Middleton.

Several car loads of apples are being shipped to the English market this week. Prices are reported good.

Slipping parties are the order of the day, or rather evening, of late. Doubting if the noise made, those taking part in them must have had a glorious time.

G. O. Miller, Theo. Jones, F. M. Chipman and a number of others from this end of the county attended the Fruit Growers' Association at Wolfville last week. They report a very interesting meeting.

A vote of thanks is due to Chas. Phinney of the Middleton Hotel, for clearing the snow off the sidewalks of our principal streets, on Monday morning, with his snow plough. We will have to expect him one of our admirer soon.

The friends of the Monitor's manager here were greatly surprised at receiving his wedding cards this week. It was no mystery, you know—none of us had heard a whisper of it, and thought friend "Mack" was confirmed in his belief as to be proof against the darts of Cupid, and the snare and vicissitudes of leap year privileges.

He has the best wishes of a whole host of friends, who hope that he will find the yoke easy and the burden light. As Shakespeare says: "There is a divinity that doth shape our ends, rough how they come that we may call it." Ah, Richard!

The fine sleighing of last week gave our horsemen an opportunity of exercising their trotters. On several occasions quite a number were out and good speed was done. Among these were Messrs. J. H. Phinney, John Ross, Chas. Phinney, V. H. Phinney, Master Willie Miller, M. A. Shaffer and others. Master Willie's pony, that he could almost sing by the tail, had little difficulty in keeping up with the rest.

Mr. Armstrong's colt, only 18 months old shows splendid speed, only his veteran horseman, J. M. Ross generally has something which enables him to keep near the head of the procession, and last week he has a handsome little pacing mare, of the Freshman breed. The boys are expected to push again next Saturday night, and if the weather is fine and sleighing good.

Lawrencetown. Good sleighing. Mr. E. T. Whitman is seriously ill. Mr. Rankin is again able to be out of doors.

Mr. Rogers of Mr. Margison recovering are now given up. Miss Oakes is home for a few days, her mother being ill.

Master Joe Burns has been called home on account of his mother's illness. Mr. E. B. Bishop of Whitman, Mass., is among us for a few weeks visit.

A daughter of Mr. Clarke, has married Capt. and Mrs. West on the 21st. The members of Paradise Division visit Nelson Division next Saturday evening. Feast rafter of an election soon, but the main topic of conversation is Cape Breton's new given up.

Mr. E. P. Phinney and Miss Nita Belmont spent Sunday last week at Berwick, returning on Tuesday accompanied by Miss Lizzy Banks, who is returning a few weeks with her sister Mrs. O. Belmont.

Mr. Byron Sims of Plymouth, Yarmouth Co. visited his cousin, Mrs. L. C. Marshall, on his return from Antville, where he accompanied the Yarmouth Co. Agricultural Fair at the Farmer's Conference.

Clementville. K. Darling, of Springfield, is visiting here. Mrs. Spruill, on going to his barn, found her horse very fine and dead. The good friends are going to make a holiday of Mrs. Langille's donation visit, a holiday event.

A lady called on Mr. and Mrs. Valentine Long, etc. On the 21st, Mrs. Langille came to stay, as she is a welcome guest. The good people of this place made Mrs. Alice C. Foster a wood handling on Wednesday night, which greatly enlarged her woodpile.

Mr. John Lantz, an architect, who has been caring for her mother, Mrs. Joseph Potter, returned to her home via Port George last Thursday.

Friday evening quite a number from here attended the P. M. supper at Wolfville. A good time was enjoyed and $15.00 added to the treasury's fund.

Our old folks concert called the "Birth Day Centennial," which was given on the stage were old folks who were varied from fifty to over eighty singing with old-time vigor and enthusiasm, songs, duets, quartets, etc. One interesting feature was a solo by Mr. Alfred Drees, who plays his own accompaniment. The sum of $64.10 was realized.

Springfield. Mr. Oliver McNay returned from New Albany on Friday.

Mr. Edward H. Marshall spent the 21st and 22nd at Middleton.

Mr. Isaac Darling, of Lawrencetown, was here on the 23rd buying up cattle.

