

Legal Notices.

SHERIFF'S SALE!

To be sold at Public Auction on Thursday the 25th day of October next, in front of the Court House in Chatham, New Brunswick, between the hours of 10 and 12 o'clock, noon, the following described lands...

CITATION.

Whereas, Alfred O. Smith, of Newcastle, in the County of Northumberland, is the owner of the lands...

NEW BRUNSWICK COUNTY OF GLADSTONE, S. S.

CITATION.

Whereas, Alfred O. Smith, of Newcastle, in the County of Northumberland, is the owner of the lands...

NEW BRUNSWICK COUNTY OF GLADSTONE, S. S.

Whereas, Alfred O. Smith, of Newcastle, in the County of Northumberland, is the owner of the lands...

CITATION.

Whereas, Alfred O. Smith, of Newcastle, in the County of Northumberland, is the owner of the lands...

CITATION.

Whereas, Alfred O. Smith, of Newcastle, in the County of Northumberland, is the owner of the lands...

CITATION.

Whereas, Alfred O. Smith, of Newcastle, in the County of Northumberland, is the owner of the lands...

SHERIFF'S SALE!

To be sold at Public Auction, on Thursday the 25th day of October next, in front of the Court House in Chatham, New Brunswick, between the hours of 10 and 12 o'clock, noon...

SHERIFF'S SALE!

To be sold at Public Auction, on Thursday the 25th day of October next, in front of the Court House in Chatham, New Brunswick, between the hours of 10 and 12 o'clock, noon...

SHERIFF'S SALE!

To be sold at Public Auction, on Thursday the 25th day of October next, in front of the Court House in Chatham, New Brunswick, between the hours of 10 and 12 o'clock, noon...

SHERIFF'S SALE!

To be sold at Public Auction, on Thursday the 25th day of October next, in front of the Court House in Chatham, New Brunswick, between the hours of 10 and 12 o'clock, noon...

SHERIFF'S SALE!

To be sold at Public Auction, on Thursday the 25th day of October next, in front of the Court House in Chatham, New Brunswick, between the hours of 10 and 12 o'clock, noon...

SHERIFF'S SALE!

To be sold at Public Auction, on Thursday the 25th day of October next, in front of the Court House in Chatham, New Brunswick, between the hours of 10 and 12 o'clock, noon...

General Business.

$2500. - - - $2500.

New Brunswick STOCK AND AGRICULTURAL EXHIBITION.

Agricultural Society, No. 34. Will hold an Exhibition, at Fredericton, N. B., ON - - - - - Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday 6, 7 & 8 OCT., 1891. $2,500. - - - - - $2,500.

Fredericton, N. B.,

ON - - - - - Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday 6, 7 & 8 OCT., 1891. $2,500. - - - - - $2,500.

Fredericton, N. B.,

ON - - - - - Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday 6, 7 & 8 OCT., 1891. $2,500. - - - - - $2,500.

Fredericton, N. B.,

ON - - - - - Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday 6, 7 & 8 OCT., 1891. $2,500. - - - - - $2,500.

Fredericton, N. B.,

ON - - - - - Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday 6, 7 & 8 OCT., 1891. $2,500. - - - - - $2,500.

Fredericton, N. B.,

ON - - - - - Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday 6, 7 & 8 OCT., 1891. $2,500. - - - - - $2,500.

Fredericton, N. B.,

ON - - - - - Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday 6, 7 & 8 OCT., 1891. $2,500. - - - - - $2,500.

Fredericton, N. B.,

ON - - - - - Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday 6, 7 & 8 OCT., 1891. $2,500. - - - - - $2,500.

Fredericton, N. B.,

ON - - - - - Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday 6, 7 & 8 OCT., 1891. $2,500. - - - - - $2,500.

Fredericton, N. B.,

ON - - - - - Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday 6, 7 & 8 OCT., 1891. $2,500. - - - - - $2,500.

Fredericton, N. B.,

ON - - - - - Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday 6, 7 & 8 OCT., 1891. $2,500. - - - - - $2,500.

Fredericton, N. B.,

ON - - - - - Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday 6, 7 & 8 OCT., 1891. $2,500. - - - - - $2,500.

Fredericton, N. B.,

ON - - - - - Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday 6, 7 & 8 OCT., 1891. $2,500. - - - - - $2,500.

Fredericton, N. B.,

ON - - - - - Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday 6, 7 & 8 OCT., 1891. $2,500. - - - - - $2,500.

Fredericton, N. B.,

ON - - - - - Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday 6, 7 & 8 OCT., 1891. $2,500. - - - - - $2,500.

Fredericton, N. B.,

ON - - - - - Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday 6, 7 & 8 OCT., 1891. $2,500. - - - - - $2,500.

Fredericton, N. B.,

ON - - - - - Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday 6, 7 & 8 OCT., 1891. $2,500. - - - - - $2,500.

Fredericton, N. B.,

ON - - - - - Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday 6, 7 & 8 OCT., 1891. $2,500. - - - - - $2,500.

Fredericton, N. B.,

ON - - - - - Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday 6, 7 & 8 OCT., 1891. $2,500. - - - - - $2,500.

Fredericton, N. B.,

ON - - - - - Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday 6, 7 & 8 OCT., 1891. $2,500. - - - - - $2,500.

Miramichi Advance.

CHATHAM, N. B., - SEPTEMBER 24, 1890.

The Canadian Temperance.

Nearly all the newspapers of Canada had their say about the political scandals that have been in course of development at Ottawa since the opening of Parliament, and the ordinary citizen, who has depended for his information upon a very large number of them, has been puzzled as to what he ought to believe. He has taken up his paper with conservative leanings, and learned from it that certain damaging developments have been made, but he also finds these explained away in such a manner as to leave the impression that some evasive or injurious libel has been endeavoring to injure the reputation of the government or some member thereof. Turning to his paper that has a liberal bias, he finds the same damaging developments in magnified form, accompanied by a setting, in which conservative leaders are all conspiring together to prevent the liberals from having the truth known and the guilty punished. The public, who wish to know the whole truth, in order that justice may be meted out to the wrong-doers, and the management of the country's affairs placed on an honest basis, meantime grow tired of the partyism, which seems to have pervaded the whole business throughout, from the rascalities of the McGreaves, Senecals and Peacocks, to the findings of the sub-committees on the Tarte charges. The people, who, after all, must pay the country's bills cannot shut their eyes to the fact that however useful or necessary party spirit or party organizations may be in the abstract, it is suicidal for any country to permit them to grow into noxious things that choke and kill all other elements that are necessary to our national and political life and progress. Party organization, party esprit de corps and party advancement are not to be set above either national, party or personal honor, nor should they be promoted at the cost of the country's self-respect; and when our people, whose national pride and aspirations have been awakened by the hope of an honored, progressive career for Canada among the young nations of the century, have been made to feel the blight of the last five months' disclosures at Ottawa, they are unworthy of their racial traditions and void of the moral integrity on which they hoped to build their national edifice, if they permit party considerations to stand between them and duty in the present important crisis. Party, as it seems to have been understood in the Dominion, is responsible, in fact, for all the blots upon its history. It was party necessity that led to the Pacific Scandal; it was the fear of offending the party virtues who were allowed to pounce upon the lands of the half breeds, that led to the Northwest rebellion; it was to satisfy the demands of the Quebec right wing of the conservative party that McGreave and his friends were permitted to plunder the country through the Public Works Department; it was to propagate the Quebec left wing of the same party that the wasteful and corrupt printing department was established at Ottawa, and it was to stem the torrent of these two corrupting forces united, in Quebec, that the Bay Chaleur steel was made in behalf of the liberal party. The few who find or hope for personal advantage through party, as thus sustained, seem ready to palliate and gloss over knavery in their own organization, or by their own men, while they expose and magnify that of their opponents. The many, however, who do not know all, but have learned enough to realize how rotten and hypocritical the whole system is, are disgusted with it, and wonder whether there are not a sufficient number of honest men in the House of Commons, who will rise, equal to the necessity of the hour, punish the men who have dishonored the country, purge the departments thoroughly, reduce the administration and civil service forces to an honest working basis, lift off several hoodlum branches that are only a cover for official plundering at Ottawa, and give us a government that is responsible to the people of Canada, and for which the people of Canada care, and to which they will look with some hope that their administration will be such as to restore public confidence within a reasonable time. Party in Canada has proved to be a vampire, which, for a long time, has sucked the blood of the country. It is time, therefore, that the country was afforded a chance to recover 'from the effects of the operation.

