She reports she landed Prof. Aubrey Battege, the ornithologist, and one companion on Kolequer Island, 100 miles from the Russian coast, on June 2. She was obliged to abandon them on account of heavy seas and ice, which threatened the destruction of the yacht. It is hoped they will be rascued by the next Russian gunboat that visits the Elgin.

"The Old Lady's" Gold. LONDON, Aug. 23 .- The bank return of today beats all the records. The reserve is nearly £81,000,000 and the coin and bullion £39,597,400, an increase for the week of £793,000. Of this £483,000 was gold imported, and the rest was from home; £104,-000 came from Australia, £7,000 from Paris, and the remainder was bars bought. It is believed that very little gold will leave here this autumn. The speculative markets were better today, especially for Americans.

China and Japan. LONDON, Aug. 23,-The Central News has a report from Shanghai to the effect that the Japanese Government has declared rice to be not included among the list of contraband of war. The attempt of the Chinese Governors to float a loan of 1,000,-000 taels, to be guaranteed by Chinese merchants, has proved a flat failure. The American consul at Shanghai has ordered the Japanese living in that city to discard the Chinese costume, and advised a majority of them to return to their native

Mr. Otori, the Japanese Minister at Seoul, is reported to have been killed.

Ireland's Tenant System. London, Aug. 24 .- The report of the Irish Land Commission was issued today. The commission says that the evidence before them showed that the Irish rents fixed by the courts between 1881 and 1885 are now materially excessive. The present Wm. Marshall, going to Portland, Oregon, system appears to seriously impede the administration of justice to the tenants, owing to expense and delays. The courts generally have denied the tenant a share in the value of his improvements. The commission recommends that the occupant be no longer compelled to pay rent on his improvements. All of these ought to be regarded as made by him unless the contrary be proved. It is urged that a commission be appointed at the next session of Parliament to inquire further into the sub-

The minority report admits the desirability of lessening the expense of litigation and revising rents in Ireland, but contends that in fixing judicial rents the act has been construed in the tenants' favor.

Untimely Demise of Hon. Christopher F. Fraser,

The ex-Minister of Public Works for Ontario.

Death Due to Heart Failure-Had Just Returned From a Trip-The Discovery.

Toronto, Aug. 24 .- Hon. Christopher Findley Fraser, ex-Commissioner of Public Works for Ontario, was found dead early this morning in his room at the Parliament buildings. Mr. Fraser had been in poor health for some time. Many telegrams to his relatives and political friends were dispatched this morning notifying them of the ex-Minister's death.

At 2 o'clock this morning Mr. Fraser and Dr. Chamberlain, inspector of prisons, asylums and hospitals for Ontario, returned to the city after an absence of a month on their summer route, as is is called, attending to their duties, Mr. Fraser looking after the registry offices and the doctor after his charges. At the station Mr. Fraser complained of being tired and Dr. Chamberlain accompanied him as far as the Parliament buildings. At 6 o'clock the night watchman took the morning papers to Mr. Fraser's room, according to his custom. He found the door closed, but the gas was burning brightly. Not hearing anyone moving inside, the watchman entered and found the ex-Minister lying dead in the lavatory adjoining his room. He had not retired. His coat and vest were lying on the bed, and it was evident that death had taken place not long after he had arrived home. A medical examination showed that death was due to the failure of the heart to perform its functions

No arrangement has been made for the funeral and nothing definite will be known until tomorrow morning. It is thought, however, that the body will lie in state in the Assembly Chamber for a day or two, and that the remains will then be transported to Brockville for interment.

It is thought that Mr. Fraser had been seized with a fainting fit similar to the one he had taken in the chamber during the last few weeks of his rule as Minister of Public Works, and had fallen over on his side, while in this position his heart failed him and death occurred in a few minutes.

For nearly 50 years this wonderful remedy has proved itself the best, quickest, safest and surest antidote for pain in the world. THE TRUE RELIEF

RADWAY'S READY RELIEF is safe, re RADWAY'S READY RELIEF is safe, re-liable and effectual because of the stimulating action which it exerts over the nerves and vital powers of the body, adding tone to the one and inciting to renewed and increased vigor the slumbering vitality of the physical structure, and through this healthful stimula-tion and increased action the cause of the PAIN is driven away and a natural condition PAIN is driven away and a natural condition restored. It is thus that the READY RELIEF is so admirably adapted for the CURE OF PAIN and without the risk of injury which is sure to result from the use of many of the so-called pain remedies of the day. In using medicines to stop pain we should avoid such as inflict injury on the system. Opium, Morphine, Ether, Cocaine and Chloral opium, Morphine, Ether, Cocaine and Chioral stop pain by destroying the sense of perception, when the patient loses the power of feeling, This is the most destructive practice: it masks the syptoms, shuts up, and instead offremoving trouble, breaks down the stomach, liver and bowels, and, if continued for a length of time, kills the nerves and produces local or general paralysis

KOCH'S LATEST FIND.

A Sure Cure for Diphtheria-Important Announcement by Dr. Edson.

New York, Aug. 24.—At a session of the State Board of Realth yesterday Dr. Cyrus A. Edson gave an account of the theory and practical application of Dr. Koch's last discovery, which he considers an absolute and infallible cure for diphtheria if applied within 36 hours after infection. It was the purpose of the health department, Dr. Edson announced, to ask from the board of estimate and apportionment a sufficient appropriation to establish a plant for the Summer Visitors in London and Lonproduction of this infallible specific, which otherwise would be too costly to be within the means of poor people. Dr. Edson asserted confidently that if the remedy was placed in the hands of the health department it would save annually the lives of 1,500 people in this city.

