JOY.
O Joy, hast thou a shape?
Hast thou a breath?
How sweet thou the soulless air?
Tell me the pillars of thy house?
What rest they on? Do they escape
The victory of Death?
And are they fair
Normally, who enter in thy house?
O Joy, how sweetest spirit, canst thou dare
To tell the pillars of thy house?

On adamant of pain,
Before the earth
Was born of sea, before the sea,
Yes, and before the light, my house
Was built. None know what loss, what gain,
Attends each mortal birth.
No soul could be
At once when it had entered in my house,
Which say the pillars of my house!

NOTES AND NEWS.
UNITED STATES.
An Indiana paper says girls should be taught that God made them in his own image, and that no amount of tight lacing will improve the model.

Mrs. Robinson of Skowhegan, Me., who, together with a little Varney girl, was so badly poisoned a week or two since by the inhalation of gas escaping from a coal stove, was stricken last week with total paralysis and cannot long survive.

The Chicago Tribune is alarmed at the spread of Communism. It says: "It is time that every State in the Union should go earnestly to work to prepare for the onset of the followers of Karl Marx, for they mean business, and in Berlin merely, but in New York and Chicago."

The will of the late John Hopkins was filed in Baltimore on Saturday. The entire estate will amount to $10,000,000, of which the university and the hospital founded by the deceased will get about $6,000,000, leaving $4,000,000 for the other legatees, who are almost exclusively individuals.

The N. Y. Produce Exchange is excited about a newly-developed "corner" in hard. There is something ludicrous (to others than losers) in the idea of cornering such slippery stuff during a January thaw. It seems that either the weather or something else has made it so warm for certain speculators that their hard margins all melted away.

A recent number of the New York Journal of Commerce contained the prices of gold for every day of the last year, a comparative table of prices of leading articles of produce for a number of years, and several columns of copper-mining changes. The Journal of Commerce is the greatest commercial paper in the world.

The second weekly number of the new volume of the Living Age, bearing date Jan'y 10th, comes to us with an elaborate and valuable article on the English Flaw, and reaching in general the Quarterly Review, and other valuable sections from standard English periodicals.

A Cincinnati lady writing from Washington, says: Boston draws herself up severely, scans your cerebral development through her eye-glasses, and coolly asks: "What do you know of New York?" Philadelphia, with prim hands and pursed-up lips, asks: "Who was your grandfather?" While Washington stops before the waltz and the german to inquire, "Can you dance?"

Law is a fine thing, and it is a sign of great firmness of character to "stand up for your rights" to the last gasp. In view of which truths we presume all Indians filled with admiration of those two New Albanians who are contesting the possession of a hog valued at $3.75. The case has had two trials, eight lawyers have rendered services, the jury have disagreed, the costs amount to $500 besides attorneys' fees; and the defendant disputants show no sign of wavering from their respective positions. We never did like obstinacy, but determination is a jewel.

Jacob Mitchell, a Russian sailor, who murdered U. S. Deputy Marshal Stephenson in Jersey City in July last, was hanged at Hudson County Jail yard Friday. After he had been suspended about three minutes, and while the body was being partially lowered the knot of the noose slipped out, and he fell heavily to the ground. In a minute the rope was readjusted and the body was again drawn up. The excitement was intense during the scene. This is the man who, while under sentence of death, threw his soup at a clergyman who went to his cell to afford him religious consolation.

GENERAL.
"Drunk for a penny; dead drunk for 2 pennies; straw for nothing."—London sign.

Mr. Onslow has written a letter to the Press explaining his connection with the Lulu witness in the Tichborne case, accused of perjury, and contradicting the charges made by the latter in his confession to a policeman.

"Mingled emotions that waltzed thro' the corridors of his soul" was what ailed a stylishly-dressed donkey at a party the other night, according to his own statement of his case. Narrow accommodations for a waltz, one must think.

The Chicago Inter-Ocean has gone into us of the Irishman's definition of salt, as being the "stuff that spots potatoes if they don't have any on." Money is the blessing that brightens as it takes its leave.

