HOSTS OF CHILDREN STARVE TO DEATH

Roads From German Volga to Russia Sprinkled With Bodies—British Relief Effort.

On the Letvian Frontier near Zilite, Latvia, Aug. 11.—Even their own children are being left behind to starve by the hunger-maddened peasants fleeing to Siberia or the Ukraine from hunger and death in the German Volga colony, which is the worst affected of all the places in the Russian zone, according to German colonists arriving at the frontier here yesterday.

"The roads along which swarms of people are migrating are liberally sprinkled with the bodies of children," the colonists said. "Cholera is not much in evidence, but death from hunger is threatening everybody."

Appeal for Relief. London, Aug. 11.—An urgent appeal to the British people for "generous national effort" on behalf of the starving Russians has been issued by the Imperial War Relief Fund, of which the king is patron.

The signatories, among whom are the Archbishop of Canterbury, Lord Birkbeck, Lord High Chancellor and many prominent politicians, writers and clergymen, after emphasizing the desperate conditions in Russia, say:—

"Of all the countries scourged by the war none has suffered so terribly as Russia and none has received so little of the healing gift of sympathy."

MORE EVIDENCE IN AUTOMOBILE CASE

The case of Robert J. Ritchie, charged with receiving stolen goods knowing them to be such, was resumed in the police court this morning. K. A. Wilson and G. H. V. Belyas acted for the defence.

Sergeant Detective Power said he went to the Great Eastern garage on the night of June 11 and was shown two automobile wheels by the defendant's son, Robble Ritchie, Jr. who brought the wheels to the police station.

The witness then said that he went to the same garage the next day for some other parts and found a radiator and a rim. These he also had brought to the central station. Detective Power said he saw the defendant at the garage and asked him if he had had a telephone conversation with Albert Cammack concerning the automobile belonging to Daniel Coughlin, which was burned on the Red Head road. He said the defendant replied in the affirmative.

Cross-examined by W. M. Ryan, the witness said he knew the defendant for two years and that he had as he knew the defendant before but never had taken him in charge.

The case was postponed until Monday morning at 11 o'clock. Three men were charged with drunkenness were remanded.

Joseph Carr charged with vagrancy and having no visible means of support was remanded until arrangements could be made to have him sent to the municipal home.

Tom Fielding, charged with lying and plucking in a box car in the island yard, pleaded guilty and was remanded. John Martin, charged with stealing a suit and overcoat, the property of Thomas Hunt, was again in the court this morning but was remanded again.

The case of Joseph Elliott, arrested on a charge of appropriating to his own use goods belonging to the D. S. C. R., was in the court this morning. No evidence was taken and the prisoner was remanded.

Ward-Mahoney. St. Joseph's church, Seattle, was the scene of a pretty wedding when Miss Camille Mahoney of Seattle was united in marriage to J. Walter Ward, formerly of St. John. The Rev. Thomas J. Madison read the service and the Right Rev. J. O'Don, Rev. D. J. Hanley and Rev. E. A. Brodman assisted in the ceremony. The ushers were Dwight Hartman, Ralph Keenan, Taylor Castlen and Joseph Ward. The flower girls were Mary Kane and Rose Castlen and the matron of honor was Mrs. Cecille Mahoney Kane. Gregory Ward sang "You Alone" during the ceremony.

Among out of town guests were Josh Ward and Joseph Ward of St. John, father and brother of the groom, Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Cronin, Miss Katherine Cronin and the Rev. William Cronin of Cronin.

Impressive Scene as Lord Byng Lands at Quebec

CANADA'S NEW GOVERNOR-GENERAL IS GIVEN NOISY AND ENTHUSIASTIC WELCOME

Sworn in with Great Pomp in Presence of Many Notable Canadians—In Reply to Premier's Address, Lord Byng Pays Tribute to Canada's Fighting Men.

Quebec, Aug. 11.—(Canadian Press)—With the air vibrating from the firing of guns from Quebec's ancient citadel, the sound of whistles from river craft, the ring of bells and the applause of a large crowd, Lord Byng of Vimy, Canada's new governor-general, landed this morning at King's wharf, proceeded through the beflagged streets to the provincial legislature buildings and was there sworn in officially with a pomp and impressiveness which probably have never before been equalled in the history of the dominion.

RECEIVES THE PREMIER. After having spent the night on the Empress of France, the liner which conveyed him from Liverpool, his excellency this morning received Premier Arthur Meighen, who went on board to pay his respects. Later the government steamer Lady Grey took off his excellency and Lady Byng and conveyed them to the King's wharf, where a distinguished cortege, consisting of Mr. Justice Anglin, the acting administrator of the government of Canada, Sir Charles Fitzpatrick, the lieutenant-governor of the province of Quebec, Premier Meighen and members of the federal cabinet and Premier Taschereau and members of the provincial government awaited him in a specially constructed chateau.

The dominion cabinet ministers present were:— Right Hon. C. J. Doherty, minister of justice; Hon. P. E. Blondin, postmaster general; Hon. C. C. Ballantyne, minister of marine and fisheries; Hon. Sir Henry Dwyer, minister of finance, and acting Secretary of State, Hon. F. B. McCurdy, minister of public works; Hon. E. K. Spinney, minister without portfolio.

In General's Uniform. A band played the national anthem as Lord Byng came ashore. The governor-general wore a general's uniform, stood smartly at the salute while it was being played and afterwards inspected the guard of honor on the wharf. Behind an escort of cavalry the governor-general and Lady Byng and their staff proceeded in carriages to the parliament buildings. Lord and Lady Byng received a series of ovations as they passed through the crowds.

A Brilliant Scene. In the executive council chamber, the scene was one of great brilliancy. Against a background of red, the governor-general, preceded by the lieutenant-governor and his cabinet ministers, who are in general's uniform, stood on the gold, red and black of the uniforms of the military and naval officers. As Hiram Sees It

"Hiram," said the Times reporter to the Hiram Hornbren "are you ready to accept the vacant senatorship?" "What's the terms?" "You must be a worthy citizen," said the reporter.

"Worth how much?" asked Hiram. "I am of the opinion," said the reporter, "that in order to meet the requirements on the eve of an election a candidate should really be a man of substance, with pockets—pockets that bulge."

"Well," said Hiram, "me an' Hanner 'sawed it over last night an' the says I'd be an old fool to think about it." "I have great respect for Mrs. Hornbren's judgment," said the reporter.

"She says they orto appoint a woman," said Hiram. "That," said the reporter, "would be horrible." "Hanner don't think so," said Hiram. "But, my dear sir," said the reporter, "don't you see what would happen? How could these dear old gentlemen ever get the provisions in a divorce case if a woman's cold gaze was upon them? They would resign in protest."

"I have great respect for Mrs. Hornbren's judgment," said the reporter. "She says they orto appoint a woman up there," said Hiram. "Yes, sir."

THINK TOBACCO MANUFACTURERS SHOULD ASSIST Fire Chiefs Suggest Enclosing of Warning Notices in All Packages of Tobacco and Cigarettes—Move to Prevent Fire Waste.

Three Rivers, Que., Aug. 11.—The Canadian fire chiefs, assembled here in annual convention, last night adopted a resolution declaring that inasmuch as the hazard of fire is inseparable from the use of smoking tobacco, cigars and cigarettes were under a moral obligation to provide and enclose with their products suitable warnings against the risk of fire.

