

BIG QUESTIONS FOR ORANGEMEN

Grand Lodge at Its Meeting In London Will Discuss Some Very Important Matters.

FIGHT AGAINST TORONTO

Too Many Men From the Queen City Now Hold Offices in the Order.

Preparations for the annual convention of the Orange Grand Lodge of Western Ontario, which will be held here on March 13 and 14, are being rapidly completed. A few details have yet to be arranged, but in the main everything has been made ready.

It is expected that the sessions will develop some interesting discourses. The tenor of the discourse, the Manitoba boundaries extension, a uniform marriage law, the Nationalist movement in Quebec, and home rule for Ireland will be dealt with. Resolutions on all these subjects are being prepared.

In addition there will be the annual business of the order. During the year considerable routine work accumulated and this will have to be disposed of.

Against Toronto.

The election of officers may enliven the proceedings. Some of the district lodges, Bruce County and others, for instance, have been passing resolutions against the Toronto members of the organization, claiming that the majority of officeholders live in the Queen City, and the business is largely transacted from that quarter. Some of the others think that the Toronto brethren are inclined to pass resolutions needlessly and get them into trouble, and often ridicule. A demand will be made to have some of the offices filled by men more representative of the feeling of Western Ontario.

The Toronto lodges have been warning that something of this kind is in the wind, and will come up in large numbers to prevent any possibility of their power being lessened. The latter expect to win out in the convention.

A Public Meeting.

On Wednesday night there will be a public meeting in the Auditorium. The local committee have arranged for many prominent speakers to be on hand, and they will discuss questions of importance to the order.

Among those invited are Hon. Samuel Hughes, minister of militia; Dr. Sproule, speaker of the House of Commons; Harry Lovelock, grand master for Western Ontario; E. T. Essery, K. C., past grand master and other prominent politicians. It is certain that Col. Sam. Hughes will be present, and the others are expected.

Mr. Harry Lovelock, grand master, has been in the city for some days, making arrangements for the entertainment of the members of the order.

"We expect to have a large attendance, possibly 500 or more," he said. "Toronto will attend in a big delegation, and we expect all the Orange lodges in Western Ontario to be well represented. We have a great deal of business to be transacted, and I presume there will be discussions on the many subjects to be disposed of. I can not say exactly what will come up, but the Black Knights of Ireland will hold a session on Tuesday evening. Dr. Turner, of Orangeville, is expected to prepare the material to be presented at the meeting on Wednesday morning."

Major Graham will attend the session, and will extend the freedom of the city to the visitors.

The local committee, composed of Messrs. Geo. Loney, Jos. Murray, E. J. Luck, E. T. Essery, K. C., W. Walker, and others, are endeavoring to give the visiting brethren a royal time.

WILL HOLD A FIELD GRAIN COMPETITION

East Middlesex Agricultural Society Have Decided To Do So.

At the meeting of the East Middlesex Agricultural Society, held on Saturday afternoon, it was decided to hold a field grain competition this year. The grain decided upon was white oats. Five acres must be sown, and the prize winners must exhibit one bushel of grain and one sheaf at the Western Fair in September next. These competitions always create a deep interest and it is expected that a large number of farmers will enter.

The delegate to the Industrial Exhibition, Mr. James Wheaton, submitted his report.

Mr. William Moore, vice-president of the society, occupied the chair, and the following directors were present: Messrs. D. G. Talbot, E. Douglas, R. O. McEwen, Marshall Dickey and Secretary James Wheaton.

HOME RULE BILL ON APRIL TENTH

Premier Asquith Says It Is Most Important Measure of Session.

[Canadian Press.] London, March 11.—The home rule bill for Ireland is to be introduced into the House of Commons on April 9, or 10. Premier Asquith made this definite statement in the House of Commons this afternoon, adding that the bill is always intended and contemplated by the bill. I have always thought this bill, having regard to its magnitude and importance, should be brought in at the beginning of the session, and it ought to be produced under conditions which will insure adequate parliamentary discussion.

SPOKE AT MILVERTON.

[Special to The Advertiser.] Milverton, March 11.—Mr. William Gibson, of the Empire Avenue Methodist Church, London, was here yesterday and gave special addresses in connection with missionary Sunday. His addresses were heard by large congregations and liberal responses were made at both services.

STEAMER FOREST CITY SOLD FOR $33,500 TO A LONDON MAN

Mr. R. C. Eckert, Acting In Behalf of a Syndicate, Made Purchase on Saturday.

The steamer Forest City, together with the dock and fixtures at Port Stanley, was sold on Saturday afternoon by the mortgagees, by public auction to Mr. R. C. Eckert, of this city, for the sum of $33,500. Mr. A. M. Hunt conducted the sale.

For two years the vessel has been lying between Cleveland and Port Stanley. A stock company financed the proposition, and it was thought that the Forest City was making money. The

TORONTO WANTS TO SECURE OFFICES

Will Be a Big Battle at Convention of Woodmen of the World.

LONDON NOW HAS THEM

Western Delegates Will Have to Fight to Keep the Queen City Men in Their Places.

The removal of the head offices of the Woodmen of the World from London to Toronto will be the cause of a big battle when the head camp of the organization meets in Toronto on March 20.

For some years the Toronto Woodmen have been working to get control of the order. Two years ago, when the camp in London a strong effort was made to carry the convention, but it was not a success, and the Western Ontario delegates retained control.

Word has been received, however, that at this convention every effort will be made to move the head camp to Toronto. This move will be opposed, and in consequence a big battle will result. It can scarcely be judged at this distance what the outcome will be.

The Officers.

Not much change in the personnel of the officers is anticipated. Dr. W. S. Harrison, Toronto, is head camp commander, and his election will be unopposed.

Ex-Alderman J. H. Saunders is head camp clerk, and his reappointment is conceded. Mr. Charles Jarvis, of this city, is head camp clerk, and his work for the past two years has been highly satisfactory. No candidate to oppose him has been mentioned so far.

It is expected that a large number of delegates from London will be in attendance. There are quite a number employed in the head camp here, and a big battle will be put up to keep it in London.

WRECK VICTIMS ARE BOTH DOING WELL

E. W. Pike and R. L. Stevens, Injured at Varney, Will Both Recover.

[Special to The Advertiser.] Mount Forest, March 11.—Ernest W. Pike, of London, who sustained a fractured collarbone and two broken ribs in the recent Grand Trunk wreck at Varney, is doing well, and is improving in the local hospital. Mr. Pike rests well, and the physicians hope that he will be able to be removed to his home shortly.

R. L. Stevens, the Strathroy traveler, who is suffering from internal injuries and injuries to his spine, is progressing very favorably, and the attending physicians are now satisfied that he will recover, although he will be laid up for a long time.

MARRIAGE BILL HEARING HAS BEEN POSTPONED

Will Not Be Argued Before the Supreme Court Until the May Term.

[Special to The Advertiser.] Ottawa, March 11.—The Government's intention to introduce the marriage bill before the supreme court this morning, it did not get far, as the opening of the sitting, Chief Justice Sir Charles Fitzpatrick announced that the case would not be taken up until the May term. This opens May 7.

There was a small number of legal talent present. Some of the lawyers were there for business, and more to see what was going on. Among them was Mr. Lan- caster, the father of the bill.

There was just one indication given of the course the case will take, for Alvin Goddard, K. C., representing the province of Quebec, stated that he proposed to contend that the legislation was outside the jurisdiction of the Dominion Parliament.

The Dominion this morning was represented by three eminent lawyers, Wallace Robit, K. C., Eugene Lafleur, K. C., and B. L. Newcombe, K. C., deputy minister of justice. They will defend the right of the Dominion Parliament to enact the legislation.

Other counsel present were: J. P. Helliwell, K. C., Quebec; and B. King, K. C., Montreal. Quebec was represented by Alvin Goddard, K. C., and R. C. Smith, Montreal, and Auguste Lemay.

At the opening of the court, Mr. Newcombe set the ball rolling by launching an attack on the case.

The chief justice said that there was no need to go on as the court had decided not to take up the case until the May term. Before that time the counsel should prepare facts, and exchange them at least ten days before the opening of the case.

FOR CHURCH UNION.

Montreal, March 11.—The vote taken in MacVicar Memorial Presbyterian Church on church union shows 111 for, and 84 against. A number voted in the negative, expressing themselves in favor of a scheme of federation. Over fifty per cent. of the members did not trouble to vote.

MINERS' FAMILIES FIGHTING FAMINE

Starvation Has Commenced In the Mold District of Wales.

[Special to The Advertiser.] Hamilton, March 11.—J. Grant Henderson, industrial commissioner of Hamilton since last June, placed his resignation in the hands of the board of control today to take effect immediately, and it was accepted. He has signed a contract to go to London as publicity commissioner at a salary of $2,500 the first year, and $3,000 the second year. He received a salary of $1,500 here.