Mrs. Abigail Charlton is at New Canada, visiting her daughter, Mrs. Harvey Mader. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Marshall were the guests of Pastor and Mrs. Washburn on the 21st.

Mr. Major L. Ross, of Kentville, son of Mr. Henry F. Ross, is home on a short vacation.

Mrs. Charles Allen spent a few days last week at the home of her sister, Mrs. John Crook.

Mr. Emory C. Darling went away on the 17th, taking with him some of the Springfield A. I. sleighs.

Mr. and Mrs. Enoch Kniffin of New Albany were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. William McNay, on the 17th.

The members of Wycliffe Division, S. T. have invited New Germany, Clarendon and Dalhousie Divisions to meet with them on Friday, 31st inst. A good time is expected.

Centerville. The snowstorm of Saturday is a great boon to the lumbermen of this vicinity.

Mr. Benjamin Brooks purchased a fine yearling of one in Round Hill, on Friday.

On Saturday last, Milton Patterson and Lewis Sisk, who have been in the employ of Mr. John Brooks, returned to their homes in Victoria Harbor.

We seem to have had our share of accidents of late, Mr. Norman Brooks and Mr. John Bessie being the latest victims, both cutting themselves badly.

Berwick. Parties are plentiful this season. "Jack Frost" is certainly now king in this part of the world.

There is some talk of a social being held early in the month of February. A large crowd witnessed the embarkation of the general and troops.

—Cathryn can be successfully treated only by purifying the blood, and the one true blood purifier is Hood's Sarsaparilla.

South Williamton.

Mr. Charles Bishop, who has been visiting friends and relatives in Bangor and Boston, has returned home.

Miss Brown, of Margareville, and Mrs. L. P. Shaffer, of Middleton, were visiting friends here a few days last week.

Mrs. Judson Bishop has gone to Bear River to spend a few weeks with her daughter, Mrs. W. A. Clute and Mrs. Capt. Crook.

Mr. R. Bishop, of Whitman, Mass., arrived home last week for the purpose of visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ingram Bishop, and other friends.

The social held in public hall, on Wednesday evening, proved a success. A sum of $17.50 being realized and a good time enjoyed by all present.

We are glad to report that Mrs. Wm. Randolph, who has been confined to his bed for the last few weeks through sickness is able to be out again.

Mr. Henry Grant and son, Blacksmith, are doing a good business this winter. Grant is a first-class workman and can shoe a horse in ten minutes.

The people of this place wish to congratulate the Municipal Council on the steps they have taken to place a tax on dogs and pack peddlars, which are a nuisance to the country.

The friends of Rev. J. H. King, pastor of the Baptist church from this section and Lawrencetown met at the parsonage on Friday morning, and presented him with his testimonial with a donation of cash, books, and other useful articles.

Among those who had been informed that our local merchant, T. G. Bishop, is thinking of making a change in his business in the near future, Mr. Bishop has done a good business the two years he has been in trade and will be regretted by his many friends and customers.

Berwick. As your readers have not heard direct from here for some time, I will mention a few late occurrences.

The prayer meetings during the week of prayer were fairly well attended, and each denomination has since held meetings every evening with good results.

We have an old resident of granite living here, widow of the late Charles Foster of Clarence. She was formerly Mary Ann Green, and was born at Chase Cove, Dec. 18, 1807. She has been married three times for more than thirty years, but is able to go up and down nearly every day. More than sixty years ago united with the Bridgetown Baptist Church. She now resides with her husband, W. A. Reed, Dec. 18, 1807.

At four o'clock on Sunday morning, our residents were aroused by the alarm of fire. The store of John G. Clarke, hardware merchant, was discovered to be in a blaze, the flames bursting out from every part of the building, and in a short time the roof fell in. The entire large stock of stoves, iron and steel, and their hardware in great variety, and the stock of furniture was completely burned. The building was insured at $1200, but the amount was not realized, as the loss was uninsured. Mr. Clarke will rebuild at once. A frame will be on the ground this week, and our resident carpenters will be busy as soon as the weather will permit. Our friends will assist with materials and cash.

Lower Granville. Excellent sleighing now, and wood and piling coming out quite freely.

