in sight, would be gathered up and hurried off to the departing train. It was an equally strange thing that the presence of a few Mounted Police changed the whole trend of events.

There are times, and there will be, when their services will be called for in the unorganized sections of the Dominion, and it is well that they should be kept at a point of efficiency to deal with these cases, because this country has no other body of men whose training, strength and endurance can equal the Mounted Police in pursuing over the uncharted wilds of the north those who seek to escape the arm of the law.

Now for the other side. There are undoubtedly more of these men on the force than are required for normal times, even allowing for strange and unexpected happenings. They are a civil, and not a military force, and will not be called out for use in case of strikes, or anything of that nature.

The force is signed on for a three-year term, and if information on hand is correct, there are about six hundred contracts expiring at the first of September. Unless the minister of militia sees fit to renew these contracts, this number will automatically pass from the service of the country, and from very reliable information from the capital it is safe to say these contracts will not be renewed.

Letting Costs Grow.

WHEN THE good housewife goes down to the store and finds out that she has bought a dozen eggs that are not as young, as they used to be, and not as wholesome as they ought to be, she fights the case out with the grocer or the dealer who sold the eggs.

Chances are the average egg-eater or ratepayer, or a combination of the two never stopped to figure out how much money is spent in an official way doing this same thing.

The Dominion government has paid since 1918 the following for egg inspectors' salaries:

1918	$ 3,764.33
1919	4,314.17
1920	6,044.02
1921	5,491.74
	$19,614.26

For traveling expenses the following amounts have been paid:

1918	$ 3,813.88
1919	4,004.75
1920	5,529.49
1921	4,001.18
	$17,349.30

Then, of course, it is necessary to have a staff at Ottawa to see that the inspectors inspect, and to supervise them generally. The expenses of this body are:

1918	$ 3,336.51
1919	3,845.00
1920	3,007.20
1921	3,171.30
	$13,360.01

So that in all we have for the inspection of eggs:

Salaries	$19,614.26
Expenses	17,349.30
Supervision	13,360.01
Total	$50,323.57

The existence of the necessary machinery to carry on this work sets forth in a very plain way a tendency that is seen in many phases of our public life. The people of Canada have been asked to pay in these four years the sum of $50,323.57 in order to find out whether the eggs that were being sold or exported were up to the standard required.

Once a work of this kind is commenced the creation of a clerical department or sub-department seems to follow as night follows day, in order that the work being done shall be checked up and tabulated.

We find the same tendency creeping in to several of our spending bodies. A deputy is created here or there, and then comes a secretary or stenographer, and the machinery for carrying on the work of city councils and school boards are apt to run into the same problem. An official is named to do a certain class of work, and before the rate-payers know why or how, there is the makings of a new department.

THE SEASON OPENS IN THE CITY LEAGUE.

Ottawa can furnish a number of illustrations bearing out the same point, and so can the government at Toronto.

The cure is in driving for simplicity and directness in administration. It is an easy matter to be so efficient that the efficiency will eat its own head off.

Springtime in Chesley.

SOME person is always rising up and taking what little joy there is left out of life.

In Chesley, the chief constable has gone and done the thing right early in the spring, for have we not amputated this item from the Chesley Enterprise:

"All parties owning hens or other fowl must keep them inclosed on their own property, as the owners are liable to be prosecuted according to the bylaw of the town of Chesley.

"CHIEF CONSTABLE."

Thus, we take it, there will be a regular rampage now for the building of hen coops and chicken runs.

We don't know if the good people of Chesley know how to build chicken houses or not. Of course, the proper way is to get a set of plans and specifications from a builder and let tenders after competitive bids. That's the way a government would do the thing, but then the man who runs the finances of a government can go out and sand-bag people in a way that private individuals cannot.

Hence, it is well that we should tell the people in Chesley a few things about building a chicken house. In the first place, a good-sized packing box, torn to pieces and worked into the corner of the lot, where the fence forms two sides of the house, is an excellent start. Some more fortunate people get a piano box, but living in a piano box, especially if the name of the instrument is on the thing, makes the roosters crow too young, and causes the hens to pay too much attention to the noise, taking their mind off the one object of their existence, viz., to grind out eggs. A few laths come in handy for covering over the cracks. These can be secured from any person who happens to be building a new house. The builder won't object to you carrying away a few every time you pass the place, so if you can make enough trips you'll soon have enough of these.

Nails can be secured the same way. Carpenters always have these around, and then it's possible to drop into the hardware store and ask for a sample paint card. It may be possible to pick up a few nails there.

You ought to have a window in the chicken house. It is well to let the rooster know when it is daylight so he can get down off the perch and holler for something to eat. Not much of a trick to get a window. Somebody's probably changing their house around a bit, and will have an odd window. Probably waiting for you to come along and take it away. A broom handle makes a fine roost, and an old lard pail is the proper thing for hens to drink water out of. They lay better when taking their drinks from an old pail where the water stands for three or four days at a time. Then there's a lot of people around who are only too glad to give you an armful of hay to make nests. Finally saw off a couple of door knobs for nest eggs and there you are.

LITTLE 'TISERS

Before the war the world had 45 kings. Today the number is 17.

Why not have all the elections held in the spring when there is enough mud to go around?

We beg to assure a suspicious public that there is no connection whatever between the fact that there is a big coal strike on at present and the publication in this paper of the serial story "If Winter Comes."

The Ontario government is going to tackle the problem of the small town hotel, as some of the travelers have been complaining. What's wrong? As soon as the average diner sits down he proceeds to eat all the soda biscuits and pickles before the game is well under way.

There seems to be difficulty in placing prisoners suffering from disease. Jails do not want them, neither do the penitentiaries. If it is causing such inconvenience to the jail and penitentiary officials and to the government generally why not let these birds go free?

Lloyd George says in the late war the nations of Europe piled their national wealth in a heap and put a match to it. And yet there are people running around with more matches, but the heaps are rather scarce. When the world is all poor

WEATHER—Fair.

Mr. Harry Dean of Thorndale was pleasantly surprised last evening when the young people of the Thorndale Methodist Church gathered at his home to bid farewell to him. A very pleasant evening was spent in playing crokinole and other games of the season, after which an excellent program was furnished. Mr. R. Bedgood filled the chair. Appropriate addresses were rendered by Mr. J. Mossip, Mr. Wm. McCutcheon, Mr. A. Johnson, and others. Music was furnished by Mr. W. Mossip and Miss Dunkin. Mr. W. Carrothers and Mr. F. McCutcheon then came forward and presented Mr. Dean with a beautiful Bible on behalf of the church.

Bro. P. W. Bayless, D.D.G.M., duly installed the officers-elect of City of London Lodge, No. 43, C. O. F. E. the other evening, as follows: P. N. G. Bro. John Parkhouse; N. G. Bro. Jas. Bailey; V. G. Bro. Wm. Bennis; Secretary, Bro. P. W. Bayless; treasurer, Bro. Thos. Cole; L. W. Bro. James Goward; marshal, Bro. T. Blackwell; conductor, Bro. J. Jones; I. G. Bro. George Humphrey; O. G. Bro. H. Terry.

A musical club in connection with the Y. M. C. A. has been organized and named the Banjo, Mandolin, and Guitar Club. Mr. Frank Ware has been chosen president, and Mr. George M. Millar, secretary-treasurer. Miss Jones, of the Conservatory of Music will instruct the members.

The quarterly open meeting of the Froebel Society was held last night at the Wortley road school, a large number of visitors being present. Miss Masgute, director of the Simcoe street kindergarten, read an interesting paper on the life of Froebel, founder of the institution of kindergartens in Germany. During the evening solos were contributed by Misses Evans, Shopland and Moore, and Mr. Simpson, of Askin street Church gave a piano solo. Mr. McQueen of Askin street school congratulated the society upon its progress and upon the success of the entertainment. Mrs. Boomer spoke briefly on the subject of the Order of Victorian Nurses.

The annual meeting of the Meteor Bicycle Club was held last night and the following officers elected for the ensuing year: Honorary president, J. J. Foote; president, W. H. Abbott; vice-president, George Wyatt; secretary, E. Ramsay; treasurer, E. J. Humphrey; chairman of the racing board, A. Goodwin.

1921 $20.00 $2.60
1922 (Improved 30 x 3 1/2) $16.50 $2.50

To-day's Dunlop price for a 30 x 3 1/2 Improved "Traction" Cas-ing (Fabric) is $16.50. Never in the whole history of rubber manufac-turing did a tire boast as many merits.

In 1911 you had to pay $35.25 for a 30 x 3 1/2 "Traction" (Fab-ric) that could not hope to compare in cost-per-mile to you with to-day's "Dunlop."

When you buy a 1922 Dunlop Improved 30 x 3 1/2 "Traction" (Fabric) tire you are buying a very superior article. Our dealer sells you a full size 3 1/2-inch tire—

- With an extra thick tread;
- With heavier side walls and side bars;
- With heavy connected centre bars;
- With more rubber cushion between the plies of fabric;
- With non-skid features that cannot be surpassed;
- With the highest-priced, long staple, combed Egyptian Cotton.

This new "Dunlop" has made a tremendous hit. Before you buy your next tire, ask the dealer to show you this Master Mileage-Maker.

It makes no difference what size tire you use, or what tread you prefer, Dunlop prices are at rock-bottom to-day and Dunlop Quality at Top Form.

What motorist is there who would invest a dollar in one of the many shoddy-built, low-mileage tires, when he can obtain Dunlop "Double-Life," "High-Mileage" Tires for such a small original outlay?

BRIGDEN FIRE LOSS REACHES $60,000

Large Rural Store in Lambton County Swept By Flames At Early Hour.

POSTOFFICE DAMAGED

Two-Story Premises of John Armstrong Company, Limited, Razed To Ground.

Special to London Advertiser.

SARNIA, April 11.—Fire early this morning completely destroyed the large general store of the John Armstrong Company, Limited, at Brigden, 16 miles southeast of here, the loss amounting to $60,000.

The blaze started at 4.30 a.m., and although the building was a substantial brick structure two stories high, the flames made such a rapid progress that the use of two chemical extinguishers and the efforts of a large band of volunteer helpers failed entirely to stay the outbreak.

The structure was razed to the ground and the large stock of groceries and drygoods is also a total loss. The insurance carried by the company only covers fifty per cent of the loss.

The fire was localized with great difficulty and despite the precautions taken some damage was incurred by the postoffice, a large frame building, and by the adjoining barber shop of Gordon Taylor.

A strange circumstance in connection with the outbreak is that the hand fire engine of the town, when sought, was found to be missing from its proper place and was not located until an hour later, it apparently having been borrowed. Two chemical extinguishers were available, but were quite inadequate for the purpose.

The store of the Armstrong Company was one of the largest rural general stores in Lambton county. The stocks of drygoods and groceries are responsible for more than half of the total loss.

SCORES "HIGHER CRITICS"

Organizer of Teachers' Federation Speaks at Woodstock.

Special to London Advertiser.

WOODSTOCK, April 11.—Speaking to the Oxford Federation of Women Public School Teachers, Miss Jennie Stead, provincial organizer of the Federation of Women Teachers' Associations in Ontario, characterized "higher critics" as those who hated to part with a dollar.

Miss Stead strongly advised her hearers to make an effort to cultivate a more professional spirit. She criticized the fact that at the annual conventions in Toronto there were too often many more men teachers in attendance than women, despite the fact that the number of women in the teaching profession far exceeds that of the men.

She believed that the women teachers should make a point of getting together and discussing their problems. Only by concerted effort can they expect to make themselves a live force in the community, and make the public realize their usefulness.

LANGUAGE BEARS CURSE OF BABEL

World's Scientists Favor Adoption of International Means of Communication.

MAY SELECT ESPERANTO

Advocates of Ido Present Advantages of Later, More Attractive System.