When asked why he was leaving, Mr. Henderson said:

"For various reasons. One of them is that I shall receive an increase in salary of $1,000. I will also be given a free hand over my department. There are other reasons which I do not care to discuss."

In his letter of resignation Mr. Henderson says there are no matters beyond his department, "but which can be handled by letter."

This is a barb of sarcasm for the board of control, which recently refused to let him go away after a couple of big industries, advising him to write a letter.

"I am sick and tired of hearing the board advise me to write letters instead of making personal visits," he said, "and I am just handing it back to them in a mild way."

Disappointed in Hamilton. It is a well-known fact that Mr.

The beginning of the new week sees the coal strike no nearer settlement. Optimists expect much from this week's conferences, but the overwhelming opinion is that the South Wales strike will continue another month.

The miners of Northumberland and Derbyshire are still determined to give in to nothing less than the minimum wage. Meanwhile the industrial upheaval grows from bad to worse. The leading railroads are further reducing their service this week. Trains in the districts of Northumberland and Cumberland have ceased running. Railroads in the east, west and north-west are almost stopped. Half the staff is suspended and the other half working only three days a week.

In the Mold district families are starving. Looting has begun, and the stealing of tame pigeons and raids on potato pits are common.

London storekeepers will further increase prices of bread, butter and all foodstuffs today.

A mass meeting of railwaymen arranged to take place at Trafalgar Square yesterday was prohibited by the police.

LONDON YOUTH WINS CASE AGAINST RAILWAY

Albert Crookford Awarded $1,500 Damages for the Loss of a Foot.

[Canadian Press.] Toronto, March 11.—Chief Justice Pritchard this morning handed out judgment awarding Albert Crookford, a London youth, $1,500 damages in his action against the Grand Trunk Railway. The case was tried before a jury in London yesterday. Crookford, who was employed to work the locomotives, and saw they were properly on the turntable at the London roundhouse, had his foot crushed while working on the turntable last June 20. It was found necessary to amputate it. He sued for damages on the ground that the turntable was defective and caused the accident.

BROKE THROUGH ICE WALKING ON RIVER

Mr. Ed. Land, of 21 Victor Street, Had a Most Unpleasant Experience.

Mr. Ed. Land, of 21 Victor street, South London, had a very unpleasant experience Sunday afternoon, while walking on the river near Woodland Cemetery, when the ice suddenly broke beneath him, precipitating him into the water.

Fortunately the ice held firm close about him, and Mr. Charles Anderson, who was in the party, was able to pull him to safety. The water is very deep at the point where the accident occurred, but Mr. Land was able to support himself on the ice until given assistance.

POLICE FOUND ROBE AFTER A LONG HUNT

Charles Meyers, Second-Hand Man, Said He Bought It for 60 Cents.

Charles Meyers, a Dundas street second-hand dealer, who was in police court a few days ago, charged with breach of the regulations in not keeping a record of his business done, found his horse had its leg broken, and the same neglect when he was before Police Magistrate Judd this morning, to explain why he had not secured possession of a buffalo robe belonging to Adolphus Fitzmaurice.

The robe was thrown over a horse and left for a time on the street a few days ago. In the meantime the horse turned up at the point where the robe was found, covering possibly dropped to the ground. It could not be found, and the detectives finally succeeded in locating it in Meyers' establishment.

He said that he had purchased the robe from a young man named Armstrong, of Queen's street, and that he had paid for it in his possession for a couple of years, Meyers claimed.

Meyers' explanation resulted in an information being sworn out charging Armstrong with the theft of the robe. The case will be concluded on Wednesday morning.

A disturbance is now moving towards the Great Lakes from the west, while an area of high, with low temperature, is spreading quickly southward from the Western Provinces.

HAMILTON MAN WAS NAMED PUBLICITY AGENT FOR LONDON

Mr. J. Grant Henderson Appointed at a Meeting Held on Saturday Night—Was Drawing $1,500 a Year In Hamilton, and Begins Here With $2,500.

TYRCONNELL PASTOR FATALLY INJURED

Rev. George Elliott Hurdled From Cutter and Kicked By Horse.

[Special to The Advertiser.] Tyrconnell, March 12.—Rev. George Elliott, rector of St. Peter's Church, Tyrconnell, died at his home here yesterday, as a result of being injured in a recent accident. While making his rounds through the country during the stormy weather his cutter upset, owing to the terrible condition of the roads. Mr. Elliott was thrown out, and before he could extricate himself the horse kicked him in the stomach. Mr. Elliott never rallied from the injuries he received. The funeral will be held on Tuesday afternoon, and will be conducted by Bishop Williams of London.

THINKS COUNTY WOULD GIVE SITE FOR HALL

County Engineer Talbot Believes South End of Court House Square Is Available.

County Engineer Charles Talbot stated today that he believed it was possible at the present time for the City of London to secure a free site for a new city hall from the Middlesex council.

"The county council was prepared to come more than half way in the matter," Mr. Talbot explained. "Unfortunately the city did not give the county a chance to make a bargain. I am of the opinion that an arrangement can be arrived at today if the city is willing to open negotiations. The county could conveniently let the city have the south end of the square, and the city might do something to show its appreciation in return. It is altogether a misapprehension that the councillors are against doing anything for the City of London."

REAL ESTATERS ARE GREATLY DISAPPOINTED

Thought Immigration Office Was Coming to London.

Farmers and local manufacturers who were expecting that an immigration depot would be established here are greatly disappointed to learn that there is a big chance that nothing will be done.

Already the Real Estate men, who have had the project in hand, have had many letters and telephone inquiries both from manufacturers and farmers, and they are taking the matter up again with Mayor Beattie and Hon. Robert Rogers and urging upon them the necessity of doing something to relieve the scarcity of help all through this district.

The Real Estate men's original plan was to have a depot established in London at which immigrants and farmers and manufacturers could apply, with a man in charge who would know all the wants of both parties, and where to put his hand on help when it was needed, or where to send immigrants looking for places. The association will again urge that something along this line be done.

MUCH OPPOSITION TO PRINCESS AVE.

Proposal to Close the Street at Richmond St. as a City Hall Site.

POSITION OF COUNCIL. It Would Appear That His Worship Will Not Be Able to Muster a Majority of Aldermen.

A special meeting of the city council has been called by Mayor Graham for this afternoon at 4:30 o'clock to discuss the closing of Princess Avenue, between St. Peter's school and the Christian Science Church, for city hall purposes, and there promises to be a lively debate on the question.

His worship explains that he is calling the meeting to pass a bylaw to be submitted to the Legislature for approval. "This site is one that is being considered," said Mayor Graham. "The Legislature is in session, and we can receive authority to close the street, so that it can be utilized later on if the council so decide. We are taking this step merely to expedite matters."

However, the result will probably be that this portion of the city will not be selected as a site. A majority of the aldermen have already gone on record as opposed to the suggestion, and will vote against it when the matter comes before the council this afternoon.

Are Against It.

Ald. Coles, chairman of the special city hall committee, is of the opinion that it is unwise to build the hall on the site selected. In addition, he declares that the committee should have been consulted before any action was taken by the mayor in this regard.

"I am opposed to the site in any event," said Ald. Coles. "I will never vote for it. I object to the park being used for such purposes. We should not interfere with the breathing spots in London. I will never consent to that site being selected. The committee have never expressed an opinion on a site, and the members should have been consulted before the meeting was called."

"I do not think much of that site," said Ald. Robinson. "It does not meet with my ideas of a proper site for the hall."

Too Far North.

"I am not favorable to it at all," said Ald. Richter. "It is too far north in the first place. I do not think it necessary to go to the Legislature to close a street. The council now have power to close it if good and sufficient reasons are advanced for the step. On principle, I am opposed to going to the Provincial House to have everything ratified to shut off any opposition. I will not be at the meeting this afternoon, but I am opposed to that site."

"I have not considered the matter," said Ald. Moore. "I have not yet made up my mind."

"The site is merely one of many to be considered," said Ald. Wright. "We intend to expedite matters, so that if it is selected, we will not be delayed by the necessity of securing legislation."

"I will not vote for that site," said Ald. Asplund. "It is not the proper one, to my mind."

"There are plenty of better sites than that," was Ald. Spittal's opinion.

"I do not think anything of that location," declared Ald. Blandford.

"It is a good site, but I have nothing to say for publication at the present time," said Ald. Murphy.

"I am not in favor of that site at all," said Ald. Johnston.

Ald. Bennett is out of the city, and could not be seen. A close friend of his stated that he was not in favor of placing the new hall in the park, or near it.

Ald. Rose could not be reached, and his opinion could not be learned.

Law suit Threatened.

It would be necessary to utilize a portion of the site for a driveway, if it was decided to place the hall at the intersection of these streets, and much opposition will be raised to this action. In fact, one gentleman stated that an injunction would be issued should the city attempt to take an inch of the park for city hall purposes, directly or indirectly.

