CARAVAN BREAKING CAMP IN THE SAHARA

Suffers from the fashionable complaint of "nerves" are now abandoning the "rest cure" and taking to the open, rugged life of the Sahara desert. They go to Biskra, hire a caravan, consisting of camels, donkeys, guides and boys, and leaving civilization behind, seek in the vast solitary spaces of the desert the much needed rest for nerves jaded with the rush of modern life.

THE EVENING TIMES, ST. JOHN, N. B., WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 28, 1906.

My Friend the Chauffeur.

We had been delayed for more than half an hour by a new woman, which had probably arrived with the driver; but when the automobile could lift her luggage again she started on at a great pace. We passed a wonderful old river-side town, that had one of the most remarkable churches I had ever seen, and by-and-by a fine city, set like a tiara on the forehead of a distant hill, seemed to spring up, just as if from the emittance, and then disappeared out of sight among other hills which made a dark foreground against white mountains.

By G. N. & A. M. WILLIAMSON, Authors of THE Lightning Conductor THE Princess Passes, ETC.

looking, tall officers answered their call. Thus we arrived at a quaint hotel, with a garden on the river's edge; and under a thick arbour of wisteria-trees (imperial flowers) we drank coffee and ate heart-shaped cakes, while the thunder played wild music for us on a vast cathedral organ in the sky.

THE WORRIES OF WALL STREET

Will the Public Stay in the Market—Will Money Remain Easy and What Effect Will New Securities Have?

(New York Evening Post.)
The humble explanation given to the better promise for the future. Accumulation of capital is going steadily on, and with it the process of absorption by investors of stocks and bonds now carried on loans in Wall Street. The business of dealing in securities is in many ways more active than it has been for some time. It is true, the stock market is very busy, but it is not so busy as it once was. It is not so busy as it once was. It is not so busy as it once was. It is not so busy as it once was.

MONSTER ANTLERS

Maine Game Warden Found Big Pair in Woods—They Had Just Been Shed.

(Bangor Commercial.)
The fact that so few antlers of deer and moose are ever found in the woods is frequently the subject of comment. These antlers are shed every winter very few of them are ever found the next summer because of the work of rodents, insects and action of the weather, which pulverize the bone and might it will be very short time. Occasionally a hunter finds a pair of antlers which have somehow escaped the work of destruction which most of them meet, and he who does has a rarity.

COMMENTS OF THE BROKERS

P. G. Dyer, Bright & Co., Boston—After the next few weeks we should have a clearer view. Meanwhile we must own that there is great underlying strength and that this reaction is more of pause than of a campaign. The rally came easily, and as the week days are all days also, while on recovery the market broadens and becomes active, it seems that the technical position still favors the bulls. We believe we are confident that the current question that held back activity will be solved favorably and that we shall have a good year in the market. We look for more discrimination than in 1905, but we see a good year ahead for judicious investment and we think that the course of the market since mid-October has been very encouraging. Somehow we cannot get over the idea that the Boston market behaves well and adding it to the confidence, strength and good profits. But more and more it is necessary to be careful in trading among the copper. Some of them are looked for more advance; some not, we think. The reading of the market has begun; there are copper and copper, and a word to the wise ought to be sufficient.

THE OAR

THE AMERICAN HENLEY.

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 26.—Plans which are now rapidly maturing for the fourth annual regatta of the American Rowing Association, more popularly known as the "American Henley," to be held on the Schuylkill River, assure the amateur rowers of America that this regatta will be the greatest in its history of the association. Not only will it bring together the greatest number of club rowers, but college crews will predominate to a greater extent than ever before. The Henley has fixed on May 28 as the date of the regatta. It is held at this time primarily that it may bring together the largest number of college rowers and not conflict with other regattas.

UNION PACIFIC

(New York World.)
More than ordinary interest is felt in the affairs of the Union Pacific Railroad Company just now, owing to conflicting statements relative to the disposition that the directors will make of the enormous treasury surplus that this company has on hand. At present market values the securities of other railroad corporations held by the Union Pacific are worth nearly $100,000,000. Besides having the right to distribute the whole or part of this vast sum among the stockholders, the Union Pacific directors also hold $100,000,000 of new preferred stock. Here, indeed, are the possibilities of the cutting of a lucious melon. There is a hopeful contingent in Wall street that looks for an early distribution of some of this surplus of Union Pacific assets. Certain conservative banking interests are affiliated with this property, however, and representatives of these banking interests have been opposing Wall street for several days past that no extra dividend would be declared either this winter or spring. What may be done in midsummer or in the fall is another question.