LONDON, England, April 11.—Language, the master-key to thought and the vehicle of communication, remains under the curse of Babel, while Arabic numerals, measurements of latitude and longitude, mathematical signs, chemical formulae, and even the metric system, have progressed to such an extent that they are now used by all nations, declares the Times scientific expert, urging the necessity of a universal tongue.

Esperanto or Ido, or some modification of them, seem to hold the balance of advantages in the choice for an international language, he adds, although Latin and English have received sufficient support to be ranked as serious candidates.

Science Backs Plan. Scientific men, he says, form the group most anxious to see a world agreement on some auxiliary language, and are not inclined to care what one is chosen.

"Were it possible to acquire a second language in addition to the natal tongue to convey ideas," the Times expert says, "one of the greatest barriers to the progress of science would be broken down."

Of the language contending for world recognition, he says that a difficult and irregular grammar is one of the chief objections to Latin, while English has a "chaotic" spelling, with a difficult and various pronunciation. Also, he says, the choice of one from among the many living languages would excite intense and destructive jealousy.

Reviews Efforts Made.

Reviewing efforts that have been made in the movement, the writer calls attention to the work of the International Research Council in Brussels during the summer of 1918, of the British, American, French and Italian associations, and of the League of Nations. These various bodies, he contends, are "free from the suspicion of advocating serious study of what might be regarded as a fad."

The writer notes that the invented language Esperanto has already held twelve international congresses in different countries, and is taught in schools in Geneva, Breslau, Milan, Czechoslovakia and Bulgaria.

I do, he says, claim to be a later and improved form of Esperanto, having hitherto had a smaller vogue, but being in appearance and sound more attractive.

"The vital requirement," he concludes, "is that the auxiliary language should be kept auxiliary, the vehicle of formal statement. If it should become a language of common speech, of emotion, or of literature, it will at once fail of its purpose, and be only an additional linguistic burden."

NEW TARIFF BILL WILL RAISE DUTIES

Measure Before U. S. Senate Committee Carries Highest Rates Yet Proposed.

HITS CANADA HEAVILY

Levy on Wheat Importation Five Cents Per Bushel More Than Fordney Tax.

WASHINGTON, April 11.—Carrying what are regarded here as the highest duties of any tariff bill in recent years, and giving the president power to enforce rates even 50 per cent higher in case the duties are not sufficient, the tariff revision bill as overhauled by the Senate finance committee will be reported to the Senate late today.

Many of the duties and features of the bill have already been announced. A leading feature is the high agricultural rates, including higher rates on grains and livestock, which are aimed in part at Canadian competition. High fish duties are also carried. The Senate bill is based not on the American valuation, as the House bill is, but on the following wholesale selling price.

If it becomes law the bill will hit Canada even harder than the Fordney measure, for it calls for a levy of 30 cents per bushel on wheat, as against the 25 cents in both the Fordney and Payne-Aldrich tariffs, the latter being the last Republican tariff. Under the Underwood tariff wheat was free. The new bill also raises the duty on wheat flour. It would charge 78 cents for every 100 pounds of flour brought across the border. The Fordney bill carried a duty of 50 cents per 100 pounds; the Payne-Aldrich 25 per cent ad valorem, and the Underwood 45 cents per 196-pound barrel.

The duty on oats, barley and rye would be jacked-up 5 cents per bushel over the Fordney rate, under the proposed new tariff.

In the metals, which Canada produces there is a slight decrease from the rate ruling in the Fordney tariff. While chemical pulpwood was free in the Fordney tariff the new bill levies 5 per cent. Newspaper paper is free, as is also mechanical wood-pulp, or "ground wood."

HOUSE TO DEBATE PECULIAR MOTION

OTTAWA, April 11.—Sharp debate is likely to arise in the Commons over a resolution placed on the order paper by William Irvine (Labor, Calgary East): "That in the opinion of this House, a defeat of a government measure should not be considered as a sufficient reason for the resignation of the government unless followed by a vote of lack of confidence."

CLAIM MEN DO NOT WANT FARM WORK

BRANTFORD, April 11.—"We don't want farm work," is the cry of many men at the local employment bureau, it was stated today. Officials at the office stated that the demand for farm labor was far in excess of the supply. "We have orders for more men than we can fill. The men do not want to work on farms. They want work in the city and we cannot give it to them." It is alleged that the men absolutely refuse to work on farms at any rate of wages and their board. Many single men, experienced in farm work, won't go to work on the farms, as they claim that the pay is not high enough.

CITY MUST PAY FOR SEIZED SAFE

WOODSTOCK, April 11.—Judgment was today handed down by Judge Wallace in the case of W. A. Sutherland, an ex-alderman of Ingersoll, against the corporation, in which the plaintiff claimed the sum of $400 for trespass on his factory, and for the seizure of a safe which, he claimed, belonged to him and which was removed by the chief of police of Ingersoll on instructions from the council.

Judge Wallace finds that the corporation is in no way liable for the action of its council if it exceeds its authority, but that it cannot avail itself of the wrongful act of its councillors.

Judgment was given for the plaintiff for damages to the extent of $75, the price of the safe, and division court costs. The plaintiff failed in his claim for damages for trespassing.

SISTER MARY'S KITCHEN
CHEAPER CUTS

F the average house-keeper would learn to use the cheaper cuts of meat in appetizing and attractive ways she could do much toward reducing the cost of high living.

The shoulder of lamb makes a perfectly good roast and is never as expensive as the leg of lamb. The breast, shank and neck can be made into very palatable and nourishing dishes that will take the place of the expensive chops on ordinary occasions.

Roast Shoulder of Lamb.

A shoulder of lamb, 2 slices of bacon, 2 cups stock, 2 tablespoons butter, 4 tablespoons flour, 1 teaspoon minced parsley, 2 medium-sized onions, 2 carrots, 1 small turnip, 6 peppercorns, 1½ teaspoons salt, ¼ teaspoon pepper, ½ cup canned tomato juice.

Remove bone from shoulder. Cover bone with cold water, about three cupsful, and bring slowly to the boiling point. Let simmer two hours. Wipe meat with a damp cloth and trim off the thin tissue-like covering. Season with salt and pepper, roll tightly and tie.

Cut the bacon in narrow match-like strips and insert in the meat. Slice vegetables and put in bottom of casserole. Dot with butter and add meat.

Cover closely and put in a hot oven for 20 minutes. Add parsley and peppercorns. Pour over two cups stock, cover closely and roast in a slow oven for two and one-half hours.

Take out meat and remove strings. Strain stock. There should be one and one-half cups. Melt two tablespoons butter in saucepan, stir in flour and stir over the fire until the flour is brown.

Add stock slowly, stirring constantly. Then add one-half cup canned tomato juice. Serve in a gravy boat as a sauce for the meat.

Ragout of Lamb.

Two pounds neck of lamb, 1 cup boiling stock, 2 tablespoons butter, 2 tablespoons flour, 1 onion, 1 carrot, 1 strip celery, sprig parsley, thyme and bay leaf, yolks 2 eggs, 1-2 cup cooked spinach, juice 1-2 lemon, 1-2 teaspoon salt, 1-4 teaspoon pepper.

Trim meat. Put into cold water, bring slowly to the boiling point. Drain and plunge into cold salt water, let stand five minutes. Drain and let stand five minutes. Cut into two-inch squares.

Melt butter in saucepan, add sliced vegetables and simmer without browning for 15 minutes. Sift in flour, stirring constantly and slowly add boiling stock. Add parsley, thyme and bay leaf, one-third teaspoon salt and one-eighth teaspoon pepper. Stir until the mixture boils and is perfectly smooth. Put meat in casserole and pour over sauce. Cover closely, simmer two hours in a slow oven or over a slow fire.

Heat spinach and rub through a fine sieve. Remove meat from casserole and strain sauce. Add spinach puree and when almost boiling add the egg yolks beaten slightly with two tablespoons cream. Add lemon juice to spinach when rubbing through sieve.

Cook the sauce over hot water until thick and smooth. Arrange meat on a hot platter and pour the hot sauce over it.

Swagger Affairs Are Nursery Nighties

ANYBODY who visits the nursery only after its occupants are asleep misses something charming in these days, and that is a good look at the children's sleep togs, which are being furnished in such a variety of quaint and delightful styles.

Of the nightie modes of yesterday only one remains, and that is the bishop style, which is slipped on over the head. This type always looks very demure, and is especially liked by many mothers because it is so easy to launder, being flat, unspooned, and devoid of buttons to be broken by an unkindly wringer.

Strings to be pulled out of their castings, or elastic to lose its "pop" in the wash. Also, it is becoming to almost any type of little maid.

More and more, however, little girls are wearing night togs with legs rather than the long gown. For quite little children of either sex the one-piece sleeping garment with panty back is usually worn.

First, the very smartly tailored pajama in very good imitation of the kind Dad likes, and made, as his are, in all sorts of fabrics and color combinations, such as a natural pongee silk with trimming bands of scarlet, or one of the very finest quality of saten in light blue with trimming of white. Both little girls and boys wear these gay pajama suits.

Vying for popular favor with the tailored sleeping garment for little girls is the be-frilled and be-ribboned "Billie Burke," which may be made of any kind of cotton or silk fabric, is given to those flowered crepe nighties by a ribbon bow, or a belt of black velvet baby ribbon.

Rafe.

"You don't even seem able to obey orders any more," said Tip O'Gorman.

"Go easy, you two!" snapped the district attorney, as a dog in the next room began to bark. "There's somebody comin' up the path."

Billy Wingo opened the door and strode without ceremony into the office. He was followed by Riley "Tyler." The latter slammed the door behind him and set his back against it.

"I hope you boys are feeling generous tonight," remarked Billy. "The fact is," went on the calm voice, "I'm takin' up a collection—a collection for Tom Walton's niece, Hazel."

Billy thought that at the mention of the ranchman's name both the district attorney and Tuckleton stiffened their slouching bodies. "Her uncle's gettin' downed this way will be a bad blow for her. He hatless form of Judge Driver showed back against the expanse of snow framed in the doorway. Again came the plea for mercy—a wild cry of "Don't shoot! Don't shoot! It's me! Driver!" as the judge, realizing only too well that any such outcry was tantamount to a confession of guilt, plunged into the room. Obviously his purpose was to escape the fire of the avenging rifles that he had every reason to believe were somewhere in the brush along the draw.

"Thank Gawd! Thank Gawd!" babbled the judge, sinking back against the door. "I thought you'd shoot me."

"I damn near did," remarked the man, whose voice Billy now recognized as that of a late arrival in town, named Silke. "If you hadn't jerked your hat off so I could see your face, I would have. When will Wingo get here and didja get him to come by himself all right? By Gawd, you're wearing his clothes! Where is he?"

"He's here," gurgled the judge. "Then you did lead him here, damn your soul! You white-livered cur, do you think I'm gonna hang on your account? What did you tell him?"

To the accompaniment of a string of most ferocious oaths, Silke shook the judge as the terrier shakes the rat.

"How many's he got with him?" "One—two."

"We'll shoot it out with 'em here, I said. I ain't kicked all the fighting blood out of you, have I? Get the gun off that fellow. I downed it on his leg yet. You can gamble you'll fight! It's you or them, remember!"

"Suppose he comes bustin' in the back way," quavered the judge. "We'll try to take care of him. But he'll come the other way, I guess."

But Silke guessed wrong, for Billy Wingo, judging that the psychological moment had arrived, shoved his gun hand through a window pane and shouted, "Hands up!"

"You dirty Judas," yelled Silke, and firing from the hip, he whipped three shots into the judge before he himself fell with four of Billy Wingo's bullets through his shoulder and neck.

Shot through and through, Judge Driver dropped in a huddle and died.

CHAPTER X.

"THIS" said Rafe Tuckleton, "is a helluva note."

"It's all your fault," the district attorney reprimanded bitterly. "Well, the first part worked all right," protested Rafe Tuckleton. "Dan downed Walton without any trouble. How could I tell Driver would slip up on his part? I'm glad Silke downed him. Served him right for being a fool."

