DEPORTED REDS ON RUSSIAN SOIL

Held in Finland Until Assurance of Safety Was Assured by Soviet.

Hango, Finland, Jan. 18.—The train having aboard the Bolsheviks and anarchists deported from the United States was held here last evening until positive assurance was received from the Soviets that they would permit them to cross the Russian border, and that the Reds would not be molested.

The change was not restricted to the Unionists, as in Devlin's constituency in the Falls division of Belfast the Constitutional Nationalists polled 52 per cent of the vote.

The alteration in the voting power of the city was brought about largely by the southern Irish invasion of the suburbs to replace men who joined the colors early in the war before the government placed an embargo on recruiting from such establishments.

Interest now centres on Derry, where the final result in the election will be known Tuesday. The Unionists previously have had a majority of five there, but the utmost they have hoped for in this election is equality in membership and to insure this they limited the number of candidates in order to concentrate the

UNIONISTS LOSE FIFTEEN SEATS IN BELFAST COUNCIL

Bunching of Votes Gave Devlinites, Sinn Feiners and Labor Advantage.

Belfast, Jan. 18.—Up to January 15, the Belfast corporation consisted of 52 Unionists and 3 Nationalists, but as a result of the elections which ended Saturday, in which the Labor, Sinn Feiners and Sinn Feiners skillfully bunched votes, it has 37 Unionists, 5 Nationalists, 5 Sinn Feiners and 12 Laborites.

The parties of the last named party ranges from extreme socialist to Labor Unionist and Orange. The results of the elections generally were of a freak order.

In the Shankill district, a stronghold of Orangism, a socialist topped the poll, and of the remaining seven members one is a socialist and another a Sinn Feiner. In Victoria, which was regarded as a safe Unionist parliamentary seat, a Nationalist headed the poll, and a Sinn Feiner and a Laborite also were elected.

The change was not restricted to the Unionists, as in Devlin's constituency in the Falls division of Belfast the Constitutional Nationalists polled 52 per cent of the vote.

The vote was small owing to the roads being storm-bound, but 90 per cent. of those who turned out cast ballots in favor of the bylaw. The vote was 232 for and 10 against. This with five polls to hear from. This finishes the vote by the municipalities on the proposal by the Provincial Hydro Power Commission to take over and complete and operate the Toronto and Eastern railway which was started by Messrs. Mackenzie and Mann and never completed. The ten municipalities from Toronto to Bowmanville have all expressed strong approval of the scheme. The cost of the road is estimated at $8,000,000 when ready to operate and the municipalities have undertaken to guarantee the bonds of the road to that extent but construction will be financed by the sale of Hydro-Electric bonds backed by the provincial government. Construction will be started almost immediately from the eastern end, where the rails are already laid from Bowmanville to Whitby, and this end of the system will be in operation before next fall. The Toronto end will not be ready before 18 months from the present. The road will enter York township a short distance south of St. Clair avenue, and the city in the vicinity of Coxwell avenue and Danforth, proceeding directly south to the waterfront and continuing on a right of way to be presented by the harbor commission, westward to the vicinity of Bay street, from which point a loop will circle up York street, along Richmond and down Church street. R. J. Fleming, manager of the Toronto Railway Company, brought Mrs. Fleming to subdivision No. 29 at Plains road. She voted in favor of the bylaw. There were no votes cast against the bylaw in this division. Mrs. Fleming has been a property owner on North Leslie street for 20 years.

SMALLPOX EPIDEMIC SHOWS STEADY DECLINE

Other details are: Total since outbreak of epidemic 2,332 Total discharged 1,832 Total deaths 5 Now in hospital 295 Patients quarantined at home 309 Total number of homes under quarantine 1,045 Total number of persons quarantined because of exposure 1,045

FIRE IN BANK BASEMENT.

Fire caused by a match thrown in paper in the basement of the Bank of Montreal, Bloor and Lansdowne avenue at 7.30 Saturday night did $300 damage. The firemen confined the fire to the basement, and the loss was $200 to building and $100 to contents.

Miss Helen Miller, a missionary under the Soudan Interior Mission, died in northern Nigeria, Africa, on January 10 from the bite of a poisonous snake. Miss Miller was born in Brighton, Ont., 30 years ago, and received her education here. She graduated from the Toronto Bible College, and was a graduate of the Presbyterian Training School for Deaconesses.