The Pope's encyclical was read in all the Roman Catholic churches of London on a recent Sunday, and by desire of Archbishop Manning the "faithful" were at the same time formally warned that those who dispute or deny the Definition of the Infallibility of the Roman Pontiff or impugn the decrees and dogmatized constitutions of the late Vatican Council incur the penalties attaching to the sin of heresy, and are in danger of being excommunicated.

The average modern belle is notoriously sensitive on the subject of age, but as old bell of the church of St. Andrew in London bears with brazen effrontery the date 1428, and is not at all flustered at being gazed at nearly four hundred and fifty years old. Why, even the old fifty would be a tender topic of conversation with modern London society and conform generally to the social customs of the country. She is the first Hindu lady to visit England, and is evidently possessed of a great strength of will, such indeed would be very necessary to enable her to undertake so unprecedented a course.

Madame Nilsson is quite as much of an artist in the domestic circle as she is upon the operatic stage. She has the most wonderful faculty of juggling, and herself with children. She will get down on the floor among them, enter into all their fun and frolic, and she will then precipitate them into ecstasies by whistling for them, and she whistles like a bird.

There is nothing she is fonder of than a good romp with a lot of lively children; she makes them all infatuated with her in less than five minutes, and she ticks up more noise than an eight-horse-power school girl.

Delays in Forwarding Mail.
To the Editor of the Tribune.
Complaints are not infrequently made of delays in forwarding Her Majesty's mails between this point and Shediac and vice versa. The distance from Shediac to Richibucto is thirty-eight miles, and the contract time allowed to travel that distance is seven hours. Her Majesty's mails are not infrequently delayed for a day and a half. The mail arrives at Shediac at 1.30 p. m. and should not be delayed longer than one hour, say until 2.30, to which add the time allowed for travelling to Richibucto, say five and a half hours, and we find the mail due at the latter place at eight o'clock, p. m. Allowances will give for bad roads, time lost at the Cocagne ferry, or crossing the river on the ice at the latter point, say in all the mail would occupy five and a half hours. The mail does not arrive at its destination till ten, not infrequently eleven, and often half past eleven p. m. When the mail is received at the Richibucto Post Office before ten o'clock the Postmaster will deliver it that evening; if after that hour business men must wait till the following morning for their letters and newspapers.

The principal cause of delay on the part of the contractor is believed to arise from his excessive desire to commence the date the travelling public to wit: by putting six or eight passengers with their baggage on a thirty-eight mile drive! It is alleged there is much time lost at Shediac in "packing and stowing" the baggage, and that the contractor's vehicle, hence the delay in arriving on time at Richibucto. I would suggest to the Hon. Post Office Inspector or the immediate superior of administrative to the contractor a "mild reproof" if that is possible.

A detective said that he called on the contractor and found that he had a sense of his duty as a public servant, and if possible to show Mr. Carpenter the difference between a mail contractor and mule carrier. The delays in reaching Shediac from Richibucto are not so annoying as those bound Northward. Your o'bt. svt., G. AHEAD.

Richibucto, N. B., Jan. 1874.

What is a Dress Coat.
There was a case before a Washington court the other day involving a very momentous question, but unfortunately for society and mankind in general that momentous question was not settled. A man was arrested for stealing a "dress coat," and it proved to be a "frock coat." Then arose the appalling problem, what is a dress coat? Witnesses were called who declared that your only dress coat was a garment of the peculiar order of architecture known as "claw-hammer," "swallow-tail," or "steep pet." The judge suggested that they were such as were worn by servants. A detective said that he called on the contractor and found that he had a sense of his duty as a public servant, and if possible to show Mr. Carpenter the difference between a mail contractor and mule carrier. The delays in reaching Shediac from Richibucto are not so annoying as those bound Northward. Your o'bt. svt., G. AHEAD.

J. L. STEWART, EDITOR.

TUESDAY EVENING, JAN. 18, 1874.