Donations have been in order lately. One at St. John's, by Mr. Johnson, for the Methodist preacher, resulted in $70.51. Another at Deacon James Anthony's for the pastor of the Baptist church, Rev. Mr. Porter, added $16 to his treasury.

We regret we received the news last week that our old friend, Gilbert R. Chute, had passed away. Mr. Chute resided in this community for many years and was generally respected. Owing to failing health he went to West Square to reside with his son Charles, where he died. During the American civil war he enlisted in the northern army and for services rendered he was captured by the American government but being paid him a pension of $24 per month for many years.

Port Lorne. Mr. Elmer Brinton, of Farmington, was home on Sunday.

Mr. B. Starratt attended the Fruit Growers Association at Wolfville last week.

A show on Leonard street concerned the residence of Mrs. Fanny Sabsons on Friday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Forsythe entertained their friends on Friday and Saturday evenings of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Sparr had a large party of Lawrencetown, Round Hill and Paradise friends last Friday.

Mrs. E. Best, of Bridgetown, and Mrs. F. Best, of Granville, visited Mrs. D. C. Freeman, on Tuesday last week.

Mr. O. Balmou, is attempting to cross the river on Thursday last, came near losing his ox. Only for the sled they would have gone under the ice.

Mr. E. Phinney and Miss Nita Belmont spent Sunday last week at Berwick, returning on Tuesday accompanied by Miss Lizzy Banks, who is returning a few weeks with her sister Mrs. O. Belmont.

Mr. Byron Sims of Plymouth, Yarmouth Co. visited his cousin, Mrs. L. C. Marshall, on his return from Antville, where he accompanied the Yarmouth Co. Agricultural Fair at the Farmer's Conference.

South Williamton.

Mr. Charles Bishop, who has been visiting friends and relatives in Bangor and Boston, has returned home.

Miss Brown, of Margareville, and Mrs. L. P. Shaffer, of Middleton, were visiting friends here a few days last week.

Mrs. Judson Bishop has gone to Bear River to spend a few weeks with her daughter, Mrs. W. A. Clute and Mrs. Capt. Crook.

Mr. R. Bishop, of Whitman, Mass., arrived home last week for the purpose of visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ingram Bishop, and other friends.

The social held in public hall, on Wednesday evening, proved a success. A sum of $17.50 being realized and a good time enjoyed by all present.

We are glad to report that Mrs. Wm. Randolph, who has been confined to his bed for the last few weeks through sickness is able to be out again.

Mr. Henry Grant and son, Blacksmith, are doing a good business this winter. Grant is a first-class workman and can shoe a horse in ten minutes.

The people of this place wish to congratulate the Municipal Council on the steps they have taken to place a tax on dogs and pack peddlars, which are a nuisance to the country.

The friends of Rev. J. H. King, pastor of the Baptist church from this section and Lawrencetown met at the parsonage on Friday morning, and presented him with his testimonial with a donation of cash, books, and other useful articles.

Among those who had been informed that our local merchant, T. G. Bishop, is thinking of making a change in his business in the near future, Mr. Bishop has done a good business the two years he has been in trade and will be regretted by his many friends and customers.

Berwick. As your readers have not heard direct from here for some time, I will mention a few late occurrences.

The prayer meetings during the week of prayer were fairly well attended, and each denomination has since held meetings every evening with good results.

We have an old resident of granite living here, widow of the late Charles Foster of Clarence. She was formerly Mary Ann Green, and was born at Chase Cove, Dec. 18, 1807. She has been married three times for more than thirty years, but is able to go up and down nearly every day. More than sixty years ago united with the Bridgetown Baptist Church. She now resides with her husband, W. A. Reed, Dec. 18, 1807.

At four o'clock on Sunday morning, our residents were aroused by the alarm of fire. The store of John G. Clarke, hardware merchant, was discovered to be in a blaze, the flames bursting out from every part of the building, and in a short time the roof fell in. The entire large stock of stoves, iron and steel, and their hardware in great variety, and the stock of furniture was completely burned. The building was insured at $1200, but the amount was not realized, as the loss was uninsured. Mr. Clarke will rebuild at once. A frame will be on the ground this week, and our resident carpenters will be busy as soon as the weather will permit. Our friends will assist with materials and cash.