WANTS IT MORE DEFINITE.

However H. H. Dewar intended his offer to open up a Toronto Liberal riding in which Premier Drury could "test his strength" in an election against a Liberal, the prime minister himself seems to regard the whole matter in the offer as a joke. He intimated laughingly Saturday that he would give it "serious consideration." The premier made it plain that it was his opinion that if the offer had been made otherwise than thru the newspapers, he also drew attention to the fact that Mr. Dewar's proposal lacked considerably in definiteness.

CITY PREPARES TO FIGHT HICCOUGH

But Outbreak of Peculiar Disease Mystifies Medical Authorities.

Commenting on the outbreak of hiccoughs in Windsor and neighboring municipalities, Dr. Hastings, M.O.H., informed The World Saturday that he was collecting all the data available in order to be prepared for possible outbreaks in Toronto and other places. "I shall keep in touch with the local health officials at Windsor and also with others who are likely to know as to the origin of the malady," said the M.O.H. "Apparently little is known as to the cause of the disease, so that it is almost impossible to take the required precautions. The local health authorities are investigating, with a view to determining the origin in order to be in a position to combat the epidemic. No cases have been reported in Toronto.

PRICE OF BREAD HAS NOW BEEN ADVANCED

As a result of the recent advance of the price of wheat to the millers from $2.30 to $2.50 a bushel, all the prominent bakers yesterday raised the price of bread one cent per small loaf. The price is now 12 cents per small loaf. Mark Breglin, manager of the Canada Bread Co., says the cent advance does not cover the increase in the price of flour, and that there is no hope of a cheaper loaf before next September.

IDA AT THE PRESS DINNER

BY IDA L. WEBSTER.

Well, after several weeks of anticipation, and also of "press-agenting," the dinner given by the municipal reporters was pulled off on Saturday night at the Carls-Rite Hotel.

Being a returned soldier the president of the gang is a stickler for promptness, so that the dinner was merely 20 minutes late in getting under way.

The next interruption came in the form of Joe Thompson, M.L.A., who, it must be said, rather stirred the company with his marvelous interpretation of "Sussex by the Sea."

And now for the tit-bit of the evening. Mr. Jules Brail was at the piano, and to his great credit for a large part of the success.

ROSE HENDERS ON DEPRECIATES FORCE

Believes Labor Can Gain Its Ends Thru Direct Political Action.

India, Ireland and other sularian peoples were clamoring for home rule, said Mrs. Rose Henderson yesterday afternoon to a large audience at the Labor Temple, and tremendous issues were today facing the country.

When you receive several inquiries in one day about Chesterfields you agree with the man who remarked "That man Chesterfield seems a popular chap; everyone is talking about him."

Continuing Mrs. Henderson depreciated all recourse to the force represented by the gun and machine gun, by the inquisitor of the middle ages, by the striker in many cases of today.

But what of the multitudes without trade, without craft? asked Mrs. Henderson. "No wonder we hear of hundreds of thousands of babies needing milk; no wonder we hear that New York reports 4,000,000 children going to school hungry."

THRU THE SUFFRAGE

Thru the channels of the suffrage, thru the channels of a broadened industrial organization comprising not only craftsmen but also the workers of every calibre, the advance of evolution and the progress of real civilization would be properly effected.

General expressions of sympathy were given by the meeting to Mr. James Richards upon the loss of his wife by death, and to Mrs. MacGregor upon the loss of her husband.

CONDOLENCES TO MR. RICHARDS

Many friends in labor and other circles have learned with deep regret of the death of Mrs. James Richards, whose funeral is to be held this afternoon.

MRS. MACGREGOR BEREAVED.

The bereavement which has befallen Mrs. MacGregor, a remarkably able and popular organizer, and a devoted worker in the death of her husband, who is to be buried today, will be shared by many friends in the movement who have witnessed her devotion to which she has given her work in behalf of the working women in Toronto.

Hydro Radial Development.

With the passing of the Hydro Radial bylaw by York township by a characteristic majority the last link has been added to the chain of municipalities co-operating in the Toronto and Eastern line to Bowmanville. Such opposition as the proposals have received has issued entirely from corporation sources. Montreal in particular has been critical of the plans, but the criticisms have been careful to exclude the dual nature of the plan, and has represented them as exclusively concerned with radial railway development. The opposition being based on the plea that sufficient traffic to justify the construction cannot be found.