The Tarte Charges.

The Report of the Parliamentary Committee on Privileges and Elections at Ottawa, in the matter of the charges made by Mr. Tarte, M. P., against Hon. Thos. McGreave, M. P., Sir Hector Langevin, late Minister of Public Works, and others connected with the Public Works Department, has been submitted to Parliament. It is the report prepared by Hon. Sir John Thompson, Hon. M. Adams and Mr. Groulx, which was adopted by the general committee by a vote of 17 to 0, the minority report prepared by Hon. Messrs. Millard and Davis having been rejected by the same vote, reversed. The Committee sat fifty-five days, during which they had seventy-one sittings, and there were, besides, twenty-nine sittings of sub-committees, at all of which seventy-one different witnesses were examined and also many papers and documents. The majority report (as well as that of the minority) sets forth the charges fully and fairly. There does not seem to be any difference of opinion among the members of either committee as to the fact that Thos. McGreave made corrupt use of his position as a member of Parliament and intimate friend of Sir Hector Langevin, the Minister of Public Works, and also as a Quebec Harbor Commissioner, to assist the firm of Larkin, Connolly & Co., of which his brother, Robert, was a member, to defraud the government to the extent of hundreds of thousands of dollars, and to the full amount of the charges, so far as the all parties accused (excepting Sir Hector) are concerned are found to be substantially sustained. Sir Hector Langevin comes out of the ordeal very badly, although he has escaped conviction of having personally received any of the plunder, Mr. Tarte, in his charges stated that $1000 contributed to the Langevin testimonial fund in 1883 by Larkin, Connolly & Co., was practically a price paid to Sir Hector for permitting a certain contract to be corruptly manipulated to the advantage of that firm; also that certain members of the firm paid and contributed to the Langevin testimonial fund to be paid of the proceeds of sums of money out of the proceeds of the firm of Larkin, Connolly & Co., which was not aware that it had been subscribed until several years after the contract referred to was manipulated. To prove the charge of direct payment of a part of the plunder to Sir Hector, Owen E. Murphy, a friend of Sir Hector, stated that it had been paid $10,000 to Sir Hector, personally, in his own house. Murphy said he made the payment in two instalments of $5,000 each. He could not, however, say when these sums were paid, nor did he enter them in his diary, although he had entered many other irregular disbursements there. Sir Hector in his sworn statement positively denied that he ever received any sum of money whatever directly or indirectly from Murphy, or that he had received any such sum from any other person. Murphy was never in his house but once and his visit on that occasion was for the purpose of complaining that one of the assistant engineers of the Quebec Harbor Commission was too hard on the contractor, and that Sir Hector had promised him to see that such contractor was not so treated. Murphy's complaint should be made to the Quebec Harbor Commission. Murphy also swore that Nicholas Connolly told him he had paid $5,000 to Leflore Langevin on an order therefor from Sir Hector, and that Sir Hector had given him the order. This statement, also, was positively denied by Sir Hector on oath and Leflore Langevin, Nicholas Connolly and others interested also swore that no such payment ever took place. Nicholas Connolly also swore that he never told Murphy any such story, and that he had never seen any such order. Other payments made directly to Sir Hector were sworn to be as positively contradicted on oath by parties implicated and in connection with this branch of the charges, the committee, in their report, refer to the character of the interminable witnesses, showing that Owen E. Murphy had been an embezzler of public moneys in New York, was a fugitive from justice, and by his own admission an active participant in every transaction which he was charged with, and that he had been a member of the conspiracy against it, and having thus started on a downward course, he has been led, pushed and driven into numerous false positions and expedients, which have left him without political character or standing, without honor, and without respectability, and as a representative, one of a desecrated band with nothing in common to unite him save greed of office, and without conscience in itself, his leader or his cause. No wonder Mr. Phinney is sorry.

The Fifteenth at Duttons.

It appears that Messrs. Hanington, Phinney and others in the opposition list made a great mistake in their attempt to mislead the people of Duttons respecting the position of provincial affairs and the record of the government under Mr. Blair's premiership. The opposition list, in their attempt to discharge the duties with equal fairness to all classes. He felt that a great victory had been won and Mr. Phinney and his clique were deservingly defeated. (Cheers.) Mr. McQueen, the fine young Westmorland candidate, who defeated Mr. Steves, made a rousing speech in which he congratulated Kent because it had taken advantage of its first opportunity to place itself in line with its neighbors and returned as a representative a government of responsible men, which would discharge the duties with equal fairness to all classes. The occasion when they were elected was not only a victory for the provincial government but a personal triumph for Attorney General Blair and other personal friends of Mr. Phinney and other oppositionists from outside of the county. Kent county electors had administered a fitting rebuke to these false and unmanly cynics, a rebuke which all eyes and ears could not but have perceived in celebrating. He said that with great pleasure he noted the fact that the Acadian electors of Kent were falling in line with their compatriots in other counties and refusing in such a distinct manner the false and malignant charges against the government in respect to its attitude towards the Acadian people. Mr. McQueen spoke in a most feeling manner and was rapturously cheered as he referred to his warm feelings towards the Acadian people, many of whom were his personal friends and among them he counted some of his warmest and best supporters. As he condemned Mr. Phinney's manifesto to the electors and Dr. Atkinson's fruitless attempt to raise race prejudice, he was cheered and cheered, and his words were greeted with applause. He said that he would always hold all creeds at naught, but there will be no favoritism; his motto was "Equal rights to all."

Hon. O. J. LeBlanc was the next speaker.

He said that the victory by the electors of the county was a great one, and that he was proud to have been elected to represent the county in the House of Commons. He said that he would always hold all creeds at naught, but there will be no favoritism; his motto was "Equal rights to all."

Mr. J. D. Phinney, M. P., of Richmond, was the next speaker.

He said that he was proud to have been elected to represent the county in the House of Commons. He said that he would always hold all creeds at naught, but there will be no favoritism; his motto was "Equal rights to all."

Mr. J. D. Phinney, M. P., of Richmond, was the next speaker.

He said that he was proud to have been elected to represent the county in the House of Commons. He said that he would always hold all creeds at naught, but there will be no favoritism; his motto was "Equal rights to all."

Mr. J. D. Phinney, M. P., of Richmond, was the next speaker.

He said that he was proud to have been elected to represent the county in the House of Commons. He said that he would always hold all creeds at naught, but there will be no favoritism; his motto was "Equal rights to all."

Mr. J. D. Phinney, M. P., of Richmond, was the next speaker.

He said that he was proud to have been elected to represent the county in the House of Commons. He said that he would always hold all creeds at naught, but there will be no favoritism; his motto was "Equal rights to all."

Mr. J. D. Phinney, M. P., of Richmond, was the next speaker.

He said that he was proud to have been elected to represent the county in the House of Commons. He said that he would always hold all creeds at naught, but there will be no favoritism; his motto was "Equal rights to all."