The resolution stated that as eighty per cent of fire waste of the dominion was due to carelessness, and much of it is the direct result of the careless habits of smokers in handling matches and burning cigars, cigarettes and tobacco, smokers should be informed of the fire dangers that result in the throwing away of unextinguished matches, cigars, cigarettes and tobacco by the enclosing in all cigarette boxes and smoking tobacco cartons of such printed warnings as may bring this serious matter to their attention.

BURYING THE HATCHET

Report on Polish-German Boundary Expected Today

Meanwhile Supreme Council Considers Other Matters. Body to Study Russian Family Relief—The Greco-Turkish Situation—British and French Leaders Confer.

Paris, Aug. 11.—Experts directed by the supreme Allied council to fix the frontier between Poland and Germany in Upper Silesia resumed work today with the exception that they would be able to present a completed report to the council when it met late this afternoon. The task of drawing the boundary, which was agreed to on general lines by the Allied premier on Tuesday, presented many difficulties.

The delegates to the meeting of the council in London, the New York Times today make a strong plea for representations of the British dominions at the coming disarmament conference.

The dominions would like to be invited to the Pacific conference, the paper says, "but the administration will probably leave them out. They must be heard, if at all, through the British delegation, or, rather, their spokesman, if any, must not be included in the delegation which will be led, commanded and dominated by Mr. Lloyd George."

The argument that the conference should not be of cumbersome size is sound—so sound that speculative pressmen might profitably make their money over a "big four" or something like it, will be doing all the work.

During the forenoon Premier Lloyd George and Briand, with Lord Curzon, British secretary for foreign affairs, and Louis Loucheur, French minister of the liberated regions, were together two hours in conference.

Cadore and Coumbe Win Games by Opportune Clouts—New York Again at Head of the List—Late Sport.

New York, Aug. 11.—Two major league pitchers proved their hitting ability yesterday by hitting in winning runs. Cadore of the Brooklyn team won a pitchers' battle from Morrison of Pittsburgh by knocking in the only tally of the contest. Coumbs of Cincinnati made up for the runs scored off him by St. Louis, when his double and single accounted for three Red runs, the margin of victory.

New York again went into first place in the American League with a one-point margin over Cleveland, the latter team losing to Philadelphia. Detroit finally won a game from Boston after losing ten straight to the Red Sox.

AT LEAST 38 IN DEATH ROLL OF WRECKED SHIP Twenty Known Dead and 18 Missing From the Alaska—Question of Efficiency of Crew.

San Francisco, Aug. 11.—Thirty-eight persons, at least, lost their lives in the sinking of the San Francisco and Portland Steamship Company's steamer Alaska on Blunt's Reef, near Fureu, last Saturday, it appeared certain, here, yesterday, after the loss of missing and known dead had been carefully checked and corrected.

The list of dead totals twenty-eight, of whom have been identified. The list of missing contains the names of eighteen persons, all of whom are presumed to have been drowned. Evidence that the alleged inexperienced crew militated against effective rescue work was given yesterday by rescued passengers at the official government enquiry into the vessel's loss, while ship officers testified that the crew was efficient and handled the emergency well.

THE CONFERENCE ON DISARMAMENT

New York Times Discusses Dominion Representation. Delegates from Dominions Will Likely be Included in British Delegation—Sees Strength for U. S. Position—Lloyd George to Attend.

New York, Aug. 11.—(Canadian Press)—Discussing what it terms the renewal of the "six British votes myth," at Washington, the New York Times today make a strong plea for representations of the British dominions at the coming disarmament conference.

The dominions would like to be invited to the Pacific conference, the paper says, "but the administration will probably leave them out. They must be heard, if at all, through the British delegation, or, rather, their spokesman, if any, must not be included in the delegation which will be led, commanded and dominated by Mr. Lloyd George."

Birth of Quintuplets in Hungary Interests British Physicians Mother and Five Babies All in Good Health—Report is Authenticated by London Lancet.

London, Aug. 11.—British physicians are intensely interested in an authentic report from Budapest giving the details of the birth of quintuplets.

The London Lancet quoted Professor Barony, who watched the case, as saying that such an event occurs once in 700,000 years. In the Budapest case the mother was forty-one years old and at the time was the mother of ten children, including one pair of twins.

The mother was taken ill after nighting from a street car. She was removed to a hospital, where the five births occurred over a period of two weeks. The mother and the five babies left the hospital a month later in healthy condition.

SIGNS OF PEACE IN IRELAND

Viceroy and Lady Fitzalan Attend Horse Show With Old Time Pomp—Released Sinn Feiners There Too.

Dublin, Aug. 11.—The Irish Bulletin leads strongly for "justice" in the case of hundreds of Irish soldiers serving prison sentences for "bearing arms in defence of their country," and thousands of others interned without charge or imprisoned awaiting trial and deprived of human treatment.

The newspaper asks how justice or consistency can deny to the status now admittedly possessed by John J. McKewen and other members of the Irish Republican parliament.

"If a settlement is possible," says the Bulletin, "it can only be reached through mutual respect between the British and Irish peoples."

Dublin, Aug. 11.—Viceroy Fitzalan, accompanied by Lady Fitzalan, yesterday paid a state visit to the horse show. This was the first time in many years that the viceroy and the vicereine have attended the function.

Their visit was carried out "in the old time pageantry and gave an impression of peace and good will which had been lacking in recent years at this national function."

Several members of the Dail Eireann recently released from prison, including John J. McKewen, were present.

THORNE WHARF MATTER BEFORE CITY COUNCIL

H. R. McLellan Voices Objection to Large Expenditure.

Commissioner Bullock Explains—Criticism of Ferry Steamers and Staffs—Matter Laid Over for Further Consideration.

At the committee meeting of the common council this morning H. R. McLellan appeared and asked that further consideration be given the question of changes at the Thorne wharf before making an expenditure of $50,000, as was proposed. He based his request on two grounds: first, that the money was being made of harbor property or if extensive developments were undertaken there. His second objection was that the proposed remedy for existing conditions was far too elaborate and of a wrong nature to successfully cope with the conditions which it was intended to eliminate.

He said that it was proposed to erect a wharf of solid type which would subject the ferry boats to great shock. His proposals, he said, were not intended for buffers. He said more care should be exercised in the navigation of the boats and declared that it was quite possible to bring them in in a better manner. One of the boats had not enough power to enable it to be handled in the proper manner. He said he referred to the steamer Ludlow, and his authority was the superintendent of ferries. On one occasion great destruction had been wrought and at that time other piling was done and the Ludlow was damaged. The remedy proposed by the mayor and commissioners would cost in the vicinity of $50,000, but the work could be done satisfactorily and the same purpose served by an expenditure of about $10,000.

Another plan, giving much the same result, would entail expenditure of about $10,000, but in its operation there was no justification for spending $50,000 when a much less sum was sufficient for the work. A doubling of the piling properly braced would cost not more than $2,000, while a solid wharf would cost from $40,000 to $50,000. He said there was a duty on the part of the mayor and commissioners to engage outside advice and go into the matter very thoroughly before arriving at a too hasty decision. He had spoken to the city engineer, and the latter had agreed with him that it would do no harm to consult other engineers with experience in this matter. This would cost something, but he thought the expenditure would be quite justified.

