She could not held feeling impressed by John Bardon. She knew that he admired her; but she never dreamed that he would have the presumption to love her. She would as soon have though of marrying one of the men working John Bardon. He was not of her class, not of her world, and she had "Thank you," he said gratefully. "I riches to which he belonged. Still she thought more for the moment of this lowly-born stalwart man than she did of handsome fair-haired Sir Fulke. But, when the day came for her to leave Chandos, she had almost forgotten the existence of both, and thought only of the triumphs which awaited her in the fashionable world.

> . . . . . . . . . . "She went, saw, and conquered" might well have been said of Lady Iris Fayne. The duchess who presented her at court was delighted with her proteges. The royal lady who received her admired her fair fresh lovliness; and every one discerned in her a future queen of society.

Lord Caledon was highly pleased with the homage she received, and on all sides he heard the most lavish praises of his daughter. It was not only because she was so beautiful that people were anxious to know her; she was mistress of Fayne House, one of the most magnificent and hospitable mansions in London. Before she had been in town many days Lady Iris Fayne was one of the most popular and admired persons in the fashionable world.

The day of her presentation was one that would never be forgotten by her The homage paid to her superb beauty the magnificence and luxury that surrounded her, the glorious future all brilliant and bright stretching out before her, were almost enough to turn her head; but she accepted all praise and homage with the proud calm grace of one who thought it her due.

It was now midnight; and, tired out at last, her fair queenly head resting on her father's shoulder, she was thinking of the dead mother who would have enjoyed her triumph as

"Papa," she said, with a sigh, half of happiness, half of fatigue. "I won der if this will prove the most brilliant day of my life?"

Lord Caledon smiled. "You will have one more brillia still, I hope, Iris, and that will be you: "I could not help wishing pray do

She kissed me, papa, and I saw tears in her eyes; then she looked at me with a smile. 'You are not in the least like your mother,' she said. She was dark, and you are very fair.'

TORONTO, Sept.-Rev. Dr. Samuel

Dwight Chown, of Toronto, General

Superintendent of the Methodist Church in Canada, who will preside at the opening of the Methodist Gen eral Conference in this city on September 27, has been General Superin tendent of the Church for twelve years, being associated with the late Rev. Dr. Carman for four years of that time, and being the sole occupant of the position for the last eight years. Dr. Chown has been an outstanding figure in Canadian Methodism for many years. His activities in religious, social and moral reform ovements have extended out far beyond the borders of the Dominion and he has an international reputa- Fur, Hide and Metal Co. tion. The General Conference of the Methodist Church is one of the great religious organizations of this country and this parliament of delegates is representative of every section of Canada, Newfoundland and Bermuda, and the great mission work in China and Japan. During its coming two weeks' session in this city it will plan for the general progress of the Church. Dr. Chown received his education at the Kingston Grammar School, and at Victoria University, Cobourg. The Honorary dergree of Doctor of Divinity was conferred upon him by Victoria University in 1898, and he holds the same degree from Knox College; also the LL.D. destee from Mount Allison and Ohio Wesleyan Universities. He was ordained a minister in 1876, and for twenty years was in the active pastorate, during which he held important charges in the Toronto and Montreal Conferences. Among the official positions Dr. Chown has held in the Methodist denomination are the following:-Chairman of the Toronto West District, 1897-9; Chairman of the Toronto Central District, 1900-2; President of the Toronto Conference in 1900, and Secretary of the Social Service Department, 1902-10. Dr. Chown has been a member of the Joint Committee on the question o Church Union since the beginning of negotiations. He has been an ardent advocate of the union of Methodist, Presbyterian and Congregational Churches of this country, and has frequently spoken in public in support of that proposal.

what right shall any foreign nation interfere with the expressed will of the Grecian people?" LABOR'S DEMAND.

LONDON, Sept. 22.

The attitude of the British Labour Party toward the Near Eastern situation is succinctly set forth in a cable message to Australia and New Zealand Laborites. "British Labor is opposed to any war in the Near Bast, opposed to any way of avoiding and believes the only way of avoiding it is by reference of the dispute to the League of Nations, in which Turkey, Russia, and Germany should be included. Turks to cross at Constantinoptes.

Unhappily we lack ammunition, artillery and general equiptment. The Smyrna massacre speaks for itself. Greece is defending civilization. Internally Greece is quiet. There is absolutely no danger of a revolution. Foreign reports of trouble are the outgrowth of the insistence of our troops that they be returned instead of being demobilized on the Islands. But these weary men have no revolutionary designs; they only wanted to go home. We found that out when we sent our Athena army, as a precaution, to Piragus. Immediately some returned soldiers exclaimed sadly, "what, are you treating us wearied patriots as enemies?" Our King remains because the people demanded him, and wanted him. By what right shall any foreign nation interest with the automatical patriots are nationally of the interest taken in tennis in this country.

One of the many causes of our present calamity is the unrealizable dream of our previous rulers. They dreamed of building a vast empire, of uniting all the Moslem nations or the Turanian race; hence Pan-Islamism and Pan-Turanism. These were the dreams that led the members of the Union and Progress organizations to enter the great war. These are ideals up in the clouds. Let us be more humble and more realistic in our policy. What I understand by Pan-Islamism is this: As a Moslem nation we are exceedingly interested in the fate of our Moslem brothers of other lately has been extended to four countries. ## Death Watch Beetle Wreaks Destruction.

WESTMINSTER HALL IN DANGER.

LONDON, Sept. - (By Canadian Press.)—Westminster Hall's famous roof, one of the architectural glories over £100,000. The cause of the trouble is a tiny grub known scientifically as xestobium tessellatum, and popularly known as the death watch beetle. The roof has withstood time and the elements for over 400 years in an excellent state of preservation, but through the centuries has been steadlly eating the heart out of the timbers and perforating their outer surfaces with innumerable exit holes until they resemble gigantic pepper castors. Have You Seen the

JEWETT CAR?

THE JEWETT IS PAIGE BUILT.

The new Jewett is of Paige conception, designed and built by Paige engineers and mechanics in the Paige shops. From its Paige origin the Jewett inherits those unmistakable marks of Quality, characterizing the work of a group of men, who for ten years past, have been building the fine six-cylinder cars, bearing the Paige monogram.

Let us demonstrate to you its remarkable power and quality-5 passenger touring-$2200; Sedan