Are you a success as a bread-maker? Is your cake and pastry complimented by your friends? If not, whose fault is it—yours or the miller's. If you are successful in other lines, your reputation as a cook is vindicated, and it is plainly the fault of the flour.

WHAT NEXT?

What will be the next step, in connection with the affair of the new wharf, which occupied the attention of the board of works at two sessions yesterday?

The inspector appointed by the city states that the city engineer permitted variations from the specifications which under the contract should only be made with the consent of the board of works.

The inspector says he told Director Cushing of some things which the director said should be referred to the board of works, but the board heard nothing about the whole affair until an article in the Times brought the contractor in angry haste before the board to defend himself.

The question at present is not between the city and the contractor, but between the city and its officials. Should the latter refer these matters to the board of works, as required by the terms of the contract, or should they be given a degree of latitude?

The board has practically declared a want of confidence in these officials. It has told the inspector that he must make a fuller and better daily report than he has been doing, and must submit it to the director instead of the engineer.

The setting chairman of the board appeared to think last evening that since the director and engineer declared the what was far as constructed to be a good where the whole matter might be dropped. This may be an eminently charitable view of the case, but does not dispose of the matter.

It will be remembered that when the McLeod warehouse was built there were the same contractor, director and engineer, but a different inspector. That inspector, Mr. Thompson, charged that the specifications were not adhered to with regard to piling and other material, but he received a very scant hearing.

The Toronto Globe's Ottawa correspondent, alluding to the insurance commission, says that through there has been a rigid inspection by the department, and the minister of finance has much valuable information at his disposal, he is of opinion that in view of the widespread interest in the subject it is desirable, before parliament is called upon to move, to have a more general investigation, which shall be perfectly free and open, so that all matters of interest to policyholders may be looked into.

What any irregularities exist in connection with Canadian life insurance, mention in view of the unrest which naturally prevails as a result of the New York disclosures the public would like to be assured that the insurance system of the Dominion is sound, and that if there are any defects they will be promptly remedied by legislation.

There is comparatively so little intercourse between North and South America that readers of Canadian, and even United States papers have but a very incomplete knowledge of conditions in much of the southern continent. United States Consul Mansfield at Valparaiso, in a report to the state department, says that out of a total of 17,000,000 annual tonnage of vessels entering Chilean ports, those flying the American flag represented only 135,000 tons.

Mr. Chong, a Korean literary man, announced that he would commit suicide as a protest against the convention with Japan. He was prevented the first time he tried to kill himself, and was sent under guard to his home.

Says the Boston Transcript: "In connection with its work against consumption the Boston Board of Health is seeking to establish a more complete record of the cases of tuberculosis reported. It reports all cases of tuberculosis coming under their professional observation, and while some have observed this regulation closely, others have practically disregarded it."

Mr. Balfour was elected in London yesterday by the enormous majority of 11,340 over Mr. Thomas Gibson-Bowles. So great a victory was hardly expected, but will be welcome news alike to Conservatives and Liberals.

A London cable states that King Edward's health is falling and that he is aged visibly in the last few months, especially since the accident which, it is feared, will leave him permanently lame. British subjects the world over will hope for a speedy restoration of his majesty's health.

It may be hoped that the authorities will exercise the greatest vigilance in respect to the cases of smallpox that have developed in some of the lumber camps. The experience of St. John a few years ago should not be forgotten.

Premier Whitney of Ontario has had the courage to declare that he will not discuss public officials merely for the sake of providing offices for partisans. Public respect for Mr. Whitney will be increased as a result of this decision.

In many Montreal churches on Sunday last sermons were preached denouncing the proposed to establish a Sunday newspaper in that city.

HOCKEY STOPS HOUSE SITTING.

Fredericton, Feb. 27.—(Special)—On account of the hockey game there was no quorum at the legislature this evening, and adjournment was made without any business being transacted. It is expected that the debate on the budget will be finished tomorrow night. The second levee of the session was held at Government House this afternoon and was largely attended. The corporation committee of the legislature will meet tomorrow to further consider the boom company's bill. Among the lumbermen here to watch the passage are John E. Moore, George S. Cahing, N. H. Murchie, Charles Miller and E. L. Jewett, of St. John; a director of the company, who states this evening that if the legislature throws out the bill there would be nothing for the company to do but go into insolvency.

