ERIN UNDER HOME RULE; A PICTURE

John E. Redmond Has Statement in a London Newspaper

SEES GREAT CHANGE

New Class of Men in Parliament, Industrial Revival Sure; Bogey of Ill Treatment of Protestant Minority, He Says, Soon Laid

London, March 31.—John E. Redmond, leader of the Irish parliamentary party, in a statement in the Daily Mail on "What Ireland will be like under home rule," predicts that it would be very different from what the people anticipate. The existing political dissensions, he says, would be replaced by economic, municipal and educational questions, on which the lines of cleavage would be quite different from the present day lines of political cleavage. Then probably, says Mr. Redmond, new classes of men would enter the political field to become members of the Irish parliament. These would come first from the ranks of the Irish gentry, cultivated men with a stake in the country, who heretofore had held aloof because they opposed the principle of home rule, but who would be a great acquisition to the political life and with whom the question of religion would never arise. In the second place they would be recruited from the ranks of the business and commercial classes owing to the industrial revival certain to follow the granting of home rule. Mr. Redmond considers that the question of the nationalization of the railways would become an important means to this end. With regard to the Protestant minority, the Irish leader says he is ready to accept any safeguards consistent with ordinary democratic principles, but is convinced that twelve months of home rule would lay all such bogeys to rest. Lastly, Mr. Redmond thinks that the idea that a financial settlement just to both countries would be a serious difficulty is quite unfounded. On the contrary, he believes that an investigation will show that the argument founded on finance is strongest of all in favor of home rule.

DEATH OF JAMES ROSS, GARSMAN, OF THE WEST SIDE

Many learned with regret this morning of the death of James Richard Ross, of Charlton, son of Elijah Ross, the veteran garsman. Mr. Ross was only twenty-five years of age, but had won an enviable reputation in aquatic sports, and took part in several regattas, and excelled as an amateur swimmer. And he was known as a "clean sport," which means much in the athletic world, and signifies that he was, every inch of his powerful frame, an honorable man. He had been ill about six months, having contracted tuberculosis, and passed away this morning about 2 o'clock, being survived by his wife, who was Miss Pearl Gibbons, his bride two years ago, his father, and one sister, Mrs. W. Beasley, of West St. John. The funeral will take place on Sunday next at 2:30 p.m. from his late home, west side, 10 Cedar Hill cemetery. Mr. Ross was an active member of Ludlow street Baptist church, and also belonged to the men's Bible class connected therewith. He was also a member of Granite Rock Division, No. 1, and of Tilley Lodge, G. T., besides being corpora in No. 2 Co. Garrison Artillery. No. 9 battery will meet this evening for issue of clothing for the funeral on Sunday, which Major Smith's company will take part.

REVISION OF CALENDAR IS BEING WORKED OUT

Make Dates Fall on Same Days of Week in Every Year

Christmas Day Always on Monday; Easter Fixed for April 14—New Year's Day Cut Out, And Year Divided Into Four Equal Parts

London, Mar. 31.—The British government is taking immediate steps to ascertain the views of the commercial community of the kingdom on the question of revising the calendar so that a given date shall always fall on the same day of the week. Inquiries will be set afoot by the board of trade, which is supported in the matter by the foreign office and the home office. The action is taken in consequence of an invitation from the Swiss government to take part in an international conference. That invitation is in turn, the result of a proposal approved by an international congress of chambers of commerce sitting in London. The proposal of the Swiss government is that the first day of the year shall be a holiday called "New Year's Day," which shall not count of the week, of the month or of the quarter. This leaves for the rest of the year 364 days. This number divides exactly into four equal parts of ninety-one days each, and into fifty-two weeks of seven days each. Each quarter would thus contain exactly thirteen weeks. According to the proposed scheme it would be divided into two months of thirty days each and one month of thirty-one days. Starting then with the year 1911 Easter Sunday and all the so-called movable feasts and dates dependent upon them would be fixed so as to fall in every year on the same day of the week. April 14 would then always be Easter Sunday and Christmas Day, December 25, would always fall on Monday. Each day of the year would always fall on the same day of the week. To provide for leap year, a bank holiday in leap years would be embodied in the law in the form of a bill. The proposed scheme is to be introduced by Robert F. Peel, M. P., who attracted attention in connection with the proposal to save daylight by periodically setting the clocks of the kingdom to fit the season.

OXFORD AND CAMBRIDGE IN RACE TOMORROW

Crews More Evenly Matched Than Has Been the Case in Some Years

London, Mar. 31.—The Oxford and Cambridge crews which are ready to start tomorrow are about as evenly matched, judging from appearances, as any two crews that have met for some years. Cambridge had the better material to choose from, but the Oxford crew, which they came down to tide-water to observe their training the dark blues were slight favorites. Nevertheless, the Oxford crew proved the more rapidly and rowing men have found it difficult to pick the winner. The crews and weights follow:

- 1.—C. E. Tinne, (University) 107 1/2 pounds.
- 2.—L. G. Wormald (Magdalen), 177 pounds.
- 3.—R. E. Burgess (Magdalen) 108 1/2 pounds.