A Tremendous Lock-Out. FALL RIVER, Mass., Aug. 24.-Last night marked the commencement of the greatest lock-out of textile operatives ever known in one center in America. Thirty-four mills, employing 21,950 hands, with a weekly pay roll of $135,475, are idle. During this lockout the weavers will receive no assistance from their union, as they voted to dispense with benefits by voting to take a vacation. Whether the spinners will receive benefits will be determined at a meeting to be held next Monday night. The manufacturers by shutting down will avoid the necessity of supporting these mills that were compelled to shut down on account of the strike of the weavers.

Mr. Laurier and the Bagpipes. Today I come to address you, although I am of another race than yourselves, because it has been the will of Providence to gather new elements here in this country of ours out of which to make a new nation; because, in the words of the late Alexander Mackenzie, here on the 45th degree of latitude there is to be a new nation built up. (Applause.) But, if I may express a preference, my heart throbbed when I stepped upon your platform from the train and heard the sound of the bagpipes. Not because I am of Scottish origin, nor because it brought to my memory the scent of the heather, nor because it has been heard on all the battle fields of the world; but because, when a boy, I was sent by my father-a thing I bless him for-to an English school, where most of the scholars were Scotch. I could not speak English, and the boys could not speak French, nor could the lassies speak French, which was worse for me. (Laughter.) But the boys could do what boys can always do; they could fight, and so the battle of Waterloo was fought over and over again. Those boys have grown to men; but they have not forgotten those days, and I am glad to count them among my best friends. (Applause.) - [Hon. Wilfrid Laurier at Brampton.

EACH CLAIMED HER AS WIFE. Recorder Emyth Settles the Strange

Dispute of the Brothers Doran. New York, Aug. 23 .- In Part I. of the Court of General Sessions yesterday, Recorder Smyth settled the discussion between the two brothers, Francis A. and John F. Doran, as to which one was the husband of Mrs. Rosa Doran by deciding she was the lawful wife of Francis. The young couple went out arm in arm, their faces wreathed in smiles, while John, who was complainant in the case, looked as glum as a tombstone.

Rosa was married years ago to a Swede named Peters, who left her shortly after their wedding. After waiting six years for him to return she received notice that he was dead. Then she married John F. Doran. They had been married about six months when Peters turned up and laid claim to his wife, and John, who, it appears, was tired of marital bliss for the time being, said: "Well, if you're married to him I'm free."

In about a year the Swede really died, and after seeing him properly buried Rosa, who believed that her marriage with John F. was invalid, became the wife of Francis. As soon as he heard of this John, who had again changed his mind, claimed Rosa as his wife, and when she refused to go with him he procured an indictment for bigamy against her and one for unlawful marriage against his brother. CURED TO STAY.

Dr. E. A. Rose Disappoints the Doubt ers-He Once Had Diabetes, But Has It No More-Attending to His Big Practice.

PORTLAND, Ont., Aug. 20 .- The account which appeared in many Canadian papers a few months ago of Dr. E. A. Rose having been cured of diabetes by Dodd's Kidney Pills, attracted widespread attention at the time. Many doubters, though, protested that the cure was not a permanent one. The best proof that these doubters were wrong is the fact that for a year back, Dr. Rose has been attending to his practice, which was always a large one, in this village and the surrounding country, and has never had any return of the disease. His health is first-class, and the doctor is not compelled to take any of the precautionons as to diet or otherwise, that are always ordered for people threatened or troubled with dia-

Porte was in the chair, and the directors in attendance were: Col. Leys, A. Bogue, J. Kennedy, C. Trebilcock, G. Taylor, Ald. J. W. Jones, Ald. Thomas Jones, D. McKenzie, Col. Lewis, Ald. J. Nutkins, Wm. Moore, J. S. Pearce, Wm. Yates, Secretary Browne and Supt. Hook.

COL. LEYS AND THE W. C. T. U. Col. Leys drew the board's attention to a report of a previous meeting published in the Free Press, in which he was made to reflect adversely on the quality of meals supplied at the W. C. T. U. dining hall at fair time. He showed that the report was garbled and incorrect, and that the matter was not before the board as business at the time, and was not being discussed as such when notes were taken of it. He had said that what was needed was a place like a restaurant, where a steak or a chop could be ordered at will. He did not say that the dining hall was unfit to go into, but was unfit for the purposes that the board

Capt. Porte bore Mr. Leys out in this statement, and ex-Mayor Taylor characterized the report as abusive and unjust.

Mr. Wm. Moore said that Col. Leys had not said or meant what had been attributed to him. He then moved the following resolution, which Mr. Trebilcock seconded-it was carried unanimously: 'That the directors of the Western Fair Board have noticed with regret a report in the Free Press proceedings of our last meeting which is entirely incorrect so far as relates to Col. Leys and the W. C. T. U., and that a copy of this resolution be forwarded to Miss Ella Cosford, secretary of the London W. C. T. U."

MAY USE THE TRACK. Mayor Essery and Ald. Parnell were present to try to induce the directors to alter their decision not to allow hose reel racing on the track at Queen's Park on Labor Day. They were assisted by Ald. Thomas Jones, Ald. J. W. Jones and Ald. Nutkins around the board.