The essential feature of the Hydro radial plan is that they are not exclusively concerned with radial traffic, but embrace also elaborate power distribution arrangements. There is a wide and insistent demand for electric power among the farms, and this business, which will be of generous proportions, will bear a large share of the overhead cost of right of way, pole and wire distribution and other service. On this basis a degree of radial traffic that would be ruinous as a separate proposition may easily show good profits on the joint basis. It is also to be remembered that it is not profits, but service, that the Hydro-Electric Commission is designed to give, and corporation estimates are not made on that view. There are thus two considerations not taken account of by these opponents of the plan that make for its success.

There is another which is of very great importance to Ontario and to all other services, whether steam railways or otherwise, which depend on an increasing and prosperous population. It is the consideration of the effect upon farm life, farm labor, the delivery and marketing of farm products and the reaction of all these in turn upon city life. The radial electric service of the province is calculated to stimulate the development of the rural districts of Ontario beyond anything yet seen in Canada. The double advantage of cheap power and convenient transportation will reconcile farm labor to rural conditions as nothing else can. The ability to get into the city on winter evenings in an hour's run and back before midnight means a new era for farm life. The fast express service to the city for farm products means a new era both for the farmer and the city consumer. It is not for nothing that with the prospect of this development and in spite of Jeremiahs from Montreal the price of farms along the radial routes has so appreciated. The next ten years will show an expansion in the Hydro radial districts of Ontario akin to that of manufacturing Ontario in the last ten.

A Stitch in Time.

With the congestion of street car traffic on Yonge street since the appearance of P.A.Y.E. cars, the unfortunate patrons of the service are almost demoted with the uncertainty and irregularity they are subjected to. Complaints are futile, and the best thing to be done in these cold days is to walk on until a car comes. Those who wait at Woodlawn avenue and sigh with Mariana, "He cometh not," had much better walk down to Price street when no car is in sight, on the chance of catching a car Y-ing at that point.

The fact is that the street is too narrow to accommodate the traffic, and action of some kind will sooner or later be forced to remedy this difficulty. Mr. Fleming proposed years ago to take all cars off Yonge street as far north as Dundas, or even Carlton, and run them on Victoria and Teraulay, leaving Yonge to the motor car traffic. This would improve the headway immensely, give a regular service, and the trouble of walking half a block to Victoria or Teraulay would be as nothing compared with the inconvenience of standing in zero weather waiting for from ten minutes to half an hour for the car that fails to come.

There is another solution which will come inevitably, and should be under consideration now. Growing as rapidly as the city is at present, it will only be a few years till Toronto has a million people. A million people can never be accommodated on our downtown surface car system. We must have tubes. The cost now will, of course, be double or more what it would have been when the proposal for an underground system was made before. It will increase constantly with every year of delay.

A tube system has nothing to do with the present franchise, which is confined to surface cars. The city can proceed at any time to construct a tube system, and as the work will consume considerable time no matter when it is begun, there will be an urgent necessity for it before it can be constructed. One of the plans of the Hydro radials system contemplated an underground approach to the centre of the city. Whether taken up jointly with the Hydro Commission or independently by the city council, there should be some attention paid to this problem at an early date. The city could be proceeding with inquiries, investigations, plans and the whole matter could be thrashed out at leisure if it were taken up at an early day, instead of under pressure, as so many of our civic problems are, if it be left over until the compulsion of absolute necessity drives us into ill-considered haste.

South Africa Calls for a Show-Down.

There can be little doubt that the recall of Admiral Jellicoe to England followed upon and was the result of communications made by the government of the South African Union to the imperial authorities. General Smuts has all he can do to handle the Boer Nationalist movement and at this time anything like pressure on South Africa from Downing street would be an irritant. And the situation was aggravated when it became known that the prime minister of Canada was coming with Admiral Jellicoe.