Referring to the piles at present in position at the ferry slips, Mr. McLellan said they had broken at the ground due to the fact that they were supported by permanent rows of piling and do not naturally surge or bend when the ferry boats come in contact with them. He said the scheme proposed here approached the elaborate plan which the Liverpool docks were contemplating. He suggested the name of a local engineer, Alexander Gray, as one who might be called in to estimate the cost of the work and believed that Mr. Gray was a good engineer.

There is Citizen.

To Commissioner Thornton, Mr. McLellan said that he had been informed that there was a private citizen. The mayor assured him that he was quite justified and said that a serious question had been raised on the part of the city engineer. Commissioner Bullock advocated a full and complete discussion there and there said that other matters might be laid over to allow of this being thoroughly gone into.

G. H. Ware said that reflections had been cast upon the men handling the boats and that men who could be so easily misled should come and do so. Mr. McLellan replied that the reflection was not entirely upon the men themselves, but the fact that they knew the boats had not sufficient power.

Commissioner Frink said that in his opinion all the trouble might be removed and thereby remedied by the building of the proposed wharf. From a plain show by Mr. Frink and his colleagues he thought that any new developments which might issue would not pass the city engineer.

City Engineer.

G. G. Hare, city engineer, said that on the West side light protection walls had been built and that they had been a little too light. He said it was merely a question of piles or wharf. To Mr. McLellan he said he was not in the new wharf, to put the wharf had up against the piles.

Mr. McLellan said that the mayor and commissioners were not justified in going on without more advice. He did not think that Mr. Hare would object to another engineer. It was the opinion of some practical men about the water front that the method he had proposed followed rather than the type of construction advocated by the city engineer. He knew the names of the back-benchers who are opposing themselves to the city engineer.

Mr. McLellan said he was not compelled to divulge the names of the men to whom he had referred. He had one to whom he had referred. He had one to whom he had referred. He had one to whom he had referred.

Commissioner Bullock Gives Reasons.

Commissioner Bullock said that nothing would be done hastily. It had come to his attention particularly last winter when one wing went out in its entirety and Mr. Ware had asked for a permanent one. He said he did not see that the proposed scheme was so very elaborate or of such immense proportions. From the first of the year up to July 1 more than $7,800 had been spent for piling and the upkeeping the wing from 1914-1919 was close to $11,000, and keep charges for slips had been nearly $13,000. Personally he would rather have permanent. So far as reference to loss of power in the boats was concerned he thought this a different matter. The only way effectually to remedy this was to get another boat. Formerly, and under administrative form of government, the superintendent and the official at City

The Griffin-Hagen efficiency experts who are carrying out the reorganization work in the post office departments arrived in St. John today, and are making the changes at the local post office. Under the new system H. W. Woods, who was formerly post office inspector, will take the new title of district superintendent and will have direct charge of all the offices in New Brunswick. The assistant inspectors will hereafter be known as post office assistants and various postal services are also put in charge of the district superintendent.

The present district inspectors are Alexander Thompson and John Henderson.

John F. Whelan, post office inspector for Prince Edward Island, is also in the city conferring with Mr. Woods.

THE DAYS OF "THE DOCTOR."

(Toronto Globe.)

The old-fashioned country doctor passes to his reward. Brief dispatches from a little, out-of-the-way place chronicle his demise. Four such have appeared in the newspapers during the last few days. The old doctor was almost 70 years of age.

Yet he lives—in memory, in story, in tradition. He leaves living in the hearts of the world's good men, of the world's greatness. He is the hero of a long, eventful life. He is the silent figure fitting in the lamp-light by the bedside of the fever-stricken child.

Thousands of Canadians know him. He was often a character—bald, hearty and in constant motion. He was very human and very sympathetic. He came close to those to whom he ministered. He understood. He shared with the patient the intimate confidences of fathers and mothers, of sons and daughters.

He was a man of many moods. He was often a patient, and often a stern. He was a man of many moods. He was often a patient, and often a stern. He was a man of many moods. He was often a patient, and often a stern.

WESTFIELD FIRE

Outlook is Better Today—Incendiary Suspect Caught Near Fredericton—600 Fire Fighters on Scene Today.

The heavy fog prevailing today in the Westfield district is of great assistance in keeping the fires in check. All along the front vigilance is maintained, but the situation shows improvement. Providing that the wind does not spring up vigorously there is little cause for alarm.

Fifty-nine men were sent from Grand Bay the day before yesterday, thirty-six yesterday and a large number today. Blankets and provisions are being done and everything possible is being done to bend the energies of the club for the fire fighters, a Dutchman, was taken ill and was sent to town for treatment. He had been fighting fires for twelve days and was well nigh exhausted.

It was said this morning that a man suspected of incendiarism had been caught in the act yesterday near Fredericton and is now being held in custody under suspicion for some time and finally was caught by a man who went to the fire scene.

About 600 men are on duty in Westfield and vicinity today.

Energies of Country Club

At a meeting of the board of directors of the Westfield Country Club, yesterday, the sum of $300 was voted to the Westfield Relief Fund. It was decided to bend the energies of the club for the purpose of relief work and to attend to that first before reverting to the old order of things. The aquatic sports will not be held this Saturday, but it is expected that they will be held some time before the close of the summer season and they will take the form of a benefit for sufferers. There are good many cases requiring assistance, not among the summer people, but among the all-year-round residents, some of whom are suffering with what they could carry in the mad rush from the flames. All the way from Millville to the work of the fire fighting in the Westfield district is being forcefully carried on. A new feature was introduced today in every way possible the rebuilding of the Westfield colony as pretty as it is friendly, and that out of the ashes shall rise a yet more beautiful summer resort.

PRECAUTIONARY MEASURES.

DISASTROUS INCIDENT.

Ignition was expressed this morning by a resident of Grand Bay regarding the locking of a pump used by several families. A member of one of them had reported that in some cases roots four feet in the ground were burning.

NEW METHOD OF TESTING PRESENCE OF ALLOY IN GOLD

Washington, Aug. 11.—Perfection by the bureau of standards of a spectroscopic analysis of gold has given the United States Treasury a method which, it is declared, will measure the finest of the metal more accurately than one part in a million.

The method is described as consisting of "small electric sparks leaping between two strips of gold," photographs of the sparks taken through a "diffraction grating" showing at once the presence of the most minute particles of base metals.

Tests just completed showed that the "1,000 fine gold" of the San Francisco mint, the highest grade, was only 99.997 pure. Specially minted samples were passed by the new devices as 99.999 percent pure.

ABIDING FAITH.

Fredericton Mail. The maid of a prominent citizen arrived home from church on Sunday morning out of breath and her mistress asked her what was the matter. She said they had prayed for rain in her church and she had run home for fear of getting wet.

its history and traditions and with a population possessing the qualities which make for the greatness of any nation.

"I am very happy to say that I do not come to you as a stranger, for I had the honor to command the Canadian corps in France, where I got to know and love so many Canadians from every part of the Dominion.