President Ports explained that on the first application permission had been given to use the track, but when they heard there was going to be hose reel races they had refused to allow them. This was done because of the represented weight of the hose carried and of the sharp turn which would be made on the track, cutting the clay

The mayor said that the Fair Board should do all they could to encourage large crowds to visit the city. It was not meant, when the grounds were leased to the company, that such requests from citizens should be denied. The track could not very well be cut up any worse than it was. After a further explanation from Capt. Porte, and after Ald. J. W. Jones (an exfireman and an authority) had stated that it would not be necessary to turn on the track, and that only 400 or 500 pounds of hose would be carried, a resolution was moved by Mr. George Taylor and seconded by Mr. Wm. Yates, granting the use of the track for hose reel purposes. This was not to be considered as a precedent, however, and was allowed on the understanding that any damage would be made good by the city. As the mayor had retired Ald.

Paraell returned thanks so the board. With reference to this matter Secretary Browne explained that there was nothing personal between himself and the labor party or Mr. Johaston. The board had refused to let the grocerymen use the track for grocery wagons, and had acted similarly with the soameters. They merely meant to treat all alike.

SIR JOHN GORST, M.P.

Before the above question had been settled Mayor Essery brought in Sir John Gorst and that gentleman was introduced to the directors. He then took a chair and for a few minutes indulged in a disultory conversation with President Porte. Sir John said that the city was much more beautiful to live in than the old city of London across the water. The houses were nicely arranged and everybody seemed thriving and prosperous, a state they did not always enjoy in old London. After expressing his pleasure at meeting the directors, and stating that he would return to Montreal that night, Sir John withdrew.

NOTES. H. F. Colwell, judge of Ayrshire sheep, wrote saying that he did not feel able to judge alone, and the board will grant him what assistance it can.

The musical instrument exhibitors of the city asked to be allowed five passes with each exhibit. This was considered too many, and the communication was filed. C. E. Keene's request for passes for the members of the free library board was referred to the executive.

Lesson of the Tunnel.

Up in the western part of the Province the Grand Trunk Railway had spent an immense sum of money building a tunnel connecting this country with the United States and facilitating trade between them. But after the tunnel was completed the Governments put a customs officer at each end of it to tax the trade which it was built to increase. If trade was such a bad thing that it should be impeded and stopped. why not blow up the tunnel? The fact was that trade was mutually profitable. Canada gets a profit and so does the United States, or else it would not be done. That being he case, why should it be impeded, and why should it not be facilitated and increased? The Liberals believe it should,

and that is the policy of the Liberal party.

A sad case was brought to light Wednesday morning through a complaint made by License Inspector Pacaud against Peter Herbert, a Sandwich East saloon keeper. Herbert is charged with repeated disobeying the Liquor Act, demanding that liquors shall not be sold to a person known to be a drunkard, and by continuing selling liquor to Dr. Fournier, an aged physician, who holds a position of trust among the people. The doctor is the only physician in the district, and has been quite wealthy and influential. He became addicted to the use of liquor, and although saloon keepers have been notified to refuse, he still seems successful in getting the forbidden drink. The case is particularly sad, because of the social standing of the aged practitioner. HURON.

The two powders are somewhat similar in color and were on the same shelf in parcels that resembled each other, and thus the mistake occurred. London, Friday, August 24. DEATH OF AN HONORED ONTARIO

STATESMAN. The sad intelligence of the sudden death of Hon. C. F. Fraser, chief of the Forestry Department, and ex-Minister of Public Works for Ontario, which is contained in our telegrams to-day, will be read with regret by very many readers of the ADVERTISER throughout the Province. For the long period of 22 years the honorable gentleman sat as a member of the Ontario Legislature, and for 21 years of that period, until ill-health compelled his resignation just before last general election, he occupied a position as Minister of the Crown,

his death, but his public career was a long circumstances in the place which for so many years returned him to the Legislature, being the son of Mr. J. S. Fraser, of that town. In early life he was apprenticed to the printing business, and while so serving managed, by earnest study after work hours, to materially add to his stock of learning. He had a decided leaning for the law, and after passing the usual examinations he was admitted to the bar of Upper Canada at Trinity term, 1865, Nine years afterwards, his eminence in the profession brought him the honor of Q.C., and his fellow practitioners expressed their confidence in him by selecting him as a bencher of the Law Society of the Province in 1876. He was first returned to the | Legislature, already Legislature as member for South Grenville in 1872. By 1873, his talent as a public speaker and his marked executive ability secured for him a position in the Government. He was Provincial Secretary and Registrar for a short time, but in April, 1874, he was appointed Commissioner of Public Works-an office which he held up to the time of his resignation last spring. During all the intervening period, sometimes by acclamation, sometimes after a contest, his fellow-citizens in Brockville continued to elect him as their of asbestos. representative.

never enjoyed very robust, health-indeed, sickness compelled him to retire from the Government a short time since-but he never permitted his personal troubles to interfere with the due discharge of his public duties. He was a model head of a department. Scrupulously honest and fair, the public knew that while the contractor doing business for the Frovince would get his due, he would get no more from Mr. Fraser. A characteristic instance of the manner in which he performed his important duties came under the notice of the writer while the new Legislative Buildings were being constructed. Some busybody set the story going that in the purchase of certain supplies a political friend of the honorable gentleman was being favored. A prominent Toronto merchant, who was also a tenderer, immediately called on Mr. Fraser, and frankly repeated the story. "Rely upon it," said Mr. Fraser, with emphasis, "that all such stories are untrue. In public business I have no favorites. If you are the lowest responsible tenderer you will get the work, and you will be held to your contract. The same rule applies to all others." In this frank reply, there was no cant.

While he held office Mr. Fraser was responsible for the proper expenditure of many millions of dollars, but it was never every cent of the appropriated funds had not been properly applied. Once, outside the House, an Opposition member insinuated that Mr. Fraser was a corrupt administrator. No sooner had the Legislalature assembled, however, than Mr. Fraser promptly took up the gauntlet thus thrown down and challenged his accuser to make his charge good, or unconditionally withdraw it. Needless to say, it was withdrawn with promptitude. How many if there had been as scrupulous determination to protect the public from robbery by way of the Public Works Department at Ottawa as has been exemplified by Mr. Fraser and his associates !