"How do we know what happened before the fracas at Waltons? We don't. We don't know anything except that Tom Driver is dead, Dan Silke wounded in the calaboose, and Skinny Shindle has skedaddled!"

"Sh-sh," cautioned Rafe. "Somebody coming—oh, it's you, Tip. Lo."

"Yeah, it's me, Tip," said O'Gorman, closing the door carefully. "Look here, Rafe, what did I tell you about downing Tom Walton?"

"I ain't downed Tom Walton," denied Rafe sullenly. "You had it done," insisted O'Gorman.

"How do you know I did?" dodged

ADVENTURES OF THE TWINS
NOTHING OVER TEN

(By Olive Roberts Barton)

They wandered from counter to counter.

NANCY bought a doll with her dime in the five-and-ten-cent-store, and Nick bought a whistle. It had taken them hours to decide.

It was Nick who suddenly remembered their errand. "We'll have to hurry now, Nancy," he said, sticking the record under his arm and making for the door. "We shouldn't have stayed so long in here. We're not a third of the way over this mountain yet."

"Wasn't it funny about the dimes, Nick?" said Nancy, trotting along beside him. "How do you suppose they got in our pockets?"

"Magie, I'll bet," replied Nick. "No more stores for me! I'll bet Twelve Toots sent those dimes."

"Mebbe," said Nancy thoughtfully. But no sooner had they got outside the door than another five-and-ten-cent-store appeared. There it stood in all its tempting glory of red paint and gold letters, close up beside the road.

At the same time Nancy's pink fingers touched a hard object in her pocket which she immediately hauled out and discovered to be another thing.

CHAPTER XI.

"I TELL you, Rafe," said Reelfoot in a panic, "they suspect me—they think I'm mixed up in this murder business."

"Accessory before and after the fact," slipped in the district attorney. A reptile himself, he relished the wiggles of another reptile.

"If they prove it on you, you'll be hanged, sure as Dan Silke will hang."

"I ain't the only one they can hang on!" snarled Simon Reelfoot.

"Who have you got in mind?" Rafe Tuckleton said in a colorless voice. "Both of you, for instance," Reelfoot informed him.

"You do us a grave injustice," thus said the district attorney solemnly.

Reelfoot gulped. "You had me go to Wingo's office, spin him a lot of stuff about my rusted cows, so's to get him and his deputies all ready to go away with me, when Driver was to come in with that stuff about Kill-roe and keep Bill in town while the deputies went with me. Well, you know how only Shillman went. But I couldn't help that. Anyway, I suppose you thought you was foxy not to tell me the rest of the story about Skinny Shindle and the fake letter and so forth. Gents, you was foxy. But I'm foxy myself. I can put two and two together and make four any day."

"Look here," continued the exasperated Reelfoot, "either you fellows pull suspicion off of me, or I go to Wingo with the whole story."

"What'll that get you?" demanded Rafe. "Nothin', just nothin'. Wild tales of dead cows and separatist Bill from his deputies and all ain't evidence."

Reelfoot turned, as worms do. "You fellows will have to see that I'm protected or I'll tell what I know."

"Blah!" blared the district attorney. "You wouldn't dare snitch!"

"I'm goin' now," said Reelfoot. "You fellows scratch your heads over what I've said. I ain't gonna go to the pen for anybody, and you can stick a pin in that."

When Simon was gone, the district attorney and Rafe sat in silence. "We gotta get rid of him."

The BOOKSHELF

THE SOUL OF A CHILD. By Edvard Bjorkman. Alfred A. Knopf.

A analytical study of the thoughts and emotions of a small boy, from his fifth year to his fifteenth year, is presented in Edvard Bjorkman's new book and first novel, "The Soul of a Child."

The volume is apparently intended principally for parents and educators. It deals with much care, and a delicacy that saves it from ever becoming offensive, with certain phases of adolescence usually ignored in fiction.

The book has no plot. It tells simply and well, if at somewhat too great length, of the entirely commonplace life of little Keith Wellander, who lived with his parents and his old grandmother in Stockholm during the latter part of the last century.

The four people lived in a flat of the first room, one of which they rented, but they employed a maid-servant—a combination which seems decidedly odd from a Canadian point of view. But then to many the most interesting thing about the book will be the detailed picture of Swedish manners and customs which it gives.

The family festivals at birthdays and on Christmas, the social ideas, the way of buying in large quantities, the absence of private bathrooms and general recourse to the public baths, the routine of everyday existence are all described in the book, though incidentally, and as a background for the mental life of shy, sensitive, intelligent and lonely little Keith Wellander.

It was Keith's misfortune to meet with real sympathy and understanding only once, and from only one person, his teacher, Lector Dahlstrom. And even the excellent and sympathetic Dahlstrom was guilty of a piece of injustice toward Keith which long rankled in the boy's mind, though Dahlstrom assured him that the injustice had been really intended only to benefit him.

The effect of his mother's timidity, her constant anxiety and perpetual alarm about his safety, upon the boy's plastic mind and character is very well worked out. Then there were the evasions regarding the family history "that produced the sensitiveness about his own backgrounds which later often influenced his attitude harmfully at moments when he most needed complete self-assurance." Other evasions, too, there were, and these affected him even more deeply. For what his parents and teachers omitted or refused to tell him he learned in different and less innocent ways, ways which threatened to injure him permanently, not only mentally, but physically as well.

Carefully guarded as he was by his adoring, somewhat hysterical mother, he could not be kept entirely away from other boys and he had only seven years old when, placed in the care of a country sexton for the summer months, he learned the game the other boys played behind a certain big rock. The foul language acquired at the same time was a habit which "dropped off him as he soaped later drops of a bath when he dives into the clean waters of the lake."

The villa words were soon forgotten. "But the game he had learned to play back of the big rock could not be unlearned in the same way."

The book is well written, and the people and events it describes are all of them natural enough. Apart from the accounts of poor little Keith's sufferings when "his life was an unending conflict, and in the presence of that ever-renewed struggle within, by forces that seemed alien to his own self, all else lost significance," there is nothing especially novel about it. But the material is handled deftly, in a discreet and cleanly manner, and to those especially interested in its subject the book will no doubt prove both valuable and entertaining.

Not Her Fault
But why not keep teeth white?

Does your dentist ever show you the film-coats on your teeth? His vigorous polishing is largely done to remove them.

Millions find that these film-coats form despite the daily brushing. But now there's a way to combat that film, and we offer you a test.

What film does Film starts as a viscous coat. You can feel it now. It clings to teeth, enters crevices and stays. It absorbs stains, making the teeth look dingy. It forms the basis of tartar. Thus the luster of the teeth is kept dimmed.

Film holds food substance which ferments and forms acid. It holds the acid in contact with the teeth to cause decay. Germs breed in film, and they, with tartar, are the chief cause of pyorrhea.

Thus most tooth troubles are now traced to film. They are due to the fact that old ways of brushing do not effectively combat it.

The new-day way Dental science, after long research, has found two ways to fight film. Careful tests have amply proved them. Now leading dentists, here and abroad, advise their daily use.

ACCORD LARKIN WARM WELCOME

Members of Canada Club Tender Banquet To New Commissioner.

Sir Hamar Greenwood Presides At Reception in London.

LONDON, England, April 11.—(By Canadian Press Cable.)—Hon. Peter C. Larkin, the new high commissioner for Canada in London, was given a splendid reception at the Canada Club dinner here tonight. The dinner had been arranged as an occasion for the high commissioner to make his first public appearance in his official capacity, and it was a great success.

Mr. Larkin was deeply touched by the good will and spontaneity of the greeting extended to him. Sir Hamar Greenwood, chief secretary for Ireland, who was born at Whitby, Ont., very happily presided at the banquet. His royal highness the Duke of York was one of the guests.

Sir Hamar Greenwood in proposing the health of Mr. Larkin, said that Right Hon. Winston Churchill, secretary of state for the colonies, had asked him to express his sincere regret that he was unable to be present. Mr. Churchill, added the chairman, had already met the new high commissioner. Continuing, Sir Hamar said:

Hope For Irish Peace.

"Mr. Larkin comes to London to speak for the Dominion of Canada in the councils of the British Commonwealth. Even in my time the position of high commissioner has, year by year, advanced in importance and power. It always strikes me that too much importance is perhaps attached to the representatives of foreign countries, and too little to the representatives of the great dominions."

"Mr. Larkin's presence here tonight makes me hope the time is not far distant when the Canada Club will welcome at their table the first high commissioner of the Free State of Ireland. The British government has made peace with Ireland; it is for Irishmen to make peace in Ireland."

Hon. Mr. Larkin, responding to the warm words of welcome from the chairman and hearty applause of the gathering, expressed his gratitude at the manner in which he had been received. He also took occasion to mention the pleasure it had given him to learn of the friendly feelings manifested by the Canadians resident in England upon hearing of his appointment as high commissioner.

Has Envious Position.

The position of Canada after the world war might well be envied by any other nation, Mr. Larkin said. Touching on the Canadian representation in London, the high commissioner said he was rejoiced to see so many provincial agents-general working together here harmoniously. What affected one province affected the whole Dominion, he added. "We will not allow personal ambitions or any narrow sectional aims to obscure our view of what is going to be for the best interests of Canada as a whole," he said.

Speaking of the suggested new Dominion of Canada offices in London, the high commissioner said he might even take temporary headquarters that were more centrally located than the present offices. He referred to Canada's position in the following words:

"Canada's relations with Great Britain, on the one hand, as the motherland of a large proportion of Canada's people, and with the United States, friendly neighbors, on the other, have placed Canada in a position of peculiar influence and responsibility to interpret to each other and link them together in brotherhood and prosperity."

Mr. Larkin proceeded to say he was positive all parts of the empire had much about which to concern themselves, but he questioned if the present times were more serious than those following the Napoleonic wars.

FACES CHARGE OF ARSON

Max Walsh of Blyth Appears For Trial at Goderich.

Special to London Advertiser. GODERICH, April 11.—Max Walsh of Blyth appeared in Judge Dickson's court here today charged with arson and attempt to defraud insurance companies. Walsh's barn and contents were destroyed by fire the latter part of August, 1921.

Fire also started in part of the house the same night, and some of the evidence given today indicated that coaloil had been poured on a rug, which was partly burned. Walsh, according to the evidence of the insurance agent who did the insuring, could give no reason for the fire in the house unless the electric wiring had caused it. He had insurance to the amount of $3,400.

Stillman Divorce Case Hearing Very Secret!

MONTREAL, April 11.—Were the fate of empires at stake, no more precautions could be taken to keep the matters under discussion away from the public than is the hearing of the Stillman divorce case, now going on here behind closed doors.

When a witness is wanted the door of the room at the court house is opened to let him or her in. An official of the court stands guard while the witness enters the box and is sworn. The door is left open, but all one can hear is the oath being administered. Then the door is shut and the taking of evidence begins.

Denounce Rule of Gun and Bayonet in Erin.

DUBLIN, April 11.—"Gun and bayonet rule," which Irish extremists seek to impose upon Ireland, was denounced in a manifesto against De Valera and his extremist followers issued by the Irish Labor party today.

The Irish workingmen's leaders, who have been "on the fence" in recent internal disputes as a valuable ally of the Free State provisional government.

"We will do our utmost to prevent irresponsible people from imposing their will upon the Irish people by means of arms," the Labor party manifesto declared.

LONDON FIRM GETS JOB

Each Classroom Will Accommodate Forty-Eight Pupils.

Special to London Advertiser.

STRATFORD, April 11.—John Hayman & Sons, London, have been awarded the contract for the new separate school, the price being $62,300.

The school will be erected at the corner of Brunswick and Well streets, and will be thoroughly modern. The school will be two stories in height with six classrooms, two lunch-rooms, a medical room and principal's office. Two playgrounds will be provided in the basement. Each classroom will accommodate 48 pupils.

A. B. Maguire, well-known local figure and veteran of fenian raids, celebrated, Tuesday, his 80th birthday.

The G. T. R. shops will close Thursday afternoon until Tuesday morning for the Easter holiday season.