RING REVEALS MURDER CASE

Crime of Forty Years Ago, Man Killed Few Hours Before He Was to Wed

Nobleville, Ind., March 31.—A trunk filled with the almost complete parts of a human skeleton and with them on the bone of one hand a curiously carved ring, was found here a few weeks ago, and was a nine-day mystery and then interest gave out. Public attention has again been directed to the find by the receipt of a letter from the widow of a brother of Eugene C. Woodmansee of Danville, Ill., directed to the find by the receipt of a letter. Woodmansee came here forty years ago and wed Miss Sarah Vint and procured a license. A few hours before the ceremony the bridegroom disappeared and was never heard of again. The bones were found on the site of an old roadhouse that had flourished here. White River about the time of the civil war, and it is supposed that he was murdered for the $300 which it is known that he had.

CONDENSED DESPATCHES

Vienna, March 31.—The lower house of the Reichsrath was dissolved yesterday and a new election ordered. Halifax, N. S., March 31.—Dr. Kendall (Labour), gave notice in the legislative assembly yesterday that he would move for a redistribution of representation so that industrial centres may have a greater representation at the expense of the rural communities, also for the abolition of the legislative council if necessary by pension of the members. Paris, March 31.—Felix Alexandre Guilmard, the noted organist and composer, died yesterday. San Francisco, Cal., March 31.—The state supreme court has denied the petition of Abraham Rief, for a rehearing on his appeal against the sentence of fourteen years imprisonment on a charge of bribery.

NINE MILE TUNNEL CUT THROUGH ALPS

Work Took Five and a Half Years and Cost $20,000,000

(Canadian Press)

Berne, Switzerland, March 31.—The final obstruction to the Loetschberg tunnel, through the Bernese Alps was pierced by the laborers at 1:30 o'clock this morning after five and a half years of work and the expenditure of $20,000,000. The tunnel, which is the third longest in Europe, measures approximately nine miles. With the completion of this tunnel, which was planned to give the Simplon tunnel railway line a direct connection with the railway which traverses Switzerland from north to south, there will be a direct through route from Milan to Berne and thence to Gales and Boulogne. The distance from Milan to Gales by this route will be about 675 miles, or nearly forty miles less than the present route. The tunnel will be double tracked throughout.

DIES IN HOVEL, BANK BOOKS AND MONEY ALL AROUND HER

Woman Found Dead in Dilapidated Home Leaves a Fortune of $50,000

New York, Mar. 31.—In one of two small dilapidated rooms of her home in the tenement at 523 East 15th street, Mrs. Sophie Glaw, 42, was found dead. Mrs. Glaw, a Polish Jewess, had been in bed for some time. There was little interest when Policeman Schroy arrived and called a doctor from Bellevue. Mrs. Freitag wore her coat and hat when found, and in her hand was a letter which was addressed to her. The coroner found three bank books, each of them showing deposits of more than $200. The coroner searched the rooms and found five more bank books. The total of the deposits was $75,000. And a further search revealed receipts for payments on stock-buying transactions. Some of the receipts were for sums as high as $8,000. It was estimated that the fortune of the woman who died there was worth $50,000. They found her will, she had bequeathed to her brother-in-law, Frederick Jungel of Grosse Pointe, N. J., the sum of $10,000 and the balance of her estate was to go to her brothers and sisters in Germany. Mrs. Freitag was a mystery to the neighbors. She had little to do with anyone, and the immediate cause of her death was not known. She had lived in the two tiny rooms for three years.

KILLED SON WITH RAZOR

Pennsylvania Woman Crased Over Reading Trial of Mrs. Melber

Pottsville, Pa., March 31.—Recently discharged from a private hospital at Lebanon, Mrs. Benjamin J. Granger, thirty-four, who read almost every word concerning the trial and conviction of Mrs. Edith Melber, at Albany, N. Y., for the murder of her five-year-old son, killed her own son, John Edward Granger, seven years old. Mrs. Granger was discharged from the hospital apparently cured. She took advantage of the temporary absence of her sister on an errand to commit the crime. The boy, a bright lad, had been at school. At noon he went for dinner. After the meal, Mrs. Granger took the boy out through an isolated section known as "The Pines." There she tied his hands and feet and stuffed a handkerchief down his throat to still his cries. Then with a razor she cut his throat. The weapon was then used to mutilate the child's chest. The boy made a brave fight for life, and in his struggles wrenched one hand free from the ropes which bound it. It was not ten minutes after the murder before it was discovered and just as the police and hospital authorities arrived, the mother was found near a public school house. She shrieked and screamed and proved an alarming spectacle to several hundred children. She was arrested and is now in the county prison.