Some people there were who had a dislike to the deceased because of his sturdy adherence to the church of his fathers. For ourselves, we have always held that it is of little consequence where a public man worships his Maker, provided he is a scrupulously honest administrator, and a believer in and supporter of the golden rule. In these respects, the deceased statesman had an unexceptional record. His death removes from Ontario a man who did much to build up his native Province, and who, in his official career set an example of probity and industry to young Canadians that they may well strive to

-The Hamilton Herald complains that Hon. Mr. Laurier is not indulging in kissing as freely as he might on his present trip. All in good time, Mr. Bachelor. PUBLIC SCHOOL OPENING.

The city schools open on Monday next. reachers and children have enjoyed abundance of holidays, and it is to be hoped that the health-giving relaxation will nerve all to attend at once and get down to work with a will. While it is best that classes should be formed promptly, and systematic study aranged for, parents as well as teachers should counsel pupils to and for the surface of the body to get cool; greater thoroughness in work and less taken then, the bath is more likely to hurry. In education as in everything else, it is too often true that "the more hurry the less speed." A prominent educationist tells us that in the last promotion examination, many of the pupils either failed, or made a poor showing, because of hurrying through with their work. Indeed the difficulty of restraining this undue hurry, which on this continent seems to be continued into adult life, is one of the greatest trials that the teacher meets with. Deceased was only 55 years of age at Good work first, speed afterwards, should be the rule both in the schools and out of and eventful one. He was born in humble them. In this connection the declaration of the Dominion Medical Association, at present in session in St. John, N. B., is noteworthy: "That the system of education in force in the Dominion draws too largely upon the brain tissue of children, and materially injures their mental and bodily health."

> -Mr. Davidson, the leader of the Conservative Opposition in the Manitoba Legislature, was defeated in the bye-election for Beautiful Plains yesterday by Mr. Forsyth. The Patron candidate was successful, there being no regular Liberal nominee in the field. In Brandon City Charles Adams, Liberal, was elected by a majority of 180 over Mr. Cliff, the Conservative nominee. The result is regarded as very disappointing to the Conservative Opposition in the (Hamilton Spectator, Conservative.) The times are hard. Many people are out of work. Economy is the order of the day. Salaries are being cut down right and left, and everybody tries to get along with as little paid help as possible. Necessary public works in the city have been aban-doned because of the lack of funds.

HAMILTON UNDER THE "N. P."

A TWO-MILLION-DOLLAR COMMA. "Oh, punctuation marks are not of much account. They're just put in for looks. don't want to bother about them." Such are the sentiments of a good many schoolboys with regard to the branch of letter and composition writing. Others, again, appear to think that all that is necessary is to put in a comma here and there at haphazard to set off the "looks of the thing." How risky that way of doing things is may be learned from the following incident: It seems that some twenty years ago, when the United States, by Congress, was making a tariff bill, one of the sections enumerated what articles should be admitted free of duty. Among the articles specified were "all foreign fruit-plants," etc., meaning plants imported for transplanting, propagation or experiment.

The enrolling clerk in copying the bill alleged on the floor of the House that accidentally changed the hyphen in the compound word "fruit-plants" to a comma, making it read, "all foreign fruit, plante," etc. As a result of this simple mistake, for a year, or until Congress could remedy the blunder, all the oranges, lemons, bananas, grapes and other foreign fruits were admitted free of duty. This little mistake, which anyone would be liable to make, yet could have avoided by carefulness, cost the Government not less than $2,000,000. A

M. Berthelot, the French chemist who is generally conceded to stand at the head of his profession, is engaged with experiments which he expects will result in the production of bone fide milk from chemicals-even milk upon which cream will rise. The constituents of milk, olein, butyrine, stearine and other chemical compounds, are known, and the trick is to make them combine as nature has put them together. The success of the chemists in producing artificial butter that is about as good as the old-fashioned kind, and considerably cheaper, is an indication of the probability that M. Berthelot's line of investigation will be of great profit to the world some of these days. He entertains the belief that all of the world's food eventually will be made in a drug store.

The London Medical Journal combats the popular notion of the injurious effect of a cold bath taken when one is overheated by exercise-an idea falsified by the experience of athletes from the days of the Greeks and Romans even until now, who find in this procedure a refreshing and stimulat ing tonic after the exertion they have recently undergone. Physiologically speak. ing, too, according to this writer, a cold plunge or douche taken immediately after the physical effort, when the skin is acting freely and there is a sense of heat throughout the body, is as rational as in the experience of the athlete it is beneficial—is paralleled, in fact, by the tonic effect produced by the cold plunge when the skin is actively secreting after a Turkish bath, and finds its rationale doubtless in stimulating the nervous system, in the increase of in ternal circulation, and also in the renewal of activity to the cutaneous circulation after the momentary contraction of bloodvessels due to the cold. The popular be lief presumably rests on the injurious effects which may be induced by the bath in one who does not resort to it immediately, but allows time for the effects of fatigue to show themselves on the muscles and nerves depress than to stimulate, there is less power of reaction and greater liability to internal inflammation—a warm bath rather than a cold one, at such a time, being more suitable and more safe.

