GRIP, COMPLETE from No. 7, Vol XIV., January 13, 1880, down to its termination with vol XLI., July, 1893, 3 years being bound in cloth, the remainder in weekly numbers as published, all being nice and clean, 75.00, Toronto, 1880-1893. 1

AN EXCEEDINGLY SCARCE PUBLICATION, two sets only are known to be in existence, one of which found its way into Catalogue No. XXIX., February, 1894, for $275, and will never be offered for sale again. GRIP is decidedly the most clean and the most impressive pictorial history of Canada during the time of its publication, and no complete history of the country can be compiled without consulting its overflowing pages. THE MANY THOUSANDS OF ILLUSTRATIONS are not merely fantastic portraits or grotesque and comic representations of the events of the day, but are SPEAKING LIKENESSES OF MOVING CHARACTERS, suggesting maxims or preaching truths before the time.

BUCKINGHAM (Jas. Silk) Works. HISTORICAL, STATISTIC and DESCRIPTIVE, many of the volumes being illustrated, 19 vols 8vo, 2 vols post 8vo, and one 4to, 2 being half calf, the remainder in cloth, together 22 vols, 12.75 the lot, London, 1841, etc. 2

Our author undertakes to give "facts and impressions that other and more literary travellers have not thought it worth while to narrate," and in putting him to the test we naturally turn to his description of our own City of Toronto, known the world over as the "City of Churches." He makes no mention of this, but goes straight for the four opposite corners in the very heart of the city, and which is not so well known, but which is equally true, and called LEGISLATION, EDUCATION, SALVATION, and DAMNATION—meaning thereby, Government House, Upper Canada College, a Presbyterian church, and a public house.

Cheap, Useful and Interesting Magazine Literature for the Winter Evenings.

New Monthly Magazine and Humorist, edited by TOM HOOD and HARRISON AINSWORTH, from 1843, part 2, to 1847 inclusive, plates by Leech and Phiz, 14 vols, large 8vo, half calf, A SCARCE AND VALUABLE LOT, 8.50. 239

The contributions of some of the BEST WRITERS of the TIME ORIGINALLY APPEARED in this well-known periodical, and the above contains a good portion of Mrs. Trollope's "THE BARNABYS IN AMERICA," with comic illustrations. THOMAS HOOD, HORACE SMITH, BARRY CORNWALL, ELIZA COOK, AGNES STRICKLAND, T. ROSCOE, JOHN OXFORD, G. P. R. JAMES, THOS. INGOLDSBY, THOMAS MILLER, W. HARRISON AINSWORTH, THOMAS CAMPBELL, and many others were among those who contributed.

ANTI-JACOBIN (The) REVIEW and MAGAZINE, or Monthly Political and Literary Censor, from its commencement with vol 1, 1798, down to vol 23, 1806, with several plates by Gilray, 23 vols, 8vo, cloth boards, 6.50.

The exterior is not grand, but is an INTERESTING, SCARCE and VALUABLE LOT. Canning, GIFFORD, Hookham, Frere, and other celebrated men contributed to this famous periodical, the pages of which overflow with the politics of the time dressed in wit and epigram. The poetry of the Anti-Jacobin, mostly by CANNING, will be known as long as the English language is spoken. PITT contributed nearly the whole of the first column in each number. Its politics are red hot, and those interested in Napoleon, the French Revolution and American Questions will here find waters in which they may swim.

PREACHER'S Complete Homiletical Commentary on the Old Testament (The), with Critical and Exegetical Notes by various authors, complete, with an Elaborate and Copious Index Volume, 21 vols, 8vo, cloth, 25.50, (pub. £8), 1892. 691

Containing a sermon outline or homiletic suggestion on every paragraph or verse that can be turned to use in the preparation of a sermon.

"I like the numbers of the 'Homiletic Commentary,' and think it likely to be most useful."—Bishop Ryle.

"I have examined carefully this 'Homiletic Commentary.' As a result I have no hesitation in recording my opinion that the work will be found very useful and helpful to preachers, and especially to those who feel at times severely the strain which the labour of preparation imposes week after week. I wish this work, and the series to which it belongs, all the success it deserves."—R. W. Forrest, Dean of Worcester.

"These outlines are not mere dry suggestions, but are instinct and vivid with life and feeling. It is an invaluable repertory of all the best things."—Christian World.

"It may safely be said that 'The Preacher's Commentary' is one of the best of the class of works to which it belongs, and that it is evidently the outcome of much conscientious study and labour. In addition to the outlines, which it can hardly be doubted, will be largely utilised by preachers, the work includes a large assortment of notes illustrative of the text drawn from various sources. It is, in short, a comprehensive commentary, which may be studied with profit even by those who are not engaged in the making of sermons, and which will afford all requisite assistance, and something more, to those who are so engaged."—The Scotsman.

This volume has no life of this ILLUSTRIOUS JEWELL IN CHURCH HISTORY whose extensive learning, deep and fervent piety and unwearied labors will be remembered throughout all time to come.
- 712 Baxter's (Richard) PRACTICAL WORKS with a Preface, an Essay on his Genius, Works and Times, portrait, 4 stout imp 8vo vols, cloth, 3.75, London, 1838.
A well-known and learned old Nonconformist divine. Unlike GOODWIN in some respects he resembled him in others. By the Act of Uniformity he was driven from that church of which he had been so conspicuous an ornament. He was harrassed by his tormentors and abused and maltreated by the infamous Judge Jeffreys. That learned brute fined our author 500 marks, and he was saved from a whipping by a more Christian judge, the fine having been remitted through the personal interces-sion of the Roman Catholic Lord Powis after eighteen months imprisonment. BISHOP STILLINGFLEET styled our author "Our reverend and learned Mr. Baxter," and his works, had they been placed in good church or Sunday school libraries in the place of light literature, would have prevented hundreds of churches and Christians from withering away.