He compared the amounts for the fiscal year 1906-1910 with the figures in the books, with the figures in the statement submitted by the company. The figures agreed. NO CHANGE IN YORK

Dr. Morehouse Wins in Bye-Election With General Election Majority Reduced

Fredericton, March 30.—The electors of York gave both parties a surprise today. While the government candidate was elected by a majority less than McLeod had over Burden in the general election of 1908, yet his plurality was much larger than the government expected and 400 to 500 more than the opposition thought probable.

While much might be said of other influences that were used to elect Dr. Morehouse and the apparently inexhaustible resources at hand to assist in securing votes, it is the opinion of many tonight in Fredericton that considering the fact that it was a bye-election and the government in power, and the county that of York, the result is in fact a surprise.

Remember, I am basing my statements upon what has already been accomplished by the use of Rexall's "99" Hair Tonic, and I have the right to assume that what it has done for thousands of others it will do for you. "PIMPLES"

Broke Out All Over Her Face.

Pimples are caused, almost entirely, by bad blood, and there is only one way to get rid of them, and that is to get at the seat of the trouble by using a good, reliable blood purifying medicine.

Burdock Blood Bitters has been on the market for 35 years, and is one of the very best blood medicines procurable. After using it you will find that the pimples have disappeared, and you will have a beautiful clear complexion.

Mrs. Robert McNab, Badjones, Ont., writes:—"I am greatly pleased to report the benefit I have derived from the use of Burdock Blood Bitters. About a year ago I became so weak and run down I could scarcely walk, and pimples broke out all over my face. I tried one thing after another, but nothing seemed to do me any good. I was advised by a lady friend to try B.B.B. and before I had used one bottle I felt it was doing me good so I used three bottles, and I am now well and strong, and the pimples have all disappeared."

DINNER AND PRESENTATION

The departure of Wm. F. Higgins, who has conducted a tailoring establishment in Brussels street, but who will leave on Monday next to take over a tailoring business in St. Stephen, has been a source of regret to numerous friends, and last evening in White's restaurant between fifty and sixty assembled and tendered him a farewell banquet, at the same time presenting to him a handsome traveling bag. A lengthy programme was successfully carried out, and every moment of the evening was thoroughly enjoyed.

John A. Barry made a capable chairman and toast-master, and also made the presentation to Mr. Higgins. The following list of toasts was given: The King, with musical honors; "Our City," replied to by M. E. Agar and James Connolly; "Tailoring Profession," responded to by A. E. Gilmore and A. A. Chaisson. "The Press," spoken to by L. A. Condon and J. B. Dever, and "The Ladies," to which J. H. McHugh and M. T. Colahan responded happily.

The musical and literary portion of the programme was composed of solos by M. T. Morris, D. D. Higgins, F. J. Havel, piano solo, M. F. Kelly, readings, L. A. Condon, J. R. McCloskey, Jr., and J. B.

YOU CAN CURE CHEST COLDS

And Bronchitis By Using DR. CHASE'S SYRUP OF LINSEED AND TURPENTINE If You Get the Genuine.

The mere mention of pneumonia and consumption causes a person to shudder, but a cold is such a common thing that it is too often left alone until these other ailments develop from it.

You can readily cure throat and chest colds, croup and bronchitis, by using Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine. This medicine is both thorough and far-reaching in its influence on the system. For this reason its merits are well-known and its sales enormous.

But there are at least four imitations of Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine. And imitations are always a little cheaper, how else would they sell. They are never sold on their own merit, but on the merit of the article they imitate. Their likeness is in name only, and when you are in need of medicine you don't want to depend on a name or imitation. Every bottle of the genuine bears the portrait and signature of A. W. Chase, M.D., the famous Receipt Book author. 25 cents a bottle, family size 50 cents; all dealers, or Edmondson, Bates & Co., Toronto.

Dever, and a reminiscent address by James Barry. M. F. Kelly presided at the piano throughout the evening.

Mr. Higgins' departure was the cause of sincere remarks of regret by the speakers, coupled with wishes for a bright and happy future, and "For He's a Jolly Good Fellow" was sung with enthusiasm and good will, ere the singing of "Auld Lang Syne" marked the close of an enjoyable evening. Much of the credit for the success of the affair is due to the efforts of D. J. Corr and Thos. O'Rourke.

Chatham Gazette.—A new use has been found for telephone receivers. A woman out in California took hers off the instrument every Friday and used it to darn stockings on. With a little thought doubtless other domestic duties could be developed.

THE DIGNIFIED (?) PREMIER

Premier Hazen stalked across the front page of the Standard newspaper today in a black type interview, in the course of which he shook hands with himself feverishly and frequently, and otherwise modestly directed the attention of the Standard's public to his own greatness. If Mr. Hazen had not himself fathered the interview there published, many of his friends would have thought that he had been somewhat overworked by an overworked or over-excited reporter, but the extraordinary verbal expression, beyond doubt, was either written or dictated by Mr. Hazen himself, and he must be judged by it.