That numerous changes in the Methodist ministry in Ontario will come into effect this year is the belief of officials who are in touch with the probable transfers that will be effected by the stationing committee at the London Methodist conference in June. It is probable, however, that there will be no transfers in Stratford, as neither Rev. J. E. Holmes, pastor of Trinity Methodist Church, nor Rev. J. W. Magwood, pastor of Central Methodist Church, have completed their fourth year in the Stratford churches.

ST. THOMAS GIRL KILLED BY FAST M. C. R. TRAIN

Body of Miss E. Yates Found Beside Tracks Near Kettle Creek Bridge.

ST. THOMAS, April 11.—Miss E. Yates, a girl about 16 years of age, was found dead about 10 o'clock tonight lying beside the M. C. R. tracks near the bridge over Kettle Creek. It is believed that she was struck by a fast train while walking along the railroad tracks.

Late tonight Dr. Ewen, coroner, and County Constable Hopkins, along with railroad men, went out to the bridge on a yard engine, upon a report reaching the city that a body had been found near the bridge.

A rumor was also circulated that the fender of the engine on the Detroit train No. 48, bore blood stains when it reached the local station. The girl's head was badly crushed. The girl's head was badly crushed. The girl's head was badly crushed.

PLACES ISSUE OF 30-YEAR BONDS

TORONTO, April 11.—The province of Ontario $15,000,000 of 30-year 5 per cent bonds was awarded at noon today to a syndicate headed by the National City Company who offered a price of 97.409 in American funds. The issue, accordingly, went practically at par.

Without taking account of the exchange premium, which the province receives on the issue, the cost basis works out at about 5.18 per cent. New York funds.

Adding in the exchange premium, the cost basis calculated in Canadian funds is approximately 5.01 per cent, the lowest price yet received on any provincial issue. About $8,000,000 of the province's bonds will be placed on the market in the near future. New York: 5 per cent provincial bonds have not been issued in Canada for several years.

WILL REDUCE HOLIDAY PERIOD. INGERSOLL, April 11.—It has been decided by local merchants to reduce the weekly half-holiday period to five months. Last year the season embraced seven months, ending with November. The season this year will open on the 3rd of May and close in September.

BRANTFORD AWAITS BYNG

Plans Extensive Program For Governor-General's Visit.

Special to London Advertiser. BRANTFORD, April 11.—Preparations are going on apace for the visit of the governor-general, Baron Byng of Vimy, and Lady Byng here on Thursday. The general committee in charge asks all citizens to decorate, particularly where they are located on the route of the governor-general's tour of the city. Mayor Parker will arrange a half-holiday for the school children, but there will be no general half-holiday. The G. W. V. A. war memorial tablet unveiling program was announced today as follows: "O Canada"; silent tribute; welcome, President J. S. Shute; unveiling, Comrade Byng; prayer; Ven. Arch. Fotheringham; last post; National Anthem. The tablets are the gift of the Kitchener club of young girls.

STOMACH TROUBLES ARE DUE TO ACIDITY

Tells Safe, Certain, Speedy Relief For Acid Indigestion.

So-called stomach troubles, such as indigestion, gas, sourness, stomach-ache and inability to retain food are in probably nine cases out of ten, simply evidence that excessive secretion of acid is taking place in the stomach, causing the formation of gas and acid indigestion.

Gas distends the stomach and causes that full, oppressive, burning feeling sometimes known as heartburn, while the acid irritates and inflames the delicate lining of the stomach. The trouble lies entirely in the excess development or secretion of acid.

To stop or prevent this souring of the food contents of the stomach and to neutralize the acid, and make it bland and harmless, a teaspoonful of Bisulphated Magnesia, a good and effective corrector of acid stomach, should be taken in a quarter of a glass of hot or cold water after eating or whenever sourness or acidity is felt. This sweetens the stomach and neutralizes the acidity in a few moments and is a perfectly harmless and inexpensive remedy to use.

An antacid, such as Bisulphated Magnesia, which can be obtained from any druggist in either powder or tablet form, enables the stomach to do its work properly without the aid of artificial digestives. Magnesia comes in several forms, so be certain to ask for and take only Bisulphated Magnesia, which is especially prepared for the above purpose.—Adv.

SAYS SPIRITS OF DEAD DWELL IN REAL HAPPINESS

Sir Arthur Conan Doyle Gives London Advertiser Readers His Spiritualistic Views.

VISITS TORONTO MAY 15

Accepts Chronological Resume of Ambrose Small Mystery For Consideration.

Special to London Advertiser.
NEW YORK, April 11.—An insight into the higher planes of life where are said to dwell in complete happiness the spirits of the dead, was given by Sir Arthur Conan Doyle, creator of Sherlock Holmes and England's famous novelist, at the Hotel Ambassador today.

Supplementing the interview he gave when he arrived on the Baltic, Sir Arthur declared that the mediumistic power lies latent in every living person, and like an appreciation of art or music, must be developed.

The average life on the spiritualistic planes is between 30 and 40 years, at the end of which the spirit rises to a higher plane, if his conduct warrants the ascendency.

Life after death, Sir Arthur asserted, is eternal, except that the spirits move from one plane to another. The highest Sir Arthur calls "paradise" and the lowest "purgatory."

Suicide No Help.
Suicide, said Sir Arthur, is not a short cut to the spirit life. All the sufferings which the suicide endured before death will remain with him

HER AILMENTS ALL GONE NOW

Mrs. Sherman Helped by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Lake Michigan.—"About one year ago I suffered with irregularities and a weakness and at times was obliged to stay off my feet. I doctored with our family physician and he finally said he could not understand my case, so I decided to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. After I had taken the first bottle I could see that I was getting better. I took several bottles of the Vegetable Compound and used Lydia E. Pinkham's Sanative Wash and I am entirely cured of my ailments. You may publish this letter if you wish."

Mrs. M. SHERMAN, Route 2, Lake, Mich.
There is one fact women should consider and that is this. Women suffer from irregularities and various forms of weakness. They try this and that doctor, as well as different medicines. Finally they take Lydia E. Pinkham's Compound, and Mrs. Sherman's experience is simply another case showing its merit.
If your family physician fails to help you and the same old troubles persist, why isn't it reasonable to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Compound?

Mother Rescues Her Babe From Death in Buggy Blown in Path of Freight Train

OAKVILLE, April 11.—While her mother was posting a letter in the pillar box at the railway station here, Baby Dorothy Jane Caroline Strome, who will be just two years old in June, was blown under the wheels of a Canadian Pacific freight train which was racing toward Toronto.

The mother, Mrs. David Strome, had left the baby carriage only for a moment or two to put the letter in the pillar box, access to which was blocked by a truck laden with luggage.

Suddenly a gust of wind from the south got under the hood of the perambulator and blew it with its precious cargo on to the tracks. Several carlengths away the train was bearing down on the tot. There was a grinding of brakes as the engineer applied the emergency, people screamed and the mother stood for an instant as though paralyzed and riveted to the platform. Then she recovered control of herself, and, dashing on to the tracks, snatched the infant from the carriage. A moment later the engine crashed into it. The buggy was smashed and carried 50 yards along the line to the road just east of the station.

Mr. and Mrs. Strome reside on Englehart avenue in this town, and the husband is a fireman at the Glassco jam works. Baby Dorothy is their only child.

after the spirit leaves the body, he stated. Death, he said, is predestined and bringing it on before its stated time will have no good effect upon the suicide. His financial worries, he said, are of no consequence. The reason may be, are bound to remain with him until his passage into another plane.

There is no physical pain after death, the famous novelist said. There is, however, mental suffering. There is marriage, he declared, but to the couple no children are born.

"Everything on the other side is regulated by sympathy," Sir Arthur continued. "When you get there you are going to meet those whom you love and whom you counted upon as friends, but you are not going to knock up against all the disagreeable people of this world."

All Marriages Are Happy.
"It is a place of complete harmony and happiness, where physical pain and suffering is unknown. They have what might be termed marriage, but it is really a very deep affinity which binds them perhaps more closely than marriage does on this sphere. In this world some marriages are happy and some are very unhappy. All marriages there are happy."

Sir Arthur stated that he has seen only one spirit, the spirit of his mother, and talked to her. "I saw her as plainly as ever I did," said the famous Britisher in a quiet but positive manner. "She appeared in the centre of a spirit body with every wrinkle in her dear face, as when she was alive on this earth, like a beautiful Rembrandt picture. The proofs that spirits can communicate with us are overwhelming. One of the difficulties is that a great number of people fail to examine the proofs."

Sir Arthur is to deliver a number of lectures on spiritualism in the United States and Canada. He will lecture in Toronto on May 15.

Will Look Into Case.
Sir Arthur accepted a chronological resume of the Ambrose Small mystery, but stated he was very busy and couldn't go into the matter at the time. He also stated—and this may or may not have had something to do with his reluctance to discuss the matter at so short a notice—that "all spirits were against capital punishment."

When asked for a reason, Sir Arthur replied: "It is quite obvious the spirits do not want anyone sent out to them with all the feelings of revenge and other such feelings in the heart of a murderer."

Asked if it were possible for him with his Sherlock Holmes methods to throw light on the Small mystery, Sir Arthur replied: "I haven't heard of this case before, but leave the facts with me and during the next few days I'll read them over and look into it."

He would not promise to make a statement on it, but he is interested.

Sir Arthur said he has as much proof of the existence of life after death as he can have. He has read extensively since taking up the subject in 1886, and has performed many experiments which have impressed him with the truth of the hereafter.

Although communication with his son, soon after death, had partly impressed the truth of spiritualism upon Sir Arthur, the complete conviction came when he beheld the face of his departed mother.

Sir Arthur always uses mediums when communicating with the spirit world.

All Have Mediumistic Powers.
Speaking of mediums, the spiritualist declared that all individuals have mediumistic powers, but in the majority this force is latent. He explained by saying that some persons are born with an ear for music or an eye for art, whereas others must learn to appreciate these things. So with mediums.

He suggested that persons wishing to communicate with a dead relative, shall first read a great deal on the subject. When they have familiarized themselves with the theory, they should then call a few relatives to the sitting room, and sit around the table. If the deceased desires to send a message to this planet it will probably be received, Sir Arthur declared.

E. C. Toplam is the chemical substance, he said, which emanates from the medium. Analytically by French and German chemists have shown, he said, that it contains phosphates, carbonates, sulphates and other substances found in the human body. It is a vapor and creates an atmosphere that makes the spirit passing through it visible.

The gas becomes putty-like, he explained, when the spirit passes through it, giving the spirit the appearance it had when inside a living body. At seances, where spirits are seen, they are visible in this putty-like state, he said.

Spiritualism is gradually gripping most of England's citizens, the Britisher said, already many clergymen of the Church of England have adopted it. It does not supersede religion, he said, but on the contrary it revitalizes it.

ROB FARMER'S CELLAR OF $6,000 LIQUOR STOCK

Thieves Chloroform Watchdog and Use Acetylene Torch To Open Vault.

KINGSTOWN, April 11.—Liquor valued at $6,000 was taken by robbers who entered the home of George B. Marantay, farmer, of Gosfield, South, a few miles from here, during the night, when they broke open a huge liquor vault by using an acetylene torch.

The robbery was one of the most thorough ever carried out in this district. The perpetrators left no stone unturned to assure a successful job. Before breaking into the house they chloroformed an Airedale watch dog which was left to protect the premises during the absence of the family.

Police of all the surrounding communities are working on the robbery today, but have unearthed but little in the way of clues.

The robbers entered by smashing in a rear door of the house and evidently went straight to the liquor vault with the acetylene torch. Not one drop of the stock was left behind. The robbers even carried away loose jugs of liquor and several barrels of bottled beer. Police state that the stock was so large that at least three large automobiles would be needed to carry the liquor away.

VETERANS BEGIN TO TRICKLE IN

Curry, Boyle and Carmen Dumped Suitcases in Delaware Tuesday.