The only important paragraph in the Premier's address that was omitted from our Ottawa despatch is the following:

"We will strive to elevate the standard of public morality which our opponents have done so much to demoralize, and to conduct public affairs upon principles which honest men can approve and by practices which will bear the light of day."

Our readers have been prepared by our Ottawa correspondent for this promise "to elevate the standard of public morality," and we have chronicled many of the "salvaging" instances. For example, they have purchased Mr. Farrar as an election agent, and paid him with an Emigration agency; they have dismissed the Flour Inspector of Montreal to make a place for John Young, who had been dismissed for dishonesty; they have violated the constitutional provisions of Canada by appointing Ministers without portfolios; they have nullified every principle they professed in opposition; they have deliberately broken the solemn pledges they gave to the men whose change of policy enabled them to get into office; they have entered into a vast speculation and land speculation to secure the success of which the Canada Pacific Railway is to be located most disadvantageously for the country. The telegram to the Ottawa paper from which our correspondent got the Premier's address, and not the Premier himself, has the honor of coining "salvaging." Even the credit of this big word is not the Premier's! The canal system he refers to is that of the St. Lawrence, and he has simply to allow the works already begun to be carried to completion. The damns for widening and deepening them have already been adopted. The Election Law, the extension of the suffrage, and the establishment of a Court of Appeals were all included in the policy of the late Government, and there is no cause whatever for the Premier's address that the paper controlled by Hon. Isaac Burpee is trying to make out of them. We expect to see the Government forced to carry out in good faith the promised measures, and forced to modify their unjust Pacific Railway policy. If their ruinous Pacific Railway policy for the benefit of the public, they will build the Pacific railway through Premier Mackenzie's silver mines and lands on the shores of Lake Superior; increase Ontario's already ponderous Cabinet representation; make a clean sweep of the public office for the benefit of needy G. G. fathers of families like John Young; and buy up all the Farrars in the Opposition with Emigration agencies; but, if the election leaves them as it finds them, with nothing but a fair working majority, they will be forced to shape their policy in the interests of the people. Ontario will well increase the pledged majority of the Government, but New Brunswick cannot afford to do so.

Mark M. Pomeroy, editor of Pomeroy's Democrat, has just returned from Europe, and sends greeting to our brethren of the press - to those whose thumbs ache from handling the fearless scissors, and to those whose fingers are stained from the splashing ink.

This morning the Telegraph gave vent of those spasmodic exhibitions of meanness to which it has been subjected since it has been nominally owned by a disappointed candidate for office, who has only succeeded in reaching the position of the Justice of the Peace. It is announced that Mr. Jones the other day, and now it snarls and snaps at Mr. Palmer with all the bitter malice engendered by disappointment. Well, people must have something to laugh at.

A requisition in favor of Mr. Simon Jones was started a few days ago, but in obedience to an injunction from Mr. Burpee, the Government people engaged in promoting it suddenly brought the movement to a standstill, greatly to the chagrin of Mr. DeVeber and Mr. Jones's candidature. Then it was whispered that Mrs. Jones would be brought out as a candidate to run with Mr. Palmer. Last night some gentlemen who belong to the Government party got together and formally nominated Mr. DeVeber and Mr. Maher. Mr. Jones will probably refuse to run as a pledged supporter of the Government, especially after the treatment he has received at the hands of Mr. Burpee's friends.

A Grievance in a School District. To the Editor of the Tribune.

In the Superintendent and the Board of Education at liberty to do as they please whether it be right or wrong? Can they make an act in a few months break that act, and yet be right? If such be the case the sooner we have them removed and others instead I think the better for us in New Brunswick.