"The land was decided by the Queen for park purposes," said this citizen. "We have few enough breathing spots at the present time, without taking away what we have. There will be a suit entered if the council attempts to utilize even a portion of the park."

OPERATOR MISSING

Blamed For the Fatal Wreck on the C. P. R. at Ottawa.

Ottawa, March 11.—Harry Bost, the telegrapher, upon whom the Canadian Pacific Railway placed the blame for the fatal train wreck at Hull, has got away to the States. Trace has been lost of him at Tupper Lake, N. Y. He drew money from the bank immediately after the crash, hired a rig and drove to Russell station, on the New York and Ottawa line, and took a ticket to Cornwall. There he bought a ticket to Tupper Lake, after which there is just now no trace of him.

The missing man sent a letter to his mother by the man who drove him to Russell from Hull. It was addressed to her at Pakenham, Ont., stating he was responsible for a wreck which had killed three people and feared punishment for it.

CRUMLIN FARM HOUSE DESTROYED BY FIRE

Home of Mr. Wm. C. Smith Wiped Out—Aged Lady Seriously Affected.

The two-story frame residence, together with furnishings and clothing of the family of Mr. William C. Smith, of Crumlin, was destroyed by fire on Saturday afternoon, the loss being in the neighborhood of $1,200.

The house originated from an overheated stovepipe, and soon spread through the place, despite the efforts of a bucket brigade. The family is now at the residence of Mr. Smith's brother-in-law, Mr. James Gray, 845 Hellebush avenue.

Mrs. Gray, mother of Mr. James Gray, was visiting at Crumlin at the time and was so seriously affected that she was placed under the care of a physician.

The family were taken in by a neighbor, Mr. Stevenson, until it was possible to bring them to the city. They are very grateful to their neighbors, all of whom did all in their power to help them under the circumstances.

HOUSE SURGEON ILL WITH SEPTIC POISONING

Capt. Stephens, of Victoria Hospital, in a Rather Serious Condition.

Capt. Dr. Harry J. Stephens, one of the house surgeons at Victoria Hospital, is recovering from an attack of septic poisoning, which developed in his arm as a result of a bruise inflicted with an instrument with which an operation had been performed.

The accident occurred about two weeks ago and since that time Dr. Stephens has been in a pretty serious condition. Two operations were performed upon him, and the surgeons in attendance have now succeeded in localizing the infection.

Two London physicians have been particularly fortunate in recovering from this disease within the last couple of weeks. Ex-Alderman W. J. Stevenson also suffered an attack following an operation which he performed at Victoria Hospital. In the great majority of cases septic poisoning proves fatal.

Dr. Stephens is well known as a lake captain, having been master of the Forest City, running between Port Stanley and Cleveland last season.

DIED AGED 80 YEARS

Mrs. Sarah Lemon-Robinson Passed Away in Victoria Hospital.

Mrs. Sarah Lemon-Robinson, widow of Mr. Elliot Lemon, died this morning at Victoria Hospital in the 80th year. Mrs. Lemon-Robinson formerly resided in Michigan, but a short time ago removed to London, where she had since then made her home with her only daughter, Mrs. Burgess, of 55 Stanley street, South London.

The funeral will be held tomorrow morning at 1 o'clock from the undertaking parlors of Griffith & White, to Mount Brydges Cemetery. Rev. Richard Whiting, of First Methodist Church, will conduct the services.

SEVEN PERISH IN WINNIPEG FIRE

Section of Building Blown Out During Conflagration In a Warehouse.

THE WORK OF A FIREBUG

Two of the Firemen and Five Spectators Were Buried in the Ruins

The Killed.
E. MOLYNEUX, fireman.
CHARLES McPHERSON, fireman.
WALTER ROWLEY, teamster.
LEO J. BLUETTE, spectator.
CLARENCE CHAPMAN, aged 12.
CLARENCE WINKER, employee of C. P. R.
J. CONNOLLY, C. P. R. employee.

Winnipeg, March 11.—Seven persons are dead, one or more seriously fatally injured, and a number suffered more or less serious injuries as the result of an explosion which followed an outbreak of fire in the rear of the Bradford-Wright Company, limited, wholesale cash and door factory, 776 Main street, shortly after ten o'clock Saturday night.

Captain Dewitt and six of his men of fire hall No. 3 were training hose on the back of the building where the fire, supposed to be the work of an incendiary, had started in a lean-to annex, when without warning the back wall and the great doors opening on a spur track were blown out, the little party going down in wreck and ruin which caught and overwhelmed several spectators and passers-by. "I was standing in the street, directing operations," said Captain Dewitt, "and had a miraculous escape. McPherson and Molyneux being killed at my feet, while not a man else of my squad escaped uninjured. Tons of brick and doors fell around us. The men were caught without a chance to escape."

Passerby Caught.
McPherson, whose father lives in Edinburgh, Scotland, was aged 29, and had been three years in the department. Molyneux, who had but recently joined, was aged 24, and a native of Lisnakeary, County Kerry, Ireland. Of the other fatalities, Bluet, aged 28, of Napanee, Ont., and engaged to a Winnipeg girl, was passing when caught by the explosion. Rowley was assisting the firemen. Winker, aged 21, was a son of Mr. and Mrs. P. Winker, of 577 Strathcona street, this city, having been born in North Dakota, and for three years past had been in the employ of the Canadian Pacific Railway dining car department, recently being promoted to the secretaryship of the head of the department. Standing on the platform on top of the building, a glass roof covering the train shed, watching the blaze, which lay just below him just north of the subway on Main street, he stepped forward through the glass to his death on the pavement below. Connolly, a Canadian Pacific Railway employee, appears to have been struck by a falling wire on top of a subway. A boy, Clarence Chapman, whose parents live at 299 Patrick street, was found this afternoon after the smoke had cleared away, dead, among the ruins.

A big crowd, gathered when the alarm went in, but for the most part massed about the entrance to the subway in front of the building, which is situated between the International Harvester Company's building on the south on corner of Main and Sutherland, and the Stuard Machinery Company.

Smoke was issuing from the lean-to at the back, but until the explosion came, the firemen seemed to have the situation under control.

For a time it was a question whether the adjoining buildings could be saved, but the stout firewalls proved

BOURASSA SLAMS QUEBEC MINISTERS

A Great Nationalist Mass Meeting Hisses Monk and Pelletier.

SAYS RACE BETRAYED

In Impassioned Address Declares the French-Canadian Must Fight For Separate Schools All Over.

Montreal, March 10.—The inalienable rights of minorities in all parts of Canada to have separate schools, was the message sent forth in the form of a resolution, unanimously adopted at a mass meeting of French-Canadians held last night at the Monument National.

Although the opening speakers declared that the gathering was not to be one of protest, and that there were to be no tirades against ministers or members of the House, who have as yet not seen fit to fall out with the Government over its views in the matter of the Keewatin bill, Henri Bourassa, the chief orator of the evening, took strong exception to the attitude of the Hon. Messrs. Monk, Pelletier and Nantel, in regard to the question at issue.

There was a huge crowd present, and the attacks upon the Government, "which was about to betray the rights of the French-Canadian minority," caused a constant uproar of applause. The mention of the name Monk, Pelletier or Nantel brought storms of hooting, until finally Mr. Bourassa arose and stated that it would be well to withhold such violence against the bill had passed its third reading, and the final attitude of the ministers in question had been more fully debated and explained.

Mr. Armand Lavergne also spoke. The meeting was typical of the Nationalist cult. Scores and scores of priests in their robes of office, hundreds of pupils from the religious schools, the students of Laval and extreme Ultramontane element from all over the province packed the huge building to the very doors. At no time in the history of the Nationalist movement was the alliance between Mr. Bourassa and the Catholic Church so manifest as at Saturday's meeting. The church dignitaries came out openly to hear and approve of their mouthpieces in the slave in the separate schools in Keewatin.

The address of Mr. Bourassa was typical of the Nationalist leader. For three hours he gave vent to sneers, to bitter denunciations, and appeals to racial and religious prejudice, until at last the huge audience came under the spell of his eloquence and thundered forth their approval of his sentiments.

Monk Hissed.
In his speech he stated that he had never insulted Laurier. This statement caused even the partisan audience to gasp, but Mr. Bourassa continued as unconcerned as if he had made a commonplace remark regarding the weather. His mention of Mr. Monk brought forth hisses. "Stop!" cried the speaker. "Wait until next week before you hiss," intimating that there might shortly be a change of front by the Minister of Public Works. Mr. Pelletier, the postmaster-general, came in for the most of Mr. Bourassa's sneers. Mr. Pelletier owed his election to Mr. Bourassa and Mr. Lavergne, and his subsequent elevation of cabinet rank came as a result of their solicitation. That he had seen fit to oppose their wishes now was sufficient to place him among the enemies of the Catholic Church and the French race. "Mr. Pelletier has mixed the Manitoba and Keewatin school questions. They should not be mixed, but kept separate. He is the only politician who has mixed these two questions, and his action in so doing was evidently done for a purpose."