Crishlow Offers Either Tree or Curry More Coin, But They Want To Stick.

BY G. H. TOWNSELEY.

DELAWARE, Ohio, April 11.—Rain and the wind, hail and other things, this college town has experienced in the past few hours could not daunt London hail players, for they tied themselves to the university gym for two good workouts today.

Huck Boyle got in, and did some work, and he is going to have to do some more if he expects to hold down the first station, for Buzz likes Cross, a rookie and Boyle was told to hooper up today when he appeared in uniform. Al Schwelzer also got in today, and Lefty Carmen completed the list of arrivals.

This array brings the staff of pitchers to three left-handed hurlers and six who use the right wing. There are three catchers here, now, and Frank Laubs is yet to report.

When Rice and Rea, two rookies, did not put in their appearance today, he gave up hopes of their coming. He is somewhat disappointed, it is believed.

Husky Individual Fails in Attempt To Steal Paint.

ST. THOMAS, April 11.—In the springtime, as woman's mind turns to housecleaning, so does the mind of man turn to the paint pot. If this be not true in general it is true at least in the case of one husky individual of this city, who on Monday night endeavored to raid single-handed the well-stocked paint shop of the P. M. R. in this city.

The man's efforts, however, got him only half way through an open window, for while he was still in this cramped position he was discovered by Robert Geddes, the night watchman. The intruder, however, landed a blow on the night watchman's jaw and made good his escape.

To sever their connection with the Tecumsehs, Wetzel has offered Crishlow the services of either of these players, but they would rather stay with the champion squad Crishlow has offered them more money, but the lure does not seem to tempt them.

Wetzel expects to start the general weeding out along about Thursday or Friday, for on Sunday he has an Easter match with New Lexington. He will play only his regulars against a strong semi-pro club of that place.

Buzz was compelled to cancel the Yarnick game on Sunday, and has filled the schedule with the New Lexington fracas.

IMPS WIN FROM KNOX GIRLS, 17-9

S. & I. Imps beat Knox Presbyterian girls 17-9 in a City Basketball League fixture, staged at the east end community hall last night. Only four of the Knox girls turned up. It was a close-checking tilt, the Imps clinching the game on their superior shooting.

The affair scheduled between McConnell and Ferguson and Thistles was not played, due to default.

Tonight at the east end community hall L. C. 1, Second Year will play the Upper School for the championship of Group B, Victoria Continuation School is scheduled to meet the Badgers for stage a game with L. C. 1 Middle School, champions of Division D.

The line-up for last night's game: Imps—Harris 2, Graves 5, Graves 5, Bamford 2, Hardie.

LONDONERS WIN MOST OF BOUTS

Last Card Put On in St. Thomas Drew Biggest Crowd of Season.

BY STAFF REPORTER.

St. Thomas, April 11.—The London boys won three out of the four boxing bouts in the armories here this evening. The show was staged under the auspices of the sergeants' mess, First Elgin Regiment, and was the last of the season. A record crowd was in attendance.

The first bout was in the 100-pound class, and Clifford Smith of London had the better of the argument with Bill de Hart, St. Thomas. Both boys were a little shy at first, but became better acquainted as the match progressed. In the second round Smith had De Hart tottering with rights to the head, but the St. Thomas youth lasted the three rounds. Smith had the edge in the whole bout.

Dan McInnis of London and Serg. North of the Railroad City fought three rounds to draw in the second bout. Both had the habit of clinching at critical stages of the game, although a few healthy swats were exchanged in the last frame.

Dave Smith, a London 125-pounder, had Ross Schraeder groggy in the first round of their three-round affair, knocking him down with three rights to the jaw. Tommy Wallace wanted to stop the bout in the second round, but the boy was game and stuck it out.

J. Willis won his bout with St. Poole of St. Thomas by a small margin. Willis rocked Poole in the first round with a right to the head, but eased up a little after that.

Bobby Bell and Billy Bushel, two young proteges of Tommy Wallace, gave three rounds of exhibition work. Although Bobby is only 12 years old, he could show some of the old timers a few tricks. It is very doubtful if his equal at his age can be found in Canada, and Tommy Wallace hopes to make a champion out of him some day.

Billy, who is 10 years of age, is a clever kid, and should develop into a first-rate boxer.

In the wrestling bouts, Ed Lewis of St. Thomas won over Bob White of London by getting in two falls in 9 minutes. But Lewis was heavier by 20 pounds, and so had a decided advantage.

In the 115-pound class Dick Cupples won over Bill Right, and Pete Lang and Elmon Prevail, 145-pounders, fought 15 minutes to a draw.

Tommy Wallace of London handled the boxing bouts, and W. L. Lonsdale of St. Thomas refereed the wrestling matches.

Asks Whereabouts of Merchants Bank Head.

OTTAWA, April 11.—Before the orders of the day were called this afternoon, Mr. Gould of Assinibola called the attention of the government to a newspaper report to the effect that Sir Montagu Allen, formerly head of the Merchants Bank, had left Canada. "I wondered," said Mr. Gould, "what right he has to leave Canada at the present time. This is a subject in which the country is deeply interested. If he intends remaining away may I ask the government whether extradition proceedings will be taken to bring him back?" "I have not been informed on the subject," replied Sir Lomer Gouin, "but I will inquire of the government attorney, and let my honorable friend know later."

RED SOX START IN ON TRAINING GRIND

Six Candidates Report To Manager Lalonge For First Workout.

BRANTFORD, April 11.—The Red Sox started their active training in Agricultural Park here today. Manager Lalonge had much fine material on the field when the practice started, and by the showing they made it bids fair for professional ball here this year. Guy Zinn was there, and as a center fielder he is there with the goods. Dick Richards, Harry Grimm and Willis Butler were also on the field showing their prowess with the sphere. Mickey expressed great pleasure at the excellent showing that they made in their first practice. Other members of the team are: Ted Anderson, Pyrook, Beecher, James Ryan, Jack Schaefer, who will be seen in the outfield, Dawson of West Virginia and several others. The most promising of the ten twirlers can be included in the following list: Ollie Schwartz, Grimm, Richards, George King and James Barrett. Schwartz is a left hand pitcher, who played last season in Georgia. The local club got him through the St. Louis Americans. King comes from Cicero, Ill., and is reported to be one of the best right-hand slab artists in the minors. Barrett is a semi-pro, indorzen by Pittsburgh.

Routine work for these half dozen stalwarts started at 10:30 this morning. The team is making use of the Y. M. C. A. dressing-rooms for the time being. After getting down to Agricultural Park they got down to business under Manager Lalonge's direction, and worked steadily till 2:30 in the afternoon, going without a noon meal so as to get down to weight and shake some of the winter's surplus fat loose.

The stakes for the school boys will be distributed tomorrow, while those for the juniors and intermediates will likely be distributed in about a week. A keen local interest has developed in the game.

BARES LIBERAL PLAN TO UNIFY RAIL SYSTEM

Hon. W. C. Kennedy Presents First Railway Budget To House of Commons.

NATIONAL REVENUE HIGH

Total Deficit On Roads Is $10,831,124 Less Than in Previous Year.

OTTAWA, April 11.—(By Canadian Press.)—It was a crowded and closely-attended House of Commons which followed Hon. W. C. Kennedy, minister of railways, as he presented his first railway budget today. His story of the year's operations was told in two chapters.

In the first Mr. Kennedy dealt with the Canadian National lines; in the second, with the Grand Trunk.

Of the National lines the cabinet minister had a more optimistic statement to present than was presented by the minister of railways last year.

In operation there had been an improvement of 20 million dollars in comparison with the year previous, and that despite the slump in trade and decline in traffic. But fixed charges were higher, bringing the total deficit on the National line to $56,673,335, as contrasted with $67,505,959 in 1920.

The Grand Trunk has been under the control of the Dominion Government since last May, although operated by a board distinct from that of the Canadian National lines.

And to the loss of the Canadian National must be added a net loss, including fixed charges, of $15,672,299 on the Grand Trunk, or a total loss on the Canadian National and Grand Trunk together of $72,345,634.

In 1920 the loss on the two systems combined was $74,032,302.

Briefly, the financial standing, under unified control, of the Grand Trunk alone in the last two years may be summarized as follows:

Fixed charges $19,245,583 $14,025,637

Less net income 3,573,284 7,498,394

Net loss $15,672,299 6,527,243

Mr. Kennedy had announcements of prime importance to make, namely:

1. That the Canadian National lines and the Grand Trunk are to be placed under the unified control and co-ordinated management of one board of directors. The new board will automatically abolish the present Canadian National and Canadian Grand Trunk boards.

2. The new board will be asked to advise on the division of the huge mileage of the National systems into units, each with its own headquarters, and under the direction of a general manager, who will be subject to the lines of policy laid down by the board at general headquarters.

3. That the house is to be asked, in view of the fact that suspension of the Crow's Nest Pass agreement terminates on July 8, to appoint a special committee to study freight rates, with power to summon the executives of the various railways. It will then be for the committee and the house to take such action as may be deemed advisable.

4.—That the work of co-ordination would be supported by an investigation of the financial affairs and business methods generally of the railways, passing under the control of the new board.

Decreased Appropriation.

One remark of Mr. Kennedy's was applauded on all sides of the house—that the total amount to be voted for railways in the fiscal year which has just opened is $97,220,000, compared with $179,065,760, voted in the year previous.

In the brief discussion which followed, Right Hon. Arthur Meighen, leader of the opposition, observed that the corner had been turned in the National Railways. The statement was gratifying, and a tribute to the management instituted by the late government. He regretted, however, that the present Liberal administration had delayed the work of unification with the Grand Trunk, and wondered what good would be accomplished by the promised parliamentary committee on freight rates.

"The announcement of the minister," charged Mr. Meighen, "is nothing but an admission of bankruptcy."

As the government-owned railways are still being operated in two groups by two separate boards, though with such co-ordination of operation as had been possible, it was necessary, said Mr. Kennedy, again to make separate statements concerning the operations of the Canadian National and Grand Trunk lines.

The outstanding feature of 1921 operations, he said, was the improvement in the position of the Canadian National-Grand Trunk combination. Those roads comprised approximately 52 per cent of the railway mileage in Canada, and in 1921 their percentage of gross earnings was 54.22.

Applying these percentages to gross earnings the transcontinental lines nationally-owned railways had increased their proportion of the available railway business and improved their position as carriers during the year to the extent of about $8,500,000.

Gross Earnings Increase.

The operated mileage of Canadian National lines at Dec. 31, 1921, was 17,338 miles. During 1921, 173 miles of new line were turned over to the operating department for permanent operation, and an additional 65 miles were turned over for operation on behalf of the construction department.

Units included in the mileage are as follows:

Canadian Government Railways: Intercolonial Railway, 1,670; P. E. I. Railway, 276; branch line, including the leased St. John and Quebec Railway, 515; total C. G. R., 2,461.

Transcontinental Railway, including Lake Superior branch, 2,007; Hudson's Bay Railway, 214; total 2,221.

Canadian Northern System, 9,900; Grand Trunk Pacific, 2,756; Grand total, 17,338.

The average mileage operated in 1921 was 17,064.

Gross earnings amounted to $126,691,455 and wages and fuel required $103,842,575 the balance, roughly $22,800,000, is, of course, insufficient to meet other operating charges totalling $39,000,000.

Ontario's Agnes, Finding Parliament Strenuous Job, Leaves For Dad's Farm

OTTAWA, April 11.—Miss Agnes MacPhail, M.P., has decided not to attend the pan-American congress of women to be held in Baltimore from April 29 to 29.

"I could not conscientiously absent myself from parliament for almost two weeks during my first session. I was elected to represent Southeast Grey, not to run about the country making speeches, much as I should like to have the benefit of meeting the women who will participate in the Baltimore gathering," Miss MacPhail said today.

"I am leaving for my father's farm this evening, and shall spend the whole Easter vacation there with my parents. I am really very tired. Being a member of the House of Commons is a strenuous life."