Mr. J. D. Phinney, M. P., of Richmond, was the next speaker.

He said that he was proud to have been elected to represent the county in the House of Commons. He said that he would always hold all creeds at naught, but there will be no favoritism; his motto was "Equal rights to all."

Mr. J. D. Phinney, M. P., of Richmond, was the next speaker.

He said that he was proud to have been elected to represent the county in the House of Commons. He said that he would always hold all creeds at naught, but there will be no favoritism; his motto was "Equal rights to all."

Miramichi Advance.

CHATHAM, N. B., - SEPTEMBER 24, 1890.

The Canadian Temperance.

Nearly all the newspapers of Canada had their say about the political scandals that have been in course of development at Ottawa since the opening of Parliament, and the ordinary citizen, who has depended for his information upon a very large number of them, has been puzzled as to what he ought to believe. He has taken up his paper with conservative leanings, and learned from it that certain damaging developments have been made, but he also finds these explained away in such a manner as to leave the impression that some evasive or injurious libel has been endeavoring to injure the reputation of the government or some member thereof. Turning to his paper that has a liberal bias, he finds the same damaging developments in magnified form, accompanied by a setting, in which conservative leaders are all conspiring together to prevent the liberals from having the truth known and the guilty punished. The public, who wish to know the whole truth, in order that justice may be meted out to the wrong-doers, and the management of the country's affairs placed on an honest basis, meantime grow tired of the partyism, which seems to have pervaded the whole business throughout, from the rascalities of the McGreaves, Senecals and Peacocks, to the findings of the sub-committees on the Tarte charges. The people, who, after all, must pay the country's bills cannot shut their eyes to the fact that however useful or necessary party spirit or party organizations may be in the abstract, it is suicidal for any country to permit them to grow into noxious things that choke and kill all other elements that are necessary to our national and political life and progress. Party organization, party esprit de corps and party advancement are not to be set above either national, party or personal honor, nor should they be promoted at the cost of the country's self-respect; and when our people, whose national pride and aspirations have been awakened by the hope of an honored, progressive career for Canada among the young nations of the century, have been made to feel the blight of the last five months' disclosures at Ottawa, they are unworthy of their racial traditions and void of the moral integrity on which they hoped to build their national edifice, if they permit party considerations to stand between them and duty in the present important crisis. Party, as it seems to have been understood in the Dominion, is responsible, in fact, for all the blots upon its history. It was party necessity that led to the Pacific Scandal; it was the fear of offending the party virtues who were allowed to pounce upon the lands of the half breeds, that led to the Northwest rebellion; it was to satisfy the demands of the Quebec right wing of the conservative party that McGreave and his friends were permitted to plunder the country through the Public Works Department; it was to propagate the Quebec left wing of the same party that the wasteful and corrupt printing department was established at Ottawa, and it was to stem the torrent of these two corrupting forces united, in Quebec, that the Bay Chaleur steel was made in behalf of the liberal party. The few who find or hope for personal advantage through party, as thus sustained, seem ready to palliate and gloss over knavery in their own organization, or by their own men, while they expose and magnify that of their opponents. The many, however, who do not know all, but have learned enough to realize how rotten and hypocritical the whole system is, are disgusted with it, and wonder whether there are not a sufficient number of honest men in the House of Commons, who will rise, equal to the necessity of the hour, punish the men who have dishonored the country, purge the departments thoroughly, reduce the administration and civil service forces to an honest working basis, lift off several hoodlum branches that are only a cover for official plundering at Ottawa, and give us a government that is responsible to the people of Canada, and for which the people of Canada care, and to which they will look with some hope that their administration will be such as to restore public confidence within a reasonable time. Party in Canada has proved to be a vampire, which, for a long time, has sucked the blood of the country. It is time, therefore, that the country was afforded a chance to recover 'from the effects of the operation.

The Tarte Charges.

The Report of the Parliamentary Committee on Privileges and Elections at Ottawa, in the matter of the charges made by Mr. Tarte, M. P., against Hon. Thos. McGreave, M. P., Sir Hector Langevin, late Minister of Public Works, and others connected with the Public Works Department, has been submitted to Parliament. It is the report prepared by Hon. Sir John Thompson, Hon. M. Adams and Mr. Groulx, which was adopted by the general committee by a vote of 17 to 0, the minority report prepared by Hon. Messrs. Millard and Davis having been rejected by the same vote, reversed. The Committee sat fifty-five days, during which they had seventy-one sittings, and there were, besides, twenty-nine sittings of sub-committees, at all of which seventy-one different witnesses were examined and also many papers and documents. The majority report (as well as that of the minority) sets forth the charges fully and fairly. There does not seem to be any difference of opinion among the members of either committee as to the fact that Thos. McGreave made corrupt use of his position as a member of Parliament and intimate friend of Sir Hector Langevin, the Minister of Public Works, and also as a Quebec Harbor Commissioner, to assist the firm of Larkin, Connolly & Co., of which his brother, Robert, was a member, to defraud the government to the extent of hundreds of thousands of dollars, and to the full amount of the charges, so far as the all parties accused (excepting Sir Hector) are concerned are found to be substantially sustained. Sir Hector Langevin comes out of the ordeal very badly, although he has escaped conviction of having personally received any of the plunder, Mr. Tarte, in his charges stated that $1000 contributed to the Langevin testimonial fund in 1883 by Larkin, Connolly & Co., was practically a price paid to Sir Hector for permitting a certain contract to be corruptly manipulated to the advantage of that firm; also that certain members of the firm paid and contributed to the Langevin testimonial fund to be paid of the proceeds of sums of money out of the proceeds of the firm of Larkin, Connolly & Co., which was not aware that it had been subscribed until several years after the contract referred to was manipulated. To prove the charge of direct payment of a part of the plunder to Sir Hector, Owen E. Murphy, a friend of Sir Hector, stated that it had been paid $10,000 to Sir Hector, personally, in his own house. Murphy said he made the payment in two instalments of $5,000 each. He could not, however, say when these sums were paid, nor did he enter them in his diary, although he had entered many other irregular disbursements there. Sir Hector in his sworn statement positively denied that he ever received any sum of money whatever directly or indirectly from Murphy, or that he had received any such sum from any other person. Murphy was never in his house but once and his visit on that occasion was for the purpose of complaining that one of the assistant engineers of the Quebec Harbor Commission was too hard on the contractor, and that Sir Hector had promised him to see that such contractor was not so treated. Murphy's complaint should be made to the Quebec Harbor Commission. Murphy also swore that Nicholas Connolly told him he had paid $5,000 to Leflore Langevin on an order therefor from Sir Hector, and that Sir Hector had given him the order. This statement, also, was positively denied by Sir Hector on oath and Leflore Langevin, Nicholas Connolly and others interested also swore that no such payment ever took place. Nicholas Connolly also swore that he never told Murphy any such story, and that he had never seen any such order. Other payments made directly to Sir Hector were sworn to be as positively contradicted on oath by parties implicated and in connection with this branch of the charges, the committee, in their report, refer to the character of the interminable witnesses, showing that Owen E. Murphy had been an embezzler of public moneys in New York, was a fugitive from justice, and by his own admission an active participant in every transaction which he was charged with, and that he had been a member of the conspiracy against it, and having thus started on a downward course, he has been led, pushed and driven into numerous false positions and expedients, which have left him without political character or standing, without honor, and without respectability, and as a representative, one of a desecrated band with nothing in common to unite him save greed of office, and without conscience in itself, his leader or his cause. No wonder Mr. Phinney is sorry.

The Fifteenth at Duttons.