French Language and Rights.
Even in his denunciation of Pelletier and Monk he was far less violent than when he appealed to the French race to preserve their language and religion and to fight for their rights. "What is the use of being faithful for 150 years to the British crown, and then when the word of honor given by Blake and Brown, by Mackenzie and Macdonald, and is trampling on the rights given to the minority in 1869, chapter 82, of the revised statutes gives separate schools to the minority in the Northwest, and if we violate that law we are dishonoring the crown and breaking the word of the fathers of Confederation. But," thundered Bourassa in one of his flights of oratory, "in 1905 we refused to stand for the muzzling of the Reds, and now do not let the Blues muzzle you."

Referring again to the rights of the minority, Mr. Bourassa painted a picture of the poor, down-trodden handful of French-Canadian Catholics of Keewatin stretching out their hands in an appeal for aid. In a fever of excitement he shouted: "I tell you it is a crime to deprive the minority of Keewatin of their rights, and I warn them that before long their power will be stripped from them. I have denounced Laurier for far less than this, and I do not intend to take from the Conservative party worse insults and baser treatment than anything Laurier ever gave to us."

In his plea for the French-Canadians to fight for their rights, Mr. Bourassa said: "I do not know what rough-shod over the rights of the minority, we will never give up the fight. We will always claim for the minority of Keewatin the rights we have yielded until this question is settled according to right principles." Continuing, Mr. Bourassa disapproved of the Government's haste. He pointed out that Galt delayed Confederation five years owing to his determination to safeguard the rights of the Protestant minority in Quebec. "Men like Galt, Brown and Mackenzie were true to their pledges, but I cannot say that of the present Government. I even wish George Brown could come back to earth. He was narrow-minded, but he was honest and true to his convictions, and worked for them like a man."

After a tirade against the English-speaking papers of Ontario, Mr. Bour-assa tried to defend bilingual schools in Ontario, only to appeal again to the passions and prejudices of his hearers. "The English sneer at us, but we are honest if we are poor. We do not steal the bread from our neighbors as they do. But," added Mr. Bourassa in conclusion, "we cannot expect the English to fight our battles and defend our rights. It is up to us to start a campaign and wage such a war that no person shall dare to deny us our rights."

Mr. C. H. Cahan.
Following the three-hour harangue of Mr. Bourassa, Mr. C. H. Cahan gave an equally fiery address. His speech was just as full of sedition and racial appeals as that of his fellow-Nationalist.

The last speech was given by Armand Lavergne, but as it was nearly midnight he only made a few remarks along the lines that the question must be settled now, and settled right.

Laurier Blamed.
Somewhat of a sensation was caused by Mr. C. H. Cahan, who declared that if the rights of the minority were about to be violated the French-Canadians had only themselves to blame for it was Laurier, who, by the Greenway precedent, had inserted the thin edge of the wedge, yet they had ever since continued to give him magnificent support at the polls.

BERLIN A CITY
Is Making Application For a Charter and Will Separate From County.

[Special to The Advertiser.]
Berlin, March 11.—The county and town councils have held three meetings to arrange for the terms of Berlin's separation from Waterloo County, and as yet have not arrived at an agreement. The negotiations are being keenly conducted, and it is possible that the question will go to arbitration. The town's share of the administration of the House of Refuge is being disputed, but it is expected that an agreement will be reached next Friday, following which Berlin will make application for a city charter.

GIRL FLYER KILLED.
Paris, March 10.—Suzanne Bernard, a 19-year-old girl, who was qualifying at Etampes today in a third test for an air pilot's license, fell with her biplane a distance of sixty yards and was horribly crushed. She died in ten minutes afterwards.

The young woman had gone through the first two tests in the most successful manner. She showed such impetuosity in these tests that her companions urged her to be more prudent and to always make the turns to the left. She disregarded this advice and in addition to steering carelessly made the turn to the right.

The machine turned turtle and fell to the ground like a stone. She took up aviation last September.

Spring Showing of Room Rugs

Over 720 Different Designs

Fashion has spoken very strongly on the subject of floor coverings, and the decree has gone forth that rugs are au-fait. Not since our Rug Department has opened have we shown such a large and well-assorted stock.

Our assortment includes the best product of such world-famed looms as Crossley, Templeton and Humphries. The patterns "strike the eye" and lose none of their charm of coloring and design on long acquaintance. The high quality of materials and construction imparts the greatest durability of dye and fabrics.

Persian, Two-tone and Floral effects for the drawing-room; Dainty Louis XIV. designs for reception rooms, while Oriental and Conventional Designs are in demand for living and dining-rooms. For the bedroom there are soft shades of rose, blue, gray and green, in trellis and other small designs.

Our full spring line is complete, and intending purchasers will do well by making selections now.

Experience in rug buying is not necessary at SMALLMAN & INGRAM'S. We guarantee every rug we sell, and our salesmen are scrupulously exact in representing the qualities and characteristics of the goods they are selling.

OTTAWA WOMEN SEEK FAIRER TREATMENT

Married Women Who Are Ratepayers Want to Vote On Municipal Affairs.

Ottawa, March 9.—It appears to be the feeling of members of the Ottawa local council that married women, who are ratepayers, are not being treated fairly by the city.

Myra F. Cox, president of the Equal Suffrage Association, and Florence H. Edgar, have written Mayor Hopewell on their behalf. They state "that the city of Ottawa has forwarded to the Legislature a resolution in favor of removing the disqualification resting on the married women of Ontario regarding the exercise of the municipal franchise in respect of their own property or income during the lifetime of their husbands, a franchise which they are entitled to exercise before marriage and after they become widows."

The ladies claim there is a feeling in Ottawa that this disqualification is unfair to women, and express the hope that the Ottawa city council will take the same course the Toronto city council has taken. The local association asks them to send a resolution to the Legislature similar to the one the Toronto city council has sent that body.

INSTANTLY KILLED

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Detroit, March 11.—Archibald Smith, aged 3, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Smith, of Windsor, was instantly killed in Hudson's department store here when his head was caught between the floor and the elevator as he was with his mother, who was shopping. After crushing the lad the car went on up and he fell 100 feet down the shaft.

FATALLY INJURED

Young Athlete Was Run Over by a Train in Yards at Windsor.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Windsor, March 10.—The second railway accident to occur here within twenty-four hours happened yesterday, when Homer Wilson, aged 20, a switchman in the Canadian Pacific yards, was run over and injured so seriously that he died in a hotel a few hours later. Wilson slipped, and fell directly in front of a train of freight cars which was backing into the yards. His left arm was severed and his left leg so badly crushed that he did not survive the operation at the Hotel Dieu, where he was removed immediately after the accident. As an athlete and long distance runner Wilson was well-known. His father, J. W. Wilson, is yardmaster for the company here.

TURKS CAPTURE ITALIAN RAILWAY

An Advanced Post of Invaders at Tripoli Retaken by Enemy.

London, March 11.—A Constantinople dispatch to the Chronicle says the Turks have captured the Italian railway, telegraph and telephone material at Ain Zara. This was the advanced post of the Italians captured by them some weeks ago.

QUEEN MOTHER'S HEALTH

Her Slow Recovery From Influenza Causing Some Uneasiness.

London, March 11.—Queen Alexandra is making a slow recovery from her attack of influenza and this is causing some uneasiness. As soon as she is able to travel she will go to a warmer climate. Empress Eugenie has repeatedly offered the Queen-Mother the use of her villa at Cap Martin.

Na-Dru-Co Dyspepsia Tablets

Quickly Put Disordered Stomachs Right

It's a revelation to the chronic dyspeptic to feel no discomfort after a hearty meal, when that meal is followed by one Na-Dru-Co Dyspepsia Tablet. He is hardly prepared for the almost magic relief which the tablet gives him from the various discomforts to which he is accustomed after eating. Na-Dru-Co Dyspepsia Tablets sweeten stomachs that are sour—relieve stomachs that feel as if a stone had been swallowed—stop heartburn—and give the needed assistance to stomachs that are weakened.

Containing in themselves the active principle needed for digesting every kind of food, Na-Dru-Co Dyspepsia Tablets enable even the weakest stomachs to get the good out of what is eaten, preventing the accumulation of undigested food and gas. With a little help for a while, the digestive organs recover their strength, do their work properly, and your troubles are over. Don't go on suffering! Get a box of Na-Dru-Co Dyspepsia Tablets from your druggist today. National Drug and Chemical Co. of Canada, Limited, Montreal.

LONDON, MONDAY, MARCH 11.

WHOSE OX IS GORED NOW?

Mr. Bourassa harangued a great crowd at Montreal Saturday night in his characteristic vein. It was a frank appeal to racial and religious feeling, directed chiefly against the Borden Government, with side thrusts at Sir Wilfrid Laurier as the author of the "outrage" to be perpetrated in New Manitoba by his successors.