"Canada showed early in the great struggle the value she set on the ties that bind her to the British Empire. The heroic sacrifices made by the First Canadian Division at St. Julien, in 1915, notwithstanding the main German attack, which opened the second battle of Ypres, was a fitting prelude to the long series of actions in which they distinguished themselves. That first enthusiasm was well maintained and in the second year of the war, Canada was the place of an army corps in the field. I have held a high honor to have commanded and to have got to know and love so many men of that distinguished unit. I look forward most eagerly to renewing old acquaintanceships and old ties throughout the Dominion, and have been happy today to meet many old comrades of the war in my first few hours in Canada.

"In the name of my wife, I thank you most sincerely for the very kind welcome which you have given her, which she most sincerely appreciates. She is looking forward to renewing her early and most pleasant memories of Canada and its people.

"I again thank you for the cordial and generous welcome you have given me."

His Lordship and entourage were then taken to the Citadel for a short rest before returning to the parliament buildings, to attend a luncheon given in his honor by the federal government.

After the luncheon Premier Meighen proposed the toast of the governor general's health in a speech in which he welcomed him to Canada and Hon. P. E. Blondin seconded him, speaking in French.

Replies to Toast.

Lord Byng delivered the following speech at the luncheon in reply to the toast to his health:

"I am glad to have the honor of one of the great self-governing dominions most always feel some trepidation when I take on his duties, especially if he is to follow a long and distinguished list of predecessors. But I venture to think that I shall receive from all citizens of Canada the same sympathy and confidence that was given so ungrudgingly to my predecessor, Sir Charles D. Stewart. I had the honor of serving during the war."

"Since then we find ourselves in altered circumstances. Then, as soldiers, we were doing our best to defend the British Commonwealth, and we were striving to maintain and advance it. We, the British Commonwealth, will be happy to see the interests of our country, not a nation, may overcome the common interests of all. We shall, I hope, bring to the discharge of my duties, especially if I am to follow a long and distinguished list of predecessors. But I venture to think that I shall receive from all citizens of Canada the same sympathy and confidence that was given so ungrudgingly to my predecessor, Sir Charles D. Stewart. I had the honor of serving during the war."

IN THE PROCESSION OF ANTS.
It is not all in the point of view. One can see far and wide, and yet miss the meaning. To the men who pass over the land in aeroplanes some things are clearer than to those who walk close to the surface; to those who look down from the tops of sky-piercing towers or out from fifty-story windows, the city is a great plateau with deep dells running here and there at odd angles. Yet that is not the city. The checker-board of brown and green fields and forests and glittering water is not the nation. One may look with distant eye upon Europe, or China, or mysterious Africa, or at history—the French Revolution, the Black Plague, the Deluge, if you please—

INDIANS SENDING CHIEFS TO PROTEST TO KING GEORGE

Brandon, Ont., Aug. 11.—Six National Indians have left for Rochester, where they will meet J. Decker and Chief General to form a deputation which will go to London to present to King George himself the Six Nations protest against interference by the Canadian Department of Indian Affairs in the affairs of the Six Nations.

The united tribes claim that by virtue of the treaty under which they came to the Grand River Valley after the War of the Revolution, they are completely independent within their own limits. The specific cause of complaint is the bill to provide for enfranchisement of Indians as Canadian citizens. They contend that they are allies of the British crown, and not subject to Canadian laws.

C. P. R. INTERESTED IN CHILD WELFARE

Good Wishes of Officials and Company to Health Special Train - Lecture Tour by Rail.

(Montreal Gazette.) The official good wishes of the Canadian Pacific Railway for the success of the campaign on rail, which is to be undertaken by the Child Health Special Train that leaves Place Viger Station this morning for a provincial tour, were conveyed by Mr. A. D. MacTier, vice-president, eastern lines, C. P. R., to the Child Welfare Association on Saturday morning, when the train was formally inspected at Windsor station by him and a group of those interested in the project. The train is made up of two cars loaned by the C. P. R., which have been specially equipped as an exhibition and lecture train on behalf of child welfare, and which in the course of its tour will also run over Grand Trunk and Central Vermont tracks. Co-operating with the Child Welfare Association are McGill University, the University of Montreal, the Provincial Red Cross Society, the C. P. R., G. T. R. and C. V. R. The car is fitted up as an exhibition, having placards of advice on each side in English and French, while on a centre table are exhibits in food, clothing and other requisites of baby nurture. The exhibits are laid out progressively, beginning with the pre-natal period and following on in sequence in the growing child. The second car will be used as a lecture car and also provides quarters for the medical and nursing staff traveling on the train.

When Mr. MacTier had been shown over the train by Mrs. Allister F. Mitchell, president of the Ladies' Benevolent Society, the company present assembled in the exhibition car and a few speeches were made.

Mrs. Mitchell apologized for the absence of the president of the Child Welfare Association, J. Arthur McBride, communicating a letter from him in which he regretted his absence on account of bad health, and in which he expressed his appreciation of what the C. P. R., the G. T. R. and C. V. R. were doing to help the project. He also expressed the hope that the project would be justified sufficiently to encourage a wider experiment in the way of a dominion health train in the future. To this Mrs. Mitchell added her own appreciation of the co-operation of the C. P. R., and spoke of the value to the motherhood of the community of this work, pointing out how successful an exhibition had been held in May last, when 800 children and many mothers had come under their care and had availed themselves of the special clinics at the hospitals.

President Beatty's Interest.

Mr. A. D. MacTier, vice-president of Eastern Lines, C. P. R., explained that Mr. E. W. Beatty, president, and Mr. Grant Hall, vice-president, were both out of town, and therefore unable to attend that day. But when the matter was placed before Mr. Beatty, his interest had been aroused, not only from the ordinary humanitarian point of view, but also as the head of a great organization which realized the vast economic side of this effort to save child life. On both accounts those who were promoting his tour would have the most sympathetic interest not only of the president, but of the company as a whole, and their very best wishes would follow the train and the attempt which was now beginning in a serious way to remove the stigma which at present rested upon the province and upon Canada generally in regard to infant mortality.

The Medical Profession. Speaking for the medical profession of Montreal and of Canada, Dr. A. D. Blackader said it was only in recent times that the profession had appreciated the terrible losses of life in early infancy brought about by ignorance on the part of the parents. A great many efforts had been made to remedy this, and in these medical men were now co-operating. They recognized the good work carried out by Dr. W. A. I. Styles on behalf of child welfare, and they were pleased to see the C. P. R. coming forward so generously in the provision of this train.

The Rev. Father Hingston referred to the train as a very special "departure" on the station schedule, because it marked the beginning of the diffusion of knowledge that should be in the hands of all parents with regard to the rearing of children. They were really going back a little bit to what their grandmothers knew, because artificial conditions in the last few generations had brought about a lack of knowledge of the elementary principles of bringing up families. Conditions had changed so that many traditions had been lost, but these could be regained and added to by the application of modern scientific methods. The speaker mentioned that Dr. Styles was one of the lecturers on the staff of the Loyola School of Sociology.

Among those present for the function were: Mr. A. D. MacTier, Senator Beatty, Miss L. E. P. Barry, Miss L. J. Phillips, J. A. Woodward, Mrs. Allister F. Mitchell, E. C. Elliott (G. T. R.), Dr. A. D. Blackader, Rev. Father Hingston, Mr. Donald MacNaughton, Dr. W. A. I. Styles, Miss Mary Whalen, Miss Mary Slattery, Miss G. Panet-Raymond, Miss L. Gauthier.