The present trouble with us and the Superintendent and Board of Education is about District No. 9 in St. John's Kings County. We had our District I suppose properly laid out, four miles or thereabouts, and when men of honor in office at our expense do a certain piece of parcel of work for once I always supposed to remain as done, but this has not been the case because we did not feel disposed to bill it as a house until we had the means to do so; and now I see they have divided the district. Part of it is annexed to No. 8, in Newtown, and the remaining part I don't know what district it may be annexed to. I think I am not acquainted with; and all this has been done in an under-hand, and at number and unbeknown to the district, except 3,000 out of a number of 18 or 19 rate-payers. Now, Mr. Editor, these are facts that we can prove, and are we bound to abide with such usage as this? If so, I think the sooner we leave the Dominion of Canada the better. Sir, please give this a place in your paper and answer the question if you can; and perhaps you may hear from us again. Yours, with respect, A. X. D.

To the Electors of the City and County of Saint John.

GENTLEMEN: At the request of a great number of you, I will appear as a candidate at the approaching election to represent you in the Dominion Parliament, and if elected I will continue my efforts to get justice for New Brunswick and have her put on an equal footing with her sister provinces. I think this Province requires a Marine Hospital, also annual grants of money to preserve and improve the harbors, and that the Government employes of every grade require to be put on the same footing as those in the other Provinces, and I pledge myself to endeavor to bring this about.

I think it the duty of all good citizens to support any Government that does not violate the law and the rights of the people, and therefore you must not expect me to oppose the present Government if their measures are good. I am sorry that they have announced no policy, as without any opinion will forward the same for your perusal. I am determined on the one hand not to follow any Government any further than I can approve of their measures, and on the other not to offer them any support to any measure that is not in the interest of the Province or the Dominion, and those only.

I think there is much danger of the interests of this Province being ignored and overruled by the larger Provinces, and when it is considered that Ontario now claims to advance her boundaries three hundred miles further west and thereby take a tract of valuable territory three hundred miles wide and six hundred miles long, containing in itself twice the area of this Province, and the only harbor belonging to the Dominion in Lake Superior, and which territory was bought with Dominion money; and Mr. Blake, who is in the Cabinet, has publicly announced that no stated number of Cabinet Ministers should be taken from each Province, but they should take the ablest men without reference to what Province they came from; and he has not proposed any means to determine who are the ablest men, except the vote of the majority. I think all thoughtful men will be afraid that the members from each Province will think their men are the ablest, and consequently the small Provinces will likely be very insufficiently represented. Having these views, let me frankly say to you that I will oppose with all the strength, and what little ability I possess, in every way that I think will be beneficial, this policy whether it emanates from the Government or Opposition.

In view of this situation I confidently ask you to rally to the support of the most able, liberal, and independent man in the present and last; upon your rights during the next five years, or I mistake the signs of the political atmosphere, and remember that it is not on a question for five years that are to exist. With this confidence in view, I ask each of you to disregard and put aside the advice of all cliques and busy-bodies who may be looking for office promotion or pay from the Government, or who on the other hand would be willing to sacrifice the interests of the country to satisfy their private purposes or to carry on some sectional or denominational line to a thoughtless man, wishing only to make a name for himself, and who is capable of being made, a place where persons of any country, class and creed may by honest industry earn a comfortable livelihood and attain a respectable position in society, and that the ablest men only at your own judgment decide as the ablest and best fitted to assert your rights. In the result of such a vote I will cheerfully concur. The past cannot be altered - whatever we may think the causes or men that brought it about, and therefore it is useless to attempt to recall it, but I think this country owes to itself that a most searching enquiry should be made into all the facts connected with what has been called the Pacific scandal and all matters connected therewith, including the letter testating at Montreal, compelling all parties connected with it on both sides to appear and be examined on oath, with reference thereto, before a proper tribunal, and that all parties to such an examination. This much I think is due to the actors in it, on both sides, so that a just judgement may be pronounced by the country and posterity on all such matters, after the whole facts are elicited. This I shall insist upon if elected. I respectfully ask you for a renewal thereof. I am, Yours obedient servant, A. L. PALMER.

The Carlton Accident.

An inquest was held by Coroner Robinson yesterday afternoon on the body of the man who was killed by the falling of the embankment near Clarke's mill. The name of the deceased was Harold Lunn, a native of Copenhagen, and he was only 21 years of age. He, with two or three others, was working in a trench, and had been cautioned about the dangers of his position by Mr. Clark. The earth fell up, but one leg. He was at once dug out, but was dead before the earth was removed. The jury returned a verdict in accordance with the facts of the case.