Lady Astor, member of the British House of Commons, will be present at the Baltimore gathering. In addition to sending greetings to the organization she has written Miss MacPhail several letters urging her to address the representative women who will be there.

Kennedy pointed out.

For this reason the operating ratio in 1921 was 112.7, as compared with 129.32 in 1920. In 1921 the distribution of the operating ratio was:

Wages 65.03, locomotive fuel 16.88, and other expenses 30.79. In 1920 wages took 78.61 cents of every revenue dollar.

Operating costs were high in January and February, due to the higher wage scale which was adopted in September, 1920, retroactive to May 1, the result of the Chicago award.

When traffic commenced to fall away forces were reduced, and by the end of April the staff showed a reduction from 60,500 in 1920 to 51,000 in 1921. This staff reduction ran nearly 10,000 below 1920 through the months of May, June and July, averaged about 6,000 less in August, September and October, and about 5,000 less in the last two months of the year.

The reduction of operating expenses by 20,000,000 was a welcome change, as in recent years it had been all the other way. Operating expenses of 1920 increased by more than $37,000,000 over 1919; those of 1919 increased by $27,000,000 over 1918.

Shows Wage Increase.

Total payroll, including betterments, was $88,755,060, as against $105,109,808 in 1920, a decrease of $16,354,748. The reductions in number of employees and of rates of pay from July 16, 1921, were estimated to account for $12,775,000 of this, and the balance was betterments.

The average railway wage grew from $13 in 1915 to $13.33 in 1920. Last year the average wage was $14.71.33, but the comparison was of little use in contrast with full employment years.

Mr. Kennedy said that at the present time negotiations are under way looking to a modification of some of the working conditions that the railways feel to be difficult of application, resulting in excessive wages in some classes and the placing of expenses on the railways which are claimed to be unduly burdensome.

"It is recognized," he said, "that railway wages must provide for a proper standard of living, but they should have reasonable relation to the importance and value of the work performed and to wages generally. The management inform me that the labor situation has greatly improved; that the spirit of railway labor is better than it was; that labor has been more efficient and is doing more work and better work. I am glad to give expression to the views of the management in that regard."

Turning to consideration of prices of materials and supplies, the minister stated that the trend was generally downward. The movement was slow, however, and prices continued greatly in excess of pre-war figures.

"Of course, a drop in prices is not immediately reflected in operating expenses, due to the necessity to keep on hand large stocks of fuel and other supplies, which have to be charged out at purchase price until new stock begins to be used," he added. "The management estimates the reduction in the expenditure last year to have been $1,550,000, reduction on account of materials and supplies generally $1,300,000, and on fuel $2,216,175.

The house then adjourned until Wednesday, April 12.

GALT TAX RATE FOR 1922 SHOWS 5-MILL INCREASE

City Council Prunes Estimates, But Must Meet Heavy Overdraft.

Special to London Advertiser.

GALT, April 11.—The city council at a special meeting this evening struck the tax rate for 1922 at 43 mills, an increase of 5 mills over last year. The increase was principally due to an overdraft, and an increase in the interest and sinking fund account, due to the great amount of work done in the past. Considerable pruning of estimates had to be done to keep the rate down.

Falling into the river near the G. T. R. Bridge, 4-year-old Eddie Petty, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Petty, 8 River street, was rescued by Clifford Bricker, 17, who jumped into the water without removing any of his clothing, and rescued the helpless child.

Word was received here today of the death in Toronto, after only four days' illness with pneumonia, of Mrs. J. K. Cranston, a former well-known resident.

Petitions were today in circulation in all wards of the city protesting against the passing of Galt's private bill, which would change the assessment of most of Galt's pavements from 100 per cent basis of 75 per cent to the property owners, and 25 per cent to the city at large. The opposition comes principally from the outlying sections of the city, which have little chance of ever having paved streets.

THIRTY THOUSAND ISLANDS OF THE GEORGIAN BAY.

The Georgian Bay, that great arm of Lake Huron, has become a favorite summer playground with residents of Canada and the United States. In this magnificent bay are more than 30,000 islands—lands crowned with vegetation that seems as fresh and captivating as though it were the morning of creation. Islands peeping out of the blue depths of crystal-like water and covered with moss, islands of all shapes and sizes. There are, in fact, 48,000 islands marked on the government charts, and even that figure does not include many very small islands. The principal gateway to the 30,000 islands region is Midland, Ontario, 101 miles north of Toronto.

The Grand Trunk have issued a publication with good map, and telling you all about it. A copy can be had for the asking. Apply to any Grand Trunk Agent, or C. E. Horning, D. P. A. Toronto, Ont.

Company To Impress Need of Care
At the Level Crossings.

Special to London Advertiser.

ST. THOMAS, April 11.—Local branches of the Ontario Motor League, the Kiwanis Club and other organizations of this city have been requested by the Michigan Central Railway to co-operate through thecoming summer with the company in its campaign to reduce railroad crossing accidents.On June 1 the M. C. R., in common with other railroads, will begin its "careful crossing" campaign in all parts of the company's lines in the United States and Canada. From then until Sept. 1 everything possible will be done by the company to impress upon both motorists and pedestrians the need of care in crossing railroad tracks at all times.The railroads will see that their highway crossings are in good condition for travel, and instruct employees of each department to see that they do their duty, especially those connected in any manner with the warning of the approach of trains.The entire community will be patrolled with uniform, appropriately designed tri-colored posters, bearing the inscription, "Careful Crossing Campaign," and the slogan, "Cross Crossings Cautiously." It is estimated that on the average of tencopies per mile will be distributed,
and the signs are expected to arrive at the local depot in a couple of weeks.GAVE "PER" FOR POISONED THUMBHAMILTON, April 11.—Ernest Rowan, 229 Wellington street north, was arrested early this morning on a charge of being drunk while driving an automobile. He was caught following an accident, and a constable swore he was drunk. He said he had dined with Dr. Baby at 9 o'clock, and before that had had only two drinks.Dr. Baby swore he prescribed liquor because Rowan had a poisoned thumb and Magistrate Jelfs told the doctor
he had no right to prescribe liquor in such a case, and that he held him partly responsible for what had happened. Rowan was sent to jail for thirty days.INDIANS EAGER

LAND RICH IN ROMANCE

Population With Adjoining States and Countries Exceeds 400,000,000.

BY RUSSELL F. BOYD.

India! What visions dance before the mind's eye when you hear that word?If you are an ordinary everyday sort of person, you undoubtedly picture princes and rajahs, great jungles, elephants and tigers, and fakirs asking alms on the highway. But, if you are a keen businessman you will see hundreds of millions of consumers, each needing daily bread, and clothes to wear.Incredulous persons would dismiss the idea of sending Canadian goods to India with a gentle titter. The distance, they would say, is too great and the whole matter but a south sea bubble.Such is not the opinion of the big businessman. He has statistics to convince him that the Indian empire possesses wonderful markets for Canadian products.In the first place, the total population of India, China, Japan, Malaya, Siam and the Netherlands East Indies, is not less than 400,000,000. Although the great majority of these people are almost paupers and consequently have a small purchasing power, these millions represent a large consuming power.

Now Facing Slump.

Just as the rest of the world is suffering from the effects of a period depression, is this great empire of the Far East experiencing an unfavorable economic condition. Like the rest of the world, India overbought and over-sold in 1919 and 1920, and is now paying the shot because she failed to foresee a falling off in demand.To approach a prospective customer and get results one must first study him. India is a prospective customer of Canada. It behooves Canadian business men to study the country, its people and their habits,
if they would share in the wonderful trade results which can be obtained by the employment of sufficient effort.Indian life, ideals and conceptions are diametrically opposite to those of the western world. India is the home of caste.
The people were supposed to have
first been divided into four castes, the Brahmin, which included the priests and professions; the Kasha-triya, composed of the warriors and rajahs; the Vaishya, composed of businessmen and farmers, and the Sudra or servant caste. This fourth caste was commanded to serve the others, according to the Institutes of Menu.

Castes Multiplied.

Later these four were sub-divided into 64. Then others were added, until they are as countless as the millions of people who dwell within the shadow of the great Himalayas.
There is one caste—the untouchable—which is lower than the beasts of the forest in the eyes of the jungle.Caste bonds cannot be broken. A man born an outcast dies an outcast, as do all his descendants.
Opportunity to improve one's social position in India is not granted.
In the western world to better one's place in life is one of the reasons for existence.One advantage of this system is the continuation of a craft from one generation to the next, and the keeping of skilled trade secrets. Nevertheless, the system prevents individual efforts and stunts ambition.Family life in India is the antithesis of what it is in Canada. The few bread-winners provide for the rest of the family. All the available labor is not employed, for there is a large percentage of drones.
Natives of India are not allowed to bequeath their savings of a lifetime to their children. Man cannot accumulate wealth in India. Big merchandise houses last but one generation, for they cannot be turned over to the heirs of the proprietors
when the latter die.

See Life as Illusion.

Life is an illusion to the Indian.
His every effort is directed toward escaping from it. His religion teaches him to do this.The Indian of high caste is born to scorn the material things, but educated to treasure them. Gradually, however, western influences are rooting out the turmoil that rages within the mind of the Asiatic.
The West is teaching him that life is something to be prized, and that man must strive to improve his social state as he goes through it. "Drink to the dregs of the Cup of Life," the Canadian tells the Indian. "Labor and enjoy the rewards that come from honest effort."If the earning power of the masses of India was increased but five per cent, the result would be $20,000,000
a day, extra available for spending.
Canadian trade officials advise that now is the time for a campaign to cement trade relations, for when a country has reached the rock bottom of commercial depression, only the reliable firms are secure.Caution should be the main stock in trade when dealing with the native Indian merchant. He does not believe that paying bills is a matter of honor,
but rather one of convenience.

Caution Advised.

One must do more than scratch
the surface to find out how a merchant in India really stands. Often these businessmen have small rooms in a bazaar and appear to be earning only a poor existence, while in reality they are wealthy, and are large importers with a big turnover.
Representatives of the departmentof trade and commerce at Ottawa who have been over the ground, advise Canadian businessmen who would seek trade in the Indian Empire to confine their activities to the European import houses. They also recommend that Canadian manufacturers who wish to enter India field send representatives from their firms to study the country, its peculiarities, its people and their mode of living.An interested exporter should study Indian trade returns first, or apply to the department of trade and commerce for advice, as to whether his product would find a good sale in Asia.

Famine Retards Growth.

Famine has retarded the growth of India to a great extent. The peasants have lived from hand to mouth and fail to provide for a rainy day. The construction of railways has done much to alleviate the suffering, but before the average built millions of persons would die in one district
while in an adjacent one the inhabitants were well fed.Seventy per cent of the people live on the fruits of the soil.
India depends on the Monsoon, or southeast trade wind, for her very life. It generally commences in April and ends in November. If it is a good one, India experiences a year of plenty; if it fails, the crops fail, and unemployment and starvation follow.Although the opportunities for doing so are manifold, India has produced little hydro-electric power.
Through the ports of Calcutta, Bombay, Rangoon, Karachi and Madras nearly all goods imported by India pass.The ports are controlled by port trusts, which have the power to obtain revenue by levying charges on goods passing through their sheds.
Money so derived is used for the upkeep and improvement of the ports.

Has Nine Railroads.

India possesses nine principal railroads with an average mileage of approximately 1,200.
The postal system in India is a very efficient one. The telegraph lines are under the direction of the postal department.Three rivers in India are navigable for miles, namely, the Ganges, the Brahmaputra and the Indus. The first two are good routes to the interior, where a large number of trading and manufacturing centers are situated.
The exchange question has had a disastrous effect on Indian trade and commerce recently. In February, 1920, the rupee was worth as much as 2s 10d (58 cents). In January, 1922, it had fallen to the low level of 1s 2d (4 cents). This has seriously affected many commercial houses in India.Indian labor is shiftless. The Indian does not work to get money to save. He works to get enough money to take a few holidays and avoid work. In one plant where the wages were increased there was an actual reduction of output. The Indian laborer is happy-go-lucky. He does not have any more than will keep him a few weeks.