"I want to buy a make-up box," said the young married man. "A make-up box?" echoed the confectioneer. "I mean a box of chocolates to take home to my wife. I promised to be home three hours ago."

RECENT WEDDINGS

London-McComamy. A quiet wedding was solemnized yesterday afternoon at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William McComamy, Fairville, when their daughter, Amy, was united in marriage to Ianish London of Monticello (N.S.), the ceremony being performed by Rev. C. T. Clark, pastor of the Fairville Baptist church, who was officiating. The bride was becomingly gowned in blue satin and carried a bridal bouquet of sweet peas and bride roses. Her escort was a young man of blue serge, with white ermine tie and black and cream velvet hat. The bride and groom left for a trip through Nova Scotia, and on their return will make their home at Bridgeport, N. S. The bride is a son of the late Francis Ruddock of this city, and is a traveller for Vassie & Company, Ltd.

RECENT DEATHS

Hiram G. Betts. By the death of Hiram G. Betts, who passed away at the general hospital yesterday morning, St. John loses an estimable citizen and a man who at one time occupied a prominent position in the community. Mr. Betts was born in Clementsport, (N. S.), but received his education almost entirely in this city. He attended the classes of the old St. John Grammar School in Horsefield street, at that time under the public trusteeship of Dr. James Hutchinson, and took a high rank in all the subjects of the course. After leaving school he carried on a commission and warehouse business with success until the great fire of 1877 destroyed his stock and his part of the city. He also built and owned several schooners. In 1877 he was appointed clerk in the mayor's office and was a most capable official during the strenuous days following the great fire. Subsequently he determined to study law and was enrolled as a barrister in October, 1881. He at first practiced his profession in St. John, but after some years moved to Boston and later to New York, in both of which cities he practiced law with marked success. Mr. Betts returned to St. John about eight years ago and owing to failing health had lived quite a retired life.

In his younger days Mr. Betts was very prominent in the Masonic fraternity. He was a Past Master of John's Lodge, No. 2, and secretary of the lodge for several years. He was also High Priest of Carleton Chapter for one year and a Knight Templar in the encampment of St. John. Mr. Betts was of loyalist stock. He was a man of keen and vigorous intellect, loyal to his friends and a most patriotic citizen. His death will be much regretted by a wide circle of friends. He leaves two sisters, Mrs. John R. Elliott and Miss Elizabeth Betts, of Grandville, (N. S.), and one brother, Craven L. Betts, of New York city. Mrs. George G. Hare, of this city, is a niece and Dr. James Manning a nephew. Interment will be made at Bear River, (N. S.) on Friday.

Capt. E. J. MacKinnon. Captain Edgar J. MacKinnon died recently in Brooklyn. He was forty-three years of age and very early in life commenced a seafaring career. He obtained a master's certificate and was given command of the Westport III. He helped to save the passengers and crew of the R. M. S. P. Cobequid, wrecked in 1914, off this coast. While manoeuvring his vessel about the wreck in the heavy seas he was thrown over the wheel of the Westport and injured about the chest and lungs. It gradually developed into tubercular trouble and finally resulted in his death. He is survived by his mother, two sisters and three brothers.

INTERESTING AND INSTRUCTIVE. T. M. Burns, secretary to the Board of Health, has received from the Child Welfare division of the Federal Health Department, of which Dr. Helen A. MacMurchy is director, several post cards, the object of which is to place in the hands of as many mothers in New Brunswick as possible, a copy of the "Canadian Mother's Book." This is an interesting and instructive pamphlet, concerning the best methods of caring for the physical welfare of both mother and yourself and baby. Please write name and address below and give to your party reporting a birth and reads as follows: "Canada congratulates you on the birth of your baby. If you like, a copy of the 'Canadian Mother's Book' will be sent you, telling how to take care of your baby. LADY ASTOR IN PARLIAMENT

Says Tribute to Chivalry and Fairness of Her Fellow Members.

Lady Astor in N. Y. Evening Post) London, July 28.—"Nothing is too good if what you stand for is bigger than what you are." It is this knowledge that sustains Lady Astor as she sits the trail for women in British politics and takes her place as the sole representative of women in the House of Commons. The first woman to be elected to Parliament, she must meet the usual problem of doing pioneer work. A deal of subconscious opposition is inevitable, for not only must she have a lone hand and strive to present a new point of view to 600 men, but she is continually in conflict with the all-indebtedness of the House. It is that Parliament has failed to accord her a royal welcome! Of this she writes in a voice so full of Southern charm and fervor that the reporter is to doubt her own senses and that she is actually sitting under the electric ceiling in one of the corridors of the Houses of Parliament. "All the members have treated me with extraordinary chivalry and respect. As for fair play—it is the very essence of English politics! An excellent example of both the courtesy and the sense of English politicians is their attitude toward other countries. If any member ever tries to say anything in the House derogatory of the United States or any other Allied Power, the general atmosphere of the House is immediately against him. Particular exception is made to any unfriendly allusion to the United States."

Birth Accepted With these facts in mind, it is easy to understand why her American birth has been a real obstacle to Lady Astor's career. "I believe that women's fight has just begun," Lady Astor declares. "The wave of sentiment roused by women as war has waned, and there is a rising reaction against increasing opportunities for women. There is also considerable apathy among the new women voters. This is especially noticeable as regards women jurors. It is difficult to stem the growing custom of challenging women jurors in cases involving a moral offense against a woman or a child. The sanctimonious grounds that the impending trial is too delicate for feminine ears, so long as so many women are found who are only too glad to get out of jury duty. Sometimes they actually withdraw voluntarily, if the judge gives them an opportunity. "Enthusiasm of the few alone will not do enough. What the English women citizens lack, most of all, is organization, and until they do organize they can influence up to a point, it is true, but they can never command."

BOY COMMITS SUICIDE FEARING DISMISSAL Detroit, Aug. 11.—A 16-year-old boy would "fire" him, because he had smashed up an automobile belonging to the firm, Hugh Dewitt, a sixteen-year-old stock boy for the Economic Drug Co., returned to the store, went into the cellar and shot himself through the heart.

What Is Every Mother's Hope For Her Children? Sturdy, energetic children radiating health, are a source of pride and joy to their parents. And their development depends largely on their food. Children, undernourished and unwisely fed are weak and unhealthy, and many times succumb to disease easily grasped them, for their undeveloped constitutions are unable to resist the disease germs. No food will have greater influence in making your children vigorous and healthy than Grape-Nuts. Served with milk or cream, Grape-Nuts is an ideal body, brain and nerve food. It is made from wheat and barley. Grape-Nuts offers a high food value, and it is as delicious as it is healthful. Children find delight in the crisp, sweet richness of Grape-Nuts. A dish at breakfast or lunch for a few days and you'll agree "There's a Reason" for Grape-Nuts. Nutrition and economy combined. Grape-Nuts—the Body Builder "There's a Reason"

Members Help Her However, aside from this rather exasperating attitude on the part of the men, there are other and more nearly insurmountable problems. Yet Lady Astor encounters no organized opposition, no cleavage in ideals between men and women. On the contrary, she receives invaluable support from men like Jack Hills, who have actually sacrificed their own popularity in their fight for feminism. There are a great many men in Parliament, however, who sympathize with a woman's point of view, but will not go the length of fighting.