The additional details of Dr. Tortchinsky's method of treating typhoid fever with boric acid as given in the medical journals, show some remarkable results. The most striking effects of the acid appear to have been obtained in cases which came under treatment in the initial periods of the affection. It was further found that the beneficial action of the remedy could be intensified by combining it with small doses, say from two to five grains, of antifebrin, quinine, naphthalin or salol, the combination with quinine proving especially useful in late stages of typhoid, with tremor, delirium, and other cerebral symptoms, as well as in the cases of relapses. As no untoward accessory effects from the acid have ever been observed, the pinion is expressed that this method is the cheapest, simplest, most harmless and most efficacious of all yet known. Of course, as soon as the general improvement sets in, the acid is discontinued and tonics are given.

If the view taken by Dr. Pollitzer of the character of prickly heat be correct, namely that it develops on a skin soaked in perspiration and insufficiently supplied with fat, there would seem to be at hand a means of preventing the occurrence of the rash in those who are subject to it. He has consequently advised a number of patients who suffer every summer from prickly heat to anoint the usually affected regions with a fat, after the morning bath -the fat recommended being for obvious reasons lanolin, with the addition of a little almond oil; the operation is of course only a prophylactic measure, not to be continued if the rash develop. Dr. Pollitzer remarks that such treatment will probably throw still more work on the sweat glands, for, as has recently been shown, the diffusion of vapor of water-the insensible perspiration-is diminished through a horny layer impregnated with fat, though with ratulent sweat ducts this circumstance should not produce prickly heat. After the rash has appeared, the best treatment is, of course, a drying application, especially powder, and the avoidance of everything likely to produce sweating.

The advantages to be derived from absolute rest in bed in nervous disease, and particularly hysteria, are urged by Dr. Guy Hinsdale, in one of his lectures on that ailment. He says that by going to hed in earnest and under no pretext walking about the room, not even sitting up, and in some cases not even feeding herself, the patient realizes that a new era has begun in her life history, the result being that the opportunity to feed herself is highly appreciated when the permission is given. say after a fortnight or more of denial. In pursuing this system she sits up a few minutes each day at the end of a month or so-the time is lightened-and at the end of two months, perhaps, she is allowed to sit in a chair; every added privilege is appreciated as never before-liberty never seemed such a boon-like the hunger, indeed, of a convalescent from typhoid fever. In a word, the whole aim of life, if the system has been successfully maintained, is now to cupy a sphere that before seemed impossible to attain.

Deliberate Suicide of a Well-Known Hamilton Shoemaker. HAMILTON, Aug. 23 .- D. H. Gould, who kept a shee store on James street, near Robert street, committed suicide at noon today by putting his mouth over a gas jet and inhaling the gas. When discovered

Gould was too far gone to be resuscitated. The deceased was about 60 years old, and had lived in Hamilton for many years, having been engaged in the confectionery business as well as in the boot and shoe trade, and was reputed to be very wealthy. No reason can be assigned for Gould's rash act, and it is generally believed he was suffering from mental aberration at the time. He leaves a widow and one son.

victors, they have put up during the season far poorer games than either of the other three. Though we do not grudge them their position at the top rung of the ladder, we are assured that today the Galt nine plays superior ball than the winners of the eague contest."

Of course, of course. The Galt team is the best in the league. The poor fellows had a streak of hard luck and while they were looking at the streak the other fellows legged it round the bases and won the games. It is really too bad. If there was a prize in this business for the team that could play the best ball with their mouths, Galt would have a dead cinch on it. But while the present manifestly unfair method of giving the pennant to the team that wins the most games is in vogue, you will find Galt a petty llitte enarler, near the bottom of the ladder. By the way, the Reformer might with more decency and greater efficaciousness direct its gas pipe towards the Galt players and induce them to refrain from fication of spectators who paid to see them slug the ball.—[Guelph Herald.

CREAT DAY FOR NIPISSING.

North Bay Arrays Itself in Holiday Dress.

Immense Crowds Gather to Welcome the Liberal Leader and Hig Alds.

NORTH BAY, Ont., Aug. 23.—Today has been a great one for Nipissing. For the first time in its history one of the great political leaders has honored it with a personal visit, and people have turned out en masse. Conservatives and Reformers to make the thriving town of North Bay appear at its best. From all points crowds have poured in until accommodation has been well-nigh exhausted. The Liberal party, while hardly vain enough to take all the credit to themselves, can at least boast the lion share of it.

The Laurier party arrived by the early morning train and were aroused about 9 o'clock. A large crowd was at the station to meet them, including, among other well known men, Mr. Loughrin, M.P.P., Mr. Kinsella, Mayor Bunyan, Mr. O'Connor, of Sudbury, Mr. Mich and Mr. Carmicael, of Pawassanen.

After breakfast at the Pacific, Mr. Laurier was escorted to the town hall, where an address was read by Mayor Bunyan on behalf of the council. The hall was rowded during the reading of the address, pleasant visit.

Mr. Laurier's reply was exceedingly well received.

Then an informal reception was held. About 1 o'clock the crowd wended their way to the Palace Rink, which was filled with an audience which, as Mr. Laurier was pleased to say, could be excelled by none in appreciation and warmth of recep-

Mr. McKenzie, president of the North Bay Reform Association, presided, and after a few introductory remarks, called on Mr. Loughrin, Mr. Levesque and Mr. Marray, who each in brief speeches welcomed Mr. Laurier. Mr. Fisher then spoke briefly, followed by Mr. Gibson, who showed the great desire for a change of Government.

Mr. Laurier began his address shortly after, and was greeted with an ovation. Throughout the course of his remarks the sympathy of the crowd was evidently with him. He dealt mainly on the question of reciprocity and the Franchise Act, and spoke elequently on the advantages and the desirability of free trade with the

Mr. Mulock and Mr. Choquette followed, and were well received. Both will be welcomed in case they should return. The meeting broke up with the band playing "God Save the Queen" and cheers for Mr. Laurier. The party left at 8 p.m. tonight for Mattawa.