Charles Hudin, who has been declared insane, is occupying a cell at the county jail. He was brought here last night by a guard from the Dorchester penitentiary, and after somewhat of a tussle at the jail door was placed in charge of Jailer Hawthorne. This morning Secretary-Treasurer Bliss had a conference with De Anglin, and this afternoon Hudin will undergo another examination as to his sanity and, if pronounced insane, will be sent to Fairville. The divorce court convened this morning. As there is no provision under the act for adjournment except by the judge, Judge Gregory was present and adjourned the court to meet at some future date. The death occurred at Gospy yesterday of George W. Anderson, son of the late Joseph Anderson, of Cambridge (Mass.), who had been living for some time with Great Carr. Deceased was aged eighteen years and six months.

The funeral of the late Mrs. George F. Gregory will take place tomorrow at 3 p. m. The body will be conveyed to Christ Church Cathedral, where Very Rev. Dan Patridge will conduct the funeral services, after which interment will be made at Forest Hill cemetery.

"THE TRIANGLE" BY RUPERT HUGHES, UNEVEN IN CONSTRUCTION.

New York, Feb. 27.—"The Triangle" was produced Tuesday night at the Manhattan Theatre, and in a strong sense at the end of the third act stood for the first two acts. The third act is evidently becoming the "great opportunity" of the young American dramatist, for Mr. Rupert Hughes has repeated the experiment of Mr. Klein in "The Lion and the Mouse" and worked with the sole idea of creating his sensation in the third act. Without regard to the ultimate success or failure of a play, the building of any scene to carry it is a fundamental error. Where, however, one may agree with Mr. Hughes is in his choice of subject, his ending, and in the life and problems of New York as they are here and now and his desire to hit at the social ideals that change even people of more or less temperament. "The Triangle" is the old, old story of the woman who married for ambition until she found that the man that she had chosen was not the man after her heart.

Miss Charlotte Walker

The real man, of course, is not far off. Where Mr. Hughes has veiled from the old theme is in the fact that the lover after declaring his love goes away and leaves the woman with her husband. She declares that hereafter she will endeavor "to be square" and really meets it, but the husband, wroth over the fact that he is the laughing stock of New York, whips himself into a passion and kills her. The play was uneven in construction, but witty in dialogue. The trouble was mainly in the fact that both in the acting and in the tempo at which it was taken many of the lines failed to get across the footlights. The first two acts contained a lot of extraneous matter that might just as well have been eliminated and that lessened rather than heightened the effect of the third act, where the husband confronts his wife and her lover and is too weak to carry out his original resolution of murder.

A novel bit of business in the fourth act was rather spoiled by the fact that the stage manager insisted on serving almost an entire dinner before the action, which had become somewhat exciting in the previous act, was continued. For a play depicting "the smart set" of New York one might have wished that actors more acquainted with those mysterious persons had been obtained. Miss Charlotte Walker's first entrance was singularly unappreciative of a member of that fraternity, and Mr. Morris as the ardent lover, was exasperatingly loudly in all through by Mr. Gotchall's repeated to have gotten rid of the many disagreeable mannerisms that usually mark his performance. The acting throughout was little less than superb, and had the rest of the company been up to his standard one's impression of Mr. Hughes' play would have been more definite and decidedly more favorable.

THE CONGRESS ON DIVORCE

Mrs. Crane's Inclusive Remarks For a Lock Canal—The art Tariff.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 24.—Washington, which is rarely without a convention, is the chosen place this week of the divorce congress, which has for its object the wiping out of the "divorce evil," as it is called. The delegates to the congress are principally lawyers, but there is a sprinkling of laymen in the assembly and a number of women from the states in which women have the right of divorce. Just how they intend to prevent divorce is not known. It is not likely, however, that they will attempt to prevent divorce by the use of force, but rather by the use of persuasion, and by the use of the law. The delegates are expected to meet in the afternoon of the 25th, and to continue their work until the 27th. The congress is expected to be a very successful one, and to result in the passage of a law which will give women the right of divorce in all the states.

Missions of Madagascar, Zanzibar and Uganda were discussed and papers were read by Mrs. Andrews, Miss Ramsay, Miss Marshall and Miss Arvid. Messrs. Colpitts and Harry Kay of this town are carrying on extensive lumber operations in Hampton. They have twenty-six men and sixteen horses engaged and so far 600,000 feet of lumber have been sawed and shipped to St. John. Miss Bessie M. Oulton, of Joliet, died at the home of her sister Mrs. Geo. Oulton, Moncton, aged 28. Deceased who had charge of a school at Humphreys Mills was the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Job Oulton, Joliet, and is survived by two brothers and two sisters.