There are certain bills," Lady Astor laments, "that naturally women are interested in and more eager to pass through than men. If there were more women in the House representing more votes and pressing for men's questions, it would make a tremendous difference, and bills such as the Guardianship of Infants Bill, the Equal Law Amendment Bill, and the striking more just conditions for unmarried mothers and their babies would stand a far better chance of being passed quickly. "As a matter of fact," her political secretary interpolated, "Lady Astor is really like a woman minister without portfolio. Since she is the only woman in Parliament, most of the women's work is necessarily focussed through her, as their one real representative and the person most interested in legislation for women and children. The women's organizations, as well as countless individual women, tend to use her as their medium and mouthpiece. Approximately 1,500 letters are mailed to her every week, at least four or five times as many as most of the other members of the House receive."

It is Lady Astor's belief that the future of women in English politics depends upon their ability to organize. A big step in this direction was the formation a few months ago of a big consultative committee, the outcome of a series of conferences of women's societies, called together by Lady Astor, and similar in aims and methods to the National League of Women Voters in America.

"I believe that women's fight has just begun," Lady Astor declares. "The wave of sentiment roused by women as war has waned, and there is a rising reaction against increasing opportunities for women. There is also considerable apathy among the new women voters. This is especially noticeable as regards women jurors. It is difficult to stem the growing custom of challenging women jurors in cases involving a moral offense against a woman or a child. Wife Delivers Caller Away After He Had Shot Her Husband. (New York Times.) A toy pistol at arm's length by Mrs. Mollie Golden of 911 Southern Boulevard, the Bronx, yesterday caused a busy business patron of her husband, Samuel, who is 27 years of age, to beat a hasty retreat after he had shot Samuel in the right forearm with a revolver. The police are looking for Sam Rosansky, address unknown, who is charged by the Golden with having done the shooting. Rosansky, several months ago, purchased a cigar stand in a downtown office building from Golden for $1,600. Yesterday Rosansky appeared and demanded a loan, so the Golden alleged. THE EVENING TIMES AND STAR, ST. JOHN, N. B., THURSDAY, AUGUST 11, 1922

DARTMOUTH CARES FOR ITS FUTURE CITIZENS

Health Nurses, Clinics, Hospital Care, Physical Instruction and Social Culture.

With a full realization of the fact that the child is the greatest asset to the nation, Dartmouth, N. B., is well to the front through its various efficient organized movements in developing the child in such a way that it shall reach as near as possible to the zenith of perfection.

Physical equipment being that primary requisite, it naturally follows that the first persons interviewed in the establishment in Dartmouth in 1912 has been signified by splendid results in the conversation of the lives of many an infant through parental care, and close attention to the little ones during the critical year. The President reports 908 visits made last year which had a direct bearing on the welfare of the children in their homes, and 553 to the schools.

System Success. About two years after the inception of the Victorian work in Dartmouth was made in the right direction by the introduction of the system of school visitation, which has been justified by results. The decision of physical handicaps that militated against mental proficiency were carefully noted, and the parents advised as to the necessary treatment. In cases where the parents have been in a position to pay the family doctor has been consulted, while the poor child, falling short of the mark through defective sight, adenoids, or any other reason, has been given free treatment.

Closely allied to the work of the Victorian Order of Nurses is that being done by the Massachusetts Infant Health Centre, whose friendly doors opened last March to mothers who have found the babies' clinic especially an indispensable boon. As much time is spent by the nurses, Miss Patterson and her assistant Miss Fraser, in visits to the homes, the former having the North and the latter the South districts, appointments are set each day for consultation at the office. The writer happened in on a very pleasant "At Home" day when smiling mothers bring their babies, containing future citizens, and went away still happier because the scales had recorded an encouraging increase in the weight of their little ones.

In Perfect Harmony. Inspection of this Health Centre reveals bright, airy rooms set apart for various uses. There is one for the treatment of tuberculosis, one fitted with apparatus for testing eyes, a set of double dark green blinds for the home, and a room for necessary darkness, but funds do not permit of providing for glasses. Another room will eventually be set apart for dentistry. At present fourteen children are sent weekly to the Dalhousie Dental Clinic. All surgical cases are operated on in the City. There is also the doctor's room, and the outer office where well-dressed ladies and gentlemen of all infants and other small folk who are receiving treatment. The work of the Victorian Order of Nurses and the Health Centre is in perfect harmony, and does not overlap, and the cases former to the latter. Such benevolent societies as the Children of Mary and King's Daughters have for their gifts, and the King's Daughters received from J. M. S. Shannon a box of milk for $20.00 toward the purchase of milk for the babies.

Something new in connection with school records in the health chart which covers each child's history and is passed on to the next teacher, while the high school pupils enjoy four socials each year. These affairs are rendered extremely pleasant now that every school except Victoria is the proud possessor of a piano, the money for which has been raised through successful concerts and operettas given by the pupils. Park School has the advantage also of a gramophone, and Hawthorne is awaiting the time when funds can be raised for similar boon, but a piano for Victoria School will be the first consideration.

But the boys and girls are not working solely for their own amusement. Their highly successful operetta, "A Rehearsal at Ten," exemplified the altruistic spirit, for after deducting expenses the sum of $87.50 was handed to the Red Cross to be expended on comforts for shell-shocked soldiers.

By dress the schools are endeavoring to inculcate a taste for literature by adding to their libraries such books as will be helpful as well as entertaining.

MORNING NEWS OVER THE WIRES

At a meeting of employment officials in Winnipeg yesterday it was decided that as there are 25,000 harvesters in the west already, the railway companies should be informed that no more excursions should be run until a survey of the situation had been made. The C. P. R. has cancelled the excursion scheduled for August 17, but will run one if conditions warrant. An attempt was made to wreck a Nova Scotia passenger train at Sydney Mines yesterday at daybreak. The train ran into an open switch but was running slowly at the time because of a fog so little damage was done.

LOCAL NEWS

E. S. Carter left last evening for Montreal where he will make the final arrangements for the transferring of the trusteeship of the debeatated Valley Railway. The Prudential Trust Company, of Montreal, has been the trustee, but the provincial government has appointed Hon. W. E. Foster, Hon. J. P. Byrne and Hon. J. E. Michaud trustees and upon the signing of the final papers these gentlemen will become the trustees.

There has been an unusually large number of sea dogs in the harbor and about the other fishing wharves of late. Once in a while a pistol shot is heard and another of the marauders is gone. A local fisherman says that he has had as many as twenty-five salmon in his traps recently and all that he got out of the lot was six. Active sea dogs do not rest. It is said that these marine raiders have no fear of sticks and stones but they do hate the sound of gunfire.

A new organization, to be known as the Ketepec-Morna Association, is now being formed among the residents of these two places, and the officers of the society are enlisting charter members. A large house in Ketepec, belonging formerly to O. E. Akery, has been purchased, along with the land adjoining, to serve as a club-house, and it is proposed to have the house extended and furnished with sun porches and dancing room.

Donald Fraser of Plaster Rock, president of the N. B. Temperance Alliance, was in the city yesterday in connection with the coming referendum, which is to be held on October 10 and to decide whether the people of this province shall have the liquor for beverage purposes imported or not. Mr. Fraser said that at the meeting of the directors of the alliance, held in St. John last April, W. D. Wilson, general secretary of the organization, was appointed as the speaker. He was accompanied by Rev. H. A. Goodwin, who offered his services to the alliance as a speaker at the referendum campaign.