It should scarcely be necessary to remind him that the York county incident is merely the holding of a seat which his administration carried three years ago by more than 1,200 majority, and that of the four by-elections since 1908 the opposition has won three. These are considerations which should tend to make Mr. Hazen modify his transports. He complains of the conduct of his opponents in the late election and intimates that he has not been well treated by them, but in the next breath he indulges in much foolish and exceedingly undignified language, and his interview generally is that of a politician evidently laboring under a high degree of excitement. When the fumes of the York county campaign have evaporated, Mr. Hazen will come down to the ground, and will realize that after losing three by-elections he has merely won the fourth on fighting ground that was peculiarly favorable to him, and that his administration is still facing the province much of which is hostile to him in sentiment for very excellent reasons. Let us add to this that the general provincial election must come within a year or so, and that then he will be fighting for his very political existence. These are simple facts which may be calculated to bring Mr. Hazen's pulse down somewhere near to the normal point.

The premier exhibits some desire to give instructions as to the conduct of newspapers. If he seeks activity in that direction he might well direct his attention to the Standard, the conduct of which during the late campaign must have been exceedingly offensive to a statesman, or near-statesman, so high minded and sensitive as Mr. Hazen has shown himself to be. He seems to congratulate himself that the fighting is over. As a matter of fact it has scarcely begun, and the end of it Mr. Hazen can surmise as well as another.

REPRESENTATIVE GOVERNMENT

Every effort at popular reform of civic government has begun with an increased trust of the people. The proposal of the Council to have a royal commission appointed to frame a charter for the city in the event of her adopting a commission form of government, was nothing else than a crafty scheme to defeat the will of the democracy. Every city has its own local problems to solve and these are better known to an intelligent committee of citizens than they can be to outsiders. All the cities of Canada are at present demanding more local autonomy, because experience has proven that the more outside interference the more difficult it is to secure good government. Montreal particularly has suffered in this respect, and if St. John does not suffer from such interference now it is not the fault of eight members of the present council. What has proved to be one of the chief obstacles to the apud government all over Canada is the attempt to prevent the taxpayers from managing their own affairs. If the present form of government was unpopular before, this last action of the city fathers has made it still more unpopular. The right of every city to work out its own government in its own way, is the direction of all present reform. In Germany, where municipal government has progressed much further than here, the city can do anything that is not forbidden to do the reverse of our system. Here a city can do only those things that is chartered to do by the state. In the early days the city was the creator and then the creature of the state. It is a return to these conditions that is now suggested by eight members of the council. Reckless of those who come after them, these city fathers suggest that we return to a condition that is almost equivalent to a loss of self-government. But St. John is going in the other direction. It faces the future with the prospect of increased autonomy and truly representative government.

INDUSTRIAL ACCIDENTS

There was never a fire drill in the New York factory where 41 persons lost their lives by fire, a few days ago, and the exits were so arranged that in case of fire it would take the 900 girls about three hours to leave the building. Three minutes sufficed for the fire to make its way through the highly inflammable dust and which the operators worked, and to complete its work of destruction. The average manufacturer in the United States cannot see too black a point in setting forth the dangers of governmental regulation of the business. He always makes the remarkable exception that he believes thoroughly in governmental help and paternal care if he is asking for a valuable franchise or a special tariff rate for which he is quite willing to pay a reasonable consideration, not to the dear people, but to their authorized representatives and robbers.

No instructed person questions even in his most anguished hours that there are no of improvement in our methods of protecting the toilers in industrial centres. "Something is wrong," is the phrase on all lips, but how to reach improvement of methods and to correct abuses is a problem of much difficulty. It is an evidence of the healing power of nature and of the inexhaustible vitality of the race that it survives the thefts of officials and legislators, the depleting effects of unsanitary and dangerous employments, the ravages of famine, pestilence, war and city adulteration, as well as the quick economic nostrums which are so often administered for its health.

The United States is killing every year in preventable accidents more than twice as many as perished by violence in both the French and English armies during the Crimean war. There are more killed and wounded by her railroads every year than the entire losses in the Boer war on both sides during the three years. There are means of estimating the number of deaths in the industrial army, caused by death-producing occupations, but that there are a long list of trades which cause premature death is well known. By accidents and violence the American industries are killing fifty-eight per cent more people than her two great armies could destroy during the Civil War, when they were equipped with all the weapons of death that ingenuity could devise and when they were making destruction their eager business.

This factory fire in New York will cause much excitement for a time, many investigations, and much placing of the blame, and promises of reform. But the public will still fail to appreciate the magnitude of the perils of peace. They will still fail to realize that this wounding and killing is to a very large extent unnecessary. The victim of an industrial accident is not a hero like the victim of a battle, and his widow cannot receive a pension. So they both fail to appeal to the imagination of public or politician. None of us sufficiently considers the peril of grasping power faster than we have learned to master it, or faster than we develop a sense of moral responsibility for its exercise. The country needs to be more deeply impressed with the sanctity of human life, and to learn that security to life and limb is the first essential of civilization and of progress.