Lower Granville. Excellent sleighing now, and wood and piling coming out quite freely.

Donations have been in order lately. One at St. John's, by Mr. Johnson, for the Methodist preacher, resulted in $70.51. Another at Deacon James Anthony's for the pastor of the Baptist church, Rev. Mr. Porter, added $16 to his treasury.

We regret we received the news last week that our old friend, Gilbert R. Chute, had passed away. Mr. Chute resided in this community for many years and was generally respected. Owing to failing health he went to West Square to reside with his son Charles, where he died. During the American civil war he enlisted in the northern army and for services rendered he was captured by the American government but being paid him a pension of $24 per month for many years.

Port Lorne. Mr. Elmer Brinton, of Farmington, was home on Sunday.

Mr. B. Starratt attended the Fruit Growers Association at Wolfville last week.

A show on Leonard street concerned the residence of Mrs. Fanny Sabsons on Friday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Forsythe entertained their friends on Friday and Saturday evenings of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Sparr had a large party of Lawrencetown, Round Hill and Paradise friends last Friday.

Mrs. E. Best, of Bridgetown, and Mrs. F. Best, of Granville, visited Mrs. D. C. Freeman, on Tuesday last week.

Mr. O. Balmou, is attempting to cross the river on Thursday last, came near losing his ox. Only for the sled they would have gone under the ice.

Mr. E. Phinney and Miss Nita Belmont spent Sunday last week at Berwick, returning on Tuesday accompanied by Miss Lizzy Banks, who is returning a few weeks with her sister Mrs. O. Belmont.

Mr. Byron Sims of Plymouth, Yarmouth Co. visited his cousin, Mrs. L. C. Marshall, on his return from Antville, where he accompanied the Yarmouth Co. Agricultural Fair at the Farmer's Conference.

Clementville. K. Darling, of Springfield, is visiting here. Mrs. Spruill, on going to his barn, found her horse very fine and dead. The good friends are going to make a holiday of Mrs. Langille's donation visit, a holiday event.

A lady called on Mr. and Mrs. Valentine Long, etc. On the 21st, Mrs. Langille came to stay, as she is a welcome guest. The good people of this place made Mrs. Alice C. Foster a wood handling on Wednesday night, which greatly enlarged her woodpile.

Mr. John Lantz, an architect, who has been caring for her mother, Mrs. Joseph Potter, returned to her home via Port George last Thursday.

Friday evening quite a number from here attended the P. M. supper at Wolfville. A good time was enjoyed and $15.00 added to the treasury's fund.

Our old folks concert called the "Birth Day Centennial," which was given on the stage were old folks who were varied from fifty to over eighty singing with old-time vigor and enthusiasm, songs, duets, quartets, etc. One interesting feature was a solo by Mr. Alfred Drees, who plays his own accompaniment. The sum of $64.10 was realized.

Springfield. Mr. Oliver McNay returned from New Albany on Friday.

Mr. Edward H. Marshall spent the 21st and 22nd at Middleton.

THE FIRST WHITE MAN TO SET FOOT ON THE LAND. C. R. Borchgrevink, the Norwegian explorer, writes a graphic account of "The First Landing on the Antarctic Continent" for the January Century.

We landed at Cape Adare that night (Jan. 23, 1895), being the first human creature to put foot on the mainland. A peculiar feeling of freedom came over each of us...

I had painted a Norwegian flag on a large box, which we fastened on a strong pole near the place where we landed; and leaving the rest of the crew to attend to the provisions, I proceeded alone to investigate the peninsula and to make collections.

I myself am willing to be the leader of a party to be landed either on the pack or on the mainland near Colman Island. From there it is my scheme to work toward the south magnetic pole, calculated to be in latitude 75 deg. 5 min., longitude 150 deg. 10 min. east of Greenwich...

Had No Bad Habits. A boy, rather bright looking, almost portly in fact, was before a Main street merchant. He was there in response to an advertisement that called for a "bright, reliable boy, with no bad habits." He looked all right, but the merchant concluded to quiz the youngster partly for amusement and partly to get some idea of his aptitude.