Mr. C. H. Cahan, K.C., the former Conservative leader in the Nova Scotia Legislature, who seems to constitute in his own person the English wing of the Nationalist party, put upon Sir Wilfrid Laurier the chief responsibility for the oppression of the French-Canadian race. Laurier, he said, betrayed his compatriots in 1896, and they had themselves to blame, because they continued to give him magnificent majorities.

Bourassa, Cahan, and Lavergne were the chief assets of the Conservative party in Quebec in the federal election. Without their aid the Borden Government today would not have a comfortable working majority. Their friendship was courted by the Conservative leaders. They were the heroes of the Ontario Conservative press. Every Quebec supporter of Borden in the House of Commons, excepting the few English Conservative members from that province, asked and received the support of Bourassa and Lavergne, and won his election on a race and creed cry. When Bourassa and Lavergne thundered against Laurier as a traitor to French-Canadian rights, they spread delight and joy through the ranks of his enemies in the English provinces. When they denounced the Laurier naval law as the wedge of conscription, and terrified the simple habitant, by the picture of his sons being torn from home to be disembowelled on British ships by German snipers in this province, clapped their hands in glee.

Today the Borden Government's chickens are coming home to roost with a vengeance. Bourassa and Lavergne are turning on the government with the weapons they used against Laurier. The English Conservatives who cheered them on in September are now reviling them as mischief-making agitators. They were statesmen and patriots so long as they were making mischief for Laurier. The boot is on the other foot today.

STAY IN ONTARIO.

There are just now particular reasons against the Ontario man's going west to farm. It becomes month by month more glaringly apparent that the defeat of reciprocity is a heavy setback to the prairie country. It means depression of prices for western produce so long as the American market is closed. Opportunity came, and she is bald behind. The west is tied down to a European market and a narrow outlet through Eastern Canada.

Of course the prairie region will go on growing through its own momentum from vast productivity. Good crops will still be profitable, even if the price of wheat remains from 10 to 15 cents a bushel lower than in the United States. The profit will be due in part to the cheapness of the land; the land will have to be cheaper as an inducement. To Europeans and Americans needing land the west will still be a magnet. But it does not seem probable that the west can go on increasing at the expense of the older provinces which are so much nearer to the great markets and have an urban population of their own consuming to some extent their produce.

Some day the Hudson Bay route will help the west, the Pacific may be crossed by ships bearing grain to markets of the future in Asia, but just now the eastern farmer may well keep hold of the bird in the hand. "Stay in Ontario" is the best advice to a young farmer today. The west is for the present bottled up.

WHERE RICH CANADIANS GO.

Professor Macphail writes in the current number of the University Magazine of a tendency shown by rich or ambitious Canadians to make their home in England. For a dozen different reasons colonists of confident ability or with means to retire gravitate towards the centre.

In England the rich Canadian finds scope both for his energies and for his purse. His wife and daughters dream like Jacob of a ladder up to the throne with dukes, or knights at least, descending thereon. Any intelligent colonial, or American for that matter, likes to spend some time in the historic land of his forefathers, and if he can afford it, he says to himself "why not stay right there, in the light of the past, of present culture, of royalty?" The Derby, Oxford, Manchester, Stratford, Ayr, Inverness, Edinburgh, Killarny, or Tyrone has each its special attraction for this or that type of colonial.

Perhaps, however, the greatest opportunity to the ambitious or wealthy adventurer is the seat in Parliament, with all that it implies. It is well known that money can buy this dignity. The party system in Great Britain subordinates the constituency's choice of candidates very largely to central dictation. The indorsement of the national committee is necessary to a nomination. This system places many seats at the absolute disposal of the central machine, and while there are drawbacks such as the exclusion of brilliant, but independent men like Harold Cox, from the House of Commons, the party is enabled to pay for merit and money employed in its service. It is by virtue of this system that some Canadian plutocrats have been breaking into the British Parliament.

Perhaps the money which the Aitkens and Martins "spend like gentlemen," and the immense contributions made to John Bull's full purse by the rank and file of Canadian and American tourists, will amount to a Dreadnought or two per annum and be quite as useful to all parties concerned. Certainly the rich Canadian has the boyish fun and renewed adventure in proceeding from victor in one world to the conquest of another.

Amundsen found a new species of bird in the Antarctic. No doubt it will soon be on the ladies' hats.

The School of Journalism at Columbia University, endowed by Pulitzer, has been opened. The best school for the apt pupil will continue to be a newspaper office.

The Windsor Record is in error in crediting this paragraph to The Advertiser: "If the Nationalists want to be canonized by the Liberal press they have only to vote with Laurier." This sounds more like our local contemporary.

Mr. C. H. Cahan, K.C., advises the French-Canadians to band together in politics, a course that their wisest leaders warn them against. Mr. Cahan is not a French-Canadian and Anglo-Canadians cannot be particularly proud of him.

"The London (Ont.) Advertiser thinks the window-smashing of the London (Eng.) suffragets is illogical. Another case of whose ox is gored? We'll bet if it was the Advertiser's plate glass front that had been peppered, its editor would shed some of his philosophy."—Simcoe Reformer.

Why? Think of the news value of such an incident.

Mr. Lancaster, M.P. of Lincoln, boasted a week ago that he had made 39 appointments in his riding since the change of Government, and would make many more. He is keeping his word. The axe has just fallen on 52 Welland Canal employees in his riding. Under the new rule, a member of Parliament has only to ask cabinet ministers for dismissals and the request is granted.

Mr. Lancaster is the hero of the spoils brigade of his party. Other members will be urged to emulate him. The country is in for an orgy of this kind, presided over by a prime minister who posed as a civil service reformer.

WINGHAM RUNAWAY

Monaghan Brothers Had a Close Call From Being Seriously Injured.

[Special to The Advertiser.]—Wingham, Ont., March 11.—Monaghan brothers had a close call from being badly injured while out driving yesterday, when their horse became frightened. Both were hurled from the rig when the animal was dashing wildly down the street. It swerved and the rig crashed into a telegraph pole. The harness broke and the horse got away. Monaghan brothers were unhurt beyond a very severe shaking up. Their vehicle was badly damaged.

After an absence of 30 years, Rev. Mr. Sawyer, of Toronto, preached in the local Baptist Church yesterday at both the morning and evening services. Rev. J. V. Collins, pastor of the church, also assisted in the services. During the evening service a duet sung by Miss Furey and Mrs. Beatty, was rendered most acceptably.

Mrs. C. L. Burns, who was so terribly burned recently when her dress caught fire as she was emptying ashes, is progressing very favorably in the local hospital and the physicians are certain of her recovery.

TRISTRAM DEAD

His Views on Remarriage of Divorcedes Attracted Wide Attention.

London, March 11.—Chancellor Thomas H. Tristram, of the Dioceses of London, Hereford, Ripon, Worcester and Gloucester, and commissary general of the Diocese and City of Canterbury, is dead. He was born in 1825. He was the author of a treatise on "Contentious Probate Practice in the High Court of Justice."

Chancellor Tristram's views on the remarriage of divorcedes attracted wide attention in England. The chancellor maintained that neither ecclesiastical law nor precedent entitled him to place any obstacles in the way of the remarriage of the innocent party to a divorce.

TO FOLLOW HIS HAT

Oyster Bay, N. Y., March 11.—Col. Roosevelt has decided to follow his hat into the ring, and not leave the Roosevelt shouters to the actual fighting, while he issues statements. He will probably begin his tour very shortly, so no one need wait until after the Chicago convention for the red fire, brass bands and bustling "local committee," so dear to the hearts of the old campaigners.

Mr. Roosevelt has been urged for several weeks to get into the fight in person. Governor Stubbs, of Kansas, one of the original Roosevelt governors, was so anxious about it that he sent a dispatch on Friday saying that all the boom needed with the colonel on the stump in Kansas, Illinois and Massachusetts. Maybe President Taft's Toledo speech had something to do with the colonel's decision that he would have to get out and show himself to the people. The preferential primary for presidential candidates will probably be the main theme of Roosevelt's discourses, although it is understood that he will have some things to say about the "unfair tactics" employed by the administration campaign managers.

FIFTY PERSONS WERE CONVERTED

Large Congregations Heard Rev. Dr. Yeuell in First Congregational Church.

RECORD CROWD, Y.M.C.A. CLEARINGS TAKE JUMP

There Will Be No Meeting Tonight—Sermons Will Be Resumed on Tuesday Night.

Large congregations attended yesterday's meetings at the First Congregational Church, and Evangelist Yeuell conducted a number of successful services. The morning sermon was on the rebuilding of the walls of Jerusalem, 445 B. C., and in the evening he preached on "A Night in Babylon." In both addresses, the evangelist's dramatic power was given full scope, and the congregations were thrilled with his eloquence.

During the day, upwards of fifty persons openly confessed conversion. A feature of the meeting was the large attendance of men. Not only were there a great many men at the evening service, when the church was crowded, but there was a record attendance at the mass meeting in the Y. M. C. A. In the afternoon, Dr. Yeuell giving a splendid address on Simon Peter and Judas Iscariot.