Little Canadians

(Hon. George P. Graham at Stratford). "Oh, ye of little faith! This little Canadianism that shrinks and shrivels and hides itself in the face of what it calls the big brother with a club. Let well enough alone—your man, what do you think of that for a slogan? The man who says that is not the successful individual of the town or the neighborhood. But here is a higher object to be attained. Here are two peoples, side by side, speaking the same language, of the same blood, without a cannon pointing across the border. I believe Providence has imposed upon these Anglo-Saxons on this continent the duty of something more than making money. What greater object lesson to the nations of the world than what these two civilized, progressive peoples can do to accomplish the great purpose for which they were placed here on earth?"

DOWN ON THE FARM.

How dear to our hearts was the old horse and cutter we knew long ago. We would get them both out with the first snowflake's flutter. And keep them both going six hours or so. The old-fashioned pair—how we'd grumble and mutter. When the woodpile was white and the north wind was raw. For the horse was a sawhorse, and as for the cutter, It was only an old-fashioned jerky buck saw. —Chicago News.

STRANGE ANOMALY.

(Boston Globe). A bright little Medford lad heard his parents talking about the salaries of teachers. "I don't see why they should pay the teachers," he said, very seriously, "when we children do all the work?"

JUST ONE DOSE OF DIAPEPSIN MAKES DYSPEPSIA VANISH

Misery From Indigestion, Heartburn, Gas and Headache Goes Before You Realize it

You can eat anything your stomach craves without fear of indigestion or dyspepsia, or that your food will ferment or sour on your stomach if you will take a little Diapepsin occasionally. Your meals will taste good, and anything you eat will be digested; nothing can ferment or turn into acid or poison or stomachic gas, which causes belching, Dizziness, a feeling of fullness after eating, Nausea, Indigestion (like a lump of lead in stomach), Bloating, Heartburn and constipation or other symptoms. Headaches from the stomach are absolutely unknown where this effective remedy is used. Diapepsin really does all the work of a healthy stomach. It digests your meals when your stomach can't. A single dose will digest all the food you eat and leave nothing to ferment or sour and upset the stomach. Get a large 50-cent case of Pape's Diapepsin from your druggist and start taking now, and in a little while you will actually brag about your healthy, strong stomach, for you then can eat anything and everything you want without the slightest discomfort or misery, and every particle of impurity and gas that is in your stomach and intestines is going to be carried away without the use of laxatives or any other assistance. Should you at this moment be suffering from indigestion or any stomach disorder, you can get relief within five minutes.

IN PARLIAMENT

Ottawa, Mar. 30.—Hon. Mr. Fielding made it plain during discussion in the House of Commons today that Canada was prepared to confer with other British overseas dominions in matters of preferential trade. The matter of trade between Canada and the British West Indies was brought up by Mr. Foster.

Mr. Fielding also made a statement in regard to the steamship service. In view of the obligations of the West Indies, he said, the British government had withdrawn from the proposal to establish a

AN UP-TO-DATE TELEPHONE SYSTEM FOR TELEGRAPH AND TIMES

The Private Telephone Exchange in the Business Office of the Daily Telegraph and the Evening Times—It was made and installed by the New Brunswick Telephone Company.

In line with the great extension of the business of all the departments in the Telegraph and Times building a private switchboard has been installed in the business office and through the Private Board exchange supplied by the New Brunswick Telephone Company, communication is established with all the lines of that company and between each separate department in the Telegraph building. Outside subscribers ring the Telegraph's number, which is now Main 2417, and ask for the person or department wanted, the young lady at the switchboard immediately giving the connection.

With the growth of business it became necessary to add several additional phone numbers to the list of the Telegraph and Times list and install several extension sets for each phone. Much time was wasted in searching for the persons called for, and many needless steps taken. The private exchange does away with all this. This class of service is being generally adopted by large business establishments. Call 2417 for all departments.

The Evening Chit-Chat

By RUTH CAMERON

SAID Love to the young knight: I am the humble task, I am the high adventure behind the visored mask. I am the fire of youth that fails not with the years. I am the master of passion and conductor of tears.

A few weeks ago an Italian princess, lady-in-waiting to Queen Victoria, was stabbed to death by her lover who immediately afterwards killed himself. Of course you read about it at the time.

But did you, I wonder, feel beneath the scandal and sensation of the case, his impressiveness as a testimonial to the primitive, world-wide, not-to-be-doubted power of the universal passion?

I think, these two people, so important in eyes of the world that the smallest newspaper in the remotest country town chronicled to readers the next morning the details of their love affair, were as powerless in the grip of this passion as the feeblest and least important of mortals.

Of course, it is an old, old story, but as I read the cabled reports of this affair I was impressed anew with it, and wanted to bring it home to you anew.

Yesterday, in the park near my home, I came upon two young people sauntering along with the arm-in-arm obliviousness of the last stages of heart disease.

To care observers they were both thoroughly commonplace, thoroughly uninteresting and thoroughly homely. He had a wobbly chin, red hair and a somewhat interrupted complexion. She was thin and sultry, with a large nose, prominent teeth and straight dark hair that hung in unattractive wisps about her face. They were both plainly dressed and evidently possessed of but little of this world's goods.