MR. MASSIE'S MISTAKE.

Let Out Three Prisoners Who Were Not Pardoned.

TORONTO, Aug. 23 .- Early this month four prisoners in the Central Prison were awaiting pardons. They were convicted of larceny, and each had a couple of months to serve. The men were Geo. Swartz, of Walkerton: Alex. Nardeau, of Toronto, have vied with each other in their efforts John Sullivan, of Hamilton, and Wm.

Norris, of Toronto. On Aug. 7 Warden Massie received from the Department of Justice official papers, one of which was a pardon for Norris. With a glance at the other papers he saw the names of the other prisoners, and thinking they were pardons also, ordered the men to be supplied with the customary clothing and liberty.

Norris was the only one pardoned, it seems, and the document stated that the Minister could not recommend clemency in the other cases. Warden Massie then proceeded to hunt up the men, and George Swartz was arrested in Walkerton, but the other two have not been caught.

The Banana as a Food.

The banana is a fruit that possesses wonwhich, in a non-political way, warmly fully appreciated; yet years ago, in the cipient of many beautiful bouquets of welcomed Mr. Laurier and wished him a warm countries where it flourishes, it was thought of so lightly that it was allowed to waste if not eaten by the cattle. It is true the plant itself was valued, but simply as a shade for coffee trees, between rows of which it was planted. When in bloom the banana plantation is a sight of beauty, the buds and blossoms being gigantic affairs. In Cuba the fruit is reared with exceptional pride. The Spaniards used to regard the banana as a forbidden fruit, because they believed they detected in its heart the transverse section of the cross. Unique Entertainment at Strathroy.

(Special to the ADVERTISER.) STRATHROY, Aug. 23 .- Under the auspices of All Saints' Roman Catholic Church : grand picnic, World's Fair exhibition and open air concert was held Wednesday and Thursday of this week on the grounds of Mr. Healey, Quality Hill. For variety and elaborateness this was the most remarkable affair ever held here. The programme began each day at 1:15 p.m. Games of all kinds, from a merry-go-round to a lawn tennis match; retreshments of all descriptions, from a dish of ice cream to a grand supper; music of every sort, from the solo to the full orchestra and band, were there for the amusement of the public. The special features of the evening were a balloon ascension by Prof. Maug, of Port Huron, Mich.; stereopticon views of the World's Fair: double dissolving views of the Ferris Wheel, and scenes from the life of Christ. "Rosedale," the residence of Mr. James Healey, was for two days a place of bustle and gaiety.

Daring Attempt at Robbery. A daring attempt was made between 1 and 2 o'clock this morning to burglarize the residence of Mr. Robert D. B. Nicholson, Dundas street, between William and Maitland streets. That the attempt was unsuccessful is due to the plucky resistance of the servant girl, whose room the would-be burglar entered. He effected an entrance by placing a ladder against the back kitchen and climbing through a window. Then he groped his way into the servant girl's room, and the noise awakened her. At first she thought one of the household had come to call her, but when she became more fully awake she realized that a strange man was in the room, and she screamed lustily for help. The man then sprang at her and endeavored to gag her with a handkerchief. She resisted stoutly, and the tumult awoke Mr. Nicholson. The marander then decamped-by way of the second story window—it is supposed. Mr. Nicholson sent in an alarm to the pelice station and a patrol and posse were soon on the spot. They covered the ground thoroughly, but the bird had flown. The man left the handkerchief behind him. The police kept the matter quiet, but the public might as well understand that these dangerous characters are in town and act accordingly. Several attempted entries have been made of late and the city appears to be overrun with tramps.

"Well, well, my dear, I did not mean by you. It was Boyd's fault, and your aunt's, and—and altogether I seemed to have no voice in the matter; I had no choice. Your sisters, when they came in, were quite as-tonished to find that I had been prevailed on to consent — they thought it quite un-wise; and though I wish that you had not had all the trouble of making ready — look-

"Do you not understand?" pursued Mrs. Boscawen, with a touch of irritation. "Aunt Caroline," murmured Mattie, for on this rock she had built her security;

"what would - she - say?"
"Adelaide will explain it to her. Both your sisters think that I ought not to be left alone on such a doleful evening; they will show that it was natural I should not think of my own comfort," said the invalid, with the complacency of one who considered her-self irreproachable in that respect; "and you are so young, no one would expect you to be as thoughtful for me as the two who have been more at home, and know what a poor, boken-down creature I am, — broken down in every way. Even this wind tries my nerves almost more than I can bear," putting her hand to her forehead.

Twice her auditor essayed to speak, and twice the trembling lips refused their office; but at length a low sound caught the parent's ear. "Well?" she said,

"Mamma -"Well, my dear, well? What is it? I

'Let me go this once." Mrs. Boscawen started. This was, in plain terms, more than she had bargained for; it had been hitherto so easy to govern and direct this child, that the idea of the child ever suggesting, far less insisting on, a thing for itself, had never for a moment entered any one's head.
"What did you say?" she inquired incredulously. "Let me go this once, if you please, mamma."

"That I shall not," said her mother, with asperity.