Few Attend Schools.

Technical schools have been erected, but they are patronized by only the better class Indian. As he will not stoop to perform hard labor,
what he learns avails him nothing.
On the other hand, the laborer does not attend schools because he detests manual labor as much as he does manual labor.There is a great market for provisions in India, and it is increasing yearly. Canadians have not yet appreciated the opportunities that await them in this line of endeavor.
They have exported some foodstuffs, but not as much as they could if they developed the market.Among the principal foods which India imports are bacons and hams, biscuits, cheese, cereals, jellies and jams, condensed and preserved milk, pickles, canned and tinned provisions, flour, confectionery, fresh apples, soft drinks and tobacco. Extreme care in packing is essential, as the climate affects many articles to a great extent.In fresh apples Indians prefer the yellow-skinned variety rather than the red, and like them wrapped in tissue paper.
One large importer in India is seeking a soft drink from some Canadian manufacturer to put on the market. There is a great demand for beverages in India, and Canadians can have the preference for the asking, traders who have returned report.

Beaver Board Used.

Canadian beaver board is now on the market in Calcutta. At first Indians thought that it would not withstand the weather of their country, but the trade is increasing, and there is a good future in this market for enterprising Canadians.Canadian paper is not known in India, but trade officials expect that with better steamship connections established this trade will become profitable to Canadian manufacturers. At present, the officials say, Canada is exporting a great deal of paper to the United States, and that country, in turn, is exporting much of it. Canada has the opportunity, because of her great output, to occupy a premier position in this trade within a few years.Canadian steel has found its way into India, but very little is heard of it there yet.Bolts and nuts from Canadian firms have been found to be quite satisfactory.

Woven Wire Sells.

Woven-wire fencing from Canada has firmly established itself in the eastern empire. Dealers there are anxious to obtain Canadian gates which open automatically.Agricultural machinery, it has been ascertained, will find a ready market in India, but demonstrations are absolutely necessary before sales can be made.The use of motor cars, motorcycles, bicycles and tractors is becoming more general.
In hardware, metal and other lines
there are equally as wonderful opportunities for the Canadian who will go out and conquer.Sitting back and waiting for foreign trade is the surest way to miss it.For the man who will investigate and follow up his investigations there is big business waiting.India must no longer be considered merely a land of romance and legend, but rather a great big garden of opportunity which will reward
the individual or the nation who will work it. The more time spent in it, the greater will be the reward.For Freckled, Rough or Muddy ComplexionThe freckling, discoloring or roughening to which delicate skins are subject after exposure to wind or sun, often appearing in early spring, may readily be gotten rid of. Ordinary mercurized wax, spread lightly over the face before retiring and removed in the morning with soap and water, completely peels off the disfigured skin. Get an ounce of the wax at any drug store, or toilet counter. There's no more effective way of banishing freckles, liver spots, moth patches, pimples, or other cutaneous defects. Little skin particles come off each day, so the process doesn't even temporarily mar the complexion, and one soon acquires a brand new, spotless, gloriously beautiful face.The mercurized wax method is appreciated particularly by those who prefer "natural beauty" to that which is obviously otherwise.—Adv't.DON'T

QUIZ DEPUTY ON PENSION POLICY

Dominion United Veterans Present Application To Committee On Re-establishment.

Col. Arthur Requests Information Regarding Rights of Sick Soldier.

OTTAWA, April 11.—An application on behalf of the Grand Army of United Veterans by its secretary, J. F. Marsh, was made this morning before the standing committee on pensions and re-establishment. It was stated by Brig.-General Ross that there was to be a meeting tomorrow of the G. A. U. V. and the G. W. V. A. with a view as to representation. It was decided, on motion by Col. Arthur, to defer until next meeting of the committee the application of Secretary Marsh and also the application made by the G. W. V. A. and the Imperial Veterans in Canada.

The first witness heard was N. F. Parkinson, deputy minister of the department of soldiers' civil re-establishment.

Asked whether the machinery of the department was satisfactory, Mr. Parkinson stated that the government had never been limited in carrying out policy. He illustrated this by saying that the department had been freed from control by the civil service commission. The existing legislation was sufficient, except where moneys were needed to carry out new policies.

He outlined the procedure in cases where soldiers apply for assistance.

Not at Our Expense. Col. Arthur asked if the applicant might be advised of his right of appeal, when notified that his application is rejected.

"That is quite possible," answered the witness.

Gen. Ross asked if the department did not bring a man to Ottawa, if he appealed. "Not at our expense," was the reply, "unless we think he has a good case."

In reply to further questions, Mr. Parkinson stated that when the departmental doctor reported a claim the applicant was required to provide independent medical evidence as to his condition before he was re-examined by the department. W. G. Raymond, Brantford, asked whether there had not been recently received many applications for gratuity showing that the veterans did not know of their rights.

Mr. Parkinson said that gratuities were under the department of militia. He could not answer.

Under Close Supervision.

In reply to further questions the witnesses stated that every effort was made to diagnose the condition of applicants, even to sending them to hospitals and keeping them under close supervision.

"Will you accept the report of a civilian doctor and give the patient a re-examination?" asked Donald Sutherland.

"That is the basis for our future action," was the reply.

When a man's claim is rejected, asked Chairman Marler, are you influenced by the report of your unit which has rejected the claim, or do you err on the side of the soldier?

"Up to the present," was the answer, "we have erred on the side of the soldier."

"Has the applicant any further appeal?" again asked Mr. Marler. "Yes, if he brings further medical evidence."

"Unfortunately that policy has not been carried out," interjected W. F. Carrol, Cape Breton S. "I know of half a dozen cases of men in hospital, where the civilian doctor has sent in a report and the letters have never been answered."

Gen. Clark asked whether the right of appeal for examination was not limited to a year. "No, sir."

"Well," said Gen. Clark, "I have never seen a case when a man was discharged fit and his claim was admitted after a year."

"What is the time limit within which applications must be made under the act?" asked Chairman Marler.

"There is no limit for treatment for war disability," answered the deputy minister.

CITY IN NEED OF NEW LIBRARYFred Landon Says London Institution Ranks Among First Four in Canada.Lack of Space Said To Be Proving Detriment To Further Development.

London's public library ranks among the first four in the Dominion of Canada, and surpasses these in certain features. This fact was revealed by Fred Landon, M.A., public librarian in this city, in an address to members of the Chamber of Commerce at luncheon Wednesday noon.

Mr. Landon declared that one of the most important needs of the city at the present time is a new public library. He quoted statistics in support of this statement, showing that lack of space acts as a detriment to the service of the present institution.

The new building should be a fire-proof structure, "not a monument," he began. "I am not egotistic when I say that those who know the library situation rank the London public library among the first four in Canada, and higher in some respects. The circulation is as varied as the people who enter the library. Our organization for calls or demands for books stands next to Toronto in Canada."

"We have not the book stocks of some cities of Canada, but we have the whole resources of the Western University library, which places us very high in the scale. Perhaps there are only two cities in the Dominion ahead of us—Toronto and Winnipeg. The university library is at your service, due to the policy of the library board in the early days."

"Western University had no library then, and the public library had to be their's. Books were bought for it that would never have been purchased for a public library. Visitors are always surprised by the character of the books on our shelves, and not seen in other libraries."

"The university authorities thought it was up to them, under more prosperous conditions, to provide facilities for the public, just as the public had served them. There are as a result 100,000 volumes at your service."

"It is a distinction to be a library city," continued Mr. Landon. "The Germans burned the library of Louvain and shocked the whole world. Aside from cruelty to certain individuals such as the burning of the whole world more than the burning of this library."

"Books embody the wisdom of the past, and man regards them with a religious superstition, and reverence. The Germans burned the library of Louvain and shocked the whole world. Aside from cruelty to certain individuals such as the burning of the whole world more than the burning of this library."

WILL TENDER RECEPTION TO
REV. DR. BOWLEY GREENCongregation of Talbot Street Church Arranges Event For Tuesday, April 18.

Members of the congregation of Talbot Street Baptist Church are to tender a reception at 8 p.m. Tuesday evening, April 18, to Rev. Bowley Green, D.D., who has recently become their pastor.

Rev. Dr. Green, who succeeds the Rev. T. S. Roy, as pastor of Talbot Street Church, came to London from Montreal, N. B., where for five years he occupied successfully the pulpit of the First Baptist Church, one of the largest Baptist churches in Canada.

The ministry of Dr. Green, who was born and educated in England, has been spent for the greater part in the United States, at Boston and Lowell, Mass., and at Bridgeport, Conn. While at Bridgeport, Rev. Dr. Green received the call which brought him to the First Baptist Church, Acadia University, the degree of Doctor of Divinity.

The congregation of Talbot Street Church have already been cordial in their acceptance of Dr. Green, expressing their appreciation of him in many ways. The reception Tuesday evening is, however, to be the formal expression of this sentiment and other Baptist clergy and members of their congregations are to be present.

SHILLINGTON SLEEPS AND EATS WELL IN JAIL CELLFormer Trusts Company Employee
Will Appear in Court Thursday
Instead of Friday.

Owing to Friday being a holiday, Harold Shillington, on remand at the county jail on a nominal charge of stealing $3,000 in government bonds from the London & Western Trusts Company, during September and October last, will appear before Magistrate Graydon in police court on Thursday morning instead of Friday, according to his counsel, J. M. McEvoy, K.C.

"I have nothing to say for publication regarding the case," stated Mr. McEvoy Wednesday. "I fancy that the proceedings in court on Thursday will be rather short."

Asked if he would apply for bail for Shillington, Mr. McEvoy said that he had heard nothing definite in the matter. He had just returned from Toronto and matters were still in abeyance as far as Shillington was concerned.

At the county jail it was stated that Shillington, a former accountant of the Trusts Company, seemed to be quite cheerful. He apparently was not worrying to any extent about his trial, officers stating that he eats and sleeps well.

check itself has gone back to the city treasurer's office, and often actually is paid out before the board as a whole approves of the same. There is too much of this "feeling back and forth" and we must institute a better scheme."

Michigan and Toronto, and the Congress Library at Washington was instanced by Mr. Landon to show the resources in literature at London's hand.

The cost of this service for Londoners runs four-fifths of a cent each, per week.

"That is not a very expensive luxury," commented Mr. Landon. "I am not in favor of new buildings for branch libraries at the present time. We need a new public library, modern and fireproof. We do not want a monument, but we want a building to accommodate 150,000 volumes. We have some books stored in the cellar now for lack of space."

"It should not be an expensive proposition," he concluded. "Its location should be on Dundas street, although that may surprise you. Near the city hall is the best site. The people will not worry over the noise as they come to the library for a specific purpose. It will not interfere with business expansion, either, but will help trade."

J. J. Foot, president at the luncheon, and Thomas Adams of Ottawa, Dominion town planning expert, was present as a guest of the London Chamber of Commerce.

CHOIR SCORES BIG HIT WITH CANTATAWortley Road Baptist Chorists Present "Bethany" at Talbot Street Church.

Under the leadership of E. E. Werner, and with Miss Doris Werner at the piano, the choir of Wortley Road Baptist church presented in Talbot Street Baptist church, Tuesday evening, the sacred cantata "Bethany," a performance marked by the acknowledged success which has accompanied its former hearings at the Wortley Road church and at Askin Street Methodist church.

"Bethany," the simple home of Lazarus, and his sisters, Mary and Martha, wherein Jesus, "the homeless one," often found rest and comfort, forms the setting for this work, and the opening chorus pictures the disciples singing while they march from Jerusalem to the quiet village where they are to meet the Master.

In this chorus the superb training of the fifty-five voices, which form the choir, and the twenty-piece orchestra, which accompanies it, became evident, and set an example of excellent work which the remainder of the performance sustained to the fullest degree.

Render Solo Numbers.