And yet, on the faces of these two eminently commonplace people shone a contentment and a happiness that not the costliest pleasures of earth could have enhanced.

Just think—merely by gazing into each other's homely faces and knowing that each was beloved by the other, these two people were finding as great happiness as the richest men and women of the world can have.

Just because you see this sort of thing, every day you forget the significance and power of it, but they are there just the same.

We rave of the injustice of the fate that makes it possible for one man to have fine linen and rich food and magnificent home and limousines and finely bred horses, jewels, lawns, and leisure, while another spends long toilsome hours each day to earn enough to keep himself and his family from starvation.

Alas, but suppose fate had all these things be evenly distributed, but had given to one man the power to feel this strange overpowering happiness and withheld it from another.

Wouldn't that have been a much less happy state of affairs?

Suppose we had to buy this happiness such as those humble folk felt and the Princess lost. What great store would we set upon it? What high prices it would bring.

But now that it is "without money and without price," do we halt appreciate it?

I wonder.

Forgive me if you do not like this whimsical strain, but if you do, go beyond what I have said and dream and wonder with me.

MORNING LOCALS

The fortnightly meeting of the Germain street church Young Men's Association was held last night in the home of H. H. Mott. A most interesting address was given by H. A. Powell, K. C., on Heredity. At the close of the address refreshments were served by Mrs. Mott, assisted by other ladies.

At the regular meeting of Gurney Division, Sons of Temperance, last evening, the following officers were elected for the ensuing term: S. P. McCavour, W. P.; Miss Worrall, W. A.; Miss Bettle, H. S.; Mrs. R. D. Christie, A. R. S.; Joshua Stark, P. S.; Miss Hoyt, treasurer; Miss Stark, chaplain; J. C. Sullivan, conductor; Miss Steeves, A. C. H. M. McCavour, I. S.; H. W. Belding, O. S. D. C. Fisher, P. W. P.; Mrs. Hour, S. Y. P. W. This division meets on Thursday evenings in the Jack building, Union street.

At a meeting of the Hod Carriers and Builders' Union last evening J. Donovan presiding, A. L. Dever, local organizer for the Federation of Labor, gave an address. There was a good attendance.

The loss on the dwelling of Bedford Road at Peel has been adjusted by E. H. Fairweather at the total insurance, $1,000.

The Easter sale and tea held in Calvin church school room yesterday was a decided success, and much of the credit is due to the committees, whose names were published in the Times last night.

H. B. Tippett, who has been in the employ of John O'Regan, Mill street, for some time, but who has joined the staff of the James Ready Company was made the recipient of a travelling bag by his fellow employees in the O'Regan building yesterday.

James Kenna, of Antigonish, N. S., was burned to death in the house of a friend there yesterday. He was carrying a lamp which exploded and death resulted from burns he received.

A WOMAN'S BACK.

Not One Woman In Twenty Has a Stong Back.

The kidneys are to blame nine times out of ten.

Mrs. A. H. Hutton, Jr., McCreary, Man., writes:—"Two years ago last spring I had a very severe pain in the small of my back. When I would rise it seemed as if my back would break. My kidneys were very badly out of order, and I would have to get up three or four times during the night. I took one box of Doan's Kidney Pills and they effected a cure."

Doan's Kidney Pills are 50 cents per box or $1.50, at all dealers or mailed direct on receipt of price by the T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

If ordering direct specify "Doan's."

When the blood isn't properly filtered the poisons that ought to be carried off by the kidneys are sent back through the system, and it's hardly to be wondered that backaches and lame backs come to make life miserable.

Doan's Kidney Pills are a specific for all kidney troubles. They begin by expelling all the poisonous matter from the kidneys, and then heal the delicate membranes and make their action regular and natural.

I shouldn't be surprised to hear it at any time that our friend who dabbles in duffly finance has lost his mind. "Are you an alienist?" "No, I'm an expert accountant, and I have been going over his books."—(Washington Star.)

MORNING NEWS OVER THE WIRES

The Acadia debating team, composed of Messrs. Foster, Alsby and Hoy, won over the U. N. B. team, composed of Messrs. McNair, Clark and Hobbes, in the debate in Wolfville last night. The question was resolved that it would be to the interest of Canada if the U. C. B. were controlled by a private company. Acadia had the affirmative. The judges were Justices McLeod and McKeown, of this city, and Rev. G. R. Martell of Windsor. U. N. B. had a slight advantage by argument, while Acadia had a substantial lead in delivery.

A double tragedy was enacted in the city of New York yesterday, when a young man, supposed to be Jacob Shontz, shot a young woman companion twice and then turned the revolver on himself. Both are expected to die.

Another British Dreadnought, the Monarch, was launched at Edinburg, Scot., yesterday. The name of the new cruiser is the Monarch. It is the largest cruiser ever built on the Tyne and was launched with boilers, funnels and other equipment already installed. Mrs. Lewis Harcourt, wife of the colonial secretary, christened it.