"Dear mamma --- " The eyes were swimming, and one large drop slipped from the lash on which it hung, and stole down the cheek. No more could be spoken at

"Fie, Mattie! To cry for this! To make so much of such a paltry sacrifice! I am really hurt; it is the last thing I should have expected. Many a sick parent has to urge her children to leave her side for the sake of their own health, but mine require to be bidden to stay with me. "Just this once. Dear mamma, don't speak like that; you know I like to sit with you, and read to you, and play to you, and you know I never did think it any sacrifice,

- but tonight, I want - oh, I want to go."
"Why should you want to go? What is there about an ordinary dinner-party to make it an object of desire to any one? I am not going: and though, of course, I should like as well as others to do as they do, and take part in what they enjoy, you do not see me making a fuss and complaining that I cannot.'

If you would allow me --"I will not allow you. After this, after your showing so much persistency and selfwill in the matter, I should consider myself quite to blame if I gave way. Now you need not stand there any longer. I am not going to have any contention on the matter; it is for me to decide on such a point, and your duty is to obey without hesitation. Go at once and take off your things.'

"Really, Mattie, I could not have believed it of you. I desire you to go, and you stand as still as a stone! I never would have thought that you, of all people, would be the one to whom I should have to speak twice. I shall say no more, but I am much disappointed by the way in which you have behaved tonight

Then Mattie left. Mcs. Boscawen had seldom in her life been so peremptory with any one. She was, as has before been hinted, a feeble-minded, characterless person, who was seldom in-terested in much beyond her own petty comforts or complaints, - timid by nature, yet jealous of maintaining such power over the family and household as she could by any means keep within her grasp. She was neither ur ind nor inordinately selfish; provided it c no effort, she could agree to a request charfully, and listen to an account with patience; but the moment an adverse wind blew, she yielded to its blast-she was at the mercy of any dominant power.

It had been distasteful to her beyond measure to find that there had been passages - scenes between the cousins, whereof she had known nothing. A deprivation of this sort was precisely what she could smart under; and, moreover, the consciousness of not having herself behaved with strict integrity, of having been evasive and timorous during the interview with the elder sisters, had found vent in an extra display of peevish authority when she had been called on anew to face the younger. They should not, one and all, set her at naught as they had done; she would have one at least under her maternal sway; and though Adelaide and Julia had as usual made this sway their cat's-paw, Mattie could not know, she flattered herself, that they had done so. (Mattie, we may be allowed to suspect, knew very well; but that is not to our purpose.)

And then Mrs. Boscawen was really vexed by what she had heard. Sir Frederick might, of course, had he so chosen, have sought an alliance with his Scottish cousins; it would have been perhaps satisfactory if he had done so. But since nothing of the kind had ever been attempted, and since, up to the present time, they had all got on so amicably together, it was really too tiresome of Mattie, a chit of a schoolgirl, to come home and introduce an element of discord between the sober house-holds. What did she know of Fred in three months? Adelaide and Julia had been intimate with him for years, had stayed at his hunting-box, where Lady Turner presided during the spring months, and met him every night in town for several seasons, yet to them he was only an escort, a goodhumored, influential cousin, good for tickets to shows and fetes - a man whom they liked to be seen with, but whom they had not the smallest ambition to be with unless they were seen. They tried to believe that he admired them and was proud of them;

ance and manners when he was present. At least, however, he should not amuse himself with Mattie. He had never attempted anything of the sort with either of the grown-up Miss Boscawens, and they had no idea of his paying their sister the dubious compliment of gallantry that meant nothing. If there lurked a secret twinge of but there was sufficient uncertainty on the point to provoke effort, to make them more than ordinary particular as to their appear-

Jealousy at her having attracted an attention, even a passing attention, which their charms had failed to inspire, at least the fair prudes did not themselves suspect as much. They felt that they had done the right thing as to the point now at issue, and attired themselves for the evening with the attired themselves for the evening, with the peaceful consciousness that the desired end had been attained. "But we need not say anything to your father," observed Mrs. Boscawen, to the first who came down after the interview above narrated.

It chanced to be Julia — Julia in ruffles and flounces, ribbons and jewels, more ample, fuller blown than ever; and as she ample, fuller blown than ever; and as she spoke, the mother surveyed the finery doubtfully. Mattie had looked different.

To be sure, what suited Mattie would hardly have been the thing for Julia; and the smooth a marble statue, dumb and motionless. perhaps calculated to set off the maturer form of robust five and twenty. There was so much of this particular five and twenty, moreover, — such a neck and bust, and arms and shoulders, that the fully trimmed, festooned, and rustling train could not be said to be superabundant; but neverthe less, the effect was not so pleasing as it ought to have been. Had necessity compelled the mother to desire that it and all its accessories should be doffed, it is certain that she would not have ejaculated that "looking so nice, too," which escaped ere she was aware, when passing the decree upon her youngest.

Among the pains and aches cured with marvelous rapidity with Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil is earache. The young are especially subject to it, and the desirability of this Oil as a family remedy is enhanced by the fact that it is admirably adapted not only to the above ailment, but also to the hurts, disorders of the bowels, and affections of the threat, to which the young are specially subject.

A Wonderful Cure.-Mr. David Smith, Coe Hill, Ont., writes: "For the benefit of others I wish to say a few words about Northrop & Lyman's Vege-TABLE DISCOVERY. About a year ago I sore on my lips, was bad with dyspepsia, constipation and general debility. I tried almost every conceivable remedy, outwardly and inwardly, to cure the sore but all to no purpose. I had often thought of trying Northrop & Lyman's VEGETABLE DIS- it varies in different parts of the empire COVERY, so I got a bottle and when I had used about one half the sore showed evident signs of healing. By the time that bottle was done it had about disappeared and my general health was improving fast. I was always of a very bilious habit and had used quinine and lemon juice with very little affect. But since using three bottles of the VEGETABLE DISCOVERY the biliousness is entirely gone and my general health is excellent. I am 60 years old. Parties using it should continue it for some time after they think they are cured. It is by far the best health restorer I know." 3

Jottings From Glamas, Bruce County. The progress of this part of Ontario during the past 40 years is wonderful. Previous settlers, were scattered over the whole peninsula. Now every acre is owned, settled and tilled for some useful purpose. Postoffices and villages are found every three or four miles apart, and as an evidence of success and indomitable perseverance we have cleared farms; commodious brick houses and evidences of prosperity are everywhere. The original settlers are leaving a heritage to their sons and daugh ters which no other county in the world can possible.