Mr. Joseph Neely of Carleton, had his leg and ankle broken, and was at once taken to the Public Hospital. His wife is left in destitute circumstances, and the jury directed the coroner to hand the amount of their fees to her.

PLANOPIANO TUNING - Mr. Carlo Flood has secured the services of Mr. C. E. Bourne, of Boston, a practical pianoforte tuner and repairer. His office is at the Warehouses, No. 75 Prince W. street. Will be attended to in the order received.

Leo's Opera House.

Last evening the performance of La moet on the horizontal bar was considered the best ever seen here. Miss Lamont, of the "Musical Melodist," excelled herself, and was loudly cheered. "Scenes on the Mississippi" concluded the performance. No one should miss seeing this piece, with its fine old "Pomp, active life, and other characters."

A late number of the St. John Morning News contains a lengthy article entitled "Fellows' Syrup of Hypophosphites." Mr. Fellows is certainly entitled to high credit for his energy and enterprise in working up his valuable discovery so successfully. It is a matter of course that in any community it is the duty of those who are engaged in such a course to be congratulated.

The St. John Telegraph and Journal says: "The invention of Fellows' Hypophosphites has become one of the valuable industries of the country, unique of its kind, and a credit to the Dominion of Canada."

Portland Town Council.

The Council met last evening, Council Stevens in the chair. A communication was received from Mr. Charles Drury offering for injuries caused by his horse and sled falling over the bridge at Indian-town. Referred. The question of licenses for coaches, &c., going business in Portland was discussed, and a scale of rates arranged, though Mr. Gilbert thought the best way would be to place a toll gate at Portland Bridge. Coun. Stevens gave notice that at the next meeting he would move for the preparation of a bill to go to the Legislature authorizing the issue of debentures, for the purpose of paving Main street from Portland Bridge to Indian-town. The proposed new street was discussed, and Mr. Skinner, Esq., stated that he would not cost more than $50. The matter was laid over until next meeting.

Coun. Robinson presented a plan for a public Park, consisting of 200 acres in Ward 4 which Mr. Charles Drury offered to go to the Town on condition that a road to it should be kept in repair, and the land adjoining the Park be relieved from Town taxes. Referred to a committee consisting of Couns. Fellows, Robinson, Hilyard and Stevens.

Shipping Notes.

The schooner A. G. Watson was taken up on the Marine Railway at Newport on the 7th inst., and a survey held. It was found that some part of the stem and forefoot was badly damaged and 20 feet of the keel damaged and split, the keel gone and some of the timbers started; vessel badly strained and will require recalking and refastening.

The schooner Edward Albro, Comman master, from Long Cay, Fortune Island, for Boston, before reported spoken in distress, put into Nassau on the 2nd inst. with loss of malmast, with sails and everything attached, and also leaking slightly, having experienced heavy weather on the 26th and 27th ult.

The brig Chief, of Halifax, Matheson master, from Cienfuegos for New York, with railway iron, put into Nassau on the 29th ult. leaking badly.

The brig Regina, of Halifax, Foster master, from St. Thomas for Turks Islands, to load salt for New Haven, sprung a leak and put into Nassau on the 15th ult. for repairs, where she was condemned by a board of survey and sold.

The bark Joseph Jones - On the 22nd ult. schooner Conch Pearl, Telegraph and Magnolia, and subsequently the Col. Whitfield, arrived at Nassau with ship's materials and old iron which they had saved from bark Jerome Jones, of Yarmouth, N. S. (before reported), which they found stranded on Cay Sal Reef and abandoned. The property was arrested as derelict. The bark was laden with coal, which was lost in consequence of the vessel going to pieces. A corpse was found on the rocks in a state of decomposition which the wreckers interred before leaving the spot.