The death of Fred Estabrooke who is well known in Sackville occurred on Tuesday at Fitchburg, Mass. He was a nephew of LeBias Richardson of this town. F. A. Harrison who has been a member of the firm of Powell, Bennett and Harrison, is about to retire from the partnership and has decided to give up the practice of law. A memorial service in memory of the late Frances E. Willard was held this afternoon by the local W. E. T. U. in the study of the Methodist church. Mrs. W. C. Willard, president of the union had charge of the meeting. A paper on the life of Mrs. Willard was read by Mrs. H. Humphrey. A brief sketch of the life of Mrs. Willard was given by Miss Harriet Stewart. Mrs. Willard was a prominent worker on the life of Emma Hart Willard. Mrs. Willard was a member of the W. E. T. U. temple in Chicago. A programme of music was carried out by Misses Harper, Weldon, Churchill and Smith, Miss Winnie Harper presiding at the organ.

NO POLITICS SAYS EMMERSON

(Ottawa Cor. Toronto Globe.) Hon. H. R. Emmerson, Minister of Railways, has said that politics prevail in all departments of the government. He said that he was bound by rules and regulations of the Intercolonial Railway. "In almost every branch of the service," he said, "we are bound by rules and regulations of the Intercolonial Railway. The most brilliant as well as the most revolutionary speech of the convention was made by Rev. Caroline Bartlett Crane of Michigan. It was a strong plea for the right of divorced persons to remarry, and of the dignity of the renewed relation. It was also a protest against the authority of the Roman Catholic church, which has been urged by a number of the delegates. "I know it is said that 'They whom God hath joined together let no man put asunder,'" said Mrs. Crane, "but when a man and woman have reached the divorce court it may be fairly assumed that God did not join them together." The president has sent a special message to congress in which he advises the lock type of canal for the Panama waterway. With this message he sent a letter from Secretary Taft together with the report of the committee on the report of the Isthmian Canal Commission and a letter by Chief Engineer Stevens to the commission. Secretary Taft in his letter agrees with the minority in favor of a lock canal. He believes that this type of canal would allow greater speed for the vessels passing through it, and that it would be less expensive than the sea-level canal. He also thinks that it would be less dangerous than the sea-level canal. He also thinks that it would be less expensive than the sea-level canal. He also thinks that it would be less dangerous than the sea-level canal.

FROM SIR WILFRID'S TORONTO SPEECH

(Toronto Globe.) "Up to the present moment we have sought markets chiefly in Europe, but the time has come when we must seek markets in the Orient." "We have before us the experience of all the past ages. It is within our power to profit by the experience of the past ages, to improve upon their virtues, to avoid their mistakes." "Let us see that in this country of Canada there shall be work for all hands and the best remuneration for all work." "Canada has emerged during these ten years from the obscure condition of a simple colony to the rank and station of a proud nation." "This year, I have reason to believe, our trade will reach the $200,000,000 mark." "Let our civilization be such a civilization as never existed before in the world, based, and exclusively based, upon peace and the arts of peace." "It has been said that we should have a uniform tariff in the British Empire. I do not think, for my part, it is possible to have that." "We want to be on good terms with the whole people of England. We cannot admit, we do not want, that our party differences should be made the apple of discord to be thrown among the people of Great Britain."

STORMY SCENE

Engineer Peters and Inspector Mayes in Sensational Tangle Over Construction of New Wharf

Each Solemnly and Persistently Charges the Other With Falseness in Respect to Statements About Record of Short Timber Used Contrary to Specifications—Inspector Says Engineer Told Him to Alter His Record and He Tore Leaf Out of Book—Mr. Peters Denies—Board Takes Action to Prevent Repetition.

In a remarkable scene before the board of works yesterday, what the aldermen seem to regard as a very serious situation relative to certain city officials' positions in the building of the New Rodney wharf developed.

S. Herbert Mayes, inspector on the new wharf, declared in reply to questions that he kept two reports of the what on account of City Engineer Peters, asking him to suppress certain details in connection with the work, and he charged that the city engineer ordered him to tear out a certain page of his official report.