The illustrations were magnificent, and the enjoyment was enhanced by the pleasing gospel singing of Miss Roth.

Special young people's services were also conducted by Dr. Yeuell in the afternoon, large gatherings being held at both the First Congregational Church and the Dundas Street Christian Church.

This week promises to be the greatest if not the last of the series. Tonight there will be no meetings. The evangelist will resume his series tomorrow evening at the First Congregational Church, where he will give his sermon, "Why Is the Unpardonable Sin Unpardonable?"

Dr. Yeuell preached another of his unique sermons Friday evening on "The Creed for Everybody," from Matthew, xvi, 16.

The martyr, President Lincoln, being asked why he did not join some church, as he was a deeply religious man, replied that he would when he found a church with a creed simple enough. This shows that one great and good man at least considered creed complexity an obstacle; and therefore the subject is worthy of careful study. The creed of the primitive church was simple, declared Dr. Yeuell, consisting of but one article, and that one article being the conviction of the mind and heart and will with reference to the one divine person, "Thou art the Christ, the Son of the Living God." Study the forming of the first churching by the preaching and teaching of the inspired apostles, as delineated in the Acts of the Apostles, and you will find in each case that the acceptance of this creed or person was the first condition.

Creeds grew up in ages when all thought tended to complexity and philosophical distinction. They were well meant efforts to preserve vital truth, wrought out by the great men, but the wisest men in all denominations now see that they fail to accomplish the intended objects; hence these creeds are not emphasized today, and all alike are emphasizing the simple creed of Christ. In the present day agitation for Christian union, said Dr. Yeuell, there is a closer coming to the divine creed as the basis of union. Dr. Yeuell gave a beautiful illustration of religious harmonizing of our age by reference to sound-bendings in the great dome of the Taj Mahal, near Agra, India.

In his prelude to the sermon, Dr. Yeuell referred to disturbed conditions in Great Britain, and greatly interested all, declaring that all such disturbances can be rightly settled only on the basis of the Christian principles and spirit.

BOENER NOT GUILTY.

Chicago, Ill., March 9.—Wm. J. Boener, former organizer of the Chicago Typographical Union, No. 16, was found not guilty of murdering Rush V. Denon, a non-union printer.

Denon was assaulted on Jan. 16, 1911, and died of a fractured skull. "Chicago Jack" Daly and six other men confessed to committing the assault. Daly declared Boener hired him to slay Denon.

Other non-union men who had refused to join the union.

You May Have Catarrh and Not Know It

HEAD AND THROAT BECOME DISEASED WITH CATARRH FROM NEGLECTING COLDS AND COUGHS.

Catarrh is Treacherous—When Fully Developed is a Horror—Note Its Symptoms.

"Is your breath bad?"
"Is your throat sore?"
"Do you cough at night?"
"Is your voice raspy?"
"Does your nose stop up?"
"Have you nasal discharge?"
"Do you spit up phlegm?"
"Is your nose itching?"
"Have you pain across the eyes?"
"Is your throat irritable, weak?"
"Do you sleep with mouth open?"
"Are you subject to sneezing fits?"
"Do your ears roar and buzz?"
"Are you hard of hearing?"

If you have any of these indications of Catarrh, cure the trouble now—stop it before it gets into the lungs or bronchial tubes—then it may be too late. The remedy is "Catarrhazone," a direct, breathable, cure that is successful. There can be no failure with Catarrhazone—for years it has successfully cured cases that resisted other remedies. "No one can know better than I the enormous benefit one gets from the very first day's use of Catarrhazone," writes T. T. Hopkins, of Westvale, P.Q. "I had for years a stubborn case of Bronchial Catarrh, ear noises, headache, sore eyes, stopped-up nose and throat. It affected my appetite and made my breath rank. Catarrhazone cured quickly."

Get Catarrhazone, use it, and you are sure of cure—be sure of cure of Catarrhazone. Large size Catarrhazone, with hard rubber inhaler, lasts two months, and is guaranteed. Price $1.00, at all dealers, or the Catarrhazone Co., Buffalo, N.Y., and Kingston, Ont.

ALL PAPER WAS PROMPTLY MET

London Bankers Well Pleased With the Result of Settling Day.

CLEARINGS TAKE JUMP

London Figures Are 30 Per Cent. Ahead of Those for the Same Week of a Year Ago.

As a result of last week being settling week at the local banks the clearings took an enormous jump, and the figures are 30 per cent. greater than in the same period of 1911.

Local bankers stated to The Advertiser today that collections have never been better than they were this year. "All paper was promptly met," said one manager. "The outlook is for steady development along the lines of the year ago, and with such an immense amount of building to go on, things are bound to be brisk. One of the troubles in sight is going to be the shortage of help. Many factories and wholesalers are already crowded with orders, and the same conditions prevail generally in the country."

For the Week.

THE LEVEL CROSSINGS AS SERMON TEXT

Rev. Mr. Harrison Arraigns Londoners for Not Helping to Wipe Out Evil.

"Wherever a main street in this city crosses a railway track, I would like to inscribe upon it in glowing letters, 'Beware! Beware! This is a Road of Blood!'" said Rev. H. A. B. Harrison, in his sermon Sunday evening before the congregation of the Bishop Cronyn Memorial Church.

Mr. Harrison preached a powerful sermon on "The Good Samaritan," taking as his text, "A certain man went down from Jerusalem to Jericho." On concluding, he dealt with the recent level crossing accidents that have occurred in London and vicinity.

Mr. Harrison referred to the Drake tragedy, which happened only a couple of weeks ago. "Centuries ago," he said, "many dangerous highways were called roads of blood, and with certain facts before me, I think that severe term might be used appropriately today in many parts of the Dominion."

"There are in the city of London itself, roads of blood, and with certain facts before me, I think that severe term might be used appropriately today in many parts of the Dominion."

Pruning the Appendix

What thousands of people are rushed to the hospitals these days with the idea that pruning the appendix will rid them of the cause and effect of wrong habits of eating and living.

We eat too much, take too little outdoor exercise, breathe impure air, and when the system gets loaded with foul impurities, which irritate the digestive system and set up inflammation, we are told that the operating table is the only place for us.

Why not prevent appendicitis, as well as acute indigestion, peritonitis and Bright's disease of the kidneys, by keeping the liver active and the bowels regular. Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills cleanse the digestive system of foul impurities more quickly than any treatment you can obtain. They awaken the liver and insure the healthful action of the kidneys and bowels.

The taste tells—the taste sells

THE power of advertising is wonderful in the selling of merchandise; but did you ever think that advertising could only sell you, for instance, one package of Tillson's Rolled Oats?

If you bought any more Tillson's after you used the first package it would be due not to the advertising but to the excellence of the oats. If the first package did not please you, you would not buy any more, no matter if you saw Tillson's advertising at every turn.

The constant increase in the use of Tillson's Rolled Oats is due to the oats themselves.

The first taste of Tillson's will tell you that they are the most delicious oats you ever ate. It's the taste that tells and the taste that sells.

Housewives like Tillson's for another reason—they are so convenient to prepare. It is a relief to be able to make tasty, digestible porridge with only 15 minutes' cooking.

YOUR grocer has Tillson's. Two sizes—10c and 25c. Each 25c package contains a handsome piece of English Porcelain Tableware.

CANADIAN CEREAL & MILLING CO., Ltd. TORONTO, ONT.

RAISED OATMEAL MUFFINS

Add one-fourth cupful of brown sugar to one cupful hot cooked porridge made with Tillson's Rolled Oats. Add one-fourth teaspoonful of salt, one tablespoonful of butter and one-fourth of a yeast cake dissolved in one-fourth cup of lukewarm water. Mix well, add gradually enough flour so that the dough may be kneaded. It should be moist but capable of kneading. Cover, rise over night. In the morning, mold into small loaves, put in hot greased muffin pans and bake in a moderate oven. This same mixture may be baked in one loaf as bread.

NA-DRU-CO Tasteless Cod Liver Oil Compound

There is no question as to the very high value of Cod Liver Oil, properly prepared and made digestible, as a "builder-up" for convalescents or those who are run-down.

NA-DRU-CO Tasteless Compound contains the valuable properties of the Cod Liver Oil without its disagreeable flavor. In fact, this preparation is decidedly pleasant to the taste. With Extract of Malt, Extract of Wild Cherry, and Hypophosphites of Lime, Soda, Potassium, Manganese and Iron added, it makes a combination that puts an edge on the appetite—stimulates digestion—invigorates the nerves—relieves aches and pains—cures affections of the throat and lungs—and generally builds up strength and restores health.

For puny, delicate children there is probably no better "builder-up" than NA-DRU-CO Tasteless Cod Liver Oil Compound. 102 seem to be occupied with other affairs. We are indifferent about these things. We spend our time discussing the site of the city hall, instead of protecting the lives of our people. At present we are like the priest and the Levite, who passed by on the other side."