As Quickly As Water Dissolves Sugar

About the Time it Takes For a Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablet to Work on the Food and Bring Relief

TRIAL PACKAGE SENT FREE

There is no long wait between the time you take a Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablet and the feeling of relief it will bring to an overloaded stomach. It gets busy in a jiffy and quickly sets things to rights in that tired and disordered stomach. It goes right to the work of digesting the food so fast lodged there and in no time at all has things on the move—the gas ceases forming, the breath is sweetened, the coating on the tongue disappears and you are no longer conscious that you even have a stomach.

That is one of the chief recommendations for Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets—that they don't take forever to accomplish the purpose for which you need them. It is just as if you put an extra stomach or two to work when yours needed help. You can't continually overload your stomach and expect it to always smile. It is going to get rebellious and sulky after awhile and refuse to do anything but to do double work. You must rest it occasionally—not by starving and thereby weakening your self physically—but by using a Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablet to do the work of digesting your food.

These tablets contain all the active elements of the natural stomach juices and aid in the digestion of food just the same as the gastric juices. And nothing could be more harmless than these tablets. They do not irritate the system in any way—do not cure any ailment except as they digest food. Use them freely.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are sold by all druggists everywhere. Price, 50 cents per box. A trial package will be sent if you will write P. O. Stuart Co., 139 Stuart Bldg., Marshall, Mich.

CITY TREASURY BOARD

At a meeting of the treasury board last evening a committee consisting of Aids Potts, Willet, the comptroller and chairman was appointed to inquire into the matter of having the union label on all city printing.

The council could not grant tax exemption until the tax bills for the current year had been issued. This was in connection with a request from A. E. Hamilton for relief from his taxes.

Aid Willet reported that the municipalities committee of the legislature had thrown out the bill dealing with a change in the election date and the date would be the same as usual, the third Tuesday in April.

The chairman and chamberlain, who were appointed a committee to arrange for a new agreement with the Bank of New Brunswick, the present agreement being almost at an end, reported as follows: "The Bank of New Brunswick will advance to the city, by way of overdraft account, and as required, a maximum of $300,000, in anticipation of the receipt of taxes, interest on any overdraft to be made up and charged quarterly at the rate of four and a half per cent. per annum. Should the city require to borrow more than the amount stated, any further advances to be specially arranged for."

All loans to be secured by the deposit with this bank of the city's certificates of indebtedness in the sum of $25,000 properly authorized and executed.

"Accounts of the city having credit balances to bear interest at the rate of three and a half per cent. per annum. "Sinking fund accounts of the city having credit balances to bear interest at the rate of four per cent. per annum."

The warmest friends of Red Rose Tea are those who have tried some other brand said to be "as good as Red Rose" and for which they paid the same price. Very easy to say a thing is "as good" but not so easy to "make good."

RED ROSE TEA "is good tea"

Prices: 30c., 35c., 40c., 50c. and 60c.

PERRIN GLOVES

The worlds standard of glove perfection.

Style — Fit — Durability.

"This arrangement to remain in force for three years."

The report was received and recommended to the council for acceptance. The award of the arbitrators—W. H. Wallace, S. K. Wilson and W. D. Beakitt—in connection with the property on the west side leased to W. Frank Hatheway was received. The award was $275, and costs, $80. On motion of Aid Willet it was recommended that the council accept the award and pay over the money. A letter was read from Mr. Hatheway, announcing that he would accept the award.

TO H. L. SPENDER

What whispers soft my willow leaves,
With such small silken silver ears?
Gladly sing the new born stream,
Willow come again and dream?
Do the little birds tell,
Of their summ'ry southern spell—
Ahl! sweeter far than stream or bird,
That soft spring song my willow heard—
For see! its swollen silver pod
Is bursting, at the voice of God.
Soon, shall thy waiting silver ear,
His voice in new born stream,
And soul burst forth to blossom bright,
In God's love, sun—eternal light.

REBECCA'S TRIUMPH

Rebecca's Triumph was repeated by Miss Heffer's election pupils last night in Carleton City Hall, with great success. Miss Mabel Earle gave an excellent portrayal of the role of Mrs. DeLaine. Miss Sarah Mahoney made a charming heroine, in the part of Rebecca. Miss Clara Leach, in the character of Dora Gaines, leader of the girls' club, was unsurpassed in her quaint sayings and natural movements. Lena Science, as Gyp, the colored maid, won frequent ovations for her clever work while Dora Corbett as Katie Connor did full justice to her excellent teacher, Master Mc-fat Burr, as John James Caxton added to the fun produced by Gyp and Katie. Miss Gladys Smith displayed talent in her difficult role as also did Miss Louise Lordly and Miss Kathleen Walker. The girls of the cooking club certainly succeeded in their aim of making fun and mischief.
Miss Heffer and Miss Leach are to be highly complimented upon the success of their efforts.

Hearing Before Judge Forbes This Morning—Prosecution Not Yet Finished

John G. Spardakes, the proprietor of a Charlotte street confectionery store and of a pool room in North Market street, elected to be tried under the Speedy Trial Act, on charge of stealing electricity.