Extracts from his private report were read, which appeared to show that much shorter timber had been used contrary to the specifications. The engineer denied the inspector's statements, from beginning to end, saying he would make a denial before the highest court of this world or the next, while Inspector Mayes called the Deity to witness that what he charged was true.

The board decided that in future the inspector should furnish full reports to the director and that the latter should supply transcripts of these to the board. The aldermen were in session six hours. Ald. McGoldrick was voted to the chair and Ald. Lewis, Hann, Tilley, Holder, Vanvar, Sprout, Baxter, Pickett, MacRae, Frink, Bullock and McArthur were present, with the director, city engineer, harbor master, Superintendent Winchester and common clerk.

At an evening session Ald. Hann and Lewis were absent. Tenders for the revenues of North and South Market slips were received from Gandy & Allison, who offered $1,861, and James A. Galbraith, who bid $1,900, or offered to collect for 10 per cent.

"On motion of Ald. Bullock" the matter was laid on the table to be taken up later.

Mrs. Elizabeth Staines, of 161 Mecklenburg street, complained to the board that the city dump was gradually encroaching upon her property. The director will attend to it.

J. A. Gregory's tender for supply 144,000 feet of spruce at $14 for Rodney wharf was accepted.

Samuel Dunlop, jr., complained that he had been discriminated against in the matter of the erection of a flag pole on the Court Block. There was some discussion over the matter, but nothing was done.

Several renewal leases of city property were given to persons applying for them. Foreman W. McLaughlin was recommended an increase in pay from $175 to $2 from May 1.

It was decided to print in several languages the by-law prohibiting smoking in Sand Point sheds. It was also recommended that the officials be given power to arrest any man found violating the provisions and that the director report as to the cost of fencing the warehouses from the public.

The Wharf Trouble.

S. Herbert Mayes, inspector on the new wharf construction, was then examined.

Ald. McArthur—"Whom do you report to, Mr. Mayes? I understand the order was passed that you should report daily to Mr. Cushing. Are you doing that?"

Mr. Mayes—"I have handed my reports to the engineer daily with one or two exceptions. Mr. Cushing wanted me instructions to make all written reports to your engineer."

Ald. McArthur—"Was it understood that the director should have this power? If not I should like to know the reason why."

The director—"I suppose it is a general order. Mr. Peters is in charge of the work and more in touch with it than I am. It is the usual thing."

In reply to questions Mr. Mayes said he kept the daily reports in a book. The work had been closed down since Jan. 16.

Ald. Pickett—"What kind of reports do you keep?"

Mr. Mayes—"As to the progress of the work and the number of men employed."

Ald. Pickett—"Are these reports full and satisfactory?"

Engineer Peters.

The engineer said if there were any questions he was ready to answer. As he stood there, the statements were utterly false. Mr. Mayes had said something to him about breaking the specification and he had said, jokingly, "Oh, you needn't be so particular." He had replied: "I'll alter it." He (the engineer) had replied: "Certainly not." The conversation about tearing out a page was utterly false, also the other remark about the director's $200. Mr. Clark had asked about alterations in the ballast floor and he could not before the highest tribunal in this world or the next, I say I never did so."

Mr. Mayes, starting up—"I take my oath before God that you asked me to change that paragraph in the book." Turning to the aldermen—"It is a false book, can't you understand how a man of his age can say such a thing. Now this has come up I will mention a number of other things I didn't want to bring this thing up."

Ald. Sprout thought the matter was Mr. Clark in an awkward position as he would not know to whom he would be responsible.

Ald. Baxter—"This does not concern Mr. Clark at all. We want to know if the business of the city is properly or improperly conducted."

Ald. MacRae said the whole question turned on the question of from whom Mr. Clark was to take his instructions. They had had, for some time, the question of variations in the contracts for wharves and the feeling of the board had been that an inspector should be appointed to see the contract carried out. There was a sentiment that the board wanted the wharf built.

The director in reply to a question said he had nothing to say beyond expressing his view that the work was a first class job.

The board was adjourned until 7.30 p. m.

At the evening session before resuming the hearing of Mr. Mayes, several matters were dealt with.

It was decided not to accept the tenders for the North and South Market wharves, but only to accept the tender in by March 5, with an upset price of $2,000.

Ald. MacRae, Baxter, Bullock, McGoldrick and Vanvar were appointed to consider the matter of conduits for the telephone wires and to meet the company and report back.

Mayes Reads from His Book.