It appears that Messrs. Hanington, Phinney and others in the opposition list made a great mistake in their attempt to mislead the people of Duttons respecting the position of provincial affairs and the record of the government under Mr. Blair's premiership. The opposition list, in their attempt to discharge the duties with equal fairness to all classes. He felt that a great victory had been won and Mr. Phinney and his clique were deservingly defeated. (Cheers.) Mr. McQueen, the fine young Westmorland candidate, who defeated Mr. Steves, made a rousing speech in which he congratulated Kent because it had taken advantage of its first opportunity to place itself in line with its neighbors and returned as a representative a government of responsible men, which would discharge the duties with equal fairness to all classes. The occasion when they were elected was not only a victory for the provincial government but a personal triumph for Attorney General Blair and other personal friends of Mr. Phinney and other oppositionists from outside of the county. Kent county electors had administered a fitting rebuke to these false and unmanly cynics, a rebuke which all eyes and ears could not but have perceived in celebrating. He said that with great pleasure he noted the fact that the Acadian electors of Kent were falling in line with their compatriots in other counties and refusing in such a distinct manner the false and malignant charges against the government in respect to its attitude towards the Acadian people. Mr. McQueen spoke in a most feeling manner and was rapturously cheered as he referred to his warm feelings towards the Acadian people, many of whom were his personal friends and among them he counted some of his warmest and best supporters. As he condemned Mr. Phinney's manifesto to the electors and Dr. Atkinson's fruitless attempt to raise race prejudice, he was cheered and cheered, and his words were greeted with applause. He said that he would always hold all creeds at naught, but there will be no favoritism; his motto was "Equal rights to all."

Hon. O. J. LeBlanc was the next speaker.

He said that the victory by the electors of the county was a great one, and that he was proud to have been elected to represent the county in the House of Commons. He said that he would always hold all creeds at naught, but there will be no favoritism; his motto was "Equal rights to all."

Mr. J. D. Phinney, M. P., of Richmond, was the next speaker.

He said that he was proud to have been elected to represent the county in the House of Commons. He said that he would always hold all creeds at naught, but there will be no favoritism; his motto was "Equal rights to all."

Mr. J. D. Phinney, M. P., of Richmond, was the next speaker.

He said that he was proud to have been elected to represent the county in the House of Commons. He said that he would always hold all creeds at naught, but there will be no favoritism; his motto was "Equal rights to all."

Mr. J. D. Phinney, M. P., of Richmond, was the next speaker.

He said that he was proud to have been elected to represent the county in the House of Commons. He said that he would always hold all creeds at naught, but there will be no favoritism; his motto was "Equal rights to all."

Mr. J. D. Phinney, M. P., of Richmond, was the next speaker.

He said that he was proud to have been elected to represent the county in the House of Commons. He said that he would always hold all creeds at naught, but there will be no favoritism; his motto was "Equal rights to all."

Mr. J. D. Phinney, M. P., of Richmond, was the next speaker.

He said that he was proud to have been elected to represent the county in the House of Commons. He said that he would always hold all creeds at naught, but there will be no favoritism; his motto was "Equal rights to all."

Mr. J. D. Phinney, M. P., of Richmond, was the next speaker.

He said that he was proud to have been elected to represent the county in the House of Commons. He said that he would always hold all creeds at naught, but there will be no favoritism; his motto was "Equal rights to all."

Mr. J. D. Phinney, M. P., of Richmond, was the next speaker.

He said that he was proud to have been elected to represent the county in the House of Commons. He said that he would always hold all creeds at naught, but there will be no favoritism; his motto was "Equal rights to all."

Miramichi Advance.

CHATHAM, N. B., - SEPTEMBER 24, 1890.

The Canadian Temperance.

Nearly all the newspapers of Canada had their say about the political scandals that have been in course of development at Ottawa since the opening of Parliament, and the ordinary citizen, who has depended for his information upon a very large number of them, has been puzzled as to what he ought to believe. He has taken up his paper with conservative leanings, and learned from it that certain damaging developments have been made, but he also finds these explained away in such a manner as to leave the impression that some evasive or injurious libel has been endeavoring to injure the reputation of the government or some member thereof. Turning to his paper that has a liberal bias, he finds the same damaging developments in magnified form, accompanied by a setting, in which conservative leaders are all conspiring together to prevent the liberals from having the truth known and the guilty punished. The public, who wish to know the whole truth, in order that justice may be meted out to the wrong-doers, and the management of the country's affairs placed on an honest basis, meantime grow tired of the partyism, which seems to have pervaded the whole business throughout, from the rascalities of the McGreaves, Senecals and Peacocks, to the findings of the sub-committees on the Tarte charges. The people, who, after all, must pay the country's bills cannot shut their eyes to the fact that however useful or necessary party spirit or party organizations may be in the abstract, it is suicidal for any country to permit them to grow into noxious things that choke and kill all other elements that are necessary to our national and political life and progress. Party organization, party esprit de corps and party advancement are not to be set above either national, party or personal honor, nor should they be promoted at the cost of the country's self-respect; and when our people, whose national pride and aspirations have been awakened by the hope of an honored, progressive career for Canada among the young nations of the century, have been made to feel the blight of the last five months' disclosures at Ottawa, they are unworthy of their racial traditions and void of the moral integrity on which they hoped to build their national edifice, if they permit party considerations to stand between them and duty in the present important crisis. Party, as

Miramichi and the North Shore, etc.

STUPID that bible, dear John. Glad you've won it.

BARBERS in Furniture are offered by Mr. Payne.

GOING WEST? Locomotive Engineer, James Harris, of Newcastle, and Fireman Stephen Chapman, have resigned their positions. They intend to go West.

THRASHING MILLS.—You can buy the celebrated Reid & Co. Thrashing Mills cheap and on easy terms at Alex. Robinson's Carriage and Sleigh Works, Chatham, N. B.

A FRANK.—Mrs. D. Goggin, who lives near Chatham Bridge, has a hen which recently hatched six chickens with four legs and four wings. The chick is smarter than any of the same brood.

BIBLE SOCIETY MEETING.—The annual meeting of the Miramichi Ladies' Auxiliary & Bible Society will be held in the Commercial Hall, Chatham, on Thursday, the 24th September, at 2 o'clock, afternoon (standard time).

THE DEATH OF MR. PETER LOGAN, whose serious illness at Denver was reported by us last week, took place in that city on 11th inst. and the news came since reported in a large circle of relatives and friends on the North Shore.

REV. MR. HOOD'S VISIT.—Friends on both sides of the water, of which will be spent in Toronto. Mr. Hood's family will visit in Wolford during his absence. His pulpit will be supplied by Rev. Canon Forsyth of Chatham, N. B.

"GONE TO SEED"—A Rochester, N. Y., daughter of 17th Street, says that the James Vicks (seedsmen) corporation will go into the hands of receivers and be dissolved. Liabilities between $175,000 and $200,000; assets about equal to liabilities.

BRACING UP.—Messrs. Sutherland & Creighton's Dry Goods Store, Chatham, was broken into some time on Saturday night, and a number of articles were stolen therefrom, including two watches and some silver coins. Suspicious parties have left town.

LOST.—At the "Harvest Home" at Mr. Geo. J. Dickson's last Thursday, someone mistook another man's overcoat for his own. The one taken was dark grey, of fine cloth, smooth, single-breasted, of light weight, and contained in the pocket a pair of head light gloves. The mistaken gentleman will confer a favor by returning the coat to the owner, Mr. Dickson, and taking his own coat away.

FINDING.—Mr. F. W. Black Barnes and wife left last night on the C. P. R. for Bermuda via New York. Mr. Black Barnes has recently been promoted to the position of naval paymaster at Bermuda, and will enter at once into his duties on his arrival there. A large number of friends were in the station to bid the popular couple bon voyage.—Telegraph, 22nd.