Stranded and abandoned - On the 21st ult. the Assistant Resident Justice for the District of North End, L. I., reported for the information of the Admiralty that an abandoned vessel, said to be called the Honnd, of Halifax, N. S., had been found stranded, and in a very shattered condition, on a reef about 10 miles from North End. It appears that her cargo had consisted of barrels of pork, about 30 barrels of which had been saved in a damaged condition. The necessary proceedings in the Vice-Admiralty Court were immediately instituted.

Another Quick Run - The schooner Prairie Bird, Hjalmerstrom, master, which arrived at this port this morning from Providence, made the run in 60 hours.

Ocean Race - The race between the brigantines Elise, Lovgrove, master, and the Champion, Fanning, master, from Halifax to Mayaguez, P. R., is likely to be disputed, there being no perceptible difference between the two. Both vessels sailed from Halifax on the 10th ult., and arrived at their destination in the same order. The only way to settle the dispute will be to run the race over again.

Quick Passage - The brigantine Elise, Lovgrove, master, which arrived at Halifax on the 10th inst., has made the round voyage in 31 days, including 8 days detention in port. The brigantine Champion, Fanning, master, made the round trip from Mayaguez to Halifax and return in 28 days.

The brigantine Premier, Wilson master, which arrived at Halifax on the 10th inst., from Demerara, made the run in 15 days; and the brigantine Comrade, Doane master, which arrived at the same port on the 11th inst., made the same trip in 16 days.

Revered for gallant services - The Dominion Government has received from Her Majesty's Government a chronometer, which has been awarded by the President of the United States to Capt. John Cook, of the schr. Annie Brown, of Harbourville, Cornwallis, for saving the lives of the crew of the American schr. Ravenswing on the 18th Dec., 1872.

The Cadets of Temperance and Governor Tilley.

Last evening at 7 o'clock the lecture room of Calvin Church was well filled with young and old. The Cadets of Temperance were in the fore, attended by their officers. The Carlton and Portland sections were represented, as well as those of the city. The Lt. Governor arrived a few minutes after seven, and was welcomed by the cadets, who sang one of their odes. The Rev. Mr. Maggs offered prayer, after which Mr. Hawker, the Grand Patron, read an address to Governor Tilley. It referred to his past connection with the cadets, his life-long support of temperance principles, and closed with good wishes for himself and family. His Honor replied to the address, speaking of his own work with the cadets, or rather the Cold Water Army of Portland, and the pleasure it gave him to receive the address in presence of so many belonging to the order. Short addresses were delivered by W. H. A. Keane and Samuel Tufts, and the Cadets sang "God Save the Queen." The Cadets formed in double line outside the door and greeted His Honor with three cheers as he passed through.

AYR'S CURRY PROTESTAL - The world's great remedy for Coughs, Colds, Croup, and all affections of the Lungs and Throat.

John McParland was charged with drunkenness in Water street, and also with kicking over the apple stand of Mrs. Crooks. He confessed the charge of drunkenness, but in the matter of the apple stand he was oblivious. The owner of the stand wanted pay for the broken bottles and damaged goods, but he had no money to settle the bill. The Magistrate fined him $8 or two months in the penitentiary.

Wm. Webb went to Sheffield street, where he was caught in a web and got drunk. The result this morning was a fine of $6.

Thomas Doran, John Taylor, two able bodied men, went for protection. They said they were travellers from Bangor, from the magistrata was driven, and they were sent about their business.

John Williams was arrested on information of Dr. Peters of Carleton, charged with stealing a fur cap from his office. Williams was a patient of the Doctor and called at his office while the Doctor was at dinner. Being of an inquisitive turn of mind he surveyed the premises, and seeing a fur cap that fitted him, quietly appropriated it to himself. He was arrested with the cap on his head, and the evidence of the Doctor being conclusive, he was sent to the Penitentiary for three months.

Julia Maxwell is charged with using abusive language to Kerk. The case will come up this afternoon. These are the two women who accuse each other of aiding and abetting young McCarthy in stealing money.