BRITISH SOLICITOR GENERAL AT QUEBEC. Quebec, Aug. 11.—Sir John Simon, British solicitor-general, who arrived here on the Empress of France yesterday, was the guest of the Quebec bar at a dinner tendered him last evening at the Garrison Club. The dinner was presided over by Premier Taschereau.

WE ALL HAVE TO PLEASE OTHERS. To succeed, we all have to please others. This applies to employer as well as to employee. It applies through all ranks of society. The worker who fails to please his boss is dropped. Unless the publisher pleases his editor, his contributions are not accepted. Unless the politician pleases his constituents, they defeat him. Unless the banker pleases those who do business with him, they take their accounts elsewhere. Unless the president of a corporation pleases the board of directors and the stockholders, he is finally ousted. And unless the husband pleases the wife and the wife pleases the husband, their marriage is not a success. Not one of us is his own master. No, not one of us is his own master. No, not one of us is his own master. (N. Y.)

ANNUAL PICNIC. The annual picnic of the Western Union employees was held yesterday afternoon and evening at Morna, and was thoroughly enjoyed. About fifty of the employees assembled for the bountiful supper on the beach which was the first event in the picnic programme. After supper came games of all kinds, including a good game of baseball, which was snappy and strongly contested, sports and races. A big bonfire was made and when its light was extinguished the jolly party returned to the city in automobiles. The prizes in the races were won as follows: married men's race, J. W. Wilson; single men's race, J. W. Bailey; girls' race, Miss Sharkey.

FISHERMEN DROWNED. Canas, N. S., Aug. 10.—The Newfoundland fishing schooner Governor Foss, arrived here, reporting the loss by drowning of Fred Cluett, a member of the crew while twenty miles south of St. Esprit.

SCHOONER ARTHUR M. LOST. The schooner Arthur M., from St. John, struck on a rock off Herring Cove, Nova Scotia, seventy miles from St. John, on August 2. She was owned and commanded by Captain Hatfield of Parobro. The members of the crew were the captain's son and William McHarg of West St. John. McHarg returned to St. John yesterday and brought the first news of the wreck. A heavy squall struck the vessel, and in making for shelter she struck the rock and started to fill. The three men had difficulty in getting to shore in a small boat. The Arthur M. was not insured.

CHILDREN AND SLEEP. No child nutrition worker, says the U. S. Public Service, can hope to get satisfactory results without insisting on enough sleep for her charges. Besides damaging the nervous system, late hours draw a child toward and upward in school and in home life. Insufficient sleep drags it backward and downward. Which do you want your child to go? Some children are often only tired children; that is the truth of this. That a neighbor's child is sent to bed late is not a good reason for sending your child to bed late; two wrongs do not make a right. Going to bed late is a bad habit, which may be difficult to cure; persevere till you succeed in curing it.

NEW CONSTITUTION FOR THE TRADES AND LABOR CONGRESS. Ottawa, Aug. 11.—(Canadian Press)—There has been no move toward having Mr. Kelley, draft a new constitution for the Trades and Labor Congress, declared Tom Moore, president of that organization yesterday in reference to a report that G. L. Kelley, an Ottawa barrister had been commissioned to prepare such a document for submission to the Congress delegates at Winnipeg. Protest Against Cut. Glace Bay, N. S., Aug. 11.—Formal protest has been filed by local officials with the management of the Sydney and Louisbourg Railway which recently posted an announcement of a twelve percent wage cut effective July 16. Further action in the matter will depend entirely on the decision of the brotherhood leaders at Toronto.

SOME CHANGES IN THE U. S. TAXES. Washington, Aug. 11.—Repeal of the excess profit tax and income surtaxes above thirty two per cent effective as of last January 1 and of all of the freight and passenger transportation taxes as of next January 1, was agreed upon yesterday by the House of Representatives. The committee majority also agreed to increase the normal income tax on corporations five per cent making a total of fifteen per cent instead of 12 1/2 per cent, as suggested recently at a White House tax conference. A $2,000 exemption on corporation income was understood to have been retained.

ALL U. S. PRISONERS MAY LEAVE RUSSIA. Riga, Aug. 11.—A guarantee that United States citizens remaining in Russia will be given an opportunity to leave that country if they desire was offered yesterday by Maxim Litvinoff, Soviet Representative at a conference this afternoon with Walter L. Brown, European director of the United States Relief Administration over the question of United States relief for famine stricken Russia.

ORDERED TO PAY $3 TOWARD MOTHER'S SUPPOR. Chatham, Aug. 11.—The first case under the act recently passed whereby children can be compelled to support dependent parents was tried before W. Merritt, J. P. in the County Court, when James Richards appeared to support or contribute to the support of his aged mother. The mother is presently residing with a son-in-law. The court ordered Richards pay $3 per week toward his mother's maintenance.

IF YOU LEARN THE "CULTURE DANCE" You Won't Have to Do Any Toddle Steps—Louis Kretlow, at Dancing Convention, Finds Rhythm is Life Even at Eighty.

Life moves to a rhythm this week at the Hotel Astor, where the thirtieth annual Association of the American National Association of Masters of Dancing is being held, for as rhythmic strains come from the north ballroom with a soft swishing sound that means moving feet, members passing through the long corridor unconsciously mark time in step and gesture, and even an outsider who ventures into the precincts of Terpsichore finds himself loving the tempo with a nod of head or a beat of the foot. It is surprising to find how serious a matter dancing is to dancing instructors, and how strenuous a dancing convention proves to be for the teacher who attend it to study new steps to later demonstration. Any misguided person who denounces dancing as frivolous should see the ballroom in full swing, with its swaying circle of master turned pupils concentrating on each step and half step and watching with breathless interest. Foreheads are knit, not books come out even while the music of the new dance are being tried, and while feet are registering "slide, turn rock," pencil and paper are getting careful analysis of the dance.

In all this swaying band of earnest concentrated teachers turned pupils, you will almost never find to see a veteran dancing master, turning and gliding with serenity and a calm mastery of all complexities that is almost magical. Not wrinkles on his placid brow; his feet seem to move automatically in just the right direction and pause at just the exact fraction of a moment as the music requires without any visible effort on their owners part.

A Veteran Dancing Master. This is Louis Kretlow, the veteran master of over sixty years' experience who has found his spring in the rhythm of the dance, and who has a twist on the floor whenever he feels an ache or pain attacking and diets. Mr. Kretlow does not get any younger, which mount to near it eighty mark—in spite of a howl beard and white hair, his eyes are clear and keen and his eyes contrast these would-be testimonials to his years achieved and his mind is nimble as his flying feet.

Mr. Kretlow began to teach when he was nine years old, as his father was also a teacher, and the little boy was called in to help out. "What did I teach them?" he asks. "I taught the waltz, the polka and the foxtrot, and then the new dances, and then I perceived the questioning look in the eyes of the boys, 'why, people now, who think they are dancing the waltz, are really dancing red-wax, see like this?'"