MR. PHILIP WOODS, of Richibucto, was in town yesterday.

MR. GEORGE E. FAHER and family are enjoying a visit from Mr. Fisher's father—Wm. Fisher, Esq., of Fredericton.

LETTEL'S LIVING AGENTS.—The sum of $100,000 for the Revival of Quakerism, Edinburgh Post-Office, London, England. The "Apology" of Aristotle, Contemporary; The Foot of the Klephts, Nineteenth Century; The Persecuted Russian Jews, National; The Anak of Publishers, and The Congress of Vienna, Temple Bar, St. James's Place, London, England. The "Apology" of Aristotle, Contemporary; The Foot of the Klephts, Nineteenth Century; The Persecuted Russian Jews, National; The Anak of Publishers, and The Congress of Vienna, Temple Bar, St. James's Place, London, England.

For fifty-two numbers of sixty-four large pages each for more than 2000 pages a week the subscription price ($8) is low; while for $10.50 the publishers offer to send any one of the American $4.00 monthlies or weeklies with The Living Age for a year both prepaid. Lillie & Co., Boston, are the publishers.

A JOINT STOCK COMPANY.—The Royal Gazette gives notice of application for the incorporation of the Danes & Boyd Co. (limited). The notice provides that the whole capital stock of the company will be $400,000, to be divided into two classes, namely: A. Stock being ordinary stock of the company, and B. Stock to be preferred stock, and to be preferred over and above the stock of class A, or ordinary stock, to the full value thereof, or for such proportion thereof as shall be paid up, but not exceeding the amount so paid up, and all dividends thereon not exceeding 6 per cent. annually upon the amount paid up on such B. stock. A. stock shall consist of $250,000 of stock, divided into 2,500 shares of $100 each, and B. stock shall consist of $150,000 of stock, divided into 1,500 shares of $100 each.

The names of the applicants are: Thomas Wilder Daniel, merchant; Hon. John Boyd, merchant; Frederick Wilder Daniel, merchant; Thomas Somerville, accountant; Alexander Young Miller, clerk—the first four named of whom to be the provisional directors of the company.

"Harvest Home." The annual "Harvest Home" festival in connection with St. Andrew's Church, Chatham, was held on Wednesday last, on the grounds of Mr. George J. Dickson's farm. The weather was all that could be desired, being warm and calm and the evening clear with good moonlight. Indeed a more amiable day has not been this autumn. As the consequence, a large number of persons were collected from all the surrounding country. We observed friends from Nelson, Newcastle, Black River, Black Brook, Chatham, and even New York and Boston.

The promoters of the "Harvest Home" spared no labor in making suitable preparations for a day's thorough enjoyment. The large and commodious tent was fitted up as a dining hall, and the table was beautifully spread with choice provisions of all kinds. A large number patronized the dinner table, and were well pleased, not only with the abundance, but with the excellent quality of the provisions, and the happy manner of those who served at the tables. As the afternoon advanced the number of visitors increased, so that there had to be several rows of tables before all could be served with tea.

The programme of sports was carried out to the pleasure of those who took part, as well as of those who were only spectators. Foot-races, sack-races, three-legged races, throwing the heavy weight, rifle shooting, riding had place on the programme. The ladies rode remarkably well, and added much to the enjoyment of the day by their success.

Municipal Representation. A meeting of Newcastle ratapayers was held last Monday evening under the auspices of the Merchants' and Manufacturers' Association for the purpose of considering the subject of the approaching election of councillors for the parish. Messrs. P. Henessey and Donald Morrison were elected as candidates, although Mr. G. K. Kohro received a large number of ballots and declared his intention of running, no matter who might be in the field. At last year's election, owing to the death of Mr. G. K. Kohro, the Municipal Representation.

Children Cry for Fitcher's Castoria.

will be invaluable to particular, but we may be pardoned for mentioning the violation by Master Herbie McDonald and Miss Bertie McLean. These little folk have made marked improvement during the week, and show wonderful ability. They reflect credit on their teacher.

Many, after enjoying the pleasures of the concert-room, returned to the dining tent to refresh their efforts to exhaust that almost inexhaustible supply which had been prepared.

Great credit is due to Mr. Dickson, Mr. Galloway and their families, and the other friends in Napan who gave their time and services so generously to furnish a day's real enjoyment in the fresh green fields and open air of the country.

We have not had the exact financial returns, but the estimate is that about two hundred dollars net will be toward the dissolving the debt on the church.—Cam.

Induction of the Rev. R. W. Edgell. The Rev. Robert Edgell, who has occupied the pulpit of St. John's church, Carleton, for some months past, was last evening formally inducted as pastor of that church. The ceremony was held in the services were Rev. Canon Briggs, Rev. R. H. M. Spinks of Monquash, Rev. J. M. Davenport and Rev. R. Mathers. The church was beautifully trimmed with floral decorations and a large congregation was present to witness the ceremony. Rev. Canon Briggs acted as officiating minister in accordance with the request of the Metropolitan for the purpose of inducing Rev. Mr. Edgell, who had been duly called by the congregation into the pastorate of the church. Mr. Edgell then read the declaration of office, in which he promised to conform to all the requirements of the Episcopal church.

The bishop's warrant was read by Edwin J. Wetmore, and the keys of the church handed over by Samuel L. Britain, the warden of the church. In accepting the keys, the new pastor said he would endeavor to be a faithful shepherd over them. The books and documents were passed over by the Rev. Canon Briggs.

An interesting service followed, including an address by Rev. Canon Briggs on the "Duties of pastors to people, and of people to pastors." The benediction was pronounced at the close by the new pastor. —St. John Gazette, 17th.

The drawing of prizes in connection with the Sacred Heart Church Bazaar took place last Thursday evening in the basement church. The following are the prizes and names of the lucky ones:— Child's doll suit, Mrs. R. A. Lawler, Chatham, N. B. Sofa cushion, Dr. Green, Boston. Silver picture stand, John Newman, Chatham, N. B.

Permit to fish one week on Pocomoche River, near 1000 ft. Mrs. R. W. Edgell, Chatham, N. B. Smoking cap, Mrs. L. H. Melvin, Bathurst. Faith of our fathers, Miss W. Edgell, Bathurst.

China tea set, Miss Cecilia Logan, Bathurst. 1 doz. trout fish, Miss Annie Garret, Bathurst. 1 doz. salmon fish, Dr. Green, Boston. Picture "Salvator of Abraham," E. R. Wharton, New York. Child's jacket and hood, E. R. Wharton, New York, N. Y.

Permit to fish one week on Pocomoche River, near 1000 ft. Mrs. R. W. Edgell, Chatham, N. B. Smoking cap, Mrs. L. H. Melvin, Bathurst. Faith of our fathers, Miss W. Edgell, Bathurst.

China tea set, Miss Cecilia Logan, Bathurst. 1 doz. trout fish, Miss Annie Garret, Bathurst. 1 doz. salmon fish, Dr. Green, Boston. Picture "Salvator of Abraham," E. R. Wharton, New York. Child's jacket and hood, E. R. Wharton, New York, N. Y.

Permit to fish one week on Pocomoche River, near 1000 ft. Mrs. R. W. Edgell, Chatham, N. B. Smoking cap, Mrs. L. H. Melvin, Bathurst. Faith of our fathers, Miss W. Edgell, Bathurst.

China tea set, Miss Cecilia Logan, Bathurst. 1 doz. trout fish, Miss Annie Garret, Bathurst. 1 doz. salmon fish, Dr. Green, Boston. Picture "Salvator of Abraham," E. R. Wharton, New York. Child's jacket and hood, E. R. Wharton, New York, N. Y.