The grasshoppers are playing havoc with the turnips and other green crops. Cattle are suffering, the grass being bare and dry, and have to be fed extra on many farms. Last week large shipments of cattle were forwarded from this district to the Toronto cattle market, and from there to Liverpool. Prices realized were very low indeed, 31c to 4c per pound for live weight, one shipper making only the same price as he paid, after keeping them over a year. H. Cargill, the Dominion member for South Bruce, is nearly a "Pullman" in miniature. He owns and operates a fine flour mill, saw mill, sash and door factory, employes several hundred hands all the year round, owns some 10,000 acres of swamp and bush land. Cargill village is nearly supported by his industry. He has built nice houses for his men which he thinks Gibbons' Toothache Gum is the best rents at a low rate, and a large hall for church services and public meetings. Cargill is a fine man socially and a great favorite generally, ready to assist and help there in need, but "the shanty men" who labor and toil to build up his fortune complain that they are provided with "spungy pork" in the winter. General reports predict his political demise at the coming Dominion election. He promised to vote against the duty on binder twine and failed. He promised to vote in the interest of temperance, but "bolted" when the question came up in the House so that no amount of promises or even paying $50 at a bazar for a quilt worth $5 will not save him from defeat at the next Dominion election.

The cheese factories were well sustained at the beginning of the season, but recently the quantity of milk sent to the factories is about half, while the quality is not so good. Harvesting operations are nearly over, the crops have all been gathered in splendid condition, and farmers will realize a full average crop.

The Moon's Influence Upon the weather is accepted by some as real, by others it is disputed. The moon never attracts corns from the tender, aching spot. Putnam's Painless Corn Extractor removes the most paintul corn in three days. This great remedy makes no sore spots, doesn't go fooling around a man's took a very severe cough, had a virulent foot, but gets to business at once, and effects a cure. Don't be imposed upon by substitutes and imitations. Get "Putnam's," and no other.

The chih, the Chinese standard of measurement, is 14.1 inches at treaty ports, but ranging from 9 to 16 inches. The name "milliner" really means "Milaner," the first hat trimmers in England, having been ladies from Milan, Italy.

ine won't do any harm-too little may. Use too much, and you only waste it, that's all. But use too little, and it's only a bit better than none at all. You'll have to work harder, and you'll have to rub-and then the wear and tear begins. It's this rubbing, and this wear, and this work that Pearline, if properly used, takes away.

Use it just as directed on less, and you'll get the best results. You needn't try to improve upon it. You can't.

Castoria.

"Castoria is an excellent medicine for children. Mothers have repeatedly told me of its good effect upon their children."

DR. G. C. OSGOOD. Lowell, Mass.

"Castoria is the best remedy for children of which I am acquainted. I hope the day is not far distant when mothers will consider the real interest of their children, and use Castoria instead of the various quack nostrums which are destroying their loved ones, by forcing opium, morphine, soothing syrup and other hurtful agents down their throats, thereby sending them to premature graves."

DR. J. F. KINCHELOE,

Castoria.

"Castoria is so well adapted to children that I recommend it assuperior to any prescription

H. A. ARCHER, M. D. 111 Sc. Oxford St., Brooklyn, N. Y.

"Our physicians in the children's department have spoken highly of their experience in their outside practice with Castoria, and although we only have among our medical supplies what is known as regular products, yet we are free to confess that the merits of Castoria has won us to look with favor upon it." -The Western Fair Board, Capt. A. W Porte presiding, unanimously decided that the Free Press attack on Col. Leys was unjust and untruthful. But our contemporary returns to the attack today. -The Goderich Signal, in an account o the London trainmen's excursion to that place, has this to say: "In the evening two bicycle races were held on the square for prizes. In the one mile race Curran was first, with Hillier second and Bates third. In the two mile run Hillier was winner, with Curran and Bates second and third respectively. The feature of the day was the playing of the Hussar Band, which was much appreciated by both townspeople and excursionists. The band is a first-class one, and with its fine appearance does credit to the city of London. -A young man named Rose, a boarder at 213 Bathurst street, got slightly intoxicated on Tuesday afternoon and went home. The keeper of the house refused him admittance, and a little row occurred. Rose finally got inside, and running up-stairs said he had something there to fix the proprietor. P. C. Sir John was surprised and pleased at the rapid time made. He was further agreeably surprised when he saw an exhibition of rapid hitching at the central hall later, when the horses were hitched in eight seconds. Sir John admitted that it beat anything he ever saw in old London. The party left on the C. P. R. evening train for Toronto, and thence to Winnipeg and Vancouver. A Printer's Funeral.

The tug-of-war resulted in a victory for the team from Court Lambeth. The Sons of England Band furnished music for the afternoon. Court Lamboth is to be congratulated on the success of their first pienic, which more than ever confirms the reputation they have of being hustlers at whatever they undertake. The starters for the races were Bros. William Sadler and John Doyle; judges, Bros. E. S. Hunt, John Hooper and Thos. Kennedy. The other members of the committee were Bros. A. M. Hunt, C. W. Dingman, H. B. Smith and Alex. Bannatyne.