The wharf case was then resumed. The common clerk read the minute of the common council of November 6, which showed that Mr. Mayes was required to report to the director.

Ald. Bullock moved that Mr. Mayes should read entries in his own book of reference to the wharf and the wharf against this, but the motion was carried.

The first entry was for November 15, and referred to Mr. Peters' instructions not to report so many particulars or talk about the work. Nov. 17 had a reference to the required length of the wharf. On Nov. 18 two cross lies were noted as not of the required length. On Nov. 19 the director had been asked as to lapping and had said it must be done according to the specifications and had commenced to tear out the leaf of the book. On Nov. 20 the engineer and ask him to bring the question of work before the board.

Ald. Baxter—"It is a remarkable thing that Mr. Cushing tells the inspector to see the engineer and have this lapping by the board of works and to change the plan of the longitudinal of the wharf, and he said 'as it is'."

Ald. Bullock's Query.

Coming to the entry for Nov. 25, Mr. Mayes was asked when he started his private book. He said he anticipated the work and had commenced to tear out five days after he commenced work.

Ald. Bullock—"I thought you said it was on account of the report of Nov. 25."

Mr. Mayes said there was no great difference in the first entries. He had done it for his own protection.

Coming to Dec. 1, Mr. Mayes said it was on that date that the engineer had asked him to alter his record. He had done it for his own protection. He had done it for his own protection. He had done it for his own protection.

Board Takes Action.

Ald. Baxter, after referring the case in detail, said if the official had asked for the specifications to be changed the board no doubt would have agreed, but the slight confidence in them, and he believed that would be the impression in the minds of the public.

Ald. MacRae said it was a most unsatisfactory state of affairs when an official of the city engineer had to be asked to get the specifications to be changed to get the work done. The aldermen read from the contract extracts to show that all questions were to be settled by the board and that no alterations were to be made except by order of the board. He then moved that the inspector be requested to carry out his instructions as to reports, and that the director furnish a transcript of the report to the board.

Ald. Baxter said he had to thank newspaper articles and not their own officials for getting at the matter.

Ald. Pickett moved an amendment that the council be recommended to direct the inspector to present a transcript of every report he had taken before Monday as to time.

The chairman—"That relieves Mr. Peters of the formality of going to the board."

Ald. Baxter—"We relieve him of nothing unless he relieves himself. So long as he remains city engineer he must perform his duties. If he chooses to resign he is relieved. I have no sympathy with the inspector, but I don't want his report to filter through anyone but us to deal with it direct."

Ald. Pickett spoke against undue haste and acting without the amendment. He considered if the amendment passed it would show a want of confidence in the engineer and director.

Ald. Baxter—"It is so intended."

Ald. Pickett moved that no action should be taken before Monday as to time.

Ald. Baxter—"Ald. MacRae's motion will be a vote of want of confidence in the city engineer, but not the director."

Ald. MacRae said he did not propose in his motion to ensure anyone.

Ald. Baxter—"You can't make it anything else."

Ald. MacRae—"I only want the reports to come to the board according to the original motion—through the director."

After some further discussion the amendment was put. Ald. Baxter, McArthur and Vanvar voted aye; Ald. MacRae, Sprout, Frink, Pickett, Bullock, Holder and Tilley, nay. The amendment was therefore lost and the motion carried.

On motion of Ald. Baxter the department of mains will be removed of the danger to Rodney slip from the dredging.

Ald. Bullock, Frink and McGoldrick will look into the question of disposing of the shed on South Rodney wharf.

Ald. MacRae, Baxter, Pickett, Frink and Bullock were appointed to deal with matters relating to the street railway contract.

The director was authorized to call for tenders for 400 barrels of asphalt, 700 barrels of tar, and fifty cords of hardwood. Items for paving blocks, granite curbing and iron covers, but laid over until the estimates should be taken up.

Ald. Tilley, Baxter, Bullock, Vanvar and McGoldrick were appointed to call for tenders for the three new berths and the timber for the approach to the new wharf.

The board then adjourned until Tuesday next.

PAARDEBERG MEN HAVE RE-UNION

Dinner Party of Local Soldiers Who Helped Make Cronje Surrender

With speech and song and jest, local veterans of the South African war paid fitting honor last evening to the anniversary of General Cronje's surrender at Paardeberg six years ago.