Permit to fish one week on Pocomoche River, near 1000 ft. Mrs. R. W. Edgell, Chatham, N. B. Smoking cap, Mrs. L. H. Melvin, Bathurst. Faith of our fathers, Miss W. Edgell, Bathurst.

China tea set, Miss Cecilia Logan, Bathurst. 1 doz. trout fish, Miss Annie Garret, Bathurst. 1 doz. salmon fish, Dr. Green, Boston. Picture "Salvator of Abraham," E. R. Wharton, New York. Child's jacket and hood, E. R. Wharton, New York, N. Y.

Permit to fish one week on Pocomoche River, near 1000 ft. Mrs. R. W. Edgell, Chatham, N. B. Smoking cap, Mrs. L. H. Melvin, Bathurst. Faith of our fathers, Miss W. Edgell, Bathurst.

China tea set, Miss Cecilia Logan, Bathurst. 1 doz. trout fish, Miss Annie Garret, Bathurst. 1 doz. salmon fish, Dr. Green, Boston. Picture "Salvator of Abraham," E. R. Wharton, New York. Child's jacket and hood, E. R. Wharton, New York, N. Y.

Permit to fish one week on Pocomoche River, near 1000 ft. Mrs. R. W. Edgell, Chatham, N. B. Smoking cap, Mrs. L. H. Melvin, Bathurst. Faith of our fathers, Miss W. Edgell, Bathurst.

China tea set, Miss Cecilia Logan, Bathurst. 1 doz. trout fish, Miss Annie Garret, Bathurst. 1 doz. salmon fish, Dr. Green, Boston. Picture "Salvator of Abraham," E. R. Wharton, New York. Child's jacket and hood, E. R. Wharton, New York, N. Y.

Permit to fish one week on Pocomoche River, near 1000 ft. Mrs. R. W. Edgell, Chatham, N. B. Smoking cap, Mrs. L. H. Melvin, Bathurst. Faith of our fathers, Miss W. Edgell, Bathurst.

China tea set, Miss Cecilia Logan, Bathurst. 1 doz. trout fish, Miss Annie Garret, Bathurst. 1 doz. salmon fish, Dr. Green, Boston. Picture "Salvator of Abraham," E. R. Wharton, New York. Child's jacket and hood, E. R. Wharton, New York, N. Y.

Permit to fish one week on Pocomoche River, near 1000 ft. Mrs. R. W. Edgell, Chatham, N. B. Smoking cap, Mrs. L. H. Melvin, Bathurst. Faith of our fathers, Miss W. Edgell, Bathurst.

China tea set, Miss Cecilia Logan, Bathurst. 1 doz. trout fish, Miss Annie Garret, Bathurst. 1 doz. salmon fish, Dr. Green, Boston. Picture "Salvator of Abraham," E. R. Wharton, New York. Child's jacket and hood, E. R. Wharton, New York, N. Y.

Permit to fish one week on Pocomoche River, near 1000 ft. Mrs. R. W. Edgell, Chatham, N. B. Smoking cap, Mrs. L. H. Melvin, Bathurst. Faith of our fathers, Miss W. Edgell, Bathurst.

China tea set, Miss Cecilia Logan, Bathurst. 1 doz. trout fish, Miss Annie Garret, Bathurst. 1 doz. salmon fish, Dr. Green, Boston. Picture "Salvator of Abraham," E. R. Wharton, New York. Child's jacket and hood, E. R. Wharton, New York, N. Y.

Permit to fish one week on Pocomoche River, near 1000 ft. Mrs. R. W. Edgell, Chatham, N. B. Smoking cap, Mrs. L. H. Melvin, Bathurst. Faith of our fathers, Miss W. Edgell, Bathurst.

China tea set, Miss Cecilia Logan, Bathurst. 1 doz. trout fish, Miss Annie Garret, Bathurst. 1 doz. salmon fish, Dr. Green, Boston. Picture "Salvator of Abraham," E. R. Wharton, New York. Child's jacket and hood, E. R. Wharton, New York, N. Y.

Permit to fish one week on Pocomoche River, near 1000 ft. Mrs. R. W. Edgell, Chatham, N. B. Smoking cap, Mrs. L. H. Melvin, Bathurst. Faith of our fathers, Miss W. Edgell, Bathurst.

China tea set, Miss Cecilia Logan, Bathurst. 1 doz. trout fish, Miss Annie Garret, Bathurst. 1 doz. salmon fish, Dr. Green, Boston. Picture "Salvator of Abraham," E. R. Wharton, New York. Child's jacket and hood, E. R. Wharton, New York, N. Y.

Permit to fish one week on Pocomoche River, near 1000 ft. Mrs. R. W. Edgell, Chatham, N. B. Smoking cap, Mrs. L. H. Melvin, Bathurst. Faith of our fathers, Miss W. Edgell, Bathurst.

China tea set, Miss Cecilia Logan, Bathurst. 1 doz. trout fish, Miss Annie Garret, Bathurst. 1 doz. salmon fish, Dr. Green, Boston. Picture "Salvator of Abraham," E. R. Wharton, New York. Child's jacket and hood, E. R. Wharton, New York, N. Y.

Permit to fish one week on Pocomoche River, near 1000 ft. Mrs. R. W. Edgell, Chatham, N. B. Smoking cap, Mrs. L. H. Melvin, Bathurst. Faith of our fathers, Miss W. Edgell, Bathurst.

China tea set, Miss Cecilia Logan, Bathurst. 1 doz. trout fish, Miss Annie Garret, Bathurst. 1 doz. salmon fish, Dr. Green, Boston. Picture "Salvator of Abraham," E. R. Wharton, New York. Child's jacket and hood, E. R. Wharton, New York, N. Y.

Permit to fish one week on Pocomoche River, near 1000 ft. Mrs. R. W. Edgell, Chatham, N. B. Smoking cap, Mrs. L. H. Melvin, Bathurst. Faith of our fathers, Miss W. Edgell, Bathurst.

China tea set, Miss Cecilia Logan, Bathurst. 1 doz. trout fish, Miss Annie Garret, Bathurst. 1 doz. salmon fish, Dr. Green, Boston. Picture "Salvator of Abraham," E. R. Wharton, New York. Child's jacket and hood, E. R. Wharton, New York, N. Y.

Permit to fish one week on Pocomoche River, near 1000 ft. Mrs. R. W. Edgell, Chatham, N. B. Smoking cap, Mrs. L. H. Melvin, Bathurst. Faith of our fathers, Miss W. Edgell, Bathurst.

China tea set, Miss Cecilia Logan, Bathurst. 1 doz. trout fish, Miss Annie Garret, Bathurst. 1 doz. salmon fish, Dr. Green, Boston. Picture "Salvator of Abraham," E. R. Wharton, New York. Child's jacket and hood, E. R. Wharton, New York, N. Y.

Permit to fish one week on Pocomoche River, near 1000 ft. Mrs. R. W. Edgell, Chatham, N. B. Smoking cap, Mrs. L. H. Melvin, Bathurst. Faith of our fathers, Miss W. Edgell, Bathurst.

China tea set, Miss Cecilia Logan, Bathurst. 1 doz. trout fish, Miss Annie Garret, Bathurst. 1 doz. salmon fish, Dr. Green, Boston. Picture "Salvator of Abraham," E. R. Wharton, New York. Child's jacket and hood, E. R. Wharton, New York, N. Y.

Permit to fish one week on Pocomoche River, near 1000 ft. Mrs. R. W. Edgell, Chatham, N. B. Smoking cap, Mrs. L. H. Melvin, Bathurst. Faith of our fathers, Miss W. Edgell, Bathurst.

