

The Evening Times

ST. JOHN, N. B., DECEMBER 9, 1909.

The St. John Evening Times is published at 27 and 25 Canterbury street, every evening (Sunday excepted) by the St. John Times Printing and Publishing Co., Ltd., a company incorporated under the Joint Stock Companies Act.

THE EVENING TIMES THE DAILY TELEGRAPH New Brunswick's Independent Newspapers.

Three papers advocate: British Connection Honesty in Public Life Measures for the Material Progress and Moral Advancement of our Great Dominion.

No Graft No Deals

The Shamrock, Thistle, Rose entwine The Maple Leaf forever.

MR. HAZEN'S WEAKNESS Premier Hazen does not rise to the occasion when golden opportunity presents itself. He has a fine opportunity to advance the interests of the city of St. John by taking up seriously the question of the harbor bridge...

THE WATERWAYS President Taft is an earnest advocate of the development of waterways in the United States and at the meeting of the National Rivers and Harbors Congress in Washington yesterday aroused the delegates to great enthusiasm by his address.

PROTECT HONEST DEALERS The movement begun by the Moral and Social Reform Council, to secure an official inspection of all liquor sold, should be vigorously supported by all influential organizations.

can care more for profit than for the health of their patrons. Every honest dealer should heartily support the action of the Moral and Social Reform Council, and doubtless support from that source is expected. Honest dealers should be protected.

CANADIAN CLUBS The Canadian Club of Montreal has departed somewhat from the principle which has generally been adopted by these clubs throughout Canada. It has not been the custom to adopt resolutions on any of the subjects discussed, there has been one or two exceptions, and the Montreal club follows another.

THE UNITED STATES TARIFF The Washington correspondent of the New York Journal of Commerce states that one of the topics exciting most attention among members of congress is the tariff. He does not anticipate, however, that there will be much likelihood of any change in the tariff at this session.

FORMALLY DEMAND ZELAYA'S RESIGNATION London, Dec. 9.—The United States government has demanded formally the resignation of President Zelaya of Nicaragua according to a cablegram from Nicaragua received by a business house here today.