Mr. Kretlow leaped from his seat and began to turn in the waltz, and then he said, "I changed of measure and accent to the red-wax, with the same uncomely, and as a bird might say, 'how you flew on a fish how it flew on a fish.'" "Dancing will not be much different when you are eighty," he said. "It is the same steps, but with different combinations and with different results, ridiculous and amusing, but after all the years of the dance is the same—a certain definite principles, and that is not true," he pauses reflectively, "of dancing outside of the schools, for people can modify it to suit themselves, too. But dancing as it is taught now, it has been taught, and will be taught in the future, these vulgarities and it is a beautiful mythical thing."

Just as he was about to be dismissed, for Mrs. Helene S. Sweney of Boston was demonstrating as a good citizen of the "Hull" and "Columbia" which she promised to "eliminate toddling in the foxtrot, and it demonstrated that it was a graceful and charming dance, quite free from toddling any other objectionable features."

After this ballroom exercise had been taken, Mr. Kretlow returned to his reviewer refreshed rather than fatigued by the strenuous he reviewed. "Every one likes the foxtrot," he said, "because they can imitate it in all the steps they like and if the right measure for them. That what dancing really is, following the rhythm of the music and people who are not musical are the ones who find hard to learn to dance."

No need to ask Mr. Kretlow if he would teach. He admitted that his favorite instrument was a cornet and that in his boyhood days, when ministers were in flower, he had traveled with burnt corn and his cornet in minstrel shows. But no matter what instrument Mr. Kretlow follows in life, and though his profession calls for analysis of steps and insistence on counts and beats, dancing for him is life breathing, a perfect natural process and an essential part of life and health.

FIRE AT AYLMER, ONT., WITH LOSS ABOUT $750,000

At Least One Life Lost in Blaze Which Ruins the Town.

Some 700 People Homeless—Charred Body of a Man Found in His Store—125 Families Suffer.

Ottawa, Aug. 11.—Fire of a disastrous character, fanned by a strong wind from the southwest, swept Aylmer, Que., yesterday afternoon and left in its wake a parched and blackened ruin of what was formerly a quiet and picturesque town. At least one death was caused by the fire, seven hundred persons were rendered homeless and the property loss is estimated by Mayor Nash as Aylmer at $750,000. Most of the principal buildings in the town were razed by the flames and the homes of some 125 families lost.

The fire began with dramatic suddenness, leapt from dwelling to dwelling, urged on by the stiff breeze that was blowing from the west. Within ninety minutes had laid waste the town.

They hurried before them everything and as each gust of wind blew, fresh flames burst out and soon the heart of the town was seething furnace. The heat was terrific and the wind carried it far beyond the limits of the town.

Another attraction was the dance given by the firemen, and all that he got out of the lot was six. Active sea dogs do not rest. It is said that these marine raiders have no fear of sticks and stones but they do hate the sound of gunfire.

A new organization, to be known as the Ketepec-Morna Association, is now being formed among the residents of these two places, and the officers of the society are enlisting charter members.

After this ballroom exercise had been taken, Mr. Kretlow returned to his reviewer refreshed rather than fatigued by the strenuous he reviewed. "Every one likes the foxtrot," he said, "because they can imitate it in all the steps they like and if the right measure for them. That what dancing really is, following the rhythm of the music and people who are not musical are the ones who find hard to learn to dance."

No need to ask Mr. Kretlow if he would teach. He admitted that his favorite instrument was a cornet and that in his boyhood days, when ministers were in flower, he had traveled with burnt corn and his cornet in minstrel shows. But no matter what instrument Mr. Kretlow follows in life, and though his profession calls for analysis of steps and insistence on counts and beats, dancing for him is life breathing, a perfect natural process and an essential part of life and health.

THE GREAT CARUSO ARTIST AND MAN (By Henry T. Finck.) James Huneker once wrote that "the artistic career of Caruso is as well known as that of any great general or statesman; he is a national figure. He is a great artist, and what is rarer, a genuine man." And now this great singer and actor genuine man has passed away, and his death is being mourned by an untiringly grace his critic-friend, whom he pettingly addressed as "Huneker."

Everybody who knew Enrico Caruso knew that he was not a brilliant conversationalist—indeed, it was not always easy to carry on a prolonged conversation with him. Not that he was uninteresting, but that he was so full of himself. Voltaire's "bete comme un lion" quite the contrary, in his impetuosity he betrayed intelligence of the highest order; he simply did not happen to be a good talker.

At public dinners he did not converse much with his neighbors, but spent his time making caricatures of the speakers and others, sometimes in the most delicate way. ONE MORE SUSPECT ELIMINATED IN MURDER QUEST

Young Man Detained Today Proves Alibi and is Freed.

Milford and Westfield Clues Run Down—Man Under Arrest in Burton Will be Questioned—Search Continues.

Although the local detectives arrested a young man this morning, who answered somewhat the description of the suspected murderer of little Sadie McAuley, he gave a good account of his whereabouts and actions on the day in question and was later released as it was obvious he had nothing to do with the shocking crime.

The detectives were active this morning running down rumors of suspicious characters seen in different localities, but despite their efforts there was nothing forthcoming that would throw any further light on the personage or whereabouts of the murderer.

The report that a man wearing khaki trousers was in hiding in the woods in the vicinity of Milford was investigated and turned out to be the young man detained yesterday, but later released after Ethel Levine, the companion of Sadie McAuley on the day she was murdered, stated positively that he was not the man.

Another report that a young man answering the description was working at Westfield with the forest fire fighters, was looked into last night, but when the detectives went there they had to eliminate him as he did not answer the description and could prove an alibi.

Sergeant Detective Power received a notification this morning that a young man is under arrest at Burton, N. B., charged with setting a fire, who answers the description. His case will be looked into immediately.

This afternoon the detectives again started out with an intention of combing the district for persons of abnormal habits and by a process of elimination hope to succeed in tracing the culprit.

NICE OUTING AND NOVELTY SHOWER

Miss Charlotte Willis is Guest of Honor at the Brookville Choir Picnic.

Last evening the choir of Brookville Methodist church, accompanied by some auxiliaries, held a most successful outing at Gondola Point.

After supper, was over, Hiram and Hannah Hornbein, impersonated by Messrs. Hopkins and Scott, made their appearance in costume that would have pleased the eye of many critical audience. Amidst much jollity and fun the entertainers were introduced to the various picnicers, finally presenting themselves before Miss Charlotte Willis, and then from Hiram's out bag and Hannah's satchel came gifts galore suitable for a bride. Miss Willis, long a faithful choir member, and who is soon to be one of the principals in an interesting nuptial event, was completely surprised. This really novelty shower, but not the verses amidst much merriment, Hiram and Hannah adding no small amount to the continuous fund by witticisms and speeches.

Later, a sing was enjoyed by all the present, and the Point returned with choruses. About ten o'clock the party motored back to Brookville, wishing Miss Willis every joy for the future and voting the whole occasion one of the best ever.

There was a time when Reed Furniture was made for use only during the Summer. But its beauty, comfort and practicality—the way it's made now—gives it a place all the year 'round in the better furnished homes. In fact, it is almost considered as lack of taste not to have one or more pieces of Reed Furniture, particularly in the living room.

For the sun room, or porch, of course it is the only thing. When you are out shopping next time step in and rest up in some of this pretty furniture. You'll find it resilient, comfortable, strongly made, pretty in appearance—and very reasonably priced.