The admiral was welcomed in Canada as a British naval hero, but there was at the same time some uneasiness as to the purpose of his visit and its possible consequences. The people of Canada felt that the naval defence of their country was a problem to be dealt with by their own government and settled by their own parliament. They would have resented anything like pressure from Admiral Jellicoe and they certainly would have resented the premier of Australia coming with the admiral to bring additional pressure to bear upon the Canadian government. Can we therefore wonder at South Africa looking askance at the proposed visit of Admiral Jellicoe accompanied by Sir Robert Borden, the premier of Canada?

There are busybodies in London who are trying to bring about a change in the constitution of the empire and the relations now happily subsisting between the self-governing dominions and the mother country. Everybody can be found traces of their insidious propaganda. The World believes that the identity of these persons should be known. Publicity will do much to break up this constant pussy-footing which has for its ultimate goal an imperial federation.

Canada has her own nationality and must be the mistress in her own house. This does not mean that she will not continue as a nation in what Sir Robert Borden has called the Britannic league of nations. It does mean that she will not become a near state in any federation.

The busybodies are making trouble and we have no doubt that South Africa has called for something like a show-down. It is unfortunate that the prime minister of Canada should be involved or that anyone should have reason to believe that his presence on H. M. S. New Zealand precipitated the clash. It seems clear, however, that he must have started off to visit South Africa without waiting for an invitation from the South African government.

HIS HONOR AND THE GOVERNOR

Government House, Jan. 17, 1920.
The question having been raised in the press I am directed by the lieutenant-governor to state that his honor gave his consent and approval to the publication of the letters of the 17th and 18th instants between the prime minister and himself, before they were given to the press.

Separate Schools and Secession.

Editor World: I see by the papers that the secessionists in North Toronto are arranging the wards for school purposes. Where does St. Monica's school come under this new deal? If the separate school supporters in the old town of North Toronto continue the school after separation, the rate will be at least three or four times greater than at present. You must consider the salaries, caretaker, coal and upkeep, including light, insurance, etc., as well as the amount they will have to pay the separate school board. If so, there is a ban on that committee who would no doubt be delighted to act as trustees.

We would like some announcement from them in connection with this matter.
Jan. 14, 1920. Jacob.

JUDGE BRITTON'S SUCCESSOR.

Editor World: Mr. Justice Britton has resigned from the bench and several names are already mentioned as his possible successor.

But we consider that the Dominion government would be doing the greatest thing in recognizing at last the fact that the French-speaking minority of Ontario, and appointing one of their many able lawyers on the supreme court bench, in succession to Mr. Justice Britton.

The French-speaking group of Ontario constitute a very substantial and influential part of our population, and they are disseminated not only at the four corners of the province, but everywhere. The English-speaking population of Ontario at present is about 2,500,000. The English-speaking population of Quebec is less than 2,000,000. They are represented by eleven distinguished jurists on the superior court bench and in the court of appeal.

We consider the time is ripe and opportune to show some consideration to the French-speaking population of Ontario and the government would be well advised, under the present circumstances, to choose a successor to Mr. Justice Britton among the French lawyers of Ontario.

In so doing, we would be showing and proving our friendship to the French of Ontario, not only by word, but also by deed.

P.A.Y.L. CARS.

Editor World: With reference to your timely editorial, P.A.Y.E. or P.A.Y.L., may I offer a suggestion?
All cars leaving the city, i.e., central part or business district, for or towards the outskirts or city limits should be marked P.A.Y. or Y.P.A.
Imagine the speed the T. S. R. Co. could inject into their already fast service if, say, on King east or west, Queen east or west, or Yonge or any other street, after office hours your car and mine announced itself with a big P. A. Y. L. sign. We could all scramble on board without the usual holdup at the rear end of cars.

Of course, we all don't live in one house; the setting off part is a very gradual process, and it would be a very easy matter to drop fares into by the same amount. A lot of time would be saved.

The P.A.Y.E. plan could be used for cars coming to the city or central part of city. A Spector.

THE GRAND TRUNK DEAL.

Ottawa, Jan. 17.—No announcement has yet been made as to the date of the meeting of the shareholders of the Grand Trunk in London to consider and ratify the agreement made between the government and the officials of the company for the nationalization of the Grand Trunk and Grand Trunk Railway systems. The original agreement was embodied in the correspondence between Hon. Arthur Meighen, representing the government, and Sir A. A. Smithers, representing the shareholders. The more formal agreement signed later on contained some stipulations which were not in the Meighen-Smithers correspondence.