A dinner was enjoyed in the Park Hotel and those present as guests were: Hon. J. Ritchie, H. D. McLeod, Leard, C. W. W. McLain, R. H. A. England, Sgt. Major Rooney, C. A. M. C. of Halifax; Simon Mathews and Gilbert C. Davidson. The others were Capt. F. C. Jones, who presided; Fred Coombs, who occupied the vice-presidency; and Messrs. Andrew Patkey, John Williams, Roland Penney, Alfred Simpson, Fred McCain, J. Danney, Mr. Stone, Leo Smith and W. J. Burnham. The toast of the evening was observed with great enthusiasm, after which H. D. McLeod's health was drunk right heartily. The toastmaster referred to the pride he was conscious of in being present as a guest and sketched briefly, but with eloquence, the services performed for the empire by those who had volunteered, and those who remained behind.

Hon. Mr. Ritchie, responding to a toast, alluded to the intense loyalty of the Canadian people—a quality quite as deep and true as that which animated those who under the shadow of the throne served the flag. British citizenship was something to be proud of.

Lieut. McLean gave assurance of the pleasure he felt in being present and referred to different circumstances under which he had met the members of G. Company. Then it was necessary to approve one's appetite with an army biscuit.

After a song by Jack Williams, Lieut. McLean, responding to a toast to the imperial force, dwelt upon the recognition in England of colonial valor.

A song was given by S. Mathews with Gilbert Davidson playing a harp accompaniment and following this Sgt. Major Rooney made a few laudatory observations concerning the Canadian militia.

A song was given by Alfred Simpson, after which Fred Coombs spoke upon the Canadian contingents. The industry at Paardeberg, he said, created a record, the cavalry had performed most gallant work at Hare's River and the artillery at the battle of Mafeking had shown again the mettle of Canadian volunteers. The contingents of the present were no doubt a good wharf builder. There were no charges against the engineer, and he thought the matter had better be wound up.

Ald. Tilley thought an architect could change a contract if he wanted to.

Ald. Holder—"Can you consent of the owners?"

Tired, Nervous Mothers

Make Unhappy Homes—Their Condition Irritates Both Husband and Children—How Thousands of Mothers Have Been Saved From Nervous Prostration and Made Strong and Well.

A nervous, irritable mother, often on the verge of hysteria, is unfit to care for children; it ruins a child's disposition and reacts upon herself. The trouble between children and their mothers too often is due to the fact that the mother has some female weakness, and she is entirely unfit to bear the strain upon her nerves that governing children involves; it is impossible for her to do anything calmly.

The life of women act like a firebrand upon the nerves, consequently the sensitiveness and nervous irritability of women arise from some derangement of the female organism.

Do you experience fits of depression with restlessness, alternating with extreme irritability? Are your spirits easily affected, so that one minute you are cheerful and the next minute you feel like crying?

Do you feel something like a ball rising in your throat and threatening to choke you; all the senses perverted, morbidly sensitive to light and sound; the abdomen distended, and between the shoulders; bearing-down pains; nervous dyspepsia, and almost continually cross and snappy?

If so, your nerves are in a shattered condition, and you are threatened with nervous prostration.

Proof is monumental that nothing in the world is better for nervous prostration than Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound; thousands and thousands of women can testify to this fact.

FRATERNAL VISIT

Father Mathew Association Has St. Peter's and St. Joseph Societies as Guests.

The third and last fraternal visit of the junior Catholic societies was made last evening when the Y. M. A. of St. Peter's and St. Joseph's societies visited the Father Mathew Association in St. Malch's Hall. The societies turned out in force and filled the large hall, and from all appearances all enjoyed themselves thoroughly.

President W. F. Higgins, of the F. M. A., occupied the chair, and with him on the stage were Presidents W. McMahon and E. Moran, of St. Peter's and St. Joseph's, and Rev. Fathers O'Keefe and Holland, chaplains of the F. M. A. and St. Joseph's.

President Higgins opened the proceedings with a few well-chosen words of welcome, which were fittingly responded to by the visiting presidents. Then followed a series of numbers by the members of the societies consisting of: Piano solo, Kelly; solo, E. Mason; reading, N. McGilchrist; Theobald quartette, M. Morris, W. Rooney, L. Monahan, J. Rooney; reading, B. E. Gallagher; song and dance, J. McCormack; solo, D. Higgins; recitation, Owen Coll; solo, Joseph McDermott; song and dance, L. O'Hara; solo, P. Barrett; recitation, J. Daley; solo, M. Delaney; solo, Charles Hazel.

During an intermission in the programme refreshments and cigars were passed around.