China tea set, Miss Cecilia Logan, Bathurst. 1 doz. trout fish, Miss Annie Garret, Bathurst. 1 doz. salmon fish, Dr. Green, Boston. Picture "Salvator of Abraham," E. R. Wharton, New York. Child's jacket and hood, E. R. Wharton, New York, N. Y.

to the Newcastle town were being divided up among several candidates, two representing the Newcastle district were chosen—a manifestly singular condition of things. Now, it seems, there is a feeling in Newcastle that the next year's representatives should be chosen from the district exclusively. As it is a purely local matter, and party politics are very properly kept out of the question, we can only hope that the best and most competent men in the field will be chosen, regardless of the locality from which they come. We feel warranted in saying also that the ratapayers generally expect their councillors—especially in the large centres of population—to do much more for them than is possible under the present system of representation, and with the limited powers the councillors have. Both Newcastle and Chatham ought to have new councillors long ago, so that they might have an exclusive control of their own local affairs, as well as more adequate representation in the matter given to a better general understanding of the interests involved. Does it not seem absurd that more than one-half of the people and property of the County should have less than one-third of the representation in its Municipal Council, while twenty-two men living outside Newcastle and Chatham should have equal power with the four representatives of those two parishes in their local affairs?

Young Men's Christian Association of Chatham. Meetings held every week in their rooms, upstairs, Barry's Building, as follows:— Sunday morning at 10 o'clock, for Prayer and Morning Devotion, at 8 o'clock, for Bible Study, on Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock, for Training Class.

All young men are most cordially invited to any or all of these meetings.

Prize-Drawing at Bathurst. BATHURST, Sept. 22nd, 1891. The drawing of prizes in connection with the Sacred Heart Church Bazaar took place last Thursday evening in the basement church. The following are the prizes and names of the lucky ones:— Child's doll suit, Mrs. R. A. Lawler, Chatham, N. B. Sofa cushion, Dr. Green, Boston. Silver picture stand, John Newman, Chatham, N. B.

Permit to fish one week on Pocomoche River, near 1000 ft. Mrs. R. W. Edgell, Chatham, N. B. Smoking cap, Mrs. L. H. Melvin, Bathurst. Faith of our fathers, Miss W. Edgell, Bathurst.

China tea set, Miss Cecilia Logan, Bathurst. 1 doz. trout fish, Miss Annie Garret, Bathurst. 1 doz. salmon fish, Dr. Green, Boston. Picture "Salvator of Abraham," E. R. Wharton, New York. Child's jacket and hood, E. R. Wharton, New York, N. Y.

Permit to fish one week on Pocomoche River, near 1000 ft. Mrs. R. W. Edgell, Chatham, N. B. Smoking cap, Mrs. L. H. Melvin, Bathurst. Faith of our fathers, Miss W. Edgell, Bathurst.

China tea set, Miss Cecilia Logan, Bathurst. 1 doz. trout fish, Miss Annie Garret, Bathurst. 1 doz. salmon fish, Dr. Green, Boston. Picture "Salvator of Abraham," E. R. Wharton, New York. Child's jacket and hood, E. R. Wharton, New York, N. Y.

Permit to fish one week on Pocomoche River, near 1000 ft. Mrs. R. W. Edgell, Chatham, N. B. Smoking cap, Mrs. L. H. Melvin, Bathurst. Faith of our fathers, Miss W. Edgell, Bathurst.

China tea set, Miss Cecilia Logan, Bathurst. 1 doz. trout fish, Miss Annie Garret, Bathurst. 1 doz. salmon fish, Dr. Green, Boston. Picture "Salvator of Abraham," E. R. Wharton, New York. Child's jacket and hood, E. R. Wharton, New York, N. Y.

Permit to fish one week on Pocomoche River, near 1000 ft. Mrs. R. W. Edgell, Chatham, N. B. Smoking cap, Mrs. L. H. Melvin, Bathurst. Faith of our fathers, Miss W. Edgell, Bathurst.

China tea set, Miss Cecilia Logan, Bathurst. 1 doz. trout fish, Miss Annie Garret, Bathurst. 1 doz. salmon fish, Dr. Green, Boston. Picture "Salvator of Abraham," E. R. Wharton, New York. Child's jacket and hood, E. R. Wharton, New York, N. Y.

Permit to fish one week on Pocomoche River, near 1000 ft. Mrs. R. W. Edgell, Chatham, N. B. Smoking cap, Mrs. L. H. Melvin, Bathurst. Faith of our fathers, Miss W. Edgell, Bathurst.

China tea set, Miss Cecilia Logan, Bathurst. 1 doz. trout fish, Miss Annie Garret, Bathurst. 1 doz. salmon fish, Dr. Green, Boston. Picture "Salvator of Abraham," E. R. Wharton, New York. Child's jacket and hood, E. R. Wharton, New York, N. Y.

Permit to fish one week on Pocomoche River, near 1000 ft. Mrs. R. W. Edgell, Chatham, N. B. Smoking cap, Mrs. L. H. Melvin, Bathurst. Faith of our fathers, Miss W. Edgell, Bathurst.

China tea set, Miss Cecilia Logan, Bathurst. 1 doz. trout fish, Miss Annie Garret, Bathurst. 1 doz. salmon fish, Dr. Green, Boston. Picture "Salvator of Abraham," E. R. Wharton, New York. Child's jacket and hood, E. R. Wharton, New York, N. Y.

Permit to fish one week on Pocomoche River, near 1000 ft. Mrs. R. W. Edgell, Chatham, N. B. Smoking cap, Mrs. L. H. Melvin, Bathurst. Faith of our fathers, Miss W. Edgell, Bathurst.

China tea set, Miss Cecilia Logan, Bathurst. 1 doz. trout fish, Miss Annie Garret, Bathurst. 1 doz. salmon fish, Dr. Green, Boston. Picture "Salvator of Abraham," E. R. Wharton, New York. Child's jacket and hood, E. R. Wharton, New York, N. Y.

Permit to fish one week on Pocomoche River, near 1000 ft. Mrs. R. W. Edgell, Chatham, N. B. Smoking cap, Mrs. L. H. Melvin, Bathurst. Faith of our fathers, Miss W. Edgell, Bathurst.

China tea set, Miss Cecilia Logan, Bathurst. 1 doz. trout fish, Miss Annie Garret, Bathurst. 1 doz. salmon fish, Dr. Green, Boston. Picture "Salvator of Abraham," E. R. Wharton, New York. Child's jacket and hood, E. R. Wharton, New York, N. Y.

Permit to fish one week on Pocomoche River, near 1000 ft. Mrs. R. W. Edgell, Chatham, N. B. Smoking cap, Mrs. L. H. Melvin, Bathurst. Faith of our fathers, Miss W. Edgell, Bathurst.

China tea set, Miss Cecilia Logan, Bathurst. 1 doz. trout fish, Miss Annie Garret, Bathurst. 1 doz. salmon fish, Dr. Green, Boston. Picture "Salvator of Abraham," E. R. Wharton, New York. Child's jacket and hood, E. R. Wharton, New York, N. Y.

Permit to fish one week on Pocomoche River, near 1000 ft. Mrs. R. W. Edgell, Chatham, N. B. Smoking cap, Mrs. L. H. Melvin, Bathurst. Faith of our fathers, Miss W. Edgell, Bathurst.

China tea set, Miss Cecilia Logan, Bathurst. 1 doz. trout fish, Miss Annie Garret, Bathurst. 1 doz. salmon fish, Dr. Green, Boston. Picture "Salvator of Abraham," E. R. Wharton, New York. Child's jacket and hood, E. R. Wharton, New York, N. Y.