In conclusion, Mr. Harrison referred to the parable of the Good Samaritan, and stated that it is the duty of the citizens of London to care for those who fall by the roadside, and to so adjust matters that accidents will be few. As citizens, we should consider it a privilege to protect the lives of our fellow-men.

HAMILTON MAN

The industrial policy, they are the right sort to have behind you."

A Meeting on Saturday.

The appointment of Mr. Henderson as commissioner of industries was made on Saturday night at a private meeting of the manufacturers' committee. His application was received some time ago, and his conditions in Hamilton were not exactly to his liking. He came to London on Saturday to interview the committee.

The meeting was private, the press not being notified. It was decided to engage Mr. Henderson at a salary of $2,500 for the first year, and $3,000 for the next. He agreed to the proposition made him, and signed an agreement to come to London for the money offered. He will be given a free hand, and with $500 expense money for industrial purposes it is expected that he will be in a position to bring many industries to the city.

"We have engaged Mr. Henderson," said Ald. Spittal, chairman of the committee. "You know what he has been doing in Hamilton. They have secured a number of good industries and the city has been prospering. We will give him a free hand in London, and I am confident that he will deliver the goods. He is a bright young fellow, alive to the possibilities of the position. I think we made a mistake in selecting him."

"Mr. Henderson was getting $2,600 a year in Hamilton, not $1,500. Ald. Spittal continued. "We could not get him for anything less than $2,500, and we figured that he was too good a man to lose. He had some difficulty with Mayor Lees in Hamilton, the latter

NUDE DANCER ACCUSED

Acquitted Because Performances Served Higher Interests of Art.

Munich, March 11.—A Parisian nude dancer named Adore Villany was tried here yesterday on a charge of offending public morals by her performance. She was acquitted on the ground that her performances served the highest interests of art. Several eminent artists, including Kaulbach, described her performance as thoroughly artistic and respectable.

Prof. Jeterston, president of the Society of Artists, testified in her favor and expressed the hope that the time would come when an advance in culture would enable the dancer to perform in public instead of privately.

"O, I Can't Eat a Thing!"

You'll Never Say So Again After You Read This and Act On It—Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets Are the Open Secret.

Trial Package Sent Free to Prove It. Thousands of people who didn't really enjoy a meal for years have given their stomach a new lease of life through the little wonder-workers, Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets.

Here It's Noon, and This Man Hates to Think of Lunch, if He Didn't Take Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets He Would Always Be Happy at Mealtime.

Tablets promptly put an end to flatulency, heartburn, dizziness, sick headache, dyspepsia, burning sensation, brash, fermentation and the other ills attendant upon a disordered stomach. Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are composed of pepsin and other natural elements that help out the gastric juices of the stomach. They are Nature's digestives, the same kind the stomach uses when it is in good health. Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets do not merely aid digestion—they actually digest the food themselves. All the hard work is thus taken off the stomach and it gets a chance to rest and recuperate. The undigested food which formerly produced nauseating gases in the stomach becomes thoroughly digested, and as a result provides new brain and brawn and nerve cells to replace natural waste always going on. Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets act quickly, safely and naturally. Just like Nature herself. They are an essential part of the stock of every drug store, and are sold at 50¢ a box. You can get a trial package of them free by writing to F. A. Stuart Company, 150 Stuart building, Marshall, Mich.

By the Herring.

We herring always travel in shoals. That means we go in great, immense crowds. Some shoals are a mile long, and we are packed so close together that you could stand a stick upright between us.

Fishermen never know when we are coming, because our visits are always sudden and uncertain. Herring fishing is done only at night. The darker the night the better is the catch. Sometimes several thousand boats come out to meet us. Each one has a torch on it. Just think how beautiful that must look.

We are small creatures, but we are the most important of all fish. The poorest person can usually afford to buy a herring.

We are often called "the king of the fish," because we furnish food for so many people. Whole nations live on money made by selling us. We last for a long time after we are dried, salted or smoked.

Next time you go to the grocery store, take a peek at the barrel of herring and think of me.

ALD MURPHY KNOWS ALL ABOUT MARKET

Consequently He Will Move to Wipe Out Certain Buildings.

At the next meeting of the market committee Ald. T. J. Murphy is going to move that the fish market, the butter and egg pavilion, and the Covent Garden market building be removed. He will make a strong case for the removal of these places, and will give some instances of certain transactions there that do not meet with his approval. He is advertising for persons who have had unpleasant experiences on the market to report to him. The weight of evidence will be used to back up his argument in favor of removing the buildings.

"Last summer I purchased fifteen bags of potatoes from a man for $1.25 a bag," said Ald. Murphy in explaining his position. "They were to be delivered at my house. They never came, and as a result I am compelled to pay a great deal higher price for my potatoes."

Another instance. Last Christmas I purchased a turkey for 25 cents a pound. It was supposed to weigh 11 pounds, and I paid for that weight. When I got it home, I found that it weighed but 9 pounds, and as a result, I was out 50 cents. I am told that hundreds of cases such as mine are reported. I think it is time that the public had some protection.

Goods are sold under weight and everything of that character is allowed to go unpunished. The public have no protection. Some of the dealers will tell you that the market is a free day, and get considerably more than the real value of the goods offered. I have come to the conclusion that the only way to correct such conditions is to wipe out all the buildings, and then we will have some protection. I am going to propose that at the next meeting of the council."

MILLERS COMPLAIN AGAINST RAILWAYS

Say They Have Been Unfairly Treated in Shipments From Fort William.

Toronto, March 10.—The complaint of Mr. C. B. Watts, on behalf of the Dominion Millers' Association, in regard to the delay of the movement of grain and flour shipped from Fort William and Port Arthur during the months of January, February and March, 1908, was considered yesterday by Chairman Mabee, of the Dominion Railway Board. It was also charged that the Canadian Pacific had given discriminating rates to the advantage of export shipments over domestic shipments.

C. W. Watson, appearing for the Millers' Association, stated that complaints had been made to the company, but, although they had promised no further trouble should occur, the delay and discrimination had been repeated.

Grain ordered from the Grand Trunk Pacific elevators at Fort William had not been shipped for more than two months. He quoted cases where he alleged reduced rates had been given to United States Atlantic points without similar reductions to Canadian points.

Mr. Watts crystallized his complaints into a series of questions, to which he desires the Canadian Pacific Railway to give answers within two or three weeks, so that the board may hear the case when it next sits.

He also desired the board to supply him with details of export contracts made by the railway, with the dates of surrender and shipment. Only through the board could these facts be gleaned.

"If I think the board should order all cars to be used for local shipments, and to have export shipments cease until equity is established," said Mr. Watts. "I am asking the board to rectify these discriminations."

"That has already been done, and it does not seem to me that any further intervention should be made," said Chairman Mabee. Inspector Nixon's investigations show that your complaints were well founded, and I think we should consider what the railway was doing up to ten days ago, so as to prevent a repetition of it."

The question will stand until April 16, when it comes up in Ottawa. In the meantime the Canadian Pacific Railway will supply Mr. Watts with the information he seeks in regard to the export rates and shipments.

CORRESPONDENCE

The Maple Syrup Outlook.

To the Editor of The Advertiser:

Someone with whom the wish is no doubt father to the thought is predicting through your paper a big yield of maple syrup, and low prices, this season, because of the long, cold winter and heavy snowfall. My own observation and experience for some 40 years leads me to conclude that the character of the winter is not so much the factor in promoting a generous sap flow as the weather (frosty nights and warm, sunny days), as winter merges into spring. The season may be very short if spring comes with a rush, which we hope will be the case. Prices should be higher than last year, because cost of living and production are sky high also. If folks persist in all flocking to town to live and enjoy its luxuries, they must pay the price. If some of your readers think maple syrup making is a "snap," let them rent a bush, invest in a building and fancy outfit of apparatus, use an imitation of costly fuel, slave night and day in the wet and snow, pay for expensive help, and deliver over horrible roads, choice, pure syrup up to the new Government standard to pernickety customers, and they will come to the conclusion that $1.40 to $1.50 per gallon for the "product of early runs" is little enough. It is certainly a delicious product for the table, all ready to use, and can be kept a year in jars or tins without being put into cold storage, so people should be willing to pay a fair price for it without grumbling, or else buy at the corner grocery an imitation canned product concocted in some eastern city factory. But, unless such prices can be assured, busy farmers, who should be getting out their year's fuel and attending to valuable live stock, which needs special care at this season, had better cut out the syrup business, leaving it for those of greater leisure who like hard, disagreeable work, and small returns. In conformity with other foods, prices

If the Hair Root Is Not Dead, Do Not Despair

Falling hair means scanty hair, and scanty hair means baldness. The whole trouble is caused by dandruff germs that destroy the natural nourishment that is supplied to the hair root.