MOONLIGHT AND MONEY

BY MARION RUBINCAM.

JEALOUSY

CHAPTER 11
Louise fairly rushed up the avenue. For a few minutes she gave herself over blindly to the first foolish pangs of jealousy.

"Harry and that woman, Harry and that woman!" she kept saying to herself. "I hate her—I hate him too."
She reached her street and turned east towards the studios.
"What right has he to run around and have a nice time while I'm feeling so miserable?" she said to herself, forgetting for the moment that she herself had been running around and having a far more time than Harry.
But when she ran up the stairs and let herself into her own little apartment, some of her common sense came back to her. She sat down on the couch, and thought about it. And presently she got up and walked over to the desk where a photograph of Harry in his uniform was framed. "I'm awfully silly," she told the picture.

She picked up the photograph and looked at it closely. Harry was good looking at all times; but, as is usually the case, he was particularly distinguished in his uniform. His clear eyes looked straight into hers and seemed to quiet her. She remembered how in the old days, when they lived in the "dear little house" in the country, he had calmed her by just such a steady, quiet, straight look.
"I'm jealous," she told the picture. "It's a miserable way to be. I don't believe you are half as much to blame for all these troubles as I've thought."
For several minutes she sat there looking at his photograph, and thinking. She remembered his smile, his laugh, and suddenly the jealousy she was fighting came back again. For he had turned to Mrs. Shaftsbury with just that warm smile, while she, his wife, was looking at him from the doorway. But after all, what a fortunate thing it was that they did not meet! How could she have carried off that embarrassing situation! Mrs. Shaftsbury, of course, with her ready wit and her social ease, would not have been put out at all. But she—how would she have acted?

She had a vivid impression of Mrs. Shaftsbury—she was wearing some sort of gown of black velvet and a great ermine scarf hung carelessly from one shoulder. She could picture now well that striking combination would go with her gold hair and her clear skin and blue eyes. Louise suddenly disliked her own pretty face and she did not want to be along and think, so she went to the phone and called up a fashionable club.
"Mr. Scott, please," she told the boy who answered.
"Hello—oh, Jerry, is this you? Yes, this is Louise. Jerry, do please come and amuse me. I have the blues—what? Yes, indeed, awfully blue. Take me to tea at the smartest place in town. I want to watch all the frivolous world go by. That's nice. Yes, I'll meet you there—in the lobby."

She hung up the phone and looked at the alarm clock in the kitchenette. She discarded the waist she wore in favor of a prettier one, fluffed her hair over again, and once more satisfied with her appearance, she went out to meet this comfortable new friend.
"What's the idea?" Jerry asked when they were settled at a small table and Louise was pouring the tea. "You're such a sensible sort of

Ideal Strikers

They strike somewhere every day. They strike readily. And they make no splutter or fuss about it. When they have struck they show a clear and steady flame. They are reliable before—and steady after their strike. They are safe! They won't explode when trodden on. Their heads are firm and do not fly off. They perform well their mission in life. There is a merry life, tho' a short one. They are guaranteed not to burn again in after life.

LIBERALS HEAR MACKENZIE KING

Realizes National Importance of St. John Port, at Provincial Convention.

St. John, N.B., Jan. 17.—A gathering of Liberals from different parts of the province, who came to hear Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King speak, was held this morning with E. B. Copp, M.P., elected as chairman, and F. M. Anderson, of Restigouche, secretary. Addresses were given by the Liberal chief, Ernest Lapointe, Hon. W. E. Foster and Andrew Hayden of Ottawa, Dominion secretary.

A committee composed of Fred Magee, M.L.A., of Port Elgin; Dr. W. P. Broderick, of St. John, and Hon. C. J. Lablanc, of Gloucester, was appointed to proceed with preliminary arrangements for a big Liberal meeting in Fredericton during the next sitting of the provincial legislature, also to submit names for the appointment of a general secretary and publicity agent and for organizers' work.

"I would not have liked to have missed this trip. It has been very illuminating and I appreciate now more fully the position of the Irish citizen, than ever the position of St. John as a great national port," said Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King on his return after a sight-seeing trip by a tug around the harbor and Courtenay Bay this morning as a guest of the board of trade and Commercial Club. Hon. Mr. King was accompanied by Ernest Lapointe, M.P., and local men.