Permit to fish one week on Pocomoche River, near 1000 ft. Mrs. R. W. Edgell, Chatham, N. B. Smoking cap, Mrs. L. H. Melvin, Bathurst. Faith of our fathers, Miss W. Edgell, Bathurst.

China tea set, Miss Cecilia Logan, Bathurst. 1 doz. trout fish, Miss Annie Garret, Bathurst. 1 doz. salmon fish, Dr. Green, Boston. Picture "Salvator of Abraham," E. R. Wharton, New York. Child's jacket and hood, E. R. Wharton, New York, N. Y.

Permit to fish one week on Pocomoche River, near 1000 ft. Mrs. R. W. Edgell, Chatham, N. B. Smoking cap, Mrs. L. H. Melvin, Bathurst. Faith of our fathers, Miss W. Edgell, Bathurst.

China tea set, Miss Cecilia Logan, Bathurst. 1 doz. trout fish, Miss Annie Garret, Bathurst. 1 doz. salmon fish, Dr. Green, Boston. Picture "Salvator of Abraham," E. R. Wharton, New York. Child's jacket and hood, E. R. Wharton, New York, N. Y.

Permit to fish one week on Pocomoche River, near 1000 ft. Mrs. R. W. Edgell, Chatham, N. B. Smoking cap, Mrs. L. H. Melvin, Bathurst. Faith of our fathers, Miss W. Edgell, Bathurst.

China tea set, Miss Cecilia Logan, Bathurst. 1 doz. trout fish, Miss Annie Garret, Bathurst. 1 doz. salmon fish, Dr. Green, Boston. Picture "Salvator of Abraham," E. R. Wharton, New York. Child's jacket and hood, E. R. Wharton, New York, N. Y.

Permit to fish one week on Pocomoche River, near 1000 ft. Mrs. R. W. Edgell, Chatham, N. B. Smoking cap, Mrs. L. H. Melvin, Bathurst. Faith of our fathers, Miss W. Edgell, Bathurst.

China tea set, Miss Cecilia Logan, Bathurst. 1 doz. trout fish, Miss Annie Garret, Bathurst. 1 doz. salmon fish, Dr. Green, Boston. Picture "Salvator of Abraham," E. R. Wharton, New York. Child's jacket and hood, E. R. Wharton, New York, N. Y.

Permit to fish one week on Pocomoche River, near 1000 ft. Mrs. R. W. Edgell, Chatham, N. B. Smoking cap, Mrs. L. H. Melvin, Bathurst. Faith of our fathers, Miss W. Edgell, Bathurst.

China tea set, Miss Cecilia Logan, Bathurst. 1 doz. trout fish, Miss Annie Garret, Bathurst. 1 doz. salmon fish, Dr. Green, Boston. Picture "Salvator of Abraham," E. R. Wharton, New York. Child's jacket and hood, E. R. Wharton, New York, N. Y.

Permit to fish one week on Pocomoche River, near 1000 ft. Mrs. R. W. Edgell, Chatham, N. B. Smoking cap, Mrs. L. H. Melvin, Bathurst. Faith of our fathers, Miss W. Edgell, Bathurst.

China tea set, Miss Cecilia Logan, Bathurst. 1 doz. trout fish, Miss Annie Garret, Bathurst. 1 doz. salmon fish, Dr. Green, Boston. Picture "Salvator of Abraham," E. R. Wharton, New York. Child's jacket and hood, E. R. Wharton, New York, N. Y.

Permit to fish one week on Pocomoche River, near 1000 ft. Mrs. R. W. Edgell, Chatham, N. B. Smoking cap, Mrs. L. H. Melvin, Bathurst. Faith of our fathers, Miss W. Edgell, Bathurst.

China tea set, Miss Cecilia Logan, Bathurst. 1 doz. trout fish, Miss Annie Garret, Bathurst. 1 doz. salmon fish, Dr. Green, Boston. Picture "Salvator of Abraham," E. R. Wharton, New York. Child's jacket and hood, E. R. Wharton, New York, N. Y.

Permit to fish one week on Pocomoche River, near 1000 ft. Mrs. R. W. Edgell, Chatham, N. B. Smoking cap, Mrs. L. H. Melvin, Bathurst. Faith of our fathers, Miss W. Edgell, Bathurst.

China tea set, Miss Cecilia Logan, Bathurst. 1 doz. trout fish, Miss Annie Garret, Bathurst. 1 doz. salmon fish, Dr. Green, Boston. Picture "Salvator of Abraham," E. R. Wharton, New York. Child's jacket and hood, E. R. Wharton, New York, N. Y.

Permit to fish one week on Pocomoche River, near 1000 ft. Mrs. R. W. Edgell, Chatham, N. B. Smoking cap, Mrs. L. H. Melvin, Bathurst. Faith of our fathers, Miss W. Edgell, Bathurst.

China tea set, Miss Cecilia Logan, Bathurst. 1 doz. trout fish, Miss Annie Garret, Bathurst. 1 doz. salmon fish, Dr. Green, Boston. Picture "Salvator of Abraham," E. R. Wharton, New York. Child's jacket and hood, E. R. Wharton, New York, N. Y.

Washing Machine Company. Mr. Shupe, who appears to virtually constitute the whole company, is travelling agent and sells the machines at wholesale to dealers at $24 per dozen, taking in payment notes at $20 and 60 days. These notes are drawn in the front and right of the three feet. The black being filled in by the agent, the only addition being the words "this note is given for—dozen washing machines to be delivered on per agreement." The addition, as explained by Mr. Shupe is inserted to secure the purchaser against the disposal of the note until the machines are delivered. On behalf of the washing machine company Mr. Shupe gives the purchaser a document stating that the purchaser has been appointed an agent and will be supplied with machines at the rate of $24 per dozen; it being understood that he will keep the wholesale price at $20 a dozen and the retail price at $24 each. "We further agree," runs the agreement, "to take back at any time, on being notified, any machine unsold or going for repair, at manufacturers' prices, and if demanded will pay cash thereof." That of course is perfectly fair. It might even be called generous. But, as it always happens, serious misunderstandings arose over the matter. It is stated that the machine is an innocent looking combination of tin and india rubber, with a spiral spring, my flatterer testimonials, the four representing the manufacturer, the "company" of Wright & Co., iron manufacturers, of Newmarket, for 60 cents each. And that was the manufacturer's price intended to be refunded by Mr. Shupe, and that he was not to be paid for the machine until it was sold. The notes were disposed of, a large number being purchased by Mr. Thomas H. Kestell, who is stated to be a member of the notes had deceived themselves and were protesting that the truth was not in the agent. It was to be noted that he was not to be paid for the machine until it was sold. The notes were disposed of, a large number being purchased by Mr. Thomas H. Kestell, who is stated to be a member of the notes had deceived themselves and were protesting that the truth was not in the agent. It was to be noted that he was not to be paid for the machine until it was sold.

Consumption Cured. An old physician, retired from practice, having had placed in his hands by an East India missionary the formula of a simple vegetable remedy for the speedy and permanent cure of Consumption, Bronchitis, Catarrh, Asthma, and all the pulmonary affections, also a positive and radical cure for Nervous Debility, and all the Nervous Complaints, after having tested the wonderful curative powers in thousands of cases, has felt his duty to make known to his suffering fellow-men. Actuated by this motive and desire to relieve human suffering, he has prepared a full and complete prescription for preparing and using. Sent by mail by addressing with stamp, naming this paper, W. A. Taylor, 230 Power's Block, Rochester, N. Y.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria. When she became a Child, she cried for Castoria. When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria. When she became a Child, she cried for Castoria. When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria. When she became a Child, she cried for Castoria. When she had Children, she gave them Castoria