PARISIAN SAGE, the scientific hair nourisher, penetrates into the roots of the hair and not only kills
the germs,
but supplies
the hair root with just the kind of nourishment it should have.

If you are getting bald, if your hair is falling, don't wait till too late, but get a bottle of PARISIAN SAGE today.

It is possible to save your hair and prevent baldness if the hair root is not dead.

PARISIAN SAGE is guaranteed to satisfy every user, or money back. It stops falling hair, scalp itch, and banishes dandruff in two weeks. It is a refined hair dressing that puts a radiant lustre into faded, dull hair. Fifty cents at dealers everywhere.

Church will be opened on Sunday,
March 17, when Rev. J. W. Graham, a former London pastor, and who is now secretary of education of the Methodist Church, will preach.

A College Y. W. C. A.

The ladies of Western University are considering the organization of a college Young Women's Christian Association, and it is thought that such a society will be formed next Saturday, when the co-ed. will be addressed at the Normal School by Mrs. Rouse, a prominent Y. W. C. A. worker.

Late Mrs. Tune.

The remains of the late Mrs. James Tune, of 128 York street, who died a few days ago, was buried on Friday afternoon at Woodland Cemetery. The services were conducted at her late residence by Rev. H. H. Bingham, of Talbot Street Baptist Church. Her four sons, C. H. Tune, J. A. Tune and W. A. Tune, of this city, and George
B. Tune, of Stratford, and Fred Soper and D. K. Harper, of Chatham, were the pall-bearers.

When the Lungs Are Weak

To every person with weak lungs or who has a family history with records of consumption, a cough or cold is a serious matter.
Coughs have a tendency to hang on. They irritate the weakened membranes and prevent healing.
There is always the danger that a cold may get a firm foothold and settle on the lungs. It is so easy under these conditions for pneumonia or consumption to develop.

About the surest means of controlling coughs and colds is by the use of Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine. This treatment loosens the cough, allays the irritation and inflammation and thoroughly overcomes the disagreeable symptoms.
The success of this medicine has given rise to many imitations. It is only natural to suppose that the original possesses merit of an unusual degree.

A SPLENDID FIGHT AGAINST WHITE PLAGUE

Infirmary at the Sanatorium Is Crowded, But Accommodation Is To Be Increased.

A regular meeting of the members of the London Health Association was held on Saturday afternoon, at which the reports of Dr. Bruce, superintendent of the Hyron Sanatorium for Con-sumptives, and the visiting nurse who is engaged in London and St. Thomas were received.

The infirmary at the hospital is now crowded to its capacity, but arrangements were made to alleviate the situation. The work of the nurse is developing rapidly, and much good is being done in the fight against the white plague. In St. Thomas efforts were put forward to have a dispensary established in connection with the board of health of that city, but the feeling prevailed there that such a department was unnecessary. The people of St. Thomas were evidently under the impression that the city is in a very healthy condition, but a number of cases of tuberculosis were discovered by the nurse, who assisted the patients to a very great extent.

The Sanatorium is not yet on a self-supporting basis, but is said to be progressing very favorably.
Dr. Guest, of St. Thomas, represented that city at the meeting, while Dr.
Ling, of Dutton, was the delegate from the county of Elgin. These in attendance were Hon. Adam Beck, who presided; Sheriff Cameron, Police Magistrate J. C. Judd, Dr. Tillmann, Dr. Guest, Dr. Ling, and Col. Gar-shore.

The annual meeting of the London
Health Association is to be held on Wednesday, May 1.

PIANO 110 YEARS OLD

MADE INTO SECRETAIRE

A Unique Piece of Furniture In

Window of Heintzman & Co.

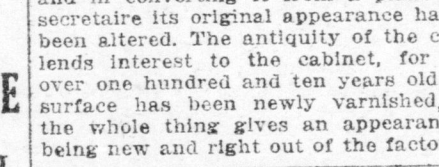

on Dundas Street.

The Heintzman Piano Company have on exhibition at their store on Dundas street an artistic piece of furniture that is attracting much attention. It is an old-fashioned piano that has been made into a secretaire and cabinet combined. The outside casing of the desk remains as it originally was in piano form, and when the top of the desk is down it has the appearance of a piano.

A desk attachment with pigeonholes and the other features of a modern secretaire has replaced the keyboard, while the upper part has been made into a cabinet that can be used for books or china.

The casing of the cabinet is mahogany, and in converting it from a piano to a secretaire its original appearance has not been altered. The antiquity of the casing lends interest to the cabinet, for it is over one hundred and ten years old. The surface has been newly varnished, and the whole thing gives an appearance of being new and right out of the factory.

NUMBER 23 THE PRO

BETTER OPTICAL SERVICE

By The Brown Optical Co.

In every trade, profession or branch of work, there are found a few men, who from special fitness, or education, or both, are better prepared to serve you in their line than the multitude of others in the same field.

Since optometry requires especial ability in both professional and mechanical work, men that are fitted to do both equally well are scarce. Therefore you cannot be too particular about the selection of the man to whom you entrust your eyes.

The professional work—the examining and measuring of your eye defects, must be skillfully and correctly done.
The mechanical part—the making and adjusting of your glasses, is no less important.

Every phase of optical work is thoroughly and intelligently done here. From the first step in the examination to the final adjusting of the frame or mounting not a single thing is overlooked or slighted. We do all the work ourselves, and having had such fine success with most difficult neglected eyes, we do not hesitate to say that we can give you perfect satisfaction.

A visit will incur no obligation.

NO SUCH THING AS A-SELF MADE MAN

Rev. Harper Gary's Powerful
Sermon in the First Presbyterian Church.

DIVES AND LAZARUS

The Story of the Rich and the Poor Brought Home to Londoners on Sunday Night.

At the First Presbyterian Church on Sunday night Rev. Harper Gary, pastor of Old St. Andrew's Church, Toronto, delivered a most impressive sermon on "Poverty and Riches." The story was recited by Luke, the poet-painter of the evangelists. To him the church is indebted for most of the parables, which are told by an artist. The meaning of the parable is often mistaken. For instance, it is not Luke's intention to tell the secrets of the prison house in the other world. The writer used the language of the Jewish underworld of his time. It furnished the drapery, the setting, the scenery of the little drama.

The first portion, or scene of this dramatic story, was in the form of a tableau. The story of a rich man, with mansions, and servants, and all that go to form a luxurious life were told.
Dives never did anything true or noble or great. He was rich. Without the house, blustering in the sun, destitute and in rags, sat the beggars. One of these is given a name, Lazarus. Between the two men there was a great gulf fixed—the extremes of the social scale.

The Social Chasm.

"Does the parable say that there should be no such chasm," asked the speaker. "It does not say that. Even if the greatest dreams of Socialism came true, the lots of men still would not be equal. There would still be a gulf fixed. Dives was not responsible for the social distinction. That was not his sin. His sin was that he never felt the call of his brother's need at his door. He never felt that beneath the rags and poverty at his gate a man's heart beat. The most prominent feature of prosperity is the tendency to grow morally proud. The rich man begins to think that he is worth the prosperity that is his; that there must be some moral defect in the poor man, or he too, would have the same prosperity. He prides himself on what is, after all, accidental. The lots of men are different, but there is not necessarily any moral distinction between the two. God help the self-made man!

There never was such a thing; not even Andrew Carnegie. Accident and chance fall to all men. Every great man, or rich man, is the inheritor of ages, all his ancestors contributing to him the qualities that made him what he is.

Dives and Lazarus.

"Had Dives placed himself in the place of Lazarus, there would have been no need of the second portion of this story. It was the sin of inhumanity. That may be your sin, too.
You are Dives to some Lazarus. There is some person in the world who wants your help and assistance. The gulf can be bridged. The call is at your door. Heed it!"

The second scene was in the Jewish underworld, where all dead go, good and bad alike. There was supposed to be a thin partition between the two.
In this case the thin wall has given way to a chasm. The gulf was present in the first scene, the chasm between the very rich and the very poor.
Lazarus is comforted and Dives is tormented. The judgment of heaven is not the judgment of earth. Dives was tormented because he had the opportunity to show his heart to a brother, to bridge the gulf by kindness and humanity, but he failed to do so. Self must be overcome. That underlies all inhumanity, the greatest of all sins.

A Lonely Soul.

Dives had asked that a ghost return from the dead to persuade his family to repent, but there was no need of a ghostly visitor to tell men of sin. If they heeded not the teachings of Christ they would not be convinced although a man rose from the dead.

Children don't care!

If they did care they would forget!

Wrigley's SPEARMINT
makes it easier for them to care for their teeth than not to care.

If your children chew
it every day, the friction and the mint leaf juice preserve their teeth indefinitely.

While they chew it they also help digestion.
Most children don't chew food properly—don't create enough saliva.
Chewing this dainty helps digest the "gulpings."

And all this applies to was fast from start to finish. Parkhill won, the score being 19 to 9 in their favor.