John Matheson, an employee of the St. John Railway Company told of visiting the plate on March 23. The shunt wire leading to the meter in the Charlotte street store was disconnected so as to prevent the burning of the lights.

Sydney Wakeman, St. John railway employ said that he noticed that the shunt wire leading to the meter in the Charlotte street store was disconnected so as to prevent the burning of the lights.

Marshall told of the pool room usually being kept open until 12 o'clock and the lights in the confectionery store being often kept lighted until three o'clock in the morning. The store was always brilliantly lighted. The pool room and the confectionery store were not connected.

NEWS AGENTS' ARRESTED

Make Trouble for Conductor on Train—First to Occupy the New Lock-up

The new I. C. R. lock-up at the Union Depot received its first two prisoners at noon today. The two gentlemen who had the honor of being the first to register at the new "hotel" were news agents from Montreal who were arrested on the arrival of the express here from Montreal this morning. They have been running from this city to Montreal on special immigrant trains and on their way back they traveled on the regular trains, being supplied with passes. On several occasions this winter, it is said, they have given the conductors on the regular trains considerable trouble, but they were never arrested before. This morning, however, they started out to make things interesting for Conductor Dale of this city, but struck the wrong man. They are said to have called him insulting names and interfered with him.

Conductor Dale got off at one of the stations up the line and wired into the I. C. R. police to be on hand when the train arrived. As soon as the train reached the depot the two stepped off and were starting out when they were caught by Policemen Smith and Collins and placed in the lock-up. They protested their innocence, but to no avail. They will be brought before Judge Ritchie in the police court tomorrow morning.

FARMS ARE ALL READY FOR THEM

Fifty Families for West Arrive on S.S. Empress of Ireland—Steamer Made a Fast Voyage

With a large passenger list and the largest number of home seekers that ever left the east side of Western Canada, the big C. P. R. liner Empress of Ireland, Captain Farster, arrived from Liverpool via Halifax, this morning. The steamer, which came by the southern route has beaten all records as to time to Halifax and St. John by that route.

There are seventy families of home seekers, 239 in all, and they are enroute to C. P. R., ready-made farms in Alberta. They are in charge of Archibald S. Walter, representing the C. P. R. Land & Colonization department. A special train took them on their western journey early this afternoon. Mr. Walter to a Times reporter said that they were all Britabers and as they had 1000 applications for about 100 farms they were able to make a fine selection. "We were able to pick and choose," he said, "and are consequently able to bring the very best, and all experienced farmers."

While the maximum amount of money required was $10,000 all had much more than that, some carrying all the way from $2,500 to $3,000. All are married people. The C. P. R. has so arranged, Mr. Walter said, that the people will be on their farms in forty-eight hours. It has also been seen that they will be able to buy cattle and farm implements at reasonable prices. The work will be on the co-operative basis, the people forming themselves into companies and holding weekly meetings. In this manner it will not be necessary to buy so many farm implements, but the government of the colony will be so strict that any person borrowing any farm utensils will be charged up with it if not returned. These farms are eighty acres in size. On each farm is a house of four rooms and a barn capable of accommodating eight head of cattle. Each farm is fenced in and each has a full fifty acres have already been planted, two-thirds of wheat, and the remainder oats and potatoes.

The steamer had in all 149 saloon, 481 second cabin and $22 stowage.

HELPED POLICEMAN IN STRUGGLE; WON HIS OWN LIBERTY

Harry Alexander Attacked Policeman McLaren in Cell and John Booth Assisted on Side of Law

For lending a hand to policeman McLaren last night in a cell in central station, when the policeman was set upon by Harry Alexander, who attempted to escape, and who tried to give the policeman a beating, John Booth was this morning allowed to go in the police court by Judge Ritchie when brought before him on a charge of drunkenness.

Alexander was arrested on a charge of drunkenness, and placed in a cell in central station. Previous to this, he and another had been ejected from the bar room in King Square. Policeman McLaren was called below by him, and asked if he would put the man in a cell with Booth, a request which he granted.

When placed in the cell with Booth, Alexander threatened the latter so that he called McLaren to put an end to the annoyance. As he was about to enter the door, McLaren was jumped upon by Alexander, but though he downed the officer, the veteran of more than 60 years showed remarkable strength and agility, and, catching him by the throat, prevented Alexander from escaping. Booth assisted as much as possible, on the side of the law, as McLaren and Alexander rolled together on the floor in a desperate struggle for mastery.

Happily, Sergt. Caples arrived at this time with a prisoner, was admitted by Booth, and at once restored order by placing Alexander in a cell. This morning while the other prisoners were lined Booth was allowed to go with the charge standing against him, and with the advice that he should not indulge in intoxicants.

Alexander was charged with being drunk, assaulting and beating Policeman McLaren, and disorderly conduct in the Niagara Theatre, a charge preferred against him by the manager, W. H. Golding. He was remanded until this afternoon.