Eminent among the solo numbers were those of W. Chalcraft, who sang the words of Jesus, and Miss Anna Cochran, soprano soloist of Talbot Street church, who took the role of Mary. In a baritone of rich timbre, Mr. Chalcraft interpreted the words of the Master, bringing out to their sacred pathos and beauty.

Perhaps the most beautiful of all the numbers was his song on the arrival of the messenger, part taken in the chorale tenor by W. McCormick, who told of the illness of Lazarus. "This sickness is not unto death but for the glory of God; that the Son of God might be glorified thereby. Let us go into Judea again," words which are followed by the stirring chorus of the disciples.

"Master, O go not, the Jews will betray thee," words which are followed by the stirring chorus of the disciples.

Mary and Martha Duet.

In the following number a duet, Mary and Martha bewailing the death of their brother and the absence of Jesus, Miss Cochran's clear soprano took on its clearest tones, rising to the agony of the death with purest finish, while the deep voice of Mr. McCormick, who sang for Mrs. G. W. Grose, choiced the pathetic lament.

In addition to the cantata were a solo by Miss Myrtle Roxson, who has recently joined the Wortley Road choir as soprano soloist, and a beautiful oratorical duet, "God is Our Refuge," by Mr. W. Chalcraft and Rev. N. S. McCormick, who interpreted also the role of one of the disciples. A violin obligato by A. E. Sweetzer added much to the beauty of the duet.

At the close of the first part of the cantata, flowers were presented to Miss Anna Cochran in appreciation of her services as soloist.

Rev. Dr. Bowley Green, who introduced the taking-up of an offering, lauded the work of the Ladies' Aid of the church, who had undertaken the concert as a means of raising part of the $2,000 which they have subscribed toward the organ fund of the church.

The cantata is to be repeated on Easter Sunday evening at 8:15 in Wortley Road Baptist church, and is a splendid example of choral work and interpretation which should be heard by all music lovers.

ALDERMAN WANTS ONLY CANADIAN GOODS BOUGHTAnother Says Domestic Firms Could Better Compete If U. S.
Prices Known.

Should the city of London purchase supplies for the works department from United States firms?

This question has been raised as a result of the calling for tenders for supplies by the engineer. In many cases the engineer has recommended that all tenders be thrown out and goods purchased on the open market.

Ald. G. B. Drake is in favor of buying only Canadian goods.

Ald. Douglas declares that the city should be consistent in this matter. He says that the tenders thrown out are those where U. S. firms are the lowest, and declared that from them the Canadian firms would get a knowledge of the prices quoted and thus get a chance to meet them.

The city let the tender to U. S. firm for asphalt and oil because the price was the lowest. He wanted consistency of action.

LIFE AND CHARACTER READING

APRIL 12. People born on this date are selfish and grow angry at the least provocation. They are whimsical, impetuous, and fickle in the extreme. They do not easily forgive their enemies, although they are rarely tempted to seek revenge for their wrongs. They will die fighting for a friend or a principle, but they will not yield a point until they are obliged to.

The people born on this date come under the sign of Mars, and the planets are Neptune and Mars. The Aries people who are tall and broad shouldered are more alert, with a deep spiritual nature, and great occult power if they choose to develop it. They are very generous, and distinguished for their good works, but are not so fortunate in worldly affairs as those who are short of stature.

MUTT AND JEFF

MUTT, I SEE THERE'S A STATESMAN WHO DECLARES ALL WAR DEBTS OUGHT TO BE CANCELLED!

HE'S A NUT!

BUT I AGREE WITH HIM! WISE OUT ALL THOSE WAR DEBTS AND START WITH A CLEAN SLATE AND WE'LL ALL BE HAPPY!

I CAN'T SEE IT!

BUT EVERY LOAN MADE DURING THE WAR WAS MADE UNDER DIRE STRESS AND THE ONLY ECONOMIC SOLUTION IS TO CANCEL THEM!

I GUESS YOU'RE RIGHT, AT THAT!

SO WE'LL JUST FORGET THE SEVENTEEN DOLLARS I BORROWED FROM YOU THE SECOND YEAR OF THE WAR!

YOU CHUMP!

LAUD KENNEDY'S RAILWAY PLAN

Statement Made To Commons by Minister Is Considered "Explicit."

Brief Session Held Tuesday Preceding Easter Recess.

BY JOHN J. McLELLAN.
OTTAWA, April 11.—Considerable surprise was expressed tonight because of the 6 o'clock adjournment of the house by many of the members. It is understood that the short sitting today, however, was by arrangement, so that the members could complete their preparations for returning home and make train connections tonight without waiting until tomorrow. The last day of the Commons recess provided ample food for thought for the members, and in the railway statement many of them will find great scope for their powers of concentration to tackle, and for their brains to toil over.

The most repeated phrase heard tonight concerning the statement of Hon. W. C. Kennedy, minister of railways, made in the house today, is "Clear, very clear and explicit!" There were no wasted words in the statement, nor attempts at oratorical flights, but only a straightforward statement of the government's attitude toward the monumental problem of Canada's nationally-owned railways.

Though the opposition inferred in the speeches of its members that the statement of the minister would be the subject of considerable criticism when the main railway estimates were taken up, it is thought that this is merely a subterfuge to escape the onus of finding fault with a statement that does not easily lend itself to unfavorable criticisms or onslaughts.

One month has passed practically since the house opened, and tonight a summing up of progress has been going on. That the fourteenth parliament has so far made great strides, in view of the peculiar political situation it had to face with the new parties in the house, is the consensus of opinion.

GOOD PROGRAM ARRANGED FOR RALLY OF BAPTISTS

Discussions of Current Issues, Exercises, Prominent Speakers Included.
Baptist Young People Unions will hold their annual rally in Talbot Street Baptist Church Good Friday, April 14, during afternoon and evening sessions, and a program has been arranged which includes prominent speakers and discussion of current issues among churchgoers of today.

The afternoon session opens with a debate, "Resolved, that the home is a more potent factor in Christianity than the church," and it is expected that interesting opinions will be expressed on this subject, which is considered one of the most important questions concerning young people with which the church has to deal.

Following the debate will be an exercise, "The Challenge of the Cross," in which all delegates are asked to participate.

During the supper hour the young people will be given the opportunity of improving acquaintance with each other and also of practicing yells and songs for the convention of Baptists in the provinces of Ontario and Quebec which are to be held shortly.

At the evening session Rev. J. L. Stot of Niagara Falls will deliver an address dealing with many of the problems which face the young people of the present generation.

Day's Legislative Doings at Ottawa

TODAY IN PARLIAMENT.
House of Commons.
House stands adjourned until Wednesday, April 19.

The Senate will not sit until Tuesday, April 25.

YESTERDAY IN PARLIAMENT.
In the Commons.

Hon. W. C. Kennedy, minister of railways, presented his first railway budget to the house at the opening of the afternoon sitting. He announced that the total deficit on the Canadian National Railways last year was $56,505,959, as compared with $67,505,959 the year previous.

The net loss on the Grand Trunk for the year, including fixed charges, was $15,672,239, as against a loss for 1920 of $6,627,243. The total loss on the Canadian National and Grand Trunk systems stands at $72,346,234.

Discussing the statement, R. Hon. Arthur Meighen, leader of the opposition, said that it was gratifying and a tribute to the management instituted by the late government. He charged that the present administration had delayed the work of unifying the system.

The House of Commons adjourned at 6 o'clock for Easter, to meet again on Wednesday, April 19.

In the Senate.
The Senate did not sit.

SUNDAY SCHOOL HOLDS ANNIVERSARY CONCERT

Empress Avenue Church Is Scene of Big Gathering To Mark Event.

One of the most successful anniversaryes ever held at Empress Avenue Sunday School was completed Tuesday evening with an excellent concert given entirely by members of the school. Preceding the concert, which commenced at 8 o'clock, a supper was served to all of the members by the teachers and officers. Much of the success of this end of the program was due to the able management of Mrs. R. C. Bowie, who was member of the supper committee.

The program of the concert was lengthy and most enjoyable, being composed as follows: choruses by the primary department, recitations by Ruth Cowan, Reggie Page, Edna Pearson, Shirley Jefferies, Annie Terrell, Kenneth Wimmer, Helen Shed, June Mitchell and readings by Geraldine Efner, Ross Willis and Ben Eckhart.

Very pretty and nicely executed drills were given by Misses North's and Parker's classes, Miss Wilson's class, Miss Johnson's class, Miss MacPherson's class, Mrs. Scott's class, Mrs. McLean's and Miss Wild-gust's classes, and Mrs. Barry's class. Dialogues were given as follows: Gordon Guymer's class, Mr. Smeltzer's class and Mrs. Rossier's class.

Among other numbers very much enjoyed were a quartette by the "Four Fullers," violin solo by Lorne Boasacril, piano solo by Miss Edith Schreiber.

Mr. L. D. Graham, superintendent of the Sunday school, was chairman and during the course of the evening read a clipping from a local paper giving an account of the Anniversary Services at Empress Avenue Sunday School 25 years ago. It was surprising how many people who took part in that program were in the audience.

The Sunday services were very much enjoyed. In the morning Rev. Mr. Hedly of Byron made the service very impressive. The afternoon session was most interesting, including an excellent address by Mr. George W. Hoffer. In the evening, Mr. George Stanley of Lucan, no stranger to Empress avenue, was enjoyed even more than usual. The music for all occasions was furnished by the Sunday school orchestra and members of the Sunday school.

WANT INSTITUTIONS FOR ERRING YOUTHS PROVIDED

Social Service Workers Will Seek Legislation To Improve Conditions.

Final details are to be arranged at a meeting of the executive of the Ontario Social Service Council in Toronto, Tuesday, April 18, for the general assembly of social service workers, which is to be held in Brantford, April 8-11. The conference is to be chiefly taken up with the consideration of child welfare work and further legislation in the interests of dependent and neglected children. The social service council has already accomplished much in the matter of legislation for children and is concentrating now on obtaining laws which will further improve conditions.

One important law which the council will attempt to have passed is to raise the age of juveniles from 16 to 18 years and to provide institutions where wayward juveniles may be properly cared for instead of being confined in the common jail.

Further activities of the Social Service Council were announced on Wednesday by Rev. T. D. McCullough who stated that a field day was planned for Stratford Sunday, April 30, when representatives of the Social Service Council of Ontario would address meetings. On the Monday following, Mr. McCullough stated, he expects a meeting will be held for the reorganization of the Stratford Social Service Council, which has hitherto been almost dormant.

DISMISS ACTION AGAINST FARMER

The action of Mrs. Gertrude Brown of Melbourne against Donald Campbell, of Ekfrid township to recover $2,434.12, alleged to be due her by Campbell, was dismissed with costs to the plaintiff, according to a judgment handed down by Judge Talbot Macbeth Wednesday.

The case was heard before Judge Macbeth at the non-jury sittings of the county court at the court house last week, the proceedings lasting over two days.

The defence alleged that Mr. Campbell had paid over all money due the plaintiff, and that nothing was owing her.

J. M. McEvoy, K.C., appeared for Mrs. Brown, and J. C. Elliott, K.C., for Campbell.

CLAIM DYE PACT WAS FORMED

Leeds, England, April 12.—The Yorkshire Evening News yesterday published particulars of a commercial alliance which, it says, has been concluded between Germany and France. The newspaper says it is understood a leading French dyestuffs company has come to an agreement with the German dye trust under which the Germans agree to give France all the technical assistance in their power, to disclose the secrets of their laboratories, tell how they are designed and send trained German chemists to French factories to superintend the secret processes in actual manufacturing operations. The French have undertaken, says the News, that their output of dyestuffs shall be confined to the demands of France and her colonies, and they consent to hand over to the Germans 50 per cent of their profits.

Mr. Vining urged those present to give their support to the scheme of establishing a juvenile court in London. He pointed out that the chief idea of the court would be to protect bay and girl delinquents and keep them away from those who are criminally inclined.
